Field, Charles Neale, clergyman and founder of 33 Bowdoin st., Boston, Mass., was born July 10, 1849, in England. In 1904 he was appointed provincial superior of the society of St. John the evangelist in America.

Field, Cortlandt de Peyster, merchant and philanthropist of 127 Water st., New York City, was born Dec. 28, 1839, in New York City. He gave the public library to Peekskill, N.Y. He founded and endowed the Field home for the aged in Westchester county, N.Y.

Field, Edward, public official and author of Hartford, Conn., was born Oct. 4, 1858, in Providence, R.I. He has been record commissioner of the city of Providence, R.I. He is the author of The Colonial Taverns and other works.

Field, Elisha C., railroad official of 608 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 9, 1842, in Porter county, Indiana. He is vice-president of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railroad.

Field, Frederic Griswold, retired merchant and banker of North Springfield, Vt., was born Jan. 1, 1842, in Springfield, Vt. In 1864-1904 he was engaged in mercantile business in North Springfield; and since 1899 has been president of the First National bank of Springfield. He has served three terms as a representative and one term as a member of the state senate. He has been inspector of finance; and is a trustee of the Springfield public library.

Field, Frank Harvey, lawyer of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Aug. 17, 1863, in Chicago, Ill. He is a director of the Williamsburgh trust company manufacturers' association.

Field, Henry Francis, banker of Rutland, Vt., was born Oct. 8, 1843, in Brandon, Vt. He is president of the Rutland County National bank.

Field, Herbert Haviland, biologist of Zurich, Switzerland, was born April 25, 1868, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is director of councilman bibliographicum at Zurich, Switzerland.

Field, Jesse Southwick, lawyer of Prescott, Wis., was born Oct. 3, 1862, in River Falls, Wis. He has been district attorney of his county.

Field, John A., banker of Centralia, Wash., was born in Illinois. He is president of the banking firm of Field and Lease.

Field, John S., capitalist of 220 South State st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 14, 1847, in Beloit, Wis. In 1867 he entered the employ of Sweet and Crouch, ice dealers of Chicago. In 1885 he was made vice-president and general manager of the Knickerbocker Ice company; in 1898 he became president; and when the Consumers' company was organized, he was made chairman.

Field, Roswell Martin, journalist and author of 4700 Beacon st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 1, 1851, in St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of The Romance of An Old Fool and other works.

Field, Scott, soldier, educator and lawyer and statesman of Calvert, Texas, was born in 1848, in Mississippi. He served in the civil war. He has been county attorney. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress.

Field, Walter Taylor, editor and artist of 2301 Prairie ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 21, 1861, in Galesburg, Ill. Since 1890 he has been connected with the publishing house of Ginn and company. He is the author of Rome and other works.

Field, Wells Laflin, naval officer of Bennington, Vt., was born Jan. 31, 1846, in St. Louis, Mo. He served in the United States navy and attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Field, Zibeon Chapman, banker of 17 Walnut st., Milford, Mass., was born Dec. 25, 1831, in Paris, Maine. He is president of the Milford Savings bank.

Fielder, Frank Sidney, physician of 1 West Eighty-first st., New York City, was born in 1866 in Dansville, N.Y. He has been assistant surgeon in the United States navy.

Fielder, George B., soldier and statesman of Jersey City, N.J., was born July 24, 1842, in Jersey City, N.J. He served in the civil war. He has been register of the county of Hudson. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Fielder, William, educator, clergyman and college president of Guthrie, Okla., was born Oct. 13, 1852, in England. He has been presiding elder at Minneapolis, Minn. He has been president of the Fort Worth university of Texas.

Fields, Mrs. Annie Adams, author and poet of 148 Charles st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1834, in Massachusetts. She is the author of A Shelf of Old Books and other works.

Fiero, James Newton, lawyer and author of 100 State st., Albany, N.Y., was born May 23, 1847, in Saugerties, N.Y. He has been president of the New York State bar association. He is the author of Special Actions and other works.

Fiester, Simon Forrester, educator and poet of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 17, 1855 in Williamsport, Pa. He is a government clerk in the interior department in Washington, D.C. He has contributed both prose and verse to the periodical press.

Fifer, Joseph W., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Bloomington, Ill., was born Oct. 28, 1840, in Staunton, Va. He served in the civil war. In 1889-93 he was governor of Illinois.

Fifield, Benjamin F., lawyer of Montpelier, Vt., was born Nov. 18, 1832, in Orange. Since 1869 he has been connected with the Central Vermont railroad.

Fillebrown, Charles Bowden, manufacturer and political economist of 77 Summer st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 26, 1842, in Winthrop, Maine. He has been president and manager of the Glenark Knitting company at Woonsocket, R.I.

Fillebrown, Thomas, dentist of Portland, Maine, was born Jan. 15, 1836, in Winthrop, Maine. In 1877 he became professor of oral surgery in Portland, Maine.

Filler, Mervin G., educator of Carlisle, Pa., was born Oct. 9, 1873, in Boiling Springs, Pa. Since 1899 he has been professor of Latin in Dickinson college.

Filley, Chauncey Ives, capitalist of 4109 Westminster place, St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 17, 1829, in Lansingburg, N.Y. He has been a member of the firm of E. A. and S. R. Filley; and has been mayor of his city.

Filley, John Dwight, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 21, 1853, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the St. Louis Union Trust company.

Finch, Edward Ridley, lawyer and statesman of New York City, was born Nov. 15, 1873, in New York City. In 1901-04 he was a representative in the New York state legislature. He is a writer and lecturer on Municipal Government.

Finch, Herbert L., electrical engineer and banker of Lebanon, Kan., was born Sept. 12, 1875, in Fort Anna, N.Y. He is president of the Lebanon State bank.

Finch, John A., mine operator of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, was born May 12, 1854, in England. He purchased and developed several mines in Coeur d'Alene mining region of Northern Idaho.

Finch, John Miles, lawyer, railway official and banker of 30 Canisteo st., Hornell, N.Y., was born Jan. 29, 1841, in Hornell, N.Y. He has been general land and tax agent for the Erie Railway company. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Finch, John Wellington, geologist and mine manager of Goldfield, Nevada, was born Nov. 3, 1873, in Lebanon, N.Y. He is general manager of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company and various corporations.

Finch, Will Lewis, banker and commercial secretary of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born July 27, 1866, in Indian Hill, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Cincinnati, Harrison and Indianapolis Traction company.

Finck, Edward Bertrand, lawyer and author of Louisville, Ky., was born Oct. 16, 1870, in Louisville, Ky. He was educated at Allmond's university school; and at the Louisville law school. He is a successful attorney-at-law of Louisville, Ky. Under the nom de plume of Bert Finck he is author of Pebbles, Webs, Plays, Musings, and Pastels, all works of a philosophical and poetic nature.

Finck, Henry Theophilus, journalist and author of 485 Manhattan Ave., New York City, was born Sept. 22, 1854, in Bethel, Mo. He is the author of Wagner and other Musicians and other works.

Finckel, Martin L., capitalist of 5614 Germantown ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1842, in Germantown, Pa. He is president of the Ivy Hill Cemetery company and other corporations.

Findlay, George Irving, educator of Colorado Springs, Colo., was born July 9, 1876, in Ulster county, N.Y. Since 1901 he has been assistant geologist of the United States geological survey.

Findley, David Edward, lawyer and statesman of Fort Smith, Ark., was born Feb. 28, 1861, in Trenton, Ark. He has been a member of congress.

Findley, Thomas Maskell, educator, clergyman and college president of Spicer, Minn., was born Sept. 29, 1847, in West Mahoning, Pa. He has been president of the university of Southern Dakota. Since 1898 he has been pastor-at-large of St. Cloud presbytery.

Fine, Henry Burchard, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Sept. 14, 1858, in Chambersburg, Pa. He is professor of mathematics and dean of the faculty at Princeton. He is the author of The Number System of Algebra.

Finegan, Thomas Edward, educator and author of Albany, N.Y., was born in West Fulton, N.Y. He has been a teacher and school commissioner; and in 1892 became state superintendent of public instruction. He is a trustee of the state normal college; and the author of a text-book.

Fink, Bruce, educator, botanist and author of Oxford, Ohio, was born Dec. 22, 1862, in Kane county, Ill. He has been head president of the Iowa academy. He is the author of Ecology and Taxonomy of Lichens and other works.

Fink, Charles E., lawyer and capitalist of Westminster, Md., was born May 21, 1853, in Abbottstown, Pa. He is a director of the Fidelity and Deposit company.

Fink, David Nicholas, banker of Muskogee, Okla., was born Aug. 4, 1868, in Sidney, Ohio. He followed the retail hardware business for ten years, traveled for the Simmons Hardware company of St. Louis, and for twelve years has been engaged in banking. He is now president of the Commercial National bank of Muskogee, president of the Bankers' Trust company and vice-president of the Haskell National bank of Oklahoma; and a director of various banks and industrial corporations. He has been a member of the Muskogee board of education, and is a trustee of the hospital association.

Fink, Ellis, lawyer and jurist of Winfield,

Kan., was born Jan. 29, 1881, in Mansfield, Ohio. He is probate judge of his county.

Fink, Evert Scott, broker of 115 Broadway, New York City, was born May 5, 1873, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is president of the Celtic Avenue Realty company.

Fink, Henry, railroad president of 27 William st., New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1831, in Germany. In 1896 he became president of the Norfolk and Western railroad.

Finke, William F., educator, clergyman and college president of Charles City, Iowa, was born Jan. 8, 1859, in St. Croix county, Wis. Since 1903 he has been dean of the faculty of Charles City college of Iowa.

Finkel, Benjamin Franklin, educator, mathematician and author of 1227 Clay st., Springfield, Mo., was born July 5, 1865, in Fairfield county, Ohio. He has been superintendent of schools at North Lewisburg, Ohio. Since 1895 he has been professor of mathematics at the Drury college. He is the author of Mathematical Solution Book and other works.

Finkelson, John Milton, secretary-treasurer of 1747 Dayton ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born Oct. 15, 1884, in Northfield, Minn. He was yard manager of the Lehigh Valley Coal company and other corporations. He is now chief clerk for the M. A. Hanna Dock company; secretary-treasurer of the St. Paul national guard association; and first lieutenant and battalion-adjutant in the first infantry of the Minnesota national guard.

Finlay, George Irving, educator, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born July 9, 1876, in Ulster county, N.Y. Since 1901 he has been assistant geologist in the United States geological survey. He is the author of monographs on geology.

Finletter, Thomas Dickson, lawyer of 905 South Forty-eighth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 20, 1862, in Philadelphia. He is a member of the union league, university league and the young republican league.

Finley, David Edward, lawyer and statesman of Yorkville, S.C., was born Feb. 28, 1861, in Trenton, Ark. In 1899-1911 he was a member of congress.

Finley, Ebenezer B., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bucyrus, Ohio, was born July 31, 1833, in Orrville, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been adjutant-general of Ohio; and also served as circuit judge of the third circuit of Ohio.

Finley, H. F., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Williamsburg, Ky., was born Jan. 18, 1833, of Scotch-Irish parents. He has been United States attorney for Kentucky; and in 1880-86 he was judge of the fifteenth circuit court. In 1887-91 he was a member of congress. He is president and general manager of the Proctor Coal company.

Finley, Harry Marshall, lawyer and banker of McConnellsville, Ohio, was born Sept. 20, 1869, in Morgan county, Ohio. He is cashier of the Malta National bank.

Finley, John Barclay, banker and statesman of Monongahela, Pa., was born Nov. 17, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is president of the People's bank of Monongahela.

Finley, John Park, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born April 11, 1854, in Ann Arbor, Mich. He served in the United States army. He is the author of Tornadoes and other works.

Finley, William Wilson, railroad president of 2221 R st., Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 2, 1853, in Pass Christian, Miss. Since 1906 he has been president of the Southern railroad.

Finn, Francis James, clergyman and author of 520 Sycamore st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Oct. 4, 1859, in St. Louis, Mo. He is one of the foremost Catholic writers of fiction. He is the author of The Best Foot Forward and other works.

Finnegan, David M., merchant and banker of Yankton, S.D., was born Sept. 12, 1874, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Finney, Frederick Norton, civil engineer and author of Villa Dora, South Pasadena, Cal., was born March 7, 1832, in Boston, Mass. He was educated at Oberlin college; and in 1857-60 practiced law in Oshkosh, Wis. He then engaged in engineering construction with the Chicago and Northwestern railway; has since filled positions with various railroads, and in 1878-89 was chief engineer and general manager of the Wisconsin Central railroad. In 1900-02 he was president of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Sault Ste. Marie railway, and has been president of various other railroads. He is the author of Three Months in Italy; A Souvenir of the Nile; In Memoriam; and Letters from Across the Sea.

Fireman, Peter, agriculturist, chemist and scientist of Alexandria, Va., was born April 4, 1863, in Russia. Since 1904 he has been in charge of the Portner chemical research laboratory of Alexandria.

Firm, Joseph Lannison, inventor of 1535 South Paulina st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 19, 1839, in Williamsburg, N.Y. He is the inventor of a process of printing on glass from electro-type plates in colors or otherwise.

Firth, Franklin Jones, capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 1, 1842, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of the Erie and Western Transportation company.

Fischel, Washington Emil, physician of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 29, 1850, in St. Louis. He is professor of clinical medicine in the medical department of Washington university.

Fischer, George Alexander, litterateur and author of Troy, N.Y., was born in Troy, N. Y. He is the author of Beethoven, a Character Study, and other works.

Fischer, George August, editor and business president of New York City, was born Sept. 13, 1870, in Dayton, Ohio. He has edited most of the works brought out by the J. Fischer and Brother corporation, of which he is president.

Fischer, Gustave F., lawyer of 134 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 8, 1868, in Chicago. He is director of the German hospital of Chicago. He is a member of the firm of Reubens, Fischer and Mosser.

Fischer, Henry W., journalist and author of New York City, was born Jan. 10, 1856, in Prussia. He is exchange editor of the New York American. He is the author of Private Lives of Kaiser William II and His Consort.

Fischer, Israel F., lawyer and congressman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 17, 1858, in New York City. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress.

Fischer, Louis, physician and author of 162 West Eighty-seventh st., New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1864, in Austria. He is the author of Infant Feeding in Health and Disease and other works.

Fischer, Martin Henry, physician and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Nov. 10, 1879, in Germany. Since 1905 he has been professor of pathology at the Oakland school of medicine. He is the author of Physiology of Alimentation.

Fish, Carl Russell, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born Oct. 17, 1876, in Central Falls, R.I. He is the author of The Civil Service and the Patronage and other works.

Fish, Charles Everett, educator of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born May 26, 1854, in Cotuit, Mass. He is principal of the Rhineland school for girls of Poughkeepsie.

Fish, Daniel, soldier, lawyer and bibliographer of 2203 Third ave., Minneapolis,Minn., was born Jan. 31, 1848, in Cherry Valley, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has been judge advocate of the Minnesota grand army of the republic. He is the author of Lincoln Literature.

Fish, Frederick Perry, lawyer and capitalist of 84 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 13, 1855, in Taunton, Mass. He has been president of the American Bell Telephone company.

Fish, Frederick Samuel, lawyer and financier of South Bend, Ind., was born Feb. 5, 1852, in Newark, N.J. He graduated from the university of Rochester with the degree of A.B.; and in 1876-91 practiced law in Newark and New York. In 1880-84 he was city attorney of Newark; in 1884-87 was a member of the New Jersey state senate, and in 1887 was president of the senate. He then became director and general counsel of the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing company of South Bend, Ind.; and in 1897-1911 was chairman of its executive committee. He is president of the Studebaker corporation, and president of many of its numerous subsidiary companies.

Fish, Hamilton, lawyer, financier and statesman of Garrison, N.Y., was born April 17, 1849, in Albany, N.Y. He has been secretary of state under President Grant. He has been a member of congress.

Fisher, Irving, educator, political economist and author of New Haven, Conn., was born on Feb. 27, 1867, in Saugerties, N.Y. In 1891 he graduated with the degree of Ph.D. from Yale university; and in 1891-94 studied in Berlin and Paris. In 1891-93 he was tutor of mathematics, in 1893-95 was professor, and in 1895-98 was assistant professor of economy in Yale university. Since 1898 he has been professor of political economy in Yale university. He is a member of the American association for the advancement of science; was a member of the national conservation commission; and is president of the committee of one hundred on national health to advocate the establishment of a national department of health. He is the author of Elements of Geometry; Bibliography of Mathematical Economics; Mathematical Investigations in Theory of Value and Prices; Appreciation and Interest; Introduction in Calculus; The Nature of Capital and Income; The Rate of Interest; The Purchasing of Money and other works.

Fish, Pierre Augustine, educator and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Feb. 17, 1865, in Chatham, N.Y. He is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science. He is the author of Exercises on Physiology and other works.

Fish, Stuyvesant, banker and railroad president of 52 Wall st., New York City, was born June 24, 1851, in New York City. In 1887-1906 he was president of the Illinois Central railroad. He is a trustee of the New York Life Insurance and Trust company and other corporations.

Fish, William Hansell, lawyer and jurist of Atlanta, Ga., was born May 12, 1849, in Macon,Ga. Since 1906 he has been associate-justice of the state supreme court of Georgia.

Fish, William Henry, clergyman of Meadville, Pa., was born March 1, 1844, in Millville, Mass. Since 1905 he has been pastor of the Independent Congregational church.

Fish, Williston, lawyer and author of 105 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 15, 1858, in Berlin Heights, Ohio. He is the author of Won at West Point and other works.

Fishback, Horace, banker of Brookings, S. D., was born Aug. 24, 1857, in Carlinville, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Fisher, Albert Kenrick, biologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 21, 1856, in Sing Sing, N.Y. He was one of the founders of the American ornithologists' union; and is a member of the Washington academy of sciences. He is the author of Hawks and Owls of the United States and other works.

Fisher, Albert Laban, manufacturer and banker of Fisherville, Mass., was born March 10, 1846, in Fisherville, Mass. He is president of the Grafton Savings bank.

Fisher, Charles E., physician, surgeon and author of 31 Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 7, 1853, in North Benton, Ohio. He is the author of Fisher's Diseases of Children and other works.

Fisher, Clarence Stanley, historical architect and author of 5746 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 17, 1876, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Investigations and Researches at Nippur.

Fisher, Daniel Webster, clergyman and college president of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 17, 1838, in Arch Springs, Pa. He has been president of Hanover college of Indiana.

Fisher, Edward D., physician and neurologist of 19 West Fifty-second st., New York City, was born in 1856 in New York City. He is consulting physician to the Manhattan state hospital.

Fisher, F. Ralph, public accountant and auditor of 20 Broad st., New York City, was born in 1876, in Whitewater, Wis. He is treasurer and managing director of the Security Audit company of New York.

Fisher, Frank Luther, banker of 505 Gay st., Knoxville, Tenn., was born Feb. 25, 1853, in Union county, Pa. He is president of the East Tennessee Savings bank.

Fisher, Fred Douglas, diplomat of Mukden, China, was born March 13, 1874, in Albany, Ore. Since 1901 he has been consul-general at Mukden, China.

Fisher, George Huntington, lawyer of 84 Broadway, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 7, 1832, in Oswego, N.Y. He is trustee, secretary and counsel of the German Savings bank of Brooklyn.

Fisher, Harrison, illustrator and author of 7 West Thirty-second st., New York City, was born July 27, 1875, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has illustrated Three Men on Wheels, by Jerome K. Jerome. He is the author of The Harrison Fisher Book, a collection of drawings.

Fisher, Henry Noah, manufacturer and banker of 6 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born June 5, 1842, in Barton, Vt. He is president of the American Watch Tool company.

Fisher, Herbert Evans, railroad official and capitalist of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 8, 1849, in Boston, Mass. He is treasurer of the Boston and Maine railroad.

Fisher, Horace Newton, soldier and author of 256 Walnut st., Brookline, Mass., was born Oct. 19, 1836, in Boston, Mass. Since 1876 he has been consul of Chili in Boston.

Fisher, Horatio G., statesman of Huntingdon, Pa., was born April 21, 1838, in Huntingdon, Pa. For four years he was a member of the state senate. In 1879-83 he was a member of congress.

Fisher, Irving, educator, political economist and author of New Haven, Conn., was born Feb. 27, 1867, in Saugerties, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been professor of political economy in Yale university. He is the author of Elements of Geometry and other works.

Fisher, Israel F., lawyer and statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 17, 1858, in New York City. He has been a member of the executive state committee of the republican state committee. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress.

Fisher, Jacob Nelson, banker of Morristown, Tenn., was born Dec. 12, 1859, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the City National bank.

Fisher, James Gettys, banker of Athens, Tenn., was born May 30, 1863, in Athens, Tenn. He is president of the First National bank.

Fisher, John B., lawyer and jurist of 137 Carondelet st., New Orleans, La., was born Dec. 25, 1862, in New Orleans, La. Since 1909 he has been judge of the first city criminal court of New Orleans.

Fisher, Lewis Beals, educator, theologian, clergyman, college president and author of Galesburg, Ill., was born April 30, 1859, in Charlotte, Maine. Since 1905 he has been president of Lombard college and the Rider divinity school at Galesburg. He is the author of Prayers for the Home and other works.

Fisher. Lucius George, soldier and manufacturer of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 27, 1843, in Beloit, Wis. He served in the civil war. He was the founder of the Union Bag and Paper company, of which corporation he is the chairman of the board of directors.

Fisher, Mary, educator and author of Chillicothe, Ill., was born April 22, 1858, in Marshall county, Ill. She is the author of Twenty-five Letters on English Authors and other works.

Fisher, Napoleon C., corporation official of 133 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1856, in Bucyrus, Ohio. He is president of the American Sand and Gravel company and a director of corporations.

Fisher, Nevin Francis, clergyman of 21 South Thirteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Center county, Pa. He graduated from Franklin and Marshall college of Lancaster, Pa.; attended Berlin and Leipzig universities; and visited the Holy Land and Egypt. In 1890-1902 he was rector of the Catholic high school of Philadelphia; and since 1902 has been rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist. In 1905 he was made a domestic prelate.

Fisher, Oliver Mason, manufacturer and financier of 28 Lincoln st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 2, 1855, in Henniker, N.H. He is president of the Brockton Shoe company.

Fisher, Mrs. Rebecca Jane Gilliland, of Austin, Texas, was born Aug. 31, 1832, in Philadelphia, Pa. For seven years she has been president of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas; and a member of the woman's state press association, and other organizations.

Fisher, Robert Jones, lawyer of Washington, D.C., was born June 25, 1847, in York, Pa. He is general counsel of the Eastern railroad association.

Fisher, Robert Joseph, manufacturer and inventor of Athens, Tenn., was born Jan. 23, 1857, in Athens, Tenn. He organized the National bank of Athens. He is proprietor of the Athens hosiery mills.

Fisher, Spencer Oliver, lumberman, merchant, banker and statesman of West Bay City, Mich., was born Feb. 3, 1843, in Camden, Mich. He has been president of the West Bay City Sugar company. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Fisher, Sydney George, lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 11, 1856, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia bar. He is the author of The Making of Pennsylvania and other works.

Fisher, Theodore Willis, educator, physician and author of Boston, Mass., was born May 29, 1837, in Westboro, Mass. He is the author of Plain Talks About Insanity.

Fisher, Walter Kendrick, educator, zoologist and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born Feb. 1, 1878, in Ossining, N.Y. He is the author of Birds of Lavsan and other works.

Fisher, Walter Lowrie, lawyer of 35 North Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 4, 1862, in Wheeling, W.Va. He has been special traction counsel of the city of Chicago.

Fisher, William Arms, editor, musician and author of 150 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born April 27, 1861, in San Francisco, Cal. Since 1897 he has been editor for the Oliver Ditson company of Boston. He is the author of a volume of Children's Songs and other works.

Fisher, William Edgar, engraver and artist of 52 East Nineteenth st., New York City, was born Oct. 24, 1872, in Wellsville, N.Y. He makes a specialty of book plate designs. He is manager of the typographical art department of the American Lithograph company of New York City.

Fisher, William Mark, painter and artist of Hatfield, Harlow, Essex, England, was born Dec. 15, 1841, in Boston, Mass. He has painted landscapes from studies in the neighborhood of Paris; also paintings and cattle-pieces, including Noon; On the Cam and the Meadows.

Fisk, Archie Campbell, soldier, financier and author of Jackson, Miss., was born Oct. 18, 1836, in Steuben county, N.Y. He erected and owned the first cotton seed oil mill in Mississippi. He was the founder of the Trans-Mississippi congress; and has written extensively on economic subjects.

Fisk, Arthur Lyman, physician of 41 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born in May, 1860, in St. Paul, Minn. He was educated at Williston seminary and Yale university, and received the degree of M.D. from Harvard medical school. He has been surgeon to the Trinity hospital, the babies' hospital and St. John's guild, Seaside hospital, and other institutions.

Fisk, Charles Henry, lawyer of 1017 Russell ave., Covington, Ky., was born Aug. 31, 1843, in Fiskburg, Ky. He is a director of the Covington and Cincinnati Bridge company.

Fisk, Charles J., lawyer and jurist of Bismarck, N.D., was born March 11, 1862, in Whiteside county, Ill. He has served as judge of the district court of the first judicial district of North Dakota.

Fisk, Everett O., business president of 2 A Park st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 1, 1850, in Marlboro, Mass. In 1885 he founded the Fisk teachers' agency, with offices in the leading cities of America, and has since been its president. He has been president of the Boston missionary and church extension society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and since 1907 has been president of the Preachers' aid society of the New England conference.

Fisk, George Mygatta, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born July 16, 1864, in Canfield, Ohio. He is the author of Principles of Commerce.

Fisk, Herbert Franklin, educator and clergyman of 1625 Judson ave., Evanston, Ill., was born Sept. 25, 1840, in Stoughton, Mass. In 1886-87 he was a member of the Oneida conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Since 1878 he has been a member of the Rock River conference.

Fisk, May Isabel, actress of 207 West Fifty-sixth st., New York City, was born in New York City. She is the author of The Repentant Magdalen and other works.

Fiske, Amos Kidder, lawyer and author of 32 Broadway, New York City, was born May 12, 1842, in Whitefield, N.H. For twenty years he was on the staff of the New York Times; and is now associate editor of the Journal of Commerce. He is the author of Midnight Talks at the Club and other works.

Fiske, Asa Severance, clergyman and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born March 2, 1833, in Strongsville, Ohio. During the civil war he served as chaplain and superintendent of refugees and abandoned bands. He is the author of Reason and Faith and other works.

Fiske, Arthur Irving, educator of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 19, 1848, in Holliston. Since 1902 he has been headmaster of the Boston Latin school.

Fiske, Bradley Allen, naval officer and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born June 13, 1854, in Lyons, N.Y. Aide to naval operations in the navy department. He is the author of Electricity and Electrical Engineering.

Fiske, Charles, clergyman and author of 1933 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born March 16, 1868, in New Brunswick, N.J. He is the author of The Church, What It Is and Why I Belong to It and other works.

Fiske, Charles Henry, lawyer and capitalist of 10 Post Office Square, Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 26, 1840, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Androscoggin mills.

Fiske, Daniel Willard, journalist, educator and lecturer of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Nov. 11, 1831, in Ellisburg, N.Y. In 1868-81 he was professor of European languages and chief librarian of Cornell university. He has written extensively in many languages.

Fiske, George Mann, soldier, merchant and philanthropist of Boston, Mass., was born

May 2, 1842, in Medfield, Mass. He served in the civil war. For thirteen years he was president of the Union rescue mission of Boston.

Fiske, George McClellan, clergyman and author of 166 George st., Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 21, 1850, in East Windsor, Conn. He is the author of A Memorial Sermon of General Grant and other works.

Fiske, Haley, underwriter of 1 Madison avenue, New York City, was born March 18, 1852, in New Brunswick, N.J. He is vice-president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

Fiske, Harrison Grey, editor and theatrical manager of 12 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born July 30, 1861, in Harrison. He is president of the Dramatic Mirror corporation.

Fiske, James Porter, surgeon and founder of 76 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1866, in New York City. He was one of the founders of the school for crippled children in New York City.

Fiske, Mary A. D., actress of 12 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1865, in New Orleans, La. At the age of twelve years she starred in Richelieu and as Louise in the Two Orphans.

Fiske, Stephen, journalist, dramatist and author of 151 West Ninety-third st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1840, in New Brunswick, N.J. He was the founder of the New York Dramatic Mirror; and the originator of the actors' fund. He is the author of My Noble Son-in-law and other plays.

Fitch, Charles Elliott, journalist and government official of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Dec. 3, 1835, in Syracuse, N.Y. For seventeen years he was editor-in-chief of the Rochester Democratic and Chronicle. Since 1904 he has been chief of the record division in the education department, state of New York.

Fitch, Charles Hall, civil engineer, topographer and author of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Sept. 12, 1854, in Manitowoc, Wis. He is a member of the American society of civil engineers; and has contributed articles on Oklahoma and Indian Territory to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Fitch, Clyde, dramatist and author of 113 East Fortieth st., New York City, was born May 2, 1865. He is the author of A Wave of Life; The Knighting of the Twins and other works.

Fitch, George, journalist, statesman and author of Peoria, Ill., was born June 5, 1877, in Galva, Ill. In 1905-12 he was editor of the Peoria Herald-Transcript; and is now a representative in the Illinois state legislature. He is the author of At Good Old Siwash and other stories.

Fitch, John Lee, painter and artist of New York City, was born June 25, 1836, in Hartford, Conn. Among his paintings are On Gill Brook; A Mountain Brook and The Outlet.

Fitch, Joseph, lawyer of 56 Pine st., New York City, was born Aug.27, 1857, in Flushing, N.Y. He is senior member of the firm of Fitch, Moore and Swan.

Fitch, Theodore, lawyer of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born March 30, 1844, in Franklin, N.Y. He is a member of the American bar association.

Fitch, Thomas, merchant, journalist and statesman of Carson City, Nev., was born Jan. 29, 1838, in New York City. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1869-71 he was a member of congress.

Fitch, William Clyde, dramatist and author of New York City, was born May 2, 1865, in New York City. He is the author of Beau Brummell and Other Plays and other works.

Fitch, William F., railroad official of Marquette, Mich., was born June 28, 1839, in Circleville, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Wisconsin Central railroad.

Fite, Frank Evans, publisher of 164 Waverly place, New York City, was born Sept. 18, 1887, in Knoxville, Tenn. He has been manager of the Philadelphia branch of the Columbus Starch company of New York; and proprietor of the American Specialty exchange. He is now secretary and director of The Thwing company of New York City, publisher of The Circle and Successful Magazines and books.

Fite, Warner, educator and author of Bloomington, Ind., was born March 5, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Introductory Study of Ethics.

Fite, William Robert, farmer, merchant and banker of Moscow, Tenn., was born Jan. 1, 1851, in Dallas, N.C. He is president of the Moscow Savings bank.

Fithian, George W., lawyer and statesman of Newton, Ill., was born July 4, 1854, near Willow Hill, Ill. In 1889-95 he was a member of congress.

Fitts, George Henry, lawyer and jurist of Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 29, 1851, in Cohoes, N.Y. He is justice of the supreme court for the third judicial district for term of 1896-1919. He is president of masonic temple association of Cohoes, N.Y.

Fitts, James Harris, banker of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born Oct. 12, 1830, in Clark county, Ala. Since 1902 has been president of the City National bank. He has been president of the bankers' association of Alabama. He is the author of Genealogy of Fitts or Fitz Family.

Fitts, William Cochran, lawyer of Mobile, Ala., was born Jan. 29, 1866, in Tuscaloosa. He has been general-attorney of Alabama.

Fitz, Arthur Salisbury, financier of Providence, R.I., was born March 24, 1860, in Hartford, Conn. He is president and treasurer of the State Real Estate company.

Fitz, Reginald Heber, physician and author of 18 Arlington st., Boston, Mass., was born May 5, 1843, in Chelsea, Mass. He is part author of The Practice of Medicine.

Fitzgerald, Adolphus Leigh, lawyer and jurist of Carson City, Nev., was born Oct. 27, 1840, in Rockingham county, N.C. Since 1901 he has been justice of the state supreme court of Nevada.

Fitzgerald, Harrington, journalist, publisher and artist of 28 South Seventh st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 5, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. For ten years he was business manager of the Philadelphia Item, of which he is now editor-in-chief and general manager. He is president of the American art society.

Fitzgerald, J. M., railroad president of 706 Continental building, Baltimore, Md., was born April 26, 1877, near Philadelphia, Pa. He was educated in the school of technology in Philadelphia. In 1894 he entered railway service, and has filled positions to general manager. In 1900-09 he was in charge of mining operations. In 1909-12 he was vice-president of the Pittsburg Terminal Railroad and Coal company; in 1912-13 was president of the Davis Coal and Coke company; and since 1913 has been president of the Western Maryland railway.

Fitzgerald, James, lawyer and jurist of 140 East Seventy-ninth st., New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1851, in Ireland. In 1898-1912 he was associate-justice of the supreme court of New York for the first district.

Fitzgerald, James Walter Wadsworth, stock raiser and capitalist of Midvale, Utah, was born June 19, 1857, in Draper, Utah. He is president of the People's State bank.

Fitzgerald, John Edward, manufacturer and banker of Hammond, Ind., was born Feb. 3, 1865, in New York. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Fitzgerald, John Francis, journalist, publisher and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 11, 1863, in Boston, Mass. He is publisher of The Republic of Boston, Mass. In 1892 he was a member of the Boston common council; and in 1893-94 was a member of the Massachusetts state senate. He was a member of the fifty-fourth and fifty-sixth congresses from Massachusetts as a democrat. He is mayor of Boston for the term ending in 1914.

Fitzgerald, John Joseph, lawyer and statesman of 215 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 10, 1872, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1899-1911 he was a member of congress.

Fitzgerald, Marcella Agnes, author and poet of Gilroy, Cal., was born Feb. 23, 1845, in Frampton, Canada, East. She was educated at the college of Notre Dame of San Jose, Cal. She is the author of a volume of poems; and has contributed extensively to Catholic publications.

Fitzgerald, Susan Grimes Walker, suffrage worker of 1841 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born May 9, 1871, in Cambridge, Mass. She is recording secretary of the national woman's suffrage association.

Fitzgerald, Thomas F., journalist and publisher of 227 Perry st., Trenton, N.J., was born March 17, 1844, in Tullamore, Ireland. In 1874 he issued the first number of the New Jersey Legislative Manual, which he still publishes. Since 1888 he has been one of the proprietors of the Trenton Sunday Advertiser.

Fitzgerald, W. H., railroad official of Richmond, Va., was born Nov. 6, 1840, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1894 he has been commissioner of the Associated Railways of Virginia and the Carolinas.

Fitzgerald, Walter G., lawyer and statesman of Gilroy, Cal., was born in 1873, near New Almaden, Cal. He has been city attorney and mayor of his city.

Fitzgibbon, Thomas, educator and physician of 415 Grand ave., Milwaukee, Wis., was born March 1, 1854, in Troy, N.Y. Since 1893 he has been professor of the diseases of women in the Wisconsin college of physicians and surgeons.

Fitzhenry, Louis, lawyer and statesman of Bloomington, Ill., was born June 13, 1870, in Bloomington, Ill. He graduated from the law department of the Illinois Wesleyan university. For two terms he was city attorney of Bloomington; and for two terms was a member of the democratic state central committee. He is special legal counsel for the city of Bloomington; and is now a representative to the sixty-third congress from the seventeenth district of Illinois for the term of 1913-15.

Fitzhugh, Earl Hopkins, railroad president of Montreal, Quebec, was born Feb. 1, 1853, in Montgomery county, Mo. In 1911-13 he was president of the Central Vermont railroad.

Fitzhugh, Thomas, educator and author of University, Va., was born Oct. 12, 1862, in Longwood, Va. He is the author of The Philosophy of Humanity and other works.

Fitzmaurice, John E., clergyman and bishop of Erie, Pa., was born Jan. 9, 1840, in Ireland. Since 1897 he has been a Roman Catholic bishop of Erie.

Fitzpatrick, Morgan C., educator, lawyer and statesman of Gallatin, Tenn., was born in 1869. He served two terms as a representative in the Tennessee state legislature. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

Fitzpatrick, Thomas Bernard, merchant, manufacturer and capitalist of 104 Kingston st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 17, 1844, in Grafton, Mass. He is president of the Union Institution for Savings.

Fitzpatrick, Thomas Vanhook, physician of 19 West Seventh st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 9, 1855, in Nicholsville. He has gained special distinction as a specialist in diseases of the ear, nose and throat.

Fitzpatrick, Thomas Y., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Prestonburg, Ky., was born Sept. 20, 1850, in Floyd county, Ky. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

Fitzsimons, Simon, clergyman and author of Lima, N.Y., was born in 1853 in County Cavan, Ireland. His Catholic school at Lima was one of the first to receive state support.

He is the author of A Reputation of Agnosticism and other works.

Fix, Charles J., merchant and banker of 629 Ellicott st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born July 11, 1856, in Buffalo, N.Y. He has been treasurer of Erie county; and is vice-president of the American Savings bank.

Flagg, Burton Sanderson, insurance president of Andover, Mass., was born Nov. 10, 1873, in Littleton, Mass. Since 1901 he has been president and treasurer of the Merrimac Mutual Fire Insurance company of Andover; and is also president and treasurer of the Cambridge Mutual Fire Insurance company. He is a director of the Andover National bank and other corporations. He has been a member of the Andover school board, and since 1910 a trustee of the memorial hall library.

Flagg, Charles A., librarian of Bangor, Maine, was born Oct. 1, 1870, in Sandwich, Mass. In 1900-13 he was in charge of the American History in the catalogue division of the Library on Congress. Since 1913 he has been librarian of the public library of Bangor.

Flagg, Charles Noel, artist of Hartford, Conn., was born Dec. 25, 1848, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the director of the Conecticut league of art students.

Flagg, Ernst, designer and architect of 109 Broad st., New York City, was born in 1860 in Brooklyn, N.Y. He was the architect of the Corcoran gallery of art at Washington, D.C., and of various other buildings.

Flagg,Isaac, educator and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born Sept. 7, 1843, in Beverly, Mass. He is the author of The Hellenic Orations of Demosthenes and other works.

Flagg, George Augustus, treasurer of 12 Ashburton place, Boston, Mass., was born May 2, 1845, in Milbury, Mass. He is treasurer and secretary of the Tecumseh Copper company.

Flagg, James Montgomery, artist and author of 33 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born June 18, 1877, in Westchester county, N.Y. Since 1892 he has been illustrator for Judge and Life of New York City. He is the author of Yankee Girls Abroad and other works.

Flagg, Rufus Cushman, clergyman, educator and college president of Burlington, Vt., was born Aug. 3, 1846, in Hubbardton, Vt. Since 1892 he has been president of the Ripon college of Wisconsin.

Flagg, Stanley G., manufacturer of 1731 Wallace st.,Philadelphia,Pa.,was born March 13, 1830, in Whitesboro, N.Y. He is chief owner of the firm of Stanley G. Flagg and company.

Flagler, Henry M., manufacturer, capitalist and railroad president of 685 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1830 in Canandaigua, N.Y. He was a partner in the firm of Rockefeller,Andrews and Flagler,who were succeeded by the Standard Oil company. He is president of the Florida East Coast Railroad company.

Flagler, John Haldane, capitalist of 200 Broadway, New York City. He is a director of the National Tube company and various other corporations.

Flaig, Andrew, merchant and banker of Colby, Wis., was born Aug. 24, 1852, in Germany. He was the first mayor of the city of Colby; and has held high positions in the affairs of his county and state.

Flanagan, DeWitt Clinton, merchant and statesman of Morristown,N.J., was born Dec. 28, 1870, in New York City. Since 1902 he has been a member of congress.

Flanagan, John, sculptor and artist of 1931 Broadway, New York City, was born in Newark, N.J. He designed the tinted marble relief aphrodite in the Knickerbocker hotel of New York City.

Flanagan, Walter Bennett, merchant and bank director of Palestine, Texas, was born Oct. 19, 1869, in Alabama. He is owner of the W. B. Flanagan company.

Flanagan, Webster, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Austin, Texas, was born Jan. 9, 1832, in Cloverport, Ky.; and is a son of the late United States Senator James W. Flanagan. His father moved to the republic of Texas in 1843; and the son has ever since been a citizen of Texas. In 1851 he was admitted to the bar; and in 1860 he was commissioned brigadier-general by General Sam Houston, governor of Texas. He served as a soldier in the civil war from 1862 until its close. In 1865 he was appointed judge; and in 1869 was a member of the constitutional convention. In 1871 he was elected a member of the Texas state senate. In 1871-73 he was lieutenant-governor; and in 1875 again served as a member of the Texas state senate. He was elected a member of the constitutional convention; and helped to frame the present constitution of Texas. He also helped to organize the republican party in Texas. In 1872, 1880, 1884, 1888, 1892, 1896 and 1904 he was a delegate to the republican national conventions. In 1884-85 he was internal revenue collector for the fourth district of Texas. In 1876-80 he was president of the Henderson and Overton Railroad company. In 1890 he was a candidate of the republican party for governor of Texas; and in 1891-93 was collector of customs. Since 1898 he has been collector of internal revenue for the third district of Texas.

Flanders, Alvin, journalist and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born Aug. 2, 1825, in Hopkinton, N.H. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1867-69 he was a member of congress.

Flanders,James Greeley, lawyer and statesman of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 13, 1844, in New London, N.H. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is a member of the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and American bar associations.

Flandrau, Charles Macomb, educator and author of 385 Pleasant ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born in 1862 in Pennsylvania. He is the author of Harvard Episodes and other works.

Flannagan, William Walker, soldier and banker of New York City, was born in November, 1843, in Charlottsville,Va. He served in the civil war. He has been president of the Southern National bank of New York City.

Flannery,James J., manufacturer and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan.18, 1854, in West Virginia. He is president of the Oakland Savings and Trust company and other corporations.

Flannery,John,soldier, merchant and banker of Savannah, Ga., was born Nov. 24, 1835, in Ireland. During the civil war he attained the rank of captain. He has been president of the Savannah cotton exchange; and is president of the Southern Bank of the State of Georgia.

Flather, Frederick Arthur, manufacturer and financier of 79 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born March 21, 1867, in Nashua, N.H. He is treasurer of the Boott mills.

Flather, John Joseph, educator and author of 315 Eleventh st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born June 9, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Dynamometers and the Measurement of Power and other works.

Flatley, Andrew Hugh, banker of Stockbridge, Wis., was born Sept.11, 1880, in Chilton, Wis. He is cashier of the State bank.

Fleagle, Harry S., banker of Farrar, Iowa, was born Aug. 8, 1876, in Mt.Pleasant,Iowa. He is cashier of the Farrar State Savings bank.

Fleet, Alexander Frederick, soldier, educator and college president of Culver, Ind., was born June 6, 1848, in King and Queen county, Va. In 1873-79 he was professor of the female college at Lexington, Mo. Since 1896 he has been superintendent of the Culver military academy of Indiana.

Fleischmann, Julius, banker and business president of 419 Plum st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born June 8, 1872, in Riverside, Ohio. In 1907 on his father's death he assumed control of all the various Fleischmann interests. He is president of the Market National bank and other corporations and has been mayor of his city.

Fleischmann, Max Charles, manufacturer and capitalist of 419 Plum st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Feb. 26, 1877, in Riverside, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Illinois Vinegar Manufacturing company.

Fleisher, David Teller, capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1878 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is assistant treasurer and director of the S. B. and B. W. Fleisher, Incorporated.

Fleisher, Penrose, banker of 1512 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1843, in Philadelphia. He is president of the Ocean City company and a director of other corporations.

Fleisher, Samuel S., manufacturer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 27, 1871, in Philadelphia. He is a member and director of the firm of S. B. and B. W. Fleisher, Incorporated.

Fleisher, Simon B., manufacturer of 28 South Sixth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1840 in Meadville, Pa. He is president of the S. B. and B. W. Fleisher, Incorporated, and a director of other corporations.

Fleitmann, William Medicott, merchant of 484 Broome st., New York City, was born in 1860 in New York City. He became a partner in his father's firm in 1887.

Flemer, John Adolph, civil and landscape engineer, horticulturist and author of Oak Grove, Va., was born April 1, 1859, in New York City. In 1900-03 he was connected with the F. and F. nurseries of Springfield, N.J. Since 1904 he has been engineer to the commissioner for demarcation to Alaskan boundary.

Fleming, Abner Ernest, banker of Bowdon, Ga., was born Sept. 25, 1884, in Carrollton, Ga. He is cashier of the Bank of Bowdon.

Fleming, Andrew Magnus, lawyer and author of Manchester, Iowa, was born April 2, 1858, in Plymouth, Mass. He is the author of Joe Bowers; Captain Kiddle Wreckleback's Hotel and Gleanings of a Tyro Bard.

Fleming,Aretas Brooks, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Fairmont,W.Va., was born Oct. 29, 1839, in Fairmont, W.Va. He has been a member of the Virginia state legislature. In 1889-93 he was governor of West Virginia.

Fleming, George Elliott, lawyer, composer and author of Indianapolis, Ind., was born June 20, 1877, in Shelbyville, Ind. He has been on the editorial staff of the American and English Encyclopaedia of Law. He is treasurer and director of the Eastern Telegraph and Telephone company.

Fleming, James Monro, physician, surgeon and banker of Mount Vernon, Texas, was born May 1, 1858, in Clarksville, Texas. He is president of the First National bank.

Fleming, John, lawyer of New York City, was born June 1, 1842, in Ireland. He has been district attorney of Queens county, N. Y. He is one of the foremost criminal lawyers of New York.

Fleming, John J., banker of Burlington, Iowa, was born March 19, 1851, in Donaldsonville, La. Since 1858 he has been a resident of Iowa;and was educated in the schools of Burlington and at the university of Notre Dame. He has been assistant paymaster of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, and cashier of the National State bank of Burlington. He is now vice-president of the Burlington Savings bank and president of the Burlington Construction company. He is vice-chairman of the Burlington branch of the American red cross.

Fleming, Matthew Corry, lawyer of 71 Broadway, New York City, was born June 24, 1864, in Xenia, Ohio. He is a member of the firm of Dexter, Osborn and Fleming.

Fleming, Walter Lynwood, educator and author of Baton Rouge, La., was born April 8, 1874, in Brundidge, Ala. Since 1903 he has been professor of history in the West Virginia university. He is the editor of Reconstruction of the Seceded States and other works.

Fleming, William Hansell, lecturer and author of 60 West Thirty-eighth st., New York City, was born Aug. 23, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been secretary of the Shakespeare society of New York City. He is the author of How to Study Shakespeare and other works.

Fleming, William Henry, lawyer and statesman of Augusta, Ga., was born Oct. 18, 1856, in Augusta, Ga. In 1888-94 he was a member of the state legislature. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress.

Fleming, Williamina Paton, astronomer and author of 32 Concord ave., Cambridge, Mass., was born May 15, 1857, in Scotland. In 1898 she was appointed curator of astronomical photographs at the observatory. She is the author of Annals of the Observatory.

Flesch, Leo Moses, manufacturer and banker of Piqua, Ohio, was born Sept. 20, 1863, in Piqua, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Piqua Savings bank.

Fletcher, A. M., statesman of Montpelier, Vt. In 1912 he became governor of Vermont.

Fletcher, Alice Cunningham, ethnologist of Cambridge, Mass., was born about 1845 in Boston. She published numerous papers and monographs, and a valuable report, Indian Education and Civilization.

Fletcher, Austin Barclay, educator and lawyer of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born March 13, 1852, in Mendon, Mass. He has been a trustee of Boston university. He is president of Fletcher Family Union.

Fletcher, Austin Bradstreet, civil engineer of Sacramento, Cal., was born Jan. 19, 1872, in Cambridge, Mass. In 1893-1910 he was highway commissioner of Massachusetts. In 1910-11 he was secretary-engineer of the highway commission of San Diego county, Cal., and since 1911 has been highway engineer for the state of California.

Fletcher, Burrell Alexander, banker and physician of Augusta, Ark., was born Oct. 14, 1862, in Lafayette county, Miss. He is president of the Augusta Title and Trust company.

Fletcher, Charles, manufacturer of Providence, R. I., was born Nov. 20, 1840, in England. Six of his large mills now stand upon the grounds of the Providence Worsted Mill company. In 1886 he bought the Narragansett hotel.

Fletcher, Daniel W., merchant and banker of Ayer, Mass., was born Feb. 1, 1852, in Ayer, Mass. He is president of the North Middlesex Savings bank.

Fletcher, Duncan Upshaw, lawyer and statesman of Jacksonville, Fla., was born Jan. 6, 1859, near Americus, Ga. He has been a member of the state legislature; and president of the Jacksonville bar association. He is United States senator.

Fletcher, Henry, lawyer of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Sept. 29, 1877, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is senior member of the firm of Fletcher, Sillcocks and Leahy. He is vice-president of the Liberty Mortgage company.

Fletcher, Henry Sibley, banker of Watsonville, Cal., was born Dec. 4, 1854, in Minneapolis, Minn. He has been president of the California bankers' association. He is president of the Bank of Watsonville.

Fletcher, Horace, lecturer and author of 449 Fourth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 10, 1849, in Lawrence, Mass. Since 1895 he has devoted his attention to sociology. He is the author of Menti-culture and other works.

Fletcher, James B., lawyer and statesman of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born Oct. 18, 1856, in Pikeville, Tenn. In 1903-05 he was governor of the state of Tennessee.

Fletcher, Joseph E., manufacturer and banker of Mapleville, R.I., was born in 1866 in England. He is vice-president of the National Exchange bank.

Fletcher, Joseph Henry, provision merchant and banker of 66 Faneuel Hall Market, Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 26, 1844, in Charlestown, Mass. He is president of the Belmont Savings bank.

Fletcher, Loren, manufacturer, merchant and statesman of Minneapolis, Minn., was born April 10, 1833, in Mount Vernon, Maine. He has been a member of the state legislature seven times. In 1893-1903 and 1905-07 he was a member of congress.

Fletcher, Robert Howe, soldier and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 21, 1850, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was made first lieutenant and brevet captain for services in the Nez Perces Indian war. Since 1899 he has been director of Mark Hopkins institute of art at San Francisco.

Fletcher, Robert Samuel, banker of Jackson, Tenn., was born May 13, 1849, in Madison county, Tenn. He is president of the Bank of Commerce.

Fletcher, Stevenson Whitcome, educator and author of Blacksburg, Va., was born Sept. 10, 1875, in Littleton, Mass. In 1905 he became professor of horticulture at the Michigan agricultural college. He is the author of How to Make a Fruit Garden and Soils.

Fletcher, William Isaac, librarian and author of Amherst, Mass., was born April 28, 1844, in Burlington, Vt. Since 1883 he has been librarian of Amherst college. He is the author of Public Libraries of America.

Fletcher, William Presley, banker of Lonoke, Ark., was born July 31, 1848, in Yazoo county, Miss. He is president of the Bank of Lonoke.

Fletcher, William Presley, Jr., banker and land agent of Lonoke, Ark., was born July 18, 1878, in Lonoke, Ark. He is cashier and secretary of the Bank of Lonoke.

Flett, Mrs. Florence Lillian Gillette, dramatist and poet of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 3, 1851, near Birmingham, Mich. In conjunction with her mother, Mrs. Lucia Woolley, she published a volume entitled Floating Leaves.

Flexner, Simon, physician, educator and scientist of 150 East Sixty-first st.,New York City, was born March 25, 1863, in Louisville, Ky. He is the head of the Rockefeller institute for medical research at New York. He is the discoverer of an anti-toxin serum, a cure for cerebro-spinal meningitis.

Flick, Alexander Clarence, educator, lecturer and author of 516 Ostrom ave., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Aug. 18, 1869, in Galion, Ohio. Since 1899 he has been professor of European history at the Syracuse university. He is the author of Loyalism in New York and other works.

Flick, G. Franklin, banker of Santa Fe, N.M., was born May 10, 1876, in Lowansville, Pa. He is president of the Santa Fe Title Abstract company.

Flick, James Patton, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Bedford, Iowa, was born Aug. 28, 1845, in Bakerstown, Pa. He has been a member of the Iowa General Assembly. In 1889-93 he was a member of congress.

Flick, Lawrence F., physician and author of 738 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 10, 1856, in Carrolltown, Pa. He is the author of Consumption a Curable and Preventable Disease.

Flickinger, Henry W., soldier, educator, penman and author of Philadelphia,Pa., was born Aug. 30, 1845, in Perry county, Pa. In 1875 he was associated with Lyman P. Spencer in preparing a large and elaborate collection of pen work displayed at the centennial exhibition at Philadelphia in 1876.

Flickinger, Junius Rudy, educator, statesman and author of Lock Haven, Pa., was born about 1856 in Parry county, Pa. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania state legislature. Since 1899 he has been principal of the state normal school at Lock Haven. In 1902 he was president of the Pennsylvania state education association. He is the author of Civil Government as Developed in the States and the United States.

Fleckinger, Samuel Jacob, journalist of Dayton, Ohio, was born Feb. 14, 1848, near Millville, Ohio. Since 1884 he has been managing editor of the Ohio State Journal of Columbus. He has rendered good service to the republican committees.

Fling, Fred Morrow, educator and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born in 1860 in Portland, Maine. In 1897 he founded the association of Nebraska teachers of history. He is the author of Outline of Historical Method and other works.

Flinn, Alfred Douglas, civil engineer of Yonkers, N.Y., was born Aug. 4, 1869, in New Berlin, Pa. Since 1905 he has been department engineer of the board of water supply.

Flint, Albert Stowell, astronomer of 450 North Carter st., Madison, Wis., was born Sept. 12, 1853, in Salem, Mass. He has been assistant to the United States transit of Venus commission at Washington. He is now astronomer at the Washburn observatory of the university of Wisconsin.

Flint, Austin, physician, surgeon and author of 118 East Nineteenth st., New York City,was born March 28, 1836, in Northampton, Mass. In 1895 he was president of the New York state medical association. He is the author of Physiology of Man, in five volumes, and other works.

Flint, Charles Ranlett, merchant, banker and diplomat of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born Jan. 24, 1850, in Thomaston, Maine. He graduated from the polytechnic institute of Brooklyn. Since 1885 he has been head of the Flint company, shipowners; and in 1880 became president of the United States Electric Lighting company. He has devoted himself largely to the consolidation of industries and is known as the father of trusts. He has been Chilean consul for New York, consul-general of Nicaragua and Costa Rica to the United States, and in 1893 acted for Brazil in the purchase of vessels and munitions of war.

Flint, Frank Putnam, lawyer and statesman of Los Angeles, Cal., was born July 15, 1862, in Reading, Mass. In 1897-1901 he was United States attorney of the southern district of California. In 1905-1911 he was a member of the United States senate.

Flint, Homer Abial, clergyman of 13 Baldwin st., Montpelier, Vt., was born March 21, 1875, in Northfield. He is rector of Christ church.

Flint, James Milton, retired medical director of Stonleigh court, Washington, D.C.,was born Feb. 7, 1838, in Hillsborough, N.H. He received his medical degree from Harvard university. In 1862-74 he was assistant surgeon in the United States navy, in 1874-93 was surgeon, in 1893-97 was medical inspector, and from 1897 medical director. In 1895-1911 he was also curator in the division of medicine in the United States national museum. He is the author of Deep-Sea Deposits of the Pacific Ocean.

Flint, Joseph Marshall, surgeon and anatomist of New Haven, Conn., was born July 8, 1872, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1900 he has been professor of surgery at Yale university.

Flint, Wallace Benjamin, shipping merchant and diplomat of New York City, was born Oct. 10, 1863, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of Flint and company, commission merchants. He has been the consul of Uruguay in New York.

Flint, William Wastey, physician of New York City, was born May 20, 1852, in Baldwin, Maine. Since 1885 he has been attending physician at the Presbyterian hospital of New York City. He has been visiting physician at the workhouse and almhouse hospital of New York City.

Flipper, Joseph Simeon, clergyman and college president of Atlanta, Ga., was born Feb. 22, 1859, in Atlanta, Ga. He has been dean of the Turner theological seminary. He is now president of the Morris Brown college of Atlanta.

Floding, John A., banker of Leetonia, Ohio, was born March 17, 1868, in Leetonia, Ohio.

He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Banking company.

Flood, Ned Arden, soldier, journalist, lecturer and orator of Meadville, Pa., was born in 1870 in New Market, N.H. In 1898-1900 he was associate professor and director of the University of Chicago Press. In 1901 he was a member of the board of health of Meadville, Pa.

Flood,Thomas S.,business man and statesman of Elmira,N.Y., was born April 12,1844, in Lodi, N.Y. In 1887-91 he was a member of congress.

Floody, Robert John, clergyman and author of Boston, Mass., was born Sept.1, 1859, in Canada. He is now pastor of Shawmut Congregational church of Boston. He is the author of Scientific Basis of Sabbath and Sunday.

Florance, Ernest Touro, lawyer and jurist of 320 St. Charles st., New Orleans, La., was born July 30, 1854, in Pass Christian, Miss. He has been president of the commercial law league of America and has filled various positions of trust and honor.

Florea, George Cleveland, banker of Connersville, Ind., was born June 18, 1848, in Connersville, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Florer, Warren Washburn, educator, linguist and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born May 17, 1869, in Lodi, Ill. Since 1897 he has been instructor of German in the university of Michigan. He is the author of Selections from Luther's Bible Translations and other works.

Flory, John S., college president of Bridgewater, Va., was born March 29, 1866, in Broadway, Va. He is president of the Bridgewater college.

Flory, Joseph, secretary of 3915 Shenandoah ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born June 19, 1856, in Logansport, Ind. He is secretary of the Louisiana purchase exposition commission.

Flournoy, John W., lawyer and banker of Beeville, Texas, was born July 31, 1854, in Seguin, Texas. He is president of the Commercial National bank.

Flournoy, Mathews Wells, banker of Albuquerque, N.M., was born Jan. 21, 1860, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Occidental Life Insurance company.

Flower, Benjamin Orange, journalist and author of 5 Park square, Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 19, 1858, in Albion, Ill. He founded The Arena of Boston; and is now editor of The Coming Age. He is the author of Lessons Learned from Other Lives and other works.

Flower, Elliott, journalist and author of Madison, Wis., was born Aug. 2, 1863, in Madison, Wis. In 1895-99 he was an editorial writer on the Chicago Evening Post. He is the author of Policeman Flynn; Slaves of Success and other works.

Flower, Frank Abial, journalist, curator and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 11, 1854. in Cottage, N.Y. In 1890-98 he was editor and proprietor of the Lake Superior Leader. He is the author of Outline History of Wisconsin and other works.

Flower, Henry Corwin, banker of Kansas City, Mo., was born Aug. 15, 1860, in Mount Vernon, Ind. He is president of the Fidelity Trust company; and a director in the Metropolitan Street Railway company and other corporations.

Floy, Henry, consulting engineer of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1866, in Elizabeth, N.J. He is consulting engineer and expert in utility and public service commission work.

Floyd, Charles Miller, merchant, capitalist and statesman of 831 Elm st., Manchester, N.H., was born June 5, 1861, in Derry, N.H. He is president of the Derryfield Lumber company. In 1907-09 he was governor of New Hampshire.

Floyd, David, broker and banker of 34 School st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 26, 1854, in Winthrop, Mass. He is a trustee of the County Savings bank.

Floyd, Emerson Sherman, educator and superintendent of Concordia, Kan., was born Nov. 15, 1850, in Burrillville, R.I. He is district superintendent of the Kansas children's home society.

Floyd, John Charles, lawyer and statesman of Yellville, Ark., was born April 14, 1858, in Sparta, Tenn. Since 1882 he has practiced law in Yellville; in 1889 he was a member of the Arkansas state legislature; and in 1890-94 was prosecuting attorney for the fourteenth judicial circuit. Since 1904 he has been a member of congress.

Floyd,Robert Mitchell, journalist, business man and author of Boston, Mass., was born March 28, 1849, in New Orleans, La. He has served in the New York national guard. He is owner and editor of the Trade Press List of Boston. He is the author of Songs of the Apple Tree.

Floyd-Jones, George Stanton, insurance manager and banker of 49 Wall st., New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1848, in Albany, N.Y. Since 1865 he has been identified with the Atlantic Mutual Insurance company, of which he is secretary. He is also president of the Atlantic Safe Deposit company; president of the Massapegna board of trade; and a member of various patriotic societies and several clubs.

Flugel,Ewald, educator, philologist and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born on Aug. 4, 1863, in Germany. Since 1892 he has been professor of English philology at the Leland Stanford university of California. He is the author of Sidney's Astrophel and Defense of Pesy and other works.

Flynn, David, banker of Princeton, N.J., was born Nov. 5, 1876, in Princeton, N.J. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Flynn, Dennis T., journalist and statesman of Oklahoma City, Okla., was born on Feb. 13, 1862, in Phoenixville, Pa. He has been postmaster of the city of Guthrie. In 1893-97 and in 1899-1903 he was a member of congress.

Flynn, James Doran, journalist and publisher of Bordentown, N.J., was born Feb. 3, 1842, in Bordentown, N.J. Since 1855 he has been editor, publisher and proprietor of the Bordentown Register.

Flynn, Joseph Michael, clergyman and author of Morristown, N.J., was born Jan. 7, 1848, in Springfield, Mass. In 1874 he was ordained a priest of the Roman Catholic church; and is now pastor of St. Mary's church of Morristown, N.J. He is the author of Story of a Parish and other works.

Flynn, P. J., railroad official of New York, N.Y., was born March 12, 1856, in Granville, N.Y. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad.

Flynn, Paul Vincent, lecturer and author of Newark, N.J., was born July 21, 1844, in Abbeyfeale, Ireland. He has lectured extensively; and for nearly a quarter of a century has been connected with the New Jersey Trade Review. He is the author of A History of St. John's Church of Newark.

Flynn, Simon Richardson, banker of 4514 Greenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born on March 16, 1863, in Washington City. He is president of the National Live Stock bank of Chicago and other banks.

Flynn, Thomas Michael, merchant and banker of Parsons, Kan., was born June 17, 1859, in Peru, Ill. He is president of the State bank.

Flynt, Josiah, journalist and author of Milwaukee, Wis., was born in 1869 in Appleton, Wis. He is the author of Tramping with Tramps; and Notes of Itinerant Policeman.

Focht, Benjamin K., journalist and statesman of Lewisburg, Pa., was born March 12, 1863. He has been a member of the state assembly and state senate. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress. He is the owner of the Saturday News.

Foelker, Otto Godfrey, lawyer and statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1875 in Germany. In 1904-05 he was a member of the state assembly; and in 1906-08 he was a member of the state senate. In 1908-11 he was a member of congress.

Foerster, Adolph Martin, musician and composer of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Feb. 1854, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He has been conductor of the Symphonic society. He is the author of Compositions for Orchestras,Songs and Piano Solos.

Fogarty, Rev. James Henry, educator and author of Fall River, Mass., was born Jan. 5, 1856, in Providence, R.I. He has devoted his voice and pen to the cause of Ireland. He is the author of Priest and Parson.

Fogarty, Thomas J., illustrator and artist 251 West Seventy-first st., New York ty, was born in 1873, in New York City. e has illustrated numerous school books r the American Book company.

Fogg, Thomas Biddle, railway official of Toledo, Ohio, was born Jan. 1, 1861, at Hancock's Bridge, N.J. In 1884 he entered railway service and has filled positions to general manager on various railroads. He has been vice-president of the Toledo Railway and Terminal company; when that property was reorganized as the Toledo Terminal railroad he was made general manager. He helped to promote one railroad company in a foreign country now under construction by the government; and is interested in the study of business economics and general-efficiency.

Folda, Jaroslev, banker of Schuyler, Neb., was born Aug. 22, 1875, in Colfax County, Neb. He is president of the bank of Dorsey.

Foley, George Cadwalader, clergyman and theologist of 1117 South Forty-sixth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 29, 1851. He has been rector at Pittston and at Williamsport, Pa.; and a member of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church. He is the author of Anselm's Theory of the Atonement. He is professor of homiletics and pastoral care in the Philadelphia divinity school.

Foley, James William, lecturer and poet of Bismarck, N.D., was born Feb. 4, 1874, in St. Louis, Mo. He has been secretary of the state senate and became secretary to the governor of North Dakota. He is also secretary and acting chairman of the republican state committee. He is the author of several volumes of poems.

Foley, John, banker of New Hampton, Iowa, was born Aug. 14, 1841, in Ireland. He is president of the State bank.

Foley, John Samuel, clergyman and bishop of 31 Washington blvd., Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 5, 1833, in Baltimore, Md. He built the church of St. Martin, one of the finest in the city of Baltimore. Since 1888 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Detroit.

Foley, Stephen Andrew, farmer, lawyer and banker of Lincoln, Ill., was born Aug. 27, 1840, in Logan County, Ill. He has been president of the Lincoln National bank for more than twenty-five years.

Folger, William Mayhew, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born May 19, 1844, in Massillon, Ohio. He served in the civil war as a midshipman. In 1898 he was promoted to the rank of captain; and commanded the protected cruiser New Orleans in the war with Spain.

Folk, Albert Albertson, banker of Southold, N.Y., was born Jan. 17, 1842, in New York. He has been engaged in the insurance and banking business. He is president of the Bank of Southold.

Folk, Edgar Estes, clergyman and author of 627 Bascohil st., Nashville, Tenn., was born Sept. 6, 1856, in Haywood County, Tenn. He has held pastorates in Murfreesboro, Millersburg and Albany. He is the author of Plan of Salvation and The Mormon Monster.

Folk, Henry C., merchant and banker of Bamberg, S.C., was born Dec. 4, 1859, in Colleton County, S.C. He is vice-president of the Bamberg Cotton mills.

Folk, Joseph Wingate, lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born on Oct. 28, 1869, in Brownsville, Tenn. In 1901-05 he was district attorney at St. Louis, Mo. In 1905-09 he was governor of the state of Missouri.

Folks, Homer, social worker of 105 East Twenty-second st., New York City,was born Feb. 18, 1867, in Hanover, Mich. He is secretary of the New York state charities aid association, and vice-chairman of the national child labor committee.

Follansbee, George Alanson, lawyer of 137 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 26, 1843, in Cook County. He is now head of the firm of Follansbee, McConnell and Follansbee.

Follansbee, Mitchell Davis, lawyer of 137 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 23, 1870, in Chicago. He is editor of the Illinois Law Review; and professor in the Northwestern university law school.

Follansby, William H. C., banker of Exeter, N.H., was born May 1, 1845, in Tilton, N.H. He is president of the Exeter Banking company.

Follett, Denis, banker of Hastings, Minn., was born March 3, 1840, in Devonshire, England. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Follett, William W., civil engineer of El Paso, Texas, was born Sept. 22, 1856, in New Sharon, Maine. He is consulting engineer of the international (water) boundary commission.

Folsom, Benjamin, lawyer of 727 South Orange Grove ave., Pasadena, Cal., was born Dec. 5, 1847, in Folsomdale, N.Y. He has been United States consul at Sheffield, England.

Folsom, Ernest Clinton, insurance official of 1411 O st., Lincoln, Neb., was born Aug. 11, 1874, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Pioneer Insurance company.

Folsom,Justus Watson, educator, entomologist and author of Champaign, Ill., was born on Sept. 2, 1871, in Cambridge, Mass. Since 1908 he has been associate assistant professor of entomology at the university of Illinois. He is the author of numerous technical Monographs.

Folsom, Norton, physician and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born April 15, 1842, in Boston, Mass. In 1869-76 he was resident physician at the Massachusetts general hospital in Boston. He is the author of Essays on the Senses of Smell and Taste and other works.

Foltz, Mrs. Clara Shortridge, lawyer and lecturer, was born July 16, 1849, in Henry County, Ind. She went before the California legislature in 1877-78 and secured the passage of an act permitting women to practice law and was the first to take advantage of it.

Folwell, Amory Prescott, educator, civil engineer and author of 239 West Thirty-ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 15, 1865, in Kingston, N.Y. He has been professor of municipal engineering in Lafayette college of Easton, Pa. He is now editor of the Municipal Journal and Engineer.

Folwell, Arthur Hamilton, editor of New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1877, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been editor of Puck.

Folwell, William Watts, soldier, educator and author of 1020 Fifth st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Feb. 14, 1832, in Romulus, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He is now professor emeritus in the university of Minnesota. He is the author of Public Instruction in Minnesota and other works.

Folz, Samuel, merchant and public official of Kalamazoo, Mich., was born on Sept. 18, 1859, in Hillsdale, Mich. He has established the largest clothing house in Kalamazoo County, Kalamazoo, Mich. He has been mayor of his city.

Fonda,Charles Wadsworth, banker of Seiling, Okla., was born in 1842 in New York, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Fontana, Mark John, business man and colony president of 120 Market st.,San Francisco, Cal., was born in May, 1849 in Cerisoma, Italy. He was educated in the private and English night schools of New York City. He served as supervisor of San Francisco under Phelan's administration. He is president of the Italian-Swiss colony. He is general superintendent of the California fruit canners' association; and a director of the California wine association and of the Italian and American bank.

Foos, Charles S., journalist and educator of Reading, Pa., was born Dec. 17, 1863, in Reading, Pa. In 1884-86 he was a newspaper reporter. Since 1899 he has been superintendent of the public schools of Reading.

Foote, Allan Ripley, editor and author of 315 Linwood ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born Jan. 26, 1842, in Olcott, N.Y. He served nearly four years in the civil war in a Michigan regiment, attaining the rank of second lieutenant. He has been president of the Ohio state board of commerce and president of the national tax association. In 1899-1905 he was editor of Public Policy. He is the author of Public Policy Editorials in three volumes; Labor, Capital and the Public and other works.

Foote, Edward Bond, journalist, physician, inventor and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Aug. 15, 1854, in Cleveland, Ohio. He invented and patented a camera, which has become widely known under the name of polyopticon.

Foote, Elizabeth Louisa, librarian and author of 224 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth st., New York City, was born Aug. 23, 1866, in Rome, N.Y. Since 1911 he has been branch librarian of the New York public library. He is the author of The Librarian of the Sunday School and other works.

Foote, John Ambrose, physician and author of 1219 Connecticut ave., Washington, D.C., was born June 9, 1874, in Aribald, Pa. He is the author of The Essentials of Materia Medica and Therapeutics.

Foote, Lucius Harwood, soldier, lawyer, jurist, diplomat and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born April 10, 1826, in Winfield, N.Y. In 1879 he was United States consul at Valparaiso, Chili. In 1883 he was appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Korea.

Foote, Mrs. Mary Hallock, artist and author of Grass Valley, Cal., was born Nov. 19, 1847, in Milton, N.Y. She is the author of The Chosen Valley; The Last Assembly Ball; The Cup of Trembling and other works.

Foote, Nathaniel, lawyer and jurist of Rochester, N.Y., was born on Nov. 15, 1849, in Morrisville, N.Y. In 1892-94 he was first president of the Rochester bar association. He is justice of the supreme court of New York.

Foote, Theodore Clinton, clergyman and author of Baltimore, Md., was born about 1860, at Dobbs Ferry, N.Y. He has filled pastorates in Ohio and Maryland. Since 1903 he has been an instructor in bibliographical literature in the Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore.

Foote, Wallace Turner, lawyer and statesman of Port Henry, N. Y., was born April 7, 1864, in Port Henry, N.Y. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress. He is at the head of the firm of Foote, Stokes and Owen.

Foraker, Joseph Benson, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born July 5, 1846, near Rainsboro, Highland county, Ohio. He enlisted in 1862 as a private in company A, eighty-ninth regiment Ohio volunteer infantry. He served until the close of the war, at which time he held the rank of first lieutenant and brevet captain. He was elected judge of the superior court of Cincinnati in 1879, and resigned on account of ill health in 1882. In 1886-90 he was the thirty-fourth governor of Ohio. He was again nominated for governor and defeated in 1889, and in 1897-1909 he was United States senator.

Foran, Martin Ambrose, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 11, 1844, in Susquehanna county, Pa. In 1883-89 he was a member of congress.

Forbes, Allan, banker of 38 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 20, 1874, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the Dedham National bank.

Forbes, Allen Boyd, banker of 56 William st., New York City, was born in Cleveland, Ohio. He was educated at the northwestern university and at Yale law school. He is head of the New York banking house of Harris Forbes and company, successors to N. W. Harris and company. He is a member of the New York chamber of commerce; and numerous clubs and societies.

Forbes, Charles Henry, educator and author of Andover, Mass., was born March 27, 1866, in Providence, R.I. Since 1894 he has been professor of Latin at Phillips academy of Andover, Mass. He is the author of Eight Orations of Cicero and other works.

Forbes, Elmer Severance, clergyman of 29 Clifton place, Jersey City, N.J., was born Sept. 12, 1860, in Westbor, Mass. Since 1906 he has been rector of St. John's church.

Forbes, Mrs. Harriette Merrifield, author of 23 Trowbridge road, Worcester, Mass., was born Oct. 22, 1856, in Worcester, Mass. She is the author of The Hundredth Town, a series of historical sketches of Westborough; and A Lily Stalk, studies of child life.

Forbes, James Murray, retired railroad president of Milton, Mass., was born July 17, 1845, in Boston, Mass. He has been president of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern railroad.

Forbes, Jesse Franklin, clergyman of 156 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1847, in Hartford, Conn. He is a member and director of the church extension committee of New York presbytery.

Forbes, Robert Humphrey, educator, chemist and scientist of Tucson, Ariz., was born May 15, 1867, in Cobden, Ill. Since 1899 he has been director and chemist of the Arizona agricultural experiment station.

Forbes, Stephen Alfred, soldier, naturalist, founder and author of Urbana, Ill., was born May 29, 1844, in Silver Creek, Ill. He served in the civil war. Since 1888 he has been dean of the college of science at the university of Illinois. He is the author of Contagious Diseases of Insects and other works.

Forbes, Theodore Frelinghuysen, soldier of Roxbury, Conn., was born July 13, 1840, in Hawaii. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of second lieutenant. In 1903 he was retired as brigadier-general of the United States army.

Forbes, William Cameron, statesman of Boston, Mass., was born in 1870 in Milton, Mass. He is a partner in the banking firm of J. M. Forbes and company; and has been governor general of the Philippine Islands since 1909.

Forbes-Lindsay, Charles Harcourt, soldier, journalist and author of 40 Gramercy Park, New York City, was born Aug. 27, 1860, in Calcutta. Since 1887 he has been engaged in journalism in New York and Chicago dailies. He is the author of India, Past and Present and other works.

Forbush, Edward Howe, naturalist, curator, scientist and author of Boston, Mass., was born on April 24, 1858. He is state ornithologist of Massachusetts. He was a collaborator with C. H. Fernald on The Gypsy Moth. Author of Useful Birds and Their Protection and A History of Game Birds, Wild Fowl and Shore Birds.

Forsslund, Mary Louise, litterateur and author of New York City, was born March 13, 1878, in Sayville, Long Island, N.Y. She is the author of The Story of Sarah and other works.

Forster, William, lawyer of 59 Wall st., New York City, was born July 16, 1858, in New York City. He is general solicitor for the New York state lager brewers' association. During the Cleveland administration he was president of the young men's independent club.

Forster, William Hays, manufacturer and philanthropist of 323 West Sixth st., Erie, Pa., was born Jan. 28, 1872, in Erie, Pa. He has been president of the Erie associated charities. He is president of the Hays Manufacturing company and other corporations.

Forsyth, George Alexander, soldier and author of Rockport, Mass., was born Nov. 7, 1837, in Muncy, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevet brigadier-general. He is the author of The Story of the Soldier and other works.

Forsyth, James McQueen, naval officer of Shamokin, Pa., was born Jan. 1, 1842, in the West Indies. He served in the United States navy and attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Forsyth, William, railroad official of Chicago, Ill., was born July 2, 1852, in Northumberland, Pa. Since 1903 he has been associate editor of the Railway Age Gazette.

Fort, John Franklin, lawyer, jurist and statesman of East Orange, N.J., was born March 20, 1852, in Pemberton, N.J. In 1878-86 he was judge of the district court of Newark, N.J. In 1896-1900 he was presiding judge of common pleas of Essex County, N. J. In 1900-08 he was justice of the state supreme court of New Jersey. In 1908-11 he was governor of the state of New Jersey.

Fortenbaugh, Abraham, banker of 1713 North Second st., Harrisburg, Pa., was born on Aug. 5, 1838, in Newberry Township, Pa. He is president of the Halifax National bank and a director of other corporations.

Fortier, Alcee, educator and author of 579 Audubon st., New Orleans, La., was born on June 5, 1856, in St. James, La. He is professor in the Tulane university. He is the author of Le Chateau de Chambord and other works.

Fortune, William, publisher and business president of 963 North Pennsylvania st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born May 27, 1863, in Boonville, Ind. In 1884-88 he was city editor of the Indianapolis Journal, in 1888-90 was editorial writer on the Indianapolis News, and in 1890-1913 was founder and owner of the Municipal Engineering Magazine. He is president of the Indianapolis Telephone company, the New Long Distance Telephone company and various other telephone companies. He was the originator at the Indiana state board of commerce, of which he was president in 1897-99. In 1898-1914 he was chairman of the elevated railroad track commission which secured the abolition of grade crossings in Indianapolis.

Forwood, William Henry, military surgeon of 1425 Euclid place, Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 7, 1838, in Brandywine, Del. He served in the civil war. He is surgeon general in the army.

Forwood, William Stump, physician and author of Pewee Valley, Ky., was born Jan. 27, 1830, in Darlington, Md. He is the author of Descriptive Account of Mammoth Cave and other works.

Fosdick, Charles Austin, author of Westfield, N.Y., was born Sept. 6, 1844, in Randolph, N.Y. He is the author of The Gunboat Series and other works.

Fosdick, Frank Sheldon, educator of New York City, was born March 11, 1851, in Buffalo, N.Y. In 1891 he became principal of the high school annex of New York City.

Fosdick, Frederick, manufacturer of Fitchburg, Mass., was born April 24, 1850, in Groton, Mass. Since 1879 he has been president and general manager of the Fitchburg Steam Engine company.

Fosdick, James William, artist and author of 33 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born Feb. 13, 1858, in Charlestown, Mass. His principal work is the Glorification of Joan of Arc burnt wood decoration. He is the author of The Honor of the Braxtons.

Fosdick, Lucian John, merchant and author of 11A Everett ave., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 5, 1849, in Lowell, Mass. Since 1866 he has been identified with the wholesale dry goods business in Boston, Mass.; is a director of the Dorchester Trust company and vice-president and trustee of the Dorchester trust associates. He was a member of company C, sixth regiment Massachusetts national guard. He has been president of the Boston Baptist society; and has filled numerous other positions of trust and honor. He has made a success of cranberry culture; and is the author of a Monograph of Cranberry Culture. He is also the author of French Blood in America and other works.

Foskett, Leslie Darrin, banker of Crookston, Minn., was born June 8, 1865, in Northfield, Mass. He is cashier of the Crookston State bank.

Foss, Eugene Noble, manufacturer, capitalist and statesman of 34 Oliver st., Boston was born on Sept. 24, 1858, in West Berkshire, Vt. He is president of the Maverick mills.

Foss, George Edmund, lawyer and statesman of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill. was born July 2, 1863, in Berkshire, Vt. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress.

Foss, Sam Walter, librarian, author and poet of Somerville, Mass., was born June 19 1858, in Candia, N.H. Since 1893 he has been librarian of the Somerville public library He is the author of Songs of War and Peace and other works.

Foss, Walter David, manufacturer and banker of Wooster, Ohio, was born Sept. 11 1856, in Wooster, Ohio. He is head of the Wooster Brush company.

Fossler, Laurence, educator, philologist and author of 1547 South Seventeenth st., Lincoln, Neb., was born March 12, 1857, in Germany. Since 1894 he has been professor of Germanic languages and literatures at the university of Nebraska. He is the author of a Brief German Grammar and other works.

Foster,Addison Gardner, business man and statesman of 523 North Tacoma ave., Tacoma, Wash., was born in 1837, in Belchertown, Mass. He has been county auditor and surveyor of Wabasha, Minn. In 1899-1903 he was a member of the United States senate.

Foster, Mrs. Agnes Greene, lecturer, author and poet of 3614 Lake ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 6, 1863, in Athens, Ala. She is the author of By the Way and other works.

Foster, Alfred Dwight, lawyer and insurance official of 87 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born April 27, 1852, in Worcester, Mass. He is president of the New England Mutual Life Insurance company.

Foster, Ardeen, lecturer, author and poet of 127 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born Oct. 14, 1862, in Franklin, Mich. He is the author of Ardeen Foster's Musical works and a score of other books.

Foster, Benjamin, painter and artist of 253 West Forty-second st., New York City, was born July 31, 1852, in North Anson, Maine. His best known works are A Dreary Road and The Shepherd.

Foster, Charles Henry Wheelwright, banker of 40 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 30, 1859, in Brookline, Mass. He is president of the Mutual National bank.

Foster, David Johnson, lawyer and statesman of Burlington, Vt., was born June 27, 1857, in Barnet, Vt. He has been state's attorney for Chittenden County, Vt. In 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Foster, David Skaats, merchant, author and poet of Utica, N.Y., was born in 1862, in Utica, N.Y. He is the author of Spanish Castles by the Rhine and other works.

Foster, Edna Abigail, journalist and author of Brookline, Mass., was born in Sullivan Harbor, Maine. Since 1901 she has been editor of the children's page in the Youth's Companion of Boston, Mass. She is the author of Hortense, a Difficult Child and other works.

Foster, Mrs. Ellen Horton, lawyer and temperance advocate of Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 3, 1840, in Lowell, Mass. She has been counsel for the woman's christian temperance union of the United States.

Foster, Enoch, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 114 Exchange st., Portland, Maine, was born May 10, 1839, in Newry, Maine. He served in the civil war. He has been county attorney. He has been a member of the state senate. In 1884-98 he was associate justice of the state supreme court of Maine.

Foster, Ernest Le Neve, mining engineer of Denver, Col., was born Jan. 23, 1849, in London, England. Since 1872 he has practiced his profession in Colorado; and in 1883-84 was state geologist of Colorado. He has been president of the Colorado scientific society; and since 1883 has been a fellow of the geological society of London.

Foster,Frank Hugh, clergyman, theologian and author of Olivet, Mich., was born June 18, 1851, in Springfield, Mass. Since 1907 he has been professor of history at Olivet college. He is the author of Christian Life and Theology and other works.

Foster, George Burman, educator of 1432 Hyde Park blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born on April 2, 1858, in Alderson, W.Va. He is professor of the philosophy of religion in the university of Chicago.

Foster, George Everett, journalist and author of Milford, N.H., was born on Aug. 27, 1849, in Milford, N.H. He has been the publisher of the Enterprise of Milford, N.H. He is the author of The Story of An Indian Tribe and other works.

Foster, George H. D., lawyer of 11 East Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born Sept. 23, 1872, in Westport, Maine. He is a member of the firm of Wait and Foster.

Foster, George P., lawyer and statesman of Chicago, Ill., was born April 3, 1860, in Dover, N.J. He has been justice of the peace at Chicago, Ill. In 1899-1905 he was a member of congress.

Foster, Gilbert A., business president of 1430 West Madison st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 6, 1861, in Brown County, Wis. He is president of the Garfield Park Storage company of Chicago.

Foster, Harry Dewaine, railway official of Chicago, Ill., was born on Oct. 24, 1866, in Downer's Grove, Ill. In 1882 he entered railway service with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, has held various clerical positions, and since 1910 has been assistant general auditor, with headquarters in Chicago.

Foster, Herbert Sidney, retired army officer of North Calais, Vt., was born Aug. 8, 1853, in Calais, Vt. He was educated at the United States military academy; and in 1890-93 was professor of military science and tactics in the university of Vermont. Since 1905 he has held the rank of colonel in the United States army and was retired in 1906. He has been commander of the Vermont division of the sons of veterans; and is now commander of the Vermont commandery, military order of the loyal legions of the United States; and also of the Vermont commandery of the military order of foreign wars.

Foster, Howard E., banker of 34 Church st., White Plains, N.Y., was born in 1859, in Brewster, N.Y. He has been an official in the Central bank of Westchester County for twenty-five years, and has been its president since 1902.

Foster, James, business man of 850 Broadway, New York City, was born June 28, 1846, in Montreal, Canada. He is president of the James Foster and Son company and a director of various corporations.

Foster, James Irdle, physician, surgeon and banker of Huntsville, Tenn., was born April 15, 1874, in Huntsville, Tenn. He is president of the Huntsville Banking company.

Foster, John Gilman, diplomat of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, was born March 9, 1859, in Derby Line, Vermont. He has been president of the Massawippi Valley Railway company.

Foster, John Hopkins, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Evansville, Ind., was born on Jan. 31, 1862, in Evansville, Ind. In 1894-1906 he was judge of the superior court of Vanderburg County, Ind. In 1905-09 he was a member of congress.

Foster, John McGaw, clergyman and author of 198 Bay State Road, Boston, Mass., was born on Feb. 4, 1860, in Bangor, Maine. Since 1898 he has been rector of the church of the Messiah of Boston, Mass. He is the author of The White Stone.

Foster, John Wasson, banker of Guthrie Center, Iowa, was born Feb. 26, 1857, in Iowa. He is president and owner of the Citizens' National bank.

Foster, John Watson, lawyer and diplomat of 1323 Eighteenth st., Washington, D. C., was born March 2, 1836, in Petersburg, Ind. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevet brigadier-general. He has been United States minister to Mexico, Russia and to Spain. In 1892-93 he was secretary of state.

Foster, Joseph, naval officer and author of 26 Middle st., Portsmouth, N.H., was born on June 17, 1841, in Gloucester, Mass. He served in the civil war and in 1902 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral. He is the author of The Grave We Decorate and other works.

Foster, Luther, soldier, educator and college president of Mesilla Park, N.M., was born on Oct. 5, 1849, in Whitehall, Ind. He served in the civil war. He has been superintendent of schools. Since 1901 he has been president of the New Mexico college of agriculture and mechanical arts.

Foster, Mabel Grace, lecturer and author of 8 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born on Sept. 28, 1869, in Boston, Mass. She is a lecturer on art, history and Italian literature. She is the author of The Heart of the Doctor.

Foster, Marcellus Elliott, publisher and capitalist of Houston, Texas, was born Nov. 29, 1870, in Pembroke, Ky. He is president of the Houston Chronicle Publishing company.

Foster, Martin D., physician and statesman of Olney, Ill., was born Sept. 3, 1861, in West Salem, Ill. He has been mayor of his city. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Foster, Matthew Whilldin, educator of 9 West Franklin st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 17, 1840, in Philadelphia. He is dean of the Baltimore college of dental surgery.

Foster, Murphy James, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Franklin, La., was born Jan. 12, 1849, in Franklin, La. He has been an associate justice on the supreme bench. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress. He has been a member of the United States senate. In 1892-1900 he was governor of Louisiana.

Foster, N. C., railroad president of Fairchild, Wis., was born in Owego, N.Y. Since 1891 he has been president of the Fairchild and Northeastern railroad.

Foster, Reginald, lawyer and capitalist of 87 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 2, 1863, in Worcester, Mass. He is a member of the firm of Foster and Turner.

Foster, Robert Frederick, architect, civil engineer and author of 532 Monroe st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 31, 1853, in Edinburgh, Scotland. Since 1895 he has been card editor of the New York Sun. He is the author of Foster's Complete Bridge and other works.

Foster, Robert Verrell, educator and author of Lebanon, Tenn., was born Aug. 12, 1845, in Wilson County, Tenn. Since 1893 he has been professor of the systematic theological seminary. He is the author of The Systems of Doctrine and other works.

Foster, Roger, lawyer and author of 55 Liberty st., New York City, was born in 1857, in Worcester, Mass. He has been special counsel for the board of health of New York City. He is the author of A Treatise Federal Practice and other works.

Foster, Samuel P., publisher and banker of Elmer, N.J., was born Nov. 13, 1859, in Newport, N.J. He is president of the First National bank.

Foster, Scott, banker of 395 Canal st., New York City, was born May 19, 1837, in Newburgh, N.Y. Since 1884 he has been president of the People's bank.

Foster, Mrs. Theodosia Toll, educator and author of Verona, N.Y., was born about 1838, in Verona, N.Y. Since 1890 she has been president of Oneida county women's temperance christian union. She is the author of A Baker's Dozen and other works.

Foster, Thomas J., educator and founder of Scranton, Pa. He is president of the International Textbook company. He is the founder of the international correspondence schools of Scranton, Pa.

Foster, Walter Bertram, litterateur and author of 760 Third avenue, New York City, was born Nov. 3, 1869, in Providence, R.I. He is the author of The Lost Galleon and other works.

Foster, Warren William, jurist of 435 East Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born on July 26, 1859, in Riverhead, N.Y. He is a director of the American Light and Traction company.

Foster, William Davis, physician of Kansas City, Mo., was born Sept. 7, 1841, in Van Buren County, Iowa. He has been assistant surgeon of the seventh Missouri cavalry volunteers.

Foster, William Eaton, librarian and author of 240 Dowen st., Providence, R.I., was born June 2, 1851, in Brattleboro, Vt. He is the author of The Civil Service Reform Movement and other works.

Fotheringham, William S., banker of Pinconning, Mich., was born Feb. 23, 1869, in Michigan. He is president of the Pinconning State bank.

Foulke, Charles Mather, educator, merchant and manufacturer of Philadelphia,Pa., was born July 25, 1841, in Quakertown, Pa. He is the author of The Art Tapestries in America and other works.

Foulke, Job Roberts, banker of 409 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 25, 1843, in Quakertown, Pa. He is trust officer of the Provident Life and Trust company and a director of corporations.

Foulke, William Dudley, lawyer, statesman and author of Richmond, Ind., was born Nov. 20, 1848, in New York City. He has been a member of the state senate. He has been president of the Indiana civil service reform association; and of the American woman's suffrage association. He is the author of Slav or Saxon and other works.

Foulkrod,William Walker, merchant, manufacturer and statesman of 4716 Leiper st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born about 1850 in Frankfort, Pa. He is president of the Frankfort Mutual Fire Insurance company. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Fountain, Samuel Warren, soldier of Devon, Pa., was born Dec. 13, 1846, in Parkersburg, W.Va. He served in the civil war and was retired with the rank of brigadier-general in 1905.

Fournier, Alexis Joseph, landscape painter, artist and founder of East Aurora, N.Y., was born July 4, 1865, in St. Paul, Minn. He is art director of the Roycroft shops at East Aurora, N.Y. He was the founder of the Minnesota art league.

Foust, Julius Isaac, educator and college president of Greensboro, N.C., was born in 1865, in Graham, N.C. Since 1907 he has been president of the state normal and industrial college. He has been president of the North Carolina association of city school superintendents.

Foute, Robert Chester, naval officer and clergyman of San Francisco, Cal., was born on April 14, 1841, in Greenville, Tenn. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. He was ordained priest in 1874. In 1883 he was elected rector of Grace church of San Francisco, Cal.

Fouts, Louis M., railway official of Boca Grande, Fla., was born July 22, 1854, in New Washington, Ind. He entered the railway service in 1869. In 1869-1871 he was rodman and division engineer of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway; in 1882-1890 was superintendent of the Denver, Utah and Pacific railroad at Denver; in 1891-1892 was president and general manager of the Weatherford, Mineral Wells and Northwestern railway; in 1904-05 he was second vice-president of the Peace River Phosphate Mining Company railroad, now the Charlotte Harbor and Northern railway, and since 1905 he has been second vice-president and general manager of the same road at Boca Grande.

Fowle, Otto, banker of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., was born Jan. 9, 1852, in Moscow, Mich. He is president of the First National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Fowler, C. Lewis, clergyman and college president of Lexington, Mo., was born Nov. 17, 1877, in Stouts, N.C. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M., and B.D. He has been principal of Morgan's academy of North Carolina; and pastor of the First Baptist church of Clinton, S.C. He has traveled abroad and given summer lectures at Oxford. He is now president of the Lexington college for young women.

Fowler, Carl Hitchcock, lawyer of 55 Liberty st., New York City, was born Aug. 24, 1873, in Evanston, Ill. He is director and vice-president of the Oppenheimer institute and various corporations.

Fowler, Charles E., banker of 3338 Michigan ave., Indiana Harbor, Ind., was born Oct. 12, 1858, in Ingham County, Mich. He is president of the Indiana Securities company.

Fowler, Charles Evan, civil engineer, contractor and author of Seattle, Wash., was born Feb. 10, 1867, in Bartlett, Ohio. He is president of the Puget Sound Bridge and Dredging company and other corporations. He is the author of Cofferdam Process for Piers and other works.

Fowler, Charles Newell, lawyer and statesman of Elizabeth, N.J., was born Nov. 2, 1852, in Lena, Ill. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress.

Fowler, Charles Wesley, educator, founder and author of Lyndon, Ky., was born May 22, 1858, in Beverly, Ohio. He established the Key training school. He is the author of Inductive Geometry.

Fowler, David, lawyer and jurist of Baltimore, Md., was born on Oct. 21, 1836, in Washington County, Md. In 1882-89 he was associate justice of the third judicial district of Maryland; and in 1889-1903 he was associate justice of the court of appeals of Maryland.

Fowler, Edward Payson, physician and author of 38 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born Nov. 30, 1834, in Coshocton, N.Y. He has been president of the New York medico-chirurgical society. He is the author of Certain Maladies of the Heart and other works.

Fowler, Mrs. Fannie H., litterateur and poet of Manistee, Mich., was born Jan. 19, 1838, in Will County, Ill. She has edited for several years the woman's department of one of the leading newspapers of Manistee, Mich. She is the author of a volume of Society Poems.

Fowler, Frank, artist and author of 106 West Fifty-fifth st., New York City, was born July 12, 1852, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He painted the portraits of Governor Samuel J. Tilden and of others. He is the author of Portrait and Figure Paintings.

Fowler, George Bingham, physician and author of 18 East Fifty-eighth st., New York City, was born Oct. 23, 1847, in Macon County, Ala. He established the Dietetic Gazette; and has been associate editor of The American Journal of Obstetrics. He is the author of Detection of Sugar in Urine and other works.

Fowler, Harold North, educator and author of 2033 Cornell road, Cleveland, Ohio, was born Feb. 25, 1859, in Westfield, Mass. Since 1893 he has been professor of Greek in the college for women at the Western Reserve university. He is the author of History of Roman Literature and other works.

Fowler, Henry Thatcher, educator and author of 127 Lloyd ave., Providence, R.I., was born March 4, 1867, in Fishkill, N.Y. Since 1901 he has been professor of biblical literature and history at Brown university of Providence. He is the author of Outlines of Biblical History and Literature and other works.

Fowler, Inman Henry, lawyer and banker of Spencer, Ind., was born June 7, 1834, in Lewisburg, Ohio. He is president of the Exchange bank.

Fowler, James Alexander, lawyer and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 22, 1863, in Bull Run, Tenn. Since 1911 he has been assistant to the attorney-general of the United States.

Fowler, James M., farmer and banker of Lafayette, Ind., was born Oct. 7, 1844, in Lafayette, Ind. He is president of the National Fowler bank.

Fowler, John, naval officer and diplomat of Chefoo, China, was born May 9, 1858, in New York City. He has been consul to Ningpo, China; and in 1896 to Chefoo; and since 1904 has been consul-general at Chefoo, China.

Fowler, John Edgar, lawyer and statesman of Clinton, N.C., was born on Sept. 8, 1866 in Sampson county, N.Y. In 1879-99 he was a member of congress.

Fowler, John W., banker of Arco, Idaho, was born March 24, 1884, in Missouri. He is president of the Arco Telephone company.

Fowler, Nathaniel Clark, journalist, lecturer and author of 8 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 21, 1858, in Yarmouth, Mass. He has been editor and publisher of various papers. He is the author of About Advertising and Printing and other works.

Fowler, Robert T., farmer, banker and statesman of Lucas, Kan., was born Nov. 25, 1851, in Illinois. For thirty years he was engaged in farming and the live stock business. In 1908-12 he was a member of the Kansas state senate. He is now president of the First National bank; and is also engaged in the real estate business.

Fowler, Rufus Bennett, corporation official of 311 Main st., Worcester, Mass., was born Dec. 5, 1841, in Northbridge, Mass. He is president of the Worcester conference for child welfare.

Fowler, Samuel, lawyer and statesman of Newton, N.J., was born March 22, 1851, in Franklin, N.J. In 1889-93 he was a member of congress.

Fowler, Thomas Powell, lawyer and railroad president of 56 Beaver st., New York City, was born Oct. 26, 1851 in Newburgh, N.Y. In 1880-1912 he was president of the New York, Ontario and Western railway.

Fowler, William P., capitalist of 18 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1850 in Concord, N.H. He is president and director of the industrial aid society.

Fox, Andrew Fuller, lawyer and statesman of West Point, Miss., was born April 26, 1849, in Clay county, Miss. In 1893-96 he was United States attorney for northern district of Mississippi. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress.

Fox, Austen G., lawyer of 45 Wall st., New York City, was born Sept. 7, 1849. He is a member of the bar association of the city of New York.

Fox, Caleb Fellowes, stock broker of 132 South Third st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 29, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Keystone Watch Case company and other corporations.

Fox, Elias Williams, journalist, publisher and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 28, 1828, in Buffalo, N.Y. In 1865 he was a member of the Missouri state legislature. In 1885 he became editor and proprietor of The National Republic of Washington.

Fox, Frances Margaret, writer and author of 66 Euclid ave., Detroit, Mich., was born June 23, 1870, in Framingham, Mass. She is the author of Farmer Brown and the Birds; and What Gladys Saw.

Fox, George Henry, soldier, physician and author of 616 Madison ave., New York City, was born Oct. 8, 1846, in Ballston Spa, N.Y. He has been president of the New York state medical society. He has published Photographic Illustrations of Skin Diseases.

Fox, Howard, dermatologist and author of 616 Madison ave., New York City, was born July 4, 1873, in London, England. He graduated from the college of physicians and surgeons of New York; received the degrees of A.B. and M.D.; and took post-graduate courses in Berlin and Vienna. He is first lieutenant in the medical reserve corps of the United States army. He is consulting dermatologist to the Harlem hospital and other institutions; and professor of dermatology in the Dartmouth medical school. He is the author of valuable articles in standard publications.

Fox, James D., lawyer and jurist of Jefferson City, Mo., was born Jan. 22, 1847, in Frederickstown, Mo. In 1880-1902 he was circuit judge for the twenty-seventh judicial circuit of Missouri. Since 1902 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Missouri.

Fox, Rev. James Joseph, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born in Stewartstown, Ireland. He is the author of Religion and Morality and other works.

Foxton, John, business president of Spring Hill, Wyo., was born in 1866 in Lawrencekirk, Scotland. He was president of the Douglas Oil Field company; and manager of the Boston Wyoming Copper company. He is serving his fourth term as United States court commissioner for Wyoming.

Fox, John, author of Big Stone Gap, Va., was born about 1865, in Bourbon County, Ky. He is the author of Hell for Sartin; The Last Stetson; The Kentuckians and other works.

Fox, John E., lawyer, founder and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 27, 1861, in Dauphin County, Pa. He is known as the father of the new capitol building. Since 1901 he has been a member of the Pennsylvania state senate.

Fox, Joseph John, clergyman and bishop of Green Bay, Wis., was born Aug. 2, 1855, in Green Bay, Wis. In 1883-94 he was rector at Marinette, Wis. Since 1904 he has been bishop of Green Bay.

Fox, Louis, retired manufacturer and capitalist of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born March 8, 1852, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is president of the Hartford City Paper company.

Fox, Lyttleton, lawyer of 163 East Eightieth st., New York City, was born Feb. 22, 1881, in New York City. He is a member of the law firm of Escher and Fox, and is a director of various corporations.

Fox, Philip, astronomer of 2235 Sheridan road, Chicago, Ill., was born March 7, 1878, in Manhattan, Kan. Since 1907 he has been instructor in astrophysics at Chicago university.

Fox, Walter Dennis, journalist and author of Tullahoma, Tenn., was born July 4, 1867, near Murfreesboro, Tenn. He is the author of Sam Davis; The Confederate Scout; Father Carolan; and also One Mid-Year's Madness.

Fox, William Carlton, diplomat of Washington, D.C., was born May 20, 1855, in St. Louis, Mo. He is envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Ecuador.

Fox, William Henry, lawyer, jurist and banker of Taunton, Mass., was born Aug. 29, 1837, in Taunton, Mass. In 1861 he began the practice of law; in 1865-75 he was justice of the municipal court; in 1873 was mayor of his city; and since 1875 has been judge of the first district court of Bristol county. He is president of the Bristol County Savings bank; and a trustee of the Taunton public library.

Fox, William Joseph, entomologist and librarian of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 21, 1872, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1888 he has been assistant librarian in the academy on natural sciences of Philadelphia. He has made original investigations in entomology.

Foxcroft, Frank, journalist and author of 6 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 21, 1850, in Boston, Mass. Since 1895 he has been editorial writer and department editor of the Youth's Companion. He is the author of Transcript Pieces and other works.

Foye, Andrew Ernest, consulting engineer and capitalist of 20 Broad st., New York City, was born May 13, 1872, in New York City. He is president of the Andrew E. Foye company and other corporations.

Fracker, Mrs. Cora Robbins, musician and composer of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Aug. 11, 1849, in Iowa City, Iowa. She has taught music for a quarter of a century, principally the guitar. She is the author of a number of musical compositions for the guitar and piano.

Frackleton, Mrs. Susan Stuart, lecturer, artist and inventor of 6030 Stony Island ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 5, 1848, in Milwaukee, Wis. She has invented and patented a portable gas-kiln for firing artistic work. She is the author of Tried by Fire, a successful text-book on China Painting and other works.

Fradenburgh, J. N., educator, clergyman and author of Grand Forks, N.D., was born March 4, 1843, in Gouverneur, N.Y. He has been president of the Red River Valley university of North Dakota. He is the author of The Bible Illustrated from the Monuments and other works.

Frailey, Leonard August, naval officer of 1506 Twenty-first st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 8, 1843, in Washington, D.C. He served in the civil war as assistant paymaster in the United States navy. In 1899 he was commissioned pay director, with rank of captain. In 1905 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Frain, Howard Emery, banker of Fulton, Ind., was born in 1886 in Rochester, Ind. He is cashier of the Fulton State bank.

Fraker, George Washington, manufacturer of Spray, N.C., was born Oct. 10, 1874, in Oshkosh, Wis. For a while he was traveling salesman for Hart, Schaffner and Marx of Chicago, Ill.; subsequently was in the clothing business for himself; and is now president of the Carolina Cotton and Woolen Mills company.

Frame, Andrew Jay, banker of Waukesha, Wis., was born Feb. 19, 1844, in Waukesha, Wis. He has been cashier of the Waukesha County bank. He is now director and president of the Gas, Electric Light and Waterworks company of Waukesha.

Franchot, Nicholas Van Vranken, lawyer, oil producer and bank official of Olean, N.Y., was born Aug. 21, 1855, in Morris, N.Y. In 1894-98 he served as mayor of his city. He is engaged in the practice of law in Olean.

Francine, Albert Philip, physician and author of 1932 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 8, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Modern and Specialized Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis.

Francis, Carl, banker of Marble Falls, Texas, was born Jan. 10, 1863, in Marble Falls, Texas. He is cashier of the Citizens' State bank.

Francis, David Rowland, grain merchant, financier and banker of 214 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 1, 1850, in Richmond, Ky. He is vice-president of the Merchants' Lacede National bank. He has been governor of Missouri.

Francis, George Ebenezer, physician and surgeon of Worcester, Mass., was born May 29, 1838, in Lowell. He is consulting surgeon to the city memorial and St. Vincent hospitals of Worcester.

Francis, Joseph G., writer and author of Boston, Mass., was born April 21, 1849, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of A Book of Cheerful Cats.

Francis, Joseph Marshall, clergyman, educator and bishop of 1559 Central ave., Indianapolis, Ind., was born April 6, 1862, in Eaglesmere, Pa. In 1898 he was rector of St. Paul's church; and in 1899 he was consecrated Protestant Episcopal bishop of Indianapolis.

Francis, J. D. Perry, broker of 214 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 31, 1876, in Normandy, Mo. He is connected with the firm of Francis, Brother and company.

Francis, Mark, veterinarian and scientist of College Station, Texas, was born March 19, 1863, in Shandon, Ohio. He has been president of the Texas veterinary medical association.

Francis, Thomas H., broker and capitalist of 214 North st., St. Louis, Mo., was born July 17, 1855, in Richmond, Ky. He is a member of the firm of Francis, Brother and company.

Francisco, M. Judson, underwriter, banker and author of 57 Merchants Row, Rutland, Vt., was born Sept. 5, 1836, in West Haven, Vt. He is vice-president of the Rutland Trust company.

Francke, Kuno, educator and author of Berkeley place, Cambridge, Mass., was born Sept. 27, 1855, in Germany. He is a professor in Harvard university. He is the author of Social Forces in German Literature, a Study in the History of Civilization and other works.

Frank, Alfred, mining engineer of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Jan. 27, 1879, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was educated at the university of Cincinnati, and received the degree of C.E. from Cornell university. He is general manager of the Ohio Copper company, and of the Bingham Central railway. He is construction engineer for the Stewart Mining company.

Frank, Henry, clergyman and author of 2009 Madison ave., New York City, was born Dec. 21, 1854, in La Fayette, Ind. In 1897 he founded and has since been pastor of the Metropolitan independent church of New York City. He is the author of Skeleton of the Rose and other works.

Frank, Herman Washington, merchant of Los Angeles, Cal., was born July 4, 1860, in Portland, Ore. He is president of Harris and Frank, merchants. For four years he was a member of the board of education; and has been president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association.

Frank, John, farmer and banker of Le Roy, Minn., was born Feb. 13, 1834, in Germany. He has been president of the First National bank.

Frank, John H., banker of Ligonier, Pa., was born April 1, 1850, in Ligonier, Pa. He is president of the bank of Ligonier.

Frank, Julius J., lawyer of 52 William st., New York City, was born March 3, 1852, in New York City. He has been a member of various societies and organizations of New York.

Frank, Nathan, lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 23, 1852, in Peoria, Ill. He was the author of Frank's Bankrupt Law. In 1889-91 he was a member of congress.

Frank, Philip, lawyer of Long Island City, N.Y., was born Sept. 17, 1873, in Winfield, Junction, N.Y. He has been assistant corporation counsel for the City of New York; and in 1907 was appointed transfer tax appraiser for the county of Queens.

Frank, Thomas, educator and clergyman of Sewanee, Tenn., was born Sept. 17, 1856, in Jackson, Miss. In 1883 he was chaplain of the university of the South. He is now bishop coadjutor of Tennessee.

Frankel, Lee K., chemist, public official and author of New York City, was born Aug. 13, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1908 he was vice-president of the New York state conference of charities and corrections. He is the author of Common Sense Charity and other works.

Frankforter, George Bell, educator of 525 East River Parkway, Minneapolis, Minn., was born April 22, 1860, in Potter, Ohio. He is dean of the school of chemistry at the university of Minnesota.

Frankland, Frederick William, actuary, mathematician, scientist and author of Okataina, Foxton, Manawatu, New Zealand, was born April 18, 1854, in Manchester, England. He was educated at the university college school, and at the university of London. In 1874 he became his father's private assistant at the chemical research laboratory in the South Kensington science schools. Since 1886 he has been government statist of New Zealand; and since 1889 government insurance commissioner. In 1893 he became associate actuary of the New York Life Insurance company; and in 1891 was a delegate from New Zealand to the international congress of hygiene and demomgraphy. He has written chiefly on mathematical, metaphysical and sociological subjects; and is the author of various papers in the procedings of the London mathematical society; and in proceedings of the American association for the advancement of science. He is also the author of Collected Essays and Citations, treating on theology, metaphysics and other scientific subjects.

Franklin, Fabian, editor of 527 West One Hundred and Tenth st., New York City, was born Jan. 18, 1853, in Egar, Hungary. Since 1895 he has been editor of the Baltimore News.

Franklin, John P., farmer, educator and clergyman of Mount Airy, N.C., was born July 26, 1860, in Clinton, La. He has filled a pastorate in Lumberton, N.C.; and now fills a pastorate in Mount Airy, N.C.

Franklin, Lindley Murray, banker of 38 Sanford ave., Flushing, Long Island, N.Y., was born May 25, 1838, in New York City. He served in the campaign of 1862 and 1863 as private, corporal, sergeant and lieutenant. He is president and trustee of the Queens County Savings bank.

Franklin, Milton Washington, civil engineer and scientist of Bloomfield, N.J., was born Feb. 22, 1876, in San Francisco, Cal. He was educated at the California and Columbia universities, and has received the degrees of M.D., A.M. and E.E. In 1903-06 he was director of radio-clinic in the New York City health department. In 1906-12 he was assistant power and mining engineer in the department of the General Electric company at Schenectady, N.Y.; and is now engineer in the Ozonator department at Bloomfield, N.J. He has made researches in electro-therapeutics and kindred subjects.

Franklin, Nathan E., banker of Deadwood, S.D., was born Dec. 15, 1870, in Burlington, Iowa. He is president of the Consolidated Light and Power company.

Franklin, Walter M., railroad president of Lancaster, Pa., was born April 26, 1852, in Lancaster City, Pa. Since 1890 he has been president of the Lancaster, Oxford and Southern Railroad at Lancaster.

Franklin, Walter Simonds, civil engineer and capitalist of 24 East Mount Vernon place, Baltimore, Md., was born March 1, 1836, in York, Pa. He has been president of the Baltimore City Passenger Railroad.

Franklin, William Henderson, educator, clergyman and college president of Rogersville, Tenn., was born April 14, 1852, in Knoxville, Tenn. For several years he was a director of Maryland college. He is pastor of St. Marks churches at Mt. Olivet and Rogersville, Tenn.

Frantz, Frank, soldier and statesman of Oklahoma City, Okla., was born May 7, 1872, in Roanoke, Va. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1904-08 he was governor of Oklahoma.

Franzen, August, artist of 222 Central park, New York City, was born in Drotthem, Sweden. He is a member of the National Academy of Design and of the Players' and Lotos clubs.

Franzoni, Charles William, physician and surgeon of 605 I st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 15, 1837, in Washington, D.C. He has been president of the medical association of the District of Columbia.

Fraps, George Stronach, educator, scientist and author of College Station, Texas, was born Sept. 9, 1876, in Raleigh, N.C. In 1905-06 he was state chemist of Texas. Since 1906 he has been associate professor of chemistry in the state agricultural and mechanical college of Texas.

Fraser, Alexander Rosborough, capitalist of Ocean Park, Cal., was born Feb. 1, 1856, in St. Johns, N.B. He built Ocean Park. He is president of the Topango Improvement company.

Fraser, Edwin Joseph, physician, surgeon and scientist of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 14, 1830, in Ontario, Canada. In 1900-05 he was general manager of the insurance department of the U. B. R. E. He is the author of several monographs and contributions to medical and scientific literature.

Fraser, Elisha Alexander, lecturer and lawyer of Detroit, Mich., was born March 13, 1837, in Bowmanville, Ontario, Canada. He has received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. In 1864-73 he was superintendent of public schools of Kalamazoo, Mich. He then practiced law for three years in Battle Creek, Mich., where he served two years as city attorney. Since 1876 he has practiced his profession in Detroit, Mich.; and since 1892 has been professor in the Detroit college of law, lecturing on contracts, constitutional law and international law. In 1904 he represented the Presbyterian church of the United States at the Pan-Presbyterian alliance held in Liverpool, England.

Fraser, Horatio Nelson, manufacturer and druggist of 563 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Nov. 30, 1851, in Providence, R.I. He incorporated the Frazer Toilet Manufacturing company with a capital stock of twenty thousand dollars. He has been trustee and treasurer of the New York college of pharmacy.

Frayer, Eugene, lawyer of 141 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 15, 1851, in Huron county, Ohio. He is a member of the firm of Frayer, Stotesbury and Gregg.

Frazer, Robert S., president judge of 5820 Ripley st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 18, 1849, in Fayette City. He is president judge of the court of common pleas number 2.

Frazier, Charles Harrison, surgeon and scientist of 1724 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 19, 1870, in Germantown, Pa. Since 1902 he has been dean in the department of surgery in the medical department of the university of Pennsylvania.

Frazier, James B., lawyer and statesman of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born Oct. 8, 1858, in Pikeville, Tenn. In 1903-05 he was governor of Tennessee. In 1905-11 he was a member of the United States senate.

Frazier, Kenneth, artist of Garrisons, N.Y., was born in 1867 in Paris, France. He is a member of the society of American artists and of the century association.

Frazier, Samuel Robinson, educator, clergyman and lecturer of Youngstown, Ohio, was born Feb. 23, 1846, in St. Clairsville, Ohio. He taught in the Osaka school and Imperial university at Tokio, Japan. Since 1883 he has been pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Youngstown,Ohio.

Frazier, William West, merchant and capitalist of 400 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 27, 1839, in Montevideo, Uruguay, South America. He served in the civil war. He is a director of the Philadelphia Trust, Safe Deposit and Insurance company.

Frear, James A., lawyer and statesman of Hudson, Wis., was born Oct. 24, 1861, in Hudson, Wis. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Frear, Walter Francis, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Honolulu, H.I., was born Oct. 29, 1863, in Grass Valley, Cal. In 1900 he was chief justice of the supreme court of the territory of Hawaii. In 1907-11 he was governor of Hawaii.

Frear, William, chemist and scientist of State College, Pa., was born March 24, 1860, in Reading, Pa. Since 1855 he has been professor of agricultural chemistry at the Pennsylvania state college.

Frear, William Henry, merchant of Troy, N.Y., was born March 29, 1841, in Troy, N. Y. His store is the largest in Troy, and has fifty-five departments; and is known as Frear's Troy Cash Bazaar.

Freas, Andrew M., president judge of Wilkesbarre, Pa., was born Oct. 31, 1864, in Berwick, Pa. He is president judge of the orphans' court of the eleventh judicial district, compromising the county of Luzerne.

Freas,William Streeper, clergyman of 2114 East Baltimore st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 11, 1848, in Marble Hall, Pa. Since 1905 he has been president of the general synod.

Frechette, Mrs. Annie Howells, author of Ottawa, Canada, was born in Hamilton,Ohio. She has been literary editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean. She is the author of On Grandfather's Farm and other works.

Frede, William, merchant and capitalist of Stewardson, Ill., was born Feb. 23, 1871, in Shelby county, Ill. He is president of the Stewardson Telephone company.

Frederick, Benjamin Todd, manufacturer and statesman of Marshalltown, Iowa, was born Oct. 5, 1835, in Fredericktown, Ohio. In 1885-87 he was a member of congress.

Frederick, George Aloysius, architect of Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 16, 1842, in Baltimore, Md. He was the architect of state house of Maryland; St. James' Roman Catholic church; United States marine hospital and many other noted buildings of Baltimore.

Freedman, John Joseph, jurist of 2 Wall st., New York City, was born Oct. 7, 1835, in Nuremberg, Germany. He has been judge of the superior court of New York.

Freedman, William Horatio, electrical engineer and scientist of 275 Clinton ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 28, 1867, in New York City. He has been professor of electrical engineering at the university of Vermont.

Freeman, Daniel, capitalist and philanthropist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born June 30, 1837, in Canada. He is the owner of the Freeman block in Los Angeles; and is connected with the Continuous Brick Kiln company. In 1892-95 he was president of the local chamber of commerce.

Freeman, Edward Dunn, physician and banker of Osgood, Ind., was born Nov. 4, 1853, in Manchester, Ind. He is president of the Osgood bank.

Freeman, Edward Monroe, educator, botanist, pathologist and scientist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Feb. 12, 1875, in St. Paul, Minn. Since 1907 he has been professor of botany and vegetable pathology at the college of agriculture at the university of Minnesota.

Freeman,George Robert, lawyer and statesman of Corona, Cal., was born March 18, 1867, in Galesville, Wis. He was educated at the university of Galesville. He read law in the office of his father; and attended the Columbia university of Washington and the Chicago college of law. For ten years he was city attorney of Corona; and in 1911-12 was a member of the California state legislature.

Freeman, George W., banker of Mansfield, Mo., was born Aug. 15, 1840, in Hamilton county, Tenn. He is president of the bank of Mansfield.

Freeman,Henry Blanchard, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 17, 1837, in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. He served in the civil war as lieutenant and adjutant; later became colonel; and in 1901 he attained the rank of brigadier-general in the United States army.

Freeman,Henry Edgerton, banker of Springfield, Ohio, was born March 17,1878, in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. He is secretary and treasurer of the American Trust and Savings company.

Freeman, Henry Varnum, soldier, lawyer, jurist and author of 5735 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 20, 1842, in Bridgeton, N.J. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He has lectured in the Rush medical college. He is now judge of the Illinois appellate court at Chicago.

Freeman, James Edward, clergyman and author of Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 24, 1866, in New York City. He is rector of St. Marks church of Minneapolis. He is the author of The Man and the Master and other works.

Freeman, James Goldthwaite, trustee and capitalist of 55 Kilby st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 24, 1849, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Edwards Manufacturing company.

Freeman, John Joseph, lawyer and jurist of New York City, was born Oct. 7, 1855, in Germany. In 1869 he became an associate justice of the supreme court of New York for the first district.

Freeman, John Ripley, civil and mechanical engineer of Providence,R.I.,was born July 27, 1855, in West Bridgeton, Maine. Since 1900 he has been consulting engineer of New York City water supply.

Freeman, Joseph Edwin,capitalist and lawyer of New York City, was born Feb. 14, 1876, in Unity, Maine. He has been an accountant in the United States treasury department. He is president of the Seashore Municipal Railroad company and a director of several corporations.

Freeman, Joseph Hewett, educator of Aurora, Ill., was born May 13, 1841, in Poland, Maine. He is superintendent of the Illinois school for the blind.

Freeman, Joseph Wood, business president and statesman of Central Falls, R.I., was born May 9, 1863, in Central Falls, R.I. He is president of E. L. Freeman company, printers and binders; and since 1913 has been mayor of his city.

Freeman, Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins, author and poet of Metuchen, N.J., was born in 1862, in Randolph, Mass. She is the author of A New England Nun; A Humble Romance; The Love of Parson Lord; By the Light of the Soul; Silence and other works.

Freeman, Samuel, banker of Morristown, N.J., was born April 14, 1844, in Fairfield, Maine. He is president of the Morristown Trust company.

Freeman, W. Winans, business president of 360 Pearl st., Brooklyn City, N.Y., was born June 8, 1872, in Ontario, Canada. He has been assistant secretary of the Edison Electric and Illuminating company. He is vice-president of Kings County Electric Light and Power company and many other corporations.

Freer, Charles H., elocutionist, author and poet of Blue Earth, Minn., was born Jan. 14, 1849, in Washington county, Wis. In 1892 appeared a volume of his poems entitled The Missionary. Most of his writings are of an elocutionary style.

Freer, Charles Lang, capitalist and art connoisseur of Detroit, Mich., was born in 1856 in Kingston, N.Y. He is a collector of art. He is a director of the American Academy of Rome.

Freer, Hamline Hurlburt, educator of Mount Vernon, Iowa, was born Sept. 9, 1845, in Ellsworth, Ohio. He is dean and professor in Cornell college.

Freer, Otto Tiger, physician of 25 East Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 8, 1857, in Chicago. Since 1905 he has been assistant professor of diseases of the throat and nose at Rush medical college.

Freer, Romeo Hoyt, soldier, lawyer, diplomat and statesman of Harrisville, W.Va., was born Nov. 9, 1847, in Bazetta, Ohio. In 1873-77 he was United States consul to Nicaragua. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress.

Frees, Benjamin Marsh, lumber merchant, banker and capitalist of 234 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 30, 1846, in Orono, Maine. He is president of the First National bank of McCook, Neb.

Freiday, Jacob Anthony, clergyman and business president of 316 South I st., Tacoma, Wash., was born May 24, 1846, in Newark, N.J. In 1871 he received the degree of A.B. from the university of Rochester; in 1875-76 filled a pastorate in the Baptist church in Calais, Maine; and in 1877-86 was a missionary in Bhamo, Upper Burmah. Since 1888 he has been president of the Fidelity Investment company of Tacoma.

Freiner, John Robert, business man, lumberman and statesman of McArthur, Ohio, was born April 21, 1859, in Fairfield, Ohio. He is a representative in the Ohio state legislature; and was the author of the first straight two-cent law ever passed in the United States.

Freitag, Joseph Kendall, civil engineer and author of 166 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass. He is the author of Architectural Engineering and The Fireproofing of Steel Buildings.

Freligh, Louis Henry,composer of St.Louis, Mo., was born July 1, 1838, in Mechanicsville, N.Y. He is the author of about fifty piano pieces and songs and is a successful pianist.

Frelinghuysen, Frederick, insurance president of Newark, N.J., was born in 1849 in Newark, N.J. Until 1887 he practiced law in Newark, N.J.; and then became president of the Howard Savings institution. In 1890 he became a director and in 1902 president of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N.J.; and is also an officer and director in various other New Jersey corporations.

French, Alice, author of 321 East Tenth st., Davenport, Iowa, was born March 19, 1850, in Andover, Mass. She is president of the Iowa society of colonial dames. She is the author of Knitters in the Sun; Stories of a Western Town and other works.

French, Allen, writer and author of Concord, Mass., was born Nov. 28, 1870, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Junior Cup; and The Colonials.

French, Amos Tuck, banker of 20 Wall st., New York City, was born July 20, 1863, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president and director of the Manhattan Trust company and other corporations.

French, Andrew, farmer and statesman of Plainview, Minn., was born Dec. 10, 1859, in Green Lake county, Wis. He has been a representative in the Minnesota state legislature; and has been mayor of Plainview. He is secretary of the Plainview Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance company.

French, Mrs. Anne Warner, writer and author of St. Paul, Minn., was born Oct. 14, 1859, in St. Paul, Minn. She is the author of A Woman's Will; Susan Clegg and Her Friends; Seeing France With Uncle John and other works.

French, Arthur Philip, lawyer and capitalist of 89 State st., Boston, Mass., was born May 19, 1854, in Turner, Maine. He is secretary of the Reid-Morrisan Manufacturing company.

French, Arthur Willard, civil engineer, educator and author of 202 Russell st., Worcester, Mass., was born July 13, 1868, in Battle Creek, Mich. In 1892-94 he was civil engineer for the Platte River Paper mills of Denver. Since 1899 he has been professor of civil engineering at the Worcester polytechnic institute. He is the author of Stereotomy.

French, Asa Palmer, lawyer and banker of 87 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 29, 1860, in Braintree, Mass. He has received the degree of A.B. from Yale and the degree of LL.B. from Boston university. In 1901-06 he was district attorney for the southeastern district of Massachusetts; and since 1906 has been United States attorney for the district of Massachusetts. He is also president of the Randolph Savings bank; and president of the Norfolk county bar association.

French, Burton Lee, lawyer and statesman of Moscow, Idaho, was born Aug. 1, 1875, near Delphi, Ind. In 1898-1902 he was a member of the Idaho state legislature. In 1903-09 he was a member of congress.

French, Calvin Henry, clergyman and college president of Huron, S.D., was born June 13, 1862, in Wellsville, Ohio. In 1897-98 he was principal of Scotland academy. Since 1898 he has been president of Huron college of South Dakota.

French, Charles W., educator and author of 6442 Drexel ave., Chicago, Ill., was born April 5, 1858, in Woodstock, Vt. He is now principal of the Hyde Park high school of Chicago. He is the author of Life of Lincoln; Words of Lincoln and other works.

French, Clarence E., lawyer and capitalist of 16 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 20, 1864, in Belfast, Maine. He is treasurer of the Boston Water Power company.

French, Daniel Chester, artist and sculptor of 125 West Eleventh st., New York City, was born April 20, 1850, in Exeter, N.H. His best known works are The Minute Man of Concord; statue of the republic at the world's columbian exposition. In 1900 he received the medal of honor at the Paris exposition.

French, Ferdinand Courtney, educator and author of Hamilton, N.Y., was born Dec. 14, 1861, in Berkeley, Mass. Since 1894 he has been professor of philosophy in Vassar college. He is the author of The Concept of Law in Ethics.

French, Frank, artist and author of Manchester, N.H., was born May 22, 1850, in Loudon, N.H. He has received many medals from the various expositions. His specialty is portraits. He is the author of Home Fairies and Heart Flowers.

French, G. Watson, capitalist of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 26, 1858, in Davenport, Iowa. He is president of the Bettendorf Metal Wheel company.

French, George, lecturer and author of 6 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born June 4, 1853, in North Clarendon, Vt. He has been editor of weekly and daily newspapers. He is the author of Printing in Relation to Graphic Art.

French, George Bradford, manufacturer, lawyer and jurist of Cambridge, Mass., was born July 28, 1853, in Randolph, Mass. In 1887-1901 he was connected with the law department of the city of Cambridge. He was one of the organizers of the Commercial club in 1891.

French, Henry Willard, war correspondent, lecturer and author of 120 Perham st., Boston, Mass., was born June 21, 1853, in Hartford, Conn. He is the author of Art and Artists in Connecticut; Our Boys in China; Numa, the Brahmin Girl; The Only One, a novel, and other works.

French, Howard Barclay, manufacturer and banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 3, 1848, in Salem, Ohio. He is president of the Equitable Trust company and a director of other corporations.

French, James J., clergyman, educator and college president of Notre Dame, Ind., was born April, 1859, in St. Charles, Mo. In 1905-06 he was president of St. Joseph's college at Cincinnati. Since 1906 he has been rector of the Holy Cross seminary at Notre Dame.

French, Joseph Lewis, journalist, founder, author and poet of Kansas City, Mo., was born Aug. 16, 1858, in New York City. He founded the New West, a monthly magazine; and the Wave, a literary weekly. He is the author of Christ in Art and other works.

French, Leigh Hill, capitalist and author of 366 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Oct. 1, 1863, in Grover, N.H. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of major. He is president of the New Rochelle home for the aged. He is the author of Nome Nuggets and other works.

French, Leroy Noah, lawyer of Reno, Nev., was born July 7, 1874, in Essex, N.Y. He was assistant prosecuting attorney of Manila, P.I. He is now judge of the eighth judicial district of Nevada.

French, Lillie Hamilton, journalist, litterateur and author of 53 East Thirtieth st., New York City, was born in 1854, in Washington, D.C. She is the author of Hezekial's Wives and other works.

French, Owen Bert, civil engineer, geodesist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 7, 1865, near Cleveland, Ohio. Since 1889 he has been assistant in the United States coast and geodetic survey. He is the author of Gillespie's Higher Surveying.

French, Pinckney, surgeon and educator of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 10, 1852, in Audrain county, Mo. He has been professor of surgical anatomy in the college of physicians and surgeons of Chicago, Ill.

French, Robert Carver, educator and college president of Weston, Ore., was born Dec. 10, 1863, in Berkeley, Mass. He has been superintendent of schools in Orange, Mass. He is president of the Eastern Oregon state normal school.

French, Salphronius H., physician, surgeon and banker of 40 Church st., Amsterdam, N. Y., was born July 16, 1837, in Broome county, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He is president of the Amsterdam Savings bank.

French, Thomas, educator, electrician and scientist of 1418 Alvarado terrace, Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 15, 1848, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1889 he was associate editor of the Journal of Terrestrial Magnetism.

French, Willard, soldier, lecturer and author of Washington, D.C., was born June 1, 1854, in Boston, Mass. He attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel in the British army. He is the author of several books.

French, William A., lumber merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Dundee, Mich., was born March 2, 1849, in Pelham, Ont., Can. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been state land commissioner for four terms.

French, William Henry, typefounder of 170 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 14, 1850, in Griggsville, Ill. He is president of Barnhart Brothers and Spindler.

Frerichs, Frederick W., educator, chemist and scientist of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 23, 1849, in Etzel, Germany. He has been president of the St. Louis chemical society. Since 1886 he has been secretary, treasurer and manager of the Herf and Ferichs Chemical company.

Freshwater, Robert Marquis, educator, clergyman and college president of Berea, Ohio, was born June 11, 1846, near Carrollton, Ohio. He has been acting president of Scio college of Ohio. He is now president of the Baldwin university of Berea, Ohio.

Fretz, Abraham James, clergyman, genealogist and author of Milton, Pa., was born Feb. 7, 1849, in Bedminster, Pa. He has been justice of the peace, town clerk and superintendent of a Sunday school. He is the author of a Genealogy of Moyer and other works.

Fretz, Clayton Detweiler, physician and banker of Sellersville, Pa., was born Nov. 16, 1844, in Bucks county, Pa. He is president and director of the Sellersville National bank.

Freund, Ernst, educator and author of 5730 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 30, 1864, in New York City. Since 1902 he has been professor of jurisprudence at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Police Power and other works.

Frew, Walter Edwin, banker of 13 Williams st., New York City, was born July 1, 1864, in Brooklyn, N.Y. For four years he was president of the Queens county bank; and is now vice-president of the Corn Exchange bank.

Frew, William Nimick, lawyer and bank director of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 10, 1854. He is a director of the Union Trust company and other corporations.

Frey, Adolf, musician and composer of Syracuse, N.Y., was born April 4, 1865, in Germany. He is a professor of music at Syracuse university.

Frey, Albert Romer, litterateur and author of New York City, was born Feb. 17, 1858, in New York. He is the author of A Dictionary of Sobriquets and Nicknames and other works.

Frey, Joseph, merchant of 71 South Washington Square, New York City, was born in 1854, in Germany. He introduced and perfected the manufacture of materials for artificial flowers into this country. He has been president of the state league of New York.

Freyman, William G., lawyer and banker of 76 Broadway, Mauch Chunk, Pa., was born July 4, 1838, in Mahoning, Pa. He is president of the Carbon Metallic Paint company.

Frick, Henry Clay, merchant and manufacturer of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Dec. 19, 1849, in West Overton, Pa. He is president of the H. C. Frick Coke company and also of the Carnegie Steel company.

Fricke, Louis Emil, banker of Evansville, Ind., was born May 16, 1866, in Germany. He is cashier of the Commercial bank.

Fricke, William A., underwriter and author of New York City, was born May 15, 1857, in New York City. He has been president of the Wisconsin society of New York; and vice-president of the National association of insurance commissioners. He is the author of Insurance, a Textbook and other works.

Frieberg, Nelson, banker of Herrick, S.D., was born Dec. 4, 1872, in Clay county, S.D. He is cashier of the bank of Herrick.

Fried, William, banker of Buffalo, S.D., was born Aug. 27, 1867, in Oakley, Ill. He is cashier of the Hardin county bank.

Friedburg, Louis Henry, educator and scientist of 601 West One Hundred and Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born Sept. 17, 1846, in Hamburg, Germany. He received the degree of Ph.D. from Gottingen university. In 1906-10 he was assistant professor of organic chemistry, and since 1910 has been associate professor of chemistry in the College City of New York. In 1892-97 he was chemist and toxicologist in the American veterinary college and also in the Flower hospital medical college. He has made researches in chemical energy and kindred subjects.

Friedenberg, Albert Marx, lawyer and author of New York City, was born Jan. 9, 1881, in New York City. Since 1902 he has been correspondent to the Jewish Comment. He is the author of Zionist Studies.

Friedenwald, Herbert, litterateur and author of 356 Second ave., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1870, in Baltimore, Ohio. Since 1897 he has been superintendent of the manuscript department in the library of congress. He is the author of The Continental Congress and other works.

Friedenwald, Julius, physician and author of 1029 Madison ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 20, 1866, in Baltimore, Md. He is a professor of diseases of the stomach at the college of physicians and surgeons of Baltimore. He is the author of Diet in Health and Disease and other medical works. He was appointed by President Taft as first lieutenant of the reserve medical corps, United States army.

Friederang, Maximilian Franz, artist and founder of 309 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 8, 1856, in Stockach-Baden, Germany. He was graduated with diploma from the seminary at Meersburg; was in the German army for one year; and then entered the art school in Basel, Switzerland. He then traveled through Switzerland,France, Spain, Italy, Egypt, the Holy Land, Greece, Turkey and Austria, and finally making a permanent stay in Rome to educate himself in the works of the masters of Renaissance. In 1890 he opened a studio in Chicago; and became founder and the first president of art industry association of Chicago. In 1894 he opened a studio in New York City, and became illustrator for numerous publications. He executed the interior decoration of the robing room of the United States supreme court in Washington; and the dome of St. Joseph's church in Babylon, N.Y. He is the author of An Ancient Art Revived and other works.

Friedman, Isaac Kahn, educator and author of Winnetka, Ill., was born Nov. 3, 1870, in Chicago, Ill. He is a writer on Chicago newspapers. He is the author of The Lucky Number and other works.

Friedman, Lee Max, lawyer and capitalist of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 29, 1871, in Memphis, Tenn. He is a member of the law firm of Morse and Friedman.

Fries, Archibald, railway official of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Feb. 27, 1864. He entered railway service in 1880, and has since held various positions on different railroads. In 1897-98 he was chief clerk in the general freight department of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railroad, and in 1899-1913 was assistant general freight agent for the same road. Since 1913 he has been general freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad an the Sharpsville Railroad.

Fries, Henry Elias, railroad president of Winston-Salem, N.C., was born Sept. 22, 1857, in Winston-Salem, N.C. Since 1907 he has been president of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad.

Fries, John W., manufacturer and banker of Winston-Salem, N.C., was born Nov. 7, 1846, in Winston-Salem, N.C. He is president of the Peoples' National bank.

Friesell, H. Edmund, educator and dean of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1873 in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is dean in the school of dentistry at the university of Pittsburgh.

Frink, Fred Goodrich, civil engineer and author of Eugene, Ore., was born April 16, 1862, in Pilot Grove, Ill. He is professor of English and mathematics in the extension division of the University of Oregon. He is joint author of Hall and Frink Trigonometry.

Frisbie, Alvah Lillie, clergyman and author of 1111 Seventh st., Des Moines, Iowa, was born Oct. 22, 1830, in Tompkin, N.Y. He served as chaplain in the civil war. He is pastor emeritus of the Plymouth Congregational church of Des Moines, Iowa. He is the author of Siege of Callais and other poems.

Frisbie, George A., manufacturer and capitalist of Utica, N.Y., was born Nov. 14, 1872, in Camden, N.Y. He is president of Frisbie, Coon and company.

Frisbie, William Albert, journalist and author of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Dec. 12, 1867, in Danbury, Conn. He is on the staff of the Minneapolis Journal. He is the author of Tale of the Bandit Mouse and other works.

Frisby, Edgar, educator and astronomer of 1607 Thirty-first st., Washington, D.C., was born May 22, 1837, in England. He has been assistant astronomer in the United States naval observatory at Washington, D. C. He has been professor of mathematics in the United States navy with the present rank of commodore.

Frissell, Algernon, banker of 530 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Feb. 1, 1845, in South Amenia, N.Y. He is president of the Fifth Avenue bank.

Frissell, Hollis Burke, educator of Hampton, Va., was born July 14, 1851, in Amenia, N.Y. He is principal of Hampton normal and agricultural institute.

Fritch,Charles H.,business man and statesman of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 19, 1879, in Onondaga county, N.Y. He has been active in the insurance business in New York state and Pennsylvania; and is now secretary and treasurer of the Pension Mutual Life Insurance company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Fritsche, Louis Albert, physician, surgeon and banker of New Ulm, Minn., was born May 28, 1862, in Lafayette, Minn. He is president of the Brown County bank.

Fritter, Enoch Abram, educator and lecturer of Normal, Ill., was born May 25, 1858, near Lancaster, Ohio. He is superintendent of city schools of Normal,Ill. He has lectured extensively on educational subjects.

Frizell, Horton, physician and surgeon of Jackson, Miss., was born June 24, 1867, in Mississippi. He is surgeon-general in the Mississippi national guard with the rank of colonel. In 1904 he was appointed a member of the governor's staff.

Frizell, Joseph Palmer, civil engineer and author of 75 Linden st., Boston, Mass., was born March 13, 1832, in Canada. During the civil war he was engaged in the construction of fortifications of the gulf coast. He is the author of Water Power.

Frobes, Byron Francis, railway official of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Sept. 1, 1862, in Erie, Pa. He was educated in the state academy of Aurora, N.Y. In 1879 he entered railway service with the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia railroads, and in 1885-97 was in the railroad telegraph service at Pacific coast and Rocky Mountain points. Since 1897 he has been superintendent of telegraph for the Oregon Short Line railroad at Salt Lake City.

Froehlich, Moses Seymour, merchant of 144 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth st., New York City, was born Nov. 9, 1877, in New York. He is second vice-president of Ludwig Baumann and company.

Froehlich, William Henry, merchant and banker of Jackson, Wis., was born June 22, 1857, in Jackson, Wis. He is president of William H. Froehlich company.

Frohlich, A. C., statesman of Reno, Nev., was born Aug. 29, 1879, at Crescent Mills, Cal. He was educated in the grammar schools and at a business college. He is identified with the banking and business affairs of Reno, Nev.; and has filled several positions of trust and honor. He is identified with the republican party; is a member of the Nevada state legislature and was speaker of the assembly in 1912.

Frohman, Charles, theatrical manager of New York City, was born June 17, 1860, in Sandusky, Ohio. He is proprietor and manager of the Empire, Garrick and various other theatres in New York City.

Frohman, Daniel, theatrical manager of 159 West Seventy-ninth st., New York City, was born in 1853 in Sandusky, Ohio. He is proprietor and manager of the New Lyceum theatre and other theatres.

Frohlich, Paul, banker of Walsenburg,Col., was born Feb. 21, 1867, in Austria. He is president of the Guaranty State bank.

Fronabarger, Benjamin Franklin, educator, clergyman and college president of Springtown,Texas,was born March 10, 1860, in Alabama. Since 1885 he has been president of the Springtown male and female institute of Texas.

Fronczak, Francis Eustace, physician of 806 Fillmore ave., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Sept. 20, 1874, in Buffalo. Since 1907 he has been assistant health commissioner of Buffalo.

Frost, Albert Carl, railroad president of Milwaukee, Wis., was born March 20, 1865, in Germany. He projected and built the Chicago and Milwaukee electric railroad, and was its president until 1908.

Frost, Alfred Sydney, soldier of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born Feb. 15, 1858, in Chicago, Ill. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel in the United States army; and the rank of brigadier-general in the United States volunteers. In 1905-07 he was chief of police in Evanston, Ill.

Frost, Arthur Burdette, illustrator, artist and author of Paris, France, was born in 1851 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Stuff and Nonsense and other works.

Frost, Charles Sumner, designer and architect of 105 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 31, 1856, in Lewiston, Maine. He has been a draughtsman in Boston; and since 1882 he has practiced architecture in Chicago.

Frost, Clarence E., banker of Athens, Ala., was born Oct. 12, 1861, in Yazoo county, Miss. He is president of the Athens Brick Manufacturing company; since 1882 he has been cashier of the First National bank of Athens.

Frost, E. Allen, lawyer of 29 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 27, 1871, in Fayette county, Pa. He is counsel general of the national business league. He is a member of the American bar association.

Frost, Frederic Worthen, lawyer and capitalist of 175 Eighth ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1870 in Franklin Falls, N.H. He has been practising law since 1898. He is president of the Park Slope Building company.

Frost, George E., lawyer and banker of Cheboygan, Mich., was born March 24, 1851, in Pontiac, Mich. He is president of the Indian River bank.

Frost, George Henry, publisher of Plainfield, N.J., was born July 9, 1838, in West Hawkesbury, Ontario. He is president of The Engineering News Publishing company.

Frost, Halstead Holloway, lawyer of 141 Broadway, New York City, was born May 7, 1860, in East Norwich, N.Y. He is a director of the Lorraine company and other corporations.

Frost, William Albert Crawford, clergyman and author of Baltimore, Md., was born in 1863 in Canada. Since 1896 he has been pastor of the Church of the Holy Comforter of Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Old Dogma in a New Light.

Frost, William H., broker and business president of Fredonia, N.Y., was born Nov. 7, 1843, in Jefferson county, Pa. He is president of the Forest Gas company of Fredonia, N.Y.

Frothingham, Arthur Lincoln, educator, lecturer and author of Princeton, N.J., was born June 21, 1859, in Boston, Mass. He is professor of ancient history and archaeology in Princeton; and founded the Princeton College Bulletin. He is the author of A History of Scripture and other works.

Frothingham, Eugenia Brooks, author of Setasti Reali, Rome, Italy, was born Nov. 17, 1874, in Paris, France. She is the author of The Turn of the Road and other works.

Frothingham, Jessie Peabody, author of Princeton, N.J., was born in Boston, Mass. She is the author of Running the Gauntlet and other works.

Frothingham, Louis Adams, lawyer and banker of 140 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born July 13, 1871, in Jamaica Plain, Mass. He is president of the Blackstone Savings bank; and has been a state representative.

Frothingham, Paul Revere, clergyman and author of 294 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born July 6, 1864, in Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Since 1900 he has been pastor of the Arlington street church. He is the author of The Temple of Virtue and other works.

Frothingham, Theodore Longfellow, lawyer and director of 32 Liberty st., New York City, was born Sept. 10, 1863, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He graduated from Harvard university with the degree of A.B. and from Harvard law school with the degree of LL.B.; and since 1887 has been actively engaged in the practice of law. He is a director of various business corporations. He is a trustee of the Brooklyn hospital and the Brooklyn polytechnic institute; and chairman of the committee on hospitals of the state charities aid association. He is also chairman of the administration committee of the Brooklyn public library.

Fruit, John Phelps, educator and author of Liberty, Mo., was born Nov. 22, 1855, in Pembroke, Ky. Since 1897 he has been professor of English languages and literature in the William Jewell college. He is the author of The Ancient Mariner and other works.

Fry, Alfred Brooks, engineer of New York City, was born March 3, 1860, in New York City. He is chief engineer and superintendent of United States public buildings.

Fry, Charles Philip, stock and bond broker of 60 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 2, 1868, in Mobile, Ala. He is associated with the firm of Battles and company, bankers of New York and Philadelphia.

Fry, Edwin James, banker of Marshall, Texas, was born Dec. 1, 1845, in Charlottesville, Va. In 1872-83 he was engaged in the private banking business in Marshall, Texas; sold his business to the First National bank, of which he has been vice-president since 1885. Since 1890 he has been president of the Marshall Carwheel and Foundry company; and is vice-president of the Marshall Wholesale Grocery company and other corporations. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. He has been alderman of his city; and is a trustee of the Marshall university.

Fry, Henry Clay, soldier, manufacturer and banker of Rochester, Pa., was born Sept. 17, 1840, near Lexington, Ky. In 1861 he enlisted in the civil war, and served in various battles and skirmishes until its close. In 1872 he established the firm of the Rochester Lumber company, which became one of the largest glassworks in the country. In 1901 he established the H. C. Fry Glass company, a large plant for the manufacture of cut glass and the higher grades of glassware; and it is now one of the most important and best known plants in America. Continuously since its organization in 1884 he has been president of the First National bank of Rochester, Pa.; and is also identified with various other industrial and financial corporations.

Fry, Henry Davidson, physician, obstetrician and author of 1929 Nineteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born April 11, 1853, in Richmond, Va. He is the author of Maternity.

Fry, Jacob, clergyman and author of 7301 Germantown ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 9, 1834, in Trappe, Pa. He is the author of History of Trinity Lutheran church of Reading, Pa.

Fry, John W., manufacturer and banker of Columbia, Tenn., was born July 10, 1859, in Giles county, Tenn. He is vice-president of the Maury National bank.

Fry, William Wallace, lawyer and capitalist of Mexico, Mo., was born Aug. 18, 1851, in Pike county, Mo. He is president of the Mexico Savings bank.

Frye, Alexis Everett, educator and author of Redlands, Cal., was born Nov. 2, 1859, in North Haven, Maine. He has been superintendent of the schools of San Bernardino, Cal. He is the author of Child and Nature and other works.

Frye, Daniel Wadsworth, physician and banker of 4819 Second ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 20, 1870, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Hazlewood bank and a director of other corporations.

Frye, James Albert, lawyer and author of 336 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born May 5, 1863, in Boston, Mass. Since 1900 he has been colonel of the first Massachusetts heavy artillery. He is the author of Fables of Field and Staff and other works.

Frye, Theodore Christian, educator, botanist and scientist of Seattle, Wash., was born Sept. 15, 1869, in Washington, D.C. Since 1903 he has been professor of botany in the Washington university at Seattle.

Frye, William Pearce, lawyer and statesman of Lewiston, Maine, was born Sept. 2, 1831, in Lewiston Maine. In 1867-69 he was attorney general of the state of Maine; and has been mayor of his city. In 1871-81 he was a member of congress. In 1881-1901 he was a member of the United States senate for the terms ending in 1913.

Fryer, John, educator and author of 2620 Durant ave., Berkeley, Cal., was born Aug. 16, 1839, in Kent, England. Since 1896 he has been professor of oriental languages and literature in the university of California. He is the author of Educational Directory for China and other works.

Fuertes, James Hillhouse, civil engineer and author of 140 Nassau st., New York City, was born Aug. 10, 1863, in Puerto Rico. He has been connected with the design and construction of numerous works for sewerage, drainage and water supply in Canada, United States and other countries. He is the author of Water and Public Health and other works.

Fuertes, Louis Agassiz, artist, illustrator and ornithologist of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Feb. 7, 1874, in Ithaca. He is a member of the American association for the advancement of science.

Fuerth, Emil, merchant of 114 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth st., New York City, was born Nov. 8, 1857, in Schuttenho fen, Bohemia. He is president of Ludwig Baumann and company.

Fugate, Marion Lloyd, banker of Adairville, Ky., was born July 2, 1857, in Logan county, Ky. He is cashier of the People's bank.

Fugina, Martin L., lawyer and jurist of Fountain City, Wis., was born Feb. 4, 1875, in Fountain City, Wis. Since 1898 he has been county judge.

Fuld, Leonhard Felix, lawyer, examiner and author of 130 East One Hundred and Tenth st., New York City, was born Aug. 12, 1883, in New York. Since 1907 he has been examiner in the municipal civil service commission of New York. He is the author of Police Administration.

Fulkerson, Frank Ballard, educator, lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1866 in Missouri. He has been city attorney; and prosecuting attorney for Johnson county. In 1905-07 he was a member of congress.

Fulkerson, Robert E. Lee, farmer and banker of Defiance, Mo., was born Nov. 26, 1863, in Defiance, Mo. He is president of the Bank of Defiance.

Fulkerson, Walter Peery, banker of St. Joseph, Mo., was born in 1865 in Trenton, Mo. He was educated at Princeton university. He was cashier of the Citizens' State bank of Trenton, Mo.; and later became a national bank examiner. He has been president of the First National bank of St. Joseph; and is now president of the Bank of Buchanan county; and also a director of the St. Joseph Gas company and other corporations.

Fullam, William Freeland, navy officer of Annapolis, Md., was born in 1855 in New York. Since 1905 he has been commander of the United States navy.

Fuller, Albert Milton, merchant and banker of Meadville, Pa., was born in 1847 in Little Falls, N.Y. He has been president of the New First National bank but is now a director.

Fuller, Anna, author of 2 Louisburg square, Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 9, 1853, in Cambridge, Mass. She is the author of Peak and Prairie and other works.

Fuller, Caroline Macomber, composer and author of 99 Madison ave., New York City, was born Sept. 10, 1873, in Bangor, Maine. She is the author of Across the Campus and other works.

Fuller, Charles E., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Belvidere, Ill., was born March 31, 1849, in Belvidere, Ill. He has been city attorney of Belvidere, and state's attorney of Boone county. In 1897-1903 he was judge of the circuit court of Illinois. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Fuller, Charles Gordan, surgeon, oculist and optist of 32 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 9, 1856, in Jamestown, N.Y. He has been major and surgeon in the first regiment of the Illinois national guard.

Fuller, Charles W., lawyer of Bayonne, N. J., was born July 2, 1843, in New York City. Since 1895 he has been sinking fund commissioner of Bayonne.

Fuller, Cramel B., lumberman of Ford River, Mich., was born Jan. 22, 1858, in Jersey City, N.J. He has been a representative and a member of the Michigan state senate. He is now auditor-general for the state of Michigan.

Fuller, Edward, journalist and author of Providence, R.I., was born June 30, 1860, in Syracuse, N.Y. He graduated from Harvard with the degree of A.B. In 1883-86 he was editorial writer for the Boston Advertiser; in 1886-91 was dramatic editor for the Boston Post; in 1891-1906 was literary editor for the Providence Journal, and since then has been chief editorial writer on that publication. He is the author of Fellow Travelers; The Complaining Millions of Men; John Malcolm and other works.

Fuller, Edward L., capitalist of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born Oct. 10, 1851, in Hawley, Pa. He is president and director of the International Salt company and various corporations.

Fuller, Eugene, surgeon and author of 252 Lexington ave., New York City, was born May 8, 1858, in Wayland, Mass. He is the author of Diseases of the Genito-Urinary system.

Fuller, Francis Bartow, banker of El Centro, Cal., was born Jan. 29, 1862, in Georgia. He is city treasurer. He is president of the El Centro National bank.

Fuller, George Ephriam, physician, surgeon and banker of 1 Green st., Monson, Mass., was born Dec. 25, 1838, in Wilbraham, Mass. He is president of the Monson National bank.

Fuller, George Samuel, merchant and banker of Canaan, Conn., was born Jan. 13, 1856, in Kent, Conn. He is president of the Canaan National bank.

Fuller, Hector, journalist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 18, 1856, in London, England. He was correspondent in the Russo-Japanese war. He is literary and dramatic editor of the Indianapolis News. He is the author of Roach and Company; Pirates and other works.

Fuller, Henry Blake, litterateur and author of 5428 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 9, 1857, in Chicago, Ill. He is the author of The Cliff Dwellers and other works.

Fuller, Hubert Bruce, lawyer and author of 6719 Euclid ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born June 15, 1880, in Derby, Conn. Since 1903 he has practiced in Cleveland. He is the author of The Purchase of Florida and other works.

Fuller, Hulbert, physician and author of New York City, was born Dec. 22, 1865, in Baldwinsville, N.Y. He is the author of Vivian of Virginia and other works.

Fuller, J. Edward, business president of 131 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 28, 1865, in Athol, Mass. He is a general contractor; in 1898-1902 operated under the firm name of J. Edward Fuller, Jr. He is now vice-president of the George A. Fuller company, and president of the American Granite Saw company of Worcester, Mass.

Fuller, Jedd Putnam, publisher of Seattle, Wash., was born in 1864 in Parkersburg, W. Va. He is president of the Fuller Publishing company.

Fuller, Jesse Franklin, educator and genealogist of Appleton, Wis., was born March 4, 1832, in Middleton, Mass. He has been superintendent of schools in Appleton, Wis. He is the author of Fuller's Genealogy.

Fuller, Mrs. Lucia Fairchild, artist of 78 East Fifty-fifth st., New York City,was born Dec. 6, 1870, in Boston, Mass. She is president of the American society of miniature painters.

Fuller, Marion Decatur, banker of Plainview, Minn., was born Feb. 15, 1877, in Minnesota. He is president of the First National bank.

Fuller, Myron Leslie, educator and geologist of Brockton, Mass., was born April 19, 1873, in Brockton, Mass. In 1903 he organized the eastern section of the division of hydrology; and since 1907 he has been in charge of coastal plain investigations.

Fuller, Mrs. Olive Beatrice Muir, elocutionist, author and poet of 162 Clinton st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Nov. 2, 1874, in Kansas City, Mo. She is the author of Thy Name is Woman and other works.

Fuller, Oliver Clyde, banker and statesman of Milwaukee, Wis., was born April 13, 1860, in Clarksville, Ga. For seven years he was connected with his father's wholesale grocery firm at Atlanta, Ga.; and in 1887 became a member of the firm of Jones and Fuller, investment brokers of Atlanta. In 1890 he continued in the same line of business in Milwaukee as Oliver C. Fuller and company, now the Wisconsin Trust company of which he is president. In 1910 he was president of the trust company section of the American bankers' association. He is a director of the Wisconsin Securities company and various other corporations.

Fuller, Robert Higginson, journalist and author of Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 18, 1864, in Springfield, Mass. Since 1907 he has been secretary to the governor of New York. He is the author of The Golden Hope.

Fuller, William E., lawyer and statesman of West Union, Iowa, was born March 30, 1846, in Howard, Pa. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress. In 1901-07 he was assistant attorney general of the United States.

Fuller, William Eddy, lawyer, jurist and banker of Taunton, Mass., was born June 30, 1832, in Bridgewater, Vt. He is vice-president of the Taunton Savings bank.

Fuller, William Nicholson, lawyer and jurist of Cumberland, Wis., was born April 28, 1870, in Star Prairie, Wis. He has been municipal judge.

Fuller, William Oliver, journalist, lecturer and author of Rockland, Maine, was born Feb. 3, 1856, in Rockland, Maine. He is editor of the Rockland Courier Gazette; and since 1902 has been postmaster of his city. He is the author of What Happened to Wigglesworth.

Fullerton, Anna M., physician and author of Fatehgarh, U.P., India, was born April 16, 1853, in India. She was superintending the establishment of medical missions of the North Indian medical school, Lodiana, the Punjab, India. She is the author of Surgical Nursing and other works.

Fullerton, George Stuart, clergyman, educator and author of New York City, was born Aug. 18, 1859, in India. He has been a professor in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of The Conception of the Infinite and other works.

Fullerton, Mark A., lawyer and jurist of Olympia, Wash., was born Nov. 13, 1858, in Salem, Ore. Since 1898 he has been judge of the supreme court of Washington.

Fullerton, William Morton, journalist and author of 15 rue Boissy d'Anglas, Paris, France, was born Sept. 18, 1865, in Norwich, Conn. Since 1890 he has been a member of the Paris staff of the London Times. He is the author of Cairo and other works.

Fullington, E. M., state official of Cincinnati,Ohio, was born Aug. 25, 1864, in Union county, Ohio. He has been supervisor, county auditor, deputy inspector of his county; and is now auditor-of-state for Ohio.

Fulmore, Zachary Taylor, soldier, lawyer, jurist and author of Austin, Texas,was born Nov. 11, 1846, in Robeson county, N.C. He served in the civil war. In 1880-86 he was county judge of Travis county, Texas. He has been president of the board of trustees of the public schools for Austin. He is the author of Geography of Texas and other works.

Fulton, Charles William, educator, lawyer and statesman of Astoria, Ore., was born Aug. 24, 1853, in Lima, Ohio. He has been president of the sessions of the state senate. In 1903-09 he was a member of the United States senate.

Fulton, Elmer Lincoln, lawyer and statesman of Oklahoma City,Okla.,was born April 22, 1865, in Magnolia, Iowa. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Fulton, Robert Burwell, educator and scientist of Miller School, Va., was born April 8, 1849, in Scranton county, Ala. Since 1900 he has been president of the Miller school of Virginia. He has been president of the southern educational association. He is the author of numerous addresses and articles on educational subjects.

Fulton, Robert Irving, educator, elocutionist, lecturer and author of Delaware, Ohio, was born March 19, 1855, in Leesburg, Va. He has been president of Ohio state association of elocutionists and various other associations. Since 1894 he has been dean of the Ohio Wesleyan school of oratory and since 1890 has been lecturer and professor of elocution and oratory in the Ohio Wesleyan university. He is the joint author of Fulton and Trueblood's Chart of Vocal Expression and other works.

Fulton, Robert L., retired railroad official of Fresno, Cal., was born March 6, 1847. He has been a telegraph operator, train dispatcher, superintendent of railroads, and land agent for the Southern Pacific company, now retired from active service.

Fulwider, William A., lumber merchant and banker of Bloomington, Ind., was born April 7, 1844, in Newport, Va. He is president of the Monroe county state bank.

Funk, Benjamin F., soldier and statesman of Bloomington, Ill., was born Oct. 17, 1838, in Funk's Grove, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has been mayor of his city and was re-elected six times. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Funk, F. C., lawyer and jurist of Winchester, Ill., was born March 2, 1868, near Exeter, Ill. He has lived in Scott county all his life; and for twelve years in succession was a member of the school board at Bluffs, Ill. He has attained success in the practice of law; and is now county judge and judge of the county court of Scott county, Ill.

Funk, Henry S., editor and banker of Springtown, Pa., was born Dec. 23, 1844, in Springtown, Pa. He is president of the Franklin Telephone and Telegraph company and a director of other corporations.

Funk, Isaac Kaufman, clergyman and author of Montclair, N.J., was born Sept. 10, 1839, in Clifton, Ohio. He is the founder and editor of the Metropolitan Pulpit. He is also editor of Tarry Thou Till I Come. He is the author of The Widow's Mite and other works.

Funk, James William, merchant and banker of Richmond, Utah, was born Feb. 19, 1874, in Richmond, Utah. He is vice-president of the State bank of Richmond.

Funkhouse, Abram Paul, educator, clergyman and founder of Harrisonburg, Pa., was born Dec. 10, 1853, in Dayton, Va. He has been president of the Wester college of Iowa. He has been county superintendent of schools. He is now president of the assembly park association.

Funsten, James Bowen, lawyer, missionary and clergyman of Boise, Idaho, was born July 23, 1856, in Clarke county, Va. In 1899 he was consecrated Protestant Episcopal missionary bishop of Idaho.

Funston, Edward H., soldier, farmer and statesman of Iola, Kan., was born in 1836 in Clark county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1885-93 he was a member of congress.

Funston, Frederick, soldier and botanist Iola, Kan., was born Nov. 9, 1865, in Ohio. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. In 1893 he was commander of the department of agriculture to explore Alaska and report on its flora.

Fuqua, James Henry, educator and college president of Russellville, Ky., was born Sept. 7, 1837, in Logan county, Ky. He has been president of the Bethel college. Since 1903 he has been superintendent of public instruction in Kentucky.

Furber, Henry Jewett, lawyer and author of 39 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 15, 1865, in Green Bay, Wis. He has been vice-president of the National Life Insurance company of Washington, D.C. He is the author of several works in German and other works.

Furber, William Allard, banker of Markham, Texas, was born Nov. 20, 1871, in Carlinville, Ill. He is vice-president of the Bay City Rice Milling company.

Furey, Francis Thomas, historian and author of 3305 Spring Garden st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 10, 1852, in Ireland. He was one of the founders and members of the American Catholic historical society. He is the author of Future of Catholic People and numerous other works.

Furey, John Vincent, soldier of 10 Eighth ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 22, 1839, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He served in the civil war; and was captain and assistant quarter-master of United States volunteers. In 1903 he was retired as brigadier-general, United States army.

Furlong, Charles Wellington, educator, illustrator, explorer and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 13, 1874, in Cambridge, Mass. Since 1906 he has been head of the art department of the summer session of Cornell university. He has illustrated magazines and books.

Furman, Franklin De Ronde, educator and author of Hoboken, N.J., was born Aug. 30, 1870, in Ridgely, Md. He has been editor of the Stevens Institute Indicator. Since 1893 he has been professor of mechanical drawing and designing in Stevens institute of technology. He is the author of History of Stevens Institute of Technology and other works.

Furness, Horace Howard, litterateur and author of Wallingford, Pa., was born Nov. 2, 1833, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is widely known in the literary world for his scholarly and exhaustive variorum editions of King Lear; Hamlet and other works.

Furness, William Eliot, lawyer of 122 West Adams st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 21, 1839, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is second vice-president of the Multiple Speed and Traction company.

Furness, William Henry, physician and surgeon of Wallingford, Pa., was born Aug. 18, 1866, in Wallingford, Pa. He is author of Home Life of Borneo Head Hunters.

Furst, Clyde Bowman, educator and author of 576 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1873 in Williamsport, Pa. Since 1902 he has been secretary of the teacher's college of Columbia university; and since 1903 he has lectured in English in the Columbian extension teaching. He is the author of A Group of Old Authors.

Furst, Conrad, retired manufacturer of 192 North Clark st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 24, 1829, in Ottweiler, Rhenish, Prussia. He has been president of the Machinists' Supply company of Chicago.

Furst, Michael, lawyer of 215 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 15, 1856, in Brooklyn. He is first vice-president of the Kings County Mortgage company.

Furuya, Masajiro, merchant and banker of 216 Second ave., South Seattle, Wash., was born in 1862 in Yamanashi, Japan. Since 1892 he has been engaged in the business of importing and exporting of Japanese and American merchandise and products; and has branches in various cities. He is president of the Japanese Commercial bank of Seattle, president of the M. Furuya company; and is a member of the Seattle chamber of commerce.

Fury, Francis Thomas, educator and author of New York City, was born Dec. 10, 1852, in Ireland. He has been editor of the Catholic Review of New York City and of other publications. He is the author of History of Pontificate of Leo XIII.

Futrelle, Jacques, journalist, playwright and author of Scituate,Mass.,was born April 9, 1875, in Pike county, Ga. He is the author of The Thinking Machine and other works. His best known play is The Law Breakers.

Fyfe, Robert C., railroad official of 608 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born 1871, in Kilbourne, Scotland. Since 1912 he has been chairman of the western classification committee of Chicago.

Gabbert, William H., lawyer and jurist of Telluride, Col., was born Oct. 12, 1849, in Scott county, Iowa. In 1893-97 he was judge of the seventh district of Colorado. Since 1907 he has been an associate justice of the state supreme court of Colorado.

Gable, George Daniel, educator and scientist of Easton, Pa., was born June 10, 1863, in Cherryville, Pa. Since 1895 he has been professor of mathematics at Lafayette university.

Gabriel, Mgrditch Simbad, physician of 410 West Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Dec. 15, 1856, in Eghin, Armenia. He graduated from the Central Turkey college of Aintab; and took post-graduate courses in Paris and New York City. He is president of the Armenian general progressive association; and president of the Ottoman Red Crescent society. He is the author of The Regeneration of the Armenians; the Art of Elocution and other works.

Gabriels, Henry, educator, bishop and author of Ogdensburg, N.Y., was born Oct. 6, 1838, in Belgium. In 1892 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Ogdensburg, N. Y. In 1904 he was appointed an officer in the order of Leopold by the king of Belgium. He is the author of a book on Rubrics and other works.

Gaddis, Benjamin Lloyd, Jr., banker of Montgomery, Ala., was born Sept. 12, 1881, in Kellyton, Ala. He graduated from the fifth district agricultural school of Wetumpka, Ala. He is president of the Gaddis Loan and Investment company, vice-president of the Wetumpka Fertilizer company and vice-president of the Fourth National bank of Montgomery. He is also president of the bank of Eclectic, Ala.; and treasurer and director of the Atlas Life Assurance company of Montgomery.

Gade, Fredrik Herman, diplomat and lawyer of Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 12, 1871, in Christiana, Norway. He is practicing alone, but is giving half of his time to the business of the Norwegian consulate office.

Gadsden, Christopher S., railroad president of Charleston, S.C., was born Aug. 15, 1834, in Summerville, S.C. Since 1900 he has been president of the Charleston and Savannah railroad.

Gaebelein, Arno C., clergyman and author of 456 Fourth ave., New York City,was born Aug. 27, 1861, in Greiz, Germany. He has filled different pastorates; and is editor of Our Hope. He is the author of Commentaries on Matthew, Acts of the Apostles, Daniel, Joel, Zachariah, The Pentateuch and numerous other volumes of biblical research.

Gaffney, James Joseph, banker of Crystal Falls, Mich., was born April 28, 1875, in Liverpool, England. He is cashier of the Iron County National bank.

Gaffney, Thomas St. John, lawyer, diplomat and author of Dresden, Germany, was born Jan. 17, 1864, in Limerick, Ireland. Since 1905 he has been consul-general to Dresden. He is the author of American in the Orient and other works.

Gage, Albert Seth, business president and founder of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 13, 1842, in Dracut, Mass. He is president of the Gage Hotel company; and owns the Wellington hotel.

Gage, Carl McKinney, railroad president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 12, 1867. He is president of the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad.

Gage, Harry Morehouse, college president of Huron, S.D., was born Oct. 15, 1880. Since 1913 he has been president of the Huron college.

Gage, Henry Tifft, statesman of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 25, 1852, near Geneva, N.Y. In 1899-1903 he was governor of California.

Gage, Simon Henry, educator, physiologist, scientist and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born May 20, 1851, in Otsego county, N.Y. He has been one of the editors of the American Journal of Anatomy. He is the author of The Microscope and Microscopic Methods and other works.

Gager, Charles Stuart, educator and botanist of 29 Linden ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.,was born Dec. 23, 1872, in Norwich, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been secretary of the Torrey botanical club. He is director of laboratories of the New York botanical garden.

Gager, Edwin Baker, jurist and bank director of New Haven, Conn., was born Aug. 30, 1852, in Scotland, Conn. Since 1890 he has been judge of the superior court of Connecticut.

Gailey, David Smith, banker of Parnassus, Pa., was born Feb. 10, 1844, in Clarksburg, Pa. He is president of the Parnassus National bank.

Gaillard, David Du Bose, soldier and author of Culebra, Panama, was born Sept. 4, 1859, in Fulton, S.C. He served in the United States army, and in 1904 he attained the rank of major. Since 1907 he has been a member of the isthmian canal commission. He is the author of Wave Action in Regard to Engineering Structures.

Gaillard, Edwin White, journalist, librarian and author of 476 Fifth ave., New York City, was born June 14, 1872, in Louisville, Ky. Since 1897 he has been librarian of the Webster free circulating library. He is president of the New York City library club. He is author of various papers on library economy.

Gailor, Thomas Frank, educator, clergyman, bishop and author of 692 Poplar st., Memphis, Tenn., was born Sept. 17, 1856, in Jackson, Miss. Since 1897 he has been bishop of Tennessee. He is the author of Things Old and New and other works.

Gainer, Joseph H., lawyer of Providence, R.I., was born Jan. 18, 1878, in Providence, R.I. In 1913 he became mayor of his city.

Gaines, Charles Kelsey, educator, journalist, author and poet of Canton, N.Y., was born Oct. 21, 1854, in Niagara county, N.Y. He is professor of Greek at the St. Lawrence university. He is the author of Gorgo, a Romance of Old Athens and other works.

Gaines, Clement Carrington, educator, college president and author of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born March 15, 1857, in Mossingford, Va. Since 1884 he has been president of the Eastman college. He is also president of the New York business institute. He is the author of The Farmer and His Future and other works.

Gaines, Frank Henry, clergyman, college president and author of Decatur, Ga., was born July 25, 1852, in Tellico Plains, Tenn. Since 1895 he has been president of the Agnes Scott college. He is the author of Bible Course, Outline and Notes.

Gaines, Frederick F., railway official of 208 West Thirty-sixth st., Savannah, Ga., was born March 28, 1871, in Hawley, Pa. He was educated at Cornell university. He entered railway service in 1888; and in 1904-06 was mechanical engineer of the Philadelphia and Reading railway. Since 1906 he has been superintendent of motive power of the Central Georgia railway. He is the inventor and patentee of the Gaines locomotive furnace.

Gaines, John Wesley, lawyer and statesman of Nashville, Tenn., was born Aug. 24, 1861, in Davidson county, Tenn. In 1897-1909 he was a member of congress.

Gaines, Joseph, lawyer and statesman of Charleston, W.Va., was born Sept. 3, 1864, in the District of Columbia. He has been United States district attorney for West Virginia. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Gaines, Reuben Reid, lawyer and jurist of Austin, Texas, was born Oct. 30, 1836, in Sumter county, Ala. He has been judge of the sixth judicial district of Texas; and associate justice of the state supreme court of Texas; and since 1894 has been chief justice.

Gaines, Wesley John, bishop and author of 360 Houston st., Atlanta, Ga., was born Oct. 4, 1840, in Washington, Ga. In 1888 he was ordained bishop of Indianapolis. He is the author of The Negro and the White Man and other works.

Gaines, William Embre, soldier, lawyer, banker and statesman of Burkeville, Va., was born Aug. 30, 1844, in Charlotte county, Va. He served in the civil war. In 1886 he was a member of congress.

Galbraith, Anna Mary, physician and author of Mamaroneck, N.Y., was born April 15, 1859, in Carlisle, Pa. She is the author of Hygiene and Physical Culture for Women and other works.

Galbraith, Clinton Alexander, lawyer and jurist of Ada, Okla., was born March 6, 1860, in Hartsville, Ind. In 1893-97 he was attorney-general of Oklahoma. In 1900-04 he was justice of the supreme court of Hawaii.

Galbraith, William J., soldier, lawyer and jurist of Butte, Mont., was born Feb. 18, 1837, in Freeport, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1879 and again in 1883 he was appointed an associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of Montana.

Galbreath, Charles Burleigh, educator, librarian, college president and author of Columbus, Ohio, was born Feb. 25, 1858, near Lisbon, Ohio. Since 1896 he has been state librarian of Ohio. He is the author of Sketches of Ohio Libraries and other works.

Galbreath, George W., banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 31, 1861, in Georgetown, Ohio. He is cashier of the Third National bank.

Galbreath, James Mc., jurist of Butler, Pa., was born Sept. 27, 1852, in Butler county. Since 1903 he has been county judge.

Gale, Absalom H., banker of Mason City, Iowa, was born Feb. 28, 1863, in Iowa Falls, Iowa. He is president of the City National bank.

Gale, George Biggs, lumber dealer and capitalist of Flat River, Mo., was born May 1, 1869, in Madison county, Mo. He is president and manager of the Miners' Lumber company.

Gale, Harlow, educator, psychologist and author of Minneapolis, Minn., was born June 29, 1862, in Minneapolis, Minn. Since 1903 he has conducted a private psychological laboratory in Minneapolis. He is the author of Psychological Studies and other works.

Gale, Hoyt Stoddard, geologist of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 9, 1876, in Cleveland, Ohio. He received the degrees of A.B. and B.S. from Harvard university. In 1902-10 he was assistant geologist in the United States geological survey; and since 1910 has been geologist in charge of non-metalliferous deposits in the United States geological survey.

Gale, Stephen Henry, manufacturer and financier of Exeter, N.H., was born March 23, 1846, in East Kingston, N.H. He is president and treasurer of the Gale Brothers.

Gale, Zona, journalist and author of Portage, Wis., was born Aug. 26, 1874, in Portage, Wis. She has been on the staff of the New York World. She is the author of Romance Island and other works.

Galgano, Pancrazio G., physician of 225 East Twenty-eighth st., New York City, was born Nov. 19, 1877, in Albano di Lucania, Italy. He graduated from the Naples university; and took a post-graduate course in the Hospital Incurables of Naples. He is a successful physician of New York City, and assistant to the New York polyclinic hospital.

Gallagher, Charles T., physician and statesman of Mount Sterling, Ohio, was born Sept. 22, 1870, in Mount Sterling. In 1906-12 he was mayor of his city. He is now a member of the state senate.

Gallagher, Charles Theodore, lawyer and capitalist of 18 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born May 21, 1851, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the South Boston Savings bank.

Gallagher, Charles Wesley, clergyman, college president and author of Lutherville, Md., was born Feb. 3, 1846, in Boston, Mass. He has been president of the Maine Wesleyan seminary and college at Kent's Hill. He is the author of God Revealed or Nature's Best Word.

Gallagher, Hugh Clifford, manufacturer of 45 Broad st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 25, 1855, in Sackville, N.B. He is president of the Milton Savings bank.

Gallagher, Nicholas Aloysius, college president and bishop of Galveston, Texas, was born Feb. 19, 1846, in Temperanceville, Ohio. In 1880-82 he was vicar-general; and then was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Galveston, Texas.

Gallagher, Thomas, merchant and statesman of 521 South Sangamon st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1850 in Concord, N.H. He has been president of the county democracy. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Gallant, Albert Ernest, physician and gynecologist of 70 East Sixty-sixth st., New York City, was born June 27, 1861, in Sudbury, England. He graduated from the medical department of the university of New York City; and in 1903-06 was professor of gynecology in the New York school of clinical medicine, of which institution he was vice-president and treasurer in 1904-06. He is treasurer of the New York urological society; and treasurer of the American therapeutic society. He is the author of over fifty papers on medical subjects.

Gallaudet, Bern Budd, educator, surgeon and author of 17 Livingston place, New York City, was born Feb. 11, 1861, in New York City. He is the author of Surgery Quiz Compends.

Gallaway, Robert Macy, merchant and banker of 42 Wall st., New York City, was born Aug. 4, 1837, in New York City. He is president of the Merchants' National bank and a director of various corporations.

Gallinger, Jacob Harold, statesman of Concord, N.H., was born March 28, 1837, in Canada. He practiced medicine and surgery from 1858 until he entered public life. He was a member of the house of representatives of New Hampshire in 1872-73 and 1891; and was a member of the state senate in 1878-80, being president of that body the last two years. He was surgeon-general of New Hampshire with the the rank of brigadier-general in 1879-80. He was chairman of the delegation from his state to the republican national convention of 1888. He was a member of the forty-ninth and fiftieth congresses as a republican, and declined renomination to the fifty-first congress. Since 1890 he has been a member of the United States senate, and is now serving the term ending in 1915.

Gallison, Henry Hammond, painter and artist of 2 Grundmann st., Boston, Mass., was born May 20, 1850, in Boston, Mass. In 1904 he received a medal at the St. Louis exposition.

Gallizer, Nathan, litterateur and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Feb. 8, 1866, in Milan, Italy. He is the author of Ignis Fatuus and other works.

Galloway, Charles Henry, musician and organist of 366 Botanical ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 21, 1871, in St. Louis, Mo. He is musical director of the St. Louis Apollo club; and is a teacher of the organ and theory.

Galloway, Thomas Walton, educator, biologist, scientist and author of Decatur, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1866, in Columbia, Tenn. Since 1902 he has been professor of biology at the James Milliken university. He is the author of The Religion of an Evolutionist.

Gallup, Asa Oran, lawyer and manager of Lake Placid club, Essex County, N.Y., was born Sept. 24, 1865, in Alexandria, Va. Since 1900 he has been secretary, treasurer and general manager of Lake Placid club.

Gallup, Caleb Hathaway, lawyer and banker of 16 East Main st., Norwalk, Ohio, was born May 10, 1834, in Norwalk, Ohio. He is president of the Home Savings and Loan company.

Gallup, Henry H., manufacturer and banker of 43 Broadway, Norwich, Conn., was born June 2, 1842, in Preston, Conn. He is president of the Crescent Fire Arms company; and has been state treasurer.

Galvin, J. W., physician and surgeon of Louisville, Ky., was born Jan. 18, 1862, in Cadyville, N.Y. He is assistant in obstetrics and clinical gynecology in the Kentucky school of medicine.

Gambel, Thomas B., banker of Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 25, 1849, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the City Savings bank.

Gamble, Daniel, clergyman, farmer, statesman and author of Moscow, Idaho, was born Oct. 24, 1857, in County Donegal, Ireland. In 1875 he graduated from Beck's business college of San Francisco, Cal.; and in 1880 graduated from the San Francisco theological seminary. He has filled pastorates in Presbyterian churches in Idaho and Victoria, B.C.; and became chaplain to the provincial parliament. In 1884-89 he was pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Goldendale, Wash., and retired on account of ill health. In 1895-96 he was a state representative in the third legislature of Idaho.

Gamble, James N., railroad president of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is president of the Cincinnati and Westwood railroad.

Gamble,John M., landscape painter of Santa Barbara, Cal., was born Nov. 25, 1863, in Morristown, N.J. She studied in the San Francisco school of design and at the academie Julian in Paris. She is a painter of landscapes with foregrounds of wild flowers. She received a gold medal at the Alaska-Yukon exposition of 1910.

Gamble,John Rufus,merchant of Wetumpka, Ala., was born Jan. 18, 1871, in Arkadelphia, Ala. He is president of the Gamble Hardware company. He has been president of the Alabama retail hardware dealers' association.

Gamble,Robert Jackson,lawyer and statesman of Yankton, S.D., was born Jan.7, 1851, near Akron, N.Y. He has been city attorney. In 1895-97 and 1899-1903 he was a member of congress. In 1901-13 he was a member of the United States senate.

Gamble, Samuel Walter, educator, clergyman and author of Ottawa, Kan., was born Nov. 15, 1852, in Worthington, Pa. He is the author of Sunday the True Sabbath of God.

Gambrel, James Bruton, soldier, journalist and college president of 3909 Worth st., Dallas, Texas, was born Aug. 21, 1841, in Anderson county, S.C. He served in the civil war with the rank of captain. He has been president of the Mercer university of Macon, Ga.

Gammack, Arthur James, clergyman of Lenox, Mass., was born March 29, 1871, in Scotland. He has been pastor of the Christ church at West Haven, Conn. He is the author of Simple Counsels and other works.

Gammell, Robert Ives, manufacturer and banker of 50 South Main st., Providence, R. I., was born Dec. 3, 1852, in Providence, R. I. He is president of the Providence National bank.

Gammell, William, manufacturer and capitalist of 50 South Main st., Providence, R. I., was born May 20, 1857, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Berkeley company.

Gammons, Charles Warren, life underwriter and banker of 159 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 2, 1865, in Cohasset, Mass. He is vice-president of the Cohasset Savings bank.

Gangengigl, Ignaz Marcel, painter and artist of 5 Otis place, Boston, Mass., was born in 1855 in Bavaria. He received a gold medal from the St. Louis exposition.

Gannett,Guy Patterson, publisher and capitalist of 20 Willow st., Augusta, Maine, was born Nov. 27, 1881, in Augusta, Maine. He is vice-president and treasurer of the United Water, Gas and Electric company.

Gannett, Henry, topographer and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 24,1846, in Bath, Maine. Since 1902 he has been chief topographer of the United States geological survey. He is now director of census of Philippine Islands. He is the author of Boundaries of the United States and other works.

Gannett, Samuel, banker of Milton, Mass., was born Nov. 27, 1834, in Cohasset, Mass. He is president of the Blue Hill National bank.

Gannett,William Channing, clergyman, author and poet of 15 Sibley place, Rochester, N.Y., was born March 13, 1840, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of A Year of Miracle and other works.

Gannon, Anna, author and poet of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 6, 1876, in Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of A Dream of Shakespeare's Women and other works.

Gannon, Frank B., banker of Aberdeen, S. D., was born in 1853 in Genoa, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Gannon, Frank S., railroad president of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born Sept. 16, 1851, in Spring Valley, N.Y. Since 1909 he has been president of the Montana, Wyoming and Southern railroad.

Gannon, Thomas Joseph, educator, college president and lecturer of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was born July 14, 1853, in Cambridge, Mass. He is provincial or general superior of the New York and Maryland province of Jesuits.

Gano, Everitt J., banker of Summerfield, Kan., was born Aug. 30, 1862, in Little Valley, N.Y. He is cashier of the Commercial State bank.

Ganong, William Francis, educator, botanist and author of Northampton, Mass., was born Feb. 19, 1864, in Canton, Mass. Since 1894 he has been professor of physiology. He is the author of The Teaching Botanist and other works.

Ganse, Franklin W., underwriter of 176 Federal st., Boston, Mass., was born May 31, 1859, in New York. He is vice-president and director of the agencies of the Columbia National Life Insurance company.

Gantt, James Britton, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Jefferson City, Mo., was born Oct. 26, 1845, in Putnam county, Ga. He served in the civil war. In 1880-86 he was circuit judge of Henry court of Missouri; and an associate justice of the state supreme court of Missouri in 1890-98; and chief justice in 1890-1910.

Gantz, Martin K., lawyer and statesman of Troy, Ohio, was born Jan. 28, 1862, in Miami county, Ohio. He has been mayor of the city of Troy. In 1891-93 he was a member of congress.

Garber, Harvey C., lawyer and statesman of Greenville, Ohio, was born July 16, 1865, in Hill Grove, Ohio. Since 1898 he has been assistant general solicitor of the Central Union Telephone company of Ohio. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

Garber, Milton Cline, lawyer and jurist of Garber, Okla., was born Nov. 30, 1867, in Humboldt, Cal. In 1902-06 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Oklahoma. In 1907-11 he was judge of the twentieth judicial district of Oklahoma.

Garceau, Theodore, banker of Red Lake Falls, Minn., was born April 12, 1857, in South Bend, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Garcia, Joseph, business president of 318 Camp st., New Orleans,La., was born March 12, 1846, in New Orleans, La. He is president and manager of the Garcia Stationery company; and a member of the Marquette association for higher education.

Gard, Warren, lawyer and statesman of Hamilton, Ohio, was born July 2, 1873, in Hamilton, Ohio. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Gardam, W. Hothersall, clergyman and author of Ypsilanti, Mich., was born on Oct. 18, 1851, in England. In 1875 he was alumnus of the London university. In 1875 was a student in the Lincoln theological college of England; and in 1893 received the degree of B.D. from Seabury divinity college of Minnesota. In 1877-80 he was curate of Bourne Abbey church of Lincolnshire, England. His American ministry has been spent in Minnesota and Michigan; and in 1887-96 was dean of the cathedral at Faribault, in close association with Bishop Whipple. Since 1896 he has been rector of St. Luke's at Ypsilanti, Mich. For some time he was an editorial writer on the New York Churchman; and is an editorial writer for the Detroit Free Press. He is president of the standing committee of the diocese of Michigan.

Gardenshire, Samuel Major, lawyer and author of 49 Wall st., New York City, was born Nov. 23, 1855, in Fayette, Mo. He has been a municipal judge and representative in the Kansas state legislature. He is the author of the Long Arm and other works.

Gardiner, Asa Bird, soldier, lawyer and author of 24 Stone st., New York City, was born Sept. 30, 1839, in New York City. He has been judge-advocate on the staff of General Hancock. He has been district attorney of New York. He is the author of The Order of the Cincinnati in France and other works.

Gardiner, Harry Norman, educator, psychologist and author of Northampton,Mass., was born Nov. 6, 1855, in Norwich,England. He is professor of philosophy in the Smith college of Northampton, Mass. He has been president of the American philosophical association. He is the author of Outlines in Modern Philosophy.

Gardiner, James Terry, civil engineer of 11 Broadway,New York City, was born May 6, 1842, in Troy, N.Y. He has been director of the state survey of New York. He is president of the Mexican Coal and Coke company and other corporations.

Gardiner, John Hays, educator and author of Cambridge,Mass., was born April 6, 1863, in Gardiner, Maine. He is assistant professor of English at Harvard university. He is the author of Forms of Prose Literature and other works.

Gardiner, Robert Hallowell, lawyer and capitalist of Gardiner,Maine, was born Sept. 9, 1855, in Fort Tejon, Cal. He is a trustee of the William Lawrence Real Estate Trust company and other corporations.

Gardiner, William J., banker of Medford, Okla., was born Nov. 28, 1856, in Eddyville, Iowa. He is president of the Grant county bank.

Gardner, Augustus Peabody, statesman of Hamilton, Mass., was born Nov. 5, 1865, in Boston, Mass. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Gardner, Celia Emmeline, lecturer, author and poet of Newark, N.J., was born Nov. 4, 1844, in Sharon, Conn. She is the author of Broken Dreams and other works.

Gardner, Charles L., lawyer and banker of 31 Elm st., Springfield,Mass., was born May 27, 1839, in Cummington, Mass. He is president of the Hampden Savings bank.

Gardner, Dennis Joseph, educator, lawyer and banker of Platteville, Wis., was born Feb. 26, 1853, in Platteville, Wis. He is president of the State bank of Platteville.

Gardner, Eugene C., architect and author of 33 Lyman st., Springfield, Mass., was born March 28, 1836, in Ashfield, Mass. He is the author of Homes and How to Make Them and other works.

Gardner, George A., capitalist of 40 State st., Boston, Mass. He is a director of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company,the Boston and Lowell Railroad company, the Boston and Providence Railroad company, the Lawrence Manufacturing company, the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance company and the Old Colony Railroad company. He is also vice-president and trustee of the Providence Institution for Savings.

Gardner, George Peabody, trustee of 40 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 19 1855, in Boston, Mass. He is president o the Great Falls Manufacturing company.

Gardner, George R., lawyer and capitalis of Calais, Maine, was born Jan. 14, 1852 in Dennysville, Maine. He is president o the Eastern Realty company.

Gardner, Helen Hamilton, journalist an author of Richmond, Va., was born Jan. 21 1858, in Winchester, Va. She is the autho of Facts and Fictions of Life and othe works.

Gardner, Henry, banker of Spanish Fork, Utah, was born May 15, 1858, in Utah. He is president of the Commercial bank.

Gardner, Henry Brayton, educator and author of Providence, R.I., was born March 26, 1863, in Providence, R.I. He is professor of political economy in Brown university. He is the author of Statistics of Municipal Finance.

Gardner, J. M., railroad president of Warrenton, N.C., was born Jan. 17, 1853, in Warren county, N.C. He is president of the Warrenton railroad.

Gardner, Rathbone, lawyer and banker of 10 Weybosset st., Providence, R.I., was born Feb. 18, 1856, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Union Trust company.

Gardner, Washington, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Albion, Mich., was born Feb. 16, 1845, in Morrow county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been secretary of state. In 1899-1903 he was a member of congress.

Gardner, William A., railroad president of 226 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born in Gardner, Ill. Since 1907 he has been president of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad.

Gardner, William Henry, manufacturer and author of Winthrop, Mass., was born Oct. 28, 1865, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Little Songs for Little Singers.

Gardner, William Thomas, merchant and banker of Ree Heights, S.D., was born June 8, 1858, in LaSalle, Ill. He is president of the First State bank.

Garfield, Harry Augustus, lawyer of Williamstown, Mass., was born Oct. 11, 1863, in Hiram. Since 1896 he has been president of the municipal association of Cleveland.

Garfield, James Rudolph, secretary of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 17, 1865, in Hiram, Ohio. Since 1907 he has been secretary of commerce and labor of the United States.

Gargan, Thomas J., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born in 1844 in Boston, Mass. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the state legislature. Since 1894 he has been a member of the transit commission of Boston, Mass. He has been president of the American-Irish historical society.

Garhr, Paul Frederick, educator of Ithaca, N.Y., was born May 15, 1880, in Thun, Switzerland. Since 1903 he has been instructor in physics at the Cornell university.

Garis, Howard Roger, journalist and author of 12 Myrtle ave., Newark, N.J., was born April 25, 1873, in Binghamton, N.Y. Since 1896 he has been a reporter and special writer on the Evening News. He is the author of Isle of Black Fire and other works.

Garland, Frank Milton, mechanic and inventor of Dover, N.H., was born in 1855 in Tennaker, N.H. He is the inventor of the Garand rapid fire gun and other inventions.

Garland, Hamlin, lecturer and author of 6427 Greenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 16, 1860, in West Salem, Wis. He is the author of Little Norsk and other works.

Garlick, Henry Manning, banker of Youngstown, Ohio, was born Dec. 28, 1848, in Youngstown, Ohio. He is president and treasurer of the Standard Oil Cloth company.

Garlington, Ernest A., soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 20, 1853, in Newberry Court House, S.C. In 1898 he was inspector-general of Cuba. He is the author of A Catechism and other works.

Garman, Harrison, educator and naturalist of Lexington, Ky., was born Dec. 27, 1858, in Lena, Ill. Since 1889 he has been entomologist and botanist at the agricultural experiment station of the Kentucky state college. Since 1897 he has been state entomologist of Kentucky. He has written numerous articles on botany, entomology and zoology.

Garman, Samuel, naturalist and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born June 5, 1846, in Indiana county. He is assistant in the Agassiz museum at Cambridge, Mass. He is the author of Reptiles and Batrachians of Bermuda and other works.

Garnaas, Lewis Bjornson, merchant and banker of Cheyenne, N.D., was born July 1, 1870, in Norway. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank.

Garner, Alfred Buckwalter, lawyer and statesman of Ashland, Pa., was born March 4, 1873, in Ashland, Pa. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Garner, Charles Edwin, banker of 518 Hogan st., Jacksonville, Fla., was born Aug. 11, 1853, in Albany, Ind. He is president of the Florida National bank; president of the South Jacksonville Waterworks company; and presient and general manager of the Jacksonville and Mayport Steamboat company and other corporations. He has been president of the Jacksonville board of trade; and in 1901 was president of the Jacksonville relief association, which dispersed about one million dollars.

Garner, James Wilford, educator, lecturer and author of Urbana, Ill., was born Nov. 22, 1871, in Pike county, Miss. He has been instructor of political science in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Reconstruction in Mississippi.

Garner, John Nance, lawyer and statesman of Uvalde, Texas, was born Nov. 22, 1869, in Red River county, Texas. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Garner, Richard Lynch, soldier, philologist and author of Richmond, Va., was born Feb. 19, 1848, in Abingdon, Va. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Speech of Monkeys and other works.

Garner, Wightman Wells, educator, chemist and scientist of 1367 Parkwood place, Washington, D.C., was born July 15, 1875, in Timmonsville, S.C. Since 1903 he has been assistant chemist in the bureau of chemistry at Washington, D.C.

Garnett, James Mercer, soldier, philologist and author of 1316 Bolton st., Baltimore, Md., was born April 24, 1840, in Aldie, Va. He served in the civil war. He is the author of Elene and Other Anglo Saxon Poems and other works.

Garnett, Theodore Stanford, lawyer and soldier of 101 Colorado ave., Norfolk, Va., was born Oct. 28, 1844, in Richmond, Va. He served in the civil war. In 1900 he was appointed major-general of the Virginia division, commanding the united confederate veterans.

Garnsey, Elmer Ellsworth, artist and mural painter of White Plains, N.Y., was born Jan. 24, 1862, in Holmdel, N.J. He has painted mural decorations in the United States capitol. He is vice-president of the national society of mural painters.

Garrard, Jeptha, soldier of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born in 1858 in Ohio. He served in the civil war as a captain; and in 1865 was brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers.

Garrett, Albert Osbun, educator and scientist of 615 South Ninth East st., Salt Lake City, Utah. He received the degree of A.B. from the university of Kansas. In 1895-1902 he was instructor in science at the high school of Fort Scott, Kan. In 1902-10 he taught botany and physiography, and since 1910 has been head of the department of biology at the high school of Salt Lake City. In 1912 he was president of the Utah academy.

Garrett, Alexander Charles, clergyman and bishop of Dallas, Texas, was born Nov. 4, 1832, in Ballymot, County Sligo, Ireland. He graduated with the degree of B.A. from Trinity college of Dublin. He became a missionary in the British colonies, holding the office for ten years. In 1870-72 he was rector of St. James' church of San Francisco; and in 1872-74 was dean of Trinity cathedral of Omaha. Since 1874 he has been bishop of Dallas. He is the author of Historical Continuity; The Eternal Sacrifice and Other Sermons; and Baldwin Lectures on the Philosophy of the Incarnation.

Garrett, Daniel E., lawyer and statesman of Houston, Texas, was born April 28, 1869, in Robertson county, Tenn. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Garrett, Edmund Henry, artist and author of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 19, 1853, in Albany, N.Y. He has edited important collections of the Elizabethan and Victorian poets and translated German.

Garrett, Finis James, lawyer, journalist and statesman of Dresden, Tenn., was born Aug. 26, 1875, in Weakley county, Tenn. In 1897-99 he was principal of the high schools at Como, Tenn. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Garrett, H. R., educator and college president of Milligan College, Tenn., was born May 26, 1866, in Abingdon, Va. He has been instructor in the Milligan college of Tennessee; and since 1903 he has been its president.

Garrett, John B., railroad president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 30, 1836, in Philadelphia, Pa. He was president of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Garrett, Robert, banker of Baltimore, Md., was born June 24, 1875, in Baltimore, Md. He is a director of the Western National bank and other banks.

Garrett, William A., railroad official of Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 18, 1861, in Canton, Miss. Since 1912 he has been vice president of the Chicago Great Western railroad.

Garretson, Garret James, lawyer and jurist of Elmhurst, N.Y., was born July 16, 1847, in Newtown, N.Y. He has been surrogate of Queens county. In 1896-1910 he was justice of the supreme court of New York.

Garretson, George Armstrong, banker of 3716 Euclid ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Jan. 30, 1844, in Columbiana county, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Guardian Trust company.

Garrigan, Philip Joseph, clergyman and bishop of Sioux City, Iowa, was born in Ireland. He has been director of the Troy seminary. Since 1902 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of the diocese of Sioux City.

Garrigues, Henry Jacques, educator, physician and author of 11 West Eighth st., New York City, was born June 6, 1831, in Denmark. Since 1886 he has been professor of practical obstetrics in the post-graduate medical school of New York City. He is the author of Gastro-Elytrotomy and other works.

Garrison, Charles Grant, physician, lawyer and jurist of Merchantville, N.J., was born Aug. 3, 1849, in Swedesboro, N.J. In 1888 he was judge advocate general of New Jersey. Since 1888 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of New Jersey.

Garrison, Francis Jackson, publisher and author of 4 Park st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 29, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is part author of William Lloyd Garrison and The Story of His Life Told by His Children.

Garrison, Frank Lynwood, geologist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 12, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1900 he has been chief engineer of the Empire Lumber and Mining company of Johnson county, Tenn.

Garrison, George Pierce, educator and author of 2600 Whites ave., Austin, Texas, was born Dec. 19, 1853, in Carrollton, Ga. Since 1897 he has been professor of history in the university of Texas. He is the author of The Civil Government of Texas.

Garrison, James Harney, clergyman, journalist and author of 2712 Pine st., St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1842 in Missouri. He is the author of Heavenward Way and Along with God.

Garrison, Lemuel Addison, educator, clergyman and college president of Grand Island, Neb., was born Aug. 19, 1871, in Blakesburg, Iowa. He has been pastor of Bapti churches in various cities. In 1903 he was president of Central college of Pella, Iowa.

Garrison, Lindley M., lawyer of 266 Barrow st., Jersey City, N.J., was born Nov. 28, 1864, in Camden. In 1904 he was appointed vice-chancellor of the state of New Jersey.

Garrison, Winifred Ernest, educator, clergyman and author of Agricultural College, N.M., was born Oct. 1, 1874, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1904 he has been president of Butler college of Indianapolis, Ind. He is the author of Wheeling Through Europe and other works.

Garst, Warren, banker and statesman of Coon Rapids, Iowa, was born Dec. 4, 1850, in Dayton, Ohio. He is president of the Bank of Coon Rapids.

Garver, John A., lawyer of 55 Wall st., New York City, was born in 1854. He has received the degrees of A.B. and LL.B. Since 1884 he has been a member of the law firm of Shearman and Sterling, one of the oldest law firms in New York City. He is counsel for many banks and corporations, and he was senior counsel for the Consolidated Gas company in the eighty-cent gas litigation. He was also one of the counsel in the Brazilian coffee case and in various other notable cases.

Garver, William Lincoln, architect and author of Chillicothe, Mo., was born June 5, 1867, in Martinsburg, W.Va. In 1891 he became associated with a school of theosophy. He is the author of Brother of the Third Degree and other works.

Garvey, Eugene A., clergyman and bishop of Altoona, Pa., was born Oct. 6, 1845, in Carbondale, Pa. In 1871-99 he filled a pastorate at Williamsport, Pa. In 1891 he became Roman Catholic bishop of Altoona.

Garvin, Herbert C., miller and financier of Winona, Minn., was born April 23, 1862, in Fond du Lac, Wis. He is secretary and treasurer of the Bay State Milling company.

Garvin, Lucius Fayette Clark, soldier, physician and statesman of Lonsdale, R.I., was born Nov. 13, 1841, in Knoxville, Tenn. He has been a representative in the Rhode Island state legislature; and a member of the state senate. In 1903-04 he was governor of Rhode Island.

Garvin, T. M., lawyer and statesman of Wheeling, W.Va., was born Aug. 1, 1854, in Ohio county, W.Va. He has delivered lectures at the Wheeling business college on commercial and international law. In 1896 he was a member of the West Virginia state legislature.

Garwood, John James, farmer, merchant, and banker of Aux Vasse, Mo., was born June 10, 1858, in Callaway county, Mo. He is president of the Aux Vasse bank.

Gary, Edward Stanley, cotton manufacturer of Baltimore, Md., was born July 26, 1862, in Alberton, Md. He was president of the merchants and manufacturers association; and was an active member of the emergency committee that took charge of the city's rebuilding after the 1904 fire in Baltimore. He is now vice-president and general manager of the Gary Manufacturing company; and a director of the National Union bank and other financial and industrial corporations. In 1911 he was elected president of the board of trade.

Gary, Elbert Henry, lawyer, banker and founder of New York City, was born Oct. 8, 1846, in Wheaton, Ill. He was educated at Wheaton college and the law department of the Chicago university. He was general counsel of several railroad companies, manufactories and other corporations. In 1893-94 he was president of the Chicago bar association. He was connected with the organization of the Federal Steel company; and in 1898 retired from the practice of law to become president of that company. He was prominently identified with the organization of the United States Steel company. He is president of the Gary-Wheaton bank of Wheaton, Ill.; and is a director of several banks in Chicago, New York and many other corporations. He is a trustee of the Northwestern university; and is the builder of the Gary memorial church in Wheaton, Ill. He is the real founder of Gary, Ind., destined to become the greatest steel manufacturing city in America.

Gary, Eugene Blackburn, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Abbeville, S.C., was born Aug. 22, 1854, in Cokesburg, S.C. In 1889 he was a member of the South Carolina state legislature. Since 1893 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of South Carolina.

Gary, Hampson, lawyer, jurist, banker and statesman of 218 West Ferguson st., Tyler, Texas, was born April 23, 1873, in Tyler, Texas. He was educated in the Bingham school of North Carolina and at the university of Virginia. Since 1894 has practiced law in Tyler; is vice-president of the Royal National bank; and a director of the Guaranty state bank. He was a captain in the United States volunteers in the Spanish-American war; and later was colonel in the Texas national guard. In 1901-02 he was representative in the Texas state legislature; has been a referee in bankruptcy for several years; and is standing master in chancery in the United States court for the entire eastern district of Texas.

Gary, James Albert, banker of 1200 Linden ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 22, 1833, in Uncasville, Conn. He is head of the firm of James S. Gary and Son.

Gash, Abram Dale, lawyer and author of 118 North LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 11, 1861, in Macon county, Mo. He is the author of The False Star, a historical novel.

Gaskill, Alfred, forester of Trenton, N.J., was born Nov. 6, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1907 he has been state forester of New Jersey.

Gassette, Grace, artist of Paris, France, was born in Chicago, Ill. She is a successful painter and maintains a studio in Paris.

Gasson, Thomas Ignatius, educator and college president of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 23, 1859, in Sevenoaks, Kent, England. He was educated at St. Stephen's school of London; and subsequently studied dogmatic theology, moral theology, canon law and church history under famous teachers in America and Europe. Until 1886 he was a professor at Loyola college of Baltimore, and until 1888 at St. Francis Xavier's college of New York City. In 1896-1907 he was professor of ethics and political economy in the Boston college, and in 1907 was appointed president.

Gaston, John G., merchant and banker of Somerville, N.J., was born Aug. 28, 1862. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Gaston, Joseph A., army officer of Fort Clark, Texas, was born Sept. 2, 1856, in Honeybrook, Pa. Since 1902 he has been major in the United States army, first cavalry.

Gaston, Samuel Burns, farmer and statesman of Wildwood, Ala., was born Dec. 19, 1855, near Roanoke, Ala. In 1896-97 he was a member of the Alabama state legislature. He writes extensively for periodical press.

Gaston, William Alexander, lawyer and banker of 40 Water st., Boston, Mass., was born May 1, 1859, in Roxbury, Mass. He is president of the National Shawmut bank.

Gatch, Thomas Milton, educator and college president of 1232 Fourth ave., Seattle, Wash., was born Jan. 29, 1833, in Milford, Ohio. In 1887-95 he was president of the university of Washington. He is now professor of political science in the Oregon agricultural college.

Gatchell, Charles, physician and author of Chicago, Ill., was born in 1853 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1902 he has been professor of the Hahnemann medical college of Chicago. He is the author of Pocket-Book of Medical Practice and several novels.

Gatens, William N., lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore. In 1902-09 he was secretary to Governor Chamberlain. He is judge of the circuit court of Oregon; and a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Gates, Caleb Frank, educator, clergyman and college president of Constantinople, Turkey, was born Oct. 18, 1857, in Chicago, Ill. He has been a missionary to China. Since 1902 he has been president of Robert college at Constantinople. He is the author of A Christian Business Man.

Gates, Charles Gilbert, broker of 16 Wall st., New York City, was born May 21, 1876, in West Chicago, Ill. In 1902 he became a member of the brokerage firm of Harris, Gates and company.

Gates, Charles Winslow, merchant, farmer and capitalist of Franklin, Vt., was born on Jan. 12, 1856, in Franklin, Vt. He is president of the Farmers' exchange.

Gates, Eleanor, journalist and author of Alma, Cal., was born Sept. 26, 1875, in Shakopee, Minn. She is the author of The Biography of a Prairie Girl; The Plow Woman; Good Night and other works.

Gates, Mrs. Ellen M. Huntington, auth and poet of New York City, was born i Torrington, Conn. She is author of Treasur of the Kurium, a collection of her poem The Dark and To the Unborn Peoples.

Gates, Elmer, psychologist, inventor, sc entist and author of Washington, D.C., wa born in 1859 in Dayton, Ohio. He is t founder and director of the Elmer Gates la oratory of psychology and psychurgy Chevy Chase. He is the inventor of the ele tric loom.

Gates, Frederick Taylor, business manag and financier of 26 Broadway, New Yo City, was born July 2, 1853, in Maine, N. Since 1893 he has been business and bene olent manager for John D. Rockefeller.

Gates, George Augustus, educator, clerg man, college president and author of Nas ville, Tenn., was born Jan. 24, 1851, in To sham, Vt. He has been president of Iow college. He has been president of the Po ona college at Claremont, Cal.

Gates, Jasper Calvin, lawyer and auth of Detroit, Mich., was born March 23, 185 in Pleasantville, Pa. Since 1894 he has be instructor in law at the Detroit college law. He is the author of Gates' Cases Evidence and other works.

Gates, Joel H., banker and financier Burlington, Vt., was born Nov. 22, 1831, Royalston, Mass. He is president of t Burlington cotton mills.

Gates, John Warne, capitalist of 18 W st., New York City, was born in 1855 in I Page, Ill. He is a director of the Baltimo and Ohio Railroad company and various co porations.

Gates, Joseph A., physician and financi of Kenyon, Minn., was born Sept. 11, 187 in Rochester, Minn. He is president of t Reed Pope Development company.

Gates, Mrs. Josephine Scribner, litterate and author of 408 West Bancroft st., T ledo, Ohio, was born Sept. 12, 1859, in M Vernon, Ohio. She is author of The Sto of Live Dolls; The Story of the Lost D and other works.

Gates, Louis Edwards, educator and auth of Washington, D.C., was born on March 2 1860, in Warsaw, N.Y. Since 1896 he h been assistant professor of English at Ha vard university. He is the author of Sele tions From Jeffrey and other works.

Gates, Lowell Mason, physician, surge and director of 125 North Washington av Scranton, Pa., was born March 26, 1852, Scott, Pa. He has been president of t Lackawanna county medical society. He director of the Board of Trade Real Esta company.

Gates, Merrill Edwards, educator, lectur and college president of 533 Fifteenth s Washington, D.C., was born April 6, 1848, Warsaw, N.Y. In 1882-90 he was preside of Rutgers college. He is president of t American missionary association.

Gates, Owen Hamilton, educator and brarian of Cambridge, Mass., was born O

18, 1862, in Tinmouth, Vt. Since 1905 he has been librarian of Andover theological seminary.

Gates, S. V., banker of Perris, Cal., was born March 21, 1862, in Pennsylvania. He has been county assessor. He is president of the bank of Perris.

Gates, Samuel P., manufacturer and treasurer of Bridgewater, Mass., was born June 8, 1837, in Ashby, Mass. He is a cotton gin manufacturer; and since 1872 has been treasurer of the Bridgewater Savings bank. He is also a director in the Continental Gin company of Bridgewater,Mass.; and has held numerous positions of trust and honor.

Gates, Mrs. Susa Young, journalist, publisher and author of 672 North First West st., Salt Lake City, Utah, was born March 18, 1856, in Salt Lake City, Utah. In 1889 she founded the Young Woman's Journal of Salt Lake City, of which she was editor and publisher for eleven years. She is the author of Lydia Knight's History.

Gates, Willey Francis, musician, composer and author of 910 West Seventh st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born on March 18, 1865, in Zanesville, Ohio. He was director of the western conservatory of music and other music schools. He is the author of Anecdotes of Great Musicians and other works.

Gatlin, Thomas Hall, Jr., railway official of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 8, 1876, in Tarboro, N.C. He was educated at Trinity college of Durham, N.C. He entered railway service in 1892, and has filled positions to chief engineer. Since 1903 he has been connected with the Southern railway; was in location and graduation work through western North Carolina and Tennessee, became assistant engineer of the same road at Washington, D.C., and since 1911 has been assistant chief engineer maintenance of way of the same road at Washington, D.C.

Gauger, O. J., merchant, banker and business president of Sullivan, Ill., was born Feb. 11, 1856, in Turbutville, Pa. He has been a successful bookkeeper, salesman, private banker and business president. He is now president of the Sullivan Dry Goods company; president of O. J. Gauger and company, dealers in lumber and hardware; and manages his two farms.

Gaul, Gilbert William, painter and artist of Ridgefield Park, N.J., was born March 31, 1855, in Jersey City, N.J. Among his works are Stories of Liberty to the Confined;Charging the Battery; Holding the Line of All Hazards and With Fate Against Them.

Gault, Franklin Benjamin, educator and college president of Vermillion, S.D., was born on May 2, 1851, in Wooster, Ohio. In 1902-08 he was president of the university of Idaho. He has been president of the Idaho teachers' association.

Gaveney,John C., farmer, lawyer and statesman of Arcadia, Wis., was born on June 30, 1863, in Arcadia, Wis. He has been mayor of Arcadia, Wis. In 1901-05 he was a member of the state senate. He is president of the Western Wisconsin Telephone company at Arcadia.

Gaver,Chester C., banker of Hillsboro, Va., was born July 4, 1841, in Frederick county, Md. He is vice-president of the Loudhoun National bank of Leesburg, Va.

Gavin, Joseph Edward, business president of 270 Hudson st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Nov. 14, 1855, in Buffalo, N.Y. He served as United States inspector of customs at Buffalo under President Cleveland. He is president of the J. E. Gavin Coal company; and a member of the chamber of commerce.

Gavin, Michael Freebern, physician of 546 Broadway, South Boston, Mass., was born on May 12, 1844, in Ireland. He has been trustee of the union institution for savings, and a director of the Mattapan Deposit and Trust company. He is a member of the Boston society for medical improvement and various medical societies.

Gavit, John Palmer, journalist, sociologist and author of 111 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born July 1, 1868, in Albany, N.Y. He was the founder of the Commons, the organ of social settlements of the world, now united in Charities and the Commons. He is the author of The Reporters' Manual.

Gawtry, Harrison E., capitalist of 4 Irving place, New York City, was born in New York City. He is president of the East River Gas company and a director of various corporations.

Gawtry, Lewis Brown, capitalist of 4 Irving place, New York City, was born in New York City. He is vice-president of the Consolidated Gas company of New York and a director of various corporations.

Gay, Eben Howard, banker of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born on Feb. 6, 1858, in Hingham, Mass. He is engaged in private banking.

Gay, Edward, painter and artist of Mount Vernon, N.Y., was born in 1838, in Dublin, Ireland. In 1887 he took the metropolitan prize of two thousand dollars for the picture Broad Acres presented to the metropolitan museum of New York City.

Gay, Harry Nelson, historian and author of Pallazo Orisina, Rome, Italy, was born Aug. 4, 1870, in Newton, Mass. He graduated from the universities of Amherst and Harvard with the degrees of A.B. and A.M. He possesses the best existing library on the History of Italy; and is honorary secretary and treasurer executive committee of the Keats-Shelley memorial association, Rome. He is the author of a series of writings in Italian upon the relations between the United States and Italy.

Gay, John L., banker of Berea, Ky., was born Sept. 22, 1865, in Kentucky. He is mayor of his city for the term of 1910-14.

Gay, Mrs. Maude Clark, litterateur and author of Waldoboro, Maine, was born Sept. 28, 1876, in Waldoboro, Maine. She is the author of The Knitting of the Souls; Paths Crossing, a story of Oklahoma, which attracted considerable attention in the western states and other works.

Gay, Stonewall Jackson, physician, surgeon and banker of Lineville, Ala., was born May 28, 1863, in Daviston, Ala. In 1904 he was probate judge of Clay County. He is president of the Citizen's National bank of Lineville.

Gay, Walter, painter and artist of 11 rue de l'Université, Paris, France, was born on Jan. 22, 1856, in Hingham, Mass. He painted the large picture entitled Benedicite now in the museum at Amiens, France. He has received several gold medals.

Gayle, June W., public official and statesman of Owenton, Ky., was born on Feb. 22, 1865, in New Liberty, Ky. In 1892 he was high sheriff of Owen County, Ky. In 1899-1900 he was a member of congress.

Gayley, Charles Mills, educator and author of 2328 Piedmont ave., Berkeley, Cal., was born Feb. 22, 1858, in China. Since 1889 he has been professor of English language and literature at the university of California. He is the author of Songs of Yellow and Blue and other works.

Gaylord, Harvey Russell, surgeon and author of 113 High st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Oct. 4, 1872, in Saginaw, Mich. Since 1899 he has been professor of surgical pathology at the university of Buffalo. He is the author of Reports of State Cancer Laboratory.

Gaynor, William Jay, lawyer and jurist of of 20 Eighth ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1851 in Whitestown, N.Y. In 1893-1907 he was a justice of the supreme court of New York.

Gazzam, Joseph M., lawyer, banker and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Dec. 2, 1842, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He graduated from the Western university of Pennsylvania. In 1864-79 he practiced his profession in Pittsburgh; and was a member of the city council. In 1879 he moved to Philadelphia; and his practice has been almost exclusively in connection with corporate enterprises and interests. He has attained success as one of the foremost lawyers of his native state; and enjoys a large practice. He has served with distinction as a member of the Pennsylvania state senate. He is president of the Quaker City National bank; president of the Kenilworth Land company of Asheville, N.C.; and president of the Rees Walsh Law and Digest Publishing company.

Gear, Hiram Lewis, lawyer and author of 11 Jones st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Dec. 1, 1842, in Marietta, Ohio. In 1882-83 he taught in the Atlanta Baptist seminary. He is the author of Relation of Baptism to the Lord's Supper and other works.

Gearin, John M., lawyer and statesman of Portland, Ore., was born Aug. 15, 1851, in Umatilla, Ore. In 1876 he was city attorney of Portland. He has been a member of the state legislature; and a member of the state senate.

Geary, John White, banker and broker of 511 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 22, 1869, in Harrisburg, Pa. He is a member of the firm of William H. Newbold's Son and company, bankers and brokers.

Geary, Thomas J., lawyer and statesman of Santa Rosa, Cal., was born Jan. 18, 1854 in Boston, Mass. In 1882-84 he was district attorney of Sonoma County. In 1889-95 he was a member of congress.

Geary, William M., railroad manager of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 14, 1845, in East Greenville, Pa. Since 1879 he has been superintendent of the Philadelphia, Newton and New York railroad.

Gebhardt, William C., lawyer, banker, business president and statesman of Clinton, N. J., was born March 28, 1859, in Croton, N.J. In 1900 and 1906 he was a member of the New Jersey state senate. He is president of the First National bank of Clinton and other corporations.

Geckeler, John G., insurance agent and banker of Mineral City, Ohio, was born on March 29, 1855, in Canal Dover, Ohio. He is president of the Mineral City bank.

Geddes, James, educator, linguist and author of 20 Fairmount st., Brookline, Mass. was born on July 29, 1858, in Boston, Mass. Since 1892 he has been professor of romance languages in Boston university. He is the author of Canadian French, Languages and Literature and other works.

Geer, Curtis Manning, educator, clergyman and author of West Hartford, Conn. was born Aug. 11, 1864, in Hadlyme, Conn. Since 1906 he has been professor of history at the Hartford theological seminary. He is the author of The Louisiana Purchase and Westward Movement.

Geer, George Jarvis, merchant of 23 East Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born Oct. 25, 1846, in Ballston Spa, N.Y. He is president of the Cravanette company, Ltd.; and a director in various corporations. He is a member of the New York chamber of commerce.

Geer, Theodore Thurston, farmer and statesman of Portland, Ore., was born March 12 1851, in Waldo Hills, Ore. In 1880, 1889, 1891 and 1896 he was a member of the Oregon state legislature. In 1899-1903 he was governor of Oregon.

Geer, Walter, lawyer and manufacturer of New York City, was born Aug. 19, 1857, in Williamstown, Mass. In 1886 he was elected president of the New York Architectural Terra Cotta company.

Geer, William Chauncey, educator, chemist and scientist of Akron, Ohio, was born June 17, 1876, in Ogdensburg, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been chemist to the Goodrich company of Akron. He has made valuable researches in chemistry.

Geer, William Montague, clergyman of 29 Vesey st., New York City, was born April 9, 1848, in Balston, N.Y. Since 1904 he has been vicar of St. Paul's chapel, Trinity parish, New York.

Geery, William Beckwith, banker of St Paul, Minn., was born Aug. 23, 1867, in Medina, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Capital National bank.

Gehner, Albert Henry, broker and capitalist of 709 Chestnut st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 20, 1876, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the Gehner Realty and Investment company.

Gehner, August, soldier and financier of St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 8, 1846, in Germany. He has been president of the German-American bank of St. Louis. He has been vice-president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company.

Geiger, Jacob, physician and founder of St. Joseph, Mo., was born July 25, 1848, in Germany. In 1873 he opened an office in St. Joseph, Mo. In 1877 he organized a medical class; and the following year organized the St. Joseph hospital medical college.

Geil,D. F., physician and banker of Broadway, Va., was born May 28, 1864, in Dayton, Va. He is president of the First National bank.

Geil, William Edgar, traveler and author of Doylestown, Pa., was born in 1865, near Doylestown, Pa. He has traveled in all parts of the world; and has given lectures in Australia, Great Britain and the United States. He is the author of Ocean and Isle and other works.

Geis, George Sherman, soldier, journalist and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born in 1875, in Grand Island, Neb. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of History of the Famous Astor Battle.

Geiser, Karl Frederick, educator and author of Oberlin, Ohio, was born June 18, 1869, in Fairbank, Iowa. Since 1900 he has been professor of political science at the Iowa state normal school. He is the author of Redemptioners and Indentured Servants in the Colony and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Geissenhainer, Jacob Augustus, lawyer and statesman of Freehold, N.J., was born in 1841, in New York City. In 1889-95 he was a member of congress.

Geist, Clarence Henry, capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1867, in La Porte, Ind. He is president of the C. H. Geist company of Philadelphia.

Gelert, Johannes Sophus, designer, sculptor and artist of 11 East Fourteenth st., New York City, was born Dec. 10, 1852, in Denmark. His prominent works include the Haymarket monument; the Hans Christian Anderson and Beethoven statues in Lincoln Park of Chicago; four colossal statues representing Roman civilization and many other works.

George, Charles A., librarian of Elizabeth, N.J., was born Oct. 11, 1867, in New York City. He is librarian of the free public library.

George, Charles Ellewyin, editor and lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Dec. 20, 1860, in Alexandria, N.H. He is the editor and publisher of the Lawyer and Banker Magazine. He is the author of Marriage and Divorce and other works.

George,Henry, journalist, reformer and author of 87 Hamilton place, New York City, was born Nov. 3, 1862, in Sacramento, Cal. He was secretary to his father on his lecturing tour in Great Britain. He is the author of a biography of his father.

George, Melvin Clarke, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Portland, Ore., was born May 13, 1849, in Noble County, Ohio. He has been a state senator; and in 1881-85 he was a member of congress. In 1898 he was judge of the state circuit court.

George, Robert S., investment banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 2, 1883, in Indiana county, Pa. He is treasurer of the Marianna Water company and other corporations.

George, Samuel B., farmer and banker of Lexington, S.C., was born July 27, 1871, in Lexington, S.C. He is president of the Home National bank.

George, Walter A., banker and state official of Lincoln,Neb., was born May 12, 1861, in Danvers, Mass. He is president of the Security State bank of Broken Bow, Neb.

George, Walter L., banker of Apollo, Pa., was born in South Bend, Pa. He is president of the First National bank of Apollo.

George, William Reuben, business president, philantropist and founder of Freeville, N.Y., was born June 4, 1860, in West Dryden, N.Y. He founded the junior republic, put in operation in New York in 1895. The George junior republic is a reform in the methods of dealing with delinquent and dependent children, the system now being extended to various states of the union.

Gephart, Wallace Hays, railroad president of Bellefonte,Pa., was born in 1880 in Bellefonte, Pa. Since 1909 he has been president of the Central railroad of Pennsylvania.

Gerhard, James Watson, lawyer and jurist of 725 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1867 in Geneseo, N.Y. In 1908 he was elected justice of the supreme court of New York for the term ending in 1921. He is a trustee of the New York law institute.

Gerber, Jacob Andrew, banker of Fremont, Mich., was born Aug. 6, 1856, in Valparaiso, Ind. He is president of the Old State bank.

Gere, George Grant, surgeon and author of 1031 Fillmore st., San Francisco,Cal., was born Dec. 27, 1848, in Greene, N.Y. Since 1886 he has been professor of surgery in the California medical college. He is the author of a series of lectures on Callopractic Surgery.

Gere, George Washington, lawyer, prohibitionist and author of Champaign, Ill., was born March 22, 1843, in Clark county, Ill. In 1896 he was a candiate for governor on the prohibitionist ticket. He is the author of Did Jesus Rise?

Gerend, M. M., clergyman, college president and author of Sheboygan, Wis., was born June 17, 1858, in Sheboygan, Wis. Since 1895 he has been president of St.

John's institute for deaf mutes. He is the author of Eugene Christian and other works.

Gergen, Nicholas B., banker of Hastings, Minn., was born June 1, 1862, in Douglas, Minn. He is cashier of the German-American bank.

Gerhard, John Sergeant, lawyer of 328 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born December, 1845, in Philadelphia. He is a member of the historical society, the Philadelphia city institute, the charity ball and the sons of the revolution.

Gerhard, William Paul, civil engineer and author of 33 Union square, New York City, was born July 30, 1854, in Hamberg, Germany. Since 1892 he has been sanitary engineer on the staff of the state architect of New York. He is the author of The Prevention of Fire and other works.

Gerhardt, Karl, sculptor and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 7, 1853, in Boston, Mass. His best known works are busts of General U. S. Grant and Henry Ward Beecher.

Gericke, Wilhelm, musician and composer of Boston, Mass., was born April 18, 1845, in Syria. Since 1898 he has been a conductor of the Boston symphony orchestra. He is the author of Songs and Orchestra Works.

Gerlach, John J., merchant and banker of Woodward, Okla., was born June 7, 1865, in Virden, Ill. He is president of the Gerlach bank.

Germon,Effie, actress of Augusta, Ga., was born in 1845. She has attained prominence as one of the foremost actresses of the United States.

Gerould, Gordon Hall, educator and author of 342 Nassau st., Princeton, N.J., was born Oct. 4, 1877. Since 1905 he has been preceptor in English at Princeton college. He is the author of Sir Guy of Warwick and other works.

Gerould, James Thayer, librarian of 2022 Second ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Oct. 3, 1872, in Goffstown, N.H. Since 1906 he has been librarian of the university of Minnesota.

Gerrish, Frederic Henry, physician and author of Portland, Maine, was born March 21, 1845, in Portland, Maine. Since 1892 he has been visiting surgeon to the Maine general hospital of Portland. He has been president of the Maine state board of health. He is the author of Antiseptic Surgery and other works.

Gerrish, Henry, capitalist of 381 Albany st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 25, 1868, in Boston. He is president of the Grover and Haskell company and a director of other corporations.

Gerry, Elbridge Thomas, lawyer of 258 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1837, in New York City. He has been president of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children.

Gerry, Peter G., statesman of Providence, R.I., was born Sept. 18, 1879, in New York City. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Gerry, Robert, merchant and statesman of Pasco,Wash., was born Jan. 9, 1858, in Ellsworth, Maine. He has been county treasurer; and has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been mayor of his city.

Gerson, Felix Napoleon, journalist, author and poet of 608 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 18, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1891 he has been editor and manager of the Jewish Exponent of Philadelphia. He is the author of a volume entitled Some Verses.

Gerson, Oscar, educator and author of 7739 Norwood st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 1, 1874, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1905 he has been professor of literature at the central manual training high school; and professor of pedagogy at the Temple college. He is the author of Physiology and other works.

Gerster, Arpad Geyza Charles, surgeon and author of 34 East Seventy-fifth st., New York City, was born Dec. 22, 1848, in Hungary. Since 1878 he has been surgeon to the German hospital of New York City. He is the author of The Rules of Septic and Antiseptic Surgery.

Gessler, Edward Albert, bond and stock broker of 411 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born June 15, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is a member of the firm of Gessler and Kransnick.

Gest, William H., lawyer of Rock Island, Ill., was born Jan. 7, 1838, in Jacksonville, Ill. In 1887-91 he was a member of congress.

Gest, William Purves, lawyer and banker of 325 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 27, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president of the Fidelity Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Gestefeld, Ursula Newell, educator and author of 5333 Jefferson ave., Chicago,Ill., was born in Augusta, Maine. She has been head of the college of science of being. She is the author of The Woman Who Dares and other works.

Getchell, Clarence Wheeler, publisher of San Andreas, Cal., was born Sept. 9, 1855, in Minnesota. He is editor and publisher of The Calaveras Prospect.

Getman, Crawford, merchant, manufacturer and banker of Cleveland, N.Y., was born Jan. 23, 1834, in Ephrapah, N.Y. He is president of the National State bank of Oneida, N.Y.

Getman,Frederick Hutton, chemist, lecturer and author of Bryn Mawr, Pa., was born Feb. 9, 1878, in Oswego, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been an instructor in physical science at the Stamford high school of Connecticut. He is the author of Blowpipe Analysis and other works.

Gettemy,Charles Ferris, journalist and author of Boston, Mass., was born March 12, 1868, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1907 he has been chief of the Massachusetts bureau of statistics of labor. He is the author of The True Story of Paul Revere and other works.

Gheen, Edward Hickman, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 11, 1845, in Delaware county, Pa. In 1898 he was promoted commander. In 1902 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Ghent, William James, printer, journalist and author of Washington, D.C., was born April 29, 1868, in Frankfort, Ind. He is secretary of the Rand school of social science of New York City. He is the author of Our Benevolent Feudalism and other works.

Gholson, Edwin, lawyer and librarian of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born May 3, 1863, in Holly Springs, Miss. Since 1899 he has been librarian of the Cincinnati law library.

Ghriskey, Robert Dodd, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 4, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is cashier of the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia.

Giauque, Florien, soldier, lawyer and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born in 1843 in Holmes county, Ohio. He has served in the civil war. He is the author of Ohio Road and Bridge Laws and other works.

Gibb, Joseph Scribner, physician of 1907 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 11, 1859, in Philadelphia. Since 1893 he has been surgeon in charge of the eye, nose and throat department of the Episcopal hospital.

Gibbon, John H., surgeon and author of 1608 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born on March 16, 1871, in Charlotte, N.C. He served in the Spanish-American war. Since 1907 he has been professor of surgery at the Jefferson medical college. He is the author of Textbook of Surgery.

Gibbon,Thomas Edward,lawyer and statesman of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 28, 1860, in Devall Bluff, Ark. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been vice-president of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway company.

Gibbons,James, clergyman, archbishop and author of 408 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born July 23, 1834, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1886 he has been a cardinal of the Roman Catholic church. He is the author of The Faith of Our Fathers and other works.

Gibbons, John, lawyer and jurist of 420 St. James place, Chicago, Ill., was born March 18, 1848, in Ireland. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1893-1909 he was judge of the circuit court of Cook county. He is the author of American Criminal Reports.

Gibbons, John T., merchant of 2006 Canal st., New Orleans, La., was born May, 1837, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1862 he has been a wholesale dealer in grain and feed stuff; and is vice-president of the Hibernia Insurance company.

Gibbons, William Futhey, clergyman and author of Dunmore, Pa., was born Dec. 31, 1859, in Lenape, Pa. He is a clergyman of the Presbyterian church. He is the author of Those Black Diamond Men.

Gibbons, William H., banker of Ardmore, Pa., was born Sept. 16, 1852, in Coatesville, Pa. He is vice-president of the National bank of Chester Valley.

Gibbs, Earl N., banker of Kipton, Ohio, was born March 17, 1874, in Brunswick, Ohio. He is president of the Kipton Bank company.

Gibbs, George, illustrator, artist and author of 1520 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 8, 1870, in New Orleans, La. He is the author of American Sea Fights and other works.

Gibbs,George, railroad official of New York City, was born April 19, 1861, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1912 he has been chief engineer of the electric traction, and consulting electrical engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Gibbs, Harley B., manufacturer and banker of Cleveland, Ohio, was born March 13, 1849, in Milan, Ohio. He has been vice-president of the Lake Shore Banking and Trust company and other corporations.

Gibbs, Willard K., soldier and business man of Memphis, Tenn., was born Aug. 5, 1876, in Hannibal, Mo. He was educated at Hannibal commercial college; is a jeweler by profession; and during the Spanish-American war attained the rank of first lieutenant. He is now a resident of Memphis, Tenn.

Gibbs, William David, educator and college president of Durham, N.H., was born March 15, 1869, in Winchester, Ill. Since 1903 he has been president of the New Hampshire college Durham.

Gibbs, William J., lawyer of Corsicana, Texas, was born Feb. 15, 1847, in Bienville Parish, La. He has been justice of the peace for Limestone county; and has been mayor of Mexia.

Gibney, Virgil Pendleton, physician, surgeon and author of 16 Park ave., New York City, was born Sept. 29, 1847, in Jessamine county, Ky. He has been for several years professor in the medical department of the Columbia university. He is the author of The Hip and Its Diseases.

Gibson, Braxton Davenport, banker and lawyer of Charlestown,W.Va.,was born Aug. 13, 1856, in Charlestown, W.Va. He is president of the National Citizens' bank.

Gibson, Charles, traveler, financier, author and poet of 121 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 21, 1874, in Boston, Mass. He helped to organize the Jackson-Harmsworth polar expedition. He is the author of Among French Inns and other works.

Gibson, Charles Dana, illustrator of 19 West Thirty-first st., New York City, was born Sept. 14, 1856, in Roxbury, Mass. He has illustrated Richard Harding Davis' Soldiers of Fortune and other works.

Gibson, Charles Donnel, lawyer and author of 19 West Thirty-first st., New York City, was born Aug. 29, 1863, in Sunbury, Pa. He is the author of My Lady and Allan Drake.

Gibson, Charles Hammond, litterateur, author and poet of Boston, Mass., was born in 1874 in Massachusetts. He is the author of Two Gentlemen in Touraine and other works.

Gibson,Charles Reuel, physician and banker of Woodsville. N.H., was born May 12, 1852, in Alstead, N.H. He is president of the Woodsville Savings bank.

Gibson, Charlotte Chaffee, librarian and author of Hagerstown,Md., was born in Rutland, Vt. Since 1902 she has been children's librarian at the Washington county free library. She is the author of In Eastern Wonderlands.

Gibson, Edmund T. H., railway official of 305 West Eighty-fifth st., New York City, was born April 19, 1843, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is treasurer of the Illinois Central Railroad company and director of various corporations.

Gibson, Mrs. Eva Katherine Clapp, author and poet of 650 Fullerton blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born in Bradford, Ill. She is the author of Her Bright Future and other works.

Gibson, Frank Markey, lawyer, clergyman and author of 1232 West Lafayette ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 16, 1857, in Bedford Springs, Pa. He is rector of the ascension church of Westminster. He is the author of The Amateur Telecopist's Handbook.

Gibson, Henry Richard, journalist, lawyer, jurist, statesman and author of Knoxville, Tenn., was born Dec. 24, 1837, in Kent Island, Md. In 1886-94 he was judge of the chancery court of Tennessee. In 1895-1905 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Suits in Chancery.

Gibson,Horatio Gates, army officer of 1412 Twenty-first st., Washington, D.C., was born May 22, 1827, in Baltimore, Md. He served in the Mexican war—and later in the civil war. In 1904 he was given the rank of brigadier-general of the United States army.

Gibson, Irving E., merchant and banker of Bennington, Vt., was born March 23, 1846, in Florence, N.Y. He is president of the Bennington County Savings bank.

Gibson, John Graham, lawyer of 25 Plant st., Utica, N.Y., was born Feb. 26, 1854, in Geneva. He has been mayor of his city; and has also been corporation counsel of Utica.

Gibson, Paris, manufacturer, founder and statesman of Great Falls, Mont., was born July 1, 1830, in Brownfield, Maine. In 1858 he settled in Minneapolis, Minn.; and built, with W. W. Eastman, the first flour mill and first woolen mill in Minneapolis. In 1882 he first examined the falls of the Missouri; and at once founded the city of Great Falls. In 1889 he was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of Montana. In 1891 he was elected state senator of Montana; and in 1901-03 he was United States senator from Montana. He is now extensively engaged in real estate and farming.

Gibson,Robert, lawyer of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Oct. 22, 1868, in Marietta, Ga. He is the founder and president of the tax management corporation.

Gibson, Robert Atkinson, clergyman and bishop of 906 Park ave., Richmond, Va., was born July 9, 1846, in Petersburg, Va. In 1897 he became Protestant Episcopal bishop of Virginia.

Gibson,Robert Edward Lee, educator, journalist, author and poet of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 14, 1864, in Steelville, Mo. He has been chief clerk in the St. Louis insane asylum. He is the author of Sonnets and Lyrics.

Gibson, Robert Williams, designer and architect of 103 Park ave., New York City, was born Nov. 17, 1854, in England. He has been president of the architectural league of New York.

Gibson, Thomas Benton, farmer, merchant and banker of McColl, S.C., was born Jan. 17, 1851, in Gibson, N.C. He is president of the Bank of McColl.

Gibson, William E., packer and capitalist of Crisfield, Md., was born Nov. 7, 1862, in Somerset county, Md. He is manager of W. R. Gibson and Brother.

Gibson, Woolman Hopper, insurance agent of Centerville, Md., was born Aug. 11, 1853, in Centerville. He has been a special agent of the Royal Insurance company of Liverpool and is a director of corporations.

Gidden, Charles Jasper, promoter and tourist of Boston, Mass., was born Aug.29, 1857, in Lowell, Mass. He is manager of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph company; and has organized telephone companies in eight states.

Giddings, Charles, lawyer and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born May 10, 1867, in Great Barrington, Mass. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has contributed valuable articles on law and government to current literature.

Giddings,Edward Jonathan, clergyman and author of Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 24, 1831, in Great Barrington, Mass. He is the author of Christian Rulers of America.

Giddings, Franklin Henry, educator, journalist and author of 150 West Seventy-ninth st., New York City,was born March 23,1855, in Sherman, Conn. Since 1894 he has filled the chair of sociology at Columbia college of New York City. He is the author of Report on Profit Sharing and other works.

Giddings, J. Wight, journalist, lecturer, lawyer,jurist and statesman of Detroit,Mich., was born Sept. 27, 1858, in Romeo, Mich. In 1886-90 he was a member of the Michigan state senate. He is now judge of the recorder's court.

Giegerich, Leonard Anthony, jurist of 267 Seventh st., New York City, was born May 20, 1855, in Rotz, Bavaria. He has been a representative in the state legislature, collector of internal revenue and judge of the city court. In 1894 he was a delegate to the New York constitutional convention. In 1891 he became judge of the court of common pleas, and since 1896 judge of the supreme court.

Gies,Arthur Jerome, railway official of Albany, N.Y., was born March 2, 1883, in New York City. Since 1900 he has been in railway service, has held various clerical positions, and since 1909 has been auditor of disbursements for the Delaware and Hudson company at Albany.

Gies,William John, educator, biologist, scientist and author of 437 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born Feb. 21, 1872, in Riesterstown, Md. Since 1904 he has been professor of general chemistry at the college of physicians and surgeons of New York City. He is president of the New York Gettysburg club. He is the author of Bio-chemical Researches and other works.

Giese, William Frederic, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born Feb. 25, 1864, in Winona, Minn. He is associate professor of Roman languages at the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of First Spanish Book and Reader.

Giffe, William T., musician and composer of Portland, Ind., was born June 28, 1848, in Portland, Ind. He is president of the Home Music company. He is the author of Giffe's Practical Course in Harmony and Musical Composition.

Giffen, Robert Emmett, physician and surgeon of Lincoln,Neb., was born Aug.25, 1859, in Coatsville, Pa. He studied in the university of New York and at Bellevue hospital medical college. He was major and chief surgeon in the United States volunteers during the Spanish-American war. He has been surgeon-general of the Nebraska national guard. He is attending surgeon to the St. Louis hospital of Lincoln.

Giffin, William M., educator and author of 7643 Union ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1850 in Heuvelton, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been principal of the Frances E. Willard school of Chicago. He is the author of How Not to Teach and other works.

Gifford, Augusta Hale, journalist and author of 42 Pine st., Portland, Maine, was born Feb. 9, 1842, in Turner, Maine. She is the author of Germany, Her People and Their Story and other works.

Gifford, Charles Alling, designer and architect of Newark, N.J., was born July 17, 1860, in Newark, N.J. He was architect for the young men's christian association building of Newark, N.J., and of various other buildings.

Gifford, Ferdinand Henry, banker of Fall River, Mass., was born Dec. 13, 1838, in Westport, Mass. He is president of the Fall River National bank.

Gifford, Franklin Kent, clergyman and author of Sandwich, Mass., was born March 6, 1861, in Garrison, N.Y. Since 1893 he has been in Unitarian and Universalist ministry. He is the author of Aphrodite.

Gifford, George, diplomat of Basel, Switzerland, was born Nov. 19, 1842, in Maine. Since 1884 he has been consul at Basel.

Gifford,Harry Ellsworth, inventor and geologist of Onset, Mass., was born Jan. 27, 1865, in New Bedford, Mass. He has been justice of the peace at Onset, Mass. He is the author of The Gifford Genealogy.

Gifford, John Clayton, educator, founder and author of Cocoanut Grove, Fla., was born Feb. 8, 1870, in May's Landing, N.J. He was the founder of the Forester. He is the author of Practical Forestry and other works.

Gifford, Miram Wentworth, clergyman and author of Lansing, Mich., was born June 3, 1851, in Canada. He is the author of Laws of the Soul, or Science of Religion and the Future Life.

Gifford, Orrin Philip, clergyman, theologian and reformer of 44 Marion st., Brookline, Mass., was born April 15, 1847, in Montague, Mass. Since 1894 he has filled a pastorate in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Gifford,Oscar Sherman, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Canton, S.D., was born Oct. 20, 1842, in Watertown,N.Y. He has been mayor of his city. In 1885-91 he was a member of congress.

Gifford, William Logan Rodman, librarian of 4329 Maryland ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 5, 1862, in New Bedford, Mass. Since 1904 he has been librarian of the St. Louis mercantile library.

Gilbert, Alexander, banker of New York City, was born Aug. 10, 1839, in Elizabeth, N.J. In 1863 he became cashier of the Market bank of New York; in 1893 became vice-president of the Market and Fulton bank; and since 1897 has been president of the Market and Fulton National bank. In 1907-08 he was president of the New York clearing house. For six years he was mayor of Plainfield,N.J.; and is president of the Plainfield public library.

Gilbert, Barry, lawyer of Champaign, Ill., was born May 16, 1876, in Cairo. Since 1907 he has been professor of law of the university of Illinois.

Gilbert,Benjamin Davis, journalist and author of Utica, N.Y., was born Nov. 21, 1835, in Albany, N.Y. Since 1877 he has been secretary and treasurer of the Utica diary board of trade. He is the author of The State of New York.

Gilbert,Benjamin Thorne, manufacturer of Utica, N.Y., was born Sept. 21, 1872, in Utica, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Continental Car and Equipment company; and has been president of the Utica chamber of commerce.

Gilbert, Cass, designer and architect of 11 East Twenty-fourth st., New York City, was born Nov. 24, 1859, in Zanesville, Ohio. He was architect of the new state capitol in St. Paul and of many other buildings.

Gilbert, Charles Allen, illustrator and artist of 17 West Thirty-fifth st., New York City, was born Sept. 9, 1863, in Hartford, Conn. He has published the Portfolio of Heads and other works.

Gilbert, Charles Henry, zoologist and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born Dec. 5, 1859, in Rockford, Ill. Since 1891 he has been professor of zoology in the Stanford university. He is the author of Synopsis of the Fishes of North America.

Gilbert, Charles Pierrepont H., architect of New York City, was born Aug. 29, 1861, in New York City. He is a director and stockholder in several manufacturing concerns.

Gilbert, D. B., educator and prohibitionist of Fremont, Neb., was born Jan. 20, 1866, in Lewisville, Ind. He taught for a number of years in the country schools of Kansas and Indiana; and was teacher and chaplain in the Indiana youth's school at Fort Wayne. He also taught in the Central normal college of Danville, Ind.; and in the Southern Indiana normal college at Mitchell, of which institution he was president for two years. He is prominently identified with the business and public affairs of his state; and is the owner of two student supply stores in Fremont, Neb. He is a member of the Prohibition national committee; and for four years has been chairman of the state prohibition party of Nebraska.

Gilbert, Frank Bixby, lecturer, librarian and lawyer of 69 South Lake ave., Albany, N.Y.,was born March 10, 1867, in Bainbridge, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been state law librarian.

Gilbert, Frank M., journalist and poet of Evansville, Ind., was born July 1, 1846, in Mobile, Ala. He is the editor and owner of the Evening Tribune of Evansville, Ind. He is the author of a volume of poems.

Gilbert, George Adam, underwriter of 159 LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 24, 1859, in Illinois. Since 1887 he has been resident manager of the Employers' Liability Assurance corporation and a director of various corporations.

Gilbert,George Gilmore, lawyer and statesman of Shelbyville, Ky., was born Dec. 24, 1849, in Spencer county, Ky. In 1876-80 he was attorney for Spencer county, Ky. In 1899-1907 he was a member of congress.

Gilbert, George Holley, theologian and author of Northampton, Mass., was born Nov. 4, 1854, in Cavendish, Vt. He is the author of The Poetry of Job and other works.

Gilbert, Grove Karl, geologist and author of 1919 Sixteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born May 6, 1843, in Rochester, N.Y. He is a geologist attached to the United States geological survey. He is the author of Geology of the Henry Mountains and other works.

Gilbert, Henry Franklin Belknap, musician and composer of Newton Centre, Mass., was born Sept. 26, 1868, in Somerville, Mass. He has composed A Group of Songs and other works.

Gilbert, Levi, clergyman, journalist and lecturer of 222 West Fourth st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Aug. 23, 1852, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been editor of the Daily Christian Advocate. He is an extensive contributor of both prose and verse to current publications.

Gilbert, Lewis Newton, manufacturer and banker of 85 South st., Ware, Mass., was born Jan. 25, 1836, in Pomfret, Conn. He is president of the Ware Savings bank.

Gilbert,Nathan Strong, musician and composer of Leavenworth, Kan., was born Jan. 28, 1852, in Iowa. He is the composer of a Serenade and other works.

Gilbert, Newton Whiting, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Manila, P.I., was born on May 24, 1862, in Worthington, Ohio. He was educated in the common schools of Indiana and at the Ohio state university. He is a lawyer by profession; and has held the office of state senator and lieutenant-governor of the state of Indiana. In the war with Spain he was captain of company H, one hundred and fifty-seventh Indiana volunteer infantry. In 1905-07 he was a representative from Indiana to the fifty-ninth congress and resigned from congress to accept an appointment as judge of the court of first instance at Manila, Philippine Islands.

Gilbert, William Ball, lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore., was born July 4, 1847, in Fairport County, Va. Since 1892 he has been United States circuit judge of the circuit of Portland, Ore.

Gilbertson, Emil H., banker of Finley, N. D., was born July 26, 1886, in Portland, N.D. He is assistant cashier of the First National bank.

Gilbreath, William Thomas, banker and stock feeder of La Plata, Mo., was born on March 26, 1849, in La Plata, Mo. He is president of the La Plata Savings bank.

Gilchrist,Albert Waller, soldier and statesman of Tallahassee, Fla., was born Jan. 15, 1858, in Greenwood, S.C. He served in the Spanish-American war; and attained the rank of brigadier-general of Florida. In 1909 he was made governor of Florida.

Gilchrist, Fredericka, author of Oswego, N.Y., was born in 1846, in Oswego, N.Y. She is the author of the True Story of Hamlet and Ophelia, a study and new interpretation of Shakespeare's play.

Gilchrist, Lawrence, merchant and banker of Center Point, Iowa, was born on Jan. 31, 1859, in Center Point, Iowa. He is president of the Linn County Savings bank.

Gilchrist, William Wallace, musician and composer of 1520 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 8, 1846, in Jersey City. His best known works are Ode to the Sun and Autumn Dreaming.

Gilder, Jeannette Leonard, journalist, dramatist, author and poet of 100 East Seventeenth st., New York City, was born Oct. 3, 1849, in Flushing, N.Y. She is the author of a play entitled Quits. She dramatized a Wonderful Woman.

Gilder, Joseph B., journalist, critic and author of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born in Flushing, N.Y. He founded with his sister, the Critic of New York City. He is the author of Authors at Home and other works.

Gilder, Robert F., journalist, archaeologist and artist of Omaha, Neb., was born Oct. 6, 1856, in Flushing, N.Y. He discovered large aboriginal quarries in eastern Wyoming; and is the discoverer of the new cultural area in eastern Nebraska. He has also achieved distinction as a painter of Wyoming and Nebraska landscapes.

Gildersleeve, Basil Lanneau, educator, journalist and author of 1002 North Calvert st., Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 23, 1831, in Charleston, S.C. Since 1876 he has been professor of Greek at Johns Hopkins university; and editor of the American Journal of Philology. He is the author of Odes of Pindar and other works.

Gildersleeve, Ferdinand, merchant and banker of Gildersleeve, Conn., was born Aug. 20, 1840, in Gildersleeve, Conn. He is senior partner of S. Gildersleeve and Sons, merchants, with which he has been identified for fifty years; and in the shipbuilding business, established in 1821. Since 1894 he has been president of the First National bank of Portland, Conn., which he organized in 1865. He has been president of the Freestone Savings bank of Portland, Conn., is now its treasurer; and since 1872 has been postmaster of his city.

Gildersleeve, Henry Alger, soldier, lawyer and jurist of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1840, in Duchess County, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted lieutenant-colonel. Since 1894 he has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Gildersleeve, Oliver, shipbuilder and capitalist of Gildersleeve, Conn., was born March 6, 1844, in Gildersleeve, Conn. He is president of the Gildersleeve Ship Building company and other corporations.

Giles, Edward S., railway official of New York City, was born Aug. 18, 1873, in Plainwell, Mich. He entered railway service in 1890, has held various positions in the general freight department of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, in 1906-11 was chief of its tariff bureau, and since 1911 has been assistant general freight agent of the same road with headquarters in New York City.

Giles, William Alexander, retired merchant of 209 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1836 in Massachusetts. He has been president of the New England society of Chicago.

Gilfillan, John B., lawyer and statesman of Minneapolis, Minn., was born on Feb. 11, 1835, in Barnet, Vt. He has been city attorney; and in 1865-67 and in 1869-73 he was prosecuting attorney for Hennepin county. In 1885-87 he was a member of congress.

Gilfillan, W. Whitehead, physician and oculist of 44 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born Dec. 14, 1868, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is consulting oculist to St. Vincent's hospital, Staten Island.

Gill, Augustus Herman, educator and author of 1334 Washington st., Canton, Mass., was born on Aug. 1, 1864, in Canton, Mass. Since 1894 he has been assistant professor of oil and gas analysis at the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Gas and Fuel Analysis for Engineers and other works.

Gill, George Carleton, manufacturer and banker of 208 Northampton st., Holyoke, Mass., was born in 1858 in Hinsdale, Mass. He is president of the Holyoke National bank.

Gill, John, lawyer and statesman of 218 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born June 9, 1850, in Canton, Mass. He has been police commissioner. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Gill, Joseph A., journalist, lawyer and jurist of Vinita, Okla., was born Feb. 17, 1854, in Wheeling, W.Va. Since 1899 he has been United States district judge, northern district of Indian Territory.

Gill, Joseph J., manufacturer, lawyer and statesman of Steubenville, Ohio, was born Sept. 21, 1846, in Barnesville, Ohio. In 1899-1905 he was a member of congress.

Gill, Laura Drake, educator, mathematician and dean of 40 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 24, 1860, in Chesterville, Maine. She is president of the national association of collegiate alumnae; and president of the women's national organization in the educational association.

Gill, Patrick F., merchant and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 16, 1868, in Independence, Mo. He is secretary of the Gill Brothers Grocery company. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Gill, Rosalie Lorraine, painter and artist of New York City, was born Sept. 2, 1867, in Elmira, N.Y. She paints landscapes and still life as well as portraits.

Gill, Samuel E., railroad president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 23, 1846, in Patton township, Pa. Since 1899 he has been president of the Parral and Durango railroad.

Gill, Theodore Nicholas, educator, naturalist and author of 321 John Marshall place, Washington, D.C., was born March 21, 1837, in New York City. Since 1884 he has been professor of zoology in the Columbian university of Washington, D.C. He is the author of Arrangement of the Families of Mollusks and other works.

Gill, Thomas Augustus, naval officer of 315 Pelham road, Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Feb. 8, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1902 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Gill, William Fearing, journalist and author of 3 East Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born in September, 1844, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Martyred Church and other works.

Gillen, William Wallace, lawyer and banker of Jamaica, N.Y., was born Jan. 24, 1853, in New York City. He is vice-president and attorney of the Jamaica Savings bank.

Gillespie, George Cuthberth, merchant and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 14, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is author of Early Fire Protection and other works.

Gillespie,George Lewis, soldier of 1533 New Hampshire ave., Washington, D.C., was born in 1841 in Kingston, Tenn. He served in the civil war and was twice brevetted for gallantry; and received the congressional medal for bravery. During the Spanish-American war of 1898 he was made brigadier-general of the United States army.

Gillespie, George Yancey, physician and banker of Duck Hill, Miss., was born Aug. 4, 1855, in Lafayette county, Miss. He is president of the Duck Hill bank.

Gillespie, Henry Lafayette, clergyman and author of Manchester, Iowa, was born Sept. 4, 1863, in Delaware county, Iowa. He has been prominent in the work of a missionary and reformer. He is the author of numerous contributions to religious literature.

Gillespie, Lawrence Lewis, banker of 11 East Eighty-ninth st., New York City, was born Dec. 23, 1876, in Chicago, Ill. He received the degree of A.B. from Harvard college. He has traveled throughout the world. He served in the Spanish-American war as lieutenant and acting captain in the first regiment United States volunteer engineers. He became vice-president of the Equitable Trust company of New York City; and in 1910 retired to enter the banking firm of J. S. Bache and company. He is a director of the Greenwich Savings bank and other corporations.

Gillespie,Oscar William ,lawyer and statesman of Fort Worth, Texas, was born June 30, 1858, in Clarke county, Miss. In 1890-94 he was prosecuting attorney of Tarrant county. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

Gillespie, Thomas O., contractor of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 1, 1852, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of T. A. Gillespie and company and a director of various corporations.

Gillet,Charles William, soldier and statesman of Addison, N.Y., was born Nov. 26, 1840, in Addison, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of adjutant. In 1893-1905 he was a member of congress.

Gillet, Ransom H.,lawyer of Cannon place, Troy, N.Y., was born Feb. 25, 1877, in New Lebanon Center, N.Y. He was educated at the United States naval academy, the Washington and Lee university, received the degree of Ph.B. from Yale university and the degree of LL.B. from the Albany law school. He is captain of company A, second regiment New York national guard, the Troy citizens' corps. He has attained success in the practice of law; and is a member of the New York state bar association and various clubs and societies.

Gillett, Charles Ripley, registrar and clergyman of New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1855, in New York City. In 1883-1908 he was librarian; and since 1908 registrar of the Union theological seminary of New York City. He is the author of General Catalogues of the Union theological seminary and Metropolitan Museum of Art; and has translated several works.

Gillett, Frederick Huntington, lawyer and statesman of Springfield, Mass., was born Oct. 16, 1851, in Westfield, Mass. In 1879-82 he was assistant attorney-general of Massachusetts. In 1893-1911 he was a member of congress.

Gillett, James Norris, lawyer and statesman of Sacramento, Cal., was born Sept. 20, 1860, in Virogua, Wis. He has been a member of the California state senate; and in 1903-07 he was a member of congress. In 1907-11 he was governor of the state of California.

Gillett, John Henry, lawyer, jurist and author of Hammond, Ind., was born Sept. 18, 1860, in Medina, N.Y. In 1902-08 he was judge of the supreme court of Indiana. He is the author of Criminal Law and Indirect and Collateral Evidence.

Gillett, Oren M., lawyer and banker of Independence, Iowa, was born March 12, 1850, in Bergen, N.Y. In 1890-92 he was cashier of the Commercial State bank of Independence, Iowa; and since 1892 he has been its president.

Gillett, Walter Cook, merchant and business president of 801 South Fifth ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 10, 1852, in Albany, N.Y. He organized the Chicago Paper company, of which he has been president since 1896.

Gillett, Willis Judd, banker of Rosendale, Wis., was born July 26, 1865, in Fond du Lac, Wis. He is president of the Rosendale State bank.

Gillette, Edward Hooker, farmer, lecturer, journalist, manufacturer and statesman of Valley Junction, Iowa, was born on Oct. 1, 1840, in Bloomfield, Conn. In 1879-81 he was a member of congress. In 1881-91 he was editor of the Iowa Tribune.

Gillette, Edwin Fraser, architect and business president of 8 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 19, 1863, in Chicago, Ill. He attended the Rensselaer polytechnic institute of Troy, and graduated with the degree of B.S. from the Armour institute of Chicago. Since 1892 he has been manager of the office of the estate of E. L. Gillette; and since 1902 has also been vice-president of the Strong Engine company. He has traveled round the word and spent a year in Japan. Since 1906 he has been a licensed architect.

Gillette,Halbert Powers, civil engineer, editor and author of 15 William st., New York City, was born Aug. 5, 1869, in Waverly, Iowa. He has been associate editor of the Engineering News of New York City. He is now managing editor of the Engineering-Contracting of Chicago. He is the author of Economics of Road Construction and other works.

Gillette, William, actor and playwright of New York City, was born July 24, 1855, in Hartford, Conn. He has played in stock companies in the various cities. He is the author of The Professor; A Legal Wreck and other works.

Gilley, Silas Alfred, soldier, educator, clergyman and prohibitionist of Marengo, Iowa, was born April 21, 1845, in Farmersville, N. Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major-general. He is pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church of Marengo.

Gilliam, David Tod, soldier, educator, surgeon and author of 131 East State st., Columbus, Ohio, was born April 3, 1844, in Hebron, Ohio. He served in the civil war as a corporal. He has been professor of gynecology at the Starling medical college. He is the author of Pocket-Book of Medicine and other works.

Gilliland, Samuel Howard, physician and bacteriologist of Marietta, Pa., was born on Dec. 10, 1877, in Oak Hall Station, Pa. He received the degree of M.D. from the Pennsylvania university, where he was an instructor in bacteriology. In 1902-06 he was bacteriologist to the state livestock sanitary board of Pennsylvania, and became its executive officer and secretary. Since 1911 he has been director of laboratories in the Pennsylvania state department of health.

Gilliland, William H., steamship agent and ship broker of Port Arthur, Texas, was born Oct. 16, 1867, in Beaumont. In 1904 he was appointed vice-consul of the Republic of Mexico.

Gillingham, Albert Jenks, railway official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Aug. 23, 1847, in Philadelphia. Since 1899 he has been auditor of passenger receipts of the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

Gillis, Donald, lawyer of Asheville, N.C., was born Dec. 2, 1869, in Palatka, Fla. He is president of the Pack memorial library association.

Gillis, James Henry, naval officer of Melbourne Beach, Fla., was born May 14, 1831, in Ridgeway, Pa. In 1855 he was promoted to master; and was again promoted until in 1887 he was promoted to commodore.

Gillis, James Louis, librarian of 2121 Twenty-first st., Sacramento, Cal., was born Oct. 3, 1857, in Richmond, Iowa. Since 1911 he has been state librarian of California.

Gillman, Henry, diplomat, scientist and author of 107 Fort st., Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 16, 1833, in Ireland. In 1886-91 he was United States consul for Palestine at Jerusalem. He is the author of Marked for Life, poems; and various other scientific monographs and articles.

Gillock, Fain Guy, banker of Canadian, Okla., was born Aug. 20, 1883, in Cook county, Texas. He is president of the First State bank of Stigler, Okla.

Gilman, Arthur B., railroad president of Haverhill, Mass., was born June 18, 1856, in Haverhill, Mass. Since 1893 he has been president of the Phillips and Rangeley railroad at Haverhill.

Gilman, Bradley, clergyman and author of Canton, Mass., was born Jan. 22, 1857, in Boston, Mass. Since 1892 he has had charge of the congressional society of Springfield, Mass. He is the author of The Kingdom of Coins and other works.

Gilman, Mrs. Charlotte Perkins, lecturer, author and poet of 67 Wall st., New York City, was born July 3, 1860, in Hartford, Conn. In 1896 she visited Great Britain as a public speaker. She is the author of Women and Economics and other works.

Gilman, Lawrence, critic, composer and author of New York City, was born July 5, 1878, in Flushing, N.Y. Since 1901 he has been musical critic on Harpers Weekly. He is the author of A Dream of Death; and Phases of Modern Music.

Gilman, Mrs. Mary Rebecca Foster, author of Canton, Mass., was born in 1859 in Worcester, Mass. She is the author of Life of St. Theresa, in Famous Women series.

Gilman, Nicholas Paine, educator and author of Meadville, Pa., was born Dec. 29, 1849, in Quincy, Ill. He has been professor in the Antioch college. Since 1895 he has been professor of sociology and ethics in the Meadville theological school of Pennsylvania.

Gilman, Robert Winthrop, physician and ophthalmologist of Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 2, 1865, in Detroit, Mich. He has been assistant surgeon to the British ophthalmic hospital in Jerusalem.

Gilman, Theodore, merchant and banker of 55 Williams st., New York City, was born Jan. 2, 1841, in Alton, Ill. He is president of the East Side building association; and vice-president of Hillman's Son and company. He is the author of A Graded Banking System; Federal Clearing Houses and other works. For over twenty years he has been treasurer of the New York Sabbath committee.

Gilmor, Robert, lawyer and jurist of Baltimore, Md., was born March 8, 1833, in Baltimore, Md. In 1867 he was elected judge of the supreme court of Baltimore.

Gilmore, Charles Whitney, paleontologist, scientist and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 11, 1874, in Pavilion, N.Y. Since 1904 he has been preparator in the division of vertebrate paleontology in the United States national museum.

Gilmore, E. D., merchant and banker of Amory, Miss., was born Oct. 21, 1854, in Itawamba county, Miss. He is president of the Gilmore and May company.

Gilmore, Edward, statesman of Brockton, Mass., was born Jan. 4, 1867, in Brockton, Mass. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Gilmore, George William, educator and author of 689 Greene ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 12, 1857, in London, England. In 1899-1906 he was professor of old testament languages and literature at Meadville theological school. He is the author of Korea from Its Capital and other works.

Gilmore, John Curtis, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born April 18, 1837, in Canada. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major. In 1899 he was brigadier-general of volunteers.

Gilmore, Joseph Henry, educator, clergyman and author of 15 Brighton st., Rochester, N.Y., was born April 29, 1834, in Boston, Mass. Since 1867 he has been professor of the English language and literature at the Rochester university of New York. He is the author of Art of Expression and other works.

Gilmore, Myron T., banker of San Diego, Cal., was born Jan. 11, 1847, in Maine. He served in the civil war. He is president of the San Diego Savings bank.

Gilmore, Pascal Pearl, banker and statesman of Bucksport, Maine, was born June 24, 1845, in Dedham, Maine. He is president of the Bucksport National bank. He has been a state representative.

Gilpin, C. Monteith, lawyer of 11 Wall st., New York City, was born Oct. 31, 1872, in Philadelphia, Pa. He graduated with the degree of B.A. from St. John's college of Annapolis and with the degree of LL.B. from Columbia university. Since 1897 he has practiced law in New York City. He has served in the New York state naval militia; and during the Spanish-American war was in the United States navy.

Gilpin, Oliver William, lawyer and banker of 125 North McKean st., Kittanning, Pa., was born Sept. 5, 1874, in Kittanning, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the Armstrong County Trust company.

Gilson, Edson P., banker of Rutland, Vt., was born Oct. 5, 1839, in Reading, Vt. He is president of the Killington National bank.

Gilson, Roy Rolfe, journalist and author of Woodstock, N.Y., was born Aug. 12, 1875, in Clinton, Iowa. He is the author of When Love Was Young; and In the Morning Glow.

Gilstrap, W. H., artist, curator and author of Tacoma, Wash., was born April 24, 1849, in Beecher City, Effingham county, Ill. He was a pupil of H. A. Elkins, Kenney, Bigelow and others. He is secretary of the Washington state historical society; and secretary and curator of the Ferry museum. He is the author of several works.

Gimmestad, A. O., banker of Belview, Minn., was born Aug. 5, 1865, in Norway. He is president of the State bank of Belview.

Ginn, Edwin, publisher of 29 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 14, 1838, in Orland, Maine. On the publication of Dr. Goodwin's Greek Grammar he secured an entrance into nearly all of the best schools of the country. Since then he has been foremost in educational works.

Ginnasi, Francis, physician and inventor of 118 MacDougal st., New York City, was born Feb. 14, 1859, in Bologna, Italy. He attended the university of Brussels, graduated from the New York university and took a post-graduate course in Gordon's hospital. He has been assistant physician to the New York dispensary, visiting physician to the Italian sailors' hospital of Brooklyn and visiting physician to the Italian home. He is the inventor of an acetylene gas generator.

Ginther, Frederick R., banker of Morristown, S.D., was born July 10, 1885, in Corona, S.D. He is president of the First National bank.

Gipson, Albert Eugene, publisher and jurist of Caldwell, Idaho, was born June 20, 1848, in Waterford, Wis. He has been judge of the city court. He is editor and publisher of the Caldwell Record.

Girten, Michael Francis, lawyer and jurist of 122 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 20, 1871, in Lemont, Ill. He has been judge of the municipal court of Chicago.

Gittings, J. Claxton, physician and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 23, 1874, in Williamsport, Pa. He is the co-author of Artificial Feeding of Infants.

Gittins, Robert H., lawyer and statesman of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was born Dec. 14, 1869, in Oswego, N.Y. For thirteen years he was engaged in the lumber, grain and coal trade; graduated from the university of Michigan with the degree of LL.B.; and since 1901 has practiced law in Niagara Falls, N. Y. In 1910 he was elected a member of the New York state senate; and is now a member of congress for the term of 1913-15. In 1912 he was a delegate to the democratic national convention at Baltimore; and has filled many positions of trust and honor.

Given, John LaPorte, journalist and author of 495 West End ave., New York City, was born Oct. 3, 1869, in Bellefonte, Pa. In 1896-1908 he was on the staff of the New York Evening Sun. He is the author of Making a Newspaper.

Givens, James G., capitalist of Las Vegas, Nev., was born in 1856 near Danville, Ky. He has been president of the chamber of commerce. He is president of the Fidelity Trust company.

Glackens, William J., artist of 29 Washington square, New York City, was born March 13, 1870, in Philadelphia. He is associate member of the national academy of design and others.

Gladden, Washington, clergyman and author of Columbus, Ohio, was born Feb. 11, 1836, in Potts Grove, Pa. In 1883 he accepted a pastorate in Columbus, Ohio. He is the author of The Lord's Prayer; The Young Men and the Churches and many other works.

Gladding, Albert F., lawyer and jurist of Norwich, N.Y., was born Dec. 9, 1843, in Pharsalia, N.Y. In 1889-1906 he was county judge and surrogate of Chenango county. He is justice of the supreme court of New York.

Gladney, Donald W., banker of Lewisville, Ark., was born June 27, 1878, in Tatum, Texas. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Glascock, John Ragland, lawyer and statesman of Oakland, Cal., was born Aug. 25, 1845, in Panola county, Miss. He has been district attorney of Alameda county, Cal. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Glaser, Carl Samuel, stock broker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 5, 1878, in St.

Louis, Mo. He is a member of the firm of Joseph Glaser and Son.

Glaser, Charles, chemist of 22 South Gay st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 15, 1855, in Wiesbaden, Germany. Since 1893 he has been chemist in the public laboratory of Baltimore; and formerly for ten years was managing chemist for Dambmann Brothers company. He has made valuable researches in analytical and technical chemistry.

Glasier, Gilson G., editor and law librarian of Madison, Wis., was born May 28, 1873, in Muskova, Wis. He is editor of Index to Legal Periodicals and Law Library Journal. He is law librarian for the state of Wisconsin.

Glasgow, Ellen Anderson, author of 1 West Main st., Richmond, Va., was born April 22, 1874, in Richmond, Va. She is the author of The Descendant, a novel; and Phases of An Inferior Planet.

Glass, Arthur Lorenzo, railroad official of Gainesville, Florida, was born June 16, 1867, in Mattoon, Ill. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad.

Glass, Carter, journalist and statesman of Lynchburg, Va., was born Jan. 4, 1858, in Lynchburg, Va. He owns the Daily News and the Daily Advance. He has been a member of the state senate; and in 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Glass, Chester, lawyer and banker of 195 Broadway, New York City, was born in London, Canada. He is vice-president of the Mercantile National bank of the City of New York and a director in various corporations.

Glass, Franklin Potts, journalist, publisher and founder of 2030 Quinlan ave., Birmingham, Ala., was born June 7, 1858, in Centerville, Ala. In 1880 he founded the Bibb Blade of Bibb county, Ala. He has attained success as a newspaper manager.

Glass, Joseph Sarsfield, educator, clergyman and college president of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 13, 1874, in Bushnell, Ill. He has been professor of dogmatic theology at St. Mary's seminary of Perryville, Mo.; and since 1901 he has been president of St. Vincent's college of Los Angeles.

Glasscock, William Ellsworth, statesman of Charleston, W.Va., was born Dec. 13, 1862, in Arnettsville, W.Va. In 1909-13 he was governor of West Virginia.

Glassman, William, journalist and statesman of Ogden, Utah, was born Nov. 12, 1858, in Davenport, Iowa. He has been a representative of the Utah state legislature; and he has been mayor of Ogden City. He is editor and proprietor of The Evening Standard and Morning Examiner of Ogden.

Glasson, William Henry, educator, economist and author of Durham, N.C., was born July 26, 1874, in Troy, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been professor of political economy and social science at Trinity college of North Carolina. He is the author of History of Military Pension Legislation in the United States.

Glatfelter, William Lincoln, manufacturer and banker of York, Pa., was born April 27, 1865, in Spring Forge, Pa. He is president and treasurer of the P. H. Glatfelter company and other corporations.

Glazebrook, Otis Allen, clergyman and founder of Elizabeth, N.J., was born Oct. 13, 1845, in Richmond, Va. He built the Church of Holy Trinity; and in 1885 he was called to St. John's church of Elizabeth.

Gleason, Alfred Dwight, woolen manufacturer and banker of Gleasondale, Mass., was born Feb. 7, 1846, in Andover, Mass. He is president of the Hudson National bank.

Gleason, Clarence Willard, educator and author of 6 Waverly st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 11, 1866, in Holden, Mass. Since 1905 he has taught in the Volkmann school of Boston. He is the author of Gate to the Anabasis and other works.

Gleason, Edward Baldwin, educator, physician, surgeon and author of 2033 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 13, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is chemical professor and a member of the senior faculty of the medico-chirurgical college of Philadelphia. He is the author of Essentials of Diseases of the Ear and other works.

Gleaves, Albert, naval officer of New York City, was born Jan. 1, 1858, in Nashville, Tenn. He has filled various grades from midshipman to commander. He is the author of Captain James Lawrence.

Glendinning, Robert, banker and stock broker of 400 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 10, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia, New York and Pittsburgh stock exchanges.

Glenn, Archibald David, superintendent of Harrisburg, Pa., was born Jan. 30, 1842, in Dayton, Pa. Since 1906 he has been deputy state superintendent of public instruction.

Glenn, Gustavus Richard, educator and college president of Dahlonega, Ga., was born Dec. 5, 1848, in Jackson county, Ga. In 1895-1903 he was state school commissioner of Georgia. Since 1904 he has been president of the Northern Georgia A. and M. college.

Glenn, John Mark, trustee of 105 East Twenty-second st., New York City, was born in 1858 in Baltimore. He is director of the Russell Sage foundation.

Glenn, Robert Brodnax, lawyer and statesman of Winston-Salem, N.C., was born Aug. 11, 1854, in Rockingham county, N.C. In 1893-97 he was district attorney for the United States. In 1905-09 he was governor of North Carolina.

Glenn, Thomas Louis, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Montpelier, Idaho, was born Feb. 2, 1847, in Ballard county, Ky. In 1887-91 he was a member of the state senate; and in 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Glennan, Arthur Henry, government surgeon and scientist of 3 B st., Washington, D.C., was born July 28, 1853, in Rochester, N.Y. In 1883-97 he was in command of United States marine hospital and quarantine stations at various points.

Glennon, James Hope, insurance president of 51 North Royal st., Mobile, Ala., was born Aug. 24, 1879, in Mobile county, Ala. He is president of the Alabama fire underwriters' association.

Glennon, John Joseph, clergyman and bishop of 3810 Lindell boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born June 14, 1862, in Ireland. In 1896 he was appointed coadjutor Roman Catholic bishop of Kansas City, Mo., with right of succession, and consecrated titular bishop of Pinara.

Glentworth, Marguerite Linton, author and poet of 108 West Eighty-fourth st., New York City, was born Jan. 18, 1882, in Newark, N. J. She is the author of Gates Ajar and The Dead Bard, poems; A Twentieth Century Boy and other works.

Glessner, James Graham, lawyer and banker of 21 South George st., York, Pa., was born Nov. 9, 1865, in Lewisburg, Pa. He is vice-president, director and attorney of Drovers and Mechanics' National bank.

Glessner, John Jacob, manufacturer of 1800 Prairie ave., Chicago, Ill., was born January, 1843, in Zanesville, Ohio. In 1864 he engaged in the manufacture of harvesting machinery; and as vice-president of the Warder, Bushnell and Glessner company he built up a business of very extensive proportions in the Champion machine manufactured by his company. When this business was combined with the International Harvester company he became vice-president, and was elected to the position of chairman of the executive committee of the great corporation. He was president of the citizens' association of Chicago when that organization prepared the bill for establishing of the sanitary district of Chicago.

Glidden, Arthur Josiah, banker of Hitchcock, S.D., was born Dec. 25, 1855, in DeKalb, Ill. He is president of the Security State bank.

Glidden, Charles Jasper, financier of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 29, 1857, in Lowell, Mass. He has been president of the Traders' National bank of Lowell, Mass.

Glidden, Walter S., merchant and capitalist of 51 North Market st., Boston, Mass., was born April 30, 1856, in Pittston, Maine. He is president of the Hollis Cold Storage company.

Glitsch, George L., lawyer and banker of Lorain, Ohio, was born March 14, 1867, in Johnstown, Pa. He is vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce.

Glorieux, Alphonsus Joseph, Catholic bishop of Boise, Idaho, was born Feb. 1, 1844, in Belgium. In 1871-84 he was principal of St. Michael's college at Portland. Since 1893 he has been bishop of Boise City.

Glos, Adam S., merchant and banker of Elmhurst, Ill., was born Oct. 8, 1848, in Elmhurst, Ill. He has been town clerk and assessor in Elmhurst. He is president of the Elmhurst State bank.

Glosemeyer, Louis Henry, physician and banker of O'Fallon, Mo., was born Dec. 27, 1872, in Marthasville, Mo. He is president of the German-American bank.

Glotfelter, Charles Weymoth, farmer, manufacturer and banker of Waterville, Minn., was born May 3, 1858, in Illinois. He is president of the Security State bank.

Glover, Charles Carroll, banker and financier of 1703 K st., Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 24, 1846, in Macon county, N.C. He has been president of the Riggs National bank of Washington since its organization.

Glover, Horace P., lawyer, banker and statesman of Mifflinburg, Pa., was born Dec. 10, 1852, in Hazleton, Pa. Since 1878 he has been engaged in the practice of law; for twenty years he was cashier, director and vice-president of the Mifflinburg bank, and has been its president since 1893. In 1887-88 he was a representative in the Pennsylvania state legislature.

Glover, James Waterman, educator, mathematician and actuary of 620 Oxford road, Ann Arbor, Mich., was born July 24, 1868, in Clio, Mich. He has been assistant professor of mathematics and lecturer on insurance in the university of Michigan. He has been a member of several international actuarial congresses.

Glover, John Abraham, merchant and banker of Rome, Ga., was born Nov. 18, 1846, in Cherokee county, Ala. He is president of the Anchor duck mill.

Glover, John Franklin, soldier, journalist, lecturer and lawyer of Sibley, Iowa, was born Sept. 16, 1845, in Hartleton, Pa. He has been a member of the Iowa state legislature; and mayor of Sibley, Iowa. He is secretary of the Osceola county bar association.

Glover, John Milton, lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 23, 1859, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Gloyd, Samuel Moses, capitalist and lumber merchant of Oklahoma City, Okla, was born Jan. 10, 1873, in Washington, Iowa. He is president of the Texas Cement Plaster company.

Glynn, Martin H., journalist, lecturer, lawyer and statesman of Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 27, 1871, in Kinderhook, N.Y. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress. He is managing editor of the Albany Times Union.

Gmeiner, John, clergyman and author of Hampton, Minn., was born Dec. 5, 1847, in Bavaria, Germany. He has been professor of homiletics in St. Francis seminary. He is the author of Emmanuel, the Savior of the World and other works.

Gobble, Aaron Ezra, educator and college president of New Berlin, Pa., was born Feb. 14, 1856, in Millheim, Pa. Since 1887 he has been president of the Central Pennsylvania college at New Berlin, Pa.

Gobin, Hillary Ashbury, clergyman, educator and college president of Greencastle, Ind., was born March 25, 1842, in Terre Haute, Ind. He has been president of the Baker university at Baldwin. Since 1895 he has been president of the DePauw university of Greencastle.

Goble, Ezra T., physician and banker of Earlville, Ill., was born Oct. 6, 1850, in Paw Paw, Ill. He was twice mayor of his city. He is president of the Earlville National bank.

Goble, Monte Jay, banker of 14 West Fourth st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born March 21, 1874, in Louisa, Ky. He is cashier of the Fifth Third National bank.

Godard, George Seymour, librarian, bibliographer and author of Hartford, Conn., was born June 17, 1865, in Granby, Conn. In 1890-98 he was librarian of the Cossitt library of Granby, Conn. In 1898-1900 he was assistant, and since 1900 librarian of the Connecticut state library. In 1904-05 he was president of the national association of state libraries; and in 1905-07 was president of the Connecticut library association. In 1910-12 he was president of the American association of law libraries. For seven years he was a member of the council of the American library association.

Godbey, Allen Howard, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Morrisville, Mo., was born Nov. 21, 1864, in Cooper county, Mo. In 1895-99 he filled pastorates. Since 1906 he has been president of Morrisville college of Missouri.

Godcharles, Frederic Antes, manufacturer and statesman of Milton, Pa., was born June 3, 1872, in Northumberland. He is president of F. A. Godcharles company and a director of corporations. He is a member of the Pennsylvania state senate.

Goddard, Albert James, banker of 1050 Kilbourne st., Seattle, Wash., was born July 15, 1863, in Muscatine, Iowa. He is president of the Pacific Iron works.

Goddard, Edward Mumford, librarian and lawyer of Rutland, Vt., was born May 30, 1869, in Virginia City, Mont. In 1901 he was appointed assistant librarian and librarian of the Vermont historical society.

Goddard, Ira Nathaniel, fire underwriter and banker of Millbury, Mass., was born March 1, 1830, in Millbury, Mass. He is president of the Millbury Savings bank.

Goddard, John, clergyman and author of Newtonville, Mass., was born Oct. 9, 1839, in North Bridgewater, Mass. He has filled pastorates in the Swedenborg church; in 1865-91 was pastor of the New Jerusalem church of Cincinnati, Ohio; and since 1901 pastor at Newtonville, Mass. He is the author of Swedenborg's Alleged Hallucinations; The Brahmo-Somaj and the New Church; What is Spiritual Living; and Right and Wrong Unveilings of the Spiritual World.

Goddard, John Calvin, clergyman and author of Salisbury, Conn., was born Sept. 18, 1852, in New York City. Since 1884 he has been pastor of the Congregational church of Salisbury. He is the author of A Leave of Absence and other works.

Goddard, Joseph A., wholesale grocer and capitalist of Muncie, Ind., was born Dec. 17, 1840, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is president and general manager of the Joseph A. Goddard company.

Goddard, Luther M., lawyer and jurist of 2658 Humboldt st., Denver, Col., was born Oct. 27, 1840, in Palmyra, N.Y. In 1882-94 he was judge of the fifth judicial district of Colorado. Since 1901 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Colorado.

Goddard, Morrill, editor of 257 West Ninety-third st., New York City, was born Oct., 7, 1866, in Portland, Maine. He is editor of the New York Sunday American and Journal.

Goddard, Pliny Earle, educator and author of New York City, was born Aug. 24, 1869, in Lewiston, Maine. Since 1909 he has been associate curator of anthropology in the American museum of natural history. He is the author of Life and Culture of Hupa and other works.

Goddard, Ralph Bartlett, sculptor and designer of Madison, Conn., was born June 18, 1861, in Meadville, Pa. He has designed the statue of Premiere Epreuve in the Detroit museum of fire arts.

Godfrey, Calvin P., journalist, merchant and statesman of Ottawa, Ohio, was born April 11, 1863, in Ottawa, Ohio. In 1902-05 he was a member of the Ohio state senate. He is examiner under the state bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices.

Godfrey, Lincoln, merchant and banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 17, 1850, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1867 he entered his father's dry goods business; and since 1873 has been a member of the firm of William Simpson and company, cotton goods manufacturers. He is also vice-president of the Philadelphia National bank and a director in numerous financial and industrial corporations.

Godfrey, William, banker of Cheraw, S. C., was born Nov. 2, 1870, in Cheraw, S.C. He is senior member of the firm of William Godfrey.

Godwin, Hannibal La Fayette, lawyer and statesman of Dunn, N.C., was born Nov. 3, 1873, in Harnett county, N.C. He has been mayor of Dunn, N.C.; and he has been a member of the North Carolina state senate. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Godwin, Harold, journalist of 1 West Fifty-fourth st., New York City, was born May 21, 1858, in Roslyn. He is president of the Short Stories company, limited.

Goebel, Herman Philip, lawyer and statesman of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 5, 1853, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1875-77 he was a member of the Ohio state legislature. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Goebel, Julius, educator, philologist and author of 918 Nevada st., Urbana, Ill., was born May 23, 1857, in Germany. Since 1892 he has been professor at Leland Stanford Junior university. He is the author of a number of German works.

Goelet, Augustin H., surgeon, gynecologist and author of 9 West Seventeenth st., New York City, was born April 1, 1854, in Wilmington, N.C. In 1902-04 he was president of the New York school of clinical medicine. He is the author of Technique of Surgical Gynecology.

Goeller, Charles, lawyer of 99 Nassau st., New York City, was born Nov. 23, 1849, in New York City. He has been counsel of the Union Square bank. He is a member of the Advisory board of Union Square branch.

Goepel, Adolph, banker of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 8, 1846, in Stuttgart, Germany. He is president of the Germania Savings bank of Kings county, Brooklyn.

Goepp, Philip Henry, musician, organist and author of 1510 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 23, 1864, in New York City. He is the founder and president of the manuscript musical society of Philadelphia. He is the author of Annals of Music in Philadelphia and other works.

Goering, Joseph C., merchant and banker of Moundridge, Kan., was born in 1859 in Russia. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Goerke, Bernhard F., banker of Burr, Neb., was born March 9, 1856, in Belleville, Ill. He is president of the German American bank.

Goerz, David, clergyman and educator of Newton, Kan., was born June 2, 1849, in southern Russia. In 1887 he organized the Bethel college corporation of Newton, Kan., in which institution he is now a clergyman.

Goethals, George W., chairman and chief engineer of Culebra, Canal Zone, Panama, was born June 29, 1858, in New York. In 1907 he was appointed chairman and chief engineer of the Isthmian (Panama) canal.

Goetschius, Percy, musician and composer of 120 Claremont ave., New York City, was born Aug. 30, 1853, in Paterson, N.J. He is the author of The Theory and Practice of Tone-relations; Models of the Principal Music Form and other works.

Goff, Frederick Harris, banker of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Dec. 15, 1858, in Blackberry, Ill. He is vice-president of the Cleveland Terminal and Valley railway.

Goff, Homer P., manufacturer and banker of Crafton, Pa., was born Sept. 29, 1859, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Pittsburgh Shovel company and other corporations.

Goff, Isaac Lewis, business man and banker of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 29, 1852, in Taunton, Mass. He is president of the Isaac L. Goff company and a director of various other corporations.

Goff, John W., lawyer and jurist of New York City, was born in Ireland. In 1894-1906 he was recorder of New York. He is justice of the supreme court of New York.

Goff, Nathan, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Clarksburg, W.Va., was born Feb. 9, 1842, in Clarksburg, W. Va. In 1883-89 he was a member of congress. Since 1892 he has been United States circuit judge for the fourth district.

Goff, Romeo, merchant and banker of Cove, Ark., was born Feb. 12, 1876, in Breedsville, Mich. He is president of the Bank of Cove.

Going, Charles Buxton, editor, author and poet of 140 Nassau st., New York City, was born April 5, 1863, in Westchester, N.Y. He received the degree of Ph.B. from the Columbia university. In 1887-96 he was director and manager of various manufacturing companies. In 1896-98 he was associate-editor, in 1898-1912 managing editor, and since 1912 editor and vice-president of The Engineering Magazine of New York City. He is the author of two volumes of poems entitled Summer Fallow, and Star Glow and Song.

Going, Ellen Maud, author of 130 McTavish st., Montreal, Can., was born in Westchester, N.Y. She is the author of With the Wild Flowers; With the Trees; and Field, Forest and Wayside Flowers.

Gold, William Henry, banker of Redwood Falls, Minn., was born March 20, 1865, in Davis, Ill. He is president of the State bank of Redwood Falls; and president of the Redwood County Telephone company. He is a director of several other large corporations.

Golder, William Harvey, educator, clergyman and college president of Salisbury, N.C., was born Jan. 1, 1846, in Canada. In 1884 he became an instructor in Livingstone college; and since 1894 he has been president of that institution.

Goldfogle, Henry Mayer, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 271 Broadway, New York City, was born May 23, 1856, in New York City. In 1888-1900 he was judge of the municipal court of New York City. In 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Goldin, Percival, manufacturer and financier of Catskill, N.Y. He has been president of the board of education. He has been a member of the firm of Doty & Goldin, brick manufacturers, since 1882.

Goldmark, Rubin, musician and composer of 131 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth st., New York City, was born Aug. 15, 1872, in New York City. In 1895-1901 he was a director of the Colorado college conservatory of music. He has composed music for the piano, violin, viola and cello and also many songs.

Goldsborough, C. S., railway official of 50 Church st., New York City, was born Nov. 28, 1863, in Talbot county, Md. He attended the Baltimore city college; and since 1889 has been in the railway service. In 1891-1900 he was chief clerk to the general superintendent of the Erie railroad. He was then superintendent of different divisions; and in 1903-12 was president's assistant and also president of the Bath and Hammondsport railroad. Since 1912 he has been assistant to the president of the Erie railroad; and also manager of the Erie railroad lake line.

Goldsborough, P. L., statesman of Annapolis,Md. In 1913 he became governor of Maryland.

Goldsborough, Winder Elwell, electrical engineer of Denver, Col.,was born Oct. 10, 1871, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president and general manager of the Denver Reservoir Irrigation company; and director of the Engineering and Electrical Securities corporation.

Goldschmidt, Samuel Anthony, business president of 39 West Seventy-third st., New York City, was born Sept. 17, 1848, in New York City. He is president of the Columbia Chemical works.

Goldsmith, Charles D., lawyer and banker of Sac City, Iowa, was born Dec. 16, 1841, in Middletown, N.Y. He is president of the Commercial State bank.

Goldsmith, Milton, publisher and author of 783 Madison ave., New York City, was born May 22, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now in charge of the book department of the Ullman Manufacturing company of New York City. He is the author of Rabbi and Priest and other works.

Goldwater, Morris, merchant and banker of Prescott, Ariz., was born January, 1852, in London. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Commercial Trust company.

Goldzier, Julius, lawyer and statesman of 133 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 20,, 1854, in Austria. In 1890-92 he was a member of the city council; and in 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Golladay, Edward L.,soldier, educator, lawyer and statesman of Lebanon, Tenn., was born Sept. 9, 1831, in Lebanon, Tenn. In 1857 he was a member of state legislature. In 1871-73 he was a member of congress.

Goltra, Edward Field, business manager and financier of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 29, 1862, in Jacksonville, Ill. He is president of the Missouri Iron company.

Gompers,Samuel,labor organizer and founder of 801 G st., Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 27, 1850, in England. In 1882-1909 he was a member of the American federation of labor. He is the author of numerous pamphlets on the labor question and the labor movement.

Gongwer, Lillian May, litterateur and author of Clinton, Ohio, was born Aug. 3, 1871, in Nimisilla, Ohio. Since 1895 he has been a stenographer. She is the author of Animal Life in Rhymes and Jingles; Baby's Friends and other works.

Gonley, John William Severin, physician and surgeon of New York City, was born March 11, 1832, in New Orleans, La. He served as assistant surgeon during the civil war. He is the author of several medical works.

Gooch, D. Linn, merchant and statesman of Cincinnati, Ohio,was born in 1853 in Rumsey, Ky. In 1901-05 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Cincinnati Drug and Chemical company.

Gooch, Edward S., physician and surgeon of Carrollton, Ill. He is now one of the foremost physicians at Carrollton.

Gooch, Frank Austin,educator, chemist and author of 291 Edwards st.,New Haven,Conn., was born May 2, 1852, in Watertown, Mass. In 1884-86 he was assistant chemist to the United States geological survey in Washington. In 1886 he was appointed professor of chemistry in Yale.

Gooch, Lucius, banker of Palestine, Texas, was born in 1860, in Palestine, Texas. He is president of the First National bank.

Good, Isaac H., merchant and banker of 26 Main st., Ashland, Ohio, was born Jan. 21, 1844, in Lancaster, Pa. He is president of the Ashland Bank and Savings company.

Good, James Isaac, clergyman and author of Dayton, Ohio., was born Dec. 31, 1850, in York, Pa. He was professor in Ursinus theological seminary in 1890-93. He is the author of Rambles Around Reformed Lands and other works.

Good, James Michener, educator and pharmacist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 12, 1842, in Bucks county, Pa. Since 1876 he has been professor of pharmacy in the St. Louis college of pharmacy.

Good, James William, lawyer and statesman of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born Sept. 24, 1866, in Linn county, Iowa. He has been city attorney for Cedar Rapids. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Goodale, Dora Read, litterateur and poet of Redding, Conn., was born Oct. 29, 1866, in Mount Washington, Mass. She is one of the authors of Apple Blossoms; In Berkshire with the Wild Flowers; The Heralds of Easter and other works.

Goodale, George Lincoln, educator, botanist and author of Cambridge, Mass.,was born Aug. 3, 1839, in Saco, Maine. Since 1878 he has been professor of botany at Harvard university. He is the author of The Wild Flowers of America and other works.

Goodale, George Pomeroy, journalist and author of Detroit, Mich., was born Aug. 12, 1843, in Orleans, N.Y. He has been editor of the Detroit Free Press. He is president of the Detroit Free Press Printing company.

Goodale,Greenleaf Austin,soldier of 41 Jordan ave., Wakefield, Mass., was born July 4, 1839, in Maine. He served in the civil war as a private. In 1903 he attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Goodale, Loomis F., railroad official of Manila, P.I., was born Dec. 30, 1857, in Lincoln, Maine. Since 1907 he has been railway expert to the government of the Philippine Islands.

Goodall, Louis Bertrand, manufacturer and banker of Sanford, Maine., was born Sept. 23, 1851, in West Winchester, N.H. He is president of the Sanford National bank.

Goode, John Paul, educator and author of 6227 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 21, 1862, in Stewartville, Minn. He has been professor of natural sciences at the state normal school of Morehead,Minn. Since 1903 he has been professor of geography at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Commercial Geography.

Goode, M.C., banker of Campbellsville,Ky., was born March 26, 1862, at Casey Creek, Ky. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Casey Creek.

Goode, Thomas Alexander, insurance president of Bartow, Fla., was born Dec. 5, 1865, in Ashville,Ala. He is president of the Southern Home Insurance company.

Goode, William Athelstane Meredith, soldier, journalist and author of New York City, was born June 10, 1875, in Newfoundland. Since 1894 he has been connected with the Associated Press. He is the author of With Sampson Through the War.

Goodell, Charles Le Roy, clergyman and author of 136 West One Hundred and Thirtieth st., New York City, was born July 31, 1854, in Dudley, Mass. Since 1904 he has been pastor of Calvary church of New York City. He is the author of The Drill Master of Methodism and other works.

Goodell, Thomas Dwight, educator and author of 35 Edgehill road, New Haven, Conn., was born Nov. 8, 1854, in Ellington Conn. Since 1888 he has been professor of Greek at Yale university. He is the author of The Greek in English and Greek Lessons.

Goodenow, Mrs. Alice Smith, painter and artist of New York City, was born July 21, 1852, in Tompkins county, N.Y. Early in her life she developed a talent for painting and her works have become quite noted.

Goodhue, Bertram Grosvenor, architect and author of 170 Fifth ave., New York City,was born April 28, 1869, in Pomfret, Conn. He is a member of the firm of Cram, Goodhue and Ferguson, architects. He is the author of Mexican Memories.

Goodhue, Edward Solon, physician and author of Holualoa, Hawaii, H.I., was born Sept. 29, 1861, in Province of Quebec. He has received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. In 1892-95 he practiced medicine in Riverside, Cal.; and in 1895 was appointed government physician to Hawaii. In 1909 he was a delegate to the international congress on inebriety held in London and the same year was a delegate to the international congress on leprosy held in Norway. Since 1909 he has been proprietor of the Kona hospital. He is the author of Verses From the Valley; Beneath Hawaiian Palms and Stars; Songs of the Western Sea; and other works.

Goodhue, Isaac W., lawyer of 41 Wall st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1862, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Continental Talc company.

Goodin, John R., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Leavenworth, Kan., was born Dec. 14, 1836, in Tiffin, Ohio. In 1866 he was a representative in the Kansas state legislature. In 1875-77 he was a member of congress.

Gooding, Arthur Clair, banker of 201 South Broadway, Rochester, Minn., was born June 20, 1871, in Rochester, Minn. He is president of the First National bank.

Gooding, Frank R., farmer and statesman of Boise, Idaho, was born in England. He has been a member and chairman of the Idaho state senate. In 1905-09 he was governor of Idaho.

Goodknight, James Lincoln, clergyman, educator and college president of Lincoln, Ill., was born Aug. 24, 1846, in Miami, Ky. In 1900-04 he was president of Lincoln college.

Goodloe, Abbie Carter,author of 1068 Third ave., Louisville, Ky., was born in Versailles, Ky. She is the author of College Girls; Calvert of Strathore; and At the Foot of the Rockies.

Goodman, Abraham Lincoln, physician of 136 West Eighty-seventh st., New York City, was born Jan. 22, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1895 he has practiced medicine; is visiting physician to the A. Jacobi ward for children in the German hospital.

Goodman, John, physician and author of Louisville, Ky., was born July 22, 1837, in Frankfort, Ky. In 1868-75 he was professor of obstetrics in Louisville medical college. He is the author of several papers on obstetrical subjects.

Goodman, Robert F., banker of Marinette, Wis., was born in 1844 in Pennsylvania. He is vice-president of the Stephenson National bank.

Goodman, Sydney, clergyman and author of Atlantic City, N.J., was born in England. He has been rector of the various churches in Ohio. Since 1907 he has been associate rector of the Church of the Ascension at Atlantic City. He is the author of The Watchword and other works.

Goodman,William Owen,merchant and capitalist of 80 East Jackson boul., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 24, 1848, in Wellsboro, Pa. In 1878 he became associated with Philetus Sawyer and others in the organization of the lumber dealing firm of Sawyer, Goodman and company; and is now vice-president of the Goodman Lumber company.

Goodnight,Henry Franklin,banker of Wills Point, Texas, was born Nov. 11, 1844, in Kentucky. He is president of the Vanzandt County National bank.

Goodno, William Colby, founder of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Kenosha, Wis. He was the originator of the Pennsylvania homoeopathic hospital for children.

Goodnow, Charles W., capitalist of Kennebunk, Maine. He is president of the Kennebunk Savings bank and treasurer and director of other corporations.

Goodnow, Frank Johnson, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 18, 1859, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1884 he has been professor of administrative law in the Columbia university. He is the author of Comparative Law and other works.

Goodrell, Mancil Clay, soldier and marine officer of Lexington, Va., was born Nov. 9, 1843, in Cambridge, Ohio. He served in the civil war and the Spanish-American war. In 1906 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Goodrich, Albert W., capitalist of 1474 Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill. He is president and chairman of the board of directors of the Goodrich Transportation company.

Goodrich, Alfred John, educator and author of Paris, France, was born May 8, 1848, in Chilo, Ohio. He has been editor of the Musical World of Chicago; and adjudicator of the inter-state contests. He is an honorary member of the society of des Savantes, Paris, active member of the American chamber of commerce of Paris; and honorary member of the Luther Burbank society in Santa Rosa, Cal. He is the author of Guide to Memorizing; Music as a Language; The Art of Song and other works.

Goodrich, Caspar Frederick, naval officer of Pomfret, Conn., was born Jan. 7, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1897 he was president of the naval war college. In 1899 he was assigned to the command of the battleship Iowa.

Goodrich Daniel A., bishop and author of New York City, was born Nov. 5, 1840, in Newburg,N.Y. He has been pastor to churches in the various cities of New York. He is the author of Nature and Character at Granite Bay and other works.

Goodrich,Elizur Stillman,banker and statesman of 104 Main st., Hartford, Conn. He is vice-president of the City Bank of Hartford; and has been a state senator and representative.

Goodrich, Frederick Augustus, merchant of St. Louis, Mo., was born April 13, 1859, at Pleasant Farm, Mo. He is vice-president and treasurer of F. A. Goodrich and company of Detroit.

Goodrich, Frederick William, organist and composer of 543 East Forty-ninth st., north, Portland, Ore., was born in 1867 in London, England. He was educated at the All Saints choir school and at King's college of London. Since 1907 he has been organist at St.Mary's cathedral of Portland, Ore. He is the author of The Oregon Catholic Hymnal and various hymns and anthems.

Goodrich, John Wallace, musician of 145 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born May 27, 1871, in Newton, Mass. Since 1897 he has been teacher of organ in the New England conservatory of music at Boston.

Goodsell, Elihu Bernard, lawyer and jurist of Lancaster, Wis., was born June 21, 1860, in Highland, Wis. He is president of the library board; and judge of the county court.

Goodspeed, Frank Lincoln, clergyman and author of Oakland, Cal., was born March 15, 1861, in Moretown, Vt. Since 1894 he has preached in Springfield, Mass. He is the author of Palestine, a Fifth Gospel, and other works.

Goodspeed, Joseph Horace, treasurer and capitalist of 84 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 14, 1845, in East Haddam, Conn. He is assistant treasurer of the Boston and Northern street railway.

Goodspeed, Thomas Wakefield, clergyman of 5630 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 4, 1842, in Glen Falls, N.Y. He has been pastor at churches in Quincy and Morgan Park, Ill. He has been registrar of the university of Chicago.

Goodspeed, W. P., business manager of Buffalo, N.Y. He is business manager of the Buffalo Evening News.

Goodwin, Alexander Campbell,educator and college president of Jeffersonville, Ind., was born June 3, 1846, in Utica,Ind. He has been president of the Owensboro female college. He is now superintendent of the Jeffersonville public schools of Indiana.

Goodwin, Charles Edwin, banker of Biddeford, Maine, was born April 2, 1850, in Saco, Maine. He is president of the Goodwin Trust company.

Goodwin Charles J., educator, philologist and author of Bethlehem, Pa., was born on March 13, 1866, in Farmington, Maine. Since 1899 he has filled a professorship in Lehigh university at Bethlehem. He is the author of The Rose and The Thorn and other works.

Goodwin, Daniel, clergyman and author of East Greenwich R.I., was born on March 10, 1835, in Sutton, Mass. In 1879-92 he was rector of the Episcopal church at East Greenwich, R.I. He has edited the Mac Sparran Dairy and History of the Narragansett church.

Goodwin, Forrest, statesman of Skohegan, Maine, was born June 14, 1862, in Skowhegan, Maine. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Goodwin, Harold, lawyer of 133 South Twelfth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Nov. 15, 1850, in Brunswick Maine. He is an overseer of the divinity school of the Protestant Episcopal church of Philadelphia.

Goodwin, Harry Manley, educator and author of 322 Tappan st., Brookline, Mass., was born April 18, 1870, in Boston, Mass. Since 1906 he has been professor of physics and electro-chemistry at the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Physical Measurements and other works.

Goodwin, Henry Hubbard, merchant and banker of 8 Hurlburt st., Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 13, 1857, in Hartford, Conn. He is president of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank.

Goodwin, Henry Timrod, physician and surgeon of Tompkinsville, L.I., N.Y., was born in Charleston, S.C. He received the degree of M.D. from the Long Island college hospital of Brooklyn. For about ten years was medical officer in United States marine hospital service; now surgeon to St. Vincent's hospital, Richmond borough, New York City; examiner for New York Life Insurance company. Passed assistant surgeon to United States marine service up to 1906, when resigned while in command of marine hospital, Louisville, Ky., to take up private practice on Staten Island, where had been stationed at marine hospital previous to going to Louisville.

Goodwin, James Junius, capitalist of Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 16, 1835, in Hartford, Conn. He is a director of the Erie Railroad company and various other corporations.

Goodwin, Mrs. Maud Wilder, litterateur and author of Cedarhurst, L.I., N.Y., was born in 1856, in New York. She is the author of The Colonial Cavalier, or Southern Life Before the Revolution; The Head of a Hundred and other works.

Goodwin, Nathaniel Carl, actor and comedian of Ocean Park, Cal., was born July 25, 1857, in Boston, Mass. Among the plays in which he has attained note on the American stage are Hobbies; Warranted; Patience; A Gilded Fool; An American Citizen and others.

Goodwin, Osce, railroad official of Dallas, Texas, was born July 9, 1862, in Vernon, La. He is vice-president and secretary of the Marshall and East Texas railroad.

Goodwin, Warren F., fire underwriter of 35 Pine st., New York City, was born in 1857 in Boston, Mass. He is a member of Hall and Henshaw.

Goodyear, William Henry, educator and author of 458 Lincoln place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born on April 21, 1846, in New Haven, Conn. He is curator of fine arts at the Brooklyn institute museum. He is the author of Roman and Mediaeval Art and other works.

Goodykoontz, Wells, lawyer and banker of Reservation Hill, Williamson, W.Va., was born June 3, 1872, in Virginia. He was educated at Oxford academy and at the Washington and Lee university. He is a member of the law firm of Sheppard, Goodykoontz and Scherr, representing over fifty coal and coke companies. He is president of the National Bank of Commerce, president of the Williamson Light and Ice company and a director of the Kimberling Land company and other corporations.

Googins, George Edgar, lawyer and author of Milbridge, Maine, was born Feb. 25, 1863, in Milbridge, Maine. In 1892-95 he was superintendent of public schools of Milbridge, Maine. He is the author of a novel entitled Strange Adventures of a Summer Tourist.

Gordon, Anna Adams, lecturer and author of Evanston, Ill., was born July 21, 1853, in Boston, Mass. She was private secretary of Francis E. Willard from 1877 until Miss Willard's death. She is the author of The White Ribbon Birthday Book and other works.

Gordon, Armistead Churchill, lawyer and author of Staunton, Va., was born Dec. 20, 1855, in Albemarle county, Va. He has been city attorney and commonwealth attorney; and served as mayor of his city. Since 1903 he has been chairman of the state library board of Virginia. He is the author of The Ivory Gate and other works.

Gordon, Charles Henry, geologist and scientist of 1616 West Clinch ave., Knoxville, Tenn., was born May 10, 1857, in Caledonia, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been geologist in the United States geological survey.

Gordon, Charles William, clergyman and author of Winnipeg, Canada, was born in 1860 in Canada. Since 1894 he has been pastor of St. Stephens church at Winnipeg, Canada. He is author of Black Rock; The Man From Glengarry; and Beyond the Marshes.

Gordon, Clarence, author of Newburgh, N. Y., was born April, 28, 1835, in New York City. He has been special agent of the United States census bureau. He is the author of Christmas at Under Tor; Two Lives in One and other works.

Gordon, David Stuart, soldier of Piedmont, Cal., was born May 23, 1832, in Franklin county, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. In 1896 he was appointed brigadier-general. He is now connected with the Washington office of the Mutual Life Insurance company.

Gordon, Edward Clifford, clergyman and college president of 5126 Kensington ave., Lexington, Mo., was born Sept. 1, 1842, in Richmond, Va. In 1892-98 he was president of the Westminster college of Fulton, Mo.; and since then has filled a pastorate in the Presbyterian church at Lexington.

Gordon, Fred George Russ, shoemaker, socialist and author of Reading, Mass., was born Sept. 4, 1860, in Walden, Vt. In 1895 he was secretary to the great Boston shoemakers' convention. He is the author of The Cause and Cure and other works.

Gordon, Frederick Elliott, banker of Conneaut, Ohio, was born on July 9, 1856, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is president of the Ohio Sand company.

Gordon, George Angier, clergyman and author of Boston, Mass., was born on Jan. 2, 1853, in Scotland. Since 1884 he has been pastor of the Old South church. He is the author of The Christ of Today; and other works.

Gordon, George Washington, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Memphis, Tenn., was born Oct. 5, 1836, in Giles county, Tenn. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Gordon, James Andrew, banker of Marshall, Mo., was born Aug. 26, 1841, in Lafayette county, Mo. He is president of the Farmers' Savings bank of Waverly, Mo.

Gordon, James Gay, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Nov. 11, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1880 he was a member of the Pennsylvania state senate. In 1885-98 he was a judge of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia county.

Gordon, John, farmer, merchant and statesman of Lynnville, Ill., was born July 31, 1827, in Lynnville, Ill. In 1850-60 he was postmaster of Lynnville; and in 1872-77 he was a representative in the state legislature.

Gordon, John, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Rensselaerville, N.

Y., was born March 10, 1850, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1903-06 he was president of the Howard university. He is the author of Three Children of Galilee.

Gordon, John D., farmer and banker of Newberg, Ore., was born Feb. 17, 1852, in Odessa, Canada. He is president of the First National bank.

Gordon, Laura de Force, journalist, lawyer and orator of Oakland, Cal., was born Aug. 17, 1843, in North East, Pa. In 1873 she founded the Daily Leader at Oakland, Cal. In 1879 she was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of California.

Gordon, Merritt J., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Spokane, Wash., was born on March 17, 1857, in Canada. He has been a member of the Dakota state legislature. In 1894 he was an associate judge of the supreme court.

Gordon, Robert Bryarly, merchant and statesman of St. Mary Ohio, was born on Aug. 6, 1855, in Auglaize County, Ohio. In 1889-95 he was editor of Auglaize County. In 1889-1903 he was a member of congress.

Gordon, Samuel Dickey, lecturer and author of Madison, N.J., was born Aug. 12, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1884-95 he was secretary of the young men's christian association of Philadelphia and Ohio. He is the author of Quiet Talks on Power and other works.

Gordon,Seth Chase, physician, surgeon and political economist of 157 High st., Portland, Maine,was born Aug. 17, 1830, in Fryeburg, Maine. He has been vice-president of the American medical association. He is one of the vice-presidents of the anti-imperialist league for Maine.

Gordon, William, lawyer and statesman of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Dec. 16, 1852, near Oak Harbor, Ohio. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Gordon,William Washington, soldier, merchant and statesman of 100 Bay st., Savannah, Ga., was born Oct. 14, 1834, in Savannah, Ga. He served in the civil war and the Spanish-American war. For six years he was a member of the Georgia state legislature. He is engaged in the cotton business.

Gordon-Davis, Alfred Burwell, lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 29, 1872, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Pen Scratches; Trusia and other works.

Gordy, Wilbur Fisk, educator and historical writer of Hartford, Conn., was born June 14, 1854, near Salisbury, Md. He was district superintendent of schools in Hartford, Conn., and subsequently was superintendent of schools in Springfield, Mass. He is the author of A School History of the United States; American Leaders and Heroes; Elementary History of the United States; Stories of American Explorers; Colonial Days; and American Beginnings in Europe and other works.

Gore, James Howard, educator, scientist and author of 2210 R st., Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 18, 1856, in Virginia. He has been a delegate to a number of international congresses. He is the author of Manual of Geography, a series of textbooks in Mathematics and other works.

Gore, Thomas Pryor, statesman of Lawton, Okla., was born Dec. 10, 1870, in Webster county, Miss. In 1896 he was a delegate to the national populist convention at St. Louis, Mo. He is now a member of the United States senate.

Gorgas, Ferdinand James Samuel, dentist and author of Baltimore,Md., was born July 27, 1835, in Winchester, Va. Since 1860 he has been professor in the college of dental surgery of Baltimore. He is the author of Lectures on Dental Science and Therapeutics and other works.

Gorgas, William Crawford, military surgeon and sanitarian of Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama, was born Oct. 3, 1854, in Mobile, Ala. He is chief sanitary officer of the Isthmian Canal.

Gorham, Frederic Poole, educator, bacteriologist and author of 151 Meeting st., Providence, R.I., was born April 29, 1871, in Providence, R.I. Since 1893 he has been professor of biology at Brown university. He is the author of Laboratory Course in Bacteriology and other works.

Gorham, George H., physician and statesman of Bellows Falls, Vt., was born Oct. 9, 1857, in Westminster West. He is a member of the state legislature; and has been president of the Vermont state medical society.

Gorin, Orville Browning, banker of Decatur, Ill., was born Jan. 25, 1849, in Taylorville, Ill. He has been connected with the Milliken National bank since 1865, of which he is now president.

Gorley,Hugh Alexander, soldier, merchant, orator and poet of San Rafael,Cal., was born Nov. 25, 1833, in Uniontown, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. In 1881 he was a representative in the California state legislature. He is president of the society of California volunteers.

Gorman, George E., lawyer and statesman of 30 North LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 13, 1873, in Illinois. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Gorman, James Edward, railroad official of 143 West Van Buren st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 3, 1863, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad.

Gorman,JamesSedgwick, lawyer and statesman of Chelsea, Mich., was born Dec. 28, 1850, in Lyndon, Mich. In 1886-90 he was a member of the state senate. In 1891-95 he was a member of congress.

Gornto, J. M., statesman of Mayo, Fla., was born Nov. 1, 1865, in LaFayette county, Fla. He was educated in the common schools of his native state; and then studied law and was admitted to the bar. He is prominently identified with the business and public affairs of Mayo, Fla.; is a Mason,a member of the Knights of Pythias, and Woodmen of the World. He is identified with the democratic party; and served two terms as county tax collector. He is now serving his first term of 1911-13 as a representative in the Florida state legislature; and is a candidate for re-election without opposition.

Gorson, Aaron Harry, teacher and artist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 2, 1872, in Russia. He is instructor at the Stevenson art school of Pittsburgh; and his works have been exhibited in various art galleries.

Gortner, John Narver, clergyman, lecturer and poet of St. Charles,Ill., was born Feb. 16, 1874, in St. Charles, Ill. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled Dust from the Chariot Wheels.

Gorton, David Allyn, physician and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Nov. 22, 1832, in Broadalbin, N.Y. He is the author of The Monism Man; or, the Unity of the Divine and Human; The Principles of Mental Hygiene and other works.

Gorton, Lewis G., stock broker of Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 18, 1859, in Waterloo, Mich. In 1893-96 he was president of the Michigan agricultural college. He is president of the Detroit stock exchange.

Gosack,George Mechlin, lawyer and statesman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 7, 1866, in Dayton, Ohio. In 1897 he was elected a member of the Pennsylvania house of representatives.

Goshorn, Josiah S., banker of Clay City, Ind., was born Oct. 6, 1855, in Indiana. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank.

Goslee, Albert, banker of Lafayette, Ind., was born Nov. 27, 1851, in Indiana. He is president of the Indianapolis Life Insurance company.

Gosney,Ezra Seymour, lawyer, banker and investor of Pasadena, Cal., was born Nov. 6, 1855, in Kentucky. He is secretary and treasurer of the Brown-Gosney company.

Goss, Arthur H., lawyer and jurist of Oshkosh, Wis., was born Feb. 17, 1862, in Oshkosh, Wis. He is judge of the municipal court.

Goss, Charles Frederic, clergyman and author of 937 Lexington ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born June 14, 1852, in Meridian, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been pastor of the Avondale Presbyterian church. He is the author of The Loom of Life and other works.

Goss, Chauncey Porter, manufacturer of Waterbury, Conn., was born Aug. 5, 1838, in Rochester, N.Y. He is president, treasurer and general manager of the Scovill Manufacturing company and a director of corporations.

Goss, J. T., soldier of Vancouver, Wash., He served through the civil war. Since 1906 he has been paymaster-general of the Washington national guard,with the rank of colonel.

Goss,John D., lawyer and jurist of Marshfield, Ore., was born Oct. 3, 1869, in Hudson Wis. For five years he was judge of his native county;and now practices law in Marshfield, Ore. He is the author of History of Tariff Administration.

Goss, Warren Lee, soldier, civil engineer, historian and author of Rutherford, N. J., was born Aug. 19, 1838, in Brewster, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of sergeant. Since 1900 he has been historian of the national union of ex-prisoners of war.

Goss, William Freeman Myrick, educator and engineer of Urbana, Ill., was born Oct. 7, 1859, in Barnstable, Mass. He received his certificate from the Massachusetts institute of technology; received the honorary degree of M.S. from Wabash university and D.Eng. from the university of Illinois. He has been professor, director and dean in the university of Illinois since 1907, and since 1909 also director of the engineering experiment station. He is chief engineer of the Chicago association of commerce.

Gossett, Benjamin Brown, manufacturer and banker of Williamston, S.C., was born Aug. 18, 1884, in Williamston, S.C. He is president of the Bank of Calhoun Falls, S.C.

Gossler, Philip G., mining engineer and business president of New York City, was born Aug. 6, 1870, in Columbia, Pa. He has been superintendent and engineer of the Royal Electric company of Montreal, Canada. He is vice-president of J. G. White and company of New York City.

Gothlin, Oliver Perry, railway official of Columbus, Ohio, was born June 19, 1853, in Cincinnati, Ohio. For four years he was a reporter on the Daily Journal of Dayton, Ohio. In 1883-86 he was a stenographer and in 1886-89 traveling freight agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway at Chicago. In 1886-89 he was commercial agent, and in 1893-98 general agent of the Wisconsin Central lines. In 1898-1906 he was commercial traffic manager for the National Cash Register company. In 1906 he was appointed a member of the railroad commission of Ohio. In 1911 the name of the commission was changed to public service commission of Ohio, of which he is now chairman. In 1912 he was elected president of the national association of railway commissioners.

Gottheil, Richard James Horatio, educator and author of New York City, was born Oct. 13, 1862, in Manchester, England. He is professor of Semitic languages at Columbia university of New York City. He is the author of The Syriac Grammar and other works.

Gottheil, William Samuel, physician and author of New York City, was born April 5, 1859, in Berlin, Germany. He is the author of Illustrated Skin Diseases; and Manual of General Histology.

Gottschalk, Alfred L. M., journalist, diplomat, author and poet of Washington, D. C., was born Feb. 8, 1873, in New York City. He has been a correspondent of the New York Herald. Since 1905 he has been consul-general to Callao, Peru. He is the author of a volume of poems and magazine articles.

Goucher, John Franklin, clergyman, college president and philanthropist of Baltimore, Md., was born June 7,1845,in Waynesboro, Pa. Since 1890 he has been president of the woman's college of Baltimore,of which he was one of the organizers.

Gouge, Frederick Hamilton, architect of 70 Genesee st., Utica, N.Y., was born May 5, 1845, in Trenton, N.Y. He has been president of the western New York association of architects, and has been president of the Utica chamber of commerce.

Gould, Ashley Mulgrave, lawyer and jurist of 1931 Sixteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born in October, 1859, in Nova Scotia. In 1898 he was a representative in the Maryland state legislature. He is associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia for life.

Gould, Carl Feelinghuysen, architect of Boston, Mass., was born in 1873 in New York City. He has been president of the Seattle fine arts society.

Gould, Charles Albert, manufacturer and founder of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Jan. 13, 1849, in Batavia, N.Y. He was one of the founders of the first foundry in America for making iron castings. In 1870-80 he was deputy-postmaster of Buffalo Creek.

Gould, Charles Newton, geologist of Norman, Okla., was born July 22, 1868, near Lower Salem, Ohio. Since 1903 he has been professor of geology in the university of Oklahoma.

Gould,Edwin, railway official of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born Feb.25, 1866, in New York City. He graduated from the Columbia college of mines. He entered railway service in 1888 as secretary of the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas railway, and held that position until the road was reorganized as the St. Louis, Southwestern railway in 1891, when he was chosen vice-president; and in 1898-1912 was president; and since 1912 has been chairman of its board of directors. He was also for several years president of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad and of other railroads.

Gould, Edwin Bruce, lawyer and government claim agent of Nashua, N.H., was born Jan. 24, 1839, in Hillsboro, N.H. He has been town clerk of Pembroke. He is government claim agent. He has filled many prominent positions of trust and honor.

Gould,Elgin Ralston Lovell, educator, philanthropist and author of 57 West Fifty-second st., New York City, was born Aug. 15, 1860, in Canada. He has been professor at the university of Chicago. He is president of the City and Suburban Homes company. He is the author of The Social Condition of Labor.

Gould, Elizabeth Lincoln, dramatist and author of 277 Dartmouth st., Boston, Mass., was born in Boston, Mass. She is a contributor to the Youth's Companion of Boston. She is the author of Little Polly Prentiss and other works.

Gould, Frank Horace, lawyer and jurist of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 29, 1856, in Fayette county, Iowa. He graduated with the degree of B.L. from the Alabama state university of law. He crossed the plains to California in 1862. In 1891-95 he was a representative from Merced county to the state legislature, and was speaker of the assembly. In 1897-1901 he was building and loan commissioner; and in 1896 and 1904 was chairman of the democratic state conventions.

Gould, Frank Jay, railroad president and capitalist of 195 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 4, 1878, in New York City. In 1897 he entered railway service as assistant to the president of the Missouri Pacific railway and is now first vice-president of that corporation.

Gould, George Jay, railroad president and capitalist of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born Feb. 6, 1864, in New York City. Since 1893 he has been president of the Missouri Pacific railway and other railways.

Gould, Grace Margaret, editor and author of 381 Fourth ave.,New York City, was born in Albany, N.Y. She is fashion editor of the Woman's Home Companion. She is the author of The Magic Dress.

Gould, Howard, yachtsman, capitalist and philanthropist of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1870 in New York City. He is a director in numerous railway, telegraph and financial corporations.

Gould, Howard, actor of New York City, was born March 19, 1867, in Minneapolis, Minn. He starred in The Prisoner of Zenda and in other plays.

Gould, Kingdon, railroad official of New York City, was born Aug. 15, 1887, in New York City. He is vice-president of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Gould, Norman Judd, capitalist of Seneca Falls,N.Y., was born March 15, 1877, in Seneca Falls,N.Y. He is president of the Goulds Manufacturing company.

Gould, Will Daniel, educator and lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal.., was born Sept. 17, 1845, in Cabot, Vt. He has been superintendent of schools in various cities.

Goulden,Joseph A.,naval officer and statesman of 180 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1844, in Adams county, Pa. He has been state manager of the Pennsylvania Reformatory, and in 1895-98 he was school commissioner of New York City. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

Goulding, Herbert Jay, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born May 9, 1870, in Saginaw, Mich. Since 1895 he has been an instructor in the university of Michigan. He is the author of Elementary Mechanical Drawing.

Gouley, John William Serverin, physician and author of 11 East Forty-third st., New York City, was born March 11, 1832, in New Orleans, La. He is professor in the university of New York. He is the author of Diseases of Man and other works.

Gove, Aaron, soldier and educator of Denver, Col., was born Sept. 26, 1839, in Hampton Falls, N.H. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major. He has been superintendent of schools of his city. He has been president of the national educational association.

Gove, William Henry, lawyer and capitalist of 271 Western ave., Lynn, Mass., was born Sept. 4, 1851, in South Berwick, Maine. He is president and general manager of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine company.

Gow, George Coleman, educator and author of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born Nov. 27, 1860, in Groton Junction, Mass. He is the author of Textbook on the Structure of Music.

Gow, James Ellis, educator and scientist of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born Feb. 22, 1877, in Fontanelle, Iowa. He has received the degrees of Ph.B., M.S. and Ph.D. Since 1908 he has been professor of botany in Coe college of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. In 1911-13 he was assistant to the Iowa geological survey; and in 1908-10 was president of the Iowa Esperanto association. He is the author of Geology of Cass County and other monographs.

Gowen, Francis Innes, lawyer and capitalist of 231 Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 17, 1855, in Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Girard Trust company and other corporations.

Gower, Cornelius Albert, educator and manufacturer of Lansing, Mich., was born in 1845 in Abbott, Maine. He has been superintendent of public instruction of Michigan. He is president and general manager of the building and loan association.

Graass, Henry, lawyer and jurist of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., was born July 17, 1876, in Sturgeon Bay, Wis. Since 1913 he has been circuit judge.

Grabau, Amadeus William, geologist and author of Rensselaer, N.Y., was born Jan. 9, 1870, in Cedarsburg, Wis. He is professor of biology at Rensselaer polytechnic institute. He is author of Guide to the Geology and Paleontology of Niagara Falls.

Graber, Myron Earle, educator and scientist of Tiffin, Ohio, was born July 25, 1880, in Mount Eaton, Ohio. He is a graduate student of the Ohio state university, the university of Michigan and Columbia university. He received the degree of A.B. from Heidelberg college of Ohio, in which institution he has been professor of physics since 1905. He has made valuable researches in cyclical surfaces and kindred subjects.

Grabill, William M., educator, college president and author of Rogersville, Tenn., was born June 25, 1851, in Fincastle, Va. Since 1890 he has been president of the Rogersville synodical college, Tennessee. He is the author of Charts of History and Civil Government.

Grace, John Patrick, statesman of Charleston, S.C., was born Dec. 30, 1874, in Charleston, S.C. He is prominently identified with the democratic problem; and has held various positions of trust and honor. Since 1911 he has been mayor of his city for term ending in 1915.

Grace, John Walker, physician, surgeon and clergyman of Quanah, Texas, was born Feb. 1, 1850, in Boles, Ky. He is pastor of a missionary Baptist church. He is a contributor to educational, medical and religious publications.

Grace, Joseph Peter, business president of 1 Hanover square, New York City, was born June 29, 1872, in Great Neck, N.Y. He is president of W. R. Grace and company and a director of other corporations.

Grace, Morgan H., merchant of Great Neck, Long Island, N.Y., was born April 9, 1880, in Wellington, New Zealand. Since 1905 he has been president and treasurer of the Coe Mortimer company and other corporations.

Grace, Oliver J., real estate dealer of 4386 Lindell boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 17, 1876, in St. Louis. He is secretary of the Grace and Sons Realty company.

Grace, Thomas, clergyman and bishop of Sacramento, Cal., was born Aug. 2, 1841, in Ireland. Since 1896 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Sacramento.

Grace, William, contractor and builder of 519 South Oakley ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 11, 1847, in England. He built the La Salle street station of Chicago and other buildings.

Grace, William Charles, lawyer and statesman of Kalamazoo, Mich., was born June 15, 1881, in Jackson county, Mich. For several years he was a woolen worker in mills of the middle west. He graduated from the law department of the university of Michigan; and has attained success in the practice of law in Kalamazoo. In 1912 he was elected a member of the Michigan state senate.

Gracey, Wilbur Tirrell, diplomat of Nanking, China, was born in Massachusetts. Since 1910 he has been consul at Nanking, China.

Grady, Benjamin F., soldier, educator and statesman of Wallace, N.C., was born Oct. 10, 1831, in Dublin county, N.C. In 1879-90 he was justice of the peace of Dublin county. In 1891-95 he was a member of congress.

Grady, John C., lawyer, government official and statesman of Portland, Maine, was born Oct. 8, 1847, in Eastport, Maine. In 1887-89 he was president of the state senate. In 1907 he was appointed director of wharves tugs and ferriers.

Grady, Thomas F., lawyer and statesman of 74 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1853, in New York City. Since 1902 he has been a member of the senate committees on rules, finance, judiciary and cities.

Graebner, Augustus Lawrence, clergyman, educator and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 10, 1849, in Saginaw, Mich. He is professor of theology in the Concordia seminary of St. Louis. He is the author of Life of Luther and other works.

Graebner, W. H., business man and state official of 1080 National ave., Milwaukee, Wis., was born April 2, 1854, in Detroit, Mich. In 1898-1902 he served as alderman for the city of Milwaukee; and in 1902-08 he was city treasurer. He is engaged in general insurance, real estate and loans; and is prominently identified with business and public affairs. In 1891-95 he was a member of the state board of control of the state of Wisconsin, charitable, reformatory and penal institutions, and is again a member of that board.

Graff, Joseph Verdi, lawyer and statesman of Peoria, Ill., was born July 1, 1854, in Terre Haute, Ind. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress.

Grafft, James G., physician and banker of Trenton, Ohio, was born Feb. 25, 1867, in Seven Mile, Ohio. He is president of the Bank of Trenton County.

Grafly, Charles, sculptor of 2200 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 3, 1862, in Philadelphia. He is instructor in sculpture at the Pennsylvania academy of fine arts.

Grafly, Daniel Webster, retired manufacturer of 2527 East York st., Philadelphia,Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1841, in Philadelphia. He is a director in the Integrity Title Insurance, Trust and Safe Deposit company.

Graham, Benjamin, banker of 44 Pine st., New York City. He is president of the Bank of Mont Clair.

Graham,Charles E.,manufacturer and capitalist of New Haven, Conn., was born Feb. 9, 1858, in Branford, Conn. He is president of the West Haven Manufacturing company and other corporations.

Graham, Fred E., banker of Pomona, Cal., was born July 6, 1860, in Sabetha, Kan. He is president of the American National bank.

Graham, George Edward, journalist and author of New York City, was born Nov. 15, 1866, in Albany, N.Y. During the Spanish-American war he was a correspondent of the associated press. He is the author of Fighting with Schley.

Graham, George Scott, lawyer and statesman of 42 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 13, 1850, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of LL.D. and LL.B. For ten years he was professor of criminal law in the university of Pennsylvania. For eighteen years he was district attorney of Philadelphia, Pa.; and has been a member of congress. He is now a member of the law firm of Graham and L. Amoreaux of New York City. He has traveled all over the United States and Europe;and is past grand commander Knights Templar of Pennsylvania.

Graham, James M., lawyer and statesman of 216 South Fifth st., Springfield, Ill., was born April 14, 1852, in Ireland. In 1892-96 he was state's attorney of Sangamon county. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Graham, James S., soldier, manufacturer and statesman of Rochester, N.Y., was born May 27, 1836, in Edinburgh, Scotland. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted brigadier-general. He has been postmaster of his city. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Graham, John H., soldier, merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born April 1, 1835, in Ireland. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted lieutenant-colonel. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Graham, John Martin, banker of 45 Milk st., Boston, Mass. He is president of the International Trust company.

Graham, John Patton, banker of Culleoka, Tenn., was born Oct. 26, 1869, in Bennington Gap, Va. He is president of the Bank of Culleoka.

Graham, Joseph Alexander, lawyer, journalist and author of Salisbury, Md., was born Sept. 8, 1855, in Salisbury, Md. He has been state's attorney for Wicomico county, Md. He is the author of The Sporting Dog Kennel.

Graham, Joseph P., lumber dealer of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 24, 1863, near Fredericktown, Mo. Since 1904 he has been in the wholesale lumber business. He is president of the Graham Lumber company; and a director in the Bankers' Trust company.

Graham, Leonard Johnson, educator and banker of New Concord,Ohio, was born May 18, 1855, in Reynoldsburg, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Graham, Malcolm Montrose, gas official of 131 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Feb. 5, 1867, in Flushing, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Northern Union Gas company.

Graham,Milo J.,banker of Matawan,Minn., was born Jan. 28, 1870, in Minnesota. He is cashier of the Citizens' State bank.

Graham, Neil F., physician and surgeon of 909 New York ave., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 9, 1840, in Canada. He served in the civil war as a surgeon. He is professor of surgery at Howard university of Washington, D.C. He is also clinical lecturer on surgery at the Freedman's hospital.

Graham, William Harrison, soldier, business man and statesman of 600 North ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 3, 1844, in Allegheny, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1891-1903 and 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Graham,William Montrose,soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 28, 1834, in Washington, D.C. He served in the civil war and was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Graham, William R., civil and mining engineer and capitalist of Bluefield,W.Va., was born May 21, 1863, in Virginia. He is president of the First National bank of Pocahontas.

Grandgent, Charles Hall, educator and author of 107 Walker st., Cambridge, Mass.,

was born Nov. 14, 1862, in Dorchester, Mass. Since 1896 he has been professor of romance languages and chairman of the romance department at Harvard university. He is the author of Italian Composition and other works.

Grandin, Egbert Henry, physician,surgeon and author of 116 West Seventy-sixth st., New York City, was born Sept. 6, 1855, in Trenton, N.J. He has been president of the New York obstetrical society. He is the author of Practical Obstetrics and other works.

Granger, Abbott Dean, civil engineer of 677 Greene ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 3, 1870, in New York City. He is president of A. D. Granger company, contracting engineers of New York City and various corporations.

Granger, Arthur Otis, soldier, manufacturer and author of 1218 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 14, 1846, in Providence, R.I. He served in the civil war. He is president of the American Gold Dredging company. He is the author of Water Gas, What Is It?

Granger, Charles Trumbull, soldier, educator, lawyer and jurist of Waukon,Iowa, was born Oct. 9, 1835, in Monroe county, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1894-1900 he was chief justice of the state supreme court.

Granger, Moses Moorhead, soldier, lawyer, jurist and author of Zanesville, Ohio, was born Oct. 22, 1831, in Zanesville, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been judge of the Ohio supreme court commission. He is the author of Washington Versus Jefferson and other works.

Graninger, Charles Albert, musician and composer of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 2, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is professor in the Cincinnati college of music.

Granjon,Henry Regis, clergyman and bishop of Tucson, Ariz., was born June 15, 1863, in France. In 1900 he became Roman Catholic bishop at Tucson.

Grannan, Charles P., educator, theologian and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1846 in Kenosha county,Wis. He has been professor of scripture in the Catholic university of America. He is the author of Questions d'Ecriture Sainte and other works.

Grannemann, Louis, merchant and banker of New Haven, Mo., was born May 1, 1851, in Prussia, Germany. He is president of the Bank of New Haven.

Granniss, Anna Jane, author and poet of Plainville, Conn., was born April 24, 1856, in Berlin, Conn. She is the author of The Boy with the Hoe and other works.

Grant, Charles Rollin, lawyer, jurist and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 23, 1846, in Orange, Conn. He was admitted to the bar in 1874; and subsequently was an instructor in rhetoric in the western reserve university. In 1883 he was judge of the probate court; and in 1883-95 was president of the board of control of the Akron public library. In 1913 he became judge of the court of appeals of Ohio. He is the author of Panama Canal and the Monroe Doctrine and Capture of Mason and Slidell.

Grant, Charles S., physician, surgeon and founder of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., was born Nov. 29, 1845, in Hobart, N.Y. He was one of the founders of the New York state medical association.

Grant, Cladius Buchanan, soldier, educator, lawyer and jurist of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 25, 1835, in Lebanon, Maine. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of colonel. In 1889 he was elected an associate justice for the state supreme court of Michigan; and in 1899 was elected for a second term.

Grant, Clement Rollins, painter and artist of Boston, Mass., was born July 10, 1849, in Freeport, Maine. His best known works are Amy Wentworth and O for the Touch of a Vanished Hand.

Grant, Edward M., banker of Morristown, Tenn., was born June 26, 1867, in Ithaca, N. Y. He is president of the Morristown Bank and Trust company.

Grant, Frederic Dent, soldier of New York Harbor, N.Y., was born May 30, 1850, in St. Louis, Mo. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of brigadier-general in 1901. He was United States minister to Austria.

Grant, Henry Horace, physician, surgeon and author of Louisville, Ky., was born Dec. 12, 1853, in Petersburg, Ky. He is professor of surgery in the university of Louisville. He is the author of Principles of Surgery and other works.

Grant, Hugh John, lawyer and statesman of New York City, was born in New York City. He has served two terms as mayor of New York City.

Grant,Isaac,soldier, public official and jurist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 25, 1846, in St. Louis, Mo. He served in the civil war. In 1905-09 he was judge of the probate court.

Grant,James Benton,mining engineer,banker and statesman of 770 Pennsylvania ave., Denver, Col., was born Jan. 2, 1848, in Russell county, Ala. He is a member of the firm of Omaha and Grant Smelting company. In 1883-85 he was governor of Colorado.

Grant, John Gaston, statesman of Hendersonville, N.C., was born Jan. 1, 1858, in Hendersonville, N.C. He has been sheriff of his native county. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Grant,John William, capitalist of Atlanta, Ga., was born July 26, 1867, in West Point, Ga. He graduated with the degree of B.C.S. from the university of Georgia. He assisted his father in the management of large real estate interests in Atlanta; and after his death continued to manage and to develop these properties. He is vice-president of the Third National bank and vice-president of the Georgia Savings bank; and a director of the Southern railway and other corporations. He has been councilman of his city, a member of the board of education, and has held various other positions of trust and honor.

Grant, Joseph Donohoe, merchant of San Francisco, Cal., where he was born March 28, 1858. He is president of the north central improvement association and other corporations.

Grant, Leroy, merchant, ranchman, public official and statesman of Cheyenne, Wyo., was born Sept. 7, 1847, in New York. Since 1903 he has been state auditor and insurance commissioner of the state of Wyoming.

Grant, Lewis Addison, soldier and lawyer of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Jan. 17, 1829, in Bennington county, Vt. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general of volunteers. In 1890-93 he was assistant secretary of war.

Grant, Madison, lawyer and author of 11 Wall st., New York City, was born Nov. 18, 1865, in New York City. He is the author of The Rocky Mountain Goat and other works.

Grant, Percy Stickney, clergyman of 7 West Tenth st., New York City, was born May 13, 1860, in Boston, Mass. Since 1893 he has been rector of the Church of the Ascension.

Grant, Robert, lawyer, jurist and author of 211 Bay State road, Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 24, 1852, in Boston, Mass. Since 1893 he has been judge of probate and insolvency for Suffolk county, Mass. He is the author of The Lambs and other works.

Grant, Robert Parks, manufacturer and banker of Clayton, N.Y., was born May 6, 1844, in Neversink, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He is cashier and manager of the National Exchange bank.

Grant, Ulysses S., Jr., capitalist of San Diego, Cal., was born July 22, 1852, in Bethel, Ohio. He has been a delegate for two republican national conventions. He built the U. S. Grant hotel of San Diego.

Grant, Ulysses Sherman, geologist and author of 2320 Orrington ave., Evanston, Ill., was born Feb. 14, 1867, in Moline, Ill. Since 1899 he has been professor of geology and curator of the museum in the Northwestern university. He is the author of Preliminary Report on the Copper-bearing Rocks of Douglas County, Wis., and other works.

Grant, William Daniel, capitalist of Atlanta, Ga., was born Aug. 16, 1837, in Athens, Ga. He is the largest owner of Atlanta real estate; and one of the wealthiest men in Georgia.

Grass, Harry White, banker of La Crosse, Kan., was born Nov. 2, 1856, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' State bank.

Grasty, Charles Henry, business president and manager of Baltimore, Md., was born March 3, 1863, in Fincastle, Va. He is president and general manager of A. S. Abell company and a director of the associated press.

Gratacap, Louis Pope, naturalist and author of West New Brighton, N.Y., was born Nov. 1, 1850, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a naturalist and assistant curator of the American museum of natural history of New York City. He is the author of Philosophy of Ritualism and other works.

Grattan, George Gilmer, jurist of Harrisonburg, Va., was born Feb.12, 1839,in Rockingham county, Va. He is president of the Rockingham National bank.

Gravatt, William Loyall, clergyman and bishop of Charlestown,W.Va., was born Dec. 15, 1858, in Port Royal, Va. In 1889 he was consecrated bishop coadjutor of West Virginia. He has contributed extensively to educational and religious literature.

Grave, Caswell, educator and scientist of Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 24, 1870, in Monrovia, Ind. He has received the degrees of B.S. and Ph.D. In 1901-02 he was assistant zoologist, in 1902-06 associate zoologist and since 1906 associate professor of zoology in the Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore. In 1906-12 he was shell-fish commissioner of Maryland; and since 1912 has been director of invertebrate zoology in the Maryland biological laboratory at Woods Hole.

Graves, Abbott Fuller, painter and artist of 110 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born April 15, 1859, in Weymouth, Mass. His best known works are Saved from the Wreck and Peonies.

Graves, Alexander, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Lexington, Mo., was born Aug. 29, 1844, in Mississippi. He served in the civil war. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Graves, Anson Rogers, clergyman and bishop of Coronado, Cal., was born April 13,1842, in Wells, Vt. In 1890 he was consecrated missionary Protestant Episcopal bishop of western Nebraska.

Graves, Charles Burleigh, lawyer and jurist of Emporia, Kan., was born Nov. 13,1841, in Richmond, Ind. He has been county attorney; and for twelve years was judge of the district court. Since 1905 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Kansas.

Graves, Charles H., lawyer and banker of Columbus, Ohio, was born June 24, 1872, in Ottawa county, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank of Oak Harbor, Ohio.

Graves, Charles Hinman, soldier and diplomat of Duluth, Minn., was born in 1839 in Springfield, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted lieutenant-colonel in the United States army. He has been mayor of his city. Since 1905 he has been minister to Sweden.

Graves, Edward Oziel, government official and banker of Seattle,Wash., was born Aug. 3, 1843, in Gravesville, N.Y. He has been assistant treasurer of the United States; and was chief of the bureau of engraving and printing. He is president of the Washington National bank of Seattle.

Graves, Emery Calvin, lawyer and jurist of Geneseo, Ill., was born in Cherry Creek, Chautauqua county, N.Y. He has twice been mayor of his city. For six years he was judge of the circuit court; and is now judge of the appellate court.

Graves, Erwin Ralph, manufacturer and banker of 603 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born May 14, 1865, in Hancock, Maine. He is president of the First National bank of Bellville, N.J., and a director of various corporations.

Graves, Frank Hyde, capitalist and lawyer of Spokane, Wash., was born June 15, 1857, in Hancock county, Ill. He was one of the stockholders of the Le Roi mine, which he sold for four million dollars.

Graves, Frank Pierrepont, educator and author of 1340 Highland st., Columbus, Ohio, was born in 1869 in New York City. He has been president of the university of Washington. He is the author of Ancient Greeks and other works.

Graves, Frederic Rogers, clergyman, theologian and bishop of Shanghai, China, was born, in 1858 in Auburn, N.Y. Since 1893 he has been Protestant Episcopal bishop of Shanghai, China.

Graves, George Franklin, banker of Bennington, Vt., was born Jan. 4, 1854. He is president of the First National bank.

Graves, George Henry, manufacturer and financier of 132 Federal st., Boston, Mass., was born March 10, 1844, in West Fairlee, Vt. He was educated at the Randolph academy of Vermont and at Comer's commercial college of Boston. He served in the civil war. In 1865 he entered the firm of J. J. Walworth and company as clerk, became cashier in 1870, and since 1886 has been treasurer of the Walworth Manufacturing company; also a director since 1889 and an executive officer in 1903-13. He is a trustee of the Malden Savings bank, the Massachusetts soldiers' home and other institutions. He is a member of the Boston chamber of commerce; and sinking fund commissioner for the city of Malden. He is past president of the Vermont veteran association; and has been president of the Boston credit men's association.

Graves, Henry Solon, educator, scientist and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 3, 1871, in Marietta, Ohio. Since 1900 he has been professor of forestry at Yale forest school. He is the author of The Forests of the Black Hills and other works.

Graves, John Card, business man of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Nov. 18, 1839, in Herkimer, N.Y. He is president of the Elevator company. He has been president of the citizens' association.

Graves, John Temple, journalist, publisher and statesman of New York City, was born Nov. 9, 1856, in Abbeville, S.C. He has been editor of the Jacksonville Herald, editor of the Rome Tribune and editor of the Atlanta Journal. He is now editor of the New York American and of the Atlanta Georgian; and is president of the New York press club. In 1908 he was a candidate for vice-president on the independent league ticket.

Graves, Nelson Quingle, linguist and manufacturer of 22 South Third st.,Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 24, 1849, in Clinton, N. C. He is president of the Camden White Lead works.

Graves, Schuyler Colfax, surgeon of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born March 6, 1858, in Kalamazoo, Mich. He served as chief surgeon in the Spanish-American war.

Graves, Waller W., lawyer and jurist of Butler, Mo., was born Dec. 17, 1860, in Lafayette county, Mo. In 1906-09 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Missouri.

Grawn, Charles T., college president of Mount Pleasant, Mich., was born Oct. 4, 1857, in Salem, Mich. Since 1900 he has been president of the central state normal school.

Gray, Baron De Kalb, educator,clergyman and college president of College Park, Ga., was born June 18, 1855,in Waynesboro,Miss. He has been president of the Georgetown college of Kentucky.

Gray, Carl Raymond, railroad president of St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 28, 1867. Since 1912 he has been president of the Great Northern railroad.

Gray, Charles Milton, merchant and banker of Wooster, Ohio, was born Jan. 6, 1859, in Wooster, Ohio. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Gray, Charles Oliver, clergyman and college president of Greenville, Tenn., was born June 3, 1867, in Hewelton, N.Y. He became principal of the high school of Hewelton, N. Y. He has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Smithtown, N.Y.; and president of the First Presbyterian church of Marshall,N.C. He is now president of the Washington and Tusculum college.

Gray, David, journalist,lawyer and author of New York City, was born Aug. 8, 1870, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the author of The Sphinx and other works.

Gray, George, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Wilmington, Del., was born May 4, 1840, in New Castle, Del. In 1899-1901 he was judge of the United States circuit court for the third district of Delaware.

Gray, George Morris, physician, surgeon and banker of Kansas City, Kan., was born March 4, 1856, in Waukegan, Ill. He is vice-president of the People's National bank.

Gray, George Morton, lawyer and banker of Kenmare, N.D., was born Nov. 5, 1872, in Benezette, Pa. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Gray,George R., capitalist and financier of 30 Franklin st., Newark,N.J., was born April 25, 1842, in Newton, N.J. He is president of the T. B. Peddie Truck company.

Gray, Grove C., banker of Montpelier, Idaho, was born Jan. 31, 1863, in New York. He is president of the Bank of Montpelier.

Gray, Henry A., railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born in 1852. Since 1897 he has been comptroller Northern Pacific railroad.

Gray, Henry David, educator and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born Nov. 6, 1873, in Plainfield, N.J. Since 1906 he has been assistant professor of English at the Leland Stanford university. He is the author of Hannibal, a Tragedy, and other works.

Gray, James M., clergyman,theologian and lecturer of 189 Montague st., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Feb.2, 1872, in Bedford county, Pa. He has been professor of the English Bible in the Reformed Episcopal seminary of Philadelphia. He is the author of History of the Holy Dead and other works.

Gray, John Chipman, educator,lawyer and author of 60 State st., Boston, Mass., was born July 14, 1839, in Brighton, Mass. He is the author of Restraints on the Alienation of Property and other works.

Gray, John Clinton, lawyer and jurist of Albany, N.Y., was born Dec. 4, 1843, in New York City. He is judge of the New York court of appeals.

Gray, John Henry, educator and author of 412 Walnut st., Minneapolis,Minn., was born March 11, 1859, in Charleston, Ill. He represented the United States in the international co-operative congress held in England, Germany and Belgium. He is the author of several works in German.

Gray, Louis Herbert, orientalist and author of 354 Summer ave., Newark, N.J., was born April 10, 1875, in Newark, N.J. He is the author of Indo-Iranian Phonology and other works.

Gray, Morris, lawyer and bank director of Boston, Mass., was born March 7, 1856, in Massachusetts. He is a trustee of the Suffolk Savings Bank for Seamen and others.

Gray, Thomas Tarvin, chemist and scientist of Bayonne,N.J., was born Aug.29, 1881, in Franklin, Pa. He was educated at Columbia university. He has been chemist for various companies, and since 1903 has been chief chemist of the Tide Water Oil company of Bayonne. He is the author of Petroleum and Its Products and other monographs on kindred subjects.

Gray, Truman, educator, planter, merchant and statesman of Boise, Miss., was born April 5, 1854, in Wayne county, Miss. He has been a member of the state senate. He has been county superintendent of public instruction.

Gray, Walter Benjamin, real estate operator and financier of Tampa, Fla., was born March 28, 1862, in Lincoln, Ala. He organized the Bentley Gray Dry Goods company of Tampa, Fla.; and sold his interests in order to take management of the Mutual Realty and Investment company. He is now president of the Home Building company; president of the Mutual Realty and Investment company and other corporations.

Gray, William Crane, clergyman, founder and bishop of Orlando, Fla., was born Sept. 6, 1835, in Lambertville, N.J. Since 1893 he has been Protestant Episcopal bishop of southern Florida. He has founded and rebuilt many schools and churches.

Grayson, Charles Prevost, physician and author of 1435 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 15, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1904 he was appointed clinical professor in the medical department of the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Diseases of the Nose, Throat and Ear.

Grayson, Clifford Prevost, painter and artist of Paris, France, was born July 14, 1857, in Philadelphia, Pa. His best known works are The Fisherman's Family and Midday Dreams.

Greatorex, Eleanor Elizabeth, painter and artist of New York City, was born May 26, 1854, in New York City. Her best known works are The Bath; and Color That Burns As If No Frost Could Tame.

Greatorex, Kathleen Honora, artist of Moret, Seine et Marne, France, was born Sept. 10, 1851, in New York City. Her best known painting is The Last Bit of Autumn.

Greatsinger, Jacob L.,railroad president of Duluth, Minn., was born July 1, 1859, in Elmira, N.Y. Since 1892 he has been president of the Duluth and Iron Range railroad at Duluth, Minn.

Greble, Edwin St. John, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born June 25,1859, in West Point, N.Y. He served in the Spanish-American war. He has been senior instructor in artillery at the United States military academy. In 1900 he was promoted to lieutenant-colonel.

Grecian, Ola Emery, banker of Stroud, Okla., was born Jan. 10, 1873, in Washington, Iowa. He is president of the First National bank.

Greear, John Fields, banker of Troutdale, Va., was born Feb. 8, 1877, in Grant, Va. He is secretary and treasurer of the Troutdale Chair Manufacturing company.

Greeley, Edwin Seneca, soldier, merchant and banker of 15 Trumbull st., New Haven, Conn., was born May 20, 1832, in Nashua, N.H. He served in the civil war; and attained the rank of brevetted brigadier-general. He became president-general of the national society sons of the American revolution.

Greeley, Samuel Sewell, surveyor and engineer of 139 North Clark st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 11, 1824, in Boston, Mass. He is president of Greeley-Howard company, incorporated.

Greeley, Wallace M.,banker of Ames,Iowa, was born March 16, 1840, in Orleans county, N.Y. In 1870 he engaged in the banking business; and is now president of the Union National bank. He served in the civil war for three years. He served three terms as a member of the Iowa state legislature; and for twelve years as mayor of his city.

Greeley, William B., lawyer of New Rochelle, N.Y., was born Nov. 1, 1859, in Nashua, N.H. He is a member of the law firm of Redding, Kiddle and Greeley.

Greely, Adolphus Washington, soldier, explorer, meteorologist and author of 1914 G st., Washington, D.C., was born March 27, 1844, in Newburyport, Mass. He served in the civil war. He is chief signal officer of the United States army. He is the author of Three Years of Arctic Service and other works.

Green, Adolphus Williamson, lawyer of 110 North Morgan st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 14, 1843, in Boston, Mass. He is senior member of the firm of Green, Willits and Robbins.

Green, Allen Ayrault, journalist and author of Galesburg, Ill., was born March 11, 1880, in Williamsport, Pa. Since 1904 he has been associate editor of the Advance of Chicago. He is the author of My Painted Tree and Other Poems and other works.

Green, Arthur Lawrence, educator and scientist of Lafayette, Ind., was born Sept. 18, 1857, in Newark, Ohio. Since 1888 he has been professor of chemistry in Purdue university.

Green, Bernard Richardson, civil engineer of 1738 N st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 28, 1843, in Malden, Mass. He has had charge of the erection of public buildings in Washington. He is now superintendent of the congressional library buildings and grounds at Washington, D.C.

Green, Charles Ernest, banker of San Francisco, Cal., was born Oct. 31, 1855, in Detroit, Mich. He is vice-president of the Crocker National bank; Santa Cruz Portland Cement company and other corporations. He is a prominent Mason; and treasurer of the Old People's Home.

Green, Charles Montraville, physician of 78 Marlborough st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 18, 1850, in Medford, Mass. Since 1907 he has been visiting physician in charge of the Boston lying-in hospital.

Green, Crawford Richmond, physician and author of 25 Second st., Troy, N.Y., was born Sept. 8, 1881, in Troy, N.Y. He is the author of Education and Preventive Medicine.

Green, David I., educator and social economist of 133 Trumbull st., Hartford, Conn., was born Feb. 5, 1864, in Independence, N. Y. He has been professor of Latin languages and literature at Alfred university. Since 1900 he has been a lecturer at the Hartford theological seminary.

Green, Edward Howland Robinson, railroad president and capitalist of 7 West Ninetieth st., New York City, was born Aug. 22, 1868, in London, England; and is the son of Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman in America. He graduated from Fordham college of New York, and subsequently he studied law in Chicago, Ill. After admission to the bar he entered the railway service, and served consecutively as clerk, foreman, superintendent and general manager; and became president of the Texas Midland railroad. He is a director and stockholder in numerous banks, and personally looks after his mother's vast real estate interests in the west and southwest. He is serving his second term as chairman of the republican party of Texas; in 1900 was delegate at large to the republican national convention; and has been tendered the nomination for governor on various occasions. He organized and is president of the famous Tarpon club.

Green, Edwin L., educator and author of Charleston, S.C., was born Dec. 18, 1870, in Milton, Fla. Since 1900 he has been adjunct professor of ancient languages at the South Carolina college. He is the author of School History of Florida.

Green, E. H. R., railroad president of Terrell, Texas, was born Aug. 22, 1868, in London, England. Since 1893 he has been president of the Texas Midland railroad.

Green, Ernest Sherman, journalist and poet of Waseca, Minn., was born April 30, 1866, in Waseca, Minn. He is the editor of Mexican and South American Poems. He is the author of a volume entitled Poems of the Past, Present and Future.

Green, Francis Harvey, educator and author of West Chester, Pa., was born May 19, 1861, in Delaware county, Pa. He has long been president of the young men's Christian association of West Chester state normal school. He is a successful lecturer and after-dinner speaker of note. He is the author of numerous essays and poems.

Green, Frank Russell, painter and artist of 14 West Twelfth st., New York City, was born April 16, 1859, in Chicago, Ill. He is a genre painter and a member of the American water color society.

Green, George E., merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Binghamton, N.Y., was born Aug. 30, 1858, in Kirkwood, N.Y. He has served two terms as a member of the New York state senate; and for five consecutive terms has been mayor of his city. He is a successful manufacturer and wholesale coal merchant. He is vice-president of the Binghamton Railway company and vice-president of the International Time Recording company.

Green, George Walton, lawyer and author of New York City, was born in 1854 in New York City. He is the author of Repudiation.

Green, Harry H., soldier, clergyman and poet of Decorah, Iowa, was born March 13, 1839, in England. He has been a representative in the Iowa state legislature. Since 1890 he has been presiding elder of the Decorah district.

Green, Henry Dickinson, soldier, lawyer, journalist and statesman of Reading, Pa., was born May 3, 1857, in Reading, Pa. He has been a representative; a senator; and a member of congress. He is editor of the Telegraph of Reading, Pa.

Green, Henry Francis, merchant and banker of Littleton, N.H., was born Feb. 6, 1844, in Lyndon, Vt. He is president of the Littleton National bank.

Green, Henry Woodhull, lawyer and banker of 5 West State st., Trenton, N.J., was born in 1867 in Trenton, N.J. He is vice-president of the Trenton Banking company.

Green, Hetty Howland Robinson, capitalist of 170 Broadway. New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1835, in New Bedford, Mass. She has become a large holder of stock in railroad companies, in the Chemical National bank and in business in other parts of the United States.

Green, Horton Buxton, educator, clergyman and composer of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Oct. 20, 1852, in Johnstown, Ohio. He has filled pastorates in the various churches of the cities of Iowa. He is the author of a number of sacred and popular songs, both of words and music.

Green, James, lawyer and antiquarian of Worcester, Mass., was born March 2, 1841, in Worcester, Mass. He is president of the Worcester society of antiquity; and treasurer of the public education association.

Green, James Monroe,educator and author of 55 North Clinton ave., Trenton, N.J., was born Aug. 29, 1851, in Succasunna, N.J. In 1886 he was president of the state sanitary association. Since 1889 he has been principal of the New Jersey state normal and model school.

Green, Jerome Joseph, educator,electrician and scientist of Notre Dame, Ind., was born Dec. 26, 1866, in Somerset, Ohio. He has been chief instructor in the national school of electricity in Chicago. He has conducted a series of experiments with wireless telegraphy.

Green, John Orne, physician and surgeon of 267 Newbury st., Boston, Mass., was born June 7, 1841, in Lowell, Mass. In 1869-70 he was instructor in aural surgery in Harvard. He is aural surgeon in the Boston city hospital.

Green, John Pugh, railway official of 256 Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 31, 1839, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad company and other corporations.

Green, Joseph L., jurist of 1131 Lexington ave., New York City, was born Feb. 11, 1868, in New York City. Since 1905 he has been justice of the city court.

Green, Joseph West, manufacturer and banker of Easthampton, Mass., was born Aug. 23, 1848, in Marblehead, Mass. He is treasurer and general manager of the Glendale Elastic Fabric company of Easthampton and a director of other corporations.

Green, Julia Boynton, author and poet of New York City, was born May 25, 1861, in South Byron, N.Y. She is the author of a volume of poems entitled Lines and Interlines.

Green, Lemuel Bartine, journalist and jurist of Patchogue, L.I., N.Y., was born Jan. 26, 1856, in Belmar, N.J. He is editor of and publisher of the Argus; and has been president of the Suffolk county press association. He has been president of the Suffolk county board of trade and of the Patchogue board of trade. He is a justice of the peace for the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk county, N. Y., and is a member of numerous patriotic and fraternal orders.

Green, Milton James, lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Sept. 8, 1858, in Oroville, Cal. He is senior member of the law firm of Green, Humphreys and Green; and for twelve years served as referee in bankruptcy.

Green, Monte L., banker of 1104 Jackson st., Auburn, Ind., was born Jan. 26, 1870, in Norborne, Mo. He is president of the Auburn Realty company.

Green, Nathan, lawyer, educator and author of Lebanon, Tenn., was born Feb. 19, 1827, in Winchester, Tenn. Since 1873 he has been chancellor of Cumberland university. He is the author of Hall Man of Winton and other works.

Green, Robert Stockton,lawyer and statesman of Trenton, N.J., was born Oct.16, 1865, in Elizabeth, N.J. In 1887-90 he was governor of New Jersey. In 1897 he was elected to the state legislature.

Green, Rufus Smith, clergyman, college president and author of Elmira, N.Y., was born in 1848 in New York. Since 1893 he has been president of Elmira college for women. He is the author of Our Church at Work and other works.

Green, Samuel Abbott, physician, librarian and author of 1154 Boylston st.,Boston,Mass., was born March 16, 1830, in Groton, Mass. He has been mayor of Boston; and since 1868 he has been librarian of the Massachusetts historical library. He is the author of The Early Records of Groton and other works.

Green, Samuel Swett,librarian and author of 12 Harvard st., Worcester, Mass., was born Feb. 20, 1837, in Worcester, Mass. In 1871 he was chosen librarian of the free public library of Worcester. He is the author of two books.

Green, Thomas Edward, clergyman, bishop and author of Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 27, 1857, in Harrisville, Pa. He has built up the largest parish in the state. He is the author of The Mantraps of the City and other works.

Green, Warren L., publisher, engraver and artist of New York City, was born May 19, 1866, in New York City. Since 1906 he has been president of the American Bank Note company.

Greenbaum, Samuel, educator, lawyer and jurist of 2 East Ninety-fourth st.,New York City, was born Jan. 23, 1854, in London,England. In 1872-79 he taught in the grammar schools of New York. He is justice of the supreme court of New York.

Greene, Charles Lyman, physician, surgeon and author of St. Paul,Minn., was born Sept. 21, 1862, in Gray, Maine. He is medical director of the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance company. He is the author of The Medical Examination for Life Insurance and Its Associated Clinical Methods and other works.

Greene, Charles Samuel, journalist and librarian of 135 Kempton ave., Oakland, Cal., was born Dec. 6, 1856, in Bridgeport, Conn. In 1901-02 he was president of the library association of California.

Greene, Charles Warren, soldier, physician and author of Merchantville, N.J., was born Aug. 17, 1840, in Belchertown, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He is the author of Animals, Their Homes and Habits and other works.

Greene, Clay Meredith, dramatist and author of 130 West Forty-fourth st.,New York City, was born March 12, 1850, in San Francisco, Cal. He is the author of the plays entitled M'Liss, Chispa, Sharps and Flats, The Golden Giant Struck Oil, and Nazareth and also author of operas.

Greene, D. B., merchant and banker of Neosho, Wis., was born March 25, 1862, in Rubicon, Wis. He is president of the Neosho State bank.

Greene, Daniel Crosby, missionary and author of 12 Honmuracho, Azabu, Tokyo, Japan, was born Feb. 11, 1843, in Roxbury, Mass. Since 1869 he has been a congregational missionary in Japan. He is the author of Chinese New Testament, prepared for Japanese readers.

Greene, Edward Lee, college president and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 20, 1843, in Hopkinton, R.I. H has received the degrees of Ph.D. and LL.D. He always has had an intense passion for the study of plant life; entered the occupation of teacher; and in 1872-85 was engaged in missionary work in Colorado, Wyoming, California, Arizona and New Mexico, also adding to his botanical knowledge. In 1885-95 he filled the chair of botany in the university of California; and since 1895 has occupied this chair in the Catholic university of Washington, D.C. He is the author of Landmarks of Botanical History.

Greene, Edwin Farnham, manufacturer of 70 Kilby st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 9, 1879, in Hills Grove, R.I. He is president of Lockwood Greene and company.

Greene, Evarts Boutell, educator and author of 1011 South Wright st., Champaign, Ill., was born July 8, 1870, in Japan. Since 1879 he has been professor of history in the university of Illinois. He is the author of The Provincial Governor in the English Colonies of North America.

Greene, Frances Nimmo, educator and author of 519 Dexter ave., Montgomery, Ala., was born in Tuscaloosa, Ala. She has been a teacher in the Montgomery public schools of Alabama. She is the author of King Arthur and His Court.

Greene, Francis Vinton, soldier and author of 303 North st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born June 27, 1850, in Providence, R.I. During the war with Spain he served as colonel; was a brigadier-general in command at Manila; and major-general at Havana. He is the author of Sketches of Army Life in Turkey and other works.

Greene, Frank Lester, editor and statesman of St. Albans, Vt., was born Feb. 10, 1870, in St. Albans, Vt. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Greene, George Sears, civil engineer and surveyor of 11 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 26, 1837, in Lexington, Ky. In 1875 he was appointed engineer in chief of the department of docks.

Greene, Henry Alexander,soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 5, 1856, in Matteawan, N.Y. In 1882-85 he was assistant instructor in mathematics in the infantry and cavalry school. He is now assistant adjutant-general in the war department at Washington.

Greene, Henry Copley,author of 111 Chestnut st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 21, 1871, in Vienna, Austria. He is the author of The Children's Crusade; Theophile, a Miracle Play; and Plains and Uplands of Old France, a Book of Prose and Verse.

Greene, Henry Fay, lawyer and commissioner of Washington, D.C., was born May 30, 1859, in Newbern, N.C. Since 1903 he has been civil service commissioner.

Greene, Herbert Wilbur, musician,composer and author of New York City, was born May 20, 1851, in Holyoke, Mass. He is the founder and director of the Metropolitan college of music. He is the author of many short stories.

Greene, Homer, lawyer, capitalist and author of Honesdale, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1853, in Ariel, Pa. He is treasurer and director of the White Mills Coal company and a director of other corporations.

Greene,Howard,banker of Milwaukee,Wis., was born May 27, 1864, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is president of the Milwaukee Drug company.

Greene,John Arthur,publisher of 100 Washington Square, East, New York City, was born in Waterford, Maine. He is managing director of the American Book company.

Greene, John H., merchant and banker of Mackay, Idaho, was born in July, 1850, in Indiana. He is president of W. G. Jenkins and company, bankers.

Greene, John Priest, clergyman and college president of Liberty, Mo., was born in 1849 in Scotland county, Mo. He has been pastor of the Third Baptist church of St. Louis, Mo. Since 1892 he has been president of the William Jewell college of Liberty.

Greene, Maria Louise, litterateur and author of 14 University place, New Haven, Conn., was born in Providence, R.I. She is the author of The Development of Religious Liberty in Connecticut and other works.

Greene, Nelson H., banker of Moline, Ill., was born March 16, 1873, in Tallula, Ill. He was mayor of Tallula for ten years. He is vice-president and manager of the People's Savings Bank and Trust company of Moline.

Greene, Richard Gleason, clergyman and author of 5 Beekman st., New York City, was born June 29,1829, in East Hadam,Conn. He was editor of the Library of Universal Knowledge, in sixteen volumes; and the Columbian Cyclopedia, in thirty-two volumes.

Greene, Robert Holmes, surgeon and author of 78 East Fifty-sixth st., New York City, was born April 27, 1861, in Brunswick, Maine. He is surgeon to the City, French and Metropolitan hospitals of New York City. He is the author of Healthy Exercise.

Greene, Roger Sherman, soldier, lawyer, jurist and philanthropist of Seattle, Wash., was born Dec. 14, 1840, in Boston, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. In 1883-87 he was chief justice.

Greene, Roy Farrell, journalist, author and poet of Three Rivers, Mich., was born Dec. 20, 1873, in Three Rivers, Mich. He is a regular contributor to the leading magazines in America. He is the author of Cupid is King, a volume of society verse.

Greene, Samuel Harrison, educator, clergyman and college president of 1320 Q st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 25, 1845, in Enosburgh, Vt. In 1894-95 he was president of Columbian university. Since 1900 he has been pastor of the Calvary church in Washington.

Greene, Mrs. Sarah Pratt, author of Lexington, Mass., was born July 3, 1856, in Simsbury, Conn. She is the author of Cape Cod Folks; Last Chance Junction; Stuart and Bamboo and other works.

Greene, William Brenton, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Aug. 16, 1854, in Providence, R.I. He is the author of Christian Science, or Mind Cure; The Function of the Miracle; The Bible Student and other works.

Greene, William Houston, chemist of 2130 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in December, 1853, in Columbia, Pa. He received the degree of A.M. from the Central high school and graduated from the Jefferson medical college where he was demonstrator of chemistry. In 1877-79 he followed original research in Paris; and is a member of the American philosophical society. He is the author of a Handbook of Medical Chemistry; Lessons in Chemistry and other works.

Greene, William Milbury, railroad official of 1840 Madison road, Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Oct. 15, 1858, in Athens, Ohio. In 1898 he was vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad.

Greenebaum, Elias, banker of 4510 Grand boul., Chicago, Ill., was born June 24, 1882, in Germany. He has been school agent of Chicago and is now engaged in the banking business.

Greener, Richard Theodore, educator, lawyer, diplomat and author of 1940 Eleventh st., Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 30, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1898 he was appointed United States consul at Vladivostok, Russia. He is the author of Eulogy on the Life and Services of William Lloyd Garrison and other works.

Greenewalt, Mrs. Mary Hallock, pianist, artist and author of 1424 Master st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 8, 1871, in Syria. She has concertized as a pianist throughout America. She is the author of an authorized text-book on the Leschetizky Method and other works.

Greenhut, Benedict Joseph, merchant of New York City, was born June 24, 1870, in Chicago, Ill. He is secretary and treasurer of Greenhut and company and other corporations.

Greening, Charles F.,banker of Grand Meadow, Minn., was born in 1845 in England. He is president of the Exchange State bank.

Greening, Elgar Frank, banker of Grand Meadow, Minn., was born March 31, 1873, in Grand Meadow, Minn. He is cashier of the Exchange State bank.

Greenleaf, Charles Ravenscroft, physician, surgeon and author of Washington, D.C.,was born Jan. 1, 1838, in Carlisle, Pa. He served in the civil war as deputy surgeon-general in the United States army. He is the author of Greenleaf's Manual for Medical Officers and other works.

Greenleaf, Franklin Lewis, manufacturer and business president of Minneapolis,Minn., was born Oct. 7, 1847, in Boston, Mass. He has been president of the Red River Valley Elevator company. In 1889 he was elected president of the Minneapolis chamber of commerce.

Greenleaf, Mrs. Georgie H. Frank, founder and author of Charleston, S.C., was born Nov. 12, 1849, in Baltimore, Md. She is the founder and director of the American library at Manila, P.I. She is the author of My Life Among the Indians.

Greenman, Jesse More, educator, botanist and scientist of Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 27, 1867, in North East, Pa. Since 1905 he has been assistant curator of botany at the Field museum of natural history of Chicago. He is a member of the botanical society of America.

Greenman, Milton Jay,physician and anatomist of 3618 Woodland ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 14, 1866, in North East, Pa. Since 1905 he has been director of the Wistar institute of anatomy, at the university of Pennsylvania.

Greenough, Chester Noyes, educator and author of 11 Mason st., Cambridge, Mass., was born June 29, 1874, in Wakefield, Mass. Since 1907 he has been professor of English at the university of Illinois. He is part author of A History of Literature in America.

Greenough, George Gordon, soldier and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 8, 1844, in Washington, D.C. In 1865-1902 he served in the United States army. He is the inventor of various devices for artillery operations.

Greenough, Mrs. Jeanie Ashley Bates, author of Westfield, Mass., was born Feb. 24, 1835, in Westfield, Mass. She is the author of At Dawn of Day; A Year of Beautiful Thoughts; and Plain Talks on Common Things for Children.

Greenslet, Ferris, journalist and author of 4 Park st., Boston, Mass., was born June 30, 1875, in Glens Falls, N.Y. In 1902-07 he was associate editor of the Atlantic Monthly. He is the author of The Quest of the Holy Grail; Walter Pater and other works.

Greenwald, Joseph L., banker of 1006 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the People's Trust company of Philadelphia.

Greenwood, Charles G., banker of Silver City, Iowa, was born May 24, 1836, in Abbott, Maine. He is president of the Silver City State bank.

Greenwood, James M., educator and author of 1019 Armour boul., Kansas City, Mo., was born Nov. 15, 1836, near Springfield, Ill. Since 1874 he has been an educator and school superintendent of Kansas City. He is the author of Principles of Education Practically Applied.

Greer, David Hummell, clergyman and author of 7 Grammercy park, New York City, was born March 20, 1844, in Wheeling, W. Va. Since 1888 he has been rector of St. Bartholomew's church. He is the author of The Preacher and His Place and From Things to God.

Gregg, Alexander White, statesman of Palestine, Texas, was born in Texas. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Gregg, David, clergyman and author of 337 Washington ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 25, 1846, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He has filled pastorates in the Presbyterian churches in Iowa, Massachusetts and New York. He is the author of Studies in John and other works.

Gregg, David A., manufacturer and banker of Nashua, N.H., was born March 22, 1841, in New Boston, N.H. He is president of the Indian National bank.

Gregg, David McMurtrie, soldier and diplomat of Reading, Pa., was born April 10, 1833, in Huntingdon, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. In 1891 he was auditor-general of Pennsylvania.

Gregg, Elbert Lee, banker of Rusk, Texas, was born in Tennessee. He is president of the First National bank.

Gregg, John Robert, publisher and author of 50 W. Eighty-fifth st., New York City, was born June 17, 1867, in Ireland. Since 1888 he has devoted his entire attention to the diffusion of shorthand; and the Gregg system is now used in more than two thousand schools. He is president of the Gregg school of Chicago, Ill.; and president of the Gregg Publishing company of New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

Gregg, William Henry, retired manufacturer of 3013 Pine st., St. Louis, Mo., was born March 24, 1831, in Palmyra, N.Y. He was educated in the public schools of Rochester and in 1846 moved to St. Louis. He was president of the Southern White Lead company of St. Louis and Chicago in 1867-89 until it was sold; and became president of the Gregg Genealogical company. He is the author of Where, When and How to Catch Fish on the East Coast of Florida, and Controversial Issues in Scottish History.

Gregory, Caspar Rene, clergyman, theologian and author of Leipzig, Stötteritz, Germany, was born Nov. 6, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1889 he has been professor of theology in the university of Leipzig. He is the author of The Four Gospels and several works in German.

Gregory, Charles Buckingham, banker of 110 South Eleventh st., Lincoln, Neb., was born June 17, 1870, in Merrimac, Mass. He is vice-president and cashier of the American Savings bank.

Gregory, Charles Noble, lawyer, litterateur, dean and author of 2139 Wyoming ave., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 27, 1851, in Unadilla, N.Y. In 1905-06 he was vice-president of the American bar association. He is dean of the college of law at the state university at Iowa City.

Gregory, Daniel Seelye, clergyman, college president and author of New York City, was born Aug. 21, 1832, in Carmel, N.Y. He was president of the Lake Forest university. Since 1895 he has been editor of The Homiletic Review of New York City. He is the author of Christ's Trumpet Call to the Ministry and other works.

Gregory, Eliot, sculptor, artist and author of 1122 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 13, 1854, in New York City. His pictures include Soubrette; Coquetterie and Children. He is the author of Idler Letters; Worldly Ways and Ways of Men.

Gregory, Frank M., painter and artist of New York City, was born Oct. 21, 1848, in Mansfield, Ohio. Among his paintings are The Truant; Waiting for Repairs and First Snow of the Season.

Gregory, Herbert Ernest, educator, geologist and author of 24 Lincoln st., New Haven, Conn., was born Oct. 15, 1869, in Middleville, Mich. He has been Silliman professor of geology at Yale university. Since 1900 he has been assistant geologist in the United States geological survey.

Gregory, John Goadby, journalist, author and poet of Milwaukee, Wis., was born July 11, 1856, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is an editorial writer on the Evening Wisconsin. He is the author of A Beauty of Thebes, in verse.

Gregory, Shephen Strong, lawyer of 69 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 16, 1849, in Unadilla, N.Y. He has been city commissioner of Chicago.

Greig, Alexander Simpson, railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 25, 1860, in Aberdeen, Scotland. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad system.

Grene, George Francis, clergyman and author of Cranford, N.J., was born June 5, 1858, in North Greenbush, N.Y. Since 1885 he has been pastor of the Presbyterian church of Cranford. He is the author of The Many-Sided St. Paul and other works.

Gresham, Otto, lawyer of 69 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 30, 1869, in Croydon, Ind. He is a member of the Illinois state, the American and the Chicago bar associations.

Gresham, Walter, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Galveston, Texas, was born July 22, 1841, in King and Queen county, Va. He served in the civil war. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Greusel, John Hubert, journalist and author of Arcade, Hollywood, Cal., was born March 20, 1868. He has been a special writer for the New York World, Detroit Free Press, San Francisco Chronicle, Los Angeles Times and various magazines. He is an authority on newspaper interview and history of journalism and is a special writer and lecturer on these topics. He is the author of Hours with Famous Americans.

Grey, Norman, lawyer and banker of 104 Market st., Camden, N.J., was born April 3, 1869, in Salem, N.J. He is president of the West Jersey Trust company.

Grey, Samuel Howell, lawyer and founder of Newark, N.J., was born April 6, 1836, in Camden, N.J. In 1897-1902 he was attorney-general of New Jersey. He is president of the West Jersey Title and Guaranty company.

Gribbel, John, manufacturer and banker of 1513 Race st., was born March 29, 1858, in Hudson City, N.J. He is president of the Fairmount Savings Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Gridon, Joseph, physician and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 20, 1858, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1900 he has been a professor of clinical dermatology and syphilogy at the Washington university. He is the author of Diseases of the Skin.

Grier, James Alexander, soldier, educator, clergyman and author of Bellevue, Pa., was born May 8, 1846, in Waltz, Pa. He served in the civil war. He is Mills professor in the Allegheny theological seminary. He is the author of Secret Societies and other works.

Grier, William Alexander Montgomery, banker of 76 St. James' place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 9, 1833, in Danville, Pa. He has been president and New York manager of the Corry Radiator company.

Griest, William Walton, journalist, manufacturer, railroad president and statesman of Lancaster, Pa., was born Sept. 22, 1859, in Christiana, Pa. He is president of railway and lighting companies. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Grieves, Edward W., mechanical engineer of Franklin, Pa., was born July 31, 1843, in Wilmington, Del. Since 1897 he has been mechanical expert with the Galena Oil company of Franklin, Pa.

Griffin, Appleton Prentiss Clark, librarian and author of Washington, D.C., was born in Wilton, N.H. He has been assistant librarian of the library of congress at Washington, D.C. He is the author of Discovery of the Mississippi and other works.

Griffin, D. J., statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 26, 1880, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Griffin, Frank M., soldier, journalist and lawyer of Greenup, Ky., was born Aug. 17, 1859, in Greenup, Ky. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is editor and owner of the Eagle Knight of Greenup, Ky.

Griffin, John Bryant, manufacturer and banker of Woodland, N.C., was born Nov. 26, 1848, in Woodland, N.C. He is vice-president of the Meherrin Valley bank.

Griffin, Martin Ignatius Joseph, publisher and author of 1935 North Eleventh st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 23, 1842, in Philadelphia, Pa. He was one of the founders of the Catholic historical society; and since 1887 has published the American Catholic Historical Researches.

Griffin, Martin Luther, expert engineer of Rumford, Maine, was born May 21, 1859, in Northampton, Mass. He has charge of the chemical and electro-chemical departments of the Oxford Paper company.

Griffin, Roland Woolsey, merchant and banker of Roanoke, Ala., was born Oct. 16, 1860, in Lee county, Ala. He is president of the Merchants and Farmers' bank. He is secretary and treasurer of the Southern Provision company.

Griffin, Solomon Bulkley, journalist and author of 185 Mill st., Springfield, Mass., was born Aug. 13, 1852, in Williamstown, Mass. Since 1878 he has been managing editor of the Springfield Republican of Massachusetts. He has published Mexico of To-Day.

Griffing, Timothy Miller, lawyer and banker of Riverhead, N.Y., was born Nov. 22, 1842, in Riverhead. He is president of the Suffolk County National bank.

Griffis, William Elliot, educator, clergyman and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 17, 1843, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Mikado's Empire and other works.

Griffith, Benjamin Whitfield, banker of Vicksburg, Miss., was born Jan. 3, 1853, in Jackson, Miss. He is president of the First National bank.

Griffith, Clarence Dewey, banker of 3201 Humboldt ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Dec. 20, 1853, in Saranac, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Griffith, Edward, capitalist of New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1874, in New York City. He is a member of the New York chamber of commerce. He is president of the Arrow Realty company; manager of the Fidelity and Casualty company and a director in various other corporations.

Griffith, Elmer Cummings, educator and author of Liberty, Mo., was born Aug. 19, 1869, in Mount Carroll, Ill. Since 1905 he has occupied the chair of history and political science at the William Jewell college of Liberty, Mo. He is the author of A Treatise on the Rise and Development of the Gerrymander.

Griffith, Francis Marion, lawyer and statesman of Vevay, Ind., was born Aug. 21, 1849, in Switzerland county, Ind. In 1899-1905 he was a member of congress.

Griffith, Frank Carlos, journalist, librarian, theatrical manager and author of 130 Warren st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 30, 1857, in Dixfield, Maine. He is editor-in-chief of Hilltop. He is the author of The Man From Maine and other works.

Griffith, Frederic Richardson, surgeon, inventor and author of 49 East Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born Sept. 17, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been acting assistant surgeon in the Pennsylvania national guard. He is the author of Handbook of Surgery and other works.

Griffith, Frederick Winter, manufacturer and statesman of Palmyra, N.Y., was born Dec. 17, 1858, in Phelps, N.Y. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from Hamilton college. He is treasurer and vice-president of the Garlock Packing company, a large corporation doing business throughout the United States and in foreign countries. In 1900-02 he was a member of the New York state assembly, and in 1910-12 was a state senator. He is president of the Palmyra Printing company; and is a trustee of Hamilton college.

Griffith, George Perry, contractor of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 8, 1868, in Erie, Pa. He is president and general manager of the Alcatraz company and other corporations.

Griffith, J. P. Crozer, physician and author of 1810 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 5, 1856, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1889 he was visiting physician to St. Agnes hospital and to the Howard hospital. In 1891 he was professor of clinical medicine at the Philadelphia polyclinic; and for many years has been professor of the diseases of children at the university of Pennsylvania and physician to the children's hospital and home. Since 1896 he has been consulting physician to the woman's hospital; and also consulting physician to the St. Christopher's hospital for children. He is the author of The Care of the Baby and other works.

Griffith, Jefferson Davis, surgeon and obstetrician of Kansas City, Mo., was born Feb. 12, 1850, in Jackson, Miss. He has been major and chief surgeon in the United States volunteers. He has been president of the association of military surgeons of the United States.

Griffith, Jenkins Griffith, philanthropist of 443 South Main st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 4, 1850, in Glamorganshire, South Wales. He moved to California in 1873, and until 1878 was business manager for the Herald Publishing company of San Francisco; and later was mining correspondent for the Alta California. He subsequently engaged extensively in mining in Mexico; and in 1882 he purchased Los Feliz Rancho of over four thousand acres near Los Angeles, and acquired extensive realty holdings in that city. In 1896 he donated three thousand acres of this Los Feliz Rancho without restriction to the City of Los Angeles for a public park; and also presented in 1912 one hundred thousand dollars for the erection of an astronomical observatory.

Griffith, Warren G., lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 20, 1850, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Merchants' Trust company.

Griffith, William Herrick, business man and genealogist of New York City, was born Jan. 27, 1866, in Castle-on-Hudson, N.Y. He has been foreign correspondent for the New York Home Journal and other papers. Since 1893 he has been engaged in insurance business.

Griffith, William Morton, banker of Jamaica, N.Y., was born Oct. 31, 1859, in Racine, Wis. He is president of the Queens County Trust company.

Griffiths, David, educator, botanist and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1867 in Wales. Since 1901 he has been assistant agrostologist in the United States department of agriculture.

Griffitts, John P., educator and college president of Wheat, Tenn., was born in 1857, in Unitia, Tenn. He has been president of Roane college of Wheat, Tenn. He has contributed valuable articles to educational and scientific literature.

Griggs, Edward Howard, educator, lecturer and author of Spuyten Duyvil, N.Y., was born Jan. 9, 1868, in Owatonna, Minn. Since 1899 he has been a public lecturer. He is the author of Moral Education and other works.

Griggs, John William, lawyer and statesman of Paterson, N.J., was born July 10, 1849, in Newton, N.J. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. In 1898-1901 he was attorney-general. In 1896-99 he was governor of New Jersey.

Griggs, Julian, civil engineer of Columbus, Ohio, was born Sept. 15, 1848, in Chaplin, Conn. He was educated at the Williston seminary at East Hampton, Mass., and at the Sheffield scientific school of Yale university. He entered the railway service in 1868. He was mainly engaged on preliminary and location surveys and as engineer in charge of construction on various lines of railway from 1868 to 1881. From 1881 to 1891 he was successively chief engineer of the Scioto Valley Railway company, chief engineer for the receiver of the Scioto Valley Railway company, and chief engineer of the Scioto Valley and New England Railroad company, operating 131 miles of line from Columbus, Ohio, to Ashland, Ky. From 1891 to 1897 he was assistant engineer in charge of maintenance of way on the Scioto Valley division of the Norfolk and Western railway. From 1897 to 1906 he was chief engineer of the city of Columbus, Ohio. From 1906-1910 he was chief engineer of the Scioto Valley Traction company. He is now chief engineer of the Lancaster Traction and Power company, and does a general consultation business in railway and municipal engineering.

Griggs, Nathan K., lawyer, author and poet of Lincoln, Neb. He is the writer of a number of meritorious poems which have appeared in Poets of America.

Griggs, Stephen Eliud, physician and author of Seattle, Wash., was born in 1879 in Pawnee City, Neb. He has received the degrees of A.B. and M.D. and has attained success in the practice of medicine. He is the author of Souls of the Infinite.

Grigsby, H. M., banker of Pulaski, Tenn., was born in 1850, in Tennessee. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Grigsby, William C., banker of Wray, Col., was born Oct. 26, 1860, in New Castle, Pa. He is president of the National bank of Wray.

Grimes, Hanson M., lawyer of North Platte, Neb., was born Nov. 4, 1852, in Russellville, Ind. He has been a representative in the Nebraska state legislature. Since 1896 he has been district judge.

Grimke, Archibald Henry, lawyer, diplomat and author of 1415 Corcoran st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 17, 1849, in Charleston, S.C. In 1894-98 he was United States consul at Santo Domingo. He is the author of Charles Sumner, the Scholar in Politics, and other works.

Grimm, Alva Silas, physician, surgeon and banker of St. Mary's, W.Va., was born Aug. 19, 1857, in Bearsville, W.Va. He is president of the Pleasant County bank.

Grimm, Karl Josef, educator and librarian of Gettysburg, Pa., was born June 10, 1871, in Steinbach, Baden, Germany. In 1897-1901 he was fellow and research fellow in the Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore; and in 1901-06 was professor of modern languages in Ursinus college of Collegeville, Pa. Since 1906 he has been librarian and professor of German language and literature in the Pennsylvania college of Gettysburg.

Grimmell, Julius C., clergyman and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born May 30, 1847, in Germany. He is president of the Cleveland Baptist city missionary society. He is the author of Bible Lands in Sunshine and Shadow and other works.

Grimmons, Charles Arnold, merchant of 40 Canal st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 19, 1859, in Middletown, Conn. He is president of the Winter Hill Cooperative bank.

Grimshaw, Robert, civil engineer, lecturer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1850 in Pennsylvania. He is a lecturer on physics at the Franklin institute. He is the author of Saw Filing and other works.

Grimsley, George Perry, geologist and author of Topeka, Kan., was born Feb., 1868, in Granville, Ohio. Since 1895 he has been professor of geology and natural history at Washburn college. He is the author of Gypsum Deposits of Kansas and other works.

Grindley, Harry Sands, educator, chemist and scientist of 918 West Green st., Urbana, Ill., was born April 13, 1864, in Champaign, Ill. He is professor of general chemistry and director of the chemical laboratory at the university of Illinois.

Gring, David, railroad president of Newport, Pa., was born June 8, 1857, in Denver, Pa. Since 1890 he has been president of the Newport and Sherman's Valley railroad.

Grinnell, Charles Edward, lawyer and author of 15 Millmont st., Boston, Mass., was born May 7, 1841, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of The Law of Deceit and other works.

Grinnell, George Bird, business president, ethnologist and author of 127 Franklin st., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1849, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1880 he has been president and editorial manager of the Forest and Stream Publishing company. He is president of the Bosworth Machine company and various other corporations. He is the author of Jack in the Rockies and other works.

Griscom, Lloyd Carpenter, lawyer and diplomat of 111 East Seventy-second st., New York City, was born Nov. 4, 1872, in Riverton, N.J. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of captain and assistant quarter-master.

Griscom, Rodman Ellison, banker and railroad president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 21, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president of the Light and Power company of Philadelphia and various other corporations.

Griswold, Casimir Clayton, painter and artist of 262 West Twelfth st., New York City, was born in 1834 in Delaware, Ohio. His best known works are Winter Morning and Early Spring.

Griswold, Lorenzo, manufacturer and banker of Griswoldsville, Mass., was born Jan. 5, 1847, in Mystic, Conn. He is president of the Shelburne Falls National bank.

Griswold, Matthew, manufacturer and statesman of Erie, Pa., was born June 6, 1833, in Lynne, Conn. In 1891-93 and 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Griswold, Sheldon Munson, clergyman and bishop of Salina, Kan., was born Jan. 8, 1861, in Delhi, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been bishop of Salina for western Kansas.

Griswold, William Tudor, geologist and scientist of 435 Sixth-ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 15, 1859, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He graduated with the degree of C.E. from the Columbia university. In 1881-83 he was with the Senola and Durango railroad of Mexico; in 1883-1907 was with United States geological survey; in 1907-09 was with Guffey and Galey; and since 1909 has been geologist for Philadelphia county, Pa. He is the author of Geology of Petroleum and other monographs.

Groel, John Charles, real estate dealer of Newark, N.J., was born March 11, 1868, in Newark. He is president of the United Home Building company.

Groesbeck, Telford, lawyer and poet of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Aug. 5, 1853, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been judge advocate general of Ohio. He is the author of The Incas, the Children of the Sun.

Grondahl, Jens Kristian, journalist and composer of Red Wing, Minn., was born Dec. 3, 1869, in Norway. He has been a representative in the state legislature. Since 1891 he has been newspaper editor. He composed the song Fighting for Cuba.

Gronna, Asle J., merchant, banker and statesman of Lakota, N.D., was born Dec. 10, 1858, in Elkader, Iowa. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' State bank; and has been a United States senator.

Groome, John Charles, merchant and public official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 20, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1905 he has been superintendent of the department of state police of Pennsylvania and captain of the first troops Philadelphia city cavalry.

Gropengieser, John Herman, lawyer and banker of Onida, S.D., was born Dec. 9, 1856, in Vevay, Ind. He is president of the Onida Electric Light and Power company.

Grose, Howard Benjamin, clergyman, college president and author of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 5, 1851, in Millerton, N.Y. Since 1904 he has been editorial secretary of the American Baptist home mission society. He is the author of The Incoming Millions and other works.

Gross, Charles Edward, lawyer of 1 Canal st., Holyoke, Mass., was born Aug. 18, 1847, in Hartford, Conn. He is a director of the Holyoke Water company.

Gross, Francis A., banker of 1141 Fremont ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Aug. 10, 1870, in Hennepin county, Minn. He is cashier and president of the German American bank.

Gross, Haller Albert, lawyer and author of Langhorne, Pa., was born March 18, 1844, in Louisville, Ky. He has been United States attorney for New Mexico. He is the author of Autobiography of his father and other works.

Gross, Myra Geraldine, author of Emmitsburg, Md., was born Jan. 14, 1872, in Newburgh, N.Y. She is the author of The Star of Valhalla.

Grosscup, Peter Stenger, lawyer and jurist of Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 15, 1852, in Ashland, Ohio. In 1899-1913 he was judge of the United States circuit court.

Grossman, G. A., publisher and banker of 116 East Water st., Waverly, Iowa, was born May 25, 1862, in Clayton county, Iowa. He is president of the Waverly State bank.

Grossman, George, merchant and banker of David, Iowa, was born March 13, 1871, in St. Lucas, Iowa. He is president of the Farmer's Savings bank.

Grossman, Louis, rabbi and author of 2212 Park ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Feb. 24, 1863, in Vienna, Austria. Since 1898 he has been rabbi of the congregation of B'nai Yeshurun of Cincinnati. He is the author of The Jewish Pulpit and other works.

Grossman, Moses H., lawyer of 115 Broadway, New York City, where he was born Feb. 18, 1873. He edited The Arena, and was elected president of the Empire state amateur press association. He is now senior member of the law firm of House, Grossman and Vohaus. He is director of the First Mortgage Title and Insurance company of New Jersey and other corporations. He is a member of numerous clubs and societies, and greatly interested in philanthropic work.

Grosvenor, Charles Francis, manufacturer of Springfield, Vt., was born Aug. 10, 1850, in Rehoboth, Mass. He has been president of the Ludlow Savings bank.

Grosvenor, Charles Henry, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Athens, Ohio, was born Sept. 20, 1833, in Pomfret, Conn. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted brigadier-general. In 1893-1907 he was a member of congress.

Grosvenor, Lemuel Conant, physician and author of Taunton, Mass., was born March 22, 1833, in Paxton, Mass. He is instructor in obstetrics at the Lincoln park training school for nurses. He is the author of Our Babies and other works.

Groszmann, Maximilian Paul Eugen, educator and author of Plainfield, N.J., was born June 29, 1855, in Brieg, Prussia, Germany. He was a teacher in Milwaukee, Wis. He became editor of the German-American Journal of Education, superintendent of the ethical culture school of New York City; and president of the German social scientific society of New York. He is now educational director of the national association for the study and education of exceptional children; and president of the department of special education of the national educational association. He is the author of many books and articles on education, psychology, philosophy, history, sociology and kindred subjects.

Grout, Abel Joel, educator, botanist and author of New York City, was born March 24, 1867, in Newfane, Vt. Since 1899 he has been a teacher of botany in the boys' high school of Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of Mosses with a Hand-Lens.

Grout, Edward Marshall, lawyer and statesman of 111 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 27, 1861, in New York City. In 1894-1904 he was judge advocate and major of the second brigade New York national guard. He has been president of the borough of Brooklyn.

Grout, Josiah, soldier, farmer, manufacturer, lawyer and statesman of Newport, Vt., was born in 1840, in Quebec, Canada. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major. In 1896-98 he was governor of Vermont.

Grout, Paul, soldier, lawyer and director of New York City, was born Dec. 20, 1866, in New York City. He served in the Spanish-

American war. He is a captain in the New York National guard.

Grove, James Harvey, college president of Brownwood, Texas, was born Feb. 28, 1857, in Plymouth, Ill. Since 1896 he has been president of the Howard Payne college and is a director of corporations.

Grover, Oliver Dennett, painter and artist of Chicago, Ill., was born in 1861 in Earlville, Ill. He is president of the society of western artists. His best known painting is Thy Will Be Done.

Grozier, Edwin Atkins, journalist and publisher of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 12, 1859, in San Francisco, Cal. He is editor and publisher of the Boston Post.

Grua, Edward T., lawyer and banker of Howard, S.D., was born Feb. 26, 1877, in Iowa. He is president of the People's State bank.

Grubb, Ignatius Cooper, lawyer, jurist and author of Wilmington, Del., was born April 12, 1841, in Grubbs Landing, Del. Since 1897 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Delaware. He is the author of The Colonial and State Judiciary of Delaware.

Grubbs, James W., banker of Newport, Ark., was born Sept. 12, 1865, in Newport, Ark. He has been mayor and is now postmaster of his city. He is president of the Arkansas Bank and Trust company.

Grubbs, Samuel M., banker of Litchfield, Ill., was born Aug. 12, 1835, in Hillsboro,Ill. He is president of the First National bank of Litchfield.

Gruber, James M., railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born March 22, 1868, in Iowa City, Iowa. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Great Northern railroad.

Grunsky, Carl Ewald, consulting civil engineer of 57 Post st., San Francisco, Cal., was born April 4, 1855, in San Joaquin county, Cal. He is president of the American Engineering corporation.

Gudeman, Alfred, educator, lecturer and author of Franz Josef strasse 12, Munich, Germany, was born Aug. 26, 1862, in Atlanta, Ga. He is the author of History of Classical Philology and other works.

Gudger, Eugene Willis, educator and scientist of Greensboro, N.C., was born Aug. 10, 1866, in Waynesville, N.C. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. Since 1905 he has been professor of biology and geology in the state normal college at Greensboro, N.C. He has been secretary of the North Carolina academy; and has made valuable researches in biology.

Gudger,James Madison, lawyer and statesman of Asheville, N.C., was born in 1855 in Madison county, N.C. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress.

Gudice, Joseph Stanislaus,banker of Schleisingerville, Wis., was born June 27, 1866, in Kreuznach, Germany. He is treasurer of the Farmers' Grain company.

Guenther, August Ernest, educator, physiologist and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 20, 1874, in Sandusky, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been assistant in physiology at the Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Physiology.

Guenther, Francis Luther, soldier of 5 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth st., New City, was born Feb. 22, 1838, in Buffalo, N.Y. He served in the civil war and was retired in 1902 with the rank of brigadier-general in the United States army.

Guenther, Richard, merchant, pharmacist, diplomat and statesman of Oshkosh, Wis., was born Nov. 30, 1845, in Potsdam, Prussia. In 1881-89 he was a member of congress. Since 1899 he has been United States consul-general at Frankfort-On-Main, Germany.

Guerber, Helene Adeline, educator and author of Nyack, N.Y., was born in New York. She is the author of Legends of the Rhine and other works.

Guerin, Edmund,lawyer and jurist of Montreal, Canada, where he was born Dec. 25, 1858. Since 1907 he has been judge of the superior court of the Province of Quebec.

Guerin, James John Edmund,physician and statesman of Montreal, Canada, was born in 1856 in Montreal. He has received the degrees of M.D., C.M., LL.D., T.C.D. and K.C.S.G.; and was a member of the Quebec legislature for ten years. In 1910-11 he was mayor of Montreal.

Guerin, Jules, artist and illustrator of 24 Grammercy park, New York City, was born Nov. 18, 1866, in St. Louis, Mo. He has received numerous medals in France and the United States.

Guernsey, Alice Margaret, educator, journalist and author of 150 Fifth ave., New York City, was born April 16, 1850, in Rindge, N.H. She is the author of Under Our Flag and other works.

Guernsey,Frank Edward,banker and statesman of Dover, Maine, was born Oct. 15, 1866, in Dover, Maine. He is president of the Piscataquis Savings bank.

Guernsey, Rocellus Sheridan, retired lawyer and author of 1711 Bathgate ave., New York City, was born April 10, 1836, in Westford, N.Y. He is a member of the bar of the United States supreme court. He is the author of Mechanics' Lien Laws for New York City and other works.

Guffey, James McClurg, merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 19, 1839, in Sewickley, Pa. He is president of the Trade Dollar Mining and Milling company of Silver City, Idaho.

Guggenheim, Daniel, smelter and capitalist of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1856. He is president of the Guggenheim Exploration company.

Guggenheim, M. Robert, mining and smelting of 71 Broadway, New York City, was born May 17, 1885, in New York City. He is second vice-president of the United States Zinc company.

Guggenheim, Simon, capitalist and statesman of 1555 Sherman ave., Denver, Col., was born June 7, 1854, in Philadelphia. In 1907-10 he was a member of the United States senate. He has been a member of the firm of M. Guggenheim and Sons.

Guggenheim, Simon, statesman of 1555 Sherman ave., Denver, Col., was born Dec. 30, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is director of the executive committee of the American Smelting and Refining company.

Guild, Curtis, statesman of 124 Marlboro st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 2, 1860, in Boston. He has been governor of Massachusetts.

Guiteras, Juan, physician, surgeon and pathologist of Havana, Cuba, was born Jan. 4, 1852, in Matanzas, Cuba. He is professor of general pathology and tropical medicine at the university of Havana. He has been president of the second national medical congress of Cuba.

Gullord, Adolph, banker of Iona, Minn., was born Jan. 21, 1866, in Wisconsin. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Gunderson, Gus, banker of Elgin, Iowa, was born Aug. 31, 1859, in Clermont, Iowa. He is president of the Elgin Savings bank.

Gunderson, John G., farmer and banker of Aneta, N.D., was born Feb. 12, 1872, in St. Ansgar, Iowa. He is a large owner of real estate and is engaged in farming and banking. For fifteen years he served as president of the Aneta school board; for four years was president of the city council and for four years was mayor of his city. In 1908 he was elected a member of the state senate; and is president of the board of regents of the university of North Dakota.

Gundry, John Murton, banker of 6903 Euclid ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Sept. 7, 1859, in Wisconsin. He is president of the Lake Shore Banking and Trust company.

Gunn, Archie, artist of 67 Madison st., New York City, was born in 1863 in England. He is famous as a drawer of postals and has latterly gained great distinction as a painter.

Gunn, George M., lawyer and banker of Milford, Conn., was born Aug. 10, 1851, in Milford, Conn. He is president of the Milford Savings bank; and has been a state representative, judge of probate and held various other positions of honor.

Gunn, James, soldier and statesman of Boise, Idaho, was born March 6, 1843, in New York. He attained the rank of captain in the Wisconsin infantry. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Gunn, James Newton, production engineer of 43 Exchange place, New York City, was born Sept. 3, 1867, in Springfield, Ohio. He was with the library bureau of Boston; and developed the commercial uses of cards and invented the tab-card system. He was a lecturer on industrial organization at Harvard; defined the field of production or industrial engineering; and gave the name to and was the first to practice in that profession. In 1901 he organized the firm of Gunn, Richards and company, production engineers and public accountants, of which he is president. He has studied organization and manufacturing in Europe.

Gunnison, Almon, clergyman, college president and author of Canton, N.Y., was born in 1844 in Maine. Since 1898 he has been president of St. Lawrence university. He is the author of Wayside and Fireside Rambles and other works.

Gunnison, Binney, educator, elocutionist, clergyman and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Dec. 20, 1863, in Erie, Pa. Since 1900 he has been an instructor in elocution at the Andover theological seminary. He is the author of New Dialogues and Plays and other works.

Gunnison, Herbert Foster, journalist and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 28, 1858, in Halifax, N.S. Since 1882 he has been connected with the Brooklyn Eagle, being a stockholder and business manager. He is also treasurer and secretary of the Eagle Warehouse and Storage company; and a trustee of the Nassau Trust company and of the Williamsburg Savings bank. He is the author of Two Americans in A Motor Car; Flatbush of To-Day; Out on Long Island and other works.

Gunnison, Royal Arch, lawyer and jurist of Juneau, Alaska, was born June 24, 1873, in Binghamton, N.Y. He is United States district judge for the first division of the district of Alaska.

Gunnison, Walter Balfour, educator and author of 77 Wilson st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 2, 1852, in Abington, Mass. He is principal of the Erasmus Hall high school of Brooklyn, N.Y. He is co-author of First Year of Latin.

Gunsaulus, Frank Wakeley, educator, clergyman, scientist, author and poet of 2919 Prairie ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 1, 1856, in Chesterville, Ohio. Since 1893 he has been president of the Armour institute of technology. He is the author of The Man of Galilee and other works.

Gunther, Charles Frederick, naval officer, merchant, manufacturer and public official of 1018 South Wabash ave., Chicago, Ill., was born March 6, 1837, in Wildberg, Wurtemberg, Germany. In 1842 he came to the United States; and received his education in the public schools. For several years he was a bank cashier; and during the civil war he served in the confederate navy. Since 1868 he has been a manufacturing confectioner; is president Gunther Confectioner and Chocolate company, and has built up an extensive business in Chicago, Ill. He served two terms as a member of the Chicago common council; and in 1900-04 he served two terms as city treasurer. He owns one of the finest collections of Washington and Lincoln relics; and also a collection of historical manuscripts. He is president of the Coliseum; a thirty-third degree Mason; a trustee of the Chicago academy of science; a trustee of the Chicago historical association; and a member of the Chicago art institute; and a member of the Union League and Iroquois club, Southern club and Athletic club.

Gunther, Franklin Mott, diplomat of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 28, 1885, in New York City. He has been secretary to the American embassy at Japan, Paris and Nicaragua. Since 1912 he has been first secretary of the American legation at Lisbon, Portugal.

Gurley, William Wirt, lawyer of 140 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 27, 1851, in Mount Gilead, Ohio. He is general counsel of the Chicago Union Traction company and several other prominent corporations.

Gurlitz, Augustus T., lawyer of 80 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1842 in Riga, Russia. Since 1870 he has been engaged throughout the United States, especially as counsel in copyright, patent and trade-mark causes.

Gus, Uria Cloyd, banker of Guthrie, Okla., was born April 16, 1860, in Juniata county, Pa. He is president of the Guthrie National bank.

Gustafson, Mrs. Zadel Barnes, author and poet of Huntington, N.Y., was born March 9, 1841, in Middletown, Conn. She edited the National Philanthropist of London, England. She is the author of Can the Old Love? and other works.

Guth, William Westley, clergyman, college president and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 15, 1871, in Nashville, Tenn. He has been pastor at West Chelmsford, and of Cambridge, Mass., for a number of years; and is now president of the college of the Pacific. He is author of the Assurance of Faith and other works.

Guthe, Karl Eugen, educator, scientist and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born March 5, 1866, in Germany. He has been professor of physics at the state university of Iowa. He is the author of Manual of Physical Measurements and other works.

Guthrie, Ben Eli, financier of Macon, Mo., was born May 31, 1839, in Charlton county, Mo. He is a director of the State Exchange bank.

Guthrie, George Wilkins, lawyer and banker of 434 Diamond st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 5, 1848, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is vice-president and trustee of the Dollar Savings bank.

Gutru, George H., banker of Newman Grove, Neb., was born Nov. 7, 1881, in Newman Grove, Neb. He is president of the Newman Grove State bank.

Guttersen, Gilbert, merchant and banker of 2201 Scudder ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born May 13, 1859, in Minnesota, Minn. He is president of the First National bank.

Guttormsen, Martin E., business man and diplomat of Christiania, Norway, was born Jan. 23, 1882, in Christiania, Norway. He received a high school and college education; and for six years was engaged in the wholesale paper business in Minneapolis, Minn. He is now American deputy consul-general to Christiania, Norway.

Guy, Charles L., lawyer and jurist of New York City, was born Jan. 6, 1856, in New York City. For twenty years he was actively engaged in the practice of law. In 1894-98 he was a member of the New York state senate and author of the School Teachers Pension Bill. In 1902-03 he was school commissioner; and in 1904-06 was assistant corporation counsel for the city of New York. In 1906 he was elected justice of the supreme court for the first department for term expiring in 1920.

Gwinn, James G., lawyer and jurist of St. Anthony, Idaho, was born July 16, 1868, in Sweet Springs, Idaho. He is judge of the ninth judicial district of Idaho; and mayor of his city.

Gwinner, John Frederick, banker of 249 Spring Garden st., Easton, Pa., was born April 9, 1833, in Easton, Pa. He is president of the First National bank of Easton and a director of other corporations.

Haanel, Eugene, educator and scientist of 184 First ave., Ottawa, Canada, was born May 24, 1841, in Breslau, Germany. He has received the degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. He has taught science in various colleges; and in 1889-1901 was professor of physics in Syracuse university. In 1901-08 he was superintendent of mines, and since 1908 has been director in the department of mines of the Dominion of Canada.

Haaren, John Henry, educator and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 13, 1855, in New York City. He is president of the department of pedagogy in the Brooklyn institute. He is the author of Heath's Writing Books and other educational works.

Haarstick, Henry Christian, merchant and capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 26, 1836, in Hohenhameln, Germany. He is a director of the State National bank.

Haas, George Christian Frederick, clergyman of 245 West One Hundred and Thirty-sixth st., New York City, was born May 5, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1889 he has been co-worker and late editor of German Sunday School Lesson Leaves.

Haas, Kalman, merchant of 27 William st., New York City, was born in 1840 in Germany. He is a director of the American Beet Sugar company and other corporations.

Haas, William David, banker of Bunkie, La., was born May 8, 1867, in Louisiana. He is president of the Merchants and Planters' bank.

Haberkorn, C. H., manufacturer and business president of Detroit, Mich., was born Aug. 26, 1858, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of C. H. Haberkorn and company, manufacturers of furniture; and treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Park corporation.

Haberstroth, Albert, mural painter and decorator of 647 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born July 26, 1855, in Boston. Since 1883 he has been sole proprietor of the business of L. Haberstroth and Son.

Habing, Joseph G., lawyer, jurist and public official of Effingham, Ill., was born Dec. 15, 1862, in Teutopolis, Ill. He has been town supervisor. He is now recorder and clerk of the circuit court of Effingham county.

Habliston, William M., banker and financier of Richmond, Va. He is president of the Broad Street bank of Richmond and various other corporations.

Hack, Mrs. Gwendolyn Dunlevy Kelley, artist and author of New York City, was born Nov. 10, 1877, in Columbus, Ohio. She has painted a portrait on ivory of the Queen of Italy. She is the author of Annals of Ulidia and the History of the Dunlevy Family and other works.

Hackenburg, William Bower, merchant, manufacturer and capitalist of 535 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 2, 1837, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Jewish hospital and home for the aged and infirm Israelites of Philadelphia.

Hackett, Frank Warren, lawyer and author of Washington, D.C., was born April 11, 1841, in Portsmouth, N.H. Since 1900 he has been assistant secretary of the navy. He is the author of The Geneva Award Acts and other works.

Hackett, Richard Nathaniel, lawyer and statesman of Wilkesboro, N.C.,was born Dec. 4, 1866, in Wilkesboro, N.C. He has been mayor of his city. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Hackett, William, banker of Easton, Pa., was born in Easton, Pa. He is president of the Easton National bank.

Hackh, Otto Christoph, musician and composer of New York City, was born Sept. 30, 1852, in Stuttgart. Since 1895 he has been a teacher in New York City and Brooklyn. He is the author of some two hundred pieces.

Hackley, Charles Elihu, physician and author of South Norwalk, Conn. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of surgeon-in-chief. He has translated Stellwag's Diseases of the Eye and other works.

Hackney, Henry Clay, stock broker of 230 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 23, 1849, in Elmira, N.Y. In 1899-1904 he was vice-president of the Chicago stock exchange.

Hackney, Hiram Hamilton, retired banker of 536 Commercial st., Atchison, Kan., was born Nov. 30, 1859, in Fayette county, Pa. He is vice-president of the Blair Milling company.

Hackney, Joseph Malcome, financier of St. Paul, Minn., was born July 8, 1874, in Antriam, Minn. He is secretary and treasurer of the Hackney Land company.

Hackney, Leonard J., lawyer of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born March 29, 1855, in Indiana. He is general counsel for the Cleveland, Chicago and Saint Louis railway.

Hackney, Thomas, lawyer and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 11, 1861, in Giles county, Tenn. In 1901-02 he was a member of the Missouri state legislature. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hackney, Walter Spencer, treasurer and corporation official of Providence, R.I. He is president of the Mecklenburg Land and Improvement company.

Hackworth, James T., manufacturer and banker of 104 West Main st., Ottumwa,Iowa, was born Jan. 12, 1839, in Ohio. He is vice-president of the Ottumwa National bank.

Hadden,Crowell,capitalist of 104 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1840, in New York City. He is vice-president and trustee of the Brooklyn Savings bank.

Hadley, Arthur Twining, educator, college president and author of 93 Whitney ave., New Haven, Conn., was born April 23, 1856, in New Haven, Conn. In 1886-99 he was a professor at Yale university; and since 1899 he has been president of that institution. He is the author of The Education of the American Citizen and other works.

Hadley, Henry K., musician and composer of New York City, was born in 1871 in Somerville, Mass. He has been instructor of music in St. Paul's school at Garden City, Long Island, N.Y. He has composed over one hundred and fifty songs.

Hadley,Herbert Spencer,lawyer and statesman of Jefferson City, Mo., was born Feb. 20, 1872, in Olathe, Kan. He has been attorney-general for the state of Missouri. In 1909-13 he was governor of Missouri.

Hadley, Hiram, educator and author of Messilla Park, N.M.,was born March 17, 1833, in Clinton county, Ohio. In 1894-97 he was acting president of the university of New Mexico. He is the author of Hadley's Lessons in Language and other works.

Hadley, Hiram Elwood, lawyer and jurist of Seattle, Wash., was born Jan. 16, 1854, in Sylvania, Ind. He has been associate justice and chief justice.

Hadley, John Vestal, soldier, lawyer, jurist, statesman and author of 1910 North Alabama st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Oct. 31, 1842, in Hendricks county, Ind. In 1869-72 he was a member of the state legislature. Since 1899 he has been chief justice of the supreme court of Indiana.

Hadley, W. S., banker of 915 West Douglass ave., Wichita, Kan., was born Jan. 18, 1886, in Iowa. He is president and manager of the Citizens' State bank.

Hadley, William F. L., lawyer, banker and statesman of Edwardsville, Ill., was born June 15, 1847, near Collinsville, Ill. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Bank of Edwardsville.

Hadlock, Albert Emerson, lawyer of 63 Wall st., New York City, was born Feb. 9, 1863, in Amherst, N.H. He has been assistant corporation counsel of the city of New York.

Haensler, Arminta Victoria Scott, physician, lecturer and author of 329 Twelfth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 27, 1842, in Kinsman, Ohio. She has been resident physician to the mission hospital. She is gynecologist to the Stockton sanitarium.

Haesche, William Edwin, musician and composer of 85 Avon st., New Haven, Conn., was born April 11, 1867, in New Haven, Conn. He has had much success with compositions; and has taken prizes. He is the composer of A Forest Idyle; Springtime and other works.

Haffen, Louis F., civil engineer of New York City, was born Nov. 6, 1854, in Melrose, N.Y. He has been president of the borough of the Bronx.

Hafford, Ferris S., educator, lecturer and poet of Healdsburg, Ill., was born March 23, 1857, in Fremont, Ohio. He is professor of Greek in the college of Healdsburg. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled The Revellers.

Haga, Oliver O., educator and lawyer of Boise, Idaho, was born Nov. 19, 1872, in Luverne, Minn. In 1898-1901 he was principal of the Boise high school; and has been president of the board of trustees of the Idaho state industrial school. He is a member of the law firm of Richards and Haga; and takes a leading part in educational matters and in the industrial development of his state. He is vice-president of the Boise Title and Trust company. He is president of the school board and a member of the state irrigation securities commission.

Hagar, George Jotham, journalist and author of 273 Montclair ave., Newark, N.J., was born Sept. 12, 1847, in Newark, N.J. He was associate editor of the Columbian Encyclopedia. Since 1886 he has contributed American obituaries and other articles in Appleton's Annual Encyclopedia.

Hagar, Stansbury, lawyer and ethnologist of 48 Wall st., New York City, was born Dec. 9, 1869, in San Francisco, Cal. He is an officer in the department of astronomy and theology of the Brooklyn institute of arts and sciences.

Hageman, Samuel Miller, clergyman, author and poet of Newark, N.J., was born in 1848 in New Jersey. He is the author of Once, a novel; and several volumes of poems, including Vesper Voices; Silence and other works.

Hagen, Hugo Joseph Von, miner and railroad president of Beersville, Canada, was born Feb. 3, 1866, in Germany. In 1902 he built the Beersville railroad in Canada. He is president of the Beersville Coal and Railroad company and other corporations.

Hagen, John George, educator and author of Georgetown, D.C., was born March 6, 1847, in Austria. Since 1880 he has been director of the observatory at Georgetown college. He is the author of several works in German, Latin and English.

Hager, A. L., lawyer and statesman of Greenfield, Iowa, was born Oct. 29, 1850, near Jamestown, N.Y. He was elected to the Iowa state senate. In 1893-99 he was a member of congress.

Hager, Mrs. Lucie Caroline, author of Boston, Mass., was born in 1853 in Massachusetts. She is the author of Boxborough, a New England Town and Its People.

Hagerman, Herbert James, lawyer, diplomat and statesman of Roswell, N.M., was born Dec. 15, 1871, in Milwaukee, Wis. He has been vice-president of the Southspring Ranch and Cattle company. In 1906-07 he was governor of New Mexico.

Hagerman, James, lawyer of 3654 West Pine boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 26, 1848, in Clark county, Mo. In 1884-86 he was attorney for Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway company. Since 1887 he has been general counsel of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway system.

Hagerty, Charles Henry, railway official of Louisville, Ky., was born July 4, 1862, at Columbus, Ohio. He entered railway service in 1879 and was clerk to passenger agent with the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis railway at Louisville. In 1882-84 he was assistant ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, in 1884-90 was station ticket agent, in 1890-94 was city ticket agent, in 1894-11 was district passenger agent, and since 1911 has been assistant general passenger agent of the same road, at Louisville all the time.

Hagerty, James Edward, educator of 94 Fifteenth ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born in La Porte county, Ind. He is identified with social settlement work; and is professor of sociology in the Ohio state university.

Haggard, A. P., lawyer and banker of Dayton, Tenn., was born in 1862 in Murray county, Ga. He is president of the American National bank.

Haggard, Alfred Martin, clergyman, educator and college president of 2617 Kingman boul., Des Moines, Iowa, was born April 11, 1851, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He has been president of the Oskaloosa college. He is now vice-chancellor of Drake university of Des Moines.

Haggard, Fred Porter, clergyman, missionary and prohibitionist of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 15, 1862, in Bloomington, Ill. In 1893-99 he was a missionary of the American Baptist missionary union in Assam, India. He is editor of the Baptist Missionary Magazine.

Haggen, Edward Alexander, mining engineer and editor of Vancouver, Canada, was born March 3, 1860, in Dunedin, New Zealand. He was educated at Dunedin academy and at Otago university. He did exploration work for several railroads, coal and mining explorations in British Columbia, the United States and Alaska. He is a commissioner of the supreme court; and editor of the Mining and Engineering Record.

Haggerty, John Joseph, banker and capitalist of Raymond, Wash., was born Oct. 7, 1858, in Stralham, N.H. He is president of the Raymond Trust company.

Haggott, Warren Armstrong, lawyer and statesman of 1271 Marion st., Denver, Col., was born May 18, 1864, in Sidney, Ohio. In 1903-05 he was lieutenant-governor of Colorado. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Hagood, John Monro, farmer and banker of Enloe, Texas, was born in 1858, in Alabama. He is president of the First National bank.

Hagstrom, Gustavus Arvid, clergyman and editor of 615 East Jessamine st., St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 8, 1867, in Sweden. In 1891-93 he was pastor of the Baptist church at Newark, Ill. In 1895-96 he was editor of the Young People's Paper of Sweden.

Hague, Arnold, geologist and author of 1724 I st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 3, 1840, in Boston, Mass. He is a geologist in the government service. He is the author of Volcanoes in California, Oregon and Washington and other works.

Hagy, J. Lawrence, electrical and mechanical engineer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 30, 1876, in Boyertown, Pa. He was an associate patent expert and assistant chief draftsman of the Electric Storage Battery company of Philadelphia.

Hahl, Arthur O., physician of Clarence, N. Y., was born May 27, 1881, in Buffalo, N.Y. He graduated from the university of Buffalo; and for one year was house physician to the home hospital. He is a member of the Gross medical club and various other societies.

Hahn, Emil, musician and composer of St. Louis, Mo., was born in September, 1854, in St. Joseph, Mo. He is the author of an operetta and a number of songs. He is also the author of the instrumental composition The Forest Flower Waltzes.

Hahn, Henry William, banker of Humboldt, S.D., was born May 24, 1870, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Haid, Leo, clergyman and bishop of Belmont, N.C., was born July 15, 1849, in Latrobe, Pa. In 1886 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Wilmington, N.C. He still fills the office of abbott and vicar apostolic of North Carolina.

Haidusek, A., journalist and statesman of LaGrange, Texas, was born Sept. 19, 1845, in Moravia, Europe. Since 1892 he has been president of the First National bank of his city; and is also editor of the Svoboda, a weekly newspaper. He has been mayor of his city, a member of the state legislature and served three terms as judge of his county. He served in the confederate army during the civil war; and has twice been a delegate to the democratic national convention.

Haight, Albert, lawyer and jurist of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Feb. 20, 1842, in Ellicottville, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been associate judge of the New York court of appeals.

Haight, Charles Coolidge, designer and architect of 452 Fifth ave., New York City, was born March 17, 1850. He designed the new buildings of Columbia college, and the general theological seminary.

Haight, Theron Wilber, soldier, journalist, lawyer and author of Waukesha, Wis., was born Sept. 14, 1840, in Lorraine, N.Y. In 1880-81 he was editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel. He has occupied prominent positions in the grand army of the republic.

Haile, Columbus, railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 8, 1860, in Carlowville, Ala. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad.

Hailey, Thomas Griffin, lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore., was born July 13, 1865, in La Grande, Ore. In 1902-04 he was mayor of Pendleton. Since 1907 he has lectured on the supreme court practice at the Oregon law school.

Hailey, William E., merchant and banker of Keysville, Va., was born July 23, 1870, in Virginia. He is vice-president of the State bank of Charlotte county.

Hailmann, William Nicholas, educator and author of 1072 Deering ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 20, 1836, in Switzerland. In 1894 he was national superintendent of Indian schools. Since 1898 he has been superintendent of construction at Dayton, Ohio.

Hainea, Andrew G., railroad official of Kinderhook, N.Y., was born Jan. 10, 1863, near Medusa, N.Y. He has been president of the Orlando and Winter Park railroad. He is now a director of several steam and street railways.

Hainer, Bayard Taylor, educator, lawyer, jurist and author of Perry, Okla., was born May 31, 1860, in Columbia, Mo. Since 1898 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Oklahoma. He is the author of The Modern Law of Municipal Securities.

Haines, Charles D., railroad official and statesman of Kinderhook, N.Y., was born June 9, 1856, in Medusa, N.Y. He has been president of eighteen street and steam railway companies. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Haines, Helen, author of Raleigh, N.C., was born in New York. She is the author of numerous short stories published in current magazines.

Haines, Henry Stevens, railroad official and author of Eastbourne, England, was born Nov. 21, 1836, in Nantucket, Mass. In 1853 he entered railroad service with the Wilmington and Manchester railroad as rodman; and became locomotive engineer on the Northeastern railway. In 1866-80 he was general superintendent of the Atlantic and Gulf railroad; and in 1880-95 was general manager and vice-president of the Plant system. In 1886-95 he was president of the American railway association. He later became vice-president of the Atlantic and Danville railway. He is the author of American Railway Management; Restrictive Railway Legislation; Railway Corporations as Public Servants; and Problems in Railway Regulation.

Haines, John M., business man and statesman of Boise, Idaho, was born Jan. 1, 1863, in Jasper county, Iowa. Since 1890 he has been engaged in the real estate business; and has been mayor of his city. In 1912 he became governor of Idaho.

Haines, Thomas Harvey, educator and scientist of Columbus, Ohio, was born Nov. 4, 1871, in Moorestown, N.J. He is professor of psychology in the Ohio state university. He is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science.

Haines, Walter Stanley, educator and author of 1401 West Adams st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 27, 1850, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1901 he has been a professional lecturer on toxicology in the university of Chicago. He is the author of A Text-Book of Legal Medicine and Toxicology.

Haines, William Henry, manufacturer and banker of 1136 Ridge ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1854 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Berwyn National bank.

Haines, William Thomas, lawyer and capitalist of Orono, Maine, was born Aug. 7, 1854, in Levant, Mass. Since 1886 he has been president of the board of trustees of the university of Maine. He has been a member of the state senate and attorney-general of Maine.

Hains, Peter Conover, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born July 6, 1840, in Pennsylvania. He served in the civil war. In 1898 he was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers and served in the war with Spain.

Hains, Thornton Jenkins, master mariner and author of Washington, D.C., was born in November, 1866, in Washington, D.C. He is the author of Windjammer; Captain Gore; The Wreck of the Conemaugh and other works.

Haire, Norman Washington, lawyer and jurist of Houghton, Mich., was born Feb. 24, 1855, in Columbia, Mich. He has been prosecuting attorney. Since 1891 he has been circuit judge of Ironwood, Mich.

Hairgrove, William N., lawyer and public official of Jacksonville, Ill., was born April 22, 1866, near Woodson, Morgan county, Ill. In 1908-10 he was a member of the democratic state central committee; and in 1911-12 was city attorney of Jacksonville. He is the appointee of the attorney-general in the inheritance tax matter for Morgan, Pike, Brown, Scott and Adams counties.

Haish, Jacob, merchant and inventor of DeKalb, Ill., was born March 9, 1826, in Germany. He is controlling owner of the Haish Manufacturing company, which is now an important industry.

Hakes, S. P., physician and banker of Tioga, Pa., was born June 2, 1861, in Parish, N. Y. He is president of the Grange National bank.

Halbert, Henry Sale, soldier, educator and author of Montgomery, Ala., was born Jan. 14, 1837, in Pickens county, Ala. In 1900-03 he was colonization agent. He is the author of The Creek War.

Halbert, Homer Valmore, physician of 22 East Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 6, 1858, in Otsego, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been senior professor of clinical medicine in the Hahnemann medical college.

Halbert, Joshua Lucius, banker of Corsicana, Texas, was born in 1869 in Corsicana, Texas. He is vice-president of the City National bank.

Haldeman, Horace Leanders, manufacturer and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 16, 1847, in Haldeman homestead, Locust Grove, Pa. He is second vice-president, secretary-treasurer and director of the Pulaski Iron company and a director of other corporations.

Haldeman, William Birch, journalist and publisher of 517 West Ormsby st., Louisville, Ky., was born July 27, 1846, in Louisville, Ky. He has filled positions from police court reporter to general manager of the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times. He is now one of the owners of those two publications; and is also still editor of the Louisville Times.

Hale, Albert Barlow, surgeon and author of Cherrydale, Va., was born June 5, 1860, in Jonesville, Mich. Since 1898 he has been on the staff of the international bureau of the American republics at Washington. He is the author of The South Americans.

Hale, Albert Cable, educator and scientist of 487 Halsey st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 2, 1845, in Adams, N.Y. Since 1883 he has been head teacher of the physical science department of the boys' high school at Brooklyn.

Hale, Arthur H., lawyer and banker of 1028 Elm st., Manchester, N.H., was born March 27, 1864, in Concord, N.H. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Hale, Clarence, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Portland, Maine, was born April 15, 1848, in Turner, Maine. He has been a representative in the Maine legislature. Since 1902 he has been United States district judge for the state of Maine.

Hale, Daniel Franklin, farmer and banker of Narrows, Va., was born Sept. 22, 1850, in Narrows, Va. He is president of the First State bank.

Hale, Edward Everett, educator and author of Schenectady, N.Y., was born Feb. 18, 1863, in Boston, Mass. Since 1895 he has been professor, first of rhetoric and then of English in Union college of Schenectady. He is the author of Constructive Rhetoric and other works.

Hale, Ellen Day, painter and artist of 1748 N st., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 11, 1855, in Worcester, Mass. She has traveled in Spain and Italy. She has attained success in art in Boston.

Hale, Eugene, lawyer and statesman of Ellsworth, Maine, was born June 9, 1836, in Turner, Maine. He has been a member of the state legislature and a member of the United States senate. In 1869-79 he was a member of congress.

Hale, Frank Judson, manufacturer of Newton Upper Falls, Mass., was born Aug. 14, 1862, in Newton Upper Falls. He is a director of the Saco and Pettee machine works and various corporations.

Hale, Franklin D., lawyer, diplomat and statesman of Lunenburg, Vt., was born March 7, 1854, in Barnett, Vt. In 1886 he was a member of the senate. Since 1892 he has been United States consul now at Charlottetown.

Hale, George Ellery, astronomer and scientist of Pasadena, Cal., was born June 29, 1868, in Chicago, Ill. He has been director of the Yerkes observatory. Since 1895 he has been editor of the Astrophys Journal.

Hale, Harris Grafton, clergyman and author of Brookline, Mass., was born July 26, 1865, in Salem, Mass. Since 1896 he has preached in the Congregational church at Brookline. He is the author of Who Then Is This?

Hale, Henry Stephenson, banker of Mayfield, Ky., was born May 4, 1836, in Warren county, Ky. He is president of the First National bank.

Hale, Irving, soldier and scientist of Denver, Col., was born Aug. 28, 1861, in North Bloomfield, N.Y. He is manager of the Rocky Mountain District General Electric company at Denver.

Hale, John Blackwell, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Carrolltown, Mo., was born Feb. 27, 1831, in Hancock county, West Va. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the Missouri state legislature and a member of congress.

Hale, Ledyard Park, lawyer and jurist of Canton, N.Y.,was born May 17, 1854, in Canton, N.Y. He has been county judge. Since 1908 he has been counsel to the public service commission at Albany.

Hale, Louise Closser, actress and author of New York City, was born Oct. 13, 1872, in Chicago, Ill. She has toured the principal cities of the United States and plays leading roles. She is the author of A Motar Car Divorce and other works.

Hale, Nathan Wesley, business president and statesman of Los Angeles, Cal.,was born Feb. 11, 1860, in Scott county, Va. He has been a member of the state senate. In 1905-09 he was a member of congress.

Hale, Philip,musician and composer of 1087 Boyleston st., Boston, Mass.,was born March 5, 1854, in Norwich, Vt. He has been musical critic of the Boston Post. Since 1897 he has been editor of the Boston Musical Record.

Hale, Philip Henry, editor and publisher of 3550 Vista ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1850 in London, England. In 1880-90 he was editor of the Texas Live Stock Journal, in 1890-1900 was editor and publisher of the Daily National Live Stock Reporter, and since 1900 has been editor of the National Farmer and Stock Grower of St. Louis. He is editor and manager of the Hale Publishing company of St. Louis; in 1910 he published the Agricultural Blue Book, and in 1912 published Book of Live Stock Champions.

Hale, Philip Thomas, educator and author of 1224 Brook st., Louisville, Ky., was born Aug. 18, 1857, in Madison county, Ala. In 1904-07 he was president of the Southwestern Baptist university at Jackson. He is the author of Letters on an European Tour and other works.

Hale, Richard W., lawyer of 60 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 30, 1871, in Milton. He is United States commissioner in the United States district court; and is a director in corporations.

Hale, Susan, author of 39 Highland st., Roxbury, Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 5, 1838, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of The Life and Letters of Thomas Gold Appleton and Fancy Flight.

Hale, William, physician, author and poet of Gloucester, Mass., was born Jan. 18, 1856, in Dover, N.H. He is the author of Shore Life in Song; A Fearless Fisherman and A Dauntless Viking.

Hale, William Bayard, clergyman, art critic and author of Garden City, N.Y., was born April 6, 1869, in Richmond, Ind. He founded the Church of Our Savior of Middleborough, Mass. He is the author of The Eternal Teacher and other works.

Hale, William Benjamin, lawyer and author of 40 Wall st., New York City,was born Sept. 10, 1871, in St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of Bailments and Carriers and Torts.

Hale, William Gardner, educator and author of 5749 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 9, 1849, in Savannah, Ga. Since 1892 he has been professor of Latin in the university of Chicago. He is the author of The Art of Reading Latin and other works.

Hale, William Henry, lawyer and scientist of 40 First place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 20, 1840, in Albany, N.Y. He has been editor of the science department of the Bachelor of Arts Magazine.

Hale, William Henry, physician and author of Detroit, Mich., was born Sept. 5, 1852, in Belfast, Ireland. He has been president of the polytechnic society of Chicago. He is the author of Respiration and other works.

Hale, William Jay, scientist and author of 633 Church st., Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Jan. 5, 1876, in Ada, Ohio. He is the author of A Laboratory Outline of General Chemistry.

Hale, William Thomas, lawyer, journalist, author and poet of Nashville, Tenn., was born Feb. 1, 1857, in Liberty, Tenn. He has been connected with the Commercial Appeal of Memphis. He is the author of Divorce and Land Laws of Tennessee and other works.

Haley, Ora, stockman and banker of Denver, Col., was born Dec. 4, 1845, in East Corinth, Maine. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Haley, Patrick Columbus, lawyer and public official of 79 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 17, 1849, in Saranac, N.Y. He has been mayor of Joliet. He was special counsel of the sanitary district for twelve years.

Haley, Thomas Preston, clergyman and author of Kansas City, Mo., was born April 19, 1832, in Lafayette county,Mo. He fills a pastorate in the First Church of Kansas City.

He is the author of a work entitled The Dawn of the Reformation.

Halford, Albert James, journalist and author of 1622 Twenty-second st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 11, 1851, in Hamilton, Ohio. He has been managing editor of the Post. He is now connected with the New York Sun bureau.

Halford, Elijah Walker, journalist and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 4, 1843, in Nottingham, England. He has been private secretary to the president of the United States. He has been major and paymaster in the United States service.

Hall, Mrs. Adelaide S., founder, curator, art critic and author of 1442 Dearborn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1857, in Westmoreland, N.Y. She is now curator of the New gallery of Chicago. She is the author of Two Women Abroad.

Hall, Almon Everett, merchant and manufacturer and banker of Williamstown, Mass., was born Dec. 6, 1846, in Stamford, Vt. He is president of the Williamstown Savings bank.

Hall, Arthur Chawshay Alliston, clergyman, bishop and author of Burlington, Vt., was born April 12, 1847, in England. He was for many years in charge of the mission of the Cowley Fathers in Boston. He is the author of Confession and the Lambeth Conference and other works.

Hall, Benton J., lawyer and statesman of Burlington, Iowa, was born Jan. 13, 1835, in Mount Vernon, Ohio. In 1882-86 he was a state senator. In 1885-87 he was a member of congress.

Hall, Bolton, lawyer, agriculturist and author of 29 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1854 in Ireland. He is a university extension lecturer. He is the author of Even as You and I and other works.

Hall, Charles Badger, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born April 29, 1844, in Portland, Maine. He served in the civil war. In 1907 he was appointed brigadier-general of United States army.

Hall, Charles Joseph, banker of Pasadena, Cal., was born Oct. 1, 1866, in Charlotte, Mich. He is vice-president of the Home Savings and Trust company.

Hall, Charles Martin, manufacturer and inventor of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was born Dec. 6, 1863, in Thompson, Ohio. In 1886 he invented the electrolytic power for the manufacture of aluminum.

Hall, Charles Mercer, clergyman, missionary and author of Kingston, N.Y., was born Dec. 23, 1864, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1895 he has been rector of the Church of the Holy Cross at Kingston. He is the author of The Life of a Christian and other works.

Hall, Charles Myron, banker of Auburn, Wash., was born April 2, 1855, in Roscoe, Iowa. He is president of the Auburn State bank.

Hall, Charles Winslow, soldier, lawyer, journalist and author of Winthrop, Mass., was born Nov. 2, 1843, in Chelsea, Mass. He served in the civil war. He is the author of Arctic Rovings; Twice Taken and other works.

Hall, Christopher Webber, educator, geologist and author of 803 University ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Feb. 28, 1845, in Wardsboro, Vt. He has been professor in the university of Minnesota. Since 1888 he has been editor of the Bulletin. He is the author of Syllabus of Physical Geography and other works.

Hall, Daniel, lawyer and banker of 4 Locust st., Dover, N.H., was born Feb. 28, 1832, in Barrington, N.H. He is vice-president of the Stafford Savings bank.

Hall, Darwin S., soldier, journalist and statesman of Stewart, Minn., was born in 1844 in Kenosha county, Wis. He has been a member of the state senate. In 1889-91 he was a member of congress.

Hall, Edward Channing, railroad manager of Orbisonia, Pa., was born Nov. 29, 1867, in Davenport, Iowa. Since 1911 he has been general manager of the East Broad Top Railroad and Coal company.

Hall, Edward Hagaman, journalist, lecturer, historian, and author of 60 Manhattan ave., New York City, was born Nov. 3, 1858, in Auburn, N.Y. He is the author of Financial Red Book of America; Ho for Alaska; and other works.

Hall, Edward J., capitalist of 15 Dey st., New York City, was born in 1853 in Perth Amboy, N.J. He is vice-president of the American Telephone company and president of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company.

Hall, Edwin Herbert, educator and author of 30 Langdon st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Nov. 7, 1855, in Gorham, Maine. Since 1895 he has been professor of physics at Harvard university. He is the author of Lessons in Physics and other works.

Hall, Eliza Calvert, educator, author and poet of Bowling Green, Ky., was born Jan. 11, 1856, in Bowling Green, Ky. She is a noted poet and has contributed to the Atlantic Monthly, Scribner's, and the Century.

Hall, Ernest, soldier, lawyer and jurist of 64 William st., New York City, was born Oct. 24, 1844, in London, England. He served in the army and navy during the civil war. In 1902 he was justice of the supreme court of New York.

Hall, Ernest Dixon, banker of Wetumka, Okla., was born May 20, 1878, in Pirtle, Texas. He is president of the American National bank.

Hall, Francis Joseph, educator, theologian and author of 2722 Washington boul., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 24, 1857, in Ashtabula, Ohio. Since 1886 he has been professor of dogmatic theology in the Western theological seminary. He is the author of Kenotic Theory and other works.

Hall, Frank L., lawyer and founder of New York City, was born July 4, 1850, in Bridgeport, Conn. He was the founder and president of the Psi Upsilon club of New York City.

Hall, Frank Leslie, druggist and banker of Clayton, N.Y., was born July 9, 1856, in Mansville, N.Y. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank of Clayton.

Hall, Gertrude, author and poet of 1425 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 8, 1863, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of Far From To-Day; Foam of the Sea; Other Tales and other works.

Hall, Granville Stanley, educator, college president and author of Worcester, Mass., was born Feb. 1, 1846, in Ashfield, Mass. Since 1888 he has been president of Clark university of Worcester, Mass. He is the author of Aspects of German Culture and other works.

Hall, Harry Alvan, jurist and author of Ridgeway, Pa., was born Oct. 7, 1861, in Karthaus, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B. and LL.B. He has been a member of the state senate, and in 1893-97 was United States attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania. He served in the Spanish-American war, served as judge advocate-general, and was promoted to major of his regiment for distinguished gallantry on the field of battle. He has been commander-in-chief of the national commandery, naval and military order of the Spanish-American war. Since 1906 he has been judge of the twenty-fifth judicial district of Pennsylvania. He is a distinguished linguist, traveler and author.

Hall, Harry Hinckley, lawyer of New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 12, 1846, in Rock Island, Ill. He has been attorney for the St. Charles Street Railway company; and has been dean of the law school in Tulane university at New Orleans.

Hall, Henderson, physician and surgeon of Carbon, Tex., was born March 11, 1848, in Concordia Parish, La. He is examining physician for several life insurance companies and various fraternal and patriotic societies.

Hall, Henry, journalist and author of 52 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 6, 1845, in Auburn, N.Y. Since 1882 he has been business manager of the New York Tribune. He is the author of American Navigation and other works.

Hall, Henry Clay, lawyer and lecturer of 1401 Wood ave., Colorado Springs, Col., was born Jan. 3, 1860, in New York City. He has been mayor of his city. He has been counsel to the legation in Paris. He has been vice-president of the Colorado state bar association.

Hall, Horace Lyman, capitalist of Topeka, Kan., was born Nov. 17, 1862, in Logansport, Ind. He is vice-president of the Jensen Manufacturing company.

Hall, James, educator, artist and author of North Scituate, Mass., was born Dec. 20, 1869, in Boston, Mass. He has been supervisor of drawing in the public schools of Springfield, Mass. He is the author of With Pen and Brush and other works.

Hall, James Henry, lawyer and banker of Port Austin, Mich., was born March 7, 1846, in New York. He is president and manager of the Clover Blossom Farm.

Hall, James Hugh Blair, educator, clergyman, founder and college president of Birmingham, Ala., was born Sept. 22, 1855, in Monroe county, Tenn. He is the founder and president of the Zelosophian academy of Birmingham.

Hall, James Knox Polk, capitalist and statesman of Ridgway, Pa., was born Sept. 30, 1844, in Milesburg, Pa. In 1910 he was re-elected a member of congress.

Hall, James Pierre, journalist and author of 23 West Eighty-fourth st., New York City, was born Sept. 2, 1849, in Auburn, N.Y. Since 1883 he has been with the New York Tribune. He is the author of Cayuga in the Field and other works.

Hall, Jennie, educator and author of 4926 North Troy st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 7, 1875, in Grand Rapids, Mich. Since 1902 she has taught in the Francis W. Parker school of Chicago. She is the author of Four Old Greeks and other works.

Hall, John A., banker of Southbridge, Mass., was born July 27, 1869, in Southbridge, Mass. He is a director of the Southbridge National bank.

Hall, John Lesslie, educator and author of Williamsburg, Va., was born March 2, 1856, in Richmond, Va. He is professor of English language and literature at the William and Mary college. He is the author of Old English Idyls and other works.

Hall, John Lincoln, civil engineer and author of New York City, was born Sept. 14, 1860, in Shelby county, Ill. He is treasurer for Purdy and Henderson of New York City. He is the author of Tables and Squares and other works.

Hall, Josiah Newhall, educator and physician of 1344 Elizabeth st., Denver, Col., was born Oct. 11, 1859, in North Chelsea, Mass. In 1903-04 he was president of the Colorado state board of health. He has been mayor of Sterling, Col.

Hall, L. E., statesman of Baton Rouge, La. In 1910 he became governor of Louisiana.

Hall, Lewis A., railroad president of 52 Broadway, New York City. He is president of the Pacific and Idaho Northern railroad and is also president of other corporations.

Hall, Newton Marshall, clergyman and author of Springfield, Mass., was born Jan. 10, 1865, in Manchester, N.H. Since 1899 he has been pastor of the North Congregational church. He is the author of The Critical Study of the Bible and other works.

Hall, Norman Gordon, inventor of Spencer, S.D., was born Sept. 22, 1867, in Canada. He is engaged in drilling artesian and tubular wells in South Dakota. He is the inventor of various mechanical devices.

Hall, Oliver Laurence, merchant and banker of Collinsville, Ala., was born March 9, 1850, in Collinsville, Ala. He is president of the Collinsville Savings bank. He is treasurer and alderman of the town of Collinsville.

Hall, Ora Loftin, dramatic critic of Chicago, Ill., was born July 4, 1877, in Putnam county, Ind. He has been Sunday editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean, and is now dramatic editor of the Chicago Daily Journal.

Hall, Percy W., banker of Des Moines, Iowa, was born March 24, 1868, in Greenville, Ill. He is a director of the Sheldon National bank; and has been mayor of Sheldon.

Hall, Philo, lawyer and statesman of Brookings, S.D., was born Dec. 31, 1865, in Wilton, Minn. He has been mayor of his city. In 1906-09 he was a member of congress.

Hall, Prescott Farnsworth, lawyer and author of 11 Pemberton square, Boston, Mass., was born in 1868, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Reference List of Wills Construed by the supreme court of Massachusetts.

Hall, Ralph A., banker of Brocton, N.Y., was born June 5, 1844, in Sedgwick, Maine. He is president of the bank of Brocton.

Hall, Randall Cooke, clergyman, educator and author of 245 West Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born Dec. 18, 1842, in Wallingford, Conn. Since 1904 he has been chaplain of the House of The Holy Comforter. He is the author of Some Elements of Hebrew Grammar.

Hall, Robert Calvin, stock broker of 240 Fourth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 3, 1865, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is interested in telephone, electric light and street railways in Pittsburgh; and was once president of the Pittsburgh stock exchange. He is one of the largest owners of real estate in Pittsburgh and is a director in a number of banks and other corporations.

Hall, Robert Henry, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 15, 1837, in Detroit, Mich. He served in the civil war; and later in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. He was retired in 1902. He is the author of History of the Flag of the United States and other works.

Hall, Ruth, journalist and author of Catskill, N.Y., was born April 10, 1858, in Schoharie, N.Y. She is the author of The Black Gown and other works.

Hall, Samuel Stickney, actuary and author of 17 Upper Mountain ave., Montclair, N.J., was born Sept. 28, 1864, in Georgetown, D.C. He is the author of Bond Values for United States Bonds.

Hall, Thomas, mechanic, lawyer and inventor of 257 Thirty-ninth st., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Feb. 4, 1834, in Philadelphia, Pa. He invented the Hall typewriter and various other machinist's tools.

Hall, Thomas Cuming, educator, theologian and author of 606 West One Hundred and Twenty-second st., New York City, was born Sept. 25, 1858, in Ireland. Since 1898 he has been professor of theology at the union theological seminary. He is the author of The Power of An Endless Life and other works.

Hall, Thomas F., merchant, railroad contractor, inventor and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born June 23, 1841, in East Dennis, Mass. He has been a representative in the state legislature; and has been postmaster of his city. He is the inventor of the Hall grain distributer and overflow signal.

Hall, Uriel Sebree, farmer, lecturer, lawyer and statesman of Hubbard, Mo., was born April 12, 1852, in Randolph county, Mo. In 1893-97 he was a member of congress.

Hall, William Cochran, physician, surgeon and manufacturer of Coffeyville, Kan., was born Oct. 29, 1860, in Bell, Ohio. He is president of the Good Samaritan hospital and of the Coffeyville Pottery and Clay Manufacturing company.

Hall, William Maclay, lawyer of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 6, 1864, in Bedford, Pa. He has been president of the university club of Pittsburgh.

Hall, William Phillips, manufacturer and inventor of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born Feb. 1, 1864, in Stamford, Conn. He organized and is president of the Hall Signal company. He is the author of Thy Kingdom Come and other works.

Hall, William Preble, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born June 11, 1848, in Missouri. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Hall, William T., lawyer and jurist of Winthrop, Mass., was born Aug. 22, 1841, in Bowdoinham, Maine. He has been county judge; and in 1880 became judge of probate for Sagadhoe county.

Hall, Winfield Scott, educator, physiologist and author of 2431 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 5, 1861, in Batavia, Ill. He graduated from the Northwestern university with the degrees of B.S. and M.D.; and from Leipzig university with the degrees of M.D., A.M. and Ph.D. Since 1895 he has been professor of physiology and in 1901-13 was junior dean of faculty at the Northwestern university medical school. He is also a lecturer on physiology of muscular exercise at the young men's christian association, institute and training school. He is the author of Textbook of Physiology; Manual of Experimental Physiology and other works.

Hallam, John William, contractor of 77 East Bean st., Washington, Pa., was born Feb. 24, 1859, in Washington, Pa. He is president of the Gardner Engine company and other corporations.

Hallam, Mrs. Julia Clark, educator and author of 1323 Pearl st., Sioux City, Iowa, was born Jan. 7, 1860, in Portage, Wis. She has been recording secretary of the Iowa federation of woman's clubs. She is the author of The Story of a European Tour and other works.

Halleck, Reuben Post, educator, lecturer and author of 1154 South Third ave., Louisville, Ky., was born Feb. 8, 1859, in Rocky Point, N.Y. Since 1896 he has been principal of the male high school. He is the author of Psychology and Psychic.

Hallett, G. DeWayne, physician and surgeon of 274 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born in 1866 in Harwich, Mass. He graduated from the New York homeopathic medical college and Flower hospital; and took post-graduate courses in London and Berlin. He has been president of the New York homeopathic medical society; and president of the American ophthalmological, otological and laryngological society. He is surgeon to the New York ophthalmological hospital, the Hahnemann hospital and the Laura Franklin free hospital for children. He is the author of several medical works.

Hallett, Moses, lawyer and jurist of Denver, Col., was born July 16, 1834, in Galena, Ill. He has been an associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of Colorado; and in 1877 was United States district judge for the district of Colorado.

Halley, James, banker of Rapid City, S.D., was born Jan. 7, 1854, in Sterling, Scotland. He is president of the First National bank.

Halley, Robert A., journalist and author of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 10, 1853, in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1904 he has been editor of the Fuel, a coal trade journal of Chicago, Ill. He is the author of Tennessee Archaeology and other works.

Halliday, Joseph Crocket, banker of Point Arena, Can., was born Feb. 28, 1852, in Canada. He is president of the Bank of Point Arena.

Hallman, George Richard, banker of Alvarado, Texas, was born Feb. 15, 1876, in Cedar Creek, Ark. He is president of the Alvarado State bank.

Hallock, Charles, journalist and author of 1337 Eleventh st., Washington, D.C.,was born March 13, 1834, in New York City. He was the founder of Forest and Stream of New York City. He is the author of The Fishing Tourist and other works.

Hallock, Edwin, merchant and legislator of Derby, Conn., was born Aug. 16, 1840, in Derby, Conn. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Hallock, Frank Kirkwood, physician and scientist of Cromwell, Conn., was born Aug. 18, 1860, in Oyster Bay, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been a specialist in neurology and medical director of Cromwell Hall health school. He is president of the Savings bank.

Hallock, Gerard Benjamin Fleet, clergyman and author of 10 Livingston park, Rochester, N.Y., was born Jan. 28, 1856, in Hancock county, W.Va. Since 1885 he has been a pastor in the Presbyterian church. He is the author of Upward Steps and other works.

Hallock, Harry Marion, railroad official of Taylorville, Ill., was born June 19, 1873, in Havensville, Kan. He was educated at Campbell university of Holton, Kan. In 1890 he entered railway service as a telegraph operator; has been train dispatcher, superintendent and since 1912 general superintendent of the Chicago and Illinois Midland railway.

Hallock, Joseph Newton, journalist, lecturer, clergyman and author of New York City, was born in 1834, in Franklinville, N.Y. Since 1880 he has been editor-in-chief and proprietor of the Christian Work of Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of The Christian Life and other works.

Hallock, William, educator and scientist of 3609 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 14, 1857, in Milton, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been professor of physics at Columbia university; and dean of the faculty of pure science.

Hallowell, Mrs. Anna Davis,litterateur and author of West Medford, Mass., was born April 21, 1838, in Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of James and Lucretia Mott and other works.

Hallowell, Edwin, lawyer and statesman of Willow Grove, Pa., was born in 1844 in Abington, Pa. In 1891-93 he was a member of congress.

Hallowell, John White, financier of 147 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 24, 1878, in West Medford, Mass. He is a director of the Galveston Electric company.

Hallowell, Thomas Jewett, banker of 52 Beaver st., New York City, was born Dec. 28, 1869, in Steubenville, Ohio. He is treasurer of the Associated Industrial company and other corporations.

Halls, William, Jr., banker of 2 Beekman road, Summit, N.J., was born Aug. 4, 1858, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a director of the Hanover National bank and various corporations.

Hallwig, Paul, portrait painter and artist of 11 West Mulberry st., Baltimore, Md.,was born Dec. 18, 1865, in Baltimore, Md. He has painted portraits of President Grover Cleveland and other men.

Hallwig, William C., painter and artist of New York City, was born March 25, 1870, in New York. He painted some of the fruit pieces which received special mention at the world's fair.

Halsall, William Formby, marine painter and artist of 620 Atlantic ave., Boston,Mass., was born March 20, 1841, in England. He served in the civil war. His best known works are the Mayflower and Niagara Falls.

Halsey, Charles Storrs, educator and author of 176 State st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 20, 1834, in Cambria, N.Y. He is the author of Etymology of Latin and Greek and other works.

Halsey, Francis Whiting, journalist, lecturer and author of 44 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Oct. 15, 1851, in Unadilla, N.Y. Since 1880 he has been editor on the staff of the New York Times. He is the author of Two Months Abroad and other works.

Halsey, Fred R., lawyer of 22 West Fifty-third st., New York City, was born March 28, 1847, in Ithaca, N.Y. He has been paymaster-general of the state of New York.

Halsey, Frederick Arthur, mechanical engineer, journalist and author of 505 Pearl st., New York City, was born July 12, 1856, in Unadilla, N.Y. Since 1895 he has been associate editor of the American Machinist. He is the author of The Glide Rule and other works.

Halsey, N. Wetmore, lawyer and banker of 40 Wall st., New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1856, in Forreston, Ill. He organized the firm of N. W. Halsey and company, bankers of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco.

Halstead, Albert, journalist and diplomat of Birmingham, England, was born Sept. 19, 1867, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1906 he has been United States consul to Birmingham, England.

Halstead, Albert Edward, surgeon of 31 South State st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 21, 1868, in Ottawa, Canada. He is professor of surgery in the Northwestern university medical college. He is first lieutenant of the medical reserve corps of the United States army; and has been president of the Chicago surgical society.

Halstead, E. E., banker of Ponca, Neb.,was born May 15, 1852, in Port Byron, N.Y. He is president of the Leeds Bank of Sioux City.

Halstead, William Riley, clergyman, college president and author of Frankfort, Ind., was born March 19, 1848, in Terre Haute, Ind. He is pastor of the Frankfort Methodist church. He is the author of Civil and Religious Forces and other works.

Halsted, Byron David, agriculturist, educator and author of New Brunswick, N.J., was born June 7, 1852, in Venice, N.Y. Since 1889 he has been botanist to the Rutgers experimental college. He has been president of the botanical society of America. He is the author of The Vegetable Garden and other works.

Halsted, George Bruce, educator, mathematician and author of Greeley, Col., was born Nov. 25, 1853, in Newark, N.J. Since 1887 he has been professor of mathematics in the university of Texas. He is the author of Metrical Geometry and other works.

Halsted, William Stewart, physician and scientist of 1201 Eutaw place, Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 23, 1852, in New York City. Since 1889 he has been surgeon-in-chief of the Johns Hopkins hospital and professor of surgery at Johns Hopkins university.

Haltigan, James, editor and author of Yonkers, N.Y., was born about 1850, in Ireland. He is the author of the Irish in the American Revolution.

Haltigan, Patrick J., editor and lecturer of 614 Louisiana ave., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 4, 1862, in Kilkenny, Ireland. He received the degree of LL.B. from the Georgetown university school of law. Since 1901 he has been editor of the National Hibernian. He compiled Haltigan's Pocket Manual of Ready Reference. Since 1911 he has been reading clerk in the United States house of representatives.

Halvey, Margaret Mary, editor and author of 1739 Diamond st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born about 1860 in Ireland. She is the author of numerous short stories and poems. She was the originator of the Robert Emmet Day.

Ham, Eben Jacob, merchant and bank director of Lewiston, Maine, was born July 17, 1860, in Lewiston, Maine. He is president of J. B. Ham and company.

Ham, Guy Andrews, lawyer and banker of 24 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born July 8, 1878, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Dorchester Trust company.

Ham, Marion Franklin, clergyman, author and poet of 20 Linden st., Reading, Mass., was born Feb. 18, 1867, in Harveysburg,Ohio. He has been pastor of the First Unitarian church of Dallas, Texas. He is the author of The Knight of Faith and other works.

Ham, Sudney Breese,banker of Mount Vernon, Ill., was born May 23, 1874, in Mount Vernon, Ill. He is vice-president of the Ham National bank.

Hamaker, John Irvin, scientist and author of College Park, Va., was born Nov. 9, 1869, in Elizabethtown, Pa. He is the author of The Principles of Biology.

Hamant, George Rice,pharmacist and banker of North Brookfield,Mass.,was born March 11, 1843, in North Brookfield, Mass. He is president of the North Brookfield Savings bank.

Hamberlin, Lafayette Rupert, educator and poet of Austin, Texas,was born Feb. 25, 1861, in Clinton, Miss. He has been professor of English and expression in the university of Texas. He is the author of Lyrics and other poems. He is president of the southern interstate oratorical association of Austin, Texas.

Hamberlin, William G., banker of Greensburg, La., was born April 24, 1873, in Greensburg, La He is president of the Bank of Greensburg.

Hamblan, Herbert Elliott,civil engineer and author of Woodhaven, N.Y., was born Dec. 24, 1849, in Ossippee, N.H. He is the author of The Story of a Yankee Boy and other works.

Hambleton, Albert F. N., examiner of titles and real estate dealer of Oskaloosa, Iowa, was born Sept.4, 1857, in Forest Home. He is examiner of titles in the firm of Cowan, Hambleton company.

Hamburg, Augustus V., manufacturer and banker of 625 Broadway,New York City,was born July 4, 1858, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Hamburg Button company.

Hamer, George Frederick, musician and composer of Lowell, Mass., was born in 1862 in Lawrence, Mass. He is organist of the First Trinitarian church of Lowell, Mass. He is the author of several songs and other works.

Hamer, Thomas Ray, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of St. Anthony, Idaho,was born May 4, 1864, in Vermont, Ill. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He has been military governor of the Island of Cebu; and an associate justice of the supreme court of the Philippines. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Hamerschlag, Arthur Arton, educator and scientist of 4902 Forbes st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1867 in Nebraska. He has been superintendent of the St. George's evening trade school of New York City.

Hamersley, Lewis Randolph, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1847 in the District of Columbia. He is a lieutenant in the United States marine corps. He is the author of Nanal Encyclopedia and other works.

Hamersley, William, lawyer and jurist of Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 9, 1838, in Hartford, Conn. In 1893-94 he was judge of the superior court and since 1894 has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Connecticut.

Hamill, Ernest Alfred, banker and financier of 2637 Prairie ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 1, 1851, in Bloomington, Ind. He is president of the Corn Exchange National bank of Chicago; and president of the Elgin National Watch company of Elgin, Ill.

Hamill, Howard M., soldier, educator, clergyman and author of Nashville, Tenn., was born Aug. 10, 1847, in Lowndesboro, Ala. He served in the civil war. Since 1902 he has been superintendent of the training works in the Methodist Episcopal church. He is the author of the Sunday School Teacher and other works.

Hamill, James A., lawyer and statesman of Jersey City,N.J., was born March 30,1877, in Jersey City, N.J. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hamill, Russell E., banker of Freeburg,Ill., was born in 1871 in Freeburg, Ill. He is president of the First National bank of Freeburg.

Hamill, Samuel McClintock, banker of Schenectady, N.Y., was born March 27, 1858, in Lawrenceville, N.J. He is president of the Schenectady Trust company.

Hamilton, A. C., railroad official of Laredo, Texas, was born Nov. 12, 1871, in Barrie, Ontario. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Texas-Mexican railroad.

Hamilton, Allan McLane, physician, inventor and author of 950 Madison ave., New York City, was born Oct. 6, 1848, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of The Modern Treatment of Headaches and other works.

Hamilton, Braddin, clergyman and author of 61 East Fifty-fifth st., New York City, was born Nov. 20, 1863, in Stratford, Canada. He was one of the founders of the Toynbee hall. He is the author of The Family of Hamilton and other works.

Hamilton, Charles M., statesman of Ripley, N.Y., was born Jan. 23, 1874, in Ripley, N.Y. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Hamilton, Clayton Meeker, lecturer and author of 16 Grammercy Park, New York City, was born Nov. 14, 1881, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been a lecturer in the classical school for girls at Columbia university. He is the author of The Stranger at the Inn and other works.

Hamilton, Daniel Webster, lawyer and statesman of Sigourney,Iowa, was born Dec. 20, 1861, in Ogle county, Ill. He has been postmaster of his city. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Hamilton, David Gilbert,railroad president of 69 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 10, 1842, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1899 he has been president of the Chicago City Railroad company.

Hamilton, Edward John, educator, clergyman and author of Plainfield, N.J., was born Nov. 29, 1834, in Ireland. Since 1895 he has been professor of philosophy in the State university of Washington. He is the author of The Human Mind and other works.

Hamilton, Edward La Rue, lawyer and statesman of Niles, Mich., was born Dec. 8, 1857, in Niles, Mich. In 1897-1911 he was a member of congress.

Hamilton, Elwood, lawyer and statesman of Frankfort, Ky., was born Feb. 22, 1883, in Franklin county, Ky. He is a successful lawyer of Frankfort, Ky.; and has been a representative from Franklin county in the Kentucky state legislature. He is now a member and secretary of the Kentucky state tax commission.

Hamilton, Franklin Elmer Elsworth, clergyman, theologian and chancellor of Milton, Mass., was born Aug. 9, 1866, in Pleasant Valley, Ohio. He has been pastor of the First Methodist church of Boston. In 1907 he was elected chancellor of the American university of Washington, D.C.

Hamilton, Frederick William, educator, clergyman and author of Tufts college,Mass., was born March 30, 1860, in Portland, Maine. Since 1905 he has been president of Tufts college. He is the author of The Church and Secular Life.

Hamilton, Hamilton, painter and artist of 225 Fifth ave.,New York City,was born April 1, 1847, in England. His best known works are The Sister and Little Sunbeam.

Hamilton, Isaac Miller,insurance president of 166 North Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill.,was born Sept. 6, 1864, in Ash Grove, Ill. All his life he has been engaged in banking and insurance affairs. At its organization in 1900 he was made president of the Federal Life Insurance company of Chicago. In 1896-1900 he was a member of the Illinois state senate; in 1898-1900 was president of the Illinois republican league; and in 1900-02 was president of the national republican league.

Hamilton, James Henry, educator and author of 184 Eldredge st., New York City,was born Oct. 31, 1861, in Greensburg, Ind. Since 1896 he has been professor of sociology at Syracuse university. He is the author of Savings and Savings Institutions.

Hamilton, John L., banker of Hoopeston, Ill., was born May 8, 1862, in Shipman, Ill. He is president of the Hoopestown National bank; and vice-president and director of various other financial and industrial corporations. He has been mayor of his city; president of the American banking association and president of the Illinois bankers' association.

Hamilton, John M., lawyer, banker and statesman of Grantsville, W.Va., was born March 16, 1855, in Weston, W.Va. He is president of the Calhoun County bank.

Hamilton, John Taylor, banker and statesman of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born Oct. 16, 1843, near Geneseo, Ill. In 1891-93 he was a member of congress. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Cedar Rapids Savings bank.

Hamilton, John William, clergyman, bishop and author of 36 Bromfield st., Boston, Mass., was born March 18, 1845, in Weston, W.Va. In 1900 he was elected the Protestant Episcopal bishop of San Francisco, Cal. He is the author of People's Church Pulpit and other works.

Hamilton, Kate Waterman, litterateur and author of Bloomington, Ill., was born in Schenectady, N.Y. She is the author of The Parson's Proxy and other works.

Hamilton, Oscar O., banker of Cayuga, Ind., was born March 28, 1878, in Rantoul, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Hamilton, Peter Joseph, lawyer and author of 58 St. Francis st., Mobile, Ala., was born March 19, 1859, in Mobile, Ala. He has been city attorney. He is the author of Colonial Mobile and other works.

Hamilton, Samuel, educator and author of Allegheny, Pa., was born June 30, 1856, in Washington county. He has been president of the Pennsylvania state educational association. Since 1886 he has been superintendent of the public schools of Allegheny. He is the author of The Recitation and other works.

Hamilton, Wade, clergyman and founder of Palestine, Texas, was born July 7, 1855, in Ashley county, Ark. He has been president of the board of trustees of Wiley university. He has contributed to church literature.

Hamilton, Warren, physician, lawyer and banker of 714 West Jefferson st., Kirksville, Mo., was born July 15, 1869, in Plevna, Mo. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Hamilton, William, lecturer, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 9, 1862, in Saint Thomas, West Indies. He has been assistant United States general agent of education in Alaska. He lectures in the department of history at the George Washington university. He is associate author of annual reports of education in Alaska.

Hamilton, William Reeve, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born June 13, 1855, in Fond du Lac, Wis. In 1898 he became captain of the seventh artillery. He is the author of Our Young Soldiers and other works.

Hamlin, Alfred Dwight Foster, educator, architect and author of 105 Morningside ave., New York City, was born Sept. 5, 1855, in Constantinople, Turkey. Since 1889 he has been professor of architecture in Columbia college. He is the author of A History of Architecture.

Hamlin, Benjamin Nason, banker and broker of 59 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born in September, 1870, in China. He is senior member of the firm of Hamlin, Nickerson and company.

Hamlin, Charles, soldier, lawyer, statesman and author of Bangor, Maine, was born Sept. 13, 1837, in Hampden, Maine. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is the author of Insolvent Laws of Maine and other works.

Hamlin, Charles Gilbert, merchant and banker of Gorham, N.H., was born March 26, 1847, in Waterford, Me. He is president of the White Mountain National bank.

Hamlin, Charles Summer, lawyer and author of 14 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 30, 1861, in Boston, Mass. He has been commissioner to conventions between foreign countries and the United States. He is the author of Index Digest of Interstate Commerce Laws and other works.

Hamlin, Courtney Walker, lawyer and statesman of Springfield, Mo., was born Oct. 27, 1858, in Henderson county, N.C. In 1903-05 and 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hamlin, Hannibal Emery, lawyer and statesman of Ellsworth, Maine, was born Aug. 22, 1858, in Hampden, Maine. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. Since 1895 he has been one of the three Maine commissioners on uniformity of legislation. He has been attorney-general of Maine.

Hamlin, Henry, banker of Smethport, Pa., was born April 9, 1830, in Smethport, Pa He is president of the Hamlin Bank and Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Hamlin, John Austin, business president and founder of 87 Clark st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 29, 1837, in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. He established and is president of the Hamlin Wizard Oil company. He built the grand opera house of Chicago and is the sole proprietor.

Hamlin, John Sears, farmer and banker of Holcomb, N.Y., was born July 14, 1842, in East Bloomfield, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Hamlin National bank.

Hamlin, William G., lawyer of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Oct.23, 1856, in Holland Patent, N.Y. He is a member of the Polk county bar association; and a member of the Woodmen of the World.

Hammack, Daniel Wilson, farmer, merchant and banker of Coleman, Ga., was born Feb. 19, 1850, in Coleman, Ga. He is president of the Hammack, Rish and Sons.

Hammarskold, Johan Gottfried, clergyman and author of 433 Palisade ave., Yonkers, N. Y., was born Aug. 12, 1860, in Sweden. He received the degrees of B.D. and D.D. from the Episcopal theological school at Cambridge. In 1888 he founded St. Ansgarius church in Providence; and the following year took charge of St. Bartholomew's Swedish chapel in New York City. Since 1893 he has been general superintendent of Swedish missions. He is the author of The Mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church Among the Swedes and other works.

Hammel, Walter Frederick, banker of Gladstone, Mich., was born Jan. 31, 1874, in Appleton, Wis. He is president of the Bank of O. Hammel and Son and has been mayor of his city.

Hammell, George Milton, educator, clergyman and author of Knoxville, Tenn., was born July 20, 1852, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is professor of political science and economics in the American temperance university of Tennessee.

Hammer, Ernest E.L., lawyer of 2636 Morris ave., New York City, was born Dec. 17, 1884, in New York City. He has been chairman New York legislation democratic county committee of Bronx county. He is a member of state legislature; chairman committee on resolutions, democratic committee, Bronx county; vice-chairman democratic committee, Bronx county, thirty-fifth assembly district; and chairman democratic municipal court committee, second municipal court district, Bronx borough, New York City.

Hammer, Frederick O., stock broker and financier of St. Paul, Minn., was born Aug. 11, 1865, in St. Paul, Minn. He is secretary and treasurer of the Paragon Mining and Manufacturing company.

Hammer, Thomas Bockius, wholesale lumber merchant of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 15, 1863, in Germantown. He is president of the Hammer Lumber company and president and director of various corporations.

Hammer, William Joseph, consulting electrical engineer and author of 153 West Forty-sixth st., New York City, was born Feb. 26, 1858, in Cressona, Pa. He has been manager of the Boston Edison Electric Illuminating company. He is the author of Radium and Other Radio-active Substances.

Hammett, Frederick W., railroad president and founder of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 14, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1900 he constructed the Philadelphia, Morton and Swarthmore Street railway and became its president.

Hammitt, Joseph Otis, journalist and secretary of 41 Park Row, New York City, was born Aug. 6, 1883, in Kingston, N.Y. He has been connected as correspondent with the Brooklyn Times and the New York Evening Post. In 1909 he was in charge of the literary bureau of the citizens' committee of one hundred in New York City campaign. He is now secretary of the citizens' union of New York City.

Hammock, William Thomas, educator, lecturer, lawyer, jurist, founder and author of Quitman, Ark., was born Dec. 24, 1866, in Calhoun county, Miss. He has been a member of the state senate. He has been county and probate judge of Cleburne county. He was the founder and first president of the Bank of Quitman.

Hammond, Allen Park, manufacturer and banker of Rockville, Conn., was born June 24, 1835, in Vernon, Conn. He is president of the Rockville National bank and has been a state representative.

Hammond, Alonzo J., consulting engineer of South Bend, Ind., was born April 23, 1869, in Thorntown, Ind. He is vice-president of the Home Improvement company.

Hammond, Cassius Clay, banker of Ashley, N.D., was born May 17, 1860, in Dublin, Ind. He is president of the First State bank.

Hammond, Clarence W., banker of 199 Bryant st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born June 3, 1848, in East Jeffrey, N.J. He was cashier and second vice-president of the People's bank of Buffalo.

Hammond, D. Judson, soldier, merchant and statesman of Pontiac, Mich., was born Jan. 15, 1841, in Oakland county, Mich. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Hammond, Edwin Pollock, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Lafayette, Ind., was born Nov. 26, 1835, in Brookville, Ind. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. In 1883-85 and 1890-92 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Indiana.

Hammond, George F., architect of 4220 Prospect ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born in 1855 in Roxbury, Boston, Mass. He received a public school and academic education, studied art and has attained success as a painter, but took up architecture as a profession. As an architect he has designed numerous buildings for Cleveland and other cities; and is a member of several engineering societies.

Hammond, Harold, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 21, 1874, in Rushville, Ill. He served in the Spanish-American war; and in 1907 he was detailed as paymaster in the United States army. He is the author of Just a Boy and other works.

Hammond, Henry N., banker of Smithfield, Ohio, was born in 1859 in Smithfield, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank of Dillonvale, Ohio.

Hammond, Herbert Jay, banker of Clayton, N.M., was born Aug. 23, 1859, in Wardsboro, Vt. He is president of the First National bank.

Hammond, James Gurley, banker of St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 23, 1854, in Ottumwa, Iowa. He is president of the Dakota Manitoba Land company.

Hammond, Jason E., educator and author of Detroit, Mich., was born May 17, 1862, in Hillsdale county, Mich. Since 1897 he has been superintendent of public instruction of Michigan. He is the author of The School Law of Michigan and other works.

Hammond, John Hays, mining engineer of 71 Broadway, New York City, was born March 31, 1855, in San Francisco, Cal. He is president of the Esperanza Mining company. He has been special expert in the United States geological survey.

Hammond, John Henry, lawyer and author of 40 Wall st., New York City, was born Oct. 3, 1871, in Louisville, Ky. In 1899-1901 he was deputy attorney-general of New York. He is the author of Hammond on Taxation of Business Corporations in New York State.

Hammond, John Wilkes, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 337 Harvard st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Dec. 16, 1837, in Mattopoisett, Mass. He has been a representative in the state legislature. Since 1898 he has been justice of the state supreme court of Massachusetts.

Hammond, Lily Hardy, litterateur and author of Franklin, Tenn., was born Sept. 24, 1859, in Newark, N.J. She is the author of The Master Word.

Hammond, Thomas, merchant, banker and statesman of Hammond, Ind., was born Feb. 27, 1843, in Fitchburg, Mass. He has been mayor of his city. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Hammond, Thomas West, physician, lawyer and author of Tacoma, Wash., was born June 26, 1850, in Mattapoisett, Mass. He has been a member of the city council of Tacoma, Wash. He is the author of On Board a Whaler.

Hammond, William Alexander, educator and author of 29 East ave., Ithaca, N.Y., was born May 20, 1861, in New Athens, Ohio. Since 1908 he has been professor of ancient philosophy in the Cornell university. He is the author of The Characters of Theophrastus and other works.

Hammond, William Churchill, organist of Holyoke, Mass., was born Nov. 25, 1860, in Rockville, Conn. He studied music in Hartford and New York City; and since 1885 has been organist of the Second Congregational church of Holyoke. In 1890-1900 he was instructor in the organ department of Smith college; and since 1900 has been professor of music at the Mount Holyoke college. He has given over eight hundred organ recitals in the Connecticut valley.

Hammond, William Robinson, lawyer, jurist and author of Atlanta, Ga., was born Oct. 25, 1848, in Franklin, Ga. In 1882-85 he was judge of the superior court of Georgia. He is the author of The Mission of the Lawyer and other works.

Hammond, Winfield Scott, lawyer and statesman of St. James, Minn., was born Nov. 17, 1863, in Southboro, Mass. He has been county attorney of Watonwan county. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hamner, Charles Wesley, merchant and banker of Gibsland, La., was born Oct. 8, 1848, in Georgia. He is president of C. W. Hamner and company.

Hamond, Richard Henry, artist of 806 Barr st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Aug. 2, 1854, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He studied architecture while with the Cincinnati Bridge company as draftsman; and for twenty-five years has been an expert in restoring old oil paintings. He makes a specialty of portrait painting; received silver medals in 1873 and 1875 and a gold medal in 1877.

Hamp, Sidford Frederick, author of Colorado Springs, Col., was born March 10, 1855, in England. Since 1892 he has been a writer for Youth's Companion and St. Nicholas. He is the author of The Boys of Crawford's Basin and other works.

Hampton, Charles S., educator, lawyer and statesman of Detroit, Mich., was born Sept. 10, 1856, in Medina, Mich. He has been justice of the peace and county superintendent of schools. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Hampton, Gus Honshell, banker of Catlettsburg, Ky., was born March 5, 1874, in Catlettsburg, Ky. He is president of the Hampton Grocery company.

Hampton, William Henderson, clergyman of Ironton, Ohio, was born Nov. 27, 1850, in Frankfort, Ky. Since 1893 he has been rector of Christ church.

Hamsher, William M., banker of Mound City, Mo., was born Dec. 17, 1849, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Bank of Mound City.

Hanan, John H., manufacturer and banker of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 28, 1849, in Ireland. He is senior member of the firm of Hanan & Son, manufacturers and retailers of shoes.

Hanbury, Harry A., merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Jan. 1, 1863, in England. In 1884 he established an iron work in Brooklyn. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Hance, Chas. H., business man and city official of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 11, 1837, in Montgomery county, Mo. He crossed the plains to Denver in 1859 with a stock of goods. He served in the confederate army during the civil war and lost his right arm. In 1885-94 he was engaged in the drug business in Los Angeles. In 1896-1902 he was city clerk, and in 1906-12 was city treasurer.

Hancher, John William, educator, clergyman and college president of 14 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 9, 1856, in Noble county, Ohio. He is the founder of the Black Hills college of Hot Springs, S.D. He has been president of the Iowa Wesleyan university at Mount Pleasant.

Hanchett, George Tilden, civil engineer, inventor and author of Hackensack, N.J., was born Sept. 4, 1871, in Hyde Park, Mass. He is the inventor of several electrical devices. He is the author of Modern Electric Railway Motors.

Hanchett, Henry Granger, physician, musician, composer and author of Pomfret Center, Conn., was born Aug. 29, 1853. He has been director of various musical societies in New York City. He is the author of Modern Domestic Medicine and other works.

Hanchette, Charles D., lawyer of Hancock, Mich., was born Dec. 13, 1859, in Woodstock, Ill. He is secretary, treasurer and attorney of the Northern Michigan Building Loan association and a director of corporations.

Hancock, Albert Elmer, educator and author of Haverford, Pa., was born Aug. 30, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1898 he has been professor of English at Haverford college of Pennsylvania. He is the author of the Passing of the Cavalier, a novel, and other works.

Hancock, Harrie Irving, chemist and author of Waltham, Mass., was born Jan. 16, 1868, in Waltham, Mass. He is the author of Detective Johnson of New Orleans; What One Man Saw and other works.

Hancock, Harris, educator and author of 2415 Auburn ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born May 14, 1867, in Ellerslie, Va. Since 1900 he has been professor of mathematics at the university of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of courses of lectures on higher branches of mathematics.

Hancock, Joseph Lane, physician, artist and scientist of 3757 Indiana ave., Chicago, Ill., was born April 8, 1864, in Chicago, Ill. He has exhibited paintings at the art institute of Chicago. He is a naturalist and a contributor to scientific journals.

Hancock, La Touche, journalist, special writer and author of 170 Nassau st., New York City, was born Oct. 7, 1860, in Shanghai, China. He has traveled extensively in Asia, Egypt, Europe and America; and has written for London society papers. He was editor of the Windsor Gazette of England; and editor of The Sandpiper of Arverne, N. Y. He is the author of A Mesmeric Ordeal; and Desultory Verse.

Hancock, Theodore E., lawyer of 1406 East Genesee st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born May 30, 1847, in Granby. He is senior member of the firm of Hancock, Hogan and Devine.

Hancock, William A., lawyer, jurist and civil engineer of Phoenix, Ariz., was born May 17, 1831, in Barre, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of second lieutenant. In 1884 he was elected district attorney.

Hand, J. L., planter, merchant, manufacturer, banker and statesman of Pelham, Ga., was born March 20, 1851, in Houston county, Ga. He has been a member of the Georgia state legislature; and a member of the state senate. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Pelham.

Hand, William Jessup, lawyer of Scranton, Pa., was born July 26, 1866, in Scranton. He is president of the Nay Aug Coal company.

Hand, William Flowers, educator and chemist of Agricultural College, Miss., was born Dec. 1, 1873, in Shubuta, Miss. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. Since 1899 he has been professor of chemistry at the Mississippi agricultural and mechanical college; and is also state chemist for Mississippi.

Handly, John Marks White, clergyman and author of 415 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 23, 1871, in Winchester, Penn. He has assisted in the foundation of numerous parishes. He is the author of numerous stories.

Handy, Levin Irving, educator, journalist, lecturer and statesman of Newark, Del., was born Dec. 24, 1861, in Berlin, Md. In 1892-96 he was editorial writer on the Wilmington Every Evening. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Handy, Robert A., banker of 106 Broadway, Denver, Col., was born Aug. 26, 1844, in Kentucky. He is president of the Broadway bank.

Handy, Robert Morton, capitalist of Denver, Col., was born Oct. 26, 1869, in Missouri. He is president of the R. M. Handy Lumber company and other corporations.

Hanecy, Elbridge, lawyer and jurist of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 15, 1852, in Wisconsin. Since 1903 he has been judge of the superior court of Illinois at Chicago. In 1901 he was a candidate for mayor of Chicago.

Haney, Dick, lawyer and jurist of Pierre, S.D., was born Nov. 10, 1852, in Lansing, Iowa. Since 1900 he has been judge of the supreme court of South Dakota.

Haney, James Parton, educator, physician, lecturer and author of 500 Park ave., New York City, was born April 16, 1869, in New York City. Since 1896 he has been instructor of art and manual training in the New York City schools. He is associate editer of the Manual Training Magazine.

Haney, John Louis, educator and author of 934 North Eleventh st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 28, 1877, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1905 he has been professor of English philology at the central high school of Philadelphia. He is the author of The Name of William Shakespeare and other works.

Hanford, Cornelius Holgate, lawyer and jurist of Seattle, Wash., was born April 21, 1849, in VanBuren county, Iowa. He is one of the foremost lawyers of the west, and prominent in the public affairs of Washington territory. He has served as city attorney of Seattle; and was a member of the council of Washington territory. He served with distinction as chief justice of Washington territory. Since 1890 he has been judge of the United States district court for the western district of Washington.

Hanford, Franklin, naval officer of Scottsville, N.Y., was born Nov. 8, 1844, in Chili, N.Y. In 1900-02 he was commandant of the United States naval station at Cavite, P.I. In 1903 he was retired as rear admiral.

Hankins, Thomas, banker of Rayville, Mo., was born Dec. 11, 1842, in Tennessee. He is president of the Bank of Rayville.

Hankinson, Richard H., soldier, merchant and statesman of Hankinson, N.D., was born Sept. 7, 1841, in Grand Rapids, Mich. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of first sergeant. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Hanley, Elijah Andrews, college president of Franklin, Ind., was born May 26, 1871, in Prairie Creek, Ind. Since 1911 he has been president of the Franklin college.

Hanley, James M., lawyer and statesman of Mandan, N.D., was born Jan. 6, 1877, in Winona, Minn. He was educated at Carlton college. He has practiced law since 1902 in Mandan; and in 1909-10 was state's attorney for Morton county. He served in the Spanish-American war; was elected a state representative in 1908, again in 1911 and since 1912 has been a member of the state senate.

Hanley, Lawrence G., surgeon and lecturer of 428 Porter ave., Buffalo,N.Y., was born at Derby, Conn. He was the first surgeon of the accident ambulance in Buffalo.

Hanlin,Frank Wilbert,merchant and banker of Charlestown, N.H., was born June 14, 1863, in Charlestown, N.H. He is president of the Connecticut River National bank.

Hanlon, Thomas, clergyman, educator and college president of New York City,was born March 23, 1832, in New York City. Since 1876 he has been president of Pennington seminary of New York City.

Hanly, J. Frank, lawyer and statesman of 2024 Meridian st., Indianapolis,Ind.,was born April 4, 1863, in St. Joseph, Ill. In 1890 he was a member of the Indiana state senate. In 1905-09 he was governor of Indiana.

Hanna, D. J., broker and capitalist of Salina, Kan., was born June 4, 1866, in Coulterville, Ill. He is president of the Hanna-Lupton Mortgage company.

Hanna, David Blythe, railroad official of Toronto, Canada, was born Dec. 20, 1858, in Scotland. Since 1902 he has been third vice-president of the Canadian Northern railroad.

Hanna, Howard Melville, manufacturer and capitalist of 747 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Jan. 23, 1840, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He is president of the Globe Iron Works company.

Hanna, James R., lawyer, banker, jurist and statesman of Greeley, Neb., was born Feb. 21, 1861, in Vinton, Iowa. In 1889-90 he was a member of the Nebraska state legislature; and since 1904 has been judge of the eleventh judicial district of Nebraska. He is also president of the Greeley State bank; and president of the Brayton State bank.

Hanna, John Boyd, banker,cattle man and statesman of Cedar Point, Kan., was born Feb. 4, 1880, in Randolph county, Ill., of Scotch-Irish parentage. He has lived in Kansas since 1887; and is now cashier of the Farmers' State bank; and is also a representative in the Kansas state legislature from the fifty-fourth district.

Hanna, John Venable, railway official of Kansas City, Mo., was born in 1864 in Plattsmouth, Neb. In 1885 he entered railway service with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway, and has filled various positions to chief engineer. Since 1906 he has been chief engineer of the Kansas City Terminal railway.

Hanna, John Watson, farmer and stock broker of Garrison, Iowa, was born Aug. 29, 1857, in Iowa. He is president of the Farmers' Savings bank.

Hanna, Louis Benjamin,banker and statesman of Fargo, N.D., was born Aug. 9, 1861, in New Brighton, Pa. He is governor of North Dakota. He has been a member of congress.

Hanna, Meredith, lawyer of 1420 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 27, 1874, in Philadelphia. He is treasurer of the Pennsylvania working home for the blind.

Hanna, Oliver Samuel, banker of 132 East Main st., Fort Wayne, Ind., was born Aug. 12, 1847, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is president of Nuttman and company, bankers.

Hanna, Philip C., diplomat of Monterey, Mexico, was born June 27, 1857, in Waterloo, Iowa. He was educated in the public schools of his native state; and has filled numerous positions of trust and honor. Since 1891 he has been in the United States consular service; has held consular posts in Venezuela, Trinidad, British West Indies, Danish West Indies and Porto Rico; and is now consul-general to Monterey, Mexico.

Hannaford, Jule Murat, railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born Nov. 19, 1850, in Claremont, N.H. Since 1906 he has been second vice-president of the Northern Pacific Railroad company.

Hannah, Eugene Archer, banker of Phillipsburg, Mont., was born Aug. 5, 1889, in Salem, N.J. He is a partner of the East Fork Ditch company.

Hannum, James Wilson, physician and banker of Ludlow, Mass., was born Sept. 24, 1851, in Williamsburg, Mass. He is president of the board of investment of the Ludlow Savings bank.

Hansbrough, Henry Clay, journalist and statesman of Devils Lake, N.D., was born Jan. 30, 1848, in Prairie du Rocher, Ill. In 1889-91 he was a member of congress. In 1891-1909 he was a United States senator.

Hanscom, John Forsyth, naval constructor of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 21, 1842, in Eliot, Maine. In 1888 he was naval instructor in the United States navy. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of rear admiral.

Hansell, Alfred Wetherill, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 29, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Distiller Securities corporation.

Hanselman, Joseph Francis,clergyman and educator of 30 West Sixteenth st., New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1856, in Brooklyn, N. Y. In 1906 he was president of college of the holy cross; and is now president of Woodstock college.

Hansen, C. P., farmer and banker of New Auburn, Wis., was born April 28, 1854, in Denmark. He is vice-president of the Bank of New Auburn.

Hansen, Christian C., banker of Grand Island, Neb., was born June 6, 1857, in Schleswig Holstein, Germany. He is president of the Grand Island National bank.

Hansen, George, landscape architect and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born April 15, 1863, in Germany. He is advisory architect to park commissions, municipalities and cemetery associations. He is the author of Where the Big Trees Grow and other works.

Hansen, John A., banker of Perry, Okla., was born Jan. 29, 1869, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the Bank of Commerce.

Hansen, Niels Ebbersen, horticulturist and author of Brookings, S.D., was born Jan. 4, 1866, in Denmark. He has made an exploration around the world. He is the author of Handbook of Fruit Culture and Tree-planting and other works.

Hanson, Bert, lawyer of 42 Broadway, New York City, was born July 26, 1867, in Sanford, Maine. Since 1907 he has been third deputy commissioner of police of New York City.

Hanson, George William, lawyer and banker of Sanford, Maine, was born Jan.26, 1861, in Sanford, Maine. He is president of the Springvale National bank.

Hanson, James Christian Meinich, librarian and bibliographer of 1661 West One Hundredth place, Chicago, Ill., was born March 13, 1865, in Norway. Since 1910 he has been associate director of the university of Chicago libraries.

Hanson, John Fletcher, railroad president of Atlanta, Ga., was born Nov. 25, 1840, in Monroe county, Ga. He is president of the Central of Georgia railroad and other corporations.

Hanus, Paul Henry, educator and author of 2 Berkeley st., Cambridge, Mass., was born March 14, 1855, in Prussia. Since 1901 he has been professor of education in the Harvard university. He is the author of Elements of Determinants and other works.

Hapgood, Herbert Jackson, broker and merchant of 305 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1870 in Boston, Mass. He is president of Hapgoods Sales company and a director of other corporations.

Hapgood, Hutchins, journalist and author of Spring Lake, N.J., was born May 21, 1869, in Chicago, Ill. He has been assistant in English at Harvard university. He is the author of Paul Jones and other works.

Hapgood, Isabel Florence, author of New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1857, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of The Epic Songs of Russia; Russian Literature; Russian Rambles and other works.

Hapgood, Marshall Jay, financier and statesman of Peru, Vt., was born Jan. 13, 1850, in Peru, Vt. He owns large tracts of timber land. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Hapgood, Norman, journalist, critic and author of 416 West Thirteenth st., New York City, was born March 28, 1868, in Chicago, Ill. He has editorial control of Collier's Weekly. He is the author of Literary Statesmen and other works.

Harahan, William J., railroad president of 50 Church st., New York City, was born Dec. 22, 1867, in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1912 he has been president of the Seaboard Air Line railroad.

Haralson, Jeremiah, statesman of Mobile, Ala., was born April 1, 1846, in Muscogee county, Ga. In 1872 he was elected a state senator. In 1875-77 he was a member of congress.

Haralson, Jonathan, lawyer and jurist of Montgomery, Ala., was born in Lowndes county, Ala. Since 1892 he has been president of the state supreme court of Alabama. He is president of the southern Baptist convention.

Harbach, Abram Alexander, soldier of Rochester, N.Y., was born Aug. 14, 1841, in Pennsylvania. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of sergeant. In 1902 he attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Harbaugh, James Fleming Linn, lawyer and author of Chambersburg, Pa., was born April 29, 1860, in Lancaster, Pa. He is a valuable contributor on local history to newspapers and the American literature. He is the author of the Life of Rev. Henry Harbaugh and other works.

Harbaugh, Thomas Chalmers, author and poet of Casstown, Ohio, was born Jan. 3, 1849, in Middletown, Md. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled Maple Leaves.

Harben, William Nathaniel, author of 345 West One Hundred and Twenty-second st., New York City, was born July 5, 1858, in Dalton, Ga. He has been assistant editor of the Youth's Companion. He is the author of White Marie and other works.

Harbert, Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton, lecturer, journalist, author and poet of 1671 Raymond ave., Pasadena, Cal., was born April 15, 1845, in Crawfordsville, Ind. She has edited the women's department of the Chicago Inter-Ocean. She is the author of The Golden Fleece and other works.

Harbour, Jefferson Lee, journalist, lecturer and author of 3 Bowdoin ave., Boston, Mass., was born March 31, 1857, in Oskaloosa, Iowa. He is the author of more than seven hundred short stories published in the Youth's Companion and other magazines.

Harby, Lee Cohen, author and poet of Conway, S.C., was born Sept. 7, 1849, in Charleston, S.C. He is the author of The Land of the Tejas; In Earliest Texas; Texan Types and Contrasts and other works.

Hard, Manley S., clergyman of Kingston, Pa., was born Oct. 4, 1842, in Penfield, N.Y. He is pastor, presiding elder and member of four general conferences, and secretary in each.

Hardaway, William Augustus, physician and author of 4500 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 8, 1850, in Mobile, Ala. He is the author of Essentials of Vaccination and Manual of Skin Diseases.

Harden, Percival L., publisher of New York City, was born June 21, 1879, in Wheeling, W.Va. He received an academic education. Since 1894 he has been in business on his own account and is a successful publisher of New York City.

Harden, Ray Walter, publisher of 50 Post st., San Jose, Cal., was born Jan. 10, 1882, in Oelwein, Iowa. He is the publisher of the San Jose Magazine; and proprietor of the Central Printing company. He is the author of several plays.

Harden, William, soldier, librarian, lawyer and statesman of Savannah, Ga., was born Nov. 11, 1844, in Savannah, Ga. Since 1869 he has been librarian of the Georgia historical society. In 1900-04 he was a representative in the Georgia state legislature.

Hardenbergh, Daniel Bailey, physician and surgeon of Middletown,N.Y.,was born March 13, 1866, in Port Jervis, N.Y. He has been president of the young men's christian association and of the Orange medical society.

Hardenbergh, Girard Rutgers, painter and artist of New York City, was born Dec. 9, 1856, in New Brunswick, N.J. He has attained prominence as a painter of birds.

Hardenbergh, Henry Janeway, architect and founder of Bernardsville, N.J., was born Feb. 6, 1847, in New Brunswick, N.J. He has erected from his designs the Plaza, Dakota, Manhattan and Waldorf-Astoria hotels; and also the American fine arts building in New York City.

Hardenbergh, James Edward, journalist, author and poet of New York City, was born Feb. 11, 1869, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is secretary and manager of the New York City News association. He is the author of two books and numerous poems.

Hardin, A.T., railroad official of New York City, was born in 1868. Since 1912 he has been assistant vice-president of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad.

Hardin,George W.,railroad official of Johnson City,Tenn., was born Sept. 1, 1864. Since 1901 he has been vice-president of the East Tennessee and Western North Carolina railroad.

Hardin, James Franklin, banker of Eldora, Iowa, was born Oct. 11, 1852, in Homer, Ill. He is president of the Citizens' Savings bank.

Hardin, Willett Lepley, chemist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 8, 1868, in Lima, Ohio. Since 1896 he has been lecturer in physical chemistry at the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of The Rise and Development of the Liquefaction of Gases and other works.

Harding, Charles H.,business man of Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president, treasurer and director of The Erben-Harding company and a director of various corporations.

Harding, Emor Herbert, lawyer and trustee of 131 State st., Boston, Mass., was born April 30, 1854, in Burlington, Vt. He is a trustee of the Brimmer Chambers trust.

Harding, Frank, banker of 75 North st., Middletown, N.Y., was born Oct. 4, 1858, in Callicoon, N.Y. He is president of the Orange County Trust company.

Harding, Frederick R., banker of Langford, S.D., was born March 17, 1867, in Minnesota. He is a director of the Commercial State bank.

Harding, Harry Alexis, bacteriologist and scientist of Geneva, N.Y., was born Nov. 28, 1871, in Ocohomowoc, Wis. Since 1899 he has been bacteriologist at the New York agricultural experiment station.

Harding, Herbert Newton, banker of Cass Lake, Minn., was born July 28, 1858, in Acworth, N.H. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Harding, John Eugene, lawyer and statesman of Middletown, Iowa, was born June 27, 1877, in Excello, Ohio. In 1904-05 he was a member of the Michigan state senate. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Harding, John Ravenscroft, clergyman and author of Utica, N.Y., was born June 30, 1860, in Washington, N.C. Since 1894 he has been president of Trinity church at Utica, N.Y. He is the author of various works.

Harding, John William, journalist and author of 139 East Thirtieth st., New York City, was born Oct. 30, 1864, in England. He fills an important position on a New York newspaper. He is the author of A Bachelor of Paris and other works.

Harding, Russell, railroad president of St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1856 in Springfield, Mass. He is now vice-president and general manager of the Missouri Pacific railroad at St. Louis.

Harding, Samuel Bannister, educator and author of Bloomington, Ind., was born July 29, 1866, in Indianapolis, Ind. Since 1893 he has been assistant professor of history in the Indiana university. He is the author of Greek Gods, Heroes and Men and other works.

Harding, William P. G., banker of Birmingham, Ala., was born May 5, 1864, in Greene county, Ala. Since 1902 he has been president of the First National bank of Birmingham. He is also a director of the chamber of commerce and of various corporations.

Hardison, G. L., farmer, merchant and inventor of Thurman, N.C., was born Aug. 14, 1858, near New Bern, N.C. He has been a member of the state senate; and postmaster of his city.

Hardison, Thomas S., lawyer and corporation official of Hugo, Okla., was born in 1866 in Georgia. He is vice-president of the Kiomichi Oil and Gas company and has been a state legislator.

Hardtner, Henry Ernest, railroad president of Urania, La., was born Sept. 10, 1870, in Pineville, La. He is president of the Urania Lumber company, ltd.; and president of the Natchez, Urania and Ruston railway.

Hardwick, Thomas William, lawyer and statesman of Sandersville,Ga., was born Dec. 9, 1872, in Thomasville, Ga. He has been prosecuting attorney for Washington county. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Hardy, Alexander Merrill, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Washington, Ind., was born Dec. 16, 1847, in Canada. He has been clerk to the superintendent of construction of the government building at Paducah, Ky. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Hardy, Alpheus Holmes, merchant of Boston, Mass., was born March 14, 1840, in Boston. He has been at the head of Alpheus Hardy and company.

Hardy, Arthur Sherburne, educator, mathematician, diplomat and author of Woodstock, Conn., was born Aug. 13, 1847, in Andover, Mass. He is envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Greece, Roumania and Servia. He is the author of The Wind of Destiny and other works.

Hardy, Caldwell, banker of Norfolk, Va., was born May 13, 1852, in Camden county, N.C. In 1870 he began his business career in a broker's office in Wall street, New York City. Since 1899 he has been president of the Norfolk National bank; and since 1901 president of the Norfolk Bank of Savings and Trusts. In 1902-03 he was president of the American bankers' association.

Hardy, Charles J., lawyer of 141 Broadway, New York City, was born in New York City. He is senior member of the firm of Hardy and Shellabarger.

Hardy, D. H., lawyer and public official of Austin, Texas, was born March 4, 1857, in Athens, Miss. He was presidential elector in 1896; and became secretary of state of Texas.

Hardy, Edwin Noah, clergyman and author of La Grange, Ill., was born March 1, 1861, in Nelson, N.H. He has been pastor of the Bethany Congregational church of Quincy. He is the author of The Churches and Educated Men and other works.

Hardy, John, lawyer and statesman of New York City, was born Sept. 19, 1835, in Scotland. In 1861 he was a member of the state house of representatives. In 1881-85 he was a member of congress.

Hardy, John Crumpton, educator and college president of Belton, Texas, was born Dec. 24, 1864, in Newton county, Miss. He has been president of the Mississippi agricultural and mechanical college; and is now president of the Baylor college for women.

Hardy, John Dudley, trustee of 10 High st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 21, 1860, in Woburn, Mass. He is president and treasurer of the Gowanda Bell Telephone and Telegraph company.

Hardy, John Henry, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Arlington, Mass., was born Feb. 2, 1847, in Hollis, N.H. Since 1896 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts. For a short time he served in the United States army.

Hardy, Rufus, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Corsicana, Texas, was born Dec. 16, 1865, in Monroe county, Miss. In 1888-96 he was district judge. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hardy, Walter Manly, artist of Brewer, Maine, was born Feb. 9, 1877, in Brewer, Maine. He has been a member of the school board of the art students' league.

Hare, Hobart Amory, physician and author of 1801 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 20, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1891 he has been professor of therapeutics in the Jefferson medical college of Philadelphia. He is the author of Practical Diagnosis and other works.

Hare, J. Montgomery, insurance official of 56 Pine st., New York City, was born Jan. 20, 1842, in Princeton, N.J. He is president of the Indemnity Fire Insurance company of New York.

Hare-Powel, Robert Johnston, lawyer of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born May 4, 1855, in Newport, R.I. Since 1898 he has been director and counsel for the Manhattan eye, ear and throat hospital of New York.

Hargrave, Charles A., educator and college president of Danville, Ind., was born May 24, 1858, in Portland Mill, Ind. He is an educator of natural science in the central normal college of Danville.

Hargrave, George W., banker of 124 East Lexington st., East Boston, Mass., was born July 22, 1852, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Lowell Trust company.

Hargraves, David Thompson, merchant and financier of 314 Cherry st., Helena, Ark., was born Dec. 7, 1864, in Helena, Ark. He is sole owner of D. T. Hargraves and company.

Hargraves, Frank Hobart, banker of West Buxton, Maine, was born May 13, 1854, in Effingham, N.H. He is president of the Buxton and Hollis Savings bank.

Hargrove, William C., banker of Pittsburg, Texas, was born March 6, 1863, in Homer, La. He is president of the Pittsburg Cotton Oil company.

Haring, Charles C., banker of Quakertown, Pa., was born in 1852 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Quakertown National bank.

Hark, Joseph Maximilian, clergyman, educator and author of Lebanon, Pa., was born June 4, 1849, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a Moravian clergyman and educator of Bethlehem. He is the author of The Unity of Truth in Christianity and Evolution.

Harker, Joseph Ralph, educator, clergyman and college president of Jacksonville, Ill., was born June 30, 1853, in Durham, England. Since 1893 he has been president of the Illinois woman's college of Jacksonville.

Harkins, Edward Francis, journalist and author of 15 St. John st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 27, 1872, in Boston, Mass. He is on the editorial staff of the Boston Journal. He is the author of Pilgrimages Among Men Who Have Written Famous Books and other works.

Harkins, Mathew, clergyman and bishop of 30 Fenner st., Providence, R.I., was born Nov. 17, 1845, in Boston, Mass. In 1887 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Providence, R.I.

Harkisheimer, William John, soldier of Jacksonville, Fla., was born Jan. 11, 1838, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major. He is president of numerous business corporations in Jacksonville, Fla.

Harkness, David Weild, lawyer and banker of Cold Spring, N.Y., was born in Matteawan, N.Y. He was cashier of the Clinton bank of New York City. Since 1890 he has been cashier of the National bank of Cold Springs on Hudson.

Harlan, George Cuvier, physician and author of 1515 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 28, 1835, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Eyesight and How to Take Care of It and other works.

Harlan, Henry David, lawyer and jurist of Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 23, 1858, in Churchville, Md. Since 1888 he has been chief judge of the supreme bench of Baltimore.

Harlan, Henry H., lawyer and banker of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, was born March 22, 1851, in Noble county, Ohio. He is president of the Mount Gilead National bank.

Harlan, James Elliott, educator and college president of Mount Vernon, Iowa, was born June 25, 1845, in Muskingum county, Ohio. In 1891-1908 he was vice-president,and since 1908 has been president, of Cornell college of Mount Vernon, Iowa.

Harlan, James S., lawyer and Government official of 1720 R.I. ave., Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 24, 1861, in Evansville, Ind. In 1901 he was attorney-general of Porto Rico. Since 1906 he has been a member of the interstate commerce commission.

Harlan, Richard Davenport,clergyman,theologian and college president of 1301 Connecticut ave., Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 14, 1859, in Evansville, Ind. In 1901-06 he was president of the Lake Forest university of Illinois.

Harland, Edward, soldier, lawyer, banker and statesman of Norwich, Conn., was born June 24, 1832, in Norwich,Conn. He has been a member of the Connecticut state legislature; and a member of the state senate. He is president of the Norwich Savings bank.

Harland, William Guy Bryan, physician of 223 South Seventeenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 14, 1869, in Philadelphia. He is an associate in otology in the Philadelphia polyclinic and college for graduates in medicine.

Harley, Charles Richard, sculptor and designer of 621 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth st., New York City, was born March 25, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. Some of his more notable works are Our Mother of Sorrows; Pierrot and Tribunal, in plaster, and In Memoriam, in wood carving.

Harley, Lewis Reifsneider, educator and author of 2432 Norris st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 16, 1866, in North Coventry, Pa. Since 1896 he has been professor of history at central high school of Philadelphia. He is the author of Francis Lieber and other works.

Harlingen, Anton Van, physician of 1831 Chestnut st., Philadelphia,Pa., was born Oct. 25, 1845, in Philadelphia. He is resident physician of the Philadelphia and Pennsylvania hospitals.

Harlow, Frederick E., lawyer and banker of Troutdale, Ore., was born in 1872 in Portland, Ore. He is president and cashier of the Bank of Troutdale.

Harlow, John Malcolm, educator, lawyer and poet of Charleston, Ill., was born Jan. 25, 1858, in Charleston, Ill. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled The Oriole.

Harman, Colfax Burgoyne, educator, journalist, publisher and poet of Oskaloosa,Kan., was born Nov. 24, 1869, near Valley Falls, Kan. He has been editor and part owner of the Jefferson County Tribune of Oskaloosa, Kan. He is the author of Shylock's Judgment and a volume of poems.

Harmon, Carl Edward, banker of Wyman, Iowa, was born Oct. 1, 1882, in Eau Claire, Wis. He is cashier of the Wyman Savings bank.

Harmon, James Bradford,banker of Baird, Texas, was born Sept. 22, 1865, in Oxford, Mo. He is president of the First National bank.

Harmon, Judson, lawyer,jurist and statesman of Columbus, Ohio, was born Feb. 3, 1846, in Hamilton county, Ohio. In 1895-97 he was attorney-general. In 1909-11 he was governor of Ohio.

Harmony,David Buttz,naval officer of Santa Barbara, Cal., was born Sept. 3, 1832, in Easton, Pa. In 1885 he attained the rank of commodore and was retired from the navy with the rank of rear admiral.

Harms, J. H., educator and college president of Newberry, S.C., was born Jan. 27, 1876, in Savannah, Ga. He is president of the Newberry college.

Harned, Virginia, actress of 37 West Sixty-ninth st., New York City, was born Dec. 3, 1869, in Boston, Mass. She made her debut at the age of sixteen in The Corsican Brothers in New York City. Since 1895 she has been leading woman in various plays.

Harney, George Edward, designer and architect of New York City, was born in 1840 in Lynn,Mass. Among the notable structures he has designed are the Commercial Union building and the mercantile library of New York City.

Harnisch, Albert Ernest, sculptor and artist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 14, 1842, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1878 he executed a model for an equestrian statue of General Robert E. Lee, which is said to be remarkable in respect to its simplicity.

Harover, Francis Marion, banker of Manchester,Ohio, was born Jan.20, 1842, in Aberdeen, Ohio. He is president of the Bank of Manchester.

Harper, Carrie Anna, educator and author of Sunderland, Mass., was born in Boston, Mass. Since 1899 she has been teacher of English at the Gilman school of Cambridge. She is the author of The Beau's Comedy.

Harper, Clarence Lee,banker of 715 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 31, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is first vice-president and director of the Merchants' Union Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Harper, George McLean, educator and author of Princeton,N.J., was born Dec.31,1863, in Shippensburg, Pa. Since 1900 he has been professor of English in Princeton university. He is the author of The Legend of the Holy Grail and other works.

Harper, George Washington, educator and college president of Cincinnati,Ohio,was born Aug. 21, 1832, in Franklin, Ohio. Since 1868 he has been president of the Cincinnati college of medicine and surgery. In 1875 he was elected president of the natural society of Cincinnati.

Harper, George Washington Finley, merchant and banker of Lenoir, N.C., was born July 7, 1834, in Lenoir, N.C. He is president of the Bank of Lenoir.

Harper, Henry Winston, educator of 2216 Rio Grande st., Austin,Texas, was born Sept. 20, 1849, in Boonville, Mo. Since 1903 he has been professor of chemistry in the university of Texas.

Harper, Mrs. Ida Husted, journalist and author of New York City, was born in Fairfield, Ind. For five years she was editor of The New York Sun. She is the author of Life and Work of Susan B. Anthony and other works.

Harper, John Bell, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 16, 1848, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Southwark National bank.

Harper, Joseph Henry, publisher of Franklin square, New York City, was born June 23, 1850, in New York City. He is a grandson of Fletcher Harper, one of the founders of Harper and Brothers. He was educated in a military school in Germany and at Fay's school of Newport, R.I. He learned the trade of a compositor and successively the practical work of each department; in 1877 became a partner of Harper and Brothers, and was placed in charge of the literary and periodical department. He is prominent in the literary and art life of New York City.

Harper, Joseph Nelson, educator and scientist of Clemson college, S.C., was born March 11, 1874, in Louisville, Miss. In 1898-1905 he was agriculturist to the Kentucky agricultural experiment station.

Harper, Riley, banker of Hambleton, W. Va., was born in Harperton, W.Va. He is president of the Tucker County bank.

Harper, Robert Almer, scientist and botanist of New York City, was born Jan.21, 1862, in Le Claire, Iowa. Since 1911 he has been professor of botany in the Columbia university.

Harper, Robert Francis, educator, assyriologist and author of Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 18, 1864, in New Concord, Ohio. Since 1892 he has been professor of semitic languages at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Babylonian and Assyrian literature and other works.

Harper, Samuel A., lawyer and statesman of 8 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 9, 1855, in Hazel Green, Wis. In 1890-94 he was United States attorney for the western district of Wisconsin.

Harper, William St. John, illustrator and artist of 367 High st.,Newark,N.J., was born Sept. 8, 1851, in Rheinbeck, N.Y. In 1881-83 he was president of the art student's league and received the Clark prize in 1892 for his painting entitled Autumn.

Harrell, M. K., banker of Celeste, Texas, was born Feb. 18, 1857, in Celeste, Texas. He is president of the First National bank.

Harrell, Mrs. Sarah Carmichael, temperance reformer of Brookville, Ind., was born Jan. 8, 1844, in Brookville, Ind. She served two years as superintendent of the department of scientific temperance in the public schools.

Harrigan,Edward, actor and author of 310 Park place, Brooklyn,N.Y., was born in 1845 in New York City. He is the author of Squatter Sovereignty; Cordelia's Aspirations and other plays.

Harrigan, George M., financier and banker of Lowell, Mass., was born Aug. 26, 1862, in Lowell, Mass. He is president of the Lowell Trust company.

Harriman, Edward Avery, lawyer and author of 72 Edgehill road, New Haven, Conn., was born Dec.31, 1869, in Framingham,Mass. In 1892-1901 he was professor in the northwestern university law school at Chicago. He is the author of Law of Contracts.

Harriman, Karl Edwin, journalist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 29, 1875, in Ann Arbor, Mich. He is associate editor of The Pilgrim. He is the author of Ann Arbor Tales and The Home Builders.

Harrington,Andrew John,banker of Wentworth, S.D., was born Nov. 30, 1862, in Walford, Iowa. He is vice-president of the Farmers' State bank of Carter, S.D.

Harrington, Charles Edward,educator,clergyman and author of Concord,N.H., was born Oct. 5, 1846, in Concord, N.H. In 1881 he was chaplain of the legislature of New Hampshire. He is the author of The Draft of Young Men in Relation to the Churches.

Harrington, Charles Medbury, grain merchant and capitalist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 11, 1855, in Berlin, N.Y. He is president of the Van Dusen-Harrington company; president of the National Elevator company; and president of the Crescent Elevator company. He has been president of the Minneapolis chamber of commerce.

Harrington, Henry Hill, educator and scientist of Kingsville,Texas, was born in Beuna Vista, Miss. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S. and LL.D. In 1888-1905 he was professor of chemistry and mineralogy in the Texas college, and in 1905-08 was president of that institution. In 1908-11 he was director of the Texas experiment stations, and since 1911 has been agricultural director of the Frisco Railway lines.

Harrington, John Walker, journalist and author of 226 West Seventy-eighth st., New York City, was born July 8, 1868, in Plattsburgh, Mo. He is now on the staff of the New York Herald. He is the author of The Jumping Kangaroo and other works.

Harrington, Karl Pomeroy, educator, musician and author of Middletown, Conn., was born June 13, 1861, in Somersworth, N. H. Since 1889 he has been organist in Methodist Episcopal churches. Since 1905 he has been professor of Latin in the Wesleyan university at Middletown. He is the author of Greek and Roman Mythology and other works.

Harrington, Mark Walrod, educator, scientist, astronomer,college president and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Aug. 18, 1848, in Sycamore, Ill. He has been professor of astronomy in the university of Michigan. He is the author of The Analysis of Plants and other works.

Harrington, Purnell Frederick, naval officer of Yonkers, N.Y., was born June 6, 1844, in Dover, Del. In 1863 he joined the United States navy as an ensign. In 1903-06 he was commander of the navy yard at Norfolk, Va.; and was retired in 1906.

Harrington,William Edmund, lawyer,banker and statesman of Hutchinson, Minn., was born July 2, 1860, in Hutchinson, Minn. In 1903-07 he was a member of the Minnesota state senate. He is president of the Citizens' bank of Hutchinson.

Harrington, Zina G., physician and banker of Mankato, Minn., was born Aug. 30, 1830, in Londonderry, Vt. He is president of the Mankato State bank.

Harris, Abram Winegardner, educator and college president of 1745 Chicago ave., Evanston, Ill., was born Nov. 7, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of the university of Maine. He is now president of the northwestern university of Chicago.

Harris, Addison C., lawyer, college president and diplomat of Indianapolis, Ind., was born in 1840 in Wayne county, Ind. In 1877-79 he was a member of the Indiana state senate. He is now president of the Indiana law school.

Harris, Albert Hall, lawyer and railway official of New York City, was born July 4, 1861, in Rochester, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway company and various other railroad companies.

Harris, Andrew Lintner, soldier, farmer, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Eaton, Ohio, was born Nov. 17, 1835, in Butler county, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He has been a member of the Ohio state senate; and a state representative. He has been governor of Ohio.

Harris, Calvin Thomas, farmer and banker of Monticello, Ark., was born Aug. 22, 1863, in Drew county, Ark. He is president of the Monticello Bank and Trust company.

Harris, Charles Joseph, capitalist of Dillsboro, N.C., was born Sept. 11, 1853, in Putnam, Conn. He is president of the Harris Kaolin company.

Harris, Charles K., musician and composer of 31 West Thirty-first st., New York City, was born May 1, 1865, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He has composed over a hundred songs; and wrote After the Ball. He is at the head of a large publishing company.

Harris, Cicero Richardson, clergyman and bishop of Salisbury, N.C., was born Aug. 25, 1844, in Fayetteville, N.C. In 1882-88 he was professor of mathematics in the Livingston college. In 1888 he was bishop at Newbern, N.C.

Harris, Cicero Willis, journalist and author of Henderson, N.C., was born Jan. 6, 1847, near Henderson, N.C. Since 1880 he has been engaged in general newspaper correspondence. He is the author of A Glance at Government; and Sectional Trouble.

Harris, Frank Burlingame, journalist and author of Omaha, Neb., was born in New York City. He is the author of The Road to Ridgely's.

Harris, George, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Amherst,Mass., was born in April, 1844, in East Machias, Maine. He has been editor of The Andover Review. Since 1899 he has been president of Amherst college. He is the author of Hymns of the Faith and other works.

Harris, George B., railroad president of 226 West Adams st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1841 in Brookline, Mass. Since 1901 he has been president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

Harris, George B., banker of 14 State st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1864 in Boston, Mass. He is a partner of Blake Brothers and company.

Harris, George William, librarian and bibliographer of 3 Grove place, Ithaca, N.Y.,was born Dec. 18, 1849, in Canada. Since 1890 he has been librarian of Cornell university. He is editor of the Library Bulletin of Cornell university.

Harris, Henry Wilson, banker of Sedalia, Mo., was born July 24, 1848, in Sherburn, Ky. He is president of the Third National bank.

Harris, Hugh J., banker of Corbin, Ky., was born Jan. 11, 1868, in Kentucky. He is president of the First National bank.

Harris, Ira Francis, banker of Nashua, N. H., was born Nov. 8, 1855, in Nashua, N.H. He is cashier of the Indian Head National bank.

Harris, James Arthur, biologist and scientist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 29, 1880, in Plantsville, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been librarian of the Missouri botanical garden. He is also an instructor in biology in the Washington university at St. Louis.

Harris, James H., merchant and banker of 20 East Patrick st., Frederick,Md., was born in 1852 in Frederick county, Md. He is vice-president of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank.

Harris, John Andrews, educator,clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 15, 1834, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1864 he has been rector of St. Paul's church of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Principle of Agnosticism Applied Through Evidences of Christianity.

Harris, John Charles, lawyer of Houston, Texas, was born in 1860 in New York. He is a director and attorney of the Otis Elevator company of Texas and various other corporations.

Harris, John Howard, educator and college president of Lewisburg, Pa., was born in 1847 in Indiana, Pa. He founded and was principal of the Keystone Academy of Pennsylvania. Since 1889 he has been president of Bucknell university at Lewisburg.

Harris, Joseph Smith, railroad president and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 29, 1836, in Chester county, Pa. Since 1893 he has been president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad. He is the author of Record of the Harris Family and other works.

Harris, Linnie Sarah, litterateur and author of East Machias, Maine, was born Jan. 15, 1868, in East Machias, Maine. She is the author of Bertha's Summer Boarders; The Young Capitalist and Sweet Peggy.

Harris, Maurice Henry, clergyman and author of 254 West One Hundred and Third st., New York City, was born Nov. 9, 1859, in London, England. Since 1883 he has been rabbi of the temple Israel of Harlem, N.Y. He is the author of People of the Book and other works.

Harris, Merriman Colbert, soldier, clergyman, bishop and author of Aoyama, Tokyo, Japan, was born July 9, 1846, in Beallsville, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been Methodist Episcopal bishop of Japan and Korea. He is the author of One Hundred Years of Missions and other works.

Harris,Michael, statesman of Harris,Mich., was born Sept. 19, 1852, in Ireland. He has been supervisor of Harris township; and has been a representative in the state legislature.

Harris, Miriam Coles, writer and author of New York City, was born July 7, 1834, in Dosoris, L.I., N.Y. She was educated at St. Mary's hall of Burlington, N.J., and at Mme. Canada's school of New York City. She is the author of Rutledge; Richard Vandermarck; The Sutherlands; St. Philip's; Happy-Go-Lucky; Missy; Frank Warrington; A Perfect Adonis; Phoebe; An Utter Failure; Louie's Last Term at St. Mary's; The Rosary for Lent, a compilation; Dear Feast of Lent; A Corner of Spain; and the Tents of Wickedness.

Harris, Norman Wait, founder and banker of 111 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug.15, 1846, in Berkshire county,Mass. Since 1907 he has been president of the Harris Trust and Savings bank of Chicago.

Harris,Overton,farmer and banker of Harris, Mo., was born July 3, 1856, in Harris, Mo. He is president of the Harris Banking company.

Harris, Robert T.,banker of Tonopah,Nev., was born Feb. 27, 1876, in Ogden, Utah. He is vice-president of the Nevada First National bank.

Harris, Rollin Arthur, mathematician and scientist of Washington,D.C., was born April 18, 1863, in Randolph, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been mathematician in the United States coast and geodetic survey.

Harris, Samuel Rogers, banker of Henderson, N.C., was born Sept. 11, 1853, in Putnam, Conn. He is president of the First National bank.

Harris, Thomas A., farmer and banker of Prairie Home, Mo., was born Jan. 8, 1839, in Cooper county, Mo. He is president of the Prairie Home bank.

Harris, Thomas Jefferson,physician of 117 East Fortieth st., New York City, was born July 25, 1865, in Claremont, N.H. He is adjunct professor of diseases of the nose and throat in the New York post-graduate medical college and school.

Harris, Thomas Le Grand, educator, banker and author of Sheridan, Ind., was born in 1863 in Hamilton county, Ind. He is an instructor in history in the Indiana university. He is the author of The Trent Affair and Relations with England at the Beginning of the Civil War.

Harris, Uriah Rose, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 14, 1849, in Columbus, Ind. Since 1865 he has been a naval officer, now retired as rear-admiral.

Harris,Victor,educator, musician and composer of 140 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born April 27, 1869, in New York City. He has published over fifty compositions, mostly songs. He now conducts St. Cecilia's club and the Wednesday morning singing club.

Harris,William Christopher,banker of Fulton, Mo., was born Aug. 15, 1860, in Callaway county, Mo. He is president of the Callaway bank.

Harris, William Hamilton, lawyer of 258 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1856 in Delaware, Ohio. He is a director of the Manhattan Refrigerating company and other corporations.

Harris, William John, physician and author of 3514 Lucas ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born June 17, 1852, in Shrewsbury, England. He is surgeon to the Good Samaritan and Christian hospitals of St. Louis. He is the author of Alcohol, Its Rational Use, and other works.

Harris, William Laurel, artist of 423 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born Feb. 18, 1870, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been president of the New York municipal art society, and is now a director of the fine arts federation of New York. His best known works are Our Lady of the Lake; and The Crucifixion, with thirty other large mural paintings with the entire decorative scheme of the Paulist church in New York City.

Harris, William Richard, clergyman and author of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born March 10, 1847, in Ireland. He is the author of Early Missions in Western Canada and other works.

Harris, William Victor, musician and composer of New York City, was born April 27, 1860, in New York City. He is a vocal instructor, accompanist and composer of New York City. He is the author of several songs and an operetta.

Harris, William Welton, editor of Yonkers, N.Y., was born Feb. 10, 1866, in Hudson, Mich. Since 1907 he has been Sunday editor of the New York Herald.

Harris, Willis Overton, lawyer and banker of Louisville, Ky., was born Feb. 5, 1847, in Powhatan county, Va. He is a director of the Citizens' National bank.

Harrison, Alfred Craven, manufacturer and director of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 20, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa. He graduated with the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from the university of Pennsylvania. He served in the Philadelphia city cavalry during the emergency campaign. He entered business as a sugar refiner. He is a director of the Philadelphia National bank, the North Pennsylvania Railroad company and other corporations. He is manager of the merchants' fund.

Harrison, Mrs. Belle Richardson, educator and poet of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born Oct. 20, 1856, in Camden, Ala. She is the author of a volume of poems.

Harrison, Birge, painter and artist of Bearsville, N.Y., was born Oct. 28, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is represented in the public museums of Marseilles, Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis. He is widely known as the painter of snow.

Harrison, Mrs. Carter H., author of 607 Rush st., Chicago, Ill. She is the author of The Moon Princess and other works.

Harrison, Carter Henry, lawyer, public official and author of 607 Rush st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 23, 1860, in Chicago, Ill. In 1897-1905 and since 1911 he has been mayor of Chicago.

Harrison, Caskie, educator and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Oct. 24, 1848, in Richmond, Va. He is head master of the Brooklyn Latin school. He is the author of Odes of Horace, in English verse, and other works.

Harrison, Charles Custis, retired manufacturer of 400 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 3, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been a member of the Franklin Sugar Refining company.

Harrison, Charles James, soldier and banker of Somerset, Pa., was born Aug. 4, 1841, in Wheeling, W.Va. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. Since 1890 he has been president of the Somerset County National bank.

Harrison, Mrs. Constance Cary, author of Bar Harbor, Maine, was born April 25, 1848, in Fairfax county, Va. She is the author of Story of Helen Troy; Bar Harbor Days; A Bachelor Maid and other works.

Harrison, David Ruffin, banker of Herrin, Ill., was born Oct. 15, 1834, in Herrin, Ill. He has been postmaster thirty-three years. He is president of the First National bank of Herrin.

Harrison, Mrs. Edith Ogden, author of 607 Rush st., Chicago, Ill., was born in New Orleans, La. She is the author of Prince Silver Wings; Star Fairies and Moon Princess.

Harrison, Fairfax, railroad president of 608 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 13, 1869, in New York, N.Y. Since 1910 he has been president of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railroad.

Harrison, George Billings, banker of Glasgow, Mo., was born Feb. 16, 1844, in Howard county, Mo. He is treasurer of the Glasgow Canning company.

Harrison, George Burwell, lawyer and banker of Boyce, Va., was born Dec. 28, 1849, in Berkeley, Va. He is president of the Boyce State bank.

Harrison, George M., lawyer and jurist of Staunton, Va., was born Feb. 14, 1847, in Staunton, Va. In 1900-10 he was associate justice of the state supreme court of Virginia.

Harrison, George Paul, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Opelika, Ala., was born March 19, 1841, near Savannah, Ga. He served in the confederate army during the civil war and was promoted to brigadier-general. In 1875 he was a member of the Alabama state constitutional convention, served two terms as state senator and in 1882-84 was president of the state senate. He served four years as a member of congress; and has been president of the Alabama state bar association.

Harrison, H. K., banker of Brenham, Texas, was born in 1846 in Selma, Ala. He is president of the Washington County State bank.

Harrison, Henri, bibliographer and author of New York City, was born in 1830 in France. He is the author of Christophe Colombe; Jean et Sebastian Cabot and other works.

Harrison, James Albert, educator, philologist and author of Charlotteville, Va., was born Aug. 21, 1848, in Pass Christian, Miss. Since 1876 he has been professor of languages at Washington and Lee university and university of Virginia. He is the author of A Group of Poets and Their Haunts and other works.

Harrison, Joseph Le Roy, journalist, librarian and poet of Northampton, Mass., was born Oct. 12, 1862, in North Adams, Mass. In 1900 he was in charge of the exhibit of the American library association at the Paris exposition. He is the author of With Pipe and Book and other works.

Harrison, Orlando, horticulturist and statesman of Berlin, Md., was born in Delaware. He has been vice-president of the Maryland state horticultural society; vice-president of the American association of nurserymen and president of the Peninsula horticultural society. He is now vice-president of the Exchange and Savings bank of Berlin; partner in the nursery firm of J. G. Harrison and Sons, the largest growers of peach and apple trees in the United States; and is also interested in the largest apple orchard in Maryland planted in Washington county. He is now serving his third term as mayor of Berlin; and is also a democratic member of the Maryland state house of delegates.

Harrison, Peleg Dennis, statesman and author of Concord, N. H., was born May 30, 1843, in Tiverton, R. I. In 1889 he was a member of the New Hampshire house of representatives. He is the author of The Stars and Stripes and other American Flags.

Harrison,Ralph Chandler,lawyer and jurist of 1998 Vallejo st., San Francisco, Cal., was born in Cornwall Bridge, Conn. In 1891-1902 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of California.

Harrison, Stephen J., retired banker and real estate dealer of 3940 Densmore ave.,New York City, was born Sept. 24, 1855, in Johnstown, Pa. In 1900 he purchased the townsite of Sunnyside, Wash., in 1901 organized the Sunnyside bank and was its president until 1910. He is now president of the Benton Land company of Washington.

Harrison, T. Alexander, painter and artist of 6 Rue Valde Grace, Paris, France, was born Jan. 17, 1853, in Philadelphia,Pa. Among his awards are a temple silver medal from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and a gold medal from the same academy in 1894.

Harrison, Thomas Perrin, educator of Davidson, N. C., was born Oct. 11, 1864, in Abbeville, S. C. Since 1895 he has been professor of English in Davidson college.

Harrison, Thomas Skelton, manufacturer and capitalist of 1520 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 19, 1837, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war. He has been president of Manufacturing Chemists' association.

Harrison, Wallace K., physician of 159 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 11, 1848, in Bethlehem, Conn. He is supreme medical examiner of several fraternal insurance societies.

Harrison, William Henry, educator and college president of Russellville, Ky., was born March 11, 1869, in Richmond, Va. He has been principal of the Franklin academy of Virginia. He is now president of Bethel college of Russellville.

Harrison, Zadok Daniel, lawyer and jurist of Atlanta, Ga., was born Nov. 26, 1842, in Randolph county, Ga. Since 1907 he has been an associate justice of the State Supreme Court of Georgia.

Harrity, William Francis, lawyer and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 19, 1850, in Wilmington, Del. He is a director of the Equitable Trust company; and various other corporations.

Harrod, Benjamin Morgan, civil engineer and expert of 1637 Foucher st., New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 19, 1837, in New Orleans, La. In 1877-80 he was chief state engineer of Louisiana. He is a member of the isthmian and canal commission.

Harsh, James B., lawyer and banker of 600 South Pine st., Creston, Iowa, was born Sept. 8, 1845, in Clinton county, Ohio. He is president of the Land Credit bank and other banks.

Harsh,Willard M., superintendent of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Jan. 22, 1856, in Carrollton, Ohio. Since 1890 he has been superintendent of the Connotton Valley and Cleveland and Canton roads.

Harsha, William McIntire, physician and surgeon of 31 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 15, 1855, in Harshaville, Ohio. Since 1896 he has been professor of operative and clinical surgery in the college of medicine of the university of Illinois.

Harshberger, John William, educator, scientist and author of 4839 Walton ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 1, 1869, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now assistant professor of botany at the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Maize, a Botanical and Economic Study and other works.

Harshman, Josiah J., banker of Compton, Cal., was born in 1840, in Virginia. He is president of the First National bank of Compton.

Harshman, Samuel Rufus, educator, clergyman and evangelist of Sullivan, Ill., was born Nov.30, 1841, in Trumbull county, Ohio. He has been clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church; and since 1869 has been an evangelist. He is the author of a volume entitled Sermons on Familiar Subjects.

Harstrom, Carl Axel, educator, philologist and founder of Norwalk, Conn., was born Dec. 20, 1863, in Sweden. He has been headmaster of the Peekskill military academy. Since 1899 he has been principal of the Harstrom school.

Hart, Albert Bushnell, educator and author of 19 Craigie st., Cambridge, Mass., was born July 1, 1854, in Pennsylvania. He is professor of history in Harvard university. He is the author of Introduction to the Study of Federal Government and other works.

Hart,Mrs. Alfaretta,author of Muncie,Ind., was born Dec. 17, 1860, in St. Clairsville, Ohio. She is the author of the Book of Travels.

Hart, Artemas Elijah, banker of 846 Asylum ave., Hartford, Conn., was born June 20, 1842, in New Britain, Conn. He is a trustee and treasurer of the Society for Savings of Hartford; and a director of the State bank of Hartford and other corporations.

Hart, Alphonso, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Hillsboro, Ohio, was born July 4, 1830, in Vienna, Ohio. In 1864 and 1871 he was a state senator. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Hart, Augustus Brewster, financier of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 15, 1846, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1872 he established the firm of Augustus B. Hart of St. Louis, Mo. He is director of the Louisiana purchase exposition company.

Hart, Charles Arthur, entomologist and author of Quincy, Ill., was born Oct. 12, 1859, in Quincy, Ill. He is a specialist in aquatic life. He is the author of The Entomology of the Illinois River and other works.

Hart, Charles G., banker of 13 State st., Adrian, Mich., was born June 6, 1873, in Adrian, Mich. He is president of the Peerless Wire Fence company.

Hart, Charles Henry, lawyer, art expert, bibliographer and author of 4717 Chester ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 4, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1882-1902 he was director of the Pennsylvania academy of fine arts. He is the author of Abraham Lincoln's Place in History and other works.

Hart, Charles Henry, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born July 5, 1866, in Bloomington, Idaho. He received the degree of LL.D. from the university of Michigan. He served a term as county attorney of Cache county, Utah; and was a member of the territorial senate. In 1895 he was a member of the constitutional convention. In 1896-1905 he was district judge for the first district of Iowa.

Hart, E. Kirke, banker and statesman of Albion, N.Y., was born April 18, 1841, in Albion, N.Y. In 1872 he was a member of the New York state assembly; and in 1877-79 he was a member of congress.

Hart, Edgar E., physician and banker of Longdale, Okla., was born 1872 in Illinois. He is president of the Bank of Longdale.

Hart, Edward, chemist and author of Easton, Pa., was born Nov. 18, 1854, in Doylestown, Pa. He is professor of chemistry in the Lafayette college of Easton. He is the author of Chemistry for Beginners.

Hart, Francis Russell, banker of 17 Court st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 16, 1868, in New Bedford, Mass. He is president of the Lowell Electric Light corporation.

Hart, Henry Martyn, clergyman and author of Denver, Col., was born March 3, 1838, in England. He is dean of St. John's cathedral of Denver. He is the author of Elementary Chemistry and other works.

Hart, Herman Visger Chittenden, banker of 39 East Maumee st., Adrian, Mich., was born Feb. 18, 1856, in Adrian, Mich. He is a director of the Monarch Fence company.

Hart, James Morgan, educator and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Nov. 2, 1839, in New Jersey. Since 1890 he has been professor of rhetoric and English philology at Cornell. He is the author of German Universities and other works.

Hart, James Wallace, lawyer of Auburn, N.Y., was born July 21, 1866, in Malden-on-the-Hudson. He is president of the civil service commission.

Hart, Jerome Alfred, journalist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born Sept. 6, 1864, in San Francisco, Cal. Since 1891 he has been president of the Argonaut Publishing company. He is the author of Argonaut Letters and other works.

Hart, Joseph, actor and playwright of New York City, was born June 8, 1861, in Boston, Mass. He has been star comedian with Frederick Hallen. He is the author of Their First Lesson; A Quiet Day and other works.

Hart, Joseph J., journalist, business man and statesman of Milford, Pa., was born April 18, 1859, in Nyack, N.Y. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress. He is engaged in insurance and real estate business.

Hart, Letitia Bennet, painter and artist of 94 First place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1867 in New York. She has painted Unwinding the Skein; In Silk Attire; The Bride's Bouquet and many others.

Hart, Louis F., statesman of Tacoma, Wash., was born Jan. 4, 1862, in High Point, Mo. He is grand secretary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Washington. In 1913 he became lieutenant-governor of Washington.

Hart, Percie William Edward, author of Worcester, Mass., was born Jan. 27, 1870, in Nova Scotia. He is the author of A Tale of Nova Scotia; The Flying Cloud; The Crimsoning of the High Seas and other works.

Hart, Richard Walker, farmer and banker of Greentop, Mo., was born Aug. 29, 1859, in Adair county, Mo. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Hart, Samuel, educator and college president of Middletown, Conn., was born June 4, 1845, in Saybrook, Conn. Since 1894 he has been president of the Connecticut historical society. He is the author of History of American Prayer and other works.

Hart, Thomas Norton, merchant and banker of 298 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 20, 1829, in North Reading, Mass. He has been president of the Mount Vernon National bank. He has been mayor of Boston.

Hart, Thomas Williams, clergyman and author of Ebenezer, S.C., was born April 19, 1847, in Hartsville, S.C. He has filled pastorates in Florence, S.C., Tuskegee, Ala., and at Ripley, Tenn. He is the author of Robert Sanders.

Hart, William Henry Harrison, lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Jan. 25, 1848, in Yorkshire, England. He served throughout the civil war. He is an eminent lawyer, and has made a specialty of criminal, commercial and corporation law. In 1890-94 he was attorney-general of California.

Hart, William Henry Harrison, educator, lawyer and founder of 216 Arthur place, Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 31, 1857, in Eufaula, Ala. Since 1891 he has been professor of criminal law in Harvard university.

Hart, William Octave, lawyer of 134 Caroñdelet st., New Orleans, La., was born Aug. 19, 1857, in New Orleans. For over thirty-five years he has been a member of the bar of Louisiana; and has filled numerous positions of trust and honor. He has been a delegate to various conventions; and is vice-president of the Louisiana forestry association.

Harte, Richard Hickman, physician, surgeon and author of 1503 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 23, 1855, in Rock Island, Ill. Since 1902 he has been associate professor of surgery in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Hand-Book of Local Therapeutics.

Harter, George Abram, educator, mathematician and college president of Newark, Del., was born Nov. 7, 1853, in Leitersburg, Md. He has been professor of mathematics and physics. Since 1896 he has been president of the Delaware college of Newark.

Hartigan, Gilmore, court reporter of Basin, Wyo., was born May 10, 1882. He has been United States commissioner and is now court reporter for the fifth judicial district of Wyoming.

Hartley, Henry Alexander Saturnin, clergyman, missionary, physician and author of Montreal, Canada, was born Dec. 18, 1861, in Port of Spain, Trinidad. In 1899 he was medical missionary in the diocese of Honduras. He is the author of Classical Translations; and Concerns of My Life.

Hartley, James, clergyman and bishop of Columbus, Ohio. In 1904 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Columbus.

Hartley, Jonathan Scott, sculptor and author of 256 West Fifty-fifth st., New York City, was born Sept. 23, 1845, in Albany, N.Y. In 1878-84 he was professor of anatomy in the schools of the art student's league. His works include The Young Samaritan; Puritan and other works.

Hartman, Charles S., lawyer and statesman of Bozeman, Mont., was born March 1, 1861, in Monticello, Ind. In 1889 he was a member of the constitutional convention. In 1893-99 he was a member of congress.

Hartman, Herbert T., vice-president and general manager of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 2, 1867, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is vice-president and general manager of the American Gas and Electric company.

Hartman, John P., lawyer and capitalist of Seattle, Wash., was born July 3, 1857, in Harvysburg, Ind. He is vice-president of the Northwest Trust and Safe Deposit company.

Hartman, Samuel Brubaker, manufacturer and physician of Columbus, Ohio, was born April 1, 1830, in Harrisburg, Pa. In 1890 he established a sanitarium for the treatment of chronic diseases.

Hartman, Thomas Jefferson, banker of Sulphur, Okla., was born Nov. 23, 1874, in Roaring Springs, Pa. He is vice-president of the Bank of Commerce.

Hartmeyer, Gottlieb, banker of Circleville, Ohio, was born Oct. 8, 1842, in Circleville, Ohio. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Hartness, James, manufacturer, inventor and author of Springfield, Vt., was born Sept. 3, 1861, in Schenectady, N.Y. He is president of the Jones and Lamson Machine company; and the inventor of the turret equatorial telescope, the Loswing lathe and the flat turret lathe. He has been vice-president of the American society of mechanical engineers, and vice-president of the West New England chamber of commerce. He is the author of Machine Building for Profit; Human Factor in Works Management and other works.

Hartranft, Chester David, clergyman and college president of Wolfenbuttel, Germany, was born Oct. 15, 1839, in Frederick, Pa. In 1888-1903 he was president of the Hartford theological seminary; and is now honorary president. He is engaged in literary work in Germany.

Hartschorn, Newton T., soldier, portrait painter and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 26, 1842, in Amherst, N.H. He served in the civil war. He has painted portraits in Europe and America. One of his best works is a life-size full-length portrait of William Cullen Bryant.

Hartschorne, Charles Hopkins, lawyer and author of Jersey City, N.J., was born Nov. 22, 1851, in Jersey City, N.J. Since 1904 he has been lecturer in the New York law school. He is the author of Courts and Procedure in England and New Jersey.

Hartshorn, Winfred Morgan, physician and surgeon of 50 Central Park West, New York City, was born April 27, 1874, at Ellsworth Falls, Maine. He was educated at Yale college, graduated from the college of physicians and surgeons, and has received the degrees of A.B. and M.D. He is attending physician to the Roosevelt hospital, out-patient department. He makes a specialty of pediatrics and obstetrics. He is the author of Feeding of Children and other medical works.

Hartshorne, William Davis, manufacturer of Lawrence, Mass., was born Jan. 18, 1853, in Brighton, Md. He is president of the National bank of Methuen.

Hartwell, Alfred Stedman, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Honolulu, H.T., was born June 11, 1836, in Dedham, Mass. In 1867 he was a member of the Massachusetts state legislature. He is now associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of Hawaii.

Hartwell, Charles Stearns, teacher of 234 Willoughby ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 3, 1855, in China. He has traveled extensively and in 1883-86 was United States marshal at Foochow. He has been correspondent for various publications in China, England and the United States. He is a promoter of educational reforms and a student of sociology. Since 1913 he has been president of the New York City association of high school teachers of English.

Hartwell, Henry Walker, soldier and architect of 147 Summer st., Waltham, Mass., was born Sept. 4, 1833, in Boston, Mass. In 1862-63 he served in the civil war. He has been a member of the firm that designed the Fall River Academy; the Youth's Companion Building, and the high school in Springfield, Mass.

Harwi, Henry J., banker of Russell Springs, Kan., was born Sept. 29, 1886 in Millbrook, Kans. He is cashier of the Russell Springs State bank.

Hartwich, Herman, artist and painter of Landwehr st., 46, Munich, Bavaria, was born July 18, 1853, in New York City. His specialty is in landscapes, portraits and animals.

Harty, Jeremiah J., clergyman and archbishop of Manila, P.I., was born Nov. 1, 1853, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1888-1903 he was rector of St. Leo's church of St. Louis, Mo. In 1903 he was appointed archbishop of Manila, P.I.

Hartzell, Joseph Crane, clergyman, founder and bishop of San Juan, P.R., was born June 1, 1842, in Moline, Ill. He founded the Southwestern Christian Advocate. Since 1896 he has been bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Hartzell, Joseph Culver, consulting engineer of Blue Ash, Ohio, was born Sept. 10, 1870, in New Orleans, La. He is a graduate of the Chattanooga and Yale universities and of the university of Munich. He has filled professorships in the Illinois Wesleyan university and in the university of the Pacific; and was director of chemical laboratories. He is now engaged in private and consultation work for various companies and corporations; and makes a specialty of the chemistry, metallography and heat-treatment of irons and steels.

Hartzell, William, lawyer and statesman of Chester, Ill., was born Feb. 20, 1837, in Stark county, Ohio. In 1875-79 he was a member of congress.

Hartzler, Henry Burns, clergyman, bishop and author of Harrisburg, Pa., was born March 23, 1840, in York county, Pa. He has been editor of the Evangelical of Harrisburg, Pa. Since 1902 he has been bishop of the United Evangelical church at Harrisburg. He is the author of Moody in Chicago and other works.

Hartzler, John E., college president of Goshen, Ind., was born Feb. 2, 1879. He is president of the Goshen college.

Hartzog, Henry Simms, educator and college president of 5706 Vernon ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born on July 17, 1866, in Barnwell county, S.C. In 1897-1902 he was president of the Clemson agricultural college. Since 1902 he has been president of the university of Arkansas.

Harvey, Alfred W., banker of Exira, Iowa, was born Aug. 15, 1878, in Indiana. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Harvey, Charles M., journalist and author of 3825 Westminster place, St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 15, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is a frequent contributor on political, social and historical subjects to various magazines. He is the author of History of Missouri and other works.

Harvey, Clarence Olin, banker of Odessa, Wash., was born Aug. 28, 1874, in Boston, Mass. He is cashier of the Lumberman's State bank.

Harvey, Dwight B., clergyman and educator of Granville, Ohio, was born June 4, 1834, in Martinsburg, Ohio. Since 1882 he has been president of the Granville female college.

Harvey, Eli, painter and artist of 80 East Washington square, New York City, was born Sept. 23, 1860, in Ogden, Ohio. His best known pieces of sculpture are The Roaring Lion and the Rampart Jaguar.

Harvey, Frederick Loviad, lawyer and author of 2146 Florida ave., Washington, D.C., was born May 6, 1856, in Washington, D.C. He has been principal examiner of land claims. He is the author of History of the Washington Monument and of the Washington National Monument Society.

Harvey, George, editor and capitalist of Franklin square, New York City, was born Feb. 16, 1864, in Peacham, Vt. In 1899 he became editor of the American Review. He is the constructor and president of many electric railroads.

Harvey, Henry Chapman, banker of Huntington, W.Va., was born April 14, 1854, in Buffalo, Va. He is president of the American Bank and Trust company.

Harvey, John LeGrand, lawyer and author of Waltham, Mass., was born in 1857 in Ohio. He has been a member of the state senate; and has been mayor of Waltham, Mass.

Harvey, Leon Addison, clergyman of 798 Elmore place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in Corry, Pa. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Antioch college of Yellow Springs, Ohio; and the degree of B. D. from Harvard university. In 1891-97 he was minister of the University church of Des Moines, Iowa; in 1898-1905 of the First Unitarian church of Erie, Pa.; and since 1907 has been minister of the Fourth Unitarian church of Brooklyn. In 1905-07 he was secretary for the American Unitarian association; and is now also director and secretary for the Unitarian conference for the middle states and Canada.

Harvey, Mervin Clark, banker of Cleveland, Ohio, was born June 25, 1877, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is president of the Ingersoll Amusement company.

Harvey, Robert S., banker of Eldon, Mo., was born Nov. 22, 1855, in Cooper county, Mo. He is president of the Eldon Hardware company.

Harvey, William Hope, lawyer and author of Monte Ne, Ark., was born Aug. 16, 1851, in Buffalo, W.Va. He is the author of A Tale of Two Nations and other works.

Harvey, William Patrick, clergyman and author of 830 Fourth ave., Louisville, Ky., was born March 15, 1843, in Ireland. Since 1888 he has been president of the Baptist book concern. He is the author of Shall Women Preach and other works.

Harvey, Wilson Godfrey, banker of Charleston, S.C., was born Sept. 8, 1866, in Charleston, S.C. He is president of the Charleston clearing house.

Harwood, Elihu Burrett, painter and artist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Nov. 26, 1855, in Charles City, Iowa. In 1893 he organized an art school in Minneapolis, Minn.

Harwood, Fred H., railroad official of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 15, 1863, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the New Kentucky Coal company.

Harwood, Pliny LeRoy, banker of New London, Conn., was born March 25, 1876, in Stafford, Conn. He is secretary and treasurer of the Mariners' Savings bank.

Harwood, Sydney, manufacturer and capitalist of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 3, 1860, in Bradford, Yorkshire, England. He is head of the firm of George S. Harwood and Son.

Hasbrouck, Daniel B., capitalist and railroad president of Kingston, N.Y. He is president of the Kingsbridge Railroad company and other railroads.

Hasbrouck, Henry Cornelius, soldier of Newburgh, N.Y., was born Oct. 26, 1839 in Newburgh, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1898 he was appointed brigadier-general of the United States volunteers.

Hasbrouck, Jacob, banker of Ault, Col., was born March 6, 1868 in New York. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Hasbrouck, Svan O., banker of Humeston, Iowa, was born in Highland, N.Y. He is cashier of the Humeston State bank.

Hascall, Wilbur Fisk, publisher, composer and author of 36 Bromfield st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 15, 1854, in Shrewsbury, Mass. He is manager of the Fraternity Publishing company. He is the author of The Survivor and other songs.

Haseltine, Seneca, lawyer, jurist, diplomat and statesman and of Burlington, Vt., was born Feb. 26, 1848, in Westfield, Vt. He has been United States minister to Venezuela; and has been mayor of his city. He has been an associate justice of the state supreme court of Vermont; and since 1906 he has been chief superior judge and chancellor.

Haskell, Charles Nathaniel, lawyer, civil engineer and statesman of Muskogee, Okla., was born in 1860 in Putnam county, Ohio. He has been governor of Oklahoma.

Haskell, Cornelius DeForest, banker of Gregory, S.D., was born May 14, 1886, in Stromsburg, Mich. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Haskell, Ella L., lawyer of Helena, Mont., was born July 31, 1862, in Northwood, N.H. She has been assistant attorney-general of Montana. She has contributed to law literature.

Haskell, Elmer E., lawyer and jurist of Palatka, Fla., was born May 2, 1861, in Chatham, N.H. In 1897 he became judge of the criminal court of record for Putnam county, Fla.

Haskell, J. Amory, business president of 150 Cedar st., New York City, was born July 7, 1861, in New York City. He has been a captain in New York national guard; and is president of the Manhattan eye, ear and throat hospital. Since 1895 he has been president of the Laflin and Rand Powder company; and since 1903 has been vice-president of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder company.

Haskell, Llewellyn Frost, soldier and manufacturer of Belleville, N.J., was born Oct. 8, 1842, in Belleville, N.J. He served in the civil war; and attained the rank of brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers. He is engaged in mining and the manufacture of furniture.

Haskell, Thomas Nelson, clergyman, educator, author and poet of Denver, Colo., was born in Chautauqua county, N.Y. He is state librarian of Colorado; and chaplain of the senate. He is the author of The Boys in Blue and other works.

Haskell, Ulysses G., lawyer and genealogist of Beverly, Mass., was born Oct. 3, 1863, in Chatham, N.H. He has been examiner in the United States pension bureau; and president of the Beverly common council. He is the author of a Genealogy on the Haskell Family.

Haskell, William Edwin, journalist, publisher and public official of 171 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born June 18, 1862, in Charleston, Mass. He has been president and general manager of the Minneapolis Times. He has been on the staff of Governor McGill and Governor Merriam.

Haskin, Nelson, merchant and statesman of Inlay City, Mich., was born Oct. 20, 1849, in Canada. He has been village president; and has been a representative in the state legislature.

Haskin, William Lawrence, soldier of Waterford, Conn., was born May 31, 1841, in Houlton, Maine. He served in the civil war and later in the Spanish-American war. He attained the rank of brigadier-general. He is the author of The History of the United States Artillery.

Haskins, Caryl Davis, civil engineer, inventor and author of 32 Washington ave., Schenectady, N.Y., was born May 22, 1867, in Walton, Mass. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of For the Queen in South Africa and other works.

Haskins, Kittredge, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Brattleboro, Vt., was born April 8, 1836, in Dover, Vt. He served in the civil war. In 1901-09 he was a member of congress.

Haslerud, Peter K., real estate dealer and banker of Crookston, Minn., was born Aug.

7, 1857, in Numedal,Norway. He has taught school, was deputy auditor of his county in 1884-1887, and county treasurer in 1889-99. In 1899-1902 he was president of the Farmers' State bank; and since 1901 he has been superintendent of farm loan agencies for northern Minnesota and North Dakota for George W. Wishard and company of Minneapolis. He has been chairman of the republican central committee of his county; and is also president of the Madison state bank.

Hassam, Childe, painter and artist of 130 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Oct. 17, 1859, in Boston, Mass. He has received numerous medals for art exhibitions in Paris, Chicago and other cities.

Hasse, Adelaide, librarian and author of 476 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in Milwaukee, Wis. Since 1897 she has been librarian of the document department of the New York public library. She is the author of Bibliography Official Publications of Colonial New York and other works.

Hassinger, William Hervey, manufacturer and capitalist of Birmingham, Ala., was born May 25, 1863, in New Orleans, La. He has been president of the Southern Iron and Steel company. Since 1908 he has been director of the First National bank and other corporations.

Hassler, Mrs. Elizabeth Emily, litterateur and author of Santa Ana, Cal., was born Jan. 27, 1865, in Batavia, Ill. Since 1883 she has been a writer of fiction for magazines and newspapers.

Hassler, Ferdinand Augustus, educator, physician, inventor and author of Santa Ana, Cal., was born March 6, 1844, in Norfolk, Va. Since 1866 he has contributed to American literature, poems,children's stories and general literature. For years he has been a correspondent of the Datavya Bahrata Karyalava of Calcutta.

Hastie, Alexander, journalist and business man of Cheyenne, Wyo., was born Nov. 15, 1849, in Choice Lee, Scotland. For over thirty-five years he was engaged in business in Des Moines, Iowa; and served as deputy auditor of Warren county. He is now editor of the Cheyenne State Leader and Golden Priarie Herald. He is also secretary of the Wyoming state farm board.

Hastings, Benjamin F., lawyer and banker of Grant, Neb., was born June 23, 1863, in McHenry county, Ill. He is president of the Commercial bank; and has been county judge.

Hastings, Charles Sheldon, educator and author of 248 Bradley st., New Haven, Conn. He is professor of physics at the Sheffield scientific school of Yale university. He is the author of Textbook on General Physics.

Hastings, Daniel O., lawyer of Wilmington, Del., was born March 5, 1874, in Somerset county, Md. He is city solicitor for the city of Wilmington.

Hastings, Frank Seymour, business president of 80 Broadway, New York City, was born May 31, 1853, in Mendham, N.J. He is president of the Indianapolis Gas company and other corporations.

Hastings, Frank Warren, farmer and author of Glover, Vt., was born Dec. 31, 1856, in Waterford, Vt. He is the author of Wed to a Lunatic and other works.

Hastings, Fred W., lawyer and statesman of 2 Prospect st., Seattle, Wash., was born in 1882 in Van Wert, Ohio. In 1911-13 he was a member of the Washington state legislature.

Hastings, George H., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Lincoln, Neb., was born Aug. 26, 1848, in Marengo, Ill. He has been judge of Saline county, Neb.; and has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1890-94 he was attorney-general of that state.

Hastings, Judson Worthington, physician and public official of Agawam, Mass., was born June 13, 1853, in Suffield, Conn. He is town clerk, treasurer and tax collector.

Hastings, Thomas, designer and architect of 11 East Forty-first st., New York City, was born March 11, 1860, in New York City. He is one of the designers of the new consolidated library and other buildings.

Hastings,Thomas Nelson, soldier and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born May 23, 1858, in Cambridge, Mass. He has been a member of the state senate; and in 1899-1900 he was president of the state senate.

Hastings, Thomas Samuel, clergyman, educator and college president of 27 West Forty-sixth st., New York City, was born Aug. 28, 1827, in Utica, N.Y. He has been president of the Union theological seminary.

Hastings, William Granger, lawyer and statesman of Lincoln, Neb., was born April 9, 1853, in Woodstock, Ill. He has been a member of the state senate; and has been district attorney. In 1901-04 he was supreme court commissioner.

Hatch, Albert Sydney,banker of 821 Broad st., Augusta, Ga., was born in 1866 in Richmond county, Ga. He is president of the Merchants' bank.

Hatch, Edward Palmer, banker of 12 High st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 7, 1862, in Vineyard Haven, Mass. He is vice-president of the Lincoln Trust company.

Hatch, Edward Wingate, lawyer and jurist of 37 Wall st., New York City, was born Nov. 26, 1852, in Friendship, N.Y. He has been judge of the superior court of Buffalo, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of Parker, Hatch and Sheehan of New York City.

Hatch, Frederick Thomas, railway official of St. Louis, Mo., was born in Haverhill, Mass. He entered railway service in 1874, and has filled positions from rodman to chief engineer. In 1894-1903 he was superintendent of the Michigan division of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis railroad, now the Vandalia line, and in 1896-1902 was also its chief engineer. Since 1905 he has again been chief engineer of the Vandalia railroad.

Hatch, Herschel Harrison, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bay City, Mich., was born Feb. 17, 1837, in Morrisville, N.Y. He has been judge of probate. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Hatch, Hezekiah Eastman, banker of Logan, Utah, was born Dec. 16, 1855, in Lehi, Utah. Since 1883 he has been connected with Thatcher Brothers Banking company, of which he has been president since 1910. He has been county commissioner and councilman of his city; and president of the Commercial-Booster's club. He is also president of the Thatcher Milling and Elevator company and other corporations.

Hatch, Jethro A., surgeon and statesman of Kentland, Ind., was born June 18, 1837, in Chenango county, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Hatch, Louis Clinton, historian and author of Bangor, Maine, was born Sept. 1, 1872, in Bangor, Maine. He is the author of The Administration of the American Revolutionary Armies.

Hatch, Philander Ellsworth, banker of Long Beach, Cal., was born July 25, 1861, in New Preston, Conn. Since 1908 he has been president of the National bank of Long Beach. For ten years he was president of the chamber of commerce.

Hatch, Reuben, lawyer and jurist of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Oct. 11, 1847, in Alstead, N.H. He is a senior member of the firm of Hatch and Raymond. He has been judge of the thirteenth judicial court in Michigan.

Hatch, Riley Burnham, lawyer and banker of Petersboro, N.H., was born Oct. 19, 1832, in Williamstown, Vt. He is treasurer of the Monadnock Railroad company.

Hatcher, Robert Anthony, pharmacologist of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Feb. 6, 1866, in New Madison, Mo. Since 1904 he has been an instructor in pharmacology at the Cornell university medical college. He is the author of Textbook of Materia Medica.

Hatfield, Charles Albert Phelps, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 9, 1850, in Dayton, Ala. He served in the Spanish-American war and in 1890 was breveted major.

Hatfield, Charles Edwin, lawyer and banker of 11 Pemberton square, Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 30, 1862, in Medford, Mass. He is president of the First National bank.

Hatfield, H. D., statesman of Charleston, W.Va. In 1913 he became governor of West Virginia.

Hatfield, James Taft, educator and author of 617 Forter st., Evanston, Ill., was born June 15, 1862, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been professor of German literature at the Northwestern university. He is the author of A Study of Juvencus and other works.

Hatfield, Joshua Alexander, capitalist and railroad president of 30 Church st., New York City, was born June 11, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the American Bridge company.

Hathaway, Forrest Henry, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 7, 1844, in Vermont. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. In 1904 he was retired.

Hathaway, Seymour Judson, lawyer and author of Marietta, Ohio, was born Jan. 27, 1844, in Macedon, N.Y. He has been president of the Marietta board of trade. He is the author of Military History of Washington county, Ohio.

Hathaway, William Lee, insurance manager of 222 Sansome st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 15, 1867, in Providence, R.I. He attended the Atkinson business college of Sacramento. He entered the employment of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, was placed in charge of the local office in San Francisco, reorganized the system of the life insurance business throughout the United States, and became manager of the California, Nevada and Hawaiian Islands for that company. He is chairman of insurance to the Panama-Pacific international exposition of the world's insurance congress in San Francisco.

Hately, John Craig, capitalist of 141 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 30, 1845, in Durham, England. He is a director of the provision dealers' dispatch and a member of the Chicago board of trade.

Hately, Walter Craig, grain and provision merchant of 141 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 5, 1848, in Durham, England. He is in business with his brother under the name of Hately Brothers.

Hattstaedt, John James, musician and composer of 5043 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 29, 1851, in Monroe, Mich. Since 1886 he has been director of the American conservatory of Chicago, Ill. He is the author of Musical History.

Hauber, Francis A., lawyer and banker of St. Marys, Pa., was born Aug. 22, 1878, in St. Marys, Pa. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank and other corporations.

Hauberger, George Henry, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 12, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia stock exchange.

Hauck, Minnie, musician, opera singer and composer of New York City, was born Nov. 16, 1852, in New York City. Her principal roles are Zerlina, Carmen and many others.

Haugen, Gilbert Nelson, banker and statesman of Northwood, Iowa, was born April 21, 1859, in Rock county, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

Haugen, Nils P., lawyer and statesman of River Falls, Wis., was born March 9, 1859, in Norway. He has been state railroad commissioner. In 1887-95 he was a member of congress.

Haughton, Victor Mellet, clergyman of Exeter, N.H., was born March 24, 1866, in Boston. Since 1903 he has been rector of Christ church.

Haupt, Charles Elvin, clergyman and author of Lancaster, Pa., was born in 1852, in Pennsylvania. He is a Lutheran clergyman of Lancaster,Pa. He is the author of Stories from Bible History and other works.

Haupt, Lewis Muhlenberg, consulting engineer, inventor and author of 107 North Thirty-fifth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 21, 1844, in Gettysburg, Pa. He has been professor of civil engineering in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of The Topographer and other works.

Haupt, Paul, educator and author of 215 Longwood road, Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 25, 1858, in Germany. Since 1883 he has been professor of Semitic languages in the Johns Hopkins university. He is the author of several works in German.

Hauser, Julius, state treasurer of Sayville, N.Y., was born Aug. 7, 1854, in Germany. Since 1903 he has been state treasurer of New York.

Hauser,Samuel Thomas,banker and statesman of Helena, Mont., was born June 10, 1833, in Falmouth, Ky. Since 1866 he has been president of the First National bank. In 1885-87 he was governor of Montana.

Hauthaway, Edwin D., capitalist of 1702 Beacon st., Boston, Mass. He is president of C. L. Hauthaway and Sons, incorporated.

Havemeyer, John Craig, sugar refiner and capitalist of Yonkers, N.Y., was born in 1883, in New York City. In 1856 he established a sugar refinery in Brooklyn. He is a writer and speaker on political topics.

Havemeyer, Theodore Augustus, sugar refiner of 117 Wall st., New York City, was born in New York City. He is president of the American Generator company and director of various corporations.

Havemeyer, William Frederick, capitalist and banker of 32 Nassau st.,New York City, was born March 31, 1850, in New York. Since 1907 he has been president of the National Bank of North America.

Haven, George Henry, banker of Chatfield, Minn., was born Sept. 10, 1841, in Tyson Furnace, Vt. He is president of the First State bank.

Haven, John M.,banker of Big Lake,Minn., was born Sept. 19, 1857, in Silver Creek, Minn. He is president of the Sherburne County State bank.

Haven, William Ingraham, educator, clergyman, founder and author of New York City, was born Jan. 30, 1856, in Westfield, Mass. Since 1899 he has been secretary of the American Bible society. He is the author of My Brother and I.

Havens, Frank Colton, capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., was born Nov. 21, 1848, in Sag Harbor, N.Y. He is president of the People's Water company of Oakland and other corporations.

Hawes, Gilbert Ray,lecturer, lawyer, genealogist and author of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born Dec. 8, 1854, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He gives illustrated lectures on Norway, the Land of the Midnight Sun and other historic subjects. He is the author of pamphlets on biographical, genealogical and legal subjects.

Hawes, Harriet Boyd, archaeologist and author of Islip, Oxon, England, was born Oct. 11, 1871, in Boston, Mass. She has been an instructor in archaeology in Smith college. She is the author of Gournia, Vasiliki and Other Prehistoric Sites on the Isthmus of Hierapetra, Crete.

Hawes, James William, lawyer and genealogist of 27 West Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born July 9, 1844, in Chatham, Mass. He has been president of the Pieta society. He is the author of Legislative Reform and other works.

Hawes, Jesse, physician, surgeon and author of Greeley, Colo., was born Aug. 21, 1843, in Corinna, Maine. He has been president of the Colorado board of medical examiners. He is the author of a historical work entitled Cahaba.

Hawk, Philip Bovier, educator and scientist of 1106 California ave., Urbana, Ill., was born July 18, 1874, in East Branch, N.Y. He is professor of physiological chemistry at the university of Illinois.

Hawke, James Albert, soldier, naval officer and surgeon of Bristol, Pa., was born Jan. 31, 1841, in Bristol, Pa. He served in the civil war as surgeon. He has been medical inspector and medical director. In 1903 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Hawker, Thomas, farmer and banker of Shinnston, W.Va., was born June 1, 1846, in Marion county, W.Va. He is president of the Farmers' bank.

Hawkes, Clarence, lecturer, naturalist, author and poet of Hadley, Mass., was born Dec. 16, 1869, in Goshen, Mass. He is the author of Three Little Folks and other works.

Hawkes, Herbert Edwin, educator and author of 549 Riverside drive, New York City, was born Dec. 6, 1872, in Templeton, Mass. In 1903 he became assistant professor of mathematics at Yale university. He is the author of Advanced Algebra.

Hawkes, Thomas Gilbert, lawyer and trustee of 1429 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 22, 1871, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Maple Beach company and a director of other corporations.

Hawkesworth, Alan Spencer, clergyman of Sheridanville, Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 10, 1867, in New Orleans, La. In 1890-94 he was English chaplain at Sao Paulo and Santos, Brazil. Since 1905 he has been rector of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah in Pittsburgh. He is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science, and is a member of various other scientific societies.

Hawkins, Andrew J., merchant and banker of Eminence, Mo., was born July, 1866, in Iowa. He is president of the Shannon county bank.

Hawkins, Edmund Sims, physician and banker of Cedar Hill, Tenn., was born July, 1849, in Kentucky. He is president of the Bank of Cedar Hill.

Hawkins, Eugene Dexter, lawyer of 1 Nassau st., New York City, was born May 2, 1860, in New York City. He is president of the North American Coal and Coke company and a director of various corporations.

Hawkins, Hamilton Smith, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born in 1834 in Charleston, S.C. He served in the civil war and in 1898 he was retired with the rank of major-general.

Hawkins, John J., lawyer and jurist of Prescott, Ariz., was born Jan. 4, 1855, in Saline county, Mo. He has been judge of the probate court of Yavapai county, Ariz.; and in 1893-97 he was an associate justice of the Arizona state supreme court.

Hawkins, John Parker, soldier of 1408 North Pennsylvania st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Sept. 29, 1830, Indianapolis, Ind. He served in the civil war; and attained the rank of major-general of volunteers.

Hawkins, Rush Christopher, soldier, lawyer and author of 21 West Twentieth st., New York City, was born Sept. 14, 1831, in Pomfret, Vt. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The First Books and Printers of the Fifteenth Century.

Hawkins, Russell, vice-president of 111 Broadway, New York City, was born March 18, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president of the Diamond Match company.

Hawkins, Walter Foxcroft, lawyer of Pittsfield, Mass., was born July 12, 1863, in Pittsfield, Mass. He is vice-president and counsel of the Pittsburg National bank and has been mayor of his city.

Hawks, James Dudley, railroad official of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 13, 1847, in Buffalo, N.Y. Since 1896 he has been vice-president of the Detroit and Mackinac railroad.

Hawley, Charles B., vocalist, musician and composer of New York City, was born Feb. 14, 1858, in Brookfield, Conn. Since 1883 he has been solo bass and choir master at the Broadway tabernacle of New York City. He has composed various works.

Hawley, Charles L., lawyer and prohibitionist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 8, 1855, in Montrose, Pa. He is a prominent railway, mine and corporation lawyer.

Hawley, Donly Curtis, physician and surgeon of Burlington, Vt., was born Oct. 31, 1855, in Fletcher, Vt. In 1905-06 he was president of the American academy of medicine.

Hawley, Fred Vermillia, clergyman, lecturer and author of 4332 North Hermitage ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1862, in Bath, Mich. He is a minister of the Unity church of Chicago. He is the author of In Memoriam of John Healy Hayward.

Hawley, Harvey, farmer and banker of Loveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 9, 1830, in Mason, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Hawley, Henry S., railroad president of 203 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 12, 1851, in Bridgeport, Conn. Since 1902 he has been president of the Railroad Supply company.

Hawley, James H., lawyer and statesman of Boise, Idaho, was born Jan. 17, 1847, in Dubuque, Iowa. He was educated in the grammar and high schools of Dubuque, Iowa. In 1862 he went to Idaho and was one of the earliest pioneers of that territory. He was engaged in mining until 1871; and since then has been engaged in the practice of law. He has been identified for the past thirty years with most of the important criminal cases of his state, and in 1892 was in charge, for the miners, of the labor troubles of the Coeur d'Alenes. In the troubles in that section in 1899 he was specially employed as the attorney for the state, and after the Steunenberg murder in 1906 he was employed by the state authorities, although they were all different in political views, and given full charge of the various cases resulting from the assassination. In 1870-71 he was a representative in the Idaho legislature, and in 1874-75 was a member of the state senate. In 1879-83 he was district attorney for the second district of Idaho territory, and in 1884-87 was United States attorney for Idaho. In 1904-05 he was mayor of Boise, Idaho, and has filled numerous other positions of trust and honor. In 1910 he was elected governor of Idaho, although the state was republican by at least 15,000, and is the only democrat elected to a state office for the past nine years; and in 1911-13 was governor of the state of Idaho.

Hawley, John H., banker of Monmouth, Ore., was born March 10, 1835, in London, Canada. He is president of the Polk County bank.

Hawley, Joseph Henry, journalist and railroad official of Galveston, Texas, was born in 1848 in Memphis, Tenn. He is secretary and manager of the Gulf Coast good roads association.

Hawley, Robert B., merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Galveston, Texas was born in October, 1850, in Memphis, Tenn In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

Hawley, William Dickinson, public official, genealogist and philanthropist of Madden, Mass., was born Jan. 11, 1838, in Northampton, Mass. For forty years he has been chief clerk and deputy auditor in the state department at Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Genealogy of the Hawley Family of Marblehead.

Hawley, Willis Chatman, educator, college president and statesman of Salem, Ore., was born May 5, 1864, in Monroe, Ore. He has been president of the Oregon state normal school. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Haworth, Paul Laland, educator and author of West Newton, Ind., was born Aug. 28, 1876 in West Newton, Ind. Since 1907 he has been a collaborator on Avery's History of the United States. He is the author of The Haynes-Tilden Disputed Presidential Election.

Hawthorne, Benjamin James, educator and college president of Eugene, Ore., was born June 19, 1837, in Lunenberg, Va. He is professor of mental philosophy in the university of Oregon.

Hawthorne, Hildegarde, author and poet of 50 East Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born June 22, 1846, in New York City. She is the author of Fairest of the Fair and other works.

Hawthorne, Julian, litterateur and author of Mount Vernon, N.Y., was born June 22, 1846, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Fortune's Fool and other works.

Hawxhurst, Mrs. Marie, author of Evanston, Ill., was born in New Orleans, La. She is the author of a volume of stories.

Hay, Albert L. G., lawyer of Somerset,Pa., was born Aug. 8, 1866, in Elk Lick township. He is vice-president and director of the Farmers' National Bank of Somerset.

Hay, Eugene Gano, lawyer, government official and statesman of Summit, N.J., was born March 26, 1853, in Charleston, Ind. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been United States district attorney for Minnesota.

Hay, George T., shipbroker of 80 Winthrop st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 21, 1858, in Brooklyn. He is trustee of the Broadway Savings bank.

Hay, Henry, lawyer and banker of Antigo, Wis., was born Jan. 24, 1876, in Oshkosh, Wis. He is president of the Fidelity Savings bank.

Hay, Henry Hanby, teacher, lecturer and poet of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 26, 1848, on the Isle of Man. He is editor of the Household Magazine. He is vice-president of the Browning society; and the author of two volumes of poems.

Hay, James, lawyer and statesman of Madison, Va., was born Jan. 9, 1856, in Milwood, Va. He has been attorney for the commonwealth. In 1897-1910 he was a member of congress.

Hay, Marion E., merchant and statesman of Olympia, Wash., was born Dec. 9, 1865, in Adams county, Wis. He is vice-president of the State Bank of Wilbur.

Hay, Oliver Perry, scientist and author of 1307 Riggs st., Washington, D.C., was born May 22, 1846, in Jefferson county, Ind. He is the author of the Fossil Turtles of North America.

Hay, William Perry, educator, biologist and scientist of Kensington, Md., was born Dec. 8, 1872, in Eureka, Ill. He has been professor of biology and zoology at Howard university.

Haydel, Abner J., architect of 156 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1868 in St. John the Baptist Parish, La. He is architect of numerous buildings, the more notable of which are the Shepard Memorial church and the Grey Craig Castle, Newport, R.I.

Hayden, Albert, manufacturer of 79 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 18, 1847, in Columbus, Ohio. He is a member of P. Hadley company, incorporated.

Hayden, Carl, statesman of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Oct. 2, 1877, in Tempe, Ariz. In 1911 he became a member of congress.

Hayden, Charles, banker and broker of 87 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born July 9, 1870, in Boston, Mass. He is a director of the Shawmut National Bank of Boston.

Hayden, Charles S., lawyer and jurist of Fitchburg, Mass., was born Dec. 10, 1848, in Harvard, Mass. Since 1891 he has been chief justice of the supreme court. He has been mayor of Fitchburg, Mass.

Hayden, Edward Daniel, lawyer and statesman of Woburn, Mass., was born Dec. 27, 1833, in Cambridge, Mass. He served in the civil war. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Hayden, Horace Edwin, soldier, clergyman and author of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was born Feb. 18, 1837, in Catonsville, Md. He served in the civil war. Since 1879 he has been assistant minister at St. Stephen's church. He is the author of Virginia Genealogies and other works.

Hayden, Joseph Orlin, banker of Somerville, Mass., was born July 8, 1847, in Blandford, Mass. He is president of the Somerville National bank.

Hayes, Doremus Almy, clergyman and theologian and author of Evanston,Ill.,was born May 17, 1863, in Russellville, Ohio. Since 1906 he has been librarian of the Garrett biblical institute of the Northwestern university. He is the author of Monographs for the Book of Acts and other works.

Hayes, Edward Mortimer, soldier of 254 West Ninety-eighth st., New York City, was born in 1842. He served in the civil war and later in the Spanish-American war. In 1903 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Hayes, Ellen, educator, mathematician and author of Wellesley, Mass., was born Sept. 23, 1851, in Granville, Ohio. Since 1897 she has been professor of applied mathematics at Wellesley college. She is the author of Higher Algebra and Trigonometry.

Hayes, Everis Anson, journalist, lawyer, miner and statesman of San Jose, Cal., was born March 10, 1855, in Waterloo, Wis. With his brother he conducts the San Jose Daily Mercury and the San Jose Evening Herald. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Hayes, Hammond Vinton, consulting engineer of 101 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 28, 1860, in Madison, Wis. He has been electrical engineer and chief engineer for The American Bell Telephone company and The American Telephone and Telegraph company. He is now a consulting engineer of Boston, Mass.

Hayes, John Russell, educator, librarian, author and poet of Swarthmore, Pa., was born June 25, 1866, in West Chester, Pa. Since 1905 he has been librarian of the Swarthmore college. He is the author of Swarthmore Idylls and other works.

Hayes, Philip Cornelius, soldier, journalist and statesman of 613 Western ave., Joliet, Ill., was born Feb. 3, 1833, in Granby, Conn. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of breveted brigadier-general. In 1877-81 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Socialism and What It Means and other works.

Hayes, William James, manufacturer of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 11, 1837, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He is the owner of the largest wire mills in the country.

Hayes, William Van Valzah, physician of 34 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born Sept. 22, 1867, in Lewisburg, Pa. In 1904 he was elected professor of diseases of the digestive system at the New York polyclinic school and hospital.

Hayford, John Fillmore, civil engineer and author of 574 Ingleside park, Evanston, Ill., was born May 19, 1898, in Rouse Point, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been expert computer and geodetist of the coast and geological survey. He is the author of Geodetic Astronomy.

Hayne, William Hamilton, author and poet of Charleston, S.C., was born March 11, 1856, in Charleston, S.C. He is the author of Sylvan Lyrics.

Haynes, Arthur Edwin, educator and scientist of 703 River road, Minneapolis, Minn., was born May 23, 1849, in Van Buren, N.Y. He has been a professor of mathematics in the college of engineering of the university of Minnesota.

Haynes, Elwood, engineer and inventor of Kokomo, Ind., was born Oct. 14, 1851, in Portland, Ind. He has been professor of science in the Eastern Indiana college at Portland.

Haynes, Emory James, clergyman and author of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born Feb. 6, 1847, in Cabot, Vt. Since 1870 he has been a Methodist clergyman. He is the author of Dollars and Duties and other works.

Haynes, George B., railway official of Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 22, 1871, in Ainsworth, Iowa. In 1891 he entered the employ of the Union Pacific railroad, and since 1892 has been identified with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway. He has been passenger agent at Omaha; and passenger agent, city passenger agent and traveling passenger agent at Chicago in 1893-1907. In 1907-11 he was immigration agent, and since 1913 has been general passenger agent of the same road.

Haynes, George Henry, educator and author of 7 Otsego road, Worcester, Mass, was born March 20, 1866, in Sturbridge, Mass. He is professor of history at the Worcester polytechnic institute. He is the author of Life of Charles Sumner and other works.

Haynes, Henry Williamson, educator, lawyer, archaeologist and author of 239 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 20, 1831, in Bangor, Maine. He is the author of The Historical Character of Norse Sagas.

Haynes, Martin A., soldier, journalist and statesman of Lake Village, N.H., was born July 30, 1845, in Springfield, N.H. He served in the civil war. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Haynes, Myron Wilbur, clergyman and author of Franklin, Ind., was born Jan. 1, 1855, in Lunenburg, Mass. He has been president of the Central Baptist orphanage. He is the author of Modern Evangelism.

Haynes, Nathaniel Smith, soldier, clergyman and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born March 7, 1844, in Washington, Ky. He served in the civil war. He is minister of the Christian Church of Disciples of Lincoln, Neb. He is the author of Children's Question Book.

Haynes, Thornwell, diplomat and author of High Point, N.C., was born May 20, 1868, in Grindell Shoals, S.C. He has been consul-general at Singapore. He is the author of Life of Benjamin Tillman.

Haynie, James Henry, journalist and author of Newton Centre, Mass., was born July 19, 1841, in Winchester, Ill. He served in the civil war. He is the author of Paris, Past and Present, and other works.

Hays, Frank Perin, stock broker of 303 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born March 12, 1861, in Columbus, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Little and Hays Investment company.

Hays, Isaac Minis, physician and author of 266 South Twenty-first st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 26, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been editor of the American Journal of the Medical Sciences and of the Medical News. He is the author of The Chronology of Benjamin Franklin and other works.

Hays, John Coffee, consulting electrical engineer of Visalia, Cal., was born Jan. 5, 1882, in Tulare county, Cal. He is president of the Mount Whitney Power and Electric company, president of the Yosemite Power company, president of the LaGrange Water and Power company and president of the Mount Shasta Power corporation. He is a member of the American society of civil engineers and various clubs and societies.

Hays, John Dudley, banker of Elkville, Ill., was born Jan. 22, 1852, in Newport, Ohio. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Elkville State bank.

Hays, Robert Riddile, banker of Hickory, Pa., was born May 7, 1877, in Burgettstown, Pa. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Hays, Samuel H., lawyer and banker of Boise, Idaho, was born May 18, 1864, in Wisconsin. He is president of the Idaho building and loan association.

Hayward, Edward Farwell, clergyman and author of Marlborough, Mass., was born May 9, 1851, in Lowell, Mass. He is a Unitarian clergyman. He is the author of Patrice and other works.

Hayward, William Lette, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 15, 1870, in Morley, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been vicar of St. Elizabeth's church of Philadelphia. He is the author of Obsequiale of Rites for Burial of Dead.

Haywood, Marshall DeLancey, journalist and author of Raleigh,N.C., was born March 6, 1871, in Raleigh, N.C. He is the author of The Beginnings of Free Masonry in North Carolina and Tennessee and other works.

Hazard, Caroline, journalist, college president and author of Peace Dale, R.I., was born June 10, 1856, in Peace Dale, R.I. She has been president of the Wellesley college of Massachusetts. She is the author of J. L. Diman and other works.

Hazard, Jonathan Ingell, banker of Georgetown, S.C., was born Nov. 8, 1864, in Conway, S.C. He is president of the Hazard Addition company.

Hazard, Marshall Curtiss, journalist and author of Dorchester Center,Mass., was born June 28, 1839, in Tioga county, Pa. Since 1885 he has been editor of the Congregational Sunday School and Publication Society. He is the author of Marriage Chimes and other works.

Hazard, Rowland Gibson, manufacturer of Peace Dale, R.I., was born Jan. 22, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Peace Dale Manufacturing company.

Hazel, John Raymond, lawyer and jurist of 37 Hodge ave., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Dec. 18, 1860, in Buffalo, N.Y. In 1900 he became judge of the United States district court for the western district.

Hazelrigg, Mrs. Clara H., educator, author and poet of El Dorado, Kan., was born Nov. 23, 1861, in Council Grove, Kan. She is principal of the city schools of El Dorado, Kan. She is the author of a volume of poems.

Hazelrigg, James Hervey, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Frankfort, Ky., was born Dec. 6, 1848, in Montgomery county, Ky. He served in the civil war. In 1892-1901 he was chief justice of the court of appeals of Kentucky.

Hazelton, George Cochrane, Jr., lawyer, dramatist and author of New York City,was born in Boscobel, Wis. He is the author of The National Capitol and several dramas.

Hazelton, John Hampden, lawyer and author of 220 Broadway, New York City, was born in Boscobel, Wis. He is a member of the firm of Hazelton and Hazelton. He is the author of The Declaration of Independence, Its History, and other works.

Hazelwood, J. A., lawyer and statesman of Jefferson, Wis., was born Oct. 28, 1867, in Concord, Wis. He has been a state senator. He is chairman of the Wisconsin highway commission and secretary of the Wisconsin civil service commission.

Hazen, Allen, civil engineer and author of 103 Park ave., New York City, was born Aug. 28, 1869, in Hartford, Conn. He was chief engineer in the building of the Albany water filtration plant. He is the author of The Filtration of Public Water Supplies.

Hazen, Charles Downer, educator and author of Northampton,Mass., was born March 17, 1868, in Barnet, Vt. Since 1894 he has been professor of history at Smith college. He is the author of Contemporary American Opinion of the French Revolution.

Hazen, Marshall Williams, lawyer and author of 27 Thames st., New York City, was born in 1845 in Beverly, Mass. He is the author of Government and other works.

Hazen, William Livingston, soldier, educator and college president of New York City, was born May 4, 1861, in Elizabeth, N. H. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is headmaster and president of the Barnard school for boys and the Barnard school for girls.

Hazlett, Albert Lester, clergyman and theologian of McCracken, Kan., was born July 1, 1864, in Hazlett, N.J. He is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of McCracken.

Hazlett, Charles A., banker of Portsmouth, N.H.,was born July 21, 1847, in Portsmouth, N.H. He is president of the Piscataqua Savings bank.

Hazlett, Robert, civil engineer, postmaster and financier of Wheeling, W.Va., was born Dec. 24, 1863, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is postmaster of his city.

Head, Franklin Harvey, manufacturer, banker and author of 105 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan.24, 1835, in Paris, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been president of the Bush temple of music. He is the author of A Notable Lawsuit.

Head, H. C., merchant and statesman of Princeton, Minn.. was born in 1849 in Hooksett, N.H. He has been postmaster of his city. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Head, James Marshall, lawyer and statesman of 59 Temple place, Boston, Mass., was born July 25, 1855, in Sumner county, Tenn. In 1880-84 he was a member of the Tennessee legislature; in 1896-1904 he was a member of the Tennessee democratic executive committee; and in 1899-1903 he was mayor of Nashville, Tenn. Since 1904 he has been grand counsel for Warren Brothers company of Boston.

Head, John Benedict, lawyer and jurist of Greensburg, Pa., was born April 4, 1855, in Latrobe, Pa. Since 1906 he has been judge of the state superior court of Pennsylvania for the term ending in 1916.

Headland, Isaac Taylor, clergyman, missionary and author of 150 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 16, 1859, in Freedom, Pa. Since 1890 he has been professor of science in the Peking university. He is the author of Our Little Chinese Cousin and other works.

Heald, Frederic DeForest, educator, botanist and author of 3912 Ave. G, Austin, Texas, was born July 23, 1872, in Midland City, Mich. Since 1905 he has been professor of agricultural botany and botanist of the experiment station at the Nebraska experiment station. He is the author of Laboratory Manual in Elementary Biology.

Heald, William Henry, lawyer and statesman of Wilmington, Del., was born Aug. 27, 1864, in Wilmington, Del. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress. In 1901 he was appointed postmaster of his city.

Healey, Horace G., educator, lecturer, penman and author of New York City,was born Aug. 8, 1867, in Polo, Ill. He is a publisher and proprietor of Penman's Art Journal of New York City. He is the author of Healey's System of Penmanship and other works.

Healy, James P., banker of Baltimore,Md., was born in 1862 in Ireland. He is trustee of St. Mary's industrial school. He is president of the Mercantile bank, president of the Occident people's building and loan association, and a director of the Rockland Realty company of Baltimore.

Healy, John J., lawyer of 29 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 28, 1865, in Chicago, Ill. He has been state's attorney of Cook county. He is a member of the firm of Chytraus, Healy and Frost.

Healy, Robert Wallace, soldier and manufacturer of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born Oct. 22, 1836, in Chicago, Ill. He served in the civil war and was brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers. He is president of a foundry.

Healy, William, lawyer and statesman of Silver City, Idaho, was born Sept. 10, 1881, in Windham, Iowa. He graduated from the Iowa university and from the Iowa university law school. In 1911-13 he was prosecuting attorney of Owyhee county, Idaho; and in 1913 was a representative from that county to the Idaho state legislature.

Heap, David Porter, army engineer and author of 356 West California st., Pasadena, Cal., was born March 24, 1843, in Turkey. He is a lieutenant-colonel of engineers in government service. He is the author of Ancient and Modern Houses and other works.

Heard, Arthur Marston, banker of 867 Elm st., Manchester, N.H., was born Feb. 13, 1866, in Sandwich, N.H. He graduated from Amherst college with the degree of A.B. In 1893-95 he was a national bank examiner; and since 1896 has been identified with the Amoskeag National bank of Manchester, and has been president of that institution since 1905. He is president of the People's Gas Light company and a director of the Manchester and Lawrence railroad.

Heard, Carlos, banker of Biddeford,Maine, was born July 26, 1844, in Porter, Maine. He is president of the Biddeford Savings bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Heard,William Wright, banker and statesman of 1205 State st., New Orleans, La.,was born April 28, 1853, in Union Parish, La. In 1900-04 he was governor of Louisiana. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of the State National bank.

Hearn, David William, educator, clergyman and college president of 980 Park ave., New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1861, in Boston, Mass. Since 1900 he has been president of the college of Francis Xavier of New York City.

Hearne, Joseph Carter, physician of San Diego, Cal., was born March 26, 1851, in Kentucky. He served in the civil war. He is manager and owner of the Hearne training school for nurses of San Diego.

Hearst, Mrs. Phoebe Apperson, educator and philanthropist of Pleasanton, Cal., was born Dec. 3, 1842. She has established and endowed various kindergarten classes, clubs and schools.

Hearst, William Randolph, journalist, philanthropist and statesman of 135 East Twenty-eighth st., New York City, was born in 1863, in San Francisco. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress. Since 1895 he has been editor and proprietor of the New York Journal.

Heath, Mrs. Clara B., litterateur and poet of Manchester, N.H., was born in Manchester, N.H. She is the author of a volume of poems entitled Water Lilies and Other Poems and other works.

Heath, Frederic, journalist and author of 902 Locust st., Milwaukee, Wis., was born Sept. 6, 1864. in Milwaukee, Wis. He is the editor of the Social Democratic Herald. He is the author of Socialism in America and other works.

Heath, Perry Sanford, journalist and publisher of 2100 S st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 31, 1857, in Muncie, Ind. In 1878-80 he was editor and publisher of the Muncie Daily Times; and subsequently established and was connected with various publications in the west. In 1894-96 he was editor and president of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. He had charge of the McKinley literary campaign; and in 1897-1900 was first assistant and acting postmaster-general. He is now interested in various natural and artificial gas companies and mining and industrial corporations.

Heaton, Augustus George, artist and author of New York City, was born April 28, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. His best known paintings are Recall of Columbus and The Promoters. He is the author of The Heart of David and other works.

Heaton, James, banker and capitalist of Rockmart, Ga., was born in 1856, in Rockmart, Ga. He is president of the Rockmart bank.

Heaton, John Langdon, journalist and author of 131 Westminster road, Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Jan. 29, 1860, in Canton, N.Y. He is the author of The Story of Vermont and other works.

Heaton, Owen M., banker of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born Sept. 2, 1860, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is president of the Citizens' Trust company.

Hebbard, James Charles Bacon, lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born April 11, 1854, in Quebec, Canada. He moved to California in 1862. In 1891-1909 he was judge of the superior court of San Francisco. In 1883-84 he was on the editorial staff of the Seattle Evening Herald; and was captain of the Seattle rifles. He is a major in the California national guard, and in 1872-79 was military instructor at San Mateo.

Hebberd, Edward S., physician and surgeon of 331 Main st., La Crosse, Wis., was born April 28, 1872, in Logansport, Ind. He is president of the associated charities of La Crosse.

Hebberd, Robert William, public official and philanthropist of 156 State st., Albany, N.Y., was born Oct. 31, 1857, in New York City. In 1883-96 he was connected with the charity organization society of the City of New York; in 1896-1906 was secretary of the state board of charities; and in 1906-10 was commissioner of public charities. He is now secretary, state board of charities of New York. He is the author of Charity Legislation in New York during 1609-1900.

Hebert, Alvin E., lawyer and state official of Baton Rouge, La., was born Jan. 5, 1878, in St. Raphael, Iberville Parish, La. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M., LL.B. and LL.D. He was the first to advocate the abolition of the fee system basis in the public offices of Louisiana, and thereby effected a saving to the state of eighty thousand dollars in the office of the secretary of state. He is now secretary of state for Louisiana, and also insurance commissioner for Louisiana.

Hebert, Casimir, educator, linguist and poet of 168 Fullum st., Montreal, Canada, was born Jan. 12, 1879, in La Pigeonniere, Quebec. He makes a specialty of translating into French; and is a philologist and a polyglot, speaking eight languages, translating fourteen and has studied the grammar of over twenty languages, mostly European. He is a member of the Montreal historical society; and has translated and edited various works. He is preparing an edition of his own poems; and a series of books on archæology. He is professor of languages and manager of the religious and theological department of Granger Fréres.

Hebron, John L., lawyer and merchant of Vicksburg, Miss., was born July 6, 1864, in Vicksburg, Miss. He is president of the board of Mississippi levee commissioners.

Hechelman, Herman William, educator, physician and surgeon of 106 Washington st., Allegheny, Pa., was born Aug. 10, 1848, in Germany. In 1886 he was elected professor of anatomy at the Western Pennsylvania medical college.

Hechtman, Albert John, capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 18, 1857, in Minneapolis, Minn. He is president of the Abbott Orchard company and other corporations.

Hecker, Frank Joseph, capitalist of Detroit, Mich., was born July 6, 1846, in Freedom, Mich. He is a director of the People's State bank.

Hecker, John Valentine, manufacturer of New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1848, in New York City. He is president of the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling company.

Heckert, Charles Girven, educator and college president of 808 North Fountain ave., Springfield, Ohio, was born March 22, 1863, in Northumberland, Pa. Since 1903 he has been president of the Wittenberg college.

Heddaeus, John, educator, clergyman and poet of Sing Sing, N.Y., was born April 15, 1847, in Germany. He is a teacher of modern languages in the military academy in Sing Sing, N.Y. He is the author of Lord Lively.

Hedden, A. Wieting, physician and surgeon of 512 South Salina st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born May 21, 1866, in Lowville. He is great medical examiner of the Knights of the Maccabees of the World for the state of New York.

Heddeston, Winn David, educator, clergyman and author of Oxford, Miss., was born April 25, 1862, in Hale county, Ala. Since 1893 he has preached in Oxford, Miss. He is the author of Lamp Oil.

Hedemann, Christian J., business manager and diplomat of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born May 25, 1852, in Fiensburg, Denmark, now Germany. He studied marine engineering in the royal polytechnic institution of Copenhagen. In 1878 he went to Hawaii as a sugar factory engineer. In 1884 he entered the service of the Honolulu Iron Works company as assistant manager, and in 1896 was appointed general manager. In 1909 he was appointed consul of Denmark.

Hedge, Frederic Henry, librarian and bibliographer of Brookline, Mass., was born June 20, 1831, in Arlington, Mass. He has been librarian of the public library of Lawrence, Mass.

Hedge, Thomas, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Burlington, Iowa, was born June 24, 1844, in Burlington, Iowa. He served in the civil war. In 1899-1907 he was a member of congress.

Hedges, Samuel Colahan Bernard, clergyman, educator and author of Arlington, N. J., was born Nov. 7, 1854, in Circleville, Ohio. He is the author of Education in the Philippines and other works.

Hedrick, Grover C., banker of Beckley, W. Va., was born Sept. 23, 1881, in Odd, W.Va. He has been an educator and merchant and is now cashier of the Raleigh County bank. He is also secretary and treasurer of the Raleigh Realty and Construction company; and a director in the Beckley Hardware Supply company. He has been city recorder and treasurer and has held various other positions of trust and honor.

Heebner, Charles, railway official and lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 6, 1859, in Port Carbon, Pa. He graduated with the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Lafayette college. He entered railway service in 1889; and is now general solicitor of the Philadelphia and Reading railway at Philadelphia.

Heebner, Samuel Yohe, lawyer and financier of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 15, 1856, in Lee, Mass. He is a director of the Philadelphia Trust company and other corporations.

Heedy, Henry Weddell, iron manufacturer of Youngstown, Ohio, was born Dec.13, 1851, in Cleveland, Ohio. Since 1875 he has been engaged in the manufacture of iron and steel. He is vice-president of the Andrews and Hitchcock Iron company; and vice-president of the Youngstown Iron and Steel company. He is a director of the Commercial National bank; the Cleveland Insurance company and other corporations.

Heenan, Thomas E., diplomat of Newchwang, China, was born Oct. 29, 1885, in Pennsylvania. Since 1907 he has been consul-general at Newchwang.

Heermance, Edgar Laing, clergyman and author of Mankato, Minn., was born July 14, 1876, in White Plains, N.Y. In 1902 he was ordained to the ministry; and has filled a pastorate in Mankato, Minn. He is the author of Democracy in the Church.

Heermance, Martin, lawyer and state official of 56 Market st., Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born in 1852 in Hillsdale county, Mich. In 1889-92 he was district attorney for Dutchess county, N.Y. He has been chairman of the state board of tax commissioners for the state of New York.

Heermans, Forbes, journalist, playwright and author of 217 Highland ave., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Oct. 25, 1856, in Syracuse, N. Y. He is the author of Beacon Island and other works. His best known play is The Silent Witness.

Heermans, Mrs. Josephine Woodbury, educator and author of Kansas City, Mo., was born Dec. 25, 1859, in White Pigeon, Mich. She is the author of Stories from the Hebrew.

Hees, J. Ledlie, railroad president of Gloversville, N.Y., was born Jan. 24, 1862. Since 1897 he has been president of the Fonda, Johnstown and Gloversville railroad.

Heeseman, Charles John, merchant of San Francisco, Cal., was born April 10, 1871, in Charleston, S.C. He is proprietor of one of the largest clothing houses in the west.

Hefelbower, Samuel Gring, educator, clergyman and college president of Gettysburg, Pa., was born Nov. 11, 1871, in Newville, Pa. Since 1904 he has been president of the Pennsylvania college.

Heffron, John Lorenzo, physician and author of 1014 James st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Nov. 29, 1851, in New Woodstock, N.Y. He has been president of the Syracuse academy of medicine; and president of the central New York medical association. He is the author of A Century's Progress in Therapeutics.

Heflin, James Thomas, lawyer and statesman of Lafayette, Ala., was born April 9, 1869, in Louina, Ala. In 1904-09 he was a member of congress. He has been mayor of his city.

Heflin, John Washington, banker of Flemingsburg, Ky., was born Jan. 31, 1846, in Fauquier county, Va. He is cashier of the Fleming County Farmers' bank. He served in the civil war.

Hegel, George White, railway official of Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 19, 1870, in Peekskill, N.Y. He was educated in the public and private schools, which included an engineering course. In 1900 he entered railway service; and since 1911 has been chief engineer of the Chicago Junction railway.

Hegeman, John Rogers, insurance president of 1 Madison ave., New York City, was born April 18, 1844, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1870 he became vice-president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company; and since 1891 has been president of that corporation.

Hegge, Marthinus F., merchant and banker of Hatton, N.D., was born Nov. 27, 1856, in Norway. He is president of the First National bank.

Hegge, O. I., banker of Minnewaukon, N. D., was born Dec. 12, 1869, in Hundrop, Norway. He is vice-president of the Benson county State bank.

Heide, Patterson Oscar, broker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born April 4, 1866, in Durand, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Heidelbaugh, Albert M., lawyer and jurist of Ottawa, Canada, was born Nov. 10, 1864, in Peoria, Ill. He has been president of the farmers' institute. He is judge of the probate court for Putnam county.

Heidelberg, Harold Lee, banker of Anthon, Iowa, was born Feb. 5, 1854, in Allegheny, Pa. He is president of the Anthon State bank.

Heigho, Edgar Maurice, railroad president of New Meadows, Idaho, was born Oct. 23, 1867, in England. Since 1909 he has been president of the Pacific and Idaho Northern railroad.

Heil, William Franklin, clergyman and bishop of Allentown, Pa., was born May 1, 1857, in Berlinsville, Pa. In 1880 he was ordained to the ministry. He has been bishop of the United Evangelical church.

Heinemann, Benjamin, banker of Wausau, Wis., was born June 3, 1850, in Germany. He is vice-president of the Wisconsin Box company.

Heiner, Daniel Broadhead, lawyer and statesman of Meadville, Pa., was born Dec. 30, 1854, in Kittanning, Pa. In 1893-97 he was a member of congress. He has been district attorney of Pennsylvania.

Heingartner, Alexander, diplomat of Riga, Russia, was born July 14, 1857, in New York City. In 1906 he was appointed consul at Riga. His home is in New Philadelphia, Ohio.

Heiniger, Johannes, educator, clergyman and lecturer of Jersey City, N.J., was born Dec. 31, 1843, in Switzerland. He is pastor of the First Evangelical church of Jersey City.

Heins, John Lewis, railroad official of 1911 Albemarle road, Flatbush, N.Y., was born Sept. 12, 1844, in New York City. He is president of the Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad company; and a director of other corporations.

Heinz, Henry John, manufacturer of 1062 Progress st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 11, 1844, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of H. J. Heinz company; and is president and director of other corporations.

Heinze, Arthur P., lawyer and capitalist of 31 Nassau st., New York City, was born Dec. 18, 1864, in Brooklyn. He is vice-president of the United Copper company.

Heinze, F. Augustus, capitalist of Butte, Mont., was born Dec. 5, 1869, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the United Copper company.

Heisler, Charles Washington, clergyman and author of Colorado Springs, Col., was born May 16, 1857, in Minersville, Pa. In 1892 he was appointed missionary of Colorado Springs, Col. He is the author of Sacred Meditations.

Heisler, John Clement, educator, physician and author of 3829 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 27, 1862, in Lyconning county, Pa. Since 1897 he has been professor of anatomy in the medico-chirurgical college. He is the author of A Text Book of Embryology.

Heisler, William H., banker of Pemberton, N.J., was born Nov. 19, 1842, in Pemberton. He is president of the Manufacturers' National bank.

Heistand, Henry Olcott Sheldon, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born April 30, 1856, in Richwood, Ohio. He served in the Spanish-American war as adjutant-general. He is the author of Alaska, Its History and Description.

Hektoen, Ludwig, educator and author of 5803 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 2, 1863, in Wisconsin. He has been professor of pathology in the university of Chicago. He is the author of Postmortem Technique.

Helbig, Oscar Hugh, railway official of Prescott, Ark., was born Nov. 15, 1864. In 1887 he entered railway service. In 1898-1901 he was general passenger and ticket agent of the Prescott and Northwestern railway, in 1901-13 was traffic manager, and since 1913 has been traffic manager and vice-president of the same road.

Held, Anna, comedian and actress of 86 Faubourg st., Honore, Paris,France,was born March 18, 1877, in Paris. She starred in A Parlor Match in New York City and since in many other plays.

Held,George A.,banker of 24 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 5, 1862, in St. Louis, Mo. He is cashier of the International bank.

Helfenstein, John Philip, lawyer and capitalist of 147 East Independent st., Shamokin, Pa., was born Nov. 26, 1856, in Shamokin, Pa. He is a director and treasurer of the Mt. Carmel Gas Light company and other corporations.

Helfenstein, William L., underwriter and banker of 48 West Lincoln st., Shamokin, Pa., was born June 14, 1872, in Shamokin, Pa. He is secretary and treasurer of the Hillsboro Telephone company and other corporations.

Helfinstine, David M., clergyman and college president of La Grand, Iowa, was born April 14, 1852, in Clark county, Ohio. He is president of the Palmer college of La Grand, Iowa.

Hellier, Charles Edward, lawyer and business president of Boston, Mass., was born July 8, 1864, in Bangor, Maine. He is president of the Elkhorn Coal and Coke company and other corporations.

Hellman, Irving Herman, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 10, 1883, in Los Angeles, Cal. Since 1908 he has been manager of the H. W. Hellman estate and is a director of several corporations.

Helm, Harvey, lawyer and statesman of Stanford, Ky., was born in Danville, Ky. In 1897-1905 he was county attorney of Lincoln county, Ky. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Helm, Henry Benjamin, railroad official of Shreveport, La., was born Nov. 10, 1864, in Hannibal, Mo. Since 1913 he has been first vice-president of the Louisiana Railroad and Navigation company.

Helm, Joseph Church, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Denver, Col., was born June 30, 1848, in Chicago, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. Since 1904 he has been attorney of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway.

Helmick, Abraham L., public official of Thomas, W.Va., was born Aug. 31, 1864, in Circleville, W.Va. He has been president of the county court; and postmaster of his city. He is sheriff of Tucker county.

Helvering, Guy T., lawyer and statesman of Marysville, Kan., was born Jan. 10, 1878, in Felicity, Ohio. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Hemenway, James Alexander, lawyer and statesman of Boonville, Ind.,was born March 8, 1860, in Boonville, Ind. In 1895-1905 he was a member of congress. In 1903-09 he was a member of the United States senate.

Heming, Arthur Henry Howard,illustrator, artist and author of Old Lyme, Conn., was born Jan. 17, 1870, in Canada. He has illustrated many books on animal and wild life. He is the author of Spirit Lake.

Hemingway, Wilson Edwin, lawyer and jurist of Little Rock, Ark., was born Jan. 4, 1854, near Carrollton, Miss. In 1889 and 1893 he was justice of the supreme court of Arkansas. He is president of the Little Rock Railway and Electric company.

Hemlock, Daniel James, lawyer of 220 Carroll st., Waukesha, Wis., was born Aug. 6, 1854, in Cedarburg, Wis. He has been city attorney of Waukesha, and court commissioner for twenty-five years. He has been president of the Waukesha bar association; and is president of the Waukesha public library.

Hemmeter, John Cohnheim, physician,composer and author of 1734 Linden ave., Baltimore, Md., was born April 25, 1863, in Baltimore, Md. He is professor of physiology and clinical professor of medicine in the university of Maryland. He is the author of Diseases of the Stomach and other works.

Hemphill, Ashton Erastus, statesman of Holyoke, Mass., was born Sept. 17, 1849, in Acworth, N.H. In 1881-85 he was a member of the Massachusetts legislature from Holyoke, Mass.

Hemphill, Daniel, banker of Buck Grove, Iowa, was born Dec. 14, 1862, in Linn county, Iowa. He is president of the Buck Grove bank.

Hemphill, John James, lawyer, statesman and author of 2108 Bancroft place, Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 25, 1849, in Chester, S.C. In 1883-93 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Why the Solid South.

Hemphill, John W., merchant and banker of Tarentum, Pa., was born Dec. 23, 1840, in Roxbury, Pa. He is president of the National bank of Tarentum, and a director of other corporations.

Hemphill, Joseph Newton, naval officer of 1724 P st., Washington, D.C., was born June 18, 1847, in Ripley, Ohio. In 1868 he was commissioned ensign; and in 1906 he was commissioned rear-admiral. In 1907 he commanded the Philippine squadron.

Hempl, George, educator and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born June 6, 1859, in Whitewater, Wis. Since 1907 he has filled a professorship at the Leland Stanford Junior university of California. He is the author of Whist Scores and Card-Table Talk and other works.

Hempstead, Ernest Alexis, editor and banker of Meadville, Pa., was born Dec. 15, 1851, in Dimock, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the New First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Hempstead, Fay, lawyer, lecturer, author and poet of Little Rock, Ark., was born Nov. 24, 1847, in Little Rock, Ark. He is grand secretary of the Freemasons for the state of Arkansas. He is the author of Hempstead's School History of Arkansas and two volumes of poems.

Hempstead, Junius L., poet of 2720 Coliseum st., New Orleans, La., was born Nov. 14, 1842, in Dubuque, Iowa. He is represented as a poet in Golden Thoughts of American Writers; Poets of America and other standard collections.

Hemstreet, Charles, journalist and author of 45 Lafayette st., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1866, in New York City. He is the author of Nooks and Corners of Old New York; The Calendar of Old New York; and Stories of Manhattan and other works.

Hencke, John William, official expert and inventor of 3609 Clark ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 21, 1868, in Akron, Ohio. He is an officer in the local improvement bodies, and has secured for his community many benefits, among which are the playgrounds for children.

Hendee, George Whitman, lawyer and statesman of Morrisville, Vt., was born Nov. 30, 1832, in Stowe, Vt. In 1866-68 he was a member of the state senate. In 1873-79 he was a member of congress. He has also been governor.

Henderson, Charles, banker of Troy, Ala., was born in April, 1860, in Pike county, Ala. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the railroad commission of Alabama, and is also president of the Troy Bank and Trust company and other corporations.

Henderson, Charles English, physician and railroad president of Easton, Md., was born Sept. 25, 1844, in Jefferson county, W.Va. In 1888-89 he was general manager of the Ohio, Indiana and Western railroad. Since 1903 he has been first vice-president of Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company.

Henderson, Charles Hanford, educator and author of Chesham, N.H., was born Dec. 30, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a science teacher; and in 1898-99 he was director in Pratt institute of Brooklyn. He is the author of Elements of Physics and other works.

Henderson, Charles Richmond, educator and author of 5736 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 17, 1848, in Covington, Ind. Since 1892 he has been professor of sociology at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Social Spirit in America and other works.

Henderson, Ernest Flagg, educator and author of Dublin, N.H., was born May 11, 1861, in New Brighton, N.Y. He is an instructor in Wellesley college. He is the author of A History of Germany in the Middle Ages and other works.

Henderson, George Magruder, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 22, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is secretary and director of the Theodore Starr Savings bank and other corporations.

Henderson, George R., mechanical engineer of 20 West Thirty-fourth st., New York City, was born Jan. 14, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now a consulting engineer of New York City.

Henderson, Hayden, banker of Elko, Nev., was born Jan. 9, 1876, in Glasgow, Mo. He is cashier of the Henderson Banking company.

Henderson, Helen Weston, artist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 23, 1874, in Philadelphia, Pa. She is art editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer. She is the author of The Art Treasures, Washington, and other works.

Henderson, John, banker of Elko, Nev., was born Dec. 21, 1864, in Fayette, Mo. He is president of the Henderson Banking company.

Henderson, John Brooks, lawyer and author of 2200 Sixteenth st., Washington, D. C., was born Feb. 18, 1870, in Louisiana, Mo. He was attaehe to General Miles' suite in Europe on army inspection. He is the author of American Diplomatic Questions.

Henderson, John Joseph, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Meadville, Pa., was born Sept. 23, 1843, in Allegheny county, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1903-13 he was judge of the superior court of Pennsylvania.

Henderson, John Oscar, journalist of Kokomo, Ind., was born Sept. 1, 1847, in New London, Ind. Since 1876 he has been editor and owner of the Kokomo Dispatch of Indiana. In 1885 he was collector of internal revenue.

Henderson, John Steele, banker of Fulton, Mo., was born June 10, 1852, in Callaway county, Mo. He is president of the Southern bank.

Henderson, John Thomas, teacher and banker of Oberlin, Ohio, was born May 18, 1862, near McConnelsville, Ohio. He is president of the People's Banking company.

Henderson, John Thompson, educator and college president of Bristol, Va., was born July 27, 1858, in Belltown, Tenn. In 1896 he was president of the Baptist congress. Since 1903 he has been president of the Virginia institute of Bristol.

Henderson, Lizzie George, president-general of Greenwood, Miss., was born June 24, 1863, in Carroll county, Miss. Since 1906 she has been president-general of the daughters of the confederacy.

Henderson, M. J., banker of Hot Springs, Ark., was born March 5, 1864, in Arkansas. He is president of the Arkansas Trust company.

Henderson, Mrs. Mary Foote, litterateur and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1844 in Seneca Falls, N.Y. She organized the industrial art school in St. Louis. She is the author of Practical Cooking and Dinner-Giving; and Diet for the Sick.

Henderson, Peter Gorwood, farmer and banker of Central City, Iowa, was born Jan. 2, 1843, in Canada. He is president of the State bank of Central City.

Henderson, William James, journalist and author of 123 West Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born Dec. 4, 1855, in Newark, N.J. He is a journalist on the staff of the New York Times. He is the author of The Story of Music and other works.

Henderson, William Walter, lawyer and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 25, 1869, in Columbia, Mo. He is president of the Vandeventer Trust company.

Hendrick, Ellwood, broker of 25 Pine st., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1861, in New York. He is a director of the American Tube and Stamping company and other corporations.

Hendrick, Frank, lawyer and author of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 30, 1874, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Railway Control by Commission; The Power to Regulate Corporations and Commerce and other works.

Hendrick, John K., lawyer and statesman of Smithland, Ky., was born Oct. 10, 1849, in North Carolina. In 1887 he was a member of the state senate. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Hendrick, Michael J., diplomat of Belleville, Ontario, Canada, was born Dec.23,1847, in Penn Yan, N.Y. In 1893 he was appointed United States consul at Belleville.

Hendrick, Peter Aloysius, lawyer and jurist of New York City, was born July 8, 1858, in Penn Yan, N.Y. In 1907 he was elected justice of the supreme court of New York for the term ending in 1920.

Hendrick, William J., lawyer and statesman of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born March 22, 1855, in Fleming county, Ky. In 1881-82 he was a member of the Kentucky state legislature. He now maintains a law office in New York City.

Hendrickson, Charles Elvin, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Red Bank, N.J., was born Jan. 8, 1843, in New Egypt, N.J. In 1868 he was a member of the New Jersey state legislature. In 1901-08 he was justice of the supreme court of New Jersey.

Hendrickson, William Woodbury, naval officer and educator of Annapolis, Md., was born June 21, 1844, in Mount Joy, Pa. Since 1897 he has been head of the department of mathematics at the United States naval academy.

Hendrix, Clyde, banker of Decatur, Ala., was born Aug. 17, 1881, near Florence, Ala. Since 1907 he has been cashier of the chain of banks now known as Tennessee Valley bank. Since 1904 he has been notary public.

Hendrix, Eugene Russell, clergyman, college president, bishop and author of 3242 Norledge place, Kansas City, Mo., was born May 17, 1847, in Fayette, Mo. He has been president of central college of Fayette, Mo. He is the author of Around the World and other works.

Henehan, Martin J., manufacturer and banker of Seattle, Wash., was born May 8, 1857, in Ireland. He is president, treasurer and owner of the Seattle Frog and Switch company.

Henking, Charles William, banker of Gallipolis, Ohio, was born Aug. 30, 1851, in Louisville, Ky. He is president of the Ohio Valley Bank company.

Henley, Barclay, lawyer and statesman of Santa Rosa, Cal., was born March 17, 1842, in Clark county, Ind. In 1869 he was a member of the California state legislature. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Henna, J. Julio, physician and statesman of 24 West Seventy-second st., New York City, was born in 1851 in Porto Rico. He became president of the revolutionary party against the Spanish government of Porto Rico; furnished the United States with plans of invasion during the acquisition of that island; and has been one of its senators. He was one of the founders and dean of the medical board of the French hospital of New York City.

Henneman, Alexander, musician and composer of St. Louis, Mo., was born April 10, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He has been celloist in the St. Louis choral symphony orchestra. He is the composer of The Voice of Spring and other works.

Hennessy, John Joseph, clergyman and bishop of Wichita, Kan., was born July 19, 1847, in Ireland. He has filled pastorates in various churches. In 1881 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Wichita.

Hennessy, Roland Burke, journalist and author of 1493 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 31, 1870. He is editor of the New York Star. He is the author of Tales of the Heart and other works.

Henney, William F., lawyer and public official of 11 Central row, Hartford, Conn., was born Nov. 2, 1852, in Enfield. He has been mayor of his city. He is a director of the Hartford Electric Light company.

Henning, Edward Julius, lawyer and jurist of San Diego, Cal.,was born Dec. 28, 1868, in Iron Ridge, Wis. In 1901-10 he was assistant United States attorney of the eastern district of Wisconsin. He is a trustee of the Moose institute.

Henninger, Jacob Frederick, banker of Monroeville, Ohio, was born Feb. 22, 1869, in Monroeville, Ohio. He is cashier of the Farmers and Citizens' Banking company.

Hennisee, Argalus Garey, soldier of 1723 West Ninth st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 16, 1839, in Trappe, Md. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of first lieutenant. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Henri, Robert, painter and artist of 10 Gramercy park, New York City, was born in 1865 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Among his paintings are La Neige and the Girl in the White Waist. He is an instructor at the Henri school of art in New York City.

Henrotin, Charles, banker, broker and diplomat of 209 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 15, 1848, in Belgium. In 1893 he was a director of the world's columbian exposition. He is now consul-general of Turkey at Chicago.

Henrotin, Ellen M., philanthropist of 70 East Goethe st., New York City, was born July 1, 1847, in Portland, Maine. In 1894-98 she was president of the general federation of women's clubs at Chicago.

Henry, Albert M., lawyer of Detroit,Mich., was born Sept. 20, 1845, at Grand Rapids, Mich. He has been a member of the city council of Detroit.

Henry, Alfred Hylas, clergyman and author of North Yakima, Wash., was born April 4, 1865, in East Homer, N.Y. He has filled pastorates in the various churches. He is the author of By Order of the Prophet, a Tale of Utah.

Henry, Arthur, journalist and author of North Yakima, Wash., was born Nov. 27, 1867, in Pecatonica, Ill. He is now with A. S. Barnes and company, publishers. He is the author of A Princess of Arcady and Island Cabin and other works.

Henry, Bayard, lawyer and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 15, 1857, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Tradesman's National bank and various other corporations.

Henry, Charles Lewis, lawyer and statesman of 123 East Market st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born July 1, 1849, in Green township, Ind. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company.

Henry, Charles Philip, physician of Washington, D.C., was born June 5, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1889 he has been assistant surgeon to the United States navy with the rank of lieutenant.

Henry, Christian F., merchant and banker of Rockford, Ill., was born March 15, 1854, in Plymouth, Mass. He is vice-president of the Rockford National bank.

Henry, Edward Lamson, painter and artist of 222 West Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Jan. 12, 1841, in Charleston, S.C. The first picture by his hand that attracted attention was Railway Station of a New England Road.

Henry, Edward Stevens, farmer, banker and statesman of Rockville, Conn., was born Feb. 10, 1836, in Gill, Mass. He has been mayor of Rockville; and in 1887-88 he was a state senator. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress.

Henry, Frederick Augustus, lawyer and jurist of 1817 East Sixty-third st.,Cleveland, Ohio, was born June 16, 1867, in Bainbridge, Ohio. In 1905 he was elected circuit judge of Ohio at Cleveland. He is president of the board of trustees of Hiram college.

Henry, Horace Chapin, railroad contractor and banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Oct. 6, 1844, in North Bennington, Vt. He is a veteran of the civil war, and is a member of the grand army of the republic. With partners he built twenty-five hundred miles of railroad, the last contract being seven hundred miles for the Milwaukee and St. Paul extension to Puget Sound. He is president of the Metropolitan bank of Seattle, and president of the Northern Life Insurance company. He is also president of the antituberculosis league of King county, and is identified with various other public and charitable organizations.

Henry, Hugh, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Concord, N.H., was born March 21, 1838, in Chester, Vt. He has been a member of the Vermont house of representatives; and a member of the state senate. He is pension agent at Concord, N.H.

Henry, Hugh Horatio, lawyer and public official of Chester, Vt., was born June 13, 1883, in Chester, Vt. He graduated from Yale college; and is a successful lawyer. In 1910 he was executive clerk for Governor John A. Mead; and since 1912 has been a member of the executive committee of the national conference of weights and measures.

Henry, Jesse W., banker of Jefferson City, Mo., was born July 16, 1854, in Howard county, Mo. He is cashier of the Merchants and Mechanics' bank.

Henry, John A., lawyer of 5 North La Salle st., Chicago, Ill.,was born May 29, 1848, in Sidney, Ohio. He has been city attorney of Indianapolis. He is now engaged in the general practice of law.

Henry, John Jackson, merchant and banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 28, 1859, in Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. He is at the head of the firm of Henry, Bayard and company.

Henry, John Norman, physician of 252 South Sixteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 12, 1873, in Philadelphia. He is physician to the out patient department of the Pennsylvania hospital.

Henry, John William, banker of 1319 F st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1865 in Prince George county,Md. He is senior member of Lewis Johnston and company.

Henry, Nelson Herrick, physician and surgeon of 59 West Ninth st., New York City, was born April 27, 1855, in Staten Island, N.Y. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of major and chief surgeon. He has been a representative in the state legislature; and since 1902 has been adjutant-general of the state of New York.

Henry,Patrick, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Brandon, Miss., was born Feb. 12, 1843, in Madison county, Miss. In 1878 and 1890 he was a member of the Mississippi legislature. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress.

Henry, Patrick, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Vicksburg, Miss., was born Feb. 15, 1861, in Vicksburg, Miss. He has been attorney for the ninth judicial district of Mississippi. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Henry, Philip Walter, civil engineer of 90 West st., New York City, was born March 24, 1864, in Scranton, Pa. He is president of the South American Construction company.

Henry,Robert Edwards,banker of 52 Beaver st., New York City, was born June 12, 1877, in Stapleton, Long Island, N.Y. He is president of the Montague Realty company.

Henry, Robert Lee, lawyer and statesman of Waco, Texas, was born May 12, 1864, in Linden, Texas. He has been first office assistant attorney-general. In 1897-1911 he was a member of congress.

Henry, Stuart Oliver, litterateur and author of 255 West Ninety-seventh st., New York City, was born Sept. 17, 1860, at Clifton Springs, N.Y. He is the author of Paris Day and Evening; Hours with Famous Parisians; French Etudes and Rhapsodies and other works.

Henry, W. Laird,journalist and statesman of Cambridge, Md., was born Dec. 20, 1864, in Cambridge, Mass. He has been editor of the Chronicle of Maryland. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

Henry, Walter O., physician and surgeon of Omaha, Neb., was born Feb. 19, 1858, in Columbus, Ill. He is professor of gynecology in the John A. Creighton medical college at Omaha.

Henry, William Arnon, retired educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born June 16, 1850, in Norwalk, Ohio. Since 1907 he has been professor emeritus of agriculture of the college of agriculture. He is the author of Feeds and Feeding.

Henry, William Barklie, banker of 1417 Chestnut st., Philadelphia,Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the American Guard Rail Fastener company and a director of other corporations.

Henry, William George, manager of 525 Sheridan road, Chicago, Ill., was born April 15, 1862, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Since 1898 he has been manager of the western branch of the Detroit,Michigan,Stove works.

Henry, Wood, railroad official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 26, 1839, in Mobile, Ala. Since 1905 he has been vice-president of the Midland Valley railroad.

Hensel, William Uhler, lawyer and author of Lancaster, Pa., was born Dec. 4, 1851, in Quarryville, Pa. He has been attorney-general of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Lives of T. A. Hendricks and Grover Cleveland.

Henshall, James Alexander, public official and author of Tupelo, Miss., was born Feb. 29, 1836, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1896 he has been superintendent of the United States fish commission station at Bozeman, Mont. He is the author of Book of Black Bass and other works.

Henshaw, Frederick Valdemar, consulting engineer of 14 Wall st., New York City, was born August, 1866, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He was educated at Bishop's college of Montreal, specializing in chemistry and engineering. He is director of the United Utilities company, the Reading Transit and Light company, and the Arizona Power company. He is consulting engineer with William P. Bonbright and company,inc., of New York City; and is also vice-president of the Easton Power Light corporation; and vice-president of the Colonial Power and Light company.

Henshaw,Henry Wetherbee,naturalist, ethnologist and author of Washington,D.C., was born March 3, 1850, in Cambridge, Mass. In 1905 he joined the biological survey. He is the author of Birds of the Hawaiian Islands.

Henshaw, Nevil Gratiot, author of Charlottesville, Va., was born April 23, 1880, in St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of Aline of the Grand Woods.

Hensley, Mrs. Sophia Almon, lecturer and author of 150 West Forty-seventh st., New York City, was born May 31, 1866, in Nova Scotia. She is president of the society for the study of life of New York City. She is the author of Woman's Love-Letters and other works.

Henson, Poindexter Smith,clergyman,journalist and theologian of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 7, 1831, in Fluvanna county, Va. He is editor of the Baptist Teacher; and since 1903 has filled a pastorate in Boston.

Hepburn, Alonzo Barton, banker and author of 83 Cedar st., New York City, was born July 24, 1846, in Colton, N.Y. Since 1899 he has been president of the Case National bank and a director of several corporations. He is the author of History of Coinage and Currency and other works.

Hepburn, Andrew Dousa, educator, clergyman and author of Oxford, Ohio, was born Nov. 14, 1830, in Williamsport, Pa. Since 1885 he has been professor of English literature at Miami university of Oxford,Ohio. He is the author of Manual of English Rhetoric.

Hepburn, Charles McGuffey, educator,lawyer and author of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Aug. 19, 1858, in Rockbridge county, Va. Since 1903 he has been professor of law in the Indiana university. He is the author of Cases on Code Pleading and other works.

Hepburn, Neil Jamieson, oculist,aurist and author of New York City, was born Oct. 8, 1846, in Scotland. He has been lecturer on ophthalmology at the New York polyclinic. He is the author of Notes on Hypodermic Use of Cocaine and other works.

Hepburn, William Peter, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Clarinda, Iowa, was born Nov. 4, 1833, in Wellsville, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. In 1881-87 and 1893-1909 he was a member of congress.

Herbermann, Charles George, litterateur and editor of 346 Convent ave., New York City, was born in Germany. Since 1905 he has been editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia. He has been president of the United States Catholic historical society.

Herbert, Hilary Abner, soldier, lawyer and statesman of 1419 G st., Washington, D.C., was born March 12, 1834, in Laurensville, S. C. In 1877-93 he was a member of congress. In 1893-97 he was secretary of the navy.

Herbert, J. Frederick, physician of 1516 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa.. was born Jan. 8, 1860, in Philadelphia. He has invented several instruments which have proved of great value to his profession.

Herbert, James M.,railroad official of Denver, Col., was born Jan. 15, 1863, in Belmont, Pa. In 1905-06 he was vice-president of the Colorado and Southern railroad.

Herbert, John, lawyer of 19 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 2, 1849, in Wentworth, N.H. He has been president of the Eastern Forge company and other corporations.

Herbert, Victor, musician and composer of 321 West One Hundred and Eighth st., New York City, was born Feb. 1, 1859, in Dublin, Ireland. Since 1898 he has been conductor of the Pittsburgh orchestra. He is the author of several works for the orchestra.

Herckert, Charles Girden, educator and college president of Springfield, Ohio, was born March 22, 1863, in Northumberland,Pa. He is managing editor of the Lutheran World. Since 1903 he has been president of Wittenberg college of Springfield, Ohio.

Herd, James Marshall, lawyer and editor of Nashville, Tenn., was born July 25, 1855, in Summer county, Tenn. In 1894 he was chief editor of the Nashville-American, a leading democratic journal.

Herder, Hermann, publisher and bookseller of St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 14, 1864, in Freiburg, Baden. Since 1888 he has been at the head of the publishing house of B. Herder, at Freiburg, founded in 1801, with branch houses in St. Louis, Mo., and in several European cities.

Hereford, James Edwards, banker of Clayton, Mo., was born Jan. 29, 1858, in Ferguson, Mo. He is president of the Trust company of St. Louis county.

Herendeen, Edward Gideon, lawyer of Elmira, N.Y., was born Oct. 19, 1857, in Macedon. He is president of the Herendeen Manufacturing company of Geneva.

Herford, Oliver, journalist, author and poet of New York City, was born in December, 1863. He is on the staff of the Criterion, of New York City. He is the author of The Bashful Earthquake and other works.

Hering, Carl, electrical engineer and author of 929 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 29, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Digest of Electrical Literature; Wiring Computer and Conversion Tables.

Hering, Emil, artist and painter of Ridgewood, N.J.,was born Aug. 31, 1872, in Staten Island, N.Y. He was a pupil of W. M. Chase, Carl Marr and Benjamin Constant. He has attained prominence as a successful painter and artist, and his works have been exhibited in various art galleries.

Hering, Rudolph, engineer and author of Montclair, N.J., was born Feb. 26, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1867 he graduated from the Dresden polytechnic institute of Germany. In 1872 he was engaged as astronomer of the Yellowstone national park; and in 1873-80 was assistant city engineer of Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1880 he has been engaged in private practice; and is an authority upon sewage, water supply and refuse disposal. He has been consulting engineer for the water supply or sewerage works of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Buffalo, Cleveland, Atlanta, New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Honolulu. He was a member of the engineering committee for an additional water supply for New York City. He is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science. He is the author of many published reports on sewerage and water supply of cities.

Herman, John Armstrong, lawyer of Harrisburg, Pa., was born Nov. 28, 1853, in Silver Spring township, Pa. He graduated from Princeton university; and since 1877 has practiced law in Harrisburg. He is identified with the republican party; and is a member of the society of colonial wars of Pennsylvania and a member of the Sons of the Revolution of Pennsylvania.

Hermann, Binger, lawyer banker and statesman of Roseburg, Ore., was born Feb. 19, 1843, in Lonaconing, Md. He has been a representative in the Oregon state legislature. In 1885-97 he was a member of congress.

Hernandez, Jose Conrado, lawyer and jurist of San Juan, P.R., was born Feb. 19, 1849, in Aibonito, P.R. Since 1909 he has been chief justice of the supreme court of Porto Rico.

Herndon, William S., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Tyler, Texas, was born Nov. 27, 1837, in Rome, Ga. He served through the civil war. In 1871-75 he was a member of congress.

Herold, George Anderson, banker and broker of Cowen, W.Va., was born Aug. 23, 1855, in Nicholas county, W.Va. He is president of the First National bank of Webster Springs.

Heron, Bijou, actor of New York City, was born in 1863. He appeared in many plays throughout the United States; and has been leading man for several years.

Heron, Ernest Alvah, railway official of Oakland, Cal., was born May 18, 1852, in Galena, Ill. Since 1895 he has been president of the Oakland Traction company.

Herr, Edwin, railway president of Edgewood, Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 3, 1860, in Lancaster, Pa. He graduated from the Sheffield scientific school of Yale university. He entered railway service in 1878, and has filled positions as telegraph operator, draftsman, master mechanic, superintendent and general manager. In 1905-11 he was vice-president, and since 1911 has been president of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company.

Herreid, Charles M., lawyer and statesman of Aberdeen, S.D., was born Oct. 20, 1857, in Dane county, Wis. In 1901-05 he was governor of South Dakota. He is vice-president of the Dakota and Central Telephone company.

Herreshoff, John Brown, ship builder of Bristol, R.I., was born April 24, 1841, in Bristol, R.I. He is president and treasurer of the Herreshoff Manufacturing company.

Herreshoff, John Brown Francis, chemist and inventor of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born Feb. 7, 1850, in Bristol, R.I. In 1869-72 he was professor of analytical chemistry at Brown university. He invented a process for the manufacture of sulphuric acid.

Herrick, Addison Emery, lawyer and bank treasurer of Bethel, Maine, was born June 24, 1847, in Greenwood, Maine. He is treasurer of the Bethel Savings bank.

Herrick, Charles Judson, zoologist and author of 1532 East Sixty-sixth st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 6, 1868, in Minneapolis, Minn. Since 1907 he has been professor of neurology in the university of Chicago. He is the author of The Cranial and First Spinal Nerves of Menidia and other works.

Herrick, Chessman Abiah, educator and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 21, 1866, in Readwood, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been director in history at the school commerce in the central high school of Philadelphia. He is the author of Commercial Education and other works.

Herrick, Mrs. Christine, author of 250 West Ninety-fourth st., New York City, was born in 1859 in Newark, N.J. She is the author of Housekeeping Made Easy; The Chafing Dish Supper; The Little Dinner and other works.

Herrick, Clinton B., physician, surgeon and author of Troy, N.Y., was born Aug. 27, 1859, in West Troy, N.Y. He has been president of the medical association of New York. He is the author of Railway Surgery.

Herrick, D. Cady, lawyer and jurist of 5 Nassau st., New York City, was born April 12, 1846, in Esperance, N.Y. In 1891-1905 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of New York for the third district.

Herrick, Eli West, merchant and miller of 255 Mullin st., Watertown, N.Y., was born June 11, 1856, at Black River, N.Y. He has been president of the Watertown chamber of commerce. Since 1905 he has been president of the firm of A. H. Herrick and Son.

Herrick, Francis Hobart, educator and author of South Euclid, Ohio, was born Nov. 19, 1858, in Woodstock, Vt. He is professor of biology at Adelbert college of the western reserve university. He is the author of The Home Life of Wild Birds and other works.

Herrick, George Frederic, missionary and author of 138 West One Hundred and Fourth st., New York City, was born April 19, 1834, in Milton, Vt. Since 1870 he has been professor of church history in the theological seminary in Marsovan, Turkey. He is the author of History of the Christian Religion and Church and other works.

Herrick, James Bryan, physician and author of 122 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 11, 1861, in Oak Park, Ill. Since 1900 he has been professor of medicine at the Rush medical college of Chicago. He is the author of A Handbook of Medical Diagnosis.

Herrick, John Jacob, lawyer of 107 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 25, 1845, in Hillsboro. He is a member of the firm of Herrick, Allen, Boyesen and Martin; and also of the Chicago bar association.

Herrick, Myron T., soldier, banker and statesman of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 9, 1854, in Huntington, Ohio. In 1903-06 he was governor of Ohio. He is president of the American bankers' association.

Herrick, Robert, educator and author of Chicago, Ill., was born April 26, 1868, in Cambridge, Mass. He has been a rhetorical and technical instructor for a number of years; and since 1905 professor of English in the university of Chicago. He is the author of The Man Who Wins; The Web of Life; The Real World and other works.

Herrick,Robert Frederick,lawyer and banker of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 8, 1866, in Medford, Mass. He is president of the Winthrop National bank.

Herrick, Mrs. Sophie McIlvaine, author of Plainfield, N.J., was born March 26, 1837, in Gambier, Ohio. She is on The Century editorial staff. She is the author of The Earth in Past Ages and other works.

Herriman, Edward Curry, lawyer and author of Boston, Mass., was born Dec.31, 1869, in Massachusetts. He is the author of The Law of Contracts.

Herrin, William Franklin, railroad official of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 7, 1854, near Jacksonville, Ore. He is vice-president of the Southern Pacific company.

Herring,Cornelius Taylor,banker and stock raiser of Amarillo, Texas, was born Nov. 13, 1849, in Grayson county, Texas. Since 1880 he has been engaged in the cattle business; and since 1898 in the banking business. He is president of the Herring National bank of Vernon, Texas; president of the Herring Lumber company of Vernon, Texas; president of the Amarillo National Life Insurance company; and president of the panhandle cattle raisers' association of Texas.

Herring, James Lewis, banker and lawyer of Ashville, Ala., was born Sept. 7, 1876, in Springville, Ala. In 1898-1899 he was clerk of the probate court of St. Clair county. He is now judge of that court. He is president of the Ashville Savings bank and Bank of Springville.

Herring, William P., manufacturer of Watertown,N.Y., was born Oct. 22, 1844, in Jefferson county, N.Y. Until 1864 he was a manufacturer of leather; and in 1864-65 served in the civil war. Since 1878 he has been engaged in cattle raising in the southwest; and has also been engaged in railroad work and in the manufacture of paper. He is president of the Jefferson Paper company; and is a director of the Northern New York Trust company of Watertown and other corporations.

Herringshaw, Thomas William, journalist, publisher, genealogist and author, was born Jan. 27, 1858, on the eastern coast of Lincolnshire, England. He received his education in the national schools, at the Chicago athenæum, and at the Chicago union college of law; and during 1875-79 he followed his trade of printer in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago. In 1879 he founded the Farm, Field and Fireside, of which he was editor and sole proprietor; and when the Farm, Field and Fireside Publishing company was incorporated in 1880 he was made president. Having disposed of his interests in the above publication, he established a printing office in Chicago; and in 1884 founded the American Publishers' association, of which he has since been president. He is the author of Home Occupations; Prominent Men and Women of the Day; Aids to Literary Success; and Mulierology; and he has edited and compiled a score of works, the most notable of which are Poets of America; Poetical Quotations; The Spalding Memorial; Herringshaw's Encyclopedia of American Biography; The American Statesman; Progressive Americans; Successful Americans; Herringshaw's American Blue Book of Biography; and other works.

Herrmann, Richard, manufacturer and founder of Dubuque, Iowa, was born March 10, 1849, in Saxony. He is president of the cabinetmakers' association of Dubuque,Iowa. He founded the Herrmann museum of natural history.

Herron, George Davis, clergyman, educator and author of San Dominico, Florence, Italy, was born in 1862 in Indiana. He has been professor of applied Christianity in Iowa college. He is the author of The Call of the Cross and other works.

Herron, John W.,broker of Pittsburgh,Pa., was born in 1851 in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is vice-president of the Commercial National bank and a director of other corporations.

Herschel, Clemens, civil engineer and inventor of 2 Wall st., New York City, was born March 23, 1842. He is the inventor of the venturi water meter. He is the author of Continuous Revolving Bridges and other works.

Hersey, George Dallas, physician and author of 148 Broad st., Providence, R.I., was born in 1847 in Massachusetts. He is the author of Medical History of the Colony and State of Rhode Island.

Hersey, Heloise Edwina, educator, editor and author of 78 Mt. Vernon st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 22, 1855, in Oxford, Maine. She has been a lecturer and editorial writer on Youth's Companion. She is the author of To Girls, a Budget of Letters.

Hersey,Ira G.,statesman of Houlton,Maine, was born March 31, 1858, in Hodgdon,Maine. He was educated at Houlton academy. He is a successful lawyer of New England; is a member of the republican party; and has filled various positions of trust and honor. He has been past grand master of Maine Independent Order of Odd Fellows; in Masonry, is a Knight Templar; and past exalted ruler in the Elks. He is now serving his second term of 1911-13 as a representative in the Maine state legislature.

Hershey, Amos Shartle, educator and author of Bloomington, Ind., was born July 11, 1867, in Hockersville, Pa. He is now professor of political science and international law at the Indiana state university. He is the author of The International Law and Diplomacy of the Russo-Japanese War.

Hershey, Scott F., lecturer, clergyman and author of Newcastle, Pa., was born in 1852 in Colburn, Ind. Since 1908 he has preached in New Castle, Del. He is the author of The Roman Papacy and The Hereafter.

Herter, Christian Archibald, physician and author of 819 Madison ave., New York City, was born Sept. 3, 1865, in Glenville, Conn. In 1903 he was professor of pharmacology and therapeutics at Columbia university. He is the author of Diagnosis of Nervous Diseases and other works.

Hertz, Henry Lamartine, government official of 4438 Magnolia ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 19, 1847, in Copenhagen, Denmark. He has been United States collector of internal revenue for the first revenue district of Illinois.

Hertzberg, Hans Rudolph Reinhard, journalist,lawyer, author and poet of 1421 North Clark st., Chicago,Ill., was born July 1, 1871, in San Antonio, Texas. He has been editor of various papers. He is editor and proprietor of Hertzberg's Weekly. He is the author of Lyrics of Love, a volume of verse.

Hertzler,Arthur E.,surgeon of Kansas City, Mo., was born July 26, 1870, in West Point, Iowa. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.D. and Ph.D. In 1902-09 he was professor of pathology in the university medical college of Kansas City, and since 1909 has been associate-professor of surgery in that institution. He has made researches on the anatomy and pathology of the peritoneum and kindred subjects.

Hervey, Dwight B., clergyman and college president of Edinboro, Pa., was born June 4, 1834, in Martinsburg, Ohio. He has been president of the Granville female college. He now fills a pastorate in Edinboro.

Hervey, Walter Lowrie, educator and author of 351 West One Hundred and Fourteenth st., New York City, was born Sept. 28, 1862, in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. Since 1894 he has been dean of the Chautauqua school of pedagogy. He is the author of Picture Works.

Hervey, William Rhodes,lawyer and banker of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 26, 1870, in Tennessee. In 1909-10 he was judge of the superior court of California. He is vice-president of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank.

Herzog, Felix Benedict, lawyer and inventor of 45 East Thirty-first st., New York City, was born Dec. 27, 1859, in New York City. He is the inventor of electrical devices, including automatic switch boards, annunciators, and other devices.

Heslin, Thomas, clergyman and bishop of Natchez, Miss., was born in April, 1847, in Ireland. Since 1889 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Natchez.

Hess, Luther C., lawyer, miner and banker of Fairbanks, Alaska, was born Dec. 28, 1865, in Illinois. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Fairbanks.

Hessberg, Albert, lawyer and capitalist of 57 State st., Albany, N.Y., was born Dec. 13, 1856, in Albany. He was vice-president of the New York state bar association. He is a director of the National Commercial bank of Albany.

Hesse, Bernhard Conrad, chemist and scientist of 90 William st.,New York City, was born Oct. 3, 1869, in Saginaw, Mich. He has received the degrees of Ph.C., B.S. and Ph.D. In 1896-1906 he was research chemist in the university at Ludwigshafen-on-Rhine; and since 1906 has been a consulting chemist of New York City. In 1912 he was secretary of the eighth international congress of applied chemistry.

Hesseltine, Eli A., librarian of Wilbur, Wash., was born June 25, 1860, in Brown county,Kan. He owns several thousand acres of land. He has been police-judge, city attorney and acting mayor. He donated and established a public library in Wilbur, of which he is librarian.

Hessler, John Charles, educator and author of Decatur, Ill., was born Nov. 27, 1869, in Syracuse, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been professor of chemistry in the James Millikin university. He is the author of Essentials to Chemistry.

Hester, St. Clair, clergyman of 207 Washington Park, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Jan. 29, 1868, in Oxford, N.C. Since 1902 he has been archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Brooklyn.

Hester, William Van Anden, publisher of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1858 in Brooklyn. He is secretary and treasurer of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

Heston, Alfred Miller, journalist, genealogist and author of Atlantic City, N.J., was born April 30, 1854. He has been comptroller of Atlantic City, N.J.; and commissioner of sinking funds. He is the author of The Heston Hand Book and other works.

Heston, John William, educator and college president of Madison, S.D., was born Feb. 1, 1854, in Bellefontaine, Pa. In 1879-90 he was a member of the faculty of the Pennsylvania state college, filling the chair of science and the art of teaching. In 1894-96 he practiced law. In 1892-93 he was president of the Washington agricultural college and school of science; in 1896-1903 he was president of the South Dakota agricultural college; and since 1905 has been president of the state normal school at Madison.

Hetzler, Howard George, railroad president of Chicago, Ill., was born April 19,1863, in La Moille, Ill. Since 1910 he has been president of the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad.

Hewett, Edgar Lee, educator, lecturer and college president of Santa Fe, N.M., was born Nov. 23, 1865, in Warren county, Ill. He has been president of the New Mexico normal university. He is a lecturer on archaeology, sciology and education.

Hewett, Waterman Thomas, educator and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Jan. 10, 1846, in Miami, Mo. Since 1883 he has held the chair of German literature at Cornell university. He is the author of The Frisian Language and Literature and other works.

Hewins, Caroline Maria, educator, librarian and author of Hartford, Conn., was born Oct. 10, 1846, in Roxbury, Mass. Since 1892 she has been librarian of the Hartford public library. She is the author of Books for the Young and other works.

Hewitt, Charles Nathaniel, physician and educator of Red Wing, Minn., was born June 3, 1836, in Vergennes, Vt. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigade surgeon. He is professor of public health in the university of Minnesota.

Hewitt, Mrs. Emma Churchill, journalist and author of Ardmore, Pa., was born Feb. 1, 1850, in New Orleans, La. She is the author of Ease in Conversation and other works.

Hewitt, Erskine, lawyer of 17 Burling Slip, New York City, was born in 1871 in New York City. He is a director of the Sterling Iron and Railway company and numerous other corporations.

Hewitt, Henry, lumber manufacturer and capitalist of 501 North Fourth st., Tacoma, Wash., was born Oct. 22, 1840, in Lancashire, England. He is president of the Hewitt Investment company.

Hewlett, James Monroe, architect of 345 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1868, in Lawrence, Long Island. He is a member of the American institute of architects and other societies.

Hewson, Addinell, educator and physician of 2120 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 2, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1897 he has been professor of anatomy at the Philadelphia polyclinic college for graduates in medicine. Since 1894 he has been surgeon to St. Timothy's hospital at Roxborough. He has edited the American edition of Holden's Dissecter.

Hexamer, Charles John, civil engineer and insurance surveyor of 419 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 9, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is owner and manager of the firm of Hexamer and Son; and is president of the National German American alliance.

Hexter, Jules Kann, banker of Victoria, Texas, was born Aug. 13, 1860, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the Levi Bank and Trust company.

Heyburn, Weldon Brinton, statesman of Wallace, Idaho, was born May 23, 1852, in Delaware county, Pa. In 1903-09 he was a member of the United States senate.

Heydecker, Edward LeMoyne, lawyer and author of New York City, was born June 12, 1863, in New York City. He is the author of Commentary on Mechanics' Liens and other works.

Heyer, John Charles, banker of Boston, Mass., was born April 6, 1882, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the Federal Trust company.

Heyler, Charles Joseph, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 7, 1856, in Hamilton, Ohio. He is president of the Union Hollywood Water company and other corporations.

Heyward, Duncan Clinch, banker and statesman of Columbia, S.C., was born June 24, 1864, in Richland county, S.C. In 1903-07 he was governor of South Carolina. He is president of the Columbia Savings bank, and of the Columbia Savings Bank and Trust company.

Heywood, Abbot Rodney, lawyer and banker of Ogden, Utah, was born Sept. 16, 1855, in Grafton, Mass. He has been city attorney; and president of the Ogden clearing house. Since 1907 he has been president of the Commercial National bank.

Heywood, Charles, marine officer of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 3, 1839, in Maine. He served in the civil war; and attained the rank of breveted major and lieutenant-colonel. He also served in the Spanish-American war and was made commandant of the United States marine corps, with the rank of brigadier-general.

Heywood, Joseph Edgar, farmer, stock raiser and banker of Panguitch, Utah, was born in August, 1868, in New Harmony, Utah. He is president of the State bank.

Hibbard, Angus Smith, electrical engineer of 15 Dey st., New York City, was born Feb. 8, 1860, in Milwaukee, Wis. He has been general manager and second vice-president of the Chicago Telephone company, now with the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Hibbard, Frank, wholesale merchant of 303 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 10, 1873, in Chicago, Ill. He is fourth vice-president of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett and company, wholesale dealers in hardware. He is also a director of the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings bank.

Hibbard, Frederick Cleveland, sculptor and designer of 923 East Sixtieth st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 15, 1881, in Canton, Mo. He was the sculptor, designer and contractor of the soldiers and sailors' monument of Princeton, Ill., and of numerous other monuments.

Hibbard, George Abiah, author of 35 Beaumont st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1858 in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the author of The Governor, and Other Stories and other works.

Hibbard, H. Wade, educator, mechanical engineer and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 10, 1863, in Burmah. Since 1909 he has been head of the division of mechanical engineering at the university of Missouri. He is the author of Discipline and Management of Men in Shops.

Hibbard, John Denison, business president of 226 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 2, 1864, in Chicago. He is president of the John Davis company.

Hibben, John Grier, educator and college president of Princeton, N.J., was born April 19, 1861, in Peoria, Ill. In 1887-91 he was pastor of the Presbyterian church of Chambersburg, Pa. In 1891-92 he was instructor in logic, in 1892-94 instructor in logic and psychology, and subsequently professor of logic; and since 1912 president of Princeton university. He is the author of Inductive Logic; The Problems of Philosophy; Hegel's Logic; Deductive Logic; The Philosophy of the Enlightenment; A Defense of Prejudice and other works.

Hibberd, John A., lawyer of 102 South Michigan st., South Bend, Ind., was born

Nov. 12, 1855, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Hickey, D. W., railway official of Belle Fourche, S.D., was born Oct. 24, 1867, in Dalton, N.Y. He entered railway service in 1880 with the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad. In 1888-95 he was storekeeper for the Moosic Mountain Coal company, and in 1895-1900 was bookkeeper for the same company. Since 1900 he has been general manager and since 1906 vice-president of the Wyoming and Missouri River railroad.

Hickey, Thomas F., clergyman and bishop of 70 Frank st., Rochester, N.Y. In 1905 he was consecrated vicar-general of the diocese of Rochester, N.Y.

Hickley, Arthur Samuel, manufacturer and inventor of Asbury Park, N.J., was born Aug. 13, 1852, in England. He is president of the Hickley Launch and Electrical Manufacturing company.

Hicks, Alfred, soldier, coal operator and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 21, 1841, near Cardiff, Wales. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He is president of the Allegheny Steel and Iron company and of other corporations.

Hicks, Emmett R., lawyer and fraternal president of Oshkosh, Wis., was born March 7, 1854, in Waukau,Wis. In 1899-1903 he was attorney-general of Wisconsin. He is president of the Webster manual training school.

Hicks, Frederick Charles, educator and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 1, 1863, in St. Clair, Mich. Since 1900 he has been professor of economics in the university of Cincinnati. He is the author of Lectures on the Theory of Economics.

Hicks, Gwin, journalist and public official of Olympia, Wash., was born Oct. 28, 1855, near Olympia, Wash. He has been collector of internal revenue; and was commissioned lieutenant-colonel. In 1897 he was elected state printer.

Hicks, Ira R., clergyman, editor and publisher of 3401 Franklin ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 18, 1844, in Bristol, Tenn. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. He is editor and proprietor of Word and Works.

Hicks, John, journalist, diplomat and author of Oshkosh, Wis., was born April 12, 1847, in Auburn, N.Y. He served in the civil war. Since 1905 he has been United States minister to Chile. He is the author of The Man from Oshkosh.

Hicks, Lewis Ezra, educator and author of 2711 Durant ave., Berkeley, Cal., was born March 10, 1839, in Kalida, Ohio. He is professor of geology at the Denison university of Granville, Ohio. He is the author of A Critique of Design Arguments, or an Examination of the Methods of Reasoning in Natural Theology.

Hidden, William Earl, mineralogist and discoverer of 25 Orleans st., Newark, N.J., was born Feb. 16, 1853, in Providence, R.I. In 1880 he discovered mine producing emeralds and transparent emerald-green gems.

Hiddleson, Clifford S., physician of Akron, Ohio. He graduated from the medical department of the university of Cincinnati; and is a member of the American medical association and other medical societies. He has attained success in the practice of his profession and has filled various positions of trust and honor.

Hiemenz, Charles Henry, broker of 214 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 30, 1857, in St. Louis, Mo. He is treasurer of the D. R. Francis and Brother Commission company.

Hieronymus, Robert Enoch, educator and college president of Eureka, Ill., was born Dec. 8, 1862, near Atlanta, Ill. Since 1900 he has been president of Eureka college of Illinois.

Higbie, Robert Winfield, manufacturer and capitalist of Jamaica, N.Y., was born March 5, 1863, in Springfield, N.Y. He has been president of the national wholesale lumber dealers association. Since 1885 he has been engaged in the lumber business; and is president of the Robert W. Higbie company and other corporations.

Higby, Clinton D., educator, lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 13, 1860, in Crawford county, Pa. He is the author of A General Outline of Civil Government.

Higgins, Anthony, lawyer and statesman of Wilmington, Del., was born Oct. 1, 1840, in New Castle county, Del. He has been United States attorney for Delaware. In 1889-95 he was a member of the United States senate.

Higgins, Edward E., publisher of New York City, was born April 4, 1864, in Chelsea, Mass. He is president of The Success company, publishers of the Success Magazine.

Higgins, Edwin Werter, lawyer and statesman of Norwich, Conn., was born July 2, 1874, in Clinton, Conn. He has been prosecuting attorney of Norwich, Conn. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Higgins, Frank James, jurist of 108 Glenwood ave., Jersey City, N.J., was born March 18, 1869, in New York City. He has been judge of the first criminal court of New Jersey.

Higgins, James Henry, lawyer and statesman of Pawtucket, R.I., was born Jan. 22, 1876, in Lincoln, R.I. He has been mayor of his city; and has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1907-09 he was governor of Rhode Island.

Higgins, Michael, manufacturer and banker of Racine, Wis., was born June 28, 1855, in Constantia, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Racine Shoe company; and has been mayor of his city.

Higgins, Milton Prince, civil engineer and manufacturer of 228 West st., Worcester, Mass., was born Dec. 7, 1842, in Standish, Maine. Since 1900 he has been president of the Norton Grinding company and other corporations.

Higginson, Francis John, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born July 19, 1843, in Boston, Mass. He served in the civil war; and in 1899 he attained the rank of rear-admiral. In 1902 he was commander-in-chief of North Atlantic station.

Higginson, Francis Lee, financier of 50 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 11, 1841, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Cherry River Coal Mining company.

Higginson, George, railway official of 169 Jackson boul., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 3, 1864, in Stockbridge, Mass. He is vice-president, treasurer and director of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railroad company.

Higginson, Henry Lee, soldier and banker of 44 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 18, 1834, in New York City. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevet lieutenant-colonel.

Higginson, Mrs. Mary Thatcher, author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Nov. 26, 1844, in Machias, Maine. She is the author of Such as They Are and other works.

Highlands, Andrew Albert, lawyer and capitalist of 15 State st., Boston, Mass., was born March 24, 1873, in Fall River, Mass. He is president of the Martha Vineyard Street Railway company.

Highley, Mont Frederick, lawyer and author of Oklahoma City, Okla., was born Aug. 20, 1877, in Farmington, Mo. Since 1907 he has been attorney-general of Oklahoma. He is the author of the Oklahoma Form Book.

Hightower, L. B., lawyer and jurist of Cleveland, Texas, was born Oct. 20, 1838, in Florence, Ala. In 1876-77 he was a representative in the state legislature. Since 1888 he has been judge of the ninth judicial district of Texas.

Higley, Edwin Hall, educator and author of Groton, Mass., was born Feb. 15, 1843, in Castleton, Vt. He served in the civil war. He is the author of Exercises in Greek Composition and of several poems.

Higley, George Oswin, chemist of 244 North Washington st., Delaware, Ohio, was born Aug. 19, 1858, near Columbus, Ohio. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. Since 1905 he has been professor of chemistry in the Ohio Wesleyan university. He is the author of The Excretion of Carbon Dioxide Resulting from Bicycling and other monographs.

Higley, Warren, educator, lawyer and jurist of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born July 1, 1833, in Auburn, N.Y. He is president of the forestry congress; and was one of the founders and has been president of the Ohio state forestry association.

Hiland, James H., railroad official of 80 East Jackson st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 27, 1848, in Vermont. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

Hildebrandt, Howard Logan, artist of 27 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1872, in Allegheny City, Pa. He has painted many prominent men and women for his subjects.

Hildebrant, Charles Quinn, merchant and statesman of Wilmington, Ohio, was born Oct. 17, 1864, in Wilmington, Ohio. In 1901-05 he was a member of congress.

Hildenbrand, William, civil engineer of 1 Broadway, New York City, was born in Germany. Since 1904 he has been consulting engineer for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company.

Hilgard, Eugene Waldemar, educator and author of 2728 Bancroft way, Berkeley, Cal., was born Jan. 5, 1833, in Bavaria. He has been state geologist of Mississippi. Since 1875 he has been professor of agricultural chemistry at the university of California. He is the author of Agriculture of Mississippi and other works.

Hill, Adams Sherman, educator and author of 17 Brimner st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 30, 1833, in Boston, Mass. Since 1876 he has been Boylston professor of rhetoric and emeritus at Harvard university. He is the author of Our English and other works.

Hill, Mrs. Agnes Leonard, journalist, author and poet of Denver, Col., was born Jan. 20, 1842, in Louisville, Ky. She has written editorials for various newspapers of Chicago. She is the author of Hints on How to Talk and other works.

Hill, Arthur, manufacturer and philanthropist of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born March 15, 1847, in St. Claire, Mich. He has been mayor of Saginaw; and has also been president of the board of education. He is regent of the university of Michigan.

Hill, Charles, physician and author of 6301 Cottage Grove ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 27, 1862, in Leland, Ill. He is the author of A Manual of Histology and Organography.

Hill, Charles Oscar, banker of Dawson, Minn., was born April 11, 1862, in Lee, Ill. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Hill, Charles Shattuck, civil engineer, editor and author of 608 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 6, 1868, in Fairfield, Vt. He has been on the editorial staff of the Engineering News. He is the author of Reinforced Concrete and other works.

Hill, Clarence, banker of Port Washington, Wis., was born Sept. 2, 1868, in Eldorado, Wis. He is president of the Port Washington State bank.

Hill, Crawford, publisher and capitalist of Denver, Col., was born March 20, 1862, in Providence, R.I. He has been a colonel on the staff of Governor John L. Routt. He is president of the Republican Publishing company and other corporations.

Hill, Daniel Cilly, banker of Ashland, N. H., was born Nov. 28, 1844, in Compton, N.

H. He is president of the Ashland Savings bank.

Hill, David Jayne, diplomat of Washington, D.C., was born June 10, 1850, in Plainfield, N.J. In 1878-88 he was president of Bucknell university; and in 1888-96 was president of the university of Rochester. In 1898-1903 he was first assistant United States secretary of state. Since 1903 he has been in the United States diplomatic service; in 1908-11 was ambassador to Germany. He is the author of Life of Washington Irving; Principles and Fallacies of Socialism and other works.

Hill, Davis, banker of 108 East Illinois ave., Vinita, Okla., was born Sept. 21, 1863, in Lafayette, Ga. He is president of the Vinita National bank.

Hill, Eben Clayton, medical officer of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born Oct. 9, 1882, in Baltimore, Md. He received the degrees of A.B. and M.D. from Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore; and in 1907-08 was instructor of anatomy at that institution. In 1908-11 he was first lieutenant and in 1911-12 captain in the medical corps of the United States army, now retired. He has made special researches in radiography and bacteriology.

Hill, Ebenezer J., business man, banker and statesman of Norwalk, Conn., was born Aug. 4, 1845, in Reding, Conn. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Norwalk Street Railroad company and other corporations.

Hill, Edgar Preston, clergyman and author of 3 Chalmers place, Chicago, Ill., was born July 27, 1861, in Pontiac, Ill. He has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, Ore. He is the author of Calm Review of Christian Science and other works.

Hill, Edson James, capitalist of 33 South Main st., Concord, N.H., was born Oct. 19, 1857, in Concord, N.H. He is vice-president of the Concord Light and Power company.

Hill, Edward Burlingame, musician and composer of 4 Marlboro st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 9, 1872, in Cambridge, Mass. He has composed songs from the Round Rabbit for Children and many other songs.

Hill, Edward Curtis, physician, microscopist and author of 1101 East Alameda ave., Denver, Col., was born Oct. 5, 1863, in Cleveland, Ill. He has been president of the Denver clinical and pathological society. He is the author of Pain and Its Indication and other works.

Hill, Ernest Newton, manufacturer and capitalist of Anderson, Ind., was born Sept. 5, 1862, in Miamisburg, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Hill-Tripp Pump company.

Hill, Frank, banker of Ashaway, R.I., was born June 28, 1861, in Ithaca, N.Y. He is cashier of the Ashaway National bank.

Hill, Frank Pierce, librarian and founder of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 22, 1855, in Concord, N.H. He has been secretary of the American library association.

Hill, Frederic Stanhope, naval officer, journalist and author of 94 Lakeview ave., Cambridge, Mass., was born Aug. 4, 1829, in Boston, Mass. He served in the United States navy during the civil war. He is the author of The Luck Little Enterprise and other works.

Hill, Frederick Trevor, lawyer and author of 56 Wall st., New York City, was born May 5, 1866, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of The Accomplice and other works.

Hill, Gardner G., physician and banker of Keene, N.H., was born March 20, 1829, in Winchester, N.H. He is president of the Keene Savings bank.

Hill, George, architect of New York City, was born Feb. 3, 1861, in New York City. He was architect of the Livingston building and the Decourcy building of New York City.

Hill, George Anthony, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Aug. 25, 1842, in Sherborn, Mass. Since 1898 he has been director of the Nolan laboratory for college preparation in physics and chemistry. He is the author of Lessons in Geometry and other works.

Hill, George Burton, director and financier of Allegheny, Pa., was born Aug. 1, 1847, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is a director of the Second National bank of Allegheny and various other corporations.

Hill, George Griswold, journalist and author of 1322 F st., Washington, D.C., was born April 24, 1868, in Montreal, Canada. Since 1902 he has been a member of the Washington bureau for the New York Tribune. He is the author of Marketing Farm Produce and other works.

Hill, George Richard, physician, surgeon and banker of Kendall, Wis., was born July 28, 1852, in Shanksville, Pa. He is president of the Kendall State bank.

Hill, George William, astronomer, inventor and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 3, 1838, in New York City. He is the author of a number of articles and memoirs.

Hill, Gershom Hyde, soldier, physician, alienist and author of 693 Thirty-first st., Des Moines, Iowa, was born May 8, 1846, in Garnavillo, Iowa. He served in the civil war. He is superintendent of the Retreat, a private hospital. He is the author of ten Biennial Reports of the hospital for the insane.

Hill, Henry Alexander, educator and college president of New Orleans, La., was born Nov. 6, 1844, in New Orleans, La. In 1887 he was made president of the Southern university of New Orleans.

Hill, Henry Washington, banker of South Pittsburg, Tenn., was born April 17, 1847, in Appomattox county, Va. He is president of the South Pittsburg Savings bank.

Hill, Henry Wayland, lawyer, statesman and author of 471 Linwood ave., Buffalo, N. Y., was born Nov. 13, 1852, in Isle La Motte, Vt. He has been a representative in the state legislature. Since 1901 he has been a member of the New York state senate. He is the author of Development of Constitutional Law in New York and other works.

Hill, Isaac William, educator and college president of Opelika, Ala., was born July 25, 1861, in Auburn, Ala. He has been superintendent of education for Alabama; and since 1907 has been superintendent of schools at Opelika, Ala.

Hill, James Gilbert, lawyer and bank official of Lowell, Mass., was born Nov. 25, 1872, in Lowell, Mass. He is trustee and attorney of the Mechanics' Savings bank.

Hill, James Jerome, railway official and capitalist of St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 16, 1838, in Guelph, Ontario. He has been president of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway company.

Hill, James Langdon, lecturer and author of Salem, Mass., was born March 14, 1848, in Garnaville, Iowa. He founded the society of Old Boston, England. He is the author of The Growth of Government and other works.

Hill, Mrs. Janet McKenzie, lecturer and author of 372 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born in December, 1852, in Westfield, Mass. Since 1896 she has been editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. She is the author of Cooking For Two and other works.

Hill, Jeduthan C., banker of 1 Broad st., Elyria, Ohio, was born Oct. 27, 1837, in Berlin Heights, Ohio. He is president of the Savings Deposit bank.

Hill, John, grain merchant of 234 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 23, 1856, in Peru, Ill. He has been a director of the Chicago board of trade.

Hill, John Alexander, publisher and author of East Orange, N.J., was born Feb. 22, 1858, near Bennington, Vt. He is the author of Stories of the Railroad and other works.

Hill, John Edward, civil engineer and author of 86 Taber ave., Providence, R.I., was born Nov. 9, 1864, in New York City. He is professor of civil engineering at Brown university. He is the author of A Textbook on Shades and Shadows and Perspective.

Hill, John Ethan, educator, civil engineer and author of Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 15, 1865, in Mystic, Conn. Since 1904 he has been assistant city engineer of New York City. He is the author of Quintic Surfaces and other works.

Hill, John Fremont, banker and statesman of Augusta, Maine, was born Oct. 29, 1855, in Eliot, Maine. He is president of the State Trust company.

Hill, John Philip, lawyer and jurist of Baltimore, Md., was born May 2, 1879, in Annapolis, Md. He is United States attorney for the district of Maryland; and is vice-president of the childrens' playground association.

Hill, John Wesley, clergyman and lecturer of 131 West One Hundred and Eighteenth st., New York City, was born May 6, 1863, in Kalida, Ohio. He has been chaplain of the Pennsylvania state senate.

Hill, Joseph Adna, statistician and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 5, 1860, in Stewartstown, N.H. Since 1898 he has been engaged in statistical work in the United States census. He is the author of The English Income Tax with Special Reference to Administration and Method of Assessing.

Hill, Joseph Morrison, lawyer, jurist and author of Fort Smith, Ark., was born Sept. 2, 1864, in Davidson College, N.C. He was a student in the university of Arkansas; and in 1883 received the degree of LL.B. from the Lebanon law school of Tennessee. In 1883-1904 he practiced law in Eureka Springs and Fort Smith, Ark.; and in 1904-09 was chief justice of the state supreme court of Arkansas. Since 1909 he has been chief counsel for the state in the railroad rate cases. He is one of the compilers of Sandels and Hill's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas.

Hill, Joseph Wood, educator and college president of 821 Marshall st., Portland, Ore., was born May 28, 1856, in Westport, Conn. Since 1901 he has been president of the Hill military academy.

Hill, Judson Sudborough, clergyman and college president of Morristown, Tenn., was born June 3, 1854, in Trenton, N.J. He has been supervisor of census. Since 1881 he has been president of the Morristown normal and industrial college of Tennessee.

Hill, Louis W., railway president of 260 Summit ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born May 19, 1872, in St. Paul, Minn. Since 1907 he has been president of the Great Northern railway.

Hill, Lucy Ann, educator, linguist and author of Lowell, Mass., was born Nov. 10, 1831, in Lowell, Mass. She is president of the educational and industrial union of Lowell, Mass. She is the author of Rhine Roamings.

Hill, Mabel, educator and author of 16 Astor st., Lowell, Mass., was born July 23, 1864, in Lowell, Mass. Since 1897 she has been an instructor of history and civics at the state normal school. She is the author of Liberty Documents and other works.

Hill, Marion, litterateur and author of Paradise Valley, Pa., was born Feb. 20, 1870, in Vicksburg, Miss. She is the author of The Pettison Twins and other works.

Hill, Robert Carmer, business president of Englewood, N.J., was born July 12, 1869, in Philadelphia. He is president of the Raven Hill Coal company and a director of other corporations.

Hill, Robert H., educator and college president of Waco, Texas, was born April 9, 1856, in Alabama. In 1880 he opened Hills business college in Waco, Texas.

Hill, Robert Potter, lawyer and statesman of Marion, Ill., was born April, 1874, near Ewing, Ill. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Hill, Robert Thomas, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 11, 1858, in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1886 he has been in the service of the United States geological survey. He is the author of On Occurrence of Artesian and Underground Waters in Texas, Eastern New Mexico and Indian Territory.

Hill, Robert William, educator, clergyman and public official of Albany, N.Y., was born Nov. 13, 1845, in New York City. In 1901 he became secretary of the state board of charities of New York; and is now superintendent state and alien poor. He served in the Harris light cavalry during the civil war. He has been president of the national association of poor law officials.

Hill, Samuel, lawyer and capitalist of Maryhill, Wash., was born May 13, 1857, in Maryhill, Wash. He is president of the United States Trust company.

Hill, Thomas Edie, journalist, publisher and author of Glen Ellyn, Ill., was born Feb. 29, 1832, in Sandgate,Vt. He has been mayor of Aurora. He is the author of Government Ownership of Banks and other works.

Hill, Walker, banker of St. Louis, Mo.,was born May 27, 1855, in Richmond, Va. He is president of the Mechanics-American National bank.

Hill, William Burr, lawyer of 68 William st., New York City, was born Nov. 17, 1857, in Stratford, Conn. He is secretary, treasurer and director of the Ore Knob Copper company and other corporations.

Hill, William D., lawyer and statesman of Defiance, Ohio, was born Oct. 1, 1833, in Nelson county, Va. In 1879-81 and 1883-87 he was a member of congress. He has been superintendent of insurance for the state; and has been mayor of Springfield, Ohio.

Hill, William Free, farmer and banker of Huntingdon, Pa., was born March 4, 1867, in South Shenango township, Pa. He is president of the Grange Trust company and other corporations.

Hill, William Henry, trustee and financier of 50 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born July 14, 1838, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Renfrew Manufacturing company.

Hill, William Stanley, physician and banker of Pelham, Ga., was born in 1866 in Warwick, Ga. He is president of the Pelham Land Loan and Improvement company.

Hill, William Wisong, banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 9, 1876, in Martinsburg, W.Va. He is secretary and treasurer of the Mount Washington Savings and Trust company of Pittsburgh.

Hill, Wilson Shedric, lawyer and statesman of Winona, Miss., was born Jan. 19, 1863, in Choctaw county, Miss. He has been district attorney. In 1903-09 he was a member of congress.

Hillard, Charles W., railroad official of New York City, was born in England. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad.

Hillebrand, William Francis, chemist of 3023 Newark st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 12, 1853, in Hawaiian Islands. Since 1907 he has been chief chemist of the bureau of standards. He is the author of Some Principals and Methods of Rock Analysis and other works.

Hillegas, Howard Clemens, journalist and author of New York City, was born Dec. 30, 1872, in Pennsburg, Pa. In 1899-1900 he was a war correspondent in South Africa. He is the author of The Boers in War and other works.

Hillemann, Henry, banker of Sheboygan Falls, Wis., was born Nov. 16, 1851, in Germany. He is president of the State bank.

Hiller, Charles, lawyer and banker of Kahoka, Mo., was born May 27, 1855, in Richmond, Va. He is vice-president of the Clark County Lumber company.

Hillern, Bertha Von, painter and artist of New York City, was born Aug. 4, 1857, in Germany. Her best known works are The Monk Felix, from Longfellow's Golden Legend and Evening Prayer at the Wayside Shrine, Germany.

Hilles, Charles Dewey, educator and government official of 56 Maiden Lane, New York City, was born June 23, 1867, in Belmont county, Ohio. He was educated at the Maryland academy of Oxford. In 1902-09 he was superintendent of the New York juvenile asylum. In 1909-11 he was assistant secretary of the United States treasury; and in 1911-13 was secretary to President Taft. He was chairman of the republican national committee in 1912.

Hilles, Jesse, banker and financier of Roland park, Md., was born in 1828 in Chester county, Pa. He is vice-president of the Colonial Trust company.

Hilliard, George Weld, bank president of Brighton, Ill., was born Nov. 1, 1840, in Illinois. He is president of the First National bank of Brighton.

Hilliard, Henry P.,banker of St. Louis,Mo., was born in 1859, in New Iberia, La. He is president of the Central National bank.

Hilliard, Robert Cochran, actor and playwright of 70 West Thirty-sixth st.,New York City, was born in 1857 in New York City. He starred in False Shame and other plays. He is the author of a play entitled Adrift and also other works.

Hilliard, William Thomas, lawyer and banker of Salem, N.J., was born May 28, 1859, in Salem county, N.J. He is president of the City National bank of Camden.

Hillis, Newell Dwight, clergyman and author of 23 Monroe place, Brooklyn, N.Y.,was born Sept. 2, 1858, in Magnolia, Iowa. He is the author of A Man's Value to Society and other works.

Hillman, Beriah Tilton, lawyer and banker of Edgartown, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1843, in Chilmark, Mass. He is president of the Edgartown National bank.

Hillquit, Morris, lawyer and author of 246 West One Hundred and Thirty-ninth st.,New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1869, in Russia. Since 1902 he has been committeeman of the national socialist party for New York City. He is the author of History of Socialism in the United States.

Hills, Alfred Kimball, physician of 541 West End ave., New York City, was born Oct. 23, 1840, in Hudson, N.H. He is president and editor of the Medical Times.

Hills, Elijah Clarence, educator and author of Colorado Springs, Col., was born July 2, 1867, in Arlington, Ill. Since 1902 he has been professor of modern languages at the Colorado college. He is the author of Canadian French and other works.

Hills, George Heathcote, clergyman and author of Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 6, 1862, in Syracuse, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been rector of St. Mark's church of Minneapolis, Minn. He is the author of Seen of Men and other works.

Hills, Laura Coombs, painter and artist of 66 Chestnut st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 7, 1859, in Newburyport, Mass. She received a medal from the St. Louis exposition. She is an associate national academician.

Hills, Lewis Samuel, banker of 425 East First South st., Salt Lake City, Utah, was born March 8, 1836, in South Amherst, Mass. He is president of the First National bank of Murray, Utah.

Hills, Richard Charles, geologist and scientist of Denver, Col., was born Feb. 5, 1848, in Ewhurst, Surrey, England. In 1884-1904 he was geologist to the Colorado Fuel and Iron company; and in 1894-98 was also engaged as geologist in the United States geological survey. He is now connected with the Victor Fuel company of Denver. He has been president of the Colorado scientific society; and has made special researches in the orographic and structural features of Rocky Mountain geology.

Hills, William Henry, journalist and founder of Somerville, Mass., was born June 6, 1859, in Somerville, Mass. Since 1885 he has been connected with the Somerville Journal. In 1887 he established the Writer, a monthly magazine.

Hillyer, Henry, banker of Atlanta, Ga., was born June 1, 1846, in Athens, Ga. He is president of the Hillyer Trust company.

Hillyer, Llewellyn P., banker of Cherokee Heights, Macon, was born March 8, 1862, in Floyd county, Ala. He is vice-president of the American National bank.

Hillyer, William Hurd, banker and author of Atlanta, Ga., was born July 29, 1880, in Atlanta, Ga. In 1903 he was chief editorial writer for the Atlanta Journal; and since that time has been engaged in the real estate and bond business. He is vice-president and treasurer of the Atlanta Trust company; is vice-president of the Broad River Granite corporation; and president of the Municipal Securities company. He is the author of Songs of the Steel Age and other works.

Hilprecht, Herman Volrath, educator, journalist and author of Hessen-Nassau, Germany, was born July 28, 1859, in Germany. He has been professor of Assyrian and comparative Semitic philology in the university of Pennsylvania. He delivered a course of lectures on The Family and Civil Life of the Egyptians and Egypt in the Time of Israel's Sojourn.

Hilsinger, George E., lawyer and banker of Sabula, Iowa, was born March 14, 1874, in Sabula, Iowa. He is president of the J. Hilsinger and Son bank.

Hilsinger, Lewy H., banker of Toronto, Ohio, was born June 20, 1864, in Wood county, Ohio. He is president of the National bank.

Hilton, George W., physician and manufacturer of Lowell, Mass. In 1877 he graduated from the Hahnemann medical college of Chicago. He is proprietor of Hilton's celebrated remedies.

Hilton, Robert Garrison, banker of Rockville, Md., was born Dec. 26, 1873, in Clarksburg, Md. He is president of the Farmers' Banking and Trust company.

Hilton, Robert W., statesman of East Smethport, Pa., was born Jan. 26, 1868, in Hornell, N.Y. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is president of the Taintor Chemical company and other corporations.

Himes, Charles Francis, educator and author of Carlisle, Pa., was born June 2, 1838, in Lancaster county, Pa. He has been professor of chemistry and physics in Dickinson. He is the author of Glimpses at Photography and other works.

Himes, James M., railroad official of Glenfield, N.Y., was born Sept. 15, 1843, in Oswego. He is manager of the Glenfield and Western railroad.

Himes, John Andrew, educator and author of Gettysburg, Pa., was born June 3, 1848, in McAllisterville, Pa. He is professor of English literature and political science at Pennsylvania college. He is the author of A Study of Milton's Paradise Lost.

Himmelwright, Abraham Lincoln Artman, civil engineer and author of Stockholm, N.J., was born Feb. 7, 1865, in Milford Square, Pa. Since 1899 he has been general manager of the Roebling Construction company of New York City. He is the author of In the Heart of the Bitter Root Mountains and other works.

Hinchman, C. Russell, secretary and treasurer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 21, 1875, in Philadelphia. He is secretary and treasurer of the Western land association.

Hinckley, Frank Erastus, diplomat and author of Shanghai, China, was born Aug. 21, 1871, in Beardstown, Ill. In 1906 he was appointed to the United States court for China. He is the author of American Jurisdiction in the Orient and other works.

Hinckley, Frederic Allen, business man, clergyman and author of 2011 Green st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 2, 1845, in Windsor, Vt. Since 1896 he has been minister of the Spring Garden Unitarian church of Philadelphia. He is the author of Beckonings of the Spirit and other works.

Hinckley, Robert, painter and artist of Rehoboth Beach, Del., was born April 3, 1853, in Boston, Mass. For several years he taught a portrait class at the Corcoran school in Washington, D.C. He has painted Alexander at Persepolis.

Hinckley, Watson Dexter, lawyer and jurist of 410 East Water st., Warren, Pa., was born March 17, 1854, in Fredonia, N.Y. Since 1896 he has been a member of the board of education. Since 1912 he has been district judge.

Hincks, Edward Young, clergyman, theologian and author of Andover, Mass., was born Aug. 13, 1844, in Bucksport, Maine. Since 1900 he has been professor of systematic philology at Andover theological seminary. He is the author of Divinity of Christ.

Hindley, George, lecturer, clergyman, college president and founder of Elk River, Minn., was born Nov. 27, 1852, in Canada. Since 1898 he has filled a pastorate in Elk River. He is superintendent of the society for the friendless in Montana.

Hinds, Edwin Burke, banker and statesman of Odell, Neb., was born Nov. 21, 1842, in Grafton, Vt. He is president of Hinds State bank; and has been a state representative.

Hinds, Herbert C., clergyman of Troy, N. Y., was born June 22, 1857, in Cossayuna, N. Y. He established the Emmanuel church of Amsterdam, N.Y. Since 1891 he has been pastor of the Ninth Presbyterian church of Troy.

Hinds, John Iredelle Dillard, educator and author of Lebanon, Tenn., was born Dec. 13, 1847, in Guilford county, N.C. Since 1899 he has been dean of the college faculty of the university of Nashville. He is the author of American System of Education.

Hinds, Warren Elmer, economic entomologist of Auburn, Ala., was born Sept. 20, 1876, in Townsend, Mass. Since 1907 he has been professor of entomology in the Alabama polytechnic institute.

Hinds, William Alfred, stenographer and author of Kenwood, N.J., was born Feb. 2, 1833, in Enfield, Mass. He is president of the Oneida community, limited. He is the author of Mutual Criticism; and American Communities.

Hine, Charles De Lano, soldier, railway executive, railway examiner, organization expert and author of Vienna, Va., was born March 15, 1867, in Vienna, Va., where he still maintains a residence. In 1885 he graduated from the high school of Washington, D.C. He entered the employ of a contractor; and subsequently in a competitive examination he won a cadetship, graduating in 1891 from the United States military academy at West Point. He subsequently graduated from the Cincinnati law school; and in 1893 was admitted to the bar. In 1891-95 he served as a lieutenant in the United States army; and resigned his commission and engaged in railroad work, filling the positions of freight brakeman, switchman, yardmaster, conductor, chief clerk, trainmaster, assistant superintendent, right-of-way agent, general superintendent, and vice-president and general manager, besides holding various staff commissions. He served in the Spanish-American war as a major in the United States volunteers; and participated in the siege of Santiago de Cuba. In 1900 he was inspector of safety appliances for the interstate commerce commission; and in 1907 assisted in the revision of business methods of the department of the interior at Washington, D.C. In 1907-08 he acted as receiver of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Electric railway. In 1910 as temporary special representative of President Taft, outlined program for improving organization and methods of all departments of the United States government. He has become well known as an eminent railway examiner and organization expert; is the originator of the Hine system of organization; and which, among other special duties, he installed on the Harriman lines. He is the author of Letters From an Old Railway Official to His Son; and now resides in Tucson, Ariz., as vice-president of that portion of the Harriman system known as the Southern Pacific railroad of Mexico and Arizona Eastern railroad.

Hinebaugh, William Henry, jurist and statesman of Ottawa, Ill., was born Dec. 16, 1867, in Calhoun county, Mich. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Hines, Charles, physician and postmaster of Forest Grove, Ore., was born Oct. 25, 1858, in Forest Grove, Ore. He has served two terms as a member of the state legislature; and since 1912 has been postmaster of his city. He is the owner of the Pacific Drug company.

Hines, Mrs. Earle Remington, actress, author and poet of Spencer, Ind., was born June 3, 1859, in Spencer, Ind. She published a volume of poems entitled Footlight Rhymes.

Hines, William H., lawyer and statesman of Wilkesbarre, Pa., was born March 15, 1856, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been a member of the state senate. In 1893-95 and 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Hingley, Myron Wert, banker of Floodwood, Minn., was born June 23, 1880, in Provincetown. He is cashier of the First State bank.

Hinitt, Frederick William, clergyman and college president of Danville, Ky., was born Nov. 2, 1866, in England. Since 1904 he has been president of the Central university of Kentucky and of Centre college of Danville, Ky.

Hinkle, James F., stockraiser, banker and statesman of Roswell, N.M., was born in 1864 in Missouri. Since 1900 he has been a member of the territorial board of equalization and is now mayor of his city.

Hinkle, Thornton Mills, lawyer and college president of 2214 Auburn ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Aug. 17, 1840, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been president of the Cincinnati bar association.

Hinkley, John, soldier and lawyer of 215 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born March 1, 1864, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1893 he has been secretary of the American bar association. Since 1903 he has been major in the fifth regiment Maryland national guard.

Hinkly, Ray Benjamin, farmer, manufacturer and banker of Luverne, Minn.,was born July, 1860, in Clermont, Iowa. He is president of the Rock County bank.

Hinkson, Robert Calvin, banker of Strawn, Texas, was born in 1854 in Arkansas. He is president of the Bank of Strawn.

Hinman, George Wheeler, journalist and lecturer of 57 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 19, 1863, in Mt. Morris, N.Y. He is a lecturer on foreign history and diplomacy. Since 1897 he has been editor-in-chief of the Chicago Inter Ocean.

Hinman, Harvey D., lawyer and statesman of 80 Riverdale drive, Binghamton, N.Y., was born Sept. 17, 1864, in Pitcher, N.Y. In 1907 he became chairman of the senate committee on miscellaneous corporations.

Hinrichs, Carl Gustav, chemist and author of 4106 Shenandoah ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 14, 1878, in Iowa City, Iowa. He originated the centrifugal analysis of powders. He is the author of Micro-Chemical Analysis.

Hinrichs, Charles Frederick, merchant and banker of Lorraine, Kan., was born March 29, 1866, in Will county, Ill. He is cashier of the Loraine State bank.

Hinrichs, Frederick W., lawyer, lecturer and statesman of 76 Williams st., New York City, was born Sept. 12, 1851, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1902-03 he was president of the department of law in the Brooklyn institute.

Hinrichs, Gustavus Detlef, chemist and author of 4106 Shenandoah ave., St. Louis,Mo., was born Dec. 2, 1836, in Germany. Since 1889 he has been professor of chemistry at the college of pharmacy at St. Louis. He is the author of Introduction to General Chemistry and other works.

Hinrichs, John W., banker of Hood River, Ore., was born Dec. 5, 1840, in Holstein, Germany. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Hinrichsen, William H., journalist, statesman and author of Jacksonville, Ill., was born May 27, 1850, in Franklin, Ill. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress. He is the author of The Australian Ballot and other works.

Hinsdale, Guy, physician and author of Hot Springs, Va., was born Oct. 26, 1858, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a lecturer on climatology. He is the author of Acromegaly.

Hinshaw, Edmund Howard, educator, lawyer and statesman of Fairbury, Neb., was born Dec. 8, 1860, in Greensboro, Ind. In 1885-87 he was superintendent of public schools at Fairbury, Neb. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Hinshaw, William Henry, banker of Sylvia, Kan.,was born Nov. 6, 1853, in Missouri. He is president of the State Bank of Sylvia.

Hinton, Edward Wilcox, lawyer and banker of Columbia, Mo., was born Nov. 29, 1868, in Rockport, Mo. He is vice-president and general counsel of the Exchange National bank.

Hinton, John T., merchant and banker of 530 Main st., Paris, Ky., was born Jan. 29, 1837, in Paris, Ky. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Hirsch, Edward, merchant, financier and statesman of Salem, Ore., was born May 3, 1836, in Germany. He has been a member of the Oregon state senate. He is postmaster of his city.

Hirsch, John Frederick, educator, college president and business man of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Jan. 25, 1851, in Hazelgreen, Wis. In 1894-1903 he has been president of Charles City college of Iowa. Since 1903 he has been engaged in mercantile pursuits.

Hirschberg, Michael Henry, lawyer and jurist of Newburgh, N.Y., where he was born April 12, 1847. He practiced at Newburg until elected justice of supreme court; was a member Newburgh board of education, 1871-83; special county judge of Orange county, 1875-78; district attorney of Orange county, 1889-95; state delegate to constitutional convention, 1894; elected justice supreme court of the state of New York, 1896; assigned to appellate division, second department, Brooklyn, 1900; appointed presiding justice January, 1904, for term expiring Dec. 31, 1910; re-elected justice supreme court of state of New York, November, 1910, and re-assigned to appellate division, second department, Brooklyn, January, 1911.

Hirschfelder, Joseph Oakland, physician, scientist, and author of 275 Port st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Sept. 8, 1854, in Oakland, Cal. Since 1882 he has been professor of clinical medicine in the Cooper medical college; and since 1909 has also filled the same chair in the Leland Stanford university. He is the author of a Monograph on the Treatment of Tuberculosis.

Hirsh, Hugo, lawyer and author of 391 Fulton st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 22, 1848, in Germany. He has been counsel to the sheriff of Kings county. He is the author of Hirsh on Juries and other works.

Hirshheimer, Albert, manufacturer and banker of La Crosse, Wis., was born Aug, 14, 1840, in Wurtemburg, Germany. He is president of the La Crosse Plow company.

Hirst, Anthony A., lawyer and donor of 211 South Sixth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 18, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and LL.D. In 1874-99 he was secretary and president of the Philadelphia board of health; and for thirty-three years was counsel for archdiocese of Philadelphia. He donated the Hirst library reading room to Georgetown, and also several memorial chapels. His practice is principally in the orphans' court in connection with the estates.

Hirst, Barton Cooke, physician and author of 1821 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 20, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been professor of obstetrics in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Text Book of Obstetrics and other works.

Hirth, Friedrich, educator and author of 401 West One Hundred and Eighteenth st., New York City, was born April 16, 1845, in Germany. Since 1902 he has been professor of Chinese literature at Columbia university of New York. He is the author of China and the Roman Orient and other works.

Hiscock, Frank, lawyer, jurist and congressman of 401 West Onondaga st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Sept. 6, 1834, in Pompey, N.Y. He has been a member of congress and United States senator. In 1896-1910 he was a justice of the supreme court of New York for the fifth district.

Hiscock, Frank Harris, lawyer and jurist of Syracuse, N.Y., was born April 16, 1856, in Tully, N.Y. He is associate judge of the court of appeals; and is a trustee of Cornell university.

Hitchcock, Benjamin W., publisher, business man and founder of 49 Eighth ave.,New York City, was born July 1, 1836, in New York City. He is president of the Hitchcock Publishing company of New York and other corporations.

Hitchcock, Mrs. Caroline Hanks,litterateur and author of 387 Howard st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Sept. 20, 1863, in Lowell, Mass. She is president of the Cambridge lodge of universal brotherhood. She is the author of Nancy Hanks, the Story of Abraham Lincoln's Mother and other works.

Hitchcock, Charles Henry, geologist and author of Honolulu, T.H., was born Aug. 23, 1836, in Amherst, Mass. He has been state geologist of New Hampshire and Maine. He has been professor of geology in Dartmouth college. He is the author of Natural History and Geology of Maine and other works.

Hitchcock, Frederick Hills, journalist, lawyer and author of 105 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born July 4, 1867, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Grafton Press, publishers. He is the author of The Building of a Book and other works.

Hitchcock, Freeman St. Clair,physician and surgeon of 616 Madison ave.,New York City, was born Nov. 17, 1883, in New York City. He was educated at the Greenwich academy and the Stamford Williams college; and graduated from the New York homeopathic college and hospital. He makes a specialty of electro-therapy. He is consulting physician to Crest View sanitarium of Greenwich, Conn.; and visiting physician to several hospitals in New York City. He is the author of In the World of Psychology and other medical works; and is the inventor of electro-therapeutic earth-wave and earth-wave frequency machines.

Hitchcock, George Collier, judge of 5103 Waterman ave., St. Louis, Mo.,was born Dec. 28, 1867, in St. Louis, Mo. He is judge of the eighth judicial district of Missouri; and is a member of the city council.

Hitchcock, Gilbert Montell, lawyer, journalist and statesman of 2007 Dodge st.,Omaha, Neb., was born Sept. 18, 1859, in Omaha, Neb. He is manager and publisher of the morning and evening World-Herald. In 1903-05 and 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hitchcock, Raymond,comedian of 144 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born in Auburn, N.Y. He has been leading comedian in the Castle Square Opera company.

Hitchcock, Ripley, editor and author of Franklin square, New York City, was born July 3, 1857, in Fitchburg, Mass. He is a director of the United Zinc and Chemical company. He is the author of An American Landscape Painter, George Inness and other works.

Hite, Bert Holmes, educator and scientist of Morgantown, W.Va., was born Aug. 18, 1866, in Morgantown, W.Va. He received the degree of M.S. from university of West Virginia; and attended the Johns Hopkins university. Since 1898 he has been professor of agricultural chemistry in the West Virginia university; since 1895 has been chief chemist of the West Virginia agricultural experiment station; and since 1898 has been chief chemist to the West Virginia geological survey.

Hitt, Isaac R., lawyer, public official and author of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 7, 1864, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1902 he has been chief of the miscellaneous divisions of the United States internal revenue.

Hittell, Theodore Henry, lawyer and author of 808 Turk st., San Francisco, Cal., was born April 5, 1830, in Marietta, Pa. He is the author of Adventures of Captain Capen Adams; Codes and Statutes of California and other works.

Hix, Charles H., railroad president of Norfolk, Va., was born April 5, 1862, in Nelson county, Va. Since 1912 he has been president of the Norfolk Southern railroad.

Hixon, Frank Pennell, lumberman and banker of 306 Main st., La Crosse, Wis., was born Oct. 13, 1862, in La Crosse, Wis. He is president of the Grand Rapids Pulp and Paper company.

Hjermstad, Carl F., banker of Red Wing, Minn., was born May 4, 1863, in Norway. He is vice-president and manager of the Goodhue County bank.

Hoadley, George Arthur, educator and author of Swarthmore, Pa., was born Dec. 2, 1848, in Sheffield, Mass. Since 1883 he has been professor of physics at Swarthmore college, Pa. He is the author of Brief Course in Physics and other works.

Hoag, Charles E.,lawyer, journalist, statesman and author of Springfield, Mass., was born Sept. 18, 1849, in Moultonborough, N.H. He has been editor and owner of the Peabody Recorder and the American Citizen of Boston. He has been a member of the state legislature. He is the author of several prose works.

Hoag, David Doughty, financier of Joplin, Mo., was born March 18, 1848, in Sherman, Conn. He is secretary of the Empire District Electric company.

Hoag, Ernest Bryant, physician of Berkeley, Cal., was born March 23, 1868, in Evanston, Ill. He has been a lecturer on public health in the university of California; and has practiced medicine in Pasadena since 1902. He is the author of Hygiene for Public Schools and other works.

Hoagland, Cornelius Nevius, surgeon, manufacturer and philanthropist of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 23, 1828, in Somerset county, N.J. In 1887 he founded at a cost of one hundred thousand dollars the Hoagland laboratory in Brooklyn for the original research in the higher branches of medical science.

Hoban, E. F., clergyman and theologian of 74 Cass st., Chicago,Ill., was born in Chicago, Ill. He was educated at St. Ignatius college of Chicago, and took his theological course in St. Mary's college of Baltimore. He took a post-graduate course in Rome. He is chancellor of the archdiocese of Chicago.

Hoban, Michael John, clergyman and bishop of Scranton, Pa., was born June 6, 1853, in Waterloo, N.J. In 1896 he was appointed coadjutor bishop of Scranton, Pa. In 1899 he became Roman Catholic bishop of Scranton.

Hobart, Alvah Sabin, clergyman and author of Chester, Pa., was born March 7, 1847, in Canada. In 1900 he became connected with the Crozier theological seminary. He is the author of Corner Stones of the Baptist Church and other works.

Hobart, Edwin L., government official and author of 3223 Roxburgh court, Denver, Col., was born April 12, 1845, in Carthage, Ill. He served in the civil war from private to first lieutenant. Since 1906 he has been employed in the United States mint. He is the author of A Boy Veteran and other works.

Hobart,George Vere,journalist, playwright and author of Puraldene,N.Y., was born Jan. 16, 1867, in Nova Scotia. He is a journalist for the Hearst newspaper. He is the author of Many Moods and other works.

Hobart, Marie Elizabeth Jefferys, educator and author of 120 Front st., New York City, was born Feb.16, 1860, in Belgium. She is the author of Lady Catechism and the Child, a play; Little Pilgrims and the Book Beloved and The Vision of Saint Agnes' Eve.

Hobbs, Charles Austin, educator and author of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 3, 1857, in Exeter, N.H. He is a mathematical master in the Volkman school of Boston. He is the author of Hobbs' Academic Arithmetic and other works.

Hobbs, Charles Wood, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 2, 1842, in Albany, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1905 he was retired at his own request with the rank of brigadier-general.

Hobbs, George S., railroad official of Portland, Maine, was born in 1859. Since 1908 he has been second vice-president of the Maine Central railroad.

Hobbs, Ichabod Goodwin, naval officer of Newport, R.I., was born March 13, 1843, in North Berwick, Maine. He served in the civil war as acting paymaster in the United States navy. In 1905 he was retired with the rank of rear admiral.

Hobbs, John Edward, farmer, manufacturer and inventor of North Berwick, Maine, where he was born Sept. 1, 1829. Since 1885 he has been vice-president of the American forestry association. He is the author of the Maine Forestry Law.

Hobbs, Joseph Oliver, capitalist of North Hampton, N.H., was born June 4, 1855, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the Granite State Fire Insurance company; vice-president of the Piscataqua Fire Insurance company; vice-president of the Portsmouth fire association and other corporations. He was a member of Governor Ramsdell's council.

Hobbs, Lewis Lyndon,educator and college president of Guilford College, N.C., was born in 1849 in Guilford county, N.C. Since 1888 he has been president of Guilford college.

Hobbs, Roe Raymond, telegrapher and author of Louisville, Ky., was born July 25, 1871. He is chief telegraph operator of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. He is the author of The Court of Pilate and Gates of Flame.

Hobbs, William Herbert, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born July 2, 1864, in Worcester, Mass. Since 1906 he has been professor of geology at the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Earthquakes.

Hobbs, William J., railroad official of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 16, 1854, in Wells, Maine. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Boston and Maine railroad.

Hobson, John Peyton, lawyer and jurist of Frankfort, Ky., was born Sept. 3, 1850, in Powhatan county, Va. Since 1898 he has been judge of the Kentucky court of appeals.

Hobson, Nathaniel Davis, undertaker and banker of Salem, Mo., was born Feb. 9, 1873, in Dent county, Mo. He is president of the Security State bank.

Hobson,Richmond Pearson, naval constructor and statesman of Greensboro, Ala., was born Aug. 17, 1870, in Greensboro, Ala. He is inspector of Spanish wrecks, in charge of operations to save same. He is the author of The Disappearing Gun Afloat and other works.

Hocart, John H., manager of 36 Wall st., New York City. He is manager of the banking house of A. Iselin and company and a director of corporations.

Hoch, Edward Wallis, journalist, publisher and statesman of Marion, Kan., was born March 17, 1849, in Danville,Ky. He has been a representative in the Kansas state legislature; and has been governor of Kansas.

He is editor and proprietor of the Marion Record of Kansas.

Hoch, J.C., clergyman and author of Pittsburg,Pa., was born June 11, 1863, in Zelienople, Pa. Since 1904 he has been professor of ancient languages at Pittsburg academy. He is the author of A Beginner's Latin Book.

Hochdorfer, K. F. Richard, educator and author of Springfield, Ohio, was born April 27, 1854, in Prussia. Since 1891 he has been professor of modern languages at Wittenberg college. He is the author of Studies in German Literature.

Hock, Charles Theodore, educator and clergyman of 222 Liberty st., Bloomfield, N.J., was born July 18, 1870, in Germany. He was educated at the Bloomfield theological school of Bloomfield, N.J., at the New York university and of Columbia university. He was missionary in Hope chapel of New York City; and minister in the Seventh Presbyterian church of New York City. He is now professor of Hebrew and classics in the German theological school of Newark.

Hockaday,John A.,lawyer,jurist and statesman of Fulton, Mo., was born Jan. 6, 1837, in Callaway county, Mo. In 1879-80 he was a member of the state senate. Since 1890 he has been judge of the ninth judicial circuit of Missouri.

Hocker, John Franklin, banker of Monroe, Ind., was born in Vera Cruz, Ind. He is president of the Monroe State bank.

Hocker, William Adam, lawyer and jurist of Tallahassee, Fla., was born Dec. 5, 1844, in Buckingham county, Va. He has been a representative in the Florida state legislature. He is associate justice of the supreme court of Florida.

Hodd, Joseph N., physician and banker of Eros, La., was born Nov. 8, 1869, in Hood Mill, La. He is president of the Eros State bank.

Hodder, Frank Heywood, educator and author of Laurence, Kan., was born Nov. 6, 1860, in Aurora, Ill. Since 1891 he has been professor of American history at the university of Kansas. He is the author of Civil Government of Kansas and other works.

Hodenpyl, Anton G., banker of 7 Wall st., New York City. He is a member of the firm of Hodenpyl, Walbridge and company. He is president of the Michigan Light company.

Hodgdon, Roscoe Greene, banker of Boothbay Harbor, Maine, was born July 28, 1842, in Boothbay, Maine. He is president of the trustees of the Boothbay Savings bank.

Hodge, Clifton Fremont, educator and author of 103 May st., Worcester, Mass., was born Oct. 16, 1859, in Janesville, Wis. Since 1892 he has been professor of biology at Clark university of Worcester, Mass. He is the author of Nature Study and Life and other works.

Hodge, Dwight Munson, educator, clergyman, author and poet of Franklin,Mass.,was born Aug. 9, 1847, in Salisbury, N.Y. He is the author of several prose works and a number of meritorious poems. He now fills a pastorate in Franklin.

Hodge, Edwin Richard, physician, lecturer and anatomist of Washington,D.C., was born Jan. 31, 1860, in England. He is lecturer on osteology in the university of Georgetown. He is the anatomist to the army medical museum of Washington, D.C.

Hodge, Frederick Webb, ethnologist and author of Garrett Park, Md., was born Oct. 28, 1864, in Plymouth, England. Since 1889 he has been an ethnologist at the Smithsonian institution. He is the author of Architecture of the Prehistoric Pueblos of Southern Arizona and other works.

Hodge, George Woolsey, clergyman and chaplain of 334 South Thirteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 20, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1880 he has been rector of the Church of Ascension at Philadelphia. He is chaplain of the Pennsylvania society sons of the revolution.

Hodge, Henry Wilson, civil engineer and designer of 149 Broadway, New York City, was born April 14, 1865, in Washington, D. C. He designed the cantilever bridge of the Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal company over the Monongahela river, the largest railroad bridge in the United States, and many other bridges.

Hodge, John Wesley, physician, surgeon and philanthropist of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was born Sept. 20, 1851, in Cambria, N.Y. He is a leader in the movement for the abolition of compulsory vaccination in America. He is a special agent of the American society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Hodge, Richard Morse, educator, clergyman, lecturer, theologian and author of 552 West One Hundred and Thirteenth st., New York City, was born May 25, 1864, in Mauch Chunk, Pa. Since 1902 he has been lecturer on Bible literature at the teachers' college of Columbia university. He is the author of Historical Atlas of the Life of Jesus Christ and other works.

Hodges, Charles Libbens, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born March 13, 1847, in Providence, R.I. He served in the civil war. In 1907 he attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Hodges, G. H., statesman of Topeka, Kan. In 1913 he became governor of Kansas.

Hodges, George, clergyman and author of 3 Mason st., Cambridge,Mass., was born Oct. 6, 1856, in Rome, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been dean of the theological school at Cambridge. He is the author of The Heresy of Cain and other works.

Hodges, James, merchant and statesman of Baltimore, Md., was born Aug. 11, 1822, in Liberty Hall, Md. He has been mayor of Baltimore. He has traveled extensively; and possesses one of the finest collections of rare works of art in America.

Hodges, James Harrison, physician, surgeon and scientist of Jacksonville, Fla., was born June 16, 1866, in Worthington Springs, Fla. He lectures on surgery and medicine in the Florida medical association. He is president of Florida medical association.

Hodges, Nathaniel Dana Carlisle, librarian and bibliographer of 505 Oak st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 19,1852, in Salem,Mass. He has been assistant in the public library of Harvard university. Since 1900 he has been librarian in the public library of Cincinnati.

Hodges, Thomas Edward,educator and college president of Morgantown, W.Va., was born Dec. 13, 1858, in Upshur county, W.Va. Since 1911 he has been president of the West Virginia university.

Hodges, Walter Edward, railroad official of 80 East Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born July 23, 1860, in Fall River, Mass. He is vice-president of the Atchison,Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

Hodges, Walter S., retired business president of 504 South Park st.,Kalamazoo,Mich., was born Dec. 4, 1855, in Galesburgh, Mich. In 1887-99 he was secretary of the Bardsen Paper company of Otsego, Mich. In 1900-06 he was president of the Superior Paper company of Kalamazoo; and in 1908-11 was president of the Watervliet Paper company; and was one of the originators and promoters of these two successful companies.

Hodgkins, Howard Lincoln, educator and scientist of 1830 T st., Washington, D.C.,was born Jan. 23, 1862, in Elgin, Ill. He received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and Ph.D. from the George Washington university; and has been dean of the scientific school, dean of the university, and since 1905 dean of the college of engineering in that institution. In 1882-92 he was special computer of the nautical almanac office.

Hodgkins, Louise Manning, educator and author of Wilbraham, Mass., was born Aug. 5, 1846, in Ipswich, Mass. She was professor of English literature in Wellesley college in 1876-81. She is the author of Nineteenth Century Authors and other works.

Hodgkins, William Candler, civil engineer, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 21, 1854, in Boston, Mass. In 1871 he entered service as assistant engineer in the United States coast and geodetic survey. He is the author of An Historical Account of the Boundary Line Between Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Hodgkinson, A. E., capitalist of 253 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal., was born in 1873 in Coventry,England. For several years he was trustee and treasurer of the North Dakota state school for the deaf. In 1909 he purchased an interest in Lakeview.

Hodgman,Thomas Morey, college president of 476 Ashland st., St. Paul,Minn., was born July 3, 1859, in New York. He is president of the Macalester college.

Hodgson, Fred E., banker of Fergus Falls, Minn.,was born Aug.16, 1872, in Castle Rock, Minn. He is treasurer of the Fergus Packing company.

Hodgson, Harry, journalist and manufacturer of Athens,Ga., was born March 6, 1874, in Athens, Ga. In 1893-97 he was reporter with the Atlanta Constitution and with the New York Evening Telegram. He is now secretary, treasurer and director of the Empire State Chemical company; and a member of the Hodgson Cotton company. He is a trustee of the university of Georgia; and a member of the executive committee of the conference for education in the south.

Hodson, William T., lawyer and jurist of Galena, Ill., was born Feb. 21, 1852, in Council Hill, Ill. He graduated from the Michigan university with the degree of the bachelor of laws. He has attained success in the practice of law; and since 1877 has campaigned Illinois many times as a republican speaker. He has been alderman, city attorney and county judge; and has held various other positions of trust and honor in his city and state.

Hoebert, Arthur,artist and author of Nutley, N.J., was born July 23, 1854, in New York City. He is the author of Treasures of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and other works.

Hoeft,Paul Herman,banker of Rogers City, Mich., was born April 18, 1864, in Germany. He is president of the Presque Isle County bank.

Hoehling, Adolph August, naval official of 1416 F st., Washington,D.C., was born March 5, 1839, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1880-90 he was in charge of the naval hospital in Washington. In 1906 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Hoenshel, Eli J., educator and author of Topeka, Kan., was born Oct. 24, 1846, in Westmoreland county, Pa. He is now teaching in Topeka. He is the author of English Grammar and other works.

Hoff, J. Wallace, journalist and author of Trenton, N.J., was born July 7, 1867, in Rahway, N.J. In 1895 he founded the Mercer Review. He is the author of Two Hundred Miles on the Delaware River.

Hoff, John Van Renssalaer, army surgeon and author of Washington, D.C., was born April 11, 1848, in Mount Morris, N.Y. In 1902-05 he was an instructor in military hygiene in the army medical school and in general service at the staff college. He is the author of Military Sanitary Organization and other essays.

Hoffecker, Walter Oakley, civil engineer and statesman of Smyrna, Del., was born Sept. 20, 1854, in Smyrna, Del. In 1900-01 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Smyrna and Philadelphia Transportation company.

Hoffman, A. Lincoln, merchant and financier of 310 Sixth st., Brainerd, Minn., was born Jan. 24, 1857, in Berlin, Canada. He is secretary and treasurer of the Foley Gold Mines company.

Hoffmann,August H.,banker of 1328 North Market st., St. Louis, Mo., was born June 9, 1850, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Northwestern bank.

Hoffman, August William, musician and composer of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 26, 1866, in Germany. He is a successful teacher of harmony and composition in the Beethoven conservatory of music at St.Louis. He is the author of several piano pieces.

Hoffman, Christian Balzac, merchant, miller and banker of Kansas City, Kan., was born Nov. 30, 1851, in Azmoos, Switzerland. He is president of the Banking Trust company.

Hoffman, Frank Sargent, educator and author of Schenectady, N.Y., was born Feb. 9, 1852, in Sheboygan Falls, Wis. Since 1885 he has been professor of philosophy at Union college. He is the author of Sphere of Science and other works.

Hoffman, Frederick Ludwig, statistician and author of 761 Broad st., Newark, N.J., was born May 2, 1865, in Germany. Since 1894 he has been state statistician to the Prudential Insurance Company of America. He is the author of The Race Traits and Tendencies of the American Negro and other works.

Hoffman, George Edward, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 12, 1863, in Waverly, Iowa. He is cashier of the Merchants-Lacede National bank.

Hoffman, Herman S., clergyman and author of 1317 North Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 9, 1841, in Salem, N.C. In 1903 he was consecrated bishop of the Reformed Episcopal church. He is the author of Sermons and Life Beyond the Grave.

Hoffman,Ralph, educator,ornithologist and author of Belmont, Mass., was born Nov. 30, 1870, in Stockbridge, Mass. He is now connected with the Browne and Nichols school of Cambridge, Mass. He is the author of Bird Portraits and other works.

Hoffman, Richard Curzon, railroad president of 1203 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born July 13, 1839, in Baltimore, Md. In 1893-99 he was president of the Sea Board Air line; and was president of the Baltimore Steam Packet company.

Hoffman, Samuel E., banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 22, 1834, in Union county, Pa. He is president of the Lacede Building company.

Hoffman, Samuel Verplaneck, trustee and director of 258 Broadway, New York City, was born May 12, 1866, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a director of the Empire City Fire Insurance company and other corporations.

Hoffman, Theodore M., lumber dealer and banker of East Stroudsburg, Pa., was born Sept. 4, 1846, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Monroe County National bank.

Hoffman, Thomas Theodore, manufacturer and banker of Bloomsbury,N.J., was born April 12, 1845, in Asbury, N.J. He is president of the Bloomsbury National bank.

Hofman, Heinrich Oscar, educator, metallurgist and author of 88 Robinwood ave., Jamaica Plain,Mass., was born Aug.13, 1852, in Germany. Since 1898 he has been professor of metallurgy at the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Metallurgy of Lead and other works.

Hogan, Denis P., banker of Massena,Iowa, was born Aug. 29, 1869, in Farley, Iowa. He is president of the Farmers' Savings bank.

Hogan, Mrs. Louise E. Shimer, critic and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 27, 1855, in Shimersville, Pa. She is the author of How to Feed Children; A Study of a Child; Children's Diet in Home and School and other works.

Hogate, Enoch George, lawyer and banker of Bloomington,Ind., was born Sept.16, 1849, in Centreton, N.J. He is vice-president of the Bloomington National bank.

Hoge, Charles Eugene, manufacturer and banker of Frankfort, Ky., was born May 5, 1845, in Virginia. He is president of the State National bank.

Hoge, James Doster, journalist and banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Sept.21, 1871, in Zanesville, Ohio. In 1898 he was president of the First National bank of Seattle,Wash., and is now president of the Union Savings and Trust company.

Hoge, John, manufacturer and banker of Zanesville, Ohio, was born July 6, 1840, in Zanesville, Ohio. He is president of the Guardian Trust and Safe Deposit company.

Hoge, Peyton Harrison, clergyman and author of Pewee Valley, Ky., was born Jan. 6, 1858, in Hampden, Sidney, Va. Since 1907 he has filled a pastorate in Pewee Valley, Ky.; and has been principal of the home school for boys. He is the author of Life and Letters of Moses Drury Hoge.

Hogg, Charles Edgar, lecturer, lawyer, statesman and author of Point Pleasant, W. Va., was born Dec. 21, 1852, in Pleasant Flats, W.Va. In 1887-89 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Hogg's Pleading and Forms.

Hoggatt, Wilford Bacon, naval officer and statesman of Summit, N.J., was born Sept. 11, 1865, in Paoli, Ind. In 1906-12 he was governor of Alaska. Since 1899 he has been a mining engineer.

Hoggson, William J., contracting designer of 7 East Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born Nov. 19, 1861, in New Haven,Conn. He is president of Hoggson Brothers, incorporated.

Hogue, Addison, educator and author of Lexington, Va., was born in 1849 in Athens, Ohio. Since 1893 he has been Corcoran professor of Greek at Washington and Lee university. He is the author of Irregular Verbs of Attic Prose.

Hogue, Solomon Fisher, clergyman, educator and college president of Sharon,Pa., was born April 1, 1848, near Waynesburg, Pa. He has been county superintendent of public instruction of Greene county, Pa. He has been president of the Monongahela college.

Hogue, Wilson Thomas, educator, clergyman, college president and author of 2025 Sherman ave., Evanston, Ill., was born on March 6, 1852, in Lyndon, N.Y. In 1894-1903 he was editor of the Free Methodist.

Since 1904 he has been bishop of his church. He is the author of Hymns That Are Immortal; and other works.

Hoguet, Robert Louis, lawyer and author of 76 Irving place, New York City, was born Dec. 5, 1878, in New York City. He is the author of Mason and Hoguet's Supplement to Brightly's New York Digest.

Hohlfeld, Alexander Rudolf, educator and author of 104 Breese terrace, Madison, Wis., was born Dec. 29, 1865, in Germany. Since 1901 he has been professor of German languages at the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of a work in German.

Hoit, James De Witt Christian, physician and poet of Elmwood, Ill., was born Aug. 25, 1842, in Laconia, N.H. He has contributed extensively to medical literature and the periodical press, and his poems have been incorporated into Poets of America and other works.

Hoke, John W., lawyer and statesman of Chambersburg, Pa., was born July 17, 1866, in Chambersburg, Pa. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from Lafayette college of Easton, Pa. In 1899-1901 he was district attorney of Franklin County, in 1905-06 he was a member of the Pennsylvania house of representatives; and is now a member of the state senate.

Hoke, Martha Harriet, painter and artist of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 23, 1861, in St. Louis, Mo. She has been a teacher of drawing from the antique in the St. Louis school of fine arts. She is a portrait painter on ivory.

Hoke, William Alexander, lawyer and jurist of Raleigh, N. C., was born Oct. 25, 1851, in Lincolnton, N.C. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1891-1904 he was judge of the superior court; and since 1904 has been judge of the supreme court of North Carolina.

Holabird, William, architect of 104 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 11, 1854, in Amenia Union, N.Y. He is senior member of the firm of Holabird and Roache, architects of the Marquette, Old Colony, Tribune and Venetian buildings of Chicago, Ill.

Holbert, Frank Clark, banker of Plainview, Neb., was born Aug. 14, 1863, in Orange county, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Holbrook, Dwight, educator and author of Ossining, N.Y., was born Aug. 23, 1863, in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. He has been principal of the Morgan school of Clinton, Conn.; and is now part owner of the Holbrook school of Ossining, N.Y. He is the author of The Talisman.

Holbrook, Florence, educator and author of 562 Oakwood blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born in Peru, Ill. Since 1889 she has been principal of Forrestville school of Chicago. She is the author of The Hiawatha Primer and other works.

Holbrook, Frederick William Doane, civil engineer of Bremerton, Wash., was born Jan. 26, 1840, in Boston, Mass. He served in the civil war. He has been assistant engineer and resident engineer with various corporations; and has been city engineer of Plattsmouth, Neb. He has been president of the northwest society of engineers; and has filled numerous positions of trust and honor.

Holbrook, Reginald Heber, educator and author of Lebanon, Ohio, was born April 10, 1845, in Berea, Ohio. He has been president of the Normal university of Lebanon, Ohio. He is the author of The New Method and other works.

Holbrook, Richard Thayer, educator and author of Bryn Mawr, Pa., was born Dec. 13, 1870, in Winsdor Locks, Conn. Since 1906 he has been head of the department of Italian and old French philology at Bryn Mawr college. He is the author of Boys and Men and other works.

Holbrook, Walter James, broker and capitalist of 812 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born in October, 1861, in Lebanon, Conn. He is president of the Buckingham Hotel company.

Holcomb, Marcus Hensee, jurist and banker of Southington, Conn., was born Nov. 28, 1844, in New Hartford, Conn. He is president of the Southington Savings bank; and has been probate judge and a state representative.

Holcomb, Silas Alexander, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Broken Bow, Neb., was born Aug. 25, 1858, near Princeton, Ind. In 1894-98 he was governor of Nebraska. In 1900-05 was judge of the state supreme court of Nebraska.

Holcomb, William Horace, railway contractor of Hinsdale, Ill., was born Sept. 12, 1838, in Knoxville. He is president of the Holcomb-Lobb company.

Holcombe, Chester, diplomat and author of 95 Troup st., Rochester, N.Y., was born Oct. 16, 1847, in Winfield, N.Y. He was a member of the commission for the negotiation of new treaty with China. He is the author of The Real Chinaman and other works.

Holcombe, John Marshall, life insurance official of 79 Spring st., Hartford, Conn., was born June 8, 1848, in Hartford, Conn. He is president of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance company; and has been health commissioner of his city.

Holcombe, Melvin Allen, educator, lawyer and author of Berea, Ky., was born April 16, 1870, in Maulden, Ky. He is professor of mathematics in the Berea college. He is author of The History of Jackson County.

Holden, Albert James, musician, organist and composer of White Plains, N.Y., was born Aug. 17, 1841, in Boston, Mass. He has been organist of the church of the divine paternity and of the church of the puritans of New York City. He has composed various anthems and songs.

Holden, Alexander Martin, banker of Honeoye Falls, New York, was born on Oct. 11, 1848, in Mendon. He is president of the Bank of Honeoye Falls and other corporations.

Holden, Arthur John, manufacturer and banker of Bennington, Vt., was born Dec. 24, 1869, in Hartford, Conn. He is vice-president of the Woodbury Granite company.

Holden, Edward Singleton, educator, astronomer and author of West Point, N.Y., was born Nov. 5, 1846, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1901 he has been librarian of the United States military academy. He is the author of Life of Sir William Herschel and other works.

Holden, George Henry, naturalist and author of Boston, Mass., was born in 1848 in Massachusetts. He is the proprietor of a bird store in Boston. He is the author of Canaries and Cage Birds.

Holden, Hale, railroad official of 547 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 11, 1869, in Kansas City, Mo. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

Holden, Hendrick S.,banker and statesman of 1000 James st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born March 22, 1849, in Charlotte, N.Y. He was educated in the public schools of his native city; and studied in the Colegate university of Hamilton, N.Y. He is a successful banker of Syracuse, N.Y.; and is president of the Commercial National bank of that city. He is a member of the Century and the Citizens clubs of Syracuse; and a prominent member of the republican party. He is a member of the state senate from the thirty-eighth district of New York.

Holden,James Austin,state historian,banker and broker of Albany, N.Y., was born on Sept. 17, 1861, in Glens Falls, N.Y. He was president of the board of education. He is secretary and treasurer of the Empire Real Estate and Theatre company.

Holden, James Franklin, railroad official of Kansas City, Mo., was born in 1861 in Prince Albert, Canada. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Kansas City Southern railroad.

Holden, Jesse, lawyer and jurist of 111 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born on Aug. 23, 1851, in London, England. In 1891-1906 he was judge of the superior court of Cook county, Ill.; and since 1906 has been judge of the appellate court of Illinois.

Holden, Liberty Emery,journalist and college president of Bratenahl, Ohio, was born June 20, 1833, in Raymond, Maine. He has been president of the Salt Lake Academy of Utah. Since 1885 he has been proprietor and editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer of Ohio.

Holden, Perry Greeley, educator and author of Ames, Iowa, was born Oct. 18, 1865, in Dodge county. Since 1902 he has been professor of agronomy and vice-dean in the department of agriculture at the Iowa State college; and is now superintendent of the agricultural extension department. He is the author of Sugar Beet Culture in Illinois and other works.

Holden, Raleigh Warner,manufacturer and genealogist of Rochester, N.Y., was born on July 7, 1878, in Honeoye Falls, N.Y. He is secretary and treasurer of the Rochester Composite Brick company. He has contributed various articles on genealogy.

Holden, William Hiram,lawyer and librarian of 8 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 6, 1843, in Chicago, Ill. He has been treasurer of the Chicago law institute; and is now its librarian.

Holder, Charles Frederick, litterateur of Pasadena, Cal., was born Aug. 5, 1851, in Lynn, Mass. In 1869-71 he was a midshipman at the United States naval academy; resided in New York until 1885 and then went to California. He was the founder and for two years editor of the California Magazine; in 1888-89 was editor of the Los Angeles Tribune; and has produced over forty books and pamphlets on historical,biographical and scientific subjects. He has been vice-president of the Boston Realty company of Pasadena; and president of the Pasadena academy of sciences. He has been president of the Pasadena board of education; and was the founder and is honorary president of the Tuna club.

Holderness,George Allan,farmer and banker of Tarboro, N.C., was born June 15, 1867, in Caswell county, N.C. He is vice-president of the Cotton Belt Land company.

Hole, Willitts J.,capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Oct. 9, 1858, in Madison, Ind. He is resident agent of the Stearns Rancho company.

Holgate, Thomas Franklin, educator and author of 617 Library st., Evanston, Ill., was born April 8, 1859, in Ontario,Canada. Since 1893 he has been professor of mathematics at the Northwestern university. He is the author of works on Geometry.

Holland, Cornelius Joseph, clergyman and author of 92 Hope st., Providence, R.I., was born in Fall River, Mass. He is serving as priest of St. Joseph's church. He is the author of The Divine Story.

Holland, Edmund Milton, actor and comedian of New York City, was born in 1848 in New York City. He has taken part in Raffles; Eben Holden and other plays.

Holland, Edward E., lawyer, banker and statesman of Suffolk, Va., was born Feb. 26, 1861, in Nansemond county, Va. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Nansemond county.

Holland, Henry Ware, journalist, lawyer and author of Boston, Mass., was born in 1844 in New York. He is author of William Dawes and His Ride with Paul Revere.

Holland, James Buchanan,lawyer and jurist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 14, 1858, in Montgomery county, Pa. Since 1904 he has been judge of the United States district court for the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

Holland, James William, educator and author of 2006 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1849 in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1887 he has been dean of the faculty of the Jefferson medical college. He is the author of Diet for the Sick and other works.

Holland, Rupert Sargent, lawyer and author of 2006 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 15, 1878, in Louisville, Ky. Since 1904 he has been chief attorney of the legal aid society. He is the author of The Man in the Tower and other works.

Holland, Walter Powell, banker of Clarksdale, Miss., was born March 27, 1867, in Springfield, Tenn. He is president of the Bank of Shaw.

Holland, William Jacob, clergyman, naturalist and author of 5545 Forbes ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 16, 1848, in Jamaica, West Indies. Since 1891 he has been chancellor of the Western university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of The Butterfly Book and other works.

Holland, William Merideth, lawyer and jurist of Dallas, Texas, was born March 29, 1875, in Dallas, Texas. He has been judge of the county court; and is now mayor of his city.

Holland, William West, chemist and scientist of Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 18, 1881, in Eastville, Va. He has received the degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. In 1907-08 he was Carnegie research assistant, in 1908-10 assistant to Professor Morse, and since 1910 has been research associate in the Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore. He has made researches in osmotic pressure.

Hollander, Jacob Harry, financier and author of 1802 Eutaw place, Baltimore, Md., was born July 23, 1871, in Baltimore, Md. He has been treasurer of Porto Rico. He is the author of Studies in State Legislature and other works.

Hollenback, John Welles, manufacturer and banker of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was born March 15, 1827, in Wyalusing, Pa. He is president of the People's bank and a director of other corporations.

Hollerith, Herman, inventor of 1054 Thirty-first st., Washington, D.C. He is the inventor of the electric tabulating machine used by the United States and foreign governments.

Holley, Marietta, author and poet of Pierrepont manor, N.Y., was born in 1844 in New York. She is the author of My Wayward Pardner and other works.

Hollick, Charles Arthur, botanist and geologist of New York City, was born Feb. 6, 1857, on Staten Island, N.Y. He has been president of Port Richmond, N.Y. He is the author of The Flora of the Amboy Clays and other works.

Holliday, Elias S., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Brazil, Ind., was born March 5, 1842, in Aurora, Ind. He served in the civil war. In 1901-09 he was a member of congress.

Holliday, Francis Allen, banker of Hensel, N.D., was born May 17, 1843, in Leonard county, Ontario, Canada. He is president of the State bank.

Holliday, George Judson, farmer, merchant, lawyer and capitalist of Galivants Ferry, S.C., was born June 10, 1875, in Galivants Ferry, S.C. He is one of the largest real estate owners in eastern Carolina.

Holliday, John Hampden, editor and banker of Indianapolis, Ind., was born May 31, 1846, in Indianapolis, Ind. He is president of the Union Trust company.

Hollingsworth, David A., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Cadiz, Ohio, was born Nov. 21, 1844, in Belmont, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been mayor of Flushing, Ohio; and in 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Hollins, F. C., banker and railroad official of 11 Wall st., New York City, was born in Philadelphia. He has been a director of the Lake Erie and Western Railway company.

Hollis, Allen, lawyer and corporation official of 201 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 20, 1871, in Concord, N.H. He is president of the Concord Electric company.

Hollis, Henry French, lawyer and statesman of Concord, N.H., was born Aug. 30, 1869, in Concord, N.H. In 1913 he became a member of the United States senate.

Hollis, Ira Nelson, educator, engineer and author of 6 Arcacia st., Cambridge, Mass., was born March 7, 1856, in Mooresville, Ind. He has been assistant engineer in the United States navy. Since 1893 he has been professor of engineering at Harvard university. He is the author of War College Lectures on Naval Ships and other works.

Hollis, Starr Clarence, physician of Belleville, N.Y., was born Aug. 8, 1878, in Sandy Creek, N.Y. He is president of the board of education; and health officer of his town. He has been president of the Jefferson county medical society.

Holt, William Henry, lawyer and jurist of Louisville, Ky., was born Nov. 29, 1842, in Bath county, Ky. In 1888 he was chief justice of the supreme court of Kentucky; and judge of court of appeals of Kentucky. In 1900-04 he was district judge of the United States for Porto Rico. Since 1904 he has practiced law in Louisville.

Hollister, Frank Canfield, educator and physician of Bellevue, Conn., was born June 14, 1866, in Greenwich, Conn. Since 1905 he has been physician at the Gouverneur and St. Elizabeth hospitals.

Hollister, John Hamilcar, physician of 3210 Lake Park ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 5, 1824, in Riga, N.Y. He has been clinical lecturer in the Mercy hospital for forty-five years.

Hollister, Mrs. Lillian M., educator, reformer and author of 317 Kirby ave., Detroit, Mich., was born in 1853 in Milford, Mich. Since 1895 she has been supreme commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World. She is the author of Convention How and other works.

Hollopeter, William Clarence, physician and author of 1428 Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born about 1850 in Munsey, Pa. He is attending physician in children's diseases at Philadelphia and St. Joseph's hospitals. He is the author of A Textbook Hay Fever.

Holloway, Charles Edwin, banker of 1610 North Meridian st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born July 11, 1857, in Knightstown, Ind. He is vice-president of the Central Trust company.

Holloway, Fred E., lawyer of Walla Walla, Wash., was born March 23, 1867, in Martin county, Ind. He is general counsel for the Walla Walla Fire Insurance company and other financial interests.

Holloway, Jacob James, banker and capitalist of Wheeling, W.Va., was born April 17, 1857, in Bridgeport, Ohio. He is president of the National bank.

Holloway, Thomas Pawling, clergyman of 180 Prince George st., Annapolis, Md., was born May 17, 1865, in Burlington, N.J. He is pastor of the College Avenue Baptist church.

Holloway, Thomas W., farmer and merchant of Pomaria, S.C., was born March 28, 1829, near Newberry, S.C. Since 1858 he has been secretary of the state agricultural and mechanical society of South Carolina.

Holloway, William Eugene, lawyer and banker of New Rochelle,N.Y., was born April 25, 1868, in Union Springs, Ala. He is first vice-president of the Huguenot Trust company.

Holloway, William Lawson, lawyer and jurist of Helena, Mont., was born Nov. 8, 1867, in Kirksville, Mo. Since 1902 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Montana.

Holly, James Theodore, clergyman, missionary and bishop of Port au Prince, Hayti, was born Oct. 3, 1829, in Washington, D.C. He has been consul of Liberia at Port au Prince, Hayti.

Holm, Charles F., lawyer, organizer and director of 35 Nassau st., New York City, was born March 8, 1862, in New York City. He was educated in the private schools and colleges of New York City and Schwerein, Germany. He organized the United National bank, the Hudson Trust company, the Consumers' Brewing company, the Exchange Cigar company and other co-operative trade corporations. He is senior member of the law firm of Holm, Whitlock and Scarff; and is counsel and director of the Hudson Trust company. Until 1904 he was captain in the fourteenth regiment.

Holman, Currier Carlton, lawyer and jurist of Farmington, Maine, was born Dec. 4, 1883, in Farmington, Maine. He is judge of the municipal court of Farmington.

Holman, Frederick Van Voorhies, lawyer and author of Portland, Ore., was born Aug. 29, 1852, in Pacific City, Ore., now Wash. He received the degree of Ph.B. from the university of California. In 1902-03 and 1908-09 he was a member of the city of Portland charter commissions; and in 1892, 1904 and 1912 was a delegate from Oregon to the democratic national convention. Since 1903 he has been regent of the university of Oregon. He is general counsel for the Portland Railway, Light and Power company. He is the author of Dr. John McLaughlin, Father of Oregon, and other works.

Holman, Joseph Carleton, lawyer and banker of Farmington, Maine, was born March 16, 1845, in Dixfield, Maine. He is president of the First National bank; and has been county attorney.

Holmen, Julius Charles Emil, banker of Kenyon, Minn., was born June 26, 1857, in Linden, Wis. He is treasurer of the Nelson Mercantile company.

Holmes, Alexander J., soldier and clergyman of Algonac, Mich., was born Sept. 29, 1845, in Coxsackie, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He is pastor of a church in Algonac, Mich.

Holmes, Artemas H., lawyer of 453 Madison ave., New York City, was born May 16, 1849, in Galena, Ill. He is a member of the law firm of Holmes, Rapallo and Kennedy.

Holmes, Bayard Taylor, educator, surgeon and author of 108 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 29, 1852, in North Hero, Vt. He is senior professor of surgery in the medical department of the university of Illinois. He is the author of Surgical Emergencies.

Holmes, Charles A., banker of 3722 Sixth ave., Des Moines, Iowa, was born March 31, 1860, in Bonaparte, Iowa. He is president of the Oak Park bank.

Holmes, Charles H., lawyer and statesman of Albion, N.Y., was born Oct. 24, 1827, in Albion, N.Y. In 1869-71 he was a member of congress.

Holmes, Charles Leyland, banker of 132 Grand st., Waterbury, Conn., was born Oct. 16, 1863, in Liverpool, England. He is president of the Waterbury Trust company.

Holmes, Clayton Wood, manufacturer of Elmira, N.Y., was born Sept. 26, 1848, in Le Raysville, Pa. He was publisher of the Elmira Daily Advertiser. He is vice-president of the Elmira Co-operative Saving and Loan association.

Holmes, Elias Burton, lecturer,traveler and author of 216 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 8, 1870, in Chicago, Ill. He is the author of The Burton Holmes Lectures, in ten volumes.

Holmes, Frank Williams, broker and banker of Lima, Ohio, was born March 18, 1858, in Lima, Ohio. He is president of the South Side Building and Loan association.

Holmes, Frederick John, merchant and banker of La Grande, Ore., was born Aug. 31, 1857, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Enterprise Mercantile and Milling company.

Holmes, George Kirby, statistician and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 10, 1856, in Great Barrington, Mass. He is chief of the division of production and distribution in the United States department of agriculture. He is the author of Real Estate Mortgages and other works.

Holmes, Mrs. Georgiana Klingle, artist and poet of Summit, N.J., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of In the Name of the King and other works.

Holmes, Harry P., optometrist of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Jan. 22, 1861, in Maquoketa, Iowa. He is president of the Iowa state board of optometry examiners.

Holmes, James Gadsden, soldier, merchant and manufacturer of Macon, Ga., was born June 17, 1843, in Charleston, S.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Holmes, Joseph Austin, educator and geologist of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 23, 1859, in Laurens, S.C. Since 1904 he has been employed in the United States geological survey.

Holmes, Ludvig, clergyman, poet and author of 616 Lake st., Evanston, Ill., was born Sept. 7, 1858, in Sweden. He has been president of the Iowa conference of the Lutheran church. He is the author of Dikter of Ludvig and other works.

Holmes, Mary Arnold, philanthropist of Des Moines, Iowa, was born June 5, 1842, in Ellington, N.Y. She is president of the Marshalltown associated charitable society.

Holmes, Morrison A., soldier, editor and college president of Charleston, S.C., was born Feb. 6, 1835, in Augusta, N.Y. He served in the civil war. Since 1886 he has been president of the Avery normal institute of Charleston.

Holmes, Oliver Wendell, soldier, lawyer and jurist of 1720 I st., Washington, D.C., was born March 8, 1841, in Boston, Mass. Since 1902 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. He is the author of The Common Law and other works.

Holmes, Samuel Jackson, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born March 7, 1868, in Henry, Ill. Since 1905 he has been professor of zoology at the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of The Biology of the Frog and other works.

Holmes, Walton H., railroad president and founder of Kansas City, Mo., was born in 1861 in Independence, Mo. He has been president of the Metropolitan Street Railway company; and in 1900 was president of the American Street Railway association.

Holmes, William B., merchant, manufacturer and banker of Honesdale, Pa., was born April 17, 1837. He is president of the Wayne County Savings bank and other corporations.

Holmes, William Henry, geologist and author of 1444 Belmont st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 1, 1846, in Harrison county, Ohio. He has been curator in the Field Columbian museum. He has edited Hayden's Atlas of Colorado and other works.

Holmes, Zachariah, architect and statesman of Rapid City, S.D., was born Sept. 23, 1853, in Sweden. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Holston, George, painter and artist of 143 West Eighty-fourth st., New York City, was born March 10, 1835, in London, England. He has attained prominence as a portrait painter and successful art teacher.

Holt, Adoniram Judson, clergyman and author of Nashville, Tenn., was born Dec. 1, 1847, in Somerset, Ky. He is state secretary of missions in Nashville, Tenn. He is the author of Miriam Heth and Parthenia.

Holt, Albert G., banker of Johnstown, Neb., was born Jan. 15, 1860, in Missouri City, Mo. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Holt, Charles Sumner, lawyer and director of 5 North LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 21, 1855, in Chicago, Ill. He is a trustee of the Chicago orphan asylum and a director of the McCormick theological seminary.

Holt, Erastus Eugene, oculist, aurist and founder of 723 Congress st., Portland, Maine, was born June 1, 1849, in Peru, Maine. He was the founder and editor of the Journal of Medicine and Science of Portland, Maine. He is the author of a score of valuable medical papers.

Holt, George Chandler, lawyer and jurist of 40 East Twenty-fifth st., New York City, was born Dec. 31, 1843, in Mexico, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been judge of United States district court for the southern district of New York.

Holt, Hamilton, journalist and author of 130 Fulton st., New York City, was born Aug. 18, 1872, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1897 he has been managing editor of the Independent of New York City. He is the author of Undistinguished Americans.

Holt, Henry, publisher and author of 34 West Thirty-third st., New York City, was born Jan. 3, 1840, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of Henry Holt and company, publishers of New York City. He is the author of On the Civic Relations and other works.

Holt, John H., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Huntington, W.Va., was born Aug. 10, 1860, in Sutton, Va. In 1900 he was nominated governor of West Virginia.

Holt, Joseph Mabey, merchant and bank director of South Jordan, Utah, was born Jan. 20, 1872, in Salt Lake City, Utah. He is a director of the People's State bank of Midvale.

Holt, Lawrence Shackleford, manufacturer and capitalist of Burlington, N.C., was born May 17, 1851, in Burlington, N.C. He is senior member of the firm of Lawrence S. Holt and Sons.

Holt, Luther Emmett, physician, surgeon and author of 14 West Fifty-fifth st., New York City, was born March 4, 1855, in Webster, N.Y. Since 1880 he has practiced his profession in New York City. He is the author of Care and Feeding of Children and other works.

Holt, Roland, publisher and author of 29 West Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Dec. 18, 1867, in New York City. Since 1903 he has been vice-president of the Henry Holt and company, publishers of New York City. He is the author of The Operatic Situation and other works.

Holter, Edwin Olaf, lawyer and state official of 60 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1871 in Helena, Mont. He has received the degrees of A.M., A.B. and LL.B. He served in the Spanish-American war as lieutenant; and served two years as state commissioner of prisons. He is a member of the law firm of Holter, Ingalls and Guthrie; and is a member of the republican party.

Holterhoff, Godfrey, railroad official of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 4, 1860, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is western assistant secretary and treasurer of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Coast lines.

Holtzer,Charles William,manufacturer and capitalist of 9 Station st., Brookline, Mass., was born Aug. 26, 1848, in Karlsruhe, Germany. He is president of the Holtzer-Cabot Electric company.

Holyoke, Charles Freeman,banker of Marlborough, Mass., was born Dec. 27, 1855, in Marlborough, Mass. He is treasurer of the Marlborough Savings bank.

Homer, Charles Christopher, lawyer and banker of Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 15, 1870, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president of the German National bank.

Homes, Mrs. Mary Sophie,author and poet of New Orleans, La., was born about 1830 in Frederick, Md. She is the author of A Wreath of Rhymes and other works.

Homeyer, Charles William, banker of Burton, Texas, was born Dec. 11, 1855, in Burton, Texas. He is president of the Burton State bank.

Honey, John Atherley, banker of Medford, Ore., was born Feb. 28, 1869, in Mt. Forest, Ont. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Edmore, S.D.

Honey, Richard, capitalist of Mexico City, Mexico, was born March 20, 1838, in England. He is connected with the iron and steel industries; and president of the Maravillas Mining company and other corporations.

Honeyman, A. Van Doren, journalist, lawyer and author of 181 North ave., Plainfield, N.J., was born Nov. 12, 1849, in New Germantown, N.J. He has been editor of the New Jersey Law Journal for thirty-six years. He is the author and editor of about sixty law and miscellaneous volumes.

Honore, Lockwood, lawyer and jurist of Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 7, 1865, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1903 he has been judge of the circuit court of Cook county, Ill.

Hoober, Arthur, artist of New York City, was born July 23, 1854, in New York City. He is a landscape painter. He is the author of Treasures of the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Hood, Alfred Howland, lawyer and banker of Fall River,Mass., was born April 19, 1855, in Somerset, Mass. He is president of the Somerset Stove and Foundry company.

Hood, Charles Crook,soldier of 2111 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 28, 1841, in Somerset, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Hood, Charles Ira, manufacturer of Lowell, Mass., was born Dec. 11, 1845, in Lowell, Mass. Hood's sarsaparilla laboratory is one of the largest in the world.

Hood, James Franklin, lawyer of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 2, 1851, in Gratiot, Ohio. He is secretary of the American Security and Trust company.

Hood, James Walker, clergyman and author of Fayetteville, N.C., was born May 30, 1831, in Kennett township, Pa. He is the author of The Negro in the Christian Pulpit and other works.

Hood, William, civil engineer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 4, 1846, in Concord, N.H. He has been assistant engineer for the Central Pacific railway. He is now chief engineer for the Southern Pacific company at San Francisco.

Hook, Charles E., banker of Ottawa, Ill., was born June 25, 1862, in Ottawa, Ill. He has been mayor of his city. He is cashier and director of the First National bank of Ottawa.

Hook, John Hilliard, educator and government official of Clemson College, S.C., was born April 8, 1870, in St. Matthews, S.C. He is professor of mechanics at Clemson college, S.C.

Hook, William Cather, lawyer and jurist of Leavenworth, Kan., was born Sept. 24, 1857, in Waynesburg, Pa. Since 1903 he has been district judge of the United States court of appeals for the eighth district.

Hooker, Charles Edward, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Jackson, Miss., was born in 1825 in Union, S.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of colonel. In 1875-83, 1887-95 and 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Hooker, Ellen Kelley, educator and founder of Le Roy, N.Y., was born May 23, 1833, in Shoreham, Vt. She has been a tutor at the national cathedral school in Washington, D.C.

Hooker, George Ellsworth, lawyer, journalist and author of 315 Plymouth court, Chicago, Ill., was born April 25, 1861, in Peacham, Vt. He has been an editorial writer on the Chicago Daily Tribune. He is civic secretary of the City club of Chicago. He is the author of various works on municipal conditions.

Hooker, John Daggett, manufacturer and inventor of 224 East Second st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 10, 1838, in Hinsdale, N.H. He is president of the J. D. Hooker company of Los Angeles, manufacturers of steel pipes.

Hooker, Thomas, banker of 42 Church st., New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 3, 1849, in Macon, Ga. He is president of the First National bank.

Hooker, Warren Brewster, soldier, jurist and statesman of Fredonia, N.Y., was born Nov. 24, 1856, in Perrysburg, N.Y. In 1891-99 he was a member of congress. In 1899 he was elected a justice of the supreme court of New York.

Hooley, Edwin Strange, railroad president and financier of Evansville, Ind., was born Nov. 8, 1868, in Jersey City, N.J. He is senior member of the firm of Edwin S. Hooley and company. He is president of the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad.

Hooper, Ben W., lawyer, financier and statesman of Nashville, Tenn., was born Oct. 13, 1870, in Newport, Tenn. He is president of the Houstend Realty company.

Hooper, Charles Appleton, lumberman of San Francisco, Cal., was born March 14, 1843, in Bangor, Maine. He served in the Massachusetts regiment during the civil war.

Hooper, Charles Edward, designer and author of Middle Haddam, Conn., was born April 20, 1867, in Medford, Mass. He is the author and decorator of the Country House.

Hooper, Franklin William, institute instructor of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb.11, 1851, in Walpole, N.H. In 1867-71 he studied in Antioch college of Ohio; in 1875 received the degree of A.B. from Harvard; in 1875-76 took a post-graduate course in biology; and in 1897 was awarded the honorary degree of A.M. In 1877-80 he was principal of the high school at Keene, N.H.; in 1880-89 was professor of natural science in the Adelphi college; and since 1899 has been director of the Brooklyn institute of arts and sciences. He is a director on geology and biology; since 1890 has been director of the Brooklyn art association; in 1892-99 he was a member of the Brooklyn board of education; in 1895-1904 was director of the Brooklyn public library; and in 1901-05 was president of the Antioch college of Ohio. He is the editor of year-books, the Annual Prospectus, and the Bulletin of Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. He is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science; has been vice-president of the American bison society; since 1892 has been treasurer and director of the New England society of Brooklyn; and since 1905 has been director of the Vermont society of Brooklyn.

Hooper, Henry True, business president of 90 Prospect st., Portland,Me., was born June 28, 1875, in Portland, Maine. He is vice-president of Maine Loan and Building association. He is also president of the Portland Retail Merchants' association.

Hooper, Shadrack K., soldier and railroad official of Denver, Col., was born May 30, 1841, in New Albany, Ind. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevet of major. Since 1884 he has been general passenger agent and ticket agent of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad.

Hooper, Vernon J., soldier and physician of 1993 Jefferson ave., Detroit, Mich., was born Dec. 27, 1870, in South Lyon, Mich. Since 1898 he has practiced medicine. He served as captain and assistant surgeon in the United States volunteers in the Philippines; and as major and surgeon in the first infantry Michigan national guard.

Hooper, William Leslie, civil engineer,electrician, mathematician and author of Tufts college, Boston, Mass., was born Aug.2, 1855, in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Since 1890 he has been professor of electrical engineering in Tuft's college. He is the author of Electrical Problems.

Hoopes, Maurice, banker and electrical engineer of Glens Falls, N.Y., was born Oct. 16, 1870, in West Chester, Pa. He has been superintendent of the Edison Electric Illuminating company. Since 1904 he has been president of Pruyn and company.

Hooton,Mott, soldier of 175 State st.,Portland,Maine, was born April 16, 1838, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brevet major.

Hoover, C. Guy, director of music of Pittsburg, Kan., was born in 1882 near Rochester, Ind. He has spent considerable time in travel and in the study of music and the music systems of Europe, especially in England, Germany and France; and has attained considerable recognition as a theorist and conductor. He has been director of music in the university of Arizona. He is now director of the department of music in the Kansas state manual training normal school at Pittsburg; and is also secretary of the Educational Publishing company of that city. He is the author of The Assembly Hymn and Song Collection.

Hoover, Edgar Malone, lumberman and financier of Boise, Idaho. He is general manager of the Payette Lumber and Manufacturing company.

Hoover, George P., banker of 117 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 22, 1862, in Iowa. He served in the Illinois National Guard. He is vice-president of the Harris Trust and Savings bank.

Hoover, John H., farmer and bank president of Timberville, Va., was born Dec. 4, 1863, in Timberville, Va. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants bank.

Hoover, William D., banker of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 6, 1864, in Washington, D.C. He has received the degrees of LL.B. and LL.M. In 1902 he became attorney and trust officer of the National Savings and Trust company; and since 1909 has been president of that corporation. He is also a director of the Washington Board of Trade; and a director of the executive committee of the Real Estate Title Insurance company, Hope, John, educator and college president of Atlanta, Ga., was born June 2, 1868, in Augusta, Ga. Since 1906 he has been president of Morehouse college.

Hopkins, Albert C., merchant and statesman of Charlestown, W.Va., was born Sept. 15, 1837, in Villenovia, N.Y. In 1891-95 he was a member of congress.

Hopkins, Albert J., lawyer and statesman of Aurora, Ill., was born Aug., 1846, in De Kalb county, Ill. In 1885-1903 he was a representative in congress. In 1903-09 he was a member of the United States senate.

Hopkins, Alphonso Alva, educator, journalist, lecturer, author and poet of New York City, was born March 27, 1843, in Burlington Flats, N.Y. He is the author of Geraldine and other works.

Hopkins, Anderson Hoyt, educator and librarian of Niles, Mich., was born March 19, 1861, in Delphi, Ind. In 1905-08 he was librarian of the Carnegie library of Pittsburg.

Hopkins, Andrew Delmar, educator, entomologist and scientist of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 20, 1857, in Jackson county, W.Va. Since 1903 he has been in charge of forest investigations in the division of entomology at the United States department of agriculture.

Hopkins, Archibald, soldier, lawyer, government official and author of 1826 Massachusetts ave., Washington, N.H., was born in February, 1842, in Williamstown, Mass. He is chief clerk in the United States court of claims. He is the author of the Apostle's Creed.

Hopkins, Archibald Wilson, farmer, banker and statesman of Granville, Ill., was born Jan. 4, 1845, in Granville, Ill. Since 1902 he has been president of the Bank of Granville; and also president of the Putnam County Bank of Hennepin. He has been a member of the thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth and forty-first sessions of the Illinois state legislature.

Hopkins, Charles Augustus, retired underwriter and capitalist of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 5, 1841, in Spencer, N.Y. He is president of the Northfield Hotel company.

Hopkins, Charles Comstock, civil engineer of Rome, N.Y., was born Jan. 22, 1860, in Jersey City, N.J. Since 1884 he has been in practice of hydraulic and sanitary engineering.

Hopkins, Cyril George, educator, chemist and author of Champaign, Ill., was born July 22, 1866, in Chatfield, Ill. He has been professor of agromony at the university of Illinois. He is the author of Alfalfa on Illinois Soil and other works.

Hopkins, Edward Washburn, educator and author of 299 Laurence st., New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 8, 1857, in Northampton, Mass. He is a professor of Sanskrit in Yale university. He is the author of Mutual Relations of the Four Castes in Manu and other works.

Hopkins, Edwin Mortimer, educator, lecturer and auther of 1201 Tennessee st., Lawrence, Kan., was born Sept. 16, 1862, in Kent, N.Y. He has taught in the New York public schools. Since 1903 he has been acting director, department of journalism. He is the author of Handbook on the Teaching of English and other works.

Hopkins, Ellen Dunlap, artist and philanthropist of 127 East Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 30, 1858, in New York City. In 1892 she founded the New York school of applied design for women.

Hopkins, Erastus, chemist and author of Greenfield, Mass., was born June 9, 1867, in Greenfield, Mass. In 1897-1900 he was special examiner for the United States. He is the author of Oil Chemist's Handbook.

Hopkins, Francis Newton, banker of Alba, Texas, was born April 16, 1874, in Ennis, Texas. He is president of the Alba National bank.

Hopkins, Frank A., lawyer and statesman of Prestonburg, Ky., was born May 27, 1853, in Jeffersonville, Va. In 1882-84 he was commissioner of common schools. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress.

Hopkins, Frederick Vincent, educator, physician, surgeon and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born May 23, 1839, in Burlington, Vt. He has been surgeon and professor of geology in the Louisiana state university. He has written four reports on the Geology of Louisiana.

Hopkins, George Franklin, clergyman and author of Omaha, Neb., was born March 25, 1858, in Farmington, Del. Since 1893 he has been pastor in Omaha and elsewhere. He is the author of Not How Much, But How Well and other works.

Hopkins, George Gallagher, physician and surgeon of 350 Washington ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 9, 1843, in Peoria, Ill. He is regent counsellor and consulting surgeon to the Long Island college hospital.

Hopkins, Harry Jump, lawyer, state official and banker of Annapolis, Md., was born May 2, 1859, in Maryland. He is president of the Annapolis Water company.

Hopkins, Herbert Muller, educator, clergyman and author of 3061 Bainbridge ave., New York City, was born in 1870 in Hannibal, Mo. In 1901-05 he was professor of Latin at Trinity college of Hartford, Conn. He is the author of The Fighting Bishop.

Hopkins, Isaac Stiles, educator, clergyman and college president of 688 Highland ave., Atlanta, Ga., was born June 20, 1841, in Augusta, Ga. He has been professor of Latin in the Emory college. He is now pastor of St. John's Methodist Episcopal church south of St. Louis.

Hopkins, James C., jurist of Madison, Wis., was born in Vermont. In 1870 he was appointed United States district judge for the western district of Wisconsin.

Hopkins, James Herron, lawyer, banker and statesman of 703 Ashland blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 3, 1831, in Washington county, Pa. In 1875-77 and 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Hopkins, James Love, lawyer and author of 3931 Westminster place, St. Louis, Mo., was born July 20, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of Hopkins on Unfair Trade and other works.

Hopkins, Mrs. Margaret Sutton Briscoe, litterateur and author of Amherst, Mass., was born Dec. 7, 1864, in Baltimore, Md. She is the author of Perchance to Dream;

Links in a Chain and other works.

Hopkins, Mark, journalist and author of London, England, was born Feb. 9, 1851, in Williamstown, Mass. He is the author of The World's Verdict, a novel.

Hopkins, Mrs. Pauline Bradford, author of Fairfield, Conn. was born in 1874 in Fairfield, Conn. She is the author of A Story of Valley Forge; A Story of Witchcraft and A Georgian Actress.

Hopkins, Romulus A., educator and public official of Dover, Del., was born May 22,1868, in Kent county, Del. In 1887-1906 he was engaged in teaching. He is now serving his second term as clerk of the orphans' court and register in chancery for Kent county, Del. He is also a notary public and has filled various positions of trust and honor.

Hopkins, Samuel Augustus, dentist and author of 235 Marlborough, Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 12, 1858, in Jersey City, N.J. He has been professor of the theory and practice of dentistry at Tufts college. He is the author of The Care of the Teeth.

Hopkins, Scott,banker of 634 Kansas ave., Topeka, Kan., was born Feb. 2, 1860, in Waverly, N.Y. He is president of the First National Bank of Horton, Kan.

Hopkins, Sidney Wright, retired business man of 74 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 23, 1836, in Newburgh, N.Y. In 1874 he reorganized and recapitalized the People's Gas Light and Coke company of Chicago. He has been president of the Trojan Car Coupler company of New York and ot numerous other corporations.

Hopkins, Theodore Weld,educator, clergyman and author of Rochester, N.Y., was born Jan. 5, 1841, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1881 he has been pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Rochester. He is the author of an historical essay on The Doctrine of Inspiration.

Hopkins, Thomas Cramer, geologist and author of 763 Comstock ave., Syracuse, N.Y., was born May 4, 1861, in Center county, Pa. He has been assistant state geologist. Since 1900 he has been geologist in Syracuse university.

Hopkins,Willard Freeman, banker of Buffalo, N.Y., was born June 18, 1873, in Kalamazoo, Mich. He was cashier of the First State Bank of Petoskey, Mich. He is vice-president and director of the Third National Bank of Buffalo.

Hopkins,William Hersey, college president of 2216 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 20, 1841, in Greensborough, Md. He has been president of St. John's college at Annapolis, Md. Since 1890 he has been professor of Latin in the Woman's college of Baltimore.

Hopper, De Wolf, comedian and actor of New York City, was born in 1858 in New York. He made his first professional appearance in 1878 in Our Boys. He has taken leading parts in Wang and Happyland.

Hopper, Harry Shelmire, lawyer and genealogist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 13, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is historian of the associated alumni of the central high school of Philadelphia.

Hopper,James Caleb,banker and live stock dealer of Ness City, Kan., was born Dec. 26, 1862, in Brownstown, Ind. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Hopper, James Marie, educator, journalist and author of Manila, P.I., was born July 23, 1876, in Paris, France. In 1902-03 he was in the educational department of the Philippine Islands. He is the author of Caybigan.

Hoppin, Joseph Clark,educator and author of Boston, Mass., was born May 23, 1870, in Providence, R.I. In 1899-1901 he was associate of classical art and archaeology at Bryn Mawr college. He is the author of Euthymides.

Hoppin, Samuel Howland, lawyer of 55 Liberty st., New York City, was born Aug. 28, 1858, in Newport, R.I. He is president of the Eastern Kentucky Coal Lands corporation.

Hopping, William P., banker of Tacoma, Wash., was born Dec. 13, 1862, in Springfield, Ill. He is manager of William P. Hopping and company.

Hopwood, Josephus, clergyman, educator and college president of Lynchburg, Va., was born April 18, 1843, in Montgomery county, Ky. He has been president of the Milligan college of Tennessee. In 1896 he was prohibition candidate for governor of Tennessee.

Hord, Arnold Harris, clergyman and author of 244 High st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 13, 1867, in Woodford county, Ky. Since 1901 he has been rector of St. Michael's church of Germantown, Pa. He is the author of Genealogy of the Hord Family.

Horn, Edward Traill, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 10, 1850, in Easton, Pa. Since 1897 he has been pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church. He the author of The Christian Year and other works.

Horn, H. J., railroad official of Boston, Mass., was born in 1864, in St. Paul, Minn. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Horn, John, life saver of Detroit, Mich., was born Sept. 7, 1843, in England. He has been mayor of Detroit, Mich. He began his career in early life as a life saver.

Horn, Paul Whitfield, educator and author of 228 Emerson ave., Houston, Texas, was born April 30, 1870, in Boonville, Mo. He has taught Latin in the Scaritt collegiate institute of Neosho, Mo.; and has been principal of Pryor institute of Jasper, Tenn. He has been superintendent of city schools of Sherman; and since 1904 has been superintendent of city schools of Houston. He is the author of New Century Speller; School Room Essentials and other works.

Hornaday, William Temple, naturalist and author of 2969 Decatur ave., New York City, was born Dec. 1, 1854, in Plainfield, Ind.

He has been chief taxidermist of the National museum; and is now director of New York zoological park. He is the author of Two Years in the Jungle and other works.

Hornbeck, Marquis D., clergyman and college president of 712 Capitol ave., Pueblo, Colo., was born Feb. 28, 1849, near Circleville, Ohio. He has been president of Chaddock college at Quincy, Ill. Since 1893 he has been a minister in Colorado.

Hornblower, Henry, broker of 60 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born June 6, 1863, in Lawrence, Mass. He is president of the Cross Paper Feeder company.

Hornblower, William B., lawyer and jurist of 24 Broad st., New York City, was born May 13, 1851, in Paterson, N.J. He has received the degrees of A.B. and LLB., A.M. and LL.D. Since 1875 he has practiced law. In 1893 he was appointed by President Cleveland to the United States supreme court, but owing to political opposition his nomination was rejected by the United States senate. He was a member of the board of statutory consolidation. He is head of the law firm of Hornblower, Miller and Potter.

Hornbow, Arthur, journalist, dramatist and author of 26 West Thirty-third st., New York City, was born Jan. 6, 1865, in Manchester, England. Since 1900 he has been editor of the Theater Magazine. He is the author of The Lion and the Mouse and The End of the Game.

Horne, Abraham R., educator, lecturer, clergyman and college president of Allentown, Pa., was born March 24, 1834, in Springfield, Pa. He has been president of the East Texas university. He is the founder and editor of the National Educator of Allentown.

Horne, Charles Francis, journalist, lecturer and author of 616 West One Hundred and Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born Jan. 12, 1870, in Jersey City, N.J. Since 1906 he has been assistant professor of English in the college city of New York. He is the author of Birth of the Novel and other works.

Horne, Herman Harrell, educator, lecturer and author of Leonia, N.Y., was born Nov. 22, 1874, in Clayton, N.C. He is professor of philosophy in Dartmouth college. He is the author of Philosophy of Education and other works.

Horne, Mary Tracy Earle, litterateur and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born in 1864 in Cobden, Ill. She is the author of The Wonderful Wheel; The Man Who Worked for Collister and other works.

Horne, Nellie Mathes, painter and artist of Washington, D.C., was born May 26, 1870, in Eliot, Maine. She has painted portraits of Edward Everett Hale, William Dean Howells, the mayor of Portsmouth N.H., and other works.

Horner, Frederick, surgeon, journalist, lecturer and author of Marshall, Va., was born June 26, 1828, in Berry's Ferry, Va. He has been a surgeon in the United States navy. He is the author of Autographs of the university of Virginia and other works.

Horner, John Turner, educator, jurist and college president of Rocky Comfort, Mo., was born July 26, 1866, in Webster county, Mo. He has been school commissioner for McDonald county. He is now president of Horner institute of McDonald county.

Horner, Junius Moore, educator, clergyman and bishop of Asheville, N.C., was born July 7, 1859, in Oxford, N.C. In 1892-98 he was principal of Oxford school. In 1898 he became Protestant Episcopal bishop of Asheville.

Horner, William Macpherson, lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 10, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1904 he has been treasurer-general of the society of colonial wars.

Horowitz, Louis J., business man of 51 Wall st., New York City, was born Jan. 1, 1875, in Chenstochowa, Russia. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of Thompson-Starrett company.

Horr, Alfred R., banker of Cleveland, Ohio, was born July 14, 1875, in Wellington, Ohio. He is secretary of the Cleveland Trust company.

Horr, George Edwin, theologian and author of Newton Center, Mass., was born Jan. 19, 1856, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Watchman Publishing company. Since 1908 he has been president of the Newton theological institution. He is the author of The Great Ministry.

Horr, Norton Townsend, lawyer and author of Huntington, Ohio, was born April 26, 1862, in Huntington, Ohio. He is the author of Municipal Police Ordinances; and compiled Bibliography of Card Games and of History of Playing Cards.

Horsford, Cornelia, archaeologist and author of 27 Craigie st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Sept. 25, 1861, in Cambridge, Mass. She is the author of Graves of the Northmen; An Inscribed Stone; Vinland and Its Ruins and other works.

Horsky, Edward, lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born June 12, 1873, in Helena, Mont. In 1899 he was attorney of the United States circuit court of appeals at San Francisco, Cal.

Horstman, Fred Adam, banker of 3109 Riverside blvd., Minneapolis, Minn., was born April 19, 1883, in Minnesota. He is president of the State Bank of Rogers.

Horswell, Charles, clergyman and author of Kenilworth, Ill., was born Nov. 27, 1857, in Canada. He has been professor of Hebrew in the college of liberal arts at the Northwestern university. He is the author of Study of the English New Testament.

Horton, Charles, lumberman of 254 East Broad st., Winona, Minn., was born in 1836 in New York. He is president of the Empire Lumber company.

Horton, Edward Augustus, clergyman and author of 25 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 28, 1843, in Springfield, Mass.

He is editor of Every Other Sunday; and chaplain of the Massachusetts state senate. He is the author of Scenes in the Life of Jesus and other works.

Horton, George, journalist, diplomat and author of Smyrna, Turkey, was born Oct. 11, 1859, in Fairville, N.Y. He was literary editor of the Chicago Times-Herald. In 1906-10 he was American consul-general at Athens. He is the author of Songs of the Lowly and other works.

Horton, Henry Lawrence, banker of 66 Broadway, New York City, was born July 17, 1832, in Shesquin, Pa. He is senior member of the firm of H. L. Horton and company.

Horton, Nelson M., banker of Clinchport, Va., was born Jan. 23, 1871, in Lee county, Va. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank.

Horton, Oliver Harvey, lawyer and jurist of 134 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 20, 1835, in Cattaraugus county, N.Y. He was corporation counsel of Chicago under Mayor Roche. He is now judge of the appellate court for the first district of Illinois.

Horton, Rufus William Landon, lawyer and author of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Sept. 2, 1861, in Niles, Mich. He was educated at Dallas college of Texas. He has been a member of the Los Angeles school board. He is joint author of Mechanics' Lien Law.

Hortvet, Julius, chemist, scientist and author of St. Paul, Minn., was born April 24, 1863, in Baraboo, Wis. Since 1900 he has been chief chemist of the Minnesota dairy and food department. He is the author of numerous scientific monographs.

Horwill, Edward Thomas, lawyer and banker of 215 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 23, 1871, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Nassau Trust company.

Horwitz, George Quintard, lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 3, 1868, in Washington, D.C. He is director of the Jefferson Fire Insurance company of Philadelphia.

Horwitz, Orville, surgeon of 1721 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 26, 1860, in Washington, D.C. He is professor of genito-urinary surgery at the Jefferson medical college.

Hosack, George Mechlin, lawyer and statesman of 6351 Marchand st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 7, 1866, in Dayton, Pa. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania house of representatives.

Hosford, Henry Hallock, educator of Crete, Neb., was born July 12, 1859, in Hudson, Ohio. He is professor of chemistry and physics in Doane college.

Hoskin, Robert, wood engraver of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 10, 1842, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He received the gold medal of honor for his engraving of Cromwell Visiting Milton. He is an engraver for magazines.

Hosking, Arthur Nicholas, editor, etcher and artist of 200 West Wayne ave., Wayne, Pa., was born April 5, 1874, in Libertytown, Md. He was educated at the Chicago art institute and at Harvard university. He edited Pickwick, The Artists' Year Book, and The Sketch Book. He has exhibited paintings and etchings with the society of American artists. In 1911 he became associate-editor of The Country Gentleman.

Hoskins, James H., broker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 21, 1859, in Auburn, N. Y. He is president of the Hoskins-Camp Realty and Investment company.

Hoskins, Leander Miller, educator and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born May 10, 1860, in Wisconsin. Since 1892 he has been professor of applied science at the Leland Stanford university. He is the author of Theoretical Mechanics; and Graphic Statics.

Hoskins, William, chemist and scientist of La Grange, Ill., was born July 15, 1862, in Covington, Ky. Since 1880 he has been a member and is now sole proprietor of the business of Mariner and Hoskins of Chicago.

Hoskins, William Horace, veterinarian, lecturer and author of 3452 Ludlow st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 23, 1860, in Rockdale, Pa. For four years he was secretary and for three years was president of the American veterinary medical association; for two years was president of the Pennsylvania state veterinary medical association; and has been president and secretary of the Pennsylvania state board of veterinary medical examiners. In 1899 he was the democratic candidate for mayor of Philadelphia, Pa. He is assistant professor on veterinary jurisprudence, ethics and business methods in the veterinary department of the university of Pennsylvania. He is editor-in-chief of the Journal of Comparative Medicine and Veterinary Archives and the author of several monographs.

Hosmer, Frederick Lucian, clergyman, author and poet of Berkeley, Cal., was born Oct. 16, 1840, in Framingham, Mass. He is a unitarian clergyman of Berkeley. He is the author of The Way of Life and other works.

Hosmer, James Kendall, educator, librarian and author of 36 South Fifth st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Jan. 29, 1834, in Northfield, Mass. Since 1892 he has been public librarian of Minneapolis. He is the author of The Story of the Jews and other works.

Hosmer, Samuel Monroe, soldier, educator, clergyman and college president of Troy, Ala., was born July 22, 1846, in Tuscaloosa, county, Ala. He served in the civil war. In 1899-1910 he was president of the Southern university of Greensboro.

Hoss, Elijah Embree, clergyman, theologian and bishop of 27 Clarendon Flats, Nashville, Tenn., was born April 14, 1849, in Washington county, Tenn. In 1885-90 he was in the theological faculty of Vanderbilt university. Since 1902 he has been bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church south.

Hosterman, Arthur David, publisher of Springfield, Ohio, was born April 12, 1860, in Strathville, Pa. He is president of the A. D. Hosterman company, publishers of Poultry Success.

Hotchkin, Samuel Fitch, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 2, 1833, in Sauquoit, N.Y. He is rector of St. Luke's memorial church at Bustleton, Pa. He is the author of Ancient and Modern Germantown and other works.

Hotchkiss, Charles W., railroad president of 39 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 19, 1863, in Unadilla Forks, N.Y. Since 1912 he has been president of the Chicago Tunnel company.

Hotchkiss, Chauncey Crafts, business man and author of New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1852, in New York City. Since 1894 he has devoted most of his time to literary pursuits. He is the author of In Defiance of the King and other works.

Hotchkiss, Henry Lucius, manufacturer and banker of 55 Hillhouse ave., New Haven, Conn., was born Dec. 18, 1842, in New Haven, Conn. He is president of the Union Trust company.

Hotchkiss, Henry Stuart, manufacturer and financier of 55 Hillhouse ave., New Haven, Conn., was born Oct. 1, 1878 in New Haven, Conn. He is vice-president and treasurer of L. Candee and company.

Hotchkiss, J. Elizabeth, metaphysician and author of 699 Madison ave., New York City, was born in Elmira, N.Y. She is an extensive writer on metaphysics and psychology in the Metaphysical Magazine. She is the author of Psycho-Therapeutics.

Hoton, Charles, merchant and banker of Camp Douglas, Wis., was born July 23, 1856, in Columbia county, Wis. He is president of the State bank.

Houck, Henry, educator and public official of Harrisburg, Pa., was born March 6, 1836, in Palmyra, Pa. Since 1869 he has been deputy state superintendent of schools for the state of Pennsylvania. In 1907 he had charge of the department of internal affairs.

Houck, John Howard, merchant and capitalist of Gibsland, La., was born Jan. 1, 1874, in Shreveport, La. He is secretary and treasurer of the Houck company; and has been vice-president of the retail merchants' association. He has been a member of the city council, postmaster of his city and president of the Bienville Parish fair association.

Houck, Louis, railroad president of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was born April 1, 1840, in St. Clair county, Ill. He is president of the Cape Girardeau and Chester railroad.

Hough, Charles Merrill, lawyer and jurist of 550 Park ave., New York City, was born May 18, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1906 he has been judge of the United States district court for the southern district of New York.

Hough, Emerson, explorer and author of 6140 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 28, 1857, in Newton, Iowa. In 1895 he explored the Yellowstone Park. He is the author of The Singing Mouse Stories; The Story of the Cowboy and other works.

Hough, John Stockton, physician, inventor and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1845, in Yardley, Pa. In 1868-69 he was resident physician to the Philadelphia hospital. He has invented a process of constructing fireproof buildings.

Hough, Warwick, lawyer and jurist of 5884 Cates ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 26, 1836, in Loudoun county, Va. In 1901-07 he was judge of the St, Louis circuit court.

Houghton, Clement Stevens, trustee and capitalist of 60 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 28, 1863, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Huckins and Temple company; vice-president of the Staso Milling company and a director in various other corporations. He is a member of the Boston chamber of commerce; and for five years was a member of the third division of the Massachusetts naval militia.

Houghton, George Clarke, educator and clergyman of 1 East Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born Dec. 17, 1850, in New York City. He has been superintendent if public instruction in New Jersey. Since 1897 he has been rector of the church of the transfiguration of New York City.

Houghton, H. F., railway official of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Jan. 25, 1859, in Westminster, Vt. He entered railway service in 1872, has been telegraph operator, dispatcher and chief dispatcher, trainmaster and superintendent; and since 1906 has been general superintedent of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway at Indianapolis.

Houghton, Hiram Cole, banker of Red Oak, Iowa, was born Feb. 15, 1850, in Vermont. He is president of the H. C. Houghton bank.

Houghton, James Warren, lawyer and jurist of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., was born Sept. 1, 1856, in Corinth, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of New York for the fourth district.

Houghton, Louise Seymour, editor and author of Marlborough-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born Nov. 22, 1838, in Piermont, N.J. In 1888-1904 she was associate editor of the Evangelist. She is the author of Telling Bible Stories and other works.

Houghton, William H., manufacturer and banker of Marion, Ohio, was born Nov. 17, 1865, in Wayne county, Ohio. He is president and manager of the McMurray Sulky company.

Houk, John C., lawyer and statesman of Knoxville, Tenn., was born Feb. 26, 1860, in Clinton, Tenn. In 1889-93 he was a member of congress. In 1896-1900 he was a member of the Tennessee state senate.

Houk, William, banker of Joplin, Mo., was born Jan. 20, 1859, in Dayton, Ohio. He is president of the Conqueror Trust company.

Houlton, William Henry, broker and banker of Elk River, Minn., was born March 29, 1840, in Houlton, Maine. He is president of the First National bank.

House, Roy Temple, educator and author of Norman, Okla., was born May 26, 1878, in Lexington, Neb. He has been a teacher of French and German at Racine college. Since 1905 he has been professor of modern languages at the Oklahoma southwestern state normal school.

Houser, Daniel M., capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 23, 1834, in Washington county, Md. He is president and general manager of the Globe-Democrat.

Houser, Gilbert Logan, educator, biologist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born July 9, 1866, in Iowa. Since 1897 he has been professor of animal biology in the university of Iowa. He is the author of Nerve-Cells in the Shark's Brain and other works.

Houser, Jesse P., lawyer and jurist of Mount Vernon, Wash., was born March 2, 1864, in Columbus, Ind. He has been mayor of his city. He has been judge of the superior court of the state of Washington.

Houston, David Franklin, educator, college president and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 17, 1866, in Monroe, N.C. In 1902-05 he was president of the agricultural and mechanical college of Texas. Since 1905 he has been president of the university of Texas.

Houston, Edwin James, electrical engineer, inventor and author of 4619 Chestnut ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 9, 1844, in Alexandria, Va. In 1884 he was chief electrician at the international electric exhibition and is an eminent electric expert and consulting engineer of Philadelphia. He is the author of Outlines of Forestry and other works.

Houston, Howard H., business man and public official of Chester, Pa., was born Feb. 16, 1861, in Christiania, Pa. He has been mayor of his city. He is vice-president of the Houston Coke and Coal company.

Houston, John Franklin, retired lumber dealer and banker of Parsons, Tenn., was born Aug. 21, 1864, in Bible Hill, Tenn. He is president of the Farmers' bank.

Houston, Samuel Frederic, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 30, 1866, in Germantown, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the Real Estate Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Houston, William Cannon, statesman of Woodbury, Tenn., was born March 17, 1852, in Bedford county, Tenn. In 1876-84 he was a member of the legislature. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Houston, William Churchill, banker and corporation official of 122 West Chelton ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 26, 1850. He is president of the Hope Mills company of North Carolina and a director of other corporations.

Housworth, William Eugene, educator, lawyer and author of Susquehanna, Pa., was born Nov. 7, 1853, in Selin's Grove, Pa. He is the author of a number of meritorious poems; and is known in central Pennsylvania as the bard of the Susquehanna.

Hove, James Bernard, banker of Carlos, Minn., was born Jan. 20, 1873, in Brule, S.D. He is president of the First State bank.

Hovey, Charles Henry, journalist and author of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 2, 1875, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Life of Stonewall Jackson.

Hovey, Edmund Otis, educator, geologist and author of 115 West Twenty-fourth st., New York City, was born Sept. 15, 1862, in New Haven, Conn. In 1894-1900 he was assistant curator and since 1900 has been associate curator in the geological department of the American museum of natural history of New York City. He is the author of Martinique and St. Vincent and other works.

Hovey, George Rice, college president and author of Richmond, Va., was born Jan. 17, 1860. Since 1905 he has been president of the Virginia Union university. He is the author of Hebrew Word Book.

Hovey, Mrs. Henriette, educator and author of 6056 Hayes ave., Los Angeles, Cal. She is a teacher of acting and Delsartean theory of art. She is the authr of Yawning, a book of short essays on education and art.

Hovey, Horace Carter, clergyman, author and poet of Newburyport, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1838, in Rob Roy, Ind. He is the author of Celebrated American Caverns; Mammoth Cave Illustrated; On the Banks of the Quinnacac and other works.

Hovey, Smith B., railroad president of San Angelo, Texas, was born Feb. 13, 1848, in Newark, Tioga county, N.Y. In 1871 he entered railway service as a switchman and clerk with the Chicago and North Western railway; and has filled various positions to superintendent. In 1892-1906 he was vice-president and general superintendent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Texas railroad. He is now receiver for the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway of Texas.

Hovland, Alfred M., banker of 242 Twentieth ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born May 5, 1859, in Janesville, Wis. He is president of the First State bank.

How, George Horatio, educator and inventor of Chicago, Ill., was born March 19, 1864, in London, England. He is president of the How medical institute; and the How maternal hospital of Chicago. He is the inventor of the How obstetrical bed.

How, Louis, litterateur and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1873 in Missouri. He is the author of Life of James B. Eades.

Howar, Milton Otis, manufacturer and banker of Akron, Ohio, was born Nov. 25, 1859, in Doylestown, Ohio. He is president of the Akron Gear company.

Howard, Archibald, lawyer of Binghamton, N.Y., was born May 25, 1872, in Mill City, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. Since 1896 he has been actively engaged in the practice of law; and since 1901 has been a member of the law firm of Hinman, Howard and Kattell.

Howard, Arthur Day, educator of New Wilmington, Pa., was born Sept. 30, 1874, in Glencoe, Ill. Since 1907 he has been professor of geology and biology in Westminster college.

Howard, Burt Estes, educator and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born Feb. 23, 1862, in Clayton, N.Y. He has been pastor of presbyterian churches in Michigan, Ohio and California. He is the author of The Shepherd's Question and other works.

Howard, Charles, railroad president of Muscatine, Iowa, was born in 1844. Since 1905 he has been president of the Muscatine North and South railroad.

Howard, Charles Henry, editor and publisher of Glencoe, Ill., was born Aug. 28, 1838, in Leeds, Maine. He has been western editor and business manager of the National Tribune at Washington, D.C.

Howard, Clifford, author of 2943 Harvard blvd., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Oct. 12, 1868, in Bethlehem, Pa. He is editor of The Woman's Bulletin; and president of the Southern California league for home rule in taxation. He is the author of the Story of a Young Man and other works.

Howard, Frank T., capitalist of Dallas, Texas, was born May 31, 1855, in New Orleans, La. He owns the celebrated Quitaque ranch of one hundred and sixty thousand acres in the northern part of Texas.

Howard, Frederick Baylies, banker of 34 School st., Boston, Mass., was born June 21, 1860, in West Bridgewater, Mass. He is president of the Home National bank.

Howard, George Elliott, educator and author of 1910 East st., Lincoln, Neb., was born Oct. 1, 1849, in Saratoga, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been head professor of literary science and sociology at the university of Nebraska. He is the author of Introduction to the Constitutional History of the United States, in two volumes and other works.

Howard, James Almon, banker of Benson, Neb., was born April 5, 1865, in Delavan, Ill. He is president of the Bank of Benson and has been mayor of his city.

Howard, James Quay, educator, journalist, librarian, diplomat and author of Washington, D.C., was born in Newark, Ohio. Since 1897 he has been chief of the reference library of congress at Washington. He is the author of Life of Lincoln and other works.

Howard, John G., lawyer and statesman of Jeffersonville, Ind., was born in Floyd county, Ind. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Howard, John Galen, designer and architect of 604 Mission st., San Francisco, Cal., was born May 8, 1864, in Chelmsford, Mass. He was architect of several public buildings in the parks of New York City. In 1901 he became supervising architect of the university of California.

Howard, John Raymond, soldier, editor, publisher and author of Montclair, N.J., was born May 25, 1837, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He is the author of H. W. Beecher, A Study and other works.

Howard, Josiah, lumberman and statesman of Emporium, Pa., was born Jan. 3, 1861, in Williamsport, Lycoming county, Pa. Since 1887 he has been engaged in the lumber business as a member of the firm of C. B. Howard company, with saw mills at Emporium. In 1902 he was elected burgess of Emporium borough. He served as a representative in the Pennsylvania state legislature during the sessions of 1905 and 1907, and has since been re-elected three times, in 1908, 1910 and 1912. In 1903 he was elected vice-president of the Pennsylvania state sabbath school association.

Howard, Leland O., curator and author of Washington, D.C., was born June 11, 1857, in Rockford, Ill. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S., M.D., Ph.D. and LL.D. In 1894 he became chief of the bureau of entomology in the United States department of agriculture; since 1895 has been honorary curator of the department of insects in the United States national museum; and since 1902 has also been consulting entomologist in the United States public health and marine hospital service. He has been president of the biological society of Washington and president of the association of economics entomologists. He is the author of The Insect Book and numerous government publications and monographs.

Howard, Milford W., lawyer and author of Fort Payne, Ala., was born Dec. 18, 1862, in Floyd county, Ga. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress. He is the author of If Christ Came to Congress and other works.

Howard, Robert A., lawyer and jurist of Washington, D.C. In 1885 he was appointed assistant attorney-general of the United States in the department of justice at Washington.

Howard, Timothy Edward, lawyer and statesman of South Bend, Ind., was born Jan. 27, 1837, in Northfield, Mich. He has been a member of the Indiana state senate; and for six years was on the supreme bench. He served in the civil war. He is the author of History of Notre Dame and other works.

Howard, Wendell Stanton, journalist and playwright of 37 Madison ave., New York City, was born in 1867 in New York. In 1893-1903 he was editor of the Art Interchange. He is the author of the plays As the World Goes; The Social Loom and other works.

Howard, William, lawyer and statesman of Huntington, Utah, was born Jan. 13, 1847, in Belfast, Ireland. In 1853 he settled in Utah. In 1865 he was appointed second lieutenant in the Nauvoo legion, and took charge of a company of men in the Black Hawk Indian war. In 1870 he was prosecuting attorney of Rich county, and for ten years was city prosecutor of Randolph. For ten years he was statistic correspondent of the United States agricultural department. In 1894 he was elected a member of the constitutional convention and was one of the signers of the constitution of Utah in 1895. He has also served as a United States court commissioner. In 1896 he was elected a representative of the first Utah state legislature; and in 1896 was elected county attorney. He is director and secretary of the Huntington co-operative mercantile association, director and secretary of the Huntington canal and reservoir association,and president of the Electric Light and Milling company. He is chairman of the board of education; United States commissioner for the district of Utah; and judge of the municipal court of Huntington, Utah.

Howard, William Forrest,surgeon and public official of Pocatello, Idaho, was born July 26, 1868, in Portsmouth, Ohio. He has received the degrees of B.S., A.B. and M.D. He taught school for a while; in 1899-1902 practiced his profession in Cuba, Kan., and since 1902 in Pocatello. In 1906-10 he was coroner for Banock county; in 1905-11 was a member of the Idaho state board of medical examiners; and in 1904-12 was United States pension examiner. He has been president of the Idaho state medical society; and president of the tri-state medical society.

Howard, William Lee, physician, surgeon and author of Westboro, Mass., was born Nov. 1, 1860, in Hartford, Conn. He is a lecturer on morbid psychology at the college of physicians and surgeons at Westboro. He is the author of The Perverts and other works.

Howard, William Marcellus,lawyer of Lexington, Ga., was born Dec. 6, 1857, in Berwick City, La. In 1884-96 he was solicitor-general of the northern judicial circuit of Georgia. In 1897-1911 he was a member of congress.

Howden, Frederick B., clergyman of 3238 O st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 10, 1869, in Staten Island, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been rector of St. John's Georgetown parish.

Howe, Arthur Whitney, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 15, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia stock exchange.

Howe, Charles Sumner, educator and scientist of 2060 Cornell road, Cleveland, Ohio, was born Sept. 29, 1858, in Nashua, N.H. In 1889-1902 he was professor of mathematics and astronomy; and since 1903 has been president of Case school of applied sciences at Cleveland.

Howe, Daniel Wait, soldier, lawyer, jurist, genealogist and author of 1403 North Delaware st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Oct. 24, 1839, in Patriot, Ind. He served in the civil war. Since 1900 he has been president of the Indiana historical society. He is the author of Howe Genealogy and other works.

Howe, Edgar Watson, journalist and author of Atchison, Kan., was born May 3, 1854, in Treaty, Ind. Since 1878 he has been publisher, proprietor and editor of the Daily Globe of Atchison. He is the author of The Story of a Country Town and other works.

Howe, Edward Gardner, educator and author of Urbana, Ill., was born Aug. 11, 1849, in Brookline, Mass. Since 1893 he has been principal of the preparatory school of the university of Illinois. He is the author of Systematic Science Teaching, in two volumes.

Howe, Ephriam D., soldier and lawyer of Gardner, Mass., was born April 4, 1842, in Marlborough, Mass. He served in the civil war. He nas been justice of the peace; and has filled various public positions of trust in his county and state.

Howe,Frank Edmund,journalist and statesman of Bennington, Vt., was born in Heath, Mass. He is proprietor of the Bennington Evening Banner. In 1912 he became lieutenant-governor of Vermont.

Howe, Frederic Clemson, lawyer and author of New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1867, in Meadville, Pa. He is professor of law in the Cleveland college of law. He is the author of The Confessions of a Monopolist and other works.

Howe, Henry Marion, educator, metallurgist and author of New York City,was born March 2, 1848, in Boston, Mass. Since 1897 he has been professor of metallurgy in Columbia university. He is the author of Copper Smelting and other works.

Howe, Henry Saltonstall, merchant and capitalist of 89 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 12, 1848, in Haverhill, Mass. He is a member of the firm of Lawrence and company.

Howe, Herbert Alonzo, educator, astronomer and author of University Park, Col., was born Nov. 22, 1858, in Brockport, N.Y. Since 1881 he has been professor of mathematics and astronomy in the university of Denver; and dean of the college of liberal arts. He is the author of A Study of the Sky and other works.

Howe,Herbert Marshall,merchant and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 16, 1844, in Roxbury, Mass. He is president of the Ogden Mine Railroad company and a director of other corporations.

Howe, James Lewis, educator and author of Lexington, Va., was born Aug. 4, 1859, in Newburyport, Mass. He is professor of chemistry at Washington and Lee university. He is the author of According to the Periodic Law and other works.

Howe, James R., merchant and statesman of 188 South Ninth st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Jan. 27, 1839, in New York City. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress. He is vice-president of the Amphion musical society.

Howe, James Sullivan, physician of 437 Marlboro st., Boston, Mass., was born July 7, 1858, in Longwood, Mass. Since 1898 he has been professor of Tufts college.

Howe, Louis, Porter, manufacturer and capitalist of Marlborough, Mass., was born May 29, 1858, in Marlborough, Mass. He is president of the O. H. Stevens Manufacturing company.

Howe, Malverd Abijah, civil engineer and author of 2108 North Tenth st.,Terre Haute, Ind., was born Dec. 9, 1863, in Northfield,Vt. He is professor of civil engineering at Rose polytechnic institute. He is the author of a Treatise on Arches and other works.

Howe, Mark Anthony De Wolfe, journalist and author of 26 Brimmer st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 28, 1864, in Bristol, R. I. He is an associate editor of Youth's Companion of Boston, Mass. He is the author of American Bookmen and other works.

Howe, Maud, litterateur and author of Boston, Mass., was born Nov.9, 1855, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of San Rosario Ranch and other works.

Howe, Reginald Heber, clergyman and author of Boston,Mass., was born April 9,1846, in Roxbury, Mass. Since 1877 he has been rector of the Church of Our Saviour. He is the author of The Call of the Master and other works.

Howe, Reginald Heber, educator, ornithologist and author of Concord,Mass., was born April 10, 1875, in Quincy, Mass. He has been an instructor of natural science at Middlesex school. He is the author of The Birds of Rhode Island and other works.

Howe, Thomas Carr, college president of 48 South Audubon road, Indianapolis, Ind., was born Aug. 5, 1867, in Charlestown, Ind. He is president of Butler college of Indianapolis.

Howe, William Augustus, state official of Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 11, 1862, in Pheefs, N.Y. He is state deputy commissioner of health.

Howe, William Henry, painter and artist of Bronxville, N.Y., was born in 1846 in Ravenna, Ohio. His best known works are Cattle at Rest and The Truants.

Howe, William Wirt, soldier, lawyer, jurist and author of 708 Union st., New Orleans, La., was born in 1833 in Canandaigua, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major. Since 1900 he has been United States attorney for the eastern district of Louisiana. He is the author of Studies in the Civil Law and other works.

Howell, Benjamin Franklin, soldier, banker and statesman of New Brunswick, N.J., was born Jan. 27, 1844, in Cumberland county, N.J. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress. He is president of the People's National bank of New Brunswick.

Howell, Clark, journalist and statesman of 741 Peachtree st., Atlanta, Ga., was born Sept. 21, 1863, in Barnwell county, S.C. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. In 1901 he became president of the Atlanta Constitution company.

Howell, Eugene, statesman of Carson City, Nev., was born in 1860 in San Francisco, Cal. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is state librarian; and in 1896 became secretary of the state of Nevada.

Howell, George, educator lawyer and statesman of Tecumseh, Mich., was born June 28, 1859, in Scranton, Pa. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress. He has been superintendent of the schools of Scranton, Pa.

Howell, John Adams, naval officer and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born March 16, 1840, in New York. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of rear-admiral. He was appointed president of the examining and retiring board in the United States navy. He is the author of Marine Surveying and other works.

Howell, John Thomas, clergyman, publisher and author of Troy, Ala., was born May 12, 1855, in Ramer, Ala. He is publisher and proprietor of the Citizens' Journal of Troy, Ala.; and of the Methodist Protestant Telephone. He is the author of The History of the Methodist Protestant Church in Alabama.

Howell, Joseph, merchant and statesman of Logan, Utah, was born Feb. 17, 1857, in Boxelder county, Utah. He has been mayor of Wellsville, Utah. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Howell, Julius Franklin, educator, college president and author of Lexington, Va., was born Jan. 17, 1846, in Nansemond county, Va. He has been president of the Virginia institute. He is the author of Syllabus of Egyptian History.

Howell, Mary Seymour, reformer, lecturer and author of Mount Morris, N.Y., was born Aug. 29, 1850, in Mount Morris, N.Y. She is president of the National American woman's suffrage association.

Howell, Samuel Matthew Crawford, physician and banker of Midland City, Ala., was born Oct. 10, 1869, in Echo, Ala. He is president of the First National bank and of the People's Fertilizer and Gin company.

Howell, William Henderson, physician and banker of Leesburg, Florida, was born Jan. 10, 1859, in Alabama. He is president of the Citizens' bank. He has been mayor of his city.

Howell, William Henry, educator and author of 232 West Lanvale st., Baltimore,Md., was born Feb. 20, 1860, in Baltimore, Md. He has been professor at the Harvard university and other institutions. He is the author of Textbook of Physiology.

Howell, Wilson S., business manager and scientist of New York City, was born Dec. 21, 1855, in New Brunswick, N.J. For some years he was engaged in merchandising, banking and the insurance business. In 1879-81 he was in the Menlo Park laboratory of Thomas A. Edison; until 1896 was connected with the Edison electric light and general electric interests; and since 1896 has been secretary and manager of the electrical testing laboratories.

Howells, William Dean, author of 130 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born

March 1, 1837, in Martin's Ferry, Ohio. In 1861-65 he was consul at Venice. He is the author of The Day of Their Wedding and other works.

Hower, James A., merchant and banker of Lodi, Ohio, was born in Burbank, Ohio. He is president of the Exchange National bank.

Hower, M. Otis, manufacturer and banker of 60 Fir st., Akron, Ohio, was born Nov. 25, 1859, in Doylestown, Ohio. He is president of the Akron-Selle company and other corporations.

Howes, Reuben Wing, clergyman of New York City, was born Jan. 31, 1841, in New York City. He has had charge of the American church in Geneva, Switzerland.

Howey, Mrs.Laura E., librarian of Helena, Mont. She is secretary and librarian of the historical and miscellaneous department of the Montana state library.

Howie, William Clarence, lawyer and public official of Mount Horne, Idaho, was born Nov. 27, 1860, in the southern part of Davis county, Iowa. He is president of the Idaho state board of dairy, food and oil commissioners; and is also United States court commissioner.

Howison, George Holmes, educator and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born Nov. 29, 1834, in Montgomery county, Md. Since 1884 he has been Mills professor of philosophy at the university of California. He is the author of The Limits of Evolution and other works.

Howison, Henry Lycurgus, naval officer of Yonkers, N.Y., was born Oct. 10, 1837, in Washington, D.C. He served in the navy during the civil war. In 1898 he attained the rank of rear-admiral and in 1899 was retired.

Howland, Mrs. Francis Louise, journalist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born in Lockport, N.Y. She has been dramatic correspondent and critic of the San Francisco Call; and other papers. She is the author of Broken Bonds and other works.

Howland, Frank George, banker of Barre, Vt., was born Aug. 27,1863, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Granite Mutual Insurance company.

Howland, Frederick Hoppin,journalist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1871, in New Bedford, Mass. In 1900 he served with the British forces in South Africa as a war correspondent. He is the author of The Case of DeWet.

Howland, George Frank, capitalist of 131 State st., Boston, Mass., was born April 7, 1875, in Mattapoisett, Mass. He is secretary and assistant treasurer of the Massachusetts Lighting company.

Howland, Paul, soldier, lawyer and statesman of 1448 West Sixty-fifth st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Dec. 5, 1865, in Jefferson, Ohio. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Howland, Richard Smith, journalist, merchant and railroad president of Asheville, N.C., was born July 12, 1847, in New Bedford, Mass. He is president of the Asheville and Craggy railroad.

Howland, Thomas Smith, railroad official of 226 West Adams st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 13, 1844, in North Dartmouth, Mass. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

Howland, William Bailey, journalist, publisher and founder of Breeze Hill, N.Y., was born June 10, 1849, in Ashland, N.Y. He was the founder and publisher of Outing.

Howry, Charles Bowen, soldier, lawyer, statesman and author of 1728 I st., Washington, D.C., was born May 14, 1844, in Oxford, Miss. He served in the civil war. Since 1896 he has been an associate justice of the United States court of claims.

Howze, Robert Lee, soldier of San Juan, P.R., was born Aug. 22, 1864, in Texas. He served in the Indian wars and in 1901 attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Hoxie,George Luke, electrical engineer and author of 50 Church st., New York City, was born May 14, 1872, in Leonardsville, N. Y. He is the author of Text Book of Electrical Machinery.

Hoxie, Mrs.Vinnie Ream, sculptor and artist of 1632 K st., Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 25, 1847, in Madison, Wis. She has executed statues of Lincoln, Farragut and other men.

Hoxworth, Stephen A., farmer and statesman of Rapatee, Ill., was born May 1, 1860, near Maquan, Ill. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Hoy, Edwin F., banker of Salamanca, N. Y., was born in 1862, in Friendship, N.Y. He was cashier of the First National bank of Salamanca for several years and since 1903 he has been president.

Hoye, Stephen M., lawyer and railway president of 286 Fifth ave., New York City, was born July 19, 1860, in Mt. Carmel. He received the degree of LL.B. from Yale law school. He is director and counsel of the Union bank of Brooklyn. He organized and is president of the New Jersey and Staten Island Junction Terminal company, incorporated for ten million dollars, which is organized to construct a tunnel from the terminal of all the railroads which now reach the eastern shore of New Jersey.

Hoyne, Thomas Maclay, lawyer of 30 North LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 17, 1843, in Galena. He is a member of the Illinois state and Chicago bar associations.

Hoyt,Arthur Stephen, educator, clergyman and author of Auburn, N.Y., was born June 3, 1851, in Meridian, N.Y. Since 1891 he has been professor of homiletics and sciology at the Auburn theological seminary. He is the author of The Work of Preaching.

Hoyt, Charles Chase, merchant and manufacturer of 58 Lincoln st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 22, 1855, in Boston, Mass.

He is vice-president of the Walworth Manufacturing company.

Hoyt, David Webster, educator and genealogist of 40 Humboldt ave., Providence,R.I., was born April 16, 1833, in Amesbury,Mass. He is principal of the English high school at Providence, R.I. He is the author of The Hoyt Genealogy and other works.

Hoyt, Deristhe Lavinta, educator and author of Malden, Mass., was born about 1845 in Wentworth, N.H. She is lecturer on the history of painting in the Massachusetts normal art school. She is the author of Historic Schools of Paintings and other works.

Hoyt, Francis Deming, lawyer and author of 69 Wall st., New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1843, in St. Albans, Vt. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from the University of Vermont. He served in the civil war in the twelfth Vermont regiment. In 1874 he was one of the first American pilgrims to Rome. He is the author of The Coming Storm; Catherine Sidney and other works.

Hoyt, Mrs. Helen Brown, educator and author of Boston, Mass., was born March 4, 1858, in Woburn, Mass. She is the author of A Child's Story of the Life of Christ.

Hoyt, Henry Martin, lawyer and banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1856, in Wilkesbarre, Pa. In 1881 he was admitted to the practice of law; and opened an office in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1890 he has been president of an investment company of Philadelphia, Pa. In 1897-1903 he was attorney-general of the United States; and since 1903 has been solicitor-general of the United States.

Hoyt, Herbert W., physician of 33 Clinton ave., Rochester, N.Y., was born July 3, 1863, in Wellsville, N.Y. He is secretary of the American homeopathic, ophthalmological,otological and laryngological society.

Hoyt, James Humphrey, railroad official of 2445 Euclid ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 10, 1852, in Cleveland, Ohio. Since 1899 he has been vice-president of the Hocking Valley railroad.

Hoyt, John P., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born Oct. 6, 1841, in Austinburg, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1877 he became governor of Arizona territory; and has held many other positions of trust and honor.

Hoyt, John Wesley, educator, journalist, statesman and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 13, 1831, near Worthington, Ohio. In 1878 he was made governor of Wyoming territory. He is chairman of the national committee to promote the establishment of the university of the United States. He is the author of Resources and Progress of Wisconsin and other works.

Hoyt, Mark, merchant of Stamford, Conn., was born May 5, 1835, in Stamford, Conn. In 1893 he became vice-president of the United States Leather company.

Hoyt,Thomas Howard, lawyer and banker of Merrimac, Mass., was born May 11, 1849, in Merrimac, Mass. He is president of the Merrimac Savings bank.

Hoyt, Wilbur Franklin, educator and college president of Peru, Neb.,was born March 13, 1864, in Reedsville, Ohio. He has been president of the Kansas Wesleyan university. In 1902 he established the Hoyt observatory.

Hoyt, William Edwin, civil engineer and railroad expert of Rochester, N.Y., was born July 3, 1845, in Portsmouth, N.H. He has been health commissioner of his city. Since 1900 he has been assistant engineer of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company.

Hrdlicka, Ales, anthropologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 30, 1869, in Bohemia. Since 1904 he has been assistant curator in charge of the division physical anthropology in the United States National Museum. He is the author of Reports on Anthropological Work in the State Institute for Feeble-Minded Children in Syracuse, N.Y.

Huard, Victor Alphonsus, educator, publisher and scientist of Quebec, Canada,where he was born Feb. 28, 1853. In 1875-1900 he was professor of French, Latin, Greek, literature and rhetoric in the seminary of Chicoutimi; and since 1904 has been curator in the museum of public instruction in Quebec. He is the author of Canadian Mollusca.

Hubbard, Ackley, lawyer and banker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Sept. 15, 1849, in Massena, N.Y. He is president of the American Tramways company.

Hubbard, Alice, litterateur and author of East Aurora, N.Y., was born June 7, 1861, in Wales, N.Y. She is the author of Woman's Work and other works.

Hubbard, Avory Duval, lawyer, journalist and author of Topeka, Kan., was born Jan. 19, 1864, in Allen county, Kan. He is the editor and owner of The Western Patriot. He is the author of Between Love and Duty and other works.

Hubbard, Augustus Griffin, banker of Paris, Texas, was born Dec. 13, 1851, in Marshall, Texas. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Hubbard, Charles Learned, paper manufacturer and banker of Norwich, Conn., was born July 21, 1855, in Norwich, Conn. He is vice-president of the Thames National bank.

Hubbard, Charles Wells, manufacturer of 55 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1856 in Newton, Mass. He is treasurer of the Ludlow Manufacturing company.

Hubbard, Clarence Adelbert, banker of 306 Garden st., Lake City, Minn., was born Nov. 4, 1844, in Mason, Mich. He is president of the Lake City bank of Minnesota.

Hubbard, Elbert, journalist, publisher and author of East Aurora, N.Y., was born in 1859 in Bloomington, Ill. He is editor of the Philistine of East Aurora. He is the author of The Legacy and other works.

Hubbard, Elijah Kent, manufacturer and banker of 375 High st., Middletown, Conn., was born July 12, 1835, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the Russell Manufacturing company.

Hubbard, Elijah Kent, manufacturer and financier of Middletown,Conn., was born Feb. 5, 1869, in Chicago. He is connected with the Russell Manufacturing company.

Hubbard, Francis Barton, lumber manufacturer and banker of Centralia,Wash., was born Nov. 5, 1847, in Dayton, N.Y. He is president of the Union Loan and Trust company and other corporations.

Hubbard, Frank W., banker of Bad Axe, Mich., was born April 16, 1863, in Port Huron, Mich. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Pigeon and many other banks.

Hubbard,George Henry,clergyman and author of Haverhill, Mass., was born June 2, 1857, in Canada. He is the author of The Way of Poverty and other works.

Hubbard, Gould Robert, lawyer and financier of 164 State st., Bridgeport, Conn., was born Sept. 18, 1876, in Bridgeport, Conn. He is junior member of the law firm of Gould and Gould.

Hubbard, James, merchant and banker of New Boston, Texas, was born Jan. 20, 1875, in Cooper, Texas. He is president of the New Boston National bank.

Hubbard, Joel D.,physician and statesman of Versailles, Mo., was born Nov. 6, 1860, in Marshall, Mo. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Hubbard, Leverett Marsden, lawyer and jurist of Wallingford, Conn., was born April 23, 1849, in Durham, Conn. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is judge of the court of common pleas; and president of the Dime Savings bank of his city.

Hubbard, Lucius, lawyer and banker of South Bend, Ind., was born Jan. 7, 1844, in St. Joseph county, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Hubbard, Lucius Frederick, soldier, railroad president and statesman of St. Paul, Minn., was born Jan. 26, 1836, in Troy, N.Y. He served in the civil war and later in the Spanish-American war, attaining the rank of brigadier-general. He has been a member of the state senate; and in 1882-87 he was governor of Minnesota.

Hubbard, Lucius Lee, geologist and author of Houghton, Mich., was born Aug. 7, 1849, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been state geologist of Michigan. He is general manager of the Copper Range company and Champion Copper company. He is the author of Woods and Lakes of Maine and other works.

Hubbard, Robert Moss, capitalist of New Boston, Texas, was born Nov. 19, 1876, in Cooper, Texas. He is a director of the New Boston National bank and other corporations.

Hubbard, Mrs. Sara Anderson, journalist and author of 177 Woodruff ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 7, 1832, in East Berkshire, Vt. Since 1869 she has been engaged in teaching and journalism. She is the author of Catchwords of Good Cheer.

Hubbard, Thomas Hamlin, soldier, lawyer and railroad president of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Dec. 20, 1838, in Hallowell, Maine. He served in the civil war and was made brevet brigadier-general of the United States volunteers. He is president of the Oregon and California Railway company and many other corporations.

Hubbard, William Pallister, soldier,lawyer and statesman of Wheeling,W.Va., was born Dec. 24, 1843, in Wheeling, W.Va. He served in the civil war. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hubbell, Alvan Allace, physician, ophthalmologist and author of 212 Franklin st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born in 1846 in Conewango, N.Y. He has been president of the New York state medical association. He is professor of clinical ophthalmology and otology in the university of Buffalo. He is the author of section on the Diseases of the Eye in Doctor Schwintz's American Textbook of the Diseases of the Eye.

Hubbell, Charles Bulkley, farmer and lawyer of 111 Broadway, New York City, was born July 20, 1853, in Williamstown, Mass. He is a trustee of the New York state hospital for crippled and deformed children; and is the owner of Brookside farm at Williamstown, Mass.

Hubbell, Frederick Marion, insurance and railroad official of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Jan. 17, 1839, in Huntington, Conn. He is president of the Equitable Life Insurance Company of Iowa; and secretary of the Des Moines Railway company.

Hubbell, George Allen, educator, lecturer, college president and author of Cumberland Gap, Tenn., was born Aug. 15, 1862, in Springfield, Ohio. He has been president of the Highland college of Williamsburg, Ky. He is the author of Guide in the Study of Geography and other works.

Hubbell, Heinry Salem, painter and artist of 424 West Fifty-second st.,New York City, was born in 1870 in Paola, Kan. He is an associate national academician. His best known works are The Poet and The Return.

Hubbell, Henry Wilson, soldier of Warrenton, Va., was born Feb. 8, 1842, in New York City. He served in the civil war and in 1905 was promoted to the rank of brigadier-general.

Hubbell, J. Lorenzo, merchant and statesman of Genada, Ariz., was born Nov. 20, 1853, in New Mexico. He has been sheriff of Apache county, Arizona. In 1893 he was a member of the territorial council.

Hubbell,William Stone, soldier and clergyman of 31 Bible House, New York City, was born in 1837, in Wolcottville, Conn. He has filled important pastorates in Massachusetts and New York; in 1898-1911 was general secretary of the New York Sabbath committee, and is now recording secretary. He served in the civil war as captain and brevet major in the twenty-first Connecticut; and served a year as adjutant-general of brigade. He received a medal of honor for bravery in the battle of Fort Harrison, Va.

Hubbert, George Spencer, publisher of New York City, was born Jan. 4, 1843, in Burlington Flats, N.Y. For ten years he was president of the East Orange board of trade. He is president of Fords, Howard and Hulbert, book publishers of New York City.

Hubbs, Orlando, statesman of Newbern, N. C., was born Feb. 18, 1840, in New York. In 1881-83 he was a member of congress.

Huber, Gotthelf Carl, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Aug. 30, 1865, in India. He is a professor of histology and embryology in the department of medicine and surgery of the university of Michigan. He is the author of A Textbook of Histology and other works.

Huber, John Bessner, physician and author of 40 East Forty-first st., New York City, was born March 14, 1864, in New York City. He is the author of Consumption and Civilization.

Huberich, Charles Henry, lawyer and author of 39 Unter den Linden, Berlin, Germany, was born Feb.18, 1877, in Toledo,Ohio. He has received the degrees of LL.B. and LL.M., D.C.L. and LL.D. He has been professor of law in the Leland Stanford university, the university of Wisconsin and the university of Chicago. He is now engaged in the practice of law in international cases, with offices in Berlin, Paris, Hamburg, Rotterdam and San Francisco. He is the author of several historical works.

Hubert, Philip Gengembre, journalist and author of 108 Madison ave., New York City, was born Jan. 9, 1852, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been critic for the New York Herald. He is the author of Liberty and Living and other works.

Hubner, Charles William, soldier, journalist, author and poet of Atlanta, Ga., was born Jan. 16, 1835, in Baltimore, Md. He is assistant librarian of Carnegie library of his city. He is the author of Poems and Essays and other works.

Huckaboy, George Manly, physician and banker of Vivian, La., was born Nov. 27, 1874, in Garfield, La. He is president of the Vivian State bank.

Huckel, Oliver, clergyman and author of 1515 Linden ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 11, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1897 he has been pastor of the Associate Congregational church. He is the author of The Melody of God's Love and other works.

Huckel, Samuel, architect of 1211 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 14, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1902 he designed and supervised the remodeling of the Grand Central station in New York City.

Huddilston, John Homer, educator and author of Orono, Maine, was born Feb. 9, 1869, in Cleveland, Ohio. Since 1899 he has been professor of Greek in the university of Maine. He is the author of Lessons from Greek Pottery and other works.

Hudgens, William Augustus, farmer and banker of Starr, S.C., was born Sept. 26, 1878, in Honea Path, S.C. He is cashier of the bank of Starr.

Hudgins, Charles Buckner, clergyman and author of Rome,Ga., was born May 26, 1853, in Portsmouth, Va. He is rector of Saint Peters Episcopal church of Rome. He is the author of The Concert, a novel.

Hudnut, Alexander M., banker and broker of 15 East Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born in Princeton, N.J. He graduated from the Princeton university with the degrees of A.B. and A.M. He commenced business in Wall street in 1892; and is now a member of the firm of Halsey and Hudnut. He is a member of the chamber of commerce of New York City.

Hudson, Charles I., capitalist of 36 Wall st., New York City, was born Aug. 20, 1852, in New York City. He was one of the organizers of the Fourteenth Street bank.

Hudson, Charles R., railroad official of City of Mexico, Mexico, was born Sept. 29, 1860. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the National railways of Mexico.

Hudson, Daniel E., clergyman and author of Notre Dame, Ind. He is the editor and publisher of numerous Catholic works.

Hudson, Edmund, journalist, inventor and author of Hartford, Conn., was born in Templeton, Mass. Since 1894 he has been editorial writer of the Hartford Times. He is the author of The American Woman.

Hudson, Henry, manufacturer of 514 Warren st., Hudson, N.Y., was born Aug. 10, 1852, in Stuyvesant Falls, N.Y. He is president of the Carter Luff Chemical company.

Hudson, James Fairchild, journalist and author of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 12, 1846, in Oberlin, Ohio. Since 1883 he has been editorial writer and associate editor of the Dispatch. He is the author of A Silver Slymposium and other works.

Hudson, John Rogers, civil engineer and author of New York City, was born in 1859 in New York City. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of Tables Calculating the Cubic Contents of Excavation and Embankments.

Hudson, Robert Weir, lawyer and jurist of Pearsall, Texas, was born Dec. 31, 1856, in Noxubee county, Miss. In 1891-92 he was district judge of the thirty-sixth judicial district of Texas.

Hudson, Sanford Henry, lawyer and banker of Benson, Minn., was born Nov. 29, 1857, in Janesville, Wis. He is a director and part owner of the Swift County bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Hudson, Thomas Jefferson, lawyer and statesman of Fredonia, Kan., was born Oct. 30, 1844, in Boone county, Ind. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress. He has been mayor of his city.

Hudson, William Cadwalader, journalist and author of 136 Berkley place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Nov. 14, 1843, in New Brunswick, N.J. For forty-two years he has been connected with the Brooklyn Daily Eagle. He is the author of The Dudgale Millions and other works.

Hudson, William Henry, educator and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born in 1862 in London, England. He has been professor of English literature at Leland Stanford Junior university since 1892. He is the author of The Study of English Literature and other works.

Huff, George Franklin, statesman of 1600 N. H. ave., Washington, D.C., was born July 16, 1842, in Norristown, Pa. In 1891-93 and 1895-1911 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Keystone Coal and Coke company.

Huffman, Thomas L., farmer and banker of Normandy, Tenn., was born March 23, 1867, in Normandy. He is president of the bank of Normandy.

Hufsmith,Frank,mechanical engineer,banker and capitalist of 100 Magnolia st., Palestine, Texas, was born Jan. 7, 1853, in Ohio. He has been mayor of his city. He is receiver of the Oklahoma, Red River and Texas Railway company

Hughart, J. H. P., railroad official of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Dec. 1, 1854, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1906 he has been vice-president and general manager of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad.

Hughes, Agnes Lockhart, journalist and author of 499 Becon st., Boston, Mass., was born in Canada. She has been music critic and associate editor of the Seattle Mail and Herald. She is the author of Told in the Garden and other works.

Hughes, Andrew S., railway official of 1115 Cherokee st., Denver, Col., was born in Weston, Mo. He has been superintendent and general freight agent of the Denver and South Park Railroad company. He is now general traffic manager of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad company.

Hughes, Charles Evans, educator, lecturer, lawyer and statesman of 2401 Massachusetts ave., Washington, D.C., was born April 11, 1862, in Glens Falls, N.Y. He has been professor of law and special lecturer in the Cornell university. In 1907-11 he was governor of New York.

Hughes, Charles Hamilton,physician,founder and author of 3858 West Pine blvd., St. Louis, Mo., was born May 23, 1839, in St. Louis, Mo. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major and army surgeon. He is president of the faculty and professor of nervous diseases in the Barnes medical college of St. Louis. He is the author of Shuttle Pulse and other works.

Hughes, Daniel, banker of Liberty, Mo., was born Dec. 6, 1847, near Liberty, Mo. He is president of the First National bank.

Hughes, Daniel, physician of 4003 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 1, 1858, in Philadelphia. In 1883 he was elected gynecologist to the Philadelphia hospital.

Hughes, Dudley Mays, farmer and statesman of Danville, Ga., was born Oct. 10, 1848, in Twiggs county, Ga. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress. He has been a member of the state senate.

Hughes, Edwin Holt, clergyman, bishop, theologian and college president of 435 Buchanan st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Dec. 7, 1866, in Moundsville, W.Va. He is a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church. He has been president of the De Pauw university of Greencastle, Ind.

Hughes, Felix T., railroad president of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 10, 1838, in Centerville, Ill. Since 1886 he has been president of the Keokuk and Western railroad.

Hughes, George M., railway official of 100 William st., New York City, was born June 19, 1843, in Southfields, N.Y. He is president and general manager of the New Jersey, Indiana and Illinois railway.

Hughes, James Anthony, merchant and statesman of Huntington, W.Va., was born Feb. 27, 1861, in Corunna, Ontario. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Hughes, John F., ranchman and statesman of Marquette, Kan., was born Dec. 28, 1842, in Franklin, Pa. He served in the civil war. He has been a member of the state senate.

Hughes, John J., clergyman and Paulist superior-general of 415 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born Dec. 6, 1856, in New York City. He founded and for twenty-three years edited the Monthly Calendar. He was one of the founders of the Catholic converts league of New York, of which he is vice-president. Since 1909 he has been superior-general of the Paulist community.

Hughes, Levi Allen, wool merchant and banker of 317 Washington ave., Santa Fe, N.M., was born Oct. 26, 1858, in St. Paul, Minn. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Hughes, Louis C., journalist, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Tucson,Ariz., was born May 15, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war. He has been chancellor of the university of Arizona; and in 1893-6 he was governor of Arizona.

Hughes, Marc Ray, educator,physician and neurologist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 15, 1878, in St. Louis, Mo. He has been adjunct professor of neurology at Barnes medical college. In 1901 he was associate editor of the Alienist and Neurologist.

Hughes, Richard Cecil, clergyman, educator and college president of Madison, Wis., was born Feb. 14, 1861, in Springfield, Ohio. Since 1901 he has been president of the Ripon college of Wisconsin.

Hughes, Robert Morton, lawyer and author of Norfolk, Va., was born Sept. 10, 1855, in Abingdon, Va. He has been president of the Virginia state bar association. He is the author of Handbook of Admiralty Law and other works.

Hughes, Rupert, journalist, dramatist and author of Bedford Hills, N.Y., was born Jan. 31, 1872, in Lancaster, Mo. In 1901-02 he was assistant editor of the Criterion. Since 1900 he has been with the Encyclopedia Britannica company. He is the author of The Richest Girl in the World and other works.

Hughes, Thomas Aloysius, educator and author of college Americana, Rome, Italy, was born Jan. 24, 1849, in Liverpool, England. He was professor of literature and philosophy at St. Xavier's college of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of The Acolyte and other works.

Hughes, Thomas Patrick, clergyman, orientalist and author of Kings Park, Long Island, N.Y., was born March 26, 1838, in England. He is the author of Poems of Abdur Rahman; The Stage from a Clergyman's Standpoint and other works.

Hughes, Thomas Welburn, lawyer and author of Urbana, Ill., was born Jan. 17, 1858, in Canada. Since 1898 he has been professor of law in the university of Illinois. He is the author of An Outline of Criminal Law and other works.

Hughes, Walter H., note broker of 50 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 12, 1879, in Cambridge, Mass. He is the Boston representative of E. C. Holbrook and Corey of New York.

Hughes, William, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Paterson, N.J., was born April 3, 1872, in Paterson, N.J. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1903-05 and 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Hughes, William Edgar, soldier, lawyer and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 15, 1840, in Jacksonville, Ill. He was a colonel in the confederate army. In 1865-73 he practiced law in Weatherford, Texas, and in 1873 continued his profession in Dallas and in Denver. In 1873 he organized the City bank of Dallas, now the City National bank; and became its president. In 1884 he became president of the Exchange National bank of Dallas, and since 1881 has been president of the Continental Land and Cattle company of Denver, Col. In 1890 he became president of the Union Trust company of St. Louis, Mo.; and removed in 1898 to Denver, where he organized the Continental Trust company, of which he was president until his return to St. Louis in 1910.

Hughes, William Mackenzie, engineer of 5957 Indiana ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 5, 1848, in Utica, N.Y. He has had charge of the designing and constructing of the bridge work for the city of Cleveland.

Hughitt, Marvin, railroad president of 226 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 9, 1837, in Genoa, N.Y. He has been superintendent of the Illinois Central railroad. Since 1887 he has been president of the Chicago and Northwestern system.

Huhn, Anton, business president of 714 East Seventeenth st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Feb. 18, 1856, in Milwaukee, Wis. Since 1900 he has been president of the Huhn Elevator company.

Huidekoper, Henry Shippen, soldier of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 17, 1839, in Meadville, Pa. He graduated from Harvard college with the degree of A.M.; and since 1898 has been one of the overseers for Harvard college. He served in the civil war from captain to colonel. In 1870 he was appointed major-general in the Pennsylvania national guard, and became senior brigadier-general. In 1879 he compiled a Manual of Service, now in general use. In 1880-86 he was postmaster of Philadelphia.

Hukill, Edward Martin, merchant and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Feb. 1, 1840, in New Castle county, Del. He was one of the organizers of the banking house of Reynolds, Hukill and company. He became interested in the production of gas and organized two companies.

Hukill, Henry Orville, railway official of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 25, 1844, in Steubenville, Ohio. Since 1860 he has been engaged in railroad work. In 1870-86 he was clerk, in 1886-94 was assistant, and since 1894 has been purchasing agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh.

Hulbert, Calvin Butler, clergyman, college president and author of East Dennis, Mass., was born Oct. 18, 1827, in Sheldon, Vt. In 1875-80 he was president of Middlebury college. He is the author of a widely circulated tract, The Distinctive Idea in Education.

Hulbert, Homer Bezaleel, educator, founder and author of 36 Marengo Park, Springfield, Mass., was born Jan. 26, 1863, in New Haven, Vt. In 1901 he founded the Korea Review. He is the author of The Passing of Korea and other works.

Hulbert, William Davenport, author of 1239 Sixteenth ave., Seattle, Wash., was born Oct. 12, 1868, in Mackinac Island, Mich. In 1895 he began writing animal stories for the Chicago Record while living in the lumber woods. He is the author of Forest Neighbors.

Hulett, George Augustus, educator and chemist of Princeton, N.J., was born in 1867 in Will county, Ill. Since 1905 he has been professor of chemistry at the Princeton university. In 1912-13 during a leave of absence from Princeton he was chief chemist of the United States bureau of mines.

Hulick, George W., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Batavia, Ohio, was born June 29, 1833, in Batavia, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1893-97 he was a member of congress.

Huling, James H., lumber merchant and statesman of Charleston, W.Va., was born March 24, 1844, in Williamsport, Pa. He has been mayor of his city. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Huling, Ray Greene, educator, founder and author of 17 Hurlbut st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Oct. 15, 1847, in Providence, R.I. In 1875-86 he was principal of the Fitchburg high school. Since 1896 he has been headmaster of the English high school at Cambridge.

Hulings, Willis James, soldier, lawyer, oil operator and statesman of Oil City, Pa., was born July 1, 1850, in Clarion county, Pa. He has been a member of the state legislature and a member of the state senate.

Hull, Alem Price, physician and banker of 25 Houston ave., Montgomery, Pa., was born Dec. 7, 1848, in Washingtonville, Pa. He is president of the Farmers' and Citizens' bank and other corporations.

Hull, Alexander C., state official of Harrison, Ark., was born April 20, 1858, in Marion county, Ark. He has been editor of the Boone Banner. He is secretary of the state of Arkansas.

Hull, Arthur Johnson, educator, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bridgeport, Conn., was born Dec. 18, 1868, in Monroe, Conn. He has been principal of the grammar school at Ware, Mass. He is a representative in the Connecticut state legislature.

Hull, Charles Aurelius, fire insurance official of 95 William st., New York City, was born May 26, 1848, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the New York Fire Insurance company.

Hull, Cordell, lawyer,jurist and statesman of Carthage, Tenn., was born Oct. 2, 1871, in Pickett, Tenn. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of captain. He has been a member of the Tennessee house of representatives; and a member of congress.

Hull, John Albert Tiffin, soldier, manufacturer and statesman of Des Moines, Iowa, was born May 1, 1841, in Sabina, Ohio. In 1872-84 he was secretary of the Iowa state senate. In 1891-1911 he was a member of congress.

Hull,Merlin, lawyer and publisher of Black River Falls, Wis., was born at Warsaw, Ind. Since 1904 he has been publisher of the Jackson County Journal.

Hull, Porter Cowles, merchant and banker of Delphos, Kan., was born April 21, 1852, in Durham,N.Y. He is president of the State bank.

Hull, Samuel Elias, merchant and banker of Millbury, Mass., was born Aug. 12, 1843, in Millbury, Mass. He is president of the Millbury National bank.

Hull, Thomas, accountant and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Dec. 27, 1855, in London, England. In 1905 he was United States surveyor-general for Utah. Since 1903 he has been representative and speaker of the assembly in the Utah state legislature.

Hull, William Isaac, educator and author of Swarthmore, Pa., was born Nov. 19, 1868, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1892 he has been professor of history in Swarthmore college. He is the author of History of Higher Education in Pennsylvania and other works.

Hulley, Lincoln, educator, lecturer, college president and author of De Land, Fla., was born May 3, 1865, in Camden, N.J. Since 1904 he has been president of the John B. Stetson university at De Land. He is the author of Lullabies and Slumber Songs.

Hulme, George Breedom, underwriter of 250 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Aug. 27, 1855, in England. He is secretary, treasurer and director of the Insurers Agency company.

Hulse, Hiram Richard, clergyman of 101 Lawrence st., New York City,was born Sept. 15, 1868, in Middletown, N.Y. He is rector of St. Mary's church.

Hulskamp,Henry, manufacturer and founder of New York City, was born in Westphalia. In 1850 he established a piano manufactory at Troy,N.Y., and gained prizes in New York and London. In 1866 he moved the factory to New York City.

Humason, George Howard, clergyman and lecturer of Duluth, Minn., was born Aug. 3, 1850, in Buffalo, N.Y. He has been pastor of the largest congregation in the state of Minnesota. He is a noted, brilliant lecturer.

Hume, Peter, banker of Portland,Ore., was born Aug. 16, 1840, in Nova Scotia. He is president of the bank of Sellwood.

Hume, Robert Allen, missionary and author of Ahmednagar, India, was born March 18, 1847, in Bombay, India. Since 1874 he has been a missionary at Ahmednagar, India. He is the author of Missions from the Modern View.

Hume, Thomas, educator and author of Chapel Hill, N.C., was born in Portsmouth, Va. He is a professor of English language and literature at the university of North Carolina. He is the author of Helps to the Study of Hamlet and other works.

Humes, William Potter, banker of Bellefonte, Pa., was born Sept. 21, 1884, in Bellefonte, Pa. He was educated at the Bellefonte academy and at the Pennsylvania state college. He assisted in the various business interests of his father, who was president of the First National bank of Bellefonte until his death in 1895. At his father's death he gave up active connection with the bank, of which he is still a director, to attend to his father's estate and outside business interests.

Humfreville, D. W., banker of Waterville, Kan., was born in 1843 in Piqua, Ohio. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Humke, Albert Edward, educator and author of Vincennes, Ind., was born Jan. 23, 1854, in Heidelberg, Germany. He has been superintendent of the city schools of Vincennes, Ind. He is the author of School Readings.

Hummel, Richard Joseph, banker of Baton Rouge, La., was born Jan. 19, 1859, in New Orleans, La. He is vice-president of the Louisiana National bank.

Hummer, George Pierson, educator, business man and political economist of Holland, Mich., was born Dec. 25, 1856, in Belvidere, N.J. He has been superintendent of the public schools of Holland, Mich. He has been manager of the West Michigan Furniture company.

Humphrey, Alexander Pope, lawyer of Louisville, Ky., was born Jan. 26, 1848, in Louisville, Ky. He is a member of the law firm of Humphrey and Humphrey.

Humphrey, Arthur L., railroad official of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born June 12, 1860, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Westinghouse Air Brake company.

Humphrey, Charles Frederick, soldier of 1620 Eighteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 2, 1844, in New York. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of second lieutenant. In 1898 he was assigned to duty as chief quartermaster at Havana, Cuba.

Humphrey, George Scranton, engineer and financier of 45 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1856, in Ithaca, N.Y. He is treasurer and purchasing agent of C. W. Hunt and company.

Humphrey, Harriette Zephine, litterateur and author of Dorset, Vt., was born Dec. 15, 1874, in Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of The Calling of the Apostle; Uncle Charley; and Over Against Green Peak.

Humphrey, J. Otis, lawyer and jurist of Springfield, Ill., was born Dec. 30, 1850, in Morgan county, Ill. In 1901-05 he was judge of the United States district court for the southern district.

Humphrey, John, lawyer and state senator of 155 North Clark st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 20, 1838, in England. In 1886-98 he was a member of the state senate. He was the author of the Humphrey bills.

Humphrey, Lyman Underwood, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Independence, Kan., was born July 25, 1844, in New Baltimore, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of first lieutenant. In 1888-92 he was governor of Kansas.

Humphrey, Seth King, inventor and author of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 5, 1864, in Faribault, Minn. He invented the Humphrey employes' elevator. He is the author of The Indian Dispossessed.

Humphrey, Thomas Chauncey, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Fort Smith, Ark., was born Dec. 20, 1846, in Magazine, Ark. In 1893 he was speaker in the house of representatives of Arkansas. He has been judge of the twelfth circuit of Arkansas.

Humphrey, William E., lawyer and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born March 31, 1862, near Alamo, Ind. In 1898-1902 he was corporation counsel of Seattle. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Humphrey, William Harrison, soldier and postmaster of Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., was born Dec. 18, 1835, in Underhill, Vt. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He is now postmaster of his city.

Humphreys, Alexander Crombie, educator and civil engineer of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born March 30, 1851, in Scotland. He has been president of the Stevens institute of technology. In 1880 he was chief engineer of the Pintsch Lightning company.

Humphreys, Benjamin Grubb, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Greenville, Miss., was born Aug. 7, 1865, in Claiborne county, Miss. In 1892-96 he was superintendent of education for Leflore county, Miss. In 1903-09 he was a member of congress.

Humphreys, David Carlisle, educator, civil engineer and author of Lexington, Va., was born Oct. 14, 1855, in Chatham Hill, Va. Since 1895 he has been hydrographer in the United States geological survey. He is the author of Notes on Rankines Civil Engineering.

Humphreys, Mary Gay, army nurse and author of New York City, was born in Ridley, Ohio. She served in the civil war as a nurse. She is the author of Catherine Schuyler; Jack Racer and other works.

Humphreys, Milton Wylie, soldier, educator, philologist and author of University, Va., was born Sept. 15, 1844, in Greenbrier county, W.Va. In 1882-83 he was president of the university of Texas. He is the author of Clouds of Aristophanes and other works.

Hun, Henry, physician and author of 149 Washington ave., Albany, N.Y., was born March 21, 1854, in Albany, N.Y. He received the degree of M.D. from Harvard university. Since 1885 he has been professor of nervous diseases in the Albany medical college. He is the author of Guide for American Medical Students in Europe, Differential Diagnosis of Nervous Diseases and other medical works.

Hundley, Oscar R., lawyer and jurist of Birmingham, Ala., was born Oct. 30, 1855, in Limestone county, Ala. In 1886-90 he was a member of the Alabama state house of representatives. Since 1907 he has been judge of the United States district court for the northern district of Alabama.

Huneke, William A., lawyer and jurist of 314 Park place, Spokane, Wash., was born Aug. 12, 1864, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been judge of the superior court of Washington.

Huneker, James Gibbons, journalist and author of New York City, was born Jan. 31, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1885 he has been associate editor of the Musical Courier; and is art editor of the New York Sun. He is the author of Messotints in Modern Music and other works.

Hungate, John H., lawyer and banker of La Harpe, Ill., was born in 1838 in Illinois. He has practiced law in the state and federal courts of Missouri and Illinois. He commenced banking in 1874; and now owns interests in banks in La Harpe, Macomb, Good Hope and Fulton, Ill. He is also president of the La Harpe Electric Light company. He has been president of the board of education of his city; and is president of the board of trustees of Giltings seminary.

Hunker, John Jacob, naval officer of Put-in-Bay, Ohio, was born June 12, 1844, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He served in the civil war as a private soldier. In 1906 he attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Hunn, John, bank director and statesman of Wyoming, Del., was born June 23, 1849, in New Castle county, Del. He is a director of the First National bank. In 1900-04 he was governor of Delaware.

Hunnewell, James Frothingham, merchant, antiquarian and author of 289 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born July 3, 1832, in Charlestown, Mass. He has been president of the Gas and Electric company. He is the author of several published and privately printed works on history, antiquities and kindred subjects.

Hunnewell, Walter, capitalist of 87 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1844, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the improved dwellings association; and a trustee of the Provident Institution for Savings Institutions.

Hunt, Alfred Ephriam, manufacturer and civil engineer of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born March 31, 1855, in East Douglas, Mass. In 1881 he organized the Pittsburg Reduction company for the manufacture of metal aluminum; and is now president and general manager.

Hunt, Carleton, soldier, educator, lawyer and statesman of New Orleans,La., was born Jan. 1, 1836, in New Orleans, La. In 1879 he was professor of civil law in the university of Louisiana. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Hunt, Charles Wallace, civil engineer and inventor of Stapleton, N.Y., was born Oct. 13, 1841, in Candor, N.Y. He is president of Staten Island chamber of commerce and several corporations.

Hunt, Edward Livingston, physician of 54 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born Feb. 2, 1871, in New Orleans, La. He is instructor in neurology in the college of physicians and surgeons of Columbia university. He is attending neurologist to the New York city home for the aged, and consulting neurologist to the Lincoln hospital and other hospitals.

Hunt, Emory William, educator, clergyman and college president of Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 2, 1863, in East Clarence, N. Y. In 1900-02 he was pastor of a Baptist church in Boston, Mass. Since 1902 he has been president of the Denison university at Granville.

Hunt, Gaillard, government official and author of 1711 DeSales st., Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 8, 1862, in New Orleans, La. Since 1907 he has been chief of the bureau of citizenship and the department of state of Washington. He is the author of Life of James Madison and other works.

Hunt, George Willie Paul, statesman of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Nov. 1, 1859, in Huntsville, Mo. In 1893 he was a member of the Arizona state legislature. In 1911 he became governor of Arizona.

Hunt, Mrs. Grace Grinnell, journalist and publisher of Chicago, Ill., was born June 4, 1865, in Adams, N.Y. She is editor and publisher of the Jeffersonian, being the only woman in Illinois who was sole editor and publisher of a newspaper. She was one of the organizers of the Mayfair woman's club.

Hunt, James S. J., educator and miner of Ames, Iowa, was born in Indiana. He has been president of the state agricultural college of Iowa. He went to China and next to Korea and developed mining property said to be worth twenty million dollars.

Hunt, John Thomas, mechanic and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1860 in St. Louis, Mo. He is by occupation a stone cutter. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress.

Hunt, John Wesley, physician of Anderson, Ind., was born Oct. 10, 1834, in Groveland, N.Y. He served on the house surgical staff in Bellevue hospital of New York City. In 1862 he was placed in charge of the Mill Creek hospital, near Fortress Monroe.

Hunt, Leigh Harrison, artist of 14 West Twelfth st., New York City, was born in 1858 in Galena, Illinois. Since 1877 he has been professor of the art department of the College City of New York.

Hunt, Leigh S. J., educator and college president of 17 Nassau st., New York City, was born in Indiana. He has been president of the state industrial college of Iowa.

Hunt, Maurice Patterson, educator and physician of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Feb. 28, 1853, in Delaware county, Ohio. In 1893-95 he was professor of gynecology and obstetrics in the homopathic medical college at Ann Arbor.

Hunt, Richard Howland, designer and architect of Port Chester,N.Y.,was born March 14, 1862, in France. He designed Quintard hall and Hoffman hall of the university of the south; and Kissam hall of the Vanderbilt university.

Hunt, Robert Woolston, metallurgist and inventor of 77 Division st,, Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 9, 1838, in Fallsington, Pa. In 1860 he established the first analytical laboratory connected with any iron or steel works in the United States. He has obtained improvements in bottom casting of steel ingots for making special soft Bessemer steel.

Hunt, Sanford Conley, banker of Columbia, Mo., was born April, 1867, in Boone county, Mo. He is president of the Columbia Paving company.

Hunt, Theodore Whitefield, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Feb. 19, 1844, in Metuchen, N.J. Since 1873 he has been professor of English language and literature at Princeton college. He is the author of Principles of Written Discourse and other works.

Hunt, Thomas Forsyth, educator and author of State college, Pa., was born Jan. 1, 1862, in Ridott, Ill. Since 1907 he has been dean of the school of agriculture at the Pennsylvania state college. He is the author of History of Agriculture and Rural Economics and other works.

Hunt, William Henry, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 5, 1857, in New Orleans, La. In 1885-87 he was attorney-general of Montana. Since 1904 he has been judge of the United States district court for Montana.

Hunt, William J., physician and surgeon of 21 Notre Dame st., Glens Falls, N.Y., was born Oct. 16, 1863, in Queensbury, Warren county, N.Y. He graduated from the college of physicians and surgeons of Baltimore; and did post-graduate work in New York City. He is surgeon to the Glens Falls hospital and president of the staff. He is a member of the American medical association, the New York state medical society and various other medical and surgical societies.

Hunt, William Perry, banker of Chilhower, Mo., was born Jan. 8, 1847, in Cooper county, Mo. He is president of the Chilhower bank.

Hunt, William Prescott, manufacturer and capitalist of 383 Dorchester ave., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 14, 1827, in Bath, N.H. He has been president of the Atlas National bank.

Hunter, Alexander Stuart, educator and author of 5826 Fifth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in Bavington, Pa. Since 1895 he has been professor of ethics and English literature at the western university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Ethics Theoretical and Practical.

Hunter, Andrew Jackson, engineer, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Paris, Ill., was born Dec. 17, 1831, in Greencastle, Ind. He has been county judge of Edgar county. In 1893-95 and 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Hunter, Ashley Pechin, manufacturer and banker of 1430 DeKalb st., Norristown, Pa., was born Feb. 12, 1851, in Upper Merion, Minn. He is president, treasurer and director of the Norristown Woolen company and a director of other corporations.

Hunter, Edwin Gustavus, clergyman, missionary, journalist and author of Louisville, Ky., was born Jan. 21, 1846, in Canada. He has been editor of The Church Worker. He now fills a pastorate in Louisville. He is the author of Chart and other works.

Hunter, John Garniss, soldier, clergyman and college president of Louisville, Ky., was born Nov. 13, 1840, in Maysville, Ky. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He has been president of the Louisville Presbyterian theological seminary.

Hunter, Napoleon Bonepart, farmer, merchant and banker of Waterproof, La., was born Jan. 29, 1843, in Kentucky. He is president of the bank of Waterproof.

Hunter, Ripley Hayes, physician of Bullard, Texas, was born Dec.20, 1858, in Farmington, Tenn. He is president of the Citizens' State bank and other corporations.

Hunter, Robert, physician and author of Noroton, Conn., was born June 14, 1826, in England. He is the author of A Treatise on the Lungs and Their Diseases; The Air as the Source of Life and other works.

Hunter, Rudolph Melville, inventor, engineer and founder of New York City, was born June 20, 1856, in New York City. In 1878 he developed and patented a special gas process. He organized the Atlantic and Pacific Electric Manufacturing company.

Hunter, Samuel John, educator, zoologist and author of Lawrence,Kan., was born Nov. 11, 1866, in Ireland. Since 1899 he has been associate professor of entomology at the university of Kansas. He is the author of Elementary Studies in Insect Life and other works.

Hunter,Stephen Alexander, clergyman and author of 1000 Fairdale st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born March 23, 1851, in Christiana, Pa. In 1879-91 he was a missionary in China. He is the author of An Analysis of the Book of Hebrews, in the Chinese language, and other works.

Hunter, T. Comly, merchant of 245 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 25, 1848, in Bustleton, Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of Hunter and Dickson company and a director of other corporations.

Hunter, W. Godfrey, diplomat and statesman of Burkesville, Ky., was born Dec. 25, 1841. In 1887-89, 1895-97 and 1903-05 he was a member of congress. In 1897-1902 he was United States minister to Guatemala and Honduras.

Hunter, Wiles Robert, sociologist and author of New York City, was born April 10, 1874, in Terre Haute, Ind. Since 1902 he has been chairman of the New York child labor committee. He is the author of Tenement Conditions in Chicago and Poverty.

Hunter, William Dulany,diplomat of Nice, France, was born in the District of Columbia. Since 1907 he has been consul at Nice.

Hunting, Tennis D., merchant and genealogist of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 22, 1848. He is the author of The Hunting or Hunting Family in America.

Huntington, Archer Milton, author and poet of Baychester, N.Y., was born March 10, 1870, in New York City. He is the author of A Note Book in Northern Spain.

Huntington, Arria Sargent,playwright and author of 408 Douglas st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born June 22, 1843, in Roxbury, Mass. In 1898-1904 she was commissioner of education at Syracuse, N.Y. She is the author of Under a Colonial Roof-Tree.

Huntington, De Witt Clinton, clergyman, theologian and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born April 27, 1830, in Townsend, Vt. Since 1898 he has been chancellor of Nebraska western university. He is the author of Puritans; and Sin and Holiness.

Huntington, Ellsworth, educator, explorer and author of New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 16, 1876, in Galesburg, Ill. Since 1907 he has been an instructor in geography at Yale university. He is the author of Explorations in Turkestan and The Pulse of Asia.

Huntington, George, educator, clergyman and author of Northfield, Minn., was born Nov. 5, 1835, in Brooklyn, Conn. In 1904-06 filled a professorship in Carleton college. He is the author of Shining Hours and other works.

Huntington, George Summer, physician and surgeon of 437 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born March 21, 1861, in Hartford, Conn. In 1887 he was attending surgeon at the Roosevelt and Bellevue hospitals. In 1881 he was chief clinical surgeon at the Vanderbilt clinic.

Huntington, Helen Manchester Gates, litterateur and author of 1083 Fifth ave., New York City. She is the author of The Solitary Path and The Days That Pass.

Huntington, Henry Edwards, railway official of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born Feb. 27, 1850, in Oneonta, N.Y. He purchased and sold the San Francisco street railway; purchased the Los Angeles street railway and rebuilt the Pacific Electric railway.

Huntington, Oliver Whipple, educator and founder of Newport, R.I., was born June 9, 1858, in Marietta, Ohio. In 1892-93 he was on the faculty of Harvard college. He founded the Cloyne house school for boys at Newport.

Huntington, Richard Joseph, business man of 2300 Stockton st., San Francisco, Cal., was born March 15, 1870, in Springfield, Mass. He is Pacific coast manager for the Otis Elevator company. He is a member of the San Francisco chamber of commerce, the home industry league of California, the builders' exchange and other organizations.

Huntington, Robert Watkinson, insurance president of 64 Pearl st., Hartford, Conn., was born Nov. 9, 1866, in Norwich, Conn. He is president of the Connecticut General Life Insurance company.

Huntington, William Edward, soldier, clergyman and educator of Newton Center, Mass., was born July 30, 1844, in Hillsborough, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has filled pastorates in the churches of Chicago and Boston.

Huntly, Charles R., business president and banker of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Oct. 12, 1853, in West Winfield, N.Y. He is vice-president and general manager of the Buffalo General Electric company and a director of other corporations.

Hunton, William Lee, clergyman and editor of 120 East Gorgas lane, Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 16, 1864, in Morrisburg, Ontario. He is associate editor of The Lutheran; and special biblical lecturer at summer normal schools.

Huntsman, Owen Benjamin, railroad official of New York City, was born Sept. 23, 1871, in Conyngham, Pa. Since 1908 he has been vice-president of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Huppuch, Winfield A., manufacturer and capitalist of Hudson Falls, N.Y., was born in 1861 in Buffalo, N.Y. He is president of the Standard Textile company of Glens Falls.

Hurd, Edward M., bank manager of Globe, Ariz., was born Feb. 18, 1873, in Brantford, Ontario. He is general manager of the Gila Valley Bank and Trust company.

Hurd, Edward Payson, director of corporations of 205 Lincoln st., Boston, Mass., was born June 28, 1841, in Medway, Mass. He attended Phillips academy of Andover. He was one of the promoters, and since 1899 has been identified with, the United Shoe Machinery company and its allied and subsidiary companies and corporations in the United States and abroad. He is vice-president, assistant treasurer, director and a member of the executive and finance committees of the United Shoe Machinery company of New Jersey and allied corporations. He served three years in the civil war.

Hurd, Henry Mills, physician and author of 1023 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 3, 1843, in Union City, Mich. Since 1897 he has been editor of the American Journal of Insanity. He is part author of Hints to Hospital Visitors; and editor of Hospitals, Dispensaries and Nursing.

Hurd, Richard Melancthan, lawyer and author of Locust, N.J., was born June 14, 1865, in New York City. He is president of the Mortgage Bond company of New York City and other corporations. He is the author of Principles of City Land Value.

Hurd, Rukard, civil engineer, statesman and author of St. Paul, Minn., was born in 1858 in Cincinnati, Ohio. He graduated in engineering from the Pennsylvania military college; and since 1890 has been a trustee of that college. He is a recognized expert authority on iron ore and mineral, lease, counsel and appraisal. He was major on the staffs of Governors Clough and Lind; in 1901 was a representative in the state legislature; and in 1907 was elected secretary of the Minnesota tax commission. In 1912 he was president of the sons of the revolution. He is the author of Hurd's Iron Ore Manual.

Hurd, William Lambert, business president and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 28, 1847, in Port Lavaca, Texas. He is president of the Monongahela Tube company of Pittsburgh.

Hurdon, Elizabeth, physician and author of 31 West Preston st., Baltimore, Md., was born in 1868 in Cornwall, England. Since 1899 she has been assistant in gynecology at the Johns Hopkins university. She is the author of The Vermiform Appendix and Its Diseases.

Hurlbert, Archer Butler, journalist and author of Marietta, Ohio, was born Jan. 26, 1873, in Bennington, Vt. He has been Korean correspondent for American newspapers. He is the author of Red Men's Roads and other works.

Hurlbut, Jesse Lyman, clergyman and author of 93 Quitman st., Newark, N.J., was born Feb. 15, 1843, in New York. He is the author of Manual of Biblical Theology; Studies in the Four Gospels; and Outlines in Old Testament History.

Hurll, Estelle May, educator and author of New Bedford, Mass., was born July 25, 1863, in New Bedford, Mass. In 1884-91 she was a teacher of ethics at Wellesley college. She is the author of Child Life in Art and other works.

Hurry, Edmund Abdy, lawyer of 122 East Thirty-ninth st., New York City, was born Aug. 8, 1839, in New York City. He is a director of the United States Fire Insurance company.

Hurry, Randolph, lawyer and business president of 80 Maiden Lane, New York City, was born in New York City. He is president of the Stanley Court Realty and Construction company; and president of E. and R. Realty company; and treasurer and director of the Allied Real Estate Interest of the State of New York. He is a director of the New York juvenile asylum.

Hurst, Schuylrt Grant, banker of Brighton, Col., was born March 19, 1871. He is president of the First National bank.

Husemen, F. R., banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Nov. 29, 1876, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is cashier of the Allegheny Valley bank of Pittsburgh.

Huss, George Martin, architect of 30 East 20th st., New York City, was born July 23, 1853, in Newark, N.J. He was supervising architect of the United States treasury department at Washington.

Huss, Henry Holden, musician and composer of 144 East One Hundred and Fiftieth st., New York City, was born June 21, 1862, in Newark, N.J. He is the author of Ave Maria songs and rhapsodies.

Hussey, John Brennan, banker of Jefferson, Texas, was born Jan. 29, 1869, in Weston, W.Va. He is president of the Commercial National bank.

Hussey, John M., educator, lecturer and college president of Shenandoah, Iowa, was born Sept. 22, 1863, in Stanberry, Mo. He has been conductor of nearly a score of county institutes in Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa. He is president and proprietor of the Western Normal college and other institutions of learning.

Hussey, Preston, farmer and banker of Terre Haute, Ind., was born in Vigo county, Ind., in 1852. He is president of the Terre Haute National bank.

Hussey, William Joseph, educator, astronomer, and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Aug. 10, 1862, in Mendon, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been director of the observatory of the university of Michigan. He is the author of Mathematical Series of Planetary Motion and other works.

Hussong, Edward Marston, educator, botanist and lecturer of Bloomington, Neb., was born Dec. 10, 1863, in Ames, Iowa. He has been principal of public schools of Franklin, Neb. He is the author of several botanical and educational works.

Husted, Earl Wellington, lawyer of Everett, Wash., was born April 3, 1875, in Saginaw county, Mich. He is a member of the law firm of Hulbert and Husted; and is chairman of the Snohomish county democratic central committee. He has been president of the Everett board of education; and served three years in the Washington militia.

Husted, James Delno, capitalist of 2310 Vine st., Denver, Col., was born Sept. 26, 1857, in Clarksfield, Ohio. He is president of the Crescent Cattle company and other corporations.

Hustis, James H., railroad official of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 11, 1864, in New York City. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of Boston and Albany railroad.

Huston, Abraham Francis, manufacturer and banker of Coatesville, Pa., was born on July 7, 1852, in Coatesville, Pa. He is president of Lukens Iron and Steel company and other corporations.

Huston, Charles Lukens, manufacturer of 64 South First ave., Coatesville, Pa., was born on July 8, 1856, in Coatesville, Pa. He graduated from Haderford college with the degree of A.B. He is vice-president of the Lukens Iron and Steel company; first vice-president of the Jacobs-Shupert Fire Box company; and a director of the Belmont Iron works of Philadelphia and other corporations. He is president of the Coatesville young men's christian association.

Huston, Henry A., educator and scientist of 42 Broadway, New York City, was born April 20, 1858, in Damariscotta, Maine. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and A.C. He has been a principal and science teacher in high schools and universities; and in 1888-1903 was state chemist of Indiana. In 1884-96 he was a director of the Indiana weather service. Since 1903 he has been identified with the German kali works.

Hutcheson, Ernest, pianist and composer of Baltimore, Md., was born July 20, 1871, in Melbourne, Australia. Since 1900 he has been engaged with the Peabody conservatory of music of Baltimore. He is the composer of Symphonic Suites and other works.

Hutcheson, Joseph Chappell, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Houston, Texas, was born May 18, 1842, in Mecklenburg county, Va. He served in the civil war as a private soldier. He has been a member of the Texas legislature; and in 1893-97 he was a member of congress.

Hutchings, Richard Henry, physician of Ogdensburg, N.Y., was born Aug. 28, 1869, in Clinton, Ga. He is superintendent of the St. Lawrence state hospital.

Hutchins, Charles Henry, manufacturer and capitalist of Worcester, Mass., was born Jan. 13, 1847, in East Douglas, Mass. He is president of the Crompton and Knowles Loom works.

Hutchins,Charles Lewis,clergyman and author of Concord, Mass., was born on Aug. 5, 1838, in Concord, N.H. Since 1890 he has been president of the Massachusetts choir guild. Since 1874 he has been editor and publisher of the Parish choir. He is the author of Church Hymnal and other works.

Hutchins, Francis Sessions, lawyer and banker of 27 Pine st., New York City, was born Dec. 6, 1877, in Columbus, Ohio. He received the degree of A.B. from Williams college, and the degree of LL.B. from the New York law school. He is vice-president of the Commonwealth Trust company; and counsel for the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel company.

Hutchins, Harry Burns, lawyer, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born April 8, 1847, in Lisbon, N.H. He has been president of the university of Michigan. He is the author of Hutchinson's equity cases.

Hutchins, Jere Chamberlain, civil engineer and railroad official of 12 Woodward ave., Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 13, 1853, in Carroll Parish, La. Since 1900 he has been president of the Detroit United railway.

Hutchins, Stilson, journalist, founder and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born on Nov. 14, 1838, in Whitefield, N.H. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He founded the Washington Post in 1877.

Hutchinson, Charles Lawrence, banker of 137 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 7, 1854, in Lynn, Mass. He is president of the Corn Exchange National bank. He is treasurer of the university of Chicago.

Hutchinson, Edward L., lawyer and banker of Lexington, Ky., was born on July 31, 1857, in Wilmington, Del. He is president of the Lexington Banking and Trust company.

Hutchinson, Mrs. Ellen Mackey, journalist, author and poet of New York City, was born in New York. She is on the Tribune staff in New York City. She is the author of Songs and Lyrics.

Hutchinson, Henry Elijah, retired banker of 856 Park Place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 31, 1837, in Windsor, Vt. He was president of the Brooklyn bank, until retirement in 1908.

Hutchinson, John Duncan, civil engineer of Antrim, N.H., was born April 25, 1856, in Antrim, N.H. He received the degree of C. E. from the Thayer school of civil engineering. He has been draftsman and engineer to the Berlin Iron and Bridge company and other corporations; was assistant engineer on the bridge across the Mississippi at Fort Madison and other places. He is chairman of the supervisors of the town of Antrim; and a member of the school board.

Hutchinson, John Palmer, lawyer and capitalist of Bordentown, N.J., was born March 29, 1849, in Bordentown, N.J. He is president of the Borden town hall association; vice-president of the Union Transportation company; and director of the Camden and Burlington County Railroad company and other corporations.

Hutchinson, Kenner Clay, farmer, merchant and banker of Ravenswood, W.Va., was born Aug. 31, 1865, in Meadow Dale, W. Va. He is president of the Jackson county bank.

Hutchison, Miller Reese, engineer and inventor of Edison laboratory, Orange, N.J., was born Aug.6,1876, in Montrose, Ala. During the Spanish-American war he was chief electrical engineer in the United States light house establishment, engaged in laying submarine mines and cables. He is the inventor of the Acousticon to enable the deaf to hear, has been granted several hundred patents on various devices; and has received several gold medals for scientific investigations and inventions. He is chief engineer to Thomas A. Edison, incorporated, and allied corporations.

Hutchinson, William G., merchant and manufacturer of 530 South Spring st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 31, 1859, in Plymouth, Pa. He has been president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association. He is president of the W. G. Hutchison company, wholesale and retail lighting fixtures.

Hutchison, Winfield Scott, lawyer and capitalist of 125 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born May 27, 1845, in Buckfield, Maine. He is a director of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company and other corporations.

Hutchinson,Woods, physician, lecturer and author of 38 East Forty-ninth st.,New York City, was born Jan. 3, 1862, in Selby, England. He is professor of clinical medicine at the New York polyclinic institution. He is the author of The Gospel According to Darwin and other works.

Hutnutt, Edward W., manufacturer and banker of Detroit, Mich., was born Dec. 15, 1852, in Louisville, Ky. He is manager of the Falson Manufacturing company; and has been mayor of his city.

Hutson, Charles Woodward, soldier, educator and author of 721 Lower Line st., New Orleans, La., was born Sept. 23, 1840, in McPhersonville, N.C. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Story of Language and other works.

Hutten, Elizabeth Riddle, litterateur and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1875, in Pennsylvania. She is the author of Marred in Making and other works.

Huttig,Charles Henry, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 14, 1864, in Muscatine, Iowa. He is president of the Third National bank.

Hutton,Aurelius Winfield, lawyer and jurist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born July 23, 1847, in Greene county, Ala. He has been superior judge of Los Angeles county; and has been city attorney. In 1889 he was appointed United States attorney.

Hutton, Frederick Remsen, educator, engineer and author of 257 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born May 28, 1853, in New York City. He has been instructor in mechanical engineering in Columbia. He is the author of Machine Tools and other works.

Hyatt, Abram M., capitalist and banker of Allenhurst, N.J., was born in 1859, in New York City. He is president of the Eldred Process company and a director of other corporations.

Hyatt, Anna Vaughan, painter and artist of 126 East Eightieth st., New York City, was born on March 10, 1876, in Cambridge, Mass. Her best known works are A Steep Grade and Colts Playing.

Hyatt, Charles Eliot, educator, civil engineer and college president of Chester, Pa., was born Nov. 27, 1851, in Wilmington, Del. He is president of the Pennsylvania military college of Chester.

Hyatt, G. C., railroad president of Bellingham, Wash., was born Feb. 20, 1874, in New Orleans, La. He is president of the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia railroad.

Hyatt, George Edgar, lawyer and capitalist of 157 Willow st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Oct. 2, 1857, in New York City. He is vice-president of the City Mortgage company.

Hyde, Ammi Bradford, educator, clergyman, linguist, author and poet of University Park, Col., was born March 13, 1825, in Oxford, N.Y. Since 1884 he has been professor of languages at the university of Denver. He is the author of Essays and other works.

Hyde, Charles Henry, wholesale grocer of 425 North Tacoma ave., Tacoma, Wash., was born Sept. 9, 1847, in Caroline, N.Y. He has been president of the Tacoma chamber of commerce. He is president of the West Coast Grocery company.

Hyde, Charles L., journalist and financier of Pierre, S.D., was born June 23, 1861, in Pike county, Ill. He is the editor and owner of the Rustler.

Hyde, Edward Pechin, physician, scientist and author of 1899 East Forty-fifth st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Jan. 3, 1879, in Baltimore county, Md. Since 1903 he has been in charge of the section of photometry in the bureau of standards. He is the author of various Monographs and articles.

Hyde, Edward Wyllys, educator and author of 814 Lincoln ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Oct. 17, 1843, in Saginaw, Mich. He served in the civil war. In 1898 he was made dean of the university of Cincinnati. He is the author of Skew Arches and other works.

Hyde, Edwin Francis, soldier, lawyer and banker of New York City, was born June 23, 1842, in New York City. He served in the civil war. Since 1886 he has been vice-president of the Central Trust company of New York City.

Hyde, Edward Warden, shipbuilder and banker of Bath, Maine, was born Aug. 9, 1868, in Bath, Maine. He is president of the First National bank.

Hyde, George H., business president and director of Ridgway, Pa., was born in 1880 in Ridgway, Pa. He is captain in the Pennsylvania national guard. He is a director in various corporations; and has been mayor of his city.

Hyde, Henry Knight, banker of 22 Elm st., Ware, Mass., was born June 17, 1867, in Brimfield, Mass. He is president of the Perry and Whitney company.

Hyde, Henry Morrow, journalist and author of Highland Park, Ill., was born Oct. 6, 1866, in Freeport, Ill. Since 1898 he has been an editorial writer on the Chicago Tribune. He is the author of The Upstart and other works.

Hyde, Henry Stanley, manufacturer and banker of Springfield, Mass., was born Aug. 18, 1837, in Mt. Hope, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Hamden Savings bank.

Hyde, Ira Barnes, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Princeton, Mo., was born Jan. 18, 1838, in Guilford, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He has been prosecuting attorney of Missouri. In 1873-75 he was a member of congress.

Hyde, James Hazen, banker of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born on June 6, 1876, in New York City. He is vice-president of the Mercantile Safe Deposit company and a director in other corporations.

Hyde, John McEwen, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 1, 1841, in New York City. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Hyde, Louis Kepler, bank president of Plainfield, N.J., was born July 30, 1865, in Hydetown, Pa. Since 1905 he has been president of the City National bank of Plainfield; and since 1907 has been president of the Union County Investment company. He is also vice-president of the Pure Oil company of Philadelphia; and a director in various other financial and industrial corporations.

Hyde, Miles Goodyear, physician, surgeon and author of 6 West Twenty-first st., New York City, was born June 12, 1842, in Cortland, N.Y. He has been surgeon of the Elmira Cortland and Northern railroad. He is the author of The Girl from Mexico and other works.

Hyde, Samuel Clarence, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Spokane, Wash., was born April 22, 1842, in Fort Ticonderoga, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress. He has been prosecuting attorney for northeastern Washington.

Hyde, Solon, soldier, merchant and author of 190 West Woodruff ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born Nov. 12, 1838, in Rushville, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He is the author of A Captive of War.

Hyde, Thomas, retired banker of 1537 Twenty-eighth st., Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 27, 1839, in Georgetown, D.C. He has been vice-president of the Riggs National bank.

Hyde, William DeWitt, clergyman, college president and author of Brunswick, Maine, was born on Sept. 23, 1858, in Winchendon, Mass. Since 1885 he has been president of the Bowdoin college. He is the author of God's Education of Man and other works.

Hyde, William Henry, painter and artist of 66 East Ninety-first st., New York City, was born Jan. 29, 1858, in New York City, He studied painting in Paris, France, and has a studio in New York City.

Hyde, William L., banker of 225 Essex st., Salem, Mass., was born Nov. 20, 1835, in Danvers, Mass. He is president of the Merchants' National bank.

Hyer, Robert Stewart, educator and college president of 1308 Commerce st., Dallas, Texas, was born Oct. 18, 1860, in Oxford,Ga. Since 1898 he has been president of the Southwestern university.

Hyer, William K., banker of Pensacola, Fla., was born July 20, 1861, in Russell county, Ala. He is president of the First National bank.

Hylton, William Nathaniel, physician and banker of Gresham, Neb., was born May 22, 1862, in New Virginia, Iowa. He is president of the First National bank.

Hyman,Charles E., banker of Payne, Ohio, was born Sept. 21, 1873, in Portland, Ind. He is president of the Farmers' and Citizens' bank.

Hynes, William J., journalist, lecturer, lawyer and statesman of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 31, 1843, in Ireland. In 1873-75 he was a member of congress.

Hyslop, James Harvey, educator and author of 519 West One Hundred and Forty-ninth st., New York City, was born Aug. 18, 1854, in Xenia, Ohio. He is secretary of the American society of psychological research. He is the author of Elements of Logic and other works.

Hyvernat, Henry, educator and author of Brookland, Washington, D.C., was born on June 30, 1858, in France. Since 1889 he has been chief of the department of semitic and Egyptian literatures at Catholic university of America. He is the author of several works in French.

Ickler, Louis H., banker of St. Paul,Minn., was born in January, 1870,in St. Paul,Minn. He is cashier of the American National bank.

Iddings, Joseph Paxson, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 21, 1857, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1895 he has been professor of petrology in the university of Chicago. He is the author of Rock Minerals.

Ide, Elmore Timothy, merchant and banker of St. Johnsbury, Vt., was born June 8, 1839 in Passumpsic, Vt. He is president of the Merchants' National bank.

Ide,Mrs. Fannie Ogden, author of 43 Remson st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 27, 1853, in Brooklyn, N.Y. She is the author of Courage and other works.

Ide, George Edward, insurance president and banker of 256 Broadway, New York City, was born May 10, 1860, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been president of the Home Life Insurance company and president of the Larchmont National bank.

Ide, George Elmore, naval officer of 1128 Madison ave., New York City, was born on Dec. 6, 1845, in Zanesville, Ohio. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Ide, Henry Clay, lawyer, jurist, statesman and author of Madrid, Spain, was born on Sept. 18, 1844, in Barnet, Vt. Since 1906 he has been governor-general of the Philippine Islands. He is the author of The Land Registration Act and other works.

Iden, S. B., banker of Etna, Ind., was born May 21, 1860, in Augusta, Ohio. He is president of the Etna State bank.

Iden, V. Gilmore, journalist of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 7, 1885, in Manassas, Va. He received the degree of A.B. from Washington and Lee university of Lexington, Va. He is Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin; and also editor of The National Bank News.

Idleman, Silas Ellsworth, clergyman and college president of South Atlanta, Ga., was born Dec. 29, 1863, in Mansfield, Ohio. In 1889-1910 he was a clergyman in the Methodist Episcopal church in the New Orleans conference. In 1910-12 he was president of Clark university; and since 1910 has been president of the Gammon theological seminary. He is also a trustee of the Ohio Wesleyan university.

Ifft, George H., diplomat of Annaberg, Saxony, was born in Pennsylvania. In 1906 he was appointed consul at Annaberg.

Iglehart, Mrs. Fanny Chambers Gooch, litterateur and author of 2010 Wichita st., Austin, Texas, was born on Dec. 9, 1849, in Hillsboro, Miss. She has been president of several charitable associations. She is the author of Face to Face with the Mexicans; The Boy Captive; and other works.

Igoe, William L., lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 19, 1879, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Ihlseng, Axel O., mining engineer of 541 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth st., New York City, was born Feb. 20, 1855, in New York City. He graduated with the degree of B.S. from the College City of New York, and with the degrees of C.E. and E. M. from the school of mines of Columbia college. For fifteen years he has been engaged with the zinc industry; is closely identified with American and European smelters; and is recognized as an expert in zinc and zinc mining in the United States.

Ihlseng, Magnus C., educator, civil engineer and author of Blairsville, Pa., was born May 2, 1852, in Norway. He is principal of the Penn Hall school at Chambersburg, Pa. He is the author of Manual of Mining.

Ijams, William P., railroad president of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Jan. 18, 1847, in Marietta, Ohio. He is president of the Belt Road and Stock Yard company at Indianapolis, Ind.

Ikirt, George P., physician and statesman of East Liverpool, Ohio, was born in 1852 in West Beaver, Ohio. In 1893-95 he was a member of congres. In 1884 he founded the East Liverpool Crisis.

Iles, George, donor and author of New York City, was born June 20, 1852, in Spain. He is the author of Inventors at Work and other works.

Iles, Malvern Wells, metallurgist and scientist of Denver, Col., was born on Aug. 7, 1852, in Midway, Ky. He has been chemist and assayer to the Utica Mining and Milling company; and later metallurgist to the Omaha and Grant Smelting company in Denver, Col.

Iles, Robert S., lawyer of 669 Forty-eighth st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 30, 1848, in Alexandria, Ky. He is now supreme president of the North American Union.

Illoway, Henry, physician and author of 1113 Madison ave., New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1848, in Bohemia. In 1869-70 he was resident physician to the Cincinnati hospital; was professor of the diseases of children at the Cincinnati college of medicine and surgery; and visiting physician to the Jewish hospital of that city. He is the author of Constipation in Adults and Children, with Special Reference to Habitual Constipation and Its Most Successful Treatment by Mechanical Methods; The American Text-Book of the Diseases of Children and other works.

Ilsley, James Keeler, banker of 388 Broadway, Milwaukee, Wis., was born April 14, 1854, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is president of the Marshall and Ilsley bank.

Ilsley, Samuel Marshall, civil engineer, architect and author of 572 Marshall st., Milwaukee, Wis., was born June 26, 1863, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is the author of The Western Sea and other works.

Imus, A. H., lawyer and statesman of Kalama, Wash., was born March 13, 1860, on Mount Ayr, Iowa. For a quarter of a century he has practiced law continuously in Kalama, Wash.; has been prosecuting attorney of his county; and he is now a member of the Washington state senate from Cowlitz county.

Ingalese, Richard, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born April 15, 1863, in Savannah, Ga. He is the author of History and Power of Mind and other works.

Ingalls, James Monroe, soldier and author of 205 Governor st., Providence, R.I., was born Jan. 25, 1837, in Sutton, Vt. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is a retired lieutenant-colonel in the United States army. He is the author of Interior Ballistics and other works.

Ingalls, Melville Ezra, railroad president of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 6, 1842, in Harrison Maine. For about six years he was engaged as a schoolmaster. He graduated from the Bridgeton academy; attended Bowdoin college, and graduated from the Harvard law school. In 1864 he opened a law office in Gray, Maine; and shortly afterward moved to Boston, Mass. In 1867 he was a member of the Massachusetts state senate, and in 1870 became president of that body. He moved to Ohio, and became president of the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette railroad. In 1889-90 he was president of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad; and since 1889 has been president of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad. He is also president of the Merchants' National bank at Cincinnati.

Ingalls, Ephraim Fletcher, physician and author of 15 East Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 29, 1848, in Lee Center, Ill. He lectures on diseases of the throat and chest at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Throat and Lungs and other works.

Ingalsbe, Frank Richmond, mining engineer and geologist of Missoula, Mont., was born Aug. 23, 1878, in Oakfield, N.Y. He graduated from Middlebury college and from the Massachusetts institute of technology. In 1910-11 he was geologist to the Bethlehem Steel company; and is now mineral examiner in the United States department of agriculture at Missoula.

Ingalsbe, Grenville Mellen, lawyer, jurist, banker and manufacturer of Hudson Falls, N.Y., was born July 26, 1846, in South Hartford, N.Y. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Union college and the degree of LL.B. from Harvard, and in 1874 was admitted to the bar. He is president of the Sandy Hill National bank of Hudson Falls and president of the Adirondack Motor Car company. He is secretary and director of the Imperial Wall Paper company, the Lake Champlain Pulp and Paper company and other corporations. In 1895-1901 he was surrogate; and since 1912 he has been president of the New York state historical association.

Ingersoll, A. M., railroad official of Tacoma, Wash. Since 1913 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

Ingersoll, Charles Edward, lawyer and capitalist of 1815 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 17, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Midland Valley railroad company and a director of other corporations.

Ingersoll, Ernest, naturalist and author of New York City, was born March 13, 1852, in Monroe, Mich. He is the author of The Wit of the World and other works.

Ingersoll, Henry Hulbert, soldier, lecturer, lawyer and jurist of Knoxville, Tenn., was born Jan. 20, 1844, in Oberlin, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1879-81 he was judge of the supreme court commission of Tennessee. He is the author of Ingersoll on Public Corporations and other works.

Ingersoll, Raymond Vail, lawyer and jurist of 261 Broadway, New York City, was born April 3, 1875, in Corning, N.Y. In 1897 he graduated from Amherst college with the degree of B.A.; and in 1900 graduated from the New York law school with the degree of LL.B. In 1900 he was elected city magistrate, and in 1906-07 was counsel to the registrar of Kings county, N.Y. He is a director in the united neighborhood guild and legal aid society; and is also a member of the reform club and of the city club.

Ingersoll, Royal Rodney, naval officer and author of Laporte, Ind., was born Dec. 4, 1847, in Niles, Mich. Since 1905 he has been general inspector of the armored cruiser Maryland. He is the author of Textbook of Ordnance and Elastic Strength of Guns.

Ingham, Ellery P., lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1856 in Pennsylvania. He is the author of At The Point of the Sword.

Ingham, William H., banker of Algona, Iowa, was born Nov. 27, 1827, in Ingham's Mills, N.Y. He is president of the Kossuth County State bank.

Ingle, Edward, journalist and author of Baltimore, Md., was born May 17, 1861, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of In The Maze and other works.

Ingraham, George Landon, lawyer and jurist of 80 Irving Place, New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1847, in New York City. Since 1891 he has been justice of the appellate division of the supreme court of New York.

Ingraham, James Edmonson, railroad official of St. Augustine, Fla., was born Nov. 18, 1850. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Florida East Coast railroad.

Ingram, Augustus E., diplomat of Warsaw, Poland, was born in Pennsylvania. In 1907 he was appointed consul at Warsaw.

Ingram, Charles Adain, lawyer and author of Durand, Wis., was born March 19, 1867, Waubeek, Wis. He has been a member of the state legislature. He is engaged in newspaper publishing and banking.

Ingram, Henry Atlee, lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 8, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is general counsel for the American Steel corporation. He is the author of Life and Character of Stephen Girard, Mariner and Merchant and other works.

Inhelder, M., banker of Pierce, Neb., was born Aug. 12, 1849, in Switzerland. He is president of the Pierce State bank.

Inks, George W., merchant and banker of Preston, Mo., was born Aug. 16, 1868, in Hickory county, Mo. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank.

Inman, Edward Hamilton, merchant and capitalist of 130 East Fifteenth st., Atlanta, Ga., was born Aug. 29, 1880, in Atlanta, Ga. He graduated from the Lawrenceville school of New Jersey and from Princeton university. He is a partner in the firm of Inman, Akers and Inman; vice-president of the Atlanta woolen mills; president of the Kimball House company; and a director of the Atlanta National bank, Lowry National bank, the Empire Cotton Oil company and other corporations. He has served as bond commissioner of Atlanta.

Inman, Samuel Martin, cotton merchant of Atlanta, Ga., was born Feb. 19, 1843, in Dandridge, Tenn. In 1867 he formed with his father the cotton house of S. M. Inman and company, now doing the largest cotton trade in the world. He was the chief founder of the Georgia school of technology.

Inness, George, painter and artist of Cragsmoor, N.Y., was born Jan. 5, 1854, in Paris, France. He is a successful landscape painter and in 1895-99 he had a studio in Paris.

Innis, William Reynolds, manufacturer and capitalist of South Bend, Ind., was born on Jan. 7, 1859, in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. He is treasurer and director of the national association of automobile manufacturers and other corporations.

Insull, Samuel, business president of 120 West Adams st., Chicago, Ill., was born on Nov. 11, 1859, in London, England. He became the London representative of Thomas A. Edison; came to the United States in 1881 as private secretary to that great inventor; and for many years had active charge of his business affairs. He organized and managed on behalf of Mr. Edison the Electric Tube company and the Edison Machine Works and Edison Lamp company; built and managed for Mr. Edison the plant of the Edison Machine works at Schenectady, N.Y. On the consolidation of the various Edison interests into the Edison General Electric company, became its vice-president in charge of the manufacturing and selling departments; on the consolidation of the Edison General Electric company and the Thomson-Houston company into the present General Electric company became second vice-president. Resigned in 1892 to become president of the Chicago Edison company, also became president of the Commonwealth Electric company; and is now president of the consolidated company known as the Commonwealth-Edison company, which company controls the entire electric lighting business of Chicago. He is also president of Public Service company of Northern Illinois, Middle West Utilities company, and Illinois Northern Utilities company.

Irby, Joe, lawyer and jurist of Haskell, Texas, was born Nov. 25, 1877, in Randolph county, Mo. He is county judge of Haskell county.

Ireland, Alleyne, lecturer and author of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 19, 1871, in England. In 1900 he was appointed lecturer in politics in the university of Chicago. He is the author of The Far Eastern Tropics and other works.

Ireland, John, clergyman, bishop and author of 977 Portland ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 11, 1838, in Ireland. He served in the civil war. Since 1888 he has been a Roman Catholic archbishop of St. Paul, Minn. He is the author of Church and Modern Society.

Ireland, Mary E., translator and author of 1343 East Capitol st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1834 in Calvert, Md. She is the author of The Life of Pastor Harms and other works.

Ireland, Oscar Brown, soldier, actuary and founder of Springfield, Mass., was born Oct. 28, 1840. He served in the civil war. In 1872 he was appointed actuary of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company.

Iris, Frederick Scharmel, author and poet of 1243 Oregon ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 10, 1889, in Florence, Italy. He is the author of Italian Fireside Tales and other works.

Irish, Frank V., educator, lecturer and author of Columbus, Ohio, was born Nov. 7, 1848, in Potsdam, N.Y. He has been professor of rhetoric and literature in the Ohio Normal university. He is author of American and British Authors and other works.

Irish, Hamilton, lumber merchant and banker of Sterling, Kan., was born Aug. 19, 1833, in Oakland county, Mich. He is president of the Raymond State bank.

Irish, Henry Clay, horticulturist and botanist of St. Louis, Mo., was born April 22, 1868, in Rock county, Wis. Since 1903 he has been superintendent of the Missouri botanical garden. He has been president of the St. Louis florists' club.

Irish, John Powell, journalist and statesman of Oakland, Cal., was born Jan. 1, 1843, in Iowa City, Iowa. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been president of the Blind Home Directory for eighteen years.

Irland, Frank W., railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 26, 1861, in Lenawee county, Mich. He was first secretary to the land and mining commissioner of Lake Superior ship canal, and since then has been secretary to the superintendent of the Pullman company and secretary to other high officials. Since 1904 he has been assistant secretary of the Missouri Pacific railway and St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railway, and secretary of their auxiliary lines.

Irvin, Elihu C., insurance official of 1900 North Thirteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 22, 1839, near Harrisburg, Pa. He is president of the fire association of Philadelphia.

Irvin, Obed W., lawyer and banker of 39 East Third st., Dayton, Ohio, was born Jan. 12, 1866, in Dayton, Ohio. He is president of the First Savings and Banking company.

Irvine, Frank, educator, lawyer and dean of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 15, 1858, in Sharon, Pa. Since 1907 he has been dean and director of the Cornell university college of law.

Irvine, Julia Josephine, educator and college president of 7 Rue Scribe, Paris, France, was born Nov. 9, 1848, in Salem, Ore. In 1895-99 she was president of Wellesley college.

Irvine, Robert Tate, lawyer and statesman of Big Stone Gap, Va., was born July 11, 1862. In 1893-94 he was a member of the Virginia general assembly; and in 1912 was a delegate-at-large from Virginia to the Baltimore convention. He is now a member of the board of visitors of the university of Virginia.

Irving, George W., merchant and banker of Caribou, Maine, was born Aug. 24, 1860, in Woodstock, New Brunswick. He is president of the Caribou National bank and other corporations. He has been a member of the state legislature and the state senate.

Irving, Isabel, actress of 23 West Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born Feb. 28, 1871, in Bridgeport, Conn. She starred in The Toast of the Town and in many other plays.

Irving, John Duer, genealogist and author of 284 Orange st., New Haven, Conn., was born Aug. 18, 1874, in Madison, Wis. He is the author of Brown's Park Beds of Utah and other works.

Irving, Minna, author of New York City, was born in 1871 in Tarrytown, N.Y. She is the author of A Cunning Culprit and other works.

Irving, Roland Duer, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born April 27, 1847, in New York City. Since 1870 he has been a professor of geology in the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Geology of Lake Superior and other works.

Irwin, Agnes, educator of 2027 Delancey place, Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 30, 1841, in Washington, D.C. In 1894-1909 she was dean of Radcliffe college.

Irwin, Bernard John Dowling, soldier of 32 East Division st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 24, 1830, in Ireland. He served in the United States army and in 1904 was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Irwin, Clinton Fillmore, lawyer and jurist of Elgin, Ill., was born Jan. 1, 1854, in Franklin Grove, Ill., In 1899-1907 he was associate justice of the state supreme court of Oklahoma.

Irwin, G. M., educator, clergyman and college president of Salem, Ore., was born Nov.

11, 1835, in Zanesville, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He is state superintendent of public instruction for Oregon.

Irwin, Harvey Samuel, soldier, lawyer and statesman of 2233 North Walnut st., Louisville, Ky., was born Dec. 10, 1844, in Highland county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Irwin, John Arthur, physician of 14 West Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born June 17, 1853, in Ireland. In 1899-1902 he was president of British schools and universities.

Irwin, Lucian J., railroad president of Louisville, Ky., was born May 5, 1867, in Abbeville, Miss. Since 1909 he has been president of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad.

Irwin, Lyde M., banker of Avella, Pa., was born May 7, 1881, in Cross Creek, Pa. He is cashier and director of the Lincoln National bank.

Irwin, May, actress of Clayton, N.Y., was born in 1862 in Canada. She starred in the Widow Jones and many other plays.

Irwin, Samuel D., soldier, civil engineer, lawyer, genealogist and author of Tionesta, Pa., was born March 12, 1835, in Franklin, Pa. He served in the civil war. He is district attorney of Forest county. He is the author of History of the Irwin Family.

Irwin, Wallace, journalist and author of 1 West Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born March 15, 1875, in Oneida, N.Y. He has been editor of the Overland Monthly. He is the author of At the Sign of the Dollar and other works.

Irwin, William Henry, journalist and author of 59 Washington square, New York City, was born Sept. 14, 1873, in Oneida, N.Y. Since 1904 he has been a reporter on the New York Sun. He is the author of Stanford Stories and other works.

Isaac, William T., manufacturer of Newton, Mass., was born Feb. 20, 1871, in Albany, N.Y. He has held various positions of trust and honor in his city and state. He is now vice-president and general manager of the Gurney Heater Manufacturing company of Boston, Mass.

Isaacs, Abram Samuel, educator, rabbi and author of 447 Ellison st., Paterson, N.J., was born Aug. 30, 1852, in New York City. He has been rabbi of the Barnet Memorial Temple of Paterson, N.J. He is the author of Stories from the Rabbis and other works.

Isaacs, David, business president of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was born in 1848 in New York City. He is president of the Cataract and International Hotels company; and proprietor of the Prospect House, Niagara Falls.

Isaacs, Lewis Montefiore, lawyer and author of 27 Pine st., New York City, was born Jan. 10, 1877, in New York City. He is the author of several hymns.

Iselin, Adrian, banker of 711 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Oct. 14, 1846, in New York City. He is a member of the well-known firm of A. Iselin and company, bankers of 36 Wall st., New York City. He is vice-president of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway company; and director of the Southern Railway company.

Iselin, Charles Oliver, yachtsman and banker of 36 Wall st., New York City. He is the owner of the racing yacht Vigilant; and managing owner of the Columbia and other cup defenders in recent races. He is a member of the banking firm of A. Iselin and company of New York City.

Iselin, Columbus O'Donnell, banker of 36 Wall st., New York City. He is president and director of the New Rochelle Water company and a director of other corporations.

Iselin, William E., merchant of 1 Greene st., New York City, was born Jan. 11, 1848, in New York City. He is a director of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway company and other corporations.

Isham, Asa Brainerd, soldier, physician, educator and author of 849 Oak st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born July 12, 1844, in Jackson Court House, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been a professor at the Cincinnati college of medicine and surgery. He is the author of Prisoners of War and Military Prisons and other works.

Isham, Frederic Stewart, dramatist and author of 59 Rowena st., Detroit, Mich., was born March 29, 1866, in Detroit, Mich. He is the author of Half a Chance and other works.

Isham, Norman Morrison, architect and author of Providence, R.I., was born Nov. 12, 1864, in Hartford, Conn. He has been an instructor in architecture at the Brown university. He is the author of The Homerie Palace and other works.

Isham, Ralph, broker of 1311 Ritchie court, Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 13, 1865, in Chicago, Ill. He has been secretary of the Chicago Union Transfer company.

Isham, Samuel, painter and artist of 471 Park ave., New York City, was born in 1855, in New York City. He has been treasurer of the society of American artists.

Israels, Charles Henry, architect and designer of 179 West Ninty-seventh st., New York City, was born Dec. 23, 1865, in New York City. He is a director of the West Side Mutual Building Loan and Savings association. He designed the Holland hotel and other buildings of New York City.

Ittner, Martin Hill, chemist of Jersey City, N.J., was born May 2,1870,in Berlin Heights, Ohio. He has received the degrees of B.S., A.M., Ph.B. and Ph.D. Since 1896 he has been chief chemist to Colgate and company. He is the author of chemistry and Physics and other monographs.

Ivanowski, Sigismond De, painter and artist of Westfield, N.J., was born April 17, 1875, in Russia. His best known works are Maud Adams as Peter Pan and Ethel Barrymore as Captain Jinks.

Ives, Brayton, soldier, banker and railroad president of New York City, was born

June 1, 1840, in Farmington, Conn. He served in the civil war and in 1865 was brevetted brigadier-general. He has been president of the Metropolitan Trust company and other corporations.

Ives, Frederic Eugene, scientist, inventor and author of Weehawken, N.J., was born Feb., 1856, in Litchfield, Conn. He invented the first practically successful process of half-tone photo-engraving. He is the author of A New Principal in Heliochromy and other works.

Ives, Howard Chapin, educator and author of Worcester, Mass., was born March 20, 1878, in Chesire, Conn. Since 1906 he has been assistant professor or railroad engineering at the Worcester polytechnic institute. He is part author of Stereotomy and other works.

Ives, James Edmund, educator and scientist of Cincinati, Ohio, was born Sept. 19, 1865, in London, England. He is professor of physics in the university of Cincinnati. He has published a number of paper on Invertebrate Zoology.

Ives, Judson Dunbar, educator and biologist of Wake Forest, N.C., was born Feb. 19, 1884, in Alfred, Maine. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Wake Forest college, studied for four years in the university of Chicago, and attended the Marine biological laboratory at Woods Hole. In 1904-06 he was assistant in biology and since 1906 has been instructor in biology at Wake Forest college. In 1910 he was assistant in the United State Bureau of Fisheries at Beaufort, N.C.

Ivins, Horace Fremont, lecturer, journalist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 30, 1856, in Bucks county, Pa. He is a lecturer on laryngology and otology in Hahnemann medical college of Philadelphia. He is the author of a textbook entitled Diseases of the Nose and Throat.

Ivins, William Mills, lawyer and jurist of 27 William st., New York City, was born April 22, 1851, in Monmouth county, N.J. In 1886-88 he was judge advocate general of the state of New York.

Ivinson, Edward, banker of Laramie,Wyo., was born Sept. 20, 1830, in West Indies. He is president of the First National bank.

Jaccaci, August F., painter, editor and author of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born in 1857 in Paris, France. He is the author of On the Trail of Don Quixote.

Jack, Summers Melville,lawyer and statesman of Indiana, Pa., was born July 18, 1852, in Summersville, Pa. He has been district attorney for Indiana county. In 1899-1903 he was a member of congress.

Jackes, Franklin R., manufacturer and banker of 1944 North Main st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 8, 1859, in Toronto, Ont. He is vice-president of the Broadway Savings Trust company.

Jackling, Daniel Cowan, mine owner of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Aug. 14, 1869, near Appleton City, Mo. He has been a member of Governor Stry's staff. He is president of the Utah Hotel Operating company.

Jackman, Howard Hill, civil engineer and public official of Welch, Okla., was born Feb. 9, 1852, in Liverpool, Ohio. In 1900-01 he had charge of the five city waterworks cribs of Chicago, Ill. He has designed new methods and appliances for operating coal mines.

Jackson, Abraham Valentine Williams, educator and orientalist of 668 Riverside drive, New York City, was born Feb. 9, 1862, in New York City. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from Columbia college, and since 1895 has been professor of Indo-Iranian languages in that institution. He has visited India and Ceylon and the East for purposes of study and research and archæological investigations. He is the author of A Hymn of Zoroaster; Persia, Past and Present; Zoroaster, the Prophet of Ancient Iran; and other works. He also edited a History of India, in nine volumes.

Jackson, Abraham Willard, soldier, clergyman and author of Melrose, Mass., was born April 7, 1843, in Portland, Maine. He served in the civil war as a private soldier. He is the author of The Omnipotent God and other works.

Jackson, Alfred Metcalf, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Winfield, Kan., was born July 14, 1860, in South Carrollton, Ky. In 1890 he was elected county judge. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Jackson, Amos Henry, manufacturer and statesman of Fremont, Ohio, was born May 10, 1847, near Franklin, N.Y. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress. He is president of the Jackson Knife and Shear company of Fremont.

Jackson, Charles Akerman, painter and artist of 13 Revere st., Jamaica Plain, Mass., was born Aug. 13, 1857, in Jamaica Plain, Mass. He has painted portraits of Bishop Brooks; Dr. Alexander McKenzie; and Dr. A. J. Gordon of Boston, Mass and many other prominent people.

Jackson, Charles Eben,banker of 163 Court st., Middletown, Conn., was born Jan. 25, 1849, in Middletown, Conn. He is president of the Jackson company and connected with various other corporations.

Jackson, Charles Loring, educator, chemist and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born April 4, 1847, in Boston, Mass. Since 1899 he has been professor of chemistry at Harvard university. He is the author of Lecture Notes in Chemistry.

Jackson, Charles Samuel, journalist and publisher of Portland, Ore., was born Sept. 15, 1860, in Jackson's Creek, Va. In 1902 he purchased the Portland Journal of Oregon. He is president and chief owner of the East Oregonian Publishing company.

Jackson, Charles Tenney, soldier, journalist and author of 116 East Gorham st., Madison, Wis., was born Oct. 15, 1874, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1907-08 he was on the staff of the San Francisco Chronicle. He is the author of Loser's Luck and Day of Souls.

Jackson, Clifford Linden, lawyer of Muskogee, Okla., was born Nov. 25, 1857, in Dayton, Ohio. In 1893-97 he was United States district attorney of Indian Territory. He has been president of the Oklahoma state bar association.

Jackson, Daniel Dana, chemist and sanitary engineer of New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1870, in Gloucester, Mass. He received the degree of B.S. from the Massachusetts institute of technology, and the degree of M.S. from the New York university. He has been chemist for the Boston water works, biologist to the Massachusetts state board of health, lecturer to the Massachusetts institute of technology; and is now professor of sanitary engineering in Columbia university. He is the author of numerous papers on Sanitary Engineering, Chemistry and Bacteriology.

Jackson, Douglas V., jurist of Muscatine, Iowa, was born Nov. 17, 1859, in Muscatine, Iowa. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank.

Jackson, Dugald Caleb, educator, consulting engineer and author of 84 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 13, 1865, in Kennetts square, Pa. He has been vice-president and engineer of the Western Engineering company of Lincoln, Neb. He is now advising engineer and expert for several large corporations.

Jackson, Edmund, banker and financier of Fulton, Ill., was born May 3, 1853, in Rennsaler, N.Y. He has been president of the First National bank of What Cheer, Iowa. He is now supreme secretary of the mystic workers of the world.

Jackson, Edward, surgeon and author of Denver, Col., was born March 30, 1856, in Goshen, Pa. In 1900 he was ophthalmologist to the Arapahoe county hospital of Denver, Col. He is the author of Diseases of the Eye and other works.

Jackson, Ernest A., banker of Dallas, S. D., was born Feb. 25, 1881, in Greene, Iowa. He is president of the Western Townsite company; president of the Western Telephone company; president of the Western Abstract company; and president of the Bank of Dallas. In 1905-06 he was United States commissioner for the district of South Dakota.

Jackson, Frank Dar, insurance president and statesman of 1618 Oakland, Des Moines, Iowa, was born Jan. 26, 1854, in Arcade, N. Y. In 1894-96 he was governor of Iowa. He is now president of the Royal Union Life Insurance company at Des Moines.

Jackson, Frank Watterson, educator of Mount Pleasant, Pa., was born June 6, 1874, in Ohio Pyle, Pa. He fills the chair of Greek in the Mount Pleasant institute; and contributes extensively to current literature.

Jackson, Mrs. Gabrielle E., litterateur and author of Annapolis, Md., was born Oct. 13, 1861, in New York City. She is the author of Denise and Ned Toodles; Pretty Polly Perkins; A Blue Grass Beauty and other works.

Jackson, George Henry, surgeon and diplomat of La Rochelle, France, was born Feb. 28, 1863, in Natick, Mass. Since 1897 he has been in the United States consular service and is now consul at La Rochelle, France.

Jackson, George Thomas, physician and author of 11 East Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1862, in New York City. He is the author of Diseases of the Hair and Scalp; Baldness and Hand-Book of Diseases of the Skin.

Jackson, George Washington, civil engineer and builder of 754 West Jackson boul., Chicago, Ill., was born July 21, 1861, in Chicago, Ill. He built a large percentage of the underground systems for the Chicago Telephone Company. He is president of the contracting company of George W. Jackson, incorporated, of Chicago.

Jackson, Henry Godden, clergyman of 7612 Ingleside ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 1, 1838, in Manchester, Ind. Since 1902 he has been pastor of the Ravenswood and Ingleside Avenue Methodist churches of Chicago.

Jackson, Holmes Condict, educator and author of 61 South Maple ave., East Orange, N.J., was born Feb. 18, 1875, in New York City. Since 1905 he has been a professor of the Albany medical college. He is the author of Manual of Physiological Chemistry.

Jackson, James Kirkman, banker of 420 South Perry st., Montgomery, Ala. He has been secretary of state, insurance commissioner of Alabama and served five governors as private secretary. He is cashier and director of the Exchange National bank.

Jackson, John Brinckerhoff, naval officer and diplomat of Bucharest, Roumania, was born Aug. 19, 1862, in Newark, N.J. In 1890 he was appointed second secretary of the United States legation at Berlin; and in 1894 he was promoted secretary of the embassy of Berlin.

Jackson, John Price, civil engineer and author of State College, Pa., was born Sept. 27, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1893 he has been professor of electrical engineering at the Pennsylvania state college, and its consulting engineer. He is the author of Alternating Currents and Alternating Current Machinery.

Jackson, Joseph Cooke, soldier and lawyer of 358 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 5, 1835, in Newark, N.J. He was brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers in 1865. In 1870 he was assistant district attorney for the southern district of New York.

Jackson, Lambert Lincoln, educator and author of 35 West Thirty-second st., New York City, was born April 14, 1870, in Binghamton, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been head of the educational department of D. Appleton and company. He is the author of Arithmetics for Grades, Jackson, Marcellus G., merchant and banker of Hammondton, N.J., was born Sept. 25, 1846, in Maine. He is president of the People's bank.

Jackson, Mrs. Margaret Doyle, educator and author of Lake Placid, N.Y., was born Jan. 7, 1868, in the Bermudas. She has taught school in Manchester and Dublin, Great Britain. She is the author of A Daughter of the Pit and other works.

Jackson, Mrs. Mary Anna, litterateur and author of Charlotte, N.C., was born in Mecklenburg county, N.C. She is the author of Memoirs of Stonewall Jackson.

Jackson, Oscar L., soldier, lawyer and statesman of New Castle, Pa., was born Sept. 2, 1840, in Lawrence county, Pa. In 1868-71 he was district attorney. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Jackson, Richard Arbuthnot, railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 5, 1858, in Richmond, Ind. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Great Northern railroad.

Jackson, Robert Nesmith, banker of 165 Court st., Middletown, Conn., was born March 11, 1845 in Paris, France. He is president of the Middlesex Banking company.

Jackson, Samuel McCartney, soldier, manufacturer and statesman of 692 West End ave., New York City, was born Sept. 24, 1833, in Armstrong county, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. He has been a member of the state senate. In 1893 he was elected state treasurer.

Jackson, Samuel MacCauley, educator and author of 11 Waverly place, New York City, was born June 19, 1851, in New York City. Since 1895 he has been professor of church history in the New York university. He is secretary of the prison association.

Jackson, Simeon Taylor, farmer and statesman of Pioneer, La., was born July 24, 1853, near Floyd, West Carroll Parish, La. He has been prominently identified with the business and public affairs of West Carroll Parish, La. Since 1888 he has been a representative in the Louisiana state legislature.

Jackson, Theodore Frelinghuysen, lawyer of 84 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 16, 1830, in Rockaway, N.J. He is a director of the First National Bank of Brooklyn and other corporations.

Jackson, Thomas E., retired merchant of Tampa, Fla., was born in 1852, in Hillsborough county, Fla. Until 1887 he conducted a large wholesale and retail house in Tampa. He has been three terms mayor of his city; and for ten years was treasurer of his county.

Jackson, Victor Stonewall, banker and government official of Ancon, Canal Zone, South America, was born Oct. 31, 1873, in Peru, Ind. In 1903-04 he was United States paymaster bureau of supplies and accounts. Since 1905 he has been with the Panama canal commission as assistant chief.

Jackson, W. W., lawyer and banker of 322 Juliana st., Parkersburg, W.Va., was born July 18, 1860, in St. Mary's Va. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Jackson, William, civil engineer of Boston, Mass., was born March 13, 1848, in Brighton, Mass. Since 1885 he has been city engineer.

Jackson, William Furnell, statesman of Salisbury, Md., was born Jan. 11, 1868, in Salisbury, Md. In 1905 he became a member of congress. He was appointed United States senator for the unexpired term of the late Senator Rayner.

Jackson, William John, railroad official of 332 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 28, 1859, in Toronto, Ontario. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

Jacobi, Abraham, physician and author of 19 East Forty-seventh st., New York City, was born May 6, 1830, in Germany. Since 1870 he has been professor in the college of physicians. He is the author of Diphtheria and other works.

Jacobs, Barron Mark, banker of Tucson, Ariz., was born in 1847 in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the Arizona National bank.

Jacobs, Charles Michael, educator, clergyman and author of 11 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 5, 1875, in Gettysburg, Pa. Since 1905 he has been professor of European history in Muhlenburg college. He is the author of numerous articles in the Lutheran cyclopedia.

Jacobs, Henry Eyster, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 10, 1844, in Gettysburg, Pa. Since 1884 he has been dean of the faculty in the Lutheran theological seminary. He is the author of The Lutheran Movement in England and other works.

Jacobs, Henry W., railroad president of Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 28, 1874, in Atchison, Kan. Since 1912 he has been president of the Oxweld railroad service.

Jacobs, James Arthur, mason and builder trustee of 166 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 15, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is a trustee and member of the finance committee of Tuft's college.

Jacobs, Joseph, journalist and author of 489 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 29, 1854, in Sydney, New South Wales. In 1906 he became professor of English literature and rhetoric at the Jewish theological seminary of America. He is the author of Studies in Jewish Statistics and other works.

Jacobs, Michael William, lawyer and author of Harrisburg, Pa., was born Jan. 27, 1850, in Gettysburg, Pa. He is the author of a Treatise on the Law of Domicile.

Jacobs, Ward Winsdor, banker of 530 Farmington ave., Hartford, Conn., was born June 13, 1839, in Mansfield, Conn. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Jacobson, Isaac Wolfson, lawyer of 5 Beekman st., New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1866, in New York City. He is attorney for the retail cigar and tobacco dealers' association of New York.

Jacobson, John Emil, banker of Dazey, N. D., was born April 26, 1863, in Kongsvinger, Norway. He is president of the Dazey State bank.

Jacobus, Melancthon Williams, educator, theologian and author of 39 Woodland st., Hartford, Conn., was born Dec. 15, 1855, in Allegheny, Pa. Since 1891 he has been professor of new testament literature and exegesis at the Hartford theological seminary. He is the author of A Problem in New Testament Criticism and other works.

Jacoby, Harold, educator, astronomer and author of 39 Claremont ave., New York City, was born March 4, 1865, in New York City. Since 1894 he has been professor of astronomy at Columbian university of New York City. He is the author of Practical Talks by an Astronomer.

Jacoby, Henry Sylvester, educator, civil engineer and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born April 8, 1857, in Springtown, Pa. Since 1890 he has been professor of bridge engineering at Cornell university of Ithaca, N.Y. He is the author of A Text-Book on Plain Lettering and other works.

Jaegers, Albert, sculptor and artist of Stuffern, N.Y., was born March 28, 1868, in Germany. He has designed statuary for the new custom house at New York City, and the fine arts building at St. Louis, Mo. He erected the Baron von Steuben statute for Washington, D.C.

Jaffa, Nathan, merchant, banker and statesman of Roswell, N.M., was born Dec. 28, 1863, in Germany. He has been county commissioner of Chaves county and has been secretary of New Mexico.

Jagels, John, merchant and banker of Lake Creek, Mo., was born March 8, 1854, in Missouri. He is president of the Peoples' bank.

Jaggar, Thomas Augustus, clergyman, bishop and author of London, England, was born June 2, 1839, in New York City. In 1875 he was Protestant Episcopal bishop of southern Ohio. He is the author of The Ministry of Phillips Brooks and other works.

Jaggard, Edwin Ames, lecturer, lawyer, jurist and author of St. Paul, Minn., was born June 21, 1859, in Altoona, Pa. Since 1905 he has been justice of the state supreme court of Minnesota. He is the author of Jaggard on Torts, in two volumes and other works.

Jahr, Torstein, librarian of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 7, 1871, in Holmestrand, Norway. Since 1901 he has been reviser in the catalogue division of the library of congress.

James, Addison Davis, legislator and statesman of Penrod, Ky., was born Feb. 27, 1850, near Morgantown, Ky. He has been a member of the Kentucky state legislature; and a member of the state senate. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

James, Alexander Long, banker of Laurinburg, N.C., was born March 31, 1855, in Salisbury, N.C. He is president of the First National bank.

James, Mrs. Alice Archer Sewall, artist and author of Urbana, Ohio, was born in 1870 in Glendale, Ohio. Her works of art have been exhibited in the Philadelphia academy and at the Paris salon. She is the author of The Ballad of the Prince and other works.

James, Arthur Curtiss, railroad official of 99 John st., New York City, was born June 1, 1867, in New York City. He is vice-president of the El Paso and Southwestern system.

James, Bartlett Burleigh, clergyman and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Aug. 6, 1866, in Celcilton, Md. He is now an editorial writer for the Baltimore Evening Herald. He is the author of The Colonization of New England and other works.

James, Clinton R., capitalist of 135 Broadway, New York City. He was educated at the polytechnic institute of Brooklyn. He is president of the New York Title Insurance company, the New York Mortgage and Security company, and the Lawyers' Engineering and Surveying company. He is vice-president of the First Mortgage Guarantee company, the Chelsea Realty company and other corporations. He is a trustee of the Brooklyn Savings bank and a director of various banks and industrial companies.

James, Edmund Janes, college president of Urbana, Ill., was born May 21, 1855, in Jacksonville, Ill. Since 1904 he has been president of the university of Illinois. He is the author of The Education of Business Men and other works.

James, Fleming Wills, railroad president and banker of Alibene, Texas, was born April 11, 1847, in Virginia. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' National bank and other corporations.

James, Francis Bacon, lawyer and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born June 10, 1864, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was president of the Ohio state board of uniform state laws. He is the author of Ohio Law of Opinion Evidence and other works.

James, Frank, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 16, 1863, in Fulton, N.Y. He has been a member of the California state legislature. He is the author of Liens of Mechanics.

James, George Francis, educator and author of 316 Tenth ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Aug. 18, 1867, in Normal, Ill. He is now head of the department of pedagogy at the university of Minnesota. He is the author of Hand-Book of University Extension and other works.

James, George Oscar, educator and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 1, 1873, in Bowers Hills, Va. Since 1903 he has been instructor of mathematics and astronomy at the Washington university of St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of Elements of Mechanics.

James, George Wharton, explorer, ethnologist, lecturer and author of 1098 North Raymond ave., Pasadena, Cal., was born Sept. 27, 1858, in England. He is the author of In and Out of the Old Missions; The Wonders of the Colorado Desert; Living the Radiant Life and other works.

James, Harry C., mining operator and capitalist of Denver, Col., was born Aug. 15, 1868, in Georgetown, Col. He is president of the United Metals, Mining and Milling company and connected with various other corporations.

James, Henry, critic and author of Rye, Sussex, England, was born April 15, 1843, in New York City. He is the author of Watch and Ward. A London Life; The Other House; The Wheel of Time and many other works.

James, Henry Ammon, lawyer and author of New York City, was born April 24, 1854, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Communism in America.

James, James Alton, educator and author of Evanston, Ill., was born Sept. 17, 1864, in Hazelgreen, Wis. Since 1897 he has been professor of history at the Northwestern university of Evanston, Ill. He is the joint author of Governent in State and Nation.

James, Ollie M., lawyer and statesman of Marion, Ky., was born July 27, 1871, in Crittenden county, Ky. In 1896 he was a delegate to the democratic national convention. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

James, Robert Evan, banker of Easton, Pa., was born Aug. 9, 1848, in Upper Mount Bethel, Pa. He is president of the Easton Trust company.

James, Robert John, physician of Seattle, Wash., was born in 1872, in Cardiff, Wales. He is the author of Surgical and Medical Diseases of the Lower Extremities and other works.

James, Samuel Humphreys, journalist and author of Mound, La., was born Dec. 12, 1857, in Cottage Oaks Plantation, La. Since 1904 he has been president of the Louisiana horticulture society, and owns the largest pecan grove in the world. He is the author of A Woman of New Orleans and other works.

James, Thomas Lemuel, journalist and banker of 32 East Forty-second st., New York City, was born March 29, 1831, in Utica, N.Y. In 1881 he was postmaster-general. In 1882 he accepted the presidency of the Lincoln National Bank of New York City.

James, William, psychologist and author of 95 Irving st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Jan. 11, 1842, in New York City. Since 1872 he has been professor at Harvard university. He is the author of Principles of Psychology and other works.

James, William Hartford, lawyer and governor of Colfax, Wash., was born Oct. 1, 1831, in Marion county, Ohio. In 1871-77 he was governor of Nebraska. In 1887 he was appointed registrar of the land office at Colfax, Wash.

James, William John, educator and librarian of Middletown, Conn., was born Sept. 7, 1860, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1899-1901 he was president of the Connecticut library association. Since 1891 he has been librarian of Wesleyan university.

Jameson, Edwin C., lawyer of 111 William st., New York City. He is president of the Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance company.

Jameson, Ephraim Orcutt, clergyman, genealogist and author of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 23, 1832, in Dunbarton, N.H. In 1871-93 he was pastor at Mills, Mass. He is the author of Cogswells in America; The Choates in America and other works.

Jameson, Henry, physician of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Sept. 9, 1848, in Marion county, Ind. He received his medical degree from the Bellevue hospital medical college of New York City; and since 1871 has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine. He is now president of the board of park commissioners of Indianapolis; and has held various positions of trust and honor.

Jameson, John Franklin, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 19, 1859, in Boston, Mass. Since 1901 he has been professor of history in the university of Chicago. He is the author of Dictionary of United States History and other works.

Jameson, Patrick Henry, physician and author of Indianapolis, Ind., was born April 18, 1824, in Monroe, Ind. In 1863-66 he was acting assistant surgeon in the United States army. He is the author of Memoirs of Prominent Physicians of Indianapolis.

Jameson, William Randolph, banker of 247 Maple st., Waterloo, Iowa, was born in 1871, in Black Hawk county, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' Savings bank.

Jamieson, Egbert, lawyer of Chicago, Ill., was born April 29, 1846, in Castleton, Vt. He has been general consul for the West Chicago and North Chicago Street Railway companies.

Jamieson, Thomas N., public official of Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 29, 1848, in Grey, Ontario, Canada. Since 1904 he has been naval officer of the Port of Chicago.

Jamieson, William Darius, journalist and statesman of Shenandoah, Pa., was born Nov. 9, 1873, near Wapello, Iowa. He has been a member of congress; and a member of the state senate. He is a newspaper publisher and editor.

Jamison, Alcinous Berton, physician and author of 43 West Forty-fifth st., New York City, was born Sept. 1, 1851, in Wooster, Ohio. He is the author of The Anus and Rectum, Their Physiology, Anatomy and Pathology.

Jamison, Mrs. Celcilia Viets, litterateur and author of New Orleans, La., was born in 1848 in Canada. She is the author of Woven on Many Threads; A Crown from the Spear; Lady Jane; Thistledown and other works.

Janeway, Edward Gamaliel, physician and educator of 36 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born Aug. 31, 1841, in Middlesex county, N.J. He is professor of medicine and dean of the university and Bellevue hospital medical college.

Jansen, Peter, business president of Beatrice, Neb., was born March 21, 1852, in Berdjansk, South Russia. He has lived in Nebraska for over forty years. In 1896 he was delegate-at-large to the republican convention. He was United States commissioner to the Paris exposition; and vice-president of the Nebraska commission to the St. Louis exposition. He has been a member of the Nebraska state senate. He is vice-president of the Frazer River Lumber company and vice-president of the Saskatchewan Valley Land company.

Janssen, John, clergyman and bishop of Belleville, Ill., was born March 3, 1835, in Prussia. In 1888 he was consecrated Roman Catholic bishop of Belleville, Ill.

Janvier, Charles, insurance president of 1445 Webster st., New Orleans, La., was born in New Orleans, La. Since leaving college he has been in the insurance business and is now president of the Sun Insurance company.

Janvier, Margaret Thomson, author and poet of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1844 in New Orleans, La. She is the author of Clover Bank; Under the Dog Star; Little Helpers; Ways and Means and other works.

Janvier, Thomas Allibone, journalist and author of New York City, was born July 16, 1849, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of An Embassy to Province, a volume of travel; Color Studies; The Mexican Guide and other works.

Janviers, Mrs. Catherine Ann, artist, translator and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. Her principal painting are Binding on the Shoes; The Guitar Player; Daniel at Prayer and The Violinist. She is the author of Popular Keramics and other works.

Jacques, William Henry, civil engineer, naval architect and author of Little Bear's Head, N.H., was born Dec. 24, 1848, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Establishment of Steel Gun Factories in the United States.

Jarrett, Edwin Seton, civil engineer of 233 Broadway, New York City, was born March 7, 1862, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a director of the Waterproofing company.

Jarrold, Ernest, litterateur and author of New York City, was born in 1850 in England. He is a journalist of New York City. He is the author of Odds and Ends; Mickey Finn Idylls and Tales of the Bowery.

Jarvie, James Newbegin, capitalist and banker of 66 Broadway, New York City, was born in England. He is a director of the Bank of America and other corporations.

Jarvie, William, dentist of 105 Clinton st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 14, 1841, in Manchester, England. He is a director of the Coöperative Law company.

Jarvis, Charles Maples, civil engineer of New Britain, Conn., was born April 16, 1856, in Deposit, N.Y. He is president of the American Hardware corporation.

Jarvis, Chester D., scientist and author of Storrs, Conn., was born March 29, 1876, in London, Ontario. He is the author of Trees in Winter.

Jarvis, David Henry, government official and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born Aug. 24, 1862, in Berlin, Md. Since 1902 he has been collector of customs for the district of Nebraska. He is the author of Report of Overland Expeditions at Point Barrow.

Jarvis, Henry C., physician and banker of Schell City, Mo., was born Feb. 19, 1849, in Troy, Ill. He is president of the Schell City bank.

Jarvis, Samuel M., founder and banker of 60 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 31, 1853, in McDonough county, Ill. He was one of the organizers and the first president of the North American Trust company which has a branch in Cuba.

Jarvis, Thomas Jordan, soldier, diplomat and statesman of Greenville, N.C., was born Jan. 18, 1836, in Jarvisburg, N.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. In 1870 he was made speaker of the house. He has been a member of the United States senate.

Jarvis, Thomas Neilson, railroad official of New York City, was born May 22, 1854, in Stratford, Ontario. Since 1906 he has been vice-president of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Jaspar, George Henry, merchant and banker of Bloodland, Mo., was born March 27, 1865, in Illinois. He is president of the Bank of Bloodland.

Jasper, Tyler, farmer, merchant and banker of Mintonville, Ky., was born Dec. 16, 1844, in Cain's Stores, Ky. He is president of the People's bank.

Jastrow, Joseph, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born Jan. 30, 1863, in Warsaw, Poland. Since 1903 he has been professor of psychology in the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Character and Temperament and other works.

Jastrow, Morris, librarian, philanthropist and author of 248 South Twenty-third st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 13, 1861, in Europe. He is professor of Semitic languages and librarian of the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Religion of the Babylonians and Assyrians.

Jay, Peter Augustus, diplomat of Cairo, Egypt, was born in 1877 in Newport, R.I. He has been second secretary of legation at Constantinople, Turkey. Since 1909 he has been consul-general at Cairo.

Jayne, Anselm Helm, lawyer and author of Jackson, Miss., was born in 1856 in Mississippi. He is the author of A History of Mississippi and A School History of Mississippi.

Jayne, Henry La Barre, lawyer and capitalist of 505 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 3, 1857, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the law firm of Biddle and Ward.

Jayne, Horace, educator, scientist and author of Wallingford, Pa., was born March 5, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been professor of vertebrate morphology in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Origin of the Fittest and other works.

Jeans, James Hopwood, educator, lecturer and author of Princeton, N.J.,was born Sept. 11, 1877, in England. Since 1905 he has been professor of applied mathematics at Princeton university. He is the author of Dynamical Theory of Cases and other works.

Jeffers, Eliakim Tupper, educator, clergyman, college president and author of York, Pa., was born April 6, 1841, in Nova Scotia. Since 1893 he has been president of the New York collegiate institute at York. He is the author of Shortest Road to Caesar.

Jeffers, Le Roy, librarian and book expert of 476 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in August, 1876, in Ipswich, Mass. He was manager of the Booklovers' libraries in central west; and later devised and instituted in the leading eastern cities economic systems of book supply and distribution. He has visited European libraries; and is a student of religious and social problems. Since 1905 he has been chief of the book purchase division of the New York public library for its branch system. He has been an extensive contributor on library economy.

Jefferson, Charles Edward, clergyman and author of 121 West Eighty-fifth st., New York City, was born Aug. 29, 1860, in Cambridge, Ohio. He is now pastor of the Broadway tabernacle of New York City. He is the author of Quiet Talks with Earnest People in My Study and other works.

Jefferson, Herbert Perry, physician and financier of 30 Winchester st., Brookline, Mass., was born Feb. 13, 1856, in Andover, Mass. He is treasurer and general manager of the American Finance company.

Jefferson, John Percival, manufacturer of Warren, Pa., was born March, 1852, in Delaware. He is president of the Bennett Piano company and is connected with other large corporations.

Jefferson, Joseph, actor of Buzzards Bay, Mass., was born July 6, 1869, in New York City. He made his first appearance on the stage with his father in Rip Van Winkle. He has played in The Rivals, Shadows of a Great City and many other productions.

Jefferson, Mark, educator, geographer and college president of Ypsilanti, Mich., was born March 1, 1863, in Melrose, Mass. Since 1901 he has been professor of geography in the state normal college at Ypsilanti. He is an associate editor of the Journal of Geography.

Jefferson, Rufus C.,lumberman of St. Paul, Minn., was born April 24, 1843, in Gainesville, N.Y. He served through the civil war in the first New York dragoons. For seventeen years he was engaged in the lumber business in Woodstock, Ill., and in 1872-74 was mayor of that city. Since 1873 he has lived in St. Paul as a member of the firm of Jefferson and Kasson, proprietors of pine lands and lumber merchants. He was one of the three commissioners of the million dollar fund of the Northwest for the maintenance of disabled and retired ministers.

Jeffery, Edward Turner, railroad president of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born April 6, 1843, in Liverpool, England. In 1885-89 he was general manager of the Illinois Central railroad. Since 1891 he has been president of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad and other railroads.

Jefferys, Edward Miller, clergyman of 717 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 4, 1865, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is rector of St. Peter's church.

Jeffrey, Joseph Andrew, manufacturer and inventor of Columbus, Ohio, was born Jan. 17, 1836, in Clarksville, Ohio. In 1858-66 he was cashier in a bank of Columbus, Ohio; and in 1869-83 was cashier and part owner of the Commercial Bank of Columbus, Ohio. In 1866-68 he was a fourth owner of the firm of Rickley, Howell & Company, wholesale and retail carpet and furnishing, of Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1878 he established the Jeffreys' Manufacturing company of Columbus, Ohio; and in 1883 became president and general manager of that company. In 1878 less than a dozen men were employed in the manufacture and sale of the Jeffrey under-cutting coal mining machines. The manufacture of other classes of machinery was gradually added, such as the air power and electric power coal mining drills, electric locomotives, chain belting conveyors, also elevators, decorators and crushers. In 1907 the company was employing more than three thousand men. He has invented a number of devices connected with the Jeffrey's undercutting coal and mining machines, drills and special chains manufactured by the company.

Jeffries, Benjamin Joy, physician and author of 15 Chestnut st., Boston, Mass., was born March 26, 1833, in Boston, Mass. He is ophthalmic surgeon to the Massachusetts eye and ear infirmary of Boston. He is the author of Color Blindness, Its Dangers and Its Detection and other works.

Jeffries, Millard Dudley, educator, clergyman and college president of Jefferson City, Tenn., was born Nov. 18, 1855, in Culpeper county,Va. Since 1903 he has been president of Carson and Newman college. He is the author of several religious pamphlets.

Jeffries, Samuel Broaddus, lawyer and capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 3, 1869, in Lewis county, Mo. He is treasurer of the Electric Construction company.

Jeffris, Malcolm George, lawyer and capitalist of Janesville, Wis., was born Aug. 18, 1862, in Janesville, Wis. He is a director of the Merchants' and Savings bank of Janesville and is connected with various other corporations.

Jeglum, C. A., banker of Adams, N.D., was born March 25, 1877, in Iowa. He is president of the Scandia-American bank.

Jelks, James Thomas, physician and surgeon of Hot Springs, Ark., was born May 20, 1849, in Uchee, Ala. He is consulting surgeon of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroad. He edits the Hot Springs Medical Journal. He is the author of valuable articles on surgery and kindred topics.

Jelks, William Dorsey, insurance president and statesman of Birmingham, Ala., was born Nov. 7, 1855, in Russell county, Ala. In 1901-07 he was governor of Alabama. He is a member of the state senate; and since 1900 its president. Since 1907 he has been president of the Protective Life Insurance company.

Jellett, Edwin C., author of 118 Hermann st., Germantown, Pa., was born Nov. 22, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Mermaid of the Past; Winter Flora of Germantown and other works.

Jelliffe, Smith Ely, physician and author of 64 West Fifty-sixth st., New York City, was born Oct. 27, 1866, in New York City. Since 1902 he has been editor of the Journal of Nervous and Mental Diseases. He is the author of Manual of Diseases of the Nervous System and other works.

Jemison, Alpha Pierce, educator and author of Lafayette, Ind., was born Nov. 27, 1875, in Lafayette, Ind. Since 1896 he has been professor of mechanical drawing at Purdue university. He is the author of Elements of Mechanical Drawing and other works.

Jemison, Robert, banker of 2024 Third ave., Birmingham, Ala., was born Sept. 12, 1853, in Alabama. He is president of the Central Mortgage and Trust company.

Jemison, Robert, real estate broker of 2024 Third ave., Birmingham, Ala., was born Feb. 28, 1878, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He is president of the Corey Land company and other corporations.

Jenkins, Burris Atkins, clergyman, educator and college president of 3529 Charlotte st., Kansas City, Mo., was born Oct. 2, 1869, in Kansas City, Mo. He has been president of the Kentucky university at Lexington, Ky. He is now a pastor of Kansas City, Mo.

Jenkins, Charles Francis, publisher and author of 1024 Race st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 17, 1865, in Norristown, Pa. He is the author of Washington in Germantown and other works.

Jenkins, Daniel Edwards, clergyman, educator, lecturer and college president of Omaha, Neb., was born Dec. 13, 1866, in New Wales, England. He has been Stone lecturer at Princeton theological seminary.

Jenkins, Frederick W., librarian of New York City, was born Jan. 22, 1878, in Bradford, Mass. Since 1910 he has been librarian of the Russell Sage foundation.

Jenkins, George Franklin, educator, physician and college president of Keokuk, Iowa, was born July 15, 1842, in Clark county, Mo. Since 1890 he has been president and professor of the principles and practice of medicine, clinical medicine and physical diagnosis at Keokuk medical college. He has been president of the Iowa state medical society.

Jenkins, George W., capitalist of 299 Broadway, New York City. He is president of M. Hartley company and a director of other corporations.

Jenkins, Irvin Snow, banker of Lohrville, Iowa, was born Oct., 4, 1876, in Mt. Carmel, Ind. He is president of the Lohrville Savings bank.

Jenkins, James Graham, lawyer and jurist of Milwaukee, Wis., was born July 18, 1834, in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. In 1888-93 he was United States district judge of the eastern district of Wisconsin. In 1893-1902 he was judge of the United States circuit court for the seventh circuit of Wisconsin.

Jenkins, John G., capitalist and banker of Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Jenkins, John James, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Chippewa Falls, Wis., was born Aug. 20, 1843, in England. He served in the civil war. He has been United States attorney for the territory of Wyoming. In 1895-1909 he was a member of congress.

Jenkins, Myron M., farmer and banker of Clearfield, Iowa, was born in 1857 in Naperville, Ill. He is president of the Taylor County bank.

Jenkins, Oliver Peebles, educator, scientist and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born Nov. 3, 1850, in Bantam, Ohio. Since 1891 he has been professor of physiology and histology at the Leland Stanford, Jr., university of California. He is the author of Indiana State Series of Textbooks on Physiology and other works.

Jenkins, Will D., journalist and state official of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born April 21, 1852, in Pekin, Ill. In 1897-1901 he was secretary of state of Washington. He has been mayor of New Whatcom, Wash.; and has conducted The Champion, a paper of Whatcom.

Jenkins, William Dunbar, civil engineer of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born Sept. 18, 1849, in Adams county, Miss. He is chief engineer of the Chattanooga Station company of Tennessee.

Jenkins, William M., lawyer and statesman of Guthrie, Okla., was born April 25, 1856, in Alliance, Ohio. In 1897-1901 he was secretary of Oklahoma territory. In 1901-03 he was governor of Oklahoma.

Jenks, Almet Francis, lawyer and jurist of 8 Pierrepont st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 21, 1853, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been corporation counsel of Brooklyn, N.Y.; and judge-advocate general of New York. In 1898-1912 he was associate justice of the supreme court of New York.

Jenks, Henry Fitch, clergyman and author of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 17, 1842, in Boston, Mass. Since 1867 he has been a clergyman of the Unitarian church. He is the author of historical works.

Jenks, Jeremiah Whipple, educator and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 2, 1856, in St. Clair, Mich. Since 1891 he has filled the chair of political science in Cornell university. He is the author of The Trust Problem and other works.

Jenks, John H., banker of Avoca, Iowa, was born in 1855 in Massachusetts. He was a representative in the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth general assemblies of Iowa; and for twelve years was a director of the board of education. He is president of the Avoca State bank, Hancock Savings bank, Harlan and Avoca Telephone and Telegraph company; and proprietor of the New Avoca Canning company.

Jenks, John Storey, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1876 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Girard Trust company and the Fidelity Trust company.

Jenks, Tudor, lawyer and author of Brownville, N.Y., was born May 7, 1857, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1887 he has been on the editorial staff of the St. Nicholas Magazine. He is the author of Captain John Smith and other works.

Jenness, Lyndon Yates, soldier and banker of Tampa, Fla., was born June 17, 1843, in Mathuen, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. He is president of the State bank, the chamber of commerce and the Florida Palmetto Fiber works.

Jennees, Richard H., journalist and statesman of O'Neill, Neb., was born June 25, 1857, in Linville, Ill. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been receiver of public moneys of the United States land office.

Jenness, Theodora Robinson, litterateur and author of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born in 1847 in Greenwood, Maine. Since 1894 she has been engaged in mission work for girls of the Cheyenne Sioux Indians of South Dakota. She is the author of Above the Range and other works.

Jennings, Edward Henry, merchant and banker of Columbia, Pa., was born Aug. 10, 1852, in Brady's Bend, Pa. He organized and is president of the Columbia National bank of Pennsylvania; and is president of the Pennsylvania Title and Trust company.

Jennings, Edwin B., civil engineer, lecturer and author of 19 Park row, New York City, was born in 1855 in New York City. Since 1895 he has been known as a lecturer and writer on trust questions. He has been in charge of the Hawkins Bridge and Iron works. He is the author of People and Property.

Jennings, Frederic Beach, lawyer of 15 Broad st., New York City, was born Aug. 6, 1853, in Bennington, Vt. He has received the degrees of A.M. and LL.B. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank of North Bennington; a trustee of the New York Trust company; and attorney and director of various railroads and industrial corporations. He has been vice-president of the association of the bar of the city of New York.

Jennings, Herbert Spencer, educator, naturalist and author of 2442 North Calvert st., Baltimore, Md., was born April 8, 1868, in Tonica, Ill. He has been a director of the United States fish commission biological survey of the Great Lakes. Since 1907 he has been professor of experimental zoology at the Johns Hopkins university. He is joint author of Behavior of the Lower Organisms and other works.

Jennings, James S., journalist, author and poet of Wichita, Kan., was born in Greene county, Ohio. He is the publisher and proprietor of a newspaper of his city. He is the author of Romance of the Century and other works.

Jennings, Robert Henry, soldier and farmer of Columbus, S.C., was born Feb. 6, 1839, in Fairfield county, S.C. He served in the civil war. In 1901 he became state treasurer of South Carolina.

Jennings, Robert W., educator and college president of Nashville, Tenn., was born March 18, 1838, in Edgefield, S.C. In 1884 he established the Jennings business college of Nashville, Tenn., of which he is president.

Jennings, Samuel Josiah, banker of Kerens, Texas, was born Aug. 7, 1866, in Atlanta, Miss. He is president of the Kerens Cotton Oil company.

Jennings, Thomas Albert, merchant, banker and statesman of Pensacola, Fla., was born Jan. 8, 1865, in Jennings, Hamilton county, Fla. He was educated at Emory college of Oxford, Ga. He is president of the Jennings Naval Stores company of Pensacola, with a branch office in New Orleans. He is president of the Bank of Jennings, a director of the Gulf, Florida and Alabama Railway company, and is interested in a number of other business enterprises. He represented the democratic party in the national conventions of 1888 and 1892; in 1904 was presidential elector on the Parker and Davis ticket; and in 1908-12 was democratic national committeeman from Florida. In 1911 he became a member of the Florida house of representatives and was made speaker of the house.

Jennings, William Sherman, lawyer, banker and statesman of 1845 Main st., Jacksonville, Fla., was born March 24, 1863, in Centralia, Ill. He is president of the Depositors' Trust company; and in 1901-05 he was governor of Florida.

Jennison, Lucy White, author and poet of Boston, Mass., was born in 1850 in Massachusetts. She is the author of Love Poems and Sonnets.

Jensen, Frederick Christian, capitalist of Mount Pleasant, Utah, was born Feb. 19, 1856, in Odense, Denmark. For nine years he was president of the Mount Pleasant school board. He is president of the Consolidated Furniture company and other corporations.

Jensen, Hans Peter, banker of Dysart, Iowa, was born June 1, 1854 in Germany. He is president of the Dysart bank.

Jenson, John H., retired farmer and banker of Lakeview,Mich., was born July 7, 1844, in Denmark. He is president of the Farmers' and State bank.

Jepson, George, merchant and banker of St. Clairsville, Ohio, was born Aug. 28, 1839, in St. Clairsville, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Jepson, Samuel Lawrence, journalist and surgeon of 81 Twelfth st., Wheeling, W.Va., was born April 7, 1842, in St. Clairsville, Ohio. He has been president of the board of education; and president of the West Virginia state medical society. Since 1906 he has been editor of the West Virginia medical journal.

Jepson, Willis Linn, botanist and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born Aug. 19, 1867, in Vacaville, Cal. Since 1913 he has been president of the California botanical society. He is the author of Flora of California and other works.

Jerman,Beverly Sydnor,banker of Raleigh, N.C., was born Nov. 4, 1861, in Ridgeway, N.C. He is president and treasurer of the Park Avenue Land company.

Jerome, Franklin S., banker of 320 Broadway, New York City. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Jerome, Irene Elizabeth, painter and artist of New York City,was born June 9, 1858, in Ellicottville, N.Y. She illustrated and arranged One Year's Sketch Book and other works.

Jerome, William Travers, lawyer, jurist and author of 37 Wall st., New York City, was born April 18, 1859, in New York City. He has been justice of the court of special sessions; and in 1901-09 he was district attorney of New York county. He is the author of Liquor Tax Law in New York.

Jervis, William Percival,manufacturer and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 28, 1851, in England. In 1898 he founded the Baltimore Ceramic company, of which he is president. He is the author of Rough Notes on Pottery and other works.

Jess, Stoddard, banker and statesman of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 3, 1856, in Fox Lake, Wis. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of the First National bank of Los Angeles; is vice-president of the Huntington Beach company; and president of the L. D. Powell Publishing company. He is president of the board of harbor commissioners of Los Angeles.

Jesse, Richard Henry, educator, college president and author of 810 Hillcrest ave., Columbia, Mo., was born March 1, 1853, in Lancaster county, Va. Since 1891 he has been president of the university of Missouri. He is the author of Missouri Literature.

Jessup, Henry Harris, missionary and author of Berrut, Syria, was born April 19, 1832, in Montrose, Pa. Since 1856 he has been a Presbyterian missionary in Syria. He is the author of The Greek Church and other works.

Jessup, Samuel, missionary and author of Beirut, Syria, was born Dec. 21, 1833, in Montrose, Pa. Since 1862 he has been engaged in mission work in Syria,having charge of the mission printing establishment and publishing house in that city. He is the author of Husn Sulayman.

Jett, Thomas Marion, lawyer and statesman of Hillsboro, Ill., was born May 1, 1862, in Bond county, Ill. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress. He has been state's attorney of Montgomery county, Illinois.

Jewell, Fred, banker of 3628 Fifth st., San Diego,Cal.,was born June 7,1869,in Wheaton, Ill. He was educated at Wheaton college. For two years he was secretary to the governor of Nebraska; and in 1896-1900 he was colonel on the staff of Governor Poynter. For two years he was president of the Platte County Bank of Nebraska; and for eight years president of the Citizens' Savings bank of San Diego, Cal.

Jewell, Theodore Frelinghuysen, naval officer of 2135 R st., Washington, D. C., was born Aug. 5, 1844, in Georgetown, D.C. He served in the Spanish-American war. He has been superintendent of the naval gun factory.

Jewett, Charles Sherman, physician of 892 Main st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born March 16, 1865, in Moravia, N.Y. He has been clinical pathologist of the Buffalo hospital sisters of charity.

Jewett, Edgar Boardman, manufacturer and business president of 148 Morris ave., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Dec. 14, 1843, in Ann Arbor, Mich. He is president of the John C. Jewett Manufacturing company.

Jewett, Mrs. Frances Gulick, litterateur and author of Oberlin, Ohio, was born Oct. 13, 1854, in Macronesian Islands. She is the author of Luther Halsey Gulick, Missionary, and other works.

Jewett, George Clarence, public official and banker of Palouse, Wash., was born Nov. 27, 1876, in Maple Lake, Minn. He is cashier of the National bank; and mayor of his city.

Jewett, George Franklin, educator and founder of Newton, Mass., was born March 19, 1859, in Pepperell, Mass. In 1902 he founded and has since been principal of the Mount Ida school for girls.

Jewett, John Howard, soldier, journalist and author of 105 East Fifteenth st., New York City, was born Jan. 19, 1843, in Hadley, Mass. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Bunny Stories and other works.

Jewett, Milo A., diplomat of Trebizond, Turkey, was born in Turkey. In 1905 he was appointed consul at Trebizond.

Jewett, Sherman Skinner, lawyer of Buffalo, N.Y., was born March 15, 1870, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is vice-president and a director of Jewett and company, stove manufacturers.

Jewett,Stephen Shannon,lawyer and statesman of Laconia, N.H., was born Sept. 18, 1858, in Laconia, N.H. Since 1880 he has been engaged in the practice of law in Laconia, N.H. He is director and attorney for the Laconia National bank, City Savings bank of Laconia, and the Laconia building and loan association. He has been a member and speaker of the New Hampshire house of representatives, and a member of the state senate. He was a member of the New Hampshire state constitutional convention in 1902. He is also city solicitor of Laconia, N.H., and prominent in public and business affairs.

Jewett, William Kennon, banker of Colorado Springs, Colo., was born Jan. 1, 1857, in Putnam, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Colorado Springs National bank and president of various other corporations.

Jewett, William Orrington Lunt, soldier, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Shelbina, Mo., was born Dec. 26, 1836, in Maine. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is editor of the Shelbino Democrat and is president of the board of visitors of the Missouri state university.

Jinkins, Benjamin Cator, stock and bond broker of 421 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 12, 1861, in Columbus, Miss. Since 1893 he has been a broker in stocks and bonds.

Jipson, Webster Charles, banker of Blissfield, Mich., was born Sept. 21, 1852, in Rochester, N.Y. He is president of the Jipson-Carter State bank.

Job, Herbert Keightley, clergyman, ornithologist and author of West Haven, Conn., was born Nov. 29, 1864, in Boston, Mass. He is state ornithologist of Connecticut. He is the author of Wild Wings and other works.

Job, Robert, chemist of 406 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 10, 1866, in Boston, Mass. He is in partnership with Booth, Garrett and Blair, analytical and engineering chemists.

Jobes, Charles S., banker of Kansas City, Mo., was born April 23, 1853, in Jennings county, Ind. He is president of the Security National bank.

Jocelyn, Stephen Perry, soldier of 83 Summit st., Burlington, Vt., was born March 1, 1843, in Brownington, Vt. He served in the civil war. In 1906 he attained the rank of brigadier-general; and in 1907 was retired.

Johannsen, Albert, petrologist, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 3, 1874, in Belle Plaine, Iowa. Since 1907 he has been acting chief of the section of petrology of the United States geological survey. He is the author of A Key for the Determination of Rock-Forming Minerals in Thin Sections.

Johanson, Carl M., private banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Aug. 22, 1863, in Sweden. He is president of the Algase company.

John, John Price Durbin, educator, lecturer, college president and author of Greencastle, Ind., was born Nov. 25, 1843, in Brookville, Ind. He has been president of the Brookville college in Indiana. He is the author of The Worth of Man and other works.

Johns, Clayton, educator, musician and composer of 5 Mount Vernon place, Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 24, 1857, in New Castle, Del. Since 1884 he has been a teacher, musician and composer of Boston, Mass. He has composed various songs and choral works.

Johns, Marshall E., railway official of Jersey City, N.J., was born April 17, 1860, in Washington, D.C. In 1876 he entered railway service, and has filled positions from brakeman to superintendent. In 1894-1904 he was trainmaster of the Wilkesbarre and Eastern railroad; and since 1904 has been superintendent of the New York, Susquehanna and Western and of the Wilkesbarre and Eastern railroads.

Johnson, A. E., business president of 1 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1840 in Sweden. He is vice-president of the Scandinson and company, Spuyten Duyvil.

Johnson, A. R.,real estate dealer and banker of Homer, La., was born Sept. 16, 1856, in Alabama. He is president of the Homer State bank.

Johnson, Mrs. Adelaide, sculptor and artist of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 26, 1859, in Plymouth, Ill. She is a noted sculpture artist in forms expressed in marble. Her best known works are of Lucretia Mott and Susan B. Anthony.

Johnson, Adna Romulus, educator, lawyer and statesman of Ironton, Ohio, was born Dec. 14, 1860, in Sweet Springs, Mo. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress. He has been prosecuting attorney of Lawrence county, Ohio.

Johnson, Alba Boardman, manufacturer of 500 North Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 8, 1858, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is vice-president, treasurer and director of the Baldwin Locomotive works and a director of other corporations.

Johnson,Albert,editor, publisher and statesman of Hoquiam, Wash., was born March 5, 1869, in Springfield, Ill. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Johnson, Albinus Alonzo, broker of Denver, Col., was born Feb. 8, 1852, in Lexington, Ind. He is president and general manager of the Garner Mines company and other corporations. He is the author of several works.

Johnson, Alfred Sidney,educator and journalist of 178 West Jackson boul., Chicago.

Ill., was born Dec. 15, 1860, in Canada. He has been managing editor of The Technical World Magazine.

Johnson, Anna, educator and author of Hasting, Mich., was born July 11, 1860, in Bradford county, Pa. She is the author of Entering Into His Own and other works.

Johnson,Archie James,banker of 440 North Eleventh st., Corvallis, Ore., was born Sept. 18, 1867, in Oregon. He is president of the Benton County National bank.

Johnson, Ben, lawyer, banker and statesman of Bardstown, Ky., was born May 20, 1858, in Bardstown, Ky. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress. He has been collector of international revenue for the fifth Kentucky district. Since 1897 he has been president of the People's bank.

Johnson, Ben, banker of Mansfield, La., was born Aug. 31, 1881, in Mansfield, La. He is cashier of the Bank of Commerce.

Johnson, Bradish, capitalist and banker of 39 Cortlandt st., New York City. He is president of the estate of Bradish Johnson company of Louisiana (limited); and a director of other corporations.

Johnson, Burgess, journalist and author of 681 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Nov. 9, 1877, in Rutland, Vt. He has been managing editor of the Outing Magazine. He is the author of Beastly Rhymes and other works.

Johnson, Charles Bedford, banker of Vernon, Texas, was born Sept. 27, 1881, in Celina, Tenn. He is cashier of the Herring National bank.

Johnson, Charles Frederick, educator, author and poet of 69 Vernon st., Hartford, Conn., was born May 8, 1836, in New York. He has been professor of English literature in Trinity college. He is the author of What Can I Do for Brady and other works.

Johnson, Charles Gustave, merchant and banker of Rockport, Texas, was born March 23, 1866, in Lamar, Texas. He is president of the First National bank.

Johnson, Charles M., merchant and banker of Whitehall, Mont., was born Feb. 13, 1863, in Truro, Canada. He is president of the Whithall State bank.

Johnson, Charles Nelson, dentist, author and poet of 22 East Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 1, 1860, in Canada. He is professor of operative dentistry at Chicago college of dental surgery. He is the author of Poems of the Farm and other works.

Johnson, Charles Philip,lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 18, 1836, in Lebanon, Ill. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1872 he was elected lieutenant-governor of Missouri. In 1892 he accepted the professorship of criminal law in the law department in the university of St. Louis.

Johnson, Charles Rensselaer, lawyer of Worcester, Mass., was born Dec. 28, 1852, in Dana, Mass. He is director of the free public library of Worcester.

Johnson, Clarke Howard, lawyer and jurist of Providence, R.I., was born on Nov. 18, 1851, in Foster, R.I. He has been a representative in the state legislature. In 1886-1903 he was district judge. He is associate justice of the state supreme court of Rhode Island.

Johnson, Clifton, illustrator and author of Hadley, Mass., was born Jan. 25, 1865, in Hadley, Mass. He is the author of What They Say in New England and other works.

Johnson, David Bancroft, educator and college president of Rock Hill, S.C., was born on Jan. 10, 1856, in La Grange, Tenn. Since 1895 he has been president of the Winthrop normal and industrial college of South Carolina. He has contributed to American literature on educational and scientific subjects.

Johnson, David Marshall, lawyer, author and poet of Chester, Pa., was born June 4, 1841, in Delaware county, Pa. He has been district attorney for Delaware county. He is vice-president of the Delaware county historical society. He is the author of America Our Home.

Johnson, E. C., banker of Buffalo, Okla., was born on Oct. 28, 1880, in Perry county, Ohio. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Johnson, Edward Francis, lawyer and author of Woburn, Mass., was born on Oct. 22, 1856, in Woburn, Mass. He has been mayor of Woburn, Mass. He is the author of Woburn Record of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

Johnson,Elias Finley, lawyer, jurist, statesman and author of Manila, P.I., was born June 24, 1861, in Vanwert, Ohio. He has been a representative in the state legislature. Since 1901 he has been judge of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands. He is the author of Johnson on Bills and Notes.

Johnson, Elijah Emory, lawyer, jurist, statesman and author of East Haddam, Conn., was born May 23, 1841, in East Haddam, Conn. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is the author of Our Local Industries and other works.

Johnson, Emory Richard, educator and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 22, 1864, in Waupun, Wis. Since 1896 he has been professor of transportation and commerce in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Inland Waterways and other works.

Johnson, Eric, soldier, journalist and statesman of Wahoo, Neb., was born on July 15, 1838, in Sweden. He served in the civil war. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is editor and owner of The New Era of Wahoo.

Johnson, F. Coit, merchant of 110 Worth st., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1863, in Norwich, Conn. He is president of J. H. Lane and company and a director of other corporations.

Johnson, Francis Howe, clergyman and author of Andover, Mass., was born Jan. 15, 1835, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of What Is Reality?

Johnson, Frank, banker of San Marcial, N.M., was born Oct. 1, 1853, in Stockton, Cal. He is president of the Bank of San Marcial.

Johnson, Frank, banker of Black River Falls, Wis., was born April 13, 1857, in Wisconsin. He is president of the First National bank of Black River Falls. For thirteen years he was county judge.

Johnson, Frank, lumber dealer and banker of Cornell, Ill., was born Jan. 3, 1876, in Cornell, Ill. He has been village clerk, treasurer and trustee. He is president of the Farmers' State Savings bank of Cornell.

Johnson, Frank Mackie, physician and author of 117 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born April 22, 1856, in Norwich, Conn. He is the author of Forest, Lake and River.

Johnson, Frank Melvin, civil engineer and oil operator of Seattle, Wash., was born on July 1, 1888, in McKinney, Texas. He received the degrees of B.S. and C.E. from the university of Washington. He has made special study and research in higher structures, and designed the Ravenna park and Cedar river arch bridges of Seattle. He made the preliminary investigations and estimates of the Lake Washington canal bascule bridges. He is designing city engineer of Seattle; and a director of the Washington Oil company.

Johnson, Franklin, educator, clergyman, college president and author of 5531 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1836, in Frankfort, Ohio. He is professor in the Chicago university. He is the author of True Womanhood and other works.

Johnson, Frederick Charles, journalist and public official of Chicago,Ill., was born March 2, 1853, in Marquette, Wis. He has been special correspondent for the Chicago Tribune. In 1901 he was appointed jail commissioner of Chicago, Ill.

Johnson, Frederick Foote, clergyman and bishop of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born April 23, 1866, in Newtown, Conn. In 1905 he was consecrated assistant bishop of South Dakota.

Johnson, Gail Borden, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 11, 1859, in Texas. He is president of the Los Angeles Abstract and Trust Company.

Johnson, George Henry, soldier, physician and surgeon of Atchison, Kan., was born on Oct. 5, 1842, near Mount Vernon, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has been president of the board of examining surgeons of Atchison, Kan.

Johnson, George Knorr, life insurance official of 921 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 11, 1848, in Bucks county, Pa. He is president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company and a director of other corporations.

Johnson, Gilbert H., banker of Spuyten Duyvil, N.Y. He is treasurer and director of Isaac G. Johnson and Company, Spuyten Duyvil and a director of other corporations.

Johnson, Harry, lumber manufacturer and banker of Cornell, was born Nov. 18, 1883, in Cornell, Ill. He is assistant cashier and director of the Farmers' State Savings bank.

Johnson, Mrs. Helen Kendrick, journalist, editor and author of 3 West Eighty-seventh st., New York City, was born in 1843 in Hamilton, N.Y. She is the author of The Roddy Books and other works.

Johnson, Henry, educator, librarian, author and poet of Brunswick, Maine,was born June 25, 1855, in Gardiner, Maine. Since 1894 he has been curator of the Bowdoin art collection. He is the author of Where Beauty Is.

Johnson, Henry Arndt, lawyer and banker of Ulen, Minn., was born Sept. 7, 1870, in Eau Claire, Wis. He graduated from the Northwestern university with the degree of Ph.D.; and from the university of Minnesota with the degree of LL.B. He is president of the State Bank of Donaldson; and cashier of the Ulen State bank.

Johnson, Henry Boynton, lawyer of 11 Wall st., New York City, was born July 14, 1862, in Woodstock, Vt. He is a member of the firm of Niles and Johnson and a director in sundry business corporations.

Johnson, Henry Underwood, lawyer and statesman of Richmond, Ind., was born Oct. 28, 1850, in Cambridge, Ind. In 1891-99 he was a member of congress. He has been prosecuting attorney for Wayne county.

Johnson, Herbert Spencer, clergyman of 611 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 4, 1866, in McMinnville, Ore. He is pastor of the Warren Avenue Baptist church.

Johnson, Herrick, educator, clergyman and author of 4443 West Bell place, St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 22, 1832, in Haughnewaga, N.Y. Since 1880 he has been professor in McCormick theological seminary. He is the author of Plain Talks About Theaters and other works.

Johnson, Hiram W., statesman of Sacramento, Cal. In 1911 he became governor of California.

Johnson, Isaac, jurist of Media, Pa., was born in Delaware county, Pa. He has been president judge of Delaware county.

Johnson, Jackson, manufacturer and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 2, 1859, in La Grange College, Ala. He is president of the Roberts, Johnson and Rand Shoe company.

Johnson, Jacob, jurist and statesman of Spring City, Utah, was born Nov. 1, 1847, in Denmark. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Johnson, James, diplomat of Algiers, Algeria, was born in England. In 1905 he was appointed consul at Algiers.

Johnson, James C., banker of Evansville, Ind., was born July 14, 1872, in Maryland. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Johnson, James Clarence, educator, physician and author of Atlanta, Ga., was born

April 9, 1865, in Troup county, Ga. Since 1898 he has been professor of physiology at the Atlanta college of physicians and surgeons. He is the author of Pathology of Fever.

Johnson, James J., lawyer and banker of Minot, N.D., was born in 1852 in Denmark. He is vice-president of the Second National bank.

Johnson, J. Lovell, manufacturer and statesman of Fitchburg, Mass., was born June 26, 1876, in Worcester, Mass. He has been president of the board of aldermen of Fitchburg; and a member of the Massachusetts state senate. He is vice-president of the Fitchburg National bank; a trustee of the Fitchburg Savings bank; and a director in various financial and industrial corporations.

Johnson, Jeremiah Augustus, lawyer and diplomat of New York City, was born June 3, 1836, in Boston, Mass. In 1867-70 he was consul-general at Beriut,Syria; and has been United States consul.

Johnson, Jesse, lawyer and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 20, 1842, in Bradford, Vt. In 1897-1907 he was associate justice of the supreme court of New York. He is the author of Testimony of the Sonnets as to the Authorship of the Shakespearian Plays and Poems.

Johnson, Jesse Mellette, banker of Lawrenceburg, Ky., was born in 1847 in Henry county, Ind. He is president of the Citizens' Bank and Trust company.

Johnson, John A., farmer and banker of Dogden, N.D., was born March 29, 1866, in Southern Sweden, N.D. He is vice-president of the State bank.

Johnson, John G., lawyer, capitalist and art connoisseur of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1840 in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been counsel for the Pennsylvania company for insurance on lives and granting annuities.

Johnson, John G., banker of Perley, Minn., was born Jan. 26, 1854, in Iowa. He is president of the First State Bank of Perley.

Johnson, John Henry, banker of Detroit, Mich., was born March 18, 1860, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of the Peninsular Savings bank.

Johnson, J. J. F., banker and real estate dealer of Benton City, Mo., was born July 5, 1863, in Washington county, Ohio. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Johnson, John Mitchell, railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 13, 1845, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Johnson, John Quincy Adams, lawyer of 38 Park row, New York City, was born Feb. 12, 1858, in Washington, D.C. He has been a member of the law firm of Potter and Johnson.

Johnson, John Warren, lawyer and banker of 349 Main st., Woburn, Mass., was born Oct. 1, 1852, in Woburn, Mass. He is president of the Woburn National bank.

Johnson, John William, lawyer of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Nov. 15, 1842, in Wales. During the civil war he was chief assistant in the quartermaster's department of the United States army. He is a graduate of the Cincinnati law school, and has always practiced law in Cincinnati.

Johnson, Joseph Esrey, iron master and business president of Longdale,Va., was born Feb. 5, 1843, in Montgomery county, Pa. He is a director of the Longdale Iron company of Virginia and other corporations.

Johnson, Joseph French, educator, lecturer, chemist and author of 164 Waverly place, New York City, was born Aug. 24, 1853, in Hardwick, Mass. Since 1901 he has been professor of political economy at the New York university; and since 1903 has been dean of the school of commerce, accounts and finance. He is the author of Money and Currency and other works.

Johnson, Joseph Horsfall, clergyman and bishop of 523 South Olive st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born June 7, 1847, in Schenectady, N.Y. He was consecrated Protestant Episcopal bishop of diocese of Los Angeles in 1896. He is the author of numerous sermons and papers.

Johnson, Joseph Taber, educator, physician and lecturer of 926 Farragut square, Washington, D.C., was born June 30, 1845, in Lowell, Mass. He is president of the medical department of the university of Georgetown. He has volumes ten and eleven of the Transactions of the American gynecological society.

Johnson, Joseph Travis, lawyer and statesman of Spartansburg, S.C., was born Feb. 28, 1858, in Brewerton, S.C. In 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Johnson, Julius C., banker of Almira,Wash., was born Sept. 23, 1863, in Germany. He is president of the flouring mills.

Johnson, Lee A., banker of Sunnyside,Wash., was born Dec. 11, 1855, in Frankfort, Ky. He is president of the First National bank.

Johnson, Lewis Edgar, banker of Alderson, W.Va., was born in 1860 in Cross Roads, W. Va. He is president of the First National bank.

Johnson, Lewis Jerome, educator, civil engineer and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Sept. 24, 1867, in Milford, Mass. Since 1896 he has been assistant professor of civil engineering at Harvard university. He is the author of Statics by Algebraic and Grafic Methods.

Johnson, Lilian Wyckoff, educator and college president of 1150 Jefferson ave., Memphis, Tenn., was born June 16, 1864, in Memphis, Tenn. She has been professor of history in the university of Tennessee; and in 1904 became president of the western college for women.

Johnson, Lovell J., manufacturer and statesman of Pittsburg, Mass., was born June 26, 1876, in Worcester, Mass. He was educated at the Worcester polytechnic institute. He is a member of the firm of Iver Johnson's Arms and Cycle Works, vice-president of the Fitchburg National bank, vice-president of the Fitchburg Mutual Fire Insurance company and a director in various corporations. He has been alderman of Fitchburg, president of the board,and a member of the state senate.

Johnson, Lucius E., railroad president and financier of Roanoke, Va., was born in 1846 in Aurora, Ill. He has been general superintendent of the Norfolk and Western railroad; and since 1904 has been president of that corporation.

Johnson, Luther, physician and surgeon of Bourbon, Ind., was born in Findlay,Ohio. He has been United States examiner for pensions. He has been president of the Marshall county medical society.

Johnson, Mac,banker of 1209 North Cleveland ave., Canton, Ohio, was born March 2, 1861, in Dundee, Ohio. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Louisville,Ohio.

Johnson, Margaret, illustrator and author of 146 Cottage ave., Mount Vernon,N.Y.,was born April 5, 1860, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of What Did the Black Cat Do? and other works.

Johnson, Mary Hannah, librarian and author of Nashville, Tenn., was born in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1901 she has been librarian of the Carnegie library of Nashville, Tenn.

Johnson, Milton, banker of Decatur, Ill., was born Sept. 30, 1845, in Milwaukee county, Wis. He was president of the J. Milliken and company, bankers, now retired.

Johnson, Mortimer Lawrence, naval officer of Portsmouth, N.H., was born June 1, 1842, in Nahant, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of rear admiral of the United States navy.

Johnson, O.J., college president of St. Peter, Minn., was born Oct. 8, 1870. For twelve years he was president of the Luther college of Wahoo Men. He is now president of the Gustavus Adolphus college.

Johnson, Okey, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Morgantown,W.Va., was born March 24, 1834, in Long Beach, Va. In 1877-89 he was a member of the supreme court; and was president of that court. Since 1895 he has been president of the West Virginia university.

Johnson, Owen, journalist and author of Stockbridge, Mass., was born Aug. 27, 1878, in New York City. He was the founder and editor of the Lawrenceville Literary Magazine. He is the author of Max Fargus and other works.

Johnson, Philander Chase, journalist, author and poet of 3427 Thirty-fourth place, Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 6, 1866, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is editorial writer and dramatic editor of the Washington Star. He is the author of Sayings of Uncle Eben and other works.

Johnson, Robert Underwood,journalist,author and poet of 33 East Seventeenth st., New York City, was born Jan. 12, 1853, in Washington, D.C. He has been on the editorial staff of the Century Magazine. He is the author of Songs of Liberty and other works.

Johnson, Rollo Harold, banker of Bradentown, Fla., was born May 4, 1872, in Bedford, Ind. He is president of the Manatee County Abstract and Title Insurance company.

Johnson, Rossiter, author and poet of 34 Union Square, New York City,was born Jan. 27, 1840, in Rochester, N.Y. Since 1883 he has edited Appleton's Annual Cyclopaedia. He is the author of The Hero of Manila and other works.

Johnson, Thomas Cary, educator, clergyman and author of Richmond, Va., was born July 19, 1859, in Fishbok Hill, Va. Since 1892 he has been professor of ecclesiastical polity in Union seminary. He is the author of The History of the Southern Presbyterian Church and other works.

Johnson, Thomas Albert,banker of Merkel, Texas, was born May 15, 1874, in Hamilton, Texas. He is manager of the Farmers' and Merchants' National bank.

Johnson, Thomas Carskadon, educator and director of Norfolk, Va., was born Jan. 1, 1870, at Long Beach, W.Va. He was educated at the university of West Virginia, receiving the degrees of B.S.A. and A.M. He has been an instructor of horticulture and botany in the university of West Virginia. In 1907-09 he was superintendent, and since 1909 has been director of the Virginia truck experiment station.

Johnson,Thomas Franklin,lawyer and banker of Colebrook, N.H., was born July 3, 1848, in Pittsburg, N.H. Since 1877 he has practiced law in Colebrook, N.H. In 1903 and in 1912 was a member of the state constitutional convention; and is now one of the state bank commissioners. Since 1892 he has been president of the Colebrook Savings bank.

Johnson, Treby, banker of 246 Water st., Augusta, Maine, was born Jan. 18, 1850, in Augusta, Maine. He is president of the Granite National bank.

Johnson, Victor Ludwig, banker of Center City, Minn., was born in Chisago county, Minn. He is cashier of the Chisago County State bank.

Johnson, W.S., druggist and banker of 221 Second st., Henderson, Ky., was born Feb. 24, 1840, in Henderson, Ky. He is president of the Kentucky Land and Live Stock company.

Johnson, Wallace, educator, physician and author of Washington, D.C., was born on May 2, 1867, in Middletown, Ohio. He is part author of Surgery.

Johnson,Walter Lathrop,banker and broker of 71 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 14, 1874, in New York City. Since 1898 he has been engaged in business in Wall street; and is a partner in the firm of Shearson, Hammil and company. He is vice-president of the Onderbonk estate; and is treasurer of the Princeton club of New York.

Johnson, William Colet, insurance president of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 2, 1876, in Sag Harbor, L.I. For many years he was manager of the New York branch of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance company; and is now vice-president and general manager of the Cohilian National Life Insurance company of Boston. He is an expert on insurance law; and is a lecturer and writer on economic and insurance subjects. He is a veteran of the seventh regiment New York national guard and naval militia.

Johnson, William Christie, soldier of 1354 Myrtle ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born on March 19, 1843, in Claremont county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1889 he was elected commander-in-chief of the grand army of the republic. Since 1906 he has been assistant postmaster of his city.

Johnson, William Edward, lawyer and banker of Woodstock, Vt., was born on June 26, 1841, in Woodstock, Vt. He is president of the Woodstock National bank.

Johnson, William Eugene, journalist and author of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born March 25, 1862, in Coventry, N.Y. In 1899-1905 he was associate editor of the New Voice of Chicago, Ill. He has been special agent of the interior department to inforce the liquor laws in Indian Territory and Oklahoma. He is the author of The Gothenburg System.

Johnson, William Franklin, financier and author of New York City, was born March 11, 1856, in Jasper county, Ill. He is a savings and loan broker of New York City. He is the author of Poco a Poco.

Johnson, William H., banker of Alpena, Mich., was born Feb. 10, 1840, in Elkhorn, Wis. He has been engaged in the lumbering, real estate and banking business. He is president of the Alpena National bank, president of the Alpena City Water company and president of the Alpena City Electric Light company. He is also treasurer of the Alpena Portland Cement company and of the Alpena United Telephone company. He served as a private in Chicago battery A during the civil war.

Johnson, William Mindred, lawyer and donor of Hackensack, N.J., was born Dec. 2, 1847, in Newton, N.J. In 1895-1900 he was a member of the New Jersey state senate. In 1900-02 he was first assistant postmaster of the United States.

Johnson, William Smith, educator and college president of Mountain Home, Ark., was born Oct. 8, 1869, in Clark county, Ark. In 1892 he was appointed president of the Mountain Home Baptist college of Arkansas.

Johnson, William Woolsey, educator, mathematician and author of Annapolis, Md., was born June 23, 1841, in Owego, N.Y. Since 1881 he has been professor of mathematics at the United States naval academy. He is the author of Differential Equations and other works.

Johnson, William Shaler, educator, journalist and author of Chester, Pa., was born Nov. 23, 1836. He has been superintendent of the city water works of Chester, Pa. He has contributed valuable papers to societies and current literature.

Johnson, Willis Fletcher, journalist, lecturer and author of 154 Nassau st., New York City, was born Oct. 7, 1857, in New York City. In 1887-94 he was day editor of the New York Tribune. He is the author of A Century of Expansion and other works.

Johnston, Mrs. Annie Fellows, author and poet of Pewee Valley, Ky., was born in 1863, in Evansville, Ind. She is the author of Big Brother; The Little Colonel; Two Little Knights of Kentucky; The Quilt That Jack Built and other works.

Johnston, Charles, litterateur and author of 387 Ocean ave., Flatbush, N.Y., was born Feb. 17, 1867, in Ballykilbeg, Ireland. He is the author of The Memory of Past Births; Kela Bia and other works.

Johnston, Christopher, educator, physician and author of 21 West Twentieth st., Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 8, 1856, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1899 he has been associate professor of oriental history at the Johns Hopkins university. He is the author of Epistolary Literature of the Assyrians and Babylonians.

Johnston, David E., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Bluefield, W.Va., was born on April 16, 1845, in Virginia. In 1878 he was a member of the West Virginia state senate. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress.

Johnston, David William, banker of Taylorville, Ill., was born Oct. 13, 1839, in Madison county, Ohio. He has been supervisor of his city. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Johnston, Floyd Foster, banker of Farmington, Iowa, was born Jan. 28, 1887, in Stockport, Iowa. He is cashier of the Union Trust and Savings bank.

Johnston, Frances Benjamin, photographer and illustrator of 55 Irving place, New York City, was born on Jan. 15, 1864, in Grafton, W.Va. She has made a specialty of preparing photographic exhibits of educational work, notably that of the Washington public school; Hampton institute of Virginia and others.

Johnston, Frederick Swain, lawyer and banker of Franklin, N.C., was born on April 12, 1867, in Franklin, S.C. He is president of the bank of Franklin.

Johnston, George Benjamin, educator, physician, surgeon and founder of 407 East Grace st., Richmond, Va., was born July 25, 1853, in Virginia. He has been professor of gynecology and of abdominal surgery at the medical college of Virginia. He is one of the founders of the Old Dominion hospital.

Johnston, George Doherty, educator and soldier of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born May 30, 1832, in Hillsboro, N.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. In 1900 he was elected to the Alabama state senate.

Johnston, Harold Whetstone, educator, philologist and author of Bloomington, Ind., was born March 18, 1859, in Rushville, Ill. He was editor-in-chief of the Inter-Collegiate Latin Series. Since 1895 he has been professor of Latin in the Indiana university at Bloomington. He is author of Latin Manuscripts and other works.

Johnston, Henry Phelps, educator and author of 221 West Forty-ninth st., New York City, was born in 1842. He is a professor of history in the college of the city of New York. He is the author of Loyalist History of the Revolution and other works.

Johnston, Howard Agnew, clergyman and author of 180 Summer st., Stamford, Conn., was born June 29, 1860, in Greene county, Ohio. In 1899-1905 he was pastor of Madison avenue church of New York City. He is the author of Bible Criticism and the Average Man and other works.

Johnston, Hugh, clergyman and author of 3010 North Calvert st., Baltimore, Md., was born in 1840 in Canada. Since 1898 he has been pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Toward the Sunrise, sketches of travel in Europe and the holy land and other works.

Johnston, Hugh McClung, banker of Knoxville, Tenn., was born May 26, 1872, in Loudon, Tenn. He is president of the Union bank.

Johnston, James Hugo, educator and college president of Petersburg, Va., was born July 29, 1858, in Richmond, Va. Since 1888 he has been president of the Virginia normal and collegiate institute of Petersburg, Va. He is a conductor and teacher in fourteen summer normals for teachers.

Johnston, James Steptoe, clergyman, missionary and bishop of San Antonio, Texas, was born June 9, 1843, in Church Hill, Mass. Since 1888 he has been missionary bishop of the protestant episcopal church. He is the author of various missionary reports, as well as sermons and addresses.

Johnston, James Wesley, clergyman and author of 150 Fifth ave., New York City. Since 1902 he has been pastor of the John street church of New York City. He is the author of Dwellers in Gotham and other works.

Johnston, John Alexander, soldier of 2111 Massachusetts ave., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 22, 1858, in Allegheny, Pa. In 1887-91 he was instructor in history, law and tactics. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1903 he retired from service as brigadier-general.

Johnston, John Black, zoologist, educator and author of 715 Fullerton st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Oct. 3, 1868, in Bell Centre, Ohio. Since 1907 he has been assistant professor of neurology at the university of Minnesota. He is author of The Nervous System of Vertebrates.

Johnston, John Francis, banker and stock shipper of St. Charles, Iowa, was born Nov. 15, 1853, in Madison county, Iowa. He is president and owner of J. F. Johnston's bank.

Johnston, John Humphreys, painter and artist of 39 Broad st., New York City, was born Nov. 2, 1857, in New York City. Among his paintings are Light Nights in Norway; and Vision of St. Paul at Lystra.

Johnston, Joseph Forney, soldier, lawyer, banker and statesman of Birmingham, Ala., was born in 1843 in Lincoln county, N.C. In 1896-1900 he was governor of Alabama. In 1907-09 he was a member of the United States senate from Alabama.

Johnston, Louis R., business man, miner and public official of Boulder, Col., was born Feb. 4, 1858, in Old Mines, Mo. For many years he has been connected with the mining business. He has been mayor of his city.

Johnston, Mrs. Maria Isabella, journalist and author of 5714 Vernon ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born May 3, 1835, in Fredericksburg, Va. She is the author of a novel entitled Jane; The Freedwoman; The Siege of Vicksburg and Hector.

Johnston, Mary, litterateur and author of Richmond, Va., was born Nov. 21, 1870, in Buchanan, Va. She is the author of Prisoners of Hope; To Have and To Hold; A Tale of Colonial Virginia and other works.

Johnston, Mercer Green, clergyman of Manila, P.I., was born Dec. 3, 1868, in Church Hill, Miss. Since 1903 he has been rector of the cathedral parish of St. Mary and St. John, of Manila.

Johnston, Rienzi Melville, journalist and statesman of Houston, Texas, was born on Sept. 9, 1850, in Sandersville, Ga. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. He is editor and principal owner of the Houston Daily Post.

Johnston, Robert Daniel, soldier, lawyer and banker of 1721 avenue L, Birmingham, Ala., was born March 19, 1837, in Mount Welcome, N.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general. He is president of the Birmingham National bank.

Johnston, Robert Matteson, historian and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born April 11, 1867, in Paris, France. In 1907 he became professor of history and head of that department of Bryn Mawr college. He is the author of Napoleon, a short biography and other works.

Johnston, Russell M., lawyer of Albany, N. Y., was born July 6, 1864, in Albany, N.Y. He is a director of the Mutual Fire Insurance company of Albany.

Johnston, T. Arthur, banker fo Okmulgee, Okla., was born in 1879 in Iowa. He is president of the First National bank of Morris, Okla.

Johnston, Thomas Dillard, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Asheville, N.C., was born April 1, 1840, in Waynesville, N.C. He has been a representative in the North Carolina state legislature; and he has been a state senator. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Johnston, Watson D., banker of Norwalk, Ohio, was born May 21, 1844, in Allegheny county, Pa. He is president of the Huron County Banking company.

Johnston, Willard, banker of Shawnee, Okla., was born Jan. 21, 1863, in Hebron, N.Y. He is president of the State National bank.

Johnston, William Agnew, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Topeka, Kan., was born on July 24, 1848, in Canada. He has been a member of the state legislature; and a member of the state senate. Since 1884 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court of Kansas.

Johnston, William Andrew, journalist and author of New York City, was born Jan. 26, 1871, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1900 he has been on the editorial staff of the New York World. He is the author of History Up to Date.

Johnston, William Dawson, bibliographer and librarian of New York City, was born on June 11, 1871, in Essex Center, Vt. In 1900-07 he was assistant in the library of congress. He is now librarian of Columbia university in New York City. He is the author of History of the Library of Congress, volume one.

Johnston, William Pollock, educator, clergyman and college president of Beaver Falls, Pa., was born Jan. 26, 1839, in Harrison county, Ohio. Since 1890 he has been professor of philosophy and English literature and president of the Geneva college at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Johnstone, Rev. Julian E., clergyman and poet of West Roxbury, Mass. He is the author of two volumes of poems.

Johnstone, Thomas Henry, merchant and banker of Cedarville, Cal., was born Feb. 7, 1850, in Canada. He has been postmaster of his city. He is president of the Surprise Valley bank.

Johnstone, William Arthur, fruit grower, merchant and banker of San Dimas, Cal., was born Dec. 15, 1869, in Canada. He is president of the bank of San Dimas.

Joiner, George Albert, lawyer and jurist of Anacortes, Wash., was born Aug. 20, 1861, in Wolcott, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been judge of the superior court.

Joline, Adrian Hoffman, lawyer, railroad president and author of 54 Wall st., New York City, was born June 30, 1850, in Sing Sing, N.Y. He has been president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad; and is a director of several other corporations. He is the author of Diversions of a Book Lover and other works.

Jolley, Haskell Shirtliff, banker of Lovell, Wyo., was born on May 17, 1861, in Salem, Utah. He built a canal forty miles long in Wyoming, irrigating twelve thousand acres of land. He is president of the Lovell Irrigation company.

Jolley, John L., soldier and statesman of Vermillion, S.D., was born July 14, 1840, in Canada. He served in the civil war. He has been a state senator and in 1891-93 was a member of congress.

Jolly, George Washington, lawyer and jurist of Owensboro, Ky., was born on Feb. 22, 1843, in Breckinridge county, Ky. In 1889-94 he was United States attorney for the district of Kentucky. In 1901 he was elected city attorney.

Jolly, John C., physician and banker of Lake, Ind., was born Nov. 5, 1857, in Spencer county, Ind. He is president of the Lake State bank.

Jonas, Alberto, musician, founder and composer of 113 Wabash ave., Detroit, Mich., was born June 8, 1868, in Madrid. He has been head of the pianoforte department of the university of Michigan school of music. He is director, president and founder of the Michigan conservatory of music at Detroit. He is composer of several dances and romances.

Jonas, Benjamin Franklin, lawyer, soldier and statesman of New Orleans, La., was born July 19, 1834, in Williamstown, Ky. In 1874-78 he was city attorney of New Orleans, La. He has been a member of the Louisiana state legislature; and has been a member of the United States senate.

Jonas, Edward, real estate dealer of 808 Union st., New Orleans, La., was born Jan. 17, 1844, in Columbus, Ill. He is president of the real estate auction exchange and director of the Keystone Life Insurance company.

Jonas, Nathan Solomon, banker of 774 Broadway, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 1, 1868, in Montgomery, Ala. He is president of the Citizens' Trust company; and president of the Sumner Savings bank of Brooklyn. He is a member of the board of education, city of New York; and is president of Brooklyn federation of Jewish charity.

Jones, Albert E., banker and lumber dealer of Green City, Mo., was born on April 8, 1866, in Greencastle, Mo. He is president of the American National bank.

Jones, Albert Elisha, merchant and poet of Topeka, Kansas, was born Aug. 16, 1842, in Weld, Maine. He is proprietor of the Oakland Jersey stock farm. He is the author of a number of poems; and for a number of years has been a writer on the Kansas Farmer.

Jones, Albert Marshall, publisher of 212 Summer st., Boston, Mass., was born March 5, 1872, in Portland, Maine. He is president of the Marshall Jones company; and treasurer and business manager of The Scarborough company. He is a member of the City club and various other clubs and societies.

Jones, Amanda Theodosia, educator, inventor, author and poet of Junction City, Kansas, was born Oct. 9, 1835, in East Bloomfield, N.Y. She has been literary editor of The Western Rural. She is the founder and president of the United States Woman's Pure Food Vacuum Preserving company.

Jones, Amos Blanch, clergyman and college president of Jackson, Tenn., was born Dec. 4, 1841, in Randolph, Va. He has been president of the Huntsville female college. Since 1896 he has been president of the Memphis conference female institute of Jackson.

Jones, Andrew B., merchant of 32 Elk st., New York City, was born May 19, 1840, in Whallonsburgh, N.Y. He is a director of the Albany County bank; and trustee of the Albany County Savings bank.

Jones, Archibald A., educator and college president of Asheville, N.C., was born Sept. 22, 1860, in Scottsville, Ala. In 1889-97 he was president of the Central college for women of Lexington, Mo. Since 1897 he has been president of Asheville college of North Carolina.

Jones, Asabel W., lawyer and statesman of Youngstown, Ohio, was born Sept. 16, 1838, in Johnstonville, Ohio. In 1884 he was president of the Ohio state bar association. He is a director of the Second National bank of Youngstown.

Jones, Augustine, educator, statesman and author of Newton Highlands, Mass., was born Oct. 16, 1835, in South China, Maine. In 1878 he was a member of the Massachusetts state legislature. In 1879 he entered upon his present position as principal of the friends school at Providence, R.I.

Jones, Breckinridge, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 2, 1856, in Kentucky. He is president of the Mississippi Valley Trust company.

Jones, Burr W., lawyer of 112 Langdon st., Madison, Wis., was born March 9, 1846, in Wisconsin. He has been chairman of the Wisconsin state tax commission. In 1908 he was president of the Wisconsin state bar association. He is the author of Treatise on Law of Evidence.

Jones, Burton Rensselaer, bishop of Jackson, Mich., was born Dec. 3, 1845, in York, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been bishop of the Free Methodist church of Jackson.

Jones, Butler Amzi, lawyer and banker of Sidney, Neb., was born Nov. 17, 1848, in Greenfield, N.H. He is manager and cashier of the First National bank.

Jones, C. Durant, lecturer and college president of Perry, Iowa, was born Feb. 23, 1875, in Brooklyn, Iowa. He is president of the Perry normal school; and has been mayor of his city.

Jones, Charles Henry, journalist and publisher of Paris, France, was born March 7, 1848, in Talbottom, Ga. In 1883-90 he was editor of the New York World; and in 1895-97 he was editor of the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Jones, Charles Henry, lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on Sept. 13, 1837, in Reading, Pa. In 1885-89 he was deputy collector of customs at Philadelphia. He is author of A Pedestrian Tour Through Switzerland and other works.

Jones, Charles Landon, lawyer of 63 Wall st., New York City, was born in Litchfield county, Conn. He is a member of the firm of Nash and Jones.

Jones, Charles Pinckney, lawyer and banker of Monterey, Va., was born Sept. 17, 1845, in Pendleton county, W.Va. He is president of the Citizens' bank of Highland.

Jones, Charles R., mechanical engineer and public official of Georgetown, Del., was born Dec. 18, 1887, in Georgetown, Del. He graduated from Delaware college of Newark. Until 1913 he was manager of the plant of the Calhoun and Jones company, manufacturers and canners. In 1912 he was elected clerk of the orphans' court and registrar in chancery of the state of Delaware in Sussex county for a term of four years.

Jones, Charles Reading, journalist, publisher and prohibitionist of 106 North La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 9, 1862, near Philadelphia, Pa. In 1890-94 he was manager of the John Wanamaker harness department. Since 1900 he has been president of the People's company of Chicago.

Jones, Constant Eakin, business man and manufacturer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 20, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1901 he was elected secretary of the S. S. White Dental Manufacturing company of Philadelphia. He is prominently identified with the business and public affairs of his city.

Jones, Cyrus Emory, manufacturer and banker of Jamestown, N.Y., was born March 16, 1863, in Jamestown. He is vice-president of the Union Trust company.

Jones, Daniel Webster, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Little Rock, Ark., was born Dec. 15, 1839, in Bowie county, Texas. In 1901 he was a member of the state legislature. In 1897-1901 he was governor of Arkansas.

Jones, David George, coal operator and capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 4, 1871, in Greenock, Pa. He is president of the Four State Coal and Coke company and other corporations.

Jones, David Percy, banker and real estate broker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 6, 1860, in Minneapolis, Minn. He is president of David P. Jones and company and other corporations.

Jones, De Witt Clinton, merchant and business president of 84 William st., New York City, was born Dec. 25, 1862, in Tarrytown, N.Y. He is director, secretary and treasurer of the General Colors company and other corporations.

Jones, Dwight Arven, lawyer and author of 34 West Fifty-first st., New York City, was born Oct. 25, 1854, in Utica, N.Y. He received the degree of A.B. from Yale university, and the degree of LL.B. from Columbia university. For many years he practiced law in New York City, devoting himself mainly to corporation matters and legal authorship. Since 1904 he has been president of the St. Joseph Lead company and other corporations. He is the author of business Corporations; Construction of Contracts and Negligence of Municipal Corporations.

Jones, E. Clarence, banker of 100 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1868 in New York City. He was educated at the college city of New York. He is head of the banking firm of E. Clarence Jones and company of New York City, which he founded in 1889. He is a member of the New York stock exchange. He has traveled in Europe and elsewhere several months each year for many years. He maintains a coaching stable in New York; has been an exhibitor at shows; and has been president of the American embassy association.

Jones, Edmund Adams, educator and author of Westerville, Ohio, was born Feb. 11, 1842, in Rockville, Mass. In 1875-1904 he was superintendent of schools at Massillion, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been state commissioner of common schools for Ohio. He is the author of Supplement to Morton's Geography.

Jones, Edward David, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born May 15, 1870, in Orfordville, Wis. He is professor of commerce and industry in the university of Michigan. He is the author of Economic Crisis.

Jones, Edward Franc, soldier, manufacturer and statesman of Binghampton, N.Y., was born June 3, 1828, in Utica, N.Y. In 1865 he was a representative in the Massachusetts state legislature. Since 1865 he has conducted the Jones Scale works of Binghamton.

Jones, Edward Groves, physician, surgeon and author of Atlanta, Ga., was born Jan. 14, 1874, in Chattanooga county, Ga. He is professor of gynecology in the Atlanta school of medicine; and is proctor of that institution. He is the author of Notes on Obstetrics and Gynecology and other works.

Jones, Edward N., educator of 220 West One Hundred and Twentieth st., New York City, was born Jan. 2, 1854, in Oneida county, N.Y. He is principal of the New York training school for teachers.

Jones, Edwin Artimus, lawyer of 92 Liberty st., New York City, was born May 27, 1872 in Lisbon, N.Y. He was educated in the free academy has practiced law since 1894, and is now a member of the law firm of Nadal, Jones and Mowton. In 1907-08 he was president of the Patria club.

Jones, Eugene, miller of New York City, was born July, 1842, in Fairfield, Conn. He is a member of the firm of the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling company.

Jones, F. A., expert railroad traffic commissioner of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Jan. 5, 1863, in La Fayette, Ill. In 1884-1905 he was in railroad business; and in 1905-11 was traffic manager of Maricopa county, commercial club of Phoenix. He was a member of the Arizona constitutional convention; and since 1911 has been state corporation commissioner of Arizona.

Jones, Florence Augusta, educator and poet of Madison, Wis., was born in August, 1861, near Madison, Wis. She is the author of several poems many of which have been set to music, notably that of Bylo Land.

Jones, Forrest Robert, civil engineer and author of 102 Liberty st., New York City, was born Dec. 12, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been professor of mechanic arts and machine design in the universities of Tennessee and Wisconsin. He is the author of Machine Design and other works.

Jones, Francis Coates, painter and artist of 33 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born July 25, 1857, in Baltimore, Md. In 1894 he became a member of the national academy of design.

Jones, Frank Goodbar, banker of Aberdeen, Wash., was born Nov. 20, 1860, in McMinnville, Tenn. He is president of the United States National bank.

Jones, Frank Johnston, lawyer and insurance official of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 22, 1838, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is president of the Cincinnati Equitable Insurance company.

Jones, Frank Smith, merchant and financier of 790 St. Marks ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 19, 1847, in Stamford, Conn. He was president of the Grand Union Tea company, of which he is now a director.

Jones, Frank Warren, capitalist of 230 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 20, 1855, in Stoughton, Mass. He has been a member of the Massachusetts state senate; and since 1900 has been a resident of Chicago. He is president of the Drexel Investment company and other corporations.

Jones, Franklin Turner, educator and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 13, 1874, in Geneva, Ohio. He is the author of Jones and Tatnall's Laboratory Problems in Physics and other educational works.

Jones, Frederick Robertson, educator and author of 92 Liberty st., New York City, was born Jan. 4, 1872, in Wicomico county, Md. He has been professor in the Johns Hopkins university. He is the author of History of Taxation in Connecticut and other works.

Jones, Gaius J., physician, surgeon and author of 2406 East Fortieth st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Feb. 27, 1843, in Remsen, N.Y. He has been president of the National Safe and Lock company. He is dean and professor of theory and practice and pathology in the Cleveland Homeopathic medical college. He is the author of Notes on Practice of Medicine.

Jones, Gardner Maynard, librarian, bibliographer and author of Salem, Mass., was born June 27, 1850, in Charlestown, Mass. Since 1889 he has been librarian of the public library of Salem. He is the author of List of Subject Headings for Use in Dictionary Catalogues.

Jones, George Colvin, railroad official of St. Albans, Vt., was born Sept. 4, 1860, in Clyde, N.Y. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Central Vermont railroad.

Jones, George James, clergyman, lecturer, college president and author of Galesville, Wis., was born in 1856 in Wales. In 1895-97 he was president of Gale college of Wisconsin. He is the author of The Province of Philosophy and other works.

Jones, George Miller, educator and lawyer of 52 North Fourth st., Reading, Pa., was born Sept. 8, 1874, in Reading, Pa. In 1906 he was appointed instructor in history, commercial law and commercial geography in the boys' high school of Reading.

Jones, George Washington, lawyer of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Oct. 25, 1865, in Nolin, Ky. He has been assistant district attorney for Alabama; and attorney for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company.

Jones, H. E., retired farmer and banker of Early, Iowa, was born Dec. 18, 1864, in Wisconsin. He is president of the First National bank.

Jones, Harry Clary, educator, chemist, investigator and author of 2533 Madison ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 11, 1865, near New London, Md. He is professor of physical chemistry in Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore. He is the author of Elements of Physical Chemistry and other works.

Jones, Henry Bert, banker of Tucumcari, N.M., was born Dec. 5, 1877, in Marcellus, Mich. He is president of the First National bank.

Jones, Henry Lawrence, organizer and clergyman of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was born May 30, 1839, in New York City. Since 1874 he has been rector of the St. Stephen's church at Wilkes-Barre. He is president of the Osterhout free library.

Jones, Horace C., manufacturer of Conshohocken, Pa., was born June 16, 1857. He is a director of the Conshohocken Woolen and Gas Light companies and other corporations.

Jones, Howel, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 8, 1868, in the Rocky mountains, on the old California emigrant trail. He was educated at the university of Michigan and at Boston university. He has attained success in the practice of law; and has been city, county and district attorney.

Jones, Hugh Bolton, painter and artist of 33 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born Oct. 20, 1848, in Baltimore, Md. His paintings include Tangier; Return of the Cows; Brittany and October.

Jones, Ira B., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Lancaster, S.C., was born Dec. 29, 1851, in Newberry, S.C. He has been a member of the South Carolina state legislature and became speaker of the house. In 1896-1910 he was associate justice of the state supreme court.

Jones, Irma Theoda Andrews, philanthropist and writer of Lansing, Mich., was born March 11, 1845, in Victory, N.Y. She has been president of the young woman's christian association. Since 1878 she has been president of the Lansing industrial aid society.

Jones, Isaac Edgar, journalist, author and poet of Muskegon, Mich., was born in 1851 in Liverpool, England. He is editor and owner of the Daily Chronicle of Muskegon, Mich. He takes an active part in the public affairs of his city, county and state.

Jones, J. Edward, banker of Manton, Mich., was born May 5, 1869, in Rockford, Ill. He is cashier of the Manton State bank.

Jones, James Clarence, clergyman of 230 Classon ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 22, 1859, in Ovid, N.Y. He has received the degrees of B.S. and Ph.D., and graduated from the general theological seminary of New York City. In 1889-99 he was rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal church of Brooklyn, and since 1899 has been rector of St. Mary's church of Brooklyn. He was president of the special convention of the diocese of Long Island in 1902; and president of the Brooklyn free kindergarten society.

Jones, James H., soldier and statesman of Henderson, Texas, was born Sept. 13, 1830, in Shelby county, Ala. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of colonel. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Jones, Jenkin Lloyd, clergyman, lecturer, author and poet of Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 14, 1843, in England. Since 1882 he has been pastor of All Souls church. Since 1880 he has been editor of the Unity. He is the author of Practical Piety and other works.

Jones, Jerome, merchant and bank president of 33 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 13, 1837, in Athol, Mass. He is president of the Jones, McDuffee and Stratton company; and vice-president and trustee of the Home Savings bank. He is a successful crockery merchant of Boston; and a director of the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust company and other corporations. He has been president of the Boston Merchants' association; and is a director of the free hospital for women at Brookline.

Jones, John Henry, coal operator and capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 7, 1866, in Greenock, Pa. At an early age he had charge of the shipping and loading of coal at his father's mine, became a mine foreman, general superintendent, secretary, treasurer and general manager of the Catsburg Coal company, limited. He also was in business on his own account engaged in shipping, which business eventually became absorbed in the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company. He is also president of Pittsburgh-Buffalo company, president of the Federal National bank of Pittsburgh and other corporations.

Jones, John Lloyd, clergyman, missionary and author of Potter, N.Y., was born Dec. 11, 1840, in Wales. In 1898 he was general secretary of the American citizenship alliance. He now fills a pastorate in the Methodist Episcopal church of Potter. He is the author of Patriotic Melodies.

Jones, John Percival, farmer and statesman of Santa Monica, Cal., was born Jan. 27, 1829, in England. He served in both houses of the California state assembly. In 1875-1903 he was United States senator.

Jones, John Peter, missionary and author of Pasumalai, Madura district, India., was born Sept. 4, 1847, in Wrexham, Wales. He is president of the theological seminary. He is editor of Year Book of Missions in India.

Jones, John Robert, physician and surgeon of 2299 Gratiot ave., Detroit, Mich., was born June 29, 1847, in Ireland. Since 1872 he has practiced with success in Detroit. He is prominently identified with many medical and scientific associations.

Jones, John Sutphin, capitalist of 37 West Van Buren st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 4, 1848, in Washington Court House, Ohio. He is president of the National Hocking Coal company.

Jones, Joseph Jerome, educator and lawyer of Coalville, Utah, was born April 3, 1864, in Cowden, Ill. He has filled numerous positions of trust and honor; and is now a practicing attorney of Coalville.

Jones, Joseph Levering, lawyer and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 26, 1831, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been secretary of the Union League club of Philadelphia. He is counsel for numerous railway companies.

Jones, Joshua H.,educator and college president of Zanesville, Ohio, was born June 15, 1856, in Pine Plains, S.C. Since 1877 he has been a clergyman; and has filled pastorates in Columbus and Zanesville, Ohio.

Jones, Mrs. Kate Emery Sanborn, librarian and author of Salem, Mass., was born June 24, 1860, in Henniker, N.H. In 1894-97 she was librarian of the city library of Manchester, N.H. She is the author of The Cutter-Sanborn Author Table.

Jones, Larz A., railroad official of New Orleans, La., was born April 19, 1860, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the New Orleans and Northeastern railroad.

Jones, Lewis Henry, manufacturer and financier of 91 Clark ave., Detroit, Mich., was born in 1856, in Detroit, Mich. For thirty years he has been connected with the Detroit Copper and Brass Rolling mills, of which he is now president.

Jones, Lewis Henry, educator, college president and author of Ypsilanti, Mich., was born July 3, 1844, in Noblesville, Ind. Since 1902 he has been president of the Michigan state normal school. He is the author of The Jones Readers.

Jones, Lewis Ralph, educator, botanist and author of 1938 Kendall ave., Madison, Wis., was born Dec. 5, 1864, in Brandon, Wis. Since 1889 he has been professor of botany in the university of Vermont. He is part author of Flora of Vermont.

Jones, Marcus Eugene, botanist, geologist and author of 270 West South Temple st., Salt Lake City, Utah, was born April 25, 1852, in Jefferson, Ohio. In 1889 he was special expert in the United States treasury department. He is the author of Excursion Botanique and other works.

Jones, Matt Bushnell, lawyer and director of 101 Milk st., Boston, Mass.,was born May 15, 1871, in Waitsfield, Vt. Since 1904 he has been counsel and since 1907 director of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company. He is a trustee of the Newton Center Savings bank and a director in various telephone and telegraph companies.

Jones, Minor S., lawyer and jurist of Titusville, Fla., was born in 1850. He is circuit judge of Florida; and has contributed to current publications on judicial and economic subjects.

Jones, Morgan, capitalist, banker and railroad president of Abilene, Texas. He is president of the Abilene Southern railway.

Jones, Nathaniel M.,manufacturer, inventor and statesman of Lincoln, Maine, was born May 1, 1858, in Turks Island, West Indies. He has been a member of the state legislature; and a member of the state senate. He is founder and general manager of the Katahdin Pulp and Paper company of Lincoln.

Jones, Oliver Banks, lawyer and banker of Gove, Kan., was born Sept. 21, 1862, in Roanoke, Ind. He is president of the Exchange State bank.

Jones, Paul, lawyer and author of 170 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1854, in Nashville, Tenn. In 1880-84 he was assistant financial clerk of the United States senate. He is the author of The Commercial Power of Congress.

Jones, Peter Cushman, merchant, banker and financier of Honolulu, H. I., was born Dec. 10, 1837, in Boston, Mass. He was first president of Brewer and company the oldest mercantile company in the Pacific. He has been minister of finance under the provisional government of Hawaii.

Jones, Richard, educator and author of Tufts college, Mass., was born July 18, 1855, in Berlin, Wis. In 1899-1910 he was professor of literature in the Vanderbilt university of Nashville, Tenn. He is the author of The Growth of the Idyls of the King and College Entrance English.

Jones, Richard C., lawyer and banker of 709 Walnut st., Kansas City, Mo., was born in 1860 in Brown county, Kansas. He is president of the Midland State bank.

Jones, Richard Lloyd, journalist, lecturer and dramatist of Madison, Wis., was born April 14, 1873, in Janesville, Wis. He has been editorial writer on the Washington Times and Pilgrim Magazine. He is now on the editorial staff of Collier's Weekly. He is the author of several short stories and plays.

Jones, Richard Mott, educator of 8 South Twelfth st., Philadelphia, Pa.,was born June 29, 1843, in South China, Maine. In 1870-74 he was master of Oak Grove seminary in Maine.

Jones, Richard T., merchant and banker of 00 Cotton st., Greenwood, Miss., was born ug. 27, 1866, in Greenwood, Miss. He is resident of the Greenwood Savings bank.

Jones, Richard Watson, educator and col-ge president of University, Miss., was born lay 16, 1837, in Greensville county, Va. In 889-1905 he was professor of chemistry and ice-chancellor of the university of Missis-ippi.

Jones, Robert E., retired farmer and bank-r of Cotter,Iowa, was born in 1836,in Liver-ool, England. He is president of the Cotter avings bank.

Jones, Robert Elam, physician and banker f Crystal Springs, Miss., was born Oct. 5, 843, in Utica, Miss. He is president of the ank of Commerce.

Jones, Robert Ellis, educator, clergyman nd college president of 615 West One Hun-ired and Twelfth st., New York City, was orn March 18, 1858, in New York. In 1897-902 he was president of Hobart college at eneva, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been canon f the cathedral of St. John the divine of ew York City.

Jones, Rufus Matthew, educator, editor and uthor of 1010 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., as born Jan. 25, 1863, in South China, aine. Since 1893 he has been professor of hilosophy at Haverford college of Pennsyl-ania. Since 1893 he has been editor of the merican Friend. He is the author of Prac-ical Christianity and other works.

Jones, Russell Morgan, capitalist of 121 ashington st., Benton Harbor, Mich., was orn Sept. 15, 1836, in Henderson, N.Y. He s vice-president of the Farmers and Mer-hants' bank.

Jones, Samuel Seaman, investment broker f 475 Quincy st., New York City, was born ay 15, 1873, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is treas-rer of the Guardian Trust company of New ork City.

Jones, Samuel Thomas, planter and bank-r of Gainesville, Mo., was born Feb. 12, 847, in Fulton, Mo. He has been alderman f his town. He is the owner of about wenty-three hundred acres of prairie land.

Jones, Seth Benjamin, educator and found-r of Bridgeport, Conn., was born July 3, 841, in Bridgeport, Conn. In 1871 he found-d and has since been proprietor and mana-er of the Park avenue institute of Bridge-ort.

Jones, Seward William, manufacturer and anker of 161 Summer st., Boston, Mass.,was orn Feb. 9, 1857, in Edensburg, Pa. He is resident and trustee of the Newton Center avings bank; and a director of the Newton rust company and also of the Newtonville rust company. He has been president of the ational association of granite industries of he United States. For thirteen years he has een a member of the Newton board of ealth; and for four years a member of the tate board of insanity.

Jones, Stephen Alfred, educator and col-ege president of San Jose, Cal., was born March 2, 1848, in China, Maine. In 1889-94 he was president of the Nevada state univer-sity. Since 1895 he has been professor of pedagogy at the state normal school of San Jose.

Jones, Thomas B., coal operator and capi-talist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born June 13, 1868, in Greenock, Pa. He is president of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo company of New York and a director of other corporations.

Jones, Thomas Goode, soldier, lawyer, jur-ist and statesman of Montgomery, Ala., was born Nov. 26, 1844, in Macon, Ga. In 1901 he was district judge of the United States court for the northern and middle districts of Ala-bama. He is the author of Alabama Su-preme Court Reports, in eighteen volumes and other works.

Jones, Walter, actor of 2621 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born in 1871 in Spring-field, Ohio. He has played the leading roles in popular plays in the leading cities of the United States.

Jones, Wesley Livey, lawyer and states-man of North Yakima, Wash., was born Oct. 9, 1863, near Bethany, Ill. In 1899-1909 he was a member of congress. In 1909 he was elected a member of the United States sen-ate for the term ending in 1915.

Jones, Wilie, banker of Columbia, S.C., was born Oct. 17, 1850, in Hillsboro, N.C. He is president of the Palmetto National bank.

Jones, Will P., banker of Matador, Texas, was born Sept. 10, 1874, in Acton, Texas. He is president of the First State bank.

Jones, William Albert, soldier, planter, en-gineer, inventor and author of Nassawadox, Va., was born June 26, 1841, in St. Charles, Mo. In 1864-66 he was assistant professor in civil and military engineering in the Unit-ed States military academy. He is the in-ventor of a process for making paint.

Jones, William Atkinson, lawyer and states-man of Warsaw, Va., was born March 21, 1849, in Warsaw, Va. In 1880 he was a del-egate to the democratic national convention. In 1891-1909 he was a member of congress.

Jones, William Carey, lawyer and states-man of Spokane, Wash., was born April 5, 1855, in Remsen, N.Y. In 1889-95 he was at-torney-general of the state of Washington. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Jones, William Caswell, lawyer, jurist, au-thor and poet of Spokane, Wash., was born July 15, 1848, in Hutsonville, Ill. In 1871 and 1872 he was a member of the twenty-seventh general assembly of Illinois. He is a director of the First National bank of Robinson, Ill.

Jones, William Hugh, manufacturer of 606 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born May 1, 1845, in Penygroes, Wales. He is vice-president of the International Harvester company.

Jones, William Lucius, journalist and pub-lisher of Lebanon, Ill., was born June 7, 1859, in Lebanon, Ill. Since 1881 he has been the editor and owner of the Journal of Lebanon. He has been president of the Southern Illi-nois press association.

Jones, William Russell, educator, lecturer, physician and author of 9 West Grace st., Richmond, Va., was born Jan. 18, 1870, in Orange county, Va. Since 1907 he has lectured on clinical medicine at the university college of medicine of Richmond. He is the author of Abstract of Lectures on Chemistry and other works.

Jones, Woodruff, chemical manufacturer of 5503 Germantown ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 13, 1841, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president and treasurer of John T. Lewis and Brother.

Jongers, Alphonse, painter and artist of 58 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Nov. 17, 1872, in France. In 1897 he emigrated to America and has a studio in New York City. He is an associate national academician.

Jopling, James R., banker of Danville, Va., was born Nov. 19, 1845, in Bedford county, Va. He is president of the First National bank.

Jordan, Chester Bradley, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Lancaster, N.H., was born Oct. 15, 1839, in Colebrook, N.H. In 1881 he was speaker of the New Hampshire house of representatives. He is president of the Grafton and Coos county bar association.

Jordan, David Starr, educator, naturalist, college president and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born Jan. 19, 1851, in Gainesville, N.Y. Since 1891 he has been president of the Leland Stanford, Junior, university. He is the author of Footnotes to Evolution and other works.

Jordan, E. E., business president and statesman of Wibaux, Mont., was born July 11, 1880, in Annandale, Minn. He is president of the Jordan Realty and Loan company. He is a representative in the Montana state legislature.

Jordan, Eben Dyer, merchant and corporation president of 450 Washington st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 7, 1857, in Boston, Mass. He is president of Jordan Marsh and company; president of the Boston Opera company; and president of the New England conservatory of music.

Jordan, Elizabeth Garver, journalist and author of New York City, was born May 9, 1867, in Milwaukee, Wis. She has been on the editorial staff of the New York World. She is the editor of Harper's Bazar. She is the author of Tales of the City Room and other works.

Jordan, Francis, merchant, antiquarian and author of 129 North Water st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 28, 1843, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Remains of an Aboriginal Town of Rehobeth, Del.

Jordan, Frank H., banker of Thomaston, Maine, was born Jan. 13, 1853, in Thomaston, Maine. He is cashier of the Thomaston National bank.

Jordan, George Gunby, manufacturer and banker of Columbia, Ga., was born June 19, 1846, in Sparta, Ga. In 1867-86 he was treasurer of the Eagle and Phoenix Manufacturing company; and since 1886 has been president of the Georgia Midland Construction company. Since 1889 he has been president of the Third National bank; and manager of the Georgia Midland railway. He is also president of the Bidd Manufacturing company and other corporations. He served in the civil war with Lieutenant-General Stephen D. Lee. He is a trustee of the foundation for promotion of industrial peace.

Jordan, James Henry, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 21, 1842, in Woodstock, Va. He served in the civil war. Since 1895 he has been a judge of the supreme court of Indiana.

Jordan, John L., general contractor of 315 West Ninetieth st., New York City, was born May 17, 1874, in New York City. He has been assistant superintendent of buildings of New York City.

Jordan, John Woolf, antiquarian and author of 1300 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 14, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is editor of the Pennsylvania Magazine of History. He is the author of A Red Rose From the Olden Time and other works.

Jordan, Joseph A., railroad official of Green Bay, Wis., was born in 1849, in Washington county, Pa. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Green Bay and Western railroad.

Jordan, Julius, musician and composer of Providence, R.I., was born Nov. 10, 1850, in Williamantic, Conn. He is the composer of Rip Van Winkle, a romantic comedy opera and many songs and church music.

Jordan, Noah W., business director of 53 State st., Boston, Mass. He is chairman of directors of the American Trust company and a director of corporations.

Jordan, Thomas Walden, educator and college president of Knoxville, Tenn., was born Dec. 2, 1848, in Newburn, Va. In 1886-89 he was president of the Emory and Henry college. Since 1889 he has been dean of the college, and professor of Latin languages and literature at the university of Tennessee.

Jordan, Whitman Howard, educator, scientist and author of Geneva, N.Y., was born Oct. 27, 1851, in Raymond, Maine. Since 1896 he has been director of the New York agricultural experiment station. He is the author of The Feeding of Animals.

Jordan, William George, journalist and author of 172 West Eighty-first st., New York City, was born March 6, 1864, in New York City. Since 1884 he has been engaged in Jordan's Guide to Poetry and Prose. He is the author of The Power of Truth and other works.

Josaphare, Lionel, lawyer, author and poet of 141 Valencia st., San Francisco, Cal., was born May 26, 1876, in St. Louis, Mo. He is the author of The Lion at the Well and other works.

Joseph, Lee, banker of Cuero, Texas, was born Nov. 2, 1865, in Double Bayou, Texas. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Josephithal, Louis Maurice, banker and naval officer of New York City, was born Oct. 17, 1869, in New York City. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is senior member of the banking house of Josephithal, Louchheim and company.

Joslin, Theodore Merrill, lawyer and banker of Adrian, Mich., was born Dec. 21, 1869, in Woodstock, Mich. He is vice-president of the Gray Furniture company.

Joslyn, Lee E., lawyer and jurist of 66 Euclid ave., Detroit, Mich., was born July 23, 1864, in Darien, Genesee county, N.Y. In 1881-86 he taught school; and in 1886-1910 practiced law in Bay City, Mich. He has been prosecuting attorney of Bay county, city attorney of Bay City, commissioner of schools, and is now a referee in bankruptcy at Detroit.

Josselyn, Benage S., railway official of Portland, Ore., was born Feb. 7, 1858, in Heyworth, Ill. He has been general manager for the Kansas City,Osceola and Southern railway, and general superintendent of the Omaha and St. Louis, and Omaha and Kansas City and Eastern lines. He is now president for the Portland Railway, Light and Power company, and the Oregon Water Power company.

Josselyn, Edgar Alonzo,architect of 3 West Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born July 2, 1861, in Boston, Mass. Among the principal buildings erected are the Horace Mann school and Speyer school of Columbia university and others.

Josslyn, Charles, merchant and author of Boston, Mass., was born May 23, 1847, in Boston, Mass. Since 1870 he has been in the mercantile business. He is the author of The True Napoleon and other works.

Jourdan, James, business president of 180 Remsen st., Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the Brooklyn Union Gas company and a director of other corporations.

Joy, Charles Frederick, lawyer and statesman of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 11, 1849, in Morgan county, Ill. In 1870 he entered the academic department of Yale college; and in 1874 graduated from that institution with the degree of bachelor of arts. Since 1875 he has been engaged in the practice of law in St. Louis, Mo. He was elected to the fifty-third congress, but was unseated on a contest in favor of his opponent. In 1895-1903 he was a representative from Missouri to the fifty-fourth, fifty-fifth,fifty-sixth and fifty-seventh congresses as a republican. He resumed his practice of law in St. Louis, Mo.; and is also recorder of deeds of the city of St. Louis.

Joy, Henry Bourne, business president of Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 23, 1864, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of the Packard Motor Car company; and the Lincoln highway association.

Joy, James Richard,journalist of 150 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Oct. 16, 1863, in Groton, Mass. He has been assistant editor of the Christian Advocate. He is the author of The Greek Grammar and other works.

Joy, Richard Pickering, banker of Detroit, Mich., was born Jan. 25, 1870, in Detroit, Mich. He is vice-president of the Detroit Copper and Brass Rolling mills.

Joyce, James, educator, lawyer and statesman of Cambridge, Ohio, was born July 2, 1870, in Cumberland, Ohio. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress. He has been superintendent of the schools of Columbus, O.

Joyce, John Alexander, soldier, lawyer and author of 131 Third st., Washington, D.C., was born July 4, 1842, in Ireland. He served in the civil war. He is the author of A Checkered Life and other works.

Joyce, Wilburn J., banker of San Marcial, N.M., was born May 4, 1875, in Coffeen, Ill. He is vice-president and cashier of the Bank of San Marcial.

Joyce, William B., surety president of 115 Broadway, New York City,was born in 1865, in Utica, N.Y. After fifteen years of most successful experience in the surety business in Minnesota and Illinois, in 1904 he became president of the National Surety company. He is the originator of the Fidelity insurance policy and the automobile bail bond power of attorney. He has some political experience in St. Paul, Minn., where he retains his legal residence.

Joyner, Henry Augustus, banker of Boyce, La., was born Dec. 22, 1863, in North Carolina. He is president of the Bank of Boyce.

Joynes, Edward Southey,educator, linguist, lecturer and author of Columbia, S.C., was born March 2, 1834, in Accomack county, Va. He served in the civil war. He is retired as emeritus professor. He is the author of Minimum French Grammar and other works.

Judd, Aspinwall, surgeon of 137 West Sixty-ninth st., New York City, was born June 4, 1868, in New Orleans, La. He is radiologist at the post graduate medical school.

Judd, Charles Hubbard, educator and author of 5730 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 20, 1873, in British, India. Since 1909 he has been professor and head of the department of education at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Psychology for Teachers and other works.

Judd, Warren, journalist, publisher and merchant of Miami, Fla., was born Sept. 15, 1837, near Shelbyville, Ind. He has been postmaster of Needham, Ind. He is the editor and owner of The Hustler.

Judd, William Hawley, lumber dealer and capitalist of Stamford, Conn., was born Feb. 10, 1850, in Stamford, Conn. He is president of Getman and Judd company.

Judge, John H., lawyer of 261 Broadway, New York City, was born in Dublin, Ireland. He is executor and trustee of estates of large holding.

Judkins, Thomas Cyphert, journalist and lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Nov. 3, 1859, in Eugene, Ore. He received the degree of B.S. from the state university of Oregon. Until 1887 he was engaged in the newspaper business in Washington, D.C., and in 1887-90 was night manager of the Associated Press in San Francisco. In 1890-92 he was editor and proprietor of the Fresno Daily Republican; and now practices law in San Francisco. He was secretary to the California commission at the Chicago world's fair.

Judson, Adoniram Brown, physician, surgeon and author of 53 Washington square, New York City, was born April 7, 1837, in Brumah. During the civil war he was assistant surgeon in the United States navy. He has been pension examining surgeon. He is the author of The Influence of Growth on Congenital and Acquired Deformities.

Judson, Charles N., lawyer of 40 Wall st., New York City. He is a director of Mabie, Todd and company.

Judson, Edward, educator, clergyman and author of 53 Washington square, New York City, was born Dec. 27, 1844, in Burma. He has been professor of Latin in the Madison university. He is the author of The Institutional Church and other works.

Judson, Harry Pratt, educator and author of 1146 East Fifty-ninth st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 20, 1849, in Jamestown, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been president of the university of Chicago. He is the author of The Young American and other works.

Judson, William Pierson, civil engineer of Broadalbin, N.Y., was born May 20, 1849, in Oswego, N.Y. In 1870-99 he was United States civil assistant engineer on forts, rivers and harbors; in 1899-1905 he was deputy state engineer of New York; and is now practicing as consulting engineer. He is president of the Broadalbin Electric Light and Power company and a director of the Broadalbin Improvement company and other corporations. He is the author of City Roads and Pavements; Road Preservation and Dust Prevention and numerous other works.

Juhring, John C., merchant and founder of 311 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born in New York City. He has been vice-president and secretary of Francis Leggett and company.

Julien, Alexis Anastay, geologist and naturalist of South Harwich, Mass., was born Feb. 13, 1840, in New York City. Many of his birds and shells are in the Smithsonian institute of Washington, D.C.

Junkin, Joseph de Forest, lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 16, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is on the board of directors of the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia.

Justice, Herbert M., business president, composer and author of Ardmore, Pa., was born June 30, 1859, in West Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the H. M. Justice company of Baltimore and Philadelphia. He is the author of The Past Recalled and other works.

Justin, Joel Gilbert, physician and inventor of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Sept. 12, 1851, in Richmond, N.Y. He has invented several throat and toilet sprays.

Kahlenberg, Louis Albert Berthold, educator, chemist, physicist and author of 234 Lathrop st., Madison, Wis., was born Jan. 27, 1870, in Two Rivers, Wis. Since 1900 he has been professor of chemistry in the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Laboratory Exercises in General Chemistry and other works.

Kahlo, George Dwight, physician and surgeon of Indianapolis, Ind., was born April 27, 1864, in Napoleon, Ohio. He has been a surgeon in the Indiana national guard. His practice is now limited to internal and diagnosis.

Kahn, Julius, actor, lawyer and statesman of San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 28, 1861, in Germany. In 1899-1903 and 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Kahn, Max, physician, surgeon and author of 1056 Hoe ave., New York City, was born March 17, 1887. He graduated from Cornell university and has received the degrees of M.D., M.A., and Ph.D. He is director of the chemical and physiological laboratories of the Beth Israel hospital of New York City; and associate in biological chemistry in Columbia university. He is the author of Moliere and The Physician; Shakespeare's Knowledge of Medicine; History of the Lithotomy Operation; Rambam, the Physician and numerous other medical works.

Kahn, Mrs. Ruth Ward, lecturer and author of Jackson, Mich., was born Aug. 4, 1870, in Jackson, Mich. She is the author of The First Quarter and other works.

Kaiser, Albert, banker of Bagley, Minn., was born Jan. 17, 1864, in Winona, Minn. He is president of the First State bank of Shelvin.

Kaiser, Mark, musician and composer of 1809 Saint Charles ave., New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 22, 1855, in New Orleans, La. He is a teacher and concert violinist of New Orleans.

Kalanianaole, Jonah Kuhio, capitalist and statesman of Waikiki, Honolulu, H.I., was born March 26, 1871, in Hawaii. In 1903-09 he was a member of congress.

Kaler, James Otis, journalist and author of Portland, Maine, was born March 19, 1848, in Winterport, Maine. He is the author of The Boy Captain and other works.

Kales, Albert Martin, lawyer and author of 140 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 11, 1875, in Chicago, Ill. He is connected with the teaching force of the Northwestern law school. He is the author of Homestead Exemption Laws in Illinois.

Kammerer, William Alexander, banker of 7203 South Broadway, St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 10, 1866, in St. Louis, Mo. He is cashier of the Southern Commercial and Savings bank.

Kane, Elisha K., railroad president of Kushequa, Pa., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Mount Jewett, Kinzua and Ritterville railroad.

Kanouse, Luther C., farmer and banker of Byron, Mich., was born June 29, 1842, in Byron, Mich. He is president of the State bank.

Kantmann, Adolph G., railway official of Nashville, Tenn., was born Jan. 23, 1873, in Indianapolis, Ind. He was educated in the grammar and high schools of Terre Haute, Ind. Since 1891 he has been in railway service, in 1895-1900 was draftsman and chief draftsman with the Vandalia road. In 1900-11 he was chief draftsman of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway,and since 1912 has been superintendent of machinery of that road.

Kanz, George Frederick, mineralogist and author of New York City, was born Sept. 29, 1856, in New York City. Since 1883 he has been special agent in the United States geological survey. He is president of the New York mineralogical club. He is the author of Gems and Precious Stones of North America and other works.

Karel, Louis Albert, banker of Kewaunee, Wis., was born April 17, 1875, in Kewaunee, Wis. He is president of the State bank.

Karste, Friedrich, banker of Sheboygan, Wis., was born April 27, 1837, in Badersleben, Germany. He is president of the German bank.

Kass, William J., lawyer and banker of Remsen, Iowa, was born Nov. 2, 1875, in East Dubuque, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Kastle, Joseph Hoeing, educator, chemist and author of 326 Harrison ave., Lexington, Ky., was born Jan. 25, 1864, in Lexington, Ky. Since 1905 he has been chief of the division of chemistry in the hygienic laboratory of the United States public health and marine hospital service. He is the author of The Chemistry of Metals.

Katte, Walter, civil engineer of 784 Park ave., New York City, was born Nov. 14,1830, in England. He has been chief engineer of the New York Central and Hudson River, New York and Harlem, and West Shore railroads. He is now engaged as a consulting engineer.

Katzenberger, George Anthony,lawyer, secretary and curator of Greenville, Ohio, was born Dec. 11, 1867, in Greenville, Ohio. He is a lieutenant in the Ohio national guard. He is secretary and treasurer of the phi delta phi, founded in 1869.

Kaucher, John Howard, banker of Reynoldsville, Pa., was born Feb. 20, 1851, in Reading, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Kauffman, Harold Meredith, stock broker of 307 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 20, 1874, in St. Louis, Mo. He is a member of the firm of G. H. Walker and company.

Kauffman, Percival Coover, banker of Tacoma, Wash., was born Aug. 13, 1857, in Mechanicsburg, Pa. He is vice-president of the Fidelity Trust company.

Kaufman, Abraham Charles, financier and philanthropist of Charleston, S.C., was born Sept. 10, 1839, in Charleston, S.C. Since 1871 he has been identified with the business and public affairs of his city; and has held numerous positions of trust and honor.

Kaufman, Charles Milton, banker of Tower City, Pa., was born July 2, 1862, in Llewellyn, Pa. He is president of the Tower City National bank and other corporations.

Kaufman, Gustave, civil engineer of 251 West Ninety-fifth st., New York City, was born Feb. 16, 1869, in Allegheny City, Pa. He is contractor for the construction of the Brooklyn anchorage of the Manhattan bridge across East river.

Kaufman, Matthias Sailor, clergyman of 28 Pearl st., Norwich, Conn., was born Nov. 7, 1845, in Decatur, Ill. He is the author of a series of articles on the Holy Land for the Methodist Magazine.

Kaufman, William Emerson, banker of Winslow, Neb., was born Feb. 3, 1881, in Listowel, Ontario, Canada. He is cashier of the Winslow State bank.

Kavanagh, Marcus, jurist of 1518 Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 3, 1859, in Des Moines, Iowa. He is judge of the superior court of Cook county.

Kavanaugh, William Marmaduke, financier of Little Rock, Ark., was born March 3, 1866, in Greene county, Ala. He is president of the Little Rock Railway company and other corporations.

Kay, George Frederick, educator and geologist of Iowa City, was born Sept. 14, 1873, in Canada. He is head of the department of geology at the university of Iowa and is also state geologist of Iowa.

Kaye, Charles Alexander, lumber merchant and capitalist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Aug. 17, 1856, in Aurora, Iowa. He is president of the Beltrami Land company.

Kays, James C., banker of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 5, 1850, in Santa Barbara, Cal. He is president of the Dollar Savings bank and other corporations.

Kean, John, banker and statesman of Elizabeth, N.J., was born Dec. 4,1852, in Liberty Hall, Ursino, N.J. He is vice-president of the Manhattan Trust company of New York City.

Keany, Joseph F., lawyer of 128 Broadway, New York City, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is attorney for the Long Island Railroad company and a director of corporations.

Kearfott, Clarence Piercall, druggist and banker of Martinsville, Va., was born June 16, 1856, in St. Joseph, Mo. He is president of the People's bank.

Kearney, Edward T., banker of Jackson, Neb., was born March 23, 1861, in Pinckney, Mich. He is president of the Bank of Dakota.

Kearney-Hartt, Mrs. Elizabeth F., physician of Los Angeles, Cal., was born in Keokuk, Iowa. She has been medical superintendent of the women's department in the Dunning asylum of Cook county, Ill. Since 1900 she has practiced medicine in Los Angeles, and makes a specialty of nervous and mental diseases.

Kearns, Thomas, capitalist and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born April 11, 1862, near Woodstock, Ontario, Canada. He is one of the owners of the Mayflower and Silver King Mines; and has been a United States senator.

Keasbey, Henry Miller, manufacturer of 949 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 16, 1859, in Newark, N.J. He is vice-president and eastern manager of the National Fire Proofing company.

Keating, Cecil A., bank director and financier of Dallas, Texas, was born March 20, 1850, in Halifax, N.S. He is president of the Keating Implement and Machine company.

Keating, Edward, journalist of 1428 York st., Denver, Col., was born July 9, 1875, in Kansas City, Kan. Since 1906 he has been editor of the Rocky Mountain News. He has been president of the International League press clubs.

Keator, Joel Leslie, lawyer and banker of Griffin Corners, N.Y., was born July 8, 1870, in Roxbury, N.Y. He is president of the Citizens' bank of Griffin Corners.

Kebler, Lyman Frederic, physician and chemist of 1322 Park road, Washington, D.C., was born June 8, 1863. He is chief of the drug division, bureau of chemistry of the United States department of agriculture at Washington.

Keck, Charles H., banker of Washington, Iowa, was born April 15, 1862, in Washington, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' Savings bank.

Keegan, Peter Charles, lawyer and banker of Van Buren, Maine, where he was born May 13, 1850. He is engaged in the practice of law, in banking, in promoting the building of railroads, and in aiding and establishing industries. He is president and director of the Van Buren Trust company. He served nine terms in the Maine state legislature; was a delegate to the national democratic convention in 1900; and was appointed in 1909 as one of two members on the part of the United States of joint international commission between the United States and Great Britain, in controversies affecting the use of the St. John's river.

Keeler, David B., railroad official of Fort Worth, Texas, was born in South Salem, N. Y. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Fort Worth and Denver City railroad.

Keeler, Edwin Olmstead, merchant and banker of Norwalk, Conn., was born Jan. 12, 1846, in Ridgefield, Conn. He is president of the Holmes Keeler and Selick company; and has been mayor of his city, and lieutenant-governor of his state.

Keeler, William Edwin, banker of Auburn, N.Y., was born Feb. 24, 1842, in Moravia, N. Y. He is president of the First National bank of Moravia.

Keeley, Edward S., railroad official of 80 East Jackson boul., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 11, 1858, in Peru, Ill. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

Keen, Gregory Bernard, curator and statesman of 1300 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 3, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and LL.D. He has been professor of mathematics in the theological seminary of St. Charles. In 1880-98 he was secretary of the historical society of Pennsylvania; in 1887-97 was librarian of the university of Pennsylvania; in 1898-1903 was librarian of the historical society of Pennsylvania; and since then has been curator.

Keene, John E., banker of Peoria, Ill., was born March 28, 1853, in Virginia. He has been president of the Peoria public library. He is vice-president of the Dime Savings and Trust company.

Keeney, Henry Thompson, banker of 258 Main st., Saugerties, N.Y., was born Dec. 22, 1875, in Saugerties, N.Y. He is cashier of the Saugerties bank.

Keep, Charles Hallam, bank president of 60 Broadway, New York City, was born Feb. 26, 1861, in Lockport, N.Y. He has been assistant secretary of the United States treasury. He is president of the Knickerbocker Trust company.

Keep, Edward P., capitalist of Tekonsha, Mich., was born May 27, 1848, in Homer, N. Y. He is president of the First State bank.

Keesee, Charles Blackwell, manufacturer and banker of Martinsville, Va., was born Oct. 26, 1861, in Pelham, N.C. He is vice-president of the People's National bank.

Keesling, William H., farmer, merchant and banker of Mechanicsburgh, Ind., was born Feb. 17, 1849, in Henry county, Ind. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Kehnast, William A., hardware merchant of Defiance, Ohio, was born March 17, 1847, in Germany. He is vice-president of the Defiance Wholesale Grocery company.

Kehoe, Frank Burr, merchant and banker of 122 Scioto st., Portsmouth, Ohio, was born Sept. 27, 1852, in Portsmouth, Ohio. He is president of the Portsmouth Banking company.

Keifer, Joseph Warren, banker and statesman of Springfield, Ohio, was born Jan. 30, 1836, in Bethel, Ohio. He is president of the Lagonda National bank.

Keiser, Robert H., capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 7, 1872, in St. Louis, Mo. He was educated in the Smith academy and at the Washington university of St. Louis. He is identified with the republican party; is a member of the civic league; and identified with various corporations and industrial enterprises.

Keister, Abraham L., manufacturer and statesman of Scottsdale, Pa., was born Sept. 10, 1852, in Fayette county, Pa. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Keith, Arthur Monroe, lawyer and banker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 6, 1852, in Roxbury, Mass. He is vice-president of the Minneapolis Loan and Trust company.

Keith, Charles Penrose, lawyer and author of 321 South Fourth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 8, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been librarian pro tem of the historical society of Pennsylvania, and chief clerk in the United States appraisers' office. He is the author of The Provincial Councillors of Pennsylvania; and other works.

Keith, David, capitalist and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born May 27, 1847, in Nova Scotia. He has been a member of the state legislature. He is president of the Salt Lake Tribune Publishing company and other corporations.

Keith, Edson, lawyer, engineer and composer of 137 West Van Buren st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 27, 1862, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1897 he has been vice-president of Keith Brothers and company; he was formerly president of Edson Keith and company.

Keith, George Eldon, shoe manufacturer of Brockton, Mass., where he was born Feb. 8, 1850. In 1874 he started manufacturing Walkover shoes, sales now aggregating twelve millions annually, with stores in London, Paris and Berlin. He is president of the George E. Keith company; and president of the Brockton National bank.

Keith, James Fabricius, physician and banker of Sturgeon, Mo., was born Jan. 18, 1849, in Missouri. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Keith, John DeKalb, lawyer of Gettysburg, Pa., was born June 11, 1879, in Waynesboro, Pa. He is treasurer and director of the East Berlin Railway company.

Keith, Minor C., capitalist of 17 Battery place, New York City, was born in 1848 in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the Abangarez Gold Fields of Costa Rica and other corporations.

Keith, Preston Bond, shoe manufacturer and bank director of 212 Essex st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 18, 1847, in Brockton, Mass. He is president of the Preston B. Keith Shoe company.

Kelleher, Daniel, lawyer and banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Feb. 5, 1864, in Middleboro, Mass. He is president of the Bank for Savings.

Keller, E. E., manufacturer of East Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in New York City. He is vice-president of the Westinghouse Machine company and other corporations.

Keller, Edward, chemist and metallurgist of Perth Amboy, N.J., was born March 10, 1857, in Sauk City, Wis. He was educated in the polytechnic school in Stuttgart; and graduated from the university of Zurich with the degree of Ph.D. He was chemist to W. A. Clark and the Parrot Copper company of Butte; and since 1893 has been a representative of the Anaconda Copper Mining company. He is consulting metallurgical chemist to the bureau of mines in the United States department of the interior. He is also a member of the firm of Keller Brothers, fruit growers and ranchers of Montrose, Cal.

Keller, Emil Ernest, engineer, manufacturer and capitalist of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 16, 1863, in New York City. He is now president and principal owner of the Detroit Insulated Wire company; president of the Metal Products company and president of the Insulating Material company.

Keller, Frederick Waters, banker of Lawrenceville, Ill., was born March 22, 1860, in Cuba, N.Y. He is president of the First National Bank of Lawrenceville.

Keller, Herbert P., lawyer and statesman of St. Paul, Minn., was born Feb. 7, 1875, in St. Paul, Minn. He graduated with the degree of LL.B. from the university of Minnesota; and in 1896 began the practice of law in St. Paul. In 1902-03 he was assistant corporation attorney; in 1904-10 was a member of the city counsel; and is now mayor of his city.

Keller, Hermann A., mining engineer of 374 Fifth ave., New York City, was born March 23, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now in practice as an independent consulting engineer.

Keller, Jasper Newton, telephone official of 50 Oliver st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 22, 1846, in Burlington, Iowa. He is president of the Vermont Telephone and Telegraph company.

Kelley, Edgar Stillman, musician and composer of New York City, was born April 14, 1857, in Sparta, Wis. He is connected with the Western college of Oxford, Ohio. He is the author of music for Macbeth and other works.

Kelley, Howard G., railroad official of Montreal, Canada, was born Jan. 12, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Grand Trunk railroad system.

Kelley, Leverett M., deputy commissioner of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 28, 1841, in Schenectady, N.Y. Since 1897 he has been deputy commissioner of pensions.

Kelley, Patrick H., statesman of Lansing, Mich., was born Oct. 7, 1867, in Cass county, Mich. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kelley, Michael Hugh, lumberman and financier of Duluth, Minn., was born Nov. 16, 1855, in county Sligo, Ireland. He is president of the Kelley-How-Thomson company.

Kelley, William D., civil engineer of 45 East Forty-second st., New York City, was born May 11, 1859, in Kelley's Island, Ohio. He is president of Kelley and Kelley, engineers, builders and contractors.

Kelliher, B. B., railway official of Winnipeg, Canada, was born Dec. 26, 1862, in Ireland. He was educated at Dublin university. In 1886-90 he was with the Union Pacific railway; and for six years was assistant engineer on the Northern Pacific railway. In 1896-97 he was a mining engineer to the Anaconda Copper company of Butte. Since 1905 he has been chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Kellner, Max, theologian and orientalist of Cambridge, Mass., was born May 21, 1861, in Detroit, Mich. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and B.D. Since 1907 he has been professor of literature and interpretation of the Old Testament in the Cambridge theological school. He is the author of The Prophecies of Isaiah; An Outline Study on the Old Testament Literature and Religion and other works.

Kellogg, E. C., college president of Walla Walla, Wash., was born in 1865 in East Richford, Vt. He is president of the Walla Walla college.

Kellogg, Edward Brinley, physician of 1084 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 21, 1850, in Sheboygan, Wis. He is assistant medical director of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance company.

Kellogg, Edward Leland, physician and surgeon of 48 West Fifty-first st., New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1872, in Homer, Cortland county, N.Y. He graduated from the college of physicians and surgeons, and received the Harzen prize; and took post graduate courses in various institutions. He was formerly associate medical director of the Liberty Life Insurance company; and examiner for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company. He is the author of Treatment of Scarlet Fever and numerous other medical works.

Kellogg, James C., diplomat of Colon, Panama, was born in Mississippi. In 1905 he was appointed consul at Colon.

Kellogg, John Harvey, physician of Battle Creek, Mich., was born Feb. 26, 1852, in Tyrone, Mich. He graduated from the Bellevue hospital medical college of New York City, and studied in Europe, and since 1875 has practiced in Battle Creek. Since 1876 he has been superintendent of the Battle Creek sanitarium. He is president of the American medical missionary college, since 1891 president of the Haskell orphans' home and since 1891 has been president of the James White memorial home for aged people. He is the inventor of improved apparatus and instruments for medical and surgical purposes. He is the author of Text Book and Charts on Physiology for Use of Schools; Man the Masterpiece; Art of Massage; Rational Hydrotherapy; The Stomach; also many technical papers and articles. He is the editor of Good Health and Modern Medicine.

Kellogg, Theodore H., physician of Riverdale-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born May, 1841, in Grahamville, S.C. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and M.D. He served in the civil war; and was pensioned for services rendered as first lieutenant of the seventh squadron Rhode Island cavalry. For ten years he was in private practice in New York City; was superintendent of the Willard state hospital; and since 1897 has been physician in charge of Dr. Kellogg's house. He is the author of Text-Book on Mental Diseases and several monographs.

Kellough, George E., banker of Walla Walla, Wash., was born May, 1872, in Ontario, Canada. He is president of the Third National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Kelly, A. B., banker of Tionesta, Pa., was born in January, 1837, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is cashier of the Forest County National bank.

Kelly, Edmond, lawyer and author of 52 William st., New York City, was born May 28, 1851, in Toulouse, Haute-Garonne, France. He is the author of Evolution and Efforts; Government or Human Evolution and other works.

Kelly, Edward Jeremiah, lawyer of New York City, was born Jan. 15, 1879, in Newark, N.J. He has received the degrees of M. A. and LL.B.; and since 1902 has practiced law in New York City. He taught commercial law in the New York high school; has traveled extensively throughout the world; is vice-president of the Italian American Construction company; and a director of various other corporations.

Kelly, Mrs. Faustina James, artist and author of 5609 Wabash ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in Dyersburg, Tenn. She is a successful magazine illustrator and now editor of the Hyde Park News. She is the author of the Hyde Park Beautiful, Playgrounds, and Bathing Beaches.

Kelly, Harry Eugene, lawyer of Denver, Col., was born Dec. 27, 1870, in Des Moines, Iowa. He was the author of the Railroad Commission Law; the Pure Food Law; Public Morals Law and other works.

Kelly, J. Redding, artist of 217 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth st., New York City, was born Aug. 5, 1873 in New York City. In 1901 she became an instructor in the national academy of design, and has been an instructor of art in the college of the City of New York. She is a successful portrait painter and a member of several art clubs.

Kelly, James Edgar, farmer and banker of Mount Olive, N.C., was born April 8, 1867, in Clinton, N.C. He is president of the Citizens' bank of Mount Olive.

Kelly, James Robert, banker of San Francisco, Cal., was born in Ireland. He is president of the Hibernia bank and other corporations.

Kelly, John F., merchant of 658 Lincoln ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born June 11, 1856, in St. Paul, Minn. Since 1903 he has been a member of the board of fire commissioners of St. Paul. Since 1899 he has been manager of Foley Brothers and Kelly, wholesale grocers.

Kelly, John Henry, banker of Gothenburg, Neb., was born May 10, 1865, in Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Kelly, Melville Clyde, publisher, statesman and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 4, 1883, in Bloomfield, Ohio. He is publisher of the Daily News Herald of Braddock, Pa. In 1910-13 he was a member of the Pennsylvania state house of representatives. He is now a member of congress from the thirtieth district of Pennsylvania for the term of 1913-15. He is the author of Machine Made Legislation.

Kelly, O. F., merchant and banker of Deer Park, Wash., was born April 23, 1887, in Humboldt, South Dakota. He is president of the First State bank.

Kelly, Robert Lincoln, college president of Richmond, Ind., was born March 22, 1865, in Tuscola, Ill. He is president of the Earlham college.

Kelly, William F., stockman and banker of Renner, S.D., was born in 1850 in Ireland. He is president of the Farmers' State bank of Lyons.

Kelly, William Louis, lawyer and jurist of 27 Sherburne ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born in Springfield, Ky. Since 1887 he has been district judge.

Kelsey, Albert, architect of 1530 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa.,was born April 26, 1870, in St. Louis, Mo. He is architect for the reorganizing and rebuilding of Chautauqua, N.Y.

Kelsey, Frederick Wallace, merchant and nurseryman of 150 Broadway, New York City, was born April 25, 1850, in Ogden, N.Y. He is president of the F. W. Kelsey Nursery company. He is the author of The First County Park System.

Kelsey, Henry C., banker of Trenton, N.J., was born Dec. 4, 1837, in New Jersey. He is vice-president of the Mechanics' National bank.

Kelsey, Otto, lawyer and insurance official of Geneseo, N.Y., was born Nov. 11, 1852, in Rochester, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been superintendent of insurance.

Kemmerer, George Irving,educator and scientist of Socorro, N.M., was born Feb. 25, 1879, in Janesville, Wis. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from the university of Wisconsin, and the degree of Ph.D from the university of Pennsylvania. In 1907-08 he was chemist to the Wisconsin geological and natural history survey; and in the summers of 1911-13 was with the United States bureau of fisheries. Since 1908 he has been professor of chemistry in the New Mexico school of mines. He is the author of Electro-Analysis.

Kemmis, Walter D., farmer and statesman of Sidney, Mont., was born Jan. 28, 1870, in DeWitt, Iowa. He has always been active in church work; and is an ordained deacon in the Methodist Episcopal church. He is a successful farmer; and has been a justice of the peace. He is president of the Water User's Electric company; and in 1912 was elected a representative to the Montana state legislature from Dawson county on the progressive ticket.

Kemp, C. H., banker of Kane, Pa., was born July 29, 1839, in Fayette county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Kemp, George Ward, lawyer of Seattle, Wash., was born Feb. 11, 1867, in Northeast, Md. He has received the degrees of LL.B. and LL.M. from the university of Missouri. In 1893-98 he practiced law in the San Luis Obispo, Cal.; in 1892-98 was court commissioner of the superior court of San Luis Obispo county; and since 1898 has practiced in Seattle. He was allowed a fee of two thousand dollars by the federal judge in a bankruptcy matter; and is a director and attorney for various corporations.

Kempner, Otto, lawyer of 53 Linden st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 5, 1858, in Austria. He is president of the King and Queens County Real Estate Exchange.

Kempson, St. George, editor and publisher of 94 Broadway, New York City, was born in Fort Erie, Canada. He is managing director of the Tellar Guide company.

Kempton, Edward S., railway official of Duluth, Minn., was born Nov. 27, 1848, in Wilburton, England. In 1874 he entered railway service with the Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western railway as clerk and ticket accountant; became traveling auditor, and in 1888-93 was chief clerk in the auditor's office. In 1893-95 he was chief clerk in the treasurer's office of the Duluth, Missabe and Northern railroad; and since 1896 has been treasurer of that road.

Kendall, Messmore, lawyer and capitalist of 233 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1872 in Grand Rapids, Mich. He is a member of the military order of the loyal legion. He has been attorney for the Great Northern Railway company in Montana; and is a member of the firm of Kendall and Herzog. He is president of the Chili-Bolivia company and other corporations.

Kendall, Zeb., miner and statesman of Tonopah, Nev., was born on Dec. 8, 1875, in St. John, Kan. He is engaged in mining; is prominently identified with the business and public affairs of Nevada; and has filled several positions of trust and honor. He is identified with the democratic party; is now serving his term of 1909-13 as a member of the Nevada state senate; and has taken an active part in legislative affairs. He has been successful in the handling of mines.

Kendrick, Ansel Hastings, banker of 301 Walworth ave., Delavan, Wis., was born March 13, 1851, in Delavan, Wis. He is president of the Delavan Light and Fuel company.

Kendrick, Frank B., manufacturer and banker of Lebanon, N.H., was born March 25, 1845, in Lebanon, N.H. He is president of the Kendrick Davis company.

Kendrick, John Wesley, miller, merchant and banker of Taylors, S.C., was born June 16, 1871, in Greenville county, S.C. He is president and treasurer of the Fairforest Oil Mill company.

Kendrick, John William, railroad official and expert of Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 14, 1853, in Worcester, Mass. In 1873 he graduated from the Worcester polytechnical institute. In 1879 he entered railway service as levelman, and became engineer in charge of construction, and in 1883 became chief engineer of the St. Paul and Northern Pacific railway, and in 1899-1901 was second vice-president. In 1901-05 he was third vice-president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway and in 1905-11 was vice-president in charge of operation. Since 1911 he has been a consulting railway expert.

Kenedy, Arthur, business president of 5 Barclay st., New York City, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of P. J. Kenedy and Sons, publishers.

Kenly, John R., railroad official of Wilmington, N.C., was born on Jan. 21, 1847, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1905 he has been third vice-president of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

Kenna, Edward Dudley, railroad official of Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17, 1861, in Jacksonville, Ill. In 1905 he was vice-president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

Kennard, John Hanson, lawyer of 277 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1862, in Elleray Plantation, Miss. He has been master in chancery of the United States circuit court in the receivership of the Texas and Pacific Railway company.

Kennedy, Alfred J., public official of 39 Fourteenth st., Whitestone, L.I., N.Y., was born Aug. 13, 1877, in Whitestone, N.Y. In 1910-13 he was a representative in the New York state legislature. Since 1913 he has been postmaster of Flushing.

Kennedy, Ambrose, statesman of Woonsocket, R.I., was born Dec. 1, 1875, in Blackstone, Mass. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kennedy, Delmont M., broker and banker of 7 South Lincoln st., Chanute, Kan., was born June 1, 1862, in Newark, Ill. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Kennedy, Elijah Robinson, insurance official of 33 Prospect Park, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 6, 1846, in Hartford, Conn. He is president of the New England society in Brooklyn.

Kennedy, Henry A., railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born July 8, 1857, in Flushing, Ohio. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Minnesota Transfer railroad.

Kennedy, Hugh, business president of Sharpsburg, Pa., was born July 24, 1856, in Poland township, Ohio. He is director and manager of the furnace department of the American Steel Hoop company.

Kennedy, Moorhead C., railroad president of Chambersburg, Pa., was born in 1862, in Chambersburg, Pa. He graduated from the scientific department of Andover academy, and from the John C. Green school of science of Princeton university with the degree of C.E. In 1889 he entered railway service as assistant to president of the Cumberland Valley railroad, of which he was vice-president and general superintendent in 1902-13, and since 1913 has been president.

Kennedy, Reid, banker of Homestead, Pa., was born Jan. 4, 1856, in Washington county, Pa. He is president of the Monongahela Trust company and other corporations.

Kennedy, Wallace Daniel, farmer, physician and banker of Metter, Ga., was born June 14, 1872, in Bullock county, Ga. He is president of the Bank of Metter.

Kennedy, Walter, consulting engineer of 611 Penn ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1861, in Poland, Ohio. He has been superintendent of the Buffalo Furnace company.

Kennett, A. Crosby, lumber merchant and banker of Conway, N.H., was born July 27, 1859, in Madison, N.H. He is president of the Conway Savings bank.

Kenney, James W., business man and director of 234 Seaver st., Roxbury, Mass., was born Jan. 2, 1845, near Derry, Ireland. In 1863 he took charge of a large grocery business in Boston conducted by his brother. He became a master brewer, in 1877 started Amory brewery, in 1893 organized the Union Brewing company, and was mainly instrumental in organizing the American Brewing company. He is vice-president of the Federal Trust company of Boston; and is a large owner of real estate, has interests in railroads, gas companies, banks and other corporations.

Kenney, William P., railroad official of St. Paul, Minn., was born Jan. 10, 1870, in Watertown, Wis. He was educated in the public and high schools of Minneapolis. In 1888 he became telegraph operator with the Chicago Great Western railway, and has filled various positions from stenographer to chief clerk. He became general traffic manager of the Great Northern railway, and since 1912 has been vice-president and is also in charge of traffic of that road.

Kenny, Rev. Michael, clergyman and author of 32 Washington square, New York City, was born June 28, 1863, in Glankeen, Ireland. He established St. Peter Claver's church at Vineville, Ga. He is the author of several plays and stories.

Kenny, William John, clergyman of St. Augustine, Fla., was born Oct. 9, 1853, in Delhi, N.Y. He is Roman Catholic bishop of diocese of St. Augustine.

Kent, Charles Sumner, business man of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Feb. 6, 1873, in Buffalo, N.Y. He studied architecture at home and abroad; and since 1892 has been connected with the Barber Asphalt Paving company. He was superintendent at Buffalo and Western New York; was district manager of California, Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico; and since 1906 has been Pacific coast manager.

Kent, Charles W., educator and author of Charlottesville, Va., was born Sept. 27, 1860, in Virginia. Since 1893 he has been professor of literature in the university of Virginia. He is the author of Teutonic Antiquities in Andreas and Elene and other works.

Kent, Henry Oakes, banker of Lancaster, N.H., was born Feb. 7, 1834, in Lancaster, N. H. He is president of the Lancaster Trust company.

Kent, Henry Thomas, manufacturer and banker of Clifton Heights, Pa., was born Nov. 4, 1854, in Upper Darby, Pa. He is president of the First National bank and other corporations.

Kent, Mahlon Brosius, banker of Christiana, Pa., was born Nov. 14, 1841, in Chester county, Pa. He is president of the Christiana National bank and other corporations.

Kent, Orville Clare, lawyer of 353 Centre st., Meadville, Pa., was born June 15, 1876, in Espyville, Pa. Since 1905 he has been district attorney of Crawford county.

Kent, Robert D., banker of 183 Passaic st., Passaic, N.J., was born Oct. 24, 1855, in Wilmington, Del. He is president of the Merchants' bank of Passaic.

Kent, William, business president and statesman of Kentfield, Cal., was born March 29, 1864, in Chicago, Ill. He received the degree of A.B. from Yale college and subsequently the honorary degree of A.M. from that institution. He spent twenty years in Chicago in the banking business and other occupations; and in 1895-97 was a member of the city council. In 1890 he became a partner of his father in the firm of A. E. Kent and Son; and after the death of his father in 1901 became a member of the Kent and Burke company, cattle feeders, live stock and grain dealers of Genoa, Neb. He is also president of the Golconda Cattle company of Nevada. Since 1911 he has been a member of congress from the second district of California, his present term ending in 1915.

Kenton, Jack C., banker of Sterrett, Okla., was born Jan. 21, 1869, in Norborne, Mo. He is cashier and manager of the First National bank.

Kenworthy, W. B., physician and insurance president of Milford, Pa., was born in 1873 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New Jersey.

Kenyon, Grafton Irving, merchant and statesman of South Kingstown, R.I., was born March 18, 1882, in Wakefield. He attended the Burdett business college of Boston. He is president of the Woodrow Wilson club; and scoutmaster of the first S. K. troop of boy scouts. Since 1913 he has been a representative in the Rhode Island state legislature; and is a thirty-two degree Mason.

Kenyon, Jacob Miller, lawyer and financier of 1420 New York ave., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 4, 1870, in Sandy Hill, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of Tucker, Kenyon and MacFarland.

Kenyon, Leelon Bruce, farmer, ranchman and banker of Bainbridge, N.Y. He is president of the State bank.

Kenyon, Ralph Wood, clergyman and educator of 43 Halsey st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been secretary of the faculty of Amity theological schools, New York City.

Kenyon, William Houston, lawyer of 49 Wall st., New York City, was born Jan. 5, 1856, in Hartford, Conn. He is the author of the present Design Patent Law of the United States.

Keplinger, Maurice B., banker of Franklin, Ill., was born in 1871 in Franklin, Ill. He is a member of firm of H. G. and M. B. Keplinger, owners of the Franklin bank.

Keppler, Joseph, publisher and artist of 39 East Houston st., New York City. He is a member of the firm of Keppler and Schwarzman, publishers of Puck.

Keppler, Rudolph, banker and broker of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born in 1843, in Constanz, Germany. He is president of the New York stock exchange and a director of corporations.

Kerckhoff, William George, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 30, 1856, in Terre Haute, Ind. He is commissioner to manage Yosemite Valley. He is president of the Kerckhoff-Cuzner Mill and Lumber company and other corporations.

Kerfoot, Samuel Fletcher, clergyman and college president of Mitchell, S.D., was born in 1865 in Mitchell, S.D. He has been district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church; and is now president of the Dakota Wesleyan university of Mitchell.

Kern, Frederick J., publisher and statesman of Belleville, Ill., was born Sept. 2, 1864, in Millstadt, Ill. For twenty-five years he was editor of the Belleville Daily and Semi-Weekly News Democrat; and has been editor of the East St. Louis Gazette. He served two years as a member of congress. In 1904, 1908, and 1912 he was a delegate to the democratic national convention. He is now president of the state board of administration; and has served five terms as mayor of his city.

Kernan, Walter N., lawyer and railroad president of Utica, N.Y., was born March 20, 1864, in Utica, N.Y. He graduated from Georgetown college in 1885; and has since practiced law in Utica. He is vice-president and general counsel of the New York State railways.

Kerr, Alfred F., banker of El Paso, Texas, was born Dec. 25, 1875, in Fayetteville, Texas. He is vice-president of the El Paso Bank and Trust company.

Kerr, James Manford, editor, lawyer and author of Pasadena, Cal., was born Dec. 30, 1851, near Tippecanoe City, Ohio. He is the author of Business Corporations and other works.

Kerr, John B., lawyer and railroad official of 56 Beaver st., New York City, was born Feb. 1, 1851, in Newburgh, N.Y. He is vice-president and general counsel for the New York, Ontario and Western Railway company.

Kerr, William Jasper, college president and corporation official of Corvallis, Ore., was born Nov. 17, 1863. He has been an instructor in physiology, geology, physics and mathematics; in 1894-1900 was president of Brigham Young college; in 1900-07 was president of the Utah agricultural college; and since 1907 has been president of the Oregon agricultural college. He is president of the board of directors of the Oregon Apple company; and vice-president of the Portland Cement company.

Kersten, George, lawyer and jurist of Chicago, Ill., was born March 21, 1853, in Chicago, Ill. In 1903 he was elected judge of the circuit court of Cook county.

Kessler, Julius, banker of Wellston, Mo., was born Feb. 18, 1860, in Germany. He is president of the State Bank of Wellston. He has been mayor of Bridgeton.

Kester, Paul, dramatist of Gunston, Va., was born Nov. 2, 1870, in Delaware, Ohio. He is the author of many plays, poems and stories, the principal of which are When Knighthood was in Flower, and The Cavalier.

Ketcham, Henry B., lawyer of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born Aug. 8, 1865, in Dover Plains, N.Y. He is a director of the Livingston Realty company.

Kettenring, Peter, manufacturer and banker of Defiance, Ohio, was born Jan. 6, 1836, in Thalieschovich, Bavaria, Germany. He is president of the State bank.

Kettner, William, statesman of San Diego, Cal., was born Nov. 20, 1864, in Ann Arbor, Mich. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Key, Edmund, banker of Marshall, Texas, was born Dec. 25, 1850, in Marshall, Texas. He is president of the First National bank; and president of the Citizens' State bank.

Key, John A., statesman of Marion, Ohio, was born Dec. 30, 1871, in Marion, Ohio. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Keyes, Edward L., surgeon and author of 109 East Thirty-fourth st., New York City, was born Aug. 25, 1843, in Charleston, S.C. Since 1872 he has been a lecturer on dermatology in Bellevue hospital medical college. He is the author of several medical works.

Keyes, Prescott, lawyer and banker of Boston, Mass., was born March 26, 1858, in Concord, Mass. He is president of the Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance company. He is a justice of the district court of central Middlesex.

Keys, Thomas L., physician and banker of Rockwall, Texas, was born May 21, 1856, in Murray, Ky. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Keyser, Robert Brent, manufacturer of Baltimore, Md., was born Aug. 5, 1859, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the Baltimore Copper Smelting and Rolling company.

Kiddoo, Solomon Thomas, banker of Wall, S.D., was born Feb. 16, 1884, in Illinois. He is president of the Security State bank.

Kieb, Raymond Francis Charles, physician and alienist of Beacon, N.Y., was born Aug. 24, 1881, in Lowville, N.Y. He is medical superintendent of the Matteawan state hospital.

Kieckhefer, Ferdinand A. W., manufacturer and capitalist of 2605 Grand ave., Milwaukee, Wis., was born Feb. 10, 1852, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is president of the National Enameling and Stamping company.

Kielland, Soren Theodore Munch Bull, civil engineer of 264 Ellicott square, Buffalo, N.Y., was born Sept. 7, 1854, in Stavenger, Norway. Since 1898 he has been civil engineer of the Buffalo Creek Railroad and a director of various corporations.

Kiess, Edgar Raymond, statesman of Williamsport, Pa., was born Aug. 26, 1875, in Warrensville, Pa. He has been a member of the state legislature; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kilburn, Frederick Douglas, lawyer and banker of Malone, N.Y., was born July 25, 1850, in Clinton county, N.Y. He has been vice-president of the People's National Bank of Malone. He is president of the Malone Light and Power company.

Kilby, Thomas E., manufacturer and banker of Anniston, Ala., was born July 9, 1865, in Lebanon, Tenn. He has been mayor of his city. He has served on the governor's staff with the rank of colonel. Since 1910 he has been a member of the state senate.

Kildahl, John Nathan, college president of Northfield, Minn., was born Jan. 4, 1857, in Beitsladin, Norway. Since 1889 he has been president of St. Olaf college.

Kilgore, Benjamin Wesley, educator and chemist of Raleigh, N.C., was born March 27, 1867. He is state chemist of North Carolina and is a director of the North Carolina agricultural experiment station.

Killinger, Charles Hittell, lawyer and banker of Lebanon, Pa., was born Sept. 15, 1852, in Lebanon, Pa. He is local attorney for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company and president of the Valley National bank.

Killmaster, George B., diplomat of Port Rowan, Ontario, Canada, was born in Canada. In 1906 he was appointed consul at Port Rowan.

Killorin, John F., lumberman and banker of 231 Fifth ave., W., Duluth, Minn., was born July, 1850, in Napanee, Canada. He is president of the Merchants and Miners' State bank.

Kimball, Alfred Sanders, lawyer and banker of Norway, Maine, was born Dec. 20, 1842, in Waterford, Maine. He is president of the Norway Savings bank.

Kimball, Amos Samuel, army officer of Washington, D.C., was born July 14, 1840, in Lawrence, N.Y. He has been brigadier-general in the United States army, and retired in 1902.

Kimball, Arthur Lalanne, scientist and author of Amherst, Mass., was born Oct. 16, 1856, in Succasunna, N.J. He is the author of Physical Properties of Gases.

Kimball, Benjamin Ames, manufacturer, banker and railroad official of Concord, N.H., was born Aug. 22, 1833, in Boscawen, N.H. He is president of the Mechanics' National bank.

Kimball, Charles Dean, pork packer and financier of 459 Washington st., Providence, R.I., was born Sept. 13, 1859, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Fall River Provision company; and has been a state representative.

Kimball,Charles E., railroad official of New York City, was born Sept., 1856, in Bristol, R.I. He is vice-president of the Litchfield and Madison railroad.

Kimball, Daniel Tomlinson, lawyer of 198 Broadway, New York City, was born March 20, 1852, in New York City. He has been employed in many notable cases and is often consulted as expert by other lawyers.

Kimball, David Pulsifer, lawyer, railway official and capitalist of 35 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 30, 1833, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Nashua and Lowell railroad.

Kimball, George Henry, consulting engineer of 1310 Penobscot boul., Detroit, Mich., was born Dec. 8, 1849, in Newburyport,Mass. He is a consulting engineer in general practice and is engineer of the terminal station commission of Buffalo, N.Y.

Kimball, Herbert Harvey, educator and meteorologist of 1819 Monroe st., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 13, 1862, in Hopkinton, N.H. He is professor of meteorology at the United States weather bureau in charge of the solar radiatism investigations.

Kimball, Ingalls, publisher of 150 Fifth ave., New York City, was born April 2, 1874, in West Newton, Mass. He is president of The Cheltenham Press and other corporations.

Kimball, Myron J., lumber merchant and banker of Vineland, N.J., was born Dec. 17, 1846, in Wallingford, Vt. He is president of the Vineland National bank.

Kimball, William C., manufacturer and business president of Passaic, N.J., was born Feb. 11, 1847, in Boxford, Mass. He is vice-president of William Strange company and a director of other corporations.

Kimber, Arthur Clifford, clergyman of 105 East Houston st., New York City, was born Nov. 5, 1844, in New Hamburg, N.Y. Since 1872 he has been vicar of Saint Augustine's chapel, Trinity parish.

Kimber, Robert Bootman, clergyman of 38 Bleecker st., New York City, was born in 1871 in Flushing, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been superintendent of the New York Protestant Episcopal city mission society.

Kimbrough, Allan McCaskill, lawyer of 103 Fulton st., Greenwood, Miss., was born Nov. 24, 1850, in Carrollton, Miss. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Kimbrough, E. R. E., lawyer, jurist and banker of Danville, Ill., was born March 28, 1851, in Edgar county, Ill. He has been circuit judge. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Kinard, John Martin, banker of Newberry, S.C., was born May 17, 1862, in Newberry, S.C. He is president of the Commercial bank.

Kindel, George John, statesman of Denver, Col., was born March 2, 1855, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kindleberger, David, naval officer of Washington, D.C.,was born Sept. 2, 1834, in Smithville, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of rear-admiral. He has had command of the United States navy hospital at Philadelphia.

King, Arthur Scott, physicist of Pasadena, Cal., was born Jan. 18, 1876, in Jerseyville, Ill. Since 1908 he has been superintendent of the physical laboratory of the Mount Wilson solar observatory.

King, C. F., capitalist of New York City, was born in 1867 in North Carolina. He is proprietor of the Boston Daily Tribune, and King's Financial Bulletin and a director of corporations.

King, Charles Henry, farmer and bank director of Dublin, Va., was born Aug. 28, 1842, in Pulaski county, Va. He is a director of the Bank of Dublin.

King, Claude, editor and publisher of 542 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 6, 1861, in Fort Hamilton, N.Y. He founded and is editor of Sports Afield.

King, Clifford Julius, lawyer of 164 Main st., Ashtabula, Ohio, was born Oct. 22, 1865, in Warren, Ohio. He is secretary and treasurer of the Cleveland-Arizona Mining company.

King, Clyde Lanier,manufacturer and bank director of 1200 Marietta st., Atlanta, Ga., was born Aug. 31, 1874, in Lawrenceville, Ga. He is president of the Atlanta Agricultural works.

King, Edward Julian, merchant and diplomat of Hokodate, Japan, was born March 29, 1866, in New York City. In 1904 he was appointed American consular agent at Hakodate, Japan.

King, Harry Andrews, college president of Moores Hill, Ind., was born Oct. 27, 1867, in Kansas City, Mo. Since 1909 he has been president of the Moores Hill college.

King, Henry Barclay, farmer and bank director of Augusta, Ga., was born Aug. 22, 1844, near Augusta, Ga. He is a director of the Georgia Railway and Banking company.

King, Henry Churchill, educator and college president of Oberlin, Ohio, was born Sept. 18, 1858, in Hillsdale, Mich. He has lectured in India, China and Japan. Since 1902 he has been president of Oberlin college.

King, Henry S., banker of 13 West North ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Dec. 24, 1850, in Baltimore City, Md. He is president of the Security Storage and Trust company.

King, Herbert Maxon, physician of Liberty, N.Y., was born Aug. 11, 1864, in Adams, N.Y. He is a member of the New York academy of medicine.

King, Irving, scientist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born July 17, 1874, in Richmond, Va. He is the author of Development of Religion.

King, Joseph Elijah, educator, college president and banker of Fort Edward, N.Y., was born Nov. 30, 1832, in Laurens, N.Y. He is president of the Fort Edward National bank; and of the Fort Edward collegiate institute.

King, Joseph Harrington, banker of Hartford, Conn., was born July 28, 1855, in East Hartford,Conn. He is president of the American National bank.

King, Morris K., railroad official of Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 16, 1844, in New York, N.Y. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Maryland and Pennsylvania railroad.

King, Pendleton, diplomat of Aix La Chapelle, German Empire, Prussia, was born in North Carolina. In 1905 he was appointed consul at Aix la Chapelle.

King, Richard Herbert,merchant and banker of Alvin, Texas, was born Dec. 23, 1862. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

King, Rockwell,business president and capitalist of 63 Hawthorne place, Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 7, 1853, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of King and Andrews company and is connected with other corporations.

King, Samuel Thomas, physician and surgeon of 34 Green ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born April 29, 1857, in Warrensburgh, N.Y. He has been a member of the city health board.

King, Sibley P., wholesale lumber and land dealer and banker of 2010 Second ave., Birmingham, Ala., was born in Mobile, Ala. He is sole owner of the King Lumber company and is connected with various other corporations.

King, Theophilus, manufacturer, financier and banker of Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 14, 1844, in Rochester,Mass. He is president of the American Cash Register company.

King, Warren Milton, banker of 130 Main st., Northampton, Mass., was born Aug. 2, 1856, in Greenfield, Mass. He is vice-president and cashier of the Northampton Savings National bank.

King,William Byrd,railroad official of Fort Worth, Texas, was born Dec. 29, 1850, in Orange county, Va. He is vice-president of the Fort Worth Belt railroad.

Kingsbury, Edward L., railroad president of Arkansas City, Kan., was born Oct. 7, 1862, in Burlington, Kan. Since 1903 he has been president of the Kansas Southwestern railroad.

Kingsbury, John Adams, social worker of 105 East Twenty-second st., New York City, was born Aug. 30, 1866, in Horton, Kan. He is general director of the New York association for improving the conditions of the poor.

Kingsbury, Selden Bingham, lawyer and jurist of Wailuku, Hawaii, was born Oct. 29, 1840, in Lorain county, Ohio. He served in an Ohio regiment during the civil war. Since 1909 he has been circuit judge of Hawaii.

Kingsland, William A., railroad official of Quebec, Canada, was born Jan. 5, 1869, in New York City. He has been in railway service since 1887. In 1889-1910 was in the office of the auditor of freight accounts of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad. Since 1900 he has been auditor of the Canadian Northern Quebec railway and also since 1907 he has been auditor of the Quebec and Lake St. John railway.

Kingsley, Norman William, dentist, sculptor and author of Warren Point, N.J., was born Oct. 26, 1829, in St. Lawrence county, New York. He has been president of the state dental society. He is the author of Treatise on Oral Deformities and other works.

Kingston, Henry H., business president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 7, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Investment company of Philadelphia and a director of other corporations.

Kinnan, Alexander Phoenix Waldron,banker and capitalist of 701 Sixth ave., New York City, was born March 13, 1856, in New York City. He engaged in the wholesale grocery business, and became a member of the firm of J. Romaine Brown and company; and since 1887 has been engaged in the real estate business. He is president of the Union Dime Savings bank, and a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and other corporations.

Kinne, Arthur B., physician of 410 East Genesee st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Sept. 25, 1850, in De Witt, N.Y. He is president on the staff of the Syracuse homeopathic hospital.

Kinne, Edward DeWitt, jurist and banker of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Feb. 9, 1842, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Kinnear, Wilson Sherman, railroad president of New York City, was born May 25, 1864, in Circleville, Ohio. Since 1912 he has been president of the United States Realty and Improvement company.

Kinney, Eugene L., farmer and banker of Hankinson, N.D., was born Dec. 15, 1860, in Avon, Wis. He is cashier of the First National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Kinney, Francis Sherwood, manufacturer of 135 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 16, 1839, in New Brighton, Staten Island. He is the founder of the firm of Kinney Brothers.

Kinney, Timothy, stockman and banker of Rock Springs, Wyo., was born in 1846 in Ireland. Since 1892 he has been engaged in banking business, and is one of the largest stockmen of Wyoming.

Kinnicutt, Lincoln Newton,banker of Worcester, Mass., was born March 14, 1849, in Worcester, Mass. He is senior member of the firm of Kinnicutt and De Witt, bankers.

Kinsella, M. Joseph, publisher and founder of Buffalo, N.Y.,was born in 1868 in Medina, N.Y. He graduated from the Buffalo state normal school and from Cornell university. He practiced law for a short time in Buffalo; and later became a publisher of standard reference book. He is the founder, principal owner, general manager and president of The Frontier Press company of Buffalo, N.Y.

Kinsella, William J., business president of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 8, 1845, in Carlow, Ireland. He has been a resident of St. Louis since 1870; and is president of the Hanley and Kinsella Coffee and Spice company. He is also vice-president of the Industrial Loan company, known as the Poor Man's bank; vice-president of the American bank and a director of the St. Louis United railways and other corporations. He is a member of the board of governors of Father Dunne's newsboys' home.

Kinsey, George Holmes, banker of Arcadia, Neb., was born April 6, 1867, in Cadiz, Ohio. He is president of the State bank.

Kinsman, Frank E., electrical engineer of 55 Dey st., New York City, was born in Leominster, Mass. He is president of the Kinsman Block System company.

Kinsolving, Arthur B., clergyman of 24 West Saratoga st., Baltimore, Md. He is rector of St. Paul's church.

Kinsports, Porter, merchant, lumberman and banker of Cherry Tree, Pa., was born Sept. 6, 1831, in Frankstown, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the St. Lawrence Boom and Manufacturing company.

Kinyon, George Riley, banker of 344 East Vine st., Owatonna, Minn., was born May 31, 1861, in Owatonna, Minn. He is president of the First National bank.

Kinyon, Sidney William, banker of Owatonna, Minn., was born March 18, 1899, in Owatonna, Minn. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Kinyon, William R., banker and capitalist of Owatonna, Minn., was born in February, 1833, in Jefferson county, N.Y. He has been president of the First National bank.

Kirby, John, manufacturer and capitalist of Dayton, Ohio, was born May 16, 1850, in Troy, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Mercantile Metal Milling company.

Kirby, John Henry, capitalist of Houston, Texas, was born Nov. 16, 1860, in Peach Tree Village, Texas. He was president of the Texas world's fair commissioners. He is president of the Kirby Lumber company.

Kirby, Stephen Robinson, banker of Hibbing, Minn., was born in 1876 in Wyandotte, Mich. He is president of the Miners' State bank.

Kirby, Thomas E., business president and director of 6 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Nov. 14, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since a boy he has been identified with the auctioneering business; later becoming a partner of John Ortgies, conducting sales of Oriental porcelains, valuable paintings and other art and literary property; and since 1882 has been connected with the American art association, of which he is now the active partner and managing director. He is president of the Mount Kisco Automobile company of New York. He has traveled extensively in the United States, Europe and Japan. He served for five years from private to first lieutenant in the first regiment Pennsylvania state militia.

Kirk, Desault B., banker and manufacturer of Mount Vernon, Ohio, was born Sept. 21, 1846, in Mount Vernon, Ohio. He is president of the Mount Vernon Gas company.

Kirk, Felix, farmer, merchant and banker of Collierville, Tenn., was born Jan. 2, 1848, in Shelby county, Tenn. He is president of the People's bank.

Kirk, Frank Eugene, banker of Watsontown, Pa., was born Dec. 14, 1858, in Greece, N.Y. He is president of the Watsontown National bank and other corporations.

Kirk, John R., educator and college president of Kirksville, Mo., was born Jan. 1, 1851, in Illinois. He was educated in the high school of Bethany, Mo., the Kirksville normal school, the university of Kansas and the university of Missouri. He is a member of the republican party; and a member of the Methodist church. He has been superintendent of schools of Bethany, Mo., superintendent of schools of Westport, Mo., in 1895-99 was state superintendent of schools of Missouri; and in 1899 was school inspector of the university of Missouri. Since 1909 he has been president of the state normal school.

Kirk, Milton W., manufacturer of 360 North Water st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 18, 1846, in Utica, N.Y. He is president of James S. Kirk and company.

Kirk, William, educator and social worker of 259 Westminster road, Rochester, N.Y., was born May 7, 1880, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1911 he has been professor and head of the department of economics and sociology at the university of Rochester.

Kirkbride, Pennell Churchman, stock broker of 115 South Fourth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1875 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia stock exchange. He served in the Spanish-American war.

Kirkland, Dixon Fay, railway official of Manchester, Ga., was born June 1, 1866, in Lowndes county, Ga., on his father's plantation. He entered railway service in 1883; has been train conductor, locomotive fireman, telegraph operator, in 1889-91 was dispatcher for the Georgia, Southern and Florida railway at Macon, and in 1891-98 was dispatcher of the Plant system. In 1898-1900 he was trainmaster, in 1900-05 was division superintendent; in 1901-11 chief clerk of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railway; and since 1912 has been superintendent of that road.

Kirkman, Marshall Monroe, author of Chicago, Ill., was born July 10, 1842, in Morgan county, Ill. Since 1870 he has been a constant writer of histories, economics, industrial and other subjects. He is the author of The Romance of Gilbert Holmes, Primitive Peoples and Carriers, The Science of Railways and History of Alexander the Great.

Kirkpatrick, Elbert M., banker and land owner of Parma, Idaho, was born Sept. 12, 1870, in Illinois. He is president of the Parma State bank; president of the Roswell Park Fruit company; and president of the Irrigation District, ltd.

Kirkpatrick, James Percy, railroad official of Regina, Canada, was born July 21, 1875, in Stratford, Ontario, Canada. He was educated at Valparaiso, Ind. He entered railway service in 1889, has been passenger conductor and trainmaster; and since 1912 division superintendent, Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Kirkpatrick, Sanford, statesman of Ottumwa, Iowa, was born Feb. 11, 1842, in Madison county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kirsch, Mathias, lumberman and banker of Decatur, Ind., was born Aug. 17, 1856, in Dossenheim, Germany. He is vice-president of the Adams County bank.

Kirscher, George Franklin, banker of Little Falls, Minn., was born April 20, 1862, in Watertown, N.Y. He is president of the Merchants' State bank.

Kiser, Charles R., physician and banker of Madison, Ill., was born Nov. 7, 1866, in Dayton, Ohio. He is president of the Tri-City State bank.

Kissam, Henry Snyder, architect of 156 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Feb. 22, 1866, in New York City. He is a member of the architectural league of New York City.

Kissel, Gustav Edward, banker of 37 Wall st., New York City, was born Sept. 30, 1854, in New York City. He is a director of the Commercial Trust company and other corporations.

Kissell, Harry Seaman, real estate broker and financier of Springfield, Ohio, was born Sept. 24, 1875, in Springfield, Ohio. He is president of the Ideal Realty company.

Kitchen, Claude, lawyer and statesman of Scotland Neck,N.C., was born March 24,1869, in Halifax county, N.C. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Kittredge, Alfred Beard, statesman of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born March 28, 1861, in Cheshire county, N.H. He has been United States senator.

Klapproth, Hugo, editor, author and poet of St. Paul, Minn., was born Aug. 29, 1848, in Germany. Since 1883 he has been editor of Der Wanderer of St. Paul. He is the author of several works in German.

Klar, A. Julian, civil engineer and traveler of 131 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in Berlin, Germany. He was educated at Riga college and received the degree of M.E. from Riga polytechnic, Russia. He was formerly engaged in practice as a mechanical engineer in Europe and afterward in the United States. He has traveled extensively in Russia, Holland, England, France, Spain, Italy and Europe, and in numerous other countries. In 1895-98 he was battalion quartermaster-sergeant in the coast artillery of the New York national guard. He is a member of the national geographical society and numerous other scientific and patriotic associations.

Klasing, August F., merchant and banker of 5025 Broadway, St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 1, 1850, in Germany. He is vice-president of the Jefferson Mutual Life Insurance company.

Klatt, Henry, banker of Tripp, S.D., was born June 10, 1865, in West Bend, Wis. He is president of the Dakota State bank.

Klein, C. H., manufacturer and banker of Chaska, Minn., was born June 2, 1872, in Carver county, Minn. He is president of the First National bank.

Klein, Paul, business man and statesman of 201 West Madison st., Iola, Kan., was born Sept. 7, 1856, in Mascautah, Ill. For many years he was engaged in agricultural pursuits; and since 1887 has also been in the mercantile business; and is now a successful lumber dealer. He has filled several positions of trust and honor; and is now a member of the Kansas state senate from the fourteenth senatorial district.

Klein, Simon Robert, physician and scientist of 2321 Cambrelling ave., Bronx, New York City,was born Dec.23, 1868, in Austria. He became officer of the army, first lieutenant, 1892; captain, 1899; first class, 1902; and major, 1906. In 1908 he became professor of the Chicago university; in 1910 taught in Fordham university histology and embryology; and bacteriologist of the pasteur institute. At the present time he is engaged in interesting work on hydrophobia and cancer. Now publishing a manual on laboratory work in five volumes. He is now registrar of the American association of clinical research; and public lecturer to board of education of New York City on tuberculosis.

Klein, William, lawyer and business president of 346 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 13, 1876, in New York City. He is secretary and director of the Shubert-Anderson company, controlling the New York hippodrome and counsel for corporations.

Kliebenstein, Louis Frederick, banker of Tripp, S.D., was born on March 25, 1871, in Franklin Center, Iowa. He is cashier of the Dakota State bank.

Kline, Clarence Winfield, lawyer and banker of Hazleton, Pa., was born Oct. 25, 1852, in Columbia county, Pa. He is first vice-president, trust officer and general solicitor of the Markle Building and Trust company.

Kline, Mahlon N., business president of Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. He is president and general manager of the Smith, Kline and French company of Philadelphia.

Kline, Wiles Hunt, cotton merchant of Yazoo City, Miss., was born July 20, 1855, in Mississippi. He is president of the Yazoo yarn mill.

Klock, Jay E., journalist and publisher of 3 Broadway, Kingston, N.Y., was born Feb. 14, 1864, in Hammond, N.Y. He attended the Albany boys' academy. In 1885 he became a member on the editorial staff of the Albany Evening Journal. In 1889 he purchased the controlling interest in the Little Falls Daily Times; and in 1891 purchased the Kingston Daily Freeman, which he has since successfully conducted and also developed a large job printing business.

Kloke, Frederick, farmer and banker of Calexico, Cal., was born Nov. 15, 1860, in Germany. He is president of the Calexico National bank.

Klopsch, Louis, journalist of 100 East Seventeenth st., New York City, was born on March 26, 1852, in Germany. He is founder and president of the Christian Herald children's home at Nyack, N.Y.

Klotz, Hermann Gustav, physician of 130 West Fifty-eighth st., New York City, was born Aug. 21, 1844, in Germany. Since 1879 he was attending physician for skin and venereal diseases in the German hospital.

Klotz, Oskar, physician and lecturer of the university of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 21, 1878, in Preston, Ontario, Canada. Since 1910 he has been professor of pathology and bacteriology in the university of Pittsburgh. He is the author of Diseases of the Liver and other medical works.

Klotz, Otto Julius, astronomist of Ottawa, Canada, was born March 31, 1852, in Preston, Ontario, Canada. He graduated from the university of Michigan. In 1872-84 he was explorer and topographer for the Dominion government; and since 1885 has been Dominion astronomist. He is the author ot numerous papers on astronomy, terrestrial magnetism and kindred subjects.

Klugh,William K., banker of Lemoyne,Pa., was born March 20, 1875, in Franklintown, Pa. He is treasurer of the Lemoyne Trust company.

Knapp, Charles, educator of New York City, was born June 22, 1868, in New York City. Since 1906 he has been head of the department of classical philology at the Columbia university.

Knapp, Charles Welbourne, journalist and publisher of 4943 Maryland ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 23, 1848, in St. Louis, Mo. He is publisher of the St. Louis Republican. He has been president of the Associated Press.

Knapp, Henry Alonzo, lawyer and banker of Scranton, Pa., was born July 24, 1851, in Barker, N.Y. He is vice-president and director of the Title Guaranty and Surety company.

Knapp, Jacob Hermann, physician of 26 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born March 17, 1832, in Dauborn, Prussia. He has been professor of ophthalmology in the medical school of New York university.

Knapp,Martin Augustine, lawyer and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 6, 1843, in Spofford, N.Y. Since 1891 he has been a member of the United States interstate commerce commission.

Knapp, Sewell A., broker and mine owner of San Francisco, Cal., was born in Columbia, Cal. He received an academic education. He is one of the principal owners of the Black Oak mine in Tuolumne county, Cal. He is the author of articles on the Recovery of Sodium Carbonate in the Great Basin and other Monographs.

Knapp, Wallace Percy, lawyer of 15 William st., New York City, was born Aug. 7, 1863, in Connecticut. He is a member of the New York bar association.

Knapp, Walter H., lawyer of Canandaigua, N.Y., was born March 23, 1856, in Hopewell, N.Y. In 1902 he was re-elected county judge.

Knapp, Wilmot E., lawyer of 401 Grove st., Elmira, N.Y., was born Nov. 26, 1857, in Springfield, Pa. Since 1907 he has been district attorney of Chemung county.

Kneeland, Andrew Delos, lawyer of 115 Broadway, New York City, was born May 6, 1863, in Binghamton, N.Y. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from the Madison university of Hamilton, N.Y. In 1891-96 he was city attorney for Rome, N.Y.; since 1902 has practiced law in New York City; and is now senior member of the law firm of Kneeland, Files and Reese of New York City.

Kneeland, Martin Dwelle, clergyman, lecturer and author of 715 Tremont Temple, Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 24, 1848, in Onondaga county, N.Y. In 1908 he was a delegate to the republican state convention at Massachusetts. He is general secretary of the Lord's Day league of New England.

Knight, Augustus S., medical director of 1 Madison ave., New York City, was born on Nov. 21, 1864, in Manchester, Mass. He has received the degrees of A. B. and M.D. He is medical director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company; and is a member of numerous clubs and medical societies.

Knight,Charles Calvin, physician and banker of 1018 Park st., Peekskill, N.Y., was born April 16, 1833, in Stafford, Conn. He is vice-president of the Peekskill Savings bank.

Knight, Charles Huntoon, physician of 147 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1849, in Easthampton, Mass. He is a director of the Manhattan eye, ear and throat hospital.

Knight, Erastus Cole, public official and statesman of Buffalo, N.Y., was born March 1, 1857, in Buffalo, N.Y. He has been a member of the New York state legislature; and mayor of his city.

Knight,Harry French, stock and bond broker of 412 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 18, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the A. G. Edwards and Sons, brokerage company.

Knight, Henry Granger, dean and chemist of Laramie, Wyo., was born July 21, 1878, in Benington, Kan. He is dean of the agricultural college and director of the agricultural experiment station.

Knight, Newell Clark, broker of 160 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born April 25, 1862, in St. Louis, Mo. He is a dealer in municipal and corporation bonds as Newell C. Knight and company.

Knight, Robert, manufacturer and banker of Providence, R.I., was born Jan. 8, 1826, in Old Warwick, R.I. He is president of the National bank of commerce.

Knight, Webster, merchant and banker of 3 Washington Row, Providence, R.I., was born in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Phoenix National bank.

Knipp, Charles H., lawyer of 124 Lake st., Elmira, N.Y., was born on Aug. 7, 1858, in Corning, N.Y. He is senior member of the firm of Knipp, Aldridge and Losie.

Knoke,George, capitalist, cotton merchant and banker of New Braunsfells, Texas, was born Jan. 10, 1854, in Gottingen, Germany. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Knopf, Philip, statesman of 471 North Hoyne ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 18, 1847, in Lake county, Ill. He has been a state senator and has been a member of congress.

Knopf, S. Adolphus,physician and surgeon of 16 West Ninety-fifth st., New York City, was born Nov. 27, 1857, in Germany. He received a thorough education; and has attained success as a noted consulting physician of New York City. He was vice-president of the Pennsylvania society for the prevention of tuberculosis; and in 1905 was a delegate to the international tuberculosis congress at Paris, France. He is a director in the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis; and associate-director of the health department's clinic for pulmonary diseases.

Knott, Hon. A. Leo, lawyer and statesman of 1029 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born in Frederick county, Md. He has been a member of the Maryland state legislature; and in 1885 became second assistant postmaster-general. He is an orator and an authority on Maryland history.

Knowland, Joseph Russell, merchant,financier and statesman of 969 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., was born Aug. 5, 1873, in Alameda, Cal. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. In 1904-10 he was a member of congress.

Knowles, Edward Randall, journalist and author of Taunton, Mass., was born Jan. 10, 1861, in North Providence, R.I. He is commander of the Ottoman order of Medjidieh; and a member of many learned societies.

Knowles, John Harris, clergyman of 113 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born April 24, 1832, in Cork, Ireland. In 1906 he was appointed honorary canon of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul.

Knowles, William Hyer, banker of Pensacola, Fla., was born Dec. 27, 1857, in Pensacola, Fla. He is president of the First National bank and other corporations.

Knowlton,Elliot Anesworth,merchant,manufacturer and banker of Rochester, Minn., was born Sept. 10, 1844, in Wardsboro, Vt. He is president of the Union National bank.

Knox, Frank, banker of 200 South Main st., Salt Lake City, Utah, was born in Washington, Iowa. He is president of the National bank of the Republic.

Knox, George Washington, engineer of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 21, 1865, in Milledgeville, Ill. He is president of the Knox Engineering company and other corporations.

Knox,James L.,railroad president of Coudersport, Pa., where he was born on Sept. 26, 1851. Since 1892 he has been president of the Coudersport and Port Allegheny railroad.

Knox, John T., lawyer of Penn Yan, N.Y., was born Feb. 26, 1844, in Wilson, N.Y. He has been district attorney for Yates county.

Knox, Manasseh Stewart, retired farmer and banker of Havensville, Kan., was born in 1843 in New York. He is president of the First National bank.

Knox,Philadender Chase,statesman of 1527 K st., Washington, D.C., was born May 6, 1853, in Brownsville, Pa. He has been secretary of state of the United States.

Knox, Willis Robert,farmer and banker of Intercourse, Pa., was born July 3, 1871, in Intercourse, Pa. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Knudson, Ingvald Lauritz,banker of Leeds, N.D., was born Sept. 15, 1883, in Audubon, Minn. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Knudson, Theodore E., banker of Wolverton, Minn., was born March 6, 1880, in Rothsay, Minn. He is cashier of the Wolverton State bank.

Kobbe, George C., lawyer of 44 Wall st., New York City, was born Sept. 27, 1852, in New York. He is president of the Brooklyn Bridge Freezing and Cold Storage company and a director of other corporations.

Kobbe, Walter, merchant of 412 West End ave., New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1850, in New York City. He is head of the New York house of C. J. Bonnett, Kobbe and company.

Koch, Ernest Henry, banker of El Campo, Texas, was born Feb. 28, 1870, in Hanover, Germany. He is president of the Bay City bank.

Koch, William J., banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 18, 1839, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Mutual Trust company.

Kochersperger, Hiram, railroad official of New Haven, Conn., was born Dec. 27, 1856, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Koehler,Hugo Arthur,capitalist of St.Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 22, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Independent Breweries company.

Koehler,Robert,artist of Minneapolis,Minn., was born in 1850 in Germany. He has been president of the Minnesota state art society.

Koenig,Edgar Ludwig, banker of Plymouth, Neb., was born June 12, 1880, in Canada. He is cashier of the bank of Plymouth.

Koester, Frank, banker of Crosby,N.D.,was born Dec. 12, 1868, in Hirschburg, Germany. He is vice-president of the First State bank of Stady, N.D.

Kokes, Vincent, banker of Ord, Neb., was born on March 16, 1866, in Bohemia. He is cashier of the Ord State bank.

Kolb, William Leggett, clergyman of Bristol, Pa.,was born Oct. 17, 1851, in New York City. He has filled pastorates in Philadelphia and Bristol, Pa. In 1891-97 was pastor in New Haven, Conn.; and from 1897, in Bristol, Pa., now retired from active work.

Kollock, Charles Wilson, physician of 86 Wentworth st., Charleston, S.C., was born on April 29, 1857, in South Carolina. He graduated from the Virginia military institute, and received his medical degree from the university of Pennsylvania. He has been president of the medical society of South Carolina, president of the South Carolina medical association,and president of tri-state medical association of the Carolinas and Virginia. He has been a member of the Charleston board of health; and professor of rhinology and laryngology in the medical college of the university of South Carolina.

Koons,Tilghman B.,railroad official of New York City, was born on May 29, 1852, in Treichlers, Pa. Since 1913 he has been vice-president of the Central railroad of New Jersey.

Koontz, George Washington, lawyer and banker of Iowa City, Iowa, was born March 20, 1845, in Washington, Pa. He has been president of the County Savings bank. He has been a state representative.

Kopelke,Johannes,lawyer,jurist and statesman of Crown Point, Ind., was born June 14, 1854, in Germany. He has been state senator. Since 1911 he has been judge of the superior court.

Koplik, Henry, physician of 692 Madison ave., New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1858, in New York City. Since 1900 he has been attending physician at the Mount Sinai hospital.

Kopmeier, John Henry,merchant and philanthropist of Milwaukee, Wis., was born on Feb. 16, 1854, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is president of Wisconsin Lakes Ice and Cartage company. He is president of the Milwaukee home finding association.

Kortright, Frederic Lawrence,educator and chemist of 234 Jackson ave., Morgantown, W.Va., was born June 10, 1867, in Middletown, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been professor of chemistry in the West Virginia university.

Kotinsky, Jacob, entomologist of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born July 22, 1873, in Poltava, Russia. He is assistant entomologist of the Hawaiian board of agriculture and forestry.

Kountze,Augustus Frederick,banker of 141 Broadway, New York City, was born March 4, 1870, in Omaha, Neb. He graduated from the Sheffield scientific school; Yale university with the degree of Ph.B.; since 1892 he has been engaged in the banking business in New York City; and is a member of the firm of Kountze Brothers.

Kovarik, Alois Francis, educator and scientist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born on March 8, 1880, in Spillville, Iowa. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and Ph. D. In 1904-12 he was instructor and since 1912 assistant professor of physics in the university of Minnesota. He is author of a Monograph on the effects of changes of pressure and temperature in gases upon the velocity of a negative ion produced by the ultra-violet light.

Kracke, Frederick John Henry, naval officer and merchant of 11 Kenmore place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 11, 1868, in New York City. He is president of the Tayntor Construction company.

Kraemer, Henry, educator and scientist of 145 North Tenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 22, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of Ph.G., Ph.B., Ph. D. and Ph.M. Since 1897 he has been professor of botany and pharmacognosy, and director in the microscopical laboratories of the Philadelphia college of pharmacy. Since 1898 he has been editor of the American Journal of Pharmacy.

Kraemer,Louis F.,manufacturer and banker of Reading, Pa., was born July 30, 1854, in Greenville, Conn. He is president of the Colonial Trust company and a director of other corporations.

Kraft, John E., commissioner of Kingston, N.Y., was born in 1865, in Kingston, N.Y. He is general manager of the Dr. J. A. Deane and company; and a trustee of the Kingston Savings bank.

Kramer, Frank Alexander, merchant and banker of Gaylord, Mich., was born Jan. 3, 1853, in Russia. He is president of the Gaylord State Savings bank.

Kramer, Wilbur Heath, public official of Franklin, St. Mary's Parish, La. For many years he has been prominently identified with the business and public affairs of his city, county and state. He has filled several positions of trust and honor; and is now serving as clerk of Franklin, La.

Krans, Horation Sheafe, magazine writer and editor of 29 West Eighty-fourth st.,New York City, was born Dec. 9, 1872, in Boston, Mass. He is associate editor of the International Year Book, and is engaged in critical editorial work on various magazines and papers.

Kraus, Edward Henry,scientist and author of 722 Church st., Ann Arbor,Mich.,was born Dec. 1, 1875, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is the author of Descriptive Mineralogy.

Krause, Ernest John, merchant and capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 26, 1871, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president and treasurer of the Willis Coal and Mining company.

Krebs, George Jacob, banker of Somerset, Pa., was born Oct. 12, 1871, in Danville, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the Somerset Trust company.

Krehbiel, Edward Benjamin, educator and lecturer of Stanford university,Cal.,was born in 1878 in Illinois. Since 1912 he has been professor of modern European history in the Stanford university. He is the author of The Intervict and other works.

Krehbiel, Henry Edward, lecturer and musician of 152 West One Hundred and Fifth st., New York City,was born March 10, 1854, in Ann Arbor, Mich. He is musical critic of the New York Tribune and a lecturer at the institute of music of New York City.

Kreider, Aaron Kreider, manufacturer and statesman of Annville, Pa., was born June 26, 1863, in Lebanon county, Pa. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Krez, Paul Theodore, lawyer and jurist of Sheboygan, Wis., was born Aug. 20, 1860, in Sheboygan,Wis. Since 1902 he has been county judge.

Krick, George H.,banker of 12 South Main st., Shenandoah, Pa., was born Dec. 25, 1862, in Ashland, Pa. He is cashier of the Citizens' National bank.

Kriege, Otto Edward, educator, clergyman and college president of Warrenton,Mo., was born Nov. 20, 1865, in Belleville, Ill. He is president of the central Wesleyan college.

Krieger, Frederick August, merchant and banker of Livingston, Mont., was born Nov. 17, 1856, in Winona, Minn. He is president of the Yellowstone Valley Land and Irrigation company.

Kroeze, Barend H., educator of Tacoma, Wash., was born in 1869 in the Netherlands. He is president of Whitworth college.

Krome, William H., banker and statesman of Edwardsville, Ill., was born July 1, 1842, in Louisville, Ky. He has been a state senator. He has been president of the Bank of Edwardsville since 1900.

Kuebler, William A., merchant and banker of Decatur, Ind., was born Feb. 25, 1856, in Tiffin, Ohio. He is president of the Kuebler company.

Kuhne, Percival, banker and financier of 15 William st., New York City, was born April 6, 1861, in New York City. He was educated in the college City of New York, and continued in Germany his preparation for a business career. In 1884 he entered a banking house of Knauth, Nachod and Kuhne, founded by his father, whose interests, in both New York City and Leipzig,he succeeded in 1893, from which he retired as an active partner on December 31, 1909. He is a member of the New York chamber of commerce; and was a founder and organizer of the Colonial Trust company, which was subsequently merged into the Trust company of America. He is also a trustee of the Citizens' Savings bank; a trustee of the Empire Trust company; a trustee in the Lincoln Safe Deposit company; and is closely identified with the affairs of several other prominent institutions. He is a veteran of company K, seventh regiment,New York national guard; is a prominent Mason;and a member of the Union, Metropolitan and Union League clubs of New York City.

Kuiken, Benjamin, banker of Ionia, Kan., was born May 20, 1855, in Holland, Mich. He is president of the Ionia State bank.

Kummel, Henry Barnard, geologist of 917 Edgewood ave., Trenton,N.J., was born May 25, 1867, in Milwaukee, Wis. Since 1901 he has been state geologist of New Jersey.

Kunz, Edward, merchant, real estate broker and bank director of Wesley, Iowa, was born March 1, 1873, in Watertown, Wis. He is president of the Iowa Canadian Land company.

Kunz, George Frederick, gem expert and scientist of 401 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in New York City. He is third vice-president and gem expert for Tiffany company. In 1882-1909 he was special agent of the United States geological survey. He has been president of the New York mineralogical club; and honorary curator of precious stones in the American museum of natural history. He is president of the American scenic and historic preservation society. He is senior joint-author of Book of the Pearl and author of over one hundred books and pamphlets on gems and minerals.

Kunze, Edward Joseph, educator and scientist of East Lansing,Mich.,was born March 24, 1875, in Newark, N.J. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.E. and M.A. For nearly twenty years he was a toolmaker, machinist, draftsman and engineer. In 1908-09 he was instructor in the department of science and technology at the Pratt institute; and in 1909-10 was instructor of steam and gas engineering at the university of Wisconsin. Since 1910 he has been assistant professor of mechanical engineering in charge of machine design and construction at the Michigan state college.

Kunze, George William, farmer and banker of Marissa, Ill., was born July 30, 1839, in Germany. He is president of the Bank of Marissa.

Kurth, Robert, banker and livestock dealer of Neillsville, Wis., was born April 14, 1866, in West Bend, Wis. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Kurtz, Charles Lindley, business president of Columbus, Ohio, was born May 4, 1854, in Albany, Ohio. He is president of the Keever Starch company.

Kurtz, Edward B., miner and manufacturer of 5 Nassau st., New York City, was born Sept. 30, 1860, in Albany, Ohio. He is president of the American Finance and Securities company and other corporations.

Kurtz,Theodore M.,coal mine operator and statesman of Punxsutawney, Pa., was born Feb. 27, 1868, in Jackson county, Pa. He was educated at Waynesburg college. He was formerly one of the publishers of Punxsutawney Spirit; and is now engaged as a coal mine operator. Since 1908 he has been a member of the Pennsylvania state senate.

Kyle, Hugh Graham, lawyer and banker of Rogersville, Tenn., was born Dec. 27, 1849, in Rogersville, Tenn. He is vice-president of the Great Mountain Coal and Coke company.

Kyle, T. S., manufacturer of Gadsden,Ala., was born Dec. 18, 1865, in Jacksonville, Ala. He is lieutenant-colonel on the staff of the governor of Alabama. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

LaBar,George D.,banker of Brainerd,Minn., was born Sept. 4, 1866, in Berlin, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

Labrick, Edgar Olin,farmer,merchant,fruit grower and banker of Middletown, Va., was born June 16, 1857, in Middletown, Va. He is president of the Middletown State bank.

Lachman,Samson, lawyer of 313 West One Hundred and Sixth st., New York City, was born May 2, 1855, in New York City. He is now a member of the firm of Lachman and Goldsmith.

Lackey,Thomas Stephens,lawyer and banker of 43 East Main st., Uniontown, Pa., was born Dec. 4, 1855, in Fayette City, Pa. He is president of the People's bank of Fayette county and a director of other corporations.

Lackey, William Gatewood, banker of 201 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born April 18, 1872, in Lincoln county, Ky. He is president of the Litchfield Lamp Manufacturing company.

Lackner,Francis, lawyer of 69 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 14, 1840, in Detroit, Mich. He is senior member of the firm of Lackner, Butz and Miller.

Lacy, Benjamin William,lawyer and banker of Dubuque, Iowa, was born March 12, 1849, in Locke, N.Y. He is president of the Iowa Trust and Savings bank.

Lacy,Graham Gordon,banker of 2912 Frederick blvd., St. Joseph, Mo., was born Aug. 3, 1858, in Virginia. He is vice-president of the Tootle-Lemon National bank.

Lacy, Henry, banker of Syracuse,N.Y.,was born Sept. 28, 1845, in Liverpool, N.Y. He is president of the Third National bank.

Lacy, William Henry, clergyman and missionary of 10 Woosung road, Shanghai, China, was born Jan. 8, 1858, in Milwaukee, Wis. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M., S.T.B., and B.D. Since 1913 he has been manager of the Methodist publishing house in China.

Ladd, Horatio Oliver, educator, clergyman and author of 431 Greenwood ave., Richmond Hill, New York, was born on Aug. 31, 1839, in Hallowell, Maine. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and S.T.D. He has been pastor and professor in the Olivet college, Mich.; principal of the state normal school of New Hampshire; president of the first incorporated university of New Mexico; and rector of Grace church, Jamaica, N.Y. As an educator he was prominent in founding Indian schools in the southwest, supported by the United States government. He is the author of three books on American History—The War With Mexico; The Story of New Mexico and The Founding of the Episcopal Church in Dutchess County, N.Y.

Ladd, William Mead, banker of Portland, Ore., was born Sept. 16, 1855, in Portland, Ore. He is president of the Ladd and Tilton bank.

Ladinski, Louis J., physician of New York City, was born Oct. 15, 1862, in Russia. He is consulting gynecologist to the Jewish hospital, and has contributed to medical literature.

LaDow, Orville D., business president of 57 West Tenth st., New York City, was born Oct. 9, 1852, in Ballston, N.Y. He is president of the National Gramophone corporation and other corporations.

Lafayette-Savay,Norbert, lawyer and publicist of New Orleans, La., was born Nov. 27, 1874, in New Orleans, La. He fought for the liberation of Cuba. He is president of the Standard Oil Engine company of America. He is the author of Theory and Practice and other works.

Lafean, Daniel Franklin, capitalist and statesman of 1001 West Market st., York, Pa., was born Feb. 7, 1861, in York, Pa. He is president of the American Silk company and other corporations.

Lafferty, Charles, banker of Vineland, N. J., was born July 10, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is cashier of the Vineland National bank.

Lafferty, James Patrick,lawyer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 3, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is editor of the Catholic Abstainer. He is the author of Religious Unrest and other works.

Laflin, Herbert Norman,lawyer of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Sept. 23, 1869. He received the degree of LL. B. from the university of Wisconsin. In 1894 he was city attorney of Mineral Point, Wis. He is third assistant counsel of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee. He is president of the voters' league of Milwaukee, and a thirty-third degree mason.

La Follette, Latelle M., lawyer and banker of Charleston, W.Va., was born Aug. 13, 1861, in Winchester, Va. He is vice-president of the Capital City bank.

Laidlaw,James, diplomat of Portland,Ore., was born Jan. 23, 1847, in Fisherton, Ayrshire, Scotland. He is British consul at Portland.

Laidlaw, Walter, clergyman and founder of No. 200 Fifth ave., New York City, was born March 7, 1861, in Norval, Ontario, Canada. He has received the degrees of M.A. and Ph.D. In 1887-92 he was the first president of the Mohawk and Hudson river humane society; in 1888-90 was the founder and the first president of the evangelical alliance of Watervliet; and in 1892-93 was president of the university of Fairhaven, Wash. Since 1895 he has been executive secretary of the New York federation of churches. He is also editor of Federation.

Laine, Frank Bray,lawyer of Clifton,Ariz., was born April 24, 1861, in San Jose, Cal.

He is judge of the superior court for Greenlee county.

Lair, James L., banker of Frederick, Okla., was born Aug. 27, 1842, in Kentucky. He is president of the State Guarantee bank.

Laittre, John De, lumberman, public official and capitalist of 24 Grove st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 5, 1832, in Ellsworth, Me. He is interested in timber lands in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. He has been mayor of his city.

Lake, David Hughes, physician and author of Kingston, Pa., was born in England. He is the author of Man, The Product Heredity and Environment.

Lake, Everett John, capitalist of 553 Farmington ave., Hartford, Conn., was born Feb. 8, 1871, in Woodstock, Conn. He is president of the Hartford Lumber company; and has been a state senator, representative and lieutenant-governor.

Lake, Richard Conover, stock farmer and banker of 140 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born on July 20, 1846, in Montour county, Pa. In 1894 he was made president of the Union National bank of Chicago.

La Lanne, Frank Dale, merchant and capitalist of 214 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1849, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1900 he has been director of the national board of trade of the United States.

Lamar, William Bailey, lawyer and statesman of Tallahassee, Fla., was born June 12, 1853, in Jefferson county, Fla. He has been attorney-general of Florida. He has been a member of congress.

Lamb, Charles Rollinson, artist and architect of 27 Sixth ave., New York City, was born in New York. He was architect of the Dewey arch in Madison Square. He is president of municipal art society and various other associations.

Lamb, Edwin Travis, railroad official of Atlanta, Ga., was born June 29, 1863, in Richmond, Va. In 1881 he entered railway service as receiving clerk, and has since held various positions to general manager and president. In 1910-12 he was president and general manager of the Norfolk Southern railroad; and since 1912 has been receiver and general manager of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad.

Lamb, Daniel Smith, physician and pathologist of 2114 Eighteenth st., Washington, D. C., was born May 20, 1843, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is professor of anatomy in the medical department of the Harvard university at Washington.

Lamb, George Alfred, lawyer of 135 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1872 in London, England. He is a member of the firm of Lamb and Guernsey. His specialty is corporation law.

Lamb, George Harris, librarian of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Milbrook, Pa. Since 1903 he has been librarian of the Carnegie free library.

Lamb, Horatio A., corporation official of 27 Kilby st., Boston, Mass. He is president of the Boston Co-operative Building company.

Lamb, James Hart, clergyman of Radnor-at-Devon, Pa., was born in Aberdeen, Scotland. He is rector of the St. Davids church, Radnor-at-Devon.

Lamb, John, statesman of Richmond, Va., was born June 12, 1840, in Sussex county, Va. He served in the civil war. He has been sheriff of his county. In 1911-13 he was a member of congress.

Lamb, Robert B., physician and superintendent of 447 Third ave., Troy, N.Y., was born Aug. 4, 1869, in Jamestown, N.Y. He is medical superintendent of the Matteawan state hospital.

Lamb, Roland O., insurance official of 178 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born on Dec. 20, 1850, in Beverly, Mass. He is president of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance company.

Lamberson, Lafayette, banker of Hawley, Minn., was born Nov. 6, 1851, in Grafton, Wis. He is president of the State bank of Hawley.

Lambert, Albert Bond, manufacturer and capitalist of 2101 Locust st., St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1875 in St. Louis, Mo. He was educated in the university of Virginia. He is president of the Lambert Pharmacal company, vice-president of the Lambert-Beacon-Hull Printing company and vice-president of the Beard-Haynes company. He was vice-chairman of the international jury of the word's fair of St. Louis in 1903; has been a member of the city council; and president of automobile club of St. Louis.

Lambert, Alexander, physician of 36 East Thirty-first st., New York City, was born Dec. 15, 1861, in New York City. He is professor of clinical medicine at Cornell university.

Lambert, Hilain, retired lumber merchant and banker of Beaverville, Ill., was born on Dec. 18, 1844, in Canada. He is president of H. Lambert and Son, bankers.

Lambert, John, manufacturer of 209 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 12, 1847, in Hunterdon county, N.J. He is president of the American Steel and Wire company.

Lambert, Louis A., priest and editor of Scottsville, N.Y., was born April 13, 1835, in Charleroi, Pa. He is editor-in-chief of the New York Freeman's Journal.

Lambert, William H., business president and banker of Germantown, Pa., was born May 9, 1842, in Reading, Pa. He has been trustee of the Mutual Life Insurance company and director of corporations.

Lambeth, Charles Franklin, manufacturer and banker of Thomasville, N.C., was born Oct. 18, 1882, in Thomasville, N.C. He is president of the First National bank.

Lambing, Andrew Arnold, educator, clergyman and author of Wilkinsburg, Pa., was born Feb. 1, 1842, in Manorville, Pa. He was president of the board that prepared the Pittsburgh diocesan school exhibit for the Chicago Columbian exposition. He is the author of Thoughts on the Holy Ghost and other works.

Lamme, C. D., banker of Hiawatha, Kan., was born on Feb. 4, 1860, in Clarke county, Ohio. He is prominently identified with the business and public affairs of Kansas; and has filled several positions of trust and honor. He is now president of The Morrill and Janes bank of Hiawatha, with deposits of over half a million dollars.

Lampton, Walter M., merchant and banker of Magnolia, Miss., was born on Aug. 12, 1850, in Tylertown, Miss. He is president of the Lampton Mercantile company.

Lampton, William Eddie, merchant and banker of Columbia, Miss., was born Oct. 14, 1861, in Tylertown, Miss. He is vice-president of the Lampton company.

Lamson, Nathan Green,banker of 417 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass., was born March 31, 1843, in Lowell, Mass. He is president of the Merrimack River Savings bank.

Lamson-Scribner, Frank, government official of Washington, D.C., was born April 19, 1851, in Cambridgeport, Mass. He was a teacher in the Maine public schools, and in 1876-84 an officer of Girard college of Philadelphia. He then entered the United States department of agriculture as assistant botanist. In 1887-94 he was professor of botany and horticulture in the university of Tennessee. In 1894-1901 he was chief of the division of agrostics in the United States department of agriculture; and since 1904 has been special agent and agrostologist. He was director in charge of exhibit at the Jamestown exposition and nearly all the other national and international expositions held during the past ten years.

Lancaster,T.A., lawyer and banker of Lexington, Tenn., was born Nov. 23, 1858, in Tennessee. He is president of the bank of Lexington.

Lancaster, William Lycurgus, banker of Wetumpka, Ala., was born March 4, 1869, in Elmore county, Ala. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate. He has been president of the Alabama bankers' association. He is president of the Lancaster Johnson Lumber company.

Landau, Maurice, merchant and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 10, 1857, in Aperyes, Hungary. He is president of the City National bank.

Landeene,Nels Edmund,banker of Carrington, N.D., was born Nov. 16, 1875, in Millerville, Minn. He is president of the Bordulac State bank.

Landell, Edwin A., banker of Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Kensington National bank.

Landon, Francis G., soldier and statesman of 29 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 20, 1859, in New York City. He has attained the rank of major in the seventh regiment New York national guard. He has served several terms as a member of the New York state legislature; and in 1904 was a presidential elector. In 1905-07 he was second secretary to the American embassy at Vienna; and in 1907 was appointed republican commissioner; and became a member of the militia council for the state of New York.

Landon, Melville De Lancey, humorist and journalist of 8 East Ninety-second st., New York City, was born Sept. 7, 1839, in Easton, N.Y. He is president of the New York news association.

Landreth, Lucius Scott,lawyer of 512 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 20, 1856, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is church advocate of the protestant episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania.

Landreth, Olin Henry, educator and civil engineer of Schenectady, N.Y., was born July 21, 1852, in Addison, N.Y. In 1879-94 he was professor of engineering in the Vanderbilt university of Nashville, Tenn.; and in 1886-94 was dean. In 1896-1906 he was consulting engineer of the New York state board of health. Since 1894 he has been professor of engineering in Union college. He has been president of the Schenectady technical association and other scientific bodies.

Landwher, George D., lumber dealer and banker of Cumberland, Md., was born Aug. 27, 1858, in Cumberland, Md. He is vice-president of the German Savings bank.

Lane, Alonzo A., banker of Odon,Ind., was born Sept. 12, 1863, in Salem, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Lane,Charles Edward,banker of 1700 Morgan st., St. Louis, Mo., was born March 6, 1874, in Greenfield, Tenn. He is president of the Union Station bank.

Lane, Charles Edwin, educator and banker of Lombard, Ill., was born on March 20, 1839, in Wakefield, N.H. He was formerly a school teacher and superintendent of public schools; became western manager for D. Appleton and company; and in 1890-1912 was department manager for the American Book company at Chicago. He is president of the Lombard State bank. He is president of the board of trustees of the village of Lombard, Ill.

Lane, Elisha Frederick, manufacturer and capitalist of Swanzey, N.H., was born April 29, 1826, in Swanzey, N.H. He has been deputy United States collector; and served as county sheriff for eighteen years. He is president of the Monadnock Shoe company and other corporations.

Lane, Gardiner Martin, banker of 44 State st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1859 in Cambridge, Mass. He has been assistant to President Charles Francis Adams of the Union Pacific Railroad company.

Lane, George Bishop, broker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Nov. 18, 1862, in Jericho, Vt. He is a dealer in commercial paper.

Lane, Harry, statesman of Portland, Ore., was born Aug. 28, 1855, in Corvallis, Ore. In 1913 he became a member of the United States senate.

Lane, James Franklin, college president of Jackson, Tenn., was born in 1875 in Jackson, Tenn. He is president of the Lane college.

Lane, Jonathan, lawyer and capitalist of Houston, Texas, was born Oct. 15, 1855, in Fayette county, Texas. He is vice-president of the Cunningham Sugar company.

Lane, Thomas F., lawyer and statesman of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was born on April 16, 1869, in Dalton, Ga. He studied law in the Missouri state university. In 1898-1906 he was prosecuting attorney of Ripley county. He is a member of the Missouri state senate, and a member of several important committees.

Lane, William C., capitalist and banker of 25 Broad st., New York City. He is president of the Standard Safe Deposit company and a director of various corporations.

Langdon,Andrew, manufacturer and banker of Buffalo, N.Y., was born in New Marlboro, Mass. He is vice-president of the Commonwealth Trust company of Buffalo.

Langdon, Cavour S., railroad contractor of 2200 Pillsbury ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born on Sept. 11, 1861, in New Haven, Vt. Since 1878 he has been engaged in railroad construction;and since 1892 has been a member of the firm of Linton and company. He is vice-president of the Minneapolis syndicate; and a trustee of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings bank. In 1879-85 he was a member of the Minnesota National guard.

Langdon,William Henry,lawyer and statesman of San Francisco, Cal., was born Sept. 25, 1873, in Alameda county, Cal. In 1906 he was independent candidate for governor of California. He is president of the Union Savings bank and other corporations.

Lange, J. Chris, physician of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Feb. 24, 1847, in Bremen, Germany. He is consulting physician to the Mercy, St. John's, south side, and the Reinemann maternity hospitals.

Langeson, Lewis, merchant and banker of Clarissa, Minn., was born Nov. 5, 1868, in Denmark. He is vice-president of the Clarissa State bank.

Langfitt, James Valentine, banker of 615 Market st., Parkersburg, W.Va., was born Aug. 15, 1869, in Eagle Mills, W.Va. He is vice-president of the Pike Investment company.

Langford,Pierce P.,banker of Wichita Falls, Texas, was born Oct. 24, 1861, in Newberry, S.C. He is president of the Wichita Ice company.

Langmuir, Irving, chemist and scientist of Schenectady, N.Y., was born Jan. 31, 1881, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He received the degree of Ph.D. from Gottingen university. In 1906-09 he was an instructor in chemistry in Steven's college. Since 1909 he has been research chemist to the General Electric company of Schenectady. He is the inventor of nitrogen and mercury-filled tungsten lamps.

Lanier, Charles, banker and railroad president of 59 Cedar st., New York City, was born on Jan. 19, 1837, in Madison, Ind. In 1860 he became a member of the banking firm of Winslow, Lanier and company, and is now senior member. He is president of the Massillon and Cleveland Railroad company; and president of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad company.

Lanier, William Campbell, banker of West Point, Ga., was born July 11, 1876, in West Point, Ga. He is president of the First National bank.

Lankershim, James Boon, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 24, 1850, in Charlestown, Mo. He is a colonel in the California national guard. He erected Lankershim building and built the Lankershim hotel.

Lankford, Richard D., railroad official of New York City, was born Feb. 28, 1867, in Somerset county, Md. Since 1894 he has been vice-president of the Southern railroad.

Lanning, William Mershon,lawyer and jurist of Trenton, N.J., was born Jan. 1, 1849, in Mercer county, N.J. He is judge of the United States district court.

Lansdale, Robert Vinton, banker of Baltimore, Md., was born April 22, 1865, in Baltimore, Md. He is cashier of the National Exchange bank.

Lansing, James, jurist of Troy, N.Y., was born May 9, 1834, in Decatur, N.Y. He is a professor in the Albany law school.

Lansing, Robert, lawyer and banker of 121 Washington st., Watertown, N.Y., was born Oct. 17, 1864, in Watertown, N.Y. He is the incorporator and vice-president of the City National bank of Watertown.

Lantz, Lewis Edwin, oil and gas producer and banker of Jacksonburg, W.Va., was born Nov. 25, 1870, in West Virginia. He is president of the Ohio Torpedo company.

Lapp,John A.,director of Indianapolis,Ind., was born Nov. 19, 1880, in Fillmore, N.Y. Since 1913 he has been director of the bureau of legislative information.

Larabee, Charles X.,capitalist of Portland, Ore., was born Nov. 19, 1843, in Portville, N. Y. He is president of the Oregon Real Estate company and other corporations.

Large, George Hall, lawyer and statesman of Flemington, N.J., was born Dec. 1, 1850, in White House, N.J. He has been state senator and special master in chancery.

Largey, Morris Sellers, banker of Butte, Mont., was born March 18, 1880, in Butte, Mont. He is president of the Speculator Mining company.

Larimore, Joseph Herbert, journalist and poet of Westerville, Ohio, was born March 16, 1874, in Brownsville, Pa. He is editor of the Westerville Public Opinion; and well known as a lecturer and poet.

Larimore, Newel Greene, farmer, banker and statesman of Larimore, N.D., was born Aug. 29, 1835, in Bourbon county, Ky. In 1849-53 he attended Wyman's academy of St. Louis, Mo.; in 1853-54 attended the German college of Herman, Mo.; and in 1854-55 attended the Jones commercial college of St. Louis, Mo. In 1878-82 he was a member of the upper house of St. Louis city council. In 1889 he was president of the board of regents of the state university of North Dakota; in 1890-96 was regent of the Wahpeton Methodist university; and since 1895 has been a trustee of Wesley college. In 1893 he refused the nomination for governor of North Dakota. In 1865-83 he was president of the St. Louis Warehouse company, in 1869-74 was president of the Iron Mountain bank; and in 1873-86 was president of the Central Lafayette company. Since 1881 he has been vice-president and since 1888 also general manager of the Elk Valley Farming company, operating fifteen thousand acres. In 1905 he was vice-president of the trans-Mississippi commercial congress; since 1903 he has been vice-president of the national irrigation congress; and since 1900 has been president of the North Dakota chautauqua association.

Larpenteur, August Louis, retired merchant of 341 North Dale st., St. Paul, Minn., was born May 16, 1823, at Baltimore, Md. Since 1843 he has been identified with the business and public affairs of St. Paul; and was one of the founders of the state of Minnesota.

Larrabee, Henry, farmer and banker of Windham, Conn., was born April 15, 1830, in Ledyard, Conn. He is a director of the Norwich Savings bank; and has been a state representative.

Larrabee, Seth Leonard, lawyer and banker of 102 Exchange st., Portland, Maine, was born Jan. 22, 1855, in Scarboro, Maine. He is president of the Chapman National bank.

Larson, Clarence P., merchant and banker of Eleva, Wis., was born June 6, 1885, in Independence, Wis. He has received a high school and business college education. In 1906 he became cashier of the Bank of Eleva, and since 1907 has been president. He is also vice-president of the G. M. Steig Mercantile company of Church's Ferry, N.D.; president of the Larson-Stevning company of Stephen, Minn.; and president of the Eleva Mercantile company of Eleva, Wis.

Larson,Lauritz Anton,banker of Copemish, Mich., was born Oct. 9, 1871, in Greenwood, Mich. He is president of Brewster, Larson and company.

Larson, Soren H., banker of Lake Mills, Iowa, was born March 14, 1857, in Illinois. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Larson, Thorwald S., lawyer of Holbrook, Ariz., was born Jan. 6, 1871, in Levan, Juab county, Utah. He was educated at the Salt Lake seminary university of Utah. Since 1903 he has practiced law in Holbrook. He was a candidate for judge of the superior court of Navajo county on the democratic ticket, and the returns showed only fifteen votes behind his successful opponent.

Lasance, Rev. Francis Xavier, author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 24, 1860, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has traveled all over Europe. He is the author of Thoughts on the Religious Life and other works.

Lashier,Bion Willis, physician,surgeon and banker of Armour, S.D., was born Sept. 9, 1858, in Columbus, Wis. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank.

Lasker, Emanuel, chess champion and author of 116 Nassau st., New York City, was born Dec. 24, 1868, in Berlinchen, Germany. He is chess champion of the world.

Latch, Edward Biddle, chief engineer of Academy, Pa., was born Nov. 15, 1833, in Lower Merion township, Pa. He is editor of The Greater Light, a Philadelphia monthly.

Lathrop, Arthur B., physician and banker of Swanton, Ohio, was born Sept. 27, 1856, in Berkey, Ohio. He is president of the bank of Swanton.

Lathrop,Gardiner, lawyer of 80 East Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 16, 1850, in Waukesha, Wis. Has been general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway system for several years; and president of the board of education of Kansas City and the board of curators of the university of the state of Missouri.

Lathrop, John, jurist of 10 Gloucester st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 8, 1835, in Boston, Mass. He has been justice of the superior court of Massachusetts.

Lathrop,Levi Chapman,banker of 37 Broad st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1844, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is vice-president and director of the Columbus and Hocking Valley Coal and Iron company and president of other corporations.

Lathrop, Lorin Andrews, diplomat of Cardiff, Wales, was born in 1858 in Ohio. In 1907 he was appointed consul at Cardiff.

Latimer, Orion, banker of Abingdon, Ill., was born Nov. 23, 1863, in Winnebago City, Minn. He was supervisor of Cedar township. He is president of the Bank of St. Augustine.

Latrobe,Ferdinand Claiborne,lawyer of 205 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 14, 1833, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the Consolidated Gas company. He has been mayor of his city.

Latta, James Polk, banker and statesman of Tekamah, Neb., was born Oct. 31, 1844, in Ashland, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Latta, John, lawyer and statesman of Greensburg, Pa., was born March 2, 1836, in Westmoreland county, Pa. He has been lieutenant-governor of Pennsylvania.

Lattner, Samuel Benjamin, lawyer and banker of Dubuque, Iowa, was born Feb. 5, 1862, in Lattners, Iowa. He is president of the Worthington Savings bank.

Lauck, William Jett,economist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 2, 1879, in Keyser, W.Va. Since 1908 he has been in charge of the field work of industrial investigations of the United States immigration commission. He is the author of The Causes of the Panic of 1893 and other works.

Lauer, Edgar J., lawyer of 22 East Eightieth st., New York City, was born Nov. 10, 1871, in New York City. He is justice of the municipal court of the city of New York.

Laughinghouse, Charles O'Hagan, physician and bank director of Greenville, N.C., was born Feb. 25, 1871, in Greenville, N.C. He is a director of the Greenville Banking and Trust company.

Laughlin, Edgar Tecumseh, lawyer and capitalist of Odon, Ind., was born Dec. 8, 1875, in Odon, Ind. He has been a director of the First National bank; and attorney for his city.

Laughlin, Julian, lawyer and author of 510 Pine st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 27, 1852, in Bath county, Ky. He is president of the Arkansas Land company. He is the author of History of Civilization.

Laughlin, Peter Edward, banker of Marysville, Kan., was born Sept. 1, 1878, in Atchison, Kan. He is managing officer of the Citizens' State bank.

Laughlin, William, contractor and statesman of 407 Portage road, Niagara Falls, N. Y., was born in 1868. He is a successful contractor; and mayor of his city.

Lauriat, Charles E., business president of 385 Washington st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 12, 1842, in Boston, Mass. For ten years he was a salesman in a book store. At the age of thirty he formed the firm of Estes and Lauriat, which was dissolved sixteen years ago, and is now known as the Charles E. Lauriat company, of which he has been president for the last nine years. He has made thirty trips abroad and for the past forty years has been gathering old and rare books.

Lauritsen, Marcus, banker of Tyler, Minn., was born March 26, 1861, in Denmark. He is president of the First State bank of Tyler, Minn.

Lauterbach, Mrs. Amanda Friedman, philanthropist and woman suffragist of 761 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in Green Bay, Wis. She was educated in Paris and New York City. She is a skilled musician; and has made her well-trained voice serve to the advantage of the charities in which she is interested. She has helped to secure the passage of several philanthropic laws. She was for many years vice-president of the woman's philharmonic society, vice-president of the woman's suffrage league; first vice-president of the consumers' league; and was first vice-president of the first kindergarten organized in New York. She is also a directress of the little mothers and is a member of various other philanthropic and charitable institutions.

Lauterbach, Edward, lawyer of New York City, where he was born Aug. 12, 1844. He was graduated from the college of the City of New York. He is senior member of the well-known law firm of Hoadly, Lauterbach and Johnston, and has attained much distinction as a lawyer in conducting important railway, telegraph and maritime cases. For some years he was chairman of the republican county committee of New York; and was a delegate-at-large from New York to the constitutional convention of 1894. He is a director of and counsel for a large number of railway, steamship and industrial companies.

Lavelle, Michael J., vicar general of 460 Madison ave., New York City, was born May 30, 1856, in New York City. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and LL.D. Since 1886 he has been rector of St. Patrick's cathedral, and since 1902 vicar-general of New York. In 1903 he was appointed domestic prelate. For seven years he was president of the Catholic summer school of America; and in 1889-90 was president of the young men's national union.

Lavergne, Armand Renaud, advocate and statesman of Quebec, Canada, was born Feb. 21, 1880, in Arthabaskaville. He is a successful editor and advocate. In 1904 he was elected to the house of commons.

Lavery, Ignatius S., lawyer and banker of Lavery, Pa., was born June 12, 1844, in Crawford county, Pa. He is president of I. S. Lavery and company, bankers.

Law, Ben B., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bozeman, Mont., was born Dec. 17, 1878, at Glade Hill, Va. In 1907-11 he was county attorney for Gallatin county; and in 1911-13 was a member of the twelfth legislative assembly of Montana. He was a member of the commission appointed by the governor of Montana to draft the direct primary measure in 1911. Since 1913 he has been judge of the ninth judicial district for Montana for term ending in 1917.

Law, Herbert Edward, capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., was born Dec. 5, 1864, near Sheffield, England. For the past twenty years he has been one of the largest real estate operators in San Francisco.

Law, James D., business man and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Lumsden, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. He is the founder and secretary of the Motion Poster company of America. He is the author of The Seashore of Bohemia and other works.

Law, Walter William, retired carpet merchant of New York City, was born Nov. 13, 1837, in Kidderminster, England. He became vice-president of the corporation of W. and J. Sloane, carpet merchants; retired from active service in 1898, but still remains a trustee. He is now president of the Briar Cliff Realty company; president of the Briar Cliff lodge association; and president of the Briar Cliff farms. He also founded the Briar Cliff Manor village, of which his son is now president. He has a library of seven thousand volumes.

Lawler, Daniel William, lawyer and statesman of St. Paul, Minn., was born March 28, 1859, in Prairie du Chien, Wis. He has been a candidate for governor and United States senator. He has been mayor of his city.

Lawler, Oscar, lawyer and director of Los Angeles, Cal., was born April 2, 1875, in Marshalltown, Iowa. He served as United States attorney for the southern district of California in 1906-09; and in 1909-11 was assistant attorney in the general department of the interior. He is a director of the Farmers' and Merchants' National bank of Los Angeles; and prominently identified with the business and public affairs of his city.

Lawler, Thomas Bonaventure, publisher and author of 70 Fifth ave., New York City, was born July 14, 1864, in Worcester, Mass. He is a member of Ginn and company, educational publishers. He is the author of Essentials of American History and other works.

Lawless, Mrs. Margaret H., educator, author and poet of Toledo, Ohio, was born July 14, 1847, at Adrian, Mich. She was the organizer of the Catholic ladies of Ohio. She is the author of numerous poems.

Lawrence, Abram B., lieutenant-colonel of Warsaw, N.Y., was born in Warsaw, N.Y. He is lieutenant-colonel of the United States volunteers.

Lawrence, Amory Appleton, merchant and financier of 89 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., was born April 22, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the Provident Institution for Savings.

Lawrence, Florus Fremont, surgeon of 328 East State st., Columbus, Ohio, was born March 16, 1863, in Wadsworth, Ohio. Since 1900 he has been chief of the staff and surgeon in the Lawrence hospital; and clinical lecturer at Starling, Ohio, medical college.

Lawrence, George A., lawyer of Galesburg, Ill., was born July 24, 1854, in Littleton, Mass. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank of Galesburg.

Lawrence, George Pelton, banker and statesman of North Adams, Mass., was born May 19, 1859, in Adams, Mass. He is vice-president of the North Adams National bank.

Lawrence, Marion, secretary and merchant of 5 South Wabash ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 2, 1850, in Gratis, Ohio. He is general secretary of the world's and international Sunday school associations.

Lawrence, Robert Means, physician and author of 177 Bay State road, Boston, Mass., was born May 14, 1847, in Boston, Mass. In 1869 he received the degree of A.B. from Harvard university; and in 1873 the degree of M.D. from that institution of learning. He is the author of Historical Sketches of Some Members of the Lawrence Family; The Magic of the Horse Shoe; The Descendants of Major Samuel Lawrence of Groton, Mass., and other works.

Lawrence, Sion Henry, physician and banker of Derma, Miss., was born May 10, 1844, in Jonesboro, N.C. He is president of the Bank of Derma.

Lawrence, William Van Duzer, manufacturer of 969 Fifth ave., New York City, was born near Elmira, N.Y., Feb. 12, 1842. He was educated in Michigan. He removed to New York City when nineteen years old and was employed for five years by S. R. Van Duzer company, wholesale druggists. In 1866 he went to Canada to establish a branch house, representing a number of American agencies, including that of Perry, Davis & Son of Providence, R.I. In 1882 the business was incorporated under the name of the Davis & Lawrence Co. This company, in 1895, bought out the business of Perry, Davis & Son, of Providence, R.I., and all its proprietary interests, and later the Davis & Lawrence Co. of New York was organized in New York City, and since 1900 the head office of the business has been located at 10 and 12 Christopher st. in that city, Mr. Lawrence being president of both companies; also of the Fellows Manufacturing company of New York City and Montreal. He is the founder of Lawrence park, of the hotel Gramatan and the Lawrence hospital, all in the village of Bronxville.

Lawrence, William Watson, manufacturer and banker of 100 Broadway, New York City, was born April 22, 1859, in Huntington, Pa. He is vice-president of the National Lead company of New York and a director of other corporations.

Lawson, John Davison, lawyer, jurist and author of 1200 Hudson ave., Columbia, Mo., was born March 29, 1852, in Hamilton, Canada. He has received the degrees of LL.B. and LL.D.; and in 1876-85 practiced law in St. Louis, Mo. In 1876-81 he was editor of the Central Law Journal; and in 1886-91 was judge of the civil court. In 1891-1903 he was professor of law, and since 1903 has been dean of the school of law in the university of Missouri. He is the author of Contracts of Common Carriers; Principles of Equity; Leading Cases Simplified, in three volumes; Defenses to Crime, in five volumes; Rights, Remedies and Practice, in seven volumes; American Law of Contracts and other works.

Lawson, Publius Virgilius, manufacturer and capitalist of Menasha, Wis., was born Nov. 1, 1853, in Corning, N.Y. He is president of the Menasha Wood Split Pulley company.

Lawson, Thomas R., educator and engineer of Troy, N.Y., was born in Wheeling, W.Va., Dec. 24, 1873. He graduated from Rensselaer polytechnic institute, C.E. He began as inspector structural material for William Hildenbrand, New York City, 1893-94; while student in summer was inspector of various works; assistant in mechanics, 1898-1900; assistant professor 1903-06, 1906-08 associate professor. In 1908 William Howard Hart, professor of rational and technical mechanics, Rensselaer polytechnic institute. He also in addition to work at the institute acted as consulting engineer for bridges, hydraulic work and general civil engineering, and as expert in law cases involving engineering problems.

Lawson, Thomas William, banker, broker and financier of 31 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 26, 1857, in Charlestown, Mass. He is senior member of the firm of Lawson, Arnold and company.

Lawson, Victor Fremont, journalist, publisher and philanthropist of 23 North Fifth ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 9, 1850, in Chicago, Ill. He was educated at Phillips academy of Andover, Mass. He took charge of an interest of his father's estate in a printing establishment; bought the Chicago Daily News in 1876;and with his later partner, Melville E. Stone, developed it to success. In 1881 he started a morning edition; and in 1888 became its sole proprietor. He has been president of the Associated Press. He established the Daily News fresh air fund; and has been active in other philanthropic work.

Lawton, Alexander Rudolf, railroad official of 26 East Bryan st., Savannah, Ga., was born Aug. 9, 1858, in Savannah, Ga. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of the Central of Georgia railroad.

Lawver, George, banker of Freeport, Ill., was born June 28, 1846, in Stephenson county, Ill. He served in the civil war. He is president of the Browntown bank.

Lawyer, George, lawyer and author of 79 Chapel st., Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 24, 1864, in New York City. He is editor of Smith on Personal Property and author of numerous articles on legal topics in law journals.

Laymon, H. E., physician and banker of Warren, Ind., was born Dec.23, 1867, in Warren, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Layne, William J., banker of Elvins, Mo., was born Oct. 19, 1863, in St. Francois, Mo. He is president of the Bank of Elvins.

Lazaro, Ladislas, physician and statesman of Washington, La., was born June 5, 1872, near Ville Platte, La. He served two terms as a member of the Louisiana state senate; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lazell, Lavern W., banker of Stockton, N. Y., was born April 24, 1868, in Stockton, N. Y. He has been postmaster of Stockton. He is president of the Lavern W. Lazell and company, bankers.

Lazelle, Harry W., banker of 115 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 24, 1865, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is senior member of the firm of Lazelle, Fincke and company of New York City. He is a director of the Bankers' Investing company and other corporations.

Lea, Luke, lawyer and statesman of 318 Twenty-first ave., Nashville, Tenn., was born April 12, 1879. He is United States senator.

Lea,Preston,banker and statesman of Wilmington, Del., was born Nov. 12, 1841, in Wilmington, Del. He is president of the Union National bank. In 1904-08 he was governor of Delaware.

Leach, Albert Ernest, government official and author of Denver, Col., was born April 7, 1864, in Boston, Mass. He is chief of the United States food inspection laboratory.

Leach,Mrs. Antoinette Dakin,educator and lawyer of Sullivan, Ind., was born April 3, 1859, in Indianapolis, Ind. During 1875-79 she was a teacher in the public schools of her native state; and during 1887-93 was a court reporter and teacher of stenography. By decision of the supreme court of Indiana she was granted permission to practice law in 1893; and she has since attained success in her chosen profession in Sullivan, Ind. In 1896 she was a delegate to the democratic state convention; and was the first woman delegate who ever attended and voted in a state convention in Indiana; as she also was the first woman ever admitted to the bar in her state. In 1912 she was county chairman of the progressive party; and is now in the lecture field. She is the wife of George W. Leach, a successful farmer and stock breeder.

Leach, Edward Giles,lawyer and insurance official of Franklin, N.H., was born Jan. 28, 1849, in Meredith, N.H. He is president of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Insurance company.

Leach, Frank Willing, lawyer, politician and author of Tuckerton, N.J., was born on Aug. 26, 1855, in Cape May, N.J. He is collector of customs for the district of Little Egg Harbor.

Leacock, Arthur Gordner,educator and author of Exeter, N.H., was born May 27, 1868, in Lehman, Pa. He is the author of Studies in the Life of St. Paul.

Leak, Wharton Green,physician and banker of East Bend, N.C., was born April 30, 1874, in Francisco, N.C. He is president of the Yadkin Valley bank.

Leaming, Thomas, lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 29, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Pennsylvania bar association and others.

Learnard, H.H., capitalist of Boston,Mass., was born in 1871 in Brighton, Mass. He is president of the New England Rendering company and a director of other corporations.

Learned,Walter,banker and author of New London, Conn., was born June 22, 1847, in New London, Conn. He is vice-president and treasurer of the Savings bank. He is the author of Between Times and other works.

Leavitt,Albert Euegen,merchant and banker of Houston, Mo., was born June 25, 1849, in Waterford, Pa. He is president of the bank of Houston.

Leavitt, Charles Wellford, civil and landscape engineer of Hartsdale, N.Y., was born March 13, 1871, in Riverton, N.J. He has been assistant engineer in charge of the construction of the East Jersey Water company.

Leavitt, Erasmus Darwin, engineer and banker of 33 Garden st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Oct. 27, 1836, in Lowell, Mass. He is vice-president of the Harvard Trust company.

Leavitt, Julius Adelbert, educator of Omaha, Neb., was born March 4, 1852, in Gouverneur, N.Y. In 1890-1911 he was president of Ewing college of Ewing, Ill.

Leavitt,Roger, banker of Cedar Falls,Iowa, was born June 25, 1860, in Waterloo, Iowa.

He is vice-president of the Cedar Falls National bank.

Leavitt, Sheldon, physician and author of 4665 Lake Park ave., Chicago, Ill., was born April 9, 1850, in Grand Rapids, Mich. He is the author of The Better Part and several other medical works.

Leaycraft, J. Edgar, real estate broker and banker of 19 West Forty-second st., New York City, was born March 15, 1849, in New York City. He is president and treasurer of the J. Edgar Leaycraft company and a director of other corporations.

Le Boutillier, William G., physician of 45 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born Dec. 21, 1859, in New York City. He has been acting assistant surgeon in the United States army.

L'Ecluse, Milton, capitalist and business president of 537 Fifth ave., New York City. He is president of the S. Osgood Pell and company and vice-president of other corporations.

Ledbetter, James A., banker of Cave-in-Rock, Ill., was born Oct. 28, 1856, in Elizabethtown, Ill. He has been engaged in milling business since 1877. He is a stockholder in the First State bank of Elizabethtown.

Lederer, Charles, cartoonist of 106 North La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 31, 1856, in Lowell, Mass. He has been chief cartoonist for the New York World, and the Chicago Record-Herald. He is now publisher of American Advance, and art manager for American Illustration and News Service.

Ledoux, Urbain J., diplomat of Santos, Brazil, was born in Canada. In 1907 he was appointed consul at Santos.

Ledyard, Edgar Madison, educator and scientist of Los Banos, P.I., was born May 10, 1875, in Salem, Mich. He has received the degree of bachelor of science in agriculture. In 1899-1906 he was principal, superintendent and teacher in the public schools of Perrington, Sterling and Durand, Mich., and in the Philippine Islands. In 1906-08 he was head of the department of science in the Manila high school; and since 1909 has been entomologist in the college of agriculture at the university of the Philippines.

Ledyard, Henry Brockholst, railway official of Detroit, Mich., was born Feb. 20, 1844, in Paris, France. He is president of the Detroit Terminal railroad.

Lee, Alfred P., merchant of 40 South Market st., Boston, Mass., was born on Sept. 9, 1853, in Perkinsville, Ind. He was manager of the Arthur Jordan company at Indianapolis for twelve years; and for nine years was manager of S. T. Fish and company of Chicago. He is now president of the Cloverdale company, treasurer of the Hilton Aldrich company and president of the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange of Boston, Mass.

Lee, Chester Fairman, mining engineer of Seattle, Wash., was born Nov. 18, 1861, in Coopertown, N.Y. He is editor of the Pacific Mining Journal; and president of the Realty Holding company.

Lee, Duncan Campbell, editor and publisher of Ithaca, N.Y., was born March 4, 1869, in Bovina Center, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been president of the Ithaca Publishing company.

Lee, Edward Clinton, business president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 5, 1857. He is vice-president of the De Long Hook and Eye company.

Lee, Edward Trumbull, clergyman, theologian and author of 1103 Center st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 5, 1855, in New Haven, Conn. Since 1906 he has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Wilkinsburg Station. He is the author of Sheaf of Wheat and other works.

Lee, Edwin, chemist and author of Meadville, Pa., was born Sept. 9, 1876, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1907 he has been professor of chemistry in Allegheny college. He is the author of Outline of Qualitative Chemistry and other works.

Lee, Fred E., manufacturer and banker of Dowagiac, Mich., was born Dec. 6, 1858. He is president of the Round Oak Stove works of Dowagiac, Mich.; and president of the Lee Paper company of Vicksburg, Mich. He is also a member of Lee Brothers and company, bankers of Dowagiac and Buchanan, Mich.

Lee, Guy Carleton, editor, society president and author of 172 West High st., Carlisle, Pa., was born in 1869 in North Carolina. He is now president of the national society for broader education, having retired from active business.

Lee, Horace Hoffman, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 23, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is secretary and treasurer of the Philadelphia stock exchange.

Lee, Oscar Grant, banker of Oklahoma City, Okla., was born Dec. 4, 1863, in Fremont, Iowa. He is vice-president of the Security National bank.

Lee, Samuel Todd, diplomat of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born May 30, 1876, in Leeds, England. Since 1909 he has been consul at San Jose, Costa Rica.

Lee, Thomas Zanslaur, lawyer, jurist and author of Providence, R.I., was born Sept. 26, 1886, in Woonsocket, R.I. In 1893-99 he was justice of the district court. He is the author of History of Rhode Island and other works.

Lee, William Edwin, banker of Long Prairie, Minn., was born Jan. 8, 1852, in Alton, Ill. He is president of the First National bank of Eagle Bend.

Lee, William H., banker of St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Merchants'-Laclede National bank.

Leedom, Joseph, lawyer of 25 North Juniper st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 23, 1853, in Plymouth Meeting, Pa. He is president of the Philadelphia and Tonawanda Land company.

Leeds,Theodore Edward,lawyer of 32 Nassau st., New York City, was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He represents extensive interests as trustee and acts as counsel for corporations, banks and family estates; and is a trustee of several charitable institutions.

Leemings, John, physician and surgeon of 3541 Indiana ave., Chicago, Ill., was born March 17, 1859, in Brantford, Canada. He is now acting surgeon at the Chicago Baptist hospital and the Cook county hospital.

Leete, William Henry, railroad official of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 3, 1868, in Guilford, Conn. He entered railway service in 1893 as voucher clerk in the auditor's office of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway. He has been cashier and paymaster, and since 1905 treasurer of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad.

Leete, William Stone, banker of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Jan. 28, 1845, in Vernon, N. Y. He served during the civil war. He is vice-president of the Oneida Valley National bank.

Leefens,Thies Jacob,real estate dealer and banker of 179 West Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 4, 1846, in Hamburg, Germany. He is president of the Traders' Insurance company.

Lefevre, Frank Jacob, banker and statesman of New Paltz, N.Y., was born in 1874 in New Paltz, N.Y. He has been a member of congress. He is president of the Huguenot National bank.

Leffingwell,Austin Nelson,banker of Perry, Okla., was born Oct. 12, 1870, in Moulton, Iowa. He is president of the Sumner State bank.

Leffingwell, Charles Wesley, educator, clergyman and founder of Pasadena, Cal., was born Dec. 5, 1840, in Tolland, Conn. He received the degrees of D.D. and LL.D. In 1868 he founded and since conducted St. Mary's school of Knoxville, Ill. He was also the founder of St. Alban's school for boys. He is president of the standing committee of the diocese of Quincy, and for thirty-six years has been a deputy to the general convention. He is president of The Leffingwell Rancho. For over twenty years he was editor and publisher of The Living Church; and is the author of a school reader and a volume of religious verse.

Leftwich, Fleming C., lawyer and banker of Madison, W.Va., was born April 17, 1866, in Virginia. He is president of the Madison National bank.

Legare, Balie Peyton, civil engineer of 58 Sutter st., San Francisco, Cal., was born on Aug. 23, 1864, in Aiken, S.C. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S. and LL.B. He has been engaged in the construction of many railways about New York and Philadelphia; and was also engaged in engineering for four years in England and on the continent of Europe. Since 1907 he has had complete charge of the rehabilitation and construction of the United Railroads of San Francisco.

Leggett, John Cullen, lawyer and banker of Cuba, N.Y., was born Dec. 25, 1858, in Oswego, N.Y. He is president of the Cuba National bank.

Lehnen, David, banker and stockman of Wellsville, Mo., was born in Berlin, Canada. He is president of the Wellsville bank.

Lehnerts, Edward M., educator and scientist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 29, 1873, in Winona, Minn. He has received the degrees of B.S. and A.M. Since 1907 he has been assistant professor of geography and geology in the university of Minnesota. In 1900-02 he was director of the American bureau of geography; and in 1902-05 was editor of The Journal of Geography.

Lehy, Geoffrey Bernard, merchant of 69 South Market st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 13, 1855, in South Royalston, Mass. He was a member of the finance commission of Boston. He has been president of the fruit and produce exchange.

Leidy, Edwin Cope, banker of Telford,Pa., was born June 23, 1849, in Bucks county, Pa. He is president of the Telford National bank.

Leigh, L. B., banker and statesman of Little Rock, Ark., was born Sept. 14, 1851, in Rome, Ga. He was educated in the public schools of his native state. He is engaged in insurance and banking in Little Rock, Ark. He is president of the Little Rock school board; is identified with the democratic party; and has filled various positions of trust and honor. He served two terms as a representative in the Arkansas legislature.

Leigh, William Robinson, artist of 609 West One Hundred and Thirty-seventh st., New York City, was born April 23, 1866, in Berkeley county, W.Va. He was chief figure painter on six panoramas in Germany; and received honorable mention in the Paris salon on pictures.

Leighton, George B., financier of Monadnock, N.H., was born July 19, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. He owns the Monadnock farms.

Leininger,George Hoyer, manufacturer and banker of Mohnton, Pa., was born June 25, 1862, in Spring township, Pa. He is president of the Mohnton National bank and treasurer of other corporations.

Leishman, John G. A., ambassador and capitalist of Berlin, Germany, was born on March 28, 1857, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He has been president of the Carnegie Steel company. In 1911 he was appointed ambassador to Germany.

Leland, Arthur S., banker of 40 Exchange place, New York City, was born in Boston, Mass. He is a member of the firm of Arthur S. Leland and company, bankers and brokers.

Leland, Lester, manufacturer and financier of 101 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born on July 20, 1864, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Metropolitan Street Railway company.

Leland, Lorenzo, lawyer and banker of Ottawa, Ill., was born Oct. 17, 1852, in Ottawa, Ill. He has been city clerk in El Dorado, Kan. He is president of the First National bank of Ottawa.

Leland, Ora Miner, educator and civil engineer of Ithaca, N.Y., was born June 28, 1876, in Grand Haven, Mich. He is assistant professor of astronomy and geodesy at the Cornell university.

Leland,Samuel Phelps,lecturer, lawyer and banker of Daytona, Fla., was born May 4, 1839, in Huntsburg, Ohio. He is president of the People's State bank of Daytona.

Lelen, Joseph Mary, clergyman and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Dec. 24, 1873, in France. He is editor of The Christian Year. He is the author of The Gospel of Pain and other works.

Lemen, Willoughby Newton,grain and coal merchant and banker of Shepherdstown, W. Va. He is president of the Jefferson Security bank.

Lemley, Cassius McCarl, railroad official of Morgantown, W.Va., was born May 29 1867, in New Freeport, Pa. He graduated with the degree of C.E. from the West Virginia university. In 1891 he entered railway service as levelman, and has filled positions to chief engineer. Since 1899 he has been assistant engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio railway, and also since 1910 has been in charge of geological and special work.

Lemp, William J., brewer and capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 13, 1867, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Western Railway Cable company.

L'Engle, Claude, editor and statesman of Jacksonville, Fla., was born in 1868, in Jacksonville, Fla. He is editor and proprietor of Dixie. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lennox, Patrick Joseph, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 12, 1862, in Kildare, Ireland. He is head of the department of English language and literature in the Catholic university of America. He is the author of The Mythology of the Ancients; Early Printing in Ireland and other works; and is at present engaged on A History of Panama.

Leo, Brother, educator,lecturer and author of Oakland, Cal., was born Oct. 8, 1881, in San Francisco, Cal. Since 1908 he has been professor of English literature at St. Mary's college.

Leonard, Delevan Levant, clergyman and author of Oberlin, Ohio, was born July 20, 1834, in Pendleton, N.Y. He is the author of Mormon Episode in American History and other works.

Leonard, Edgar Cotrell, manufacturer and financier of 472 Broadway, Albany, N.Y., was born May 28, 1862, in Albany. He has been president of the young men's christian association. Since 1887 he has been a member of the firm of Cotrell and Leonard.

Leonard, Fred Churchill, banker of Coudersport, Pa., was born Feb. 16, 1856, in Elmer, Pa. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Leonard, Gardner Cotrell, merchant and manufacturer of 42 Willett st., Albany, N.Y., was born Oct. 16, 1865, in West Springfield, Mass. He is a director of the Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Leonard, Henry J.,banker and retired merchant of Belding, Mich.,was born on Oct. 14, 1850, in Lyons, Mich. He is president of the Belding Savings bank.

Leonard, John William, author and editor of 1 West Thirty-fourth st., New York City, was born June 6, 1849, in London, England. He is editor of Men of America. He has been county attorney of Jefferson county.

Leonard, Robert Dougherty,banker of Dallas, Ga., was born Dec. 6, 1873, in Talbot county, Ga. He is president of the bank of Dallas.

Leopold, Dalvin Mohn,banker and manager of Nazareth, Pa., was born Dec. 19, 1873, in Salunga, Pa. He is director and treasurer of the Nazareth Cement Burial Casket company and other corporations.

Leopold, Isaac, physician of 1518 North Franklin st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 6, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been medical director of the Jewish maternity hospital.

LeRoy,Millard F.,lawyer,banker and statesman of Manchester, Iowa, was born Jan. 16, 1850, in Manchester, Ind. He is president of the First National bank; and since 1912 has been a member of the state legislature.

Lesher, Arthur L., merchant of 670 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 7, 1862, in New York City. He is now a partner of Lesher, Whitman and company; and a director of the bank of the Metropolis.

Lesher, John V., lawyer and statesman of Sunbury, Pa., was born July 27, 1866, in Union county,Pa. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lesley, Robert W., manufacturer and lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 5, 1853, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been assistant state reporter of the supreme court of Pennsylvania.

Leslie, G. E., banker of Memphis, Mo., was born Jan. 21, 1861, in Keokuk, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Lespinasse, Alphonse J., diplomat of Tuxpan, Vera Cruz, Mexico, was born in New York. In 1902 he was appointed consul at Tuxpan.

Lester, George Bacon, lawyer of 34 West Tenth st., New York City, was born July 12, 1872, in Seneca Falls, N.Y. He is a director and general counsel of Fleishman Manufacturing company.

Lester, James Westcott, lawyer of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., was born Sept. 8, 1859, in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. He is secretary of the United States Hotel company.

Lester, P. G., clergyman and banker of Floyd, Va., was born in 1850 in Floyd, Va. He is president of the People's Bank of Floyd county.

Letchworth, Ogden Pearl, manufacturer and merchant of Buffalo, N.Y., was born in 1851, in Auburn, N.Y. He is president of the Pratt and Letchworth company and a director of other corporations.

Leuba, James Henry, educator and author of Bryn Mawr, Pa., was born in 1868 in Neuchatel, Switzerland. Since 1898 he has been professor of psychology in Bryn Mawr college. He is the author of A Psychological Study of Religion.

Leubuscher, Frederic Cyrus, lawyer of 258 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 1, 1860, in New York City. He is president of the New York Teachers' Plantation company and a director of corporations.

Leutze, Eugene Henry Cozzens, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 16, 1847, in Prussia. In 1863 he was appointed to the United States naval academy. In 1899 he was ordered to the relief of Admiral Dewey in Manila bay; and in 1899-1900 was commandant of the Cavite navy yards. He is commandant of the navy yards, New York.

Leverett, George Vasmer, lawyer and financier of Boston, Mass., was born in 1846, in Charlestown, Mass. Since 1871 he has practiced law in Boston, and in 1886 became general attorney for the American Bell Telephone company; and is now general counsel of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. He is a trustee of the Franklin Savings bank of Boston; and a director of the Boston Wharf company and other financial and industrial corporations.

Levering, Eugene, banker of 26 South st., Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 12, 1845, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the National bank of Commerce.

Levering, Joshua, merchant and banker of Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 12, 1845, in Baltimore, Md. He is a member of the firm of E. Levering and company.

Leveroni, Frank, lawyer and jurist of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 10, 1879, in Genoa, Italy. He has been special justice of the Boston juvenile court and public administrator.

Levey, Charles M., railroad official of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 27, 1858, near Olena, Ohio. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Western Pacific railroad.

Levi, Abraham, lawyer and banker of Manning, S.C., was born July 31, 1863, in Manning, S.C. He is president of the bank of Manning.

Levi, Charles S., rabbi of Peoria, Ill., was born on May 20, 1868, in London, England. Since 1898 he has been a rabbi in Peoria.

Levick, Hugh Gwynne, banker of Winchester, Mass., was born March 17, 1870, in Burleigh, England. He is a member of the firm of Lee, Higginson and company.

Levings, Edward, banker of Paris, Ill., was born March 4, 1871, in Paris. He is president of the Citizens' National bank of Paris.

Levis, Franklin Burr Levis, lawyer and capitalist of Mount Holly, N.J., was born on July 28, 1834, in Mount Holly, N.J. He is a director of the Union National bank.

Levy, Charles Emanuel, banker and cotton merchant of 30 Broad st., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1860, in Lexington, Miss. He is president of the Interstate Securities company and a director of other corporations.

Levy, Edward Dailey, railway official of Springfield, Mo., was born Oct. 16, 1879, in Paris, Texas. He entered railway service in 1898 as stenographer, and has since served in various capacities to chief clerk. Since 1911 he has been assistant general manager of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad at Springfield.

Levy, Joseph Leonard, clergyman and author of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Nov. 24, 1865, in London, England. Since 1901 he has been rabbi of the Rodeph Shalon congregation at Pittsburgh. He is the author of Old Arrows from New Quivers and other works.

Lewi, Maurice J., physician and educator of 1133 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 1, 1857, in Albany, N.Y. He is secretary of the New York state board of medical examiners.

Lewis, Abraham, banker of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born July 14, 1873, in Santa Clara county, Cal. He is vice-president and manager of the bank of Hawaii.

Lewis, Allie Ernest, banker of Bartlesville, Okla., was born Jan. 27, 1881, in Kansas. He is president of the Bartlesville State bank.

Lewis, Arthur Franklin, clergyman of Unionville, Conn., was born Feb. 29, 1872, in Trumbull, Conn. He is vice-president of the board of managers of the Masonic home at Wallingford.

Lewis, Charles L., banker of Fairfield, Neb., was born Jan. 26, 1858, in Winchester, Ill. He is president of the State bank of Deweese.

Lewis, Daniel F., banker of 201 Montague st. Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 28, 1849, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1886-1895 he was president of the Brooklyn City Railroad company. He is president of the New York and Long Island Realty company.

Lewis, Edward Gardner, publisher and banker of University City, Mo., was born in 1868, in Connecticut. He is president of the Lewis Publishing company.

Lewis, Edwin Clifford, banker and stock broker of 2127 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 23, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia stock exchange.

Lewis, Elijah Nathaniel, banker of Macon, Ga., was born May 11, 1885, in Hawkinsville, Ga. He is assistant cashier of the Commercial and Savings bank.

Lewis, Everett Edward, clergyman and author of Haddam, Conn., was born June 4, 1837, in Bristol, Conn. He is the author of History of Haddam Congregational Church.

Lewis, Franklin Crocker, superintendent of 33 Central Park West, New York City, was born in 1877 in Centerville, Cape Cod, Mass. He is superintendent of the ethical culture schools.

Lewis, Fred E., statesman and lawyer of Allentown, Pa., was born Feb. 8, 1865, in Allentown, Pa. He has been president of the board of trade; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lewis, G. Griffin, physician of Syracuse, N. Y., was born Dec. 17, 1865, in Avoca, N.Y. He is oculist to the hospital of the good shepherd; and special United States pension examiner.

Lewis, George Albert, manufacturer and banker of Naugatuck, Conn., was born Feb. 11, 1843, in Sharon, Conn. He is president of the Naugatuck National bank.

Lewis, H. George Ashley, lawyer and jurist of Buffalo, N.Y., was born April 9, 1855, in Batavia, N.Y. He was one of the judges who organized the municipal court of Buffalo in 1880.

Lewis, Hiram Wheeler, banker of Wichita, Kan., was born March 11, 1843, in Warren, Ohio. He is president of the Anchor Trust company.

Lewis, James Hamilton, statesman of Chicago, Ill., was born in 1867, in Virginia. In 1913 he became a member of the United States senate.

Lewis, James P., banker of Whitesburg, Ky., was born Sept. 8, 1869, in Letcher county, Ky. He is president of the Union bank.

Lewis, John Ashbury, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 24, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. He is cashier of the National Bank of Commerce.

Lewis, John Frederick, lawyer and lecturer of 106 South Fourth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 10, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1879 he graduated with highest honors from the central high school of his native city; in 1884 received the degree of A. M. from that school; and was awarded the gold medal of the alumni association. In 1882 he begun the practice of law in the courts of admiralty; and subsequently in the common courts and is a member of the firm of Lewis, Alder and Laws. He is president of the Pennsylvania academy of the fine arts; is president of the Mercantile Library company of Philadelphia; vice-president of the historical society of Pennsylvania; and president of the young American humane union. He is a director of the Farmers and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; is a special lecturer on admiralty law at the law school of the university of Pennsylvania; and also serves as a United States commissioner.

Lewis, Joseph Stuart, real estate dealer and banker of Oak Hill, W.Va., was born Jan. 13, 1874, in Buckingham county, Va. He is vice-president of the Merchants and Miners' bank.

Lewis, Lester W., banker of 720 Second ave., Seattle, Wash., was born Aug. 8, 1860, in Maple Grove, Ill. He is president of the Commercial State bank.

Lewis, Loran Ludowick, lawyer and capitalist of Buffalo, N.Y., was born May 9, 1825, in Cayuga county, N.Y. He has been president of the Third National bank of Buffalo. He is counsel for the firm of Lewis and Lewis.

Lewis, Merton Elmer, lawyer of Rochester, N.Y., was born Dec. 10, 1861, in Webster, N.Y. He has been a member of the New York state senate; and has been acting mayor of Rochester.

Lewis, Olin B., lawyer, jurist and statesman of St. Paul, Minn., was born March 12, 1861, in Weyauwega, Wis. He was educated at the university of Wisconsin and the law school of the university of Wisconsin. He engaged in the practice of law in St. Paul, in 1889; was a member of the Minnesota state assembly in 1894-98; and since 1896 has been judge of the seventh judicial district court of Minnesota.

Lewis, Richard Anthony, merchant of 902 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 14, 1830, in Worcester county, Mass. He is a director of the Delaware Insurance company.

Lewis, Richard V., merchant of 130 West Forty-second st., New York City, was born Dec. 23, 1841, in Wales. He is president of the firm of Lewis and Conger. He served in the civil war.

Lewis, Robert, physician, otologist and rhinologist of 48 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born March 8, 1862, in New York City. He graduated from the college of physicians and surgeons, the medical department of the Columbia university; and since 1901 he has been surgeon in the aural department and professor of clinical otology since 1908 in that institution. He is also consulting aurist to Flushing and St. Francis' hospitals. He is a contributor to The Reference Handbook of the Medical Sciences of articles on Anatomy and Physiology of the Auricle and on kindred subjects.

Lewis, Robert Steele, lawyer, banker and statesman of Fargo, N.D., was born Aug. 15, 1856, in Iuka, Tenn. He is vice-president of the Dakota Trust company. In 1908 he was re-elected lieutenant-governor.

Lewis, Samuel DeWolf, banker of Newport, N.H., was born Jan. 3, 1867, in Newport, N.H. He is president of the Brampton Woolen company.

Lewis, Thornton, railroad official of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Dec. 19, 1863, in Hamilton, Ohio. He was educated in the public schools of Chicago. He entered railway service in 1888 as contracting agent and later became live stock agent and export agent. He is now manager of the Kanawha Despatch and general western freight agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. He is a director of the Cincinnati and Covington Bridge company.

Lewis, Vivian M., commissioner of Paterson, N.J., was born June 8, 1869, in Paterson, N.J. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He has been state commissioner of New Jersey for banking and insurance.

Lewis, William A., farmer and banker of Williamsburg, Ind., was born Oct. 16, 1851, in Williamsburg, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Lewis, Willis L., lawyer of Coudersport, Pa., was born in 1852 in Potter county, Pa. Since 1906 he has been general counsel for the Tidewater Pipe company (limited).

Lewis, Woodson, merchant and banker of Greensburg, Ky., was born Jan. 11, 1856, in Greensburg, Ky. He is president of the board of directors of the Greensburg Deposit bank.

Lewisohn, Adolph, capitalist and philanthropist of 61 Broadway,New York City,was born on May 27, 1849, in Hamburg,Germany. He is a member of the great mercantile firm of Adolph Lewisohn and Sons. He is also president of the General Development company and other corporations. He is largely engaged in charitable work; and is president of the Hebrew sheltering guardian orphan asylum.

L'Heureux, Alfred J., educator and statesman of Hartford, Conn., was born Oct. 1, 1885, in Jewett City, Conn. He has been registrar of voters in the town of Griswold,New London county; and a teacher in the Newman school of Hackensack, N.J. He is now a representative to the general assembly of the state of Connecticut. He is still a teacher at the Newman school; and also auditor for his county.

Libbey, William, educator and banker of Princeton, N.J., was born March 27, 1855, in Jersey City, N.J. He is vice-president of the Princeton Savings bank.

Lieb, Charles, statesman of Rockport,Ind., was born May 20, 1852, in Germany. He was a member of the state legislature; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lieber, Albert, brewer and bank president of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Aug. 13, 1863, in Indianapolis, Ind. He was educated in the public schools and at the Indianapolis business college. He is president of the Indianapolis Brewing company, president of The A. Lieber company, and a director of the Indiana Trust and of the Merchants' National bank.

Lieberknecht, Adam, diplomat of Zurich, Switzerland, was born in Germany. In 1897 he was appointed consul at Zurich.

Lierboe, William, banker of Turtle Lake, N.D., was born July 4, 1877, in El Dorado, Iowa. He is president of the First National bank.

Liggett, Sidney B.,railway official of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 10, 1849, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is secretary of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh.

Light, H. H., business president of Lebanon, Pa., was born about 1862 in Lebanon, Pa. He has been purchasing agent for the American Iron and Steel company; and president of the East Lebanon Iron company. He is now president of the Lebanon Valley Iron and Steel company of Lebanon.

Lightner, Arthur D., railroad president of New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 2, 1866, in Vincennes, Iowa. Since 1912 he has been president of the New Orleans Terminal company.

Ligon, Henry Arthur, banker of Spartanburg, S.C., was born Oct. 15, 1856, in Lexington county, S.C. He is president of the American National bank.

Ligon, Robert Fulwood, lawyer and bank director of Montgomery, Ala., was born in Tuskegee, Ala. He is a successful lawyer; and since 1898 has been clerk of the Alabama state supreme court. He has been a delegate to several political conventions; served as captain in the state troops; in 1896-1900 was adjutant-general of the state; and has been a member of the military staff for several governors as brigadier-general of state troops.

Likens, Gabriel Bean, lawyer and banker of Hartford, Ky., was born Feb. 17, 1867, in Ohio county, Ky. He is president of the Hartford Drug company.

Lilienthal, Jesse W., lawyer and business president of San Francisco, Cal. He has been vice-president of the San Francisco bar association, and a member of the committee on amendment of the law of the New York bar association. He is now president of the San Francisco juvenile court, of the San Francisco recreation league, and president of the San Francisco association for the prevention of tuberculosis. He is a director of the boys' and girls' aid society. He is a director of the Anglo and London-Paris National bank; and vice-president of the Anglo California Trust company.

Lillard, Elias Walker, farmer, merchant and banker of Canton, Mo., was born March 30, 1842, in Lewis county, Mo. He is president of the Bank of Lewis county.

Lillard, John William, banker of Canton, Mo., was born Aug. 1, 1869, in Christian county, Ill. He is cashier of the Bank of Lewis county.

Lilley, George Leavens, statesman of Waterbury, Conn., was born Aug. 3, 1859, in Oxford, Mass. He is a director of the Torrington National bank. He has been a member of congress.

Lilly, Henry Walter, manufacturer and banker of Fayetteville, N.C.,was born March 10, 1856, in Fayetteville, N.C. He graduated from the Randolph Macon college and from the university of Virginia, from which latter institution he received the degree of M. D. He is president of the Victory Cotton Manufacturing company, president of the Fourth National bank of Fayetteville, and a director of the Fayetteville Woodenware company.

Lincoln, Arthur, stock broker of 29 Wall st., New York City, was born June 5, 1849, in Providence, R.I. He is secretary and treasurer of the Jewell Export Filter company.

Lincoln, Charles Z., lawyer of 103 South Swan st., Albany, N.Y., was born Aug. 5, 1848, in Grafton, Vt. In 1905 he was appointed editor of the governor's message.

Lincoln, Francis Henry, trustee, underwriter and banker of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born April 14, 1846, in Hingham, Mass. He is president of the Hingham institution for savings.

Lincoln, Leontine, manufacturer of 289 bank st., Fall River, Mass. He is president of the Lincoln Manufacturing company.

Lincoln, Rixford J., lawyer and author of New Orleans, La., was born Aug. 22, 1872, in New Orleans, La. He was commercial reporter for the New Orleans Times. He is the author of Tales of Pagan Rome.

Lincoln, William A., banker of 500 Main st., Springfield, Mass., was born May 15, 1857, in Northampton, Mass. He is vice-president of the Springfield Safe Deposit and Trust company.

Lincoln, William Henry, shipping merchant and financier of Boston, Mass., was born June 13, 1835, in Boston, Mass. He is a director of the Boston Insurance company.

Lindberg, John August, broker and banker of Dayton, Iowa, was born Dec. 29, 1850, in Victoria, Ill. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Lindbergh, Charles August, statesman of Little Falls, Minn., was born Jan. 20, 1859, in Sweden. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lindblom, Erik Olof, banker of San Francisco, Cal., was born June 27, 1857, in Sweden. He is president of the Swedish-American bank of San Francisco, and other corporations.

Lindburg, John R., banker of 507 West Euclid st., Pittsburg, Kan., was born Nov. 22, 1849, in Sweden. He is president of the First National bank.

Linde, Henry J., lawyer and statesman of Stanley, N.D., was born in Dec. 31, 1879, in Ridgeway, Iowa. He was educated at the Luther college of Decorah, Iowa and studied law in the university of Minnesota. He taught science and English literature at Park Region Luther college of Fergus Falls, Minn. Since 1906 he has practiced law in North Dakota; and is president of the Mount Trail county bar association. Since 1908 he has been a member of the state senate.

Lindemann, Henry, banker of Viroqua, Wis., was born May 24, 1859, in Viroqua, Wis. He is president of the Bank of Viroqua.

Lindley, Demas E., banker of Bentleyville, Pa., was born April 28, 1872, in Washington county, Pa. He has been cashier of the Farmers and Miners' National bank.

Lindley, George Robert, banker of Medford, Ore., was born Aug. 5, 1872, in Blencoe, Ia. He is a successful farmer and financier; and is now vice-president of the Jackson County bank of Medford; and a director in the Trust and Savings bank of Klamath Falls.

Lindley, W. C., lawyer and jurist of Danville, Ill., was born Jan. 12, 1880, in Neoga, Ill. He graduated from the university of Illinois in 1901 and from the college of law of the same institution in 1904. He has been secretary and treasurer of the republican central committee; and president of the Danville county club. Since 1910 he has been master in chancery in the United States court. He is a member of the committees on judicial administration and reform, and on expense and cost of litigation of the state bar association.

Lindley, Walter, physician and surgeon of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 13, 1852, in Monrovia, Ind. He has been president of the California state medical society. He is the editor and publisher of the Southern California Practitioner. He is the author of California of the South and other works.

Lindly, Bayard Blackly, lawyer and banker of Winfield, Iowa, was born Aug. 20, 1841, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Bank of Winfield.

Lindquist, Francis O., statesman of Greenville, Mich., was born Sept. 27, 1869, in Marinette, Wis. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lindsay, John D., lawyer of 34 West Eleventh st., New York City, was born Dec. 31, 1865, in New York City. He is a member of the firm of Nicoll, Anable and Lindsay.

Lindsey, Arthur N., clergyman and banker of Clinton, Mo., was born in 1873, in Warsaw, Ky. He is president of the People's National bank.

Lindsey, Charles Tipton, banker of 102 South Michigan st., South Bend, Ind., was born in 1850 in South Bend, Ind. He is president of the Citizens' Loan Trust and Savings company.

Lingsweiler, Edward, banker of Richland, Mo., was born Oct. 19, 1847, in Wisconsin. He is president of the Pulaski County bank.

Link, J. W., banker of Houston, Texas, was born Dec. 1, 1866, in Tennessee. He is a director of the Bankers' Trust company.

Link, William Z., banker and real estate broker of Oakwood, Mo., was born Oct. 17, 1859, in St. Louis county, Mo. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Oakwood.

Linn, Andrew M., lawyer and banker of Washington, Pa., was born June 21, 1863, in Cannonsburg, Pa. He is president of the First National bank of Washington.

Linn, E. G., merchant and banker of Kimball, Neb., was born Dec. 6, 1862, in Sweden. He is president of the Bank of Kimball.

Linn, William Alexander, banker of Hackensack, N.J., was born Sept. 4, 1846, in Sussex, N.J. He is president of the People's National bank.

Linnen, Edward Bangs, government official of Washington, D.C., was born March 21, 1864, in Minnesota. He is inspector in the interior department at Washington.

Linsley, Edward Baldwin, business president and statesman of Three Rivers, Mich., was born July 27, 1847, in Henrietta, Monroe county, N.Y. He is manager of the Sheffield Car company of Three Rivers, Mich., the largest manufacturers of small cars in the world, and prominently identified with the business and public affairs of that city. He has been mayor of Three Rivers,Mich.; member of the school board; for twenty-three years president of the library board; for twenty-five years president of the Three Rivers building and loan association; for two years president of the state league and building and loan associations;and for four years was state senator from the sixth district of Michigan. He is vice-president and chairman of the board of directors of the First State Savings bank of Three Rivers, Mich.

Linsley, George Thomas, clergyman of 92 Wethersfield ave., Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 4, 1864, in New Haven, Conn. Since 1902 he has been rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Linson, John James, lawyer and banker of 43 John st., Kingston, N.Y., was born Nov. 29, 1850, in Mongaup Valley, N.Y. He has been state senator. He is vice-president and attorney for the National Ulster County bank.

Linthicum, Daniel Anthony, banker of Farwell, Texas, was born Nov. 18, 1878, in Helena, Ark. He is president of the Texas State bank.

Linthicum, John Charles, lawyer and statesman of Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 26, 1867, in Linthicum, Md. He received the degree of LL.B. from the university of Maryland. Since 1890 he has practiced law in Baltimore. He has been a representative in the Maryland state legislature; and in 1905-10 was a member of the state senate. In 1908-12 he was judge advocate general on the staff of Governor Crothers. In 1911-13 he was a member of the sixty-second congress.

Lippincott, Craige, publisher of 227 East Washington st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 4, 1846, in Philadelphia,Pa. He is president of J. P. Lippincott company.

Lippincott, Henry C., insurance official of 1421 North Seventeenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 12, 1844, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is manager of agencies for the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company.

Lippincott, Joshua Bertram, capitalist of 229 South Sixth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 24, 1857, in Huntington Valley, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the Wharton Steel company and other corporations.

Lippincott, Walter, publisher of 2101 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1849 in Philadelphia, Pa. He was educated at the university of Pennsylvania. He entered his father's establishment, the J. B. Lippincott and company, and in 1885 became a director. His services have been of an advisory character. He is a member of the Union league and numerous other clubs and societies.

Lippitt, Charles Warren, capitalist and statesman of 107 Benevolent st., Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 8, 1846, in Providence, R. I. He has been governor of Rhode Island.

Lippitt, Costello, banker of Norwich,Conn., was born Dec. 12, 1842, in East Killingly, Conn. He is president of the Merchants' National bank and is connected with other corporations.

Lippitt, Francis Smith, clergyman of 21 Selye terrace, Rochester, N.Y., was born July 27, 1873, in Providence, R.I. Since 1904 he has been rector of the Church of the Ascension.

Lippitt, Henry Frederick,manufacturer and banker of Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 12, 1856, in Providence, R.I. He is vice-president of the People's Savings bank. Since 1912 he has been United States senator from Rhode Island.

Lippman, Joseph, lawyer, business president and public official of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born June 19, 1858, in Mobile,Ala. In 1875 he graduated with the degree of B.A. from the Philadelphia high school; and in 1879 graduated with the degree of LL.B. from the law department of the university of Pennsylvania. In 1890 he was territorial librarian for Utah territory; in 1893-94 was county recorder for Salt Lake county, Utah; and in 1902-06 was United States district attorney for Utah. He has attained success in the practice of law in Salt Lake City, Utah; is president and director of a number of mining corporations and has filled numerous positions of trust and honor.

Lippmann, Julie Mathilde, author of 101 West Eighty-fifth st., New York City, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. His poems have appeared for years in the leading periodicals, also short stories. He is the author of Martha By the Day and other works.

Lister, Ernest, manufacturer and statesman of Olympia, Wash., was born in 1870 in England, and moved to Washington in 1884. He is a manufacturer of finished lumber products. In 1894-96 he was a member of the Tacoma city council; in 1897-1903 was chairman of the Washington state board of control; and since 1909 has been a member of the Tacoma charter revision committee. Since 1913 he has been governor of the state of Washington.

Litchfield, George Albert, banker of Keene, N.H., was born July 13, 1846, in Chesterfield, Mass. He is president of the Keene National bank.

Litel, James E., banker of Albany, Wis., was born Aug. 29, 1861, in Avoca, Wis. He is president of the Bank of Oregon.

Litel, John Franklin, banker of Oregon, Wis., was born Sept. 26, 1876, in Footville, Wis. He is president of the Bank of Albany.

Littauer, Lucius Nathan,manufacturer and statesman of Gloversville, N.Y., was born Jan. 20, 1859, in Gloversville, N.Y. In 1882 he succeeded to the glove manufacturing business of his father. In 1896-1906 he was a member of congress; and since 1896 has been a member of the national and state conventions of the republican party. He is president of the Gloversville Knitting company, of the Fonda Glove Lining company and other corporations.

Littig, Lawrence William, surgeon and consultant of Davenport, Iowa., was born July 20, 1858, in Davenport, Iowa. He is attending surgeon at the Mercy hospital and the St. Luke hospital.

Little, Adelbert Pierson, manufacturer and banker of Rochester, N.Y., was born in 1847 in Riga, N.Y. He is a director and trustee of the Mechanics Savings bank.

Little, Charles F., physician and banker of Manhattan, Kan., was born Jan. 27, 1836, in Milford, N.H. He is president of the First National bank.

Little, Charles Leland, banker of New Hebron, Miss., was born Feb. 25, 1887, in Mississippi. He is assistant cashier of the Hebron bank.

Little, Clarence Belden, lawyer, banker and statesman of Bismarck, N.D., was born Nov. 18, 1857, in Pembroke, N.H. He was educated at Pembroke academy and graduated from the Dartmouth college with the degree of A.B. He is president of the First National bank of Bismarck, president of the McLean County State bank of Wilkins, president of the Emmons County State bank of Braddock, president of the Mackenzie State bank, president of the Sterling State bank, and president of the Wilkins Mercantile company. In 1884-88 he was judge of probate; and for twenty years has been a member of the North Dakota state senate.

Little, Edward Porter, clergyman of Hannibal, Mo., was born Dec. 19, 1853, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1893 he has been rector of the Trinity church.

Little, James Cain, railroad president of Louisville, Ga., was born in 1840 in Louisville, Ga. Since 1888 he has been president of the Louisville and Wadley railroad.

Little, John, banker of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born June 19, 1841, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He served in the civil war. Since 1908 he has been vice-president of the First National bank.

Little, John Mason, merchant and trustee of Boston, Mass., was born July 14, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is a director of the American Bank Note company and other corporations.

Little, John S., banker of Rushville, Ill., was born Feb. 23, 1864, in Rushville. He has been a trustee and secretary of Western Illinois state normal school. He is cashier and director of the Bank of Rushville.

Little, John Sebastian, statesman of Greenwood, Ark., was born March 15, 1853, in Jenny Lind, Ark. He has been a member of congress; and has been governor of Arkansas.

Little, Peter C., lawyer and jurist of Globe, Ariz., was born Sept. 5, 1861, in Oxford's Ford, N.C. He received the degree of Ph.B. from Concordia college of Missouri. He has been city attorney of Orange, Cal.; and in 1903-07 was judge of the probate court of Graham county, Ariz. Since 1907 he has practiced law in Globe; and in 1912 was a delegate to the democratic national convention.

Little, Philip, artist and author of Salem, Mass., was born Sept. 6, 1857, in Swampscott, Mass. He was a pupil of the Boston museum school. His principal works are In the Wake of the Moon, and An Off Shore Breeze.

Littlefield, Charles Wentworth, physician and surgeon of Seattle, Wash., was born Dec. 17, 1859, in Mankato, Minn. He is the author of The Riddle of the Ages and other works.

Littlefield, Eben Northup, banker of 56 North Maine st., Providence, R.I., was born in 1854 in Pawtucket, R.I. He is president of the American Hair Cloth company.

Littlefield, George Washington, ranchman and banker of Austin, Texas, was born June 21, 1842, in Panola county, Miss. He is president of the Central Bank and Trust company.

Littlefield, Henry Warren, merchant of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 30, 1842, in Quincy, Mass. He served in the civil war. He has been manager of the Mercantile Beneficial association of Philadelphia.

Litton, James Price, manufacturer and merchant of 111 Fifth ave., New York City, was born March 25, 1845, in Abingdon, Va. He is president of the Floradora Tag company and a director of other corporations.

Livengood, Charles Franklin, physician and banker of Boswell, Pa., was born in 1864, in Jenner, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Liver, John George, banker of Hartford, Wis., was born May 25, 1854, in Sarn, Switzerland. He is president of the First National bank of Hartford.

Livermore, Charles Herbert, educator of 30 St. James place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Oct. 15, 1856, in Mansfield, Conn. He is president of the Adelphi college.

Livermore, George, manufacturer and capitalist of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Nov. 15, 1845, in Lisle, N.Y. He is president of the Ithaca Gun company.

Livingston, Crawford, railroad builder and capitalist of St. Paul, Minn., was born May 6, 1848, in New York. He is president of the board of water commissioners. He has been president of all of the lighting companies of St. Paul.

Livingston, John Henry, lawyer of Tivoli-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born July 8, 1848, in Oak Hill, N.Y. He is a member of the New York bar association.

Livingston, Leonidas Felix, farmer and statesman of Covington, Ga., was born April 3, 1832, in Newton county, Ga. He has been president of the Georgia state alliance. He has been a member of congress.

Livingston, William, educator and poet of 308 East Thirty-seventh st., New York City, was born Oct. 24, 1857, in Ireland. He is pastor of St. Gabriel's church. He is the author of several poems.

Livingstone, Colin Hamilton, banker of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 3, 1863, in St. John, N.B. He is vice-president of the American National bank.

Lloyd, Bolivar Jones, physician and surgeon of Seattle, Wash., was born May 10, 1872, in Bryan, Texas. He has been United States quarantine officer of Nome, Alaska; and private physician to the president of Ecuador. He is in charge of the United States public health and marine hospital service at Seattle.

Lloyd, Curtis Gates, botanist of 224 West Court st., New York City, was born July 17, 1859, in Florence, Ky. He is a partner in the firm of Lloyd Brothers, wholesale druggists.

Lloyd, Henry, banker and statesman of Cambridge, Mass., was born born Feb. 21, 1852, near Cambridge, Mass. He is president of the Dorchester National bank.

Lloyd, Henry Albert, lawyer of 32 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 12, 1849, in Doylestown, Pa. He is president of the Brazoria Land and Cattle company.

Lloyd, Herbert Marshall, lawyer of 92 William st., New York City, was born March 29, 1862, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is secretary, treasurer and director of the American Paper Goods company.

Lloyd, Horatio G., banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 14, 1867, in Middletown, Del. He is president of the Commercial Trust company and a director of several corporations.

Lloyd, John, banker and coal operator of Altoona, Pa., was born April 19, 1842, in Hollidaysburg, Pa. He was educated at the Lafayette college of Easton, Pa. He placed the first water and improvement bonded loans of the city of Altoona, the bonds of the Altoona Gas company, the Electric company and various coal companies and corporations. He was the organizer and is the president of the Altoona and Logan Valley Electric railway and president of the Edison Electric company of Altoona. He was the founder of Lakemont Park; is president of the Altoona Gas company; and president of the First National bank of Altoona.

Lloyd, John P. Derwent, clergyman of Seattle, Wash., was born June 7, 1861, in Manchester, England. Since 1897 he has been rector of St. Mark's church.

Lloyd, John Uri, pharmacist and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 19, 1849, in West Bloomfield, N.Y. He has received the degrees of Ph.M., Ph.D. and LL.D. Until 1887 he was professor of pharmacy at the Cincinnati college of pharmacy and in 1897-1904 was professor of chemistry and president of the Eclectic Medical Institute at Cincinnati, Ohio. He was an associate editor of the Pharmaceutical Review, and other journals. In 1887 he was president of the American pharmaceutical association. He is president of the Lloyd library of botany and pharmacy. He is author of Chemistry of Medicine; Etidorpha, or the End of the Earth; The Right Side of the Car; Stringtown on the Pike; Red Head; Warwick of the Knobs, and Scroggin. He has also written a number of scientific works, such as A Study in Pharmacy; The Eclectic Alkaloids, Resins and Concentrated Principles; and History of the Vegetable Drugs of the Pharmacopeia of the United States. With C. G. Lloyd, he collaborated in producing drugs and medicines of North America, and with H. W. Felter, M.D., in rewriting the American Dispensatory.

Lloyd, Stewart Joseph, educator and scientist of University, Ala., was born Sept. 12, 1881, in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. He has received the degrees of A.B., M.S. and Ph. D. In 1909-11 he was associate professor, and since 1911 professor of chemistry in the university of Alabama. He has made valuable researches in physical and organic chemistry.

Lloyd, Warren E., lawyer, lecturer and author of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Feb. 28, 1869, in Nebraska City, Neb. He received the degrees of B.L. and M.L. from the university of California; studied in university of Berlin and Munich; and received the degree of Ph.D. from Yale university. Since 1887 has practiced law in California; and is lecturer on constitutional law and philosophy of law in the university of Southern California law school at Los Angeles. He is the author of Psychology, Normal and Abnormal.

Lloyd, William Holt, druggist of Pine Apple, Ala., was born Dec. 10, 1841, in Alabama. He served in the civil war. He is president of the Bank of Pine Apple; and has been mayor of his city.

Lloyd, William Supplee, manufacturer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 12, 1860, in LaCrosse, Wis. He is proprietor of the Stratford Knitting mills.

Lobdell, Charles E., lawyer and banker of Larned, Kan., was born Sept. 21, 1861, in Osawatowie, Kan. He is president of the First State bank.

Lobdell, Charles Wesley, merchant, manufacturer and banker of 3861 Lake ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 27, 1834, in Victor, N.Y. He is a member of the Chicago stock exchange.

Lobinger, Andrew Stewart, surgeon of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 22, 1862, in Laurelville, Pa. He served as acting surgeon during the Leadville riot.

Lobinger, Charles Sumner, lawyer, jurist and author of Manila, P.I., was born April 30, 1866, in Lanark, Ill. He is judge of the court of first instance. He is the author of The People's Law and other works.

Lochner, Louis P., editor and lecturer of 821 State st., Madison, Wis., was born Feb. 22, 1887, in Springfield, Ill. He has been editor of the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine and editor of The Cosmopolitan Student. He was first president of the association of cosmopolitan clubs. He is now general secretary of the alumni association of the university of Wisconsin, and editor of The Cosmopolitan Student and The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine. He is a lecturer for extension division of the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of The Cosmopolitan Movement, and Internationalism Among Universities.

Lochren, William, jurist of 422 Tenth ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born April 31, 1832, in county Tyrone, Ireland. He is judge of the United States court for the district of Minnesota.

Locke, Charles Edward, clergyman and author of 728 Berendo st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Sept. 9, 1858, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He conducted the funeral services of President McKinley at Buffalo.

Locke, Elmore Estee, merchant and bank director of 165 Pleasant st., Malden, Mass., was born Oct. 29, 1860, in Epsom, N.H. He is president of the Locke Coal company.

Locke, George David, railroad president of Rogers, Ark., was born Oct. 3, 1874, in Jerseyville, Ill. Since 1911 he has been president of the Kansas City and Memphis railroad.

Locke, James W., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Jacksonville, Fla., was born Oct. 30, 1837, in Wilmington, Vt. He received a high school and academic education. He engaged in educational work; studied law and has attained prominence as one of the foremost lawyers of Florida. During the war he was in the naval service, and at its close settled in Key West,Fla. He has been county judge; has served as a member of the Florida state senate. Since 1872 he has been judge of the United States district court for the southern district of Florida; and holds the oldest commission of any federal judge.

Lockhart, Arthur John, clergyman and author of East Boothbay, Maine,was born May 5, 1850, in Nova Scotia. He is the author of The Masque of Minstrels and other works.

Lockhart, Clinton, clergyman and author of Waco, Texas, was born Feb. 21, 1858, in Lobington, Ill. He is the author of Laws of Interpretation and other works.

Lockhart, Fred T., lawyer and author of Augusta, Ga.,was born June 11, 1850, in Lincoln county, Ga. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled Told By a Child.

Lockhart, James Alexander, lawyer and statesman of Wadesboro, N.C.,was born June 2, 1850, in Anson county, N.C. He was elected to the fifty-fourth congress as a democrat but did not take his seat.

Lockmiller, George F., merchant and banker of Athens, Tenn., was born Nov. 5, 1875, in Tennessee. He is president of the Athens Bank and Trust company.

Lockwood, George Browning, publisher and author of Marion, Ind.,was born Nov. 7, 1872, in Forest, Ill. Since 1905 he has been assistant general manager of the Winona assembly and schools.

Lockwood, George Francis, banker of New Canaan, Conn., was born Nov. 16, 1849, in Stamford, Conn. He is president of the First National bank.

Lockwood, Henry, clergyman and journalist of East Millstone, N.J., was born Jan. 4, 1869, in Albany, N.Y. He is the editor of the Somerset Church News.

Lockwood, Homer Nicholas, topographer and statesman of 2090 Seventh ave., New York City, was born June 23, 1833, in Victory, N.Y. In 1866-67 he was a member of the New York state legislature.

Lockwood, Ingersoll, lecturer and author of 55 West Thirty-fifth st., New York City, was born Dec. 30, 1848, in England. He is author of Wonderful Deeds of Little Giant Roab and other works.

Lockwood, John, railroad president of Columbia, Mo., was born Nov. 13, 1836, in Lenawee county, Mich. He is president of the Rockport, Langdon and Northern railway at Rockport, Mo.

Lockwood, Luke Vincent, lawyer and author of 35 Nassau st., New York City, was born Feb. 1, 1872, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of Colonial Furniture in America.

Lockwood, Mary Smith, artist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 24, 1831, in Hanover, N.Y. She is the author of Handbook of Ceramic Art and other works.

Lockwood, Mrs. Sara Elizabeth, educator and author of 410 Eureka st., Redlands, Cal., was born Sept. 13, 1854, in Bridgeport, Conn. She is the author of Lessons in English and other works.

Lockwood, Thomas Dixon, civil engineer and author of 125 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 30, 1848, in England. He is the author of Information of Telephonists and other works.

Lockwood, Virgil Homer, lecturer and lawyer of Indianapolis, Ind., was born May 6, 1860, in Fort Branch, Ind. He is a member of the supreme court of the United States and the American bar association.

Locy, William Albert, educator and scientist of 1823 Hinman ave., Evanston, Ill., was born Sept. 14, 1857, in Troy, N.Y. Since 1895 he has been professor of zoology in the Northwestern university.

Loder, Arthur E., civil engineer of San Francisco, Cal., was born in 1881 in Coshocton, Ohio. He built boulevards for the Jamestown exposition; and built the Newhall tunnel through the Santa Susanna mountains.

Loder, Percival E., physician of 517 South Eighth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 13, 1853, in Allentown, Pa. He has been professor of anatomy in the Pennsylvania college of dental surgery for the past eight years.

Lodge, George Cabot, naval officer, author and poet of Nahant, Mass., was born Oct. 10, 1873, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Song of the Wave and other works.

Lodge, Gonzales, educator and author of 500 West One Hundred and Twenty-first st., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1863, in Fort Littleton, Pa. He is the author of Latin Grammar.

Lodge, Harriet Newell, author and poet of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Jan. 28, 1848, in Madison, Ind. She is the author of brochure of the Poetical Significance of Flowers and other works.

Lodge, Henry Cabot, lawyer and statesman of Nahant, Mass., was born May 12, 1850, in Boston, Mass. In 1905-11 he was a member of the United States senate.

Lodor, Richard, army officer of Washington, D.C., was born Oct 29, 1832, in New York. He attained the rank of brigadier-general in the United States army.

Loeb, Adolph, fire insurance manager of 159 La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 9, 1839, in Bingen, Germany. Since 1893 he has been manager for the United States for the North German Fire Insurance company of Hamburg, Germany.

Loeb, August B., banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 16, 1841, in Germany. He is president of the Tradesmen's National bank and a director of other corporations.

Loeb, Hanau Wolf, physician and scientist of 537 North Grand ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 25, 1865, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and M.D. Since 1904 he has been professor of ear, nose and throat diseases in the St. Louis university, and is now also dean of the school of medicine. Since 1898 he has also edited Annals of Otology, Rhinology and Laryngology.

Loeb, Howard A., consulting engineer and banker of 431 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 25, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Mint Realty company and a director of other corporations.

Loeb, James, retired banker and litterateur of 52 William st., New York City, was born Aug. 6, 1867, in New York City. In 1888-1901 he was engaged in the banking business; and now devotes his time principally to art and literature.

Loebinger, Hugo J., physician and author of 32 Edgecombe ave., New York City, was born Aug. 16, 1863, in Rybuik, Germany. He was educated in Germany and graduated from the university of Berlin. He has practiced his profession, in New York, California, Texas and Montana; and in 1900 was a member of the Montana state board of health. He is the author of New Local Therapy of Tuberculosis, Pulmonaris; and of various other works. He is also the patentee of a method for obtaining dry products from liquids of every description without the use of heat, chemicals or vacuum.

Lofgren, Charles J., banker of Ada, Minn., was born Sept. 20, 1862, in Sweden. He is president of the Cando National bank of Cando, N.D., and is also president of various other banks.

Logan, Albert J., manufacturer and bank director of 2839 Liberty ave., Pitssburgh, Pa., was born July 7, 1857, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is a director of the Bank of Pittsburgh.

Logan, Daniel Boone, lawyer and banker of Pineville, Ky., was born April 23, 1858, in Carter county, Ky. He is president of the Bell National bank.

Logan, Frank Granger, retired merchant of 2919 Prairie ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 7, 1851, in Cayuga county, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of F. G. Logan and company.

Logan, George, educator and clergyman of Choteau, Mont., was born Aug. 25, 1852, in Ross county, Ohio. For twenty years he was engaged in educational works in Ohio and Montana.

Logan, James Harvey, lawyer, banker and jurist of 28 Dake ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., was born Dec. 8, 1881 in Rockville, Ind. He took a four-years' classical course in Waveland collegiate institute of Indiana. He was the originator of the mammoth blackberry and of other large berries. For seven years he was president of the Bank of Santa Cruz County; for five years was president of the Brookdale Land company. He was district attorney of Santa Cruz county for ten years; and also served with distinction as superior judge of that county, now retired.

Logan, John Daniel, educator and author of Vermillion, S.D., was born May 2, 1869, in Canada. He is the author of The Structural Principles of Prose Style.

Logan, Mrs. Mary Summerson Cunningham, litterateur and author of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 15, 1838, in Petersburg, Mo. She is the wife of General John A. Logan, now deceased. She is a constant contributor to newspapers and magazines.

Logan, Milburn Hill, physician, surgeon, chemist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 5, 1855, in Richview, Ill. He is the author of A System of Organic Chemistry and various other scientific works.

Logan, Robert S., railroad official of Montreal, Quebec, was born Feb. 13, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Grand Trunk Railroad system.

Logan, Sydney Algernon, author and poet of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 17, 1849, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of A Feather From the World's Wing and other works.

Logan, William Newton, geologist and mineralogist of Agricultural College, Miss., was born Nov. 4, 1869, in Barboursville, Ky. Since 1907 he has been geologist in charge of the Mississippi geological survey. He is the author of The Clays of Northern Mississippi.

Logue, J. Washington, lawyer and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 22, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Loibl, Henry M., banker of Eagle, Wis., was born Aug. 12, 1862, in Eagle, Wis. He is president and cashier of the Bank of Eagle.

Lomax, Harvard, banker of Broken Bow, Neb., was born Sept. 15, 1859, in Stockport, England. He is cashier of the Custer National bank; and has been a state legislator.

Lombard, Isaac Gross, banker of 134 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 9, 1835, in Truro, Mass. He has been president of the National Bank of America.

Lombard, James Lewis, business president of 517 Underwood building, San Francisco, Cal., was born in January, 1850, in Henry, Ill. He is a director of the Lombard college of Galesburg, Ill. He was president of the First National bank of Kansas City, Mo. He is now president of the Corn Belt Mortgage company of Kansas City, and president of Lombard and Son, Incorporated, of San Francisco.

Lombard, James Phinney, banker and broker of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 3, 1878, in Creston, Iowa. He is vice-president of the Corn Belt bank.

Lombard, John William Peterson, banker of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Aug. 3, 1849, in Truro, Mass. He is president of the National Exchange bank.

Lombard, Josiah, business president of 11 Broadway, New York City, was born July 29, 1842, in Griggsville, Ill. He is a director of the Tidewater Oil company and other corporations.

Lombard, Louis, musician, financier and author of New York City, was born Dec. 15, 1861, in France. He is the author of The Art Melodious; and is the composer of Juliet, a comic opera.

Lombard, Warren Plimpton, educator, physiologist and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born May 29, 1855, in West Newton, Mass. He is the author of General Physiology of Muscle and Nerve and a number of addresses.

London, Jack, sociologist and author of Glen Ellen, Cal., was born Jan. 12, 1876, in San Francisco, Cal. He is the author of The Son of the Wolf and other works.

London, William Lord, merchant and banker of Pittsboro, N.C., was born April 3, 1838, in Pittsboro, N.C. He is president of the Bank of Pittsboro.

Lonergan, Augustine, lawyer and statesman of Denver, Colo., was born May 20, 1874, in Thompson, Conn. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Lonergan, James, educator and clergyman of Augusta, Ga., was born Aug. 15, 1837, in Ireland. In 1887-96 he was president of Springville college, Mobile, Ala.

Lonergan, Thomas S., lecturer and author of 408 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth st., New York City, was born in 1865 in Ireland. Since 1905 he has been manager of the Bronx office of The World. He is the author of Lectures on Christian Education and other subjects.

Long, Charles Chaille, soldier and author of Chevy Chase, Md., was born July 2, 1842, in Princess Ann, Md. He attained the rank of colonel in the civil war. He is the author of Central Africa and other works.

Long, Chester I., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Wichita, Kan., was born Oct. 12, 1860, in Perry county, Pa. He has been a member of congress and in 1903-09 he was a member of the United States senate.

Long, Daniel Albright, soldier, educator, clergyman and college president of Raleigh, N.C., was born May 22, 1844, in Graham, N. C. Since 1896 he has been pastor of the Hillsboro Christian church of Raleigh.

Long, Eli Herr, physician, surgeon and author of 1335 Main st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born July 24, 1860, in Erie county, N.Y. He is the author of Tables for Doctor and Druggist and numerous medical articles.

Long, Eugene Rufus, educator and college president of Batesville, Ark., was born Dec. 10, 1862, in South Carolina. Since 1897 he has been president and professor of bible studies and political science in the Arkansas college of Batesville.

Long, Harry Vinton, broker and banker of 53 State st., Boston, Mass. He is a member of the Boston stock exchange.

Long, James Anderson, banker of Roxboro, N.C., was born in 1841 in North Carolina. He is president of the People's bank.

Long, James Grier, banker of Spokane, Wash., was born Dec. 4, 1861, in Port Royal, Pa. He is president and treasurer of the Washington Trust company.

Long, John Benjamin, statesman of Rusk, Texas, was born Sept. 8, 1843, in Nacogdoches county, Texas. In 1891-93 he was a member of congress.

Long, John Davis, lawyer, banker and statesman of 146 Summer st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 27, 1838, in Buckfield, Maine. He is president of the Puritan Trust company.

Long, John Harper, educator and author of 2421 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 1, 1856, near Steubenville, Ohio. He is the author of Laboratory Manual of Physiological Chemistry and other works.

Long, John Luther, author of 629 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1861 in Pennsylvania. He is the author of Madam Butterfly and other works.

Long, Oscar Fitsalan, soldier of Piedmont, Cal., was born June 16, 1852, in Utica, N.Y. He served in several Indian wars; and in 1901 was promoted to brigadier-general of the United States volunteers.

Long, Simon Peter, clergyman and author of 49 Park ave., West Mansfield, Ohio, was born Oct. 7, 1860, in McZena, Ohio. He has been president of Lima college; and is now pastor of the largest English Lutheran church in the world. He is the author of The Great Gospel and other sermon books.

Long, Stephen G., lawyer of Long Beach, Cal., was born Oct. 1, 1864, in Louisville, Ky. He received the degrees of A.B. and M.A. from Bethel college of Kentucky, and the degree of B.L. from the university of Virginia. For eight years he was city attorney of Long Beach, is identified with the democratic party and has filled several positions of trust and honor.

Long, William Joseph, clergyman and author of Stamford, Conn., was born April 3, 1867, in North Attleboro, Mass. He is the author of Ways and Wood Folk and many other works.

Longden, Aladine Cummings, educator of 643 West North st., Galesburg, Ill., was born Feb. 19, 1857, in Leesville, Ohio. Since 1901 he has been professor of physics at Knox college.

Longfellow, Alexander Wadsworth, designer and architect of 12 Mount Vernon st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1854 in Portland, Maine. He designed the Brunswick and Yarmouth Memorial library.

Longfellow, Ernest Wadsworth, artist of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born Nov. 23, 1845, in Cambridge, Mass. He is favorably known for such effective landscapes and compositions as Old Mill at Manchester, Mass.

Longhead, Mrs. Flora Haines, journalist, dramatist and author of Montecito, Cal., was born July 12, 1855, in Milwaukee, Wis. She is the author of The Man Who Was Guilty and other works.

Longino, Andrew Houston, lawyer and statesman of Jackson, Miss., was born May 16, 1855, in Lawrence county, Miss. In 1880-84 he was a member of the Mississippi state senate. In 1904 he was governor of the state of Mississippi.

Longino, James Henry, lawyer and banker of Fairburn, Ga., was born May 28, 1853, in Georgia. He is president of the Fairburn Banking company.

Longley, Harry S., clergyman of Binghamton, N.Y., was born Sept. 10, 1868, in Cohoes, N.Y. He is president of the board of trustees of the House of Good Shepherd.

Longley, James, business president of 24 Charlesgate st., Boston, Mass. He is president of the Pepperell Manufacturing company.

Longnecker, Ben, farmer and banker of Maysville, Ky., was born Feb. 18, 1840, in Mayslick, Ky. He is president of the First National bank.

Longworth, Nicholas, lawyer and statesman of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Nov. 5, 1869, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1901-03 he was a member of the state senate; and in 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Longyear, Howard William, physician and surgeon of 271 Woodward ave., Detroit, Mich., was born July 24, 1852, in Lansing, Mich. He has been president of the American association of obstetricians and gynecologists.

Longyear, John Munro, explorer and banker of Marquette, Mich., was born April 15, 1850, in Lansing, Mich. He is president of the Longyear-Mesaba Land and Iron company; and has been mayor of his city.

Lonigo, Emil Victor, physician and surgeon of 1362 Grant ave., San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 29, 1847, in Paris, France. He received his medical degree from the university of California. He is a perpetual member of the Italian red cross society. He is the author of Progress in the Etiology of Diseases, in which a first hint was given of the direct source of malarial fevers from the infectious bite of mosquitoes.

Look, John Quincy, banker of Tecumseh, Mich., was born Dec. 22, 1847, in Michigan. He is president of the Tecumseh State Savings bank.

Lookabaugh, Ira Holmes, lawyer of Watonga, Okla., was born Feb. 5, 1868, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1892 he was admitted to practice in the supreme court of Kansas and has attained prominence in his profession.

Loomis, Archibald Gilbert, director and banker of Providence, R.I., was born June 20, 1848, in Hartford, Conn. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Union Trust company of Providence.

Loomis, Benjamin Bloomfield, clergyman, journalist, college president and author of Ocean Grove, N.J., was born Oct. 6, 1836, in Bridgewater, N.Y. He is president of the Round Lake institute and the author of Studies in the Book of Acts.

Loomis, Charles Battell, author and poet of Hackensack, N.J., was born Sept. 16, 1861, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of Just Rhymes and Yankee Enchantments.

Loomis, Chester, painter and artist of Englewood, N.J., was born Oct. 18, 1852, near Syracuse, N.Y. He is represented by figure and landscape paintings in many private collections.

Loomis, Edward Eugene, railroad official of 160 West Fifty-ninth st., New York City, was born in 1865, in Ilion, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been vice-president of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad and other corporations.

Loomis, Francis Butler, journalist and diplomat of Washington, D.C., was born July 27, 1861, in Marietta, Ohio. In 1901-03 he was envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Portugal.

Loomis, Frederic Brewster, educator of Amherst, Mass., was born Nov. 22, 1873, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been instructor of biology; professor of comparative anatomy for some years; and is now director of the Amherst exploring expeditions to Big Bad Lands, S.D.

Loomis, Harvey Worthington, musician and composer of 421 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Feb. 5, 1865, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has composed Put to the Test and also the grand opera La Canzone Eatale.

Loomis, Henry T., publisher and business president of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Nov. 24, 1856, in Williamsfield, Ohio. Since 1889 he has been president of The Practical Text Book company.

Loomis, Joseph R., soldier and banker of Osborne, Kan., was born Nov. 26, 1843, in Kewanee, Ill. He has been president of the Exchange National bank. He served in the civil war.

Loomis, Samuel Lane, clergyman and author of 485 Columbus ave., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 16, 1856, in Littleton, Mass. He is the author of Modern Cities and Their Religious Problems.

Loos, Isaac Althaus, educator, economist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born Dec. 6, 1856, in Upper Bern, Pa. He is the author of Studies in the Politics of Aristotle and Plato.

Loose, Jacob L., manufacturer of Kansas City, Mo., was born June 17, 1850, in Franklin county, Pa. He is the organizer of the North American Biscuit company.

Loose, Maximus Eugene, farmer, stock breeder and banker of Napoleon, Ohio, was born June 8, 1851, in Erie, Mich. He is president of the First National bank.

Loose, Ursinus K., lumber manufacturer and banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Feb. 25, 1859, in Sugar Grove, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Cedar Lumber company.

Lopizich, John, pharmacist and banker of 225 North Spring st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 25, 1865, in Austria. He is president of the International bank.

Loraine, Robert, actor of 1402 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 14, 1876, in England. In 1906 he made his first appearance as John Tanner in Man and Superman.

Lord, Augustus Mendon, clergyman and poet of 34 Cushing st., Providence, R.I., was born Feb. 7, 1861, in San Francisco, Cal. He is the author of The Touch of Nature and other works.

Lord, Chester Sanders, editor of 57 South Portland ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 18, 1850, in Romulus, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Lotos club. He has been editor of the New York Sun.

Lord, Clinton DeWitt, banker of Park River, N.D., was born Dec. 23, 1856, in Shakopee, Minn. He is president of the State bank of Park River. He is also president of the First National bank of Hampden, the State bank of Edinburg, the Garder State bank, the North Dakota Land company and the Oregon-Dakota Land company.

Lord, Curtis Joseph, banker of Cando, N. D., was born Jan. 23, 1862, in Shakopee, Minn. Since 1901 he has been president of the First National bank of Cando; and is also president of the First State bank of Mylo. For four years he was mayor of his city; and for four years was railroad commissioner for North Dakota.

Lord, Edwin Chesley Estes, geologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 7, 1868, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of Dissertation on Basalts of the Fichtelgebirge, Bavaria.

Lord, Eleanor Louisa, educator and author of 46 Auburn st., Malden, Mass., was born July 27, 1866, in Salem, Mass. She is the author of Industrial Experiments in the British Colonies of North America.

Lord, George P., banker of Yates county, N.Y., was born July 25, 1831, in Barrington, N.Y. He has been state civil service commissioner. He has been a member of the state senate.

Lord, Harry, banker of Cando, N.D., was born June 24, 1868, in Shakopee, Minn. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Lord, John Brackett, manufacturer of 80 East Jackson boul., Chicago, Ill., was born June 30, 1843, in Newton Upper Falls, Mass. He is a member of the firm of Ayer and Lord Tie company.

Lord, John King, educator and author of Hanover, N.H., was born Oct. 21, 1848, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of Atlas of the Geography and History of the Ancient World.

Lord, Livingston C., educator and college president of Charleston, Ill., was born Aug. 27, 1851, in Killingworth, Conn. Since 1899 he has been president of the Eastern state normal school at Charleston.

Lord, Nathaniel Wright, chemist and author of 338 West Eighth st., Columbus, Ohio, was born Dec. 26, 1854, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of Notes on Metallurgical Analysis.

Lord, Robert Waterston, manufacturer and banker of Kennebunk, Maine, was born April 14, 1828, in Kennebunk, Maine. He is president of the Ocean National bank.

Lord, William Paine, statesman of Salem, Ore., was born in 1838 in Dover, Del. He served in the civil war. He has been governor of Oregon.

Lord, William Sinclair, merchant and author of Evanston, Ill., was born in 1863 in Sycamore, Ill. Since 1886 he has been engaged in the mercantile business. He is the author of This Is For You and other works.

Lore, Charles Browne, jurist of Wilmington, Del., was born March 16, 1831, in Odessa, Del. Since 1893 he has been chief justice of Delaware.

Loree, Leonor Fresnel, railroad president of 32 Nassau st., New York City, was born April 23, 1858, in Fulton City, Ill. In 1901-04 he was president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad; and is now chairman of the executive committee of the Kansas City Southern railway. He is also president of the Delaware and Hudson company; a trustee of the Equitable Trust company of New York; and a director of several railroads.

Lorenz, Daniel Edward, clergyman and author of 168 West Thirty-first st., New York City, was born May 23, 1862, at Canal Fulton, Ohio. He is the author of The Mediterranean Traveler.

Lorenz, Henry William Frederick, educator, chemist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 27, 1871, in Springfield, Ohio. He is the author of Electrolysis and Electro-Synthesis of Organic Compound.

Lorenz, Julius, musician, conductor and composer of New York City, was born Oct. 1, 1860, in Hanover, Germany. Since 1903 he has been a teacher at the German conservatory of music of New York City.

Lorigan, William G., lawyer and jurist of San Francisco, Cal. He is associate justice of the state supreme court of California for the term of 1906-18.

Lorillard, Pierre, capitalist of 111 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Jan. 28, 1860, in New York City. He is director of the American Tobacco company.

Lorimer, George Horace, journalist and author of Wyncote, Pa., was born Oct. 6, 1868, in Louisville, Ky. He is editor-in-chief of the Saturday Evening Post. He is the author of Behind the Veil of Isis.

Lorimer, William, manufacturer and statesman of 209 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 27, 1861, in England. In 1895-1901 and in 1903-08 he was a member of congress.

Loring, Augustus Peabody, merchant, lawyer and author of 22 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 10, 1857, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of A Trustee's Handbook. He is president of the Plymouth Cordage company of Boston.

Loring, William Caleb, lawyer and jurist of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 24, 1851, in Beverly, Mass. Since 1899 he has been associate justice of the state supreme judicial court of Massachusetts.

Lorvorn, James L., physician, druggist and banker of Bowdon, Ga., was born Aug. 5, 1862, in Alabama. He is president of the Bank of Bowdon.

Lose, George William, clergyman and author of Columbus, Ohio, was born Sept. 28, 1852, in Westmoreland county, Pa. He is the author of Esther and other poems and many other works.

Lothrop, Caleb, banker of Cohasset, Mass., was born Sept. 7, 1849, in Cohasset, Mass. He is treasurer of the Cohasset Savings bank.

Lothrop, Mrs. Fannie Mack, journalist, musician and author of 106 West Ninetieth st., New York City, was born in Brodhead, Wis. She owns the largest collection of portraits in the world. She is associate editor of The Searchlight.

Lothrop, Mrs. Harriet Mulford Stone, litterateur and author of Concord, Mass., was born June 23, 1844, in New Haven, Conn. She is the author of Five Little Peppers books and many other works.

Lotta, Charlotte Crabtree, actress of 59 West Fifty-first st., New York City, was born in 1847, in New York City. She has played in England and United States for thirty years and now has retired from the stage.

Loud, George Alvin, lumberman and statesman of Au Sable, Mich., was born June 18, 1852, in Bracebridge, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Au Sable and Northwestern railroad. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Loud, John Hermann, concert organist of Brookline, Mass., was born Aug. 26, 1873, in Weymouth, Mass. He was educated in the public schools of Weymouth, attended the Berkeley school of Boston and graduated from the Thayer academy of South Braintree, Mass. He has been organist and choir director in the First Congregational church of Springfield, Mass., in 1896-1900; at the Harvard church of Brookline, Mass., in 1900-05, and since 1905 has been organist and choir director in the First Baptist church of Newton Center, Mass. He is also a successful teacher of organ, harmony and piano.

Loudenslager, Henry Clay, merchant and statesman of Palsboro, N.J., was born May 22, 1852, in Mauricetown, N.J. In 1893-1911 he was a member of congress.

Louderman, William Marshall, stock and bond broker of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 4, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the St. Louis stock exchange.

Loughlin, James Francis, clergyman, educator, lecturer and author of Overbrook, Pa., was born May 8, 1867, in Auburn, N.Y. He is editor of the American Catholic Quarterly Review and the author of a book of sermons and lectures.

Lounsbury, Charles Hugh, manufacturer and banker of Stamford, Conn., was born Aug. 19, 1839, in Stamford, Conn. He is president of the Stamford Savings bank.

Lounsbury, Phineas Chapman, soldier, financier and statesman of Ridgefield, Conn., was born Jan. 10, 1841, in Ridgefield, Conn. For several terms he was a member and speaker in the Connecticut state legislature. In 1887-88 he was governor of Connecticut.

Louthan, Mrs. Hattie Horner, author and poet of 3600 Raleigh st., Denver, Colo., was born Feb. 5, 1865, in Quincy, Ill. She is the author of Not At Home and Thoughts Adrift.

Louttit, George William, lawyer and author of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born June 30, 1868, in Dayton, Ohio. In 1899-1901 he was a member of the Indiana state legislature. He is the author of The Gentlemen From Jay.

Louttit, J. A., statesman of Stockton, Cal. In 1885-87 he was a member of congress.

Love, Isaac Newton, physician and author of 49 West Fortp-fourth st., New York City, was born Sept. 13, 1853, in Barry, Ill. He is the author of Practical Points on the Management of Some of the Diseases of Children.

Love, Robertus, editor and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 6, 1867, in Irondale, Mo. He is the author of Rhymes Along the Road and various short poems and stories.

Love, William DeLoss, clergyman and author of 354 Laurel st., Hartford, Conn., was born Nov. 29, 1851, in New Haven, Conn. He is the author of the Fast and Thanksgiving Days of New England.

Lovejoy, Andrew J., insurance president and statesman of Rockford, Ill., was born Dec. 5, 1845, in Roscoe, Ill. For forty years he has been a breeder of pure bred live stock with an international trade. He has been state game commissioner and also state grain registrar of Chicago. He is president of the Rockford Life Insurance company; president of the international live stock exposition; and a member of the forty-eighth general assembly of Illinois.

Lovejoy, Francis Thomas Fletcher, manufacturer of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 21, 1854, in Baltimore, Md. In 1892 he was selected secretary and manager of the Carnegie Steel company, limited.

Loveland, John Winthrop, lawyer of 111 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 1, 1866, in West Pittston, Pa. He is patent counsel for the Linen Thread company and other corporations.

Loveland, Robert, author and poet of Dalton, Ga., was born April 11, 1864, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the author of The Gates of Silence, with Interludes of Song; and Book of Songs.

Lovell, Leander Newton, business president of 17 Battery place, New York City, was born in 1835, in Fall River, Mass. He is president of the Borden Mining company and other corporations.

Lovely, John A., lawyer and jurist of St. Paul, Minn., was born Nov. 18, 1843, in Burlington, Vt. In 1898-1906 he was associate justice of the state supreme court of Minnesota.

Loveman, Bernard E., merchant and banker of 708 Oak st., Chattanooga, Tenn., was born March 14, 1874, in Atlanta, Ga. He is president of the Loveman bank.

Lovering, Charles Taylor, banker and broker of 60 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born in October, 1879. He is a member of the Boston stock exchange.

Lovering, Henry Bacon, soldier and statesman of 460 Geneva ave., Boston, Mass., was born April 8, 1841, in Portsmouth, N.H. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Lovering, Henry Morton, manufacturer and banker of Taunton, Mass., was born July 28, 1840, in Taunton, Mass. He is president of the Taunton-New Bedford Copper company.

Lovett, Eldon H., clergyman of 146 South Portland ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1852, in Lincoln, Maine. He has been secretary of the Colgate university.

Lovett, Robert Morss, educator and author of 1718 East Fifty-sixth st., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 25, 1870, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of A History of English Literature and other works.

Lovett, Robert Scott, lawyer and railroad president of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born June 22, 1860, in San Jacinto, Texas. He is president of the Houston and Texas Central Railroad company.

Loving, George Fullington, architect and designer of Boston, Mass., was born March 26, 1851, in Boston, Mass. He erected the Masonic temple of Boston and various other buildings.

Loving, John Wheeler, clergyman and author of Campbellsville, Ky., was born Dec. 16, 1860, in Virginia. He is the author of The Doctrine of Sin in John.

Low, A. Maurice, journalist and author of 1730 Connecticut ave., Washington, D.C., was born in 1860 in London, England. He is the author of A Short History of Labor Legislation in Great Britain.

Low, Albert Howard, chemist, metallurgist and author of 911 East Thirteenth st., Denver, Col., was born June 27, 1855, in Chelsea, Mass. He is the author of Technical Methods of Ore Analysis.

Low, Charles H., banker of 481 Palm ave., Riverside, Cal., was born Oct. 30, 1848, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Low, Marcus A., lawyer and railroad president of 1271 Fillmore st., Topeka, Kan., was born Aug. 1, 1842, in Guilford, Maine. Since 1892 he has been general attorney of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway companies at Topeka.

Low, Seth, merchant, philanthropist and college president of 30 East Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born Jan. 18, 1850, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1902-03 he was mayor of the city of New York.

Low, Will Hicok, painter and artist of Bronxville, N.Y., was born May 31, 1853, in Albany, N.Y. Among his favorite works are Calling Home the Cows and many others.

Low, William Gilman, lawyer and author of 44 Cedar st., New York City, was born April 9, 1844, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of The Balance of the Geneva Award and various other monographs.

Lowber, James William, educator, clergyman and lecturer of Austin, Texas, was born in 1847 in Chaplin, Ky. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from the university of Indianapolis; and the degree of Ph.D. from Syracuse university. He has been president of the Columbia Christian college; and has filled pastorates in various cities. For many years he was editor of The Apostolic Church; and for five years was chancellor of the Texas Christian university. He is the author of Culture; Struggles and Triumphs of the Truth and other works.

Lowden, Frank Orren, educator, lawyer and statesman of Oregon, Ill., was born Jan. 26, 1861, in Sunrise City, Minn. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Lowe, Arthur Houghton, cotton manufacturer and financier of 863 Main st., Fitchburg, Mass., was born Aug. 20, 1853, in Rindge, N.H. He is president of the Lancaster mills.

Lowe, Clement Belton, physician, educator and author of 145 North Tenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 30, 1846, in Salem, N.J. Since 1885 he has been professor of materia medica at the Philadelphia college of pharmacy.

Lowe, John Whitefield, capitalist of Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 22, 1856, in Freedom, Pa. He is president of the Elite Laundry company.

Lowe, Joseph G., lawyer and statesman of Washington, Kan., was born Dec. 31, 1846, in Rush county, Ind. In 1895 he was appointed state railroad commissioner of Kansas.

Lowe, Perley, lumberman of 332 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 6, 1845, in Levant, Maine. He is a member of the firm of Perley Lowe and company.

Lowell, Abbott Lawrence, educator, lecturer, lawyer and author of Cambridge,Mass., was born Dec. 13, 1856, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Government and Parties of Continental Europe and other works.

Lowell, Daniel Ozro Smith, educator and author of 76 Alban st., Dorchester, Mass.,was born April 13, 1851, in Denmark, Maine. He is the author of Jason's Quest and other works.

Lowell, Delmar Rial, soldier, chaplain, author and poet of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 29, 1844, in South Valley, N.Y. He is the author of Historic Genealogy of the Lowells in America.

Lowell, Percival, astronomer and author of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born March 13, 1855, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Soul of the Far East and other works.

Lowndes, Arthur, clergyman and author of 143 East Thirty-seventh st., New York City, was born June 13, 1858, in London, England. Since 1900 he has been editor of the Church Eclectic of New York City.

Lowndes, George Steel, banker of Atlanta, Ga., was born March 29, 1847, in Yanceyville, N.C. He is vice-president of the Hillyer Trust company.

Lowrey, B. G., educator and college president of Amarillo, Texas, was born May 25, 1862, in Kossuth, Miss. Since 1898 he has been president of the Blue Mountain female college of Mississippi.

Lowrey, Tom Calvin, educator and banker of Blue Mountain, Miss., was born May 25, 1862, in Kossuth, Miss. He is president of the Bank of Blue Mountain.

Lowrey, William Tyndale, clergyman and college president of Blue Mountain, Miss., was born March 3, 1858,in Tishomingo county, Miss. In 1885-98 he was president of the Blue Mountain female college.

Lowrie,Wall L., diplomat of Weimer, Saxe-Weimer, was born in Michigan. In 1906 he was appointed consul at Weimer.

Lowrie, Walter, clergyman and author of Rome, Italy, was born April 20, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1907 he has been rector of St. Paul's American church at Rome.

Lowry, Hiram Harrison, clergyman and college president of Pekin, China, was born May 29, 1843, in Pekin, China. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and D.D. He served in the sixty-seventh regiment Ohio volunteer infantry during the civil war. Since 1867 he has been a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church; and is now president of Pekin university.

Lowry, Joseph Eugene, railroad manager of New Orleans, La., was born Jan. 28, 1863, in Yorkville, S.C. In 1892-99 he was car accountant of the Savannah, Americus and Montgomery railroad at Americus, Ga.

Lowry, Robert James, banker of Atlanta, Ga., was born March 4, 1840, in Greenville, Tenn. He is president of the Lowry Banking company of Atlanta.

Lowthian, Nicholas I., soldier, farmer and statesman of Milbank, S.D., was born March 17, 1840, in Canada. In 1893-97 he was a member of the South Dakota state senate.

Loy, F. W., lawyer, real estate broker and banker of Chaffee, Mo., was born March 10, 1859, in Effingham, Ill. He is president of the Chaffee State bank.

Lubin, David, merchant and author of Sacramento, Cal., was born in 1849. He is vice-president of Weinstock, Lubin and company. He is the author of Let There Be Light.

Lubke, George William, lawyer and jurist of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 22, 1845, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1882-89 he was judge of the circuit court of St. Louis.

Lucas, Aaron Brinry, banker of Meadows, Ga., was born Sept. 2, 1859, in Waverly, Iowa. He is president of the Roseberry State bank.

Lucas, Frank D., banker of Gotebo, Okla., was born Oct. 27, 1874, in Kansas City, Mo. He is cashier of the Oklahoma State bank.

Lucas, Frederic Augustus, curator, scientist and author of 827 President st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 25, 1852, in Plymouth, Mass. Since 1904 he has been curator-in-chief of the museum of the Brooklyn institute.

Lucas, Howard Chauncey, banker of North Yakima, Wash., was born April 11, 1872, in Ames, Iowa. He is vice-president and manager of the Yakima Trust company.

Lucas, Parker Vincent, banker of Roseberry, Idaho,was born March 28, 1888, in South Dakota. He is cashier of the Roseberry State bank.

Lucas, S. Decatur, educator and college president of Minden, La., was born March 8, 1860, in Galantin county, Ky. He is president of the Jeff Davis college of Minden.

Luccock, Naphtali, clergyman and author of 3867 Delmar ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 28, 1853, in Kimbolton, Ohio. He is the author of Christian Citizenship and other works.

Luce, Erle D., railroad president of Minneapolis, Minn., was born May 20, 1882, in Redwing, Minn. He is colonel of the first regiment of infantry of the Minnesota national guard. He is president of the Electric Short Line Railroad company;and has filled various positions of trust and honor.

Luce, G. W., railway official of San Francisco, Cal. He entered railway service in 1875 with the Southern Pacific railway; has filled various positions. In 1901-11 was general freight agent, in 1911-12 assistant to vice-president in charge of traffic, and since 1912 has been freight traffic manager of the same road.

Luce, Robert, lawyer and author of Somerville, Mass., was born Dec. 2, 1862, in Auburn, Maine. He is the author of Going Abroad and other works.

Luce, Robert Lee, lawyer of 29 Liberty st., New York City, was born Sept. 19, 1862, in Hartwick, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of Luce and Davis.

Lucey. Thomas Elmore, author and poet of Eureka Springs, Ark., was born Jan. 15, 1874, in Monroe, N.C. He is the author of Through Prairie Meadows,a volume of poems and other works.

Luckey, George Washington, educator and author of 1439 R st., Lincoln, Neb., was born in 1855 near Decatur, Ind. He is the author of The Professional Training of Secondary School Teachers in the United States and other works.

Lucking, Alfred, lawyer and statesman of 32 Rowena st., Detroit, Mich., was born Dec. 18, 1856, in Canada. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

Ludden, Patrick Anthony, clergyman, bishop and author of Syracuse, N.Y., was born in 1838 in Ireland. Since 1887 he has been first Roman Catholic bishop of Syracuse.

Ludeman, August, capitalist of 17 West Houston st., New York City. He is president of the Consumers Park brewery and is vice-president or treasurer of other corporations.

Luden, William Henry, manufacturer and banker of 212 North Eighth st., Reading, Pa., was born in Reading, Pa. He is president of the Schuylkill Valley bank and Kola Chemical company.

Ludington, Charles H., publisher of 425 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1866 in New York. He is secretary-treasurer and director of The Curtis Publishing company of Philadelphia.

Ludington, Rowland S., lawyer of Wenatchee, Wash., was born May 13, 1869, in Wenona, Ill. He has been a delegate to the republican state convention; and president of the Chelan county bar association.

Ludlam, Charles Stewart, accountant of 30 Broad st., New York City, was born Nov. 11, 1866, in Chicago, Ill. He is a member of the firm of Haskins and Sells.

Ludlow, Henry Hunt, soldier, mathematician and author of Fort Moultrie, S.C., was born April 15, 1854, in Easton, Pa. He is the author of Elements of Trigonometry.

Ludlow, James Meeker, clergyman and author of East Orange, N.J., was born March 15, 1841, in Elizabeth, N.J. He is the author of That Angelic Woman, a novel and other works.

Ludlow, Nicoll, naval officer of Oakdale, N.Y., was born Sept. 11, 1842, in Riverside Islip, N.Y. He served in the civil and Spanish-American wars and retired with the rank of admiral.

Ludwig, John C., lawyer and jurist of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 1, 1850, in Milwaukee, Wis. In 1892-1900 he was judge of the superior court of Milwaukee county.

Ludwig, O. C.,journalist, librarian and publisher of Little Rock, Ark., was born Sept. 16, 1858, in Decatur, Ala. Since 1905 he has been state librarian of Arkansas.

Luecke, Martin, educator, clergyman and author of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born June 22, 1859, in Sheboygan county, Wis. He is the author of History of the Civil War of the United States and other works.

Luke, John Guthrie, manufacturer of 194 Riverside drive, New York City, was born April 29, 1857, in Springfield, Mass. He is president of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company.

Luke, Kenneth C., banker of Olga, N.D., was born Feb. 1, 1884, in Baldwinsville, N. Y. He is cashier of the First State bank.

Lukeman, Henry Augustus, sculptor and artist of Stockbridge, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1871, in Richmond, Va. His most important works are four colossal statues for the Brooklyn institute and others.

Lukens, David L., banker of 1600 Hamilton st., Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the Swarthmore National bank and a director of other corporations.

Lukens, Edward Fell, lawyer and business director of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 29, 1870, in Philadelphia,Pa. He is secretary-treasurer and director of The Schwarzwaelder company.

Lukens, Herman Tyson, educator and scientist of 330 Webster ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 29, 1865, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and Ph.D., and has studied in Berlin, Halle,Leipzig, Paris and Jena. In 1891-94 he was a teacher of biology in the north west division high school of Chicago; in 1898-1907 was head training teacher in the state normal school of California, Pa.; and since 1907 has been a teacher in the Francis W. Parker school of Chicago. He is a lecturer in summer schools.

Lull, Francis Wayland,lawyer of Wetumpka, Ala., was born Oct. 19, 1872, in Wetumpka, Ala. He is vice-president of the First National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

Lummis, Charles A., banker and broker of New York City, was born April 28, 1849, in New York City. Since 1888 he has been a member of the New York stock exchange; and is a member of the banking firm of Lummis and Parsons. He is president of the Boulevard Real Estate company of Summit, N.J.; and a director of the Summit Trust company.

Lummis, Charles Fletcher, explorer and author of 200 East ave., Los Angeles, Cal., was born in 1858 in Massachusetts. He is the author of Some Strange Corners of Our Country and other works.

Lummus, Henry Tilton, lawyer and author of Lynn, Mass., was born Dec. 28, 1876, in Lynn, Mass. He is the author of a treatise on The Law of Mechanics' Liens Upon Real Estate in Massachusetts.

Lumpkin, Joseph Henry, lawyer and jurist of Atlanta, Ga., was born about 1848 in Athens, Ga. Since 1905 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Georgia.

Luna, Tranquilino, statesman of Los Lunas, N.M., was born Feb. 23, 1849, in Los Lunas, N.M. In 1881-85 he was a member of congress.

Lund, Andrew T., lumber dealer and banker of Vining, Minn., was born Dec. 22, 1885, in Vining, Minn. He is president of Lund's State bank.

Lund, Anthon Henrik, banker and statesman of 60 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, was born May 15, 1844, in Aalborg, Denmark. He taught school and was a telegraph operator. For eleven years he was superintendent of the Ephraim cooperative mercantile institution; and is now a director of the executive committee of Zion's cooperative mercantile institution of Salt Lake City. He was for two years president of the Utah National bank; is president of the State bank of Utah, the Oolite Stone company, the Inland Crystal Salt company, and vice-president of Zion's Savings and Trust company. He served as second lieutenant in the militia during the Indian war; has been a member of the Utah legislature; and regent of the university of Utah. He is also president of the Utah genealogical society.

Lundevall, Torjus, banker of Greenbush, Minn., was born Oct. 29, 1871, in Norway. He is cashier of the State bank of Greenbush.

Lundgren, Leonard, civil engineer of Denver, Col., was born Dec. 3, 1883, in Chicago, Ill. He has received the degrees of B.S., C. E. and M.S. He was first engaged in railroad engineering and construction work; and in 1907-08 was instructor of civil engineering in the state university of Iowa. In 1908-13 he was with the bureau of public works in the Philippines and was also project engineer. Since 1911 he has been district engineer in the United States forest service.

Lundgren, Nils, merchant and banker of Atwater, Minn., was born April 24, 1857, in Sweden. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Lunemann, John Henry, banker of La Porte City, Iowa, was born Sept. 4, 1870, in Waterloo, Iowa. He is secretary and treasurer of the National Land company.

Lungerhausen, Oscar Charles, lawyer and banker of Mount Clemens, Mich., was born Feb. 26, 1865, in Mount Clemens, Mich. He is president of the Mount Clemens Mineral Spring Water company.

Lungershausen, Traugott, banker of Mount Clemens, Mich., was born July 1, 1833, in Germany. He is president of the Mount Clemens Savings bank.

Lungren, Charles Marshall, journalist and inventor of Hagerstown, Md., was born Dec. 13, 1853, in Hagerstown, Md. He edited the American edition of Alglave and Boulard's Electric Light.

Luper, George B., banker of 225 Chestnut st., Meadville, Pa., was born Aug. 13, 1852, in Harmonsburg, Pa. He is president of the Crawford County Trust company.

Lupton, Mary Josephine, editor and author of 2735 North Halsted st., Chicago, Ill., was born in Newey, Ireland. She is associate editor of the New World of Chicago; and has translated The Child of the Moon and other works.

Luquer, Lea McIlvaine, educator and author of 321 West Eightieth st., New York City, was born in 1864. in Brooklyn, N.Y, He is the author of Minerals in Rock Sections.

Lurtin, Horace Harmon, lawyer and jurist of Nashville, Tenn., was born Feb. 26, 1844, in Newport, Ky. Since 1893 he has been judge of the United States circuit court at Nashville.

Lush, Charles Keeler, journalist and author of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 5, 1861, in La Crosse, Wis. He is the author of The Federal Judge; and The Autocrats.

Lusk, Frank S., banker of Missoula, Mont., was born April 27, 1857, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Lusk, Graham, educator, physiologist and author of 11 East Seventy-fourth st., New York City, was born Feb.15, 1866, in Bridgeport, Conn. He is the author of Elements of the Science of Nutrition.

Lutes, Della Thompson, editor of Cooperstown, N.Y., was born in Jackson, Mich. She is the editor of the American Motherhood Magazine.

Luther, Edward Staats, publicist of 51 Chambers st., New York City, was born Nov. 9, 1876, in Ballston Spa, N.Y. In 1899-1906 he was political writer for the New York Times.

Luther, Flavel Sweeten, educator, college president and author of 115 Vernon st., Hartford, Conn., was born May 26, 1850, in Brooklyn, Conn. Since 1904 he has been president of the Trinity college of Hartford.

Luther, Homer Jerome, banker of 304 West Center st., Medina, N.Y., was born in 1856, in Sacramento, Cal. He has been engaged in active service with the Union bank over thirty years, of which he is now vice-president.

Luther, Mark Lee, litterateur and author of 452 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Jan. 5, 1872, in Knowlesville, N.Y. He is the author of The Favor of a Princess and other works.

Lutkin, Peter Christian, musician of 1330 Church st., Evanston, Ill., was born March 27, 1858, in Thompsonville, Wis. He is dean of the school of music at the Northwestern university, and is conductor of the Evanston musical club.

Luttgen, Walther, banker of 43 Exchange place, New York City, was born Jan. 7, 1839, in Solingen, Germany. Since 1880 he has been a partner in the firm of August Belmont and company. For twenty-five years he has been a director of Illinois Central Railroad company and is identified with various other corporations.

Lutz, Frank Joseph, physician and surgeon of 1630 South Grand ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born May 24, 1855, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1901 he has been professor of surgery in the medical department of the St. Louis university.

Lutz, George Washington, manufacturer and financier of 112 Nineteenth st., Wheeling, W.Va.,was born July 17,1855, in Wheeling, W.Va. He learned the plumbing, steam and gas fitting business;and is now president and general manager of the Trimble and Lutz Supply company. He is also president of the Gee Electric company and a stockholder in the Wheeling Steel and Iron company and other corporations. He has been president of the board of trade; and was the originator and president of the market auditorium.

Lutz, Mrs. Grace Livingston Hill, litterateur and author of Swarthmore, Pa., was born April 16, 1865, in Wellsville, N.Y. She is the author of A Little Servant and other works.

Lutz, J. Milton, banker and statesman of Clifton Heights, Pa., was born Oct. 18, 1857, in Ambler, Pa. He is a representative of the Pennsylvania state legislature.

Lutz, Samuel G., railway official of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Dec. 8, 1868, in Illinois. In 1890 he entered railway service as a stenographer, and has since held various positions to general freight agent and traffic manager. Since 1910 he has been traffic manager of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad.

Lydecker, Garret J., soldier of 160 Joseph Campus ave., Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 15, 1843, in Englewood, N.J. In 1907 he was made brigadier-general and retired by operation of law.

Lydston, George Frank, surgeon and author of 32 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1858, in Tuolumne, Cal. He is the author of Stricture and Urethra and other works.

Lyford, Frederic E., banker of Waverly, N. Y., was born Jan. 26, 1853, in Waterville, Maine. Since 1871 he has been connected with the First National bank of Waverly, of which he is now president.

Lyford, James Otis, journalist, lawyer and author of Concord, N.H., was born June 28, 1853, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Life of Edward H. Rollins; and editor of History of Concord, N.H.

Lyford, Oliver Smith, railroad official of 332 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 19, 1823, in Mt. Vernon, Maine. Since 1890 he has been vice-president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

Lyle, Epaminondas Ewing, banker of Wahoo, Neb., was born Feb. 20, 1843, in Oakfield, Ohio. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Lyle, Eugene P., journalist and author of Prince George county, Va., was born Dec. 31, 1873, in Dallas, Texas. He is the author of The Missourian and The Lone Star.

Lyles, Pleas L., journalist and statesman of Eminence, Mo., was born Dec. 4, 1861, in Houston, Miss. He is editor and publisher of The Current Wave; and since 1906 has been a member of the state legislature.

Lyman, Albert Josiah, clergyman and author of 255 President st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 24, 1845, in Williston, Vt. He is the author of Preaching in the New Age and other works.

Lyman, Arthur, trustee of 60 State st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1861 in Waltham, Mass. He is vice-president of the Brooklyn Development company.

Lyman, Arthur Theodore, manufacturer of 50 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 8, 1832, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the Provident Institution for Savings.

Lyman, Edwin, real estate dealer and banker of McDonald, Kan, was born July 29, 1872, in Nebraska. He is president of the State bank.

Lyman, Frederick A., musician and composer of Columbia, Conn., was born April 22, 1864, in Columbia, Conn. Since 1890 he has been connected with the American institute of normal methods as instructor in public schools of music.

Lyman, Frederick Wolcott, druggist and capitalist of Minneapolis, Minn., was born June 18, 1849, in Plymouth, Conn. He is a director of the Minnesota Loan and Trust company.

Lyman, John Pickering, banker of Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 8, 1847, in Portsmouth, N.H. He is president of the Webster and Atlas National bank.

Lyman, Joseph, painter and artist of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born July 26, 1843, in Ravenna, Ohio. His more important works are Summer Night and Evening.

Lyman, Ronald Theodore, textile manufacturer of 50 State st., Boston, Mass., was born July 8, 1879, in Waltham, Mass. He is treasurer of the Whittenton Manufacturing company.

Lynch, Frederick, clergyman and author of 13 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth st., New York City, was born July 21, 1867, in Peace Dale, R.I. He is the author of the Enlargement of Life and other works.

Lynch, Gertrude, journalist and author of 132 East Nineteenth st., New York City,was born in New London, Conn. She is author of The Fighting Chance and other works.

Lynch, James Daniel, lawyer, author and poet of Tahlequah, Okla., was born Jan. 16, 1836, in Mecklenburg county, Va. He is the author of Bench and Bar of Mississippi and other works.

Lynch, James Mathew, printer and business president of 2227 Central ave., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Jan. 11, 1867, in Manlius, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been president of the International Typographical Union.

Lynch, Jeremiah, capitalist and author of San Francisco, Cal.,was born March 18, 1849, in Fall River, Mass. In 1882-86 he was a member of the California state senate. He is the author of Egyptian Sketches.

Lynch, Jerome M., physician and proctologist of 57 East Fifty-second st., New York

City, was born in Ireland. He graduated in Dublin, Edinburgh and London; and graduated from the Chicago university medical school. He has been vice-president of the American proctologic society; and a lecturer in Cornell medical college. He is consulting proctologist to the Nassau hospital and other institutions. He is the author of numerous medical works.

Lynch, John, lawyer and statesman of Wilkesbarre, Pa., was born Nov. 1, 1843, in Providence, R.I. In 1887-89 he was a member of congress.

Lynch, John Roy, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 514 Thirtieth st., Oakland, Cal., was born Sept. 10, 1847, in Concordia Parish, La. In 1873-77 and 1881-83 he was a member of congress.

Lynch, Philip B., lawyer of 604 Marin st., Vallejo, Cal., was born June 28, 1872, in Vallejo, Cal. He graduated from the Oakland Santa Clara college. He has been president of the Merchants' association of Vallejo and mayor of his city. He was a presidential elector for Wilson.

Lynch, Thomas J., lawyer of Augusta, Maine, was born Nov. 30, 1856, in Augusta, Me. Since 1905 he has been trustee of the Lithgow public library of Augusta. Since 1894 he has been president of the Augusta loan and building association.

Lynch, Warren J., railroad official of 30 Church st., New York City. Since 1911 he has been third vice-president of the American steel foundries.

Lynde, Francis, railroad official and author of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born Nov. 12, 1856, in Lewiston, N.Y. He is the author of A Question of Courage and other works.

Lynde, Samuel Adams, railroad official of New York City, was born Dec. 14, 1855, in Rock Island, Ill. Since 1910 he has been vice-president of the Chicago and North Western railroad.

Lyndes, Frank, educator, musician and composer of Boston, Mass., was born May 16, 1858, in Cambridge, Mass. He is the author of many sacred songs, anthems, pianoforte pieces, organ pieces and cantatas.

Lynip, Benjamin Franklin, banker of Alturas, Cal., was born June 20, 1869, in New York. He has been postmaster of Lovelock, Neb. He is cashier and secretary of the First National bank.

Lynk, Frederick M., clergyman and author of Techny, Ill., was born Feb. 13, 1881, in Prussia. He is editor of the Christian Family.

Lynn, Bascom, physician of Carlsbad, Texas, was born on Sept. 8, 1864, in Freestone county, Texas. He has attained success in the practice of medicine; and is now superintendent of the state tuberculosis colony at Carlsbad.

Lyon, Cecil Andrew, lumber manufacturer and capitalist of Sherman, Texas, was born Nov. 29, 1869, in Boston, Ga. He is president of the Lyon-Gray Lumber company.

Lyon, David Gordon, educator and author of 12 Scott st., Cambridge, Mass., was born May 24, 1852, in Benton, Ala. He is author of An Assyrian Manual and other works.

Lyon, Ernest, clergyman, founder and diplomat of Laurel, Md., was born on Oct. 22, 1860, in British Honduras. Since 1903 he has been minister resident and consul-general of the United States at Monrovia, Liberia.

Lyon, George, journalist, publisher and public official of Nelson, Neb., was born July 30, 1859, in Ogdensburg, N.Y. He is a director of the First National bank of Nelson.

Lyon, George F., lawyer and jurist of Binghamton, N.Y., was born July 13, 1849, in Barker, N.Y. In 1893 he became justice of the supreme court of New York.

Lyon, George Reed, soldier, merchant and statesman of Waukegan, Ill., was born July 19, 1846, in Waukegan, Ill. In 1898, 1900 and 1902 he was a member of the general assembly of the Illinois state legislature.

Lyon, Harold Lloyd, tropical agriculturist of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born Oct. 14, 1879, in Hastings, Minn. He received the degrees of B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. from the university of Minnesota, where for seven years he was instructor and then assistant professor of botany. In 1907-09 he was assistant pathologist, and since 1909 pathologist at the experimental station of the Hawaiian sugar plant association of Honolulu. He is the author of Tropical Agriculture and other monographs.

Lyon, J. Denniston, banker of 235 Water st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 24, 1861, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Safe Deposit and Trust company, president of the Continental Improvement company, and vice-president of the People's Savings bank, and a director of various banks, industrial and railroad corporations. He is trustee of the Allegheny general hospital and other institutions.

Lyon, Palmer Heath, physician and surgeon of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., was born Nov. 6, 1876, in Jersey City, N.J. He graduated from Columbia university. In 1898-1900 he was medical inspector in the New York health department; and in 1900-01 was acting assistant surgeon in the United States army. He was promoted to captain and assistant surgeon United States volunteers for special services in the Philippines; and became chief physician to the Philippine prison bureau at Billbib prison, Manila. In 1911-13 he was physician-in-charge of the Saratoga Springs Sanitarium; and holds commission as first lieutenant in the medical reserve corps of the United States army. He is the author of Antitoxin Treatment of Diphtheria; and is the inventor of a recording altometer, computing scale and calculator.

Lyon, Samuel Backus, physician and educator of White Plains, N.Y., was born Aug. 25, 1841, in Palmer, Mass. He is medical superintendent of Bloomingdale asylum,New York City.

Lyon, Thomas Lyttleton, educator, scientist and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Feb. 17, 1869, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1906 he has been professor of experimental agronomy at Cornell university.

Lyon, Thomas R., lumberman and financier of 204 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born May 31, 1854, in Conneaut,Ohio. He is president of the Lyon Cypress Lumber company and other corporations.

Lyon, William Henry, clergyman and author of Brookline, Mass., was born Dec. 23, 1846, in Fall River, Mass. Since 1873 he has been a minister of the Unitarian church and is the author of several religious works.

Lyons, Albert Brown, educator, chemist and author of 102 Alger ave., Detroit, Mich., was born April 1, 1841, in the Hawaiian Island. He is the author of The Lyon Families of New England.

Lyons, Charles W., clergyman and college president of Philadelphia, Pa.,was born July 31, 1868, in Boston, Mass. He is president of St. Joseph's college of Philadelphia.

Lyons, Judson Whitlocke, lawyer of Augusta, Ga., was born Aug. 15, 1858, in Burke county, Ga. In 1898-1906 he was register of the United States treasury.

Lyons, Julius Judah, musician, composer and lawyer of New York City, was born Oct. 7, 1843, in New York City. He is musical editor of the Daily News of New York City.

Lyons, Samuel Ross, soldier, educator and clergyman of Bloomington, Ind., was April 28, 1849, in South Carolina. Since 1892 he has been a trustee of the Indiana university.

Lyons, Timothy Augustine, naval officer and author of 146 Central Park, New York City, was born March 25, 1845, in Ireland. He is the author of Magnetism of Iron and Steel Ships and other works.

Lyons, William Wallace, banker of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Oct. 29, 1843,in Harrison county, Ohio. He is president of the Capital Insurance company.

Lyte, Eliphalet Oram, educator, lecturer and author of Millersville, Pa., was born June 29, 1842, in Bird-in-Hand, Pa. He is the author of The School Song Book and other works.

Lytle, Norman Alvie, banker of Coldwater, Kan., was born May 18, 1878, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Willmore State bank.

Lyttle, Eugene William,school inspector of Albany, N.Y., was born April 15, 1857, in Theresa, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been school inspector for the New York state educational department.

Maas, Anthony J., clergyman,librarian,college president and author of Woodstock,Md., was born Aug. 23, 1858, in Germany. Since 1888 he has been librarian and since 1891 professor of scripture at the Woodstock college of which he has been president since 1907. He is the author of The Life of Christ and other works.

Maas, Theodore, banker and grain dealer of Mazeppa, Minn., was born July 22, 1863, in Minnesota. He is president of the bank of Mazeppa.

Mabbott,John Milton,physician of 19 Fifth ave., New York City, was born on July 14, 1862, in Waterbury, Conn. He is now attending obstetrician to the New York infant asylum and other hospitals.

Maben, John Campbell, manufacturer and financier of Birmingham, Ala., was born Dec. 31, 1839, in Petersburg, Va. He served in the civil war. He is president of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron company.

Mabery, Charles Frederic, educator and chemist of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Jan. 13, 1850, in North Gorham, Maine. He has published numerous papers in scientific journals.

Mabie, Charles Elias, insurance president and financier of Chicago, Ill., was born on July 1, 1855, in Union River, Wis. Since 1898 he has been president of the Northwestern Life Assurance company.

Mabrey, Henry Y., educator and jurist of Greenville, Mo., was born Dec. 3, 1836, in Randolph county, Ind. He has been county superintendent of public schools. He attained the rank of lieutenant in the civil war. Since 1902 he has been probate judge.

Mabry, Milton Harvey, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Tallahassee, Fla., was born on June 17, 1851, in Pickens county, Ala. In 1891-1903 he was associate justice of the supreme court of Florida.

Mabry, Thomas J., lawyer and publisher of Clovis, N.M., was born Oct. 17, 1885, in Carlisle county, Ky. He has been engaged in the wholesale lumber business. He was the youngest member of the New Mexico constitutional convention of 1910; and is now a member of the New Mexico state senate for term ending in 1917. He is a successful lawyer and newspaper publisher; and is a noted southwestern newspaper correspondent and contributor to current publications.

MacAfee, John Blair,capitalist of Renfrew, Ardmore, Pa., was born July 4, 1861, in St. John, New Brunswick. In 1882-90 he practiced law. In 1898-1900 he was president of the American Engineering company; and has been president of a score of railroads and industrial corporations.

MacAlister, James, educator, college president and author of 4301 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 26, 1840, in Glasgow, Scotland. Since 1891 he has been president of the Drexel institute. He is author of numerous addresses and other works.

MacArthur, Archibald, contarctor of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 15, 1834, in Mt. Morris, N.Y. He is the principal stockholder and chairman of the W. and A. MacArthur company, limited.

MacArthur, Arthur, soldier of 575 Marshall st., Milwaukee, Wis., was born June 2, 1845, in Springfield, Mass. He served in the civil war and in 1899 attained the rank of major-general.

MacArthur, Robert D., physician of 204 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 1, 1843, in Glengary, Ontario, Canada. He is a member of the Chicago medical college.

MacArthur, Robert Stuart, clergyman, lecturer and author of New York City, was born July 31, 1848, in Canada. Since 1870 he has been pastor of the Calvary baptist church. He is the author of Quick Truths in Quaint Texts and other works.

MacArthur, Walter, journalist and author of 46 East st., San Francisco, Cal., was born March 9, 1862, in Glasgow, Scotland. He has been the editor of The Coast Seamen's Journal. He is the author of The Red Record.

MacAuley, Charles Raymond, illustrator, cartoonist, artist and author, was born on March 19, 1871, in Canton, Ohio. He contributed drawings for Life of New York City. He is the author of Emblem Land.

MacBeth, George Alexander, manufacturer and business president of 717 Anderson ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1845, in Urbana, Ohio. He is president of the Savings and Trust company and other corporations.

MacBeth, Henry, clergyman and author of Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 2, 1858, in Ireland. He is rector of the St. Thomas church.

MacBride, Thomas Houston, botanist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born July 31, 1848, in Rogersville, Tenn. Since 1884 he has been professor of botany in the state university of Iowa. He is the author of botany and other works.

MacCaughey, Vaughan, educator and botanist of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born July 7, 1877, in Huron, S.D. He received the degree of B.S.A. from Cornell university, where in 1905-08 he was assistant entomologist. Since 1910 he has been professor in charge of the department of botany at the college of Hawaii; and since 1911 professor in charge of department and extension work in that institution. Since 1912 he has also been editor of the Hawaii Educational Review.

MacCauley, Clay, clergyman, college president and author of 2 Newbury Place, Boston, Mass., was born May 8, 1843, in Chambersburg, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. He is the author of Japanese Literature and other works.

MacChesney, Nathan William, soldier, clergyman, lecturer and lawyer of 742 West Harrison st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 2, 1878, in Chicago, Ill. He served in the Spanish-American war.

MacClintock, William Darnall, educator and clergyman of 5629 Lexington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 28, 1858, in Elizaville, Ky. He has been dean in the junior college of the university of Chicago.

MacConnell, Charles Jenkins, educator and naval officer of 43 Exchange place, New York City, was born Dec. 14, 1837, in Bucks county, Pa. In 1906 he was promoted to the rank of rear-admiral.

MacCord, Charles William, draftsman and author of Hoboken, N.J., was born on March 18, 1836, in Northeast, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been professor emeritus in the Stevens institute of technology. He is the author of Velocity Diagrams and other works.

MacCorkle, William Alexander, lawyer and statesman of Charleston, W.Va., was born on May 7, 1857, in Lexington, Va. In 1892-97 he was governor of the state of West Virginia.

MacCoun, Townsend, cartographer and author of Essex Falls, N.J., was born in 1845 in Troy, N.Y. He is the author of Early New York and other works.

MacCracken, Henry Mitchell, educator, clergyman and author of New York City, was born Sept. 28, 1840, in Oxford, Ohio. He is the author of A Metropolitan University and other works.

MacCracken, John Henry, educator and college president of 15 East Eighty-third st., New York City, was born Sept. 30, 1875, in Rochester, Vt. Since 1903 he has been syndic and professor of politics at the New York university.

MacCulloch, Hunter, journalist and poet of 430 Van Buren st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Oct. 22, 1847, in Glasgow, Scotland. He is the author of From Dawn to Dusk and other works.

MacCurdy, George Grant, anthropologist, scientist and author of 237 Church st., New Haven, Conn., was born April 17, 1863, in Warrensburg, Mo. Since 1898 he has been instructor at Yale university. He is the author of The Eolithic Problem and other works.

MacCutcheon, Byron, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born May 11, 1836, in Pembroke, N.H. He served in the civil war and was brevetted brigadier-general. In 1883-91 he was a member of congress.

Macdonald, A. D., physician, surgeon and statesman of Kalispell, Mont., was born Oct. 17, 1861, in Wickham, New Brunswick. He has served three terms as a member of the Montana state legislature from Flathead county; and in 1913 was elected speaker of the house. He has been a member and chairman of the school board; health officer of his city and county; and president of Flathead county medical society.

MacDonald, Angus Gillis, educator and school inspector of Antigonish, Nova Scotia, was born Jan. 5, 1846, in Cape Breton, N.S. He has received the degrees of C.B. and M.A.; in 1877-85 was professor of mathematics in St. Francis Xavier's college; in 1885-91 was school inspector; and since 1900 has been government inspector of schools. He has been mayor of his city; and is the author of several important papers on educational questions.

MacDonald, Arthur, educator and author of 127 A st., Washington, D.C., was born on July 4, 1856, Caledonia, N.Y. He is the author of Criminology and other works.

MacDonald, Augustus S., capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., was born April 19, 1865, in San Francisco, Cal. He graduated from the public schools and from Sackett college. He is president of the Anglo-Pacific Development company, president of the Richmond Wharf and Dock company, president of the Riverdale Mining company, president of the Pamure Oil company, president of the Van Ness Land company, president of the Rubicon Water and Power company, president of the Mendocino Water company, and president of the Standard Land company. He is a life member of the Pacific coast historical association.

MacDonald, Bruce James, banker of 326 Saginaw st., Flint, Mich., was born Aug. 26, 1866, in Lakeport, Mich. He is cashier of the National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

MacDonald,Carlos Frederick,physician and scientist of 15 East Forty-eighth st., New York City, was born Aug. 29, 1845, in Niles, Ohio. He has received the degrees of M.D. and A.M. He has been superintendent of King's county asylum, the Auburn state hospital and Binghamton state hospital. In 1887-98 he was professor of mental diseases, in 1898-1905 was professor of mental diseases and medical jurisprudence,and since 1905 has been emeritus professor of the university of Bellevue hospital medical college. He was president of the New York lunacy commission in 1889-1906; president of the medical board of Randall's island hospital; and in 1913-14 was president of the American medico-psychological association.

MacDonald, Charles, civil engineer of 5 Nassau st., New York City, was born Jan. 26, 1837, in Canada. He has been vice-president of the American society of civil engineers.

MacDonald, Donald Francis, educator and geologist of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 4, 1875, in Pictou county, Nova Scotia. He has received the degrees of B.S. and M.S. and LL.D., and in 1907-08 was a fellow in the university of Chicago. In 1911-13 he was geologist to the Isthmian canal commission; in 1912 was also geologist to the Panama-Costa-Rica boundary commission;and in 1913 was a member of the Panama government earthquake investigating commission. He is the author of Notes on the Geology of Panama and on kindred subjects.

MacDonald,Duncan Black,educator and author of Hartford, Conn., was born April 9, 1863, in Glasgow, Scotland. Since 1892 he has been professor of Semitic languages in Hartford theological seminary. He is the author of Constitutional Theory and other works.

MacDonald, Frances Lydia August, physician and lawyer of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 1, 1870, in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, N. Y. In 1900 he was a member of the international congress of medicine.

MacDonald, George Alexander, lawyer,capitalist and author of 40 Wall st., New York City, was born in New York City. He makes a specialty in law of corporations. He is the author of How Successful Lawyers Were Educated.

MacDonald, James Wilson Alexander, artist and sculptor of New York City, was born Aug. 25, 1824, in Steubenville, Ohio. His best known work is a bust of Joan of Arc.

MacDonald, John B., director and railroad builder of 21 Park Row, New York City, was born Nov. 7, 1844, in Ireland. He has charge of the construction of the New York city subways.

MacDonald, John L., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Shakopee, Minn., was born in 1838 in Scotland. He served in the civil war. In 1887-89 he was a member of congress.

MacDonald, John William,surgeon and author of 2123 Bryant ave.,Minneapolis, Minn., was born June 25, 1844, in Nova Scotia. He is surgeon in chief to the Minneapolis city hospital. He is the author of surgical diagnosis and treatment.

MacDonald, Loren Benjamin, clergyman of Concord, Mass., was born Jan. 21, 1858, in Newport, Nova Scotia. Since 1895 he has been pastor of the First Unitarian church of Concord.

MacDonald, Rufus Cyrene, physician and poet of 341 Parmenter st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1861, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Love and other poems.

MacDonald, Theodore N., insurance commissioner of 174 Sherman ave., New Haven, Conn., was born March 11, 1862, in New Haven, Conn. He has been insurance commissioner for Connecticut.

MacDonald, William, educator and author of Providence, R.I., was born July 31, 1863, in Providence, R.I. He is the author of Larger History of the United States and other works.

MacDougal, Clinton Dugald, soldier, lawyer, banker and statesman of 108 South st., Auburn, N.Y., was born June 14, 1839, in Scotland. He served in the civil war and was brevetted brigadier-general. In 1837-77 he was a member of congress.

MacDougal, Daniel Trembly, educator,botanist and author of New York City, was born March 16, 1865, in Liberty, Ind. Since 1904 he has been assistant director of the New York botanical garden.

MacDougall, Hamilton Crawford, educator, musician and author of Wellesley, Mass., was born Oct. 15, 1858, in Warwick, R.I. Since 1900 he has been professor of music at Wellesley college. He is the author of Studies of Melody Playing and other works.

MacDowell, Elizabeth, painter and artist of 2018 Race st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. She has attained a national reputation as a painter.

MacDowell, William G., railroad official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 15, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Norfolk and Western railroad.

Mace, William Harrison, educator and author of 127 College place, Syracuse, N.Y., was born Nov. 27, 1852, near Lexington,Ind. Since 1891 he has been professor of history in Syracuse university. He is the author of Method in History and other works.

MacFadden, Bernard Adolphus, editor, lecturer and inventor of 88 Gold st., New York City, was born on Aug. 16, 1868, near Mills Springs, Mo. He is the editor of Physical Culture. He is the author of The Athletic's Conquest and other works.

MacFarland, Charles Stedman, clergyman, traveler and author of South Norwalk,Conn., was born Dec. 12, 1866, in Boston, Mass. He is pastor of the Congregational church. He is the author of The Infinite Affection and other works.

MacFarland, Hugh Campbell, lawyer,financier and founder of Tampa, Fla., was born on Dec. 28, 1851, in Scotland. He has been states attorney for the judicial court.

MacFarlane, Charles William,business man and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1850 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Value and Distribution and other works.

MacFarlane, John Muirhead, educator,botanist and author of Lansdowne, Pa., was born Sept. 28, 1855, in Scotland. Since 1893 he has been professor of botany in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Insectivorous Plants and other works.

MacGillivray, Angus, lawyer and jurist of Antigonish, Nova Scotia, was born in 1842, in Nova Scotia. He was educated at St. Francis Xavier's college, where he is now a lecturer on constitutional history. He began the practice of law in 1874; has been eight times elected to the Nova Scotia assembly; and has been a member of three provincial ministries, and once speaker of legislature.

MacGinniss, John, mining engineer, business president and statesman of Butte,Mont., was born on Oct. 10, 1867, in Homer, Iowa. He is president of the Silver Bow National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

MacGowan,Alice, litterateur and author of New York City, was born Dec. 10, 1858, in Perrysburg, Ohio. She is the author of The Last Word and other works.

MacGrath, Harold, journalist and author of 304 Kellogg st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Sept. 4, 1872, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is the author of Arms and The Woman.

Machen, Harry L., banker of 315 Bellevue st., Cape Girardeau, Mo., was born Feb. 5, 1880, in Sikeston, Mo. He is cashier of the Sturdivant bank.

Mack, Andrew, actor of 2314 Broadway, New York City, was born July 25, 1863, in Boston, Mass. He is one of the most successful Irish comedians now playing in this country.

Mack, Anna E., writer and author of 708 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of For His Sake and other works.

Mack, Charles Ernest, lawyer and jurist of Virginia City, Nev., was born on July 22, 1857, in Columbia county, Wis. He is district judge of the first judicial district of Nevada.

Mack, Charles Samuel, physician, clergyman and author of 2353 Maplewood ave., Toledo, Ohio, was born Dec. 13, 1856, near Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1908 he has been pastor of the church of the New Jerusalem. He is the author of Principles of Medicine and other works.

Mack, John M., contractor and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 15,1852, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the General Asphalt company and other corporations.

Mack, Norman E., publisher and statesman of Buffalo, N.Y., was born in 1858. In 1898-1912 he was chairman of the democratic national committee; in 1911 was chairman of the democratic state committee; and in 1900, 1904 and 1908 was a member of the national democratic committee, receiving the re-election at the Baltimore convention. Since 1879 he has been publisher of the Evening Times; and is also publisher of the Buffalo Sunday Times, established in 1883.

Mack, William, lawyer and author of 306 West One Hundred and Twelfth st., New York City, was born Oct. 4, 1865, in Sumter county, S.C. He is the author of Digest of American State Reports and other works.

Mack, William B., lumberman and banker of Aberdeen, Wash., was born July 21, 1862, in Woonsocket, R.I. He is president of the United States National bank.

MacKay, Alexander Howard, educator and scientist of Dartmouth, Canada, was born May 19, 1848, in Nova Scotia. He has received the degrees of A.B. and LL.D. Since 1891 he has been superintendent of education for Nova Scotia. In 1891-1911 he was also a lecturer on botany and zoology in Dalhousie college. He is the author of Phenology of Canada.

Mackay, Charles H., journalist, poet and author of Boston, Mass., was born March 11, 1859, in Bridgeport, Maine. He is the editor of the Esoteric of Boston. He is the author of Zodiacal Influences.

Mackay, Clarence Hungerford,capitalist of 253 Broadway, New York City, was born on April 17, 1874, in San Francisco, Cal. Since his father's death in 1902 he has been president of The Postal Telegraph Cable company.

Mackay, Donald Sage, clergyman and author of 20 East Sixty-sixth st., New York City, was born Nov. 20, 1863, in Scotland. Since 1889 he has been pastor of the collegiate church of St. Nicholas, N.Y. He is the author of Collegiate Sermons.

Mackay, George Devereaux,banker of New York City, was born on Sept. 28, 1854, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the Acme Ball-bearing Castor company; and since 1879 has been a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mackay, Katherine Duer, litterateur and author of New York City. She is the author of The Stone of Destiny.

Mackay, Robert, journalist and publisher of 175 Fifth ave., New York City, was born April 22, 1871, in Virginia City, Nev. He has been managing editor of the Delineator. He is a contributor to magazines.

Mackay, William Andrew, mural painter and artist of 345 East Thirty-third st., New York City, was born July 10, 1878, in Philadelphia, Pa. He studied in Paris and Rome. Some of his mural paintings are in the senate reading room in Washington, the house of representatives in St. Paul and the supreme court room of Newark, N.J.

MacKaye, James, chemist and author of 15 Exchange st., Boston, Mass., was born April 8, 1872, in New York City. He is the author of the Economy of Happiness and other works.

Mackaye, Mrs. Maria Ellery, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born in 1830, in Rhode Island. She is the author of Other French Studies and other works.

Mackaye, Percy Wallace, dramatist and author of Cornish, N.Y., was born March 16, 1875, in New York City. He is the author of Ferris the Wolf and other works.

Mackenzie, Alexander, soldier of 2611 Adams Mill Road, Washington, D.C., was born May 25, 1844, in Potosi, Wis. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Mackenzie, Arthur Stanley, educator and author of Bryn Mawr, Pa., was born Sept. 26, 1865, in Canada. He is professor of physics in Bryn Mawr college. He is the author of The Law of Gravitation.

Mackenzie, James Cameron, educator, clergyman and founder of Dobbs Ferry-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born Aug. 15, 1852, in Scotland. Since 1901 he has been director of the Mackenzie school of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y.

Mackenzie, John Noland, physician and critic of 879 Park ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 20, 1853, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president of the American laryngological association.

Mackenzie, Morris R. S., naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born in New York City. In 1906 he was retired with the rank of rear admiral.

Mackenzie, William Douglas, educator, clergyman, college president and author of 82 Gillette st., Hartford, Conn., was born July 16, 1859, in Africa. Since 1903 he has been president of the Hartford theological seminary. He is the author of The Ethics of Gambling and other works.

Mackey, Ansel Elliott, educator and college president of 56 Main st., Geneva, N.Y., was born June 3, 1836, in Rensselaerville, N.Y. He established the Geneva business college and short hand institute.

Mackey, Charles William, soldier, lawyer and public official of Franklin, Pa., was born Nov. 19, 1842, in Franklin, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. He has been mayor of his city.

Mackie, George Kerr, coal operator and corporation official of Scammon, Kan., was born Dec. 3, 1868, near Beith, Scotland. He is president of the Mackie Fuel company.

Mackie, Pauline Bradford, author of 3037 Hull ave., Bronx, N.Y., was born on July 5, 1874, in Fairfield, Conn. She is the author of Ye Lyttle Salem Maide and other works.

Mackin, Sarah Maria Aloisa Spottiswood, author of 4 Rue Auguste Vacquerie, Paris, France, was born July 29, 1850, in Troy, Mo. She is the widow of the late James Mackin, New York state treasurer and state senator. She is the author of A Society Woman on Two Continents; From Rome to Lourdes and other works.

Mackintosh, Alexander, designer and architect of New York City, was born in October, 1861, in London, England. He was architect of the Empire building of New York City.

MacKintosh, George Lewis, educator, lecturer, clergyman and college president of Crawfordsville, Ind., was born Jan. 1, 1860, in Canada. He is president of the Wabash college.

Macklin, James Edgar, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 18, 1846, in New York City. He served in the civil war. In 1906 he was retired with the rank of rear admiral.

Mackubin, Ellen, litterateur and author of 163 Madison ave., New York City, was born in Chicago, Ill. She is the author of The King of the Town.

Mackubin, Florence, painter and artist of 417 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 19, 1865, in Florence, Italy. In 1900 she painted a portrait of Queen Henrietta Maria to hang in the Maryland state house.

Maclachlan, Charles, surgeon-general of New Rockford, N.D., was born July 13, 1861, in Canada. He is surgeon-general of the North Dakota national guard with the rank of colonel.

MacLachlan, Daniel A., educator, physician and pathologist of Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 10, 1852, in Canada. Since 1899 he has been dean of the Detroit homeopathic college.

Maclay, Edgar Stanton, journalist, historian and author of Greenlawn, N.Y., was born April 18, 1863, in China. He is the author of the History of the United States Navy.

Maclay, William Walter, civil engineer and author of Glens Falls, N.Y., was born March 27, 1846, in New York City. Since 1893 he has been president of the Glens Falls Portland Cement company. He is author of Testing of Portland Cements and other works.

MacLean, Charles F., lawyer and jurist of 2122 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1837 in New Hartford, N.Y. He has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Maclean, Mrs. Clara Daragan, educator and author of Indian River, Fla., was born Oct. 11, 1841, near Wainsboro, S.C. She is the author of Riverlands and other works.

Maclean, Daniel, educator, physician, surgeon and college president of 964 Dolore st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Jan. 27, 1843, in Prince Edward Island. Since 1880 he has been president of the California medical college.

MacLean, George Edwin, educator, clergyman, college president and author of 603 College st., Iowa City, Iowa, was born Aug. 31, 1850, in Rockville, Conn. Since 1889 he has been president of the State university of Iowa.

MacLean, James Alexander, educator, college president and author of Moscow, Idaho, was born Aug. 2, 1868, in Mayfair, Ontario, Canada. He has been president of the university of Colorado. He is the author of essays on the Financial History of Canada.

Maclean, John Patterson, educator, lecturer and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born March 12, 1848, in Franklin, Ohio. He is author of Fingal's Cave and other works.

Maclean, Samuel Ritchie, banker and railroad president of Rye, N.Y., was born April 5, 1842, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Pittsburgh Railroad company.

Mac Leary, James Harvey, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of San Juan, Porto Rico, was born July 27, 1845, in Smith county, Tenn. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is associate justice of the supreme court of Porto Rico.

Macleish, Andrew, merchant and financier of Chicago, Ill., was born June 28, 1838, in Scotland. He is a member of the firm of Carson, Pirie, Scott and company.

MacLennan, Frank P., journalist of 800 Kansas ave., Topeka, Kan., was born March 1, 1855, in Springfield, Ohio. Since 1885 he has been editor and proprietor of the Topeka State Journal.

MacLeod, Angus, merchant and banker of 153 Thames st., Newport, R.I., was born in Rosshire, Scotland. He is president of the Newport Trust company.

Macleod, Frederick Joseph, lawyer of 15 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born June 30, 1870, in Prince Edward Island, Canada. In 1906 and 1907 he was state senator.

Macloskie, George, educator, clergyman and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Sept. 14, 1834, in Ireland. He is professor of biology in Princeton university. He is the author of Elementary Botany.

MacManus, Theodore Francis, editor, author and poet of 2553 Glenwood ave., Toledo, Ohio, was born in 1873, in Buffalo, N. Y. He is a trustee of the Toledo public library. He is the author of two volumes of poems.

MacMartin, James MacGregor, railroad official of Albany, N.Y., was born on Sept. 12, 1865, in Johnstown, N.Y. He was educated at Phillips academy and at the Rensselaer polytechnic institute. In 1890 he entered railway service as draftsman with the Delaware and Hudson company at Albany; and in 1901-09 was chief engineer and construction engineer of that company. In 1909-12 he was vice-president and general manager of the Elmira and Hamilton Contracting company. In 1912 he re-entered the service of the Delaware and Hudson company as assistant chief engineer.

MacMillan, Conway, botanist and author of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Aug. 26. 1867, in Hillsdale, Mich. Since 1891 he has been state botanist of Minnesota. He is the author of Insects of Nebraska and other works.

Macmillian, George Whitfield, clergyman, college president and author of Richmond, Ohio, was born Aug. 19, 1827, in York county, Pa. He has been president of the Richmond college.

MacMonnies, Frederick William, sculptor and artist of Giverny-Vernon, France, was born Sept. 28, 1865, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been decorated with the legion of honor by the French government.

MacMurphy, Jesse Gibson, clergyman of West Derry, N.H., was born April 8, 1845, in Derry, N.H. Since 1900 he has been rector of the church of the transfiguration at West Derry.

MacNeil, Carol B., educator, sculptor and artist of College Point, N.Y., was born Feb. 27, 1866, in Prattville, Mass. His best known works are A Primitive Chant; and Sun Vow.

MacNeil, Hermon Atkins, designer and sculptor of College Point, L.I., N.Y., was born in 1866, in Chelsea, Mass. His best known work is the Last Act of the Moqui Snake Dance.

MacNeille, John R., auditor, investigator and statistician of 52 Wall st., New York City, was born Jan. 21, 1876, in Brockton, Mass. He is vice-president and director of the investors' agency.

MacNider, William de Berniere, educator and scientist of Chapel Hill, N.C., was born June 25, 1881, in Chapel Hill, N.C. In 1903 he received the degree of M.D. from the university of North Carolina; and is now professor of pharmacology in that institution of learning. He has made valuable researches on the effect of alcohol on blood vessels, and on kindred subjects.

MacNutt, William Fletcher, physician and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born in 1839, in Nova Scotia. He is the author of Diseases of the Kidney and Bladder.

Macomb, David Betton, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 27, 1827, in Florida. He has been chief engineer of the United States army and in 1904 was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Macomber, George Ellison, underwriter, promoter and banker of Augusta, Maine, was born June 6, 1853, in Augusta, Maine. He has been a representative and a member of the state senate; and has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Augusta general hospital.

Macon, John Alfred, journalist and author of Jackson, Miss., was born Nov. 15, 1851, in Noxubee county, Miss. He is the author of Uncle Gabe Tucker.

Macon, Robert Bruce, lawyer and statesman of Helena, Ark., was born July 6, 1859, near Trenton, Ark. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

MacQueary, Thomas Howard, clergyman, educator and author of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 27, 1861, near Charlottesville, Va. Since 1906 he has been head of the department of history at the Yeatman high school. He is the author of the Topic of the Times and other works.

Macqueen, Peter, lecturer and traveler of Charleston, Mass., was born Jan. 11, 1865, in Scotland. He has been a war correspondent in Cuba and the Philippines; and in the Transvaal and other countries.

Macrae, George Wythe, merchant and banker of 81 Madison ave., Memphis, Tenn., was born May 28, 1838, in Warrenton, Va. Since 1894 he has been president of the Memphis National bank.

Macrae, William, soldier of Wilmington, N. C., was born Sept. 9, 1834, in Wilmington. N.C. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

MacTaggart, Edward Everett, oil producer of Williamstown, W.Va., was born Nov. 2, 1871, in Williamstown, W.Va. He has been a member of the firm of A. H. and E. E. MacTaggart, lumber merchants. He is a director and stockholder of the Selbydit and Gas company; Best Oil and Gas company; the Link Oil company; the Akin Oil company and other companies.

Macvane, Edith, litterateur and author of Via Angelo Brunetti 46, Rome, Italy, was born in 1878, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of Adventures of Joujou and other works.

MacVane, Silas Marcus, educator and author of 16 Quincy st., Cambridge, Mass., was born in 1842 on Prince Edward Island. He is professor of ancient and modern history in the Harvard university. He is the author of Working Principles of Political Economy and other works.

MacVeagh, Franklin, merchant, founder and statesman of 103 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, Ill., was born in Chester county, Pa. In 1909 he became secretary of the treasury of the United States.

MacVeagh, Wayne, lawyer and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on April 19, 1833, in Phoenixville, Pa. In 1893-97 he was ambassador to Italy.

MacVicker, John George, educator and founder of Montclair, N.J., was born in Brockport, N.Y. He founded and has since been head of the Montclair academy of New Jersey.

Macwatters, David C., railroad official of Milner, Idaho, was born Aug. 23, 1864, in Newtonville, Canada. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Idaho Southern railroad.

Macy, Charles W., banker of 550 Union st., Hudson, N.Y., was born Dec. 23, 1840, in Hudson, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank of Hudson.

Macy, Jesse, educator and author of 1015 Eighth ave., Grinnell, Iowa, was born June 21, 1842, in Knightstown, Ind. Since 1885 he has been professor of political science in the Iowa college. He is the author of Our Government and other works.

Macy, William Starbuck, painter and artist of New Bedford, Mass., was born Sept. 11, 1853, in New Bedford, Mass. His best known works are Old Mill and Winter Sunset.

Madden, Eva Anne, educator, journalist and author of 36 Via de' Servi, Florence, Italy, was born Oct. 26, 1863, in Trimble county, Ky. She is the author of The Little Queen and other works.

Madden, George Sylvester, clergyman, missionary and author of Santa Fe, N.Mex., was born Aug. 9, 1858, in Amana, Ohio. He is the author of numerous articles on New Mexico.

Madden, Martin Barnaby, business president and statesman of 3829 Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born March 30, 1855, in England. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Maddocks, Sewall Thomas, banker of Boothbay Harbor, Maine, was born June 17, 1854, in Southport, Maine. He is treasurer and manager of the Pythian Hall company.

Maddox, John W., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Rome, Ga., was born June 3, 1848, in Chattooga county, Ga. In 1865 he served in the Confederate army. In 1877-79 he was mayor of Summerville. In 1880-82 he was a representative and in 1884 became state senator. In 1886-92 he was judge of the superior court; and served twelve years as a member of congress. In 1909-13 he was judge of the superior court; and has served in both state and national conventions. Since 1912 he has been president of the State Mutual Life Insurance company.

Maddox, Robert Foster, banker of Atlanta, Ga., was born April 4, 1870, in Atlanta, Ga. He is vice-president of the American National bank.

Maddox, Robert Gwinn, soldier, business man and public official of Rapids Parish, La., was born Aug. 5, 1846, in Rapids Parish, La. He served in the civil war. Since 1892 he has been parish treasurer.

Maddox, Samuel T., lawyer and jurist of 87 Bainbridge st., Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Madeira, Easton Earl, clergyman and author of 155 West Fourth st., St. Paul, Minn., was born on Jan. 8, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1906 he has been rector of the Christ church. He is the author of Mission of the Anglican Church to the Twentieth Century.

Madeira, Louis Childs, coal miner and shipper of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 2, 1853, in Philadelphia. He is secretary of Madeira, Hill and company, coal miners and shippers; is manager of the saving society of Germantown; and identified with various other financial and industrial corporations. In 1890-91 he was commodore of the Schuylkill navy; since 1899 has been trustee of the episcopal academy.

Madill, Leslie D., accountant and public official of Midland, Mich., was born March 24, 1879, in Midland, Mich. Since 1905 he has been county treasurer.

Madison, Edmond H., lawyer and statesman of Plymouth, Ill., was born on Dec. 16, 1865, in Plymouth, Ill. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Madison, Robert Lee, educator and author of Cullowhee, N.C., was born Feb. 17, 1867, in Staunton, Va. He is principal of the Cullowhee high school.

Madsen, Hans, banker of Kimballton,Iowa, was born Aug. 19, 1865, in Denmark. He is president of the Landmans' National bank.

Maes, Camillus Paul,clergyman,bishop and author of Covington, Ky., was born March 13, 1846, in Belgium. He is the editor of the Emanuel the Organ of the Eucharistic League. He is the author of the Life of Father Nerincki.

Maffitt, William, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 15, 1869, in St. Louis. He is vice-president of the Mercantile Trust company.

Magee, Harriet Cecil, educator of Oshkosh, Wis., was born Sept. 28, 1854, in New Brunswick. She is the director of the art department of the state normal school.

Magee,William Addison,lawyer and statesman of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born on May 4, 1873, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania state senate; and mayor of his city. He is president of the Americus republican club.

Magevney, Eugene A., lecturer and college president of Omaha, Neb., was born Dec. 1, 1855, at Memphis, Tenn. Since 1908 he has been president of Creighton university.

Magie, William Francis, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Dec. 14, 1858, in Elizabeth, N.J. Since 1885 he has been professor of physics at Princeton university. He is the author of A Course of Lectures on Physics and other works.

Magill, George Ernest, clergyman of 311 Sixth st., Hoboken, N.J., was born June 7, 1860, in Melbourne, Province of Quebec, Canada. Since 1896 he has been rector of the Church of the Holy Innocents.

Magill, Lawrence M., lawyer and statesman of Moline, Ill., was born Sept. 13, 1874, in Moline, Ill. He has been a member of the Illinois state legislature.

Maginnis, Charles Donagh, architect of Brighton,Mass., was born in 1867 in Londonderry, Ireland. He designed St. John's church of North Cambridge and the new cathedral of Los Angeles, Cal. He is the author of Pen Drawing.

Maginnis, Martin, soldier, journalist and statesman of Helena, Mont., was born Oct. 27, 1841, in Wayne county, N.Y. He has been a member of congress.

Magner, Thomas F., educator, lawyer and statesman of Brooklyn,N.Y., was born March 8, 1860, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1889-95 he was a member of congress.

Magonigle, Harold Van Buren, architect of 40 Washington square, New York City, was born Oct. 17, 1867, in Bergen Heights, N.J. He is a member of the American institute of architects.

Magoon, Charles E., lawyer,statesman and author of Havana, Cuba, was born Dec. 5, 1861, in Steele county, Minn. He has been provisional governor of the republic of Cuba. He is the author of The Law of Civil Government Under Military Occupation.

Magowan, Frank Allan, public official and manufacturer of Trenton,N.J.,was born Aug. 5, 1859, in Trenton, N.J. He has been mayor of his city.

Magrath, William, painter and artist of Brighton, N.Y., was born March 20, 1838, in Ireland. His best known work is On the Old Sod.

Magri, Francis Joseph, bishop's secretary of 808 East Grace st., Richmond, Va., was born Nov. 22, 1868, in Lynchburg, Va. He has received the degrees of B.A., M.A., D.D. and S.T.L. In 1900 he became assistant, and in 1908 was appointed secretary, to St. Peter's old cathedral of Richmond, Va.; and was instrumental in the erection of St. Peter's new rectory and also of the Catholic young men's home. In 1912 he was re-appointed bishop's secretary. He is the author of The Catholic Church in the City and Diocese of Richmond; and is a contributor to the Catholic Encyclopedia and current publications.

Magruder,Benjamin Drake,lawyer and jurist of 7 Washington place, Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 27, 1838, in Jefferson county,Miss. In 1902 he became chief justice of the supreme court of Illinois.

Magruder, Daniel R., lawyer and jurist of Annapolis, Ind. He has been judge of the Maryland court of appeals.

Magruder, David Lynn, soldier and army surgeon of 4042 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war and in 1904 was advanced to the rank of brigadier-general of the United States army.

Magruder, George Lloyd,educator and physician of Stoneleigh court, Wash., was born Nov. 1, 1848, in Washington, D.C. He has been dean of the school of medicine of the Georgetown university.

Magruder, Henry A., banker of Kankakee, Ill., was born Nov.28, 1852, in Kankakee. He has been mayor of his city. He is vice-president of the Kankakee County Trust and Savings bank.

Maguire, Bird S., educator, lawyer and statesman of Bellevue, Ill., was born in 1864 in Bellevue, Ill. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Maguire, James G.,lawyer,jurist and statesman of San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb.

22, 1853, in Boston, Mass. In 1893-99 he was a member of congress.

Maguire, John A., lawyer and statesman of Lincoln, Neb., was born Nov. 29, 1872, in Jo Daviess county, Ill. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Maguire, Matthew, machinist of Paterson, N.J., was born in 1850 in New York. In 1898 he was nominated by his party for governor of New York.

Mahan, Albert B., banker of Jellico, Tenn., was born May 18, 1875, in Pleasant View, Ky. He is president of the First National bank.

Mahan, Alfred Thayer, naval officer and author of 160 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born Sept. 27, 1840, in West Point, N.Y. He is the author of the Gulf and Inland Waters and other works.

Mahan, Bryan Francis, statesman of New London,Conn., was born May 1, 1856, in New London, Conn. He has been a member of the state senate; and in 1913 he became a member of congress

Mahan, Frederick A., engineer and author of West Point,N.Y.,was born March 28, 1847, in West Point, N.Y. He is part author of Civil Engineering.

Mahan, Little Lee, physician and banker of Hempstead, Texas, was born Aug. 22,1861, in Franklin county, Ala. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Mahany, Rowland Blennerhassett, educator, journalist,diplomat and statesman of 20 Broad st., New York City, was born Sept. 28, 1864, in Buffalo, N.Y. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress.

Maher, Nicholas D., railroad official of Roanoke, Va., was born in Blairsville, Pa. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Norfolk and Western railroad.

Mahl,William,railroad official of 165 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec.19, 1843, in Germany. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Southern Pacific company.

Mahon, Michael P., clergyman and scholar of 63 Central st., Georgetown, Mass., was born July 31, 1863, in county Galway, Ireland. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Mount St. Mary's college of Emmitsburg, Md. In 1889-1909 he was assistant pastor of the Sacred Heart church of East Cambridge, Mass.; and is now rector of St. Mary's church of Georgetown, Mass. In 1906-13 he was Gaelic editor of the Sacred Heart Review; and his lectures and writings have given a great impetus to Gaelic studies in New England.

Mahon, Thaddeus Maclay, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Chambersburg, Pa., was born in 1840 in Green Village, Pa. In 1893-1907 he was a member of congress.

Mahon, William D., journalist, labor union president and jurist of Detroit, Mich., was born in 1861 in Athens county, Ohio. He has been judge of the state court of arbitration.

Mahoney, Daniel Oliver, lawyer and jurist of Viroqua, Wis., was born in 1854 in Mount Morris, N.Y. He has been a member of the state legislature; and since 1898 he has been county judge.

Mahoney, Peter P., merchant and statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 25, 1848, in New York City. In 1885-89 he was a member of congress.

Main, Hubert Platt, editor, publisher and composer of 156 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 17, 1839, in Ridgefield, Conn. He is the author of Book of Praise and other works.

Main, John Hanson Thomas, educator and college president of Grinnell, Iowa, was born in 1859 in Toledo, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been president of the Iowa college.

Mains, William Lee, banker of Billings, Mont., was born Sept. 20, 1873, in Louisville, Ky. He is president of the Farmers' and Traders' State bank.

Majette, Mark Marsden, lawyer and public official of Columbia, N.C., was born Sept. 19, 1865, in Hertford county, N.C. He has been mayor of his city.

Major, E. W., statesman of Jefferson City, Mo. In 1913 he became governor of Missouri.

Majors, Thomas J., soldier, merchant and statesman of Peru, Neb., was born June 25, 1841, in Jefferson county, Iowa. He has been a member of congress.

Makepeace, David E., manufacturer and banker of Attleboro, Mass., was born June 9, 1878, in Norton, Mass. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Malby, George R., lawyer and statesman of Ogdensburg, N.Y., was born on Sept. 16, 1857, in Canton, N.Y. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Malkiel, Leon Andrew, lawyer and jurist of 116 Nassau st., New York City, was born Aug. 1, 1866, in Russia. He has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Mallalieu, Willard Francis, clergyman and bishop of Auburndale, Vt., was born Dec. 11, 1828, in Sutton, Mass. He is the author of The Why, When and How of Revivals and other works.

Mallett, Frank James, clergyman and author of Beloit, Wis., was born in 1858 in Lynn, England. He is the author of Wit and Humor of the Parson and other works.

Mallet, John William, educator and chemist of Charlottesville, Va., was born Oct. 10, 1832, in Dublin, Ireland. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. He has been president of the American chemical society. He was joint-author with his father of British Association Catalogue of Earthquakes.

Mallinckrodt, Edward, manufacturer and capitalist of 3600 North Second st.,St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 21, 1845, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the National Ammonia company.

Mallon, Guy Ward, lawyer and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born April 28, 1864, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been president of the Cincinnati Trust company. He is the author of Manual for Election of Officers in Ohio.

Mallory, Frank Burr, physician, pathologist and author of 116 Longwood ave.,Brookline, Mass.,was born Nov. 12, 1862, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is part author of Pathological Technique.

Mallory,Marie Louise,journalist,playwright and author of 2113 East Pratt st., Baltimore, Md., was born in Baltimore, Md. She is dramatic editorial writer and humorist of the Baltimore American. She is the author of The Prince's Wooing and other works.

Mally,Frederick William, soil and crop expert of Crystal City, Texas, was born Nov. 30, 1869, in Des Moines, Iowa. He has been president of the Texas state nurserymen's association. He is president of the co-operative development league of the irrigation districts of South Worth, Texas.

Malone,Dana, lawyer and financier of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 8, 1857, in Arcade, N.Y. He is president of the E. F. Reece and company.

Malone,James,statesman of Herndon,Kan., was born Nov. 22, 1875, in Tecumseh, Neb. He was educated in the public schools. He is identified with the democratic party; and has been a candidate for state senator. He is engaged in the milling and grain business in Herndon, Kan.; is also president of the German-American Land company; and has been president of the Herndon commercial club and filled various other positions of trust and honor. In 1911-13 he was a representative in the Kansas state legislature.

Malone, James Thomas, lawyer and jurist of New York City, was born Jan. 9, 1866, in Norwich, Conn. He was educated at the Phillips Exeter academy, received the degree of B.A. from Harvard university, and the honorary degree of LL.D. from St. Thomas college. In 1893-1908 he was assistant corporation counsel of New York City. Since 1908 he has been judge of the court of general sessions. He has made nine trips to different countries of Europe, and has traveled in Mexico and the West Indies.

Malone, Paul Bernard, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 8, 1872, in New York City. He is the author of Winning His Way to West Point and other works.

Malone, Walter, lawyer, jurist and poet of 39 Madison st., Memphis, Tenn., was born on Feb. 10, 1866, in De Sota county, Miss. Since 1905 he has been judge of the second circuit court of Shelby county. He is the author of The Outcast and other poems.

Maloney, Andrew P.,public official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 16, 1861, in Scranton, Pa. He is president of the State Construction company and secretary or treasurer of other corporations.

Maloney,John Barthum,physician and surgeon of Key West, Fla., was born in November, 1867, in Key West, Fla. He has been city health officer.

Maloney,Martin, capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 11, 1848, in Ballangarry, Ireland. He has been owner of the Maloney Manufacturing and Gas company.

Maloney, Michael Collinbrooke, journalist and publisher of 163 North Broadway, Marshfield, Ore., was born June 27, 1867, in Oil City, Pa. He is editor and publisher of the Coos Bay Times.

Malony, John Fuller, lawyer and capitalist of Juneau, Alaska, was born in 1860 in Minnesota. He has been a representative in the Montana state legislature. He is president of the Alaska Electric Light and Power company.

Malsbary, George Elmer,physician and author of 2202 Auburn ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born June 3, 1873, in Hutchinson, Kan. He is the author of Practice of Medicine.

Maltbie, Milo Roy, journalist and author of 154 Nassau st., New York City, was born April 3, 1871, in Hinckley, Ill. He has been editor of the Municipal Affairs of New York City. He is the author of Municipal Functions and other works.

Maltby, Albert E., educator,mathematician and scientist of Slippery Rock, Pa., was born Oct. 27, 1850, in Pulaski, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been principal of the state normal school of Slippery Rock, Pa.

Maltby, Mrs. Georgia Lord Morehouse, genealogist and author of New Haven, Conn., was born on April 22, 1854, in New Haven, Conn. She is the author of Maltby-Morehouse Family Record.

Maltz, George Lewis, soldier and banker of Alpena, Mich., was born Sept. 30, 1842, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He has been state treasurer of Michigan.

Man, Alrick Hubbell, lawyer and capitalist of Richmond Hill, N.Y., was born May 4, 1858, in New York City. He has been president of the New York and Sea Beach Railway company. He is president of the South Richmond Hill Land company.

Manahan,James, lawyer and statesman of Minneapolis, Minn., was born on March 12, 1866, in Chatfield, Minn. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Manchester, Arthur Livingston, educator, journalist, musician and author of Spartenburg, S.C., was born Feb. 9, 1862, at Bass River, N.J. He has been president of the music teachers' national association. He is author of Twelve Lessons on the Fundamentals of Tone Productions and other works.

Manchester, Charles, educator, clergyman and college president of Fort Scott, Kan., was born Dec. 28, 1858, in Burritt, Ill. He has been president of the Findlay college of Ohio.

Mandel, Charles Theodore, railway official of Johnson City, Tenn., was born June 28, 1865, in Steubenville, Ohio. Since 1879 he has been in railway service in different departments, and has filled various positions. In 1909 he was traveling passenger agent of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railway. in 1912 became assistant general passenger agent of that road and also, since 1913, has been general passenger agent of the Black Mountain railway.

Manderson, Charles Frederick, soldier,lawyer, statesman and author of Omaha, Neb., was born Feb. 9, 1837, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Twin Seven Shooters.

Mandeville,Charles Edward,clergyman and college president of Aurora, Ill., was born Aug. 1, 1840, in Red-Hook-on-the-Hudson, N.Y. He has been president of the Jennings seminary of Aurora, Ill.

Mandeville, Hubert Carpenter, lawyer and capitalist of Elmira, N.Y., was born Jan. 29, 1867, in Ithaca, N.Y. He has been a member of the law firm of Herendeen and Mandeville since 1891.

Maney,Mason, lawyer and banker of Pearsall, Texas, was born Aug. 8, 1860, in Sequin, Texas. He is president of the People's State bank.

Mangasarian, Mangasar M., lecturer and author of 410 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 29, 1859, in Constantinople, Turkey. He is the author of The Catholic Church in America and other works.

Manger, Dennis, author of Battle Creek, Mich., was born Feb. 1, 1833, in Ireland. He is the author of Facts for Horse Owners and other works.

Mangham, James Clarence, railroad manager of San Antonio, Texas, was born March 24, 1868, in Mobile, Ala. Since 1885 he has been engaged in the railway service; and since 1905 has been general freight agent of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway.

Mangold,Peter,banker of Bennington,Neb., was born in March, 1855, in Iowa. He is president of the Nebraska Transportation company.

Manley, Charles Haines, banker of Junction City, Kan., was born in Buffalo, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Central National bank.

Manley, Henry De Haven, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 20, 1839, in Chester, Pa. He attained the rank of lieutenant-commander.

Manley, Samuel C., capitalist of Augusta, Maine, was born July 21, 1867, in Augusta, Maine. He is president of the Maine Water company.

Manly, Charles, educator, clergyman and college president of Lexington, Va., was born May 28, 1837, in Charleston, S.C. He has been president of the Furman university of South Carolina.

Manly, John Matthews, educator and author of 1312 East Fifty-third st., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 2, 1865, in Sumter county, Ala. Since 1898 he has been a teacher in the university of Chicago. He is the author of the Pres-Shakesperean Drama.

Manly,Louise, teacher and author of Tampa, Fla., was born July 10, 1857, in Richmond, Va. She is the author of Southern Literature and other works.

Mann, Cameron, clergyman and author of Fargo, N.D., was born in 1851, in New York City. He is the author of Future Punishment and other works.

Mann,Charles Holbrook,clergyman and author of Elkhart, Ind., was born on Sept. 11, 1839, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is the author of Sermons on Marriage and other works.

Mann, Charles Riborg, educator and author of 5309 Greenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 12, 1869, in Orange, N.J. He is professor of physics in the university of Chicago. He is the author of Manual of Advanced Topics and other works.

Mann, Edward Ames, lawyer and jurist of Albuquerque, N.M., was born on March 12, 1867, in Beatrice, Neb. He is associate justice of the supreme court.

Mann, George Sumner, merchant and author of Brookline, Mass., was born Nov. 25, 1834, in New Salem, Mass. He has been a justice of the peace of Boston, Mass. He is the author of Mann Memorial.

Mann, Henry,soldier, journalist and author of 139 West One Hundred and Seventeenth st., New York City, was born on March 25, 1848, in Glasgow, Scotland. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Land We Live In and other works.

Mann, James R., lawyer and statesman of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 20, 1856, in Bloomington, Ill. He has been a member of congress.

Mann, Matthew Derbyshire, physician and author of 37 Allen st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born July 12, 1845, in Utica, N.Y. He is the author of a Manual of Prescription Writing, and other works.

Mann, Millicent E., litterateur and author of Winnetka, Ill., was born April 23, 1863, in Columbus, Ohio. She is the author of Lady Dear and other works.

Mann, Newton, clergyman and author of Omaha, Neb., was born in 1836, in Cazenovia, N.Y. He is the author of Evolution of a Great Literature and other works.

Mann, Samuel E., educator and poet of Methuen, Mass., was born April 10, 1853, in Lawrence, Mass. He is the author of Florida Verse.

Mann, William Dalton, soldier, publisher, inventor and founder of 309 West Seventy-second st., New York City, was born Sept. 27, 1839, in Sandusky, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has founded several magazines.

Mann, William Henry, merchant, banker and railroad commissioner of New Haven, N.D., was born Nov. 5, 1857, in Koiskau, Germany. He is president of the New Salem Investment company.

Mannering, Mary, actress of 38 East Thirty-third st., New York City, was born April 29, 1878, in England. She starred in Janice Meredith.

Manners,Edwin, lawyer and business president of 287 Barron st., Jersey City, N.J., was born March 6, 1855, in Jersey City, N.J. He is an occasional contributor to both prose and verse.

Manney, Charles Fonteyn, musician and composer of 94 Chestnut st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 8, 1872, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been on the editorial staff of the Oliver Ditson company of Boston, Mass. He is composer of A Manger Throne and other works.

Manning, Austin Stackhouse, banker of Latta, S.C., was born July 21, 1872, in Little Rock, S.C. He is cashier of the bank of Latta.

Manning, Charles Henry, civil engineer of Manchester, N.H., was born June 9, 1844, in Baltimore, Md. He has been engineer for the United States navy, and instructor in the United States naval academy. He is now superintendent and mechanical engineer of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company.

Manning, Edward Betts, musician and composer of New York City, was born Dec. 15, 1874, in Canada. His best known work is Highland Mary.

Manning, Henry Parker, educator and author of 258 Medway st., Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 3, 1859, in Woodstock, Conn. He is assistant professor of mathematics in Brown university. He is the author of Irrational Numbers and other works.

Manning, Henry S., capitalist of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born in 1841, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is vice-president and director of Sixty Wall street; and a director of other corporations.

Manning, James Hilton, banker of 39 Columbia st., Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 22, 1854, in Albany, N.Y. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the National Savings bank.

Manning, Marie, journalist and author of 1207 Nineteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born in Washington, D.C. She is the author of Judith of the Plains and other works.

Mannix, Mrs. Mary E., author of San Diego, Cal., was born May 17, 1846, in New York City. She is the author of the Tales that Tim Told and other works.

Mannon, James Milton, lawyer and banker of Ukiah, Cal., was born April 9, 1847, in Ohio. He has been superior judge of Mendocino county; and has served as police judge. He is vice-president of the Savings bank of Mendocino.

Mannville, Mrs. Helen Adelia, litterateur and poet of La Crosse, Wis., was born in 1839, in New York. She is the author of Heart Echoes.

Mansfield, Mrs. Beatrice Cameron, actress of 365 Riverside Drive, New York City, was born in 1868, in Troy, N.Y. She has played leading roles in all of the Mansfield repertoires.

Mansfield, Mrs. Blanche, illustrator and author of Toulon, France, was born in Louisiana. She is the author of Bachelor Ballads and other works.

Mansfield, Burton, lawyer and banker of 179 Church st., New Haven, Conn., was born April 4, 1856, in Hamden, Conn. He is president of the Connecticut Savings bank.

Mansfield, Henry Buckingham, naval officer of 368 Hancock st., New York City, was born March 5, 1856, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1905 he was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Mansfield, Ira Franklin, coal operator, fruit grower and banker of Beaver, Pa., was born June 27, 1842, in Poland, Ohio. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank and treasurer of other corporations.

Mansfield, John Alexander, lawyer and jurist of Steubenville, Ohio, was born Sept. 20, 1854, near Bloomfield, Ohio. He has been probate judge of his county.

Mansfield, Robert E., journalist, diplomat and author of Marion, Ind., was born June 13, 1866, in Indiana. Since 1902 he has been United States consul at Luzerne, Switzerland. He is the author of Country Life in Chile.

Mansfield, Samuel M., soldier of 231 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born in Connecticut. In 1903 he was commissioned brigadier-general of the United States army.

Manship, Andrew, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 23, 1824, in Caroline county, Md. He is the author of Cherished Memories and other works.

Manship, Luther, lecturer and statesman of Jackson, Miss., was born in Jackson, Miss. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Manson, John Thomas, banker of New Haven, Conn., was born Aug. 30, 1861, in New Haven, Conn. He is president of the Yale National bank.

Manson, John W., lawyer and banker of Pittsfield, Maine, was born March 22, 1862, in Pittsfield, Maine. He is president of the National bank; and has been a state representative.

Mansur, Zophar M., banker of Newport, Vt., was born Nov. 23, 1843, in Morgan, Vt. He is president of the National Bank of Derby Line, Vt.

Mantle, Lee, journalist and statesman of Butte, Mont., was born Dec. 13, 1851, in England. In 1895-99 he was a member of the United States senate.

Manton, Walter Porter, physician and author of 45 Watson st., Detroit, Mich., was born Aug. 3, 1857, in Providence, R.I. He is the author of A Syllabus of Lectures on Human Embryology and other works.

Mantzer, John F., physician, surgeon and banker of Ephrata, Pa., was born March 18, 1862, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Manvel, Frederick Converse, certified public acountant of 66 Broadway, New York City, was born in Greenwich, Conn. In 1908-13 he was a member of the Connecticut state board of accountancy; and has made examinations of accounts and books of many important financial institutions and municipalities throughout the United States.

Manville, Marion, litterateur and author of La Crosse, Wis., was born July 13, 1860, in La Crosse, Wis. She is the author of a work entitled Over the Divide, a volume of poems.

Manwaring, Albert H., electrical engineer of 2033 North Thirty-third st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 8, 1859, in Mexico, N.Y. Since 1899 he has been electrical engineer for the Philadelphia Electric company.

Manwarren, Albert, banker of Windsor, N. N., was born Aug. 21, 1845, in Conventry, N.Y. He is president of the Windsor National bank.

Manz,Jacob, business president and founder of 4001 East Ravenswood park, Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 1, 1837, in Switzerland. He is president of the J. Manz Engraving company.

Mapes, Carl E., lawyer and statesman of Grand Rapids, Mich.,was born Dec. 26, 1874, in Eaton county, Mich. He has been a member of the state senate; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Mapes, Victor, playwright and author of 60 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born March 10, 1870, in New York City. He is the author of Duse and the French and other works.

Maphis, Charles Gilmore,educator and college professor of University, Va., was born on Feb. 12, 1865, at Lantz Mills, Va. He has been principal of the Harrisonburg high school; president of the state board of school examiners; and secretary of the Virginia education commission. He is now professor of secondary education in the university of Virginia; and director of its summer school.

Mapp, George Walter, lawyer and banker of Accomac, Va., was born May 25, 1873, in Wachapreague, Va. He is president of the Eastern Shore Banking company.

Marble, Mrs. Annie Russell, editor and author of 4 Marble st., Worcester, Mass., was born Aug. 10, 1864, in Worcester, Mass. She is the author of Heralds of American Literature and other works.

Marble, Mrs. Callie Bonney,litterateur and author of Denver, Col., was born in Peoria, Ill. She is the author of Wit and Wisdom of Bulwer and other works. She is the wife of Earl Marble, the well-known journalist and author.

Marble,Earl, journalist and author of Denver, Col., was born July 6, 1837, in Wayne county, Ohio. He is the author of numerous operettas and songs, and a volume of poems.

Marble, Manton, diplomat and author of Bedford, N.Y., was born Nov. 16, 1834, in Worcester, Mass. He has been editor of the New York World and other famous newspapers. He is the author of A Letter to Abraham Lincoln and other works.

Marble, William Allen, business president of New York City, was born May 4, 1849, in Woonsocket, R.I. He is president of the Merchants' association of New York and is a director of the chamber of commerce of United States.

Marburg,Theodore, political economist and author of 14 West Mount Vernon place, Baltimore, Md., was born July 10, 1862, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of The World's Money Problem and other works.

Marceau,James Herbert,musician and composer of Wollaston, Mass., was born Oct. 31, 1859, in Canada. He is now head of the vocal department of the Quincy Mansion school at Wollaston.

March,Alden,journalist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 29, 1869, in Easton, Pa. He is the author of Conquest of the Philippines and Our Other Island Possessions.

March, George, banker of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, was born May 3, 1848, in Windsor, Ohio. He is president of the Chagrin Falls Banking company.

March, Jason James, banker, lumber dealer and merchant of Hot Springs, S.D., was born Aug. 29, 1871, in Blair, Neb. He is president of the Wooster Lumber company.

March, John Lewis, educator, author and poet of Schenectady, N.Y., was born March 11, 1873, in Easton, Pa. He is the author of A Book of Verse and other works.

Marconi, Gugliemo, mechanic and inventor of 18 Finch lane, London, E.C., England, was born April 25, 1874, in Italy. He is the inventor of wireless telegraphy.

Marcus, George Elder, jeweler of 544 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1859, in New York City. He is secretary, treasurer and director of Marcus and company.

Marcus, Louis William, lawyer and jurist of Buffalo, N.Y., was born May 18, 1863, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is justice of the supreme court of New York for the term of 1905-20.

Marcus,William Elder,jeweler of 544 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug.28, 1857, in New York City. He is president of Marcus and company.

Marcy, Henry Orlando,surgeon and author of 180 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born June 23, 1837, in Otis, Mass. He is surgeon to the surgical hospital of Cambridge, Mass. He is the author of The Animal Suture and other works.

Marcy, Henry S.,railroad president of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1837, in Hartland, Vt. He is president of the Fitchburg railroad.

Marcy, Milford M., publisher of New York City, was born Nov.15, 1868, in Fayette,Wis. He was educated at Hillsdale college of Michigan. He is general manager of the International Press syndicate of New York, Philadelphia and Montreal.

Marden, Orison Swett, journalist and author of New York City. He is the author of How to Succeed and other works.

Marden, Philip Sanford, journalist and author of Lowell, Mass., was born Jan.12, 1874, in Lowell, Mass. Since 1907 he has been president of the Courier Citizen company. He is the author of Greece and Aegean Islands.

Marean, Mrs. Emma Endicott, journalist, author and poet of 151 Brattle st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Jan.20, 1854, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of eighteen poems.

Marean, Josiah Taylor, lawyer and jurist of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born April 30, 1842, in Maine. He has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Marean, Willis A., designer and architect of Denver, Col., was born May 24, 1853, in Woodhull, N.Y. He designed the First Baptist church of Denver and the Brown palace hotel.

Margolis, Max Leopold, educator and author of 1519 Diamond st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 15, 1866, in Russia. He is the author of An Elementary Text-Book of Hebrew Accidence and other works.

Maris, George Lewis, educator and genealogist of George School, Pa., was born April 16, 1842, in Chester county, Pa. He is the author of Normal English Grammar and other works.

Mark, Edward Laurens, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born May 30, 1847, in Hamlet, N.Y. He is the author of Maturation and other works.

Markell, Charles Frederick, lawyer, diplomat, author and poet of Birmingham, Ala., was born Oct. 16, 1855, in Frederick, Md. He is the author of Chamodine and other works.

Markey, Daniel Peter, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Port Huron, Mich., was born June 27, 1857, in Bunker Hill, Mich. He is supreme commander of the Knights of the Maccabees of the world.

Markham, Charles H., railroad president of Chicago, Ill., was born May 22, 1861, in Clarksville, Tenn. Since 1911 he has been president of Illinois Central railroad.

Markham, Edwin, editor, lecturer and poet of Westerleigh Park, West New Brighton, Staten Island, N.Y., was born April 23, 1852, in Oregon City, Oregon. He has been superintendent of schools; and is one of the founders of the party society of America. He is the author of Lincoln and other poems.

Markham, Ernest Arthur, physician, genealogist and statesman of Durham, Conn., was born Oct. 16, 1853, in Windsor, Vt. He is the author of a work on the Markham Family.

Markham, George D., business president and founder of 4961 Berlin ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born July 25, 1859, in New England, Conn. He has been president of the Missouri and national associations of local fire insurance agents.

Markham, Henry Harrison, lawyer and statesman of Redondo Beach, Cal., was born Nov. 16, 1840, in Wilmington, N.Y. In 1885-87 he was a member of congress. In 1891-95 he was governor of California.

Markle, Charles Noble, business president of Leavenworth, Kan., was born April 18, 1861, in Oxford, Ohio. He has been president of the Markle Lead works.

Markle, John, miner and capitalist of Jeddo, Pa., was born Dec. 15, 1858, in Hazleton, Pa. He is president of G. B. Markle company and other corporations.

Markley, Alfred C., soldier of Radnor, Pa., was born April 18, 1843, in Doylestown, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1907 he obtained the rank of brigadier-general.

Marks, Jeannette, educator and author of South Hadley, Mass., was born Aug.16, 1875, in Chattanooga, Tenn. She is the author of Brief Historical Outline of English Literature and other works.

Marks, Leslie Victor, manufacturer and banker of 621 Main st., Cincinnati,Ohio, was born Feb. 7, 1860, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is vice-president of the People's Bank and Savings company.

Marks, Marcus M., merchant and statesman of 687 Broadway, New York City, was born March 18, 1858, in Hardenburg, N.Y. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Marks, William Dennis, civil engineer and author of West Port, N.Y., was born Feb. 26, 1849, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Edison Electric Light company of Philadelphia. He is the author of The Relative Proportions of the Steam Engine and other works.

Marland, Ernest Whitworth, financier of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 8, 1874, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Marland Gas company and other corporations.

Marlin, Harry A., capitalist of 237 Fourth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1856 in Brookville, Pa. He has been president of the Pittsburgh stock exchange.

Marlin, Mahlon Henry, manufacturer and financier of New Haven,Conn., was born July 23, 1864, in Windsor Locks, Conn. He is president of the Marlin Fire Arms company.

Marling, Alfred Erskine, real estate dealer and capitalist of 21 Liberty st., New York City, was born in 1858 in Toronto, Canada. He is president of the corporation of Horace S. Ely and company; and a trustee of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. He is chairman of the international committee of the young men's christian association.

Marlowe, Julia, actress of New York City, was born Aug. 17, 1870, in England. She is one of the foremost actresses in the United States.

Maroney, Denis Francis, railroad president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1859 in Illinois. He is president of the Brookville and Mahoning railroad and other railroads.

Marquand, Allan, educator, journalist and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Dec. 10, 1853, in New York City. He is one of the editors of the American Journal of Archaeology.

Marquess, William Hoge, educator and college president of 541 Lexington ave., New York City. He has been president of Westminster college of Missouri.

Marquette, David, clergyman and college president of Stanton,Neb., was born July 19, 1842, in Clark county, Ohio. For many years he was president of the Nebraska central college.

Marquis, Albert Nelson, publisher of 440

South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born in Brown county, Ohio. In 1899 he established Who's Who in America,now published biennially.

Marquis, John Abner, college president of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born Dec. 27, 1861, in Dinsmore, Pa. He is president of Coe college of Cedar Rapids.

Marr, Frances, Harrison, author and poet of Warrenton, Va., was born July 2, 1835, in Warrenton, Va. She is the author of three poems entitled Heart-Life and Song; Virginia and other poems.

Marseilles, Charles, soldier and journalist of Boston, Mass., was born July 19, 1846, in Philadelphia. He served throughout the civil war.

Marsh, Bonner Goelette, clergyman, college president and author of Monterey, Mex., was born Dec. 21, 1859, in Bath, N.C. He is the president of the American college of Monterey.

Marsh, Charles Dwight, educator, zoologist and author of 1882 Monroe st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 20, 1855, in Hadley,Mass. He is the author of the Plankton of Lake Winnebago and other works.

Marsh, Charles Stewart, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 20, 1874, in Ironton, Mo. He is secretary of the Bankers' Trust company.

Marsh, Converse Denny, capitalist of 15 Spruce st., New York City, was born Jan. 17, 1865, in Evansville, Ind. He is president of Bryan-Marsh company, and is president or treasurer in fourteen different companies.

Marsh, Francis Wanzer, lawyer and banker of 852 Park ave., Bridgeport, Conn., was born Dec. 18, 1846, in New Milford, Conn. He is president of the Bridgeport Trust company.

Marsh, Joseph William, manufacturer and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 1, 1858, in New York City. He is president of the Exchange National bank.

Marsh, Robert, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 20, 1874, in Charleston, Ill. He laid out and improved the Country Club park and other places.

Marsh, Spencer Milton, lawyer and banker of Neillsville, Wis., was born Jan. 26, 1864, in Clark county, Wis. He is president of the Commercial State bank.

Marsh, Walter Randall, educator and author of Garden City, N.Y., was born June 16, 1867, in Haverhill, Mass. He is part author of Plain and Spherical Trigonometry and other works.

Marsh, William T., capitalist and statesman of Litchfield, Conn., was born Feb. 10, 1849, in Litchfield, Conn. He is president of the Litchfield Water company; and has been a state representative.

Marshall, Caroline Nina Lovering, educator and author of Kingston, N.Y., was born May 28, 1861, in Kingston, N.Y. She is the author of The Mushroom Book and other works.

Marshall, Clara, physician and author of 256 South Sixteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in West Chester, Pa. She is the author of History of the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Marshall, Davis Edward, journalist, lecturer and author of 12 East Twenty-second st., New York City, was born May 31, 1869, in Enfield Center, N.Y. He is the author of Story of the Rough Riders and other works.

Marshall, Edward, journalist and author of New York City, was born in 1868 in New York. He was a New York journalist, and a correspondent of the Journal during the Spanish-American war. He is the author of Lizette and other works.

Marshall, Edwin Jessop, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 18, 1860, in Baltimore, Md. He owns Movel ranches in Santa Barbara county and in Old Mexico. He is president of the Grand Canyon Cattle company and other corporations.

Marshall, Finnis E., banker and capitalist of Kansas City, Mo., was born July 15, 1860, in Unionville, Mo. In 1892 he was vice-president of the National bank of commerce of Kansas City, Mo.

Marshall, George Alpheus, educator and lawyer of Darlington, Wis., was born Feb. 17, 1836, in Northumberland, N.H. He has written magazine articles for the periodical press. He is the proprietor of the LaFayette County Abstract company.

Marshall, George M., banker of Belvidere, Ill., was born Oct. 18, 1861, in Sycamore, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Marshall, George W., physician of Milford, Del., was born Aug. 31, 1854, in Georgetown, Del. He is supervisor of insurance and banking in Delaware.

Marshall, Henry R., architect and author of 142 East Eighteenth st., New York City, was born July 22, 1852, in New York City. He is the author of Esthetic Principles and other works.

Marshall, J. T., planter, merchant and banker of Eupora, Miss., was born Jan. 5, 1873, in Foltz, Miss. He is president of the Merchants and Farmers' bank.

Marshall, James, manufacturer and banker of Fall River, Mass., was born Jan. 14, 1860, in New York City. He is president of the Five Cents Savings bank, the North American Hat Company and other corporations. He is president of the seaside home for infants.

Marshall, James M., soldier of Washington, was born May 31, 1844, in Coles county, Ill. Since 1901 he has been assistant quartermaster-general in the United States army, with the rank of colonel.

Marshall, John, educator, physician, chemist and author of 1718 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 9, 1855, in Reading, Pa. He is the author of A Course for Systematising Qualitive Testing.

Marshall, John Augustine, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Sept. 5, 1854, in Fauquier county, Va. Since 1896 he has been United States judge for the district of Utah.

Marshall, Leonard B., educator and musician of Dorchester, Mass., was born Aug. 9, 1847, in Boston, Mass. He is an instructor in music, and is a member of the faculty of the American institute of normal methods.

Marshall, Roujet Delisle, lawyer and jurist of Madison, Wis., was born Dec. 26, 1847, in Nashua, N.H. Since 1895 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of Wisconsin.

Marshall, Samuel McConnell, merchant and banker of Quenemo, Kan., was born Aug. 2, 1859, in Clarksburg, Pa. He is president of the Quenemo State bank.

Marshall, Samuel S., jurist and statesman of McLeasboro, Ill., was born 1824, in Gallatin county, Ill. In 1867 he received the unanimous vote of his party in the Illinois legislature for United States senator.

Marshall, T. Marcellus, educator, clergyman and missionary of Glenville, Va., was born May 17, 1851, in Stout's Mills, W.Va. Since 1894 has been a Presbyterian missionary in West Virginia and Kentucky.

Marshall, Thomas Frank, banker and statesman of Oakes, N.D., was born March 7, 1854, in Hannabel, Nev. He is president of the First National bank.

Marshall, Thomas Riley, lawyer and statesman of Indianapolis, Ind., was born March 14, 1854, in North Manchester, Ind. In 1908 he was elected governor of the state of Indiana.

Marshall, Thomas Webb, banker of West Chester, Pa., was born Jan. 26, 1843, in Chester county, Pa. He is president of the National bank of Chester.

Marshall, Thomas Worth, civil engineer and author of Takoma Park, D.C., was born March 24, 1872, in Economy, Ind. He is the author of Logarithmic Tables.

Marshall, W. H., railroad president of New York City, was born June 7, 1864. Since 1906 he has been president of the American Locomotive company.

Marshall, William, physician of Milford, Del., was born Nov. 26, 1880, in Milford, Del. He is a graduate of Delaware college and the medical department of the university of Pennsylvania. He has been a member of the Milford board of education; and in 1905-06 active as resident physician to the Delaware hospital. He is now serving as chief surgeon on the general staff as first lieutenant, medical reserve corps, United States army. He is physician in charge of the Milford tuberculosis dispensary.

Marshall, William Louis, educator, explorer, inventor of Fort Wadsworth, N.Y., was born June 11, 1846, in Washington, Ky. Since 1900 he has been engaged on the improvement of main channels of the New York harbor.

Marsland, Cora, educator and author of Emporia, Kan., was born in 1859, in Ossining, N.Y. She has been president of the Kansas state elocutionary association. She is the author of Interpretative Reading.

Marston, Anson, educator and civil engineer of Ames, Ia., was born May 31, 1864, in Seward, Ill. He is dean of the division of engineering in the Iowa state college.

Marston, Edgar Lewis, banker of 24 Broad st., New York City, was born March 8, 1860, in Burlington, Iowa. Since 1893 he has been a member of the banking firm of Blair and company; and is a trustee of the Bankers' Trust company and a score of other financial and industrial corporations.

Marston, Edwin S., capitalist of 22 William st., New York City. He is president of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company and a director of various corporations.

Martin, Adam, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Gettysburg, Pa., was born Aug. 9, 1835, in Germany. In 1869 he accepted the professorship of the German language and literature in Pennsylvania college of Gettysburg.

Martin, Alexander, banker of 702 Tenth st., Oakland, Cal., was born March 17, 1885, in Illinois. He is president of the Klamath County bank.

Martin, Alexander, banker of Eugene, Oregon, was born July 3, 1867, in Jacksonville, Ore. He is cashier of the Klamath County bank.

Martin, Alfred Lycurgus, banker and statesman of Sentinel Butte, N.D., was born in 1871 in La Crosse, Wis. He is president of the Interstate bank of Billings county.

Martin, Alvah H., banker and statesman of Norfolk, Va., was born Sept. 20, 1858, in Norfolk county, Va. He was educated at the Webster institute. Since 1880 he has been county clerk of Norfolk county, Va. He is president of the Merchants and Planters' bank; and a republican national committeeman. He is president of the Ragged Island gunning association; president Chesapeake building association; president Cape Henry syndicate; a director in the National bank of commerce.

Martin, Artemas, publisher and mathematician of 918 N st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 3, 1835, in Steuben county, N.Y. He has received the degrees of A.M., Ph.D. and LL.D. Since 1885 he has been computer in the United States coast and geodetic survey. Since 1877 he has been editor and publisher of the Mathematical Visitor; and since 1882 has been editor and publisher of the Mathematical Magazine. He is a member of the British mathematical association and other scientific bodies.

Martin, C. C., banker of 335 Ann st., Parkersburg, W.Va., was born Oct. 2, 1840, in New Martinsville, Va. He is president of the First National bank.

Martin, Celora E., lawyer and jurist of 136 Oak st., Binghampton, N.Y., was born Aug. 23, 1834, in New Port, N.Y. In 1896-1904 he was judge of the New York court of appeals.

Martin, Chalmers, clergyman and college president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 7, 1859, in Ashland, Ky. Since 1903 he has been professor of history and literature at the university of Wooster, Ohio.

Martin, Charles Alfred, clergyman and author of 6914 Woodland ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 4, 1874, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was secretary of the first missionary congress. He is the author of The Christian Organism and other works.

Martin, Charles H., educator, clergyman and statesman of Polkton, S.C. In 1895-99 he has been a member of congress.

Martin, Charles L., merchant, manufacturer and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 11, 1858, in Maquoketa, Iowa. He is president of the Bank of Webster Groves.

Martin, Clarence, lawyer and jurist of Fredericksburg, Ky., was born Nov. 26, 1868, in San Marcuse, Tex. Since 1902 he has been district judge of Texas.

Martin, Clarence Augustine, educator, architect and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 29, 1862, in Medina county, Ohio. He is the author of Details of Building Construction.

Martin, Clayton J., banker and stockman of Churdan, Iowa, was born May 27, 1862, in New Bedford, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Martin, Daniel Hoffman, clergyman and author of 19 Stratford place, Newark, N.J., was born Feb. 5, 1859, in Martindale, N.Y. He is the author of A Young Man's Perplexities With His Bible; Concerning Them That Are Asleep and other works.

Martin, E. Broox, banker of Bozeman, Mont., was born Aug. 12, 1844, in Michigan. He is vice-president of the Commercial National bank.

Martin, Eben Wever, lawyer and statesman of Deadwood, S.D., was born April 12, 1855, in Maquoketa, Iowa. For several years he was president of the board of education of the city of Deadwood.

Martin, Edward L., railroad president of Kansas City, Mo., was born March 12, 1842, in Maysville, Ky. He is president of the Kansas City, Pittsburgh and Gulf railroad.

Martin, Edward Sandford, journalist, author and poet of 178 East Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born Jan. 2, 1856, in Owaso, N.Y. He is the author of Sly Ballades in Harvard China; A Little Brother of the Rich and other poems.

Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert, author of Ocean Park, Cal., was born Dec. 21, 1837, in Albany, N.Y. She is the author of Whom God Hath Joined.

Martin, Fernando Wood, educator and author of College Park, Lynchburg, Va., was born May 5, 1863, in Volga, W.Va. He has been professor of chemistry in Chaddock college and Fort Worth university. He is now professor of chemistry in the Randolph Macon woman's college, of which institution he was vice-president in 1893-1907. He is the author of Inorganic Chemistry and other works.

Martin, Frank James, railway official of Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 26, 1865, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was educated at St. John's school at Cleveland, Ohio. In 1884 he entered railway service as ticket clerk in the auditing department of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, has been traveling freight agent, and since 1909 assistant general freight agent. For ten years he was dramatic editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer; and is now president of the veteran association of the Nickel Plate road.

Martin, Franklin H., physician, surgeon and author of 30 N. Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 13, 1857, in Oconomowoc, Wis. He is the author of Electricity in Diseases of Women.

Martin, Frederic Oskar, mineral inspector of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 20, 1871, in Mittweida, Saxony, Germany. He has been mineral inspector for the general land office of the interior department since 1909. He is the author of Centrifugal Method of Mechanical Soil Analysis and other works.

Martin, George Alexander, soldier, lawyer and statesman, was born Sept. 3, 1833, in Norfolk county, Va. He is one of the foremost lawyers of his native state at Norfolk.

Martin, George Castor, genealogist and author of Asbury Park, N.J., was born March 30, 1885, in New York City. He is the author of The Martin Family; Castor Genealogy and other works.

Martin, George Henry, educator and author of West Lynn, Mass., was born Aug. 16, 1841, in Lynn, Mass. He is the author of The English Language.

Martin, Mrs. George Madden, litterateur and author of Anchorage, Ky.,was born May 3, 1866, in Louisville, Ky. She is the author of Emmy Lou, Her Book and Heart and other books.

Martin, Gustave G., printer and publisher of 2343 Milwaukee ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 22, 1874, in Norway. He is a publisher of local newspapers and is the publisher of The Irving Park Signal.

Martin, Mrs. Helen R., litterateur and author of Harrisburg, Pa., was born Oct. 18, 1868, in Lancaster, Pa. She is the author of Sabina, A Story of the Amish; and the Betrothal of Elypholate.

Martin, J. Laurence, educator, lawyer and poet of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 14, 1865, in Fayette county, Ohio. He is the author of Halloween and other poems.

Martin, James, managing editor of 41 Westcott st., East Orange, N.J., was born Dec. 16, 1862, in Lochee, Dundee, Scotland. He is managing editor of the New York Tribune.

Martin, James Loren, lawyer and jurist of Brattleboro, Vt., was born Sept. 13, 1846, in Landgrove, Vt. Since 1906 he has been judge of the United States district court of Vermont.

Martin, James Stewart, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Salem, Ill., was born

Aug. 19, 1826, in Scott county, Va. He has been clerk of the Marion county court for twelve years.

Martin, Jane Percy, author of Pendleton, Ore., was born in England. She is the author of a novel entitled Lost and Saved; and has written extensively on subjects of travel.

Martin, John, lawyer and statesman of Topeka, Kan., was born Nov. 12, 1833, in Wilson county, Tenn. For two terms he was clerk of the supreme court of Kansas.

Martin, John A., lawyer and statesman of Pueblo, Col., was born April 10, 1868, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1909 he was a member of congress.

Martin, John Calvin, soldier, coal operator and philanthropist of 1 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 13, 1845, in Millersville, Pa. He served in the civil war as first lieutenant Pennsylvania volunteers.

Martin, John L., soldier, journalist and statesman of Topeka, Kan., was born March 10, 1839, in Brownsville, Pa. In 1884 he was elected governor of Kansas.

Martin, John Weston, banker of Oakesdale, Wash., was born July 25, 1878, in Dana, Iowa. He is cashier of the National bank.

Martin, Jonathan McCaleb, lawyer and statesman of Columbus, Miss., was born June 2, 1846, in Claiborne county, Miss. For fifteen years he was a trustee of the industrial institute and college of Columbus, Miss.

Martin, Lewis J., jurist and statesman of Newton, N.J., was born Feb. 22, 1844, near Deckertown, N.J. He was a member of the state senate; and in 1913 he became a member of congress.

Martin, Louis Adolphe, educator, scientist and author of Hoboken, N.J., was born Nov. 5, 1880, in Hoboken, N.J. He is the author of a Textbook of Mechanics.

Martin, Martha Evans, journalist and author of 838 West End ave., New York City, was born in Terre Haute, Ind. She is the author of the Friendly Stars.

Martin, N. E., lawyer and statesman of Concord, N.H., was born Aug. 9, 1855, in London, N.H. He is chairman of the New Hampshire democratic state committee.

Martin, Newell, lawyer of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born in 1854 in China. He is a member of the New York City bar association.

Martin, Robert Andrew Reid, banker of Mount Clare, Neb., was born Feb. 27, 1874, in Mediapolis, Iowa. He is cashier of the Mount Clare State bank.

Martin, S. Wesley, musician and composer of San Jose, Cal., was born Jan. 20, 1839, in Plainfield, Ill. He is the author of one hundred sheet music songs.

Martin, Samuel Albert, educator, college president and author of Shippensburg, Pa., was born Nov. 1, 1853, in Cannonsburg, Pa. Since 1907 he has been principal of the Pennsylvania state normal school. He is the author of The Man of Uz and other works.

Martin, Sydnor Lee, physician and banker of Leaksville, N.C., was born June 20, 1863, in Leaksville, N.C. He is president of the People's bank.

Martin, Theodore, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born in Quebec, Canada. He is the author of Martin's Mining Law and Land Office Procedure.

Martin, Thomas C., journalist, lecturer and author of 40 Morningside ave., New York City, was born July 22, 1856, in London, England. He is the author of Electric Motor and its Applications.

Martin, Mrs. Victoria Claflin, journalist and author of 17 Hyde Park Gate, London, England, was born Sept. 23, 1838, in Homer, Ohio. She is the author of the Origin, Tendencies and Principles of Government and other works.

Martin, W. F., lawyer and banker of Rotan, Texas, was born in 1863 in Glen Rose, Texas. He is president of the First National bank of Rosebud, Texas.

Martin, Walton, physician and author of 25 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born Feb. 4, 1869, on Staten Island, N.Y. He is the author of Physics and Chemistry.

Martin, William, clergyman, inventor and diplomat of Hancow, China, was born March 1, 1848, in Exeter, England. In 1902-05 he was American consul at Nanking; and since 1905 has been consul-general at Hancow, China.

Martin, William, United States medical officer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 7, 1849, in New Orleans, La. He received his medical degree from the medical department of the university of Louisiana. In 1865 he entered the United States navy at New Orleans as apothecary, and three years later became acting assistant surgeon. He has been on quarantine duty at various places and in 1906 was promoted to medical inspector, United States navy, retired.

Martin, William B., real estate dealer and banker of Des Moines, Iowa, was born March 17, 1846, in Rochester, Vt. He is president of the Iowa Trust and Savings bank.

Martin, William C., lawyer, banker and statesman of Dalton, Ga., was born Aug. 22, 1862, in Murray county, Ga. In 1885 he began the practice of law; and since 1900 has been vice-president of the First National bank of Dalton. He is also president of the Dalton building and loan association; and a director in several other corporations. He has been a member of the Georgia state senate; has attained recognition as one of the foremost lawyers of the south; and is now one of the wealthiest men in North Georgia.

Martin, William McDowell, physician and surgeon of Mobile, Ala., was born July 5, 1853, in Mobile, Ala. He is an associate editor of the Annals of Surgery.

Martin, William Parmenter, lawyer of 164 Market st., Newark, N.J., was born Oct. 8, 1871, in Virginia City, Nev. Since 1902 he has been a member of the Newark common council.

Martin, Winfred Robert, educator and librarian of 581 West One Hundred and Sixty-first st., New York City, was born March 22, 1852, in China. Since 1907 he has been librarian of the Hispanic society of America.

Martinelli, Sebastian, clergyman and archbishop of 201 I st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 20, 1848, in Italy. In 1896 he was appointed apostolic delegate.

Martinez, Feliz, business president and statesman of El Paso, Texas, was born March 29, 1857, in Taos, N.M. He was engaged in mercantile business and also in stock raising and lumber manufacturing in New Mexico; then for ten years was engaged in the real estate and building business at Las Vegas. Since 1897 he has been identified with various enterprises in El Paso, Texas. He organized the chamber of commerce, the water works and street railway, the union depot and numerous real estate companies. He is president of the Central Building and Improvement company, president of the International Improvement company, president of the Martinez Publishing company and other corporations. He has been a member of the New Mexico house of representatives and senate; and has been appointed president of the Pan-American commission.

Martinitz, Stanislaus Von, physician, surgeon and author of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born Oct. 8, 1845, in Bohemia. He is the author of the Soul's Functions Within the Human Body.

Martinot, Sadie, actress of New York City, was born in 1861 in New York City. Since 1902 she has been the leading lady in numerous productions, including The Turtle.

Martiny, Philip, designer and sculptor of Rockville Center, N.Y., was born May 19, 1858, in France. He is an associate member of the national academy of designs; and has a studio in New York City.

Marts, James O., prosecuting attorney of Newcastle, Wyo., was born June 19, 1879, in Hastings, Neb. He is prosecuting attorney of Weston county, Wyo.

Martyn, Carlos, clergyman and author of New York City, N.Y., was born in 1841 in New York City. He is the author of John Milton.

Martyn, William Carlos, clergyman and author of Noroton, Conn. was born Dec. 15, 1841, in New York City. He is the author of The History of the Huguenots.

Marugg, Martin, banker of Tracy City, Tenn., was born April 14, 1861, in Switzerland. He is president of the First National bank.

Marvin, Charles Frederick, meterologist and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 7, 1858, in Putnam, Ohio. He is now professor of meteorology at the United States weather bureau.

Marvin, Frederick Rowland, clergyman, lecturer, author and poet of 539 Western ave., Albany, N.Y., was born Sept. 23, 1847, in Troy, N.Y. He is the author of Last Words of Distinguished Men and Women.

Marvin, Harry Norton, manufacturer and capitalist of 80 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Sept. 6, 1862, in Jordan, N.Y. He is a trustee of Syracuse university. He is the inventor of the Marvin electric rock drill; and was president of the Marvin Drill company for five years. For five years he was president of the Biograph company, and is now its vice-president. He is also vice-president of the Motion Picture Patents company and other corporations.

Marvin, Joseph Benson, physician, lecturer and author of 903 Fourth ave., Louisville, Ky., was born Aug. 3, 1852, in Monticello, Fla. He has been professor of medicine and president of the medical department of the university of Kentucky. He is the author of Lectures in International Clinics.

Marvin, Walter Taylor, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born April 28, 1872, in New York City. He is the author of Syllabus and Introduction to Philosophy and other works.

Marvin, William E., lawyer of 14 Middle st., Portsmouth, N.H., was born Jan. 1, 1872, in Portsmouth, N.H. He is a director of the National Mechanics and Traders' bank. He has been mayor of his city.

Marvin, Winthrop Lippitt, journalist and author of 131 State st., Boston, Mass., was born May 15, 1863, in Newcastle, N.H. He is the author of the American Merchant Marines.

Marx, Julius L., banker of Demopolis, Ala., was born Feb. 6, 1865, in Mobile, Ala. He is a member of the Marx Banking company.

Marx, Oscar B., public official and manufacturer of Detroit, Mich., was born July 14, 1866, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of the Michigan Optical company and is mayor of his city.

Marx, Otto, banker of Birmingham, Ala., was born Oct. 31, 1869, in Montgomery, Ala. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is a director of the Corey Land company and various other corporations.

Maryott, E. Edgar, physician and author of Springfield, Mass., was born Sept. 29, 1845, in North Stonington, Mass. He is the author of the New Medical World.

Marzo, Eduardo, musician and composer of 139 West Eighty-seventh st., New York City, was born Nov. 29, 1852, in Italy. He has edited Songs of Italy and The Art of Vocalization.

Mason, Mrs. Agnes Louisa, author and poet of Montclair, N.J., was born in New York. She is the author of The White Nun.

Mason, Mrs. Amelia G., author of 113 Cass st., Chicago, Ill., was born in Northampton, Mass. She is the author of the Women of the French Salons and other works.

Mason, Amos Lawrence, physician of 265 Clarendon st., Boston, Mass., was born April 20, 1842, in Salem, Mass. He received the degrees of A.B. and M.D. from Harvard university and pursued his medical studies in Berlin, Vienna, Paris and London. In 1878-

1903 he was physician and now consulting physician to the Boston City hospital.

Mason, Arthur Eugene, banker of Glens Falls, N.Y., was born Nov. 8, 1868, in Fort Ann, N.Y. For twenty years he was connected with the First National bank of Glens Falls, N.Y.; is now cashier of the Glens Falls Trust company; and a director in the Glens Falls Publishing company and other corporations. He is commissioner of the board of public safety of his city.

Mason, Augustus Lynch, lawyer and author of 1006 North Delaware st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Feb. 10, 1859, in Bloomington, Ind. He is the author of Pioneer History of America.

Mason, Mrs. Caroline Atwater, author of 213 Culver road, Rochester, N.Y., was born July 10, 1853, in Providence, R.I. She is the author of A Titled Maiden and other works.

Mason, D. J. J., musician and composer of Wilkes Barre, Pa., was born in 1854 in Wales. His first composition was the Young Musician; and then he composed From Out of the Depths.

Mason, Daniel Gregory, lecturer, musician and author of 53 Washington square, New York City, was born Nov. 20, 1873, in Brookline, Mass. He is the author of From Grieg to Brahms.

Mason, Darius, physician and surgeon of Spokane, Wash., was born April 1, 1830, in Swansea, Mass. He has been president of the Wisconsin state medical society.

Mason, Edward Tuckerman, critic and author of Ossining, N.Y., was born April 10, 1847, in New York City. He is the author of Samuel Johnson, His Words and Ways and other works.

Mason, Frank H., soldier, journalist and diplomat of Paris, France, was born April, 24, 1840, in Niles, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been American consul-general at Paris, France.

Mason, Harriet L., educator and author of Keene, N.Y., was born Sept. 15, 1862, in Keene, N.Y. She is the author of Student's Reading and Questions in English Literature.

Mason, Harrison Denning, business man, genealogist, author and poet of 1107 Ridge ave., Allegheny, Pa., was born Jan. 27, 1855, in Allegheny, Pa. He is the author of Genealogy of the Mason and Denning Families. He is the author of the poem entitled Abraham Lincoln at Gettysburg.

Mason, Harry B., pharmacist and author of Detroit, Mich., was born March 17, 1874, in North Granville, N.Y. For four years he was a retail druggist, and for two years was a chemist and pharmacist to Clinton Prison, N.Y. He is now managing editor of The Bulletin of Pharmacy, Modern Pharmacy and other pharmaceutical publications. He is the author of a book of essays, two business books for druggists and numerous papers on economic subjects.

Mason, Henry Freeman, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Topeka, Kan., was born Feb. 17, 1860, in Racine, Wis. He is a justice of the state supreme court of Kansas.

Mason, Henry Lowell, author of 494 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born in Aug., 1864, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Modern Artistic Pianoforte.

Mason, James Frederick, publisher and author of 214 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Sept. 19, 1873, in Uddingstone, Scotland. He is president of the Dodge Publishing company. He is the author of Cupid's Game with Hearts.

Mason, John Whiting, lawyer and banker of 59 Main st., Northampton, Mass., was born Aug. 18, 1861, in Plymouth, Mass. He is president of the Hampshire County National bank.

Mason, Madison Charles B., clergyman and author of 2231 St. James ave., Cincinnati, Ohio., was born March 27, 1859, in Houma, La. Since 1896 he has been corresponding secretary of the freedmen's aid and southern education society of the Methodist church. He is the author of the Gospel Message.

Mason, Mary Augusta, author and poet of Binghamton, N.Y., was born in Windsor, N. Y. She is the author of With the Seasons and other works.

Mason, Newton Eliphalet, naval officer of 1724 P st., Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 14, 1850, in Monroeton, Pa. Since 1904 he has been chief of the bureau of ordnance of the United States navy department with the rank of rear admiral.

Mason, Samuel, farmer and banker of Pennville, Ind., was born Feb. 14, 1845, in Indiana. He is president of the People's State bank.

Mason, Timothy Roseburg, physician and banker of 507 Germania st., Columbus, Ohio, was born May 10, 1852, in Green county, Pa. He is president of the Bank of Sugar Grove.

Mason, Tom O'Brien, journalist and banker of Cumberland, Wis., was born July 16, 1874, in Independence, Iowa. He is president of the Cumberland Creamery company.

Mason, Wallace Lawrence, banker of Keene, N.H., was born Feb. 7, 1865, in Keene, N.H. He is president of the W. L. Mason and company.

Mason, William Ernest, lawyer and statesman of 108 South LaSalle st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 7, 1850, in Franklinville, N.Y. Since 1872 he has maintained a law office in Chicago.

Mason, William Pitt, chemist and author of Troy, N.Y., was born Oct. 12, 1853, in New York City. He is the author of Water Supply and other works.

Masqueray, Emmanuel L., architect of St. Paul, Minn., was born in 1861 in Dieppe, France. In 1883 he founded Atelier-Masqueray for the study of architecture; and was chief of design to the Louisiana purchase exposition. He was the architect for the Long Island cathedral hospital; for the cathedral of St. Paul and for the pro-cathedral of Minneapolis.

Massey, George Betton, physician and author of Haverford, Pa., was born Nov. 15, 1858, in Massey, Md. He is the author of Conservative Gynecology and Electro-Therapeutics.

Massey, John, educator and college president of Tuskegee,Ala.,was born Dec. 16, 1834, in Choctow county, Ala. Since 1895 he has been president of the Alabama educational association.

Massey, W. A., lawyer and jurist of Reno, Nev. In 1898-99 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Nevada at Carson City; and is now practicing attorney of Reno.

Massey, Wilbur Fisk, horticulturist, botanist and author of Raleigh, N.C., was born Sept. 30, 1839, in Accomac county, Va. He is the author of Crop Growing and Crop Feeding.

Massie, Lee John, merchant and banker of Vernon, Texas, was born June 23, 1862, in Green county, Ky. He is vice-president of the Herrin National bank.

Masson, Thomas L., journalist and author of Glen Ridge, N.J., was born July 21, 1866, in Essex, Conn. He is the author of Yankee Navy and other works.

Mast, Samuel Ottmar, scientist and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 5, 1871, in Washtenaw county, Mich. He is the author of Light and the Reactions of Organism.

Masterson, J. A., banker and stockman of Elgin, Ore., was born Oct. 10, 1841, in Kentucky. He is president of the First National bank.

Masterson, Kate, journalist and author of New York City, was born 1870, in Newburgh, N.Y. She is the author of the Dobleys and other works.

Matchett, Charles Horatio, electrician and statesman of 163 Sixth ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 15, 1843, in Needham, Mass. He is prominent in the socialist-labor party.

Matchett, John Keenan, banker of Pierceton, Ind., was born Sept. 10, 1871, in Pierceton, Ind. He is president of the People's bank.

Mather, Alonzo Clark, manufacturer and inventor of 122 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in Fairfield, N.Y. He is president of the Mather Stock Car company.

Mather, Frederic Gregory, journalist and author of Hartford, Conn., was born Aug. 11, 1844, in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1897 he was special Albany correspondent of various newspapers.

Mather, Robert, lawyer and railroad president of Chicago, Ill., was born July 1, 1859, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Since 1904 he has been president of Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway.

Mather, Samuel, banker and capitalist of Cleveland, Ohio, was born July 13, 1851, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is senior member of the firm of Pickands, Mather and company, miners and dealers in iron ore and coal. He is president of the Verona Mining company; president of the Huron Barge company; president of the Hemlock River Mining company; and is connected with over twenty-five other business corporations and enterprises. He is president of the Lakeside hospital of Cleveland; and president of the children's aid society.

Mather, Thomas E., real estate broker and banker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 20, 1856, in Illinois. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' State bank.

Mather, William, banker of Winsdor Locks, Conn., was born Feb. 27, 1849, in Winsdor Locks, Conn. He is president of the Winsdor Locks Trust and Safe Deposit company.

Mathes, Edward T., educator and historian of Bellingham, Wash., was born Aug. 9, 1866, in Fulton, Mich. He is now principal of the Washington state normal school.

Matheson, William John, merchant and manufacturing chemist of 184 Front st., New York City, was born in Elkhorn, Wis. He is president of William J. Matheson and company, limited, and of Five-forty Park Avenue and a director of other corporations.

Mathews, Albert G., farmer, lawyer and banker of Grantsville, W.Va., was born July 31, 1872, in McFarlan, W.Va. He is president of the Bank of Grantsville.

Mathews, Arthur Frank, painter and artist of 670 Fells st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Oct. 1, 1860, in Wisconsin. He is now managing editor of Philopolis, a magazine.

Mathews, Charles Thompson, architect and author of 381 Fourth ave., New York City, was born March 31, 1863, in Paris, France. He was educated at Yale and at the Columbia school of mines, receiving the degrees of A.B., A.M. and Ph.B.; and studied architecture in Paris. In 1891 he won the competition for remodeling the Church of the Holy Trinity of New York City; and has won in various competitions with competitors from all parts of the world. He is the author of The Renaissance Under the Valois; and The Story of Architecture.

Mathews, Ferdinand Schuyler, artist and author of 17 Frost st., Cambridge, Mass.,was born May 30, 1854, in New Brighton, N.Y. He is the author of the Golden Flower and other works.

Mathews, Frances Aymar, dramatist and author of 418 West One Hundred and Eighteenth st., New York City, was born in New York City. She is the author of One Man in Ten Thousand and other works.

Mathews, John Lathrop, journalist and author of Billerick, Mass., was born Jan. 10, 1874, in Evanston, Ill. He is the author of Remaking of the Mississippi.

Mathews, Joseph McDowell, physician, surgeon and author of 924 Fourth ave., Louisville, Ky., was born May 29, 1847, in Newcastle, Ky. He is the author of Mathews on Diseases of the Rectum.

Mathews, Mason, banker of Lewisburg, W. Va., was born June 29, 1867, in Christiansburg, Va. He is president of the Bank of Lewisburg.

Mathews, Shailer, educator and author of 5736 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, was born May 26, 1863, in Portland, Maine. He is professor of New Testament history and interpretation in the university of Chicago.

Mathews, William Burdette, lawyer and public official of Charleston, W.Va., was born Aug. 27, 1866, in Marshall county, W.Va. He has been a member of the city council; and in 1900 was a presidential elector.

Mathews, William G., banker of Clifton Forge, Va., was born Jan. 7, 1866, in Rockbridge county, Va. He is president of the Clifton Forge bank.

Mathieu, James Arthur, lumberman and banker of Fort Francisco, Ontario, Canada, was born Aug. 21, 1869, in Alma, Wis. His life has been spent principally in the lumber business. He is vice-president of the Shevlin-Mathieu Lumber company of Spooner, Minn., and various other corporations.

Mathison, George J., real estate dealer and banker of 1306 Market st., Wheeling, W.Va., was born July 13, 1857, in Wheeling, W.Va. He is president of the Quarter Savings bank.

Matile, Leon Albert, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 28, 1844, in Switzerland. In 1863-1903 he was continuously in the military service of the United States army.

Matson, Clifton A., statesman of Wichita, Kan., was born Sept. 19, 1874, in Harrisonville, Ohio. He was educated at the state university of Missouri and at the state university of Kansas. He has attained success in the practice of law; and is prominently identified with the republican party. He is a representative in the Kansas state legislature.

Matson, Courtland C., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Greencastle, Ind., was born April 25, 1841, in Brookville, Ind. For three terms he served as prosecuting attorney at Greencastle.

Matson, Roderick Nathaniel, jurist of Cheyenne, Wyo., was born Nov. 1, 1871, in Floridaville, N.Y. In 1906 he was elected judge of the first judicial district of Wyoming.

Matson, William, capitalist of 268 Market st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Oct. 18, 1849, in Sweden. He was a captain on San Francisco bay; and built the Emma Claudina in 1882 to run to the Sandwich Islands, which was the beginning of the Matson Navigation company, of which he is now president. He was one of the builders of the pipe line from Gaviota to the Santa Maria oil fields. He is president of the Honolulu Consolidated Oil company, president of the Commercial Petroleum company, president of the Atlas Wonder Mining company. He has been president of the chamber of commerce; and consul to Sweden.

Matteson, Charles, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 112 Prospect st., Providence, R.I., was born March 21, 1840, in Coventry, R.I. In 1891-1900 he was chief justice of the supreme court of Rhode Island.

Matteson, Halsey H., educator and linguist of 2102 Sunnyside ave., was born in 1866, in Ohio. Since 1900 he has had an active interest in the educational work of the Chicago central young men's christian association.

Matthews, A. J., college president of Temple, Ariz., was born in 1860 in Cazenovia, N. Y. He was educated in the public schools and colleges of his native state. He has been city superintendent of schools in New York, Wyoming and Arizona; has been a member of the Arizona territorial board of education; a member of the national educational council; and director of the national educational association. Since 1898 he has been president of the Temple normal school of Arizona.

Matthews, Charles D., farmer and banker of Sikeston, Mo., was born Jan. 11, 1843, in New Madrid county, Mo. He is president of the Bank of Sikeston.

Matthews, Charles Philo, electrical engineer, physicist and author of Lafayette, Ind., was born Sept. 18, 1867, in Fort Covington, N.Y. He is the author of several monographs on subjects of an electrical nature.

Matthews, Charles Pooley, merchant and capitalist of 112 Adams st., Scranton, Pa., was born in 1836 in England. He is president of the Clark and Snover Tobacco company and a director of other corporations.

Matthews, Franklin, journalist and author of 33 Van Buren st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born May 14, 1858, in St. Joseph, Mich. He is the author of Our Navy in Time of War; and the New-Born Cuba.

Matthews, George Bagby, painter and artist of Washington, D.C., was born June 13, 1857, in Tappahannock, Va. His principal work is Lee and His Generals.

Matthews, George Edward, editor of 179 Washington st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born March 17, 1855. He is editor of the Buffalo Express; and president of the Matthews-Northrup works, printers and publishers.

Matthews, Joseph Merritt, educator, chemist and author of 320 South Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 9, 1874, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Textile Fibers and other works.

Matthews, Leonard, retired banker and broker of 300 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 17, 1828, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president of the Hannibel Water company.

Matthews, Matthew Clement, lawyer and jurist of Dubuque, Iowa, was born in Dubuque, Iowa. He was president of the Iowa state fish and game protective association. Since 1899 he has been judge of the district court of Iowa.

Matthews, Nathan, lawyer and author of 456 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born March 28, 1854, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of City Government of Boston.

Matthews, Paul, clergyman and dean of 226 West Seventh st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Dec. 25, 1866, in Glendale, Ohio. In 1891-95 he was in charge of St. Paul's and St. John's churches of Omaha, Neb.

Matthews, Thomas B., capitalist of Selma, Cal., was born June 19, 1858, in Salem, Mich. He is president of the Lemoore Lumber company.

Matthews, William Baynham, journalist, lawyer and author of 1420 New York ave., Washington, D.C., was born July, 1850, in Lynchburg, Va. In 1883-89 he was chief of the preemption division of the United States general land office.

Matthews, William Charles, lawyer and author of Denver, Col., was born April 2, 1859, in Cornwall, England. He is the author of a work entitled Colorado Probate Practice.

Mattis, Ross R., banker of Champaign, Ill., was born in 1849 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Tewett-Mattis Banking company.

Mattison, Fitch C. E., physician and surgeon of Pasadena, Cal., was born May 4, 1861, in Louisville, Ky. His ancestors fought in the Indian, revolutionary, Mexican and civil wars. In 1888-98 he practiced in Chicago and since 1898 in Pasadena. He has been public health commissioner and president of the Los Angeles county medical association, the Southern California medical association and the California state medical association. He has also been president of the clinical and pathological society of America.

Mattison, Richard Vanselous, manufacturer and banker of Ambler, Pa., was born Nov. 17, 1851, in Solebury township, Pa. He is president of the First National bank of Ambler and various other corporations.

Mattocks, Charles Porter, soldier, lawyer and jurist of 17 Lewis st., Portland, Maine, was born Oct. 11, 1840, in Danville, Vt. For seven years he was judge of the probate court of Cumberland county, Maine.

Matz, Nicholas, clergyman and bishop of 1536 Logan ave., Denver, Col., was born April 6, 1850, in Alsace-Lorraine. In 1887 he was nominated for coadjutor of Bishop Machebeuf of Colorado.

Matzen, Herman N., sculptor and designer of 6702 Lucerne ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born July 15, 1861, in Denmark. He has designed the group entitled War and Peace for the Indianapolis soldiers and sailors' and many other patriotic monuments.

Mauck, Joseph William, educator and college president of Hillsdale, Mich., was born Aug. 17, 1852, in Cheshire, Ohio. Since 1902 he has been president of the Hillsdale college in Michigan.

Mauger, Daniel L., farmer, real estate dealer and banker of Baltimore, Ohio, was born March 16, 1847, in Pottstown, Pa. He is president and treasurer of the Orchard Island Improvement company.

Maurer, Edward Rose, educator, civil engineer and author of Madison, Wis., was born Feb. 18, 1869, in Fountain City, Wis. He is the author of Technical Mechanics and other works.

Maurice, Arthur Bartlett, editor of New York City, was born April 10, 1873, in Rahway, N.J. Since 1906 he has been joint editor of The Bookman.

Maury, John William Draper, physician, surgeon and author of 264 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Aug. 21, 1871, in New York City. He is the author of Surgical Differentials.

Maus, Marion P., soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 25, 1850, in Maryland. He has attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Maute, Andrew, journalist and statesman of Reno, Nev., was born June 28, 1844, in France. He is a member of the board of honorary visitors of the Nevada state university; and takes an active part in public affairs.

Mauzy, Byron, merchant, manufacturer and importer of 250 Stockton st., San Francisco, Cal., was born March 31, 1860, in Rushville, Ind. Since 1884 he has been a manufacturer and importer of pianos. He was a candidate for mayor of San Francisco in 1907; and supervisor in 1911-13. He has been vice-president of the young men's christian association, and for five years was treasurer and director of the merchants' association.

Maxey, Edward Ernest, physician and author of Boise, Idaho, was born Aug. 21, 1867, in Irvington, Ill. He is the author of a number of scientific papers notably on Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever.

Maxey, Edwin, lecturer, lawyer, college president and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born Oct. 26, 1869, in Royal, Pa. He is the author of Some Questions of Larger Politics and other works.

Maxey, John J., capitalist of 1219 East Adams, Los Angeles, Cal., was born June 14, 1839, in Tipperary, Ireland. He is engaged in orange culture; and is president of the J. J. Maxey corporation.

Maxey, Thomas S., soldier, jurist and statesman of Austin, Texas, was born Sept. 1, 1846, in Brandon, Miss. Since 1888 he has been United States district judge for the western district of Texas.

Maxim, Florence, musician and composer of Hyde Park, Mass., was born June 4, 1873, in Brooklyn, N.Y. She has composed the pianoforte music entitled Ten Little Tonal Fancies and other works.

Maxim, Hiram Percy, inventor and mechanical engineer of Hartford, Conn., was born Sept. 2, 1869, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the Maxim Silent Firearms company of Hartford, Conn.

Maxim, Hiram Stevens, mechanic and inventor of London, England, was born Feb. 5, 1840, in Sangerville, Maine. He has invented a smokeless powder.

Maxim, Hudson, mechanical engineer and inventor of 698 St. Marks ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 3, 1853, in Orneville, Maine. He is the inventor of improvements in smokeless powder grains and safety detonating fuses.

Maxon, John R., soldier, lawyer and jurist of Minden, Neb., was born Oct. 16, 1847, in Grand View, Iowa. He is now department commander, department of Nebraska grand army of the republic.

Maxon, Frederick, musician and composer of 1003 North Forty-seventh st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 13, 1862, in Beverly, N.J. He is the author of a considerable number of church services.

Maxwell, A. E., banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born March 15, 1867, in Lincoln, Ill. He is president of the National bank of commerce.

Maxwell, Evelyn Croom, lawyer and jurist of Pensacola, Fla., was born July 27, 1863, in Alabama. In 1902-04 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Florida.

Maxwell, Francis Taylor, manufacturer of Rockville, Conn., was born Jan. 4, 1861, in Rockville, Conn. He is president of the Hockanum Mills company; has been a state senator and representative.

Maxwell, James Willard, banker and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born in 1864 in Iowa. He has been a member of the Washington state legislature. He is president of the National City bank and other corporations.

Maxwell, John Mills, lawyer and jurist of 1432 Gaylord st., Denver, Col., was born March 23, 1849, in Mansfield, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been judge of the supreme court of Colorado.

Maxwell, Lawrence, lecturer and lawyer of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born May 4, 1853, in Scotland. Since 1896 he has been a lecturer in the law department of the university of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Maxwell, Perriton, journalist and author of 104 West Eighty-fourth st., New York City, was born Jan. 11, 1866, in New York City. He is the author of Masterpieces of Art and Nature.

Maxwell, William, manufacturer and capitalist of Rockville, Conn., was born Dec. 7, 1862, in Rockville, Conn. He has been city assessor, chairman of the high school committee and trustee and secretary of the Rockville public library. He is a successful woolen manufacturer: president of the Savings bank of Rockville; and treasurer and director of various corporations.

Maxwell, William Henry, educator, journalist and author of 500 Park ave., New York City, was born March 5, 1852, in Ireland. In 1906 he became city superintendent of schools of New York City.

May, Calvin Sloane, physician of 205 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born June 1, 1848, in Naugatuck, Conn. He has been superintendent of the state hospital for the insane at Danvers.

May, Mrs. Celeste, lecturer and poet of Nelson, Neb., was born Oct. 20, 1850, in Lee county, Iowa. She is the author of a volume of poems entitled Sounds of the Prairie.

May, Charles Henry, physician, oculist and author of 698 Madison ave., New York City, was born Aug. 7, 1861, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Manual of Diseases of the Eye.

May, Charles Henry, banker of Clio, Mich., was born May 8, 1846, in Columbus, Ontario. He is head of the firm of Charles H. May and company, bankers.

May, Edna, actress of London, England, was born in 1875, in Syracuse, N.Y. She has played leading roles in the Belle of New York and many other productions.

May, Ernest Heath, banker of Pasadena, Cal., was born Oct. 16, 1859, in Washington, D.C. He is president of the First National bank of Pasadena.

May, John Albert, retired farmer and banker of Dickey, N.D., was born Jan. 6, 1858, in England. He is president of the Dickey State bank.

May, Thomas J., physician and author of Lebanon, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1846, in Lebanon county, Pa. He is the author of Pulmonary Consumption, a Nervous Disease.

May, William Augustus, musician, composer, author and poet of 195 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 9, 1850, in Lackawaxen, Pa. He is a successful teacher and director of choirs.

May, William B., physician and surgeon of 184 North Allen st., Albany, N.Y., was born March 7, 1858, in Toronto, N.Y. He graduated from the university of Buffalo; in 1898-1910 was milk inspector of the city of Buffalo; and in 1901-10 was also diagnostician in smallpox and other communicable diseases. Since 1910 he has been director of the division of communicable diseases in the New York state department of health at Albany.

Mayberry, Henry Hunter, railway owner and banker of Nashville, Tenn., was born in 1863, in Williamson county, Tenn. He is president of the Fidelity Securities corporation.

Maybury, William C., lawyer and statesman of 233 West blvd., Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 20, 1849, in Detroit, Mich. In 1897-1905 he was mayor of his city.

Mayer, Alfred Goldsborough, curator and scientist of Maplewood, N.J., was born on April 16, 1868, in Frederick, Md. Since 1905 he has been a director of Tortugas laboratory of the Carnegie institution.

Mayer, Caspar, sculptor and artist of New York City, was born Dec. 21, 1871, in Bavaria. He has completed many busts, including the Abenaki, and many other figures.

Mayer, Henry, caricaturist and artist of 128 Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born July 18, 1868, in Germany. He has illustrated the Real New York and other works.

Mayer, J. B., banker of Corcoran, Cal., was born March 21, 1863, in Superior, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

Mayer, John Frederick, farmer and capitalist of Richfield, Wis., was born Nov. 10, 1866, in Richfield, Wis. He is president of the Farmers' Supply company.

Mayer, Oscar Joseph, physician and surgeon of San Francisco, Cal., was born May 23, 1865, in Germany. Since 1892 he has been practicing medicine; and is attending surgeon at the King's daughters home for incurables at San Francisco, Cal.

Mayer, William G., lawyer of Waterville, N.Y., was born Aug. 15, 1850, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He served in the United States navy as midshipman, ensign and master, resigning in 1875; and served in the Spanish-American war as lieutenant in the United States navy. He practiced law in Cincinnati until 1890; and since then in Waterville, N.Y.

Mayes, Edward, educator, lawyer and author of Jackson, Miss., was born on Dec. 15, 1846, in Hinds county, Miss. He is the author of the Life, Times and Speeches of Lucius, O. C. Lamar and other works.

Mayes, Robert Burns, lawyer and jurist of Hazlehurst, Miss., was born June 28, 1867, in Gallatin, Miss. Since 1906 he has been justice of the supreme court of Mississippi.

Mayfield, Reuben Newton, lecturer, physician and surgeon of Cripple Creek, Col., was born on Jan. 13, 1859, in Bedford, Ind. For many years he was major and surgeon at the first Colorado regiment.

Mayfield, William DeLorraine, banker of 508 Franklin st., Waco, Texas, was born on Dec. 1, 1837, in Greenville, S.C. He is president of the National City bank.

Maynard, Fred A., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Jan. 20, 1852, in Ann Arbor, Mich. In 1894 he became attorney-general of the state.

Maynard, George Willoughby, painter and artist of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born March 5, 1843, in Washington, D.C. In 1885 he became a member of the national academy of design.

Maynard, Isaac N., retired railroad official of 284 Genesee st., Utica, N.Y., was born on May 6, 1849, in Utica. He is a director of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburgh railway.

Maynard, James, manufacturer and capitalist of Knoxville, Tenn., was born July 15, 1853, in Knoxville, Tenn. He is president of the Brookside mills.

Maynard, Mila Tupper, clergyman, lecturer and author of 5088 Tennyson st., Denver, Col., was born Jan. 26, 1864, in Brighton, Iowa. She is the author of Walt Whitman, Poet of the Wider Selfhood.

Maynard, Samuel Taylor, landscape architect, botanist and author of Northborough, Mass., was born Dec. 6, 1844, in Hardwick, Mass. He is the author of Practical Fruit Grower and other works.

Maynard, Washburn, naval officer of Narragansett Pier, R.I., was born Dec. 5, 1844, in Knoxville, Tenn. In 1900 he was promoted captain; and commanded the Nashville during the Spanish-American war.

Mayo, Earl Williams, journalist and author of 26 East Twenty-first st., New York City, was born May 5, 1873, in Springville, N.Y. He is the author of A Border Rivalry.

Mayo, Hamilton, banker of Leominster, Mass., was born Feb. 26, 1851, in Westminster, Mass. He graduated from Dartmouth and the Albany law school. In 1875 he began the practice of law in Leominster; and since 1884 has been president of the Leominster National bank.

Mayo, Harry Nathaniel, physician and surgeon of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Sept. 10, 1867, in Washington, La. He has received the degrees of B.S. and M.D. He is medical director and third vice-president of the Continental Life Insurance and Investment company. He has been past grand commander of the grand commandery of the Utah Knights Templar; and president of the Salt Lake medical society.

Mayo, William James, surgeon of Rochester, Minn., was born June 29, 1861, in LeSueur, Minn. He has received the degrees of M.D., A.M., F.R.C.S., LL.D. and D.Sc.; and is a member of the leading medical and scientific societies. He has been president of the Minnesota state medical society. He is now surgeon to St. Mary's hospital.

Mayo, William Leonidis, educator and college president of Commerce, Texas, was born Nov. 3, 1861, in Prestonsburg, Ky. He has been a teacher in the public schools of Kentucky; principal of the Cedar Bluff high school; and superintendent of Cooper public schools. For the past twenty-five years he has been proprietor and president of the East Texas normal college, which has an enrollment of fourteen hundred pupils annually.

Mays, Dannitte Hill, farmer and statesman of Monticello, Fla., was born April 28, 1852, in Madison, Florida. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Mazet, Robert, lawyer and statesman of 257 Broadway, New York City, was born on May 15, 1857, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1897-99 he served as a member of the New York state legislature.

Mazyck, William Gaillard, soldier and historian of 56 Montague st., Charleston, S.C., was born Oct. 12, 1846, in Cordesville, S.C. He was a historian of the Huguenot society of South Carolina, and librarian of the Charleston library society.

McAdams, Clark, editorial writer and author of 5836 Cates ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 29, 1874, in Jersey county, Ill. He is the author of Archaeology of Illinois and is president of the St. Louis artists' guild.

McAden, Henry Murphey, banker and capitalist of Charlotte, N.C., was born Jan. 16, 1873, in Charlotte, N.C. He is president of the Piedmont Fire Insurance company.

McAdie, Alexander George, educator, meteorologist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 4, 1864, in New York City. Since 1903 he has been professor of meteorology at the United States weather bureau. He is the author of the Climatology of California and other works.

McAdoo, Mrs. Mary Faith, litterateur and author of Knoxville, Tenn., was born Sept.

8, 1832, in Camden county, Ga. She is the author of The Nereid and other works.

McAdoo, William, lawyer, statesman and author of 210 West Fifty-seventh st., New York City, was born Oct. 25, 1853, in Ireland. In 1881-91 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Guarding a Great House.

McAdoo, William Gibbs, lawyer and railroad president of 30 Church st., New York City, was born Oct. 31, 1863, in Marietta, Ga. Since 1902 he has been president of the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad company.

McAfee, Cleland Boyd, clergyman and author of 175 South Oxford st., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Sept. 25, 1866, in Fulton, Mo. He is the author of Where He is and other works.

McAfee, Lowell Mason, educator and college president of Fairfield, Iowa, was born June 6, 1860, in Fulton, Mo. For twenty-three years he was president of Park college of Missouri; and since 1913 has been president of Parsons college at Fairfield.

McAleer, Owen, capitalist of 3817 South Main st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Feb. 3, 1858, in Canada. He has been mayor of Los Angeles. He is president of the Copper company and other corporations.

McAleer, William, merchant and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 6, 1838, in Ireland. He has been a member of congress.

McAlister, William King, lawyer and jurist of Nashville, Tenn., was born on July 4, 1850, in Nashville, Tenn. Since 1893 he has been judge of the supreme court of Tennessee.

McAllister, Addams Stratton, editor, inventor and author of 239 West Thirty-ninth st., New York City, was born Feb. 24, 1875, in Covington, Va. He has received the degrees of B.S., E.E., M.M.E. and Ph.d. He was an instructor and assistant professor of electrical engineering in Cornell university, and is now editor of the Electrical World of New York City. He is the inventor of alternating current machinery. He is the author of Alternating Current Motors and other works.

McAllister, Charles, physician, surgeon and banker of Spencer, Iowa, was born Feb. 1, 1840, in South Lee, Mass. He is president of the First National bank.

McAllister, Donald, merchant and statesman of Diamondville, Wyo., was born Oct. 16, 1859, in Scotland. He is a member of the state legislature and is postmaster of his city.

McAllister, James Rutherford, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1863 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Franklin National bank and a director of other corporations.

McAllister, Ward, lawyer and jurist of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 27, 1855, in Newport, R.I. In 1884-94 was judge of the United States court for Alaska.

McAlvay, Aaron Vance, lawyer and jurist of Lansing, Mich., was born July 19, 1847, in Ann Arbor, Mich. Since 1904 he has been an associate judge of the state supreme court of Michigan.

McAnally, Milton A., stockman and statesman of Fort Fred Steele, Wyo., was born on March 30, 1870, in Missouri. He has been a member of the state legislature.

McAndrews, James, statesman of 858 Washington blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 22, 1862, in Woonsocket, R.I. He has been a member of congress.

McArthur, L.L., lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore. In 1870-78 he was an associate justice of the supreme court of Oregon.

McArthur, Louis Baldwin, lawyer and banker of Lansing, Mich., was born July 7, 1872, in Leslie, Mich. He is president of the Farmers' bank.

McAshan, James Everett, banker of 1607 Main st., Houston, Texas, was born Oct. 20, 1857, in Fayette county, Texas. For nearly twenty years he was connected with the banking firm of T. W. House; and since 1908 has been vice-president of the South Texas National bank. He is also president of the Merchants' and Planters' Oil company; and a director of the Houston Printing company. He has been president of the Texas banking association; and president of the Houston clearing house association.

McAuliff, Cornelius, journalist and founder of 319 Forty-sixth st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1850, in Ireland. Since 1885 he has been managing editor of the Record-Herald.

McAuliffe, Eugene, railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 3, 1866, in London, England. Since 1884 he has been in railway service from shop apprentice to locomotive engineer and road foreman. In 1910-11 he was general fuel agent of the St.Louis and San Francisco railroad and president of the Brazil Block Coal company. Since 1911 he has been general coal agent of the Frisco lines.

McAuslan, John, merchant and founder of Providence, R.I., was born Aug. 10, 1835, in Scotland. In 1866 he established the Boston Store.

McBee, V. E., railroad official of Atlanta, Ga., was born in July, 1849, in Greenville, S.C. In 1901-03 he was fourth vice-president of the Seaboard Air Line railroad.

McBeth, Robert C., lawyer and jurist of Clinton, Mo., was born Oct. 4, 1838, in Harrison county, Ohio. He has been mayor of his city.

McBride, George W., merchant, lawyer and statesman of Portland, Ore., was born March 13, 1854, in Yamhill county, Ore. In 1895-1901 he was United States senator.

McBride, Henry, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born in February, 1856, in Utah. In 1900 he was elected lieutenant-governor of Washington.

McBryde, John McLaren, educator, college president and scientist of Blacksburg, Va., was born Jan. 1, 1841, in Abbeville, S.C. In 1901-07 he was president of the Virginia polytechnic institute.

McBurney, Charles, educator,physician and surgeon of 38 East Thirty-first st.,New York City, was born Feb. 17, 1845, in Roxbury, Mass. Since 1896 he has been professor of clinical surgery at the college of physicians and surgeons.

McCabe, Daniel Trigg, railroad official of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Nov. 25, 1849, in Abingdon, Virginia. Since 1907 he has been fourth vice-president of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad.

McCabe,Joseph, railroad official of St.Paul, Minn., was born on Dec. 25, 1855, in Cold Springs, Wis. In 1898-1906 he was vice-president of the Washington and Columbia River railroad.

McCabe, Lida Rose, journalist,lecturer and author of New York City, was born March 3, 1865, in Columbus, Ohio. In 1889-90 she was Paris correspondent for the American press association. She is the author of The American Girl at College and other works.

McCabe, Louis Eugene, railway official of Mattoon, Ill., was born Aug. 12, 1867, in Rochester, Iowa. In 1881 he entered railway service as telegraph operator; and has filled positions with various railroads; in 1886-92 was train dispatcher for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway; in 1892-1901 was train dispatcher for the Texas and Pacific railway; and in 1901-03 was chief train dispatcher for the Southern railway. In 1903-11 he was train dispatcher, chief dispatcher, traveling chief dispatcher and trainmaster of the Illinois Central railroad; and since 1911 has been superintendent of the Indiana division of that road.

McCabe, Rudolph Taylor, railroad president of Duluth, Minn., was born April 4, 1847, in Duncansville, Pa. He has been president of the Iron Structural Steel company and other corporations.

McCabe, William Gordon, soldier, educator and author of Richmond, Va., was born on Aug. 4, 1841, in Richmond, Va. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain of the artillery. In 1905-07 he was commissioner and director of the Jamestown expedition. He is the author of The Defence of Petersburg and other works.

McCabe,William Robbins, farmer and banker of Selbyville, Del., was born on June 25, 1889, in Selbyville, Del. He is president of the Selbyville National bank. He has been a state legislator.

McCaffrey, James Dabney, author and poet of Richmond, Va., was born July 30, 1840, in Richmond, Va. He is the author of Planting the Wilderness and other works.

McCagg, Ezra Butler, soldier and lawyer of 67 Cass st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 22, 1825, in Kinderhook, N.Y. He was president of the Northwestern sanitary commission during the civil war.

McCain, George Knox, journalist, lecturer and author of 4008 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 27, 1856, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1895-99 he was lieutenant-colonel on the military staff of Governor Hastings. He is the author of The Crimson Dice and other works.

McCaleb, Thomas, lawyer and author of New Orleans, La., was born Dec. 31, 1870, in New Orleans, La. He is the author of the Louisiana Book.

McCaleb, Walter Flavius, banker and author of San Antonio, Texas, was born Oct. 17, 1872, in Benton, Texas. He is president of the West Texas Bank and Trust company. He is the author of The Aaron Burr Conspiracy and other works.

McCall, Edward Everett, lawyer and jurist of 321 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born Jan. 6, 1863, in Albany, N.Y. He is a justice of the New York State supreme court for the term ending in 1916.

McCall,Henry, planter and merchant of Assumptionville Parish, La., was born April 28, 1847, in Assumptionville Parish, La. He is president of the Louisiana sugar planters' association.

McCall, John Chapman, insurance president of 346 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 24, 1875, in Albany, N.Y. He was educated at the Phillips Exeter academy, and received the degree of A.B. from Harvard college. In 1889 he entered the employ of the New York Life Insurance company as clerk, and became recorder, assistant secretary, secretary and second vice-president. He is also a director of the National Surety company. He is a member of the merchants' club and various other clubs and societies.

McCall, John Etheridge, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Lexington, Tenn., was born on Aug. 14, 1859, in Clarksburg, Tenn. Since 1905 he has been United States district judge for Western Tennessee. He is president of the bank of Lexington.

McCall, Samuel Walker, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Winchester, Mass., was born on Feb. 28, 1851, in East Providence, Pa. In 1893-1911 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Thaddeus Stevens and other works.

McCall, Thomas, rancher and banker of Eden, Texas, was born in 1856 in Scotland. He is president of the Eden State bank.

McCalla, Albert, educator, clergyman and manufacturer of Emporia, Kans., was born Dec. 1, 1846, in Bloomington, Ind. He has been professor of mathematics and astronomy at Lake Forest university.

McCalla, Bowman Hendry, naval officer of Santa Barbara, Cal., was born on June 19, 1844, in Camden, N.J. In 1903-06 he commanded the navy yard at Mare Island, Cal.

McCalmont, David B., lawyer and statesman of Franklin, Pa., was born Dec. 1, 1876. He is a successful lawyer and journalist; and in 1905-09 was chairman of the prohibition state committee of Pennsylvania. He is general manager of the Venango Printing company; and prominently identified with the business and public affairs of his community.

McCalmont, John S., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Franklin, Pa., was born April 12, 1822, in Franklin, Pa. In 1885 he was appointed commissioner of customs in the United States treasury department.

McCamant, Wallace, lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore., was born Sept. 22, 1867, in Hollidaysburg, Pa. He is master in chancery of the United States court for Oregon.

McCampbell, James Boyd, banker of Goliad, Texas, was born June 19, 1877, in Rockport, Texas. He is president of the Commercial National bank.

McCandless, John A., capitalist of Honolulu, Hawaii, was born June 11, 1853, in Pennsylvania. He has been a member of the state senate. He is president of the Hawaii Electric company.

McCanna, Charles B., manufacturer and banker of Burlington, Wis., was born in 1851, in New York. He is president of the Burlington Land and Improvement company.

McCants, Elliott Crayton, educator and author of Anderson, S.C., was born Sept. 2, 1865, in Ninety-six, S.C. He is the author of In the Red Hills.

McCardell, Roy Larcom, journalist and author of New Rochelle, N.Y., was born June 30, 1870, in Hagerstown, Md. He is now on the staff of the World of New York City. He is the author of The Skyscraper and other works.

McCarter, Robert Harris, lawyer and jurist of 1080 A Broad st., Newark, N.J., was born April 28, 1859, in Newton, N.J. Since 1905 he has been attorney-general for the state of New Jersey.

McCarthy, Carlton, soldier, journalist, public official and author of 1302 Park ave., Richmond, Va., was born in August, 1847, in Richmond, Va. He served in the civil war. In 1904-08 he was mayor of his city. He is the author of Walks About Richmond and other works.

McCarthy, Charles, lecturer, librarian and author of Madison, Wis., was born in 1873, in Brockton, Mass. Since 1901 he has been legislative librarian for Wisconsin. He is the author of Anti-Masonic Party.

McCarthy, Charles Hallan, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1860, in Franklin, N.J. Since 1904 he has been professor of American history at the Catholic university of America. He is the author of Lincoln's Plan of Reconstruction.

McCarthy, Cornelius G., stockraiser and banker of Ames, Iowa, was born on Jan. 29, 1843, in Canada. In 1892 he was elected auditor of the state of Iowa.

McCarthy, Denis Aloysius, journalist and author of 35 Pico ave., Winthrop Mass., was born July 25, 1871, in Ireland. He is the author of A Round of Rhymes and other works.

McCarthy, Edward, banker and financier of Galveston, Texas, was born Oct. 15, 1857, in Galveston, Texas. Since 1890 he has been president of the American National bank.

McCarthy, John Henry, merchant, lawyer and statesman of New York City, was born Nov. 16, 1850, in New York City. In 1889-91 he was a member of congress.

McCarthy, John Jay, lawyer and statesman of Ponoa, Neb., was born July 19, 1857, in Stoughton, Wis. In 1903-07 he was a member of congress.

McCartney, Thomas Benton, educator, lecturer and author of Lexington, Ky., was born on Aug. 16, 1875, in New Castle, Va. Since 1906 he has been professor of Greek in the university of Lexington, Ky. He is the author of The Use of Pronouns in Oratio Obliqua.

McCarty, Allen, railroad official of Albany, N.Y., was born Aug. 31, 1880, in Kansas City, Mo. He entered railway service in 1898, and has held various clerical positions to general agent and auditor. Since 1910 he has been general auditor of the Delaware and Hudson company and allied railroads, electric tractions, steamboat and hotel companies at Albany.

McCarty, Charles, capitalist of Lowell, Mich., was born May 19, 1846, in Gault, Canada. He is president of the Lowell State bank.

McCarty, Richard Justin, railroad official of Kansas City, Mo., was born on March 12, 1851, in Clarksburg, W.Va. Since 1906 he has been vice-president of the Kansas City Southern railroad.

McCarty, William Murdock, lawyer and jurist of 1053 Third st., Salt Lake City, Utah, was born May 15, 1859, in Alpine, Utah. Since 1902 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Utah.

McCaskey, George W., physician and surgeon of Bloomington, Ind., was born Nov. 9, 1853, in Delta, Ohio. He has been a president of the Indiana state medical society. He is professor of medicine in the medical school of the Indiana university.

McCaskey, William Spencer, soldier of St. Paul, Minn., was born Oct. 2, 1843, in Lancaster county, Pa. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major-general.

McCauley, Charles Adam Hoke, soldier, inventor and author of Washington, D.C., was born July 13, 1847, in Middletown, Md. Since 1909 he has been manager of the Pittsburgh storage and supply depot. He is the author of Region of Texas and other works.

McCauley, William Fletcher, clergyman and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Dec. 6, 1858, in West Salem, Ohio. In 1893-1906 he was president of the Lebanon university. He is the author of The Bible in Story and other works.

McCausland, William Clifton, business president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 9, 1861, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is treasurer and director of the Carnegie Steel company and other corporations.

McCaw, Walter Drew, major and surgeon of Washington, D.C., was born on Feb. 10, 1863, in Richmond, Va. He is instructor in tropical medicine in the army medical school.

McChesney,Dora Greenwell, litterateur and author of Gloucestershire, England, was born Oct. 1, 1871, in Chicago. She is the author of Kathleen Clare and other works.

McChesney, Robert Watson,journalist and merchant of San Francisco, Cal., was born Aug. 17, 1831, in New York City. He served throughout the civil war.

McChesney, W. S., college president of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 5, 1866, in Cynthia, Ky. He was educated at the Transylvania university of Kentucky. In 1879 he entered railway service, and became traveling passenger agent of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad; and general agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Lexington, and superintendent of that road at St. Louis. He became vice-president and general manager, and since 1903 president and general manager of the Terminal railroad association of St. Louis.

McClain, Emlin, lawyer, jurist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born Nov. 26, 1851, in Salem, Ohio. In 1894 he was commissioner for Iowa. He is the author of A Treatise on the Criminal Law as Now Administered in the United States and other works.

McClary, Nelson Alvin,merchant and business president of 126 Home ave., Oak Park, Ill., was born Aug. 17, 1856, in Albany, N. Y. Since 1901 he has been president of the Northwestern Gas and Coke company. He is also president of the American gas institute.

McClaughry, Robert Wilson, soldier and federal official of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., was born July 22, 1839, in Fountain Green, Ill. Since 1899 he has been warden of the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth.

McCleary,James Thompson,educator,statesman and author of Mankato, Minn., was born Feb. 5, 1853, in Canada. In 1893-1907 he was a member of congress. He is the author of Studies in Civics and other works.

McClellan, George, statesman of Chatham, N.Y., was born Oct. 10, 1856, in Schodack, N.Y. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

McClellan, George, journalist, lawyer and statesman of North Washington Square,New York City, was born Nov. 23, 1865, in Saxony. In 1895-1903 he was a member of congress. He has been mayor of his city. He is the author of The Oligarchy of Venice.

McClellan, George Brinton, physician and surgeon of Weir, Kan., was born Oct. 26, 1864, in Warrensburg, Mo. He is medical examiner for the New York Life and other corporations.

McClellan, John, soldier of San Diego, Cal., was born April 11, 1847, in Chicago. In 1901 he became major in the United States artillery corps; and in 1906 was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

McClellan,John Jasper,organist and founder of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born April 20, 1874, in Payson, Utah. He graduated from the university of Michigan school of music and also studied in Berlin. He was the organizer and conductor of the first large orchestra at Ann Arbor. Since 1900 he has been organist of the Mormon tabernacle, since 1902 conductor of the Salt Lake Opera company and since 1908 conductor of the Salt Lake symphony orchestra. In 1911 he founded the Utah conservatory of music. He has been state president of the National association of organists for Utah.

McClelland, James Henderson, surgeon, educator and journalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 20, 1845, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1876-77 he was a professor in the Hahnemann medical college.

McClelland, Raymond G., educator, clergyman and college president of Austinburg, Ohio, was born on Nov. 14, 1848, in Mount Jackson, Pa. He is president of the Grand River institute of Ohio.

McClelland, Thomas, educator and college president of Galesburg, Ill., was born May 1, 1846, in Ireland. Since 1900 he has been president of Knox college at Galesburg, Ill.

McClelland, Thomas Calvin,clergyman and author of 50 Seventh ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 10, 1869, in New York City. He is the author of Verba Crusis and other works.

McClelland, William, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Mount Jackson, Pa., was born March 2, 1842, in Mt. Jackson, Pa. In 1871-1883 he was a member of congress.

McClelland, Winfield Scott,banker of Eustis, Fla., was born Nov. 26, 1848, in Smithfield, Pa. He is president of the First State bank.

McClenachan. Charles Thompson, lawyer and author of New York City, was born on April 13, 1829, in Washington, D.C. He is the author of The Atlantic Cable of 1858 and other works.

McClench, William Wallace, business president of 500 Main st., Springfield, Mass., was born April 6, 1854, in Chicopee, Mass. He is president of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company.

McClernand,Edward John,soldier of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 29, 1848, in Jacksonville, Ill. Since 1906 he has commanded the first United States cavalry.

McClintock, Andrew Hamilton,lawyer and banker of 34 South River st., Wilkes Barre, Pa., was born on Dec. 12, 1852, in Wilkes Barre, Pa. He is president of the Wyoming National bank and a director of other corporations.

McClintock,John Norris,journalist and civil engineer of 89 State st., Boston, Mass., was born May 12, 1846, in Winthrop, Maine. He is president of the American Sewerage Disposal company of Boston.

McClinton, James Giles, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Port Angeles, Wash., was born Jan. 7, 1838, in Henderson county, Ill. He is superior judge at Port Angeles.

McClish, Eli, clergyman and college president of 1749 West Twenty-third st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Oct. 3, 1846, in Warren county, Ind. In 1896-1906 he was president of the university of the Pacific at College Park.

McCloskey, Hugh, merchant, financier and capitalist of 317 Baronne st., New Orleans, La., was born in Ireland. He is head of the firm of McCloskey Brothers, wholesale grocers, and is also president of the New Orleans Railway and Light company.

McCloskey, John, merchant and financier of 320 St. Charles st., New Orleans, La., was born Oct. 5, 1848, in Ireland. He is vice-president of the American Paint works.

McCluney, John Henry, banker and note broker of 411 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born March 8, 1878, in St. Louis, Mo. He is senior partner of McCluney and company.

McClung, Calvin Morgan, merchant and capitalist of 517 Locust st., Knoxville, Tenn., was born May 12, 1855, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the C. M. McClung and company.

McClung, Herbert James, banker of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Aug. 24, 1869, in Illinois. He is manager of the Phoenix National bank.

McClung, Samuel A., jurist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born on March 2, 1845, in Plum township, Pa. He is a judge of the No. 3 court of common pleas of Allegheny county.

McClung, Thomas Lee, treasurer of Washington, D.C., was born March 26, 1870, in Knoxville, Tenn. In 1904-09 he was treasurer of the United States.

McClure, Addison S., soldier, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Wooster, Ohio, was born Oct. 10, 1839, in Wooster, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He has been a member of congress.

McClure, Charles, soldier and government official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 20, 1838, in Carlisle, Pa. He served in the civil war. He is now major and paymaster, United States army at St. Louis, Mo.

McClure, James Gore King, clergyman, college president and author of 1070 North Halsted st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 24, 1848, in Albany, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been president of the theological seminary of Chicago.

McClure, Samuel Grant, journalist of Columbus, Ohio, was born Aug. 9, 1863, in Orville, Ohio. Since 1896 he has been editor-in-chief and general manager of the Ohio State Journal.

McClure, Samuel Sidney, journalist, publisher and founder of 44 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Feb. 17, 1857, in Ireland. In 1893 he founded the McClure's magazine.

McCoid, Moses Agus, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Fairfield, Iowa, was born Nov. 5, 1840, in Logan county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1879-85 he was a member of congress.

McComas, Joseph Patton, clergyman and author of Annapolis, Md., was born Sept. 19, 1870, in Hagerstown, Md. He is vice-president of the Maryland Clericus. He is the author of Letters of Travels in Egypt and the Levant and other works.

McComb, Samuel, educator, clergyman and author of 15 Newbury st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1864, in Ireland. In 1899-1904 he was professor of history at Queens university of Kingston, Canada.

McCombs, Edward Everett, lawyer and banker of 414 Hanover st., Martin's Ferry, Ohio, was born Aug. 23, 1860, in West Virginia. He is president of the German Savings bank.

McComer, William C., merchant and banker of Queenstown, Md., was born Feb. 25, 1853, in Talbot county, Md. He is president of the Queenstown bank.

McConnell, Andrew M., educator, journalist and poet of Birmingham, Ala., was born in 1873 in Blount county, Ala. He founded the McConnell library association. He is the author of a volume of poems.

McConnell, Francis John, clergyman and author of 121 New York ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Aug. 18, 1871, in Trinway, Ohio. He is the author of The Diviner Immanence.

McConnell, Frank Percy, lawyer and banker of Bonanza, Ark., was born July 1, 1870, in Union City, Tenn. He has been mayor pro tem. of Talladega, Ala. He is senior partner of the firm of McConnell and Boynton.

McConnell, Mrs. Mary Daniel, educator and poet of Atlanta, Ga., was born in Newnan, Ga. Since 1898 she has been editor of the Alkahest Magazine. She is the author of Sheave of Song and other works.

McConnell, Samuel D., clergyman and author of Easton, Md., was born in 1846 in Westmoreland county, Va. Since 1902 he has been rector of All Souls church. He is the author of Sons of God and other works.

McConnell, William B., lawyer and jurist of Fargo, N.D., was born Nov. 15, 1849, in Greene county, Pa. In 1885 he was associate justice of the supreme court of Dakota territory.

McConnell, William Calder, manufacturer and banker of Shamokin, Pa., was born April 4, 1860, in Halifax, Pa. He is president of the Shamokin Banking company and other corporations.

McConnell, William J., merchant, banker and statesman of Riverside, Conn., was born Sept. 18, 1839, in Commerce, Mich. In 1892-96 he was second governor of Idaho.

McCook, Anson George, soldier, lawyer and statesman of 33 West Fifty-fourth st., New York City, was born Oct. 10, 1835, in Steubenville, Ohio. In 1877-83 he was a member of congress. In 1884-93 he was secretary of the United States senate.

McCook, Edward Moody, soldier, diplomat and statesman of Riverside Conn., was born June 15, 1833, in Steubenville, Ohio. In 1869-75 he was governor of Colorado.

McCook, Henry Christopher, soldier, clergyman, naturalist and author of Devon, Pa., was born July 3, 1837, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He has been chaplain during the civil war and the Spanish-American war.

McCook, John James, soldier, clergyman and author of 396 Main st., Hartford, Conn., was born Feb. 2, 1843, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of second-lieutenant. Since 1883 he has been professor of modern languages in Trinity college. He is the author of Pat and the Counvil and other works.

McCook, John James, soldier, lawyer and statesman of New York City, was born May 25, 1845, in Carrollton, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He is a director of the Princeton theological seminary.

McCook, Willis Fisher, lawyer and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born January, 1851, in Lisbon, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Workingman's Savings bank and attorney for corporations.

McCopping, R. F., banker of Bainbridge, Ohio, was born June 8, 1866, in Carmel,Ohio. He is cashier of Spargur,Head and company, bankers.

McCord, George Herbert, painter and artist of 114 East Twenty-third st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 1, 1848, in New York City. In 1880 he became associate member and painter of the national academy of design.

McCord, James Benney, civil engineer of 29 Broadway, New York City,was born May 12, 1878, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is secretary and treasurer of the General Construction company.

McCord, W. J., stock dealer and banker of Loogootie, Ind., was born Oct. 4, 1856, in Alfordsville, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

McCorkle, Gentry P., banker of Hillsboro, N.M., was born May 31, 1870, in Obion,Tenn. He is owner and president of the Sierra County bank.

McCormack, George Bryant, coal operator, capitalist and banker of Birmingham, Ala. He is president of the Pratt Consolidated Coal company and other corporations.

McCormick, Alexander Agnew, journalist and publisher of 1435 North Meridian st.,Indianapolis, Ind., was born Feb. 21, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1904-06 he was editor and publisher of the Evening Post.

McCormick, Alexander Hugh, naval officer of Annapolis, Md., was born May 9, 1842, in District of Columbia. He attained the rank of rear-admiral in the United States navy, and was retired in 1900.

McCormick, Andrew Phelps, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Dallas, Texas, was born Dec.18, 1832, in Brazoria county,Texas. Since 1892 he has been United States circuit judge.

McCormick, Charles Wesley, educator, lecturer and clergyman of Hartford, Conn., was born Dec. 14, 1856, in New Prospect, N. J. Since 1903 he has lectured on Methodist history at the Hartford theological seminary.

McCormick, Cyrus Hall, business president of 606 South Michigan ave., Chicago,Ill., was born May 16, 1859, in Washington,D.C. Since 1902 he has been president of the International Harvester company.

McCormick, Ernest Oliver, railroad official of San Francisco, Cal., was born April 3, 1858, in Lafayette, Ind. He has been president of the association of general passenger and ticket agents. He is vice-president of the American association of refrigeration.

McCormick, Frederick, journalist and author of the Pekin, China, was born Feb. 21, 1870, in Brookfield, Mo. He is correspondent of the associated press at Pekin, China. He is the author of Tragedy of Russia in Pacific Asia, in two volumes.

McCormick, John Henry, physician, educator, lecturer, college president and author of Mobile, Ala., was born March 25, 1870, in Washington, D.C. Since 1900 he has been president of Gaithersburg seminary of Maryland. He is the author of Text Book of Anthropology.

McCormick, John Newton, clergyman,bishop and author of 285 East Fulton st., Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Feb. 1, 1863, in Richmond, Va. In 1906 he was consecrated bishop-coadjutor of western Michigan. He is the author of Litany and the Life and other works.

McCormick, John Shoenberger,manufacturer and banker of Twenty-fifth st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the J. S. McCormick company.

McCormick, John W., farmer and statesman of Gallipolis, Ohio, was born Dec. 20, 1831, in Gallia county, Mo. In 1883-86 he was a member of congress.

McCormick,Joseph Medill, journalist and business president of 120 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, Ill., was born May 16, 1877, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the Chicago city press association and other corporations.

McCormick, N.B., lawyer and congressman of Philipsburg, Kan., was born on Nov. 20, 1847, in Fayette county, Pa. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

McCormick,Robert Hall,of 332 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 6, 1847, in Rockbridge, Va. He was educated in the old Chicago university. Since 1871 he became a partner in the firm of C. H. and L. J. McCormick; subsequently when the firm was incorporated as the McCormick Harvesting Machine company, he became assistant superintendent of the manufacturing department, and made valuable improvements on the reaper and binder which the firm adopted and patented. He is a trustee of the Leander J. McCormick estate; and a trustee of the art institute.

McCormick, Robert Sanderson,government official and diplomat of Chicago, Ill., was born July 26, 1849, in Rock Bridge county, Va. In 1902-05 he was United States ambassador to Russia; and in 1905-07 he was ambassador to France.

McCormick, Samuel Black, clergyman and college president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 6, 1858, in Westmoreland county, Pa. In 1904 he was chancellor of the Western university of Pennsylvania.

McCormick, Seth Thomas, lawyer and capitalist of 151 West Fourth st., Williamsport, Pa., was born Aug. 28, 1860, in Lycoming county, Pa. He is director and general counsel for the Susquehanna,Bloomsburg and Berwick Railroad company and other corporations.

McCornick, William Sylvester, stock raiser, miner and banker of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Sept. 14, 1837, in Canada. He is sole owner of the banking house of McCormick and company of Salt Lake City.

McCorvey, Thomas Chalmers,educator and author of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born Aug. 18, 1852, in Monroe county, Ala. Since 1888 he has been professor of history and philosophy in the university of Alabama. He is the author of The Government of the People of Alabama.

McCouch, H. Gordon, lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 1, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a trustee of the Starr Savings bank and the Chestnut Hill academy.

McCourt, David W., dentist and poet of St. Paul, Minn., was born Oct. 4, 1859, in Waukesha, Wis. He is the author of The Treasures of Weinsburg and other poems.

McCow, George Herbert,painter and artist of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 1, 1848, in New York City. In 1885 he received a medal and diploma from the world's cotton exposition at New Orleans.

McCowen, Jennie, educator, physician, surgeon, lecturer and author of Davenport, Iowa, was born June 15, 1845, in Harveysburg, Ohio. Since 1893 she has been president of the woman's alliance.

McCoy, Daniel, banker and author of 82 Paris ave., Grand Rapids, Mich., was born July 17, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the State bank of Michigan and other corporations. He is the author of Old Fort St. Joseph.

McCrackan, William Denison, lecturer and author of Boston, Mass., was born in 1864, in Munich. He is the author of The Rise of the Swiss Republic and other works.

McCracken, Elizabeth, journalist and author of 39 Hurlbut st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Feb. 29, 1876, in New Orleans, La. She is author of The Women of America.

McCrackin, Josephine Clifford, journalist and author of Santa Cruz, Cal., was born in Prussia, Germany, Nov. 25, 1836. She is on the editorial staff of the Sentinel. She is the author of Overland Tales and other works.

McCrary, Alvin Jasper, lawyer and jurist of Binghamton, N.Y., was born March 20, 1844, in Keosauqua, Iowa. He served in the civil war. He has been president of the Baptist social union of New York.

McCrea, James, civil engineer and railroad president of 1003 Pennsylvania ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born May 1, 1848, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1891 he has been vice-president of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh.

McCrea, James Alexander, railroad official of Long Island City, N.Y., was born May 26, 1875, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is general superintendent of the Long Island railroad and other railroads.

McCready, E. Bosworth, physician of Allegheny, Pa., was born June 6, 1880, in Allegheny, Pa. He has practiced medicine for many years; and is a member of the American medical association and various other medical and scientific societies.

McCready, Richard Lightburne, clergyman and theologian of 1232 Fourth ave., Louisville, Ky., was born in Louisville, Ky. He is examining chaplain of the diocese of Kentucky.

McCreary, George Deardorff, financier and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 28, 1846, in New York Springs, Pa. In 1903-1911 he was a member of congress.

McCreary, James Bennett, lawyer and statesman of Richmond, Ky., was born July 8, 1838, in Madison county, Ky. In 1903-09 he was a member of congress.

McCreath, Andrew S., chemist and author of 12 Market st., Harrisburg, Pa., was born March 8, 1849, in Scotland. He is the author of Mineral Wealth of Virginia.

McCredy, Alexander E.,banker of Wapato, Wash., was born May 3, 1868, in Oregon. He is president of the First National bank.

McCreery, James Thomas, banker of Hinton, W.Va., was born in 1845, in Union, W. Va. He is president of the National Bank of Summers.

McCreery, James W., lawyer and statesman of Greeley, Col., was born on July 13, 1849, in Indiana county, Pa. He is a lecturer on irrigation law at the university of Colorado.

McCreery, John Wallace,lawyer and banker of Beckley, W.Va., was born on July 31, 1845, in Union, W.Va. He is president of the bank of Raleigh.

McCreight, Major Israel,banker of 42 East Long ave., Dubois, Pa., was born April 22, 1865, in Clearfield county, Pa. He is vice-president of the Deposit National bank.

McCrillis, Herbert Orin, educator, genealogist and accountant of Hyde Park, Mass., was born May 15, 1854, in Grafton, Mass. He is the author of McCrillis' Records.

McCrillis, John, lawyer of Newport, N.H., was born Aug. 5, 1858, in Goshen, N.H. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

McCue,Martin G.,business man and statesman of 238 East Forty-sixth st., New York City, was born on Feb. 18, 1875, in Morris county, N.J. Since 1907 he has been a representative in the New York state legislature.

McCue, Thomas F., lawyer and banker of Carrington, N.D., was born Feb. 9, 1866, in Elkader, Iowa. He is president of the Foster County State bank.

McCuen, Robert William,business man and statesman of Vergennes, Vt., was born May 30, 1879, in Vergennes, Vt. He was educated at the Middlebury college and at the Boston university law school. He has been alderman of his city; a member of the house of the Vermont state legislature; and a member of the Vermont state senate. He has been president of the Vermont press association; and is prominently identified with the republican party.

McCulloch, Mrs. Catherine Waugh, lawyer and author of Evanston, Ill., was born June 4, 1862, in Ransomville, N.Y. Since 1907 she has been justice of the peace at Evanston.

McCulloch,Charles, banker of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born Sept. 3, 1840, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is president of the Hamilton State bank.

McCulloch, Edgar Allen, lawyer and jurist of Little Rock, Ark., was born Aug. 1, 1861, in Trenton, Tenn. In 1904-1912 he was justice of the state supreme court of Arkansas.

McCulloch, John Franklin, banker of New Albany, Ind., was born Oct. 2, 1858, in New Albany, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

McCulloch, Joseph Flavius, educator, journalist, college president and author of Greensboro, N.C., was born June 24, 1856, in Guilford county, N.C. Since 1894 he has been editor of Our Church Record at Greensboro. He is the author of Rolles Theorems Extended and other works.

McCulloch, Philip Doddridge, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Marianna, Ark., was born June 23, 1851, in Murfreesboro, Tenn. In 1893-1903 he was a member of congress.

McCullough, Hiram R., railway official of 226 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 7, 1850, in Elkton, Md. Since 1898 he has been vice-president of the Chicago Northwestern railroad.

McCullough, J. Charles, business president of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born in Pleasant Ridge, Ohio. He was associated with his father in the seed business; and since 1887 has been engaged in business on his own account. He is president of the J. Charles McCullough Seed company, inc., with a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars. He is also connected with the McCullough Buggy company and other corporations.

McCullough, John Griffith, banker and statesman of North Bennington, Vt., was born Sept. 16, 1835, near Newark, Del. He is president of the First National bank. In 1902-04 he was governor of Vermont.

McCullough, Joseph A., lawyer, statesman and jurist of Greenville, S.C., was born Sept. 9, 1865, in Greenville county, S.C. He has been a member of congress.

McCullough, Mrs. Myrtle Reed, author of 2281 Kenmore ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 27, 1874, in Chicago. She is the author of Love Letters of a Musician and other works.

McCullum, J. Brewster, lawyer and jurist of Philadelphia, Pa. He is associate justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania.

McCully, Frank David, banker of Joseph, Ore., was born June 29, 1859, in Salem, Ore. He is president of the First bank of Joseph.

McCully,James, lawyer and jurist of Ashland, Wis., was born Aug. 4, 1864, Arlington, Wis. He served in the Spanish-American war. Since 1894 he has been county judge.

McCully, John E., lawyer and banker of 824 North Sixty-third st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 8, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president of the Republican Trust company.

McCumber,Porter James, lawyer and statesman of Wahpeton, N.D., was born Feb. 3, 1856, in Crete, Ill. In 1811-1911 he was United States senator.

McCurdy, Charles M., banker of 58 East Curtin st., Bellefonte, Pa., was born Nov. 9, 1852, in Adams county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

McCurdy, Charles W., physician and lecturer of 5051 Walton ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 26, 1856, in Ossian, N.Y. He has been dean and president of the faculty of the college of osteopathy.

McCurdy,Irwin Pounds, clergyman and author of 538 South Forty-ninth st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 23, 1856, in Westmoreland county, Pa. In 1897-99 he was editor of the Weekly Reminder. He is the author of the Style and Language of Edgar Allen Poe and other works.

McCurdy, Richard Aldrich, lawyer and underwriter of Morristown, N.J., was born on Jan. 29, 1835, in New York City. He is president of the Bell International Telephone company and a director of other corporations.

McCurdy, Robert H., insurance official and banker of 11 East Ninth st., New York City, was born May 26, 1859, in New York City. He is a director of the Astor National bank and various other corporations.

McCurdy,Stewart Leroy, physician and author of Wilkinsburg, Pa., was born July 15, 1859, in Bowerston, Ohio. He is the author of Manual of Orthopaedic Surgery and other works. He is a professor of the Western university of Pittsburgh.

McCurdy,Timothy Emerson, banker of Hazleton, Iowa, was born March 2, 1846, in Keene, Ohio. He is president of the Hazleton State bank.

McCutchen, Charles Walter, merchant and capitalist of 95 Broad st., New York City, was born Jan. 5, 1845, in Williamsburgh, N.Y. He is manager and senior partner in the firm of Holt and company, who have been dealers in flour and grain for one hundred years. He is a director of the Plainfield Trust company; and the Corn Exchange bank of New York City with its twenty-six branches.

McCutcheon, Ben Frederick, journalist and author of 421 St. James place, Chicago, Ill., was born May 31, 1875, in Lafayette, Ind. Since 1905 he has been commercial editor of the Chicago Tribune. He is the author of Sunrise Acres and other works.

McCutcheon, George Barr, journalist and author of 1 West Sixty-fourth st., New York City, was born July 26, 1866, in Tippecanoe county, Ind. He is the author of Graustark and other works.

McCutcheon, John Tinney, cartoonist, journalist, artist and author of 410 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born May 6, 1870, in South Raub, Ind. Since 1903 he has been a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. He is the author of The Mysterious Stranger and other works.

McCutcheon, W. A., railroad president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born March 1, 1863, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1907 he has been president of the Gilmore and Pittsburgh railroad.

McDaniel, Henry Dickerson, soldier and statesman of Monroe, Ga., was born Sept. 4, 1837, in Walton county, Ga. He has been a member of congress. In 1883-86 he was governor of Georgia.

McDearmon, James Calvin, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Trenton, Tenn., was born June 13, 1844, in New Canton, Va. In 1893-97 he was a member of congress.

McDermith, Samuel T., physician and surgeon of Denver, Col., was born Aug. 1, 1848, in Lancaster, Ohio. Since 1895 he has been supreme physician and medical director of the Fraternal Union of America.

McDermott, Charles J., lawyer of 2 Rector st., New York City, was born June 15, 1867, in New York City. He is engaged in the practice of law in New York City and Brooklyn; and was appointed a member of the committee on character of candidates for admission to the bar. He has been president of the Crescent athletic club.

McDermott, Edward John, lawyer of 430 West Ormsby ave., Louisville, Ky., was born Oct. 29, 1852, in Louisville, Ky. He has been president of the Louisville bar association.

McDermott, George Robert, educator, naval architect and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Oct. 28, 1860, in Glasgow, Scotland. He is the author of Screw Propeller Computer and other works.

McDermott, James Thomas, telegrapher and statesman of 4300 Emerald ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 13, 1867, in Grand Rapids, Mich. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

McDermott, John F., stockman, public official and statesman of Cheyenne, Wyo., was born May 24, 1871, in Wellsville, N.Y. In 1899-1900 he was a member of the state legislature of Wyoming.

McDoel, William Henry, business manager and railroad president of 140 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 28, 1841, in Coffstown, N.H. Since 1891 he has been president and general manager of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railroad.

McDonald, Charles, banker of North Platte, Neb., was born Oct. 25, 1826, in Tennessee. He is president of the McDonald State bank.

McDonald, Edward, banker of Lenox, Mass., was born July 17, 1844, in Dover, England. He is cashier of the Lenox National bank.

McDonald, Etta Austin Blaisdell, educator and author of West Medford, Mass., was born March 20, 1872, in Manchester, N.H. In 1896-99 she was supervisor of the primary schools of Brockton, Mass. She is the author of Child Life and other works.

McDonald, George, banker of Cuthert, Ga., was born Sept. 13, 1855, in Cuthert, Ga. He is president of the bank of Cuthert; and has been mayor of his city.

McDonald, J. R., railroad president of Seattle, Wash. He has been president of the Washington Southern railway at Seattle.

McDonald, James William, merchant and financier of Stockton, Cal., was born Nov. 5, 1858, in Stockton, Cal. He is chairman of the travelers' protective association of America.

McDonald, Jesse Fuller, miner and statesman of Leadville, Col., was born June 30, 1858, in Ashtabula, Ohio. In 1905-06 he was governor of the state of Colorado.

McDonald, John, soldier and statesman of Rockville, Md., was born May 24, 1837, in Ireland. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

McDonald, John B., contractor and builder of 32 Nassau st., New York City, was born Nov. 7, 1844, in Ireland. He was contractor for the construction of the Rapid Transit railroad in New York. He is president of the Inter State Tunnel Railway company.

McDonald, John Craton, banker of Cincinnati, Iowa, was born July 13, 1845, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

McDonald, Marshall, educator, inventor and scientist of Washington, D.C., was born June 26, 1835, in Romey, W.Va. In 1881 he invented the automatic hatching jars.

McDonald, Morris, railroad president of Portland, Maine, was born Aug. 20, 1865. In 1883 he entered railway service; and in 1885-92 was with the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis railroad as paymaster, assistant treasurer, chief clerk, trainmaster and superintendent of transportation. In 1897-1908 he was general superintendent of the Maine Central Railroad company; in 1908-13 was vice-president and general manager; and since 1913 has been its president. Also since 1913 he has been president of the Boston and Maine railroad.

McDonald, William C., stock raiser and statesman of Santa Fe, N.M., was born July 25, 1858, in Jordanville, N.Y. He is manager of the Carrizozo Cattle Ranch company. Since 1911 he has been governor of the state of New Mexico.

McDonald, William Henry, banker of North Platte, Neb., was born June 14, 1861, in Cottonwood Springs, Neb. He is president of the Gandy bank of Gandy, Neb.

McDonald, William Jesse, merchant, rancher and state official of Austin, Texas, was born Sept. 28, 1852, in Kemper county, Miss. Since 1907 he has been state revenue agent of Texas.

McDonald, William Lee, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 28, 1865, in Washington, Mo. He is vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce.

McDonald, Witten, journalist and banker of Kansas City, Mo., was born June 4, 1846, in Wyoming county, W.Va. In 1893-96 he was president of the Kansas City Times Newspaper company.

McDonell, James S., planter, merchant and banker of Altheimer, Ark., was born May 20, 1859, in Huntsville, Ala. He is president of the Bank of Altheimer.

McDonough, John James, jurist and statesman of 795 Second st., Fall River, Mass., was born March 15, 1857, in Fall River, Mass. Since 1893 he has been judge of the second district court of Bristol.

McDonough, John T., lawyer and jurist of Albany, N.Y., was born July 12, 1843, in Ireland. In 1898-1902 he was secretary of state.

McDougal, Clinton Dugald, soldier and statesman of Auburn, N.Y., was born July 14, 1839, in Scotland. In 1872-77 he was a member of congress.

McDougal, John M., educator, lawyer and jurist of Lexington, Ky., was born April 21, 1850, in LaRue county, Ky. He has been deputy district attorney.

McDougall, Thomas Mower, soldier of Wellsville, N.Y., was born May 21, 1845, in Fort Crawford, Prairie du Chien, Wis. In 1890 he retired as a captain of the United States army.

McDougall, Walter Hugh, artist and author of Absecon, N.J., was born Feb. 10, 1858, in Newark, N.J. He is the author of The Hidden City and other works.

McDowell, B. M., musician and composer of Columbus, Ohio, was born May 26, 1845, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is the author of a number of popular pieces.

McDowell, George Washington, physician of 1 West Thirty-fourth st., New York City, was born June 17, 1860, in New York City. He is professor of otology in the New York homoepathic medical college and hospital.

McDowell, Henry Clay, lawyer and jurist of Lynchburg, Va., was born Aug. 24, 1861, in Louisville, Ky. Since 1901 he has been judge of the United States district court.

McDowell, James Nelson, dentist and author of Greenville, Mo., was born Aug. 14, 1870, in Greenville, Mo. He is the author of Orthodontia.

McDowell, John Anderson, educator and statesman of Millersburg, Ohio, was born Sept. 25, 1853, in Killbuck, Ohio. In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

McDowell, W. W., business president and statesman of 46 East Broadway, Butte, Mont., was born in 1867 in Trenton, Tenn. He is president of the Butte and London Copper company; and president of the Boston-Butte Copper and Zinc company of Butte. He is also a director of the Miners' Savings bank of Butte. In 1909-11 he was speaker of the Montana house of representatives for two sessions; and is now lieutenant-governor of Montana for term ending 1917.

McDowell, William Adair, transportation and bank president of Lexington, Ky., was born in 1863 in Louisville, Ky. He is engaged in the manufacture of lumber and banking, and also in civil engineering. He is president of the Lexington Union Station company; vice-president of the Phoenix and Third National bank; and is a director in the Kentucky Union company and in the Henry Clay Fire Insurance company.

McDowell, William Fraser, clergyman and bishop of Evanston, Ill., was born Feb. 4, 1858, in Millersburg, Ohio. He has been corresponding secretary of the board of education.

McDowell, William King, banker and merchant of 39 Broad st., Charleston, S.C., was born Feb. 19, 1872, in Charleston, S.C. He is president and treasurer of the Charleston Coca Cola Bottling company.

McDowell, William Osborne, orator, lecturer and organizer of 198 Broadway, New York City, was born April 10, 1848, in Somerset county, N.J. He received the degree of LL.D.; and in 1864 was appointed lieutenant of volunteers, but did not serve. He organized the Montclair railway of New York, the Ontario and Western railway and the Midland railway of New Jersey; and planned the consolidation of the New York, Susquehanna and Western railway. He was also president of the New York and Sea Beach railway. He also organized the national society of the sons of American revolution. He is the American editor of the Review of Internationalism.

McDuffie, Marshall, physician of 571 Park ave., New York City. He received a thorough education and graduated with the degree of M.D. He is associated with some well-known hospitals in New York City; and has filled several positions of trust and honor. He now has a successful practice, with offices at 571 Park ave.

McEldowney, George Irving, banker of Chicago Heights, Ill., was born Nov. 13, 1873, in Bloom, Cook county, Ill. He is president of the Chicago Heights Savings bank.

McElrath, William W., banker and statesman of Moville, Iowa, was born March 4, 1848, in Belfast, Ireland, of Scotch parents. In 1881 he located on a farm in Woodbury county, Iowa, where he still lives engaged in farming and banking. He is now president of the Moville State bank of Moville, Iowa; is a member of the Masonic fraternity, Eastern Star and various other fraternal and patriotic orders. He has been a member of the school board; in 1887-90 was a member of the board of supervisors of Woodbury county, Iowa; in 1903 was elected a state representative.

McElroy, Crocket, business man, statesman and poet of St. Clair, Mich., was born Dec. 31, 1835, in Canada. He has been mayor of his city, and has been a member of the Michigan state senate.

McElroy,John, journalist and publisher of Washington, D.C., was born in 1846 in Greenup county, Ky. Since 1884 he has been editor-in-chief of the National Tribune of Washington.

McElroy, William H., journalist, lecturer and author of 180 West Eighty-eighth st., New York City, was born in Albany, N.Y. In 1895-98 he has been editor of the Rochester Post Express. He is the author of A Brazilian Wedding and other works.

McEnerny, Harry, publisher of 4900 Baronne st.. New Orleans,La., was born in 1860 in New Orleans, La. Since 1876 he has been connected with the Daily Picayune of New Orleans, and is now vice-president.

McEnery, Samuel Douglas, statesman of 1233 St. Mary st., New Orleans, La., was born May 28, 1837, in Monroe, La. He has been United States senator.

McEniry, Matthew J., lawyer and politician of Moline, Ill., was born April 9, 1858, in Moline, Ill. Since 1894 he has been postmaster of his city.

McEttrick,Michael J., journalist and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born June 22, 1846, in Roxbury, Mass. In 1893-1895 he was a member of congress.

McEwan,Thomas, civil engineer and statesman of Jersey City, N.J., was born Feb. 26, 1854, in Paterson, N.J. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress.

McFadden,Bernard Adolphus, educator and author of New York City, was born in 1868, in Missouri. He is the author of The Athlete's Conquest and other works.

McFarland, Mrs. Amanda R., missionary and educator of Fort Wrangell, Alaska, was born in 1837. She is in charge of the McFarland home for Alaskan girls.

McFarland, Edwin P., merchant and banker of West Winfield, N.Y., was born Oct. 23, 1844, in Plainfield, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank of West Winfield.

McFarland, Elbridge, manufacturer of 308 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born on May 4, 1853, in Montgomery county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

McFarland, George A., educator and college president of Valley City, N.D., was born April 8, 1858, in Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Since 1892 he has been president of the state normal school of Valley City.

McFarland,Henry Moses, lawyer and banker of Hyde Park, Vt., was born Aug. 5, 1852, in Waterville, Vt. He is vice-president of the Lamoille County bank.

McFarland, John Horace, illustrator, publicist, lecturer and author of Harrisburg,Pa., was born Sept. 24, 1859, in McAlisterville, Pa. In 1903-04 he was a member of the National municipal league. He is the author of Photographic Flowers and Trees and other works.

McFarland, Joseph, bacteriologist and author of 442 West Stafford st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 9, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is professor of the Medico-chirurg college of Philadelphia. He is the author of Pathogenic Bacteria and Pathology.

McFarland,Samuel J., banker of 1305 Main st., Dallas, Texas, was born Nov. 23, 1872, in Ladonia, Texas. He is president of the First State bank of Grand Prairie, Texas, and other corporations.

McFaul, Alexander Daniel, lawyer and financier of Machias, Maine,was born May 14, 1863, in Pembroke, Mass. He is president of the Eastport Land company.

McFaul, James Augustine, clergyman and bishop of 153 North Warren st., Trenton, N.J., was born June 6, 1850, in Ireland. Since 1894 he has been Catholic bishop of Trenton.

McFerren, Jacob S., banker of Hoopeston, Ill., was born Oct. 1, 1846, in Level, Ohio. he served five terms as mayor of his city. He is president of the First National bank.

McFerrin, Benjamin Eugene, farmer, educator, lawyer and statesman of Jasper,Ark., was born March 15, 1874, in Compton, Ark. In 1903-06 he was a member of the Arkansas state senate.

McFie, John R., lawyer and jurist of Santa Fe, N.M. In 1898 he was associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

McGaffey, Ernest, lawyer and poet of St. Charles, Ill., was born in August, 1861, in Ohio. He is the author of Poems of Gun and Rod and other works.

McGalliard, William Millen, physician and banker of Donaldsonville, La., was born Feb. 14, 1838, in North Carolina. He is president of the bank of Donaldsonville.

McGann,James E., business man and statesman of New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 1, 1854, in Ireland. In 1905-06 he was a member of the Connecticut state senate.

McGann, Lawrence Edward, business man and statesman of 343 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 2, 1842, in Ireland. In 1891-95 he was a member of congress.

McGarvey, John William, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Lexington, Ky., was born March 1, 1829, in Hopkinsville, Ky. Since 1895 he has been professor of the college of the bible. He is the author of Lands of the Bible and other works.

McGarvey,William, clergyman and author of 1706 Mifflin st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 14, 1861, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Ceremonies of a Low Celebration and other works.

McGavick, Alexander Joseph, clergyman and bishop of 605 Oakwood blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 22, 1863, at Fox Lake, Ill. In 1900 he was appointed pastor of Holy Angles church of Chicago.

McGavin, Charles, lawyer and statesman of 436 Washington blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 10, 1874, in Riverton, Ill. In 1905-09 he was a member of congress.

McGaw, George Keen, merchant of 344 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born Jan. 8, 1850, in Harford county, Md. He is president of the Mount Vernon-Woodbury Cotton Duck company.

McGeary, Lewis Irwin, stock and bond broker of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 2, 1880, in Allegheny, Pa. He is a member of the firm of Paul Brown and company.

McGee, Mrs. Anita Newcomb, physician of 1620 P st., Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 4, 1864, in Washington, D.C. In 1898-1900 she was acting assistant surgeon in the United States army.

McGee, S. D., lumber dealer and banker of Dodd City, Texas, was born March 7, 1848, in Tennessee. He is president of the First National bank.

McGee, W. J., ethnologist and author of 4137 Lindell blvd., St. Louis, Mo., was born April 17, 1853, in Dubuque county, Iowa. Since 1907 he has been United States commissioner of the waterways commission. He is the author of The Siouan Indians and other works.

McGehee, Edward Larned, physician of New Orleans, La., was born April 4, 1852, in Wilkenson county, Miss. He is physician in charge of the Poydras orphan asylum and president of corporations.

McGhee, Elbert T., cotton merchant and capitalist of Rome, Ga., was born Oct. 8, 1847, in Cherokee county, Ala. He is president of the Rome Chemical company.

McGiffert, Arthur Cushman, educator, clergyman and author of 75 East Eighty-first st., New York City, was born March 4, 1861, in Sauquart, N.Y. He is the author of Dialogue of Papias and Jason and other works.

McGilivary, Evander Bradley, educator and philosopher of Madison, Wis., was born on July 19, 1864, in Bangkok, Siam. Since 1905 he has been professor of philosophy at the university of Wisconsin.

McGill, David Frazier, clergyman and author of 1508 Chartiers st., Allegheny, Pa., was born March 22, 1857, in West Alexander, Pa. Since 1891 he has been associate editor of the United Presbyterian. He is the author of The Young Christian in Prayer and other works.

McGill, George Warrington, civil engineer and inventor of New York City, was born March 9, 1844, in Lancaster, Ohio. He is president of the McGill Fastener company.

McGill, John Dales, physician and banker of Jersey City, N.J., was born Dec. 23, 1846, in Allegheny City, Pa. He is president of the Hudson County National bank.

McGill, John Thomas, chemist and author of Nashville, Tenn., was born Oct. 13, 1851, in Monroe county, Tenn. He is the author of Introduction of Qualitative Chemical Analysis and other works.

McGill, William Neil, engineer, manufacturer and bank director of Ely, Nev., was born Jan. 7, 1853, in Ohio. He is president of the Campton Commercial company.

McGillivray, James John, architect, manufacturer and statesman of Black River Falls, Wis., was born June 16, 1848, in Canada. In 1894-1900 he was a member of the state senate.

McGilton, Edmund G., lawyer and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born on Feb. 10, 1859, in Eau Galla, Wis. In 1884-85 he was superintendent of schools for Menominee county, Wis. He has attained success in the practice of law in Omaha, Neb.; and in 1903-07 served two terms as lieutenant-governor of the state of Nebraska.

McGinley, Anna Mathilda Agnes, educator and author of New York City, was born on Jan. 28, 1868, in Cambridge, Mass. In 1902-07 she was a teacher in the industrial department of the New York public schools. She is the author of The Profit of Love.

McGinley, John R., business president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 14, 1856, in Cresson Springs, Pa. He is president of the Duff Machinery company and a director of various corporations.

McGinness, John R., soldier of Norfolk, Va., was born Sept. 17, 1840, in Ireland. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

McGinnis, John Chrysostom, coal operator and banker of Slatington, Pa., was born on Dec. 18, 1857, in Pottsville, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

McGinty, William Henry, architect and author of 6 Percival st., Dorchester, Mass., was born Nov. 1, 1861, in St. Albans, Vt. He was the architect of the Richards' building and of the Butler building of Boston. He is the author of Ancient Irish and Architecture.

McGirr, John J., journalist and poet of McKeesport, Pa., was born March 13, 1855, in Youngstown, Pa. He is author of a volume entitled the Destruction of the World, in verse.

McGlannan, Alexius, physician, surgeon and author of 2005 Madison ave., Baltimore, Md., was born July 24, 1872, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1899 he has been surgeon of the marine corps. He is the author of Manual of Physics and Inorganic Chemistry and other works.

McGlauflin, William Henry, clergyman, missionary, lecturer and author of 2534 Dupont ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born on Oct. 2, 1856, in Charlotte, Maine. He is the author of A Memorial of His Wife.

McGloin, Frank, soldier, journalist, lawyer, jurist, author and poet of New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 22, 1846, in Ireland. In 1880-1888 he was judge of the court of appeals of New Orleans. He is the author of A Romance of the East and other works.

McGolrick, James, clergyman and bishop of 211 Fourth st., Duluth, Minn., was born in 1841, in Ireland. Since 1889 he has been first Roman Catholic bishop of Duluth.

McGonagle, William A., railroad president of Duluth, Minn., was born March 28, 1861, in Conshohocken, Pa. Since 1909 he has been president of the Duluth, Missabe and Northern railroad.

McGonigle, Thomas George, clergyman and theologian of Hammond, Ind., was born on Dec. 1, 1857, in Ireland. He is a well known theological writer.

McGovern, Francis E., lawyer and statesman of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Jan. 21, 1866, near Elkhart, Wis. For ten years he taught school; and in 1897 began the practice of law in Milwaukee. In 1913 he became governor of Wisconsin.

McGovern, John, author and poet of 416 South Wood st., Chicago, Ill., was born on Feb. 18, 1850, in Troy, N.Y. He is the author of Empire of Information and other works.

McGowan, James Hartzell, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Coldwater, Mich., was born April 2, 1837, in Mahoning county, Ohio. In 1877-81 he was a member of congress.

McGowan, John, naval officer of 1420 Sixteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 4, 1843, in Port Penn, Del. He attained the rank of rear-admiral in the United States navy and was retired in 1901.

MacGowan, John K., capitalist of 71 Broadway, New York City. He is manager and director of the American Smelters' Steamship company and a director of other corporations.

McGowan, John Patrick, physician of 115 Madison ave., New York City, was born on April 23, 1865, in Irvington, N.J. He is consulting surgeon of the French hospital.

McGrady, Thomas, clergyman, lecturer and author of Newport, Ky., was born June 6, 1863, in Lexington, Ky. He is the author of The Mistakes of Ingersoll and other works.

McGranahan, Ralph Wilson, educator, clergyman and college president of 1802 Exeter st., Knoxville, Tenn., was born Feb. 26, 1862, in Adamsville, Pa. Since 1899 he has been president of the Knoxville college of Tennessee.

McGraw, John Harte, lawyer, banker and statesman of Seattle, Wash., was born Oct. 4, 1850, in Penobscot, Maine. Since 1905 he has been president of the Seattle chamber of commerce.

McGregor, Duncan, soldier, educator and college president of Platteville, Wis., was born in 1836 in Scotland. In 1904-08 he was a representative in the Wisconsin state legislature.

McGregor, Thomas, soldier of Benicia, Cal., was born June 26, 1837, in Scotland. He served in the civil war, and attained the rank of captain in 1866. In 1904 he was advanced to the rank of brigadier-general.

McGregory, Joseph Frank, chemist and author of Hamilton, N.Y., was born April 11, 1855, in Wilbraham, Mass. Since 1884 he has been professor in the Colgate university of Hamilton.

McGrew, James B., farmer, miller and banker of Bloomington, Neb., was born Nov. 11, 1850, in Ohio. He is president of the Naponee State bank of Naponee, Neb.

McGrew, James Heermans, banker of Morgantown, W.Va., was born Oct. 31, 1873, in Morgantown, W.Va. He is cashier of the bank of Monongalia Valley.

McGrew, Samuel Finley, banker of 26 East Main st., Springfield, Ohio, was born July 19, 1845, in Steubenville, Ohio. He is cashier of the Mad River National bank.

McGroarty, John Steven, publisher and poet of Los Angeles, Cal., was born on Aug. 20, 1862, in Luzerne county, Pa. He is editor and one of the proprietors of the West Coast Magazine of Los Angeles. He is the author of Poetry of Wyoming Valley.

McGuire, Bird Segie, lawyer and statesman of Pawnee, Okla., was born in 1864, in Belleville, Ill. He has been assistant United States attorney for Oklahoma Territory and has been a member of congress.

McGuire, Frank Augustine, physician and author of New York City, was born July 1, 1851, in New York City. He is the author of many works on scientific subjects.

McGuire, George W., pharmacist and scientist of Newark, N.J., was born Oct. 3, 1849, in Trenton, N.J. He is now chief inspector of food and drugs on the state board of health for New Jersey.

McGuire, James Clark, civil engineer and contractor of 26 Cortlandt st., New York City, was born near Ellicott City, Md. He is president of James C. McGuire and company and vice-president of other corporations.

McGuire, John E., banker of Kinsman, Ill., was born May 26, 1871, in Illinois. He has been a teacher, farmer and real estate owner. He is president of the bank of Kinsman.

McGuire, Joseph Hubert, architect of 45 East Forty-second st., New York City, was born in 1866 in New York City. Among his principal works are the Catholic cathedral of Richmond, Va.; churches of Rose of Lima, Holy Trinity and St. Malachi of New York; St. Elizabeth's hospital and many school buildings, commercial buildings and private residences.

McGunnegle, William Starr, banker of Meadville, Pa., was born on Nov. 7, 1846, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Merchants' National bank.

McHarg, Henry K., banker and railroad president of Stamford, Conn., was born Feb. 6, 1851, in Albany, N.Y. He is president of the Texas Central Railroad company and other companies.

McHenry, Edwin H., railroad official of New Haven, Conn., was born Jan. 25, 1859, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

McHenry, John Geiser, manufacturer, banker and statesman of Benton, Pa., was born April 28, 1868, in Columbia county, Pa. He is president of the Columbia County National bank. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

McHenry, Mary, philanthropist and founder of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1873 she has been president of the board of lady visitors of the soldiers' home of Philadelphia.

McHenry, William A., banker of Denison, Iowa, was born March 6, 1841, in New York City. He is president and owner of the First National bank; and has been mayor of his city.

McHugh, John, banker of 2221 Nebraska st., Sioux City, Iowa, was born on Aug. 29, 1865, in Belleville, Ontario. He is president of the Iowa State Savings bank.

McIlvain, William R.,capitalist of 210 North Fifth st., Reading, Pa., was born Jan. 28, 1841, in Reading, Pa. He is vice-president of the Reading Trust company and a director of other corporations.

McIlvane, James Hall, clergyman and author of 311 Shady ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1846, in Utica, N.Y. He is the author of Modern Thought and Christian Evidences and other works.

McIlwaine, Richard, soldier, clergyman and college president of 608 West Grace st., Richmond, Va., was born May 20, 1834, in Petersburg, Va. He is the author of Memories of Three Score Years and Ten and many printed sermons and addresses.

McIlwraith, Jean Newton, editor and author of Garden City, N.Y., was born in Hamilton, Ontario. She is editor for Doubleday, Page and company and the author of eight books, chiefly historical.

McIntire, Albert Washington, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Everett, Wash., was born Jan. 15, 1853, in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1895-97 he was governor of Colorado.

McIntire, Charles, educator, physician and lecturer of Easton, Pa., was born Aug. 30, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1902-03 he was president and is now secretary of the American academy of medicine.

McIntire, Charles John, lawyer and jurist of Cambridge, Mass., was born in Cambridge, Mass. He is first judge of the probate court, and of the court of insolvency for Middlesex county.

McIntire, William Watson, lawyer and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born June 29, 1850, in Franklin county, Pa. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

McIntosh, Burr William,photographer and author of New York City, was born in 1862, in Wellsville, Ohio. He is the author of Little I Saw of Cuba and other works.

McIntosh, William, journalist and poet of Buffalo, N.Y., was born April 23, 1852, in New York City. Since 1880 he has been managing editor of the Buffalo Evening News. He is the author of a number of rare poems.

McIntyre,Archibald J.,banker of Wilmington, Ill., was born in 1858, in Wilmington, Ill. He has been president of the First National bank of Wilmington, Ill. He is president of the Joliet Trust and Savings bank.

McIntyre, John Thomas,dramatist and author of 112 West Ninth st., Philadelphia,Pa., was born Nov. 26, 1871, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of With Fighting Jack Barry and other works.

McIntyre, Robert, clergyman. author and poet of 1033 South Alvarado st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 20, 1851, in Scotland. He is the author A Modern Apollo and poems.

McIntyre, Thomas A.,banker of New York City, was born Oct. 19, 1855, in New York City. He is a director of the Standard Milling company and other corporations.

McIntyre, William H., insurance and railroad president of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 7, 1865, in Irvington, N.Y. He is president of the New York Life Insurance company and a director of several corporations.

McIntyre, William P., clergyman and editor of Somerset, Ohio, was born Nov. 29, 1864, in Springfield, Mass. Since 1904 he has been editor-in-chief of the Rosary Magazine;and in 1907 founded The Youth's Magazine.

McIvor-Tyndall, Alexander J.,lecturer and author of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 4, 1860, in England. He is the author of Telepathy, the Language of the Future.

McKain, Arthur Albert, manufacturer and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 2, 1851, in Troy, N.Y. He invented the clover buncher, an implement when attached to mowers will bunch the clover as it cuts it, and thus prevents the loss of the seeds.

McKay, J. B., farmer and banker of Knox City, Mo., was born May 13, 1846, in Indiana. He is president of the Home bank.

McKay, John James, insurance official of 561 Mulberry st., Macon, Ga., was born Aug. 11, 1869, in Griffin, Ga. He is secretary and manager of the Atlantic National Fire Insurance company.

McKay, Stanley Albert,clergyman and college president of Upper Alton, Ill., was born Sept. 11, 1850, in Eddyville, N.Y. Since 1900 he has been president of Shurtleff college of Upper Alton, Ill.

McKean, Archibald J., banker of Mercer, Pa., was born Dec. 16, 1826, in Mercer, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

McKean, James A., farmer and banker of Bowerston, Ohio, was born July 10, 1846, in Navarre, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

McKean, Thomas, litterateur and author of Philadelphia,Pa.,was born April 29, 1869, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Vortex; and The Mermaid.

McKee, Charles, banker of Little Rock, Ark., was born Feb. 17, 1864, in Cynthiana, Ky. He is president of the Home Telephone company.

McKee, Edward Reister, banker of Chillicothe, Ohio, was born Jan. 28, 1843, in Chillicothe, Ohio. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

McKee,Frank, theatrical manager and proprietor of New York City. He is manager for Miss Mary Mannering and other stars; and also proprietor of the Savoy and the Garrick theatres.

McKee, James Anderson, physician, surgeon and statesman of Sacramento, Cal., was born June 6, 1854, in Crawford county, Pa. In 1905-09 he was a member of the California state senate.

McKee, Myron A., banker of Richfield Springs, N.Y., was born Aug. 17, 1840, in Winfield. He is president of the Richfield Springs Electric Light and Power company.

McKee, Orvil O., physician, surgeon and banker of Caldwell, Ohio, was born Feb. 9, 1854, in Caldwell, Ohio. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

McKee, William J., army officer and merchant of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 12, 1853, in Madison, Ind. He is a successful merchant of Indianapolis, Ind.; and in 1898 became a brigadier-general in the United States volunteers. Since 1876 he has been a member of the Indiana national guard, subsequently attained the rank of major-general and is now commanding-general.

McKeel, Charles Haviland, philatelic expert and journalist of New York City, was born Dec. 1, 1863, in Westchester county, N. Y. He is a philatelic expert and editor of the Philatelic Journal of America.

McKeen, James, lawyer of 58 Clark st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 5, 1844, in Brunswick, Maine. Since 1906 he has been general counsel of the Mutual Life.

McKeever,Franklin Garrett,clergyman and author of Newton Center, Mass., was born Dec. 24, 1852, in Oxford, Pa. Since 1900 he has been a trustee of the Newton theological institution.

McKeever, R. Townsend,railroad official of Boston, Mass., was born July 20, 1866, in New York City. Since 1900 he has been vice-president of the Copper Range railroad.

McKellar, Peter, geologist and author of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, was born April 27, 1838, in Middlesex county, Ontario. He made a special study of geology and mining; and discovered the Huronian Gold mine and other now well known zinc, silver, iron, gold and copper mines. He has traveled in all parts of the world. He has been a justice of the peace since 1883. He is the author of The Silver Formation of Thunder Bay and other works.

McKelog, John Henry, manufacturer and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Aug. 2, 1837, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He has been vice-president of the First National bank of Pittsburgh.

McKelvey, John Jay, lawyer and author of 84 William st.,New York City,was born in 1863, in Sandusky, Ohio. He is the author of Principles of Common Law Pleading and other works.

McKelvie, Samuel Roy, journalist and statesman of Lincoln, Neb., was born April 15, 1881, in Nebraska. He is publisher of the Nebraska Farmer. In 1913 he became lieutenant-governor of Nebraska.

McKelway, St. Clair, journalist and regent of 21 Munroe place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 15, 1845, in Columbia, Mo. Since 1900 he has been vice-chancellor of regent of the university of New York.

McKenna,E.W., railroad official of 80 East Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct.24, 1848, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

McKenna, Joseph, lawyer, jurist and statesman of 2127 California ave., Washington, D. C., was born Aug. 10, 1843, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been a member of congress. Since 1898 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of the United States.

McKenna, Maurice, lawyer and poet of Fond du Lac, Wis., was born May 31, 1846, in Springfield, Mass. His productions were given a place in Poets of America and have appeared in other standard works.

McKenney, Frederic Duncan, lawyer and capitalist of Washington, D.C., was born March 11, 1863, in Washington, D.C. He is a director of the Riggs National bank.

McKenney, William Robertson, educator, lawyer and statesman of Petersburg,Va.,was born Dec. 2, 1851, in Petersburg, Va. He was elected a member of congress, but his seat was successfully contested.

McKenny, Charles, educator and college president of 123 Twenty-fifth st.,Milwaukee, Wis., was born Sept. 5, 1860, in Dimondale, Mich. Since 1900 he has been president of the state normal school at Milwaukee.

McKenzie, Frank A., merchant and banker of Mukwonago, Wis., was born June, 1860, in Vernon, Wis. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

McKenzie, John Heyward, clergyman and college president of Lima,Ind.,was born May 31, 1862, in Bourneyville, Ohio. He is rector of the Howe school and is prominently identified with educational affairs of that city.

McKenzie, Robert Tait, physician, sculptor and author of 26 South Twenty-first st.,Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 26, 1867,in Canada. Since 1904 he has been professor and director of the department of physical education at the university of Pennsylvania.

McKenzie, William P., clergyman and poet of Avon, N.Y., was born in 1861 in Canada. He is the author of two volumes of poems entitled A Song of Trust and Voices and Undertones.

McKeon, John Savage, secretary and bank official of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 3, 1845, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is secretary and trustee of the Kings County Savings institution.

McKibbin, Chambers, soldier of Chambersburg, Pa., was born Nov. 21, 1841, in Chambersburg,Pa. In 1898 he was made brigadier-general of the United States volunteers.

McKibbin, William, educator and clergyman of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born May 24, 1860, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Since 1904 he has been president of the Lane theological seminary of Cincinnati.

McKim, Alexander Rice, architect of 116 Twenty-eighth st., New York City, was born in 1836 in Boston, Mass. He was expert for the city of New York recreation piers and other dock works.

McKim, John, clergyman and bishop of 38 Tsukiji,Tokyo,Japan, was born July 17, 1852, in Pittsfield, Mass. In 1893 he was consecrated Protestant Episcopal bishop of Tokyo, Japan.

McKim, Randolph Harrison,clergyman and author of 1621 K st., Washington, D.C., was born April 15, 1842, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Christ and Modern Unbelief and other works.

McKim, William Duncan,pnysician of 1701 Eighteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 14, 1855, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Hereditary and Human Progress.

McKinlay, Duncan E., lawyer and statesman of Santa Rosa, Cal., was born Oct. 6, 1862, in Canada. In 1901 he was appointed United States attorney at San Francisco. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

McKinley, Benjamin Louis, lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 26, 1874, in San Francisco, Cal. He has received the degrees of B.A., M.A. and LL.B. In 1901 he was appointed assistant United States attorney, in 1911 was promoted to first assistant, and since 1913 has been United States attorney for the northern district of California.

McKinley,Charles Ethelbert,clergyman and author of Rockville, Conn., was born May 18, 1870, in Anita, Iowa. He is the author of Educational Evangelism.

McKinley, John C., educator, lawyer and statesman of Unionville, Mo., was born Nov. 20, 1850, in Mendota, Mo. In 1901-04 he was a member of the Missouri state senate and was placed on six important committees.

McKinley, Russell Austin, clergyman, lecturer and author of Steubenville, Ohio, was born Nov. 19, 1847, in Franklin, Pa. He is a popular lecturer and is the author of a published work.

McKinley, William Brown, business president and statesman of Champaign, Ill., was born Sept. 5, 1856, in Petersburg, Ill. He is president of the Illinois Traction company. He has been a member of congress.

McKinney, Mrs. Ida Scott Taylor, composer, author and poet of De Witt, Iowa, was born in Springfield, Ill. She is the author of Story of Columbus Told in Rhyme and other works.

McKinney, James, banker and statesman of Aledo, Ill., was born April 14, 1852, in Oquawka, Ill. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

McKinney, Mrs. Kate Slaughter, author and poet of 519 Monroe st.,Montgomery,Ala., was born Feb. 6, 1857, in London, Ky. She is the author of The Silent Witness and numerous songs which have been set to music.

McKinney, Luther Franklin, soldier,educator, clergyman, diplomat and statesman of Manchester, N.H., was born April 25, 1841, in Newark, Ohio. In 1893-97 he was United States minister to Colombia. He has been a member of congress.

McKinney, William Glenn, physician and scientist of 125 Union station, Pittsburg,Pa., was born May 26, 1868, in Kingston, Ohio. He has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and M.D. In 1894-1900 he was physician to Philadelphia. In 1900-10 he was medical examiner of the relief department of the Pennsylvania Railway company at Jersey City and since 1911 at Pittsburgh, Pa. He has contributed to the Maryland Medical Journal and various papers on medical and scientific subjects.

McKinney, William M., lawyer and author of Northport, N.Y., was born Feb. 3, 1865, in Oquawka, Ill. He is the author of A Treatise on the Law of Fellow Servants.

McKinnie, James Renwick, manufacturer and banker of Colorado Springs, Col., was born Oct. 8, 1846, in Harrison county, Ohio. He is president of the Southwestern Sugar and Land company and of various other corporations.

McKinnis, George E., banker of 103 North Broadway, Shawnee, Okla., was born Nov. 23, 1869, in Wayne county, Mo. He is vice-president of the State National bank.

McKinstry, Mrs. Miriam, minister, lecturer and author of Richford,Vt., was born May 9, 1845, in Canada. She is the author of The World's Great Empires and other works.

McKissack, Ephraim H., banker of Holly Springs, Miss., was born Nov. 23, 1860, in Memphis, Tenn. He is vice-president of the American Trust and Savings bank.

McKittrick, Hugh, merchant and capitalist of 911 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 16, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods company.

McKittrick, Thomas Harrington, merchant and capitalist of 911 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born April 17, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods company.

McKnight, Charles, banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 2, 1863, in Sewickley,Pa. He is president of the National Bank of Western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh.

McKnight, Harvey Washington, educator and college president of Gettysburg,Pa., was born April 3, 1843, in McKnightstown, Pa. In 1884-1904 he was president of the Pennsylvania college.

McKnight, John Calvin,secretary and business president of 347 Fifth ave., New York City, was born March 9, 1868, in Jackson hall, Franklin county, Pa. He studied law in the New York university law school. He visited Japan, Corea, Manchuria and China as secretary to E. H. Harriman; and for ten years visited all parts of Europe, the United States and Canada as secretary to Thomas C. Platt. He is now president of the McKnight Realty company and other corporations.

McKowen, John Clay, soldier, physician, antiquarian and author of 2419 St. Charles ave., New Orleans, La., was born in March, 1842, in Jackson, La. He is the author of Capri, historical, archaeological and ethnological study.

McKown, Samuel Hunter, retired clergyman of Gerrardstown, W.Va., was born March 20, 1842, in Gerrardstown, W.Va. He has filled pastorates in the Presbyterian church in Delaware, Ohio, New Jersey and Pennsylvania; and since 1884 in Gerrardstown.

McLachlan, James, lawyer and statesman of Pasadena, Cal., was born in August, 1852, in Scotland. In 1895-97 and 1897-1911 he was a member of congress.

McLachlen, Archibald M., banker and real estate broker of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 2, 1857, in Geneseo, N.Y. He is president of the McLachlen Banking corporation.

McLain, Frank Alexander, lawyer and statesman of Gloster, Miss., was born Jan. 29, 1853, in Amite county, Miss. In 1899-1911 he was a member of congress.

McLain, John Scudder, journalist and author of 1710 Knox ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born May 26, 1853, in Brown county, Ohio. Since 1885 he has been editor-in-chief and vice-president of the Minneapolis Journal.

McLandburgh, Florence, litterateur and author of Chicago, Ill., was born April 22, 1850, in Chillicothe, Ohio. She has published a collection short stories in book-form under the title of The Automaton Ear.

McLane, William W., clergyman and author of New Haven, Conn., was born Nov. 13, 1846, in Lewisville, Pa. He is the author of The Cross in the Light of Today and other works.

McLaughlin, Andrew Cunningham, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Feb. 14, 1861, in Beardstown, Ill. He is the author of A History of the American Nation and other works.

McLaughlin, Charles, banker of Bellefontaine, Ohio, was born July 9, 1842, in Bellefontaine, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Citizens' Building Loan company.

McLaughlin, Chester B., lawyer and jurist of 493 West End ave., New York City, was born Feb. 10, 1857, in Moriah, N.Y. In 1908 he became an associate justice of the supreme court for the appellate division of the first department.

McLaughlin, Edward, banker of 592 South Seventh st., San Jose, Cal., was born Sept. 13, 1829, in Philadelphia, Pa. He organized three banks in San Jose; and is now president of the Safe Deposit bank.

McLaughlin, James C., lawyer and statesman of Muskegon, Mich., was born in 1864 in Illinois. He has been prosecuting attorney of Muskogee county. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

McLaughlin, James Matthew, educator, musician and author of Dorchester, Mass., was born Nov. 29, 1857, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Elements and Notation of Music.

McLaughlin, James W., designer of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Nov. 1, 1834, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He designed the public library building, the Masonic temple and other buildings of Cincinnati.

McLaughlin, John Mark, lumberman and capitalist of Shippensville, Pa., was born June 18, 1873, in Elk county, Pa. He is president and general manager of the Collner Lumber company and other corporations.

McLaughlin, Mary Louise, artist and author of 2558 Edon ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. She is the author of The Second Madame, a historical sketch.

McLaurin, Anselm Joseph, lawyer and statesman of Brandon, Miss., was born March 26, 1848, in Brandon, Miss. In 1893-95 and 1901-13 he was state senator.

McLaurin, John Loundes, lawyer and statesman of Bennettsville, S.C., was born May 9, 1860, in Red Bluff, S.C. In 1897 he was United States senator.

McLaws, Emily Lafayette, linguist and author of Augusta, Ga., was born in Augusta, Ga. She is the author of When the Land Was Young and other works.

McLaws, Uldrick H., lawyer and banker of 312 Anderson st., East Savannah, Ga., was born Nov. 30, 1862, in Augusta, Ga. He is vice-president of the Commercial bank.

McLean, Andrew, journalist and lecturer of 284 Carlton ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Aug. 7, 1848, in Scotland. For the past twenty-one years he has been editor-in-chief of the Brooklyn Daily Citizen.

McLean, Charles B., banker and financier of Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Lincoln National bank of Pittsburgh.

McLean, George Payne, lawyer and statesman of Hartford, Conn., was born Oct. 7, 1857, in Simsbury, Conn. In 1886 he was a member of the state senate. In 1901-03 he was governor of the state of Connecticut.

McLean, James A., educator and college president of Moscow, Idaho, was born Aug. 2, 1868, in Canada. Since 1900 he has been president of the state university of Idaho.

McLean, John Ray, journalist and publisher of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Sept. 17, 1848, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

McLean, Simon James, educator and author of Fayetteville, Ark., was born June 14, 1871, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of Tariff History of Canada.

McLean, William Swan, lawyer and banker of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was born May 27, 1843, in Summit Hill, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

McLeay, Walt H., banker of Gandy, Neb., was born in December, 1870, in Ontario, Canada. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

McLellan, C. M. S., dramatist and author of 1404 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 4, 1865, in Bath, Maine. He is the author of The Telephone Girl and many other works.

McLellan, Thomas Nicholas, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Athens, Ala., was born Feb. 23, 1853, in Limestone county, Ala. Since 1898 he has been chief justice of the supreme court of Alabama.

McLemore, James L., jurist and banker of Suffolk, Va., was born Nov 18, 1866, in Southampton county, Va. He is president of the National ,bank of Suffolk.

McLennan, Peter Bailie, lawyer and jurist of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Dec 3, 1850, in Lyndon, N.Y. In 1907 he was assigned to the appellate division of the supreme court of New York; and re-elected for the term ending in 1920.

McLennan, William Elridge, clergyman and author of Chicago, Ill., was born in 1861, in Nova Scotia. He is the author of Letters of an Old Methodist to His Son in the Ministry and other works.

McLeod, Archibald Lonzo, lawyer and statesman of Salem, Ala., was born Dec. 27, 1859, in Jackson, Ala. In 1888-89 he was a member of the Alabama state legislature. In 1899-1903 he was mayor of his city.

McLeod, Nelson Wesley, lumberman and banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born April 28, 1860, in Calais, Maine. He is vice-president of the Grayson-McLeod Lumber company.

McLoughlin, John Edward, manufacturer and banker of Utica, N.Y., was born Aug. 10, 1852, in North of Ireland. He is treasurer and manager of the Mohawk Valley Cap factory.

McMahan, Berte Daine, banker of Camden, Ind., was born Aug. 8, 1875, in Bringhurst, Ind. He is cashier of the Farmers' State bank.

McMahon, Mrs. Anna Benneson, lecturer and author of 4577 Oakenwald ave., Chicago, Ill., was born July 24, 1846, in Quincy, Ill. She is the author of A Guide to the Student of English Literature and other works.

McMahon, Fulton, lawyer of 54 William st.,New York City,was born in 1863, in Ohio. He is a member of the New York City and the New York state bar associations.

McMahon, James, educator, mathematician and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born April 22, 1856, in Ireland. He is joint author of Higher Mathematics and Cornell Mathematical Series.

McManus, Blanche, Mrs. M. F. Mansfield, illustrator, artist and author of 22 East Sixteenth st., New York City, was born in Louisiana. She is the author of Childhood Songs of Long Ago and other works.

McMaster, Harry Ward, railroad official of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Sept. 29, 1860. Since 1873 he has been in the railway service from operator and agent to trainmaster and general manager. Since 1913 he has been general manager of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway.

McMaster, John Bach, educator and author of 2109 DeLancey st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 29, 1852, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of History of the People of the United States and other works.

McMaster, Robert Christopher, merchant and banker of Adamsville, Pa., was born June 13, 1839, in Adamsville, Pa. He served in the civil war. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Greenville.

McMaster, William C., lumber manufacturer of Kenmore, Wash., was born Aug. 20, 1876, in Kenmore, Ohio. He is secretary and manager of the John McMaster Shingle company.

McMechen, J. L., contractor and banker of McMechen, W.Va., was born in 1848 in Marshall county, W.Va. He is president of the Bank of McMechen.

McMichael, Charles B., lawyer, jurist and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now presiding judge of the court of common pleas number three.

McMichael, George Hervey, physician and author of 75 West Tupper st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Jan. 26, 1856, in Waterford, Ontario, Canada. He graduated in medicine from the university of Niagara at Buffalo, and has received the degrees of M.D., D.D.S. and L.D.S. In 1904-05 he was a member of the civil service commission for the city of Buffalo. He is the author of Alcoholism as a Disease; Humane Control for Alcoholics; and other works.

McMichael, Thomas Hanna, educator, clergyman and college president of Monmouth, Ill., was born July 7, 1863, in Bellbrook, O. Since 1903 he has been president of Monmouth college of Illinois.

McMillan, Charles, educator, journalist and civil engineer of Princeton, N.J., was born March 24, 1841, in Moscow, Russia. Since 1885 he has been editor of Smith's Topographical Drawing.

McMillan, Cliff Hawkins, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 16, 1871, in Bowling Green, Mo. He is vice-president of the Mercantile Trust company.

McMillan, Daniel Hugh, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Las Cruces, N.M., was born March 7, 1848, in York, N.Y. In 1903 he was associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

McMillan, Duncan James, clergyman, organizer and college president of 226 West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth st., New York City, was born June 2, 1846, in Gemini Fontes, Tenn. In 1883-90 he was president of the college of Montana.

McMillan, Mrs. Elva Irene, evangelist and poet of Lyons, Kan., was born March 26, 1867, in Clinton, Ill. She is the author of a volume of poems entitled Lyric of the West and other works.

McMillan, Philip Hamilton, lawyer and bank director of Detroit, Mich., was born

Dec. 28, 1872, in Detroit, Mich. He is vice-president of the Michigan Malleable Iron company.

McMillan, Samuel, railroad president and statesman of Lake Mahopac, N.Y., was born Aug. 16, 1850, in Ireland. He is president of the Pelham Park Railroad company. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

McMillan, William Harrison, clergyman and author of 939 Beech ave., Allegheny, Pa., was born Dec. 18, 1837, in Ibina, Ohio. He is the author of The Effect of Mechanical Invention on the Interests of Labor and other works.

McMillen, Liston, lecturer, lawyer and author of Oskaloosa, Iowa, was born Dec. 10, 1847, in Richwood, Ohio. He is the author of a work entitled Alathiasis, which treats of the principles of christian hygiene.

McMillin, Benton, statesman of Carthage, Tenn., was born Sept. 11, 1845, in Monroe county, Ky. He has been governor of Tennessee; and has been a member of the state legislature.

McMillin, Emerson, banker of 40 Wall st., New York City, was born April 16, 1844, in Ewington, Ohio. During 1874-90 he acquired and owned several gas plants in the west; and in 1889 consolidated the four gas companies of St. Louis. In 1891 he established the banking house of Emerson McMillan and company of New York City, which has made a specialty of the purchase and consolidation of gas and electric lighting companies and the handling of their securities. He is president of over fifty gas and electric light companies throughout the United States.

McMorran, Henry, banker and statesman of Port Huron, Mich., was born June 11, 1844, in Port Huron, Mich. He is president of the Port Huron Savings bank.

McMorris, Charles Gentry, banker of 18 North Bridge st., Wetumpka, Ala., was born Aug. 4, 1869, in Wetumpka, Ala. He is cashier of the First National bank.

McMurray, James Henry, educator and college president of Lincoln, Ill., was born in 1871 in Tuscarawas, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been president of Lincoln college of Illinois.

McMurray, Robert John, physician and banker of St. Francisville, Ill., was born Feb. 12, 1853, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank of St. Francisville.

McMurrich, James Playfair, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Oct. 16, 1859, in Canada. He is the author of Invertebrate Morphology, a text book and other works.

McMurray, Charles Alexander, educator and author of DeKalb, Ill., was born Feb. 18, 1857, in Crawfordsville, Ind. He is the author of Course of Study in the English Grades and other works.

McMurry, Frank Morton, educator and author of Yonkers, N.Y., was born in 1862 in Crawfordsville, Ind. He is joint author of Tarr and McMurray common school geographies and other works.

McMurtry, George G., capitalist of 71 Broadway, New York City. He is a director of the American Can company and various other corporations.

McNagny, William F., lawyer and statesman of Columbia City, Ind., was born April 19, 1850, in Summit county, Ohio. In 1893-95 he was a member of congress.

McNair, Eben O., banker of Buffalo, N.Y., was born in 1850. In 1872 he became cashier of the Bank of Warsaw, N.Y., and subsequently was made president. In 1898 he engaged in private banking in Buffalo; and became president of the Commonwealth Trust company of Buffalo upon its organization in 1903, and still continues as president of that institution. He has been vice-president of the Buffalo chapter of the sons of the American revolution; and is a member of the Buffalo historical society and of the national geographical society.

McNair, Fred Walter, educator and college president of Houghton, Mich., was born Dec. 3, 1862, in Fennimore, Wis. Since 1899 he has been president of the Michigan college of mines.

McNair, James Preston, farmer and banker of Aiken, S.C., was born July 14, 1860, in Robeson county, N.C. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank.

McNally, Michael, physician and surgeon of Michigan Valley, Kan., was born May 8, 1847, in Lockport, Ill. He is medical examiner for the Travelers Life Insurance company of Hartford; and is a member of the leading American medical and scientific societies.

McNally, Charles T., merchant and banker of Groveton, N.H., was born Sept. 5, 1853, in St. Albans, Vt. He is president of the Coos County National bank.

McNamara, Arthur, banker of North Platte, Neb., was born Aug. 25, 1867, in Whitewater, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

McNary, Williams, statesman of Boston, Mass. In 1903-05 he was a member of congress.

McMaugher, John, educator, clergyman and author of Allegheny, Pa., was born Dec. 30, 1857, in Allegheny, Pa. He is the author of The United Presbyterian Church, Its History and Mission.

McNaught, Francis Henry, educator, physician and surgeon of Denver, Col., was born June 15, 1856, in Hobart, N.Y. He has been professor of obstetrics in the university of Denver.

McNaught, James, lawyer and railroad official of Tarrytown, N.Y., was born Sept. 9, 1842, in Lexington, Ill. He is president of the Great Northern Construction company of West Virginia.

McNeal, Joseph W., banker of Guthrie, Okla., was born Jan. 9, 1851, in Morrow county, Ohio. He is president of the National Bank of Commerce.

McNeal, Joshua Vansant, railroad official of Baltimore, Md., was born June 11, 1846, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1904 he has been fourth vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

McNeal, Thomas Allen, journalist and author of Topeka, Kan.,was born Oct. 14, 1853, in Marion county, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been state printer of Kansas. He is the author of Tom McNeal's Fables.

McNear, George Washington, commission and grain merchant of San Francisco, Cal., was born March 27, 1830, in Washington, Maine. He owns about twenty-five warehouses in California.

McNeil, Hirm Colver, educator, chemist and author of 1292 Mount Vernon ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born Oct. 2, 1866, in Emerald, Ohio. He is the author of The Constitution of Certain Natural Silicates.

McNeill, Israel C., educator and college president of Memphis, Tenn., was born Aug. 31, 1855, in Avoca, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been superintendent of the public schools of Memphis.

McNicoll, D., railroad official of Montreal, Canada, was born in April, 1852, in Scotland. Since 1903 he has been vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railroad.

McNinch, Maggie, educator and poet of Williamston, S.C., was born in Chester, S.C. She is the author of a number of stories and a volume of poems entitled Wayside Flowers.

McNish, Jesse Clark, banker of Wisner, Neb., was born July 5, 1878, in Wisner, Neb. He is president of the First National bank.

McNiven, James A., banker of Marshall, Minn., was born Aug. 14, 1862, in Ontario, Canada. He is president of the Marshall State bank.

McNulty, M. John, public official of Portland, Ore., was born Jan. 22, 1881, in Potsdam, N.Y. He was educated for civil engineer at the Clarkson school of technology, university state of New York; and received the degree of Bachelor of Laws from university of Oregon. He served four years at sea in the United States navy; and was a commander in the Oregon naval militia. He is professor of navigation in the public school system of Portland; and is a successful admiralty and engineering attorney. He is also lieutenant-commander, state naval board; and nautical expert, United States naval hydrographic office.

McOwen, Frederick, capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa. He is treasurer of the Berwind-White Coal Mining company and a director of other corporations.

McParlin, Lawrence Jermain, lawyer and jurist of Lockport, N.Y., was born Nov. 14, 1848, in Lockport, N.Y. He has been nominated seven times as associate judge of the court of appeals of the state of New York.

McPherson, John Bayard, lawyer and jurist of 2216 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 5, 1846, in Harrisburg, Pa. Since 1899 he has been United States district judge for the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

McPherson, John Hanson Thomas, educator and author of Athens, Ga., was born Oct. 30, 1865, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of The Civil Government of Georgia and other works.

McPherson, Logan Grant, author of New Brighton, N.Y., was born Aug. 11, 1863, in Circleville, Ohio. He is the author of The Meaning of Corporations and Trusts and other works.

McPherson,Smith, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Red Oak, Iowa, was born Feb. 14, 1848, in Morgan county, Ind. Since 1900 he has been United States district judge for the southern district of Iowa. He has been a member of congress.

McPherson, William Lenhart, journalist and newspaper correspondent of New York City, was born May 23, 1865, in Gettysburg, Pa. Since 1903 he has been editorial writer of the New York Tribune.

McPike, Eugene F., railroad manager of Chicago, Ill., was born July 18, 1870, in Alton, Ill. He entered railway service in 1894 as a stenographer in the general freight department of the Illinois Central railroad, and has since filled various positions to secretary, treasurer and manager. In 1910 he was official delegate of the United States government and of the railroad refrigerator service association to the second international congress of refrigeration held in Vienna. Since 1912 he has been manager of the perishable freight service of the Illinois Central railroad at Chicago.

McQueen, Henry Clay, banker of Wilmington, N.C., was born July 16, 1846, in Lumberton, N.C. He is president of the People's Savings bank.

McRae, Edwin Farquhar, banker of McRae, Ga., was born in 1863, in McRae, Ga. He is vice-president of the Merchants' bank.

McRae, Milton A., publisher of 36 Ferry ave., Detroit, Mich., was born June 13, 1859, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of the Harper hospital and second vice-president of the Detroit Y.M.C.A.

McRae,Thomas Chipman, soldier and statesman of Prescott, Ark., was born Dec. 21, 1851, in Mount Holly, Ark. In 1885-1903 he was a member of congress.

McReavy, John, merchant, manufacturer and statesman of Union City, Wash., was born Feb. 23, 1840, in Northfield, Maine. In 1869 he was a member of the house of the editorial legislature. He is now engaged in the milling business.

McReynolds, John Oliver, physician and ophthalmologist of Dallas, Texas, was born July 23, 1865, in Elkton, Ky. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S., LL.D. and his medical degree from the college of physicians and surgeons of Baltimore. He has made five trips to Europe, attending eye and ear clinics in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. He has taught mathematics, natural science and astronomy in various schools and colleges. In 1903 he organized and has since been dean and professor of ophthalmology in the Southwestern university medical college. He is president of the Trust Building company and a director in the Southland Life Insurance company.

McReynolds, Peter Wesley, clergyman and college president of Defiance, Ohio, was born March 16, 1872, in Kokomo, Ind. He is now president of the Defiance college of Ohio.

McRoberts, Mrs. Harriet Skinner, litterateur and author of 4700 Kenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in Creston, Iowa. She is the author of Boys Who Became Famous Men.

McShane, John A., business man and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born Aug. 25, 1850, in New Lexington, Ohio. He is president of the Union Stock Yards bank at South Omaha. In 1887-89 he was a member of congress.

McSpadden, Joseph Walker, editor and author of Montclair, N.J., was born May 13, 1874, in Knoxville, Tenn. He is the author of Famous Painters of America and other works.

McSurely, William Harvey, lawyer and jurist of 5136 Kenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 27, 1865, in Oxford, Ohio. He has been president of the Union League club; and since 1907 has been judge of the superior court of Illinois.

McSween, John, merchant and banker of Timmonsville, S.C., was born Dec. 21, 1847, in Scotland. He is president of the John McSween company.

McSweeney, Edward Francis, journalist lecturer and author of 927 Tremont place, Boston, Mass., was born April 12, 1864, in Marlboro, Mass. In 1892-1902 he was assistant United States commissioner of immigration, Port of New York. In 1904-09 he was editor-in-chief of the Boston Traveler; and since 1912 has been a member of the Massachusetts industrial accident board. He is a lecturer and writer on economical and social matters.

McSweeney, Miles Benjamin, journalist and statesman of Columbia, S.C., was born April 18, 1855, in Charleston, S.C. In 1894 he was a member of the South Carolina state legislature.

McSweeney, Patrick E., physician, surgeon and banker of Burlington, Vt., was born Feb. 24, 1862, in Glen Falls, N.Y. He is president of the Champlain Trust company.

McTeer, Will A., lawyer and banker of Maryville, Tenn., was born Sept. 16, 1843, in Little River, Tenn. He is president of the Bank of Maryville.

McVay, William Edward, banker of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Oct. 25, 1864, in Dixon, Ill. He is vice-president of the German-American Savings bank.

McVey, Alfred Henry, lawyer and author of Wilmington, Ohio, was born April 28, 1843, in Fayette county, Ohio. He is the author of Christianity Before the Law and other works.

McVey, Frank Lerond, educator and author of Grand Forks, N.D., was born Nov. 10, 1869, in Wilmington, Ohio. He is the author of Populist Movement; History and Government of Minnesota; and Modern Industrialism.

McVickar, Edward, real estate operator of 200 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1869 in Boston, Mass. In 1904 he organized the Shippan Point Land company.

McWhirter, Felix T., banker of 132 East Market st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born July 17, 1853, in Lynchburg, Tenn. He is president of the Peoples' State bank; and has been mayor of Athens.

McWilliams, Clarence Arthur, surgeon of 32 East Fifty-third st., New York City, was born in 1870 in Brooklyn, N.Y. He was assistant surgeon on the United States army hospital ship relief during the Spanish-American war. He is instructor in surgery at the college of physicians and surgeons of the Trinity hospital.

McWillie, Thomas Anderson, lawyer and statesman of Jackson, Miss., was born July 18, 1849, in Kirkwood, Miss. He is general attorney and a director of the Alabama and Vicksburg Railroad company.

Mead, Albert Edward, lawyer and statesman of Bellingham, Wash., was born Dec. 14, 1861, in Manhattan, Kan. Since 1905 he has been governor of the state of Washington.

Mead, Charles Marsh, clergyman, theologian and author of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 28, 1836, in Cornwall, Vt. He is the author of Romans Dissected and other works.

Mead, Charles Wilbur, banker of Maskell, Neb., was born Sept. 25, 1887, in Long Pine, Neb. He is cashier of the Maskell State bank.

Mead, David Irving, lawyer and capitalist of 350 Fulton st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1875 in Brooklyn. He is president of The Beaver Hills company.

Mead, Edwin Doak, lecturer and author of 20 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 29, 1849, in Chesterfield, N.Y. He is the author of Martin Luther and other works.

Mead, Elizabeth Storrs, educator and college president of Oberlin, Ohio, was born in 1832 in Conway, Mass. In 1890-1900 she was president of Mount Holyoke college.

Mead, Elwood, educator, irrigation expert and author of Melbourne, Australia, was born Jan. 16, 1858, in Patriot, Ind. Since 1907 he has been chairman of the commission on the river and water supply in Victoria, Australia.

Mead, George Whitefield, clergyman and author of 763 South ave., Wilkinsburg, Pa., was born May 27, 1865, in Norwalk, Ohio. Since 1906 he has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. He is the author of Modern Methods in Church Work and other works.

Mead, John Abner, manufacturer, banker and statesman of Rutland, Vt., was born April 20, 1841, in Fairhaven, Vt. He is president of the Howe Scale company.

Mead, Julian Augustus, physician and banker of Watertown, Mass., was born in 1856 in West Acton, Mass. He is president of the Watertown Savings bank.

Mead, Larkin Goldsmith, sculptor of Florence, Italy, was born Jan. 3, 1835, in Chesterfield, N.H. He has executed many famous groups, monuments, portrait statues and ideal figures. His best known work is the Recording Angel.

Mead, Lewis, banker of Council Grove, Kan., was born Feb. 8, 1838, in New York. He is president of the Morris County State bank.

Mead, Mrs. Lucia Ames, lecturer and author of 32 Newbury st., Boston, Mass., was born May 5, 1856, in Boscawen, N.H. She is the author of To Whom Much Is Given and other works.

Mead, Olive, musician and composer of Cambridge, Mass., was born Nov. 22, 1874, in Cambridge, Mass. He is a talented concert-violinist.

Mead, Varnum Balfour, railroad president of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 16, 1832, in Bosboro, Mass. He has been president of the Franklin and Megantic railroad.

Mead, William Edward, educator and author of Middletown, Conn., was born Oct. 25, 1860, in Gallupville, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been professor of English Language at Wesleyan university. He is the author of Language Lessons and other works.

Mead, William Leon, journalist, inventor, author and poet of 149 Chapin st., Binghamton, N.Y., was born April 27, 1861, in Margaretville, N.Y. He has been editor of the Form Magazine. He is the author of Valentine and other works.

Mead, William Whitman, naval officer of Wayne, Pa., was born Feb. 8, 1845, in Burlington, Ky. He served in the Spanish-American war; and in 1905 was advanced to the rank of rear-admiral.

Meade, Edward Sherwood, educator and author of Swarthmore, Pa., was born Jan. 25, 1874, in Medina, Ohio. He is the author of Trust Finance and other works.

Meade, John W., banker of Gallatin, Mo., was born May 26, 1864, in Missouri. He is president of the Farmers' Exchange bank.

Meade, Richard Kidder, educator, chemist and author of 320 Forest road, Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 28, 1874, in Charlottesville, Va. He has been professor of chemistry in the Lafayette college. He is the author of Chemists' Pocket Manual.

Meade, Richard Worsam, business president of New York City, was born Feb. 7, 1870, at Cold Spring, N.Y. He is president of the New York Transportation company and a director of other corporations.

Meade, William Kidder, miner, federal official and statesman of Tucson, Ariz., was born Sept. 20, 1851, in Clark county, Va. In 1885 he was appointed United States marshal to Arizona.

Meader, Clarence Linton, educator and author of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Aug. 12, 1868, in Battle Creek, Mich. Since 1905 he has been professor of linguistic science at the university of Michigan. He is the author of An Outline of Roman Law and other works.

Means, David Mac Gregor, educator, lawyer and author of Summit, N.J., was born May 1, 1847, in Groton, Mass. He is the author of The Boss and other works.

Meany, Edmond Stephen, educator, statesman and author of 4025 Tenth ave., Seattle, Wash., was born Dec. 28, 1862, in East Saginaw, Mich. Since 1907 he has been professor of history at the university of Washington. He is the author of History of the State of Washington and other works.

Meany, Edward P., lawyer and financier of of 55 Liberty st., New York City, was born May 13, 1854, in Louisville, Ky. He is vice-president of the Trust Company of New Jersey.

Meara, Frank Sherman, educator and physician of 400 West End ave., New York City, was born in Salem, Mass. He received the degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. from Yale and the degree of M.D. from Columbia. Since 1903 he has been a teacher; and since 1909 professor of therapeutics in Cornell university medical college in New York City. He is associate attending physician to St. Luke's hospital and other hospitals.

Mearns, Edgar Alexander, soldier and author of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 11, 1856, in Highland Falls, N.Y. In 1901 he attained the rank of major-surgeon. He is the author of Mammals of the Mexican Boundary of the United States.

Mears, David Otis, clergyman and author of Essex, Mass., was born Feb. 22, 1842, in Essex, Mass. Since 1895 he has been pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church. He is the author of The Deathless Book and other works.

Mears, Helen Farnsworth, designer and sculptor of 253 West Forty-second st., New York City, was born in 1878 in Oshkosh, Wis. Her best known work was the Fountain of Life.

Mears, Leverett, educator and author of Williamstown, Mass., was born May 19, 1850, in Essex, Mass. Since 1888 he has been professor of chemistry in Williams college. He is the author of Lecture Notes on Chemistry and other works.

Mears, Mary M., litterateur and author of The Clinton, 253 West Forty-second st., New York City, was born Jan. 2, 1871, in Oshkosh, Wis. She is the author of Breath of the Runners and other works.

Mebane, B. Frank, manufacturer and banker of Spray, N.C., was born Feb. 4, 1865, in Mebane, North Carolina. He is president of the Imperial Trust and Savings bank.

Mechem, Floyd Russell, lawyer and author of 5714 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born May 9, 1858, in Nunda, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been professor of law at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Cases in Agency and other works.

Medlock, James Travis, banker of 442 Cambridge st., Greenwood, S.C., was born Aug. 18, 1856, in Laurens county, S.C. He is president of the National Loan and Exchange bank.

Mee, Walter R., publisher of 19 South La Salle st., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 21, 1880, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the Illinois christian endeavor union; and western manager of the united society of Christian endeavor. He is also executive secretary of the Chicago Christian endeavor union and trustee of the united society of Christian endeavor.

Meech, George Thomas, merchant and capitalist of 340 Main st., Middletown, Conn., was born Dec. 22, 1843, in Lisbon, Conn. He is a director of the Columbia Trust company; and has served in the civil war.

Meehan, William E., botanist, editor and author of Harrisburg, Pa., was born Aug. 31, 1853, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1891 he has been associate editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger. He is the author of Arctic Seas and other works.

Meek, Edward Roscoe, lawyer and jurist of Dallas, Texas, was born Dec. 23, 1865, in Davenport, Iowa. He has been judge of the United States district court for the northern district of Texas.

Meek, Samuel B., banker of Warren, Ark., was born March 5, 1859, in Yorkville, S.C. He is president of the Warren bank.

Meeker, Joseph Rusling, painter and artist of St. Louis, Mo., was born April 21, 1827, in Newark, N.J. His best known painting is The Indian Chief.

Meeker, Nathaniel H., banker of Greenwood, Neb., was born April 6, 1854, in Peoria county, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Meeker, Stephen, manufacturer of 17 High st., Orange, N.J., was born March 17, 1843, in Newark, N.J. He is a member of the state board of assessors of New Jersey.

Meekins, Lynn Roby, journalist and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Nov. 14, 1862, in Salem, Md. Since 1907 he has been president and publisher of the Baltimore Herald. He is the author of Adam Rush and other works.

Meekison, David, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Napoleon, Ohio, was born Nov. 14, 1849, in Dundee, Scotland. He has been mayor of his city.

Meeks, Eugene, painter and artist of Florence, Italy, was born in 1843 in New York. His best known painting is Nell and Her Grandfather.

Meergchaert, Theophile, clergyman and bishop of Oklahoma City, Okla., was born Aug. 24, 1847, in Belgium. In 1905 he was made bishop of Oklahoma.

Mees, Arthur, musical director, composer and author of 80 St. Nicholas ave., New York City, was born Feb. 13, 1850, in Columbus, Ohio. He is the author of Chorus and Choral Music.

Mees, Carl Leo, educator, college president and author of 2209 West Ninth st., Terre Haute, Ind., was born May 20, 1853, in Columbus, Ohio. Since 1895 he has been president of the Rose polytechnic institute.

Mees, Otto, educator and college president of Columbus, Ohio, was born Feb. 19, 1879, in Columbus, Ohio. Since 1913 he has been president of the Capital university.

Mees, Theophilus Martin Konrad, clergyman, educator and author of 27 North Seventeenth st., Columbus, Ohio. He has been president of the teachers' seminary of Woodville, Ohio. He is the author of School Government and Methods.

Mehan, John Dennis, educator, musician and founder of New York City, was born March 1, 1847, in Conway, Mich. He founded the Mehan school of vocal art.

Mehlin, Henry Paul, manufacturer and financier of New York City, was born June 6, 1864, in New York City. He is president of the National Piano company.

Meighan, Burton C., lawyer of Mamaroneck, N.Y., was born in 1871 in Mamaroneck, N.Y. He is trustee and counsel of the Union Savings bank of Westchester and counsel for other corporations.

Meigs, Arthur Vincent, physician and author of 1322 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Origin of Disease and other works.

Meigs, Montgomery, civil engineer and inventor of Keokuk, Iowa, was born Feb. 27, 1847, in Detroit, Mich. Since 1874 he has been employed on the improvement of the Mississippi river from St. Paul, Minn., to the mouth of the Missouri river.

Meigs, William Montgomery, lawyer and author of 1815 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 12, 1852, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of the Life of Josiah Meigs and other works.

Meiklejohn, George D., lawyer and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born Aug. 27, 1857, in Waupaca county, Wis. He has been lieutenant-governor of Nebraska.

Meinecke, Emilio P., expert forest pathologist of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 26, 1869, in Alameda, Cal. In 1893 he received the degree of Ph.D. from Heidelburg university, and in 1894-98 was assistant botanist instructor in that institution. In 1907-10 he was expert forest pathologist in the bureau of plant industry of the United States department of agriculture; and since 1911 has been United States forest pathologist at San Francisco. He is the author of Pathology of Forest Trees.

Meinert, Frederick George, pharmacist and banker of Remsen, Iowa, was born June 15, 1862, in Lembeck, Germany. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Meissner, Gustav, banker of Oconomowoc, Wis., was born Jan. 15, 1844, in Germany. He is president of the First National bank.

Meister, Emil, clergyman and journalist of Lancaster, Va., was born May 18, 1850, in Germany. He is the editor of the Family Friend and Church Messenger.

Melba, Nellie, singer and actress of 30 Great Cumberland place, London, England, was born in 1866, in Melbourne, Australia. She has appeared in grand opera in United States and Europe.

Melchers, Carl, painter and artist of 173 Seyburn ave., Detroit, Mich., was born Aug. 11, 1860, in Detroit, Mich. His best known work is The Shipbuilder.

Melden, Charles Manly, educator, clergyman and college president of 5318 St.Charles ave., New Orleans, La., was born July 18, 1853, in Salem, Mass. Since 1897 he has been president of the Clark university of Atlanta, Ga.

Meldrim, Peter W., lawyer and statesman of 14 Macon st., Savannah, Ga., was born Dec. 4, 1848, in Savannah, Ga. He has been mayor of his city. He has been a member of the Georgia state senate.

Melendy, Mrs. Mary Ries, physician and author of 3815 Ellis ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 27, 1841, in Switzerland. She is the author of Perfect Woman and other works.

Melgard, Hawkin, banker of 202 South Maine st., Moscow, Idaho, was born Jan. 17, 1880, in Norway. He is secretary and manager of the First Trust company.

Melick, John E., railroad president of Morristown, N.J., was born Sept. 1, 1855, in Lebanon, N.J. In 1895 he became president of the Whippany River railroad.

Mell, Patrick Hues, educator, inventor, college president and author of Clemson College, S.C., was born May 24, 1850, in Penfield, Ga. Since 1902 he has been president of the Clemson agricultural college.

Melle, Rosine, educator and author of Baltimore, Md., was born April 14, 1860, in Paris, France. She is an instructor in French at the Woman's college of Baltimore, Md. She is the author of The French Contemporary Writers and other works.

Mellen, Charles Sanger, railroad president of New Haven, Conn., was born Aug. 16, 1851, in Lowell, Mass. Since 1903 he has been president of the New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Mellen, Chase, lawyer of 32 Nassau st., New York City, was born Sept. 21, 1863, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is a member of the American bar association.

Mellin, Carl Johan, mechanical engineer, designer and inventor of Schenectady, N.Y., was born Feb. 17, 1851, in Sweden. Since 1902 he has been consulting engineer to the American Locomotive company.

Mellon, Andrew W., banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born March 24, 1855, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Mellon National bank.

Mellon, James R., banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 14, 1846, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the City Deposit bank and other corporations.

Mellon, William Larimer, capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born June 1, 1868, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Monongahela Street railway and other corporations.

Mellor, John H., banker of Rochester, Pa., was born May 11, 1873, in Wellsville, Ohio. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Melnor, Frank R., banker of Litchfield, Ill., was born Dec. 15, 1846, in Alton, Ill. He has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Litchfield Bank and Trust company.

Melton, Luke Lee, farmer, merchant, miller and banker of Gassaway, Tenn., was born April 20, 1845, in Cannon county, Tenn. He is vice-president of the Meltons' bank.

Meltzer, Charles Henry, journalist, dramatic critic and author of 476 Central Park, New York City, was born in London, England. He is the author of His Honor the Mayor and other plays.

Melville, George Wallace, civil engineer and author of 620 North Eighteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1841, in New York City. Since 1887 he has been chief of the bureau of steam engineering in the United States navy. He is the author of In the Lena Delta.

Melville, Henry, clergyman and bishop of Selma, Ala., was born July 28, 1848, in Leesburg, Va. In 1891 he was consecrated bishop coadjutor of Alabama.

Melville, Henry, soldier, lawyer and author of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 25, 1858, in Nelson, N.H. He served in the Spanish American war. He is the author of Ancestry of John Whitney.

Melvin, Henry Alexander, lawyer and jurist of San Francisco, Cal., was born Sept. 28, 1865, in Springfield, Ill. Since 1909 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court.

Meminger, C. Gustavus, consulting mining engineer and banker of Lakeland, Fla., was born Aug. 10, 1864, in Charleston, S.C. He is president of the State bank.

Memminger, Allard, physician and author of 34 Montague st., Charleston, S.C., was born Sept. 30, 1854, in Charleston, S.C. He has been state chemist of South Carolina. He is the author of Science in the Field and other works.

Memminger, Thomas F., banker of Atoka, Okla., was born in Wheeling, W.Va. He is president of the Atoka State bank.

Mencken, Henry Louis, journalist and author of 1524 Hollins st., Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 12, 1880, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1906 he has been on the staff of the Baltimore Sun. He is the author of Ventures into Verse and other works.

Mendenhall, Harlan George, clergyman and author of 311 West Seventy-fifth st., New York City, was born in Coatesville, Pa. He has received the degrees of A.M. and D.D., and is a graduate of the Western theological seminary. He has filled pastorates in the Presbyterian church in Fort Wayne, Pittsburgh, Brooklyn, Kansas City and New York City. He is associate-editor of the Springfield Republican. He is the author of Presbyterianism in North Amboy.

Mendenhall, Thomas Corwin, educator, scientist and author of Ravenna, Ohio, was born Oct. 4, 1841, near Hanoverton, Ohio. He has been president of the Worcester polytechnic institute. He is the author of A Century of Electricity.

Mendenhall, Thomas L., farmer and banker of Springville, Utah, was born Oct. 29, 1841, in Wilmington, Del. He is president of the Mendenhall Banking company.

Mendes, Arthur De Sola, railroad official of Union Springs, Ala., was born Jan. 6, 1885, in New York City. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Georgia Coast and Piedmont railroad.

Mendes, Frederick De Sola, clergyman and author of Rockaway, N.J., was born July 8, 1850, in the West Indies. Since 1874 he has been rabbi of the west end synagogue of New York City. He is the author of Jewish School Books and other works.

Mendes, Henry Pereira, clergyman, founder and author of 99 Central park, New York City, was born April 13, 1852, in Birmingham, England. Since 1901 he has been president of the New York board of Jewish interests. He is the author of Union Primer and other works.

Mendoza, Francisco Felix, physician, pharmacist, journalist and author of 1568 Franklin st., Tampa, Fla., was born July 10, 1851, in Havana, Cuba. He served in the Spanish-American war. He has been Cuban consul at Tampa. Fla., and at Malaga, Spain.

Menzemer, H. J., college president of Boulder, Mont., was born July 9, 1879, in Galena, Ill. He is president of the Montana state school for the deaf, blind and backward children.

Mercer, Alfred Clifford, physician and author of 324 Montgomery st., Syracuse, N.Y., was born July 5, 1855, in Syracuse, N.Y. Since 1904 he has been professor of pediatrics at Syracuse university. He is the author of An Experimental Study of Aperture as a Factor in Microscopic Vision and other works.

Mercer, David Henry, lawyer and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born July 9, 1857, in Benton county, Iowa. In 1893-1903 he was a member of congress.

Mercer, George Gluyas, lawyer and founder of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 20, 1853, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of the Transportation company.

Mercer, Henry Chapman, anthropologist, archaeologist and author of Doylestown, Pa., was born June 24, 1856, in Doylestown, Pa. He is the author of Hill Caves of Yucatan and other works.

Merchant, Clarke, naval officer and manufacturer of 517 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 28, 1836, in Savannah, Ga. He served in the civil war. He is one of the largest importers and manufacturers of tin plate. He died May 7, 1904.

Mercur, Rodney Augustus, lawyer and jurist of Towanda, Pa., was born Sept. 29, 1850, in Towanda, Pa. He is a director of the Towanda Gas company and other corporations.

Meredith, Ellis, journalist and author of 3325 Decatur st., Denver, Col., was born in Bozeman, Mont. She is the author of Under the Harrow and other works.

Meredith, L. P., educator, physician and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born March 18, 1841, in Xenia, Ohio. He served in the civil war. He is the author of History of Dentistry and other works.

Meredith, Thomas Overton, physician, surgeon and banker of Burgin, Ky., was born Aug. 3, 1863, in Louisa county, Va. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Meredith, William Henry, clergyman, journalist and author of Framingham, Mass., was born March 28, 1844, in England. Since 1907 he has been pastor of the Saxonville Episcopal church. He is the author of The Real John Wesley and other works.

Mergen, Leo A., banker of Beloit, Kan., was born Sept. 7, 1889, in Tipton, Kan. He is cashier of the German National bank.

Merickel, Arthur J., banker of Wadena, Minn., was born April 31, 1863, in Dodge county, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

Merington, Ruth, artist of 1408 Bushwick ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in London, England. Pupil of N.A.D. and A.S.L., in New York, under Edgar M. Ward, Bruce Crane and Birge Harrison. She has exhibited at the national academy of design and other art galleries.

Merington, Marguerite, playwright and author of 509 East Seventy-eighth st., New York City, was born in England. She is the author of Scarlet of the Mounted and other works.

Meriwether, Colyer, educator and author of 1439 Rhode Island ave., Washington, D.C., was born at Clark's Hill, S.C. He is secretary and treasurer of the Washington southern historical association. He is the author of History of Higher Education in South Carolina.

Meriwether, Mrs. Elizabeth Avery, author of 3716 Delmar boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born in 1832 in Bolivar, Tenn. She is the author of My First and Last Love and other works.

Meriwether, Lee, lawyer and author of 3716 Delmar boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 25, 1862, in Columbus, Miss. He is the author of The Tramp at Home and other works.

Merken, Jacob Stanwood, soldier and merchant of Memphis, Tenn., was born Sept. 25, 1838, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He served in the civil war.

Merle, Martin V., playwright of Santa Clara, Cal., was born May 27, 1880, in San Francisco, Cal. He is the author of The Light Eternal and other plays.

Merrell, Edward Huntington, educator, clergyman and college president of Ripon, Wis., was born April 15, 1835, in Hartford, N.Y. He has been president of the Ripon college.

Merrell, John Porter, naval officer and college president of Marshall, Mich., was born Sept. 7, 1846, in Auburn, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been president of the United States naval war college.

Merriam, Chad, educator and author of Chicago, Ill., was born in 1874 in Hopkinton, Iowa. Since 1905 he has been assistant professor of political science at the university of Chicago. He is the author of A History of American Political Theory.

Merriam, Charles Edward, educator and author of 6041 Lexington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1874 in Hopkinton, Iowa. Since 1903 he has been instructor in political science in the university of Chicago. He is the author of Municipal Revenues of Chicago and other works.

Merriam, Clinton Hart, naturalist and author of 1919 Sixteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 5, 1855, in New York City. He is the author of Birds of Connecticut and other works.

Merriam, Edmund Franklin, editor and author of Sharon, Mass., was born Jan. 26, 1847, in Winthrop, Maine. He is managing editor of the Watchman Examiner.

Merriam, George Spring, litterateur and author of Springfield, Mass., was born Jan. 13, 1843, in Springfield, Mass. He is the author of The Way of Life and other works.

Merriam, Henry Clay, soldier and inventor of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 13, 1837, in Maine. He was promoted to major-general, United States volunteers; and was retired in 1902.

Merriam, William Rush, capitalist, banker and statesman of 1054 Thirty-first st., Washington, D.C., was born July 26, 1849, in Wadham's Mills, N.Y. He is president of the Tabulating Machine company. He has been governor of Minnesota.

Merrick, Caroline Elizabeth, reformer and author of 1404 Napoleon ave., New Orleans, La., was born Nov. 24, 1825, in Cottage Hall,La. She is the author of Old Times in Dixie Land and other works.

Merrick, Charles Morris, banker of 1439 Third ave.,New Brighton, Pa.,was born April 14, 1834, in Jordan, N.Y. He is president of the Union National bank. He served in the civil war.

Merrick, Samuel Vaughan, capitalist of 5219 Wayne ave., Philadelphia, Pa.,was born Dec. 10, 1856, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a trustee of the St. Christopher's hospital.

Merrifield, Webster, educator and college president of Pasadena, Cal., was born July 27, 1852, in Williamsville, Vt. Since 1901 he has been president of the state university of North Dakota.

Merrill, Abner Hopkins, soldier of Montclair, N.J., was born Jan. 19, 1843, in New York. He was retired in 1906 with the rank of brigadier-general.

Merrill, Allyne Litchfield, educator and author of Belmont, Mass., was born Aug. 8, 1864, in Malden, Mass. Since 1905 he has been professor of mechanism in the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Elements of Mechanism.

Merrill, Charles Edmund, publisher of 44 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Feb. 26, 1848, in Hanover, N.H. He is president of Charles E. Merrill company, publishers.

Merrill, Cyrus Strong, surgeon and oculist of 248 State st., Albany,N.Y., was born Sept. 21, 1874, in Bridgeport, Vt. He is president of two pulp and paper companies of his city.

Merrill, Eugene H., banker of 403 First ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., was born Aug. 26, 1847, in Byron, N.Y. In 1875-83 he practiced law in Minneapolis; and in 1883-1910 was president of the Minnesota Loan and Trust company; and is now chairman of the board of directors. He is also a director of the Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis.

Merrill, Frank Thayer, artist of 16 Tremlett st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 14, 1848, in Boston, Mass. His best known works are the illustrations in Rip Van Winkle.

Merrill, Frederick James Hamilton, geologist and scientist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born April 30, 1861, in New York City. Since 1904 he has been engaged in private practice as a mining geologist.

Merrill, George A., merchant and statesman of Rutland, Vt., was born in Plymouth, N.H. He has been a member of the Vermont state senate.

Merrill, George Perkins, educator, lecturer geologist and author of 1422 Belmont st., Washington, D. C., was born May 31, 1854, in Auburn, Maine. Since 1893 he has been professor of geology and mineralogy at the George Washington university. He is the author of Rocks and other works.

Merrill, James Griswold, clergyman, college president and author of Somerset,Mass., was born Oct. 20, 1840, in Montague, Mass. He is president of the Fisk university of Nashville. He is the author of Two Volumes of Children's Sermons.

Merrill, James Milford, fruit grower and author of Grant, Mich., was born Oct. 15, 1847, in Muskegon, Mich. He is the author of A Fair Pioneer and other works.

Merrill, John F., banker of Salina, Kan., was born Dec. 5, 1847, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Merrill, John F., merchant and bank director of Menlo Park, Cal., was born March 2, 1841, in Hallowell, Maine. He is first vice-president of Holbrook, Merrill and Stetson; and first vice-president of the Puget Sound Iron company. He is a director of the Bank of California and various other financial and industrial corporations. He is president of the board of trustees of the Children's hospital.

Merrill, Olin, manufacturer and banker of Enosburg Falls, Vt., was born March 11, 1854, in Plainfield, Vt. He is president of the Enosburg Falls Savings bank.

Merrill, William Augustus, educator and author of 2609 College ave., Berkeley, Cal., was born Sept. 4, 1860, in Newburyport, Mass. Since 1894 he has been professor of Latin at the university of California. He is the author of Latin Hymns and other works.

Merrill, William Bradford, journalist and author of New York City, was born, Feb. 27, 1861, in Salisbury, N.H. Since 1907 he has been financial editor of the New York American. He is the author of Guide of Railways of the United States.

Merrill, William F., railroad official of Plainfield, N.J., was born July 14, 1842, in Montague, Mass. In 1900-03 he was vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Merriman, Charles Henry, manufacturer of Providence, R.I., was born Oct. 23, 1868, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Lippitt Woolen company.

Merriman, Mrs. Effie Woodward, editor, playwright and author of 4004 Queen ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Feb. 17, 1857, in Hyde Park, Minn. She is the author of Pards and other works.

Merriman, Mrs. Helen Bigelow, artist and author of 73 Bay State road, Boston, Mass., was born July 14, 1844, in Boston, Mass. She is the author of What Shall Make Us Whole and other works.

Merriman, James F., banker of 1207 Seventh ave., Beaver Falls, Pa., was born Sept. 14, 1849, in Beaver county, Pa. He is vice-president of John T. Reeves and company, bankers.

Merriman, Mansfield, civil engineer, educator and author of 1071 Madison ave., New York City, was born March 27, 1848, in Southington, Conn. He is the author of Mechanics of Materials and other works.

Merriman, Titus Mooney, educator, clergyman and author of 322 Brookline st., Cambridge, Mass., was born April 23, 1822, in Canada. He is the author of The Trail of History and other works.

Merritt, Alfred, iron miner and financier of 104 Provident st., Duluth, Minn., was born May 16, 1847, in Chautauqua county, N.Y. He and his brothers consolidated all of their mining companies as the Lake Superior Consolidated Iron Mines, which company was later sold to the United States Steel corporation. He is president of the American Expiration company; and president of the Boulder Mountain Iron Mine company. For seven years he served as county commissioner; and has filled other various positions of trust and honor.

Merritt, Charles Ewan, lawyer and banker of 21 High st., Mount Holly, N.J., was born Nov. 22, 1842, in Waynesville, Ohio. He is president of the Farmers' National bank.

Merritt, Hulett Clinton, railroad president and financier of Duluth, Minn., was born Aug. 17, 1872, in Duluth, Minn. He is president and treasurer of the Santa Barbara Consolidated Railroad company and is connected with various other corporations.

Merritt, Schuyler, banker of Stamford, Conn., was born Dec. 16, 1853, in New York. He is president of the Stamford National bank.

Merritt, Wesley, soldier of Washington, D. C., was born June 16, 1836, in New York City. He served in the civil war and was brevetted brigadier-general.

Merry, John Fairfield, naval officer of 142 Highland ave., Summerville, Mass., was born March 5, 1840, in Edgecomb, Maine. He served in the civil and Spanish-American wars. He attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Mershman, Francis, educator, clergyman and author of Collegeville, Minn., was born Nov. 15, 1852, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1870 he has filled a professorship in St. John's university. He is the author of Handy Manual of Pontificial Ceremonies.

Mershon, Ralph Davenport, electrical engineer and inventor of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born July 14, 1868, in Zanesville, Ohio. He is the inventor of several electrical devices.

Mershon, Stephen L., financier and manufacturer of 32 Broadway, New York City, was born April 13, 1859, in East Hampton, Long Island. He is president of the American Title and Security company.

Merwin, Bannister, journalist and author of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 1, 1872, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is the author of A Continuous History of the Twentieth Century.

Merwin, Henry Childs, lecturer, lawyer and author of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 5, 1853, in Pittsfield, Mass. He is a lecturer at the Boston university law school. He is the author of Life of Thomas Jefferson and other works.

Merwin, James Burtis, soldier and journalist of Middlefield, Conn., was born in 1835 in Binghamton, Mass. He is the editor of the American Journal of Education.

Merwin, Milton Hervey, lawyer and jurist of Utica, N.Y., was born June 16, 1832, in Leyden, N.Y. He has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Merwin, Samuel, journalist and author of New York City, was born Oct. 6, 1874, in Evanston, Ill. Since 1905 he has been associate editor of the Success Magazine. He is the author of The Short Line War and other works.

Meserve, Charles Francis, educator and college president of Raleigh, N.C., was born July 15, 1850, in North Abington, Mass. He attended the classical institute of Waterville, Maine; and in 1877 graduated from Colby university, from which institution he has received the degrees of A.B., A.M. and LL.D. In 1877-85 he was principal of the high school at Rockland, Mass.; in 1885-88 was principal of the Oak street school at Springfield, Mass.; and in 1889-94 was superintendent of Haskell institute of the United States Indian industrial training school at Lawrence, Kan. Since 1894 he has been president of Shaw university of Raleigh, N.C. He has lectured extensively on Negro and Indian problems; and in 1896 was agent for the national Indian rights association.

Meserve, Frank Pierce, merchant and statesman of Redlands, Cal., was born Nov. 30, 1852, in Rochester, N.H. He has been a member of the California state assembly.

Meservey, Stillman T., government official and banker of Fort Dodge, Iowa, was born Dec. 17, 1848, in DeWitt, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Mesick, William Smith, lawyer and statesman of Mancelona, Mich., was born Aug. 26, 1856, in Newark, N.Y. In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

Mesmer, Joseph F., capitalist of 147 North Spring st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Nov. 3, 1855, in Tippecanoe City, Ohio. He was one of the charter members of Los Angeles. He is president of the St. Louis Fire Brick and Clay company and other corporations.

Messenger, Frank Hiscock, manufacturer of 33 Grover st., Auburn, N.Y., was born Oct. 15, 1872, in Monroe county, N.Y. In 1901 he became half owner in the Auburn Hame company, which four years later was merged into the United States Hame company, of which he is still a director. He is president of the F. H. Messenger company; and president of the Auburn Auxiliary Fire Alarm company.

Messenger, Lillian Rozell, journalist, author and poet of Washington, D.C., was born in 1853, near Milburn, Ky. She is the author of Threads of Fate and other works.

Messer, Chester, banker of Hastings, Mich., was born May 28, 1842, in Carlton, Mich. He is president of the Hastings City bank.

Messick, Joseph B., lawyer and statesman of East St. Louis, Ill., was born in Illinois. He has been judge of the city court of his city.

Messiter, Arthur Henry, musician and author of 20 Hamilton Terrace, New York City, was born April, 1834, in England. He is the author of History of the Choir and Music of Trinity Church.

Messmore, Aureline B., farmer, merchant and banker of Alva, Okla., was born Feb. 19, 1836, in Waterloo, Ohio. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Metcalf, E. D., merchant and banker of Buffalo, Wyo. was born in 1859 in Vermont. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Metcalf, Edwin D., manufacturer and railroad president of Auburn N.Y., was born March 4, 1848, in Smithfield, R.I. He is president of the Auburn and Northern railroad.

Metcalf, Edward Potter, banker of 14 Weybosset st., Providence, R.I., was born Sept. 6, 1859, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Carolina Mills company.

Metcalf, Edwin Dickinson, manufacturer and capitalist of 86 South st., Auburn, N.Y., was born March 14, 1848, in Smithfield. R.I. He has been state senator. He is president of the Columbian Rope company.

Metcalf, Lorettus Sutton, journalist and founder of 72 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Oct. 17, 1837, in Monmouth, Maine. He has been editor of the Florida Citizen.

Metcalf, Victor Howard, banker of Oakland, Cal., was born Oct. 10, 1853, in Utica, N.Y. He has been secretary of the navy. He is vice-president of the Union Savings bank.

Metcalf, Wilder Stevens, soldier, lawyer and government official of Lawrence, Kan., was born Sept. 10, 1855, in Milo, Maine. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is president of the Lawrence school board.

Metcalfe, Henry, soldier, educator and author of Cold Spring, N.Y., was born Oct. 29, 1847, in New York City. He is the author of The Cost of Manufactures and other works.

Metcalfe, James Stetson, journalist, critic and author of New York City, was born June 27, 1858, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the author of The American Slave and other works.

Metcalfe, Richard Lee, journalist and author of Lincoln, Neb., was born Oct. 11, 1861, near Upper Alton, Ill. Since 1905 he has been associate editor of The Commoner. He is the author of Other Stories from Life and other works.

Mettler, Lee Harrison, physician and author of 25 East Washington st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 1, 1863, in New York City. He is the author of Treatise on Diseases of the Nervous System.

Metz, Herman A., merchant of 280 Broadway, New York City, was born Oct. 19, 1867, in New York City. He is president of H. A. Metz company.

Metzger, Albert E., banker of 102 North Pennsylvania st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born March 20, 1865, in Indianapolis, Ind. He was educated at Cornell university. He is president of the German-American Trust company, vice-president of the Fletcher Savings and Trust company and vice-president of the Marion Title Guarantee company. He has been governor of the Indianapolis board of trade; a director of the Boys' club and president of the Cornell alumni association of Indiana.

Metzger, Alfred, editor, publisher and critic of San Francisco, Cal., was born May 5, 1875, in Landau, Germany. He is the author of History of Music on the Pacific Coast.

Metzger, Fraser, clergyman and statesman of Randolph, Vt., was born Oct. 25, 1872, in Gloversville, N.Y. He has been a candidate for governor of Vermont on the progressive ticket.

Metzler, Victor E., banker of Crested Butte, Colo., was born May 18, 1859, in Findley, Ohio. He is president of the Bank of Crested Butte and other corporations.

Metzler, William Henry, educator, scientist and author of 1760 Comstock ave., Syracuse, N.Y., was born Sept. 18, 1863, in Canada. Since 1896 he has been Francis H. Root professor and head of the department of mathematics at Syracuse university. He is joint author of A College Algebra.

Mewhinney, Leonard B., banker of Holland, Texas, was born March 12, 1876, in Milam county, Texas. He is president of the Mewhinney Mercantile company.

Meyer, Alfred Charles Frederick, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 6, 1873, in St. Louis, Mo. He is cashier of the South Side bank.

Meyer, Mrs. Annie Nathan, founder and author of 785 Madison ave., New York City, was born Feb. 19, 1867, in New York City. She is the author of Robert Annys and other works.

Meyer, Balthasar Henry, educator and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 28, 1866, in Mequon, Wis. Since 1900 he has been professor of political economy in the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Railway Legislation in the United States.

Meyer, Edward W., railway official of Denver, Colo., was born Dec. 17, 1876, in Kansas City, Mo. In 1894 he entered railway service as clerk in the auditor's office of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, became general bookkeeper; and since 1913 has been auditor, assistant treasurer and assistant secretary of the Denver and Salt Lake Railroad company.

Meyer, George Adolph, merchant and capitalist of 417 South Seventh st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Nov. 18, 1860, in Burlington, Mo. He is director of the Yates Grocer company.

Meyer, George Homer, journalist and author of 1112 Park ave., Alameda, Cal., was born Jan. 31, 1858, in San Francisco, Cal. He is now on the staff of the San Francisco Examiner. He is the author of The Nine Swords of Morales and other works.

Meyer, George J., business president of 249 North st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born April 9, 1864, in Buffalo, N.Y. He was educated at St. Michael's school and Canisius college of Buffalo. He is a member of the Buffalo chamber of commerce; and president of the George J. Meyer Malting company. He is a member of the Black Rock manufacturers' association and of various clubs and societies.

Meyer, George Von Lengerke, diplomat and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born June 24, 1858, in Boston, Mass. He has been ambassador to Rome; and is now secretary of the navy.

Meyer, Hugo Richard, educator and author of 3008 Woodburn ave., Cincinnati, O., was born April 1, 1866, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of The British State Telegraph and other works.

Meyer, Jacob John, banker and merchant of Wadena, Minn., was born May 14, 1850, in Baden, Germany. He is president of the Merchants' National bank.

Meyer, Lucy Rider, educator, journalist and author of 4949 Indiana ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in September, 1849, in Weybridge, Vt. She is principal of the Chicago training school.

Meyer, Raymond D., banker of Hanna, Wyo., was born May 21, 1878, in St. Louis, Mo. He is president of the Carbon State bank.

Meyer, Willy, educator, physician and surgeon of 700 Madison ave., New York City, was born July 24, 1858, in Germany. He has been a professor in the Morris medical college.

Meyerding, Henry W., physician and surgeon of Rochester, Minn., was born Sept. 5, 1884, in St. Paul, Minn. He has been surgeon in the medical corps of the Minnesota national guard.

Meyers, Benjamin Franklin, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Harrisburg, Pa., was born July 6, 1833, near Centreville, Pa. He is editor and proprietor of the Daily Star.

Meyers, James Cowden, lawyer of 527 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 30, 1869, in Columbia, Pa. In 1905 he was appointed special agent of United States interior department to investigate conditions on the Allegheny and Cattaraugus reservations of the Seneca Indians.

Meyers, Robert C. V., litterateur and author of 40 South Forty-fourth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 1, 1858, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Mistress Margery's Roses and other works.

Maynell, Mrs. Grazia, musician and author of London, England, was born in Buffalo, N.Y. In 1907 she toured England with Patti. She is the author of Life of Corot and other works.

Meysenburg, Ernest, merchant and banker of Grafton, Ill., was born Feb. 7, 1842, in Prussia. He has served as mayor and supervisor of Grafton. He is president of the Stafford Mercantile company and of the Grafton bank.

Mezes, Sidney Edward, educator and author of 306 West Eleventh st., Austin, Texas, was born Sept. 23, 1863, in Belmont, Cal. He is president of the Texas Academy of science. He is the author of Ethics, Descriptive and Explanatory.

Michael, Elias, merchant and capitalist of 1000 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 28, 1854, in Eschau, Bavaria, Germany. He is president of the Rix-Stix Dry Goods company.

Michael, Ellis LeRoy, educator and zoologist of La Jolla, Cal., was born Aug. 26, 1881, in La Porte, Ind. He received the degree of A.B. from university of Michigan, and the degree of M.S. from the university of California. In 1906-08 he was embryologist to the university of California; and in 1908-12 was resident naturalist of the marine biological association at San Diego. Since 1912 has been zoologist and administrative assistant in the Scripps institution for biological research of the university of California at La Jolla, near San Diego. His present research is connected with ecology of the salpidae.

Michael, Furst, lawyer and banker of 215 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 15, 1856, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been engaged in practice of law since 1878. He is first vice-president and director of the Kings County Mortgage company.

Michael,William Henry, naval officer, journalist, lawyer and author of Washington, D.C., was born July 14, 1845, in Marysville, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been consul-general at Calcutta. He is the author of Better Dead Than Homeless and other works.

Michaels, Richard C., journalist, publisher, founder and author of Medford, Wis., was born Sept. 1, 1839, in Germany. He is the author of Looking Further Forward and other works.

Michal, Elias, merchant and financier of New Orleans, La., was born Sept. 28, 1854, in Bavaria. In 1904 he was appointed director of the Louisiana purchase exposition.

Michalek,Anthony,statesman of 301 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 16, 1878, in Bohemia. In 1905-07 he was a member of congress.

Michalek, Bohumil, violinist of 59 East Van Buren st., Chicago, Ill., was born March 11, 1885, in Chicago, Ill. He is the founder and director of the Michalek master school for violinists.

Michaud, Gustave, ethnologist and author of San Jose, Costa Rica, was born in 1860 in Switzerland. He is the author of Le Voyage de William Willoughby.

Michaud, John Stephen, clergyman and bishop of Burlington, Vt., was born Nov. 24, 1843, in Burlington, Vt. Since 1893 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Burlington, Vt.

Michel, James F., physician, real estate broker and banker of Farmingdale, N.Y.,was born April 14, 1865, in Syracuse, N.Y. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Farmingdale.

Michel, John T., law reporter and statesman of New Orleans, La., was born May, 1858, in Jefferson, La. He has been a state representative.

Michelson, Albert Heminway, diplomat of Hanover, Germany, was born Jan. 16, 1878, in Annapolis, Md. In 1912 he was appointed consul at Hanover, Germany.

Michelson, Miriam, journalist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born in 1870 in Calaveras, Cal. She is the author of Anthony Overman and other works.

Michener, Harry G., banker of 956 North Front st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 1, 1852, in Philadelphia. He is president of the Bank of North America and a director of other corporations.

Michener, Louis Theodore, lawyer and government official of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 21, 1848, in Lafayette county, Ind. He has been attorney-general of Indiana.

Mickey, J. Ross, educator, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Macomb, Ill., was born Jan. 5, 1856, in McDonough county. In 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Mickle, Mark Richards, newspaper manager of 1722 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 10, 1825, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1842 he became connected with the Public Ledger as errand boy, later as county clerk and cashier, and ultimately for forty years was its general manager. In 1853 he was appointed on the staff of Governor Bigler with the rank of colonel. He was one of the first to suggest the centennial exposition. For thirteen years he was vice-president of the German society; and in 1860 was one of the founders of the German hospital, of which he has been vice-president for many years. He was one of the organizers of the American District Telegraph company, and was made secretary and treasurer; and has been president of the German-American Title and Trust company since its origin. He also organized the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, of which he has served as president.

Mickle, William English, soldier, educator and public official of Mobile, Ala., was born Oct. 31, 1846, in Columbia, S.C. He served in the civil war. He has been pension examiner for Alabama.

Mickley, Minnie Fogel, genealogist and author of Washington, D.C., was born in Mickley, Pa. She is registrar-general, daughters of the American revolution at Washington. She is the author of Genealogy of the Mickley Family and other works.

Micks, Henry Rathbone, manufacturer of Seneca Falls, N.Y., was born July 25, 1854, in Clinton, N.C. He is president of Rumsey and company, limited.

Middleton, George, dramatist and author of 16 Gramercy Park, New York City, was born Oct. 27, 1880, in Paterson, N.J. He is the author of Embers; Tradition; and Nowadays.

Middleton, John Thomas, banker of Shelbyville, Ky., was born Dec. 23, 1836, in Shelby county, Ky. He is president of the Peoples' Bank and Trust company.

Middleton, Thomas Cooke, educator, clergyman and author of Villanova College, Va., was born in 1852, in Chestnuthill, Va. He is the author of Mission and College and other works.

Middlesworth, Ner Bobb, banker of McClure, Pa., was born Jan. 28, 1844, in Union county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank; and is also postmaster.

Miehle, Robert, printer and manufacturer of Chicago, Ill., was born March 10, 1860, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1884 he has designed, patented and built the Miehle printing press.

Miers, Robert W.,lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bloomington, Ind., was born Jan. 27, 1848, in Decatur county, Ind. In 1897-1905 he was a member of congress.

Miersch, Paul Frederic Theodore, violoncellist and composer of 171 Lexington ave., New York City, was born Jan. 18, 1868, in Germany. He has composed violin pieces and other works.

Mifflin, Lloyd, artist, author and poet of Columbia, Pa., was born Sept. 15, 1846, in Columbia, Pa. He is the author of Echoes of Greek Idyls and other works.

Mighels, Philip Verrill, journalist, playwright, lawyer, author and poet of 201 West One Hundred and Fourth st.,New York City, was born April 19, 1869, in Carson City, Nev. He is the author of The Inevitable and other works.

Mikell, William E., educator, lawyer and author of Germantown, Pa., was born Jan. 20, 1878, in Sumter, S.C. Since 1897 he has been an instructor in the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of A Work on Criminal Law.

Milam, Collins Asbury,merchant and banker of Glen Rose, Texas, was born Dec. 3, 1870, in Weatherford, Texas. He is president of the Bank of Glen Rose.

Milbank, William Edward, manufacturer physician and surgeon of Albany, N.Y., was born March 8, 1841, in Coemans, N.Y. He has been surgeon to the Albany homeopathic hospital.

Milburn, Frank Pierce, designer and architect of Louisville, Ky., was born Dec. 12, 1868, in Bowling Green, Ky. He has been architect for the Southern Railroad company.

Milburn, George Roszelle, lawyer and jurist of Miles City, Mont., was born Nov. 15, 1850, in Washington, D.C. He has been associate justice of the supreme court of Montana.

Miles, Arthur Wellington, merchant and statesman of Livingston, Mont., was born June 20, 1859, in Winchester, Mass. He has been lieutenant-governor of Montana.

Miles, Emma Bell, litterateur and author of Albionview, Tenn., was born Oct. 19, 1879, in Evansville, Ind. She is the author of The Spirit of the Mountains.

Miles, Frederick Blumenthal, civil engineer and inventor of 40 West Ninth st., New York City, was born Aug. 7, 1835, in Baltimore, Md. He is the inventor of the steam hammer.

Miles, George L., merchant and banker of 919 Broad st.,Grinnell, Iowa, was born April 15, 1856, in Bath, N.Y. He is president of the Grinnell Savings bank.

Miles, George Melville,merchant and banker of 28 Lake st.,Miles City, Mont., was born Oct. 25, 1854, in Westminster, Mass. He is president of the First National bank.

Miles, Joseph H., live stock dealer and banker of Falls City, Neb., was born Dec. 15, 1850, in York county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Miles, Joshua Weldon, lawyer, banker and statesman of Princess Ann, Md., was born Dec. 9, 1858, in Somerset county, Md. He is president of the Bank of Princess Ann.

Miles, Nelson Appleton, soldier and author of 1736 A st., Washington, D.C., was born Aug. 8, 1839, in Westminster, Mass. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major-general. He is the author of Military Europe and other works.

Miles,Willard Wesbery, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Barton, Vt., was born Feb. 6, 1845, in Albany, Vt. Since 1906 he has been superior judge and chancellor of the supreme court of Vermont.

Milikin, Richard M., journalist and business president of Jesup, Ga., was born March 22, 1881, in Applin county, Ga. He is the editor of the Jesup Sentinel.

Millar, Alexander Copeland, educator, clergyman and college president of Conway,Ark., was born May 17, 1861, in McKeesport, Pa. He has been president of the Hendrix college of Conway, Ark. He is the author of Twentieth Century Educational Problems.

Millard, Frank Bailey, editor and author of Palisade, N.J., was born Oct. 2, 1859, in Markesan, Wis. He is the editor of the Cosmopolitan Magazine. He is the author of The Lure of Gold and other works.

Millard, G. N., banker of International Falls, Minn., was born in 1881 in Marshall, Minn. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Millard, Joseph Hopkins, banker and statesman of Omaha, Neb., was born April, 1836, in Hamilton, Canada. He is president of the Omaha National bank.

Millard, Stephen C., lawyer and statesman of Binghamton, N.Y., was born Jan. 14, 1841, in Binghamton, N.Y. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Millard, Thomas Franklin Fairfax, journalist and author of Shanghai, China, was born July 8, 1868, in Phelps county, Mo. He is the author of the New Far East.

Millen, Loring R., railroad president of New York City, was born Oct. 9, 1857, in Savannah, Ga. Since 1888 he has been president of the Millen and Southern railway.

Miller, A. Blanchard, capitalist of Rialto, Cal., was born Sept. 5, 1878, in Richlands, N. C. He is president and manager of the Fontana Development company and other corporations.

Miller, Abraham H., manufacturer and banker of 502 North Eighth st., Lebanon,Pa., was born Feb. 6, 1845, in North Annville, Pa. He is president of the People's National bank.

Miller, Adolph Caspar,educator and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born Jan. 7, 1866, in San Francisco, Cal. Since 1902 he has been professor of economics and commerce at the university of California. He is the author of The Monetary Problem in the United States.

Miller,Albert Charles,banker of Des Moines, Iowa, was born Feb. 12, 1856, in Indiana. He is president of the Home Savings bank.

Miller, Albion Kendall, navigator and merchant of Thomastown, Maine, was born April 30, 1855, in Thomastown, Maine. He is president of the chamber of commerce.

Miller, Alexander McVeigh, farmer, business man and statesman of Anderson,W.Va., was born in Nicholas county, W.Va. He has been a member of the state senate.

Miller, Alfred Stanley, educator, civil engineer and author of Moscow, Idaho, was born Oct. 20, 1856, in Normal, Pa. He has been president of the university of Wichita. He is the author of Manual of Assaying and other works.

Miller, Mrs. Alice Duer, litterateur and author of 62 East Fifty-third st., New York City, was born in 1874 in New York City. She is the author of The Modern Obstacle and other works.

Miller, Andrew, publisher of 19 West Thirty-first st., New York City. He is secretary, treasurer and director of The Life Publishing company.

Miller, Mrs. Annie Jenness, publisher and author of 2123 U st., Washington, D.C. She is the publisher of the Jenness Miller Magazine. She is the author of Mother and Babe and other works.

Miller, Benedick, lumber manufacturer and banker of Millertown,Okla., was born March 21, 1836, in Baden, Germany. He is president of the Bank of Millertown.

Miller, Benjamin Meek, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Camden, Ala., was born March 13, 1864, in Oak Hill, Ala. He is judge of the fourth judicial circuit of Alabama.

Miller, Charles, capitalist of Franklin, Pa., was born June 15, 1843, in Alsace, France. He is president of the First National bank and other corporations.

Miller, Charles Armand, clergyman, author and poet of 31 Pitt st., Charleston, S.C., was born March 7, 1864, in Shepherdstown, W. Va. Since 1896 he has been pastor of the Church of the Holy Trinity. He is the author of The Way of the Cross and other works.

Miller, Charles Augustine, printer and statesman of Harrisburg, Pa., was born June 28, 1850, in Harrisburg, Pa. He has been a state representative.

Miller, Charles Christian, educator and college president of Lima, Ohio, was born Nov. 26, 1856, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1905 he has been president of the Lima college.

Miller, Charles Ervine, clergyman, theologian, editor and college president of Tiffin, Ohio, was born Feb. 24, 1867, near Massillon, Ohio. He became president of the Heidelberg university in 1902.

Miller, Charles Henry, artist and author of New York City, was born March 20, 1842, in New York City. He is the author of the Philosophy of Art in America.

Miller, Charles Lewis, banker of Palco,Kan., was born Sept. 1, 1876, in Toledo, Ill. He is president of the Palco State bank.

Miller, Charles Nicholas, banker of Bangor, Pa., was born Dec. 2, 1857, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president and director of the Merchants' National bank and other corporations.

Miller, Charles R., statesman of Wilmington, Del., was born Sept. 30, 1857, in Chester county, Pa. He is president of the Farmers' bank of Delaware; and during the past quarter of a century has held executive offices in various corporations and state commissions. He has filled positions of honor in the city of Wilmington; and has been state senator. In 1913 he became governor of Delaware.

Miller, Charles Ransom, journalist and publisher of 21 East Ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 1849, in Hanover, N.H. Since 1883 he has been editor-in-chief of the New York Times.

Miller, Charles Russell, lawyer and author of 2033 East Eighty-eighth st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 1, 1858, in Canton, O. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of Law of Conditional Sales.

Miller, Charles Stonewall, banker and investment broker of Ballinger, Texas, was born Aug. 26, 1862, in Bellville, Texas. He is vice-president of the First State bank of Rowena.

Miller, Charles Sumner, lawyer of 150 Nassau st., New York City, was born June 2, 1856, in Hornellsville, N.Y. He is counsel for and director in several business corporations.

Miller, Charles Wesley, lawyer and banker of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Feb. 4, 1863, in Galena, Ind. He is president of the Elkhart County Trust company; and has been mayor of Goshen, Ind.

Miller, Christian Otto Gerberding, capitalist of 519 Califoria st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Oct. 1, 1865, in San Francisco, Cal. He was one of the founders of the Savings Union Bank and Trust company, of which corporation for over fifty years some member of the family has been a director and officer.

Miller, Cincinnatus Heine Joaquin, author and poet of Dimond, Cal., was born Nov. 10, 1841, in Wabash District, Ind. He is the author of The Ship of the Desert and other works.

Miller, Clarence Benjamin, lawyer and Statesman of Duluth, Minn.,was born March 13, 1872, in Goodhue county, Minn. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Miller, Clifton Meredith, physician and scientist of 3 West Grace st., Richmond, Va., was born April 21, 1873, in Richmond, Va. He received his degree of medicine from medical college of Virginia; has been professor of anatomy and professor of otology and rhinology in that institution. Since 1913 he has been assistant surgeon to the United States marine hospital service. He has been a member of the Richmond city council. He has been president of the Richmond academy of medicine and surgery; and is laryngologist, rhinologist and ophthalmologist to various hospitals.

Miller, Crosby Parke, soldier of 170 Spruce st., Burlington, Vt. He served in the civil war. In 1906 he attained the rank of brigadier-general and was retired.

Miller, Daniel Long, educator, college president,clergyman,bishop and author of Mount Morris, Ill., was born Oct. 5, 1841, near Hagerstown, Md. He is president of the Mount Morris college of Illinois. He is the author of Girdling the Globe and other works.

Miller, Darius, railroad president of 226 West Adams st.,Chicago, Ill., was born April 3, 1859, in Princeton, Ill. Since 1910 he has been president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

Miller, David Henry, manufacturer and banker of Georgetown, Conn., was born Aug. 12, 1831, in London, England. He is president and treasurer of the Gilbert and Bennett Manufacturing company. He served in the civil war and has been a state representative.

Miller, David Milton, lawyer and jurist of Hazelhurst Miss., born Oct. 25, 1862, in Hazelhurst, Miss. In 1900 he became judge of the circuit court.

Miller, Dayton Clarence, educator, physicist and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born March 13, 1866, in Strongville, Ohio. Since 1893 he has been professor of physics in the Case applied school of science. He is the author of Laboratory Physics.

Miller, DeWitt C., banker of Newell, Iowa, was born Nov. 27, 1828, in New York. He is president of the Miller and Chaney bank.

Miller, E. Clarence, banker of 314 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 22, 1867, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Philadelphia stock exchange and a director of corporations.

Miller, Edmund Boston, clergyman of Arkadelphia, Ark., was born Feb. 2, 1853, in Greenville, S.C. Since 1893 he has been pastor of the First Baptist church of Arkadelphia, Ark.

Miller, Edward Furber, mechanical engineer of Newton Center Mass., was born Jan. 18, 1866, in Somerville, Mass. He is professor of steam engineering in charge of the mechanical department of the Massachusetts institute of technology of Boston, Mass. He is a contributor to technical journals on mechanical engineering.

Miller, Elijah, educator, clergyman and author of Sedgerwickville, Mo., was born Feb. 16, 1842, in Springville, Ill. He has compiled a History of the Synod.

Miller, Elizabeth Jane, author of 1906 Prospect st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Aug. 17, 1878, in New Ross, Ind. She is the author of The Yoke and other works.

Miller, Elmer W., banker of Ryan, Okla., was born June 27, 1871, in Battle Creek, Iowa. He is cashier of the State Bank of Ryan.

Miller, Mrs. Emily Huntington, educator and author of Englewood, N.J., was born Oct. 22, 1833, in Brooklyn, Conn. She is the author of The Royal Road to Fortune and other works.

Miller, Frank, lawyer and capitalist of 301 Pearl st., Crestline,Ohio, was born March 11, 1863, in Crestline, Ohio. He is treasurer of the Schill Brothers company.

Miller, Frank Ellsworth, educator, mathematician and author of Westerville,Ohio,was born April 17, 1862, in Fairfield county, Ohio. Since 1890 he has been professor of mathematics at Otterbein university.

Miller, Frank J., banker of 435 South Locust st., Ottawa, Kan., was born July 16, 1870, in Ottawa, Kan. He is president of the First National bank.

Miller, Frank Justus,educator,lecturer and author of 1222 East Fifty-sixth st., Chicago, Ill., was born Nov. 26, 1858, in Clinton,Tenn. Since 1892 he has been associate professor of Latin and dean at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Studies in Roman Poetry and other works.

Miller, Frederick Augustus,naval officer of 1310 Twentieth st., Washington, D.C., was born June 12, 1842, in Elkton, Md. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant-commander.

Miller, Freemen Edwin, lawyer, statesman, poet and author of Oklahoma City,Okla.,was born May 19, 1864, in Fountain county, Ind. He has been a member of the state senate. He is the author of Oklahoma and Other Poems.

Miller, George McAnelly, educator, lawyer, college president and author of Glen Ellyn, Ill., was born Feb. 12, 1858, in Murraysville, Pa. Since 1903 he has been dean of the Ruskin university at Glen Ellyn, Ill. He is the author of Uncle Ike's Ideas.

Miller, George W.,banker of Bucyrus,Ohio, was born Jan. 22, 1859, in Osceola, Ohio. He is president of the Farmers' and Citizens' bank; president of the Home Mutual association; and secretary of the Ohio Windstorm and Cyclone association. He was a member of the state constitutional convention of 1912. He has been president of the Crawford county forestry association.

Miller, Gustavus Hindman, merchant and author of Coryell, Texas, was born Sept. 4, 1857, in Coryell, Texas. He is senior member of the firm of Miller brothers. He is the author of What's in a Dream and other works.

Miller, Mrs. Harriett Mann, lecturer and author of 5928 Hays ave., Los Angeles, Cal., was born June 25, 1831, in Auburn, N.Y. She is the author of Four-Handed Folk and other works.

Miller, Harry Irving, railroad president of 777 Madison ave., New York City, was born Jan. 12, 1862, in Cleveland, Ohio. Since 1906 he has been president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

Miller, Helen Richards Guthrie, president of Columbia, Mo., was born Sept. 2, 1862, in Zanesville, Ohio. She is president of the Missouri equal suffrage association.

Miller, Henry, stockman and capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 21, 1827, in Germany. He formed a partnership with Charles Lux, in the cattle business, and after the death of Mr. Lux he continued the business alone.

Miller, Henry, railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 24, 1863, in Hannibal, Mo. Since 1907 he has been vice-president of the Wabash railroad.

Miller, Henry B., college president, diplomat and statesman of Grant's Pass, Ore.,was born April 11, 1854, in Sidney, Ohio. He has been consul-general at Yokohama, Japan.

Miller, Herbert, farmer and banker of Admire, Kan., was born in 1856 in Kansas. He is president of the State bank.

Miller, Holden Tripp, banker and financier of Batavia, N.Y., was born Feb. 1, 1841, in Byron, N.Y. He is cashier of the Bank of Batavia.

Miller, Hugh H., banker of 301 Washington st., Columbus, Ohio, was born March 21, 1867, in Nineveh, Ind. He is vice-president of the Irwins' bank.

Miller,Hugh J.,lawyer and jurist of Butte, Mont., was born Dec. 31, 1866, in Genoa, Minn. He has been judge advocate of Montana, with the rank of major.

Miller, Hugh S., newspaper correspondent and writer of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 3, 1885, in Mudgee, New South Wales. He is the author of The Buzzard and other stories.

Miller, Irving J. A., journalist and poet of Worcester, Ohio, was born Oct. 14, 1866, in Worcester, Ohio. He is the author of a volume entitled Fireside Poems.

Miller, J. Allen, educator, clergyman and college president of Ashland, Ohio, was born Aug. 2, 1866, in Rossville, Ind. He is president of the Ashland university.

Miller, Jacob, soldier, musician and artist of Menomonie, Wis., was born July 24, 1833, in Germany. He served in the civil war. He has been treasurer of his city.

Miller. Jacob William,soldier and financier of 113 East Thirtieth st., New York City, was born June 1, 1847, in Morristown, N.J. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is president of the Newport and Wickford Steamship company and is connected with various other corporations.

Miller, James, soldier of Concord,N.H.,was born Feb. 11, 1844, in Massachusetts. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. In 1903 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Miller, James Francis, lawyer, banker and statesman of Gonzales,Texas, was born Aug. 1, 1832, in Tennessee. In 1883-87 he was a member of congress.

Miller, James Henry, lawyer and jurist of Hinton, W.Va., was born Dec. 29, 1856, in Greenbrier Springs, W.Va. For sixteen years he was prosecuting attorney; and since 1904 has been judge of the circuit court of West Virginia. He is president of the Greenbrier Springs company,the Hinton Hardware company and other corporations.

Miller, James Houston, banker of Waxahachie, Texas, was born April 15, 1851, in West Virginia. He is president of the Waxahachie National bank.

Miller, James Martin, journalist, diplomat and author of New York City,was born June 24, 1859, in St. Mary's, W.Va. He is American consul to France. He is the author of The Triumphant Life of Theodore Roosevelt and other works.

Miller, James Monroe, lawyer and statesman of Council Grove, Kan., was born in Three Springs, Pa. In 1899-1911 he was a member of congress.

Miller, James Pierson, lawyer and banker of Lafayette, Col., was born Nov. 26, 1872, in Erie, Col. He is president and general counsel of the Bankers International Life Assurance company.

Miller, James Russell, clergyman and author of Philadelphia,Pa., was born March 20, 1840, in Harshaville, Pa. He is the author of Home Making and other works.

Miller, Jeff N.,railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 6, 1858, in Allentown,Pa. In 1904-08 he was vice-president of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railroad.

Miller, John A., scientist and inventor of Cairo, Ill., was born June 17, 1840, in Coblenz, Germany. He is chairman of the Cairo board of education.

Miller, John Barnes, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Oct. 23, 1869, in Port Huron, Mich. He is president of the Southern California Edison company and other corporations.

Miller, John Bleecker, lawyer and author of New York City, was born in 1856 in New York City. He is the author of Trade Organization in Politics and other works.

Miller, John Calvin, soldier, educator, clergyman and college president of Emporia, Kan., was born Sept. 12, 1844, in Wayne county, Ohio. He served in the civil war. Since 1898 he has been president of the college of Emporia, Kan.

Miller, John Ford,railroad official of Cleveland, Ohio, was born July 16, 1830, in Ithaca, N.Y. In 1901-06 he was vice-president of the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus railroad.

Miller, John Henderson,clergyman and author of 3820 Prospect ave., Kansas City,Mo., was born May 11, 1845, in Mansfield, Ohio. Since 1891 he has been state clerk of the Presbyterian synod of Missouri. He is the author of Where the Rainbow Touches the Ground.

Miller, John L., banker of Gordonsville, Minn., was born Dec. 8, 1850, in Mercer, Pa. He is cashier of the Farmers' State bank.

Miller, John Zollinger, electrical engineer and inventor of Lancaster,Pa.,was born June 16, 1867, in Lancaster, Pa. He is the inventor of various kinds of switchboards, transmitters and automatic drivers.

Miller, Joseph Abraham, clergyman, physician and lecturer of Brawley,Cal.,was born Sept. 3, 1829, in Toronto, Canada. He has been professor of medical jurisprudence at the St. Louis medical college.

Miller, Joseph T., secretary of Edgewood, Pa., was born Aug. 21, 1871, in Port Perry, Pa. He is secretary of the Pennsylvania Water company.

Miller, Joseph Warren, educator, mathematician and author of Lancaster, Pa., was born Oct. 30, 1875, in Lancaster county, Pa. He is the author of The Elastic Properties of Helical Springs.

Miller, Kempster Blanchard, civil engineer and author of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 14, 1870, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of American Telephone Practice.

Miller, Leslie William, educator,artist and author of 320 South Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 5, 1848, in Brattleboro, Vt. Since 1880 he has been principal of the school of industrial arts. He is the author of The Essential of Perspective.

Miller, Levi, banker of Stanton, Neb., was born Oct. 28, 1838, in Columbus, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Miller, Marion Mills, author of 32 Union Square, New York City, was born Feb. 27, 1864, in Eaton, Ohio. He is the author of The Sicilian Idyls of Theocritus.

Miller, Mary E., banker of Lafayette, Col., was born Aug. 3, 1842, in Geneseo, N.Y. He is president of the Lafayette Bank and Trust company.

Miller, Mrs. Mary Halsey, lecturer and author of 435 Sixth st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 2, 1865, in Brooklyn, N.Y. She is the author of Winning the Golden Spurs and other works.

Miller, Mrs. Mary Rogers, educator and author of Elizabeth, N.J., was born April 21, 1868, in Dallas county, Iowa. She is the author of The Brook Book.

Miller, Melville Winans, educator, journalist, lawyer and author of Lafayette, Ind., was born June 23, 1856, in Lafayette, Ind. He has been assistant secretary of the interior. He is the author of Songs of the Heart and other works.

Miller, Merrill, naval officer of Berkeley, Cal., was born Sept. 13, 1842, in Bellefontaine, Ohio. He served in the civil war. In 1900 he attained the rank of rear-admiral.

Miller, Nicholas Dubois, lawyer of 505 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 27, 1852, in Baltimore. He is president of the Theodore Starr Savings bank.

Miller, Ohio L., educator, lawyer and college president of Baker City, Ore., was born in 1859. He is secretary of the chamber of commerce of his city.

Miller, Orlando Albert, capitalist of 70 East Gay st., Columbus,Ohio, was born Sept. 24, 1859, in Belmont, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Citizens' Trust and Savings bank.

Miller, Orrin L., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Kansas City, Kan., was born Jan. 11, 1856, in Newburg, Maine. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Miller, Reuben G.,stockman and statesman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Nov. 7, 1861, in Mill Creek, Salt Lake City county, Utah. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Miller, Richard Gardner, banker and real estate dealer of Falfurrias, Texas, was born in 1878 in Galveston, Texas. He is president of the Falfurrias State bank.

Miller, Richard Thompson,lawyer and jurist of Newark, N.J., was born Dec. 16, 1845, in Cape May City, N.J. He is circuit court judge of New Jersey.

Miller, Robert F., physician of San Antonio, Texas, was born Jan. 9, 1866, in Gay Hill, Texas. He was educated at Austin college of Texas, the Hampden Sidney college of Virginia, the university of Texas, Tulane university and the university Berlin; and has received the degrees of C.L., A.B. and M.D. In 1906-11 he was chief oculist to the Frisco railway at St. Louis; and in 1903-07 was major in the medical department of the Texas national guard. In 1903-04 he was president of the North Texas medical association.

Miller, Robert Morrison, cotton manufacturer of Charlotte, N.C., was born April 20, 1856, in Pleasant Valley, S.C. He is president and treasurer of the Elizabeth mills.

Miller, Roswell, railroad president and financier of 19 East Sixty-second st., New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1843, in Harford, Pa. He has been president of the Cairo and Vincennes railway.

Miller, Rudolph P., civil engineer of 141 East Fortieth st., New York City, was born July 5, 1866, in New York City. He has been chief engineer in the borough of Manhattan.

Miller, Rufus W.,clergyman,journalist and founder of 4027 Powelton ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 12, 1862, in Easton, Pa. He is the editor of the Brotherhood Star of Reading, Pa.

Miller,Russell King, musician,organist and composer of 4251 Sansom st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 10, 1871, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the composer of Elegy and other works.

Miller, S. M., physician and surgeon of Peoria, Ill., was born Aug. 13, 1893. He is president of the Peoria association for the prevention of tuberculosis.

Miller, Samuel H., journalist, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Mercer, Pa., was born April 19, 1840, in Mercer county, Pa. In 1881-85 he was a member of congress.

Miller, Samuel Llewellyn, soldier, business man and journalist of Waldboro, Maine, was born March 25, 1844, in Waldboro, Maine. He served in the civil war. He has been postmaster of his city.

Miller, Sidney Davy, lawyer and banker of Detroit, Mich., was born in Monroe, Mich. He is president of the Detroit Savings bank.

Miller, Spencer, civil engineer of 96 Liberty st., New York City, was born April 25, 1859, in Waukegan, Ill. He is chief engineer of the cableway department of the Lidgerwood Manufacturing company.

Miller, Theodore Frelinghuysen, banker of 177 Montague st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1850 in New York City. He is president and trustee of the Brooklyn Trust company.

Miller, Theodore H., banker of Crete, Neb., was born April 9, 1846, in Germany. He is president of the Crete State bank.

Miller, Thomas Condit, soldier, educator and author of Shepherdstown, W. Va., was born July 19, 1848, in Fairmont, Va. He served in the civil war. Since 1901 he has been state superintendent of the schools of West Virginia. He is the author of History of Education in West Virginia.

Miller, Thomas E., lawyer and statesman of Beaufort, S.C., was born June 17, 1849, in Ferrybeeville, S.C. In 1889-91 he was a member of congress.

Miller, Thomas Woodnutt, secretary of state for Delaware, was born June 26, 1886, in Wilmington, Del. He is a graduate of Yale university; and for some time was connected with the Bethlehem Steel company. He has been in the government service; and served as secretary to the Delaware congressional delegation. In 1913 he became secretary of state for the state of Delaware.

Miller, Walter, educator and author of 1323 Keyser ave., Columbia, Mo., was born May 5, 1864, in Ashland county, Ohio. He has been professor of Greek at Tulane university. He is the author of The Old and New and other works.

Miller, Warner, soldier, manufacturer and statesman of Herkimer, N.Y., was born Aug. 12, 1838, in Oswego county, N.Y. In 1879-81 he was a member of congress.

Miller, Watson John, manufacturer and banker of Shelton, Conn., was born Nov. 23, 1849, in Middletown, Conn. He is president of the Derby Silver company; and has been a state representative.

Miller, William Christian, physician, surgeon and druggist of Hamilton, Ohio, was born July 31, 1847, in Germany. He has been secretary of the Hamilton public library.

Miller, William Edward, statesman of Carlisle, Pa., was born Feb. 5, 1836, in West Hill, Pa. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania senate.

Miller, William G., manufacturer of Navarre, Ohio, was born March 16, 1850, in Scotland. He is president of the Navarre Deposit bank.

Miller, William Halliett, banker of Connell, Wash., was born Oct. 11, 1878, in Jackson, Minn. He is cashier of the State bank of Connell.

Miller, William Henry, lawyer and banker of 416 Broadway, Cape Girardeau, Mo., was born Sept. 28, 1856, in Cape Girardeau, Mo. He is president of the Cape Colony Savings bank.

Miller, William Henry Harrison, soldier, lawyer and cabinet officer of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Sept. 6, 1840, in Augusta, N. Y. He has been attorney-general of the United States.

Miller, William Roots, banker of Ripley, Tenn., was born July 27, 1850, in Virginia. He is president of the Ripley Savings Bank and Trust company.

Millett, Charles Lincoln, banker of Fort Pierre, S.D., was born Dec. 9, 1865, in Belfast, N.Y. He is president of the Western Loan and Trust company.

Millett, Joshua Howard, lawyer, manufacturer, founder and statesman of 97 Oliver st., Boston, Mass., was born March 17, 1842, in Cherryfield, Maine. He is president of the Crosby Steam Gauge and Valve company.

Millholland, James A., railroad president of Cumberland, Md., was born Dec. 8, 1842, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1893 he has been president of the George's Creek and Cumberland railroad.

Millikan, Frank M., banker of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 2, 1851, in Henry county, Ind. He is vice-president of the Security Trust company.

Millikan, Robert Andrews, educator, physicist and author of 6112 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born March 22, 1868, in Morrison, Ill. He is the author of A First Course in Physics and other works.

Milliken, Charles F., business president of Canandaigua, N.Y., was born Aug. 27, 1854, in Canandaigua, N.Y. He is president of the New York state civil service commission.

Milliken, Charles W., lawyer and statesman of Franklin, Ky., was born Aug. 15, 1827, in Graves county, Ky. In 1873-77 he was a member of congress.

Milliken, James Foster, lawyer of 287 Broadway, New York City, was born July 19, 1847, in Lewiston, Pa. He has been district attorney of Blair county.

Milliken, John David, lawyer and capitalist of Denver, Colo., was born Dec. 3, 1848, in Mercer county, Pa. He is president and general counsel of the Northwestern Land and Iron company. He has been president of the bar association of Kansas.

Millington, Charles Stephen, banker and statesman of Herkimer, N.Y., was born March 13, 1855, in Norway, N.Y. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Million, Elmer C., banker of 126 West Grand ave., McAlester, Okla., was born May 8, 1866, in Argyle, Wis. He is president of the American National bank.

Millis, John, soldier of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Dec. 31, 1858, in Wheatland, Mich. Since 1905 he has been in charge of all the fortification construction of the Philippine Islands.

Millisack, Cassius M., merchant and banker of Goodland, Kan., was born Dec. 28, 1858, in Ohio. He is president of the C. M. Millisack Mercantile company.

Mills, Albert Leopold, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born May 7, 1854, at Washington Heights, New York City. In 1898 he was appointed superintendent of the United States military academy at West Point, N.Y.

Mills, Benjamin Fay, lecturer, clergyman and author of 1361 East Fifty-sixth st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 4, 1857, in Rahway, N.J. He is the author of Power From on High and other works.

Mills, Charles Francis, journalist, publisher and author of 510 East Monroe st., Springfield, Ill., was born May 29, 1843, in Montrose, Pa. He is editor of the Year Books of the American Clydesdale association.

Mills, Charles Karsner, physician and author of 1909 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 4, 1845, near Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of the American neurologist association.

Mills, Edmund Mead, clergyman and founder of 823 Sumner ave., Syracuse, N.Y., was born July 17, 1848, in Ottawa, Canada. He is the author of As He Thinketh and other sermons.

Mills, Fredick John, civil engineer and statesman of Pocatello, Idaho, was born in 1865, in Vermont. In 1898-99 he was captain of the second regiment, United States volunteer engineers.

Mills, Henry Edmund, lawyer and banker of San Diego, Cal., was born June 24, 1850, in Montrose, Pa. He is vice-president of the American National bank.

Mills, Herbert Elmer, educator and author of 106 Academy st., Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born Aug. 8, 1861, in Salem, N.H. He is the author of French Revolution in San Domingo.

Mills, Isaac Newton, lawyer and jurist of Mount Vernon, N.Y., was born Sept. 10, 1851, in Thompson, Conn. He is justice of the New York state supreme court, of the eighth judicial district for the term ending in 1920.

Mills, Melvin Whitson, lawyer, rancher and statesman of Springer, N.M., was born Oct. 11, 1845, in Sparta, Ontario, Canada. He was educated at Adrian college, Michigan, and received the degree of B.L. from the law department of the university of Michigan. He has been a member of the New Mexico legislature and district attorney, county attorney and city attorney of Elizabethtown, N.M. He is engaged in law practice, the operating of ranches, stores and other industrial pursuits. He is president of the Mills Ranch Resort company; and president of the New Mexico reformed school.

Mills, Robert R., banker of Springfield, Ohio, was born Jan. 8, 1860, in Springfield, Ohio. He was educated at Wiltenberg college. He entered into partnership with his brother under the firm name of Mills Bros., operating stone and mine quarries, of which he is general manager. He is also president of the Cold Springs Lime and Stone company, vice-president of the Farmers' National bank, treasurer of the Springfield-Xenia Telephone company and the Springfield Floral company, and is also a director of the Piano Manufacturing company.

Mills, Walter Sands, physician of 324 West Eighty-ninth st., New York City, was born May 17, 1865, in New York City. He is attending physician of the Metropolitan hospital.

Mills, Walter Thomas, lecturer, socialist and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 11, 1856, in Duane, N.Y. He is the author of Science of Politics and other works.

Mills, Weymer Jay, editor and author of 55 West Forty-fourth st., New York City, was born Aug. 26, 1880, in Jersey City, N.J. He is the author of Historic Houses of New Jersey.

Mills, William Joseph, lawyer, jurist and statesman of East Las Vegas, N.M., was born Jan. 11, 1849, in Yazoo, Miss. Since 1898 he has been chief justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

Mills, William Webster, banker of Marietta, Ohio, was born Jan. 27, 1852, in Marietta, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Parkersburg, Marietta and Interurban Railway company.

Millsaps, Reuben Webster, banker of Jackson, Miss., was born May 30, 1833 in Copiah county, Miss. He is vice-president of the Capital National bank.

Millspaugh, Charles Frederic, botanist and author of 5424 East View park, Chicago, Ill., was born June 20, 1854, in Ithaca, N.Y. He is the author of American Medical Plants and other works.

Millspaugh, Jesse Fonda, educator of Los Angeles, Cal., was born June, 1855, in Battle Creek, Mich. He organized and developed the public school system of Salt Lake City. Since 1904 he has been president of the California state normal school at Los Angeles.

Milmore, Martin, sculptor and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 14, 1844, in Ireland. His principal works are bust of Longfellow and others.

Milne, David, manufacturer of 2030 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 24, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a trustee of the medico-chirurgical college.

Milne, Frances Margaret, librarian, author and poet of San Luis Obispo, Cal., was born in Ireland. She is the author of For Today and other works.

Milne, John C., manufacturer and banker of Fall River, Mass., was born May 18, 1824, in Milfield, Scotland. He is president of the Citizens' Savings bank.

Milne, William James, educator and author of 5 Elk st., Albany, N.Y., was born May 26, 1843, in Scotland. In 1889 he became president of the state normal college of Albany, N.Y.

Milnes, Alfred, soldier, merchant and statesman of Coldwater, Mich., was born May 28, 1844, in England. He has been lieutenant-governor of Michigan.

Milton, B. F., lawyer and jurist of Dodge City, Kan., was born Aug. 13, 1855, in Plymouth, Ill. In 1903 he was president of the Kansas state bar association. In 1897-1901 he was a judge of the Kansas court of appeals.

Miltoun, Francis, litterateur and author of Toulon, France, was born Feb. 14, 1871, in Lynn, Mass. He is the author of All About Ships and Shipping and other works.

Minch, Bloomfield H., banker of Bridgeton, N.J., was born Oct. 10, 1864, in Bridgeton, N.J. He is vice-president of the Bridgeton National bank.

Minear, August Clay, farmer and manufacturer of Kilbourn, Iowa, was born July 1, 1874, in Kilbourn. He has been teacher of science in the Anderson military academy.

Miner, Asher, miller and capitalist of 292 South Franklin st., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was born Nov. 14, 1860, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He is president of the Miner Hillard Mining company and a director of other corporations.

Miner, Charles Wright, soldier of 70 Lexington ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born Nov. 21, 1840, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1903 he retired as brigadier-general, United States army.

Miner, George Roberts, editor of New York City, was born Aug. 17, 1862, in Manchester, Vt. He is now European correspondent of the New York Herald.

Miner, Henry Clay, business president of 1402 Broadway, New York City, was born on May 25, 1866, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of the estate of Henry C. Miner, incorporated.

Miner, John Read, banker of Ambridge, Pa., was born Nov. 10, 1866, in New Brighton, Pa. He is president of the First National bank and a director of other corporations.

Miner, Roy Waldo, educator and scientist of the American museum of natural history, New York City, was born on Feb. 24, 1875, in North Adams, Mass. He received the degree of A.B. from Williams and graduated from the general theological seminary. He has taught Latin and biology in the Berkeley school and in the Kelvin school of New York City. Since 1905 he has been assistant curator of invertebrate zoology in the American museum of natural history. He has made extensive researches in invertebrate morphology.

Miner, William Harvey, journalist and author of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was born March 5, 1877, in New Haven, Conn. He is the author of George Catlin and other poems.

Minick, John D., educator and college president of Lenoir, N.C., was born Aug. 18, 1859, in Shade Gap, Pa. He is president of the Davenport college of Lenoir, N.C.

Minifie, William Charles, clergyman, lecturer and author of London, England, was born March 8, 1869, in London, England. He is the author of The Mask Torn Off and other works.

Minor, Edward S., soldier and statesman of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., was born in 1840, in Jefferson county, N.Y. He has been mayor of his city.

Minor, Raleigh Colston, lawyer and author of University, W.Va., was born on Jan. 24, 1869, at the University of Virginia. He is the author of the Law of Tax Titles in Virginia and other works.

Minor, Thomas Chalmers, physician and author of 512 West Fourth st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born July 6, 1846, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of Medicine in the Middle Ages.

Minot, James Jackson, physician of 188 Marlborough st., Boston, Mass., was born on Oct. 11, 1852, in Boston, Mass. He is now physician of the Massachusetts general hospital and of the Long Island hospital.

Minot, Joseph Gratton, capitalist, genealogist and author of 301 Berkeley st., Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 13, 1858, in New York City. He is the author of The Geaological Record of the Minot Family in America and England.

Minot, Laurence, trustee of 18 Tremont st., Boston, Mass., was born May 19, 1865, in West Roxbury, Mass. He is a trustee of the New England Investment and Security company.

Minott, Frederic Shepard, manufacturer and merchant of 787 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 4, 1868, in Orange, N.J. He is president of the Goodyear Rubber Insulating company; and a director of corporations.

Minton, Guy, lawyer and banker of Morristown, N.J., was born June 2, 1846, in Madison, N.J. He is president of the First National bank.

Minton, Henry Collin, educator, clergyman and author of Trenton, N.J., was born on May 8, 1855, in Prosperity, Pa. He is the author of Christianity Supernatural.

Mirabal,Silvestre, farmer, stockraiser and statesman of San Rafael, N.M., was born on May 10, 1864, in Sebeyeta, N.M. He was educated at St. Michael's college. In 1889 he was a delegate to the constitutional convention of New Mexico; in 1890 was United States census enumerator; and in 1891 and 1892 was chairman of the county commissioners of Valencia county, N.M. In 1893-94 was a member of the lower house of the legislature of the territory of New Mexico; was re-elected in 1904 for a second term and has served continuously since. For twelve years he has served as territorial sheep inspector; and for ten years as United States court commissioner. In 1908 he was a delegate to the sixteenth national irrigation congress held at Albuquerque, N. M.; in 1909 he was a delegate to the seventeenth national irrigation congress at Spokane, Wash.; and in 1909 was also a delegate to the twenty-ninth annual session of the Farmers' national congress held at Raleigh, N.C.

Mires, Austin, lawyer of Ellensburg,Wash., was born on Feb. 11, 1852, in Des Moines county, Iowa. He has been president of the Washington state bar association. He is the author of Eulogies on Old Kittitas County Pioneers.

Mish, Frank Winder, banker of Hagerstown, Md., was born April 4, 1865, in Maryland. He is president of the First National bank.

Missemer, J. R., journalist and publisher of Steelton, Pa., was born March 24, 1851, in Mount Joy, Pa. For the past twenty years he has been engaged in journalism.

Mitchell, Asahel W., business manager and statesman of Hartford, Conn., was born Oct. 16, 1865, in Woodbury, Conn. In 1905-06 he was comptroller of Connecticut.

Mitchell, Charles Foote, banker of 67 Bank st., Waterbury, Conn., was born Nov. 15, 1856, in Waterbury, Conn. He is president of the Manufacturers' National bank.

Mitchell, Clifford, physician, scientist and author of 140 North State st., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 28, 1854, in Nantucket, Mass. He is the author of Diseases of the Urinary Organs and other works.

Mitchell, Edmund, journalist, dramatist and author of San Francisco, Cal., was born March 19, 1861, in Glasgow, Scotland. He is the author of the Temple of Death and other works.

Mitchell, Edwin Knox, educator of Hartford, Conn., was born Dec. 3, 1853, in Locke, Ohio. He is the author of Creeds and Canons and other works.

Mitchell, Emmett Eugene, banker and merchant of Morrilton, Ark., was born Feb. 1, 1867, in Mississippi. He is president of the Citizens' bank.

Mitchell, Ezra, physician and banker of Lancaster, N.H., was born Nov. 12, 1841, in Minot, Maine. He is president of the Lancaster Savings bank.

Mitchell, Harley Bradford, editor and journalist of La Grange, Ill., was born Feb. 20, 1855, in Ottawa, Ill. He is now president of the village of La Grange, Ill.

Mitchell, Hinckley Gilbert, educator, clergyman and author of 36 Pinckney st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 22, 1846, in Lee, N.Y. He is the author of Final Instructions of Biblical Hebrew and other works.

Mitchell, Howard Ellery, banker of 1411 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 4, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1888-1900 he was treasurer of the Philadelphia Mortgage and Trust company; and since that time has been a member of the banking firm of Cramp, Mitchell and Shober, members of New York stock exchange and the Philadelphia stock exchange; he is also vice-president and director of the Asbestos Corporation of Canada, limited; and a director in the Northampton Traction company and other corporations.

Mitchell, John, journalist and banker of 311 North Fourth st., Richmond, Va., was born July 11, 1863, in Henrico county, Va. He is editor and proprietor of the Richmond Planet. In 1901 he organized and founded the Mechanics' Savings bank, of which he is president. He served two years in the Richmond common council, and for eight years was a member of the board of aldermen.

Mitchell, John, labor leader of New York City, was born Feb. 4, 1870, in Braidwood, Ill. He has been largely instrumental in protecting the labor of women and children. He is the author of Organized Labor, Its Problems, Protesies and Ideals.

Mitchell, John Ames, journalist, architect and author of 20 West Forty-sixth st., New York City, was born Jan. 17, 1845, in New York City. He is the author of the Romance of the Moon and other works.

Mitchell, John Kearsley, physician and author of 1730 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 13, 1859, in Philadelphia. He is the author of Mechano-Therapy and other works.

Mitchell, John L., lawyer of 1 Congress st., Portsmouth, N.H., was born Feb. 1, 1873, in Hooksett, N.H. He has been a member of the school board of Portsmouth.

Mitchell, John Oscar, banker and oil producer of Tulsa, Okla., was born Oct. 22, 1858, in Missouri. He is vice-president of the Barnes Oil and Gas company.

Mitchell, Joseph Daniel, naturalist and scientist of Austin, Texas, was born Oct. 22, 1848, in Point Comfort, Texas. He is now acting as special field agent in Texas for the United States department of agriculture.

Mitchell, Joseph Downman, merchant and banker of 607 State st., Bristol, Va., was born April 21, 1864, in Litwalton, Va. He is president of the Mitchell-Powers Hardware company.

Mitchell, Langdon Elwyn, lawyer, dramatist and author of Penllyn, Pa., was born in 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Sylvia and other poems.

Mitchell, Philip Sidney, physician and surgeon of Cummings, Kan., was born Feb. 7, 1854, in Salem, Ky. Since 1896 he has been examiner for the Mutual Life Assurance company.

Mitchell, Theodore Clarence, educator and author of New York City, was born Aug. 19, 1866, in New York City. He is part author of the Exposition in Class Room Practice.

Mitchell, Wayland, physician and banker of Lewiston, N.C., was born Sept. 9, 1871, in Powellsville, N.C. He is president of the Bank of Lewiston.

Mitchell, Willard A., lawyer of 141 Broadway, New York, was born Feb. 5, 1868, in Chateaugay, N.Y. He is president of the Central Western Oil company and a director of other corporations.

Mitchell, William H., banker of Talladega Springs, Ala., was born Nov. 13, 1854, in Randolph county, Ala. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Sylacauga, Ala.

Mitchell, William I., banker and educator of 1608 North Seventh ave., Columbus, Miss., was born Dec. 17, 1855, in Columbus, Miss. He is president of the Penny Savings bank.

Mitchell, William M., railway official and consulting engineer of Louisville, Ky., was born May 26, 1855, in Albany, Ill. He was educated at Cornell college of Iowa. He entered railway service in 1870, and has filled various positions from messenger boy to manager and chief engineer. In 1910-12 he was manager and chief engineer of the Kentucky and Indiana Terminal Railroad company; and since 1912 has been a consulting engineer at Louisville.

Mitchell, Wilmot Brookings, educator of Brunswick, Maine, was born Aug. 24, 1867, in Freeport, Maine. He is the author of School and College Speaker and other works.

Mixter, William Gilbert, educator, chemist and author of 250 Edwards st., New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 23, 1846, in Dixon, Ill. He is the author of an Elementary Textbook of Chemistry.

Mo, Hans, banker of Sleepy Eye, Minn., was born March 17, 1850, in Norway. He is president of the State bank.

Moale, Edward, soldier of Washington, D. C., was born Jan. 29, 1840, in Maryland. He served throughout the civil war.

Moch, Moses Edwin, clothing manufacturer and banker of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 1, 1855, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is president of the National Automatic Fire Alarm company.

Modjeski, Ralph, consulting civil engineer of Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 27, 1861, in Cracow, Poland. He was assistant engineer of the bridge of the Missouri at Omaha. Since 1892 he has been in practice as a consulting engineer of Chicago and now at Portland. He designed and built the bridge at Rock Island and numerous bridges for railroad companies. He is past president of the western society of engineers.

Moe, Alfred Keane, lawyer, diplomat and author, of Jersey City, N.J., was born Oct. 5, 1874, in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the author of History of Harvard and other works.

Moeller, Henry, clergyman and bishop of Norwood, Ohio, was born Dec. 11, 1849, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Since 1904 he has been archbishop of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Moeller, Herman Frederick, railroad manager of Detroit, Mich., was born Jan. 17, 1866, in Saginaw, Mich. He is now general passenger agent of the Pere Marquette railroad, his headquarters in Detroit.

Moeller, Louis Charles, artist of Wakefield, N.Y., was born Aug. 5, 1855, in New York City. One of his principal works is a Girl in a Snow Storm and others.

Moenig, Clement, clergyman and banker of New Hamburg, Mo., was born Jan. 24, 1862, in Germany. He is president of the Bank of New Hamburg.

Moerdyke, Peter, clergyman and author of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Jan. 29, 1845, in the Netherland. He is the author of History of the First Reformed Church of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Moerk, Frank Xavier, educator, chemist and author of Germantown, Pa., was born July 3, 1863, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Notes on Qualitative Analysis and other works.

Moffat, David H., banker of 1706 Lincoln ave., Denver, Col., was born in 1839 in Washingtonville, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Moffat, J. S., college president of Due West, S.C., was born July 17, 1860, in Wheeling, Ark. He is president of the Erskine college.

Moffat, James David, clergyman and college president of Washington, Pa., was born March 15, 1846, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He was pastor of the Second Presbyterian church at Wheeling, W.Va., and assistant editor for the Presbyterian Banner at Pittsburgh. He is now president of the Washington and Jefferson college, at Washington, Pa.

Moffat, Jessie Emerson, litterateur and author of 1271 Broadway, New York City, was born Aug. 22, 1880, in Freedonia, N.Y. She is the author of A Friend at Court and other works.

Moffat, William David, publisher and author of 31 East Seventeenth st., New York City, was born Jan. 17, 1865, in Princeton, N.J. He is the author of the County Pennant and other works.

Moffatt, James Hugh, educator and editor of Ardmore, Pa., was born Sept. 10, 1878, in Cumberland, Md. He is part editor of History of the Athletes at Princeton.

Moffett, Cleveland, journalist and author of 43 West Ninetieth st., New York City, was born April 27, 1863, in Boonville, N.Y. He is the author of the Real Detective Stories.

Moffett, James, lawyer and banker of 894 Broadway, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Jan. 3, 1853, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1874 he has practiced law in Brooklyn; and is senior member of the law firm of Moffet and Moffet. Since its incorporation in 1905 he has been president of the Hamburg Savings bank of Brooklyn; and is also president of the Hamburg Realty corporation. He has traveled extensively in America and Europe; and was a delegate to the democratic national conventions of 1906 and 1910.

Moffit, John H., banker of Plattsburgh, N. Y., was born Jan. 8, 1843, in Chazy, N.Y. He is president of the Plattsburgh National bank. He has been a member of congress.

Moffitt, Stephen, banker of Plattsburgh, N. Y., was born Aug. 6, 1837, in Clintonville, N. Y. He served during the civil war. Since 1893 he has been president of the Iron National bank.

Mogan, Edmund P., lawyer and jurist of San Francisco, Cal., where he was born. Since 1906 he has been judge of the superior court for the city and county of San Francisco.

Mogel, Albert F., merchant and banker of Leesport, Pa., was born Nov. 5, 1864, in Centreport, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Mohler, A. L., railroad official of Omaha, Neb., was born in 1850 in Ephrata, Pa. Since 1868 he has been in the railway service. He has been president of the Portland and Asiatic Steamship company; president of the Ilwaco Railway and Navigation company; and is now president of the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line Railway company, with headquarters in Omaha, Neb.

Mohn, Jeremiah G., president of Reading, Pa., was born Nov. 1, 1839, in Spring township, Pa. He is president of the Reading board of trade; and is stockholder and officer in a number of other companies.

Mohr, Frederick, merchant and banker of 614 Center st., Bay City, Mich., was born in April, 1864, in Germany. He is president of the People's Savings bank.

Mohun, Barry, lawyer and author of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 27, 1873, in Washington, D.C. He is the author of Mohun on Warehouse Men.

Moldenke, Charles Edward, litterateur and author of Watchung, N.J., was born Oct. 10, 1860, in Prussia. He is the author of the New York Obelisk and other works.

Moldenke, Richard George G., metallurgist and author of Watchung, N.J., was born Nov. 1, 1864, in Watertown, Wis. He is the author of Two String to His Bow and other works.

Molera, Eusebius Joseph, civil and electrical engineer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Nov. 14, 1846, in Catalonia, Spain. His father was a noted general in the Spanish army. For a number of years he was in the employ of the United States as lieutenant of engineers; and superintended the construction of many light houses on the coast of California. Since 1876 he has been engaged in private practice as civil engineer and architect in the United States and Mexico. In 1879 he obtained the first patent to propel vehicles by storage batteries. He is president of the Pilones Mining company.

Molineux, Marie Ada, lecturer, educator and author of 27 Aberdeen st., Boston, Mass., was born near San Francisco, Cal. She is the author of A Phrase Book From the Poetic and Dramatic Works of Robert Browning.

Molitor, Frederick Albert, civil engineer and author of 35 Nassau st., New York City, was born in April, 1868, in Detroit, Mich. He is the author of Manual for Constructing Engineers.

Mollenhauer, Emil, musician and composer of 169 Huntington ave., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 4, 1855, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1899 he was elected conductor of the Boston Handel and Haydn society.

Mollenhauer, Frederick D., sugar refiner and capitalist of 480 Kent ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born in New York City. He is vice-president and treasurer of the National Sugar Refining company of New Jersey.

Mollenhauer, J. Adolph, capitalist of 84 Broadway, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 10, 1857, in New York City. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is advisory member of the Mollenhauer Sugar Refining company and a director of other corporations.

Mollenhauer, Louis, musician and educator of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Dec. 17, 1863, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He was a member of the Schubert and Mollenhauer Quintette club.

Mollison, Willis E., journalist, orator and lawyer of Vicksburg, Miss., was born Sept. 15, 1858, in Mayersville, Miss. He is the editor of the Golden Rule of Vicksburg, Miss.

Mollohan, Edward William, real estate dealer and banker of 816 Fourteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born April 27, 1880, in West Virginia. He is president of the Colonial Bank and Trust company of Roanoke, Va., and connected with various other corporations.

Moloney, Thomas W., lawyer and statesman of Rutland, Vt., was born Jan. 10, 1862, in West Rutland, Vt. He has been a member of the Vermont state legislature; and received the nomination for governor in 1898.

Momberger, William, painter and artist of Morrisania, N.Y., was born June 7, 1829, in Germany. One of his principal landscapes was Among the Catskills and other works.

Mombert, Jacob Isidor, clergyman and author of Paterson, N.J., was born Nov. 6, 1829, in Germany. He is the author of Faith Victorious and other works.

Monaghan, John James, clergyman and bishop of Wilmington, Del., was born May 23, 1856, in Sumter, S.C. Since 1897 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Wilmington, Del.

Monarch, Martin V., railroad president of Owensboro, N.Y., was born in 1842 in Kentucky. In 1889 he became president of the Owensboro Falls of Rough and Green River railroad.

Moncheur, Baron Ludovic, diplomat and author of 1719 H st., Washington, D.C., was born May 12, 1857, in Belgium. He is the author of From Tampico to the Pacific, in French and English translations and other works.

Mondell, Frank Wheeler, statesman of Newcastle, Wyo., was born Nov. 5, 1860, in St. Louis, Mo. He is a successful discoverer, developer and manager of extensive coal interests at Newcastle.

Money, Hernando Desoto, soldier, journalist and statesman of Mississippi City, Miss., was born Aug. 26, 1839, in Holmes county, Miss. In 1861-64 he served in the confederate states army.

Monfort, Francis Cassart, clergyman, and author of 422 Elm st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Sept. 1, 1844, in Greensburg, Ind. He is the author of Sermons for Silent Sabbaths and other works.

Monfort, Frederick Delos, broker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 6, 1868, in St. Paul, Minn. He has been vice-president of the Second National bank.

Monk, Edward Roseberry, lawyer and jurist of 355 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal., was born Jan. 31, 1851, in Alliance, Ohio. He received the degrees of B.A. and M.A. from Mount Union college of Ohio. He served two terms as judge of the territorial court of Arizona and in 1893 was appointed receiver United States land office at Tucson. In 1900 he moved to Los Angeles; is a member of the law firm of E. R. Monk and company; and holds the chair of medical jurisprudence in the eclectic medical college.

Monkhouse, Harry, railroad president of Rome, N.Y. He is president of the Rome Locomotive works.

Monks, Frank Hawthorne, trustee and financier of 35 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 29, 1850, in Boston, Mass. For nearly twenty years he was in the flour business and then engaged in the transportation business. In 1889-92 he was general manager of the West End street railway of Boston; and is president of the Wovern Gas Light company. He is trustee of the estate of John P. Monks; and trustee of the Monks Building trust.

Monks, Leander John, lawyer and jurist of Indianapolis, Ind., was born July 10, 1848, in Winchester, Ind. In 1904-13 he was chief justice of the supreme court of Indiana.

Monnette, Mervin J., banker of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Aug. 24, 1847, in Ohio. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Monnette, Orra Eugene, lawyer and banker of 308 South Broadway, Los Angeles,Cal., was born April 12, 1872, in Dallas township, Ohio. He received the degree of A.B. from the Ohio Wesleyan university. He moved to California in 1907; and is president of the Citizens' Trust and Savings bank of Los Angeles. He is the author of the Monnette Family Genealogy.

Monnot, John Ferreol, metallurgical and mining engineer of 208 Fifth ave., New York City, was born May 13, 1864, in Classon Point, N.Y. He is president of the Duplex Metals company.

Monroe, Charles, lawyer and jurist of 729 West Twenty-eighth st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 23, 1849, in Rumford, Me. Since 1905 he has been judge of the superior court of Los Angeles.

Monroe, Frank Adair, soldier, lawyer and jurist of 847 Carondelet st., New Orleans, La., was born Aug. 30, 1844, in Annapolis, Md. In 1906 he was elected an associate justice.

Monroe, Harriet Earhart, lecturer and author of 204 A st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1842 in Indiana, Pa. She is the author of Art of Conversation and other works.

Monroe, Henry Smith, educator, scientist and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 25, 1850, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1890 he was vice-president of the American institute of mining engineers.

Monroe, Joseph Eaton, educator and college president of 506 Atlantic st., Dillon, Mont., was born Nov. 26, 1864, in Xenia, Ohio. He has been principal and superintendent in public schools of Indiana and Kansas; institute instructor and lecturer in Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, Idaho and Montana. For many years he was professor of natural science at the Kansas normal college. Since 1897 he has been professor of physics and chemistry at the Montana state normal college, and since 1912 has been president of that institution of learning.

Monroe, Paul, educator and author of Yonkers, N.Y., was born June 7, 1869, in North Madison, Ind. He is the author of Source Book in the History of Education for the Greek and Roman Period.

Monroe, Will Seymour, lecturer and poet of Montclair, N.J., was born March 22, 1863, in Hunlock, Pa. He is the author of Poets and Prose Writers of Wyoming Valley, and other publications.

Monsen, Frederick Inman, F. R. G. S., artist, explorer and lecturer of 14 West Twelfth st., New York City, was born July 8, 1865, in Bergen, Norway. He is a professional lecturer on ethnological and theological subjects. He has in preparation a work on the Indians of the Southwestern United States.

Monserrate, M. D., railroad president of San Antonio, Texas, was born Aug. 4, 1838, on the island of Minorca, a possession of Spain, but as a citizen of the United States. In 1866-75 he was clerk and purser for the Morgan steamship line. Since 1875 he has been in railway service; was general freight and passenger agent for the Gulf Western Texas and Pacific railway, of which he became president and superintendent. In 1893-1906 he was vice-president and general manager and since 1906 second vice-president of the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass railway.

Montague, Andrew Jackson, lawyer and statesman of Richmond, Va., was born Oct. 3, 1862, in Campbell county, Va. Since 1907 he has been president of the Virginia league for international arbitration.

Montague, Andrew Philip, educator, college president and author of Birmingham, Ala., was born Sept. 27, 1854, in Essex county, Va. He is the author of Selected Letters of Cicero and other works.

Montague, Gilbert Holland, lawyer and author of 152 East Thirty-seventh st., New York City,was born May 27, 1880, in Springfield, Mass. He is the author of the Rise and Progress of the Standard Oil Company.

Montague, Margaret Prescott, litterateur and author of White Sulphur Srings, W.Va., was born Nov. 29, 1878, in White Sulphur Springs, W.Va. She is the author of The Poet and other works.

Montanus,Philip E.,manufacturer of Springfield, Ohio, was born in 1854 in Ohio. He is vice-president of the Citizens' National bank.

Montefiore, Joseph H., journalist and lawyer of St. Albans, Vt., was born March 19, 1848, in St. Albans, Vt. Since 1880 he has practiced law in St. Albans, Vt.

Monteith, William, banker of Crestline, Ohio, was born March 25, 1861, in Ireland. He is president of the Crestline Realty company.

Montgomery,Alexander B.,jurist and statesman of Elizabethtown, Ky., was born Dec. 11, 1837, in Hardin county, Ky. In 1887 he was a member of congress.

Montgomery, Edmund, physician, biologist and philosophical writer of Hempstead, Texas, was born March 19, 1835, in Edinburgh, Scotland. He is the author of Refutation of the Kantean Theory of Knowledge and other works.

Montgomery, Edward Emmet, educator, physician and author of 1426 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 15, 1849, in Newark, Ohio. He is the author of Practical Gynecology.

Montgomery, George Redington,clergyman and author of 1 East Twenty-fourth st., New York City, was born June 17, 1870, in Turkey. He is the author of Talking English.

Montgomery, Henry, geologist curator of Toronto, Canada, was born Nov. 11, 1848, in Cartwright, Ontario, Canada. He has received the degrees of A.B., S.M., B.S., Ph.B. and Ph.D. Since 1904 he has been curator of the museum of the university of Toronto. He is the author of the Prehistoric Man in the United States and Canada.

Montgomery, John Alexander, consulting engineer and railroad president of Birmingham, Ala., was born Aug. 30, 1851, in Lewisburg, Va. He is now an eminent consulting engineer of Birmingham.

Montgomery, John Knox, educator, clergyman and college president of New Concord, Ohio, was born Aug. 4, 1861, in Belfast,Tenn. Since 1904 he has been president of Muskingum college of New Concord.

Montgomery, Mary Williams, orientalist and author of 126 West One Hundred and Fourth st., New York City, was born Nov. 21, 1874, in Turkey. She is part author of Told in a Garden of Araby and other works.

Montgomery, Morton L., civil engineer, lawyer and author of Reading, Pa., was born Nov. 10, 1848, in Reading, Pa. He is the author of Political Hand Book of Berks County, Pa.

Montgomery,Oscar Hilton, lawyer and jurist of Seymour, Ind., was born April 27, 1859, in Seymour, Ind. Since 1905 he has been judge of the supreme court of Indiana.

Montgomery, R. J., banker of La Crosse, Va., was born July 8, 1848, in Mecklenberg county. Va. He is president of the Bank of South Hill.

Montgomery, Robert B., lawyer and jurist of Detroit, Mich., was born May 12, 1849, in Eaton Rapids, Mich. Since 1890 he has been associate-justice of the state supreme court of Michigan.

Montgomery, Robert M., lawyer and jurist of 1120 Sixteenth st., Washington, D.C., was born May 12, 1849, in Eaton Rapids, Mich. Since 1900 he has been justice of the supreme court of Michigan.

Montgomery, Thomas Harrison, educator and author of 214 St. Mark's square, Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 5, 1873, in New York City. He is the author of Analysis of Racial Descent of Animals.

Montgomery, Thomas Lynch, state librarian of Harrisburg, Pa., was born March 4, 1862, in Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. He was educated at the Episcopal academy; and at the university of Pennsylvania. In 1886-1903 he was actuary and librarian to the Wagner free institute of science; and since 1903 has been state librarian of Pennsylvania. He is trustee of the free library of Philadelphia; a life member of the historical society of Pennsylvania; a life member of the American library association; an honorary member of the Wyoming historical and geological society. He is state librarian of Pennsylvania for the term of 1910-14.

Montgomery, W. J., lawyer and banker of Marion, S.C., was born May 20, 1851, in Marion, S.C. He is president of the Marion County Trust company.

Montgomery, Walter A., lawyer and jurist of Raleigh, N.C. He is an associate justice of the supreme court of North Carolina.

Montgomery, William Alexander, soldier, farmer, lawyer and statesman of Edwards, Miss., was born Oct. 18, 1844, in Winston county, Miss. During the Spanish-American war he commanded the second regiment, Mississippi volunteer infantry.

Montgomery, William Alexander, banker of Jackson, Miss., was born Jan. 25, 1870, in Hinds county, Miss. He is cashier of the Merchants' Bank and Trust company.

Monyhan, Jonce, banker of Orleans, Ind., was born Aug. 1, 1856, in Washington county, Ind. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Moody, Edwin Denmead, banker of Dennison, Ohio,was born Junt 12, 1872, in Uhrichsville, Ohio. He is cashier of the Dennison National bank.

Moody, Frank S.,farmer, lawyer and banker of 2007 Seventh st., Tuskaloosa, Ala., was born Oct. 29, 1849, in Tuskaloosa, Ala. He has been president of the board of trade. Since 1879 he has been president of the First National bank.

Moody, Mrs. Helen Watterson, litterateur and author of Bronxville, N.Y., was born in Cleveland, Ohio. She is the author of the Unquiet Dex, a volume of essays.

Moody, Herbert Raymond, educator, chemist and author of Chelsea, Mass., was born Nov. 19, 1869, in Chelsea, Mass. He is the author of Reactions of the Temperature of the Electric Arc and other works.

Moody, John, publisher and author of 35 Nassau st., New York City, was born May 2, 1868, in Jersey City, N.J. He is the author of the Truth About the Trusts and other works.

Moody, Malcolm Adelbert,merchant, banker and statesman of The Dalles, Ore., was born Nov. 30, 1854, in Brownsville, Ore. In 1885-89 he was a member of the city council of The Dalles.

Moody, Mary Blair, physician and founder of Fair Haven Heights, New Haven,Conn., was born Aug. 8, 1837, in Barker, N.Y. She received her medical degree from the Buffalo university. She was the founder and in 1882-86 senior physician of the women's and children's dispensary of Buffalo. She has been book reviewer for the Buffalo Medical and Surgical Journal; and associate-editor of the Bulletin Buffalo National Field club. She has made extensive researches in general medicine and natural science; and is the author of Flora of California.

Moody, Maurice, banker of Dennison, Ohio, was born July 20, 1847, in Scio, Ohio. He is president of the Dennison National bank.

Moody, Robert, banker of Canadian, Texas, was born in 1836 in England. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Moody, Thomas Frank, banker of Canadian, Texas, was born Aug. 7, 1875, in Pueblo, Col. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Moody, William Henry, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Haverhill, Mass., was born Dec. 23, 1853, in Newbury, Mass. In 1903 he was appointed secretary of the navy.

Moody, William Lewis, banker of 2223 Market st., Galveston, Texas, was born Jan. 25, 1865, in Fairfield, Texas. He is president of the City National bank.

Moody, Winfield Scott, journalist and author of Bronxville, N.Y., was born in 1856 in New York City. He is the author of the Pickwick Ladle and other stories.

Moon, John Austin, lawyer jurist and statesman of Chattanooga, Tenn., was born April 22, 1855, in Albemarle county, Va. In 1897-1911 he was a member of congress.

Mooney, James, ethnologist and author of Washington, D.C., was born in 1861 in Richmond, Ind. He has directed extensive investigations among Indian tribes. He is the author of Myths of the Cherokees and other works.

Mooney, John H., accountant, public official and railway president of 119 West Seventy-sixth st., New York City, was born July, 1848, in New York City. He has been president of the street railway of Niagara Falls, Canada.

Moore, Albert Weston, clergyman and author of Lynn, Mass., was born Aug. 29, 1842, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Rational Basis of Orthodoxy.

Moore, Alfred A., lawyer and jurist of Nome, Alaska, was born in Beaver, Pa. Since 1902 he has been judge of the United States district court for the second district of Alaska.

Moore, Mrs. Annie Aubertine, litterateur and author of Madison, Wis., was born Sept. 27, 1841, in Montgomery county, Pa. She is Wisconsin translator of note from the Norse.

Moore, Aubertine Woodward, musician and author of 342 West Wilson st., Madison, Wis., was born Sept. 27, 1841, in Montgomery county, Pa. She is the author of Echoes From Mist-Land and several other works.

Moore, Charles, journalist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 20, 1855, in Ypsilanti, Mich. He is the author of Charities of the District of Columbia.

Moore, Charles Forest, lawyer of 309 Broadway, New York City, was born Jan. 28, 1863, in Dunmore, W.Va. He is chief counsel for the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company.

Moore, Charles Henry, civil engineer of 11 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1863 in Baltimore, Md. He is engineer of grade crossings of the Erie Railroad company and other railroad companies.

Moore, Charles Herbert, educator and author of Wellfield, England, was born April 10, 1840, in New York. He is the author of the Development and Character of the Gothic Architecture, a work of much value.

Moore, Charles Leonard, lawyer, diplomat, author and poet of 1501 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 16, 1854, in Philadelphia. He is the author of Poems Antique and Modern.

Moore, Charles Winthrop, banker of 393 Prior ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born July 14, 1870, in Amboy, Ill. He is president of the Hamline State bank.

Moore, Clarence, banker of Washington, D. C., was born March 1, 1865, in Clarksburg, W.Va. He is a partner of the firm of W. B. Hibbs and company.

Moore, Clarence Bloomfield, archaeologist and author of 1321 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 14, 1852, in Philadelphia. He is the author of Certain Sand Mounds of St. John's River, Florida, and other works.

Moore, E. H., lawyer and statesman of Cleveland, Miss., was born Nov. 8, 1849, in Huntsville, Ala. In 1896-1904 he was chairman of the senate judiciary committee.

Moore, Edward Caldwell, educator, clergyman and author of 21 Kirkland st., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 1, 1857, in West Chester, Pa. He is the author of The New Testament in the Christian Church.

Moore, Edward D., banker of 3 Virginia ave., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 3, 1862, in Blanchester, Ohio. He is cashier of the Indiana National bank.

Moore, Edward S., railroad official of 143 West Van Buren st., Chicago, Ill., was born June 6, 1881, in Chicago, Ill. Since 1909 he has been vice-president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad.

Moore, Edward W., financier of Cleveland, Ohio, was born July 3, 1864, at Canal Dover, Ohio. He is president of the Lake Shore Electric Railway company.

Moore, Edwin King, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born July 24, 1847, in Georgetown, Ohio. Since 1906 he has been a member of the naval examining and retiring boards.

Moore, Ephraim W., journalist, publisher and statesman of Benton Harbor, Mich., was born April 30, 1854, in Rochester, N.Y. He has been chairman of the board of supervisors for Calhoun county; has served as a member of the Michigan state legislature; and has been mayor of Battle Creek. In 1907 he moved to Benton Harbor; and is now editor of the Daily News-Palladium of that city.

Moore, Francis, soldier of Washington, D. C., was born April 6, 1841, in Scotland. In 1901 he was advanced to the rank of brigadier-general.

Moore, Francis C., insurance president of 20 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1842 in Houston, Texas. For many years he was president of the Continental Fire Insurance company and is now retired.

Moore, Frank J., railway official of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Oct. 8, 1858, in Lockport, N.Y. He was educated at the central high school of Buffalo, N.Y. In 1876 he entered railway service. In 1883-1904 he was ticket agent and general eastern agent for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad; and since 1904 has been general baggage agent and superintendent of the dining service of that road.

Moore, George F., railroad president of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 22, 1862, in Bloomington, Ind. He is president of the Manufacturers' railroad of St. Louis.

Moore, George Foot, educator and author of 3 Divinity ave., Cambridge, Mass., was born Oct. 15, 1851, in West Chester, Pa. He is the author of Commentary on Judges.

Moore, George P., farmer and banker of Edray, W.Va., was born Jan. 7, 1839, in Edray, W.Va. He is president of the First National bank of Marlington, W.Va.

Moore, Harry Humphrey, painter and artist of Paris, France, was born July 2, 1844, in New York City. In 1876 he received a medal at the Philadelphia centennial exhibition for the figure of a Moorish dancer in the Alhambra.

Moore, Henry Hoyt, printer, writer and author of 287 Fourth ave., New York City, was born April 21, 1860, in Algona, Iowa. He is the author of Utopias, Ideal Social Systems.

Moore, Horace L., banker of Lawrence, Kan., was born Feb. 25, 1837, in Mantua, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Lawrence National bank.

Moore, James Edward, physician, surgeon and author of 1788 Fremont ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 2, 1852, in Clarksville, Pa. He is the author of Moore's Orthopaedia Surgery and other works.

Moore, James Hobart, lawyer of 122 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 14, 1852, in Berkshire, N.Y. He began the practice of law in Chicago in 1881, with his brother, William H. Moore, the four great corporations known as the Moore Group, with a combined capital of one hundred and eighty-seven millions, all now absorbed in the United States Steel corporation.

Moore, James Z., lawyer and jurist of Spokane, Wash., was born in Owensboro, Ky. He is now a member of the board of regents of the university of Washington.

Moore, Jethiel Tuttle, physician, surgeon, lecturer and college president of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Oct. 4, 1848, in Ontario, Canada. For the past fourteen years he has been lecturer on theory and practice of medicine.

Moore, John Bassett, publicist and author of 267 West Seventy-third st., New York City, was born Dec. 3, 1860, in Smyrna, Del. He is the author of Extradition and Interstate Rendition and other works.

Moore, John Godfrey, founder of New York City, was born July 7, 1847, in Steuben, Maine. He organized the Mutual Union Telegraph company.

Moore, John Howard, humanitarian and author of 6260 Jackson Park ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 4, 1862, in Linden, Mo. He is the author of Better World Philosophy and other works.

Moore, John Leverett, educator and author of 117 Academy st., Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born June 6, 1859, in New York City. He is the author of Latin Prose Exercises.

Moore, John Matthew, statesman of Richmond, Texas, was born Nov. 18, 1862, in Richmond, Tex. In 1900 he was a delegate to the democratic national convention.

Moore, John Trotwood, journalist, educator and author of 215 Twenty-second ave., Nashville, Tenn., was born Aug. 26, 1858, in Marion, Ala. He is the author of Stories from Tennessee.

Moore, Joseph, banker and financier of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a director of the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing company and other corporations.

Moore, Joseph B., lawyer and statesman of Lansing, Mich., was born Nov. 3, 1845, in Commerce, Mich. Since 1896 he has been chief justice of the supreme court of the sixth judicial circuit of Michigan.

Moore, Joseph Eugene, lawyer and statesman of Thomaston, Maine, was born March 14, 1841, in Lisbon, Maine. He is one of the foremost lawyers of New England at Thomaston.

Moore, Joseph Hampton, journalist, banker and statesman of Philadelphia, Pa., born March 8, 1864, in Woodbury, N.J. In 1908-09 he was president of the Atlantic deeper water ways association.

Moore, Josiah Staunton, merchant, capitalist and author of 2209 East Broad st., Richmond, Va., was born June 18, 1843, in Richmond, Va. He is the author of a Trans-Atlantic Itinery and other poems.

Moore, Judson L., musician and composer of Bethlehem, Ga., was born Sept. 12, 1857, in Bethlehem, Ga. He is the author of a number of pieces of Sunday-school and singing class music.

Moore, Lewis Clark, banker of Fort Collins, Col., was born Jan. 24, 1866, in Findlay, Ohio. He is president of the Commercial Bank and Trust company.

Moore, Lewis Eugene, scientist and author of Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 24, 1880, in Amboy, Ill. He is the author of Design of Plate Girders.

Moore, Luman Gordon, physician, surgeon and banker of Kinsman, Ohio, was born Feb. 16, 1849, in Kinsman, Ohio. He is president of the Kinsman Banking company.

Moore, Miles Conway, banker and statesman of Walla Walla, Wash., was born April 17, 1845, in Rix Mills, Ohio. He is now president of the Baker Boyer National bank of Walla Walla.

Moore, Mrs. N. Hudson, litterateur and author of 100 Berkeley st., Rochester, N.Y., was born in New York City. She is the author of Old China Book and other works.

Moore, Richard Bishop, educator, chemist and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 6, 1871, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of A Laboratory Chemistry.

Moore, Richard Channing, physician and surgeon of Omaha, Neb., was born Nov. 25, 1841, in Quincy, Ill. He is professor of mental diseases in the Omaha medical college.

Moore, Richard Francis, clergyman and founder of New Britain, Conn., was born July 26, 1858, in Hartford, Conn. He is rector of St. Joseph's church of New Britain.

Moore, Robert Lee, educator and college president of Mars Hill, N.C., was born Sept. 8, 1870, in Globe, N.C. In 1897 he was president of the Mars Hill college of North Carolina.

Moore, Robert Reed, banker of 1451 Broadway, New York City,was born June 12, 1859, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been president of the New Amsterdam National bank and the New Amsterdam Safety Deposit company; and since 1896 president of the Commercial Trust company of New York City. Since 1911 he has filled the office of chamberlain, city of New York.

Moore, Stephen, manufacturer and financier of 121 Beach st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 9, 1835, in Sudbury, Mass. He is president of the Leatheroid Manufacturing company.

Moore, Thomas Joseph, business man and poet of 141 Wooster st., New York City, was born May 1, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Elecampane, a volume of poems.

Moore, Tom, railway official of Princeton, W.Va., was born Jan. 12, 1879, in Fayetteville, N.C. He entered railway service in 1893 as messenger boy, and has since filled positions to chief clerk and storekeeper. In 1905-10 he was in the purchasing department of the Virginia railway at Norfolk, in 1910-11 was chief clerk of the same department, and since 1911 has been general storekeeper of the same road at Princeton, W.Va.

Moore, Veranus Alva, educator, physician and author of Utica, N.Y., was born April 13, 1859, in Houndsfield, N.Y. He is the author of Laboratory Directions for Beginners in Bacteriology.

Moore, Victor F., actor of Baldwin, N.Y., was born Feb. 24, 1876, in Hammonton, N. J. He is now in vaudeville with his wife playing Change Your Act or Back to the Woods.

Moore, W. A., merchant and banker of Dunlap, Tenn., was born March 12, 1844, in Chattanooga, Tenn. He is president of the Sequatchie County bank.

Moore, Walter C., land and oil operator and capitalist of Houston, Texas, was born Oct. 8, 1857, in Harris county, Texas. He is president of the Moore Carter Canal company and other corporations.

Moore, Walter William, educator, clergyman, college president and author of Richmond, Va., was born June 14, 1857, in Charlotte, N.C. He is the author of A Year in Europe.

Moore, William, soldier and manufacturer of Hoopeston, Ill., was born Nov. 30, 1841, in West Bedford, Ohio. In 1861-64 he served in the civil war as captain of company I, fifty-first regiment Ohio volunteer infantry. He is president of the Illinois Canning company; and managing partner of the Moore and McFerren Box and Lumber business of Memphis, Tenn. He has been president of the Commercial club of Hoopeston; and acting mayor of his city. He is president of the Western Canners' association; and has held numerous positions of trust and honor.

Moore, William Frederick, journalist, lawyer, diplomat and author of 231 Seventh ave., La Grange, Ill., was born Jan. 30, 1852, in New York City. He is the author of Morocco, Its Past, Present and Future.

Moore, Willis Luther, meteorologist of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 18, 1856, in Scranton, Pa. He is chief of the weather bureau at Washington.

Moore, William Wesley, banker of Versailles, Mo., was born Oct. 15, 1854, in Morgan county, Mo. He is president of the First National bank.

Moore, Winston Pettus, planter, banker and railway official of Lula, Miss., was born Aug. 8, 1869, in Morton, Miss. He is president of the Bank of Lula.

Moore, Zuinglius, educator, clergyman and college president of Albany, Mo., was born in 1862, in Belmont county, Ohio. He is president of the Central Christian college of Albany, Mo.

Moorehead, John, manufacturer and business president of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 28, 1859, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is a member of the academy of science and arts.

Moorehead, Warren King, archaeologist and author of Andover, Mass., was born March 10, 1866, in Italy. He is the author of Primitive Man in Ohio and other works.

Moores, Charles, banker of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 20, 1855, in Ypsilanti, Mich. He is secretary and treasurer of the Security Trust company.

Moores, Charles Washington, lawyer, lecturer and author of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Feb. 15, 1852, in Indianapolis, Ind. He graduated with the degrees of A.B. and M.A. from Wabash college; and the degree of LL. B. from the Central law school. Since 1896 he has been lecturer in the Indiana law school on illegal contracts, sales and constitutional law. In 1899-1905 he was a member of the Indianapolis board of school commissioners, and became president of the board. He has been president of the Indiana society of the Sons of American Revolution. He is the author of Life of Abraham Lincoln for Boys and Girls; The Story of Christopher Columbus and other works.

Moors, Arthur Wendell, banker of 111 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born Nov. 14, 1859, in Boston, Mass. He is senior partner of the J. B. Moors and company.

Moors, John Farwell, banker and broker of 95 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 31, 1861, in Boston, Mass. He is senior member of the firm of Moors and Cabot.

Moot, Adelbert, lawyer and state commissioner of 358 Elmwood ave., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Nov. 22, 1854, in Allen, N.Y. He has been president of the unitarian conference for the middle states and Canada.

Mora, Francis Luis, painter and artist of 142 East Eighteenth st., New York City,was born July 27, 1874, in South America. He is a national academician. In 1892 he began illustrating work for all the leading magazines and periodicals.

Mora, Joseph Jacinto, artist and author of Mountain View, Cal., was born Oct. 22, 1876, in Uruguay. He is the author and illustrator of the Animals of Aesop and other works.

Moran, Edward Percy, painter and artist of 331 Lexington ave., New York City, was born July 29, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. One of his works is the painting of A Corner of the Studio.

Moran, Fred Toll, manufacturer and capitalist of Detroit, Mich., was born March 4, 1855, in Detroit, Mich. He is president of the Michigan State Telephone company.

Moran, James T., lawyer and telephone official of New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 19, 1864, in North New Haven, Conn. He is vice-president and general manager of the Southern New England Telephone company.

Moran, John Brown, lawyer and reformer of Boston, Mass., was born April 27, 1859, in Wakefield, Mass. Since 1904 he has been district attorney on the reform ticket.

Moran, John Leon, painter and artist of Plainfield, N.J., was born April 4, 1864, in Philadelphia, Pa. His principal painting is An Amateur and other works.

Moran, Peter, painter and artist of 1322 Jefferson st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 4, 1842, in England. He is a successful artist of Philadelphia, and his paintings are principally of landscapes and animal subjects.

Moran, Robert Breck, consulting engineer of 311 California st., San Francisco, Cal.,was born Dec. 31, 1879, in Madison county, Ky. He graduated from the Leland Stanford university. In 1897 he was with the state geological survey; in 1900 was with the Hearst anthropological survey; and in 1901 with the United States geological survey. In 1908-09 he was associate geologist Associated Oil company; and in 1909-11 geologist to the Standard Oil company of California; and is now a consulting engineer of San Francisco.

Moran,Thomas, farmer and banker of Fredonia, N.Y., was born Dec. 11, 1847, in Ireland. He has been president of the National bank of Fredonia since its organization in 1906.

Moran, Thomas Francis, educator and author of Lafayette, Ind., was born Jan. 9, 1866, in Columbia, Mich. He is the author of the Theory and Practice of the English Government and other works.

Moran, William Joseph, educator and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 2, 1867, in West Chester, Pa. He is the author of Moran's Arithmetic and other works.

Morawetz, Victor, lawyer and author of 44 Wall st., New York City, was born April 3, 1859, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of Law of Private Corporations.

Mordecai, Alfred, soldier and educator of Washington, D.C., was born June 30, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1904 he was retired from the United States army with the rank of brigadier-general.

More, Enoch Anson, litterateur and author of 1459 Clayton st., Denver, Col., was born April 11, 1854, in Dayton, Ohio. In 1884-86 he was colonel of the first regiment Colorado national guard. He is the author of Out of the Past and other works.

More, Paul Elmer, educator and author of 20 Vesey st., New York City, was born Dec. 12, 1864, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1906 he has been literary editor of the Nation.

Morehead, Charles R., merchant and banker of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 28, 1836, in Richmond, Mo. In 1895 he was elected knight commander by the supreme council at Washington, D.C.

Morehead, John Alfred, clergyman, theologian and college president of Salem, Va.,was born Feb. 4, 1867, in Pulaski county, Va. Since 1903 he has been president of Roanoke college of Salem.

Morehead, John H., banker and statesman of Falls City, Neb., was born in Iowa. He has been state senator and lieutenant-governor. In 1913 he became governor of Nebraska.

Morehead, John Motley, manufacturer and statesman of Spray, N.C., was born July 20, 1866, in Charlotte, N.C. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Morehouse, Frederic Cook, editor and author of 617 Hackett ave., Milwaukee, Wis., was born March 19, 1868, in Milwaukee,Wis. Since 1899 he has been editor of the Living Church. He is the author of Some American Church Men and other works.

Moreland, Mary L., educator, evangelist, lecturer and author of McLean, Ill., was born Dec. 23, 1858, in Westfield, Mass. She is the author of Which and other works.

Moreland, William Hall, clergyman, bishop and author of Sacramento, Cal., was born April 9, 1861, in Charleston, S.C. He is the author of What is Christianity and other works.

Morey, Charles Anson, educator, lawyer, college president and banker of Winona, Minn., was born Aug. 9, 1851, in Orange county, Vt. He is president of the Winona Savings bank.

Morey, Chester Stephen, manufacturer, merchant and insurance official of Denver, Col., was born March 3, 1847, in Medina, Wis. For twelve years he was traveling salesman for Sprague, Warner and company of Chicago, and became a partner in that firm in 1880. Since 1884 he has been president of the Morey Mercantile company of Denver, Col.; and is now president of the Great Western Sugar company. He served in the civil war in the thirty-sixth Wisconsin regiment and received the brevet of second lieutenant. For three years he served as member of the Denver school board; and ten years as chairman of the associated charities of Denver.

Morgan, Anna, educator, musician and founder of 410 South Michigan boul., Chicago, Ill., was born in Auburn, N.Y. She is the author of Books on Dramatic Art.

Morgan, Arthur H., banker of St. Joe, Idaho, was born Feb. 13, 1883, in Larimore, N. D. He is president of the Genesee Telephone company.

Morgan, Mrs. Caroline Starr, litterateur and author of 414 Warburton ave., Rochester, N.Y., was born April 15, 1859, in Rochester, N.Y. She is the author of Ways That Win and other works.

Morgan, Charles Henry, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Lamar, Mo., was born July 5, 1842, in Alleghany county, N.Y. He has been a member of congress.

Morgan, Daniel Nash, banker of Bridgeport, Conn., was born Aug. 18, 1844, in Newton, Conn. He is director of the Consolidated Rolling Stock company. He has been mayor of his city and was a state senator and representative.

Morgan, David E., lawyer and jurist of Devils Lake, N.D., was born Nov. 8, 1849, in Coalport, Ohio. Since 1901 he has been judge of the supreme court of North Dakota.

Morgan, Dick Thompson, educator, lawyer and statesman of Woodward, Okla., was born Dec. 6, 1854, in Prairie Creek, Ind. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Morgan, George, journalist and author of 4418 Osage ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 10, 1854, in Concord, Del. He is on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Times. He is the author of John Littlejohn and other works.

Morgan, George Dayton, capitalist of Rochester, N.Y., was born Dec. 14, 1864, in Brockport, N.Y. He is president of D. S. Morgan and company.

Morgan, George Wilson, lawyer of 32 Liberty st., New York City, was born June 28, 1875, in East Orange, N.J. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from Oberlin college, and with the degree of LL.B. from the Columbian law school. Since 1903 he has practiced law in New York City. He has been deputy assistant district attorney and state superintendent of elections.

Morgan, Helen Clarissa, educator of Nashville, Tenn., was born Feb. 25, 1845, in Masonville, N.Y. She is professor of the Fiske school.

Morgan, Henry Alfred, merchant and banker of Willcox, Ariz., was born Oct. 1, 1861, in California. He is president of the Willcox Bank and Trust company.

Morgan, Henry Culver, banker of Cuba, N.Y., was born Nov. 3, 1853, in Cuba, N.Y. In 1873 he began service with the First National bank and since 1904 has been president.

Morgan, Ike, illustrator and designer of 368 Dearborn ave., Chicago, was born June 28, 1871, in Grand Tower, Ill. He has illustrated the books entitled Kid of Many Colors and other works.

Morgan, James Appleton, lawyer and author of New York City, was born Oct. 2, 1850, in Portland, Maine. He is the author of The Shakespearean Myth and other works.

Morgan, James Henry, business man and founder of 478 Glasson st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Jan. 31, 1853, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is founder and secretary general of the military order of foreign wars of the United States.

Morgan, John Buck, manufacturer and capitalist of 235 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Jan. 10, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Berkshire Manufacturing company and a director of other corporations.

Morgan, John Livingston Rutgers, educator, chemist and author of New Brunswick, N.J., was born June 27, 1872, in New Brunswick, N.J. Since 1901 he has been professor in the Columbia university of New York City.

Morgan, Lewis L., lawyer and statesman of Covington, La., was born March 2, 1876, in Mandeville, La. In 1911 he became a member of congress.

Morgan, Maud, musician and harpist of 13 Livingstone place, New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1864, in New York City. Since 1895 she has been harpist in Grace church of New York City.

Morgan, Michael Ryan, soldier of 526 Holly ave., St. Paul, Minn., was born Jan. 18, 1833, in Nova Scotia. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general; and was commissary-general of subsistence in the United States army when retired in 1897.

Morgan, Milton R., banker of Eagle Rock, Va., was born Oct. 4, 1882, in Charlotte county, Va. He is cashier of the Eagle Rock bank.

Morgan, Paul Reagary, manufacturer and financier of 21 Lincoln st., Worcester, Mass., was born May 7, 1869, in Worcester, Mass. He is president and treasurer of the Morgan Construction company.

Morgan, Randal, lawyer and capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 18, 1862, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is vice-president of the United Gas Improvement company and other corporations.

Morgan, Samuel Tate, manufacturer and capitalist of Richmond, Va., was born March 15, 1857, in Wake county, N.C. He is president of the Virginia-North Carolina Chemical company.

Morgan, Stephen, educator and statesman of Oak Hill, Ohio, was born Jan. 25, 1854, in Jackson county, Ohio. In 1899-1905 he was a member of congress.

Morgan, Tali Esen, journalist, musician and organizer of Ocean Grove, N.J., was born Oct. 28, 1858, in Wales. He organized and is president of the international correspondence school of music.

Morgan, Thomas Hunt, editor, zoologist, scientist and author of 409 West One Hundred and Seventeenth st., New York City, was born Sept. 25, 1866, in Lexington, Ky.

He is the author of Evolution and Adaptation and other works.

Morgan, William Cole, stock broker of 114 Custom place, Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 28, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is now head of the firm of William C. Morgan and company.

Morgan, William Conger, educator and chemist of 2440 Hillside ave., Berkeley, Cal., was born June 21, 1874, in Albany, N.Y. Since 1906 he has been assistant professor of the Washburn college of Topeka. He is the author of Qualitative Analysis as a Laboratory Method for the Study of General Inorganic Chemistry.

Morgan, William Denison, banker of Hartford, Conn., was born Dec.19, 1873, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1899 he has been cashier of the Aetna National bank.

Morgan, William Doyle, banker of Georgetown, S.C., was born Feb. 5, 1853, in New York. He is president of the Bank of Georgetown; and has been mayor of his city.

Morgan, William Henry, manufacturer and capitalist of Alliance, Ohio, was born June 1, 1865, in Pittston, Pa. He is president of the Morgan Engineering company.

Morgan, William Henry, educator and journalist of Nashville, Tenn., was born Oct. 25, 1853, in Davidson county, Tenn. In 1885 he became professor of the Vanderbilt university.

Morin, John M., statesman of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 18, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Morley, Edward Williams, chemist and author of West Hartford, Conn., was born Jan. 29, 1838, in Newark, N.J. In 1895-96 he was president of the American association for the advancement of science.

Morley, Frank, educator and author of 2026 Park ave., Baltimore, Md., was born Sept. 9, 1860, in England. He is editor of the American Journal of Mathematics. He is the author of Elementary Treatise on the Theory of Functions and other works.

Morley, George Bidwell, banker of Saginaw, Mich., was born Oct. 16, 1857, in Painesville, Ohio. He is president of the Second National bank.

Morley, John Henry, clergyman, college president and author of Turners Falls, Mass., was born Jan. 3, 1840, in Hartford, Conn. Since 1900 he has been president of the Fargo college of North Dakota. He is the author of several published pamphlets.

Morley, Margaret Warner, educator, biologist and author of Tryon, N.C., was born Feb. 17, 1858, in Montrose, Iowa. She is the author of A Song of Life and various other works.

Morley, Wilmot, railroad president of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Nov. 15, 1854, in Youngstown, Ohio. In 1867 he entered railway service with the Chicago and Alton railway and has since been station agent and telegraph operator at various stations, dispatcher at Bloomington, chief train dispatcher and superintendent of telegraph. In 1888-93 he was superintendent of the St. Louis and Kansas City divisions, all on the Chicago and Alton railroad. Since 1903 he has been vice-president and general manager of the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon railway.

Morony, John G., banker of Butte, Mont., was born in 1870 in Montana. He is president of the Daly Bank and Trust company.

Morphis, Joseph L., soldier and statesman of Powtotac, Miss., was born April 17, 1831, in McNairy county, Tenn. He has been a member of congress.

Morrell, Edward De Veaux, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Torresdale, Pa., was born Aug. 7, 1862, in Newport, R.I. In 1899-1907 he was a member of congress.

Morrill, Austin Winfield, entomologist and scientist of Phoenix, Ariz., was born Sept. 11, 1880, in Tewksbury, Mass. Since 1909 he has been entomologist to the Arizona horticultural commission and the Arizona experiment station.

Morrill, Charles Henry, real estate dealer and capitalist of 602 South Seventeenth st., Lincoln, Neb., was born July 14, 1843, in Concord, N.H. He is president of the Lincoln Land company.

Morrill, John Adams, lawyer and banker of Auburn, Maine, was born June 3, 1855, in Auburn, Maine. He is president of the Auburn Savings bank.

Morris, Abraham L., banker of Tenstrike, Minn., was born Oct. 31, 1865, in Mapleton, Minn. He is president of the Beltrami County State bank. He has been president of the village of Bagely, Minn.

Morris, Mrs. Alice A. Parmelee, litterateur and author of 767 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1865 in New Haven, Conn. She is the author of Dragons and Cherry Blossoms.

Morris, Charles, educator and author of 2223 Spring Garden, Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 1, 1833, in Chester, Pa. He is the author of A Manual of Classical Literature and various other works.

Morris, Charles F., lawyer of Iron River, Wis., was born Feb. 12, 1876, in Chippewa Falls, Wis. In 1913-14 he was district attorney for Bayfield county.

Morris, Clara, actress and author of Riverdale-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born in 1849 in Canada. She is the author of Life on the Stage and various other works.

Morris, Dave Hennen, railroad official of New York City, was born April 24, 1872, in New Orleans, La. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the St. Louis Southwestern railroad.

Morris, Edward Lyman, curator of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Oct. 23, 1870, in Monson, Mass. Since 1907 he has been curator of natural science in the museum of the Brooklyn institute of arts and sciences.

Morris, Edward Parmelee, educator and author of 53 Edgehill road, New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 17, 1853, in Auburn, N.Y.

Since 1891 he has been professor of Latin in Yale university. He is the author of The Mostellaria of Plautus and other works.

Morris, Effingham Buckley, lawyer and banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 23, 1856, in Philadelphia. He is president of the Girard Trust company and other corporations.

Morris, Freeman, lawyer and statesman of Watseka, Ill., was born March 19, 1854, in Cook county, Ill. He has been a member of congress.

Morris, George Perry, journalist and author of Brookline, Mass., was born Feb. 18, 1864, in Montclair, N.J. Since 1907 he has been editor of the Boston Herald. He is the author of The Norwegian Company System and other works.

Morris,George Van Derveer,clergyman and author of Lexington, Ky., was born Dec. 5, 1867, in Bridgeton, N.J. Since 1905 he has been president of the Lexington associated charities. He is the author of A Man For A' That, and other works.

Morris,Gouverneur, litterateur and author of New York City, was born Feb. 7, 1876, in New York City. He is the author of A Bunch of Grapes and various other works.

Morris, Harrison Smith, author and poet of 421 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 4, 1856, in Philadelphia. He is art-editor of the Ladies' Home Journal. He is author of A Duet in Lyrics and other works.

Morris, Henry Crittenden, lawyer and diplomat of 140 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 18, 1868, in Chicago, Ill. In 1893-98 he was American consul at Ghent, Belgium; and in 1905 was secretary to Chief Justice Fuller in the Muscat Dhow arbitration before the international permanent court at The Hague. He is a director of the Hamilton club and the Chicago peace society; and is especially interested in economics and the subject of international peace.

Morris, Henry Lewis, lawyer of 12 West Fifty-third st., New York City, was born in 1845 in New York City. He is one of the governors of the Metropolitan club.

Morris, Howard, railroad official of 333 Summit ave., Milwaukee, Wis., was born on Oct. 6, 1856, in Madison, Wis. In 1905-06 he was vice-president of the Wisconsin Central railroad.

Morris, James Charlton, educator, clergyman and college president of Kansas City, Mo., was born July 7, 1838, in Georgetown, Ky. In 1903-07 he was president of the Central college.

Morris, James Cheston, physician and author of 1514 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 28, 1831. He has been vice-president of the Pennsylvania horticultural society.

Morris,John, lawyer and capitalist of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born March 24, 1860, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is a member of the law firm of Breen and Morris.

Morris, John Baptist, clergyman and bishop of Lincoln, Ark., was born June 29, 1866, in Hendersonville, Tenn. In 1906 he became bishop of Little Rock, Ark.

Morris, John T., capitalist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of I. P. Morris company.

Morris, Marshall E., retired manufacturer and banker of 303 Noble ave., Bridgeport, Conn., was born on May 8, 1837, in Salem, Conn. He is vice-president of the Mechanics and Farmers' National bank.

Morris, Page, educator, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Duluth, Minn., was born June 30, 1853, in Lynchburg, Va. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress. In 1903 he was appointed United States district judge of Minnesota.

Morris, Richard, scientist and author of 94 Easton ave., New Brunswick, N.J., was born Nov. 9, 1868, in Keyport, N.J. He is the author of Selective Chapters in Algebra.

Morris, Richard Elsberry, banker of Baker, Mont., was born Sept. 19, 1871, in Denver, Col. He is president of the Baker State bank.

Morris, Robert Tuttle, physician, surgeon and author of 616 Madison ave., New York City, was born May 14, 1857, in Seymour, Conn. In 1907 he was president of the American association of obstetricians and gynecologists. He is the author of How We Treat Wounds To-Day and other works.

Morris, Samuel Leslie, clergyman and author of 50 Westminster drive, Atlanta, Ga., was born Dec. 25, 1854, in Abbeville, S.C. He is the author of At Our Own Door and other works.

Morris, Theodore Wilson, merchant of 20 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Jan. 15, 1842, in New York City. He is vice-president of the National Safe Deposit company.

Morris, Thomas John, lawyer and jurist of 708 Park ave., Baltimore, Md., was born on Sept. 24, 1837, in Baltimore, Md. He has been United States district judge for the district of Maryland.

Morris, Thomas J., clergyman, philosopher and author of Mariana, Fla., was born on Dec. 30, 1843, in Mariana, Fla. He is the author of Ideal Life and other works.

Morris, William Torrey, lawyer and capitalist of Penn Yan, N.Y., was born Sept. 12, 1853, in Rushville, N.Y. He is president of the Associated Gas and Electric company.

Morrison,Alexander Francis,lawyer of San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 22, 1856, in Weymouth, Mass. He received the degree of A.B. from the university of California, and the degree of LL. B. from the Hastings college of law. He is a member of the law firm of Morrison, Dunne and Brobeck; and is a director of the Crocker National bank, the Spreckels Sugar company and other corporations.

Morrison, Andrew J., educator of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 14, 1844, in Bucks county, Pa. He is principal of the northeast manual training high school.

Morrison, Charles King, lawyer of 591 Fifth ave., New York City, was born on June 24, 1867, in New York City. He is partner in the law firm of Morrison and Morrison.

Morrison, Clinton, capitalist of 305 East Twenty-fourth st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born Jan. 21, 1842, in Livermore, Maine. He is president of the Northwestern Knitting company.

Morrison, George Austin, lawyer and author of 43 Cedar st., New York City, was born March 26, 1864, in New York City. He is the author of The King Family of Rhode Island and The Clark Families of Rhode Island.

Morrison, George Clarence, lawyer and banker of Baltimore, Md., was born on June 13, 1869, in Baltimore, Md. He is vice-president of the Baltimore Trust company.

Morrison, George Shattuck, civil engineer of New Bedford, Mass., was born Dec. 19, 1842, in New Bedford, Mass. In 1875 he rebuilt in iron the celebrated Portage viaduct.

Morrison, George W., banker of Beaver Falls, Pa., was born in 1838, in Beaver county, Pa. He is cashier and director of the Farmers' National bank.

Morrison, Harry Steele, lecturer and author of Princeton, N.J., was born Nov. 26, 1880, in Mattoon, Ill. He is the author of A Yankee Boy's Success and other works.

Morrison, Henry Clay, clergyman and bishop of Leesburg, Fla., was born on May 30, 1842, in Montgomery county, Tenn. Since 1898 he has been a bishop.

Morrison, J. B., banker of Sligo, Pa., was born Dec. 30, 1855, in Jefferson county, Pa. He is president of the Grange National bank.

Morrison, James Dow, missionary bishop of 2131 East Superior st., Duluth, Minn., was born Oct. 16, 1844, in Waddington, N. Y. In 1881-97 he was archdeacon of Ogdensburg.

Morrison, John Tracy, lawyer and bank director of Boise, Idaho, was born on Dec. 25, 1860, in Jefferson county, Pa. He is president of the Kerr Hardware and Implement company.

Morrison, Joseph, physician, astronomer, mathematician and author of 1757 P st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1848 in Canada. In 1885-90 he was professor of chemistry and toxicology in the National university. He is the author of Treatise on Trigonometry and various other works.

Morrison, Leonard Allison, antiquarian, genealogist, statesman and author of Windham, N.H., was born Feb. 21, 1843, in Windham, N.H. In 1887-89 he was a state senator. He is the author of Rambles in Europe and other works.

Morrison, Martin Andrew, lawyer and statesman of Frankfort, Ind., was born on April 15, 1862, in Frankfort, Ind. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Morrison, Robert Stewart, lawyer and author of 1429 Vine st., Denver, Col., was born Oct. 7, 1843, in Allegheny City, Pa. He is author of Mining Rights and other works.

Morrison, Sarah Elizabeth, litterateur and author of 4541 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in Indiana. She is the author of Chilhowee Boys and various other works.

Morrison, Theodore Nevin, clergyman and bishop of Davenport, Iowa, was born Feb. 18, 1850, in Ottawa, Ill. Since 1899 he has been protestant episcopal bishop of Iowa.

Morrison, Thomas A., lawyer and jurist of Smethport, Pa., was born May 4, 1840, in Pleasantville, Pa. He served in the civil war. In 1904 he becamc judge of the superior court and is now serving as judge for the term ending 1914.

Morrison, Thomas Maxwell, clergyman and author of Mahanoy City, Pa., was born on Nov. 21, 1867, in Fredericksburg, Va. Since 1898 he has been secretary of trustees of Mahanoy City public library. He is the author of The Royal Visitor and other works.

Morrison, William Shannon, educator and founder of Clemson college, S.C., was born April 7, 1853, in Winnsboro, S.C. Since 1893 he has been professor of history and political economy at Clemson college.

Morrissey, Andrew, theologian and college president of Notre Dame, Ind., was born in January, 1860, in Ireland. Since 1906 he has been president of the board of trustees of the university of Notre Dame.

Morrow, Hugh, lawyer and statesman of Birmingham, Ala., was born May 19, 1873, in Birmingham, Ala. He received the degrees of A.B., LL.B. and A.M. from the university of Alabama. In 1896-98 he was assistant solicitor of Jefferson county. In 1900-04 he was a member of the state senate; and in 1910 was re-elected a member of the state senate, of which body he is now president pro tem.

Morrow, John Riddle, banker of 246 Fourth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Oct. 19, 1863, in Beaver county, Pa. He is president of the Continental Trust company.

Morrow, Prince Albert, physician, dermatologist and author of 66 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born Dec. 19, 1846, in Mt. Vernon, Ky. He is the author of Atlas of Skin and Venereal Diseases; and other medical works.

Morrow, William W., lawyer, jurist and statesman of San Francisco, Cal., was born July 15, 1843, in Milton, Ind. In 1885-91 he was a member of congress. In 1891-97 he was district judge for the United States.

Morschauser, Joseph, lawyer and jurist of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., was born on March 30, 1863, in Hyde Park, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been justice of the supreme court of New York.

Morse, Albert W., banker of Faulkton, S. D., was born Aug. 15, 1861, in Kewaunee, Ill. He is president of the Security State bank.

Morse, Alexander Porter, lawyer and author of 1505 Pennsylvania ave., Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 19, 1842, in St. Martinsville, La. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of captain. He is the author of The Citizenship by Birth and Naturalization.

Morse, Bushrod, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born on Aug. 24, 1837, in Sharon, Mass. He has been a member of congress.

Morse, Charles Henry, musician and composer of Hanover, N.H., was born Jan. 5, 1853, in Bradford, Mass. He is the author of Christmas Carols and other works.

Morse, Mrs. Charlotte Dunning, author of New York City, was born in 1858, in New York. She is the author of A Step Aside and other works.

Morse, David Appleton, physician and journalist of Columbus, Ohio, was born Dec. 12, 1840, in Ellsworth, Ohio. He is editor of the department of nervous disorders and insanity in the Lancet and Observer.

Morse, Edward Sylvester, biologist and author of Salem, Mass., was born on June 18, 1838, in Portland, Maine. He is the author of Japanese Homes and other works.

Morse, Edwin Wilson, journalist and author of 1 West Fifty-fourth st., New York City, was born March 29, 1855, in Natick, Mass. Since 1904 he has been secretary and director of Charles Scribners and Sons of New York City.

Morse, Elmer Addison, lawyer and statesman of Antigo, Wis., was born on May 11, 1870, in Franksville, Wis. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Morse, Frank Eugene, educator and musician of Auburndale, Mass., was born Nov. 10, 1856, in Bradford, Mass. He is the compiler and publisher of the Musicians Calendar.

Morse, Frank W., railroad official of 6040 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born on Dec. 31, 1864, in Lafayette, Ind. In 1911-12 he was vice-president of the Chicago and Alton railroad.

Morse, George Eaton, farmer and banker of Marengo, Iowa, was born June 14, 1863, in Iowa. He is president of the Ladora Savings bank.

Morse, Harmon Northrop, chemist and author of Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 15, 1848, in Cambridge, Vt. In 1876 he became associate professor of chemistry at Johns Hopkins university. He is the author of Exercises in Quantitative Chemistry.

Morse, Horace J., banker and broker of 18 Wall st., New York City, was born in 1838, in Norwalk, Ohio. He is vice-president of the People's Trust company.

Morse, Irving Haskell, chemist and author of New Orleans, La., was born March 24, 1868, in Emporia, Kans. He is the author of Calculations used in Cane Sugar Factories.

Morse, James Herbert, educator and poet of 126 Claremont ave., New York City, was born Oct. 8, 1841, in Hubbardston, Mass. He is the author of Summer Haven Songs.

Morse, John Childs, banker of Chandlerville, Ill., was born in October, 1851, in Peoria, Ill. He is president of the People's State bank.

Morse, Mrs. Lucy Gibbons, author of Cotuit, Mass., was born in 1839, in New York. She is the author of Rachel Stanwood and other works.

Morse, Margaret Fessenden, litterateur and author of Jamaica Plain, Mass., was born Nov. 28, 1877, in Jamaica Plain, Mass. She is the author of The Spirit of the Pines.

Morse, Philip, lumber merchant and banker of 2038 East st., San Diego, Cal., was born May 23, 1845, in Fayette, Maine. He has been consul at Bolivia. He is vice-president of the Southern Trust and Savings bank.

Morse, Richard Carey, clergyman and author of 35 Sidney place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 19, 1841, in Hudson, N.Y. He is author of Relation of Y.M.C.A. to Churches and other works.

Morse, Samuel Baldwin, educator, clergyman and college president of Oakland, Cal., was born Oct. 26, 1834, in Fayette, Maine. Since 1887 he has been president of the California college.

Morse, Mrs. T. Vernette, artist and author of 410 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1854, in Cortland county, N.Y. In 1892 she established Arts of America.

Morse, Waldo Grant, lawyer and business president of 10 Wall st., New York City, was born March 13, 1859, in Rochester, N. Y. He has been director of the State bank of Seneca Falls and is director of several other corporations.

Morse, Walter Burleigh, banker of Marlboro, Mass., was born on June 26, 1864, in Marlboro, Mass. He is president of the First National bank.

Mortimer, Alfred Garnett, clergyman and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 7, 1848, in London, England. He is the author of Laws of Penitenance and numerous other works.

Mortimer, Thomas, farmer and banker of Madison, Neb., was born Aug. 15, 1859, in England. He is president of the First National bank of Leigh.

Morton, Agnes H., litterateur and author of Camden, N.J. She is the author of Our Conversational Circle and other works.

Morton, Charles, soldier of Washington, D. C., was born March 18, 1846, in Ohio. He attained the rank of brigadier-general in the United States army in 1907.

Morton, Eliza Happy, author and poet of North Deering, Maine, was born on July 15, 1852, in Westbrook, Maine. She is secretary and treasurer of the Maine tract society. She is the author of My Mission and other works.

Morton, Frederick Williams, journalist and author of Buchanan, Mich., was born Dec. 2, 1859, in Canada. He is the author of Woman in Epigram and other works.

Morton, Gabriel, railroad official of Louisville, Ky., was born July 13, 1852, in Russellville, Ky. In 1902 he was vice-president of the Mexican Central railroad.

Morton, George R., banker and manufacturer of South Paris, Maine, was born on Aug. 17, 1868, in West Summer, Maine. He is president of the Paris Trust company.

Morton, Hattie, principal of Birmingham, Ala., was born in Marion, Ala. She is principal and owner of the Loulie Compton seminary, formerly Birmingham seminary.

Morton, Henry H., physician, surgeon and author of 32 Schermerhorn st., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born in 1861, in Hoboken, N.J. He is the author of a medical work.

Morton, James Ferdinand, educator and clergyman of Andover, N.H., was born Jan. 24, 1844, in Nova Scotia. Since 1891 he has filled the chair in the Proctor academy of Andover, N.H.

Morton, James Madison, lawyer of Fall River, Mass., was born Aug. 24, 1869, in Fall River, Mass. He is president of the Sagamore Manufacturing company.

Morton, John A., merchant and banker of Osborne, Kan., was born in 1850 in Illinois. He is president of the Morton, Parsons Mercantile company.

Morton, John Watson, farmer and public official of Nashville, Tenn., was born Sept. 19, 1842, in Hillsborough, Tenn. In 1905-09 he was secretary of state for the state of Tennessee at Nashville.

Morton, Martha, dramatist and author of New York City, was born in 1865 in New York City. She is the author of Geoffrey Middleton and other works.

Morton, Oliver B., banker of Monroe, La., was born Oct. 16, 1875, in Marion, Ala. He is cashier of the Ouachita National bank of Monroe, La.; is a director of the young men's Christian association and has held several positions of trust and honor.

Morton, Paul, underwriter and statesman of 733 Park ave., New York City, was born May 22, 1857, in Detroit, Mich. In 1904-05 he was secretary of the United States navy.

Morton, Thomas George, physician and author of 1617 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 8, 1835, in Philadelphia. He is author of Surgery in the Pennsylvania Hospital and other works.

Morton, William Jones, farmer and banker of Dumas, Texas, was born May 16, 1868, in Maury county, Tenn. He is president of the First State bank.

Mosby, John Singleton, soldier and author of 4 Montgomery st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Dec. 6, 1833, in Powhattan county, Va. In 1878-85 he was consul at Hong Kong He is the author of War Reminiscences.

Mosby, Thomas Speed, journalist, statesman and author of Jefferson City, Mo., was born May 1, 1874, in Linn, Mo. He is president of the Democrat Publishing company and is the editor and owner of the Missouri Dairyman. He is the author of Ben Blunt and other works.

Moschzisker. Robert von, lawyer and jurist of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 6, 1870. He received an academic education and soon attained success in the practice of law. He became assistant district attorney of philadelphia county, Pa., and served with distinction as judge of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia county. He is now justice of the state supreme court of Pennsylvania.

Moseley, Charles William, banker and broker of 40 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 24, 1847, in Newburyport, Mass. He is senior member of the firm of John Pickering and Mosely.

Moseley, Frederick Strong, banker and broker of 50 Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born March 19, 1852, in Newburyport, Mass. He is a member of the firm of F. S. Hosely and company.

Mosenthal, Philip James, insurance fire prevention expert of 95 William st., New York City, was born March 1, 1864, at Port Elizabeth, Cape Colony. He has made plans as to fire prevention and extinguishing for Manhattan and Belmont hotels and other important structures.

Moser, Jefferson F., naval officer and business man of 85 Second st., San Francisco, Cal. In 1870 he became marshal, in 1872 lieutenant, in 1893 lieutenant-commander, in 1903 was promoted to captain, and was retired in 1904 after forty years of service. He is now superintendent of the Alaska packers' association of San Francisco, Cal.

Moser, William, physician and author of New York City, was born Aug. 2, 1868, in New York City. He is physician to the German hospital.

Moses, Alfred Joseph, educator and author of New York City, was born July 25, 1859, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1897 he has been professor of mineralogy in the Columbia university of New York City. He is the author of Blowpipe Analysis and other works.

Moses, Bernard, educator and author of Berkeley, Cal., was born Aug. 27, 1846, in Burlington, Conn. Since 1876 he has been professor of history and political economy in the University of California. He is the author of Federal Government in Switzerland and other works.

Moses, Charles L., agriculturist and statesman of Turin, Ga., was born May 2, 1856, in Coweta county, Ga. In 1891-97 he was a member of congress.

Moses, George W., banker of Boston, Mass., was born May 16, 1852, in Boston, Mass. He is president of the First Ward National bank.

Moses, Montrose Jonas, journalist and author of 561 West One Hundred and Forty-first st., New York City, was born Sept. 2, 1878, in New York City. Since 1903 he has been dramatic editor of the Reader Magazine. He is the author of Famous Astor Families in America and other works.

Moses, Thomas Freeman, physician, surgeon and author of Waltham, Mass., was born June 8, 1836, in Bath, Maine. In 1886-1904 he was president of the Urbana university of Ohio. He is the author of an annotated edition of Emile Saigey's Unity of Natural Phenomena.

Moses, William, banker of Alexandria, Minn., was born April 16, 1842, in Knowlton, Canada. He is president of the Douglas county bank.

Moses, William Hammond, manufacturer and capitalist of Tilton N.H., was born Sept. 3, 1863, in Meredith, N.H. He is president and treasurer of the Tilton Electric company.

Mosessohn, David N., lawyer and publisher of Portland, Ore., was born Jan. 1, 1883, in Russia. He received the degree of LL.B. from the university of Oregon. He has been deputy district attorney. He is president of the Prudential Realty Corporation. He is the publisher of the Chamber of Commerce Bulletin and of the Jewish Tribune; and has been president of the publishers' protective association of Oregon.

Mosher, Evans Wheeler, banker of Aurora, N.Y., was born in 1855 in Poplar Ridge, N.Y. He is vice-president of the First National bank of Aurora.

Mosher, Henry Carroll Wright, banker of New Bedford, Mass., was born Aug. 12, 1845, in New Bedford, Mass. He is president of the Merchants' National bank.

Mosher, Mrs. Jennie M., author and poet of Independence, Iowa, was born Sept. 20, 1845, in New York. She is the author of a volume entitled Story of the Bible in Rhyme.

Mosher, William Eugene, educator and author of Oberlin, Ohio, was born Nov. 26, 1877, in Syracuse, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been professor of German Languages at Oberlin college of Ohio. He is the author of several works in German.

Mosier, Jefferson Newton, capitalist of Mosier, Ore., was born Sept. 28, 1860, in Mosier, Ore. He founded the town of Mosier. He is president of the Mosier Valley bank and other corporations.

Mosler, Henry, genre painter of 42 West Eighty-eighth st., New York City, was born June 6, 1841, in New York City. In 1892 he was made chevalier of the Legion d'Honneur and officer d'Academie.

Moss, A. B., banker and merchant of Payette, Idaho, was born Nov. 29, 1849, in Belvidere, Ill. He has been president of the hardware and implement dealers' western association. He is president of the Moss Mercantile company and other corporations.

Moss, Beverly Gilliam, lumberman and banker of Washington, N.C., was born Jan. 19, 1875, in Chesterfield, N.C. He is president of the Savings and Trust company.

Moss, Ernest Quinby, banker of Morrison, Okla., was born Aug. 21, 1866, in Centre Point, Ind. He is cashier of the Morrison State bank.

Moss, Edwin S., physician and banker of Williamsburg, Ky., was born Dec. 27, 1859, in Pineville, Ky. He is president of the First National bank.

Moss, Frank, lawyer and author of 306 East One Hundred and Twentieth st., New York City, was born March 16, 1860, in Cold Springs, N.Y. He has been associate counsel to the Lexow investigating committee. He is the author of The American Metropolis and other works.

Moss, Hunter Holmes, jurist and statesman of Parkersburg, W.Va., was born May 26, 1874, in Parkersburg, W.Va. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Moss, John, stock broker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1837 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the Philadelphia stock exchange.

Moss, Leon F., educator, college president, lawyer and poet of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Sept. 12, 1861, in Cuba, Ill. In 1892 he was president of the Western Normal college of Bushnell, Ill. He is the author of a volume of poems.

Moss, Mary, author of 517 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1864 in Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa. She is the author of A Sequence in Hearts and other works.

Moss, McKenzie, lawyer and statesman of Bowling Green, Ky., was born Jan. 3, 1868, in Christian county, Ky. In 1902-03 he was a member of congress.

Moss, Ralph W., farmer and statesman of Center Point, Ind., was born April 21, 1862, in Center Point, Ind. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Moss, Roswell Randall, lawyer of Elmira, N.Y., was born Oct. 16, 1845, in New York City. Since 1900 he has been referee in the Western District of New York.

Moss, William Henry, lumberman and banker of Westfield, Wis., was born July 21, 1855, in Wisconsin. He is president of the Westfield State bank.

Moss, William Ward, banker of 35 Atlantic st., Norfolk, Va., was born Oct. 26, 1869, in Chester, Pa. He is senior member of the banking firm of Moss and Moss.

Mossman, B. Paul, capitalist of Fort Wayne, Ind., was born Oct. 23, 1870, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He is president of the Wayne, Spoke and Bending company.

Mossman, Daniel A., merchant, manufacturer and banker of 823 Fourth ave., Huntington, W.Va., was born May 13, 1860, in Gallia county, Ohio. He is president of the Mossman Brothers company.

Mossman, F. E., college president of Winfield, Kan., was born Aug. 26, 1873, in Urbana, Iowa. Since 1905 he has been president of the Southwestern college.

Mott, Frank Henry, lawyer of Jamestown, N.Y., was born Feb. 9, 1873, in Russell, Pa. In 1907 he was appointed attorney-general of New York state.

Mott, Frank K., business president of Oakland, Cal., was born Jan. 21, 1866, in San Francisco, Cal. He received a grammar and classical school education. He became clerk and first telephone operator at Oakland with the Western Union Tel. company. In 1899-1907 he was in the hardware business. Since then he has been in the real estate business; established and is now director of the Merchants' Exchange; and is also a director of the Board of Trade. He is president of the Frank K. Mott company, the Piedmont Hills Improvement company, the Pleasant Valley Improvement company, and the Suburban Development company and other corporations. In 1895-1901 he was a member of the city council; and is now mayor of Oakland.

Mott, John R., religious worker and author of Montclair, N.J., aws born May 25, 1865, in Livingston Manor, N.Y. Since 1898 he has been foreign secretary of the international committee of the Y.M.C.A. He is the author of Evangelization of the World in This Generation.

Mott, John T., banker of Oswego, N.Y., was born Oct. 11, 1848, in Hamilton, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank of Oswego.

Mott, Jordan Lawrence, litterateur and author of 2122 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 15, 1881, in New York City. He is the author of Jules of the Great Heart and other works.

Mott, Lewis Freeman, educator and author of 172 West Seventy-ninth st., New York City, was born Sept. 29, 1863, in New York City. Since 1897 he has been professor of the college of the City of New York.

Mott, Luther Wright, journalist, banker and author of Oswego, N.Y., was born Nov. 30, 1874, in Oswego, N.Y. In 1900-02 he was vice-president of the National republican league of the United States.

Mott-Smith, Ernest A., public official of Hawaii, P.I., was born May 12, 1873, in Honolulu, T.H. Since 1913 he has been chairman of the public utilities commission of Hawaii.

Moulton, Charles Wells, editor and publisher of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Sept. 22, 1859, in Alexander, N.Y. He is the publisher of a work entitled A Woman of the Century and other works.

Moulton, Eder H., financier of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Jan. 10, 1843, in New York City. He is president of the Tri-State Telephone and Telegraph company.

Moulton, Forest Ray, educator, astronomer and author of 6241 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, Ill., was born April 29, 1872, in LeRoy, Mich. Since 1896 he has been professor of astronomy at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Celestial Mechanics.

Moulton, Frank Prescott, educator and author of 247 Collins st., Hartford, Conn., was born June 11, 1851, in Parsonsfield, Maine. He is the author of Introductory Latin and other works.

Moulton, George Mayhew, soldier and underwriter of 2119 Calumet ave., Chicago, Ill., was born March 15, 1851, in Readsboro, Vt. He attained the rank of brigadier-general and in 1907 he was retired with the rank of major-general.

Moulton, Luther V., lawyer and author of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Sept. 27, 1843, in Howard, Mich. He is the author of Science of Money and American Finances.

Moulton, Richard Green, educator, lecturer and author of 5053 Washington ave., Chicago, Ill., was born May 5, 1849, in England. He is professor of English literature in the University of Chicago. He is the author of Ancient Classical Drama and other works.

Moulton, William Henry, banker of 54 Exchange st., Portland, Maine, was born March 18, 1852, in Portland, Maine. He is president of the Cumberland National bank.

Mount, Wallace, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Olympia, Wash., was born Jan. 16, 1859, in Oregon. Since 1901 he has been justice of the supreme court of Washington.

Mount, Walter W., lawyer and banker of Tipton, Ind., was born Feb. 15, 1857, in Rush county, Ind. He is president of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company.

Mountcastle, George Williams, banker of Lexington, N.C., was born Feb. 2, 1871, in Jefferson county, Tenn. He is president of the bank of Lexington.

Mouser, Grant Earl, lawyer and statesman of Marion, Ohio, was born Sept. 11, 1868, in La Rue, Ohio. In 1905-09 he was a member of congress.

Movius, Emil A., banker and statesman of Lidgerwood, N.D., was born May 5, 1858, in Golnow, Germany. He is president of the First National bank; and has been a United States senator.

Movius, John Henry, banker and real estate dealer of Lidgerwood, N.D., was born June 24, 1860, in Minnesota. He is president of the First National bank of Veblen, N.D.

Mowbray, Harry Siddons, painter and artist of Washington, Conn., was born Aug. 5, 1858, in Egypt. He has produced some effective figure-pieces among which are The Alchemist and other works.

Mower, Charles Brown, editor and author of 311 South Hicks st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 5, 1875, in Lynn, Mass. Since 1899 he has been designing editor of the Rudder of New York City. He is the author of How to Build a Motor Launch and other works.

Mowry, Arthur May, educator and author of Pasadena, Cal., was born Jan. 19, 1862, in Providence, R.I. He has been professor of the high school of Salem, Mass. He is the author of History of the United States and other works.

Mowry, Mrs. Blanche Swett, author of 177 Webster st., East Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 4, 1870, in Garland, Maine. She is the author of American Pioneers and other works.

Mowry, William Augustus, educator and author of 17 Riverside Square, Hyde Park, Mass., was born Aug. 13, 1829, in Uxbridge, Mass. He is the author of Talks With My Boys and other works.

Mowry, William Chapman, banker of 92 Main st., Woonsocket, R.I., was born Sept. 8, 1860, in Menasha, Wis. He is president of the Mechanics' Savings bank.

Moxley, Norman A., lawyer and statesman of Dexter, Mo., was born Dec. 11, 1865, in Johnson county, Ill. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Moxom, Philip Stafford, soldier, clergyman and author of 183 Dartmouth Terrace, Springfield, Mass., was born Aug. 10, 1848, in Canada. He served in the civil war. He is the author of The Aim of Life and other works.

Moyer, Edward Evans, banker and broker of 301 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 19, 1865, in Pennsylvania. He is a director of the Philadelphia Steam Heating company.

Moyer, James Ambrose, educator, mechanical engineer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 13, 1877, in Norristown, Pa. He is engineer in the steam turbine department of the General Electric company. He is the author of Steam Turbines and other works.

Moyer, Lloyd G., lawyer and banker of Montevideo, Minn., was born April 29, 1855, in Lewistown, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Chippewa county state bank.

Moyer, Lycurgus R., lawyer and banker of Montevideo, Minn., was born Oct. 29, 1848, in New York. He is president of the Montevideo Improvement company.

Moyer, Robert J., banker of Downing, Mo., was born Aug. 15, 1859, in Ioka, Iowa. He is cashier of the Merchants' Exchange bank.

Muckle, Mark Richards, newspaper manager of 1722 Pine st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 10, 1825, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1853 he was appointed on the staff of Governor Bigler, with the rank of colonel. He was vice-president of the German society and of the German hospital. He was made treasurer of the relief society during the Franco-German war, forwarding to Germany nearly fifty thousand dollars for the relief of the orphans and widows of the soldiers. The emperor of Germany conferred on him the order of the crown and the military order of the red eagle. He organized the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and has been its president. He is president of the German-American Title and Trust company. He is general manager of the Public Ledger.

Mudd, Joseph Aloysius, soldier, physician and author of Hyattsville, Md., was born Sept. 10, 1842, in Lincoln county, Mo. In 1861 he enlisted in the confederate army; participated in several battles in Missouri; and in 1864 became assistant surgeon. He is the author of History of Lincoln County, Mo.; With Porter in North Missouri; and What I Saw at Wilson's Creek.

Mudd, Sydney Emanuel, lawyer and statesman of Laplata, Md., was born Feb. 12, 1858, in Charles county, Md. In 1889-1911 he was a member of congress.

Mudge, Henry U., railroad president of 5318 East End ave., Chicago, Ill., was born June 9, 1856, in Minden, Mich. Since 1909 he has been president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad.

Mudge, James, clergyman and author of 33 Cedar st., Malden, Mass., was born April 5, 1844, in West Springfield, Mass. He is the author of Handbook of Methodism and other works.

Mueller, Franz, musician, composer and founder of Spokane, Wash., was born Aug. 1, 1853, in Newark, Ohio. He is a director of the Spokane conservatory of music and is the author of The White Fawn.

Mueller, John Christ, farmer and banker of Freeman, S.D., was born June 30, 1877, in Turner county, S.D. He is president of the First National bank.

Mueller, John S., real estate dealer and banker of Parkston, S.D., was born March 24, 1870, in South Russia, S.D. He is president of the First National bank.

Mueller, Oscar C., lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Sept. 7, 1876, in Denver, Col. He was educated at the Occidental college of Los Angeles, and studied law in the university of Virginia. He was one of the originators of the annexation project of San Pedro to Los Angeles, and in 1906 was chairman of the consolidation commission. For two terms he has been a director of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce.

Muhleman, Charles, farmer, real estate dealer and banker of Hannibal, Ohio, was born in 1834 in Hannibal, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank of Clarington, Ohio.

Muhlfeld, John Erhardt, railroad official of Kansas City, Mo., was born Sept. 18, 1872, in Peru, Ind. In 1910-12 he was vice-president of the Kansas City Southern railroad.

Muir, Jere T., educator, lecturer, lawyer, college president and author of La Grange, Mo., was born in Trimble county, Ky. He is president of the La Grange college of Missouri. He is the author of Orthoepy.

Muir, John, explorer, naturalist and author of Martinez, Cal., was born April 21, 1838, in Scotland. He was the discoverer of the Muir glacier of Alaska. He is the author of The Mountains of California.

Muir, John Wallinford, underwriter of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 3, 1871, in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. He is treasurer of the United States office of the General Accident Assurance corporation of Perth, Scotland.

Muir, William Sawtell, insurance president of Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 6, 1864, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the General Accident Insurance company of America.

Muldoon, Peter J., clergyman and bishop of Rockford, Ill., was born in 1863 in Columbia, Cal. Since 1908 he has been Roman Catholic auxiliary bishop of Rockford.

Muldrow, Henry Lowndes, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Starkville, Miss., was born in Mississippi. In 1877-85 he was a member of congress.

Mulford, Shobal Patton, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Aug. 26, 1850, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He received the degree of M. A. from the Ohio Wesleyan university; and his wife graduated in the same class. He began the practice of law in 1878, and since 1886 in California. He is a member of the chamber of commerce; and is a member of the Los Angeles county forestry board and of various clubs and societies.

Mulford, Walter, educator and forester of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Sept. 16, 1877, in Melville, N.J. In 1903-05 he was president of the Connecticut forestry association.

Mulholland, St. Claire Augustus, soldier and government official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 1, 1849, in Ireland. He served in the civil war; and in 1865 was brevetted brigadier-general of the United States volunteers. Since 1892 he has been pension agent in Philadelphia.

Mulin, Lemuel Herbert, educator, clergyman and college president of Baldwin, Kan., was born Nov. 16, 1861, in Mercer county, Ohio. Since 1894 he has been president of the Baker university of Kansas.

Mulit, Lloyd Lyman, banker of Ashland, Ore., was born Nov. 2, 1867, in Pleasant Hill, Mo. He is cashier of the First National bank; and has been a state senator.

Mulkey, Frederick William, lawyer and statesman of Portland, Ore., was born Jan. 6, 1874, in Portland, Ore. In 1909 he was a member of the United States senate.

Mulkey, George H., banker of Fort Worth, Texas, was born July 1, 1847, in Columbus, Ark. He is vice-president of the Traders' National bank.

Mullally, Thornwell, railroad official of San Francisco, Cal., was born Jan. 17, 1868, in Columbus, S.C. He is a director in the Panama Pacific international exposition. He is assistant to the president of the United railroad of San Francisco.

Mullaly, John, journalist, lecturer and inventor of 223 East Forty-ninth st., New York City, was born in Belfast, Ireland. He was secretary to Professor Moss, the inventor of the electro magnetic photograph. He is the author of The Laying of the Cable and other works.

Mullany, John Francis, clergyman and author of Syracuse, N.Y., was born July 19, 1853, in Utica, N.Y. He is editor of The Pioneer Church and other works.

Muller, Carl Christian, musician and author of 156 East Ninety-fourth st., New York City, was born July 3, 1831, in Germany. Since 1879 he has been professor of harmony in the New York college of music. He is the author of March of the Crusaders and other works.

Muller, Nicholas, banker and statesman of 1 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 15, 1836, in Germany. He has been a member of congress.

Muller, Richard A., artist and engraver of New York City, was born March 27, 1850, in Bavaria, Germany. He has attained eminence as an artist and engraver on wood.

Muller, W. Max, educator, theologian and author of 27 North Farson st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 15, 1862, in Bavaria. Since 1890 he has been professor of exegesis in the Reformed Episcopal seminary of Philadelphia. He is the author of a series of Egyptological Researches and other works.

Muller, Ury Adolfo, portrait painter of 33 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born Feb. 28, 1864, in Switzerland. Among his most important portraits are Cardinal Gibbons and other works.

Mulliken, Edgar Miller, merchant and banker of Humboldt, Ill., was born Nov. 2, 1859, in Jeffersontown, Ky. He has been in the hardware and furniture business since 1891. He is president of the First National bank of Humboldt.

Mulliken, Samuel Parsons, educator, chemist and author of 6 Harris st., Newburyport, Mass., was born Dec. 19, 1864, in Newburyport, Mass. Since 1905 he has been professor of chemistry in the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Laboratory Experiments.

Mullin, William J., railroad president of Albany, N.Y., was born April 28, 1863, in Milton, Pa. He entered railway service in 1882 as a telegraph operator, and has filled positions on various railroads to general traffic manager of the Delaware and Hudson company.

Mullins, Edgar Young, author, clergyman and college president of Louisville, Ky., was born Jan. 5, 1860, in Franklin county, Miss. He is the author of Why is Christianity True?

Mulvane, Jaob, manufacturer and banker of Topeka, Kan., was born in New Comerstown, Ohio. He is president of the Shawnee Fire Insurance company.

Mulvane, John R., merchant and banker of Topeka, Kan., was born July 6, 1835, in Ohio. He is president of the bank of Topeka.

Mumford, Charles C., lawyer and jurist of Providence, R.I., was born in 1860. In 1905-09 he was associate justice of the state superior court of Rhode Island. He was elected for a term of life, but resigned March 1, 1909.

Munford, Edward Warlock, editor, author and poet of 721 pruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 6, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1901 he has been bursar of the university of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Smiles in Rhyme.

Mumford, George Saltonstall, banker of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 18, 1866, in Rochester, N.Y. He is president of the Commonwealth Trust company.

Mumford, James Gregory, educator, physician, surgeon and author of 29 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 2, 1863, in Rochester, N.Y. He is the author of A Narrative of Surgery and other works.

Mumford, John Kimberly, author of Nyack, N.Y., was born Nov. 15, 1863, in Watkins, N.Y. He is staff writer for Harpers' Weekly and other periodicals. He is the author of Oriental Rugs and other works.

Munford, Thomas T., soldier, planter and manufacturer of 265 Harrison st., Lynchburg, Va., was born March 29, 1831, in Richmond, Va. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general.

Munday, James Andrew, lawyer of Vancouver, Wash., was born in 1843 in Hancock county, Ky. He served in the confederate army during the civil war. In 1876 he established the Owensboro Messenger.

Munday, John William, lawyer and author of 204 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1844 in Indiana. He is the author of The Spanish Galleon and other works.

Mundie, George West, banker of Earlville, Ill., was born Aug. 29, 1858, in Mendota, Ill. He is president of the First National bank of Earlville.

Munger, Frederick Montford, naval officer of San Francisco, Cal., was born on July 9, 1845, in Orono, Maine. In 1887 he attained the rank of captain and later became an efficient officer.

Munger, Thomas Charles, lawyer and jurist of Lincoln, Neb., was born July 7, 1861, in Fletcher, Ohio. Since 1907 he has been United States judge for the district of Nebraska.

Munger, William Henry, lawyer and jurist of Omaha, Neb., was born Oct. 12, 1845, in Bergen, N.Y. Since 1897 he has been United States judge for the district of Nebraska.

Munkittrick, Richard Kendall, journalist, author and poet of Summit, N.J., was born March 5, 1853, in England. He is the author of The Moon Prince, a juvenile, and other works.

Munly, Michael George, lawyer and jurist of Portland, Ore., was born Sept. 22, 1854, in Carbondale, Pa. He is circuit judge of Oregon.

Munn, Charles Clark, traveler and author of 95 Sumner ave., Springfield, Mass., was born May 11, 1848, in Southington, Conn. He is the author of Pocket Island; Uncle Terry and other works.

Munn, Hiram H., lawyer and author of 236 Superior st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Sept. 25, 1838, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the author of History of the Declination of the Great Republic.

Munn, T. J., lawyer and jurist of Frankfort, Ky. In 1900-08 he was associate justice of the state supreme court of Kentucky.

Munnikhuysen, Howard, lawyer and founder of Baltimore, Md., was born on June 19, 1842, in Hartford county, Md. He has been president of the street railway system of Washington, D.C.

Munro, Dana Carleton, educator and author of 630 Francis st., Madison, Wis., was born June 7, 1866, in Bristol, R.I. Since 1902 he has been professor of European History at the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of A Source Book of Roman History and other works.

Munro, Wilfred Harold, educator and author of 115 Butler ave., Providence, R.I., was born on Aug. 20, 1849, in Bristol, R.I. Since 1891 he has been professor of European history at the Brown university of Providence. He is the author of Picturesque Rhode Island and other works.

Munro, William Bennett, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Jan. 5, 1875, in Canada. Since 1906 he has been assistant professor at Harvard university. He is the author of Canada and British North America and other works.

Munroe, Charles Edward, educator and scientist of Washington, D.C., was born May 24, 1849, in Cambridge, Mass. He has received the degrees of B.S. and Ph.D. In 1874-86 he was a professor in the United States naval academy; and in 1886-92 was chemist at the United States navy torpedo station and war college. Since 1892 he has been professor of chemistry, and dean, faculty of graduate studies, in George Washington university. Since 1910 he has been consulting chemist to the United States bureau of mines.

Munroe, Charles Theodore, banker of Leicester, Mass., was born Oct. 28, 1849, in Rutland, Mass. He is president of the Leicester Savings bank.

Munroe, Henry Smith, educator, scientist and author of 501 West One Hundred and Twentieth st., New York City, was born March 25, 1850, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1890-92 he was vice-president of the American institute of mining engineers.

Munroe, J. A., railroad official of Omaha, Neb. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Union Pacific railroad.

Munroe, James Phinney, author of 79 Summer st., Boston, Mass., was born June 3, 1862, in Lexington, Mass. Since 1903 he has been president of the Massachusetts Reform club. He is the author of Educational Ideal and other works.

Munroe, Kirk, journalist and author of Cocoanut Grove, Fla., was born Sept. 15, 1850, in Prairie du Chien, Wis. In 1879-82 he was editor of Harper's Round Table. He is the author of Wakulla; The Flamingo Feather and various other works.

Munsell, Albert Henry, painter, artist and author of 65 Middlesex road, Boston, Mass., was born Jan. 6, 1858, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Color Notation.

Munsell, Frank, publisher, genealogist and author of Albany, N.Y., was born June 19, 1857, in Albany, N.Y. He is the author of Bibliography of Albany and The Munsell Genealogy.

Munsell, William Watkins, publisher of Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 25, 1850, in Rose, N.Y., of English-Welsh descent, the first of the family locating in Connecticut early in the seventeenth century. He was educated in Leavenworth institute of Wolcott, Griffith academy of Springville and Falley seminary, all of New York. For fifteen years he was engaged in the banking business; in 1874 entered the publishing business; and is now president of the Munsell Publishing company. He resides in a beautiful home in Auburn Park, a suburb of Chicago.

Munsey, Frank Andrew, journalist and author of 175 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Aug. 21, 1854, in Mercer, Maine. He is publisher of Munsey's Magazine and others. He is the author of A Tragedy of Errors; and Under Fire.

Munson, Cyrus La Rue, lawyer and banker of Williamsport, La., was born July 2, 1854, in Bradford, N.Y. He is president of the Savings Institution of Williamsport; president of the Williamsport Passenger Railway company; and president of the Williamsport Iron and Nail company and other corporations. He has been president of the Pennsylvania state bar association; president of the Lycoming historical society; and president of the Williamsport board of trade.

Munson, Edward Lyman, surgeon, inventor and author of Washington, D.C., was born Dec. 27, 1868, in New Haven, Conn. In 1898-1902 he was assistant to the surgeon-general of the United States army. He is the author of Theory and Practice of Military Hygiene.

Munson, James Eugene, phonographer and author of 1186 Lexington ave., New York City, was born May 12, 1835, in Paris, N.Y. He is the author of The Complete Phonographer and other works.

Munson, John B., railroad official of Macon, Ga., was born April 20, 1864, in Wilmington, N.C. Since 1908 he has been vice-president of the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad.

Munson, John P., educator and author of Ellensburg, Wash., was born Feb. 21, 1860, in Norway. He has been professor of biology at the Washington state normal school. He is the author of Education Through Nature Study and several scientific monographs.

Munson, Loveland, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Manchester, Vt., was born July 21, 1843, in Manchester, Vt. Since 1889 he has been judge of the supreme court of Vermont.

Munson, Myron Andrews, soldier, educator, clergyman and author of 198 Exchange st., New Haven, Conn., was born May 5, 1835, in Chester, Mass. He is the author of The Munson Record, in two volumes.

Munson, Walter D., soldier, merchant and capitalist of 664 Lafayette ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Feb. 18, 1843, in Cheshire, Conn. He is noted as having built up the Munson steamship line to Cuba, Mexico and the West Indies.

Munson, William Benjamin, railroad president of Denison, Texas, was born Jan. 7, 1846, in Fulton county, Ill. Since 1888 he has been president of the Denison and Washita Valley railroad at Denison.

Munsterberg, Hugo, educator and author of 7 Ware st., Cambridge, Mass., was born June 1, 1863, in Germany. Since 1892 he has been professor of psychology in Harvard university. He is the author of American Traits and other works.

Munyon, James M., journalist, manufacturer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 3, 1848, in Thompson, Conn. He is the author of Keep the Lights Burning and numerous other songs.

Munz, Friedrich, journalist, college president and author of 222 West Fourth st., Cincinnati, Ohio, was born March 24, 1865, in Germany. Since 1907 he has been editor of the Germany Sunday school publications. He is the author of Homiletik and other works.

Murasky, Frank J., lawyer and jurist of 1330 Page st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Nov. 7, 1864, in San Francisco, Cal. He is judge of the juvenile court.

Murch, Artemas Allerton, educator, clergyman and author of Newport, Vt., was born Feb. 19, 1848, in Corinna, Maine. He is the author of The Story of the Prayer Book; and The Sunday Question.

Murdaugh, Edmund Dandridge, educator and college president of Edmond, Okla., was born Nov. 18, 1853, in Uniontown, Ala. He is president of the Oklahoma territorial normal school at Edmond.

Murdoch, John, zoologist and author of 19 Wendell st., Cambridge, Mass., was born July 9, 1852, in New Orleans, La. He is the author of Natural History and other works.

Murdock, Charles E., banker of Beaver City, Utah, was born Dec. 12, 1864, in Lehi, Utah. He is cashier of the First National bank.

Murdock, Ezekiel Price, soldier, physician, surgeon and author of Aurora, Ind., was born Dec. 15, 1845, in Dearborn county, Ind. He is United States examining surgeon for pensions. He is the author of Teratology.

Murdock, Francis, banker of Newton, Mass., was born Oct. 28, 1835, in Waltham, Mass. He is vice-president of the Newton Trust company.

Murdock, Harold, litterateur and author of 40 Water st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1862, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of The Reconstruction of Europe and other works.

Murdock, Joseph Ballard, naval officer and author of Washington, D.C., was born Feb. 13, 1851, in Hartford, Conn. During the Spanish-American war he attained the rank of lieutenant-commander. He is the author of Notes on Electricity and Magnetism.

Murdock, Victor, journalist and statesman of Wichita, Kan., was born March 18, 1871, in Burlingame, Kan. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Murfee, James Thomas, soldier, educator, college president and founder of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was born Sept. 13, 1833, in Southampton county, Va. In 1887 he founded the Alabama military institute of which he is superintendent.

Murfin, James O., lawyer of Detroit, Mich., was born Jan. 7, 1875, in Portsmouth, Ohio. He was a member of the states senate in 1901; and in 1908-11 was circuit judge.

Murfree, Mary Noailles, author of Murfreesboro, Tenn., was born Jan. 24, 1850, in Murfreesboro, Tenn. She is the author of In the Tennessee Mountains; Where the Battle was Fought and various other works.

Murkland, Charles Sumner, educator, clergyman and college president of Wolfboro, N. H., was born May 20, 1856, in Lowell, Mass. He is president of the New Hampshire college of agriculture and the mechanic arts.

Murlin, Lemuel Herbert, educator, clergyman and college president of Baldwin, Kan., was born Nov. 16, 1861, in Mercer county, Ohio. Since 1894 he has been president of the Baker university of Kansas.

Murphey, Abner Goff, educator and college president of Russellville, Ky., was born Oct. 18, 1831, in Knox county, Ohio. He is president of the Logan female college of Russellville.

Murphree, Albert Alexander, educator and college president of Gainesville, Fla., was born April 29, 1870, in Walnut Grove, Ala. Since 1905 he has been president of the state college for women.

Murphy, Alfred J., lawyer and jurist of Detroit, Mich., was born June 1, 1868, in Detroit, Mich. Since 1905 he has been judge of the circuit court.

Murphy, Arthur Phillips, lawyer and statesman of Rolla, Mo., was born Dec. 10, 1870, in Hancock, Mo. In 1905-07 he was a member of congress.

Murphy, Daniel B., merchant of Rochester, N.Y., was born July 23, 1848, in Bombay, N. Y. He is president of the individual underwriters' association of the United States. He has been president of the New York state conference of charities and corrections.

Murphy, Daniel D., lawyer and banker of Elkader, Iowa, was born Aug. 22, 1862, in New Diggins, Wis. He is vice-president of the Elkader State bank.

Murphy, Edgar Gardner, clergyman, educator and author of Montgomery, Ala., was born Aug. 31, 1869, in Fort Smith, Ark. He is the author of Words for the Church and The Larger Life.

Murphy, Edward, statesman of Troy, N.Y., was born Dec. 15, 1836, in Troy, N.Y. In 1893-99 he was United States senator.

Murphy, Everett J., statesman of East St. Louis, Ill., was born July 24, 1852, in Nashville, Ill. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress. He was appointed warden of the penitentiary at Joliet.

Murphy, Frank Morrill, railroad president and capitalist of 11 Pine st., New York City, was born in Jefferson, Maine. He is president of the Prescot and Eastern Railroad company and various other corporations.

Murphy, Franklin, manufacturer and statesman of 224 McWhorter st., of Newark, N.J., was born Jan. 3, 1846, in Jersey City, N.J. In 1902-05 he was governor of the state of New Jersey.

Murphy, George Arthur, lawyer and statesman of Beatrice, Neb., was born on Dec. 25, 1860, in San Pierre, Ind. In 1897-99 he was a member of the Nebraska state senate.

Murphy, Hermann Dudley, painter and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 25, 1867, in Marlborough, Mass. In 1888-94 he was an illustrator for newspapers, magazines and books. In 1891 he went to Paris and received many prizes for his exhibitions.

Murphy, James R., lawyer of 27 School st., Boston, Mass., was born July 29, 1853, in Boston, Mass. He is in general practice, and his clientage is composed largely of building contractors.

Murphy, James William, lawyer and statesman of Platteville, Wis., was born April 17, 1858, in Platteville, Wis. In 1907-09 he was a member of congress.

Murphy, John B., physician and inventor of 104 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 21, 1857, in Appleton, Wis. He is distinguished for the invention of the anastomosis button, a valuable appliance for abdominal surgery.

Murphy, John Edward, railway official of Chicago, Ill., was born in Chatham, England. In 1880 he entered railway service as clerk in the local treasurer's office of the Illinois Central railroad. In 1882 he became bookkeeper, in 1885-88 was chief clerk, and since 1888 has been treasurer of the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad and of the Belt railway of Chicago.

Murphy, John Francis, landscape-painter and artist of 222 West Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Dec. 11, 1853, in Oswego, N.Y. In 1887 he received the Webb prize at the society of American artists. Some of his paintings are Sunny Slopes; Upland Cornfield and various other works.

Murphy, M. Lee, merchant and capitalist of Stillwater, Minn., was born May 29, 1860, in St. Lawrence county, N.Y. He is president of the New Pennsylvania Mine company.

Murphy, Marion Washington, physician and banker of Ringgold, Ga., was born Nov. 24, 1862, in Grantville, Ga. He is president of the Bank of Ringgold.

Murphy, Michael F., banker of 18 North Second st., Grand Forks, N.D., was born March 28, 1858, in Dubuque county, Iowa. He is vice-president of the Union National bank.

Murphy, Michael Joseph, capitalist of Detroit, Mich., was born Feb. 22, 1851, in Sarnia, Canada. He is president of the Murphy Chair company.

Murphy, Nettie Seeley, litterateur and author of 654 Olympic place, Seattle, Wash., was born May 6, 1857, in Kenosha, Wis. She is the author of Isn't It So and What Of It.

Murphy, Robert S., soldier, public official and statesman of Grover Hill, Ohio, was born April 15, 1840, in Paulding county, Ohio. He has been a member of the Ohio state legislature.

Murphy, Hon. Thomas, lawyer of 415 Jersey st., Buffalo, N.Y.,was born Dec. 21, 1862, in East Palmyra, N.Y. He was educated at the Union school and Central high school of Buffalo, N.Y. For many years he was attorney for the United States Electric company. In 1899-1907 he served as police justice; and established separate trials for children and adults. He has been president of the Juvenile improvement association; and was a delegate to the international peace congress in New York City.

Murphy, Thomas Edward, educator and college president of Worcester, Mass., was born Jan. 27, 1856, in New York City. Since 1906 he has been president of the Holy Cross college of Worcester, Mass.

Murphy, William James, editor and publisher of 619 South Tenth st., Minneapolis, Minn., was born July 27, 1859, in St. Croix county, Wis. Since 1891 he has been editor and publisher of the New York Tribune.

Murray, Arthur, army officer and author of Washington, D.C.,was born April 29, 1851, in Bowling Green, Mo. In 1899 he became colonel in the Philippines. He is the author of Mathematics for Artillery Gunners and Manual of Arms.

Murray, Augustus Taber,educator and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born Oct. 29, 1866, in New York City. Since 1892 he has been professor of Greek at the Leland Stanford university of California. He is the author of College Greek Composition.

Murray, Charles Theodore, soldier, journalist and author of Wardensville, W.Va., was born March 30, 1843, in Goshen, Ind. He served in the civil war. He is the author of Sub-Rosa; A Modern Gypsy and other works.

Murray, David Rodman, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Cloverport, Ky., was born March 13, 1847, in Cloverport, Ky. In 1877-81 he was a state senator in the Kentucky legislature.

Murray, George Brinton, merchant and author of Olney, Ill., was born May 31, 1863, in Olney, Ill. He is the author of A Boy's Journey Around the World.

Murray, George Piersol, lawyer and banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Feb. 23, 1860, in Pennsylvania. He is president of the Bridgeville Trust company and other corporations.

Murray, George Washington, farmer, educator, inventor and statesman of Providence, S.C., was born Sept. 22, 1853, in Rembert, S.C. In 1893-97 he was a member of congress.

Murray, Grace P., journalist and physician of New York City, was born Oct. 16, 1848, in Killingly, Conn. She is a journalist of the New York Medical Record.

Murray, Logan Crittenden, banker and founder of Louisville, Ky., was born Aug. 17, 1845, in Breckenridge county, Ky. Since 1894 he has been president of the American National bank of Louisville.

Murray, Oscar George, railroad president and financier of 2 Wall st., New York City, was born May 20, 1847, in Bridgeport, Conn. Since 1904 he has been president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Murray, Richard A., soldier, lawyer and jurist of Madison, S.D., was born Feb. 18, 1833, in Champlain, N.Y. He served in the civil war. He has been county judge of Madison.

Murray, Robert M., soldier, lawyer and statesman of Piqua, Ohio, was born Nov. 28, 1841, in Concord, Ohio. In 1883-85 he was a member of congress.

Murray, Samuel, sculptor and designer of 3326 Lancaster ave., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in June, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He designed the statues of Commodore Barry; and has executed busts of Admiral George W. Melville and many others.

Murray, W. J., banker of Eldora, Iowa,was born July 31, 1873, in Eldora, Iowa. He is president of the First National bank.

Murray, William Belton, clergyman and college president of Jackson, Miss., was born in May, 1852, in Pickensville, Ala. He is president of Millsaps college of Jackson, Miss.

Murray,William Henry, farmer and statesman of Tishomingo, Okla., was born Nov. 21, 1869, in Collinsville, Texas. He has been legal advisor of the government of the Chickasaw nation, and a member of the Choctaw-Chickasaw coal commission in behalf of the Chickasaws. He is now president of the Oklahoma constitutional convention. He received the democratic nomination for congress at large in 1912.

Murray-Aaron, Eugene, editor, geographer and author of Wilmette, Ill., was born Aug. 4, 1852, in Norristown, Pa. He is editor of the George F. Cram geographical publishing house of Chicago. He is the author of Ancient and Modern Atlas and other works.

Musgrave, George Clark, soldier and author of New York City, was born May 1, 1873, in England. He is the author of West African Fetish and other works.

Musgrove, Thomas William, physician and surgeon of Sultan, Wash., was born Nov. 4, 1841, in New Brunswick, Canada. For over half a century he has been identified with the temperance movements. He is the author of several medical articles.

Mustard, Wilfred Pirt, educator and author of 18 West Hamilton st., Baltimore, Md., was born Feb. 18, 1864, in Canada. Since 1893 he has been professor of Latin in Haverford college of Pennsylvania. He is the author of Classical Echoes in Tennyson.

Mutch, William James, educator, clergyman and author of New Haven, Conn., was born Feb. 7, 1858, in Hillsboro, Wis. He is the author of The Testing of A Soul and other works.

Mutchler, Howard, journalist, lawyer and statesman of Easton, Pa., was born Feb. 12, 1859, in Easton, Pa. In 1893-95 and 1901-03 he was a member of congress.

Muzzey, David Saville, educator and author of Yonkers, N.Y., was born on Oct. 9, 1870, in Lexington, Mass. He is the author of Rise of the New Testament and other works.

Muzzy, Adrian James, broker of 130 Main st., Bristol, Conn., was born Jan. 24, 1851, in Bristol, Conn. He is president of the Public Utilities company; and has been a state senator and representative.

Myer, Edmund John, vocal teacher and author of Seattle, Wash., was born Jan. 21, 1846, in York Springs, Pa. He was educated at the Dickinson seminary of Williamsport, Pa.; and at the Wyoming seminary of Kingston. He was the founder of the national summer school of music; and since 1877 has been a vocal teacher. He is the author of Truths of Importance and Vocalists; The Voice from a Practical Standpoint; Voice Training Exercises; Vocal Reinforcement; Position and Action in Singing and other works.

Myers, Albert Cook, litterateur and author of Moylan, Pa., was born Dec. 12, 1874, in York Springs, Pa. He is secretary and treasurer of the Pennsylvania history club. He is the author of Sally Wister's Journal and other works.

Myers, Cortland, clergyman and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born June 3, 1864, in Kingston, N.Y. He is author of The Lost Wedding Ring and other works.

Myers, George William, educator and author of 1953 East Seventy-second st., Chicago, was born April 30, 1864, in Champaign county, Ill. He is professor of mathematics and astronomy at the university of Chicago. He is the author of Rational Grammar School Arithmetic and other works.

Myers, Harry J., lawyer and publisher of 38 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born in 1874, in Astoria, Ill. He is president of the educational aid society.

Myers, James Jefferson, lawyer of Cambridge, Mass., was born Nov. 20, 1842, in Frewsburg, N.Y. He is president of the Conrey Placer Mining company.

Myers, Milliard Riley, clergyman and autnor of 914 Marshall blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born March 23, 1873, in Bourbon, Ind. He is professor in a private school of Chicago. He is the author of the Chicago Sunday school extension.

Myers, Mrs. Minnie Walter, philanthropist and author of Memphis, Tenn., was born in 1852, in Holly Springs, Miss. She is the author of Romance and Realism of the Southern Gulf Coast.

Myers, Philip Van Ness, educator and author of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Aug. 10, 1846, in Tribes Hill, N.Y. In 1895-97 he was dean of the university of Cincinnati. He is the author of Remains of Lost Empires and other works.

Myers, Robert L., banker of Harrisburg, Pa., was born on Nov. 16, 1863, in Round Hill, Pa. He is president of the Cumberland Valley bank.

Myers, William Henry, clergyman and author of Fredericksburg, Pa., was born Oct. 22, 1852, in Fredericksburg, Pa. He is the author of The Nineteenth Century Young Man and other works.

Myers, William Heyward, railroad official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born on April 9, 1856, in San Antonio, Texas. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Myers, William Shields, agricultural chemist and author of New Brunswick, N.J., was born Dec. 15, 1866, in Albany, N.Y. Since 1901 he has been director of the nitrate of soda propaganda for the United States and its colonies. He has been mayor of his city. He is the author of Food for Plants and other works.

Myrick, Harry Pierce, editor of 446 Marshall st., Milwaukee, Wis., was born Aug. 27, 1857, in Pontiac, Mich. He was managing editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel; and is now editor of the Milwaukee Free Press.

Myrick, Herbert, editor, publisher and author of 151 Bowdoin st., Springfield, Mass., was born Aug. 20, 1860, in Arlington, Mass. Since 1891 he has been president and editor of the Orange Judd company. He is the author of Mortgage Lifters and other works.

Myrick, Josiah, capitalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 16, 1860, in Oregon City, Ore. Since 1907 he has been part owner of the Maier Brewing company.

Nabers, Zach Lee, coal operator and banker of Birmingham, Ala., was born May 6, 1858, in Carrollton, Ala. He is secretary and treasurer of the Strouts Mountain Coal and Coke company; and director of the First National bank.

Nadal, Charles Coleman, lawyer of 92 Liberty st., New York City, was born on Dec. 8, 1855, in Greencastle, Ind. Since 1887 he has been counsel of the Fidelity and Casualty company.

Nadal, Ehrman Syme, government official and author of 7 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born in 1843, in Greenbrier county, Va. He is the author of Impressions of London Social Life and other works.

Nadeau, Ira Alfred, lumber dealer, lawyer and railroad president of 1111 Boyleston ave., Seattle, Wash., was born on Jan. 23, 1856, in Monroe, Mich. He is president of the Port Townsend Southern railroad and other transportation companies.

Naegele, Charles Frederick, painter and artist of 21 West Sixty-seventh st., New York City, was born May 8, 1857, in Knoxville, Tenn. He has painted portraits of General Joseph D. Bryant; Peter Cooper and others.

Naegele, Otto E., banker of Minneapolis, Minn., was born May 25, 1858, in New Ulm, Minn. He is vice-president of the Metropolitan National bank.

Nagel, Joseph Darwin, physician and author of 106 East Thirty-eighth st., New York City, was born Nov. 20, 1867, in Hungary. He is the author of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System.

Nagle, James C., educator and civil engineer of College Station, Texas, was born on Oct. 9, 1865, in Richmond, Va. He is the author of Field Manual for Railroad Engineers.

Nall, John Boyd, banker of Kingsport,Ky., was born Jan. 27, 1882, in Sacramento, Ky. He became vice-president of the Farmers' bank of Sullivan and now cashier and director of the bank of Kingsport, of which he was the organizer.

Nance, Albinus, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Lincoln, Neb., was born March 30, 1848, in La Fayette, Ill. In 1879-83 he was governor of Nebraska.

Nancrede, Charles Beylard Guerard, surgeon of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born Dec. 30, 1847, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1899 he has been professor of surgery at the university of Michigan.

Narum, William, banker of Englevale, N. D., was born May, 1876, in Allamakie county, Iowa. He is cashier of the First State bank.

Nash, Charles E., soldier and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born May 23, 1844, in Opelousas, La. He attained the rank of sergeant-major in the civil war. In 1875-77 he was a member of congress.

Nash, Charles Ellwood, clergyman, college president and author of 150 South Virgil ave., Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 31, 1855, in Alamuchy, N.J. He is the author of The Savior of the World.

Nash, Charles Sumner, theologian of Berkeley, Cal., was born Feb. 18, 1856, in Granby, Mass. He was pastor of the First Church at East Hartford, Conn., and is an instructor of elocution and Bible theology. He is now president of the Pacific theological seminary and assistant moderator of the national council of Congregational churches at Berkeley, Cal.

Nash, Charles White, railway official of Albany, N.Y., was born March 22, 1862, in Cuba, N.Y. He entered railway service in 1883 as cashier, in 1891-1908 was general agent. Since 1908 he has been freight claim agent of the Delaware and Hudson company at Albany.

Nash, George Williston, educator and college president of Aberdeen, S.D., was born Dec. 22, 1868, in Janesville, Wis. Since 1905 he has been president of the Northern normal industrial school of Aberdeen.

Nash, Henry Sylvester, educator, clergyman and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born in 1854 in Ohio. He is the author of The Genesis of the Social Conscience and other works.

Nash, John McLean, lawyer of 63 Wall st., New York City, was born Aug. 6, 1848, in New York City. He is trustee of the New York Life Insurance and Trust company.

Nason, Mrs. Emma Huntington, poet of Augusta, Maine, was born Aug. 6, 1845, in Hallowell, Maine. She is the author of The Tower, with Legends and Lyrics, a poem and other works.

Nason, Frank Lewis, mining engineer and author of West Haven, Conn., was born May 12, 1856, in New London, Wis. He is the author of The Vision of Elijah Berl and other works.

Nason, William Abbot, physician and scientist of Algonquin, Ill., was born June 21, 1841, in Hallowell, Maine. He received his medical degree from the Northwestern university, and the honorary degree of A.M. from Williams college. He is past president of the Fox River Valley medical association; has been a police magistrate for twenty years; and for twenty years has been president of the school board. He has made valuable researches on parasitic hymenoptera of Algonquin.

Nast, Conde Montrose, publisher of 615 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born March 26, 1874, in New York City. He is a fashion publisher; and vice-president of the Home Pattern company.

Nathan, Gratz, lawyer of 261 Broadway, New York City, was born May 25, 1843, in New York City. He received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. from Columbia college. Since 1864 he has been in the active practice of law in New York City; and in 1867-72 was assistant corporation counsel of the city of New York.

Nathan, Maude, lecturer and reformer of 162 West Eighty-sixth st., New York City, was born in New York City. Since 1897 she has been president of the Consumers' league of New York.

Navarro, Mary Anderson de, actress of Worcestershire, England, was born July 28, 1859, in Sacramento, Cal. She is the author of A Few Memories, an autobiography.

Nave, Frederick Solomon, lawyer and jurist of Glove, Ariz., was born Jan. 7, 1873, in Lewis Center, Ohio. He has been associate justice of the supreme court of Arizona.

Nave, Orville James, clergyman, chaplain and author of 2505 South Grand ave., Los Angeles, Cal., was born April 30, 1841, in Galion, Ohio. He is author of Nave's Topical Bible and other works.

Naylor, James Ball, physician, author and poet of Malta, Ohio, was born Oct. 4, 1870, in Morgan county, Ohio. He is the author of The Sign of the Prophet and other works.

Nead, Benjamin Mathias, journalist, lawyer and author of Harrisburg, Va., was born July 14, 1847, in Antrim, Pa. He is the author of Early Government of Pennsylvania and other works.

Neal,Lawrence Talbott,lawyer and statesman of Chillicothe, Ohio, was born Sept. 22, 1844, in Parkersburg, W.Va. In 1873-77 he was a member of congress.

Neal, Linus Bushnell, banker of Southington, Conn., was born Feb. 20, 1854, in Wallingford, Conn. He is treasurer of the Southington Savings bank.

Neal, Thomas M., banker of Russellville, Ark., was born May 6, 1848, in Dover, Ark. He is president of the bank of Russellville.

Nebel, Emil Frank, lumber merchant and banker of High Hill, Mo., was born May 12, 1862, in High Hill, Mo. He is president of the bank of High Hill, Neeb, Harry Adolph, publisher and capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Neeb-Hirsch Publishing company and a director of other corporations.

Neece, William Martin, stock grower of Thermopolis, Wyo., was born on April 24, 1839, in Springfield, Mo. In 1904-07 he was superintendent of Big Horn, Hot Springs.

Needham, Charles Austin, artist of 218 East Nineteenth st., New York City, was born Oct. 30, 1844, in Buffalo, N.Y. Among his best known paintings are Dream of Autumn and A River Bank.

Needham,James Carson,lawyer and statesman of Modesto, Cal., was born Sept. 17, 1864, in Carson City, Nev. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress.

Needham, James George, educator, scientist and author of 6 Thurston ave., Ithaca, N.Y., was born March 18, 1868, in Virginia, Ill. He is the author of Elementary Lessons in Zoology and other works.

Neeley, Charles E., lumber manufacturer and financier of St. Louis, Mo., was born Jan. 28, 1851, in Marion City, Mo. He is president of the Hule-Hodge Lumber company.

Neelis, Frank E., banker and commercial promoter of Hammond, La., was born April 21, 1862, in New Orleans, La. He is president of the bank of Hammond.

Neely, James Upton, merchant and banker of Fairfield, Pa., was born Feb. 5, 1845, in Hunterstown, Pa. He is president of the Fairfield National bank. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Neff, Elizabeth Clifford, genealogist of 361 Russell ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Aug. 24, 1851. She is the author of Neff History and other works.

Neff, George W., physician and banker of Masontown, Pa., was born Dec. 9, 1854, in Masontown, Pa. He is president of the First National bank. He has been a member of the state legislature.

Neff, John C., banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1854, in Masontown, Pa. He is president of the First National bank of New Salem.

Neff, William Newton, railroad president of Tyler, Texas, was born Aug. 11, 1874, in Lawrence, Kan. He entered railway service in 1889 with the Missouri and Pacific railway, and has filled positions from agent to superintendent. Since 1911 he has been first vice-president and general superintendent of the St. Louis, Southwestern railway of Texas, and also general superintendent of the St. Louis Southwestern railway.

Nehrling, Henry, educator, ornithologist, botanist and author of Gotha, Fla.,was born May 9, 1853, in Howard's Grove, Wis. He is the author of Our Native Birds of Song and Beauty, in two volumes.

Neidlinger,George H., merchant of 79 Murray st., New York City, was born in Brooklyn,N.Y. He is president of Neidlinger Brothers and other corporations.

Neill, David Middleton, financier of 408 Third st., Red Wing, Minn., was born Feb. 2, 1852, in Scotland. He is president and treasurer of the Red Wing Telephone company.

Neill, Richard Renshaw, soldier and diplomat of Lima, Peru, was born Oct. 20, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. Since 1884 he has been secretary of the United States legation at Lima.

Neils, Julius F. B., lumber merchant and banker of Cass Lake, Minn., was born June 15, 1855, in Germany. He is president of the First National bank.

Neilson,Lewis, railroad official of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 30, 1860, in Florence, N.J. He is secretary of the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

Neilson, Neils S., sheep breeder and banker of Mount Pleasant, Utah, was born Sept. 5, 1848, in Sweden. He is president of the Price Commercial and Savings bank.

Neilson, William Allan, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born March 28, 1869, in Scotland. He is the author of The Origin and Sources of the Court of Love.

Neithaus, Charles Henry, designer and sculptor of New York City, was born Jan. 24, 1855, in Cincinnati, Ohio. A group entitled Fleeting Time was his first finished effort.

Nelligan,Richard Francis,educator and author of Amherst, Mass., was born in 1861 in Cambridge, Mass. He was one of the originators of the Vanderbilt university summer school in Nashville. He is the author of The Art of Swimming and other works.

Nellis,Andrew J.,lawyer of 13 North Pearl st., Albany, N.Y., was born July 22, 1852, in Palatine, N.Y. He is a member of the law firm of Countrymann, Nellis and Du Bois.

Nelson,Andrew,farmer and banker of Cambridge, Iowa, was born Nov.20, 1842, in Norway, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Nelson, Arthur W., farmer and banker of Bunceton, Mo., was born Jan. 21, 1878, in Missouri. He is president of the Bank of Bunceton.

Nelson, Aven, educator, botanist and author of Laramie, Wyo., was born March 24, 1859, in Lee county, Iowa. He is the author of The Trees of Wyoming and How to Know Them and other works.

Nelson, Benjamin F., manufacturer and financier of Minneapolis,Minn., was born May 4, 1843, in Greenup county, Ky. He is president of the Hennepin Paper company.

Nelson,Edward Beverly, educator of Rome, N.Y., was born May 20, 1850, in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. In 1876 he was appointed principal of the central New York institution for deaf mutes at Rome.

Nelson, Edward William, naturalist and author of Washington, D.C., was born May 8, 1855, in Manchester, N.H. He is the author of Report on Natural Collections Made in Alaska.

Nelson, George Francis, clergyman of 416

Lafayette st., New York City, was born Dec. 11, 1842, in Granville, Ohio. He received the degree of LL.B. from the university of Chicago, the degree of D.D. from Trinity and from St. Stephen's college; and in 1862-77 was in the United States military service. In 1879-85 he was assistant rector in Grace church of New York City; and since 1887 has been registrar to the diocese of New York. In 1902-12 he was vice-president of the Protestant Episcopal city missionary society; in 1902-12 also arch-deacon of New York; and since 1912 canon of the cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Nelson, H. C., farmer and banker of Hayward, Minn., was born June 14, 1848, in Norway. He is president of the Farmers' State bank.

Nelson, James Newton, banker of Apollo, Pa., was born May 20, 1874, in Markle, Pa. He is president of the Apollo Trust company.

Nelson, John Mandt, lawyer and statesman of Madison, Wis., was born Oct. 10, 1870, in Burke, Wis. In 1906-11 he was a member of congress.

Nelson, Lewis Cass, retired banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born on Sept. 18, 1848, in Boonville, Mo. He is president of the St. Louis National bank.

Nelson, N. O., manufacturer of St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 11, 1844, in Lillesand, Norway. He is president of the N. O. Nelson Manufacturing company.

Nelson, Richard Henry, clergyman and bishop of 25 Elk st., New York City, was born Nov. 10, 1859, in New York City. Since 1904 he has been protestant episcopal bishop coadjutor of Albany.

Nelson, S. A., journalist and banker of Powell, Wyo. He was editor and proprietor of the Enterprise of Cody; and is now president of the First National bank of Powell.

Nelson, Samuel A., banker of Lanesboro, Minn., was born Jan. 6, 1851, in Norway. He is president of the Nelson Land company.

Nelson, Thomas Hiram, evangelist and author of 1409 East Market st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Feb. 11, 1863, in Canada. He is the author of The Midnight Cry and other works.

Nelson, William Rockhill, journalist and publisher of Kansas City, Mo., was born March 7, 1841, in Fort Wayne, Ind. He was educated in the university of Notre Dame, Ind. He is the editor-in-chief and owner of the Kansas City Star. He is a son of Isaac De Groff Nelson. He founded the western gallery of arts.

Nelson, William, lawyer and author of 150 Market st., Paterson, N.J., was born Feb. 10, 1847, in Newark, N.J. He received the honorary degree of A.M. from Princeton university. For a while he was engaged in newspaper work; and since 1887 has practiced law in Paterson. Since 1880 he has been secretary of the New Jersey historical society; and since 1885 has been editor of the New Jersey Archives. He is the author of The Indians of New Jersey; Personal Names of the Indians of New Jersey; The Doremus Family of America; and a History of the City of Paterson.

Nesbit, Harrison, banker of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Sept. 15, 1875, in Osceola, Mo. He is president of the bank of Pittsburgh national association.

Nesbit, Wilbur Dick, journalist and author of 104 South Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Sept. 16, 1871, in Xenia, Ohio. He is the author of The Trail to Boyland and Other Poems and other works.

Nestor, T. J., banker of Seattle, Wash., was born Nov. 9, 1862, in Minesota. He is president of the Miners' and Merchants' bank of Iditaroa, Alaska.

Netland, Sievert A., banker of 210 Union st., Northfield, Minn., was born Oct. 5, 1877, in Norway. He is president of the State bank of Rosemount.

Nettleton, Walter, painter and artist of Stockbridge, Mass., was born June 19, 1861, in New Haven, Conn. He is especially well known for New England Winter Scenes.

Neumann, Julius, merchant and banker of Wymore, Neb., was born July 8, 1848, in Germany. He is president of the Blue Valley Milling company.

Neville, M. Keith, banker of North Platte, Neb., was born on Feb. 25, 1884, in North Platte, Neb. He is vice-president of the First National bank.

Nevin, Charles P., merchant and statesman of Butte, Mont., was born Feb. 7, 1881, in Virginia City, Nev. In 1906 he was chairman of the central committee; and in 1909 was elected mayor of his city. He is president of the Montana Provision company and other corporations.

Nevin, George Balch, musician, composer and author of Easton, Pa., was born March 15, 1859, in Shippensburg, Pa. He is the author of the Strength of the Hills and other works.

Nevin, James Melancthon, lawyer and banker of 440 Diamond st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born June 19, 1849, in East Palestine, Ohio. He is president of the State bank of Elizabeth.

Nevin, Robert Murphy, lawyer and statesman of Dayton, Ohio, was born May 5, 1850, in Highland county, Ohio. In 1901-07 he was a member of congress.

Nevin, Theodore Williamson, journalist and author of 421 Wood st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born July 24, 1854, in Sewickley, Pa. He is the author of Pittsburgh and the Men Who Made It and other works.

Nevins, Winfield Scott, litterateur and author of Salem, Mass., was born in 1850, in Maine. He is the author of Witchcraft in Salem Village and other works.

Nevius, Laird Wilson, soldier, dentist and author of 403 Reid corner, Minneapolis, Minn., was born Oct. 5, 1845, in Knox county, Ohio. He is the author of The Discovery of Modern Anaesthesia.

New, Clarence Herbert, traveler, publisher and author of 459 Waverly ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in 1862, in New York City. He is the author of Under the Pacific and other works.

New, Harry Stewart, soldier,publisher and statesman of 1002 North Capital ave., Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 31, 1858, in Indianapolis, Ind. Since 1896 he has been a member of the Indiana state senate.

Newark,Alfred W.,manufacturer and banker of Cadillac, Mich., was born on May 31, 1853, in Farmington, N.Y. He is president of the Cadillac State bank.

Newberry, Fannie Ellsworth, litterateur and author of Easton, Pa., was born May 7, 1848, in Monroe, Mich. She is the author of Impress of A Gentleman and other works.

Newberry, Truman Handy, manufacturer statesman and author of Detroit, Mich.,was born Nov. 5, 1864, in Detroit, Mich. In 1908-09 he was secretary of the navy. He is president of the Detroit Steel Casting company.

Newberry, William Belknap, chemist and author of Easton, Pa., was born on Jan. 15, 1867, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the author of Chemical Constitution of Portland Cements.

Newbold, Arthur Emlen, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 5, 1859, in Jenkintown, Pa. He is a director of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank and other corporations.

Newbrough, William, civil and mining engineer of Evanston, Wyo., was born Dec. 15, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is general manager and chief engineer of Narrow Reservoir.

Newburger, Frank Lieberman, banker and broker of 527 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Feb. 18, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is a member of the New York and Philadelphia stock exchanges.

Newby, Henry, banker of Pasadena, Cal., was born May 4, 1868, in Spiceland, Ind. He is president of the Pasadena National bank.

Newby, William Garland, banker of 612 Main st., Fort Worth, Texas, was born on March 11, 1859, in St. Charles, Mo. He is president of the Jersey Creme company.

Newcomb, Charles Benjamin, lecturer and author of Brookline, Mass., was born June 22, 1845, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of All's Right With the World; and Discovery of a Lost Trail.

Newcomb, Don Carlos,merchant and banker of 704 North Fourth ave., Atchison, Kan., was born July 13, 1836, in Fayston, Vt. He was educated at the Newbury seminary of Vermont. In 1864-1905 he was actively engaged in business. Since 1869 he was with the First National bank of Atchison, of which he became president until his retirement from active business. He was sole owner of the firm of D. C. Newcomb; and a member of the firm of Gard and Newcomb. In 1896 and 1900 he was a lay delegate to the general conferences of the Episcopal church.

Newcomb, H. D., statesman of Louisville, Ky., was born Jan. 1, 1872, in Louisville, Ky. He has been a representative in the Kentucky state legislature and a member of the state senate.

Newcomb, Harry Turner, lawyer, economist and author of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 4, 1867, in Owosso, Mich. In 1899-1901 he was expert chief in the division of agriculture of the United States census.

Newcomb, Horatio Victor, railroad president and banker of 683 Fifth ave.,New York City, was born July 26, 1844, in Louisville, Ky. In 1880 he organized and for several years was president of the United States National bank of New York City.

Newcomb, James Edward,physician of 118 West Sixty-ninth st., New York City, was born Aug. 27, 1857, in New London, Conn. He is instructor in laryngology at the Cornell university medical college.

Newcombe, Frederick Charles,educator and botanist of Ann Arbor, Mich., was born on May 11, 1858, in Flint, Mich. Since 1905 he has been professor of botany in the university of Michigan.

Newcomer, Alphonso Gerald, educator and author of Palo Alto, Cal., was born Sept. 13, 1864, in Mount Morris, Ill. He is the author of American Literature and other works.

Newcomer, Waldo, banker of 105 West Monument st., Baltimore, Md., was born on Sept. 11, 1867, in Baltimore, Md. He is president of the National Exchange bank.

Newcomet. Horace E., railroad official of Louisville, Ky., was born April 27, 1874, in Philadelphia, Pa. He graduated from the university of Pennsylvania. He entered railway service in 1896, and in 1906-13 was division engineer on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division; and since 1913 has been superintendent of the Louisville division of the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh.

Newell, A. B., railroad president of Nashville, Tenn. Since 1913 he has been president of the Tennessee Central railroad.

Newell,Edgar Allan, manufacturer and capitalist of Ogdensburg, N.Y., was born May 10, 1863, in Ogdensburg, N.Y. He was mayor of his city for four terms. He is president of the Ogdensburg Savings and Loan association.

Newell, Edward Jackson, journalist, lawyer and author of New York City, was born Aug. 3, 1863, in New York City. He is the author of Our Police and College Songs, a collection.

Newell, Frederick Haynes, civil engineer and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 5, 1862, in Bradford, Pa. Since 1907 he has been the director of the United States reclamation service.

Newell, George A., banker of Medina,N.Y., was born Jan. 11, 1846, in Medina, N.Y. He has been cashier of the Union bank of Medina and is now president.

Newell, Lyman Churchill, educator and author of Malden, Mass., was born Sept. 18, 1867, in Pawtucket, R.I. He is the author of Experimental Chemistry and other works.

Newell, Peter Sheaf, artist and author of Leonia, N.J., was born March 5, 1862, in East McDonough, Ill. He is the author of Pictures and Rhymes and other works.

Newell, Wilbur Charles, clergyman and author of Hyndsville, N.Y., was born Dec. 28, 1859, in Gurleyville, Conn. He is the author of Truth About Hell and other works.

Newell, William Henry, lawyer and banker of Lewiston, Maine, was born April 16, 1854, in Durham, Maine. He graduated from the west state normal school. He was admitted to the bar in 1878; was city solicitor in 1890; and served three terms as mayor of his city. He is president of the Manufacturers' National bank.

Newhall, Frank Gerry, banker of Brighton, Mass., was born on July 24, 1848, in Lynn, Mass. He is president of the National Market bank.

Newhall, Henry Harris, banker of 100 Grand ave., Portland, Ore., was born in 1858, in Rhode Island. He is president of the East Side bank of Portland.

Newhall, Mrs. L. E. Terry, author and poet of Newhall, Cal., was born July 19, 1861, in Dutch Flat, Cal. She is the author of The Bride of Infelice and a volume of poems.

Newhouse, Samuel, railroad official and capitalist of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Oct. 14, 1853, in New York. He is president of the Denver, Lakewood and Golden railroad.

Newill, Arthur Cotter, educator, journalist and author of Portland, Ore., was born on Sept. 4, 1858, in India. He is considered one of the best normal instructors and lecturer in the state of Utah.

Newitt, Joseph, miner, lawyer and jurist of Denver, Col., was born Jan. 30, 1848, in Oxfordshire, England. Since 1897 he has been county and probate judge for Chaffee county.

Newkirk, Newton, artist and author of 75 Federal st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1870, in Bentleyville, Pa. He is author of Seven Books of Humor.

Newland, David Judson, lawyer of 550 West One Hundred and Thirteenth st., New York City, was born July 8, 1841, in Lawrenceville, N.Y. He is president of the Highland Spring Water company.

Newlands, Francis Griffith, capitalist and statesman of Reno, Nev., was born Aug. 28, 1848, in Natchez, Nev. He is a member of the United States senate for the term of 1909-15.

Newman, Albert Henry, theologian and author of Fort Worth, Texas, was born Aug. 25, 1852, in Edgefield county, S.C. He is the author of The Baptist Churches in the United States and other works.

Newman, Edgar Douglas, lawyer and banker of Woodstock, Va., was born March 26, 1854, in Woodstock, Va. Since 1878 he has been a member of the law firm of Walton and Walton. He has organized six different banks; is president of the People's bank of Mount Jackson, Citizens' bank of New Market, Shenandoah National bank of Woodstock, Shenandoah Valley Loan and Trust company and the First National bank of Luray. In 1886-98 he was judge of the county court; and in 1880-86 was captain in the second regiment Virginia volunteers.

Newman, James Harlan, banker of Tompkinsville, Ky., was born Dec. 29, 1866, in Gamaliel, Ky. He is president of the Deposit bank of Monroe county.

Newman, Jared Treman, lawyer and bank director of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Nov. 5, 1855, in Enfield, N.Y. In 1907 he was mayor of his city. He is director of the First National bank.

Newman, John, banker of Elgin, Ill., was born in 1842, in England. He is president of the Elgin City Banking company.

Newman, Joseph, publisher and author of 548 Logan st., Denver, Col., was born June 30, 1868, in Fort Dodge, Iowa. He is a singer and entertainer; and has appeared in every large city of the United States. He is the author of Hymns, Lullabies and Humorous Songs.

Newman, P.M., railroad president of Williamsport, Pa., was born June 3, 1861, in Pennsylvania. Since 1908 he has been president of the Susquehanna and New York railroad.

Newman, William H., capitalist and railroad president of New York City, was born in 1847, in Prince William county, Va. Since 1905 he has been president of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad company.

Newman, William Truslow, jurist of Atlanta, Ga., was born June 23, 1843, in Knoxville, Tenn. Since 1886 he has been judge of the United States district court for the northern district of Georgia.

Newman, Mrs. Willie Betty, painter and artist of Nashville, Tenn., was born Jan. 21, 1864, in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Her works include Passing the Holy Bread and The Foolish Virgin.

Newmark, Maurice Harris, merchant of 905 Beacon st., Los Angeles, Cal., was born on March 3, 1859. For ten years he was president of the Southern California wholesale grocers' association.

Newsom, John Flesher, geologist and author of Stanford university, Cal., was born Sept. 6, 1869, in Elizabethtown, Ind. Since 1901 he has been associate professor of mining at the Stanford university of California. He is the author of Syllabus of Lectures on Economic Geology.

Newton, Churubusco, lawyer and statesman of New Orleans, La., was born May 15, 1848, in St. Helena Parish, La. In 1887-89 he was a member of congress.

Newton, Daniel Howe, manufacturer and statesman of 214 Elm st., Holyoke, Mass., was born June 22, 1827, in Hubbordstown, Mass. Since 1887 he has been president of the Hossie Tunnel and Wilmington railroad.

Newton, Henry Gleason, lawyer and banker of 818 Chapel st., New Haven, Conn. He has been a state representative. He is the author of several chapters in the History of Durham.

Newton, James Hale, banker of Holyoke, Mass., was born Jan. 13, 1832, in Hubbardston, Mass. He is president of the Home National bank.

Newton, John Lipscomb, banker of Social Circle, Ga., was born Aug. 19, 1874, in Morgan county, Ga. He is cashier of the Walton County bank.

Newton, Joseph H., journalist and publisher of Newark, Ohio, was born in 1836, in Millersburg, Ohio. He is postmaster of his city; and since 1880 has been editor and publisher of the Newark Advocate.

Newton, Oscar, banker of Jackson, Miss., was born March 4, 1877, in Crystal Springs, Miss. He is president of the Jackson bank.

Newton, Richard Heber, clergyman and author of East Hampton, N.Y., was born Oct. 31, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of the Right and Wrong Uses of the Bible and other works.

Newton, Thomas Forsyth, banker of Beaver City, Neb., was born Nov. 12, 1866, in Morgan county, Ohio. He is cashier of the bank of Beaver City.

Newton, Watson J., lawyer, insurance president and author of 1416 F st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1848 in England. He is the author of Bramoleton Fair, a musical comedy.

Newton, William R., banker of Yorkville, Ill., was born in May, 1858, in Kendall county, Ill. He was canal commissioner of the Illinois and Michigan canal for seven years. He is president of the Yorkville National bank.

Newton, William Wilberforce, clergyman and author of Brookline, Mass., was born Nov. 4, 1843, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Voice of St. John and Other Poems and other works.

Ney, Elizabeth, sculptor and artist of Hempstead, Texas, was born in 1845, in Germany. Among the works executed by her are Christ Risen and a memorial to General Albert Sydney Johnson.

Ney, John Joseph, lawyer and jurist of Iowa City, Iowa, was born June 8, 1852, in Sandusky, Ohio. He received the degree of LL.B. from Notre Dame university of Indiana. He has been city attorney and mayor of Independence, Iowa; in 1884 became circuit judge and in 1886-94 was district judge for the tenth judicial district of Iowa. In 1894-98 he was resident professor of law in the State university of Iowa.

Niblack, Albert Parker, naval officer, lecturer and author of Washington, D.C., was born July 25, 1859, in Vincennes, Ind. He is the author of The Coast Indians of Alaska and Northern British Columbia.

Niblack, Leslie Gordon, statesman of Guthrie, Okla., was born in 1874, in Evansville, Ind. In 1906-08 he was a member of the Oklahoma state senate.

Niblo, Fred, traveler and writer of New York City, was born Jan. 6, 1874, in York, Neb. Since 1897 he has been a successful actor and manager; and is also a lecturer on foreign travel in Central Africa, the Soudan, Egypt, Russia and Siberia; and has traveled around the world three times. He is president of the white rats of America, the largest actors' organization in the world.

Nicholai, Charles, banker of San Pedro, Cal., was born Dec. 23, 1854, in Oshkosh, Wis. He is president of the Harbor City Savings bank.

Nicholas, Anna, journalist and author of Indianapolis, Ind. was born in Meadville, Pa. She is the author of An Idyl on the Wabash, a volume of short stories.

Nicholas, Francis Child, geologist and mining engineer of 3 Broad st., New York City, was born Dec. 7, 1862, in Elizabeth, N.J. He is president of the Carbonate Mining company and a director of other corporations.

Nicholas, John Taylor Gilman, physician and banker of 63 Brattle st., Cambridge, Mass., was born Aug. 11, 1837, in Portland, Maine. He is president of the Cambridge Savings bank.

Nicholl, Horace Wadham, musician and composer of New York City, was born March 17, 1848, in England. He is the author of Fantasie on Psalm CXXX and a symphonic poem entitled Life.

Nicholl, James Craig, artist of 51 West Tenth st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1846, in New York City. He is president of the American water color society.

Nicholls, Charles Wilbur de Lyon, author and philanthropist of 694 Madison ave., New York City, was born Dec. 17, 1854, in Nicholls, Conn. He originated the Sunday kindergarten association. He is the author of The Sunday Kindergarten Art and other works.

Nicholls, Francis Tillou, jurist of 1436 Josephine st., New Orleans, La., was born Aug. 20, 1834, in Donaldsville, La. Since 1904 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of Louisiana.

Nicholls, Thomas David, labor president and statesman of Scranton, Pa., was born Sept. 16, 1870, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Nichols, Acosta, banker of 52 William st., New York City, was born June 19, 1872, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a member of the firm of Spencer, Trask and company and a director of corporations.

Nichols, Albert, farmer and banker of Highland, Md., was born April 8, 1864, in Dayton, Md. He is president of the Highland bank.

Nichols, Charles Fessenden, physician of 74 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 20, 1846, in Salem, Mass. He is treasurer of the Theodore Parker restoration fund.

Nichols, Edward Leamington, educator, physicist and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 14, 1854, in England. He is the founder and editor-in-chief of the Physical Review.

Nichols, Edward West, educator and author of Lexington, Va., was born June 27, 1858, in Petersburg, Va. He is the author of Analytical Geometry and Differential and Integral Calculus.

Nichols, Ernest Fox, educator and author of Hanover, N.H., was born June 1, 1869, in Leavenworth, Kan. Since 1903 he has been professor of experimental physics at the Columbia university.

Nichols, George Livingston, lawyer of 49 Wall st., New York City, was born May 9, 1860, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is vice-president and director of Chickering and Sons and a director of other corporations.

Nichols, Harrison Spencer, banker of Oakes, N.D., was born Jan. 23, 1856, in Waukon, Iowa. He is president of the Oakes National bank.

Nichols, Harry Peirce, clergyman and author of 18 West One Hundred and Twenty-second st., New York City, was born Sept. 3, 1850, in Salem, Mass. He is the author of Bohlen Lectures on the Temporary and the Permanent in New Testament Revelation.

Nichols, Henry Windsor, geologist and author of 6011 Kimbark ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 7, 1866, in Cohasset, Mass. He is the author of Ore of Columbia.

Nichols, Herbert, lecturer and author of 138 West Eighty-seventh st., New York City, was born Feb. 7, 1852, in Walpole, N.H. Since 1896 he has been a lecturer in Johns Hopkins university.

Nichols, James, insurance official of 95 Pearl st., Hartford, Conn., was born Dec. 25, 1830, in Fairfield county, Conn. He is president of the National Fire Insurance company; and has been probate judge of Hartford.

Nichols, John Benjamin, physician, surgeon and author of 1321 R.I. ave., Washington, D. C., was born in 1867 in Cazenovia, N.Y. He is the author of Clinical Laboratory Methods.

Nichols, William Bates, banker of Dinuba, Cal., was born Dec. 4, 1859, in Vermont. He is president of the Bank of Dinuba.

Nichols, William Ford, clergyman, bishop and author of 2515 Webster st., San Francisco, Cal., was born June 9, 1849, in Lloyd, N.Y. He is the author of On the Trial of Your Faith.

Nichols, William Henry, chemist and metalluragist of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born Jan. 9, 1852, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has received the degrees of B.S., M.S., LL.D. and Sc.D. Since 1870 he has been a manufacturing chemist, copper refiner and smelter; and is now chairman of the board of the General Chemical company. He is president of the Nichols Copper company; president of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power company; and vice-president of the Corn Exchange bank. He is past president of the international congress of applied chemistry.

Nichols, William Wallace, engineer of 71 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 17, 1860, in New York City. Since 1904 he has been director of the Allis-Chambers-Bullock company, limited.

Nicholson, Frank Lee, civil engineer of Norfolk, Va., was born Aug. 12, 1868. He was educated at the Suffolk military academy; and afterward took a two years' private course in civil engineering. He entered railway service in 1887 and has since filled positions on various roads to chief engineer. Since 1909 he has been chief engineer of the Norfolk and Southern railroad; and since 1912 has also been chief engineer of the Raleigh, Charlotte and Southern railway.

Nicholson, George T., railroad official of 80 East Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill., was born July 1, 1856, in Belvidere, N.C. Since 1905 he has been vice-president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad system.

Nicholson, Henry Hudson, consulting engineer and scientist of Lincoln, Neb., was born May 25, 1850, in Rushford, Minn. He was educated at Harvard and the universities of Heidelberg and Berlin. He served in the civil war in a Wisconsin regiment. In 1882-1905 he was professor of chemistry and director of the chemical laboratories in the university of Nebraska; and since 1905 has been a mining and industrial engineer. He is the author of Laboratory Manual and other scientific works.

Nicholson, James Oscar, lawyer and jurist of Laredo, Texas, was born March 29, 1847, in Pike county, Ill. He ranks as one of the leading lawyers at the bar in southwest Texas.

Nicholson, James W., soldier, educator, founder, inventor and college president of Baton Rouge, La., was born June 16, 1844, in Macon county, Ala. He invented the multisector, an instrument for dividing an angle into desired number of equal parts.

Nicholson, John Page, soldier, historian and author of 1124 North Forty-first st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 4, 1842, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg, in two volumes.

Nicholson, John Reed, lawyer and jurist of Dover, Del., was born May 19, 1849, in Dover, Del. Since 1895 he has been chancellor of the state of Delaware.

Nicholson, John T., clergyman and author of 1115 Pierce ave., Houston, Texas, was born in 1868, in County Sligo, Ireland. He is author of Standard Library Selections.

Nicholson, Meredith, journalist and author of 15 North Delaware st., Indianapolis, Ind., was born on Dec. 9, 1866, in Crawfordsville, Ind. He is the author of The Main Chance and other works.

Nicholson, Samuel Mowry, manufacturer and banker of Providence, R.I., was born on Feb. 25, 1861, in Providence, R.I. He is president of the Nicholson File company.

Nicholson, Thomas, educator, clergyman and author of 150 Fifth ave., New York City, was born on Jan. 27, 1862, in Canada. Since 1903 he has been professor of philosophy and president of the Dakota Wesleyan university.

Nicholson, Watson, educator and author of Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 23, 1866, in Pendleton, Ind. He is the author of The Struggle for a Free Stage in London.

Nicholson, William Ramsey, banker of Philadelphia, Pa., was born June 25, 1851, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Land Title and Trust company and other corporations.

Nickerson, Charles Sumner, clergyman and author of Newton, Mass., was born Nov. 28, 1861, in Chatham, Mass. He is the author of Noble Living.

Nickerson, H. G., farmer and government official of Lander, Wyoming, was born May 4, 1841, in Litchfield, Ohio. He is receiver in the United States land office at Lander. He takes an active part in political, state and government affairs.

Nickerson, Hiram Robert, financier and railroad president of Orange, N.J., was born Dec. 13, 1853, in North Wayne, Maine. He is president of the Rio Grande, Sierre Madre and Pacific Railroad company.

Nickerson, John, banker of St. Louis, Mo., was born July 25, 1837, in Le Roy, N.Y. He is vice-president of the National bank of Commerce.

Nickerson, Thomas White, clergyman of 78 East st., Pittsfield, Mass., was born June 25, 1858, in Boston, Mass. Since 1900 he has been rector of St. Stephen's church.

Nicol, Charles Edgar, lawyer and banker of Manassas, Va., was born Feb. 22, 1854, in Brentsville, Va. He is president of the Alexandria National bank.

Nicolay, Helen, litterateur and author of 1621 Massachusetts ave., Washington, D.C., was born March 9, 1866, in France. She is the author of The Boys' Life of Abraham Lincoln and other works.

Nicoll, James Craig, painter and artist of 51 West Tenth st., New York City, was born Nov. 22, 1846, in New York City. Among his water colors, by which he is perhaps best known, are On the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Coast View in Spring.

Nicolls, William Jasper, civil and mining engineer and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 23, 1854, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of A Dreamer in Paris and other works.

Nicolson, Frank Walter, educator and author of Middletown, Conn., was born Nov. 4, 1864, in Sackville, Canada. He is the author of Plutus of Aristophanes.

Niederjohn, H. G., farmer and banker of Waverly, Mo., was born Dec. 11, 1847, in Warren county, Mo. He is president of the Waverly bank.

Niedringhaus, Frederick G., manufacturer, capitalist and statesman of 4532 Lindell blvd., St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the Granite City Gas company.

Niedringhaus, George Wallace, manufacturer and banker of Granite City, Ill., was born May 28, 1864, in St. Louis. He was treasurer of St. Louis Stamping company. He is president of the Granite City National bank.

Niedringhaus, Thomas Key, manufacturer of St. Louis, Mo., was born Oct. 21, 1860, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president and director of the National Enameling and Stamping company and is director of other corporations.

Niehaus, Charles Henry, sculptor and artist of New York City, was born on Jan. 24, 1855, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He received a diploma and medal for a group entitled Fleeting.

Nielsen, Alice, actress and singer of New York City, was born in 1876, in Nashville, Tenn. She made her appearance in grand opera in Italy as Marguerite in Faust.

Nieman, Lucius W., journalist and publisher of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 13, 1857, in Mukwonago, Wis. He is editor and proprietor of the Journal of Milwaukee.

Niemann, Gustave William, banker of 703 Chestnut st., St. Louis, Mo., was born July 27, 1857, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1873 he has been engaged in the abstract and title business, now the Title Guaranty Trust company of which he was president in 1904-08. He is now vice-president of the German-American bank of St. Louis.

Nienaner, Charles, banker of Round Lake, Minn., was born Dec. 13, 1864, in Iowa. He is president of the State bank.

Nierling, John Jacob, banker of Jamestown, N.D., was born July 23, 1856, in Lansing, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Nies, James Buchanan, clergyman and scientist of Brooklyn Heights, N.Y., was born in 1856 in Newark, N.J. He graduated from Columbia with the degrees of B.A., M.A. and Ph.D.; and also graduated from the general theological seminary. He has been rector of the church of the epiphany of Brooklyn; and rector of Christ's church of Sharon, Conn. He has been an oriental traveler and explorer; and is a member of the American oriental society and various other scientific societies.

Nightingale, Augustus Frederick, educator and author of 1238 Oak ave., Evanston, Ill., was born Nov. 11, 1843, in Quincy, Mass. He is the author of Requirements for Admission to American Colleges.

Nikita, Louisa Margaret Nicholson, musician, opera singer and composer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Aug. 18, 1872, in Philadelphia, Pa. Her leading roles are in Lakme Manon, Barbiere and Traviata.

Niles, Alfred Salem, lawyer and jurist of 2010 Thirteenth st., Baltimore, Md., was born Oct. 28, 1860, in St. Louis, Mo. Since 1906 he has been associate justice of the supreme court of Maryland.

Niles, Henry Clay, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Kosciusko, Miss., was born Oct. 21, 1850, in Kosciusko, Miss. In 1892 he was appointed United States district judge for the northern and southern districts of Mississippi.

Niles, William, banker of La Porte, Ind., was born Sept. 27, 1835, in La Porte, Ind. He is president of the First National bank.

Nipher, Francis Eugene, educator,scientist and author of 1794 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 10, 1847, in Port Byron, N.Y. He is the author of Theory of Magnetic Measurements and other works.

Nisbet, James Douglas, physician and author of 34 West Fiftieth st., New York City, was born July 30, 1861, in Waxhaw, S.C. He is the author of Diseases of the Stomach.

Nissen, Hartvig, educator and author of 95 Newburg st., Roslindale, Mass., was born July 13, 1855, in Norway. He is the author of Health By Exercise Without Apparatus and other works.

Nissen,Ludwig, merchant and capitalist of 182 Broadway, New York City, was born on Dec. 2, 1855, in Hosum, Schleswig-Holstein. He is vice-president and director of the Oriental bank and a director of other corporations.

Nissley, John J., banker of Hummelstown, Pa., was born Oct. 22, 1832, in Derry township, Pa. He is president of the Hummelstown National bank.

Nitze, William Albert, educator and author of Chicago, Ill., was born on March 20, 1876, in Baltimore, Md. He is the author of The Grail Romance Perlesvaus and other works.

Niven, William, explorer, mineralogist and scientist of Guernavaca, Mexico, was born Oct. 6, 1850, in Bellshill, Scotland. He is now president of the Rio del Oro Exploration company of Mexico.

Nixon, George Stuart, banker and statesman of Reno, Nev., was born April 2, 1860, in Newcastle, Cal. He is president of the bank of Nevada Savings and Trust company.

Nixon, Lewis, shipbuilder of 22 East Fifty-third st., New York City, was born April 7, 1861, in Leesburg, Va. He received his early education in Leesburg; in 1878 was appointed midshipman in the United States navy; in 1882 graduated at the head of his class from the United States naval academy; and was sent to the Royal naval college of Greenwich, England, by the navy department. In 1884 he was transferred to the construction corps of the navy; and in 1890 designed the battleships Oregon, Indiana and Massachusetts. He then resigned from the navy to become superintending constructor of the Cramp shipyards at Philadelphia. In 1895 he established the Crescent shipyard of Elizabeth, N.J., where he has built over one hundred vessels. He built the submarine torpedo-boat Holland; and also built the first composite gunboat ever constructed for the navy. He is president of the Standard Motor Construction company and proprietor of the Lewis Nixon shipyard.

Nixon, William C., railroad official of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 1858, in Illinois. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad.

Noble, Alden Charles, electrical and insurance engineer and author of 4744 Kenwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born May 17, 1880, in Chicago, Ill. He is the author of Beyond Sunset Seas and other works.

Noble, Alfred, civil engineer and government official of 501 West One Hundred and Twentieth st., New York City, was born on Aug. 7, 1844, in Livonia, Mich. In 1897 he was appointed a member of the United States engineer corps.

Noble, Charles, educator, clergyman and author of Grinnell, Iowa, was born Dec. 3, 1847, in New York City. He is the author of Studies in American Literature.

Noble, E. E., bank president of Beach, N. D., was born Sept. 30, 1851, in Fayetteville, N.Y. He has been auditor of the St. Croix Lumber company; cashier of the Golden Valley State bank; and general manager of the Goodrudge Call Lumber company. He is now president of the First National bank, and secretary and treasurer of the Golden Valley Farmers' Co-operative Grain company.

Noble, Edmund, journalist and author of 89 Pine st., Malden, Mass., was born Jan. 8, 1853, in Scotland. He is the author of The Russian Revolt.

Noble, Henry Smith, physician of Middletown, Conn., was born on Oct. 8, 1845, in Hinesburgh, Vt. He has been assistant physician to the Hartford retreat, Michigan asylum for the insane, and for Connecticut hospital for the insane. He is now superintendent of the Connecticut hospital for the insane at Middletown.

Noble,Lucretia Gray,author of Wilbraham, Mass., was born in Lowell, Mass. She is the author of A Reverend Idol, a novel.

Noble, Patrick, business president of San Francisco, Cal., was born Jan. 14, 1849, in Abbeville, S.C. He was educated at the college of Charleston. In 1865 he served with the state troops of South Carolina. Since 1868 he has been in the service of the Pacific Rolling Mill company, of which he is now president. He is a member of the American society of mechanical engineers and various other societies.

Noble, William Clark, sculptor and artist of Newport, Maine, was born Feb. 18, 1858, in Gardiner, Maine. His first work through which he won prominence was the soldiers and sailors' monument which was unveiled in 1890 at Newport.

Nobles, Milton, actor, playwright and author of 139 First place, Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Sept. 28, 1847, in Almont, Mich. He is author of Love and Law and other works.

Noel, Edmond Favor, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Lexington, Miss., was born on March 4, 1856, in Lexington, Miss. In 1882-84 he was a member of the Mississippi state legislature.

Noel, Henry Graves, stock broker of 304 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 18, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo. He is vice-president of the Noel-Young Bond and Stock company.

Noel, Henry Martyn, banker and broker of 304 North Fourth st., St. Louis, Mo., was born April 12, 1841, in Polk county, Mo. He is president of the Noel-Young Bond and Stock company.

Nolan, Edward C., banker of Reading, Pa., was born Aug. 8, 1880, in Reading, Pa. He graduated with the degree of A.B. from Villanova college. He is vice-president of the First National bank, president of the Nolan real estate agency, sole owner of Nolan Brothers (railroad construction), and a director of various corporations.

Nolan, George Emmett, banker of Orlando, Fla., was born April 4, 1869, in Nolan, Ga. He is cashier of the Orlando Bank and Trust company.

Nolan, John I., statesman of San Francisco, Cal., was born on Jan. 14, 1874, in San Francisco, Cal. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Nolan, John W., business president and statesman of Hartford, Conn., was born Feb. 5, 1870, in Norwalk, Conn. He was educated in the grammar and high schools. He is identified with the business and public affairs of Connecticut; is president of the City Printing company of Hartford; and a member of several fraternal, patriotic and benevolent societies. For six years he has been democratic selectman of Hartford. In 1911-13 he was a member of the general assembly of the Connecticut state legislature.

Nolen, Charles Kennerly, banker of Stoneville, N.C., was born in 1873, in Virginia. He is cashier of the bank of Stoneville.

Nolen, John, lecturer and landscape architect of Cambridge, Mass., was born in 1869, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has designed several public parks and private places throughout the east. He is a lecturer on Outdoor Art. He is the editor of Repton's Art of Landscape Gardening.

Noll, Arthur Howard, lawyer, clergyman and author of Sewanee, Tenn., was born on Feb. 4, 1855, in Caldwell, N.J. Since 1902 he has been registrar of the university of the South at Sewanee. He is the author of A Short History of Mexico and other works.

Nollen, John Scholte, educator, college president and author of Lake Forest, Ill., was born Jan. 15, 1869, in Pella, Iowa. He is the author of Outline History of Modern German Literature.

Nolte, Lewis Gustavus, educator, physician and surgeon of 747 Cass st., Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 19, 1862, in Milwaukee, Wis. He is professor of surgery and clinical surgery in the medical department of Marquette university.

Noonan, Edward T., lawyer and statesman of 105 South Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born Oct. 23, 1861, in Macomb county, Ill. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress.

Noonan, Thomas Hazard, lawyer and jurist of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Dec. 17, 1865, in Ferrisburg, Vt. He is judge of the city court of Buffalo.

Noonan, William T., railroad president of Rochester, N.Y., was born July 12, 1874, in Waverly, Minn. Since 1910 he has been president of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad.

Norcross, Frank Hebert, lawyer and jurist of Carson City, Nev., was born May 11, 1869, in Reno, Nev. Since 1904 he has been justice of the supreme court of Nevada.

Nordby, Peter F., banker of Port Orchard, Wash., was born Dec. 3, 1862, in Norway. He is president of the Kitsap County bank.

Nordica, Lillian, opera singer of New York City, was born about 1859, in Farmington, Maine. She has had many successes in the roles of the great Wagnerian heroines.

Norman, Henry, journalist and author of London, England, was born Sept. 19, 1858, in England. He is London correspondent for the New York Times and the Chicago Tribune.

Norman, John S., banker of Troy, Kan., was born in 1866, in Iowa. He is president of the First National bank.

Norman, Jones W., underwriter, real estate agent and financier of Leaksville, N.C., was born June 5, 1879, in Irisburg, Va. He is president of the Twin City Building and Loan association.

Norris, George William, educator, lawyer, jurist and statesman of McCook, Neb., was born on July 11, 1861, in Sandusky county, Ohio. In 1903-11 he was a member of congress.

Norris, Henry Hutchinson, electrical engineer and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born April 26, 1873, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Electrical Machinery.

Norris, Homer, Albert, lecturer, musician and author of New York City, was born in 1860, in Wayne, Maine. He is the author of Practical Harmony on a French Basis and other works.

Norris, John Samuel, clergyman and poet of Rochester, N.Y., was born Dec. 4, 1844, in England. He is the author of a work entitled Songs of the Soul.

Norris, Mary Harriott, educator and author of Morristown, N.J., was born March 16, 1848, in Boonton, N.J. She is the author of The Gary House of the Quarries and other works.

Norris, Richard Cooper, physician and author of 500 North Twentieth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Nov. 9, 1863, in Havre de Grace, Md. He is the author of American Text-Book of Obstetrics and other works.

North, Austin, banker of 202 North Twenty-seventh st., Billings, Mont., was born on May 20, 1869, in Adel, Iowa. He is president of the Austin North bank.

North, Harold L., banker of Hudson, Wis., was born Aug. 1, 1865, in Hudson, Wis. He is president of the bank of Hudson.

North, Simon Newton Dexter, journalist and statistician of 2 Jackson place, Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 29, 1849, in Clinton, N.Y. He is now editor of the Bulletin of the Nation.

Northcut, Jesse G., lawyer and jurist of Trinidad,Col.,was born Jan. 5, 1862, in Christian county,Ill. Since 1894 he has been judge of the third district court of Colorado.

Northington, William Thomas, manufacturer and banker of Prattville,Ala.,was born Oct. 23, 1851, in Prattville, Ala. He has been president of the Autanga Bank and Trust company and other corporations.

Northrop, Harry Pinckney, clergyman and bishop of Charleston, S.C.. was born May 5, 1842, in Charleston, S.C. In 1882 he was consecrated bishop of Charleston.

Northrup, William Perry, physician of 57 East Seventy-ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 11, 1851, in Peterboro, N.Y. He is a specialist in children's diseases and professor of diseases of children in the New York university and Bellevue hospital medical college of New York. He is also attending physician to the Presbyterian hospital of New York City; and is a constant contributor to medical and scientific publications.

Norton, Arthur Brigham, oculist and author of 30 East Fifty-fifth st., New York City, was born Sept. 15, 1856, in New Marlborough, Mass. He is the author of Ophthalmic Diseases and Therapeutics.

Norton, Benjamin, railroad president of St. Louis, Mo., was born Dec. 18, 1855, in Erie, Pa. In 1900-04 he was president of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western railroad.

Norton, Edwin, manufacturer and inventor of 25 Broad st., New York City, was born March 27, 1845, in Rockton, Ill. He is now president of the American Can company.

Norton, Edwin Franklin, educator, clergyman and author of Almont, Mich., was born Feb. 15, 1862, in Homer, N.Y. He has been superintendent of schools in New York state.

Norton, Eugene Trump, banker of Connellsville, Pa., was born Oct. 10, 1866, in Brownsville, Pa. He is president of the Riverside Metal Refining company and a director of other corporations.

Norton, Francis Joseph, military engineer and lecturer of Jacksonville, Fla., was born in 1868 in Ireland. He was United States military engineer during the Spanish-American war. He is a lecturer on the great world's fairs and other subjects.

Norton, Frederick Calvin, journalist and author of Guilford, Conn., was born March 24, 1873, in Guilford, Conn. He is editor of the Echo.

Norton, George W.,educator,journalist and author of 170 Neal st., Portland, Maine, was born Aug. 25, 1855, in Strong, Maine. Since 1892 he has been editor of the Portland Evening Express of Maine.

Norton, James, soldier, farmer and statesman of Mullins, S.C., was born Oct. 8, 1843, in Marion county, S.C. In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

Norton, James Albert, soldier, physician, lawyer and statesman of Washington, D.C., was born Nov. 11, 1843, in Seneca county, Ohio. In 1897-1903 he was a member of congress.

Norton, John Pease, educator and author of New Haven,Conn., was born July 28,1877, in Suffield, Conn. Since 1905 he has been assistant professor of railway and trade statistics at Yale university.

Norton, Patrick Daniel, lawyer,banker and statesman of Hettinger, N.D., was born May 17, 1876, in Ishpeming, Mich. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Norton, Richard Henry,lawyer and statesman of Troy, Mo., was born Nov. 6, 1849, in Troy, Mo. In 1889-93 he was a member of congress.

Norton, William Harmon, educator, geologist and author of Mount Vernon,Iowa,was born April 3, 1856, in Willoughby, Ohio. He is now special assistant on the Iowa state geological survey.

Norval, Theophilus Lincoln, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Seward, Neb., was born Aug. 26, 1847, in Fulton county, Ill. In 1879 he was a member of the Nebraska state senate.

Norvell, Saunders, merchant and editor of 509 Olive st., St. Louis, Mo., was born Aug. 12, 1864, in St. Catherine's, Canada. He is president of the Norvell-Shapleigh Hardware company.

Norwood, Joseph, banker of 1204 Main st., Columbia, S.C., was born Feb. 14, 1875, in Charleston, S.C. He is president of the Union National bank.

Nottingham, William, lawyer and banker of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Nov. 2, 1853, in Onondaga county, N.Y. In 1892-1902 he was a trustee of the Syracuse university. He is president of the Globe Navigation company.

Novinger, James Henry,retired farmer and banker of Green City, Mo., was born April 20, 1840, in Dauphin county, Pa. He is president of the Bank of Green City.

Novy, Frederick George, educator, scientist and author of Ann Arbor,Mich.,was born Dec. 9, 1864, in Chicago, Ill. He fills the chair of bacteriology in the university of Michigan.

Nowlin, Beverly Angelo, farmer and banker of Collinsville, Ala., was born in 1847 in Madison county, Ala. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank.

Nowlin, Samuel Henry, soldier, journalist and public official of Hot Springs, Ark., was born April 11, 1844, in Stewartsville, Va. Since 1894 he has been engaged in encyclopedia work.

Noyes, Alexander Dana,journalist and author of 2 West Ninety-fourth st., New York City, was born Dec. 14, 1862, in Montclair, N.J. He is the author of Thirty Years of American Finance.

Noyes, Arthur Amos, educator and author of 97 Hemenway st., Boston,Mass., was born Sept. 13, 1866, in Newburyport, Mass. He is a professor of the Massachusetts institute of technology.

Noyes, Carleton Eldredge, banker of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 1, 1872, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the North End Savings bank.

Noyes, Charles Phelps,merchant and banker of St. Paul, Minn., was born April 24, 1842, in Lyme, Conn. He is president of the State Savings bank.

Noyes, Charles S., lawyer of 198 Broadway, New York City, was born Nov. 8, 1858, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended the Adelphi academy of Brooklyn, and graduated from Amherst college and from Columbia law school. He has been connected with much important Queens county litigation; and was counsel for property owners in the case of Summerfield against Norton, involving titles to a large part of Rockaway Beach.

Noyes, Frank Brett, journalist and publisher of Washington, D.C., was born July 7, 1863, in Washington, D.C. He has been editor and publisher of the Chicago Record Herald. Since 1910 he has been president of the Evening Star Newspaper company.

Noyes, George Henry, lawyer and jurist of Milwaukee, Wis., was born April 18, 1849, in McLean, New York. He has been judge of the superior court of Milwaukee county, Wis. He is now counsel for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee.

Noyes, Harry G., lawyer and banker of Gorham, N.H., was born June 15, 1874, in Gorham, N.H. He is president of the Gorham National bank.

Noyes, Henry Byron, banker of Mystic, Conn., was born April 15, 1871, in Mystic, Conn. He is president of the Groton Savings bank; and has been a state representative.

Noyes, Henry F., capitalist of 34 Thomas st., New York City. He is a director of the Home Insurance company and a trustee of other corporations.

Noyes, Theodore Williams, journalist and author of 1730 New Hampshire ave., Washington, D.C., was born Jan.26, 1858,in Washington, D.C. In 1887-1908 he was editor-in-chief of the Washington Star.

Noyes, Walter Chadwick, lawyer, jurist and author of Lyme, Conn., was born Aug. 8, 1865, in Lyme, Conn. He is the author of The Law of Inter-Corporate Relations and other works.

Noyes, William Albert, educator, chemist and author of Urbana, Ill., was born Nov. 6, 1857, in Independence, Iowa. Since 1907 he has been professor of chemistry at the university of Illinois.

Nuelsen, John Louis, educator, clergyman, journalist and author of Omaha, Neb., was born Jan. 19, 1867, in Switzerland. He is the author of Luther, the Leader, and other works in German.

Nugent, Francis Vincent, manufacturer and author of Beverly, Mass., was born Nov. 22, 1862, in South Danvers, Mass. He is a shoe manufacturer. He is the author of several poems.

Nugent, Paul Cook, educator,civil engineer and author of Syracuse, N.Y., was born Jan. 4, 1871, in New Orleans, La. He is professor of civil engineering at the Syracuse university.

Nunn, Thomas J., lawyer and jurist of Frankfort, Ky. Since 1903 he has been justice of the court of appeals of Kentucky.

Nunnally, Gustavus Alonzo, college president of Macon,Ga., was born March 24, 1841, in Walton county, Ga. In 1890-93 he was president of Mercer university.

Nutt, George D., physician and surgeon of Williamsport, Pa., was born April 17, 1845, in Pemberton, N.J. He received his medical degree from the university of Pennsylvania; and immediately afterward engaged in the practice of his profession in Williamsport. He has given special attention to diseases of the eye and ear. He was general surgeon to the Williamsport hospital from its organization until 1898, when he was appointed abdominal surgeon. He is now president of the Williamsport private hospital, devoting his whole time to surgery.

Nuttall, Laurence William, banker of Philipsburg, Pa., was born Sept. 17, 1857, in Center county, Pa. He is vice-president and director of the First National bank.

Nutter, Charles S., clergyman and author of St. Albans, Vt., was born Sept. 19, 1842, in Tuftonboro, N.H. He is the author of Hymn Studies and Historic Hymnists.

Nutting, Charles Cleveland, zoologist and author of Iowa City, Iowa, was born May 25, 1858, in Jacksonville, Ill. He is the author of Narrative of Bahama Expedition from the University of Iowa.

Nutting, John Danforth, clergyman, theologian of 1854 East Eighty-first st.; Cleveland, Ohio, was born March 8, 1854, in Randolph, Vt. He is a writer and lecturer on Mormonism and kindred subjects.

Nyce, Benjamin Markley, educator,clergyman and college president of Muncie, Ind., was born Dec. 5, 1869, in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1904-08 he was president of Talladega college.

Nye, Frank Mellen, lawyer and statesman of 2708 Pillsbury ave., Minneapolis, Minn., was born March 7, 1852, in Sherley, Maine. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

Nye,George Hyatt, manufacturer and banker of Auburn, N.Y., was born Dec. 2, 1854, in Auburn, N.Y. In 1892 he was vice-president of Cayuga County National bank, and since 1896 has been its president.

Nye, Wallace George, business man and statesman of Minneapolis, Minn., was born Oct. 7, 1859, in Hortonville, Wis. He is mayor of his city.

Oakes, Thomas Fletcher, banker and railroad president of 35 Wall st., New York City, was born July 16, 1843,in Boston,Mass. He has been president of the Northern Pacific railroad.

Oakey, Charles Henry, banker of Osceola, Wis., was born June 13, 1858, in Madison, Wis. He is president of the Bank of Osceola.

Oakey, John Lewis, banker of San Francisco, Cal., was born Jan. 1, 1854, in Terre Haute, Ind. He served in the civil war. He has been mayor of Oakland, Cal. He is a member of the firm of Olney, Pringle and Mannon.

Oakford, Aaron S., merchant and banker of Peoria, Ill., was born Oct. 28, 1845, in Peoria county, Ill. He is vice-president of the Illinois National bank of Peoria.

Oakley, Clarence Edgar, banker of Buffalo, Minn., was born May 17, 1846,in Hempstead, N.Y. He is president of the Oakley State bank.

Oakley, Henry Augustus, financier and author of 120 West Thirtieth st., New York City, was born Sept. 20, 1827, in New York City. He is the author of Outline of a Course of English Reading and other works.

Oakman, Walter George,railroad president of 12 East Fifty-third st., New York City, was born May 10, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has been president of the Richmond and Danville Railroad company.

Oates, James Wyatt, lawyer of Los Angeles, Cal., was born January, 1850, in Alabama. He has been special United States attorney for California.

Oates,William Calvin,soldier,lawyer,statesman and author of Montgomery, Ala., was born Dec. 1, 1835, in Pike county, Ala. He has been governor of Alabama.

Obenchain, Mrs. Eliza Calvert, litterateur and author of Bowling Green, Ky., was born Feb. 11, 1856, in Bowling Green, Ky. She is the author of Aunt Jane of Kentucky.

Obenchain,William Alexander,educator and college president of Bowling Green, Ky., was born April 27, 1841, in Buchanan, Va. He is president of the Ogden college.

Ober, Sarah Endicott, missionary and author of Seattle, Wash., was born May 7, 1854, in Beverly, Mass. She is the author of Little Tommy and other works.

Oberhardt, William, illustrator and artist of 11 East Fourteenth st., New York City, was born Sept. 22, 1882, in Guttenburg, N. J. He studied at the Munich royal academy of fine arts and in the New York academy of design; and was awarded portrait prizes in both academies. He is an illustrator for Scribner's, Collier's, McClure's, Cosmopolitan and other magazines; and illustrated The Science of Poetry and Philosophy of Language and other books.

Oberholtzer, Ellis Paxon, journalist and author of 2113 Tioga st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1868 in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of The Literary History of Philadelphia and other works.

Oberholtzer, Mrs. Sara Louisa, philanthropist and poet of 2113 Tioga st.,Philadelphia, Pa., was born May 20, 1841,in Chester county, Pa. She is the author of Violet Lee and other works.

Oberly,Henry Harrison,clergyman and author of Elizabeth, N.J., was born in 1840 in Easton, Pa. He is the author of The Testimony of the Prayer Book to the Continuity of the Church.

Obermayer, Charles J.,banker of 498 Fifth ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born Nov. 8, 1869, in New York. He was secretary and treasurer of the German-American Guarantee company for twelve years. He is president of the Greater New York Savings bank.

O'Bleness, Henry, banker of Athens, Ohio, was born June 16, 1842, in Newport, Ohio. He is president of the First National bank.

Obrecht, Albert G., farmer, stock breeder and banker of Havelock,Iowa, was born Nov. 17, 1875, in Kankakee county, Ill. He is cashier of the First National bank.

O'Brien, Edward Charles, diplomat and founder of Montevideo, Uruguay, was born in Fort Edward, N.Y. Since 1905 he has been envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Uruguay and Paraguay.

O'Brien, Frank A., clergyman and author of Kalamazoo, Mich., was born June 7, 1851, in Monroe, Michigan. He founded St. Anthony's school for feeble minded children. He is the author of As the Bishop Saw It and other works.

O'Brien, James H., statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 15, 1860, in Jamaica, N. Y. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

O'Brien, James P., railroad president of Portland, Ore. His genius for the construction and management for railroads has been given high praise. He is vice-president and general manager of the Harriman Railway lines in Oregon.

O'Brien, John, editor and founder of East Cambridge, Mass., was born April 2, 1838, in Ireland. He established the Sacred Heart Review, which has attained the highest rank.

O'Brien, Joseph W., insurance agent and banker of Grand Haven,Mich., was born Oct. 11, 1860, in Chicago, Ill. He is president of the Grand Haven State bank; and has been mayor of his city.

O'Brien, Leo S., educator and scientist of 16 James st., Rochester, N.Y., was born Nov. 25, 1870, in Victor, N.Y. He has received the degrees of A.B. and M.D.; and has done valuable research work in medicine.

O'Brien, Martin H., lawyer of New York City, was born May 18,1850,in Clinton county, N.Y. He has an extensive practice in the state and federal courts.

O'Brien, Michael E., banker of Laurium, Mich., was born Sept. 21, 1877, in Osceola, Mich. He is president of the First National bank.

O'Brien, Michael Hubert, lawyer and United States official of 919 Jefferson ave., Detroit, Mich., was born April 25, 1878, in Detroit, Mich. He was educated at the Detroit college, the Detroit college of law and the university of Michigan; and has received the degrees of A.M. and LL.B. Until 1909 he was marshal of the United States corps for China at Shanghai. He is a member of the associated charities of Detroit and various other societies.

O'Brien, Miles M., banker of 320 West Eighty-ninth st., New York City, was born in 1852 in Ireland. He served twenty years on the New York board of education; and introduced the system of free baths for public school children. He is the president of the New Amsterdam National bank.

O'Brien, Morgan Joseph,soldier,lawyer and jurist of 729 Park ave., New York City, was born April 28, 1852, in New York City. He has been judge of the supreme court of New York.

O'Brien, Mortimer C., lawyer and statesman of White Plains, N.Y., was born Aug. 29, 1888. He graduated from Fordham university and from Fordham law school; and is a successful lawyer of White Plains. In 1912 he was elected a representative in the New York state legislature, and is a member of the judiciary and other committees.

O'Brien, P. P., commissioner of public works of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Dec. 5, 1860, in Ireland. He was educated at Notre Dame, Ind. He is clerk of the Los Angeles police court; is commissioner of public works; a director of the republican league; and prominent in the Catholic church. His wife, Mrs. Mary T. O'Brien, is the retiring president of the ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

O'Brien, Smith, architect of San Francisco, Cal., was born in 1868 in Cork, Ireland. He designed the Humboldt bank building of San Francisco.

O'Brien, Thomas Dillon, lawyer, commissioner and statesman of St. Paul, Minn., was born Feb. 14, 1859, in La Pointe, Wis. Since 1905 he has been commissioner of insurance for Minnesota.

O'Brien, Thomas J., lawyer and diplomat of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born July 30, 1842, in Jackson, Mich. Since 1907 he has been American ambassador to Japan.

O'Brien, William H., banker of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was born Aug. 22, 1855, in Lawrenceburg, Ind. He has been mayor of his city.

Obrig, Adolph, stock broker of 66 Broadway, New York City, was born April 7, 1845, in Elberfeld, Germany. Since 1867 he has been engaged in the brokerage business; and since 1871 has been a member of the New York stock exchange.

O'Brine, David, physician, geologist, chemist and author of Urbana, Ohio, was born Nov. 17, 1849, in Ireland. He is the author of A Laboratory Guide of Chemistry Analysis.

O'Byrne, Michael Alphonsus, lawyer and banker of Savannah, Ga., was born Sept. 12, 1861, in Savannah, Ga. He is president of the Hibernia bank of Savannah.

O'Callaghan, Daniel J. M., publisher and lawyer of 53 Park row, New York City, was born June 12, 1855, in Worcester, Mass. He is editor and proprietor of the Political Liberty Herald.

Ochs, Adolph S., newspaper publisher of New York City, was born March 12, 1858, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1869 he began his career with the Knoxville Chronicle; and subsequently engaged in the publication of the Chattanooga City Directory. Since 1878 he has been proprietor of the Chattanooga Times. He now controls the New York Times, and the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Ochs, George Washington, journalist and publisher of Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 27, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been mayor of his city.

Ochsenford, Solomon E., clergyman and author of Montgomery, Pa., was born in Montgomery county, Pa. Since 1883 he has been editor of the Lutheran Church Almanac. He is the author of Luther's First Hymn Book and other works.

Ochsner, Albert John, physician, surgeon and author of 710 Sedgwick st., Chicago, Ill., was born April 3, 1858, in Baraboo, Wis. He is the author of Text-book of Clinical Surgery and other works.

Ochtman, Leonard, painter and artist of Cos Cob, Conn., was born Oct. 21, 1854, in Holland. Since 1882 he has regularly exhibited at the national academy of design.

Ockenden, Mrs. Ina Marie Porter, journalist, author and poet of 801 Monroe st., Montgomery, Ala. She has been editor of the Southern News.

Ockerson, John Augustus, soldier, civil engineer and author of 501 Clara ave., St. Louis, Mo., was born March 4, 1848, in Sweden. Since 1891 he has been United States commissioner on the improvement of the Mississippi river.

O'Connell, Jeffrey Conway, physician and author of Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 6, 1839, in Ireland. He has made a study of heraldry and genealogy. He is the author of The Irish in the Revolution and the Civil War.

O'Connell, John Joseph, educator and soldier of Ontario, Wash., was born Dec. 16, 1840, in Ireland. He served in the civil war and later in the Spanish-American war. In 1904 he was retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

O'Connell, Joseph Francis, lawyer and statesman of 13 Bowdoin st., Dorchester, Mass., was born Dec. 7, 1872, in Boston, Mass. In 1907-11 he was a member of congress.

O'Connell, Richard H., farmer and banker of Ihlen, Minn., was born May 14, 1857, in Janesville, Wis. He is president of the Farmers' Co-operative Stock company.

O'Connell, William Henry, clergyman and bishop of 25 Granby st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 8, 1859, in Lowell, Mass. He has been rector of the North American college at Rome.

O'Connor, Effie Scott, litterateur and author of 54 West Fifty-eighth st., New York City. She is the author of Tracings and other works.

O'Connor, Evangeline Maria Johnson, author and poet of 146 Frank st., Rochester, N.Y., was born in Rochester, N.Y. Since 1900 she has been manager of the state industrial school. She is the author of Index to Hawthorne's Works and other works.

O'Connor, Francis Joseph, lawyer and jurist of Johnstown, Pa., was born Aug. 11, 1860, in Conner, Pa. In 1902-12 he was judge of the district court.

O'Connor, Jeremiah, dramatist and author of 101 Second st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1873, in Washington, D.C. He is the author of The Bride of Lamermoor and other works.

O'Connor, John Joseph, clergyman and bishop of South Orange, N.J., was born June 11, 1855, in Newark, N.J. Since 1901 he has been Roman Catholic bishop at Newark, N.J.

O'Connor, John Francis Xavier, educator, clergyman and author of 803 West One Hundred and Eighty-first st., New York City, was born Aug. 1,1852, in New York City. He is the author of Reading and the Mind and other works.

O'Connor, William L., merchant of Indianapolis, Ind., was born July 26, 1866, in Madison, Ind. He spent ten years in Europe and on the continent. He is president of the M. O'Connor company, wholesale grocers.

O'Conor, Patrick H., banker of Peabody, Mass., was born in 1852, in Ireland. He has been president of the Peabody board of trade for twenty-four years. He is president of the Peabody Co-operation bank.

Oddie, Tasker Lowndes, lawyer, mine owner and statesman of Carson City, Nev., was born Oct. 24, 1870, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a successful lawyer, and is largely interested in ranching and stockraising. He is now governor of the state of Nevada.

O'Dea, Edward John, clergyman and bishop of 804 North ave., Seattle,Wash. In 1896 he became Roman Catholic bishop of Nesqually, Wash.

O'Dea, James, author of Rockville Centre, N.Y., was born Dec. 25, 1871, in Canada. He is the author of Opera Score and other works.

O'Dell, Benjamin Barker, business man and statesman of Newburgh, N.Y., was born Jan. 14, 1854, in Newburgh, N.Y. In 1895-99 he was a member of congress.

O'Dell, Daniel A.,banker of St. Paul,Minn., was born Aug. 4, 1875, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is president of the Wells National bank.

Odell, Jabez Theodore, railroad official of New York City, was born Dec. 20, 1847, in Twinsburg, Ohio. Since 1896 he has been vice-president of the Delaware and Northern railroad.

Odell, John J. P., banker and financier of Duluth, Minn., was born Aug. 19, 1847, in Eastport, Maine. He is president of the First National bank.

Odell, Willis Patterson, clergyman and author of Brookline, Mass., was born Dec. 14, 1855, in Laconia, N.H. He is the author of Ministries of Hope.

O'Donaghue, Denis, clergyman and bishop of 809 Brook st., Louisville, Ky., was born Nov. 30, 1848, in Davies county, Ind. In 1900 he was consecrated auxiliary and titular bishop of Pomario.

O'Donnell, James E.,lawyer and statesman of Lowell, Mass., was born Sept. 29, 1876, in Chelmsford, Mass. He has been a member of the Massachusetts house of representatives; and is now mayor of his city.

O'Donnell,Charles Leo, clergyman and poet of Notre Dame, Ind.,was born Nov. 15, 1884, in Greenfield, Ind. He is the author of The Prose of Francis Thompson.

O'Donnell, Daniel, rancher and banker of Grimes, Iowa, was born March 11, 1875, in Des Moines, Iowa. He is cashier of the Farmers' Savings bank.

O'Donnell, James, soldier, journalist and statesman of Jackson, Mich.,was born March 25, 1840, in Norwalk, Conn. He has been mayor of his city.

O'Donohue, Charles A., merchant of 88 Front st., New York City, was born Aug. 16, 1859, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is treasurer and director of the Analomink Paper company and a director of other corporations.

O'Donovan, William Rudolf, soldier, sculptor and artist of 590 Eagle ave., New York City, was born March 28, 1844, in Preston county, Va. He served in the civil war. His best known work is of William Page.

Oertel, Hanns, educator, philologist and author of New Haven, Conn., was born April 20, 1868, in Saxony. He is professor of linguistics and comparative philology at Yale university. He is the author of Lectures on the Study of Languages.

O'Fallon, John Julius,capitalist of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 6, 1840, in St. Louis, Mo. He is a director of the Merchants' Lacede National bank.

Ogden, David B., business manager of Boston, Mass., was born in Milwaukee, Wis. In 1894-1908 he was United States assitant engineer in Portland, Ore. Since 1908 he has been manager of the Christian Science publishing society, with headquarters in Boston, Mass.

Ogden, Edward F., merchant and public official of Glens Falls, N.Y., was born Dec.29, 1858, in Glens Falls, N.Y. He is county treasurer for Harrison county.

Ogden, George Washington, litterateur and author of Kansas City, Mo., was born Dec. 9, 1871, in Kansas. He is the author of Tennessee Todd.

Ogden, Henry Neely, educator, civil engineer and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born April 30, 1868, in Dexter, Maine. Since 1896 he has been professor of civil engineering at Cornell university. He is the author of Sewer Design.

Ogden, Howard Newton, educator, lawyer, founder and author of Chicago, Ill., was born April 16, 1864, in Worthington, W.Va. He is president of the college of law of Chicago, Ill. He is the author of A Method for Critical Study of English Literature.

Ogden, J. Edward, capitalist of 147 Cedar st., New York City. He is president of the American Oil and Belting company and other corporations.

Ogden, Jay Bergen, physician, chemist and author of Sharon, Mass.,was born Aug., 1868, in West Sparta, N.Y. Since 1894 he has been assistant of clinical pathology at Boston city hospital. He is the author of Clinical Examinations of the Urine and Urinary Diagnosis.

Ogden, Joseph W., banker and broker of 100 Broadway, New York City, was born April 28, 1853, in Chatham, N.J. He is a member of the New York stock exchange and the chamber of commerce. For several years he was engaged in the mercantile business and in 1881 founded the banking and brokerage house of J. W. Ogden and company, with which he was identified until 1896. He is now president of the Algonquin Coal company and other corporations.

Ogden, Octavius Nash, lawyer and author of New Orleans, La., was born Feb. 14, 1852, in New Orleans, La. He is the author of Dominic You and other works.

Ogden, Robert Curtis, merchant and author of 125 East Fifty-sixth st., New York City, was born June 20, 1836, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Getting and Keeping a Business Position and other works.

Ogden, Rollo, journalist and author of Summit, N.J., was born Jan. 19, 1856, in Sand Lake, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been editor of the New York Evening Post. He is the author of William Hickling Prescott, in the American Men of Letters Series.

Ogg, Frederic Austin, educator and author of Cambridge, Mass., was born Feb. 8, 1878, in Salsbury, Ind. Since 1902 he has been an instructor at the university of Indiana. He is the author of A Source Book of Mediaeval History and other works.

Ogilvie, Waverly W., stock farmer and banker of Lewisburg, Tenn., was born March 15, 1856, in Maury county, Tenn. He is president of the Security Bank and Trust company.

Oglesby, James Wood, lumberman of Quitman, Ga., was born May 11, 1857, in Marietta, Ga. He is president of the Oglesby Lumber and Manufacturing company.

Oglesby, Woodson Ratcliffe, lawyer and statesman of Yonkers, N.Y., was born Feb. 9, 1869, in Shelby county, Ky. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Oglivie, George E. W., publisher of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 18, 1860, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is president of George W. Oglivie and company.

O'Gorman, James A., lawyer and jurist of 318 West One Hundred and Eighth st., New York City, was born May 5, 1860, in New York City. In 1893-99 he was justice of the district court; and in 1900-13 was justice of the state supreme court.

O'Gorman, Thomas, clergyman, bishop and author of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born May 1, 1843, in Boston, Mass. Since 1896 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Sioux Falls. He is the author of A History of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

O'Grady, James M. E., lawyer and statesman of Rochester, N.Y., was born March 31, 1863, in Rochester, N.Y. In 1899-1901 he was a member of congress.

O'Hagan, Thomas, educator, lecturer, author and poet of 543 Wabash ave., Chicago, Ill., was born near Toronto, Canada. Since 1910 he has been editor of The New World of Chicago. He is the author of In Dreamland and other works.

O'Hair, Frank T., lawyer and statesman of Paris, Ill., was born March 12, 1870, near Paris, Ill. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

O'Hare, Mrs. Teresa Beatrice, traveler and author of 1924 East Eighty-fourth st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born in Dublin, Ireland. As director of foreign tours she has traveled through Europe many times, and is an authority on foreign travels. She is a member of the Ohio Women's Press club. She is the author of the Songs at Twilight.

O'Harnett, Morrison J., soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Carlyle, Ill., was born June 27, 1828, in Carlyle, Ill. He served in the civil war. He has been county judge.

Ohilger, Lewis P., business man and statesman of Wooster, Ohio, was born Jan. 3, 1843, in Bavaria. He has been internal revenue collector of Cleveland, Ohio.

Ohmann-Dumesnil, Amant Henry, journalist, physician and author of 5 South Broadway, St. Louis, Mo., was born Sept. 30, 1857, in Dubuque, Iowa. He is editor and proprietor of the St. Louis Medical and Surgical Journal. Since 1881 he has been a specialist in dermatology. He is the author of Handbook of Dermatology and other works.

Ohnmeiss, F. Robert, banker of Egg Harbor City, N.J., was born Jan. 1, 1846, in Germany. He is president of the Egg Harbor Commercial bank.

O'Kennedy, J. J. Karbry, lawyer and scholar of 99 Nassau st., New York City, was born May 24, 1862, in Ireland. He has received the degrees of A.M. and LL.D. Since 1894 he has been a member of the New York bar; and is a student of ecclesiastical history and dogma and mediaeval history. He is a director of the New York Pasteur institute and the New York bacteriological institute.

Olcott, Ben W., statesman of Salem, Ore., was born Oct. 15, 1872, in Keithsburg, Ill. He was connected with the Fairbank Banking company of Alaska.

Olcott, Chancellor John, singer and actor of Saratoga, N.Y., was born July 21, 1860, in Buffalo, N.Y. He has starred in Irish musical dramas.

Olcott, Eben Erskine, mining engineer of 38 West Thirty-ninth st., New York City, was born March 11, 1854, in New York City. He has traveled extensively in Mexico and South America, principally on mining business. He is president of the Hudson River day line; president of the Mary Powell Steamboat company; and a director in the Lincoln National bank, the Catskill Mountain Railway company and other corporations. He has been president of the American institute of mining engineers and president of the united engineering society.

Olcott, Jacob Van Vechten, lawyer and statesman of 26 Liberty st., New York City, was born May 17, 1856, in New York City. In 1905-11 he was a member of congress.

Olcott, R. Morgan, capitalist and mine owner of 27 William st., New York City, was born Jan. 20, 1861, in New Rochelle, N.Y. He is president of the Olcott Coal and Iron company and other corporations.

Olcott, William James, civil engineer and railroad president of Duluth, Minn.,was born Feb. 22, 1862, in Detroit, Mich. Since 1902 he has been president of the Duluth, Missabee and Northern Railroad company.

Oldberg, Oscar, educator, pharmacist and author of 7808 Union ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 22, 1846, in Sweden. Since 1886 he has been dean of pharmacy at the Northwestern university of Evanston, Ill. He is the author of Home Study in Pharmacy and other works.

Oldfield, William Allen, soldier, lawyer and statesman fo Batesville, Ark., was born Feb. 4, 1874, in Franklin, Ark. He served in the Spanish-American war. In 1909-11 he was a member of congress.

Oldham, George Ashton, clergyman of New York City, was born Aug. 15, 1877, in Sunderland, England. He received the degree of B.A. from Cornell university, and the degree of D.D. from the general theological seminary of New York City. Since 1909 he has been rector of St. Luke's church of New York City. He is a trustee of St. Luke's Home for Aged Women of New York City.

Oldham, John Baldwin, investment banker of 109 Field st., Dallas, Texas, was born March 17, 1862, in Collin county, Texas. He is a dealer in investment securities.

Oldroyd, Osborn H., curator and author of Washington, D.C., was born July 31, 1842, in Mount Vernon, Ohio. He is the author of Assassination of Abraham Lincoln and other works.

Olds, George Daniel, mathematician of Amherst, Mass., was born Oct. 14, 1853, in Middleport, N.Y. He has been professor of mathematics at the Rochester university. He is now president of the department of mathematics and dean of Amherst college of Massachusetts.

Olds, Joseph, lawyer and jurist of Circleville, Ohio, was born April 15, 1832, in Circleville, Ohio. He has been judge of the judicial district of Ohio.

Olds, Ransom Eli, manufacturer and banker of Lansing, Mich., was born June 3, 1864, in Geneva, Ohio. In 1887 he constructed and operated the first three-wheeled horseless carriage; in 1892 brought out a four-wheeled automobile; and in 1896 organized the Olds Motor Vehicle company. He is now president of the Reo Motor company; president of the Capitol National bank; and is owner of the Grand Rapids and Western Railroad and other corporations.

O'Leary, Denis, commissioner and statesman of Douglaston, N.Y., was born Jan. 22, 1863, in Manhasset, N.Y. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Oliver, Addison, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Onawa, Iowa, was born in 1833 in Washington county, Pa. In 1875-79 he was a member of congress.

Oliver, Arthur L., lawyer and statesman of Caruthersville, Mo., was born Jan. 5, 1879, in Cape Girardeau county, Mo. He is a member of the Missouri state legislature.

Oliver, Arthur W., merchant and banker of Courtland, Miss., was born May 21, 1838, in New Orleans,La. He is president of the Bank of Courtland.

Oliver, Charles Augustus, educator, physician, scientist and author of 1507 Locust st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Dec. 14, 1853, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the author of Correlation Theory of Color Perception and other works.

Oliver, George Tener, capitalist and statesman of 5522 Fifth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born Jan. 26, 1848, in Ireland. He is president of the Hainswortn Steel company. He has been United States senator.

Oliver, John, banker of Ekalaka, Mont., was born in 1872, in Missouri. He is cashier of the Ekalaka Commercial State bank.

Oliver, Mrs. Martha Capps, poet and author of 518 North Church st., Jacksonville, Ill., was born Aug. 27, 1845, in Jacksonville, Ill. She is the author of The Story of Columbus and other works.

Oliver, Paul Ambrose, soldier, manufacturer and inventor of Oliver's Mills, Pa., was born July 18, 1830. He is the inventor of a bayonet-fastening and a screw-headed key.

Oliver, Travis, banker of Monroe, La., was born in 1886 in Pennsylvania. He is cashier of the Central Savings Bank and Trust company.

Ollesheimer, Henry, banker of 1 Madison ave., New York City. He is president of the Metropolitan bank and a director of other corporations.

Olmstead, Charles Sanford, clergyman, bishop, author and poet of 2011 Lincoln ave., Denver, Colo., was born Feb. 8, 1853, in Olmsetedville, N.Y. He is the author of Discipline of Perfection and other works.

Olmsted, Charles Taylor, clergyman and bishop of Utica, N.Y., was born April 28, 1842, in Cohoes, N.Y. Since 1902 he has been Protestant Episcopal bishop of central New York.

Olmsted, E. Stanley, musician, pianist and author of New York City, was born Jan. 30, 1878, Murphy, N.C. He is the author of The Nonchalante and other works.

Olmsted, Frederick Law, educator and author of Brookline, Mass., was born July 24, 1870, in Staten Island, N.Y. Since 1903 he has been professor of landscape architecture at Harvard university. He is the author of Park System of the District of Columbia and other works.

Olmsted, John Bartow, lawyer and author of 183 Bryant st., Buffalo, N.Y., was born Jan. 28, 1854, at Le Roy, N.Y. Since 1884 he has been treasurer of the civil service reform association. He is the author of Trilby and other works.

Olmsted, John Charles, designer and landscape architect of Brookline, Mass., was born Sept. 14, 1852, in Geneva, Switzerland. He is president of the American society of landscape artists.

Olmsted, William Beach, educator of Pomfret, Conn., was born Feb. 26, 1864, in New York City. In 1887 he received the degree of A.B. from Trinity college; in 1908 received the honorary degree of A.M. from Yale university; and in 1910 the honorary degree of L.H.D. from Trinity college. In 1887-97 he was master of St. Mark's school of Southboro, Mass.; and since 1897 has been head master of the Pomfret school at Pomfret, Conn. In 1908 he was ordained deacon, and in 1909 was ordained a priest in the Protestant Episcopal church.

Olney, Richard, lawyer and statesman of 415 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born Sept. 15, 1835, in Oxford, Mass. He has been secretary of state.

Olney, Stephen, physician and surgeon of Sioux Falls, S.D., was born March 2, 1846, in Warren, Pa. He has been state medical examiner.

Olson, Edward, banker of Albert Lea, Minn., was born April 16, 1863, in Iowa county, Wis. He is president of the Citizens' National bank.

Olson, Ernst W., journalist and author of Chicago, Ill. He is the author of History of the Swedes of Illinois.

Olson, John M., merchant and capitalist of Litchville, N.D., was born March 2, 1859, in Norway. He is president of the First State bank.

Olson, Julius Emil, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born Nov. 9, 1858, in Cambridge, Wis. He is the author of Norwegian Grammar and Reader and other works.

Olson, Ole Gunirus, bank cashier of Porter, Minn., was born Sept. 26, 1873, in Pope county, Minn. He is cashier of the State bank of Porter.

Olson, W. F., public official of Price, Utah, was born May 26, 1870, in Fillmore, Utah. He was educated at the Brigham Young university of Utah. He is a successful business man and implement dealer of Price, Utah; and has been vice-president of the Price Commercial and Savings bank. He is identified with the democratic party; is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Modern Woodmen of America; and is now serving his second term of 1912-14 as mayor of his city.

Olssen, William Whittingham, educator, clergyman and author of Annandale, N.Y., was born May 11, 1827, in New York City. He is the author of Human and Divine and other works.

Olsson, Alexander, journalist and publisher of 30 Sharon st., San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 27, 1868, in Onsala, Sweden. He is proprietor of the West Coast Publishing company; for nearly twenty-five years he has been actively engaged in philanthropic work amongst the Swedes in California. He is editor and proprietor of Vestkusten, the oldest Swedish weekly on the Pacific coast.

Olston, Albert B., scientist and author of 405 East Taylor st., Portland, Ore., was born Nov. 25, 1868, in Manistee, Mich. He is the author of Mind Power and Privileges and other works.

Olston, H. I., banker of Lake Preston, S.D., was born Sept. 14, 1859, in Norway. He is president of the People's State bank of Bradley, S.D.

O'Malley, Austin, educator, oculist and author of 2228 South Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Oct. 1, 1858, in Pittston, Pa. Since 1905 he has been ophthalmologist at St. Agnes' hospital. He is the author of Thoughts of a Recluse and other works.

O'Malley, Frank Ward, journalist, illustrator and dramatist of 105 West Forty-third st., New York City, was born Nov. 30, 1876, in Pittston, Pa. Since 1907 he has been special writer for the New York Sun. He is the author of The Head of the House and other works.

O'Malley, John P., banker of Perry, Iowa, was born May 1, 1861, in Ireland. He is president of the People's Savings bank.

O'Meara, John Baptiste, retired contractor of St. Louis, Mo., was born June 22, 1850, in St. Louis, Mo. He has been president of the O'Meara Real Estate and Investment company and other corporations. He was paymaster general of the Missouri national guard; and has been lieutenant-governor of the state of Missouri.

O'Meara, Patrick, lawyer and jurist of West Bend, Wis., was born Feb. 27, 1845. He has been mayor of his city. Since 1902 he has been county judge.

Onahan, William James, lecturer, publicist and author of 47 Macalester place, Chicago, Ill., was born in Ireland. He served five terms as city collector of Chicago, was city comptroller in 1887-91, and jury commissioner in 1897-1900. He is president of the Home Savings bank. He has been president of the Chicago public library.

O'Neal, Edward Asbury, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Montgomery, Ala., was born in Madison county, Ala. He served in the civil war. He has been governor of Alabama.

O'Neal, Emmet, lawyer and statesman of Montgomery, Ala., was born Sept. 23, 1855. He has been United States attorney for the northern district of Alabama. In 1901 he was a member of the Alabama constitutional convention; and in 1892-1908 he was state elector-at-large. He is now governor of the state of Alabama.

O'Neal, John F., merchant and banker of Henderson, Tenn., was born March 17, 1880, in Henderson, Tenn. He is president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank.

O'Neil, Charles, naval officer of Washington, D.C., was born March 15, 1842, in England. He served in the civil war. He has been chief of the naval bureau of ordnance with the rank of rear-admiral.

O'Neil, Henry Edward, lumberman and banker of St. Regis Falls, N.Y., was born March 19, 1876, in St. Regis Falls, N.Y. In 1902-07 he was president of the Watson Page Lumber company. Since 1905 he has been president of the St. Regis Falls National bank.

O'Neil, Joseph Henry, banker and statesman of Boston, Mass., was born March 23, 1853, in Fall River, Mass. He graduated from the Quincy grammar school of Boston. He was a carpenter for ten years, and for eight years was engaged in the mercantile business. Since 1899 he has been president of the Federal Trust company of Boston. He is also vice-president of the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance company. In 1878-84 he was a member of the Massachusetts state legislature; and in 1889-95 was a member of congress. In 1885-99 he was assistant United States treasurer at Boston.

O'Neil, James, actor of New London,Conn., was born Oct. 14, 1849, in Ireland. He starred in the Three Muscateers.

O'Neill, Arthur B., author and poet of Notre Dame, Ind., was born Sept. 1, 1858, in St. George, New Brunswick, Canada. He was educated at Laval university and at Notre Dame university, and has received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. He is the author of Between Whiles, poems; The Cross and The Flag and other works. In 1894 and 1895 he made European tours; is a confirmed pedestrian; and is called the poet-priest-pedestrian.

O'Neill, Edward, banker and statesman of Milwaukee, Wis. He has been president of the Merchants' Exchange bank; and has been mayor of his city.

O'Neill, Eugene Brady, lawyer of Phoenix, Ariz., was born April 21, 1869, in Virginia. He has been a representative in the state legislature. He is president and attorney of the Palomas Land and Development company.

O'Neill, Eugene M., publisher and capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born in 1850 in Wexford, Ireland. He is vice-president of the Dispatch Publishing company and a director of corporations.

O'Neill, Thomas Lantry, clergyman and chaplain of 2630 Ridge road, Berkeley, Cal., was born Aug. 13, 1874, in Massena, N.Y. He was educated at the Georgtown university, St. Thomas college and the Catholic university of America, and has received the degrees of A.B. and D.D. In 1901 he joined the Paulist order; and since 1907 has been chaplain of Newman Hall, university of California at Berkeley.

Opdale, Nellis Mann, educator, missionary and lecturer of New Lisbon, Wis., was born May 17, 1860, in New Lisbon, Wis. She has been state lecturer of the Wisconsin women's suffrage association.

Opdyke, George Howard, lawyer and financier of 110 West Fortieth st., New York City, was born in 1867, New York City. He has received the degrees of Ph.B., M.A. and Ph.D. He is president of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company; president of the Rector Gas Light company;and president of the New South Mining and Development company.

Opdyke, Stacy B., civil engineer and contractor of 1931 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1851, in Camden, N.J. He has been vice-president of the Levering and Garrigues company.

Operti, Albert, illustrator, sculptor and artist of 65 West Thirty-sixth st., New York City, was born March 17, 1852, in Italy. His best known painting is Finding DeLong in the Lena Delta.

Opie, Eugene Lindsay, pathologist and author of Larchmont manor, N.Y., was born July 5, 1873, in Staunton, Va. Since 1904 he has been pathologist at the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research of New York City. He is the author of Diseases of the Pancreas.

Opie, Thomas, soldier, physician, surgeon and founder of 14 West Franklin st., Baltimore, Md., was born May 14, 1842, in Martinsburg, Va. He served in the civil war. Since 1893 he has been professor of Gynecology in the college of physicians and surgeons.

Opp, Frederick, lawyer, public official and diplomat of Breslau,Germany, was born Jan. 15, 1863, in Montgomery, Ala. In 1893 he was appointed United States consul at Breslau, Germany.

Oppenheim, Ansel, financier of St. Paul, Minn., was born Jan. 5, 1847, in New York City. He is vice-president of the Interstate Investment company.

Oppenheim, Nathan, physician and author of Ferrisburg, Vt., was born Oct. 17, 1865, in Albany, N.Y. He is the author of Care of the Child in Health and other works.

Oppenheimer, Francis J., journalist and author of 310 West One Hundred and Fiftieth st.,New York City, was born March 23, 1881, in New York City. He has made a special study of the Jews of Gratia, New York; and has written extensively on their temples, philanthropies, wealth and success. He is the author of The Reign of the Negative and other works.

Oppenheimer, Solomon, lawyer and jurist of 172 East Seventy-ninth st., New York City. He is justice of the city municipal court for the term of 1909-19.

Opper, Frederick Burr, artist and author of Stanford, Conn., was born Jan. 2, 1857, in Madison, Ohio. He is the author of Happy Hooligan and other works.

Orahood, Harper M., lawyer and statesman of Denver, Colo., was born June 3, 1841, in Columbus, Ohio. He has been city attorney and postmaster of Blackhawk; and city attorney of Central City and of Denver. He is past department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic; and in 1895 was colonel on the staff of Governor McIntire.

Oram, Robert Hale, educator, business man and statesman of Bristol, Maine, was born May 2, 1849, in Bristol, Maine. He has been a representative in the state legislature.

Orcutt, Calvin B., capitalist and shipbuilder of 1 Broadway, New York City, was born Sept. 5, 1847, in Wyoming, N.Y. He is president of the Newport News Light and Water company and other corporations.

Orcutt, Charles Russell, botanical collector and author of San Diego, Cal., was born April 27, 1864, in Hartland, Vt. He is the author of West American Scientist, and American Plants. He has devoted thirty years to the Flora of California and Mexico, and has just completed the third volume of American Plants.

Orcutt, William Dana, publisher and author of 333 Commonwealth ave., Boston, Mass., was born April 18, 1870, in West Lebanon, N.H. He is vice-president and general manager of the University Press of Cambridge,Mass. He is the author of The Flower of Destiny and other works.

Ordway, Samuel Hanson, lawyer of 27 William st., New York City, was born June 8, 1860, in New York City. He is a member of the law firm of Spencer, Ordway and Wierum.

O'Rear, Edward Clay, lawyer and jurist of Mount Sterling, Ky., was born Feb. 2, 1863, in Montgomery county, Ky. He has been chief justice of the Kentucky court of appeals.

O'Reilly, Charles J., clergyman and bishop of Baker City,Ore. Since 1903 he has been Roman Catholic bishop of Baker City, Ore.

O'Reilly, Daniel, statesman of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 3, 1838, in Ireland. In 1879-81 he was a member of congress.

O'Reilly, Mary Boyle, founder and author of Jamaica Plain, Mass., was born May 18, 1873, in Boston, Mass. She is the founder of the Guild of St. Elizabeth. Since 1906 she has been prison commissioner for Massachusetts.

O'Reilly, Peter J., clergyman and bishop of Peoria Ill. In 1900 he was consecrated Roman Catholic auxiliary bishop of Peoria, Ill.

O'Reilly, Robert Maitland, physician and surgeon of Washington, D. C., was born Jan. 14, 1845, in Philadelphia Pa. He served in the Spanish-American war and attained the rank of chief surgeon.

Orem, Frank Milon, capitalist of Salt Lake City, Utah, was born Sept. 26, 1874, in Ray county, Mo. He practiced law for several years. He is president of the Mason and Douglass Construction company.

Orendorff, Ulysses Grant,manufacturer and banker of Canton, Ill., was born Sept. 15, 1865, in Canton. He has been engaged in the manufacturing business since 1886. He is president of the First State bank of Canton.

Orlay, George Boal, lawyer and jurist of Huntingdon, Pa., was born Feb. 22, 1850, in Petersburg, Pa. Since 1895 he has been judge of the superior court of Pennsylvania.

Orman, James Bradley,capitalist and statesman of Pueblo, Col., was born Nov. 4, 1849, in Muscatine, Iowa. He is president of the Consolidated mines, Ouray, Col. He has been mayor of his city; and in 1901-02 he was governor of Colorado.

Ormond, Alexander Thomas, educator and author of 109 Alexander st., Princeton, N.J., was born April 26, 1847, in Punxsutawney, Pa. He is McCosh professor of philosophy in Princeton. He is the author of Basal Concepts in Philosophy.

Ormrod, George, manufacturer of Emaus, Pa., was born July 13, 1839, in Preston, Lancashire, England. Since 1883 he has been manager, treasurer and director of the Donaldson Iron company, of which he is president; and since 1897 has been vice-president of the Lehigh Portland Cement company. He is a trustee of the Allentown hospital.

Ormsbee, Ebenezer Jolls, banker and statesman of Brandon, Vt., was born June 8, 1834, in Shoreham, Vt. In 1861 he was admitted to the practice of law. He served in the civil war in the twelfth Vermont infantry and attained the rank of captain. He has been state's attorney; a member of the assembly and state senate; lieutenant-governor and governor of his state in 1886-88.

Orndorff, William Ridgely, educator,chemist and author of Ithaca, N.Y., was born Sept. 9, 1862, in Baltimore, Md. Since 1902 he has been professor of organic and physiological chemistry at Cornell university. He is the author of Laboratory Manual of Organic Chemistry.

Ornes, Frederick, journalist and publisher of Mount Vernon, Wash., was born March 30, 1871, in Manitowoc, Wis. He is the editor and publisher of the Mount Vernon Argus. He has been president of the Washington state press association.

Orr, Alexander Ector, merchant and capitalist of 102 Remsen st., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born March 2, 1831, in Ireland. He is president of the New York chamber of commerce.

Orr, Charles Sumner, librarian and author of Cleveland, Ohio, was born Jan. 8, 1858, in Cedarville, Ohio. He has been president of the Ohio library association. He has edited History of the Pequot War and other works.

Orr, George Henry, lumberman and banker of Manistique, Mich., was born in 1845 in New York. He is president of the Manistique bank.

Orr, Grier M., lawyer and jurist of St. Paul, Minn., was born May 14, 1856, in Pike Furnace, Pa. In 1894-1902 he was judge of the municipal court of St. Paul; and since 1903 has been district judge.

Orr, James W., lawyer and statesman of Atchison, Kan., was born Sept. 14, 1858. For twenty-four years he was general attorney for the Missouri Pacific railway. He has been a member of the Kansas state legislature; and for six years was mayor of his city. He is now special attorney-general in the United States department of justice, assigned to the trial of anti-trust cases at Atchison.

Orr, Lyle William, banker of Mercer, Pa., was born June 15, 1867, in Fredonia, Pa. He is president of the Fredonia National bank.

Orrison, Robert Allison, lawyer and public official of Huntingdon, Pa., was born Jan. 31, 1849, in Huntingdon, Pa. He has been chief burgess of his city.

Orth, Bertrand, clergyman and bishop of 109 Yates st., Victoria, B.C., Canada, was born Dec. 5, 1848, in Germany. In 1903 he was consecrated archbishop of Vancouver island.

Orth, John, musician and composer of 45 Lanark road, Brookline, Mass., was born Dec. 2, 1850, in Bavaria, Germany. He is the author of thirty published compositions.

Orth, Samuel P., educator, lawyer and author of 2053 East One Hundred and Second st., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Aug. 1, 1873, in Capac, Mich. Since 1905 he has been assistant United States attorney. He is the author of Five American Politicians and other works.

Orthwein, William D., grain merchant and financier of St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 9, 1841, in Wurtemburg, Germany. He is president of the William D. Orthwein Grain company.

Ortiz, Hilario Leo, lawyer and linguist of San Francisco st., Santa Fe., N.M., was born Nov. 3, 1861, in Santa Fe, N.M. In 1879 he graduated from St. Michael's college of Santa Fe, N.M. He speaks English, Spanish, Latin and French; has been interpreter to the legislature of New Mexico almost continuously for twenty-five years; and was chief interpreter to the constitutional convention.

Ortmann, Arnold Edward, curator, zoologist and author of 1411 Wightman st., Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 8, 1863, in Prussia. He is curator of the invertebrate zoology, Carnegie museum. He is the author of works in German and English.

Orton, Edward, manufacturer and chemist of Columbus, Ohio, was born Oct. 8, 1863, in Chester, N.Y. He was the first person in the United States to regularly manufacture high silicon alloy of iron.

Orton, William, government official and business president of New York City, was born June 14, 1826, in Cuba, N.Y. He has been president of the Western Union Telegraph company of New York City.

Orvis, Ellis Lewis, lawyer and jurist of Bellefonte, Pa., was born Nov. 16, 1857, in Lock Haven, Pa. He is president of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company.

O'Ryan, P. Shelly, lecturer of 127 North Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., was born July 27, 1859, in Ireland. For two terms he has been a member of the Chicago board of education. He is a lecturer on travel and educational subjects.

Osborn, Bradley Sillick, journalist, lecturer, artist and author of 132 East Twenty-third st., New York City, was born Aug. 16, 1827, in Rye, N.Y. He is the author of A Sailor of Fortune and other works.

Osborn, Chase Salmon, journalist and public official of Sault Saint Marie, Mich., was born Jan. 22, 1860, in Huntington county, Ind. He is editor of the Saginaw Courier and Herald. He is the author of The Andean Land.

Osborn, E. E., railroad official of New York City, was born May 1, 1854, in Norwalk, Conn. In 1901-1911 he was vice-president and secretary of the Chicago and Northwestern railway.

Osborn, Frank Chittenden, civil engineer, bridge architect and author of 8117 Hough ave., Cleveland, Ohio, was born Dec. 18, 1857, in Greenfield, Mich. Since 1900 he has been president of the Osborn Engineering company. He is the author of Tables of Moments of Inertia Squares of Radii of Gyration.

Osborn, Henry Fairfield, explorer, educator, palaeontologist and author of New York City, was born in 1857 in Connecticut. Since 1891 he has explored the western United States. He is the author of From the Greeks to Darwin.

Osborn, Herbert, educator, entomologist and author of 485 King ave., Columbus, Ohio, was born March 19, 1856, in Lafayette, Wis. He has been state entomologist of Iowa. He is the author of Insects Affecting Domestic Animals and other works.

Osborn, James Whitehill, lawyer and capitalist of Kalamazoo, Mich., was born Feb. 10, 1843, in Sherman, N.Y. He is president of the Kalamazoo Ice and Fuel company.

Osborn, R. H., physician and surgeon of Calumet, Mich., was born June 27, 1823, in North Bloomfield, Ohio. He is vice-president of the Merchants and Miners' bank.

Osborn, William H., banker and farmer of Pawling, N.Y., was born May 23, 1851, in Quaker Hill, N.Y. He is vice-president of the Pawling Savings bank.

Osborne, Arthur Dimon, lawyer and banker of New Haven, Conn., was born April 17, 1828, in Fairfield, Conn. He is vice-president of the Second National bank; and has been a member of the state legislature.

Osborne, Edward William, clergyman, bishop and author of Springfield, Ill., was born Jan. 5, 1845, in Calcutta, India. Since 1904 he has been Protestant Episcopal bishop for the diocese of Springfield, Ill. He is the author of The Children's Faith and other works.

Osborne, George Abbott, educator, scientist and author of 249 Berkeley st., Boston, Mass., was born Dec. 21, 1839, in Danvers, Mass. Since 1905 he has been Walker professor of mathematics at the Massachusetts institute of technology. He is the author of Examples of Different Equations and other works.

Osborne, John Ball, lawyer, diplomat and author of 2116 Conn. ave., Washington, D. C., was born Jan. 24, 1868, in Wilkesbarre, Pa. Since 1905 he has been chief of the bureau of trade relations in the United States department of state.

Osborne, John E., physician and statesman of Rawlins, Wyo., was born June 19, 1864, in Westport, N.Y. In 1897-99 he was a member of congress.

Osborne, Louis Shreve, clergyman and musician of Newark, N.J., was born in 1845, in Salem, Mass. Since 1890 he has filled a pastorate in Newark, N.J.

Osborne, Oliver Thomas, educator and physician of 252 York st., New Haven, Conn., was born Nov. 14, 1862, in New Haven, Conn. He has been president of the New Haven county medical association.

Osborne, Samuel Duffield, lawyer and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born June 20, 1858, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the author of The Robe of Nessus and other works.

Osborne, Thomas Burr, chemist and author of 52 Trumbull st., New Haven, Conn., was born Aug. 5, 1859, in New Haven, Conn. Since 1886 he has been chemist of the Connecticut agricultural experiment station. He is the author of Protens of the White Kernel.

Osborne, Thomas Mott, manufacturer and journalist of Auburn, N.Y., was born Sept. 23, 1859, in Auburn, N.Y. He is editor-in-chief of the Auburn Citizen.

Osbourne, Lloyd, civil engineer and author of New York City, was born April 7, 1868, in San Francisco, Cal. He has been United States vice-consul to Samoa. He is the author of The Ebb Tide and other works.

Osgood, Edward Louis, retired banker of 221 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 6, 1844, in Fryeburg, Me. He is a member of the firm of J. R. Osgood and company.

Osgood, George Laurie, musician, composer and author of London, England, was born April 3, 1844, in Chelsea, Mass. He is the author of Guide in the Art of Singing.

Osgood, Herbert Levi, educator and author of 526 West One Hundred and Fiftieth st., New York City, was born April 9, 1855, in Canton, Maine. Since 1895 he has been professor of history at Columbia university. He is the author of The American Colonies in the Seventeenth Century.

Osgood, Mrs. Irene, playwright and author of Guilsborough hall, Northampton, England, was born in Virginia. She has been president of various philanthropic societies. She is the author of An Idol's Passion; The Chant of a Lonely Soul; To a Nun Confess'd; Stories from the Buhl Cabinet; A Book of Verse; A Mother in Dreams and other works.

Osgood, John Cleveland, merchant, railroad president and founder of Redstone, Colo., was born March 6, 1851, in Brooklyn, N.Y. He has been president of the Crystal River railroad.

Osgood, William Fogg, educator, mathematician and author of 74 Avon Hill st., Cambridge, Mass., was born March 10, 1864, in Boston, Mass. Since 1903 he has been professor of mathematics at Harvard university. He is the author of Integra Calculus and other works.

O'Shaughnessy, Nelson, second secretary of the American embassy, Mexico, was born Feb. 12, 1876, in New York City. He was educated at Georgetown university, D.C.; and at Oxford university. He has been secretary of legation at Copenhagen; second secretary of embassy at St. Petersburg and at Vienna; and is now second secretary of embassy at the American embassy, Mexico.

O'Shaunessy, George F., lawyer and statesman of Providence, R.I., was born May 1, 1868, in Ireland. In 1911 he became a member of congress.

O'Shea, John J., editor and author of 211 South Sixth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born in 1841, in Cork, Ireland. He is editor-in-chief of the Catholic Standard and Times of Philadelphia. He is the author of Biography of Archbishop Kenrick and other works.

O'Shea, Michael Vincent, educator and author of Madison, Wis., was born Sept. 17, 1866, in Le Roy, N.Y. Since 1897 he has been professor of the science and art of education at the university of Wisconsin.

Osius, George, publisher and manufacturer of Detroit, Mich., was born Nov. 14, 1859, in Berncastel, Germany. He is vice-president of H. W. Rickel and company. Since 1900 he has been commissioner of the Detroit public library, and was its president in 1906.

Osler, William, physician, educator and author of 13 Norham Gardens, Oxford, England, was born in 1849, in Ontario, Canada. He is the author of Clinical Notes on Small-Pox and other works.

Osmer, James H., lawyer and statesman of Franklin, Va., was born Jan. 22, 1833, in England. In 1879-81 he was a member of congress.

Osmun, Gilbert R., soldier and journalist of Detroit, Mich., was born Oct. 8, 1845, in Newark, N.J. He is manager of the Safe Deposit company.

Ostenberg, William H., banker of 1313 Farnam st., Omaha, Neb., was born Oct. 19, 1870, in Wisconsin. He is president of the First National bank of Bayard.

Ostenson, Lewis, farmer and writer of Oconomowoc, Wis., was born Feb. 10, 1852, in Dodge county, Wis. He has been editor of the patrons' department of the Cheese and Dairy Journal of Whitewater, Wis.

Oster, Frank Frederick, lawyer and jurist of San Bernardino, Cal., was born June 31, 1860, in Sparta, Wis. Since 1907 he has been judge of the superior court.

Osterhaus, Peter Joseph, soldier, manufacturer and diplomat of Mannheim, Germany, was born Jan. 4, 1823, in Germany. He served in the civil war. He has been United States consul at Mannheim, Germany.

Ostrander, Fannie Eliza, educator, poet and author of New Haven, Conn., was born in North Haven, Conn. She is the author of When Hearts are True and other works.

Ostrander, Russell Cowles, lawyer and jurist of Lansing, Mich., was born Sept. 1, 1851, in Ypsilanti, Mich. Since 1905 he has been an associate justice of the state supreme court.

Ostrom, Henry, evangelist, hymn writer and author of Greencastle, Ind., was born Sept. 19, 1862. He is the author of Replete Religion and other works.

Ostrom, Kurre Wilhelm, masseur and author of 112 North Sixteenth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born July 6, 1865, in Sweden. He is the author of Massage and the Original Swedish Movements.

Oswald, Amandus, merchant and banker of Freeland, Pa., was born Feb. 3, 1857, in Lynnport county, Pa. He is president of the First National bank.

Oswald, Edward Harden, banker of Allendale, S.C., was born Oct. 15, 1855, in Hampton county, S.C. He is president of the Allendale bank.

Otero, Miguel Antonio, banker and statesman of Santa Fe, N.M., was born Oct. 17, 1859, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1897-1906 he was governor of New Mexico.

Otis, Charles Eugene, lawyer and jurist of St. Paul, Minn., was born in 1846 in Prairieville, Mich. In 1890-96 he was a judge of St. Paul, Minn.

Otis, Edward Osgood, physician of 301 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 29, 1848, in Rye, N.H. His specialty is diseases of the lungs and climatology. He founded the tuberculosis department of the Boston dispensary; and is its senior physician. He has been president of the American climatological association; and president of the Boston association for the relief and control of tuberculosis.

Otis, Harrison Gray, soldier and journalist of Los Angeles, Cal., was born Feb. 10, 1837, in Marietta, Ohio. In 1879-82 he was United States treasury agent in charge of the Seal Islands of Alaska.

Otis, John Grant, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Topeka, Kan., was born Feb. 10, 1838, in Danby, Vt. In 1891-93 he was a member of congress.

Otis, Theron Payson, banker of 112 Jefferson st., Wellsville, N.Y., was born Feb. 13, 1839, in Bath, N.Y. In 1895 he organized the Citizens' National bank of Wellsville, and was its first president, now being vice-president.

Otis, William Augustus, capitalist of Colorado Springs, Col., was born Sept. 14, 1864, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was educated at Yale university. He is president of the Utah Ice and Storage company; treasurer of the Arkansas, Louisville and Gulf railway; and director of the First National bank of Colorado Springs and other corporations.

Otis, William Eaton, banker of San Diego, Cal., was born March 29, 1852, in Framingham, Mass. Since 1900 he has been president of the Winfield National bank of Kansas; and since 1910 has been president of the Bank of Commerce of Udall, Kan. Since 1911 he has been vice-president of the University Avenue bank of San Diego, Cal., and president of the Chula Vista State bank.

Otjen, Theobold, lawyer and statesman of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Oct. 27, 1851, in West China, Mich. In 1895-1907 he was a member of congress.

Otken, Charles H., educator, clergyman, college president and author of Jackson, Miss., was born Feb. 26, 1839, in New Orleans, La. Since 1894 he has been president of the McComb female institute of Mississippi. He is the author of The Ills of the South.

Ott, Edward Amherst, educator, lecturer and author of 1318 Twenty-seventh st., Des Moines, Iowa, was born Nov. 27, 1867, in Youngstown, Ohio. He is dean of the Drake university college of oratory and English at Des Moines, Iowa.

Ott, Isaac, physician, physiologist and author of Easton, Pa., was born Nov. 30, 1847, in Northampton county, Pa. Since 1894 he has been professor of physiology at the Medico-chirurgical college of Philadelphia, Pa. He is the author of Action of Medicines and other works.

Ott, Michael, clergyman, educator and scholar of Collegeville, Minn., was born March 18, 1870, in Bavaria, Germany. He completed his classical, philosophical and theological studies at St. John's university of Collegeville, pursued a post-graduate course in Rome, and in 1895-1911 was prefect of studies and professor of philosophy in that university. Since 1911 he has been a sub-prior of St. John's abbey.

Ottley, John King, banker of Atlanta, Ga., was born June 15, 1868, in Columbus, Miss. He is vice-president of the Fourth National bank.

Outcault, Richard Felton, comic artist of Flushing, N.Y., was born Jan. 14, 1863, in Lancaster, Ohio. Since 1905 he has been on the staff of the New York Journal.

Outerbridge, Albert Albouy, journalist and lawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., was born April 20, 1841, in Bermuda. In 1885 he became the trust officer of the Land Title and Trust company of Philadelphia.

Ovall, John, journalist, clergyman and lecturer of Georgetown, Texas, was born Jan. 28, 1863, in Sweden. He founded and edited the Gospel Herald.

Ovenmyer, David, educator and lawyer of St. Louis, Mo., was born May 1, 1847, in Pickaway county, Ohio. In 1893 he was appointed a delegate to the Pan-American bimetallic congress of St. Louis, Mo.

Ovenshine, Samuel, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born April 2, 1843, in Pennsylvania. In 1898 he was appointed brigadier-general of the United States volunteers and was retired in 1899.

Over, James Watson, soldier, lawyer and jurist of Pittsburgh, Pa., was born April 11, 1848, in Clarion county, Pa. He served in the civil war. Since 1881 he has been associate judge in the Allegheny county orphans' court.

Overall, George Whittfield, physician and author of Memphis, Tenn., was born Dec. 31, 1849, in Murfreesboro, Tenn. He is the author of Non-surgical Treatise on Diseases of the Prostate Gland and Adnexa.

Overall, John W., banker of Nashville, Tenn., was born Feb. 7, 1855, in Liberty, Tenn. He is president of the Bank of Liberty.

Overman, Eugene Vernon, manufacturer and banker of Cincinnati, Ohio, was born Jan. 31, 1860, in Overman, Ohio. He is vice-president of the West End Bank and Trust company.

Overman, Lee Slater, lawyer and statesman of Salisbury, N.C., was born Jan. 3, 1854, in Salisbury, N.C. He has been president of the Salisbury Savings bank; and has been a United States senator.

Overmeyer, Benjamin Franklin, physician and banker of Leiter's Ford, Ind., was born March 27, 1856, in Lindsey, Ohio. He is president of the Leiter's Ford bank.

Overmeyer, George William, physician,surgeon and lecturer of Raymond, Wash., was born Jan. 7, 1863, in Pulaski county, Ind. He is a graduate of the leading colleges; and has taught school in Indiana and Washington. He is president of the Willapa Harbor hospital and school for nurses; and served several years as a member of the Washington state board of medical examiners. He has been president of the Chehallis and Pacific county medical society. He is a lecturer on Grant, the American Soldier and other civil war topics; and possesses a large collection of relics of the civil war; a gallery of pictures of Washington, Lincoln and Grant; and a library of one thousand books on civil war subjects.

Overshiner, Ellsworth B., manufacturer of 1760 East Ravenswood Park ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Jan. 14, 1867, in Elwood, Ind. He is president and treasurer of the Swedish-American Telephone company; and president, treasurer or director of other corporations.

Overstreet, Jesse, lawyer and statesman of Indianapolis, Ind., was born Dec. 14, 1859, in Franklin, Ind. In 1895-1909 he was a member of congress.

Overton,Edward,soldier, lawyer and statesman of Towanda, Pa., was born Feb. 4, 1836, in Towanda, Pa. In 1877-81 he has been a member of congress.

Overton, Gilbert Edmond, soldier of Los Angeles, Cal., was born March 18, 1845, in New York City. He served throughout the civil war. He attained the rank of captain; and in 1891 was retired from active service.

Overton, Gwendolen, author of 2827 Harvard blvd., San Francisco, Cal., was born Feb. 19, 1876, in Fort Hays, Kans. She is the author of The Heritage of Unrest and other works.

Overton, James Bertram,educator and botanist of Madison, Wis., was born Dec. 23, 1869, in Richmond, Mich. He has received the degrees of Ph.B. and Ph.D. Since 1904 he has been an instructor, assistant professor and associate-professor of botany, and since 1912 associate-professor of plant physiology, in the university of Wisconsin. He is the author of Physiology of Vascular Plants and other monographs.

Owen, Allison, architect of New Orleans, La., was born in New Orleans, La. He designed the New Orleans public library and a number of churches.

Owen, David C., postmaster of Milwaukee, Wis., was born Dec. 14, 1865, in Milwaukee. Since 1906 he has been postmaster of his city.

Owen, Francis Browning, lawyer and poet of Berrien Springs, Mich., was born in October, 1830, in Macomb county, Mich. He is the author of The Legend of Winona and other works.

Owen, Luella Agnes, geologist and scientist of 306 North Ninth st., St. Joseph, Mo., was born in St. Joseph, Mo. She is a member of the international congresses of geography and geology, the American geographical society, the national geographical society, the forestry association, and is a fellow of the American association for the advancement of science. She has traveled extensively, and in 1900 made a tour around the world. She has made valuable researches on the evidence of early man in the Missouri river valley and kindred subjects.

Owen, Mary Alicia, litterateur and author of St. Joseph, Mo., was born Jan. 29, 1858, in St. Joseph, Mo. She is the author of Ole Rabbit's Plantation Stories and various other works.

Owen, Robert Latham, lawyer, banker and statesman of Muskogee, Ind., was born Feb. 2, 1856, in Lynchburg, Va. In 1909-1913 he was a member of the United States senate.

Owen, Thomas McAdory, lawyer, bibliographer and author of Montgomery, Ala., was born Dec. 15, 1866, in Jonesboro, Ala. He is the author of City Code of Bessemer, Ala., and other works.

Owen,Wesley M., lawyer, jurist and statesman of Bloomington, Ill., was born Aug. 17, 1869, in Covell, Ill. He has been city attorney of Le Roy, Ill., and has been a member of the Illinois state legislature.

Owen, Wilber Allen, lawyer and author of 2471 Glenwood ave., Toledo, Ohio, was born June 30, 1873, in Detroit, Mich. He is the author of Questions and Answers on Pleading and other works.

Owen, William D., clergyman, statesman and author of Logansport, Ind., was born Sept. 6, 1846, in Bloomington, Ind. In 1885-91 he was a member of congress.

Owen, William Frazer, railroad official of Mobile, Ala., was born March 31, 1865, at Mobile, Ala. Since 1912 he has been president of the New Orleans, Mobile and Chicago railroad.

Owen, William Henry, capitalist of 4379 Washington boul., St. Louis, Mo., was born Feb. 3, 1840, in Kent, England. He has been president of the Bank of Lebanon, Mo.

Owen, William Henry, clergyman of Mount Vernon, N.Y., was born Oct. 11, 1874, in New York City. He graduated from Yale university with the degrees of B.A. and M.A.; and from the general theological seminary of New York City with the degree of B.D. Since 1906 he has been rector of Trinity church of Mount Vernon. He has traveled extensively in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Owens, D. T.,banker and investment broker of Bismarck, N.D., was born in 1871. He is president of the Dogden State bank.

Owens, Mrs. Frances E., educator, journalist and author of Sidney, N.Y., was born May 4, 1843, in Sidney, N.Y. She is the author of Mrs. Owens' Cook Book and other works.

Owens, Michael Joseph, inventor and manufacturer of Toledo, Ohio, was born Jan. 1, 1859, in Mason county, W.Va. In 1903 he organized the Owens Bottle and Machine company.

Owens, William Claiborne, lawyer and statesman of Georgetown, Ky., was born Oct. 17, 1849, in Scott county, Ky. In 1895-97 he was a member of congress.

Owst, Wilberfoss George, musician, organist and composer of 340 North Charles st., Baltimore, Md., was born June 13, 1861, in London, England. He is the author of Communion Service in A, and other works.

Oxnard, Benjamin A., business president of 1730 Palmer ave., New Orleans, La., was born Dec. 10, 1855, in New Orleans, La. He is president of the Adeline Sugar Factory company.

Pablo, Ocampo De Leon, educator and federal official of Manila, P.I., was born in 1853 in Manila, P.I. He has been counsel to the economic association of the Philippines.

Pabot, William Edgar, journalist, author and poet of Denver, Col., was born May 31, 1834, in Harlem, N.Y. He has been president of the Colorado state editorial association.

Pace, Samuel G., public official of Mount Airy, N.C., was born March 29, 1848, in Henry county, Va. In 1905-08 he was mayor of his city.

Packard, Burdett Aden, stock raiser and miner of Douglas, Ariz., was born Nov. 1, 1848, in Portville, N.Y. He was a member of congress; and is now president of the First National bank of Douglas, Ariz.

Packard, Charles Stuart Wood, banker of 517 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born June, 1860, in Philadelphia, Pa. He is president of the Pennsylvania company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities.

Packard, Edwin, vice-president of 32 Broadway, New York City, was born in 1840 in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president and director of the Federal Mining and Smelting company.

Packard, Francis B., physician and author of Philadelphia, Pa., was born March 23, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1901-06 he was editor of the American Journal of the Medical Sciences. He is the author of History of Medicine in America.

Packard, James Ward, manufacturer and inventor of Warren, Ohio, was born Nov. 1, 1863, in Warren, Ohio. Since 1897 he organized and was made president of the Packard Motor Car company. He is the inventor of the Packard car.

Packard, John Bond, farmer, wool dealer and banker of Conway, Mass., was born Feb. 22, 1837, in Conway, Mass. He is president of the Conway National bank.

Packard, N. Luther, clergyman and evangelist of Riceville, Iowa, was born Dec. 31, 1851, in Brockton, Mass. He has been state superintendent of the Iowa Congregational churches.

Packard, Stephen B., soldier, lawyer, federal official and statesman of Marshalltown, Iowa, was born April 25, 1839, in Auburn, Maine. In 1878-85 he was United States consul to Liverpool.

Packard, Winthrop, journalist and author of 6 Beacon st., Boston, Mass., was born March 7, 1862, in Boston, Mass. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of The Young Ice Whalers.

Packer, Horace Billings, lawyer and statesman of Wellsboro, Pa., was born in Wellsboro, Pa. In 1897-1901 he was a member of congress.

Paddack, Henry, banker of Nantucket, Mass., was born April 7, 1838, in Nantucket, Mass. He is president of the Pacific National bank.

Paddock, Robert Lewis, clergyman and bishop of Baker City, Ore., was born Dec. 24, 1869, in Brooklyn, N.Y. In 1907 he was consecrated bishop of eastern Oregon.

Padgett, Lemuel Phillips, lawyer and statesman of Columbia, Tenn., was born Nov. 28, 1855, in Columbia, Tenn. In 1901-11 he was a member of congress.

Padilla, Camilo, journalist and publisher of Santa Fe, N.M., was born July 17, 1865, in Santa Fe, N.M. He was educated at St. Michael's college of his native city. He learned the printer's trade and for awhile published El Mosquito in Mora, N.M. In 1887 he went to Washington as private secretary to Hon. Antonio Joseph, and lived there until 1895. In 1895-97 he was Spanish translator at the surveyor-general's office at Santa Fe, N.M. Since 1907 he has been editor and publisher of Revista Ilustrada. He has taught Spanish, and has twice translated the laws of New Mexico.

Page, Benjamin, underwriter and capitalist of 11 North Colony st., Meriden, Conn. He is a member of the firm of Page and Pardee. He has been mayor of his city.

Page, Calvin, lawyer and banker of 19 Middle st., Portsmouth, N.H., was born Aug. 22, 1845, in North Hampton, N.H. He is president of the New Hampshire National bank.

Page, Carroll Smalley, merchant, banker and statesman of Hyde Park, Vt., was born Jan. 10, 1843, in Westfield, Vt. He is president of the Lamoille County National bank.

Page, Charles Edward, soldier, physician and author of 120 Fremont st., Boston, Mass., was born Feb. 23, 1840, in Norridgewock, Maine. He is the author of How to Treat the Baby and other works.

Page, Charles Harrison, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Providence, R.I., was born July 19, 1843, in Gloucester, R. I. In 1891-95 he was a member of congress.

Page. Curtis Hidden, educator, author and poet of Hanover, N.H., was born April 4, 1870, in Greenwood, Mo. He is adjunct professor of romance languages and literatures in Columbia university of New York City.

Page, Edward Day, merchant of 58 Worth st., New York City, was born May 10, 1856, in Haverhill, Mass. He is president of the South Orange and Maplewood Traction company.

Page, Henry Hitcomb, manufacturer and capitalist of Fitchburg, Mass., was born Jan. 30, 1846, in Albany, N.Y. He is vice-president and superintendent of the George W. Wheelwright Paper company.

Page, Inman E., educator and college president of Norman, Okla., was born Dec. 2, 1853, in Warrenton, Va. Since 1898 he has been president of the agricultural and normal university of Oklahoma.

Page, James Morris, educator and author of University, Va., was born March 4, 1864, in Sylvania, Va. Since 1900 he has been professor of mathematics at the university of University. He is the author of Ordinary Differential Equations.

Page, John Henry, soldier of Fort Sheridan, Ill., was born March 26, 1842, in New Castle, Del. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of major in 1863. In 1903 he retired as brigadier-general of the United States army.

Page, Logan Waller, civil engineer and author of 2223 Massachusetts ave., Washington, D.C., was born Jan. 10, 1870, in Richmond, Va. Since 1905 he has been director of United States public roads, department of agriculture; and president of the American highway association. He is the author of The Testing of Road Materials; and Roads, Paths and Bridges.

Page, Moses Swasey, merchant and banker of 1 Salem st., Boston, Mass., was born July 3, 1838, in Haverhill, N.H. He is president of the Melrose Savings bank.

Page, Robert Newton, lumberman and statesman of Biscoe, N.C., was born Oct. 26, 1859, in Cary, N.C. In 1903-1911 he was a member of congress.

Page, Samuel Davis, lawyer and financier of 281 South Fourth st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born Sept. 22, 1840, in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1886 he was appointed assistant treasurer of the United States at Philadelphia. Since 1891 he has been director of the Quaker City National bank.

Page, Thomas Nelson, lawyer and author of 1759 R st., Washington, D.C., was born April 23, 1853, in Oakland, Va. He is the author of In Old Virginia and various other works.

Page, Walter Hines, journalist of Garden City, N.Y., was born Aug. 15, 1855, in Cary, N.C. In 1887 he became manager and stockholder of the Forum. He is the author of The Rebuilding of Old Commonwealths.

Page, William Harlan, insurance manager of 149 Broadway, New York City, was born April 27, 1836, in Branford, Conn. In 1852-59 he was a student and clerk in a pharmacy and in 1859-62 conducted a retail store in Brooklyn. Since 1865 he has been general agent for the metropolitan district of the equitable life assurance society; and is a member of its board of managers.

Page, William Nelson, civil and mining engineer and banker of Ansted, W.Va., was born Jan. 6, 1854, in Campbell county, Va. He is president of the Gauley Mountain Coal company.

Paige, Allan Wallace, lawyer, capitalist and statesman of 60 Wall st., New York City, was born Feb. 24, 1854, in Sherman, Conn. In 1893 he settled in Bridgeport, Conn.; is president of the Derby Rubber company of Connecticut; president of the Nazareth Cement company of Pennsylvania; and a director in various corporations. He has been a member of the house of representatives, was speaker in 1891; and in 1905 was elected a member of the state senate.

Paige, Calvin DeWitt, manufacturer and banker of Southbridge, Mass., where he was born May 20, 1848. He is president of the Central Mills company.

Paige, Charles L., merchant and poet of Pontiac, Ill., was born Dec. 9, 1859, in Pontiac, Ill. He is the author of a volume of poems entitled The White Shoshone.

Paige, John Edwards, corporation official of Southbridge, Mass., was born Nov. 30, 1878, in Southbridge, Mass. He is treasurer of the Central Mills company.

Pailor, Isaac Newton, educator and author of Richmond Hill, N.Y., was born Feb. 9, 1851, in Lima, Ohio. Since 1898 he has been principal of the Richmond Hill high school. He is the author of Inventional Geometry.

Paine, Albert Bigelow, journalist and author of Redding, Conn., was born July 10, 1861, in New Bedford, Mass. He is the editor of St. Nicholas magazine. He is the author of The Mystery of Evelyn Delorme and other works.

Paine, Arthur Richards, physician of 379 Washington ave., Brooklyn, N.Y., was born in Holden, Mass. He is president of the professional staff of the Brooklyn hospital.

Paine, Charles Jackson, general, director and yachtsman of Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 26, 1833, in Boston, Mass. He graduated from Harvard with the degrees of A.B. and A.M.; and until 1861 was engaged in the practice of law. He served throughout the civil war; and in 1865 was brevetted major-general of volunteers. For many years he was a director of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and other railroads. He became sole owner of the Puritan; and in 1886 built the Mayflower; and in 1888 the New York yacht club presented him with a silver cup as a memento of his triple defense of the cup.

Paine, Harriet Eliza, educator and author of Boston, Mass., was born May 5, 1845, in Rehoboth, Mass. She is the author of Girls and Women and other works.

Paine, John Alsop, educator, archaeologist and author of Tarrytown, N.Y., was born Jan. 14, 1840, in Newark, N.J. Since 1889 he has been curator in the Metropolitan museum of art in New York. He is the author of Handbook of Sculptural Plaster Casts and Bronze Reproductions in the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Paine, John Augustus, lumber dealer and banker of Danielson, Conn., was born March 13, 1850, in Woodstock, Conn. He is president of the Windham County Savings bank; and has been a state representative and a probate judge.

Paine, Nathaniel, banker of Worcester, Mass., was born Aug. 6, 1832, in Worcester, Mass. Since 1898 he has been president of the National bank of Worcester.

Paine, Nathaniel Emmons, physician, neurologist and inventor of West Newton,Mass., was born July 14, 1853, in New Hartford, N. Y. He has been superintendent of the Westborough insane hospital of Westborough, Mass.

Paine, Ralph Delahaye, journalist and author of Durham, N.H., was born Aug. 28, 1871, in Lemont, Ill. Since 1906 he was an associate editor of the Outing Magazine. He is the author of The Praying Skipper and other works.

Paine, William Alfred, banker of 82 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born June 29, 1855, in Merrimacport, Mass. He is president of the Baltic Mining company.

Paine, Willis Seaver, banker and author of 334 Fifth ave., New York City, was born Jan. 1, 1848, in Rochester, N.Y. He is president of the Consolidated National bank of New York City. He is the author of Paine's Banking Laws and other works.

Painter, Franklin Verzelius Newton, educator and author of Salem, Va., was born April 12, 1852, in Hampshire county, Va. Since 1882 he has been professor of modern languages in Roanoke college. He is the author of An Ancient History and other works.

Palen, Rufus James, banker of 339 San Francisco st., Santa Fe, N.M., was born Jan. 13, 1843, in Hudson, N.Y. He is president of the First National bank.

Pallen, Conde Benoist, journalist and poet of New Rochelle, N.Y. For ten years he edited the Church Progress and Catholic World of St. Louis; and since 1885 has been in the lecture field. He is the author of The Philosophy of Literature and other works.

Palmer, Abraham John, soldier, clergyman and author of 150 Fifth ave.,New York City, was born Jan. 18, 1847, in Frenchtown, N.J. He is the editor of World Wide Missions. He is the author of History of the Forty-eighth Regiment of New York State Volunteers.

Palmer, Alexander Mitchell, statesman of Stroudsburg, Pa., was born May 4, 1872, in Moosehead, Pa. He is a director of the Stroudsburg National bank and other corporations.

Palmer, Mrs. Anna Campbell, author and poet of Elmira, N.Y., was born Feb. 3, 1854, in Elmira, N.Y. She is the author of The Summerville Prize; Little Brown Seed and other works.

Palmer, Archie Emerson, journalist and public official of 59 Ocean ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Jan. 13, 1853, in Winterton, N. Y. Since 1898 he has been secretary of the New York City board of education. He is the author of The New York Public School.

Palmer, Mrs. Bertha Honore, social leader of 1366 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, Ill., was born in 1855 in Louisville, Ky. In 1900 she was one of the commissioners to the Paris exposition.

Palmer, Charles, lawyer of 12 East Fifth st., Chester, Pa., was born July 9, 1863, in Concord township, Pa. Since 1890 he has been a notary public.

Palmer, Charles James, clergyman and author of Lanesboro, Mass., was born Nov. 4, 1854, in Fairfield, Maine. He is the author of a History of Lanesboro, Lenox and Otis, Mass.

Palmer, Charles Skeele, educator and college president of 23 Park place, Newtonville, Mass., was born Aug. 4, 1858, in Danville, Ill. In 1902-03 he was president of the Colorado school of mines.

Palmer, Cornelius Solomon, soldier, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Burlington, Vt., was born Nov. 2, 1844, in Underhill, Vt. He was judge advocate general for Dakota in 1885.

Palmer, Edward Hale, manufacturer and banker of 246 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1848 in New Bedford, Mass. He is president of the Carter, Rice and Company corporation.

Palmer, Fanny Purdy, author and poet of New York City, was born July 11, 1839, in New York City. In 1894 she was appointed state inspector of factories and workshops. She is the author of A Dead Level and other works.

Palmer, Frederic, clergyman and author of Andover, Mass., was born Aug. 6, 1848, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Studies in Theologic Definition and The Drama of the Apocalypse.

Palmer, Mrs. George Archibald, educator, journalist and author of Buffalo, N.Y., was born Feb. 3, 1854, in Elmira, N. Y. She has been correspondent of the Buffalo Illustrated Express. She is the author of the Summerville Prize; Lady Gay and other works.

Palmer, George Herbert, educator and author of 11 Quincy st., Cambridge, Mass., was born March 9, 1842, in Boston, Mass. Since 1889 he has been Alford professor of natural religion and moral philosophy at the Harvard university. He is the author of The Odyssey; The New Education and other works.

Palmer, George M., miller and banker of Mankato, Minn., was born Nov. 17, 1853, in Clayton, Wis. He is president of the First National bank.

Palmer, John, merchant and philanthropist of 312 West One Hundred and Second st., New York City, was born April 25, 1858, in Liverpool, England. He has been second lieutenant of the national volunteer emergency service medical corps.

Palmer, John Campbell, lawyer, editor and banker of Wellsburg, W.Va., was born Sept. 30, 1868 in Brooke county, W.Va. He is president of the Wellsburg National bank.

Palmer, Mrs. Lucia A., artist and author of Park Hill-on-Hudson, N.Y., was born in Dryden, N.Y. She is the author of Grecian Days; and Oriental Days.

Palmer, Millard Fillmore, banker of Upland, Cal., was born July 26, 1863, in Monroe county, Iowa. He is president of the Automatic Household Filter company.

Palmer, Minnie, actress of New York City, was born March 3, 1865, in Philadelphia, Pa. She has attained a national reputation as a successful actress.

Palmer, Theodore Sherman, naturalist and author of 1939 Biltmore st., Washington, D. C., was born Jan. 26, 1868, in Oakland, Cal. In 1896-1902 he was assistant chief of the biological survey. He is the author of Jack Rabbits of the United States and other works.

Palmer, Thomas Chalkley, chemist and author of Media, Pa., was born Oct. 23, 1860, in Media, Pa. Since 1882 he has been engaged as a chemist with the American dye wood company of Chester, Pa. He is the author of Botanical Studies in the Botanical Gazette and other works.

Palmer, Thomas Waverly, educator and college president of Montevallo, Ala., was born May 19, 1860, in Furman, Ala. Since 1907 he has been president of the Alabama girls' industrial school of Montevallo.

Palmer, Walter Launt, painter and artist of 5 Lafayette st., Albany, N.Y., was born Aug. 1, 1854, in Albany, N.Y. In 1887 he received the second Hallgarten prize for his painting of January. Among his work are An Editor's Study and other works.

Palmtag, William, merchant and banker of Hollister, Cal., was born Oct. 23, 1847, in Emmendingen,Baden, Germany. For twenty-four years he was a wholesale wine-merchant; and then sold his vineyards and wholesale business. He is president of the First National bank of Hollister, president of the Hollister Savings bank, and president of the Hollister creamery. For twenty years he has been treasurer of the Hollister fire department and is town trustee and president of the board.

Paltsits, Victor Hugo, librarian and historian of 1855 Morris ave., New York City, was born July 12, 1867, in New York City. He has studied German, Latin, Greek, Spanish and French. In 1888-1907 he was connected with Lenox library of New York City and in 1907-11 was state historian of New York. Since 1911 he has been associated with I. N. Phelps Stokes on extension work, The Iconography of Manhattan Island, 1609-1909. He has been president of the New York library club and vice-president of the New York historical association. He is the author of several bibliographical works.

Pammel, Louis Hermann, educator, botanist, scientist and author of Ames, Iowa, was born April 19, 1862, in La Crosse, Wis. Since 1889 he has filled the chair of botany in the Iowa state college of agriculture and mechanic arts. He is the author of Flower Ecology and other works.

Pancoast, Henry Spackman, educator, lawyer and author of Germantown,Pa., was born Aug. 24, 1858, in Germantown, Pa. He is the author of Representative English Literature and other works.

Pancoast, John L., lawyer and jurist of Alva,Okla. Since 1902 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Oklahoma.

Pangborn, Frederic Warden, journalist and poet of Jersey City, N.J., was born March 7, 1855, in St. Albans, Vt. He is managing editor of the Evening Journal of Jersey City. He is the author of Alice; Perdida and other works.

Pangborn, Mrs. Georgia Wood, author of Caldwell, N.J., was born Aug. 29, 1872, in Malone, N.Y. She is the author of Roman Biznet.

Panting, James Augustus, soldier, lumberman and miner of Baker City, Ore., was born April 1, 1861, in Gloucester, England. Since 1904 he has held the rank of lieutenant in the Oregon national guard.

Pape, Eric, painter and artist of Boston, Mass., was born Oct. 17, 1870, in San Francisco, Cal. In 1898 he founded and is director and head instructor of the Eric Pape school of art of Boston.

Paquin, Paul, physician and author of Asheville, N.C., was born June 23, 1860, in Canada. He is superintendent of the Oakland Heights sanitarium of Asheville. He is the author of The Supreme Passions of Man and other works.

Pardee, Don A., soldier and jurist of New Orleans, La., was born March 29, 1837, in Wadsworth, Ohio. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of brigadier-general of the United States volunteers. Since 1881 he has been judge of the United States circuit court.

Pardee, George Cooper, physician and statesman of Oakland, Cal., was born July 25, 1857, in San Francisco, Cal. In 1903-07 he was governor of the state of California.

Pardee, Israel Platt, banker and capitalist of Hazelton, Pa., was born in 1852, in Hazleton, Pa. He is president of the Hazleton National bank and a director of other corporations.

Pardoe, Frank Hiles, banker of Wausau, Wis., was born Feb. 17, 1868, in Iowa. He is president of the Ingram State bank.

Paret, Jahial Parmly, journalist and author of 4 West One Hundred and Eighth st., New York City, was born Oct. 3, 1870, in Bergen Point, N.J. He has been editor of the New York Sun, Tribune, Herald and Times. He is the author of Lawn Tennis Annual and other works.

Paret, Thomas Dunkin, manufacturer and inventor of Stroudsburg, Pa., was born Dec. 20, 1837, in New York City. Since 1867 he has been president of the Tanite company at Stroudsburg, Pa.

Paris, John W., real estate operator of 1123 Broadway, New York City, was born in Indiana. He is secretary, treasurer and director of the Woodside Heights Land Corporation and other corporations.

Parish, Aaron Smith, educator and founder of Grand Rapids, Mich., was born Dec. 28, 1841, in Farmer, N.Y. He has been proprietor of the business college of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Parish, Legrand, railroad president of New York City, was born April 13, 1868, in Friendship, N.Y. Since 1910 he has been president of the American Arch company.

Parish,Randall, journalist, lawyer and author of Alpha, Ill., was born June 10, 1858, in Henry county, Ill. He has been manager of country papers in Nebraska and Illinois. He is the author of When Wilderness Was King and other works.

Park,Ambrose Berry,merchant of 17 South Main st., Adrian, Mich., was born Nov. 12, 1852, in Adrian, Mich. He is vice-president of the Lenawee County Savings bank.

Park, Byron B., lawyer and jurist of Stevens Point, Wis., was born Oct. 6, 1858, in Stevens Point, Wis. He has been mayor of his city; and judge of the county court.

Park, Milton, soldier, journalist and college president of 53 Jefferson st., Dallas, Texas, was born Jan. 1, 1846, in Augusta, Ga. He is editor and proprietor of the Southern Mercury of Dallas, Texas.

Park, Orville Augustus, lawyer and bank official of Macon, Ga., was born March 11, 1872, in Greenville, Ga. He is attorney and director of the American National bank and other corporations.

Park, Richard A.,banker of Atchison,Kan., was born Jan. 10, 1873, in Atchison, Kan. He is vice-president of the Atchison Savings bank.

Park, Samuel Thomas, railroad president of St. Louis, Mo., was born March 31, 1868. Since 1913 he has been president of the Monarch Pneumatic Tool company.

Park, William Hallock, educator,physician and author of 315 West Seventy-sixth st., New York City, was born in 1863 in New York City. He is professor of bacteriology and hygiene at the university of New York. He is the author of Pathogenic Micro-organisms.

Park, William Lee, railroad official of Chicago, Ill., was born Aug. 6, 1859, in Ovid, Mich. Since 1912 he has been vice-president of the Illinois Central railroad.

Parker, Abraham X., lawyer and statesman of Potsdam, N.Y., was born Nov. 14, 1831, in Granville, Vt. In 1881-89 he was a member of congress.

Parker, Alexis Dupont, railroad official of Denver, Col., was born July 26, 1859, in Wilmington, Del. Since 1905 he has been vice-president of the Colorado and Southern railroad.

Parker, Alton Brooks, lawyer and statesman of 37 Wall st., New York City, was born May 12, 1852, in Cortland, N.Y. In 1877 he became surrogate of Ulster county, New York; and in 1885 became a justice of the state supreme court of New York, resigning in 1904 as chief judge of court of appeals of New York. In 1904 he was nominated for president of the United States, but was defeated by President Roosevelt. In 1906 he became president of the American bar association.

Parker, Amasa, soldier, lawyer and statesman of Albany, N.Y., was born May 6, 1843, in Delhi, N.Y. He has been a member of congress.

Parker, Augustin Hamilton, banker and broker of 60 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 9, 1875, in Lynn, Mass. He is a member of the firm of Hunt, Saltonstall and company.

Parker, Mrs. Bessie Chandler, journalist and author of Batavia, N.Y., was born in 1856 in Batavia, N.Y. She is the author of A Woman Who Failed.

Parker, Bowdoin S., soldier, lawyer and statesman of 31 Milk st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 10, 1841, in Conway, Mass. He served as a member of the state legislature. He retired with the rank of colonel.

Parker, C. M., educator, journalist and founder of Taylorville, Ill., was born Sept. 17, 1860, in Wilkes county, N.C. He is the founder, editor and owner of the School News of Taylorville, Ill.

Parker, Carmi M., capitalist of Fitchburg, Mass., was born Aug. 8, 1835, in Merrimack, N.H. He is a director of the Fitchburg National bank.

Parker, Clarence Fairleigh, railroad official of Chicago, Ill., was born Feb. 14, 1865, in Charleston, Ill. He is vice-president of the Illinois Central railroad and Central of Georgia railway.

Parker, Cuthbert, banker and stock raiser of Julesburg, Col., was born Aug. 21, 1870, in Gardner, Ill. He is president of the First National bank; and has been a representative in the state legislature.

Parker, Daingerfield, soldier of Washington, D.C., was born in New Rochelle, N.Y. He served in the civil war. In 1904 he was promoted to the rank of brigadier-general of the United States army.

Parker, Edmund M., lawyer of 131 State st., Boston, Mass., was born Aug. 15, 1856, in Cambridge. Since 1905 he has been lecturer on administrative law at Harvard college.

Parker, Edmund Southard, banker of 1738 Connecticut ave., Washington,D.C., was born in 1839 in Mifflintown, Pa. He was one of the organizers and later president of the Columbia National bank of Washington, D. C.; became president of the National Metropolitan bank; and since 1912 has been president of the Union Savings bank. He has contributed valuable papers on financial subjects to current publications.

Parker, Edward Frost, educator and physician of Charleston, S.C., was born Dec. 16, 1867, in Charleston, S.C. He is professor of diseases of the eye and ear in the medical college of the state of South Carolina.

Parker, Edward Melville, clergyman and bishop of Concord, N.H., was born July 11, 1855, in Cambridge, Mass. In 1906 he was consecrated Protestant Episcopal coadjutor bishop of New Hampshire.

Parker, Edward Wheeler, federal official and author of 2252 Cathedral ave., Washington, D.C., was born June 16, 1860, in Port Deposit, Md. He is an expert special agent of the twelfth census of the United States.

He is the author of Production of Coal in the United States and other works.

Parker, Edwin Pond, clergyman, author and poet of 47 Buckingham st., Hartford, Conn., was born Jan. 13, 1836, in Castine, Maine. He is the author of Book of Praise and other works.

Parker, Fletcher Andrew, musician and director of 14 West Gilman st., Madison, Wis., was born Dec. 26, 1842, in Lodi, Medina county, Ohio. He attended the Northwestern university and the Western Union college; and served in the civil war from private to first lieutenant. In 1868 he graduated from the Boston school of music; subsequently taught in Boston and Brooklyn and in Bloomington, Ill., and in 1875 was appointed dean of the college of music in the Illinois Wesleyan university. Since 1878 he has been identified with the university of Wisconsin; and became director of its school of music, and is now emeritus professor of music. He is honorary president of the Wisconsin music teachers' association. In connection with others he is the author of a number of music books for use in churches and Sunday schools.

Parker, Frances, litterateur and author of Detroit, Mich., was born Jan. 17, 1875, in Deerfield, Mich. She is the author of Marjie of the Lower Ranch and Hope Hathaway.

Parker, Frank Wilson, lawyer and jurist of Las Cruces, N.M., was born Oct. 16, 1860, in Sturgis, Mich. Since 1898 he has been associate-justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

Parker, Frederick Wesley, banker and broker of 70 State st., Boston, Mass., was born May 9, 1864, in Boston, Mass. He is a partner of the firm of Clement, Parker and company.

Parker, George Alsdorf Faulkner, banker of Hereford, Texas, was born Nov. 6, 1861, in Oakdale, Mo. He is president of the Western National bank.

Parker, George Frederick, journalist, diplomat and author of 120 Broadway, New York City, was born Dec. 30, 1848, in Lafayette, Ind. In 1893-98 he was United States consul to Birmingham, England. He is the author of Life of Grover Cleveland and other works.

Parker,George Henderson, lawyer and banker of Cullman, Ala., was born Sept. 17, 1852, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been a representative in the state legislature; and has been mayor of his city. He is president of the Parker Bank and Trust company.

Parker, George M., soldier of Sac City, Iowa, was born March 3, 1847, in Rockford, Ill. He served in the civil war, and is now major in the fifty-sixth infantry Iowa national guard.

Parker, George Washington, railroad president of St. Louis, Mo., was born in August, 1836, in Springfield, Ill. He is president of the Union Trust company of St. Louis.

Parker, H. S., lawyer and jurist of Frankfort, Ky. Since 1908 he has been an associate justice of the supreme court of Kentucky.

Parker, Herschel Clifford, electrical engineer and author of Brooklyn, N.Y., was born July 9, 1867, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Since 1890 he has been instructor in physics in Columbia university. He is the author of A Systematic Treatise on Electrical Measurements and other works.

Parker, Hilon Adelbert, soldier and railroad president of 10340 Longwood ave., Chicago, Ill., was born Dec. 30, 1841, in Plessis, N.Y. He has been vice-president and general manager of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway.

Parker, Horatio William, musician and composer of New Haven, Conn., was born Sept. 15, 1863, in Auburndale, Mass. He is the author of A Wanderer's Psalm and other works.

Parker, Hosea W., lawyer and statesman of Lempster, N.H., was born May 30, 1833, in Lempster, N.H. In 1871-75 he was a member of congress.

Parker, Isaac T., governor of Wilmington, Del. In 1905-09 he was governor of Delaware.

Parker, Ivan Bryan, physician, surgeon and banker of Hill City, Kan., was born July 11, 1871, in Iowa. He is president of the Graham County State bank.

Parker, James A., banker and broker of Brookline, Mass., was born in 1869, in Williamsport, Pa. He is a member of the firm of Charles Head and company.

Parker, James Cutter Dunn, musician and author of Brookline, Mass., was born June 2, 1828, in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Life of Man and other works.

Parker, James Henry, soldier, physician, merchant and banker of 18 East Sixty-ninth st., New York City, was born Jan. 4, 1843, in Johnston county N.C. In 1891 he was made president of the United States National bank.

Parker, James S., farmer and statesman of Salem, N.Y., was born June 3, 1867, in Great Barrington, Mass. In 1913 he became a member of congress.

Parker, James W., lumber merchant, manufacturer and banker of 390 Commercial st., Portland, Maine, was born July 30, 1850, in Hampden, Maine. He is a director of the Chapman National bank.

Parker, Mrs. Jane Marsh, litterateur and author of Rochester, N.Y., was born June 16, 1836, in Milan, N.Y. She is the author of The Morgan Boys and other works.

Parker, John Henry, soldier, lawyer, inventor and author of Washington, D.C., was born Sept. 19,1866, in Tipton, Mo. He served in the Spanish-American war. He is the author of Gatlings at Santiago and other works.

Parker,Joseph Benson, naval officer of 4425 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., was born on June 20, 1841, in Carlisle, Pa. He served in the civil war; and in 1903 was retired with the rank of rear-admiral.

Parker, Julia Augusta Jones, social leader of New York City, was born in Charleston, S.C. She has been president of the New York chapter of the United States confederacy.

Parker, Junius, lawyer of 111 Fifth ave., New York City, was born in 1867, in Smithfield, N.C. He was educated in the academies and law department in the university of North Carolina. For five years he practiced law in Durham, and in 1899 moved to New York City to become assistant general counsel of the American Tobacco company, becoming in 1912 its general counsel. He is a stockholder of the American Tobacco company and other corporations.

Parker, Leonard Fletcher, soldier, educator, statesman and author of Grinnell, Iowa, was born Aug. 3, 1825, in Arcade, N.Y. He served in the civil war and attained the rank of lieutenant. He is the author of History of Education in Iowa.

Parker, Lewis Wardlaw, manufacturer and banker of Greenville, S.C., was born July 11, 1865, in Abbeville, S.C. In 1888-97 he was a member of the law firm of Haynsworth and Parker; is now president of the bank of Greers; president of the Parker Cotton Mills company; and vice-president of the Piedmont Savings and Investment company. He has been president of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association.

Parker, Luman F., lawyer and jurist of Vinita, Okla. Since 1906 he has been judge of the United States district court.

Parker, Myron Melvin, banker and financier of 1418 F st., Washington, D.C., was born in 1843, in Fairfax, Vt. He is president of the Alaska Banking and Safe Deposit company.

Parker, Percy, banker of Lowell, Mass., was born March 4, 1857, in Dracut, Mass. He is president of the Middlesex Safe Deposit and Trust company.

Parker, Richard Wayne, lawyer and statesman of Newark, N.J., was born on Aug. 6, 1848, in Newark, N.J. In 1895-1911 he was a member of congress.

Parker, Walter Abraham, merchant and banker of Wood Lake, Neb., was born Oct. 29, 1858, in Carlisle, Iowa. He is president of the Citizens' State bank.

Parker, Walter Edward, manufacturer, engineer and banker of 217 Haverhill st., Lawrence, Mass., was born Sept. 27, 1847, in Princeton, Mass. He is president of the Essex Savings bank.

Parker, Walter Matthew, banker of Manchester, N.H., was born July 18, 1850, in Manchester, N.H. He is vice-president of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance company.

Parker, William Gordon, artist and author of Arkansas City, Kan., was born in 1875, in Clifton, N.J. He is the author of Six Young Hunters and other works.

Parker, Winthrop, lawyer of 206 Broadway, New York City, was born on June 10, 1857, in Ware, Mass. He is a member of the association of the bar of the city of New York.

Parkes, Mrs. Elizabeth Robins, writer and author of Sussex, England, was born in Louisville, Ky. She is the author of The Convert and other works.

Parkhill, Charles Breckinridge, lawyer, jurist and statesman of Tallahassee, Fla., was born June 23, 1859, in Tuscawilla, Fla. He is an associate justice of the supreme court of Florida.

Parkhurst, Charles Henry, clergyman and author of 133 East Thirty-fifth st., New York City, was born April 17, 1842, in Framingham, Mass. He is author of The Blind Man's Creed and other works.

Parkhurst, Christopher Francis, lawyer and jurist of 54 Barnes st., Providence, R.I., was born Sept. 17, 1854, in Providence, R.I. Since 1905 he has been associate justice of the state supreme court.

Parkhurst, Howard Elmore, musician and author of Englewood, N.J., was born Sept. 13, 1848, in Ashland, Mass. He is the author of How to Name the Birds and other works.

Parkinson, Daniel Baldwin, educator and college president of Carbondale, Ill., was born Sept. 6, 1845, in Madison county, Ill. Since 1898 he has been president of the southern Illinois state normal university.

Parkinson, John, banker of 53 State st., Boston, Mass., was born in 1842, in Jamaica Plain, Mass. He is vice-president of the West End Street Railway company.

Parkman, Henry, lawyer and banker of 36 Temple place, Boston, Mass., was born May 23, 1850, in Boston, Mass. He is vice-president of the real estate exchange and auction board.

Parks, Brodie W., physician and banker of Bourbon, Ind., was born Nov. 27, 1851, in Bourbon, Ind. He is president of the Bourbon Banking company.

Parks, Edward Lamay, educator, clergyman and college president of Washington, D. C., was born Jan. 26, 1851, in Dundee, N.Y. Since 1907 he has been professor of economics at Howard university.

Parks, Leighton, clergyman and author of 343 Madison ave., New York City, was born on Feb. 10, 1852, in New York City. Since 1904 he has filled a pastorate in New York City. He is the author of His Star in the East and other works.

Parks, Marvin McTyeire, educator and college president of Milledgeville, Ga., was born Nov. 29, 1872, in Marietta, Ga. Since 1905 he has been president of the Georgia state normal and industrial college.

Parks, Oren B., merchant and banker of Westfield, Mass., was born Dec. 28, 1846, in Montgomery, Mass. He is president of the O. B. Parks company.

Parks, Samuel Conant, banker of Landers, Wyo., was born May 15, 1859, in Auburn, Ill. He is president of the First National bank.

Parlin, Albert Norton, manufacturer of 18

Congress st., Boston, Mass., was born in September, 1848, in Malden, Mass. He is vice-president of the library bureau.

Parmele, Henry Marvin, banker of Holcomb, N.Y., was born Jan. 26, 1864, in West Bloomfield, N.Y. He was cashier and a member of the firm of Hamlin and company, bankers. He is president of the Hamlin National bank.

Parmele, Mrs. Mary Platt, historian and author of 58 West Forty-seventh st., New York City, was born July 14, 1843, in Albany, N.Y. She is the author of Christian Science and other works.

Parmentier, Fernand, architect of Los Angeles, Cal., was born May 28, 1865, in Paris, France. He was architect for the Sheridan club house, and the Hyde Park club house and other buildings in Chicago. Since 1894 he has lived in Los Angeles, and designed the Cambria, Union, Murray, Comstock and other apartment buildings in that city. Since 1904 he has been secretary of the American institute of architects.

Parola, Maria, lecturer and author of 204 West Eighty-third st., New York City, was born in 1843, in Massachusetts. She is the author of The Young Housekeeper and other works.

Parrent, John M., educator of Alton, Ky., was born May 28, 1859, in Alton, Ky. In 1892 he was elected county superintendent of schools.

Parrish, Albert Garrett, banker of 1016 Broad st., Selma, Ala., was born on Oct. 13, 1850, in Greensboro, Ala. He is president of the City National bank.

Parrish, Charles Henry, educator, clergyman and college president of 847 Sixth st., Louisville, Ky., was born April 18, 1859, in Lexington, Ky. He is president of the Eckstein Norton university.

Parrish, Maxfield, painter and artist of Windsor, Vt., was born July 25, 1870, in Philadelphia, Pa. He received a medal from the Pan-American exposition.

Parrish, Rob Roy, poet of Independence, Ore., was born Jan. 15, 1846, in Noble county, Ohio. He is the author of Echoes from the Vale.

Parrish, Robert Lewis, lawyer and banker of Covington, Va., was born Oct. 29, 1876, in Covington, Va. He is president of the Covington National bank.

Parrish, Stephen, painter and artist of Windsor, Vt., was born July 9, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa. He has exhibited in New York, London and many other cities.

Parrott, Joseph Robinson, railroad president of Jacksonville, Fla., was born Oct. 30, 1859, in Oxford, Maine. He has been attorney to several southern railroads; and is now president of the Florida East Coast Railway company; president of the Florida East Coast Hotel company; and president of the Peninsular and Oxidental Steamship company.

Parrott, Thomas Marc, educator and author of Princeton, N.J., was born on Dec. 22, 1866, in Dayton, Ohio. Since 1902 he has been professor of English. He is the author of Studies of a Book Lover.

Parry, David MacLean, manufacturer and business president of Indianapolis, Ind., was born March 26, 1852, in Near Pittsburgh, Pa. He is president of the Parry Manufacturing company.

Parry, John Elliott, banker of 98 Glen st., Glens Falls, N.Y., was born Feb. 8, 1858, in Port Edward, N.Y. He is cashier of the National bank of Glens Falls.

Parsell, Charles Victor, educator and college president of Ithaca, N.Y., was born on Nov. 14, 1851, in Akron, N.Y. Since 1893 he has been principal of the Cascadilla school.

Parshall, Heman Franklin, clergyman of Cass Lake, Minn., was born Sept. 27, 1867, in Faribault, Minn. In 1906 he was appointed archdeacon and superintendent of Indian missions of the diocese of Duluth.

Parshall, William W., lawyer and capitalist of Uniontown, Pa., was born on June 18, 1866, in Fayette county, Pa. He is cashier of the Franklin National bank.

Parsons, Albert Ross, musician, genealogist and author of 109 East Fourteenth st., New York City, was born Sept. 16, 1847, in Sandusky, Ohio. He is president of the American college of musicians at the university of New York. He is the author of Science of Pianoforte Practice and other works.

Parsons, Charles Baldwin, civil engineer of Red Bank, N.J., was born July 3, 1835. In 1865 he was chief engineer in the twenty-fifth army corps; in 1902-06 he was president of the New York maritime exposition; and is now a retired captain and ship broker. He is chairman of the maritime section of the navy league; and president of the yacht association.

Parsons, Charles Lathrop, chemist and author of Washington, D.C., was born March 23, 1867, in New Marlboro, Mass. He has been professor of chemistry in New Hampshire college. He is the author of Mineralogy and other works.

Parsons, Eben Burt, educator, mathematician, clergyman and author of Williamstown, Mass., was born on March 3, 1835, in Pittsfield, Mass. He is the author of Phi Betta Kappa and other works.

Parsons, Edwin, railroad president of 15 Broad st., New York City. He is president of the Oswego and Rome Railroad company.

Parsons, Ernest Victor, merchant, manufacturer and banker of St. Charles, Mich., was born Dec. 17, 1868, in Oswego county, N.Y. He is president of the St. Charles State bank; and the Wabash Manufacturing company of Wabash, Ind.

Parsons, Eugene, educator, editor and author of 1511 Nineteenth st., Denver, Col., was born June 14, 1855, in Henderson, N.Y. He has been editor of The World To-Day of Chicago, Ill. He is the author of The Making of Colorado and other works.

Parsons, Mrs. Francis Theodora, litterateur and author of 22 Elk st., Albany, N.Y., was born in 1861, in New York. She is the author of How to Know the Wild Flowers and other works.

Parsons, Frank N., lawyer and jurist of Franklin, N.H., was born Sept. 3, 1854, in Dover, N.H. Since 1902 he has been chief justice of the state supreme court.

Parsons, Frank Sears, physician and author of Dorchester, Mass., was born Dec. 21, 1862, in Northampton, Mass. He is the author of Infant Dress and Pleurisy and other works.

Parsons, George Frederic, journalist and author of New York City, was born in 1840, in England. He is the author of Life of J. W. Marshall and other work.

Parsons, Harry De Berkeley, educator, consulting engineer and author of 22 William st., New York City, was born Jan. 6, 1862, in New York City. He is the author of Steam Boilers and other works.

Parsons, Herbert, lawyer and congressman of 112 East Thirty-fifth st., New York City, was born Oct. 28, 1869, in New York City. He has been a member of congress.

Parsons, Hosmer Buckingham, banker and capitalist of 168 Lincoln place, Brooklyn, N. Y., was born Jan. 6, 1846, in Heuvelton, N. Y. He is president of the Wells Fargo company.

